Executive Management

Peter Karmanos Jr.
Chief Executive Officer / Owner / Governor

Peter Karmanos Jr., holds the dual role as the principal owner/governor and chief executive officer of the Carolina Hurricanes and as the chairman and chief executive officer of Compuware Corporation. With his partners Thomas Thewes and Jim Rutherford, Karmanos acquired the NHL franchise on June 28, 1994—the afternoon of the 1994 NHL Entry Draft. After three financially unsuccessful seasons in Hartford, Conn., and after an agreement on a new facility between the team and the state of Connecticut could not be reached, Karmanos announced he would relocate the franchise to Raleigh, NC, on May 6, 1997. There, Karmanos signed a 40-year lease with the city of Raleigh and the state.

Since their arrival in North Carolina, the Hurricanes have enjoyed tremendous all-around success. On the ice, the team has advanced to the Conference Finals three times in the last 10 seasons, capturing Eastern Conference titles in 2002 and 2006 and the Stanley Cup in 2006. Off of the ice, the Hurricanes have become a key component of the sporting landscape in North Carolina, and in 2009 were recognized as the top hockey franchise and second-ranked franchise in all of sports by ESPN in the “Ultimate Standings,” a collection of data and survey results that takes into account a team’s on-ice or on-field success, as well as its community impact and overall fan experience. The spotlight shined on the Hurricanes franchise again in January 2011, when the team and city of Raleigh earned tremendous praise for the successful 2011 NHL All-Star Weekend.

In the summer of 1998, Karmanos formed Gale Force Holdings to manage his hockey interests, which include the Carolina Hurricanes and PNC Arena; the Florida Everblades of the ECHL and Germain Arena in Ft. Myers, Fla.; and the Plymouth Whalers of the Ontario Hockey League and Compuware Arena. In the fall of 2011, a new subsidiary of Gale Force Holdings, LP, was created called Hurricanes Holdings, LLC, which features the Hurricanes and the management of PNC Arena. Since that time, 15 new investor groups have joined Karmanos in the ownership of Hurricanes Holdings, further solidifying the franchise’s financial structure.

Karmanos attended Wayne State University in Detroit. He founded Compuware in 1973 with two partners who, with Karmanos, pooled their tax return money to start the company. With 4,500 employees and fiscal year 2011 revenues of $1 billion, Compuware people and software make technology make a difference for leading organizations worldwide, including 46 of the top 50 Fortune 500 companies and 12 of the 20 most visited U.S. websites. Karmanos’ initiative and business prowess were recognized in 1989 by the Institute of American Entrepreneurs, which named him Entrepreneur of the Year. In April 1999, Karmanos ensured that his company would not lose sight of its roots when he decided to relocate more than 4,100 highly-skilled jobs from Compuware’s headquarters in Farmington Hills, Mich., to Campus Martius, a business district in the heart of downtown Detroit.

The same competitive spirit that led to Karmanos’ success as an entrepreneur also fuels his 30-year sponsorship of youth hockey programs. In Detroit, Karmanos sponsors the Plymouth Whalers (players ages 20-under), which was the first American club to play in the Ontario Hockey League. Compuware youth hockey programs, including the Plymouth Whalers, have produced many NHL stars over the years including Pat LaFontaine, Al Iafrate, Mike Modano, Eric Lindros and Kevin Hatcher. Countless youth hockey programs benefit each season through the efforts and sponsorship of Carolina Hurricanes and Compuware. In December 1997, Karmanos was chosen as one of four recipients of the Lester Patrick Award. Originating in 1966, the award is given annually to individuals who are recognized for “outstanding service to hockey in the United States.” In 2010, Karmanos received the Ontario Hockey League’s Bill Long Award, presented in recognition and appreciation of an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the OHL, and was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame.

In addition to his business and hockey interests, Karmanos is widely known for his philanthropy, particularly in the area of cancer research. In 1995, Karmanos established the Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Institute in Detroit, with donations that now total in excess of $60 million. The institute is one of only 39 in the United States granted “comprehensive cancer center” status by the National Institute of Health, and the only one of the 39 named after a woman.

A committed supporter of the Triangle area, Karmanos continues to actively run Compuware Corporation. Karmanos resides in the Detroit area with his wife Danialle, and their sons Socrates, Leonidas, Spiros and Aristides. He now has seven sons and nine grandchildren. Danialle—in addition to her ongoing work as a nationally acclaimed video producer—founded Danialle Karmanos’ Work It Out (DKWIO). A 501(c)3 organization, DKWIO fights childhood obesity by providing kids with the tools they need to make healthy choices. By helping kids achieve health in mind, body and spirit, DKWIO has touched the lives of thousands of at-risk children in the Detroit and Triangle communities.

As an award-winning writer, producer and director, in 2008 Danialle was tapped by Governor Jennifer Granholm to serve on the newly-chartered Michigan Film Office Advisory Council. In a 2010 Michigan-wide election, Danialle was elected to serve an eight-year term on the Wayne State University Board of Governors. She also works tirelessly on behalf of the Karmanos Cancer Institute, partnering with the organization to develop memorable creative content. Her creative talents also led Danialle to become a founding member, Board member and past chair of the critically-acclaimed Museum of Contemporary Art Detroit (MOCAD). She also serves on the boards of the Michigan Opera Theatre and the College for Creative Studies, and is a trustee for the Parade Company, the non-profit organization responsible for the renowned America’s Thanksgiving Parade and numerous other family-oriented events in Metropolitan Detroit.

Executive and Hockey Management

Jim Rutherford

President / General Manager

Jim Rutherford, a former National Hockey League goaltender, is the franchise's seventh general manager and the only general manager in the history of the Carolina Hurricanes. Under Rutherford, the Hurricanes have earned a 534-486-156-20 regular-season record since arriving in North Carolina prior to the 1997-98 season, including a pair of trips to the Stanley Cup Final and the first Stanley Cup Championship in franchise history in 2006. Rutherford's management efforts were recognized in 2002 and 2006, when The Hockey News named him "Executive of the Year," and in 2006 when he was voted by his NHL management peers as the Sporting News' "Executive of the Year." In 2006, he was named the Triangle's "Businessperson of the Year" by the Triangle Business Journal.

The Hurricanes captured their first Eastern Conference championship in 2002, when they defeated Toronto in the Eastern Conference Finals, and again won the Prince of Wales Trophy in 2006 when they defeated Buffalo in seven games. Rutherford brought the first major professional sports championship to North Carolina when the Hurricanes defeated Edmonton 3-1 in the deciding seventh game of the 2006 Stanley Cup Final in Raleigh. The Hurricanes have won the Southeast Division title three times, advanced to the conference finals three of the last nine seasons and established new franchise records for wins and points in a season in 2005-06.

In addition to their on-ice success, the Hurricanes also have been recognized for their impact and success in North Carolina. In 2008, the Turnkey Brand Index rated the team's brand 20th among North American professional sports teams. In 2009, the Hurricanes were recognized as the top hockey franchise and second-ranked franchise in all of sports by ESPN in the "Ultimate Standings," a collection of data and survey results that takes into account a team's on-ice or on-field success as well as its community impact and overall fan experience. An important part of that impact on the Triangle has been the major events that the franchise has attracted to the area. Rutherford spearheaded the efforts to bring the 2004 NHL Entry Draft and the 2011 NHL All-Star Game to Raleigh, both of which were deemed as tremendous successes in both the local and international media.

Rutherford has stocked the current club with bright, young talent through the Draft, free agency and trades, to go along with a base of veteran leadership. He has a proven history of success in the NHL Draft. Selections like Eric Staal, Cam Ward, Jeff Skinner, Justin Faulk and Jamie McBain help to form the core of the current team, while prospects like Zach Boychuk, Zac Dalpe, Drayson Bowman and Ryan Murphy will play integral roles in the team's future. Rutherford also acquired several key members of the current team through trades and free agency, including forwards Jordan Staal, Alexander Semin, Tuomo Ruutu, Jiri Tlustý and Chad LaRose and defensemen Tim Gleason and Joni Pitkanen.

Rutherford completed in his 19th year as general manager in 2012-13, making him the longest-tenured general manager in franchise history and the second-longest tenured general manager currently serving in the NHL. As president of the Hurricanes, Rutherford oversees the operation of the Hurricanes, the Florida Everblades (ECHL) and the Plymouth Whalers (OHL). He was originally named the team's president and general manager when the KTR Partnership—the ownership group comprised of Peter Karmanos Jr., Thomas Thewes and Rutherford—purchased the Hartford Whalers on June 28, 1994. In Nov. 2011, the Hurricanes announced that Rutherford was part of a new group of investors who were taking ownership stakes in the team.

A veteran of 13 NHL seasons, Rutherford began his professional goaltending career in 1969 as a first-round selection of the Detroit Red Wings. While playing for Pittsburgh, Toronto, Los Angeles and Detroit, Rutherford appeared in 457 games and collected 14 career shutouts. For five seasons he also served as the Red Wings' player representative. Rutherford played for Team Canada in the World Championships in Vienna in 1977 and Moscow in 1979.

At the conclusion of his playing career, Rutherford joined Compuware to serve as director of hockey operations for Compuware Sports Corporation. Originally hired in September 1983, he is beginning his 29th season with the Compuware hockey family. With Compuware Sports Corporation in the 1980s, Rutherford gained a wealth of experience in youth hockey and junior programs. He started his management career by guiding Compuware Sports Corporation's purchase of the Windsor Spitfires of the Ontario Hockey League in April 1984. During the next four years, Rutherford acted as general manager of the Spitfires. In 1988, the Spitfires advanced to the Memorial Cup Finals with a perfect 12-0 run to the OHL Championship. The following season, he led Compuware's efforts to bring the first American-based OHL franchise to Detroit on Dec. 11, 1989. Rutherford received the 1987 "Executive of the Year" award in both the OHL and the CHL, and won the OHL "Executive of the Year" award again in 1988. In 2009, he was recognized by the Ontario Minor Hockey Association (OMHA) as the "All-Time Executive" on its "All-Time Great Team," which also included forwards Wayne Gretzky, Doug Gilmour and Syl Apps, defensemen Bobby Orr and Rob Blake, goaltender Curtis Joseph and coach Roger Neilson.

Jim and his wife, Leslie, live in North Raleigh with their son James. Jim's daughter Andrea also lives in Raleigh and teaches visually impaired/blind students for Wake County schools. In addition to his work with the team, Jim serves on the NHL's Competition Committee and the Board of Directors for Brier Creek Country Club.

Executive Management

Jason Karmanos

Executive Vice President/Assistant General Manager

Jason Karmanos completes his 15th year in the hockey operations department for the Carolina Hurricanes. Karmanos rejoined the organization in June 2008 as executive director of hockey operations and returned to his role as vice president and assistant general manager in December 2009. He works with President/General Manager Jim Rutherford and Director of Hockey Operations Ron Francis in player evaluations, contract negotiations and player movements. His other responsibilities include overseeing the day-to-day operations of the hockey club and the Hurricanes' minor-league affiliates in the AHL and ECHL. Karmanos served as the team's vice president and assistant general manager from 1998-2007 and was in that role when the Hurricanes captured the Stanley Cup in 2006, marking the first championship of his career.

Karmanos played hockey collegiately for Harvard University, graduating in 1996. He attended the Pittsburgh Penguins' training camp upon the conclusion of his collegiate career, but had his professional career cut short when he suffered an eye injury while playing for the Raleigh Ice Caps during the 1996-97 season. Upon his retirement from hockey, Karmanos worked for an investment bank located in Boston.

Jason and his wife, Christy, reside in Wake Forest and have four daughters, Ella, Kayla, Anna and Lila.

Ron Francis

Vice President of Hockey Operations

Ron Francis completes his seventh season in management for the Carolina Hurricanes, after being promoted to vice president of hockey operations in June 2012. As vice president of hockey operations, Francis works directly with General Manager Jim Rutherford on all hockey-related matters. In addition to his hockey operations duties, Francis also serves as one of the teams' alternate governors.

Following a career in which he established himself as the greatest player in Hurricanes franchise history, Francis re-joined the organization in November 2006 as the team's director of player development. He was promoted to assistant general manager on Oct. 4, 2007, but returned to the team's locker room on Dec. 3, 2008, when he joined new Head Coach Paul Maurice behind the bench as associate head coach. While serving as a coach, Francis maintained a voice in the Hurricanes' front office decision-making, serving as the team's director of player personnel. He returned to the front office full-time in June 2011, accepting the role of director of hockey operations.

Francis announced his retirement on Sept. 14, 2005, following a 23-year NHL career with Hartford, Pittsburgh, Carolina and Toronto. In 1,731 NHL regular-season games, Francis scored 549 goals and earned 1,249 assists (1,798 points), to rank him fourth all-time on the league's points list behind Wayne Gretzky, Mark Messier and Gordie Howe. Francis' 1,249 assists rank second only to Gretzky (1,963), and he ranks third on the games-played list behind Howe (1,767) and Messier (1,756).

The Hartford Whalers drafted Francis in the first round, fourth overall, in the 1981 NHL Entry Draft. Francis played with the Whalers for 10 seasons before joining Pittsburgh at the trading deadline of the 1990-91 season. He spent seven full seasons with the Penguins before rejoining the organization that drafted him, when the relocated Carolina Hurricanes signed him as a free agent on July 13, 1998. In 16 seasons with the Hartford/Carolina franchise, Francis played in 1,186 games, scoring 382 goals and earning 793 assists for 1,175 points -- all of which are franchise records. The Hurricanes officially retired Francis' No. 10 jersey to the arena's rafters on Jan. 28, 2006, and on Nov. 12, 2007, Francis was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame.

During his playing career, Francis played in four NHL All-Star games, and he won the Lady Byng Trophy (sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct) three times (1995, 1998, 2002), the Frank J. Selke Trophy (best defensive forward) once (1995) and the King Clancy Memorial Trophy (leadership/humanitarian/community work) once (2002). He also won the Alka-Seltzer Plus Award in 1995, when he led the NHL in plus/minus, and was a key member of the Penguins' Stanley Cup-winning teams in 1991 and 1992. The impact Francis had for the sport of hockey in North Carolina was further recognized on May 2, 2013, when he became the first hockey player inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame.

Ron and his wife, Mary Lou, have a daughter, Kaitlyn, and two sons, Michael and Connor. They reside in Raleigh.

Executive and Hockey Management

Mike Amendola

Executive Vice President / Chief Financial Officer

Mike Amendola completes his 32nd year with the franchise, making him the longest-tenured front office employee in the Carolina Hurricanes organization. As executive vice president and chief financial officer, he is responsible for all financial, sales, human resources and information technology areas for the Carolina Hurricanes and PNC Arena. In addition, Amendola also oversees the financial operations of the other entities of Gale Force Holdings, which include the Florida Everblades, Germain Arena, Plymouth Whalers and Compuware Arena.

Amendola first joined the organization in 1981, and previously held the titles of senior accountant, controller, treasurer and vice president of finance and administration. On July 18, 2005, he was named an alternate governor, giving him the ability to represent the club at NHL Board of Governors meetings.

Amendola received an undergraduate degree in business and economics from Lehigh University in 1976, and an advanced degree in accounting from the University of Miami in 1979. He is a member of the American Institute of C.P.A.s, the North Carolina Association of C.P.A.s and the Connecticut Society of C.P.A.s.

Amendola and his wife, Roberta, have two children, Michael Jr. and Chiara.

Davin Olsen

Executive Vice President / General Manager, PNC Arena

Davin Olsen completes his 16th year with the franchise. Olsen oversees the daily operations and functions held at PNC Arena. He contracts, schedules and coordinates all logistical and technical aspects of events that take place at the arena.

While he is based in Raleigh, Olsen also consults on other Gale Force Holdings ventures, including Germain Arena in Ft. Myers, Fla., and Compuware Arena in Plymouth, Mich. Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Olsen served as the director of recreational facilities at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. With more than 25 years of experience in arena management, Olsen has also administered the New Haven Coliseum, the Hartford Civic Center and UNC Charlotte.

Olsen resides in Apex. He has two sons: Davin (20) and Jason (16).

Brian Tatum

Vice President of Team Operations

Brian Tatum completes his 15th year with the Hurricanes. He was named vice president of team operations during the summer of 2012, after five years as senior director of team operations. As vice president of team operations, Tatum oversees the hockey operations and media relations departments, managing all of the responsibilities of the players, coaches and hockey staff in those areas, as well as continuing the roles he filled as the team services manager. Tatum served as the Hurricanes' team services manager from 2000-2006, and was responsible for the coordination of all of the team's travel, including accommodations, transportation and catering.

Before joining the team's hockey staff, Tatum served as the Hurricanes' ticket sales manager. He joined the organization in 1997 after earning a master's degree in sports management from North Carolina State University. Tatum earned his undergraduate degree from UNC-Wilmington, where he was an infielder on the Seahawks' baseball team.

Tatum was raised in Raleigh and was a standout baseball and basketball player at Broughton High School. He and his wife, Liz, reside in Raleigh.

Executive and Hockey Management

Cory Stillman Director of Forwards Development

Cory Stillman completes his first season with the Hurricanes in the position of director of forwards development, previously held by Rod Brind'Amour. Stillman, 38, retired as a player in September 2011 after 16 NHL seasons, and spent the 2011-12 season working as player development assistant for the Florida Panthers.

A first-round selection (6th overall) of the Calgary Flames in the 1992 NHL Entry Draft, Stillman totaled 278 goals and 449 assists (727 points) in 1,025 career games with the Calgary Flames, St. Louis Blues, Tampa Bay Lightning, Carolina Hurricanes, Ottawa Senators and Florida Panthers. He scored 52 goals and added 113 assists (165 points) in 191 games during two stints with the Hurricanes from 2005-2008 and in 2011. He was second among Hurricanes in scoring during the team's run to the 2006 Stanley Cup championship, notching 26 points (9g, 17a) in 25 games, and netting the series-clinching, overtime goal in the first round against the Montreal Canadiens. Stillman also won the Stanley Cup as a member of the Lightning in 2004, and the 2006 title made him the sixth player in NHL history to win the Stanley Cup in consecutive seasons with two different teams.

Stillman and his wife, Mara, have three children: Riley, Madison and Chase.

Glen Wesley Director of Defensemen Development

Glen Wesley completes his fifth year as the Hurricanes' director of defensemen development. Wesley officially retired from hockey on June 5, 2008, following a career of more than 20 NHL seasons. As director of defensemen development, Wesley is responsible for working with all defensemen in the Hurricanes system, including drafted players in the Canadian major-junior hockey leagues, ECHL and American Hockey League (AHL).

Originally drafted third overall in the 1987 NHL Entry Draft by the Boston Bruins, Wesley completed his playing career ranked sixth on the NHL's all-time list of games played by a defenseman, skating in 1,457 total games over 20 seasons with Boston, Hartford, Toronto and Carolina. The Red Deer, Alb., native debuted with Boston straight out of junior hockey in his draft year, and was named to the NHL All-Rookie Team after earning 37 points (7g, 30a) and leading all rookies with a plus-21 plus/minus rating. Wesley played in the NHL All-Star Game in 1989, and completed his career with 128 goals, 409 assists (537 points) and 1,045 penalty minutes. He appeared in the Stanley Cup Final four times, reaching the championship series with Boston in 1988 and 1990, and with Carolina in 2002 and 2006, capturing the Stanley Cup with the Hurricanes in 2006.

The Hartford Whalers acquired Wesley on Aug. 25, 1994, in exchange for first-round draft picks in 1995 (Kyle McLaren), 1996 (Jonathan Aitken) and 1997 (Sergei Samsonov). Wesley went on to play 13 seasons for the franchise, and, prior to his retirement, he was the only player to have played for the Hurricanes in every season since the team relocated to North Carolina in 1997. He played more games (913) for the Hurricanes franchise than any player in team history other than Ron Francis, and his 728 games played for the Hurricanes are the most by any player in a Carolina uniform. Wesley totaled 227 points (51g, 176a) for the Whalers and Hurricanes, and the Hurricanes officially retired his No. 2 jersey to the rafters on Feb. 17, 2009.

Glen and his wife, Barb, have a daughter, Amanda, and two sons, Josh and Matthew.

Kirk Muller

Head Coach

Kirk Muller, 47, completes his second season as head coach of the Carolina Hurricanes, and has a career record of 44-45-16. Muller, who was named head coach of the Carolina Hurricanes on Nov. 28, 2011, is the 12th person to serve as head coach in franchise history, and the third since the team relocated to North Carolina in 1997.

This marks Muller's first head coaching position in the NHL; he previously served as a head coach for the Milwaukee Admirals in the American Hockey League (AHL). The Kingston, Ont., native had a record of 10-6-0 with Milwaukee during the 2011-12, after taking the job as head coach for the Nashville Predators' top minor-league affiliate in July 2011.

Prior to joining the Admirals, Muller spent five seasons as an assistant coach with the Montreal Canadiens, helping the Habs reach the playoffs four consecutive seasons, including a trip to the Eastern Conference Finals in 2010. During his second season behind the bench in 2007-08, Montreal went 47-25-10 (105 points), marking its best record since 1988-89. Muller worked extensively with the Habs' penalty killing unit throughout his tenure in Montreal, helping it finish in the top half of the League in each season under his watch, including a seventh-place ranking in 2010-11 and a perfect 21-for-21 performance during the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

Prior to joining the Canadiens on June 20, 2006, Muller spent one season as head coach with the Queen's University Golden Gaels in his hometown of Kingston. He also served as an assistant coach for Canada at the 2005 Lotto Cup and the 2006 Under-18 World Championship. Muller added to his international resume by serving as assistant coach for Canada at the 2012 IIHF World Championship.

As a player, Muller totaled 357 goals and 602 assists (959 points) in 1,349 career NHL games over 19 seasons with the New Jersey Devils, Montreal Canadiens, New York Islanders, Toronto Maple Leafs, Florida Panthers and Dallas Stars from 1984-2003. He skated in 127 career Stanley Cup playoff games, totaling 69 points (33g, 36a), including the Stanley Cup-clinching goal for the Canadiens in the 1993 Stanley Cup Final. He also reached the Final with Dallas in 2000, when the Stars fell to New Jersey.

A six-time NHL All-Star (1985, 1986, 1988, 1990, 1992, 1993), Muller posted 30-or-more goals five times in his career, 20-or-more goals nine times, and had seven 70-point seasons. He established career highs with New Jersey in 1987-88 and Montreal in 1992-93, totaling 37 goals, 57 assists and 94 points in each of those seasons. Muller served as captain for both the Devils (1989-91) and the Canadiens (1994-95).

Prior to turning professional, Muller played junior hockey in the Ontario Hockey League (OHL) for Kingston and Guelph, and represented Canada at the 1984 Olympic Games. He made his NHL debut for New Jersey straight out of junior hockey in 1984, after the Devils selected him second overall in the 1984 NHL Entry Draft, behind only Mario Lemieux. In addition to the 1984 Olympics, Muller also represented Canada at four World Championships (1985, 1986, 1987, 1989) and at the 1984 World Junior Championship.

Muller and his wife, Stacey, have four daughters – twins Brittney and Kourtney, Bryelle and Kira.

Dave Lewis

Assistant Coach

Dave Lewis, 59, completes his second season as assistant coach for the Carolina Hurricanes. The 2012-13 season marked his 21st season as a coach in the National Hockey League, as Lewis previously worked behind the bench for Detroit, Boston and Los Angeles. He served as the head coach for Detroit (2002-2004) and Boston (2006-07), compiling a career record of 135-83-33 as a head coach (includes five games as co-coach with Detroit in 1998-99).

Lewis began his coaching career immediately after his retirement as a player in November 1987, when he was named as an assistant coach for the Detroit Red Wings. The Kindersley, Sask., native served in that position until being promoted to associate coach prior to the 1995-96 season. As associate coach, he worked under three head coaches over 15 years – Jacques Demers, Bryan Murray and Scotty Bowman – capturing the Stanley Cup championship three times (1997, 1998, 2002).

Lewis was named the Red Wings' head coach on July 17, 2002, following Bowman's retirement. In two seasons, he led Detroit to a pair of 48-win and 100-point seasons, as well as two Central Division titles. His team won the President's Trophy in 2003-04, finishing with the NHL's top regular-season record at 48-21-11-2 (109 points). Following the NHL's work stoppage in 2004-05, Lewis was replaced as head coach, and he served as a professional scout for the Red Wings during the 2005-06 season. On June 29, 2006, Lewis became the 27th head coach in the history of the Boston Bruins. He compiled a 35-41-6 record with the Bruins before joining the Los Angeles Kings as an assistant coach in 2007-08.

Lewis played 15 NHL seasons between 1973 and 1988, totaling 36 goals and 187 assists (223 points) in 1,008 games as a defenseman with the New York Islanders, Los Angeles Kings, New Jersey Devils and Detroit Red Wings. He skated in 91 career Stanley Cup playoff games, earning 21 points (1g, 20a) and 143 penalty minutes.

John MacLean

Assistant Coach

John MacLean, 48, completes his second season as assistant coach for the Carolina Hurricanes. Prior to joining the Hurricanes, the Oshawa, Ont., native spent nine seasons as a coach in the New Jersey Devils organization, including seven years as an assistant coach. MacLean served as head coach of the Lowell Devils of the American Hockey League (AHL) in 2009-10, leading the Devils affiliate to its best-ever record and first-ever playoff berth. He was named head coach for the New Jersey Devils prior to the 2010-11 season, but was replaced 33 games into his first season as an NHL head coach.

Drafted by New Jersey sixth overall in the 1983 NHL Entry Draft, MacLean played 19 NHL seasons with the Devils, Sharks, Rangers and Stars, totaling 413 goals, 429 assists (842 points) and 1,328 penalty minutes in 1,194 career NHL games. A two-time NHL All-Star (1989, 1991), he won the Stanley Cup with the Devils in 1995, and totaled 83 points (35g, 48a) and 152 penalty minutes in 104 career Stanley Cup playoff games.

MacLean is the Devils' all-time franchise leader with 347 goals, and ranks second in New Jersey franchise history with 701 points. He was a teammate of current Hurricanes Head Coach Kirk Muller with New Jersey and Dallas, as well as with Canada at the 1984 World Junior Championship and the 1989 IIHF World Championship.

Greg Stefan

Goaltending Coach

Greg Stefan, 52, completes his fourth season on the Hurricanes coaching staff. Stefan returned to the coaches' room as goaltending coach in 2012-13, after serving as a pro scout for the organization in 2011-12. Stefan previously served as goaltending coach and pro scout for the Hurricanes for three seasons from 2005-2008, winning his first Stanley Cup Championship with the team in 2006.

Originally from Brantford, Ont., Stefan was selected by the Detroit Red Wings in the 1981 NHL Entry Draft. He went on to play nine seasons as a goaltender in the NHL, compiling a career record of 115-127-30 with a 3.92 goals-against average for Detroit before suffering a career-ending knee injury in a game against Edmonton on Nov. 25, 1989. Stefan began his coaching career in 1993 as an assistant coach for the Detroit Jr. Red Wings, who later became the Plymouth Whalers. He served as assistant coach for the team through 1998, and then rejoined the team in 2003 as assistant coach and director of player development.

Chris Huffine

Video Coach

Chris Huffine completes his 13th season as the team's full-time video coach. Prior to joining the team full time, he spent two seasons as a part-time video coordinator with the club, handling video breakdown during home games in Greensboro and taping future opponents during the 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons. Huffine is now responsible for all pre-scouting of future opponents. He works closely with the coaching staff, putting together scouting reports for individual players as well as the team. His work includes breaking down the other teams' systems and tendencies, including forecheck, power plays and penalty kills, and putting together meetings for the coaches to inform the players. In addition to preparing for the opponent, he also breaks down games as they happen on a laptop editing system so that coaches and players have access to the information immediately during and after the game.

Before joining the Hurricanes, Huffine served as the video coordinator for the Greensboro Monarchs for five seasons from 1990-1997. In addition to being a member of the 2005-06 Stanley Cup Champions, he was also chosen to represent USA Hockey as the video coach for the 2006 Mens Olympic Team in Turin, Italy. Chris and his wife, Heather, reside in Raleigh, with their sons, Samuel and Jacob.

2012-13 Hurricanes Team Notes

ELLIS NOMINATED FOR MASTERTON TROPHY

The Carolina chapter of the Professional Hockey Writers' Association named goaltender Dan Ellis as its nominee for the 2012-13 Bill Masterton Trophy. The Masterton Trophy is awarded annually to the NHL player best exemplifying the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey. The winner is selected from a poll of the 30 chapters of the PHWA at the end of the regular season and a $2,500 grant from the PHWA is awarded annually to the Bill Masterton Scholarship Fund, based in Bloomington, Minn., in the name of the winner.

Ellis, 32, finished the 2012-13 season with a 6-8-2 record, a 3.13 goals-against average and a .906 save percentage in 19 games played with Carolina. The veteran netminder began the season on a professional tryout with the Hurricanes' American Hockey League affiliate, the Charlotte Checkers, and posted a 2.46 goal-against average and a .922 save percentage in 18 AHL games before signing a one-year contract with the Hurricanes on Jan. 13.

Originally selected by the Dallas Stars in the second round, 60th overall, in the 2000 NHL Entry Draft, Ellis is 78-65-17 with a 2.73 goals-against average and a .908 save percentage in 184 career regular-season games with Dallas, Nashville, Tampa Bay, Anaheim and Carolina.

The PHWA presented the Masterton Trophy in 1968 to commemorate Bill Masterton, a player with the Minnesota North Stars, who exhibited to a high degree the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey. He died Jan. 15, 1968.

STAAL NOMINATED FOR KING CLANCY TROPHY

A poll of his teammates resulted in a nomination for Hurricanes captain Eric Staal for the 2012-13 King Clancy Memorial Trophy. The King Clancy Trophy is awarded annually to the NHL player who best exemplifies leadership qualities on and off the ice and has made a noteworthy humanitarian contribution in his community. It is the third time Staal has been nominated for this honor.

This season, Staal celebrated the fifth year of his "Eric's Entourage" program, in which he purchases a luxury suite – fully equipped with food, snacks and drinks – for each Hurricanes home game, and donates it to local children's charities. The children attending the games become members of "Eric's Entourage," and receive a goody bag that includes an "Eric's Entourage" t-shirt signed by Staal. Throughout the season, several of the groups using the suite visit Eric after games for meet-and-greets. Among the charities benefiting from the "Eric's Entourage" program this season were the Boys and Girls Club of Wake County, the Masonic Home for Children, USO of North Carolina, Meg's Smile Foundation, Horizons Grief Center and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Along with the "Eric's Entourage" program, Staal is an integral part of the Kids N' Community Foundation's fundraising events. He is one of the team's most-requested players at the Foundation's golf tournament, and fans gather around him in droves at annual Foundation events like Casino Night and Wine Tasting, and the popular Skate with the Canes event.

THE CAPTAIN LEADS THE WAY

Hurricanes captain Eric Staal led the team in assists (35) and points (53) in 2012-13, and ranked second among Carolina skaters in goals (18) while playing in all 48 games. Staal ranked sixth among all NHL players in scoring, marking his career-high league ranking for points in a season. It marked the fourth time in his nine NHL seasons that he averaged a point-per-game or better, and just the third time since the team's relocation in 1997 that a Carolina player has finished in the top 10 in league scoring (Staal - seventh with 100 points in 2005-06; Ron Francis - tied for ninth with 77 points in 2001-02).

Staal earned his first point of the season in the team's third game when he notched his first of three goals on Jan. 24 against the Buffalo Sabres in a 6-3 Hurricanes win at PNC Arena. The hat trick was Staal's franchise-best 13th, and the first of his three goals that night moved him past Kevin Dineen (250) and into second place on the franchise's goal-scoring list. That game also kicked off an 11-game point streak for Staal, who scored eight goals and earned nine assists (17 points) as the team went 8-2-1 from Jan. 24-Feb. 14.

The Thunder Bay, Ont., native earned his 600th NHL/Hurricanes point with his first of three assists in Carolina's 4-3 win on March 5 against Buffalo at PNC Arena. On March 28 at Toronto, Staal passed Jeff O'Neill and moved into fifth place on the franchise's all-time games played list when he played in his 674th career game. That same night, he extended his franchise-best mark when he notched his 14th career shorthanded goal.

Staal has scored 268 goals and earned 359 assists (627 points) in 690 NHL regular-season games since being drafted by the Hurricanes' with the second overall pick in 2003.

FROM RUSSIA WITH LOVE

Hurricanes winger Alexander Semin finished his first season in Carolina ranked second on the team in assists (31), points (44) and plus/minus (+14), and his 13 goals were tied for third on the team. The Krasnojarsk, Russia, native's nine power-play points ranked tied for first on the team, his four power-play goals ranked tied for second on the team and his five power-play assists ranked tied for third on the team.

Semin signed with Carolina as a free agent on July 26, 2012, after spending his first seven NHL seasons with the Washington Capitals. He spent the vast majority of the season on a line with captain Eric Staal, and the Hurricanes' leading goal scorer in 2012-13, Jiri Tlustý. That trio combined for 135 points, including 54 of the team's 127 goals (42.5%).

Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Semin scored 197 goals in 469 career regular-season games with Washington, ranking fifth in Capitals' history in goal scoring. In eight NHL seasons, he has scored 210 goals, earned 242 assists (452 points) and has a career plus-79 plus/minus rating in 513 regular-season games. Semin signed a five-year contract extension with Carolina on March 25, 2013.

UNCLE JORDAN COMES TO RALEIGH

Hurricanes center and alternate captain Jordan Staal completed his first season in Carolina ranked third on the team in assists (21), fourth in points (31) and fifth on the team in goals (10). The Thunder Bay, Ont., native's six power-play assists ranked tied for first on the team with his brother, Hurricanes captain Eric Staal.

Jordan Staal, 24, joined the Hurricanes via a draft-day trade with Pittsburgh on June 22, 2012, and signed a 10-year contract extension with Carolina on July 1, 2012. He has scored 130 goals and earned 149 assists (279 points) in 479 career NHL regular-season games with Pittsburgh and Carolina since being selected second overall by the Penguins in the 2006 NHL Entry Draft. He captured the Stanley Cup with Pittsburgh in 2009.

A FLURRY OF JIRI

Winger Jiri Tlustý led the Hurricanes in goals (23) and plus/minus (+15) in 2012-13, finishing the season tied for fifth in the NHL in goals. It marked just the second time since the team's relocation in 1997 that a Hurricanes player finished in the top five in NHL goal scoring.

Despite the shortened season, the Slany, Czech Republic, native's 23 goals and 38 points marked NHL career highs. If his numbers were to be prorated for a typical season, it would equate to 39 goals and 65 points in 82 games.

The 2012-13 season marked Tlustý's fourth with the Hurricanes since being acquired from Toronto on Dec. 3, 2009. In 276 career NHL regular-season games with Toronto and Carolina, Tlustý has notched 57 goals and earned 55 assists (112 points).

NET LOSS

Goaltender Cam Ward suffered a season-ending, third-degree sprain of the medial collateral ligament (MCL) in his left knee on March 3 at Florida. Despite the injury, the Saskatoon, Sask., native earned the win in that game and finished the season with a 9-6-1 record, a 2.84 goals-against average and a .908 save percentage in 17 games played. Following Ward's injury, the Hurricanes went 7-17-3 from March 5-April 27, and went from giving up an average of 2.81 goals per game in their first 21 games, to giving up an average of 3.70 goals per game in their final 27 games.

Ward is the Hurricanes franchise's all-time winningest goaltender, having posted a 214-155-47 record in a franchise-best 431 career regular-season games. He also ranks first in franchise history with 21 career shutouts.

SEVEN CANES GO TO WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

Upon the conclusion of the 2012-13 NHL season, seven Hurricanes players accepted invitations to represent their home countries at the 2013 International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) World Championship, from May 3-19 in Helsinki, Finland, and Stockholm, Sweden. Eric Staal, Jordan Staal, Jay Harrison and Jeff Skinner will represent Canada at the tournament, Justin Faulk and Jamie McBain will represent the United States and Jiri Tlustý will play for the Czech Republic.

2012-13 Hurricanes Team Notes

SHOOTING GALLERY

The Carolina Hurricanes finished the 2012-13 season ranked third in the NHL in shots on goal, averaging 32.2 shots per game. It marked the seventh time in the last eight seasons that the Hurricanes averaged more than 30 shots per game, and was Carolina's highest finish in the league rankings since finishing second in shots in 2007-08.

Forward Jeff Skinner led the Hurricanes in shots on goal in 2012-13 with 159. Skinner's 3.8 average shots per game ranked tied for fifth in the NHL, and his overall shots total ranked 11th. Carolina's leading goal scorer Jiri Tlustý ranked first on the team and tied for seventh in the NHL in shooting percentage, converting 19.7 percent of his 117 shots. He had the highest shooting percentage of any NHL player with 20-or-more goals.

'CANES GO STREAKING

Hurricanes captain Eric Staal led the NHL with the league's longest points streak in 2012-13, earning points in 11 consecutive games from Jan. 24-Feb. 14 (8g, 9a). Carolina posted an 8-2-1 record during Staal's league-best streak.

Jiri Tlustý, the Hurricanes' leading goal scorer in 2012-13, posted an eight-game points streak, which tied for seventh-longest in the NHL. Tlustý notched six goals and earned five assists during his streak that went from April 13-27.

MURPHY MAKES NHL DEBUT

The Hurricanes recalled defenseman Ryan Murphy from the Kitchener Rangers of the Ontario Hockey League (OHL) on an emergency basis on Feb. 21. Carolina's 2011 first-round (12th overall) draft pick made his NHL debut that night at PNC Arena against the Winnipeg Jets, skating 23:51 of ice time. In Carolina's next game, the then 19-year-old led all players by logging 25:27 of ice time.

Murphy re-joined Kitchener after four games with Carolina and finished his final season of junior hockey ranked ninth among OHL defensemen with 48 points (10g, 38a) in 54 games. Following the OHL playoffs, the Aurora, Ont., native joined Carolina's American Hockey League affiliate, the Charlotte Checkers, and earned two assists in his first three AHL regular-season games, and another two assists in Charlotte's five postseason games.

GLEASON'S GAMES-PLAYED STREAK ENDS

Hurricanes defenseman Tim Gleason carried a 164 consecutive games-played streak into 2012-13, and extended it to 176 games before missing the team's game on Feb. 14 against Toronto. Gleason's streak ranks seventh on the team's consecutive games-played list since its relocation in 1997.

Captain Eric Staal recorded the Hurricanes' (since relocation) longest games-played streak when he played in all 349 of the team's regular-season games from March 20, 2004 through Nov. 1, 2009. Staal's mark is second in franchise history to Dave Tippett who played in 419 consecutive games for the Hartford Whalers from March 3, 1984 through Oct. 7, 1989. Staal holds the Hurricanes' longest active games-played streak at 149 consecutive games, dating back to March 1, 2011.

Six players made their NHL debuts with the Hurricanes during the 2012-13 season, marking the highest number of players to make their NHL debuts for the team since seven did so in 2008-09. Players making their NHL debuts in 2012-13 were Nicolas Blanchard, Brett Bellemore, Michal Jordan, Ryan Murphy, Jared Staal and Chris Terry.

2012-13 Hurricanes Team Notes

STAAL IN THE FAMILY

Hurricanes forward Jared Staal made his NHL debut on April 25 at PNC Arena as Carolina hosted the New York Rangers. Jared started his first NHL game on a line with his older brothers, Hurricanes centers Eric Staal and Jordan Staal. The Staals became just the fourth set of three brothers to play on one team in the same season in NHL history (Max, Doug and Reggie Bentley: 1942-43 Chicago Blackhawks; Bob, Barclay and Bill Plager: 1968-69 to 1971-72 St. Louis Blues; Peter, Anton and Marian Stastny: 1981-82 to 1984-85 Quebec Nordiques).

MULLER COACHES 100TH GAME

Hurricanes Head Coach Kirk Muller coached his 100th NHL/Hurricanes game on April 18 at Winnipeg. He completed his second season as Carolina's head coach in 2012-13, and now posts a 44-45-16 career NHL coaching record.

Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Muller served as head coach of the Milwaukee Admirals - the American Hockey League affiliate of the Nashville Predators - to start the 2011-12 season. Muller was an assistant coach with the Montreal Canadiens for five seasons from 2006-07 through 2010-11 before accepting his first head coaching job with Milwaukee.

IT STAAL HAPPENED SO FAST

Brothers Eric Staal and Jordan Staal scored two goals in a 45-second span in the second period of the Hurricanes' 4-2 win at the NY Islanders on Feb. 24. Eric scored a power-play goal at 18:28 of the second period to cut the Islanders' lead to 2-1 and Jordan tied the game 2-2 with an even-strength tally at 19:13 of the second period. Later in the game, Jordan collected an assist on Bobby Sanguinetti's eventual game-winner in the third period.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Staals were the first pair of brothers to score goals within 60 seconds of each other in an NHL game since Feb. 27, 1990, when the Minnesota North Stars' Neal and Aaron Broten scored goals 55 seconds apart in the third period of a game against the Winnipeg Jets. Before the Staals, the last pair of brothers to score goals no more than 45 seconds apart in an NHL game were Peter and Anton Stastny for the Quebec Nordiques, who scored 33 seconds apart on March 18, 1989 against the NY Rangers.

WARD-BRODEUR STREAK ENDS

The Hurricanes hosted the New Jersey Devils at PNC Arena on March 9, but two notable figures in the teams' rivalry were missing from the game's roster. Carolina netminder Cam Ward (third degree MCL sprain) and New Jersey goaltender Martin Brodeur (sore back) missed that night's game, giving Dan Ellis and Johan Hedberg the starts for their respective teams.

It marked the first time in 69 consecutive games (45 regular season, 24 playoffs) that the Hurricanes and Devils met with neither Ward nor Brodeur starting in net. The last time neither Ward nor Brodeur started for their respective team in the Carolina-New Jersey rivalry was March 21, 2000, when Arturs Irbe recorded a 22-save shutout in a 5-0 Canes win at New Jersey. Chris Terreri started that game for the Devils and made 32 saves in the loss.

BACK IN BLACK

The Hurricanes wore their black jerseys seven times in 2012-13, and posted a 2-5-0 record when wearing their third jerseys. The team's April 21 game at Tampa Bay marked the first time the team had worn the jerseys on the road since the jerseys' first season in 2008-09. The Hurricanes have gone 36-22-6 all-time when wearing the third jersey. Full 2012-13 alternate jersey results are below.

DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT	DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT
Feb. 23	Tampa Bay	L, 2-5	March 26	Winnipeg	L, 1-4
March 2	Florida	W, 6-2	April 6	NY Rangers	L, 1-4
March 7	Montreal	L, 2-4	April 21	at Tampa Bay	W, 3-2

HATS OFF!

Hurricanes 2012-13 leading goal scorer Jiri Tlustý notched his first NHL hat trick on April 2 at PNC Arena in a 5-3 loss against the Washington Capitals. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the last time a Carolina franchise player registered a hat trick in a loss was Jan. 31, 1997, when Jeff O'Neill scored three goals in a 6-3 Hartford Whalers loss at Anaheim. Tlustý's third goal of his hat trick marked his 100th NHL point.

Captain Eric Staal was the only other Hurricanes player to have a hat trick in 2012-13. Staal earned his franchise-best 13th career hat trick on Jan. 24 in Carolina's 6-3 win against Buffalo.
