TEAM OWNERSHIP

MIKE ILITCH Owner/Governor

Mike Ilitch is a proven leader in the food, sports and entertainment industries. Along with his wife, Marian, he grew one Little Caesars pizza restaurant into an international pizza chain with restaurants on four continents. Success in the pizza business for nearly six decades has allowed litch to take advantage of other business opportunities.

In 1982, he and Marian purchased the struggling Detroit Red Wings and have turned the team into a Stanley Cup champion. During the Ilitch ownership, the team has won 16 divisional championships, six Presidents' Trophies, six Campbell Bowls and four Stanley Cups. The Red Wings have played postseason hockey for 25 consecutive years – the longest active postseason streak across the four major professional sports.

Other Ilitch-owned businesses include: Blue Line Foodservice Distribution, Champion Foods, Little Caesars Pizza Kit Fundraising Program, Olympia Entertainment, Olympia Development of Michigan and Ilitch Holdings, Inc. Michael Ilitch also owns the Detroit Tigers.

MARIAN ILITCH

Owner/Secretary-Treasurer

Marian Ilitch is one of the leading entrepreneurs in the food and entertainment businesses and has been recognized as one of the most successful businesswomen in the country. Marian and her husband, Mike, grew a suburban Detroit mom-and-pop pizza business into Little Caesars, an international pizza chain with restaurants on four continents.

Marian and her husband expanded their business interests when they purchased the underperforming Detroit Red Wings in 1982. Sixteen divisional championships, six Presidents' Trophies, six Campbell Bowls and four Stanley Cups later, Detroit earned the moniker, Hockeytown, and the Red Wings have become the team to beat.

Other Ilitch-owned businesses include: Blue Line Foodservice Distribution, Champion Foods, Little Caesars Pizza Kit Fundraising Program, Olympia Entertainment, Olympia Development of Michigan and Ilitch Holdings, Inc. Marian Ilitch also owns MotorCity Casino Hotel in Detroit.

JIM DEVELLANO Senior Vice President/Alternate Governor

Jim Devellano enters his 35th season with the Detroit Red Wings and celebrates his 50th season overall in the National Hockey Legan in 2016-17. His tenure with the Red Wings matches Jack Adams, the legendary general manager credited with building the Red Wings dynasty of the 1950s, as the longest-serving employee in franchise history. Devellano continues to be a driving force behind Detroit's success, as well as a strong influence in the evolution and improvement of the league itself. Devellano can be credited with carefully building Detroit's 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008 Stanley Cup Championship teams through the Entry Draft, savvy trades and aggressive free agent acquisitions.

He choreographed the Red Wings' steady rise into the powerful club that has reached the Stanley Cup Final six times and lifted the coveted Cup in triumph four times, giving Devellano his fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh Stanley Cup rings (three with New York Islanders and four with Detroit).

Devellano was the first individual hired by owners Mike and Marian llitch after purchasing the Red Wings in June, 1982. He was the team's general manager for eight seasons before ascending to his current position as senior vice-president on July 13, 1990. An excellent judge of talent throughout his 49 years in the NHL, Devellano believes that building a solid foundation begins with a capable scouting staff and strong Entry Draft selections. Evidence of the wisdom in this plan can be seen in Devellano's first draft as Red Wings general manager when he tabbed future Hall-of-Famer Steve Yzerman in the 1983 Entry Draft to be the comerstone of the franchise.

Devellano was one of the first NHL general managers to assemble a strong European scouting staff back in 1984, a progressive move that has produced several Red Wings standouts including Russians Sergei Fedorov, Slava Kozlov, Vladimir Konstantinov and Pavel Datsyuk, and Swedes Nicklas Lidstrom, Tomas Holmstrom, Henrik Zetterberg, Johan Franzen and Niklas Kronwall.

Through the course of Devellano's tenure with the Red Wings, Detroit has participated in ten conference finals (1987, '88, '95, '96, '97, '98, '02, '07, '08, '09) and six Stanley Cup Finals (1995, '97, '98, '02, '04, '06, '08), '09, collected six Presidents' Trophies (1995, '96, '02, '04, '06, '07, '08, '09, '10, '08, '07, '

Devellano is the proud owner of 16 championship rings. His impressive collection includes: seven Stanley Cup rings (N.Y. Islanders 1980, 1981, 1982 and Detroit 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008), four Calder Cup championship rings in the American Hockey League with Adirondack (1986, 1989 and 1992) and Grand Rapids (2013), two Adams Cup championship rings in the Central Hockey League (Fort Worth 1978 and Indianapolis 1982), and one Riley Cup championship ring in the East Coast Hockey League (Toledo 1994). Devellano also added a pair of Maior League Baseball American League championship rings in 2006 and 2012 while serving as senior vicepresident of the Detroit Tigers.

In addition to his duties as senior vice-president, Devellano serves as the team's alternate on the NHL's Board of Governors.

His litany of accomplishments while in Detroit earned him induction into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

He has been instrumental in many historical decisions in the National Hockey League. In 1980, it was Devellano who campaigned to have the annual NHL Entry Draft moved from a hotel baltroom into various NHL arenas, transforming the draft into an exciting fan-friendly event for fans of all NHL teams to witness what occurs with each team as the draft takes place. Devellano was also responsible for bringing the Entry Draft to the United States for the very first time on June 13, 1987, at Joe Louis Arena. Additionally, it was at Devellano's suggestion that the NHL instituted a new overtime format beginning with the 1999-00 season that includes skating four aside as well as one point for each team following a five-minute overtime and an additional point if a team is victorious in overtime.

Having served as a teacher and mentor to numerous front office personnel over the years, Devellano's influence has reached several NHL clubs. Currently, there are three NHL general managers who have succeeded under Devellano's tutelage – Detroit General Manager Ken Holland, Steve Yzerman of the Tampa Bay Lightning and Jim Nill of the Dallas Stars.

Devellano, 73, did not play professional hockey, but rose through the ranks in various capacities in his native Toronto. Joining former Red Wings coach Scotty Bowman, he became a scout with the St. Louis Blues in 1967 when the NHL expanded from six to 12 teams. Also, it was Devellano's strong recommendation to owner Mike litch that led to Scotty Bowman's hiring by the Red Wings.

Joining the New York Islanders as a scout when that club was founded in 1972, Devellano's scouting skills helped build a team that won four consecutive Stanley Cup titles (1980-83). It was Devellano who highly recommended that Islanders GM, Bill Torrey, hire Al Arbour to coach the club. Arbour was captain of the St. Louis Blues when Devellano scouted for the franchise. The recommendation turned out better than expected as Arbour guided the Islanders to four consecutive Stanley Cup championships. In 1979-80, he became general manager of the Islanders' Indianapolis (CHL) farm club and was named Minor League Executive of the Year by The Hockey News. He returned to New York in 1981 as the Islanders' assistant general manager.

Devellano's extraordinary contributions to the cities of St. Louis, Indianapolis, New York and Detroit helped earn him the Lester Patrick Award in October, 2009, for his outstanding service to the sport of hockey in the United States. Devellano also reached the pinnacle of his profession when he was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in the Builder Category on November 8, 2010. in Toronto.

Devellano is currently a member of the International Society of Hockey Research and is part owner of the Indianapolis Indians (AAA) baseball team. He authored a book in 2008, "The Road To Hockeytown", that chronicles his more than 40 incredible years in the game of hockey.

On a personal level, in 2003 Devellano set up two private foundations supporting mostly children's charities in the United States and Canada.

Devellano is also part-owner of the Ontario Hockey League's Saginaw Spirit. He resides in Detroit and Sarasota, Florida.

KEN HOLLANDExecutive Vice President/General Manager

Ken Holland enters his 20th season as general manager of the Red Wings and his 34th year with the organization. He is arguably the most successful general manager in all of professional sports since ascending to the role. Since Holland was appointed to his current position in July 1997, the Red Wings have more wins (943) than any other franchise in the National Hockey League, including 830 regular season wins and 119 playoff victories. Under Holland's watch, the Red Wings have won three Stanley Cups (1998, 2002, '08), four Presidents' Trophies (2002, '04, '06, '08), 10 Central Division titles (1999, 2001, '02, '03, '04, '06, '07, '08, '09, '11) and five regular-season Western Conference titles (2002, '04, '06, '07, '08). Detroit has qualified for the Stanley Cup Playoffs in all 19 seasons under Holland's tutelage, and the team currently holds the longest active streak in all of professional sports with 25 consecutive postseason appearances. The Red Wings have reached 100 regular-season points 13 times in the last 15 seasons (excluding the shortened 2012-13 campaign). No other organization has had more than eight 100-point seasons in the same span, and only six teams can claim more than seven such seasons.

Holland's last 11 seasons have perhaps been his most impressive as an NHL general manager. After drastically cutting payroll to comply with the NHL's newly-instituted salary cap in 2005-06, he assembled a team that won the second-most games in Red Wings' history (58) and the Presidents' Trophy. Detroit went on to win 50, 54 and 51 games over the next three seasons to become just the third team in NHL history to record 50-or-more wins in four consecutive seasons. The team posted a 54-21-7 record in 2007-08 to capture the franchise's sixth Presidents' Trophy and 11th Stanley Cup championship, and returned to the Stanley Cup Final the following season, falling just one game short of becoming the first team to repeat as Stanley Cup champions since the Red Wings of 1997 and 1998. For his efforts, Holland was named the NHL's GM of the Decade (2000-09) by Sports Illustrated.com.

In just his second season as general manager in 1999, Holland orchestrated an amazing 24-hour period at the NHL's trade deadline that saw Detroit acquire four top-tier players in Chris Chelios, Ulf Samuelsson, Wendel Clark and Bill Ranford. While the Red Wings were unable to capture a championship that season, Holland's moves were widely regarded as both sound and aggressive, providing Detroit with the best possible chance of defending its 1998 Stanley Cup title.

Just two seasons later, Holland pulled off another flurry of free-agent signings, starting on May 24, 2001, when he signed defenseman Fredrik Olausson, a veteran of 14 NHL seasons, out of the Swiss Hockey League. Holland continued to improve the roster on July 1, when he traded forward Slava Kozlov and a first-round draft pick to the Buffalo Sabres for elite goaltender Dominik Hasek. The next day, Holland signed free-agent forward Luc Robitaille to a two-year deal, and later in the summer, Holland inked Brett Hull to a two-year contract. These four high-profile stars played integral roles in helping Detroit capture the 2002 Stanley Cuo.

The 11th GM in club history, Holland is a big proponent of team continuity and has worked diligently throughout his time at the helm to secure new contracts with many of the organization's homegrown players. In recent years, Holland has procured long-term deals with Henrik Zetterberg, Johan Franzen, Niklas Kronwalt, Justin Abdelkader and Jimmy Howard. In addition, Holland's ability to add veteran stars such as Brian Rafalski, Marian Hossa, Mike Modano, Daniel Alfredsson, and most recently, top free agents such as Mike Green, Frans Nielsen and Thomas Vanek.

Holland oversees all aspects of Detroit's hockey operations, including all matters relating to player personnel, development, contract negotiations and player movement. Due to his numerous responsibilities as GM, Holland now plays a less prominent role at the NHL Entry Draft after being the main point person during his seven years as amateur scouting director. In that capacity, he can be credited with assembling some of Detroit's best young talent, including the likes of Vyacheslav Kozlov, Darren McCarty, Chris Osgood and Martin Lapointe.

Holland, 60, was elevated to his current position in 1997. Prior to that, he handled several different front-office duties for the club over a 15-year period. Holland began his off-ice career in 1985 following a professional career as a goaltender, primarily in the American Hockey League. He started with the Wings organization as a western Canada scout, followed by seven years as amateur scouting director and three years as assistant general manager.

A native of Vernon, British Columbia, Holland played in the junior ranks for WHL's Medicine Hat Tigers in 1974-75. He was Toronto's 13th pick (188th overall) in the 1975 NHL Entry Draft, but never saw action with the Maple Leafs. Holland twice signed with NHL teams as a free agent – in 1980 with Hartford and 1983 with Detroit. He spent most of his pro career in the AHL with Binghamton, Springfield and Adriondack. He made his NHL debut in 1980-81, playing one game with Hartford followed by three games for Detroit in 1983-84. In February 1998, Holland was inducted into the Binghamton (NY) Sports Hall of Fame.

On the international stage, Holland served as associate director for Hockey Canada at the Winter Olympic Games in 2010 (Vancouver) and 2014 (Sochi). Team Canada captured the gold medal at both tournaments, putting together one of the most dominant runs in international hockey history in 2014 after never trailing in any game and surrendering just three goals against during their undefeated 6-0 tournament.

Ken and his wife, Cindi, reside in suburban Detroit and have four children: Brad, Julie, Rachel and Greg.

RYAN MARTINAssistant General Manager

Ryan Martin enters his seventh season as assistant general manager and his 12th season overall as a member of Detroit's front office. Martin is primarily responsible for collective bargaining agreement administration and compliance, salary cap management, player contract research and analysis, and salary arbitration preparation. He is also involved extensively in all facets of player contract negotiations, strategic planning and player evaluations at both the professional and amateur levels. In addition, Martin is currently in his fourth season serving as general manager of the Grand Rapids Griffins of the American Hockey League. He oversees all aspects of hockey operations for the Griffins including player personnel decisions, player development, contract negotiations and player movement.

Prior to joining the Red Wings in 2005, Martin practiced law from 1998-1999 in Denver, Colorado with the firm of Messner & Reeves, LLC, specializing in corporate, commercial transactional, and taxation law. From 1999-2003 he worked in Denver as an attorney and NHLPA certified player agent with Kurt Overhardt, PC and KO Sports, Inc., representing professional hockey players in all facets of their careers. From 2003-2005, Martin served as the in-house corporate counsel for a group of closely held businesses in Massachusetts and also worked as a part-time scout for the Omaha Lancers (USHL).

A native of Connecticut, Martin graduated from Trinity College in 1992 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and Legal Studies. He went on to earn a law degree from the University of Denver, College of Law in 1997 and an LL.M. in taxation from the University of Denver. College of Law in 1998.

Ryan and his wife, Candace, reside in suburban Detroit with their daughter, Ava and son, Cam.

KRIS DRAPER Assistant to the General Manager

Kris Draper enters his sixth season as assistant to the general manager and his 23rd year overall with the organization. In his position, Draper works closely with petroit's management team, assisting in player evaluation at both the professional and amateur levels. He also provides input regarding potential trades and free agent signings, as well as insight into prospective selections at the annual NHL Entry Draft.

Draper announced his retirement as a player on July 26, 2011, after 20 seasons in the National Hockey League. He was originally a third-round pick (62nd overall) of the Winnipeg Jets in the 1989 NHL Entry Draft. Draper played 20 games over three seasons in Winnipeg before the Jets dealt him to Detroit on June 30, 1993, in exchange for future considerations.

Draper spent the next 17 seasons in the Motor City. He became a fixture in Detroit's lineup during the 1993-94 season and played center on what became known as the 'Grind Line' with Kirk Maltby, and at different times, Darren McCarty and Joe Kocur. They formed one of the most revered lines in Red Wings history and played an integral role in helping Detroit end a 42-year drought by capturing the 1997 Stanley Cup with a sweep of the Philadelphia Flyers. Draper was also part of championship runs by the Red Wings in 1998, 2002 and 2008. He joins Nicklas Lidstrom, Tomas Holmstrom, Kirk Maltby and Darren McCarty as the only players to hoist the Cup in each of Detroit's last four championship seasons.

The Toronto, Ontario, native enjoyed his best statistical season in 2003-04. He registered career-highs with 24 goals, 40 points and five shorthanded goals in just 67 games. Despite the jump in his offensive production, Draper's defensive responsibilities never wavered and he was rewarded with the 2004 Frank J. Selke Trophy as the NHLS top defensive forward.

Recognized throughout his career as one of the top penalty killers and face-off men in the NHL, Draper also played a vital role by checking the top lines of opponents and wearing down ppossing defenses with his speed and tenacity. He served as Detroit's alternate captain for five seasons from 2006-07 through 2010-11. On February 2, 2009, he became just the 235th player in NHL history to play in 1,000 career games. Just six weeks later on March 17, 2009, he became the fifth player in team history to play 1,000 games in a Red Wings sweater joining Gordie Howe, Alex Delvecchio, Steve Yzerman and Nicklas Lidstrom. His postseason longevity is equally impressive. Draper never missed the playoffs during his 17 seasons in Detroit and appeared in 220 postseason games for the Red Wings, second in club history behind only Nicklas Lidstrom (263)

Kris and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Kennedi and Kamryn, and a son, Kienan. The Drapers reside in Bloomfield Hills.

JIRI FISCHER
Player Evaluation

Jiri Fischer enters his 10th season in the Detroit Red Wings front office. Fischer will transition to a new role in player evaluation for 2016-17 after serving as the team's director of player development for nine seasons. Fischer worked hands-on with Red Wings prospects across the world, mentoring and evaluating players until they reach the professional level.

Fischer was by selected by Detroit in the first round (25th overall) of the 1998 NHL Entry Draft. An imposing figure on defense at 6-5 and 235-lbs., he patrolled the blue line for Detroit from 1999-00 through 2005-06. In 305 career games, the Horovice, Czech Republic, native scored 11 goals and collected 60 points. He also amassed 295 career penalty minutes. Fischer won the Stanley Cup as a player with Detroit in 2002 and was selected as the Red Wings Rookie of the Year by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association following the 1999-2000 season.

Jiri has two children, Braidan and Lukas, and resides in suburban Detroit during the season.

SHAWN HORCOFF Director of Player Development

Shawn Horcoff retired from his playing career this summer and was hired as the Red Wings' director of player development on Sept. 16, 2016. The 38-year-old moves to the role after logging 1,0008 NHL games from 2000-16. Horcoff totaled 511 points (186-325-511) and 624 penalty minutes over his career and will now oversee and evaluate Detroit's prospects playing at the junior or collegiate level or in Europe.

As a player, Horcoff was originally a fourth-round pick (99th overall) of the Edmonton Oilers in the 1998 NHL Entry Draft. An NHL All-Star in 2008, Horcoff spent most of his NHL career with Edmonton (2000-13), serving as team captain from 2010-13 and producing a career-high 73 points (22-51-73) in 2005-06, while helping the Oilers reach the Stanley Cup Final. Horcoff also spent two seasons with the Dallas Stars (2013-15) and spent his final NHL campaign with the Anaheim Ducks in 2015-16.

Horcoff has ties to the state of Michigan, having racked up 152 points (50-102-152) in 155 games with the Michigan State Spartans from 1996-00. The Spartans were two-time CCHA champions (1998 and 2000) during Horcoff's collegiate career, which he capped off by winning the CCHA Player of the Year in 1999-00.

BRYAN CAMPBELLDirector of Statistical Analysis and Hockey Administration

Bryan Campbell begins his second season as director of statistical analysis and hockey administration. Joining the organization in the summer of 2015, Campbell works closely with Executive Vice President and General Manager Ken Holland and Assistant General Manager Ryan Martin, focusing on advanced statistical analysis and analytics in the areas of salary trends, contract valuations, free agent market acquisitions, trades and other areas, as well as comparative research for contract negotiations and salary arbitrations, collective bargaining agreement administration and compliance and coordinating player transactions. He also scouts games locally at the professional, collegiate and junior levels.

A 2006 graduate of Union College with a degree in mechanical engineering, Campbell played college hockey and skated in 100 games with the Dutchmen from 2002-06. He went on to earn a master's degree in business administration at York University. Before his time with the Red Wings, Campbell worked in finance in New York.

Campbell is originally from Glanbrook, Ontario, and currently resides in Royal Oak.

JEFF BLASHILL Head Coach

Jeff Blashill enters his second season as head coach after being named to the position on June 9, 2015. Blashill is entering his sixth season overall with the organization, spending one season as an assistant coach with the Red Wings (2011– 12) before serving as head coach of the Grand Rapids Griffins, Detroit's American Hockey League affiliate, from 2012–15 before ascending to his current role.

The 42-year-old is the 27th coach in franchise history, the first American to lead the Red Wings and just the third Michigan native to coach any major Detroit sports team, joining Steve Mariucci (Detroit Lions, 2003-05) and Dave DeBusschere (Detroit Pistons, 1964-67).

In his first season with the Red Wings, Blashill guided the club to its 25th consecutive postseason appearance, extending the longest such streak in all of professional sports. Blashill posted the sixth-best winning percentage (0.567) of any first-year head coach in Red Wings history.

During his time in Grand Rapids, Blashill led the club to three of the most successful campaigns in franchise history, highlighted by a 2012-13 campaign that saw Grand Rapids capture a regular-season Midwest Division title and eventually the first Calder Championship in the franchise's 17-year history. In 2014-15, the Griffins won the Midwest Division after reaching 100 points for the first time during Blashill's tenure with a 46-22-6-2 (W-L-OTL-SOL) record over the AHL's 76-game slate. The club advanced to the Western Conference Finals for the second time in three seasons before falling to the Utica Comets in six games. In the 80-year history of the American Hockey League, no team played more playoff games (50) than the Griffins did during Blashill's run as head coach.

Born in Detroit and raised in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Blashill won the Louis A. R. Pieri Memorial Award as the AHL's most outstanding coach in 2013-14 and was named head coach for the 2014 AHL All-Star Classic. THE NEW BARN TAKES SHAPE

LITTLE CAESARS ARENA: On April 28, Olympia Entertainment and Little Caesars announced a naming rights partnership establishing Little Caesars Arena as the name of Detroit's new, 20,000+ seat downtown arena. The new arena, which is the centerpiece of a 50-square block mixed-used development known as The District Detroit, is slated to open for the 2017-18 season and will serve as the home of the Detroit Red Wings and countless other sports, entertainment and community events.

he Detroit Red Wings enter their 91st season in the National Hockey League as one of the premier franchises in professional hockey.

As the NHL's most storied American team, the Red Wings have featured some of the greatest players, coaches and executives the game has ever known. Throughout the 1900s, names like Adams, Howe, Abel, Lindsay, Sawchuk, Delvecchio and Hall became very familiar to hockey fans. The list continues today with names like Bowman, Shanahan, Fedorov, Yzerman, Lidstrom, Datsyuk and Zetterberg.

The first 90 seasons saw Detroit win 11 Stanley Cups, which is third behind only the Montreal Canadiens (23) and the Toronto Maple Leafs (13). The Red Wings most recently won Stanley Cup championships in 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008, posted the NHL's best record in the decade of the '90s and became the benchmark to which all teams throughout the NHL measure their own success.

The roots of the Red Wings go all the way back to the old Western Hockey League, where the Victoria (British Columbia) Cougars were members until their roster was sold to a group from Detroit on Sept. 25, 1926. The Detroit group had been awarded an NHL franchise on May 15, 1926.

The team began to play as the Detroit Cougars in the fall of 1926, while playing its home games in Windsor, Ontario. Despite the fact that the Victoria Cougars had won the Stanley Cup in 1925 and were Cup finalists in 1926, the Detroit Cougars finished with the NHL's worst record at 12-28-4 in 1926-27. Not only did the team struggle on the ice, but it performed poorly on the ledger sheet as well, where the Cougars were more than $80,000 in debt.

Help came the following season in the form of Jack Adams as the team's coach and general manager. Adams had played in the old Pacific Coast League and in the NHL with the Toronto St. Pats and Ottawa Senators. Adams' tenure as coach and GM would last until the 1962-63 season, when Sid Abel took over.

The team also moved into the brand new Olympia Stadium for the 1927-28 season. A Detroit and professional hockey landmark, the Olympia would serve as the home for the franchise through the midway point of the 1979-80 season.

JAMES NORRIS. SR.

With Adams at the helm, the team made the playoffs for the first time in franchise history (1928-29). They were still among the NHL's havenots, however, and perpetually close to bankruptcy.

Willing to try anything, Adams changed the name to the Detroit Falcons for the 1930-31 season

After the depression, the team went into receivership, and Adams was forced to use his own money to make payroll. It was so bad financially, that Adams joked if Montreal Canadiens superstar Howie Morenz were available for $1.98 the Falcons still couldn't afford him. Things weren't much better on the ice, as the team had only made the playoffs twice in its first six seasons.

In 1932, the financial problems ended when grain millionaire and shipping magnate James Norris Sr. purchased the team. Norris, like Adams, was a Canadian turned American. He had once played hockey for the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association's Winged Wheelers.

When the two men met, Norris and Adams agreed that the team's new logo would be a winged wheel and the club's nickname changed to the Red Wings.

The franchise already had a few players who would contribute to the team's first two Stanley Cups in 1936 and 1937, such as Ebbie Goodfellow, Larry Aurie, Herbie Lewis, Hec Kilrea and John Sorrell. Norris' money and Adams' ability to wheel and deal added such players as Carl Voss, Syd Howe, Marty Barry, goaltender Normie Smith, Bucko McDonald and others

The Red Wings had an outstanding season in 1932-33 when Voss won the franchise's first award by winning the Calder Trophy as the NHL's top rookie. Detroit continued its success in the following years, advancing to the semifinals against the New York Rangers in 1933 and losing in the Stanley Cup Final to the Chicago Blackhawks in 1934. Detroit slumped to under .500 and missed the playoffs in 1934-35 but came back to win the first Stanley Cup in franchise history in 1936, defeating the Toronto Maple Leafs three games to one in the finals.

The Red Wings went on to repeat as Cup champions in 1937, winning three games to two over the New York Rangers. However, one of the most memorable moments in Red Wings and NHL history came in Game 1 of the first-round series against the Montreal Maroons at the Montreal Forum on March 24, 1936. In what is still the longest game ever played in NHL history, the Red Wings defeated the Maroons 1-0 on rookie Mud Bruneteau's goal at 16:30 into the sixth overtime period. That contest also began a playoff shutout run of 248 minutes and 32 seconds for Normie Smith.

The 1936 and 1937 teams featured two of the greatest players ever to wear the winged wheel in Ebbie Goodfellow and Syd Howe. Goodfellow played with the Red Wings from the 1929-30 season until 1942-43. He was a forward for the first five seasons and led the team in scoring in 1930-31 and 1931-32. His 1930-31 total of 48 points was good for second overall in the NHL. Since the team had a surplus of forwards, however, Adams asked Goodfellow to move to defense for the 1934-35 season. He made the move and helped the team win the Cup in 1936 and 1937. He was a first team All-Star on defense in 1936-37 and 1939-40, and a second-team selection in 1935-36. Goodfellow was a player-coach in his final season, in which the Red Wings won their third Stanley Cup.

Syd Howe was also a versatile player as he manned every position but goaltender during his 17-year NHL career, which spanned from 1929-30 to 1945-46. He played with the Red Wings for the last 11 seasons of his career. Howe played with the Ottawa Senators, Philadelphia Quakers, Toronto Maple Leafs and the Senators again before the franchise moved to St. Louis (then known as the Eagles). Howe went with them, but the financially-strapped team sold Howe and defenseman Ralph (Scotty) Bowman – no relation to the Red Wings' former coach – to Detroit for Teddy Graham and $50.000.

Howe went on to help the Red Wings win their first three Stanley Cups and holds the team record for goals in a game with six on Feb. 3, 1944, against the New York Rangers at Olympia. When Howe retired in 1946, he was the NHL's all-time leading scorer with 528 points. Goodfellow was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1963 and Howe in 1965.

Sid Abel, a young man from Melville, Saskatchewan, joined the Red Wings for part of the 1938-39 season. Abel played in only 15 games with Detroit that season and 24 the next as he split time between the NHL and the American Hockey League, but he became a regular in 1940-41.

Abel finished fifth in league scoring with 49 points in 1941-42 and became the captain of the Red Wings in 1942-43.

Detroit's blue line also got a boost in 1938-39 when Jack Stewart was introduced to the NHL. His dark features and physical game earned him the nickname 'Black Jack' Stewart, as he terrorized opposing forwards with bone-crushing hits and his great strength.

The Red Wings advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1941 and 1942, losing to the Boston Bruins and the Toronto Maple Leafs, respectively. The Bruins swept the Red Wings in four games as Detroit was thwarted by the spectacular goaltending of Frank Brimsek, who lived up to his nickname of 'Mr. Zero' by allowing only six goals to Detroit in the series.

The Red Wings won the first three games of the 1942 Stanley Cup Final against the Maple Leafs, but Toronto rallied to win the next four to win the Cup. It was the first and only time a team has come back from a three games to none Cup Final deficit and only one of four times in NHL history that a team has lost a playoff series after winning the first three games (the NY Islanders came back on Pittsburgh in 1975, Philadelphia beat Boston in 2010 and Los Angeles defeated San Jose in 2014).

The Red Wings would get their revenge on the Bruins and Brimsek by winning the third Stanley Cup in team history with a four-game sweep of Boston in 1943. Detroit had also finished first overall with 61 points and a 25-14-11 record in 1942-43, the first season of the 'Original Six' sixteam NHL (the league had ranged from four-to-teneams from its beginning in 1917-18 through 1941-42). That season began what has become known as the NHL's 'Golden Age,' which lasted through the 1966-67 season, after which the league doubled in size to 12 teams.

The 1944 season saw an offensive explosion in the NHL as many of the league's best defensive players were serving in World War II (both Abel and Stewart served in the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1943-44 and 1944-45). The NHL's leading scorer, Boston's Herb Cain, had 36 goals and 82 points, and the Red Wings' Carl Liscombe finished fourth in the scoring race with a team-record 36 goals, 37 assists and 73 points.

Detroit wouldn't capture the Stanley Cup again until 1950, but the late '40s would see the arrival of a group of players who would become not only Red Wing legends, but NHL legends as well. With the promotions of Ted Lindsay (1944-45), Gordie Howe (1946-47), Red Kelly (1947-48) and Terry Sawchuk (1949-50) to the NHL and the return of both Abel and Stewart from the RCAF, one of the greatest dynasties in NHL history was set into motion.

Adams handed the coaching reins to Tommy Ivan after the 1946-47 season. Detroit finished second overall during the 1947-48 regular season, five points behind the Toronto Maple Leafs, but the team ran off a streak of seven-straight first overall finishes from 1948-49 through 1954-55 and won four Stanley Cups (1950, 1952, 1954 and 1955).

Lindsay, Howe and Abel terrorized the NHL as members of the 'Production Line.' Kelly became the NHL's top offensive defenseman and Stewart provided more physical play on the blue line before being traded after Detroit won the 1950 Stanley Cup. The Red Wings can thank Pete Babando for that triumph, as he tallied the clinching goal eight minutes and thirty-one seconds into the second overtime period of Game 7 to defeat the New York Rangers four games to three.

Detroit proved to be a talented and deep squad in the 1950 playoffs when Gordie Howe suffered a serious head injury in Game 1 of the first-round playoff series against the Toronto Maple Leafs. Howe almost died and would miss the remainder of the playoffs, but he was out of the hospital in time to join his teammates for the on-ice celebration after Babando's goal in Game 7. The first round of the 1950 playoffs had also featured overtime heroics as Leo Reise scored the OT winners in Games 4 and 7.

Veteran goaltender Harry Lumley backstopped Detroit to the 1950 Stanley Cup victory, but Sawchuk was so impressive in a seven-game call-up from the minors while Lumley was injured that Lumley was traded to the Chicago Blackhawks before the 1950-51 season to make room for Sawchuk.

Other future Red Wing greats arrived during this period. Defenseman Marcel Pronovost was with the team during the 1949-50 season but didn't play. He made his Detroit debut the following season along with Alex Delyecchio.

Sawchuk staged one of the greatest performances in Stanley Cup playoff history when Detroit captured the 1952 Stanley Cup. He allowed only five goals in eight games as the Red Wings swept both the Toronto Maple Leafs and Montreal Canadiens in four games. Even more incredibly, Sawchuk didn't give up a single goal in any of the four games played at Olympia Stadium.

That was also the first appearance of an octopus on Detroit ice at a hockey game. The eight tentacles represented the eight games that a team needed to win at that time to capture the Stanley Cup.

Another significant event came during the first round of the 1952 playoffs. Lindsay and Howe had received death threats if they played in Game 4 in Toronto; however, both played and the Wings won to end the series. After the game, Lindsay playfully chidded the Toronto fans when he skated to center ice and held his stick like a machine gun and pretended to shoot the crowd.

The 1953-54 season was Ivan's last as a coach and the Red Wings gave him a grand send-off with their third Cup in five seasons. The team then repeated as Cup champs the following season in Jimmy Skinner's first season behind the Detroit bench. The Red Wings defeated the Montreal Canadiens in the finals both seasons, winning in five games in 1954 thanks to Tony Leswick's OT goal in Game 5 and in seven games in 1955.

After dropping the 1956 finals to the Canadiens in five games, it seemed that the Red Wings' dynasty would go on for the near future but questionable trades by Adams gutted the team of many good and great players.

Stars like Sawchuk, Lindsay, Kelly and young players like Glenn Hall and Johnny Bucyk were traded between 1955 and 1960 with the team receiving little in exchange. Sawchuk did return to Detroit, but one of the players sent to the Bruins to reacquire him was Bucyk, who went on to become one of the best left wingers in NHL history.

Detroit did not return to the Stanley Cup Final until 1961, losing to the Chicago Blackhawks. The Red Wings went on to advance to the Cup Final in three of four seasons from 1963-66, but lost each time. The team, now coached by Sid Abel, lost to the Toronto Maple Leafs in 1963 (five games) and 1964 (seven games), and to the

ALEX DELVECCHIO. GORDIE HOWE & FRANK MAHOVLICH

Montreal Canadiens in 1966 (six games). It would be 29 years before the Wings would return to the Cup Final and 31 years before they would record another victory in a Stanley Cup Final game.

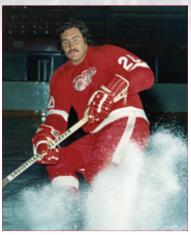

There had been jubilation at the Olympia on Nov. 10, 1963, when Howe broke Maurice 'Rocket' Richard's record for most career NHL goals with his 545th against Richard's former team, the Montreal Canadiens, and goaltender Charlie Hodge.

Detroit reached the playoffs four times from 1966-67 through 1985-86, a period that was highlighted by the veteran line of Howe, Delvecchio and Frank Mahovlich during the 1968-69 and 1969-70 seasons

Mickey Redmond became the first Red Wing to score 50 goals in a season in 1972-73 (he would do it again in '73-74). Other highlights during the 1970s included Marcel Dionne's 121 points and Danny Grant's 50 goals in 1974-75.

The team moved to Joe Louis Arena in December 1979 and hosted the NHL All-Star Game in January 1980. The contest featured 50-year old Gordie Howe, who was in his last season with the Hartford Whalers after returning to pro hockey in 1973-74 with the World Hockey Association. He had retired from the Red Wings following the 1970-71 season.

#20 - MICKEY REDMOND

The Norris family finally sold the Red Wings in 1982 to Mike and Marian Ilitch, who owned Little Caesars Pizza.

One of their first hires was Jimmy Devellano as the team's general manager. His first move was to select a shy, 18-year old center named Steve Yzerman with the fourth overall pick of the 1983 NHL Draft.

Detroit made the playoffs in both 1983-84 and 1984-85, but lost in the first round each season. The Red Wings collected only 40 points in 1985-86 to finish last overall in the NHL, but the disappointing campaign would prove as one step backwards before Detroit would take several steps forward in the right direction.

Detroit hired Jacques Demers, coach of the St. Louis Blues, as their new head coach. Not only did the Red Wings make the playoffs in each of Demers' first two seasons, but they also advanced to the Campbell Conference Finals each season, losing to the Edmonton Oilers in five games both times.

Demers named the 21-year-old Yzerman team captain in 1986. The squad featured other young players like Gerard Gallant, Petr Klima, Bob Probert, Shawn Burr, Adam Oates, Joe Kocur and Steve Chiasson as well as veterans like Dave Barr, Lee Norwood, Tim Higgins, Gilbert Delorme and Harold

Snepsts. Demers won the Jack Adams Award as the NHL's Coach of the Year in both 1986-87 and 1987-88

In 1988-89, Yzerman set franchise records for goals, assists and points with 65 goals, 90 assists and 155 points, which continues to be the highest season point total in NHL history for a player not named Gretzky or Lemieux. Yzerman and linemates Gallant and Paul MacLean combined for 319 points, the most by any line in Red Wings history. Despite their stellar play, Detroit lost in the first round of the playoffs.

The 1989-90 season saw the Red Wings miss the playoffs, ending Demers' run as the Wings head coach. He was replaced by former Washington Capitals coach Bryan Murray, who was also named the team's general manager. The disappointing 1989-90 season was the last time Detroit would miss the playoffs as the Wings have now gone to postseason play in 25 consecutive seasons.

Young players like Sergei Fedorov, Nicklas Lidstrom, Vladimir Konstantinov, Slava Kozlov, Keith Primeau, Martin Lapointe, Darren McCarty and Chris Osgood reached the NHL with the Red Wings and veterans such as Dino Ciccarelli, Paul Coffey and Ray Sheppard were acquired via trade. All but Primeau, Ciccarelli, Coffey and Sheppard contributed to the Red Wings' Stanley Cup victories in 1997 and 1998.

The Red Wings made the playoffs in 1990-91, but were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs by the St. Louis Blues. Over the next three seasons, the Red Wings were one of the most prolific offensive teams in the NHL and one of the best during the regular season. Detroit finished third in goals in 1991-92 and advanced to the second round before being eliminated by Chicago.

The Red Wings led the NHL in scoring the following two seasons, but were eliminated in the first round both years (Toronto and San Jose).

Murray was fired as coach after the 1992-93 season and the legendary Scotty Bowman was hired to replace him behind the bench. After the team was eliminated by the Sharks, Murray was fired as G.M. He was replaced by a combination of Devellano (who had become the team's senior vice-president when Murray was hired in 1990), assistant general manager Ken Holland, and Bowman (who would serve as the player personnel director).

Bowman did what many considered unthinkable as he took the league's most potent offensive team and began to emphasize defense. He and associate coaches Barry Smith and Dave Lewis instituted the 'left-wing lock system' and veteran defensemen Bob Rouse and Mike Ramsey were signed as free agents. The team also traded defenseman Steve Chiasson to the Calgary Flames for veteran goaltender Mike Vernon during the off-season. hat gave the team an experienced goaltender to go along with a young Chris Osgood, who had come up during the 1993-94 season and had been forced to play in the playoffs.

Fedorov came of age during the 1993-94 season as he finished second in the league in scoring with 120 points (56 goals and 64 assists) and won both the Hart Trophy as the NHL MVP and the Frank J. Selke Trophy as the league's best defensive forward. Sheppard also scored 50 goals (52-41-93) to give the Red Wings the first 50-goal pair in franchise history.

The Red Wings were ready to build off that success, but the 1994-95 regular season didn't begin until January due to a lockout. When the season did begin, the Red Wings were the best: Coffey won the Norris Trophy as the NHL's top defenseman during the regular season, the Wings clinched the Presidents' Trophy and later advanced to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time since 1966. The Wings, however, were not able to reach their ultimate goal when they were swept by the New Jersey Devils in the Cup Final.

The following regular season was even better as the team won 62 games to break the NHL record for most wins in one season. Not only were the Red Wings a success on the ice, they were a huge story off of it.

Yzerman discovered how Red Wings fans felt about him once and for all. With rumors of a trade swirling, he received a tremendous, deafening ovation when he was introduced at the 1995-96 home opener at Joe Louis Arena. Fans shouted 'Stevie!' 'Stevie!' 'Stevie!' That moment made it clear Yzerman would remain a Red Wing for life.

Early in the season, Detroit sent Sheppard to the San Jose Sharks for veteran Igor Larionov. He teamed up with Fedorov, Kozlov, Konstantinov and veteran defenseman Slava Fetisov, who had been acquired from New Jersey at the trade deadline the previous season, to form the first all-Russian fiveman unit in NHL history. The 'Russian Five' dazzled opponents with their skill and skating ability, becoming the Red Wings' personality.

Individually, Coffey became the first defenseman to collect 1,000 assists, Yzerman scored the 500th goal of his career during the 1995-96 season and Bowman broke the record for the most NHL games coached.

The Red Wings had much to celebrate at the 1996 NHL Awards Show as Bowman won the Jack Adams Award, Osgood and Vernon shared the Jennings Trophy (team with the fewest goals against) and Fedorov repeated as the Selke Trophy winner.

But once again it was playoff disappointment for Detroit, as they were eliminated in the Western Conference Final by the Colorado Avalanche, who would go on to win the 1996 Stanley Cup. That series began the fierce rivalry between the Red Wings and the Avalanche. The most significant incident came in Game 6 when Claude Lemieux drilled the Red Wings' Kris Draper into the boards from behind, resulting in serious facial injuries.

Ciccarelli was traded during the off-season but the Wings weren't done trading, sending Primeau, Coffey and a first-round pick in the 1997 draft to the Hartford Whalers for left wing Brendan Shanahan and minor league defenseman Brian Glynn.

Shanahan was one of the final pieces in Detroit's Stanley Cup puzzle and went on to score 46 goals that season. Veteran defenseman Larry Murphy was acquired at the trade deadline and Joe Kocur, who had been traded to the Rangers in 1991, returned to Detroit as a free agent in December 1996.

The most memorable moment of the regular season came on March 26, 1997, when Darren McCarty exacted revenge on Claude Lemieux for the hit on Draper. It came during an on-ice brawl which featured Colorado goaltender Patrick Roy and Wings goaltender Miek Vernon in a slugfest at center ice. The frenzy helped rally the Wings from a two-goal deficit to a 6-5 overtime victory as McCarty got the game-winner. When Detroit went on to win the Stanley Cup, each player pointed to that game as the moment they became a team.

In the playoffs, Detroit defeated the Blues in six games, swept the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim in four games (three of which went to overtime), took the Avalanche in six games in the Western Conference Final and swept the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1997 Stanley Cup Final.

Finally, the Red Wings and their fans had won their first Stanley Cup in 42 years. Steve Yzerman's smile as he accepted the Stanley Cup and skated around the Joe Louis Arena ice personified all the emotions the crowd and team were feeling – joy, relief, exuberance and satisfaction. Vernon was voted the Conn Smythe Trophy winner as the playoff MVP.

Tragedy would strike just six days later when Vladimir Konstantinov and team masseur Sergei Mnatsakanov were critically injured in a one-vehicle limousine accident. Fetisov was also in the limousine, but his injuries weren't nearly as serious and he returned to play the following season. For Konstantinov and Mnatsakanov, it was the end of their careers.

Vernon, who wanted a three-year contract, was dealt to the San Jose Sharks. Ken Holland also became the team's general manager that summer.

Despite the loss of one of the NHL's best defensemen in Konstantinov, the Red Wings played like champions throughout the regular season. The fact the team was never able to truly celebrate its Stanley Cup victory and the constant thoughts of their stricken teammates propelled a driven Red Wings team into the playoffs.

After defeating the Phoenix Coyotes, St. Louis Blues and Dallas Stars in the first three rounds, Detroit swept the Washington Capitals in the Stanley Cup Final with Yzerman winning the Conn Smythe Trophy. After accepting the 1998 Stanley Cup for a consecutive year, the Captain placed it on the lap of Konstantinov. The entire team surrounded Konstantinov, creating an emotional scene that touched fans throughout the sports world. Media from all over the NHL wrote that never had one team deserved to repeat as much as this Red Wings squad.

Their Colorado rival may have eliminated the Red Wings in the second round of the playoffs over the next two seasons, but there was plenty of individual achievement and player movement. In 1998-99, Larry Murphy passed Tim Horton to become the all-time games played leader among defensemen in NHL history.

A surprise came at the trade deadline when longtime Red Wings' nemesis Chris Chelios was acquired from the Chicago Blackhawks. Another surprise acquisition was made when former Dallas Stars forward Pat Verbeek was signed as a free agent. That set up a season of milestones for the Red Wings in 1999-00. Yzerman scored goal No. 600, Verbeek tallied No. 500, Shanahan collected No. 400 and Fedorov earned No. 300. Yzerman also recorded his 1,500th point and 900th assist, while Verbeek registered his 1,000th point.

By the end of the season, only Gordie Howe had played more NHL games than Murphy. The postseason honors continued as Yzerman won the Selke Trophy and was among three Red Wings, along with Shanahan and Lidstrom, to be selected as First Team All-Stars.

The Red Wings finished with the league's second best record in 2000-01, but were eliminated by the Los Angeles Kings during the first round of the 2001 playoffs. After finishing second in Norris Trophy voting for three straight years, Lidstrom finally won his first Norris Trophy as the NHL's best defenseman.

Significant moves were made during the summer of 2001. Future Hall of Fame players Dominik Hasek, Brett Hull and Luc Robitaille were added to Detroit's already potent roster. The moves resulted in a league-best 116 points, culminating with the 10th Stanley Cup in franchise history after the Red Wings defeated the Carolina Hurricanes in five games during the 2002 Stanley Cup Final.

Lidstrom, who would go on to win his second straight Norris Trophy a week after winning the Cup, became the first European-born player to win the Conn Smythe as the playoff MVP. With an NHL-record ninth Stanley Cup as a head coach, Bowmas tepped down, retiring after nine seasons behind the Red Wings' bench. By 2016, nine members of that team have moved on to the Hockey Hall of Fame (Chelios, Fedorov, Hasek, Hull, Larionov, Lidstrom, Robitaille, Shanahan and Yzerman).

Several Red Wings reached major milestones throughout the 2002-03 season including Brett Hull recording his 700th goal, becoming just the sixth player in NHL history to reach this prestigious mark. He finished the season with 716 goals, making him fifth best all-time.

The Red Wings took home some hardware at the 2003 NHL Awards when Nicklas Lidstrom won his third consecutive Norris Trophy and Steve Yzerman was awarded the Masterton Trophy for perseverance. He returned to the Detroit lineup late in the regular season following serious off-season knee surgery. Brendan Shanahan was also named the King Clancy Memorial Award winner for his humanitarian efforts and Darren McCarty was given the NHL Foundation Player Award for his contributions in the community.

The Red Wings brought in Mike Babcock in 2005-06 to take over as head coach for the departed Dave Lewis, who had taken the reigns following Bowman's retirement in 2002. In the first year under Babcock's direction, the Red Wings would win 58 games during the regular season the second most in franchise history, and capture the Presidents' Trophy as the NHL's regular season champions. Detroit also set an NHL record with 31 road wins.

A strong regular season would not translate into postseason success however, as the Red Wings lost in six games to the eighth-seeded Edmonton Oilers in the first round of the playoffs. Nicklas Lidstrom would win his fourth Norris Trophy in 2006, while center Pavel Datsyuk would take home his first Lady Byng Trophy for sportsmanship and ability.

The 2006-07 season saw the Red Wings once again reach the 50-win plateau and top the Western Conference with a 50-19-13 record. The Red Wings would tie the Buffalo Sabres atop the NHL standings with 113 points; however, the Sabres would win the Presidents' Trophy on a tiebreaker. Detroit's postseason fortunes took a turn as the Red Wings knocked off the Calgary Flames in six games in the first round, and bumped the San Jose Sharks in six games in round two. Detroit's Stanley Cup hopes would end in the Western Conference Final as the Red Wings would drop the series in six games to the eventual-Stanley Cup champion Anaheim Ducks. Nicklas Lidstrom won his second straight Norris Trophy and fifth overall. Pavel Datsyuk would also claim his consecutive Lady Byng Trophy.

Stanley returned to Hockeytown in 2008 after a strong regular season campaign. The Red Wings topped 50-wins for a third consecutive season (54-21-7) and captured the Presidents' Trophy for the sixth time in franchise history. Detroit would dispose of the Nashville Predators in round one (six games), sweep the Colorado Avalanche in round two, defeat the Dallas Stars in the Western Conference Final (six games) and knock off the Pittsburgh Penguins in six games in the Stanley Cup Final to win the 11th Cup in franchise history.

Nicklas Lidstrom became the first Europeanborn captain to win the Stanley Cup. Henrik Zetterberg was named playoff MVP, joining Lidstrom as the only European players to win the award. Lidstrom would take home his third-consecutive Norris Trophy and sixth in the last seven seasons played. Pavel Datsyuk captured both the Selke Trophy and his third-straight Lady Byng Trophy. Chris Osgood and Dominik Hasek were awarded the Jennings Trophy for fewest goals allowed during the regular season (184).

The Red Wings inked star forward Marian Hossa to a one-year deal during the offseason, positioning Detroit for another trip to the finals. The Wings did just that, setting numerous NHL records en route to a back-to-back trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 2008-09. After earning two points in a victory over the Columbus Blue Jackets on March 15, 2009, Detroit became the first team in NHL history to reach the 100-point plateau in nine consecutive seasons, passing the Montreal Canadiens, who had eight straight 100-point seasons from 1974-75 through 1981-82. The Red Wings claimed their fourth straight 50-win season, marking only the third time in NHL history a team has gone four consecutive years with 50 wins.

Detroit swept the Columbus Blue Jackets in the opening round of the postseason, but it took the Red Wings seven games to defeat the Anaheim Ducks and advance out of the second round. The Red Wings dispatched the Chicago Blackhawks in five games during the Western Conference Final for the right to face-off against a familiar foe for the Stanley Cup. The Wings suffered a disappointing 2-1 loss at home in Game 7 against the Pittsburgh Penguins, preventing Detroit from repeating as champions. Pavel Datsyuk earned his second straight Selke Trophy and fourth consecutive Lady Byng Trophy, becoming the first player in NHL history to do so.

Detroit registered its 10th consecutive 100-point season in 2009-10, a 102-point performance during an injury-plagued campaign. Several key players missed significant time for the Red Wings, but a late-season push propelled Detroit into the fifth seed in the Western Conference playoffs. The Wings dismissed Phoenix in seven games in Round One, before falling to San Jose in five games in the Western Conference Semifinals. Pavel Datsyuk earned his third-straight Selke Trophy as the league's best defensive forward, while Jimmy Howard was a finalist for the Calder Trophy after a stellar rookie campaign in the nets for Detroit.

The Red Wings finished with a 47-25-10 record in 2010-11, claiming their ninth Central Division title in the last 10 years, making their 20th consecutive trip to the postseason and extending their own NHL record by securing an 11th straight 100-point season. Nicklas Lidstrom brought home his seventh career Norris Trophy, tying Doug Harvey for second-most all-time behind only Bobby Orr (8). Chris Osgood became just the 10th goaltender in NHL history to win 400 career games with a career-high 46-save performance in a 4-3 0T win on December 27 in Colorado.

The Red Wings clinched their 21st consecutive playoff appearance and 12th consecutive 100-point season in 2011-12. The team also set an NHL record by logging 23-straight regular-season home wins, going undefeated at Joe Louis Arena from November 5 through February 19. Following the season, captain Nicklas Lidstrom announced his retirement on May 31, 2012. Lidstrom won four Stanley Cups, seven Norris Trophies, skated in 1,564 regular-season games and never missed the playoffs during his illustrious 20-year career with the Red Wings.

#5 - NICKLAS LIDSTROM 2008 STANLEY CUP® CHAMPION

The Red Wings named Henrik Zetterberg the 36th captain in team history on Jan. 15, 2013. Zetterberg has led the Red Wings to playoff berths in each of his four seasons as captain, helping the Red Wings enter the 2016-17 campaign with the longest postseason streak in all of professional sports at 25 years. Over the past four seasons, Detroit's strong drafting and development performance has helped the team on the ice and set the stage for the future, as players like Gustav Nyquist, Tomas Tatar, Riley Sheahan, Danny DeKeyser and Petr Mrazek won the 2013 Calder Cup championship with Grand Rapids in the American Hockey League prior to establishing themselves as NHL regulars.

In 2013-14 — the team's first season back in the Eastern Conference after offseason realignment placed them in the Atlantic Division — the Red Wings set a franchise record for man games lost due injury/illness at 421, eclipsing the previous high of 346. History was made behind the bench as well, as the Red Wings' 39 wins pushed Mike Babcock past Scotty Bowman (410) and Jack Adams (413) as the winningest coach in Red Wings history.

A healthier Detroit team qualified for the playoffs in both 2014-15 and 2015-16 but the team fell in the first round to the Tampa Bay Lightning both times. The 2016-17 campaign marks a new era for the Red Wings, who saw likely first-ballot Hall of Famer Pavel Datsyuk depart for Russia in the offseason. In the team's second season under Jeff Blashill, the Red Wings boast a lineup of talented young players like Dylan Larkin, who debuted for Detroit at 19 years old and led the team in goals, and recent free agent acquisitions such as Frans Nielsen, Thomas Vanek and Mike Green, who will challenge for the franchise's 12th Stanley Cup as the organization says Farewell to the Joe before transitioning to Little Caesars Arena in 2017-18.

DETROIT RED WINGS MOMENTS

MORE MILESTONES FOR 'Z'

NOT JUST ANOTHER GAME: It was another milestone season for Red Wings captain Henrik Zetterberg. He registered his 500th assist and 800th point on Oct. 31 at Ottawa and scored his 300th career goal on Nov. 6 at Toronto. He became the 189th player to reach that mark and the eighth in Red Wings franchise history.

DETROIT RED WINGS PR DIGITAL PRESSBOX AND TWITTER ACCOUNT

The Detroit Red Wings' public relations department has expanded its media resources to include a digital pressbox within DetroitRedWings.com and a PR Twitter account (@DRWPR).

The digital pressbox can be accessed at www.DetroitRedWings.com/media. The online media hub will centralize all information relating to the team, including team and NHL media publications, player headshots and action shots, and visiting media information, and will be updated daily with press clippings, stat packets, press releases, game notes and practice schedules. Media may also apply for single-game credentials through the digital pressbox.

The department Twitter account (@DRWPR), will be used to provide media instant information about the team through press release links, practice schedule updates and other relevant media information. The account will also provide in-game updates about the Red Wings to note any milestones or statistical accomplishments.

Only previously-approved media members will be able to access these resources. Please contact a member of the public relations staff to register for the digital pressbox. Media may also continue to apply for credentials through the media hotline at (313) 471-7599.

CREDENTIALS: Access to Detroit Red Wings' home games and practices is available to accredited media specifically assigned to cover each event. Season credentials are granted to media covering ALL Red Wing home games.

Single-game credentials must be requested in writing, on letterhead, at least 24 hours in advance of each contest.

Only previously approved media without season credentials should call the Media

Hotline (313) 471-7599 at least 24 hours in advance and leave a message requesting a single-game credential as well as seating and/or photographer positions if necessary.

Single-game credentials may be picked up at the Security Desk inside the West Gate of Joe Louis Arena beginning two hours prior to game time.

SEATING: Credentials permit access to the press room and to both team's postgame locker rooms. Every effort will be made to accommodate all media with seating in the press box. However, due to space limitations, seating in the press room may be required. The Joe Louis Arena press room is located street level of the building near the East Gate and is available for all Red Wing home games.

All media attending games are asked to phone the Media Hotline (313) 471-7599 at least 24 hours in advance to request press box seating.

PRACTICE SCHEDULES: The Media Hotline will be updated daily with upcoming practice times and event information. When available the visiting team's practice times in Detroit will be included in the message as well.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photo credentials will be issued on a single-game basis. Only those photographers on assignment from approved media outlets will be permitted access to games and practices. Photo Editors must call the Media Hotline prior to 2:00 pm on game days with the names of photographers who will be shooting the game.

Credentialed photo runners are not permitted to stand on or near any shooting positions on the arena concourse or inside the bowl at any time during the game. Failure to comply with this policy will result in immediate removal from Joe Louis Arena along with confiscation of that individual's game credential.

FREELANCE PHOTOGRAPHERS WILL NOT BE ISSUED CREDENTIALS.

Photographers must shoot from designated photo areas only. Photo positions are assigned by the Red Wings' PR office and posted in the press room approximately two hours prior to game time. Photographers requesting specific shooting locations must phone the Media Hotline (313) 471-7599 no later than 2 p. m. for evening games and 10 a. m. for matinees.

Photographers desiring to rent or use their own strobes must contact the Detroit Red Wings Public Relations Department at least 48 hours in advance of each contest. TELEVISION COVERAGE: All local television stations are prohibited from shooting and distributing footage inside the Joe Louis Arena bowl beginning 30 minutes prior to each contest and until all broadcast television rightsholders have signed off the air. Footage from the arena property and outer mezzanine area is permitted as long as the ice surface does not appear in any way in the shot.

Television cameras in the bowl are limited to natural arena light whenever players are on the ice surface.

All local television stations desiring to shoot inside Joe Louis Arena must request to do so in advance through the Detroit Red Wings Public Relations Department.

RADIO COVERAGE: All non-rightsholder radio stations are not permitted to broadcast live from inside Joe Louis Arena beginning 30 minutes prior to each contest and until all rightsholders have signed off the air.

PRESS ROOM: A press room for pregame meals and working is available between the East Gate and the locker rooms. A pre-game meal will be served 90 minutes prior to each contest. There is a minimal charge for the media. A work area with electrical outlets, credit card pay phones and televisions is available in the press room.

PARKING: Limited parking for credentialed media by pass list is available at no charge in the media section of the cityowned Joe Louis Arena Garage. Please include your parking requests when making credential requests to the Red Wings Public Relations Department.

Media parking is extremely limited and NOT GUARANTEED.

TICKETS: A limited number of singlegame tickets to Red Wings home games are available for purchase by members of the media only. Please contact Director of Public Relations Todd Beam for ticket requests well in advance of the desired game.

DETROIT RED WINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Detroit Red Wings are committed to enhancing lives through the power of hockey with a focus on community investment, youth development, and players & alumni initiatives.

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT

The Detroit Red Wings are committed to strategically investing back into the Metro Detroit area. Whether through NHL initiatives that celebrate a united fight against cancer, or donations benefitting a local cause, the Detroit Red Wings are honored to provide more than $1,000,000 in combined support to our community each year.

MILITARY APPRECIATION

The Detroit Red Wings proudly support the men and women who served or continue to serve our Country. Each season, the Red Wings host a Military Welcome, presented by Applebee's, to recognize servicemen and women in attendance at all home games. Additionally, the team will dedicate a home game at Joe Louis Arena as Military Appreciation Night (Nov. 15, 2016) to celebrate our local heroes.

HOCKEY FIGHTS CANCER™ AWARENESS NIGHT

Hockey Fights Cancer™ is an initiative founded in December 1998 by the National Hockey League and the National Hockey League Players' Association to raise money and awareness for hockey's most important fight. This season (Oct. 29, 2016), Detroit Red Wings players, fans and staff will raise thousands of dollars toward supporting cancer research and patient services through the Hockey Fights Cancer™ Awareness Night at Joe Louis Arena.

MI WINGS COMMUNITY TOUR PRESENTED BY ITC

Each September, the MI Wings Community Tour presented by ITC takes Detroit Red Wings players to community and military entities across Michigan on their way to Training Camp in Traverse City.

COLLECTION DRIVES AT JOE LOUIS ARENA

Throughout each season, the Detroit Red Wings encourage fans to donate much-needed items in support of local charities. This season, fans can support the following collection drives: food collection drive (Nov. 20, 2016), Toys for Tots toy collection drive (Dec. 9, 2016), smoke detector collection drive presented by Comerica (Jan. 14, 2017), and new/gently-used hockey equipment collection drive (Mar. 18, 2017).

RED WINGS FOR RED KETTLES BELL RINGING COMPETITION

Since 2005, the Detroit Red Wings and The Salvation Army have teamed up through the Red Wings for Red Kettles initiative to help the nonprofit reach its annual Red Kettle Campaign goal. Current and former Red Wings players, as well as Ken Holland and Jeff Blashill, compete at various locations across Metro Detroit to raise the most funds in support of The Salvation Army STRIVE youth floor hockey program.

SEASON TICKET HOLDER TICKET DONATION PROGRAM

Detroit Red Wings Season Ticket Holders have teamed up with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metropolitan Detroit and Veteran Tickets Foundation to give children facing adversity, as well as local military members, a chance to experience the excitement of a Red Wings game in person with the Ticket Donation Program.

RED WINGS WISH CLUB

For a small donation to Children's Hospital of Michigan Foundation, fans can have a special birthday or anniversary message displayed on the Joe Louis Arena video board during home games as part of the Red Wings Wish Club.

CHARITABLE DONATIONS

The Detroit Red Wings proudly support hundreds of nonprofit organizations throughout the state of Michigan as well as within the cities of Toledo, OH and Windsor, Canada. Each year, the team donates more than 2,000 autographed items to nonprofit charitable auctions and raffles.

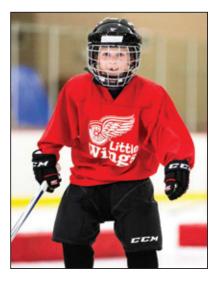

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

The Detroit Red Wings are dedicated to providing unique opportunities that engage and develop youth throughout Michigan. Harnessing the power of hockey to support our community, the Red Wings interact with more than 50,000 children each season — supporting the next generation of Detroit Red Wings players and fans.

ACADEMICS THROUGH HOCKEY

SCHOOL ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Since 2013, the Detroit Red Wings have partnered with Michigan Education Savings Program and Kroger to present the School Assembly Program. This interactive assembly introduces nearly 50,000 elementary students annually to the sport of hockey, importance of education, and benefits of living a healthy, active lifestyle. The Detroit Red Wings Foundation donates a complete set of floor hockey equipment to each visited school, including hockey sticks, balls, goals, and goalie protective gear.

FUTURE GOALS STEM PROGRAM

The Detroit Red Wings, the NHL and the NHLPA joined together to launch a free North American education initiative that helps students build their science, technology, engineering, and math skills using the fast-paced, exciting game of hockey as a learning vehicle. The Future Goals program is committed to sparking student interest in STEM topics and helping students become college-ready, career-ready, and life-ready.

RED WINGS FOR READING PRESENTED BY MICHIGAN EDUCATION SAVINGS PROGRAM

Every season, the Detroit Red Wings partner with forward Justin Abdelkader and Michigan Education Savings Program to present the Red Wings for Reading Challenge. The program encourages all K-5 students attending a Michigan elementary school to read outside of the classroom. After reading suggested books, students submit their reading tracker for a chance to attend a Red Wings home game at Joe Louis Arena during National Reading Month.

HIGH SCHOOL JOURNALIST DAY PRESENTED BY MICHIGAN OFFICE SOLUTIONS

Each spring, the Detroit Red Wings invite Michigan high schools to send a student reporter to Joe Louis Arena for a behind-the-scenes look into the world of sports journalism at High School Journalist Day, presented by Michigan Office Solutions. The event includes an opportunity for students to view a Red Wings practice and partake in mock press conferences with Red Wings coaches, leadership and professional media members.

HOCKEY EDUCATION & ENTRY

TRY HOCKEY FOR FREE

Every year, the Detroit Red Wings partner with the Michigan Amateur Hockey Association to support on-ice hockey clinics introducing children to the sport of hockey throughout Michigan. For most participants, it's their first on-ice experience, introducing them to basic hockey skills such as skating, puck handling and shooting.

Each clinic features one hour of hockey, followed by a 30-minute pickup street hockey game. The clinics are instructed by Detroit Red Wings representatives, as well as local hockey players and coaches.

HOW TO FIGURE...

-  NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout
- Assist: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.
- Game Played: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.
- Game-Winning Goal: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning Club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).
- Goal: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring Club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.
- Goals-Against Average: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).
- Goaltender: A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.
- Penalty-Killing Pct.: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.
- Plus-Minus: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his Club scores an evenstrength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an evenstrength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.
- Power-Play Goal: A goal scored by a Club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:
 - if a Club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
 - if a Club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
 - if a Club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that Club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
 - if a Club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
 - if a minor penalty is incurred by a Club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

HOW TO FIGURE...

- Power-Play Percentage: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of powerplay opportunities.
- Save Percentage: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.
- Shooting Percentage: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.
- Shorthand Goal: A goal scored by a Club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.
- Shot on Goal: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".
- Shutout: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a Club shutout.
- Tenths of a Second: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)
- Coaches Record: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.
