EDMONTON'S ICE DISTRICT

DOWNTOWN REIMAGINED

ICE District is located in the heart of downtown Edmonton, one of the fastest growing cities in Canada. It's a 25-acre development combining condos, a public plaza, sports, entertainment, 208,000 square feet of retail space and 1.3 million square feet of office space all in one location. It's much more than a state-of-the-art arena. It's a place to gather. A place to celebrate. A place where you – and our city – are always at your best!

THE VISION

ICE District is Edmonton's potential brought to life. A once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to develop 25+ acres in the heart of a modern metropolis. The creation of one of Canada's largest multi-use projects that combines offices, condos, a public plaza, sports, entertainment and shopping all in one location. It's a living, urban district that will draw people from all corners of the city, the country and the world.

OUR PARTNERS

ICE District started with Daryl Katz and a vision. Katz Group partnered with the City of Edmonton to build Rogers Place, the catalyst for ICE District. In 2012, Katz Group then joined forces with ONE Properties to create ICE District Properties, the vibrant mixed-use development surrounding the arena. Through their partnership, Katz Group and ONE Properties aim to bring Edmontonians together and attracts visitors to a city that's truly world class.

ROGERS PLACE

ABOUT OILERS ENTERTAINMENT GROUP

Oilers Entertainment Group (OEG) delivers leading sports, entertainment and other special event programming to fans and patrons in Canada and the United States. OEG owns the five-time Stanley Cup Champion Edmonton Oilers, the NHL's Edmonton Oil Kings, the AHL's Bakersfield Condors, and operates Rogers Place, the new home of the Oilers and Oil Kings in downtown Edmonton. OEG also owns one of Canada's most accomplished television, event and brand-promotion companies as well as Silver Pictures Entertainment.

ABOUT ROGERS PLACE

The vision of Rogers Place was born when Daryl Katz purchased the Oilers in 2008. At the time he stated a desire to not only find the Oilers a new home in downtown Edmonton, but to do it in a style that would transform our City and encourage further downtown development. Through his partnership with the City of Edmonton, that vision has already been realized, and now continues to expand as Rogers Place has become the anchor of ICE District, a mixed-use sports and entertainment development that is helping to revitalize and invigorate life in Edmonton's downtown core.

Rogers Place itself is an 819,200 square foot, five-concourse facility. The project also includes the Edmonton Downtown Community Arena; the 34,000 square-foot Ford Hall; and connective infrastructure to the LRT system bringing the total project size to 1,110,900 square feet.

Rogers Place and ICE District meld an iconic architectural design, an unprecedented level of new development in the heart of downtown and an unparalleled level of entertainment capacity.

DARYL A. KATZ

OWNER AND GOVERNOR

Born and raised in Edmonton, Daryl Katz grew up a passionate Oilers fan. He has a deep connection with the team's rich history and is focused on creating the foundation for a winning tradition and bringing the Stanley Cup back to the City of Champions.

Daryl began building what is now Oilers Entertainment Group in 2008. Today, with more than 1,600 full and part time staff, OEG houses Katz Group's growing sports & entertainment businesses and operates Rogers Place, one of the leading sports and entertainment venues in North America. Rogers Place was designed and built in a landmark collaboration between Katz Group and the City of Edmonton.

Away from the ice, Daryl has committed significant time, energy and capital to make his vision for a revitalized downtown Edmonton a reality. ICE District is an ambitious multi-billion dollar project that is transforming the heart of our downtown into a vibrant, walkable and sustainable sports and entertainment district, with a host of new commercial, residential and public amenities. With Rogers Place now open, and the surrounding ICE District development well underway, we're seeing an exciting rebirth of Edmonton's urban core.

Daryl was born and raised in Edmonton, and graduated from the University of Alberta's Faculty of Law in 1985. Daryl and his wife Renee are proud parents of Harrison and Chloe, co-founders of the Hockey Helps Kids charitable initiative. He also serves on the National Hockey League Board of Governors.

Bob Nicholson, 67, is in his seventh season with the Edmonton Oilers. On June 10, 2019, Nicholson was named Chairman, Edmonton Oilers Hockey Club. The structure change allows Nicholson to devote his energies to OEG's hockey franchises and growing sports businesses.

Nicholson was hired by the Katz Group on June 13, 2014, as Vice-Chairman of Oilers Entertainment Group (OEG), a sports and entertainment company that manages the Katz Group's growing family of sports and entertainment assets, including the operation of Rogers Place, the home of the Edmonton Oilers since 2016-17.

Bob was awarded the Order of Hockey in Canada in 2016 for his outstanding contribution to the game of hockey in Canada.

Nicholson was elected vice-president of the International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) in 2012, and has served on IIHF council in this capacity since then. ## KEN HOLLAND

PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS/ GENERAL MANAGER

Ken Holland, 65, was named President of Hockey Operations and General Manager of the Oilers on May 7, 2019. He enters his second season in this role with the Oilers.

Holland now has 962 regular season wins as an NHL general manager, and a 618 winning percentage.

He became the 11th general manager in NHL history to reach 1,700 career regular-season games on Oct. 24, 2020 as the Oilers defeated Washington 4-3 (OT).

Holland joined the Oilers after serving as general manager of the Detroit Red Wings for 22 seasons, capturing four Presidents Trophies (2002, 2004, 2006, 2008), 10 division championships (1991, 2001-2004, 2006-2009, 2011), five regular season conference titles (2002, 2004, 2006-08) and reaching 100 regular season points in 13 of his last 18 seasons.

A native of Vernon, BC, Holland helped the Red Wings capture four Stanley Cup championships (1997, 1998, 2002, 2008), the most recent three while serving as general manager.

Over his time as general manager with the Red Wings, Holland guided the team to more combined regular-season and post-season wins (1,098) than any other NHL franchise. The Red Wings reached the playoffs for his first 19 seasons as general manager, giving the organization 25 consecutive seasons in the NHL post-season (1990-2016) - the third-longest streak in NHL history. For his efforts, he was named the NHL's GM of the Decade (2000-09) by Sports Illustrated.

Prior to taking over as general manager of the Red Wings in 1997, Holland served in a number of different roles within the organization, including as assistant general manager (1994-97), general manager of the Red Wings' American Hockey League affiliate (1994-97), amateur scouting director (1989-94) and western Canada scout (1985-89).

Internationally, Holland has served on several management staffs for Hockey Canada, helping Canada win gold medals at the 2010 and 2014 Olympic Winter Games and at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey. Holland was also general manager with Canada at the 2006 World Hockey Championship in Latvia, where Canada finished fourth overall and assistant general manager at the 2005 World Hockey Championship in Austria, helping Canada win a silver medal.

This past season, Holland was selected to the Hockey Hall of Fame on June 24, 2020, entering in the builder's category.

As a goaltender, he was drafted by Toronto in the 12th round, 188th overall, in the 1975 NHL Entry Draft, reaching the NHL for four games with Hartford and Detroit. Holland retired as a player after the 1984-85 season, transitioning soon afterwards into scouting.

Holland played junior hockey for the WHL's Medicine Hat Tigers from 1973-75. Holland twice signed with NHL teams as a free agent – in 1980 with Hartford and 1983 with Detroit. He spent most of his pro career in the AHL with Binghamton, Springfield and Adirondack. Holland was named to the AHL Second All-Star Team in 1982 and the NAHL Second All-Star Team in 1977. He made his NHL debut in 1980-81, playing one game with Hartford followed by three games for Detroit in 1983-84. Holland retired as a player after the 1984-85 season.

In February 1998, Holland was inducted into the Binghamton (NY) Sports Hall of Fame. In 2019, Holland was inducted into the BC Sports Hall of Fame as a builder.

Holland and his wife Cindi have four children, sons Brad and Greg, and daughters Julie and Rachel. Ken and Cindi also have five grandchildren.

KEVIN LOWE

ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Kevin Lowe, 61, is an Alternate Governor of Oilers Entertainment Group (OEG). Previously, Lowe served as the Oilers President of Hockey Operations for seven seasons and prior to that he spent eight seasons as the Oilers General Manager.

Lowe was selected to the Hockey Hall of Fame on June 24, 2020.

A new era in Oilers' history was ushered in when Lowe was named to the position of General Manager on June 9, 2000. With the announcement, the first-ever draft pick in Oilers' history replaced Glen Sather, who held the position since June of 1979. Lowe's appointment came a year after he was named Head Coach of the Oilers on June 18, 1999. Over those years the team's payroll was annually near the bottom of the league however the team was a league leader in dollars spent for points earned in standings including many playoff appearances. As GM, he became one of only 40 general managers in the history of the NHL to get his team to the Stanley Cup finals in 2006, losing in game seven to the Carolina Hurricanes.

It took the popular Lowe only three seasons from his retirement from the game as a player to make his way to the position of General Manager. After a brilliant playing career in the National Hockey League with the Edmonton Oilers and New York Rangers, Lowe announced his retirement from the game on July 30, 1998 and joined the coaching ranks as he served as an assistant coach with Ron Low's Edmonton staff in 1998-99.

The 1999-00 season saw Lowe become the seventh head coach in Oilers history. In his lone season behind the Edmonton bench, Lowe guided the Oilers to a second place finish in the Northwest Division with a 32-26-16-8 record, only eight points behind the first place Colorado Avalanche, and a berth in the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

Lowe's expertise has also translated into success for Team Canada on the international stage. On November 8, 2000, Lowe was named as Assistant Executive Director of Canada Olympic Hockey for the 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Salt Lake City, Utah. Working with former teammate Wayne Gretzky, Team Canada's Executive Director, head coach Pat Quinn and Director of Player Personnel, Steve Tambellini, Lowe helped put together a team of NHL players that won the Olympic gold medal for Canada for the first time in 50 years. A 5-2 victory over the United States in the gold medal final on February 24, 2002 saw Team Canada become the first Canadian squad to win Olympic gold since the Edmonton Waterloo Mercurys won at Oslo, Norway in 1952. He reprised that role with Team Canada at the 2006 Winter Olympics in Turin, Italy and was a member of Team Canada's management team that put together the gold medal winning roster at the 2004 World Cup of Hockey. Lowe, along with Doug Armstrong and Ken Holland, assisted General Manager Steve Yzerman to help guide Canada's Olympic Team to another historic gold medal victory in the 2010 Vancouver Olympics. Lowe once again represented his country as a part of Team Canada's management team at the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics, where Canada won gold again.

Lowe was the Oilers' first-ever draft pick when he was selected 21st overall in the 1979 NHL Amateur Draft on August 9, 1979. During 19 seasons in the NHL, including 15 as an Oiler, Lowe played in 1,254 regular season games and 214 playoff games, winning six Stanley Cup championships. The first five Cup championships came with Edmonton as he was a member of each of the Oilers' titles in 1984, 1985, 1987, 1988 and 1990 and was followed by a sixth with the New York Rangers in 1994. In his 15 seasons with Edmonton, the Oilers never failed to qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs with Lowe in the lineup. In fact, Lowe only missed post-season play once in his 19-year career as New York missed the 1992-93 playoffs during his first season in Manhattan.

Besides being the first draft choice in Oilers' history, Lowe also scored the first goal in team history as he beat Tony Esposito at 9:49 of the first period in Edmonton's first NHL game on October 10, 1979 at Chicago Stadium. The goal launched a career that saw him play for 19 seasons without spending a day in the minors. That goal was also assisted by Wayne Gretzky, marking the "Great One's" first ever point in the NHL.

Lowe holds the Oilers' record for most games played in both the regular season (1,037) and playoffs (172) and is one of only 45 players in NHL history to have played in 1,000 games with one franchise. He also ranks among Edmonton's all-time leaders as he is eighth in assists (309), 11th in points (383) and third in penalty minutes (1,236).

He became the sixth captain in Oilers' history in 1990-91, fulfilling the promise of his junior career that saw him named the first Anglo-Canadian captain of the Quebec Remparts.

On the international stage he represented Canada at the 1982 World Championships and was a member of Team Canada that won the 1984 Canada Cup. He also played in seven NHL All-Star Games (1984-86, 1988-90, 1993).

Off the ice, he was no less of a leader. In 1990, Lowe became the only player to win the King Clancy Memorial Trophy and the Budweiser/NHL Man of the Year Award in the same season. Both awards are presented for leadership qualities and humanitarian contributions. He was also the Oilers' nominee for the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy that season. His work with the Edmonton Christmas Bureau has set the standard for the Oilers' commitment to community involvement. He was the Honorary Chair from 1982-83 to 1991-92 and Honorary Co-Chair from 2005 to present.

Lowe, has a son, Shane, and he and his wife Karen, a two-time Olympic alpine skiing bronze medal winner for Canada at the 1988 Winter Olympics in Calgary, have three daughters - Devyn, Darby and Karly - and a son, Keegan, who was drafted by the Carolina Hurricanes in the 3rd round, 73rd overall, at the 2011 NHL Entry Draft. Kevin and Karen are supporters of SwimDrinkFish Canada, the Waterkeeper Alliance and Zebra Society. Lowe was inducted into the Alberta Hockey Hall of Fame in 2019, and was named to the Quebec Remparts All-Star Team (from 1969 to 1985) as part of the QMJHL's 50th anniversary celebrations in 2018-19.
