

In Memory...

COREY SMITH 1979-2009

Defensive End Corey Smith, who joined the Lions in 2006, was lost at sea March 1, 2009. Whether he was forcing sacks, blocking punts or making tackles on special teams, Corey contributed to the team in any way he could. He was a dedicated teammate who represented himself, his family, his team and the game of football with pride and respect.

To honor Corey, Lions President Tom Lewand announced in March that the team will retire #93 for the 2009 season. Additionally, Corey's family established the Corey D. Smith Memorial Scholarship Fund.

RICKY SANDOVAL 1960-2009

Ricky Sandoval, the team's beloved director of security, died July 2, 2009 after a battle with pancreatic cancer. During the past three years, Ricky epitomized courage and determination as he battled pancreatic cancer and showed a tremendous will to fight such a deadly disease every step of the way.

Ricky turned 49 on June 30 and is survived by his loving wife, Gael.

In June 2009, the Lions indoor practice field was named "Sandoval Field" in honor of Ricky Sandoval, who passed away July 2 after a courageous and extended battle with pancreatic cancer that lasted more than three years.

As a dedicated member of the organization, Sandoval touched virtually every person and every aspect of the team's operations. He was hired as director of security in June of 2001, and for eight seasons he managed the team's security operations.

The impact Sandoval had on everyone who knew him was lasting and profound. To recognize and honor his dedication and devotion to the Lions organization, "Sandoval Field" is a fitting tribute given his oversight of security at each and every team practice since 2001.

"Ricky set a new standard for courage as he not only fought this disease, but did so with incredible spirit, dignity and determination."

-- Lions President Tom Lewand

WILLIAM CLAY FORD

OWNER AND CHAIRMAN

In an age where ownership changes and franchise moves in professional sports have become alarmingly commonplace, William Clay Ford continues to provide the Detroit Lions organization, its fans and the community with unwavering stability and sound leadership.

His commitment to the franchise is imprinted on virtually every aspect of the organization. By combining one of the finest sports and entertainment venues, Ford Field, and a world-class headquarters and training environment with a strong management team, Mr. Ford has instilled the organization with the right mix of fuel that will power the further development of the entire Lions organization.

In September 2008, Mr. Ford put the initial pieces together to form a strong leadership team that will lead this franchise on and off the field. For the first time in franchise history, the team begins the season with a new general manager, new team president and new head coach.

"It was vital to find the right individuals to direct this organization and lead this team so we can compete for a championship each and every year." Mr. Ford said. "I am committed to getting it right and providing a team that we all, especially our loyal fans, deserve so well.

"If there is one thing I am certain about, it is our determination to deliver a championship team to Detroiters, everyone around the state of Michigan and all the steadfast supporters that follow the Lions. We are consumed with that goal.

"Consequently, I needed to form a management team that will do just that from our football to our business operations. Tom (Lewand), Martin (Mayhew) and Jim (Schwartz) are highly intelligent and successful individuals who understand what it takes to win in this league. I believe they have compiled the right plan to do so and now we will all work together to execute it accordingly."

As it's always been with Mr. Ford, the ultimate mission is for the Detroit Lions to win a Super Bowl. Mr. Ford understands that with competitive realities of today's NFL, reaching the game's ultimate prize takes a concerted organizational effort both on and off the field. While everyone appreciates the importance of the coaching staff and the front office staff, you also need the proper infrastructure, such as a new stadium and a state-of-the-art practice facility.

Further evidence of Mr. Ford's commitment can be found in the Lions' return "home" to a new downtown Detroit stadium, Ford Field, in 2002. The $500 million stadium enhances the Lions' ability to compete in several facets of the game. In this NFL age of salary cap and free agency, the revenues produced from Ford Field help level the economic playing field with the Lions' NFL counterparts.

Ford Field has already influenced NFL leadership as it became the overwhelming factor in Detroit being awarded the right to host Super Bowl XL in February 2006. That championship game clearly added to the city's economic landscape in numerous ways, including a $260 million boost to Metro Detroit, and the impact the Ford family had on bringing the Super Bowl to Detroit was apparent.

"We wouldn't be here if it were not for the Ford family, who led the way in developing Ford Field as a catalyst for the redevelopment of downtown Detroit, including the return of the Super Bowl to Detroit," former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue pronounced in 2006 during his annual state of the league press conference held just prior to Super Bowl XL. "And the Ford family's leadership has certainly been a big part, not just of the NFL and NFL history, but of Detroit and our nation's history."

Ford Field is a key cog shaping further revitalized growth in the city of Detroit. The stadium's effect on the city will continue to be comprehensive with its contributions as it hosts several events besides Lions' games.

In May 2003, the Detroit News honored Mr. Ford as a Michiganian of the Year, an annual tribute to select citizens who made significant contributions to the state or local community, as he brought the Lions "back home" and opened Ford Field's doors to reap benefits for Detroit. In September 2005, he was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame.

Additional confirmation of his steadfast dedication to the team was the completion of the team's $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park, Mich., that opened in April 2002 as the NFL's premier training center.

"If there is one thing I am certain about, it is our determination to deliver a championship team to Detroiters, everyone around the state of Michigan and all the steadfast supporters that follow the Lions. We are consumed with that goal. Consequently, I needed to form a management team that will do just that from our football to our business operations. Tom (Lewand), Martin (Mayhew) and Jim (Schwartz) are highly intelligent and successful individuals who understand what it takes to win in this league. I believe they have compiled the right plan to do so and now we will all work together to execute it accordingly," Mr. Ford said.

Thanks to Mr. Ford's addition of the Lions Headquarters and Training Facility, the entire organization is now developing year-round in a world-class environment. Both the short-term and long-term impact are significant as the team trains under conditions second-to-none. This joint venture between the Lions and Ford Land Development Corporation provides state-of-the-art facilities for players' off-season workouts, training camp, and in-season meetings and practices.

Throughout his tenure as owner, William Clay Ford has guided the Detroit Lions organization with a sense of balance, integrity and honest leadership. Never one to seek the limelight, Mr. Ford has not sought public accolades for his many contributions to football, the automotive industry and his community.

Known as Bill Ford to his friends and business associates, his relationship with the Lions began during his childhood when his father, Edsel Ford, took him to the University of Detroit Stadium to see the first Lions' team play in their maiden season in the Motor City in 1934.

He became a club director in 1956 and was asked by then-Lions' President Edwin J. (Andy) Anderson to become the Lions' president in 1961.

In November 1963, Mr. Ford purchased the team outright for $4.5 million and officially took over the club January 10, 1964. The 2008 season will mark the 45th year of Mr. Ford's sole ownership of the club.

2009 marks the beginning of a new era for Detroit Lions football. From everything to the team's management all they way down to the logo on the helmet have changed with the mindset to improve this franchise and compete for championships. This past off-season has brought considerable changes to the organization starting with the promotion of Tom Lewand as team president and Martin Mayhew as general manager. Lewand oversees the direction of the organization, including business operations, and Mayhew is responsible for all football matters. Both set out in January to find the best coach for this team, and they did so when the team hired Jim Schwartz, who most recently served as defensive coordinator for the Tennessee Titans over the past eight years, as the Lions' new head coach.

With Lewand and Mayhew in place, they set forth a plan that will elevate this team to new heights and they haven't wavered from that plan, which forged ahead during free agency and the draft.

"I look forward to 2009, and hopefully this will be the season that will catapult us back on the road to a championship title. Each year we must make progress to achieve our goal of winning a Super Bowl, and I feel that we can get there with the organization and plan we now have in place. I have enjoyed seeing our coaching and player personnel staffs work together efficiently and effectively and make decisions that improve this team. It is not about one player, one coach or one GM, it is about everyone moving forward in concert with our plan and executing it on a daily basis."

Of course, Mr. Ford's other passion in life is the automotive industry, he being the only surviving grandson of inventor and auto pioneer Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company.

For the entire Ford family, 2003 marked a year of great pride and celebration as Ford Motor Company commemorated its historic 100 years as an icon in American industry.

In May 2005, Mr. Ford retired from the Board of Directors of Ford Motor Company after nearly 57 years of service. He remains director emeritus on the Board of Directors. Mr. Ford most recently served as a member of the Board of Directors and was on the company's Finance Committee, and in years past served on its Governance Committee. He had been a board member since 1948 and was chairman of the company's Design Committee from its inception in 1957 until his retirement as vice chairman in March 1989.

Utilizing his expertise in design, Mr. Ford was also on special assignment as a design consultant focusing on the Jaquar.

During his career with the company, Mr. Ford gained special satisfaction and acclaim as the executive in charge of the design, development and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, the successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father Edsel in 1939. In 1973, Mr. Ford was appointed vice president-Product Design.

Mr. Ford was elected to the Board of Directors in 1948 and began his employment at Ford following graduation from Yale University. He served several executive positions before appointment as vice president and general manager of the Continental Division in 1954. In 1956, he assumed responsibility for corporate product planning and design.

When the Design Committee of Ford's Policy and Strategy Committee was formed in 1957, Mr. Ford became the committee's first chairman, a post he held until retirement in 1989

In 1978, Mr. Ford was elected chairman of the Executive Committee and appointed a member of the Office of the Chief Executive. He was elected vice chairman of the Board in 1980 and chairman of the Finance Committee in 1987. He retired as chairman of the Finance Committee in 1995.

The youngest of Edsel's four children, William Clay Ford was born March 14, 1925. Following a tour of duty with the U.S. Naval Air Corp in World War II, he enrolled at Yale, where he lettered in both tennis and soccer at the Ivy League school. As a collegian, he won league tennis titles in singles and doubles, and he earned All-American honorable mention honors in soccer. In fact, he was a nationally-ranked tennis player until two Achilles tendon surgeries relegated him to the sidelines. Mr. Ford's athletic participation today includes golf, a game in which he became nearly a scratch performer, while registering a remarkable seven (7) holes-in-one over the years.

He graduated from Yale with a bachelor's of science degree in economics and then joined Ford's sales and advertising staff. He later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

Mr. Ford also is chairman emeritus of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford. He is an honorary life trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center, is a national trustee for the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of America and honorary chair of the United Way Community Services. He is also on the Texas Heart Institute National Advisory Council. Mr. Ford received an honorary doctor of science degree from the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, Calif., in 1981.

Mr. Ford's generosity as a benefactor was again recognized in 1997, as the outdoor courts of the University of Michigan's new tennis center were named in his honor. Also, a new addition to Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital (which bears the name of Mr. Ford's grandfather) opened in 1996 - The William Clay Ford Center for Athletic Medicine - which is one of the leading sports medicine treatment and research institutions in the country.

He is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio. They are the parents of three daughters— Martha, Sheila and Elizabeth— and a son, William Clay Ford, Jr., who serves as the Lions Vice Chairman, in addition to his role as Executive Chairman of Ford Motor Company.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD, JR.

VICE CHAIRMAN

William Clay Ford, Jr. has made a positive and lasting impact on the Detroit Lions since assuming his current post of vice chairman in February 1995. He remains focused not only on creating a winner in the present, but also on ensuring success well into the 21st century, both on and off the field.

Ford shares his father's commitment and devotion to the Lions and also has a burning passion to win. Like his father, he wants nothing less than to see the Lions regarded as one of the premier franchises in the National Football League and to produce a championship for Lions fans everywhere.

to produce a championship for Lions fans everywhere.
"We have re-evaluated every aspect of our organization and we will continue to do everything necessary to have success on and off the field," said Ford. "It is vital that we provide our fan base with a winner and reward their passion for the Lions.

"Our focus is to work every day to improve in every area, and this is consistent in both our football and business operations. We understand that the most important thing we can do for our fans is to win and to do so consistently.

"Over the past several months Tom (Lewand), Martin (Mayhew) and Coach (Jim) Schwartz have improved this team in many areas. I firmly believe that there is an exciting future for this team, and I look forward to seeing the development of this team this year and for several years to come."

To see Ford's influence off the field, one has to look no further than Ford Field in downtown Detroit and the team's headquarters and practice facility in Allen Park. Both are considered among the best respectively in all of sports, and were shaped by Ford's resolve for the Lions to be a leader in the NFL.

Ford's dedication and commitment to the fans was never more evident than when he spearheaded the team's stadium negotiations that led to the 1996 decision and announcement to build Ford Field. Due largely to his determination and perseverance, the Lions struck a deal with the city of Detroit and Wayne County that established the foundation for the Lions to return to downtown Detroit in 2002.

Ford's vision of a downtown stadium had perhaps its finest moment to date when it played host to Super Bowl XL in February 2006. It received extraordinary reviews by the international community.

In addition to developing new homes for the team to practice and play, Ford played a vital role in Detroit's bid for Super Bowl XL. Through his leadership, the Ford Family, the Lions and Ford Motor Company were integral in Detroit's impressive hosting of Super Bowl XL that exceeded expectations. Overall, there was a $260 million economic impact generated by Super Bowl XL, including $100 million in downtown improvements, $10 million in emerging businesses—the most in Super Bowl history—and $6 million in the NFL/Boys & Girls Club Youth Education Town—the largest in the country.

Though satisfied with progress made so far by the development of Ford Field, Ford continues to push for the stadium to become an even greater benefit to the community and its growth.

"Since we opened the doors in 2002, Ford Field has delivered on our vision to provide the City of Detroit with a venue that positively impacts the city's economy. Our initiatives have surpassed that, and the result of the numerous and, many times, record-breaking events we have at Ford Field stimulate the entire Metro Detroit region and even the state. Whether a fan goes to a Lions game, enjoys a concert or attends other events, we want their experience to be positive and leave with a lasting impression of who we are as an organization, a city and state."

Since the decision was made to move to downtown Detroit, Ford also wanted to provide a world-class practice facility to complement the team's stadium project. The $36 million Allen Park facility, which opened in April 2002, has universally been identified as one of the best facilities in the NFL. Its state-of-the-art football facilities, including an indoor practice facility with a regulation-size field, provide the ideal training center for NFL players and coaches.

In Ford's 14 years in his current role, he has helped the Lions take major steps forward on several fronts. Ford has strongly supported an active community outreach program which has been recognized as the best of any team in all of professional sports.

Through Ford's support, Detroit Lions Charities, which has awarded more than $5.2 million in total donations during its 19-year history, continue to serve Detroit and the State of Michigan. In the past five years, Detroit Lions Charities distributed an annual average of nearly $500,000 to various organizations. Featured among the Lions' philanthropic efforts is the collaborative effort with Detroit Public Schools and Communities in Schools of Detroit to open the Detroit Lions Academy. The school, which opens its doors for its eighth year this fall, offers an alternative school environment for approximately 140 sixth, seventh and eighth grade students. Ford has been a significant supporter of the team's contribution in numerous other community programs, such as the sponsorship of the Think Detroit PAL youth football program—one of the nation's largest tackle football leagues.

Involvement in the community does not stop at the team's community outreach and charitable contributions, as Ford also emphasizes the importance in growing the game of football and the development of youth. The Detroit Lions Youth Football program is one the most extensive youth sports programs operated by a professional sports team. From numerous youth camps held statewide to coaching clinics, the goal of the program is to impact children's lives on and off the field through the game. Ford believes it is valuable to grow youth's interest in football and assist in the development of youth coaches.

Under Ford's direction, the team has launched one of the most aggressive business operations in all of sports. Many elements to this are derived primarily from events held at Ford Field and the benefits generated from both Lions games and other ancillary events. Ford ensures that every aspect of the team's business operations ultimately focus on the impact they have on the Lions' ability to win.

Two major changes occurred this spring that illustrate this aggressive approach. In April, the team introduced comprehensive changes to the team's brand that includes a new, fierce-looking logo and other unique branding elements. A month earlier the organization re-vamped the Lions merchandise operations with a strong emphasis on improving customer service, including re-launching the team's retail store at Ford Field, now known as "Lions Pro Shop," and the team's online retail store, Detroitlionsstore.com.

Over the years, Ford's leadership has generated several key business initiatives, including the Lions being one of the first pro sports teams to launch its own website. The club also entered into a partnership with Infinity Broadcasting (now CBS Radio), a relationship it extended in 2005, for the Lions' radio broadcast rights and started production on weekly radio and television shows that air throughout the sporting and entertainments events in the nation.

Beyond football events youth football, Ford Field said William Clay Ford, Jr. hosts some of the largest

In 2009, Ford Field hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four, a first for downtown Detroit, which shattered tournament attendance records, provided the Metro Detroit area with a $30-50 million economic boost over the weekend and provided a number of community outreach initiatives that will have a lasting impact on the city of Detroit. An example of those outreaches was the newly-created legacy program that established early learning and literacy centers in the Detroit community. Ford Field was the host site for the Midwest Regional Finals in March 2008, and the event also broke NCAA Regional and preliminary round attendance records with over 57,000 people attending each session.

Next April, the focus will again be back on Ford Field as Detroit hosts the 2010 NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four. Like the basketball events, the mid-field configuration is expected to set all-time attendance records for that event. Ford Field will become the first venue in NCAA history to host the Final Four and the Frozen Four in back-to-back years.

In other past roles within the NFL structure, Ford has served on the NFL's Finance Committee and NFL Properties

Though football remains a passion for Ford, his father and his family, his top priority remains serving as Ford

"We have re-evaluated every aspect of our organization and we will continue to do everything necessary to have success on and off the field. It is vital that we provide our fan base with a winner and reward their passion for the Lions. Our focus is to work every day to improve in every area, and this is consistent in both our football and business operations. We understand that the most important thing we can do for our fans is to win and to do so consistently. Over the past several months Tom (Lewand), Martin (Mayhew) and Coach (Jim) Schwartz have improved that range from the NFL this team in many areas. I firmly believe that there is an exciting future for this team, and I all the way down to look forward to seeing the development of this team this year and for several years to come,"

Motor Company's Executive Chairman. His current role is a professional and personal commitment, as he leads the company founded by his great-grandfather, American automotive pioneer Henry Ford. A member of the Board of Directors since 1988, he assumed the role of Chairman of the Board January 1, 1999. He also served as Chief Executive Officer from October 2001 through September 2006. Additionally, he serves as Chairman of the Board's Finance Committee and as a member of the Environmental and Public Policy Committee.

Among his many outside leadership roles, he serves as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford, Chairman of the Detroit Economic Club, and Chairman of the Executive Committee of Detroit Renaissance.

Born in Detroit in 1957, he is an avid fly fisherman and car enthusiast, enjoys playing hockey and tennis, and is a black belt in the martial art of Tae Kwon Do. He holds a bachelor of arts degree from Princeton University and a master of science degree in management from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT).

TOM LEWAND

PRESIDENT

Tom Lewand, who was named team president December 29, 2008, oversees the team's day-to-day operations and reports to Mr. Ford on all business, organizational and NFL matters. Now in his 15th season with the Detroit Lions, he guides the overall direction of the franchise.

Lewand's fundamental principle is to consistently present the Lions as a first-class organization with a clear sense of mission and direction.

Among his responsibilities, Lewand is the chief contract negotiator and architect of the salary cap, and he oversees all day-to-day business operations of both the Detroit Lions and Ford Field entities. This includes the management of finance, football administration, player development, security, equipment operations, medical staff, ticketing, sales and marketing, public/media relations, broadcasting, human resources, Ford Field operations and administration, acquisition of events and the development of Ford Field's lease space in the stadium's progression as a multi-use facility.

An extremely talented, creative and aggressive businessman, Lewand has held a myriad of positions and responsibilities within the front office during his tenure with the Lions, most recently as executive vice president and chief operating officer.

On a league-wide level, Lewand is involved in several key business and labor issues. He serves on the NFL Management Council's Club Executives Committee and was on the Committee on Revenue Sharing Qualifiers and the Special Committee on League Economics. Lewand represents the organization for all league-level business matters.

Lewand's leadership positions every aspect of the Lions' organization, including Ford Field operations, to significantly impact the Lions' drive for a Super Bowl title. For Lewand, everything from football transactions to Ford Field events influences the team's ability to compete and win.

In January 2009, Lewand and General Manager Martin Mayhew completed an exhaustive and thorough search for a head coach that would lead the team on the field. On January 16, they completed that process as the team announced the hiring of Jim Schwartz, one of the most experienced and successful defensive coordinators in the NFL. Schwartz has unique experience having served several years as an assistant under Titans Head Coach Jeff Fisher and worked in player personnel while Bill Belichick was the head coach for the Cleveland Browns. Schwartz's philosophy on the game and how to build a successful team, along with his experience contributing to winning organizations and working under successful coaches, made him the right choice for the Lions new head coach.

During his tenure with the Lions, Lewand has negotiated player contracts totaling more than $1 billion.

On April 25, within just a few hours of the NFL Draft, Lewand completed extensive and complex contract negotiations with QB Matthew Stafford, this year's first overall selection, which involved several challenges given the current realities of the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement. Despite those complexities, Lewand led the team's efforts to sign the top pick prior to the draft, one of the most important goals that both he and Mayhew set forth for the entire offseason.

Lewand's additional contract highlights include: the Lions' last 17 first-round draft choices, RB Barry Sanders' last NFL contract, the contracts of Pro Bowl players (WR Roy Williams, DT Shaun Rogers, CB Dré Bly, DE Robert Porcher, DT Luther Elliss, LB Stephen Boyd, WR/KR Desmond Howard, K Jason Hanson and TE David Sloan) and recent free agent acquisitions.

On the business side, Lewand constantly evaluates and reviews opportunities to grow the team's business operations, a process that incorporated two major improvements this past offseason.

In April, the Lions announced a new comprehensive brand that launched changes to the team's logo and uniforms, a new team logotype and font and streamlined branding elements. The evolution of the Lions brand is the most complete and all-encompassing modification in franchise history. Though the new brand features the most significant change to the Lions logo since it was first placed on the team's helmet in 1961, the Lions brand now extends beyond the logo on the helmet and presents a consistent visual identity in new, versatile and distinctive ways.

In March, the team partnered with MainGate on a 10-year exclusive retail and merchandising agreement. The new partnership, which focuses on providing greater service to Lions fans and consumers, includes significant improvements to the organization's retail operations. Headlining the overhaul is the re-vamped team store at Ford Field, now know as "Lions Pro Shop," and the re-launch of the Lions' online store, Detroitlionsstore.com.

Under Lewand's guidance and direction, Ford Field has become the crown jewel of downtown Detroit and serves as a cornerstone in the city's urban renewal and revitalization efforts. The facility opened to rave reviews in 2002, with the publisher of the Detroit Free Press stating that Ford Field "tells [Detroiters] who we are and suggests what we can be. Now it's up to the rest of us to create a downtown and a city that matches the vision Ford Field realizes."

Ford Field shined in 2006 when the city of Detroit hosted Super Bowl XL. Lewand served as the point person for the Lions and Ford Field on the Host Committee for Super Bowl XL, and was among the key figures leading the city's hosting of the game and events surrounding Super Bowl XL, which was widely-acclaimed as successful and critical to Detroit's future growth. By hosting the Super Bowl at Ford Field, this offered the injection of a $260 million economic boost to the Metro Detroit region. Previously, Lewand played an instrumental role in developing the strategic bid plan in pursuit of Super Bowl XL.

Behind Lewand's leadership, Ford Field once again stepped to the forefront this past April as Detroit, for the first time, hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. The championship culminated six years of planning, that included Lewand representing the organization for a successful bid in 2003, alongside the NCAA to present the Final Four in a way that it has never been done before and one that will impact future sites.

This year's event included a center-stadium configuration that utilized the entire stadium seating structure along with customized risers. Ford Field broke long-standing records, including: attendance for Final Four Friday (nearly 30,000), the National Semifinals (72,456) and National Championship game (72,992). Overall, a record 145,378 fans attended the Final Four.

By hosting the Final Four, Ford Field was the centerpiece for a weekend that had an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit. Besides the economic impact, a number of community outreaches took place that will improve the area for years to come, including the newly-created legacy program that established early learning and literacy centers in the Detroit community. Attendance records were not only restricted to inside Ford Field, the ancillary events, such as Hoops City, set their own records as well. All of these events generated a tremendous opportunity for both residents and visitors to enjoy downtown Detroit over a five-day period.

With the Final Four now a tremendous success, Lewand's leadership is guiding the organization to once again work with the NCAA to elevate another one of college sports' most popular championships, the 2010 Men's Frozen Four. Following the success of the center-stadium configuration for the men's basketball championships, the Frozen Four will be played under a similar set-up that will enable more hockey fans than ever before to experience this event growing in popularity.

Ford Field will become the first venue to host the Men's Final Four and the Men's Frozen Four in back-to-back years.

In April 2007 Ford Field hosted WWE's Wrestlemania 23 that set a new Ford Field all-events attendance record (80,103) and had a $25 million impact on the Metro Detroit area

Additionally, Lewand continues to lead in the development of Ford Field events, including college football (Division I regular season games, MAC Championship and Motor City Bowl), MHSAA high school football, concerts, motorsports and various trade shows.

Lewand possesses a strong educational background, having received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Michigan in 1991, and completing both a law degree at the University of Michigan Law School and his master's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan Business School in 1996. Lewand aided the Michigan football program in various capacities on a volunteer basis while attending the school. He also worked for the Lions on a parttime basis while completing work on his graduate degrees.

In 1991, Lewand served as an environmental advisor for the Governor of Indiana, Evan Bayh. Following a year in that position, he entered graduate school at Michigan. He spent time working for the law firm of Dickinson Wright in Detroit, and the Chicago law firm of Kirkland and Ellis. In the summer of 1993, he worked in the White House in the Counsel's Office for Presidential Personnel.

Lewand's family history is also entrenched in the Detroit area community. His father, F. Thomas Lewand, works as an attorney and was both the Chief of Staff for former Governor James Blanchard and the Chairman of the Michigan Democratic Party. His late grandfather, Joseph B. Sullivan, was a judge in the Michigan Court of Appeals and was the deputy mayor of Detroit in the 1960s.

Lewand is active in the community, acting as Immediate Past Chairman of the Detroit Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau and serving on the Boards of Directors of the Detroit Zoological Society, the Downtown Detroit Partnership, the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation and the Parade Company. He also is on the Corporate Advisory Board for the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business. Lewand was named as one of Crain's Detroit Business "40 Under 40" in 1998, which honored and recognized 40 top business people in the Detroit area under the age of 40. Lewand has also been recognized nationally twice, in 2003 and 2005, by the Sports Business Journal as one of the top "40 under 40" sports executives in the United States.

He and his wife, Suzanne, have four daughters: Cayleigh, Paige, Shannon and Erin.

LIONS UNVEIL NEW COMPREHENSIVE BRAND Team modifies team logo and uniforms and introduces new branding elements

On April 20, Lions President Tom Lewand unveiled the Detroit Lions' new comprehensive brand that launched changes to the team's logo and uniforms (changes detailed in Uniform History on Page 270), along with streamlined branding elements. The evolution of the Lions brand is the most complete and all-encompassing modification in franchise history.

As part of the new comprehensive brand, the Lions also introduced a new logotype and a new proprietary font, "NFL Lions." The new logotype is additional imagery that presents the Lions brand and will be featured in such prominent places as the endzone marking at Ford Field.

"We will consistently present the Lions as a first-class organization with a clear sense of mission and direction," Lewand said at the team's unveiling this past spring. "We have made several significant changes this offseason in accordance with that commitment. The introduction of this new brand identity is another element of that process. Today is an exciting and historic day for this franchise.

"The new identity retains many important aspects of our history in terms of our primary mark and our colors. However, the evolution allows us to present our Lions brand and visual identity in new, versatile and distinctive ways. We stand firmly committed to improving the team on the field. That success is always the most determinative factor of any NFL brand."

MARTIN MAYHEW

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT ® GENERAL MANAGER

Martin Mayhew, now in his ninth season with the Lions, was promoted to general manager December 29, 2008 and reports directly to Mr. Ford on all football matters.

Mayhew, the team's executive football decision-maker, is building the Lions through a plan that focuses on developing a physically-tough football team. Mayhew adamantly believes that the players that will lead the Lions will be smart football players, and show great character and work ethic.

The process of improving the Lions success on the field continued this past January with the team's search for a new head coach. Along with President Tom Lewand, Mayhew searched for the right coach who shared his philosophies with the following characteristics: strong communication and leadership skills, a track record of success in the NFL, demonstrated ability to overcome adversity, the right mixture of youth and experience, and a coach with enthusiasm and energy for the challenge ahead.

The search concluded with the hiring of Jim Schwartz, who was the Tennessee Titans defensive coordinator for the past eight years. Schwartz is unique because he brings tremendous experience as a coordinator and position coach in the NFL, but he also previously worked in player personnel when he began his NFL career. These attributes appealed to Mayhew, and both have worked in concert on free agency and the 2009 draft—critical areas that will significantly impact the Lions' future success.

Along with the coaching staff, Mayhew is re-organizing the team's player personnel department. From the beginning, the team set out to add a personnel executive who was successful in overseeing both pro and college scouting in the NFL. That was completed with the hiring of James "Shack" Harris, who has worked 22 years in scouting including the past six seasons as Jacksonville's vice president of player personnel. Along with the hiring of Harris, the Lions' player personnel department, under Mayhew's direction, is undergoing a geographical realignment that will improve the team's scouting operations.

In his role as general manager, Mayhew oversees the player personnel department, including college and pro scouting, and plays an integral role in the coordination of the team's salary cap objectives and negotiation of player contracts.

Mayhew and Lewand collectively work on all team matters pertaining to the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement and League policies and procedures.

In addition, the coordination of all football operations, managed day-to-day by Vice President of Football Operations Cedric Saunders, is under the direction of Mayhew. This includes team travel, training camp operations, security, medical staff, equipment operations, video department and cafeteria staff. Mayhew also works on many of the Lions' football-related legal matters and human resources.

In February 2001, Mayhew joined the Lions' front office as senior director of football administration/staff counsel. After illustrating his talents and work ethic for two years, Mayhew was promoted February 3, 2003 to senior vice president of football administration/legal affairs. On October 14, 2004, he was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager.

Throughout his journey leading up to his current post, Mayhew has kept an eye on the future and has always thought one step ahead, as evidenced by his strategic exposure to several jobs and internships while earning his law degree from Georgetown's Law Center (2000). He is one of two Lions' front office executives with law degrees, and he is also a member of the Florida Bar.

During the 1999 NFL season, while attending law school, Mayhew served a nine-month internship in the Washington Redskins' pro personnel department, which exposed him to the responsibilities of an NFL scouting department. While with the Redskins, he scouted NFL players and late NFL cuts and also assisted in the evaluation of college players for the 2000 NFL Draft. Mayhew also had two separate internship stints with the NFL in both the labor operations and legal departments. In labor operations, Mayhew worked closely with NFL executives on issues involving player contracts and the salary cap. With the legal department, Mayhew assisted the NFL's in-house labor counsel by researching legal issues, digesting cases in preparation for arbitration hearings and drafting legal memoranda related to player injury and non-injury grievances. He also was exposed to corporate law while working for Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, L.L.P. in Washington D.C., one of the NFL's primary firms used as outside counsel. At Akin Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, he researched legal issues, wrote legal documents and assisted firm associates and partners in preparation for litigation.

Mayhew played nine years in the NFL as a cornerback for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96). He was the Bills' 10th-round selection in the 1988 NFL draft and was a starter on the Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI championship team.

Mayhew entered the league after graduating from Florida State with a bachelors of science degree in business management. While at FSU, he was a National Merit and Achievement Scholar and earned GTE CoSida Academic All-America honors. He was also a two-sport athlete, lettering on both the Seminoles' football and track teams. Between graduation and the draft, Mayhew was a corporate trainee at First Union National Bank in Charlotte, N.C.

Mayhew has also been extremely involved within the community throughout his professional career. In 1993, while playing for Tampa Bay, Mayhew was given the Chelo Huerta Community Service Award, and the following year he was a nominee for the True Value Hardware Man of the Year. From 1995-96, Mayhew was the Bucs' United Way Spokesperson. Mayhew is a member of the American Bar Association and the Sports Lawyers Association.

Mayhew and his wife, Sabrina, have a daughter, Sierra, and two sons, Ryan and Justin.

When asked about what attracted Jim Schwartz to the Lions head coaching position, he stated, "You're not going to find a more passionate fan base in the NFL than Detroit. You talk about ownership and a commitment to winning. That's critical. Without those two, I don't think it's an attractive opportunity. I think Detroit offers both of those."

At age 43, Schwartz, hired by the Lions January 16, 2009, brings a unique blend of coaching and player personnel experience to the Lions head coaching position. Schwartz has spent the past 16 seasons in the NFL—13 years as a coach and three in player personnel— working his way up from an entry-level football operations position to a NFL head coach. As a defensive coach, he began as a defensive assistant and quality control coach, progressed to position coach and then succeeded as a defensive coordinator for nearly a decade despite the constant nature of change in today's NFL.

Schwartz begins his tenure in Detroit following 10 seasons with the Tennessee Titans, including the past eight as defensive coordinator. While with the Titans, he worked under Head Coach Jeff Fisher, one of the most successful coaches in the NFL over the past 15 seasons. In 2008, Schwartz's defense guided the Titans to an NFL-best 13-3 record and an AFC South title. The Titans' defense finished the season ranked in the top 10 in several key defensive categories, including: defensive points allowed (third, 14.2), total yards allowed (seventh, 293.6), rushing yards allowed (sixth, 93.9), passing yards allowed (second, 161.0), third down percentage allowed (6th, 35.0) and sacks (fifth, 44).

Tennessee's defense was one of only six teams to finish among the top 10 in the league in both rushing yards and passing yards allowed.

As the Titans' defensive coordinator since 2001, Schwartz's defensive unit held firm in two major categories that factored significantly in the team's overall success: rushing defense and third down conversion. From 2001-08, Tennessee ranks fifth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.5) and sixth in third down conversion (36.1). Through 2008, the Titans allowed just nine rushers over 100 yards during the past 64 home games.

During his tenure as defensive coordinator, the Titans claimed two AFC South titles (2002 and 2008), earned two other AFC Wild Card spots (2003 and 2007), and in four seasons finished with 10 or more wins, including 2002 (11–5), 2003 (12–4), 2007 (10–6) and 2008 (13–3).

Over the past two seasons, the Titans claimed 23 victories and their winning percentage of .719 (23-9) was the third-best in the NFL. They are one of only three teams (New England and Indianapolis) with 23-or-more wins. Since 2006, the Titans overall record is 31-17 (.646), which is tied for the fourth-best record in the league.

The Titans success can be attributed to the team's ability to adapt, and Schwartz did that on defense during his tenure as coordinator. Not known for one specific defensive philosophy, Schwartz tailored his defenses based both on personnel and on particular game strategies.

In 2007, the Titans defense helped rejuvenate the team and led the team's return to the playoffs. Among the NFL's

Jim Schwartz brings a unique blend of coaching and player personnel experience to the Lions head coaching position. Schwartz has spent the past 16 seasons in the NFL—13 years as a coach and three in player personnel— working his way up from an entry-level football operations position to a NFL head coach. As a defensive coach, he began as a defensive assistant and quality control coach, progressed to position coach and then succeeded as a defensive coordinator for nearly a decade despite the constant nature of change in today's NFL.

rankings, Schwartz's defensive unit completed the season among the league best in the following categories: total yards allowed (fifth, 291.6), rushing yards allowed (fifth, 92.4), passing yards allowed (10th 192.2), defensive points allowed (17.3, 7th), first down yards per play allowed (4.34, first), sacks (40, seventh) and takeaways (34, sixth).

The Titans limited three teams in 2007 under 200 total offensive yards, and All-Pro RB LaDainian Tomlinson was held to the lowest rushing total of his career (42) with 20 or more carries in the Titans' playoff game at San Diego.

Schwartz managed a defense that, much like the rest of Tennessee's team, was in transition during the 2005 and 2006 seasons. That unit replaced seven regular starters from the 2004 squad with new and, often younger, talent. Schwartz's defense held their own throughout the process, and one example of that was when Tennessee held the Super Bowl Champion Indianapolis Colts and their high-powered offense in 2006 to a combined 31 points in both games, the lowest tally allowed by a Colts division opponent in the history of the AFC South.

The 2005 Titans defense was one of the youngest defenses in the NFL with their average years of experience being only 3.5 years. That defense included two starting rookie cornerbacks for only the second time in the team's 46-year history, and the unit ranked eighth in third down percentage allowed (35.5), ninth in sacks (41) and second in three-and-out drives (31.3 pct.).

For just the second time in franchise history, and first since 1993, Schwartz put together a defense that finished first in the NFL in rushing defense. Finishing in the top 10 in rush defense extended the team's streak of nine consecutive seasons ranked in the top 10. That nine-year streak was also the longest streak in the league at the time.

As remarkable as it was for the Titans defense to finish first in rushing yards allowed, it was even more remarkable of a feat considering the talented rushers they faced nearly week-in and week-out. That year, the Titans faced eight (total of 10 games) of the NFL's top 13 rushers who combined for 12,018 yards on the season. The Titans' defense dominated the league's leading rusher, Ravens RB Jamal Lewis who rushed for over 2,000 yards that season, in the AFC Wild Card game as the team held Lewis to just 35 yards. It was Lewis' second-lowest career single-game rushing tally as a starter in the NFL through that year.

Combined with the stellar rushing defense was the strong effort by the defense on third down, once again proving a common theme of Schwartz's defense. The Titans led the league in third down defense by allowing an opponent conversion percentage of 27.7. It was the lowest in franchise history and the lowest in the NFL since 1998 (Oakland Raiders, 26.3).

Beyond those two categories the Titans defense ranked fourth in the AFC in red-zone defense (43.9 pct.), fifth in the AFC in takeaways (34) and it recorded the most interceptions (21) by a Titans defense since 1995.

In just his second-year as the Titans defensive coordinator, Schwartz's defense finished in the top 10 as they persevered through a season which they lost All-Pro DE Jevon Kearse to injury and added six new defensive starters. In 2002, the Tennessee defense finished fifth overall in defensive points allowed (282).

Prior to his eight seasons as the Titans defensive coordinator, Schwartz contributed to the Titans defense as the linebackers coach where he also coordinated the team's third down package in 2000. That year, the Titans led the NFL in opponent third down efficiency by allowing a league-low 30.8 percent. He also was instrumental in the integration of newly-acquired linebacker Randall Godfrey into the Titans defensive scheme, as he set career highs in tackles (169) and interceptions (2).

As the Titans' defensive coordinator from 2001-08, Schwartz's defensive unit held firm in two major categories that factored significantly in the team's overall success: rushing defense and third down conversion. From 2001-08, Tennessee ranks fifth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.5) and sixth in third down conversion (36.1). During his tenure as defensive coordinator, the Titans claimed two AFC South titles (2002 and 2008), earned two other AFC Wild Card spots (2003 and 2007), and in four seasons finished with 10 or more wins, including 2002 (11-5), 2003 (12-4), 2007 (10-6) and 2008 (13-3).

Schwartz originally joined the Titans in 1999 as defensive assistant/quality control. In his first year with the club, the team claimed the AFC Championship and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXXIV.

Before joining the Titans in 1999, he spent three years (1996-98) as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the Baltimore Ravens. During his tenure in Baltimore, he also coached the team's outside linebackers. After the Cleveland Browns moved to Baltimore following the 1995 season, Schwartz made the transition from player personnel to coaching. From 1993-95, he worked in the Browns' player personnel department, serving as both a college and pro scout. During his time with the Browns, he also assisted the coaching staff, headed by Bill Belichick, on defense with film breakdowns and scouting reports.

In addition to his pro coaching and scouting experience, Schwartz worked on the college level for four years before moving onto the NFL. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Maryland, tutoring the Terrapins' linebackers from 1989-90 and then served as graduate assistant at the University of Minnesota (1990-91). He became a position coach in the secondary at North Carolina Central (1991-92) before moving to Colgate (1992) as linebackers coach.

The Baltimore, Md., native was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker at Georgetown University, where he earned a degree in economics. He received Distinguished Economics Graduate honors at Georgetown, and in 1989 he earned numerous honors that include Division III CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-America, All-America and team captain.

Schwartz and his wife, Kathy, have twins Christian and Allison along with a younger daughter Maria.

Detensive Line	1969-71

Cunningham is a 40-year coaching veteran on the college and pro levels, including the past 27 seasons in the NFL. He has been a defensive coordinator in the league for 10 seasons and a head coach (Kansas City, 1999-2000) for two. Cunningham has also worked with linebackers and defensive linemen for 16 of his seasons in the pros. As a coach in the NFL, Cunningham has earned the respect of both his peers and players for his intense and straightforward approach to coaching. He is known as a strong motivator who emphasizes the importance of an aggressive and hard-hitting defense. Additionally, Cunningham also brings the elements of being a talented defensive teacher and tactician.

From, 2004-08, Cunningham served as the Kansas City Chiefs defensive coordinator during his second stint with the organization. In 2008, he also coached the team's linebackers as the Chiefs' defense began a transition with six new starters and endured numerous injuries throughout the season. From 2004-07, his imprint on the defense was prevalent in several areas.

In 2007, Cunningham's defense ranked in the top five in nine different defensive categories, including a league-high in third-down defense (30.2 pct.), negative plays forced (121) and 10+play drives (1). The Chiefs ranked second in allowing touchdowns on defensive possessions (37.2 pct.) and in Red Zone defense (37.2 TD pct.). Kansas City was third in the league by allowing just 28 offensive touchdowns, the lowest tally for the team since 1997. The defense allowed 18.6 offensive points per game, the lowest for the Chiefs since 1999.

Overall, Kansas City's pass defense ranked fifth in the NFL in 2007 allowing only 188.9 yards per game. They also tied for fifth in three-and-outs forced (47) and first downs allowed (278).

After just two seasons following his return to Kansas City, Cunningham improved the Chiefs rushing defense that ranked 30th in the league in 2003 (146.5 yards allowed per game) to seventh in the NFL in 2005 (98.1 yards allowed per game). The 98.1 rushing yards allowed per game was the lowest the Chiefs yielded since 1997. In 2005, the Chiefs were ninth in Red Zone defense (46.7 TD pct.) after ranking 27th the previous season. They also tied for the second highest tally of forced fumbles that year with 33.

In 2004, Cunningham began the process of improving the team's defense as Kansas City tied for seventh in the NFL with 41.0 sacks, the club's best total since 2000, Cunningham's last year as Kansas City's head coach.

Cunningham coached alongside Schwartz at Tennessee (2001-03) under Head Coach Jeff Fisher where he served as the Titans assistant head coach/linebackers. In those three seasons, the Titans defense helped the franchise earn two playoff berths. From 2001-03, the Titans led the league in rushing yards allowed (86.5 yards per game) and were third in opponent's third down percentage (33.6). In 2003, Tennessee's defense led the NFL in both rushing defense (80.9 yards per game) and opponent's third-down percentage (27.7). That year, LB Keith Bullock earned a spot in the Pro Bowl under Cunningham's tutelage as his position coach.

As head coach for the Kansas City Chiefs from 1999-2000, Cunningham compiled a 16-16 (.500) record. In 1999, the Chiefs were 9-7 and tied with the Seattle Seahawks with the best record in the AFC West but lost out on a playoff tie-breaker. Cunningham became the first coach in Chiefs' history to claim nine wins in his first season as Chiefs' head coach. In 1999, the Chiefs led the NFL with a +21 turnover margin and set a team record by scoring nine defensive touchdowns. In his two seasons, his club was 4-0 against Denver and defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion St. Louis Rams October 20, 2000 54-34 in a high-scoring affair.

As defensive coordinator for the Chiefs from 1995-98, the defense was a key cog in Kansas City compiling a 42-22 (.656) record, including a 23-9 record (.719) against the AFC West. In those four seasons, the Chiefs allowed a NFL-low in offensive points (16.4 points per game), and led the league in scoring defense during the 1995 (15.1 points per game) and 1997 (14.5 points per game) seasons. Cunningham's defenses were critical in Kansas City producing an AFC-best +30 turnover margin from 1995-98, as they were responsible for 127 takeaways. They also scored 77 points on 10 touchdowns and four safeties. The Chiefs produced 172.0 sacks over those four years, a total which ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL over that span.

The 232 points allowed by the Chiefs in 1997 was a franchise record for a 16-game season. That season, they set a NFL record, previously held by the 1934 Detroit Lions, by not permitting a second half touchdown in 10 consecutive games. They led the AFC in interceptions (21) and total takeaways (34), and ranked second among NFL team in opponents' third-down percentage (31.6). Kansas City's 54.0 sacks in '97 were the second-highest total in team history, leading the AFC and ranking third in the NFL.

In 1995, Kansas City's defense was even better in terms of actual offensive points allowed as opposing offenses scored an average of just 12.9 point per game, and they were ranked second in the entire league by allowing just 284.3 yards per game. They also ranked third in rushing defense (82.9 yards per game). Additionally, the Chiefs led the league in scoring defense, turnover margin (+12), touchdowns allowed (23) and yards allowed per play (4.3).

Cunningham not only has compiled great defensive units, but he has coached and mentored several Pro Bowl and All-Pro players. He shared a special bond as a mentor to the late, great nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas, who concluded his illustrious career as the all-time leading sack artist in Chiefs history with 126.5 QB takedowns. Cunningham served as Thomas' position coach in '97, helping him earn his final Pro Bowl invitation. He also coached DE Neil Smith (second in Chiefs history with 86.5 sacks) and DE Jared Allen, who earned his first spot in the Pro Bowl after the 2007 season when he lead the league in sacks with 15.5. Another defensive linemen who excelled under Cunningham was DT Dan Saleaumua. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 1995 after anchoring the team's defensive front.

In the secondary, CB Dale Carter and CB James Hasty were the most formidable cornerback tandems in Chiefs history, as they combined for six Pro Bowl berths, and each intercepted 21 passes.

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Cunningham spent four seasons (1991-94) with the Los Angeles Raiders, as linebackers coach (1991), defensive coordinator (1992-93) and defensive line coach (1994). As the Raiders defensive coordinator, his defense ranked ninth in the NFL both seasons, and they allowed a NFL-low 11 touchdown passes in 1992.

Cunningham was the San Diego Chargers defensive line coach for six seasons (1985-90) after originally being hired by the team's player personnel department. During those six seasons, the chargers led the AFC in sacks three times and garnered a club record 62.0 in 1986. As the defensive line coach, he developed DE Lee Williams and DE Leslie O'Neil into Pro Bowl players.

In 1982, Cunningham entered the NFL coaching ranks when he joined the Baltimore Colts coaching staff, learning from the late Bud Carson. He was the team's defensive line/linebackers coach from 1982-84. Before entering the NFL ranks, his previous pro coaching experience was as the defensive line/linebackers coach for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 1981 with head coach Frank Kush who also hired Cunningham in Baltimore.

As a college coach, Cunningham's last stop was at California. Cunningham coached the Bears defensive line from 1979-80, the linebackes in 1978 and secondary in 1977.

Prior to his stop in Berkeley, Cunningham coached at the Stanford Cardinal from 1973-76. He was hired by Head Coach Jack Christensen, a Hall of Fame defensive back for the Detroit Lions in the 1950s and a member of the Lions 75th Season Alltime Team. While at Stanford, he coached the defensive line from 1974-76 and was the assistant offensive line and freshmen coach during his first year in 1973.

Cunningham worked at the University of Arkansas in 1972 on a staff headed by Frank Broyles that included Joe Gibbs and Raymond Berry.

In 1969, Cunningham began his coaching career at the University of Oregon, his alma mater. He was with the Ducks program for three years from 1969-71 where he began his longtime relationship with another noted defensive coach, George Seifert. Cunningham was a graduate of Oregon and was a linebacker and kicker for the Ducks from 1966-68.

Cunningham played his prep football at Lompoc High School in Lompoc, California. He was then recruited to play at Allan Hancock College by Hall of Fame coach John Madden. Madden left the school prior to Cunningham's freshman year and was replaced as head coach by Ernie Zampese.

Cunningham is just one of four foreign-born individuals in league history to ever serve as an NFL head coach, joining Hugo Bezdek (Cleveland Rams, 1937-38), Jock Sutherland (Pittsburgh, 1946-47) and Al Saunders (San Diego, 1986-88). Born in Munich, Germany, he moved to Greenfield, Mass., at the age of 10 in 1956 with his mother Katharina and his adoptive father, Air Force Sergeant Garner Cunningham.

Cunningham and his wife, René, have two children, Nathalie and Adam.

Linehan joins the Lions coaching staff after spending the past three seasons (2006-08) as the head coach of the St. Louis Rams. He is now entering his eighth season as an NFL coach, going on 20 years of coaching experience.

In his first season as a NFL head coach, Linehan quickly put his stamp on the Rams in 2006 via the ground game, giving the ball to RB Steven Jackson 346 times in 2006 – the most by a St. Louis player in 20 seasons. Jackson finished the year with 1,528 rushing yards (3rd, NFC), 105 first downs (1st, NFC) and 2,334 all-purpose yards (1st, NFL), earning his first-career Pro Bowl appearance. Jackson averaged 21.0 carries per game over Linehan's three-year span with the Rams compared with 16.9 carries per game in 2005 and established himself as one of the NFL's big running threats.

Other Rams saw career bests under Linehan. QB Marc Bulger passed for a career-best 4,301 yards in 2006, setting franchise records with a 1.4 interception percentage and 588 passing attempts. His 370 completions for 24 touchdowns were also second in Rams' history. That season, WR Torry Holt and WR Isaac Bruce finished with 1,188 and 1,098 yards, respectively, combining for 167 pass receptions.

In addition to his three seasons as an NFL head coach, Linehan brings four years of league experience as an offensive coordinator. He spent the 2005 season with the Miami Dolphins, improving the team's total offense from 4,960 yards (29th, NFL) in 2004 to 5,198 yards (14th, NFL) in 2005 and bettering the run game from 402 rush attempts (31st, NFL) in 2004 to 444 (12th, NFL) in 2005.

That year, the Dolphins' two primary running backs – Ronnie Brown and Ricky Williams – combined for 1,650 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns. WR Chris Chambers earned his first-career Pro Bowl appearance under Linehan, finishing with 82 catches for 1,118 yards and 11 touchdowns, marking his only 1,000-yard season.

Linehan broke into the NFL as an offensive coordinator/ quarterbacks coach with Minnesota in 2002, helping the Vikings to some of its best offensive seasons to date, ranking second, first and fourth from 2002-04. During his tenure, the Vikings compiled a franchise-best 36 consecutive games of 300-yards-or-more of total offense (2002-04) and, in 2004, compiled a franchise-best five games of 400-yards-or more of total offense.

In Vikings history, his offenses also rank first and second in total yards (6,339 yards, 2004; 6,294 yards, 2003), first and second in first downs (351, 2004; 350, 2002), second and third in touchdowns (51, 2003; 50, 2004), second in points (416, 2003), first in passing first downs (225, 2004), first in rushing touchdowns (26, 2002) and second and third in rushing yards (2,507 yards, 2002; 2,343 yards, 2003).

Minnesota's top offensive players had some of their best years under Linehan, including QB Daunte Culpepper and WR Randy Moss, who each had career years while he was with the Vikings. Moss became the team's featured 'big man' in 2002 after the departure of WR Cris Carter, starting 45 games over that span and garnering two Pro Bowl selections (2002, 2003).

Moss finished with 106 catches for 1,347 yards and seven touchdowns in 2002 while his 111 receptions for 1,632 yards in 2003 remain personal bests. He also tied a career high in 2003 with 17 touchdowns, a personal best he held until he brought in 23 in 2007 with New England.

Culpepper also had some of his best seasons with Linehan calling the plays, including a career year in 2004. That year, his second Pro Bowl season, Culpepper finished with a rating of 110.9 for the fourth-highest in NFL history and his 69.2 completion percentage (379-of-548), league-leading 4,717 passing yards, 8.6 yards per play average and 39 touchdowns still mark career bests.

Linehan was able to effectively utilize the Culpepper-Moss tandem over his three seasons with the Vikings, bettering the team's total points to 390, 416 and 405, respectively, after Minnesota scored 290 points in 2001. He maintained the team's solid performance through the air, as the offense ranked 9th, 4th and 2nd, respectively, throughout his three seasons.

But even with the dynamic passing game, Linehan also made significant improvements to the team's running game. Prior to his arrival in 2001, the Vikings finished 25th in the league with 376 rushing plays for 1,609 yards (4.3 average). In 2002, Linehan helped the Vikings to the league's top ground game, finishing with 473 rushing plays for 2,507 yards (5.3 average).

That year, Minnesota's running game was led by Michael Bennett, who earned his first Pro Bowl selection following the 2002 season. He finished the year 11th in the NFL in rushing with a career-best 1,296 yards – his only 1,000-yard performance to date – on 255 attempts. In 2003, Linehan utilized a trio of runners – Moe Williams, Onterio Smith and Bennett – to finish third in the league in rushing with 493 rushing plays for 2,343 attempts.

Linehan coached collegiately for 13 years on teams that played in seven bowl games and won five conference titles: one Pac-10, two Conference USA and two Big Sky. Five of Linehan's quarterbacks were drafted by NFL teams: Louisville's Chris Redman and Dave Ragone, Washington's Broke Huard and Marques Tuiasosopo and Idaho's Doug Nussmeier.

He was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Louisville from 1999-2001, coaching the team to three bowl games and becoming the first Conference USA team to win consecutive league championships. A Louisville quarterback earned Conference USA Player of the Year honors in each of Linehan's three seasons.

Prior to his time in Louisville, Linehan spent five years at the University of Washington (1994-98), advancing to four bowl games and winning the 1995 Pac-10 title. He also spent four total seasons at Idaho, his alma mater, as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1992-93) and as the wide receivers coach (1989-90) and Linehan spent one season at Nevada-Las Vegas (1991) as the quarterbacks coach. While a coordinator with Idaho in 1993, the Vandals led the nation in scoring (47.5 points per game) and total offense (532 yards per game).

Linehan was a quarterback for Dennis Erickson's Idaho Vandals from 1982-86, winning the Big Sky title in 1985 and making the Division I-AA playoffs in three straight seasons (1984-86). He signed as a rookie free agent with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987, but a shoulder injury ended his playing career.

Born in Sunnyside Washington, Linehan and his wife, Kristen, have three sons: Matthew, Michael and Marcus.

Shawn Jefferson is in his fifth season coaching with the Lions. He was named wide receivers coach for the 2008 season after working with the team's wide receivers the previous three seasons as a coaching intern in 2005, an offensive assistant in 2006 and as the assistant wide receivers coach in 2007. Jefferson spent the 2003 season with the Lions as a player and brings 13 years of NFL playing experience to the club.

Jefferson helped Lions WR Calvin Johnson establish himself as one of the NFL's best receivers in 2008 as he tied for first in touchdown receptions (12), fifth in receiving yards (1,331), second in yards per catch among receivers with 60 receptions (17.1), tied for second in 20+-yard receptions (21), tied for second in 40+-yard receptions (7) and tied for first in 25+-yard touchdown catches (6). Johnson was also named an alternate to the 2009 NFC Pro Bowl squad.

In the Lions record books, Johnson became only the second player in team history (WR Herman Moore in 1995) to record 70 receptions, 1,200 yards and 10 touchdowns in a single season. He is the only player in Lions' history to record 1,300 yards with less than 80 catches. His 12 touchdowns tied for the most touchdown grabs (Leon Hart in 1951) by a first or second year player with the Lions and his 1,331 receiving yards are the second-most in team history by a first or second year player.

In 2007, the Detroit Lions were the only team in the NFL and the first in franchise history to have four different players finish with more than 650 receiving yards (Shaun McDonald, 943; Roy Williams, 836; Calvin Johnson, 756; Mike Furrey, 664). Detroit's wide receiving unit was also second in the NFL in receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,370).

While working as an offensive assistant in 2006, Jefferson helped WR Roy Williams to a NFC-leading and career-high 1,310 receiving yards. He also worked with the NFC's receptions leader Mike Furrey (98 receptions for 1,082 yards). It was the first time since 1999 that two Lions receivers finished with more than 1,000 yards.

In addition to his time with the Lions as a player, Jefferson spent five seasons with San Diego, four with New England and three with Atlanta, accumulating over 7,000 yards receiving and 29 touchdowns. Jefferson also played in Super Bowl XXIX with the Chargers and Super Bowl XXXI with the Patriots.

Jumping right into the coaching ranks following his playing career, Jefferson spent the 2004 season as a volunteer coach with his high school alma mater, William Raines H.S. During his tenure at William Raines, he spent the month of June with the Jacksonville Jaguars as part of the team's Scouting Seminar.

Jefferson attended Central Florida where he starred as a wide receiver and kick returner. Jefferson finished with 67 catches, 1,087 yards and 11 touchdowns. As a returner, Jefferson returned 39 kickoffs for 782 yards (20.1 avg.).

HARRIS
PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

Years with Lions: 1

James Harris joins the Lions player personnel department after spending the past six seasons (2003-08) as the Jacksonville Jaguars vice president of player personnel. While directing the Jaguars player personnel area, he oversaw all player acquisitions, including: college draft, free agency, undrafted player signings and the scouting of players in other professional leagues.

the scouting of players in other professional leagues.

Known affectionately as "Shack," Harris brings 34 years of NFL experience to the Lions' front office, with the past 22 years working in player personnel and scouting.

Harris originally began his front office career in 1987 when he joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a scout, a position he would hold for six years (1987-92). He then moved on to the New York Jets and served as the team's assistant general manager from 1993-96. In 1997, Harris was named the director of pro personnel for the Baltimore Ravens. He was a member of the Ravens player personnel department from 1997-2002, and he earned a Super Bowl ring with the Ravens as the team claimed a world championship with a victory in Super Bowl XXXV.

In 1969, Harris was drafted by Buffalo in the eighth round of the draft—an achievement of its own right since he was just one of a few blacks ever drafted at quarterback at the time. He would play for the Bills from 1969-71, and he would become the first black in NFL history to open the season as a starting quarterback. Harris then played for Los Angeles from 1973-76. While with the Rams, he was the Pro Bowl MVP in 1975 after throwing two touchdowns in a 14-13 win over the AFC. In 1976, he led the NFC with an 89.8 passer rating, which included a 436-yard outing against the Miami Dolphins. He concluded his career in San Diego where he played for the Chargers from 1977-81.

Harris has also impacted the community through the Shack Harris Doug Williams Foundation, which is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization dedicated to creating opportunities for economically disadvantaged youth. The foundation, established in 2005 with fellow NFL quarterback pioneer and Grambling State alumnus Doug Williams, provides grants for after-school initiatives, leadership development, mentoring programs and minority higher education assistance.

Lesnau's involvement with the stadium development has spanned all the way from 1996, when a new state of the art stadium was proposed for downtown Detroit. He has also coordinated a long-term financing arrangement for the stadium and warehouse projects, and the implementation, upgrade and standardization of accounting and reporting systems for the new ventures in order to facilitate an integrated financial system for team and stadium operations.

This past off-season, Lesnau and his finance group, in conjunction with the organization's business operations, revamped the team's entire retail operations and entered into a 10-year agreement with MainGate to become the exclusive retail and merchandising company for the organization. This agreement involved a complete re-launch of the team's official team store, now know as "Lions Pro Shop," e-commerce operations and is now the team's internal merchandise department..

Over the past six years, Lesnau was instrumental in the development and implementation of a new combined budget strategy and process for the Lions and Ford Field, thus allowing the organization to strategically plan the direction of the two entities.

In his prior role, Lesnau established reporting controls to more effectively monitor the overall performance of the organization. He also revamped all computer operations of the team and implemented a new system for both financial operations and administrative areas of the club.

Lesnau gained five years of business and accounting experience with the international accounting firm of Ernst & Young from 1973 to 1978. He joined the Lions in 1978 as an accountant, took on the additional duties as travel coordinator in 1980, and was promoted to controller in 1991. He was promoted to the position of vice president of finance and chief financial officer in 1996. Prior to the team's relocation to Detroit, Lesnau was the primary contact with the City of Pontiac and the Pontiac Silverdome.

Lesnau graduated with honors from Michigan State University in 1973 with a degree in business administration/accounting and is a Certified Public Accountant. Lesnau is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the Michigan Association of CPAs, and the Financial Executives Institute of America.

Lesnau's involvement with local charities includes positions as treasurer of Detroit Lions Charities and member of Board of Directors of Detroit Lions Courage House, Kolo Charities the Russ Thomas Scholarship Fund and numerous other charitable organizations. He also serves as a trustee on several local community organizations and governmental boards.

Lesnau is married to wife, Liz, and currently resides in Waterford. The native of the Detroit area has lived substantially all of his life in the Detroit metropolitan area.

IKAIKA ALAMA-FRANCIS

Defensive Tackle Hawaii Ht: 6-5 Born: 12/4/84

Draft: '07, R2 (58)-Det

3rd Year Wt: 290 Oahu, Hawaii

MANE FACTS

- Alama-Francis' father, Joseph, was a backup to Packers legendary quarterback Bart Starr in the late 1950s and early 1960s, and he played for Vince Lombardi.
- First began his athletic career at Hawaii as a walk-on for the school's basketball program, playing hoops for the 2002-03 season. He was noticed by the Rainbow Warriors Head Football Coach June Jones and was asked to join the football program due to his tremendous combination of size and athleticism.
- As a member of the basketball team in 2002-03, he appeared in nine games.
- Helped deliver thousands of pounds of food to numerous Metro Detroit relief agencies at the Lift Up America event, September 25, 2007 at Ford Field.
- Participated in the 9th annual United Way Hometown Huddle helping to build a $65,000 fitness trail at the NFL/Youth Education Town Boys & Girls Club in Detroit.
- Did not grow up a fan of football, but did enjoy basketball and was a big fan of Michael Jordan.
- His favorite actor is Arnold Schwarzenegger and is a huge movie guy. His favorite movie of all time is Predator.
- Prior to every game, Alama-Francis has to have his war paint (eye black) on his face, which is a ritual he's done since college. When he has it on, he feels ready to go.
- Two places in particular that he'd love to visit are Hong - Kong and Italy.

 Once his football career is over, he would like to become a counselor and help troubled teens and kids which is something he's always wanted to do and feels he can make a difference.

PRO: Ikaika (ee-KY-kah) Alama (ah-LA-mah)-Francis was tabbed "the most talented defensive lineman I've ever coached," by former Hawaii defensive coordinator and former NFL head coach Jerry Glanville. After grinding through injuries during a tough rookies season, Alama-Francis rebounded to become a regular contributor in his second pro season, playing 13 games with two starts. His versatility will allow him to compete at defensive tackle where he'll bring power, speed and athleticism to the position.

2008: Moved into regular defensive end rotation and recorded 38 tackles (19 solo) on the season.

- Inactive for season opener at Atlanta (9/7).
- Posted three tackles vs. Green Bay (9/14).
- Posted four tackles (two solo) and half a sack (career first) at Houston (10/19).
- Tallied a career high six tackles (two solo, including a tackle for loss) vs. Washington (10/26).
- Recorded first career start at Carolina (11/16) in place of an injured Jared DeVries at the left defensive end position.

PERSONAL: Son of Rolenda Alama-Francis and Joseph Francis. After father's NFL playing days, he later served as the long-time head football coach at Pearl City High School in Hawaii.

- Born December 4, 1984.
- Attended Kalaheo High School in Kailua, Oahu, Hawaii where he lettered in basketball, volleyball and baseball.
 Did not play football in high school.
- Member of the state championship basketball team as a junior.
- First-team all-state selection in volleyball and basketball.
- Two-time league player of the year in volleyball and basketball.
- Four-time all-league performer in basketball.

A well-rounded competitor who battles with aggression and shows good initial quickness off the snap to gain advantage on the defender, Backus was the first Lions' first-round selection to start all 16 games as a rookie since Luther Elliss in 1995. He was also the first Lions' offensive player selected in the first round to start all 16 games as a rookie since Lomas Brown in 1985.

2008: Team's starting left tackle. He started all 16 games for the eighth-consecutive season.

- Started in his 113th consecutive career game in season opener at Atlanta (9/7), and moved his current start streakto 126 games.
- Offensive line unit helped garner season-high 130 yards rushing at Carolina 11/16, which included rookie RB Kevin Smith's first career 100-yard effort (112 yards).
- Matched up well against Colts defense, primarily blocked DE Dwight Freeney in pass rush situations at Indianapolis (12/14) as the unit did not allow any sacks on the day.

 COLLEGE: Starter for the Wolverines at left tackle from 1997-

2000. Finished his career with 49 consecutive starts, one shy of the school record of 50 by Detroit Lions offensive lineman Jon Jansen

- Teamed with Seattle Seahawks 2001 first-round pick, guard Steve Hutchinson, to man the left side of Michigan's offensive line in every campaign since their freshman year.
- Earned All-Big Ten honors four-straight years and was an All-American second-team selection by College Football News and ABC Sports, earning honorable mention from CNN/Sports Illustrated and consensus All-Big Ten first-team pick as a senior, as well as being a candidate for both the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Awards.
- Co-recipient of the Hugh H. Rader Award for his junior and senior years, given to the team's top offensive lineman.
- In 1999, he was an All-Big Ten first-team selection by the media,

- and earned University of Michigan Athletic Academic Achievement
- honors after starting every game at left tackle. Started at left tackle during Michigan's march to the 1997 Rose Bowl and had a hand in Wolverines winning a piece of the National Championship (Associated Press).
- General studies major. Earned degree in December 2000 PERSONAL: Born Jeffrey Carl Backus on September 21, 1977 in Midland, Mich. Selected to first-team All-USA squad by USA Today at Norcross (Ga.) High. Was picked to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Super 11 and the Super Seven of the Macon Touchdown Club and was - chosen as the Gwinnett Touchdown Club Lineman of the Year. Named All-American by Scholastic Coach, Schutt Sports, Reebok, Prep Football Report, Super Prep and was a member of Blue Chip Illustrated's Dream Team.

MANE FACTS

- Was a fan of the New England Patriots while growing up. Has an appreciation for various aspects of different offensive linemen's strengths, such as: Seahawks T Walter Jones' feet, former Ravens' T Jonathan Ogden's length and former Saints/Rams/Chiefs T Kyle Turley's mindset. PAPER LION

Filming of the George Plimpton book, "Paper Lion," began in early 1968. Alan Alda starred as Plimpton, the Sports Illustrated feature writer who masqueraded as a quarterback with the Lions during training camp. The world premier was held Thursday, October 3, 1968, at the Adams Theatre. The film introduced Lauren Hutton to the silver screen, and featured actual members of the Detroit Lions, including coach Joe Schmidt, Alex Karras, John Gordy, Mike Lucci, Pat Studstill and Roger Brown.

The 2003 season marked the 40th anniversary of George Plimpton's visit to Lions' training camp when he began writing the original script for his book. Last year was also the 35th anniversary of the "Paper Lion" movie release.

The Detroit Lions reunited most of the cast in 2003 with a "Paper Lion" reunion that was held in September. Forty players, including Plimpton and Karras, rekindled friendships that formed during their experience together in the 1960s. The reunion turned out to be the final chapter of Plimpton's life as he passed away days later (September 26, 2003) at the age of 76.

THE ORIGINAL DETROIT LIONS OFFICES

Where were the first offices of the Detroit Lions located? Shortly after the club's move from Portsmouth, Ohio, Lions owner G.A. Richards, who also owned radio station WJR, set up Head Coach George "Potsy" Clark with a temporary office in room 2107 of the Fisher Building, in downtown Detroit. The Lions now operate primarily from their new headquarters in Allen Park, and some portions of the organization are housed in the warehouse portion of Ford Field.

PRO: Harris continues his progress as one of the league's most productive and punters. He is valuable asset in terms of the battle for field position. In his first four full seasons with the Lions (signed for last 11 games in 2003), Harris increased his gross punting average—40.9 in 2004, 43.5 in 2005 and 45.0 in 2006, and he registered his second highest punting average in 2007 with 44.3. Harris also increased his net punting average from 2004-06 with 34.2 in 2004, 36.9 in 2005 and 38.7 in 2006, an he recorded his third-highest net average of his career in 2007 with 36.4. In 2006, he finished strong with two top-10 rankings amongst NFL punters as he was fifth in gross punting (45.0 avg) and tied for eighth in net punting (38.2 avg). He had one of the best outings in the NFL in 2005 while proving to be one of the league's most accurate punters as he led the NFL with a net differential (punts downed inside the 20-yard line minus the number of touchbacks) of 32. Harris' 34 punts downed inside-the-20 was the highest in the league. The Lions originally signed Harris October 14, 2003. He played the 2001-02 seasons and the first five games of 2003 with the Cincinnati Bengals before being released October 7, 2003. Originally drafted by Denver Broncos in fourth round of 2001 NFL Draft (120th overall) and then was waived on August 28, 2001, but was claimed by the Bengals just one day later.

2008: Had another strong season pinning opponents deep in their own territory with 22 punts inside-the-20 and only 5 touchbacks. His 38.0 net punting average this season is the third-highest tally by a Lions punter since net punting became an official statistic in 1976.

- At Atlanta (9/7), Harris punted six times for 255 yards (42.5 avg.), including 2 inside the 20.
- Against Green Bay (9/14), Harris punted six times for 208 yards (34.7 avg.) with three landing inside the 20.
- ➢ His 40.3 net punting average vs. Chicago (10/5) was the second highest average against the Bears since the beginning of 2006, All-Pro KR Devin Hester's first season, by a team that punted at least 8 times, and only the second team to record a net average over 40 yards (minimum 8 punts) in that span.
- Since 1976 (first year that net punting became an official NFL stat), Harris, at Houston (10/19), recorded the best per punt difference between gross punting and net punting in games with at least four punts. Harris registered a per punt net difference of -3.0 between his gross punting average and net punting average.
- Punted the ball a season high nine times for a career high 431 yards, including three kicks inside the 20 vs. Tennessee (11/27). Also added a special teams tackle.

ERIC HICKS

Defensive End Maryland Ht: 6-6 Born: 6/17/1976 Draft: '98, FA-KC

11th Year Wt: 280 Erie, Pa. Acquired: '09, FA

MANE FACTS

- Growing up in Northwestern Pennsylvania, Hicks grew up as a hardcore Steelers fan and stayed a loyal fan up until he entered the league.
- Currently, Hicks is a fan of American Idol, House, Lost and Fringe.
- For the first three years Hicks was in the league he would throw-up prior to each game. Now, he just walks around the locker room and gets ready to go before game time. During the offseason Hicks has been getting into more radio
- work. He's done some analysis at Kansas City Chiefs games in the past. Hicks has been told that he has the perfect deep, loud voice for radio broadcasting and would like to get into that field post-football.
- Hicks' daughter, Shayla, had numerous heart surgeries when she was a baby and after doing a lot of work with the American Heart Association, Hicks and his wife founded the Hicks for Hearts Association. The foundation was formed in 2001 and supports children and the families of children with congenital heart defects, which affected his daughter.
- Shayla, at the age of three months in 1999, fought for her life in the intensive care unit of a Kansas City hospital while undergoing two surgeries to repair heart defects. After spending several months at Children's Mercy Hospital in 1999, she has been healthy and her prognosis is good. Shayla was featured on a CBS special that announced the Phil Simms All-Iron Team in 2002, a squad that included her father. Was a spokesman for the Midwest Transplant Network and the March of Dimes, and has hosted a golf tournament to - raise money for his foundation.

 Hicks would also like to get into coaching at the high school level because, "that's where everything starts.

Jansen also opened up running lanes for Portis to post more than 120 yards rushing in five consecutive contests and become only the second player in NFL history with with 120 rushing yards in five consecutive games twice in a career (0.J. Simpson in 1973 and 1975). Over that five-game span (Week 3-8), he helped pave the way for Washington to average 174.6 rushing yards per game, the most in the NFL. Also led way for Portis to tie a club record for most consecutive 100-yard rushing games in five straight contests, a record sharted by Rob Goode (1951), Portis (2005) and Ladell Betts (2006). Over the five-game span he helped pave the way for the Redskins to average 174.6 rushing yards per game, the most over that five-game stretch in the NFL.

Paved the way for Portis to rush for more than 120 yards rushing in five consecutive contests (121 at Dallas, 9/28; 145 at Philadelphia, 10/5; vs. St. Louis, 10/12; 175 vs. Cleveland, 10/19 and 126 at Detroit, 10/26).

BRYANT JOHNSON

Wide Receiver Penn State Ht: 6-3

Born: 3/7/1981 Draft: '03-R1 (17)-Arz 7th Year Wt: 215

Baltimore City, MD Acquired: '09, UFA-SF

MANE FACTS

- Growing up, Johnson enjoyed watching WR Jerry Rice and the San Francisco 49ers. He thought Rice was a great role model and a guy that he could one day be like.
- Johnson likes to watch classic television shows like Good Times, The Cosby Show, Martin and The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air.
- He owns a collection of watches that he labels as exquisite
- The first thing Johnson likes to do in the offseason is to try and take a vacation out of the country. It allows him to get away for awhile and put the previous football season and his personal performance in perspective.
- Johnson is currently in the process of starting a home preservation company.
- After his playing career, Johnson wants to help youth who excel in sports that are in the same situation that he was. His goal would be to teach them that school is very important and help them prepare for college and the rest of their life.

PRO: Signed with the Lions March 2, 2009 as an unrestricted free agent after spending the 2008 season with the 49ers. Johnson played in all 16 games last season, starting in 12, and finished second on the team with 45 receptions for 546 yards (12.1 avg.) and three touchdowns. Prior to his stint in San Francisco Johnson spent the first six years of his career with the Cardinals (2003-07). While in Arizona Johnson saw action in 77 games (39 starts) and recorded 210 receptions for 2,675 yards (12.7 avg.) and 9 touchdowns. Originally a first round (17th overall) draft choice by Arizona in 2003.

2008: Played in all 16 games with 12 starts. Was second on the team in receiving with 546 yards on 46 receptions and three touchdowns.

- Started at Seattle (9/14) and led team with six receptions (78 yards), which included a three-yard touchdown score in the second guarter to mark his first with the 49ers.
- Started his second game of the season replacing WR Josh Morgan (groin injury) and recorded his second touchdown of the season on a two-yard pass from QB Shaun Hill vs. St. Louis (11/16).
- Registered six catches for 49 yards, including a 3-yard touchdown pass in fourth quarter to seal 24-14 victory vs. the Jets (12/7).
- Caught 24-yard pass with 0:31 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter vs. Washington (12/28) which moved the 49ers into range for K Joe Nedney's game-winning field goal in a 27-24 win.

COLLEGE: Only sixth player in Penn State history to catch over 100 career passes, ranking fourth in school annals in receptions (110) and second in reception yardage (2,008) for an 18.3-yard average and 10 touchdowns. Only Bobby Engram (3,026 yards, 1991, 93-95) garnered more yards for the Nittany Lions.

- Led team in receptions final two years.
- Returned 41 punts for a single season school record of 528 yards (12.9 avg.), topping Branch's 464-yard 1999 effort.

PRO: Peterman was re-signed to a five-year deal February 17, 2009, solidifying four returning starters on the offensive line from 2008. He is entering his fifth NFL season and third with the Lions. Peterman first signed to Detroit's practice squad in 2006 and was promoted to the active roster for the team's final three games. The following year, he was inserted into the starting lineup at right guard in Week 4 due to injuries and played himself into a full-time starting role and has since started 27 games over the past two seasons. Peterman was originally a 2004 third round draft choice (83rd overall) by the Dallas Cowboys. At LSU, he played in 48 games with 35 starts, playing both left and right guard after switching from defensive end, which he played as a freshman. Was an All-American his senior season and was twice named first-team All-Southeastern Conference in his junior and senior seasons, respectively.

2008: Team's starting right guard. Played in 14 games (14 starts).

- Started at right guard as the team accumulated a season-high 130 yards on the ground, including 112 by rookie RB Kevin Smith (first career 100-yard game).
- Member of unit that did not allow a sack at Indianapolis (12/14). COLLEGE: An All-America and All-SECe first-team selection as a senior, Peterman was team leader and anchor of offensive line that helped lead the LSU Tigers to the SEC title and a win over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl to capture the 2003 national title.
- For his career, he appeared in 48 games at LSU, starting 35. He moved to right guard in his senior season, after starting 25 games over the previous two years at left guard, and allowed just one sack while playing a major role in leading an offense that averaged 418.4 yards-per-game.
- A first-team All-SEC pick as a junior, Peterman started the entire season at left guard and allowed only one sack.
- Peterman started his collegiate career as a tight end and spent his freshman season at defensive end.
- He made the switch to offense as a sophomore and started all but one game at left guard during a very successful second season, allowing only one quarterback sack.
- He played a key role in the Tigers 10-3 season that featured a win over second ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game and a 47-34 win over No. 7 Illinois in the Sugar Bowl.

KEVIN SMITH

Running Back Central Florida Ht: 6-1

Born: 12/17/86

Draft: '08, R3a (64)-Det

2nd Year Wt: 217 Miami, Fla. 34

MANE FACTS

- Grew up as a fan of the Miami Dolphins, though he was a big fan of Dallas Cowboys RB Emmitt Smith, WR Michael Irvin, TE Jay Novacek and CB Deion Sanders (when he was with the Falcons)
- One of Smiths' favorite TV programs is America's Best Dance Crew. His favorite actor is Denzel Washington and favorite movie is Training Day.
- On gamedays, Smith relies on the hot tub to relax and loosen himself up before meditating to get focused. He prefers to wear his socks high and, in fact, prefers two pair of socks.
 Collects Air Jordan tennis shoes.
- Among Smith's many post playing career interests are: starting a youth boxing club and opening a line of hair salons, barber shops and restaurants.

PRO: Smith enters his second NFL season looking to improve upon a productive rookie season in which he led the team in rushing attempts (238), rushing yards (976), rushing average (4.2) and rushing touchdowns (8). Detroit selected Smith with their first selection of the third round (64th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft. He had a tremendous college career becoming Central Florida's all-time leading rusher with 4,864 yards on 905 attempts (5.4 avg) after just three seasons in which he started 34-of-36 games.

2008: Was the team leader in rushing attempts (238), rushing yards (976), rushing average (4.2) and rushing touchdowns (8). Also fourth in the league among rookie rushers in yards and his eight rushing touchdowns were the third-highest tally by a rookie in Lions history.

- Started in professional debut at Atlanta (9/7), posting 16 carries for 48 yards and one touchdown. Also added 4 receptions for 32 yards.
- Started and recorded 10 carries for 40 yards and 4 receptions for 21 yards vs. Green Bay (9/14).
- Scored second career touchdown vs. Chicago (10/5) on 12-yard run.
- Broke for a career-high 50-yard run vs. Minnesota (10/12). It was the first time a Lions' running back has done so since T.J. Duckett ran for a 53-yarder vs. Kansas City (12/23/07).
- Scored third touchdown of season on a 26-yard run. Finished the game with 10 attempts for 61 yards (6.1 avg).

MANE FACTS

- As a New York Giants fan growing up, Smith looked up to Giants LB Lawrence Taylor and RB Maurice Taylor because he appreciated the violent manner in which they played.
- Looking forward to an acting career following his playing days. He has played minor roles in several upcoming films (which cannot be named due to production restrictions) and is considering some spot roles on CBS's The Unit.
- While playing in Cleveland, Smith had the opportunity to secure a significant role in a movie project, but the role would have required him to move to Morocco for seven months and due to his football commitments, he had to decline.
- Prior to every game, he takes a moment to reflect on his parents, who both died in recent years, and says a prayer to honor them.
- Smith collects cars and owns six Ford Mustangs. He enjoys buying and restoring them, something he hope to make a career of after his playing days end.

GRIDIRON HEROES...

As the new pro football franchise took root in Detroit, owner G.A. Richards called for an original fight song to be written for the Lions. In the late 1930s, Wayne State University director of bands Graham T. Overgard, who was also the Lions' director of entertainment, penned the lyrics and music for "Gridiron Heroes—The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions." The sound of "Gridiron Heroes" has become one of the NFL's oldest and most popular songs today, and it is still played after each Lions' score.

(Verse) Hail the colors Blue and Silver let them wave.
Sing the song and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,
Fighting for fame, winning the game.
Dashing to victory as they go.
(Chorus) Forward down the field,
A charging team that will not yield.
And when the Blue and Silver wave,
Stand and cheer the brave.
Rah, Rah!
Go hard win the game.
With honor you will keep your fame

DEEP IN THE HEART OF TEXAS

The Detroit Lions have a deep history of outstanding players who have Texas roots. Five of the teams All-Time team played college football in the Lone Star State, including : QB Bobby Layne (Texas), S Yale Lary (Texas A@M), RB Doak Walker (Southern Methodist), G Harley Sewell (Texas) and DT Doug English (Texas). Lane, Lary and Walker are all members of the pro Football Hall of Fame. Joining those stars on the franchise's all-time team are Texas prepsters CB Dick Lane (Austin) and RB Billy Sims (Hooks).

In fact, those roots go back even deeper with Layne and Walker who grew up only a few blocks apart in Dallas, Texas, and were friends as children. Both players started in the backfield at Highland Park High School in 1943. After stints in the military during World War II, Layne went to Texas University while Walker played for rival Southern Methodist University. The two were reunited when they joined the Lions in 1950.

That connection has been revisted with the Lions drafting QB Matthew Stafford with the first overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft. Stafford also is from Highland Park, Texas and went to the same high school as Layne and Walker. He was joined in the first round of this year's draft by another Texas prep star when the Lions drafted TE Brandon Pettigrew who is from Tyler, Texas.

The Lions' current roster with connections to the Lonestar State:

- Texas Tech: C Dylan Gandy (Harlingen), G Manny Ramirez (Houston), G Daniel Loper (Houston)
- Texas A&M: LS Don Muhlbach (Lufkin)
- Texas Christian: RB Aaron Brown (Katy)
- North Texas: LB Cody Spencer (Port Lavaca)
- Others Texas prepsters: TE Brandon Pettigrew (Tyler), QB Matthew Stafford (Highland Park)

The Lions dropped their first decision of the season, 34-21, at Atlanta. The Falcons opened up strong in the first quarter as rookie QB Matt Ryan orchestrated a 3-play, 74-yard drive, capped by a 62-yard touchdown strike to WR Michael Jenkins for the early 7-0 lead, and the first of three consecutive Falcons scoring drives. On the following Atlanta drive, RB Michael Turner broke down the field for a 66-yard touchdown run to put the Falcons up 14-0. Turner increased the lead, 21-0, two drives later as he ran in for a 5-yard touchdown with 3:25 remaining in the first quarter. The Lions' responded in the second quarter as QB Jon Kitna and RB Kevin Smith led the offense down the field in a 12-play, 59-yard drive. Kitna connected on 4-of-4 passes for 49 yards and Smith rushed five times for 16 yards, including a 3-yard touchdown scamper: marking the first touchdown of his NFL career: and to make the score 21-7. On the following drive the Lions' defense forced an Atlanta three-and-out as DE Dewayne White sacked Ryan for a loss of five yards on third-and-ten at the Falcons 38-yard line. With 0:55 remaining in the second quarter, the Lions' produced an offensive spark in a 4-play, 67-yard drive, including a 38-yard pass completion from Kitna to WR Calvin Johnson to set up a 21-yard touchdown strike in the corner of the end zone to WR Roy Williams ending the first half, 21-14. In Detroit's first possession of the third quarter, the Falcons defense put a halt to the Lions' potential scoring drive as a Kitna pass intended for Williams was intercepted by S Lawyer Milloy at the Atlanta 13-yard line. The Falcons capitalized on the pick with a K Jason Elam 50-yard field goal, giving Atlanta the 24-14 lead. After a Detroit three-and-out, the Falcons offense scored again on a 5-play, 68-yard drive, highlighted by a Ryan 46-yard pass completion to WR Roddy White which set the stage for a RB Jerious Norwood 10-yard touchdown rush and the 31-14 score. The Lions scored their final points of the game on the following drive as Kitna connected with TE Casey FitzSimmons on a 1-yard touchdown pass to cap the 8-play, 75-yard drive. In the first drive of the fourth quarter, Turner rushed three times for 33 yards, including a 7-yard run into the end zone; however, the touchdown was nullified due to an offensive holding penalty. Two plays later Elam hit a 25-yard field goal through the uprights to finalize the score and their 34-21 victory.

The Detroit Lions fell, 42-7, to the New Orleans Saints in their final home game of the season. The Saints were first to score in the games' opening drive as WR Skyler Green returned the kickoff for 60 yards to the Detroit 41-yard line and WR Robert Meachem capped the 5-play, 41-yard drive with a 20-yard touchdown run for the 7-0 score. The Lions attempted to respond on the ensuing drive as QB Dan Orlovsky connected with WR Calvin Johnson on a deep third-and-10 43-yard pass for a touchdown; however, the score was nullified due to an illegal procedure penalty and on the following play an Orlovsky pass intended for WR John Standeford was picked off at the New Orleans' 3-yard line by CB Jason David. The Saints capitalized on the interception on the following drive as they used up 8:23 of the first quarter on a 17-play, 97-yard drive orchestrated by QB Drew Brees who connected on 6-of-10 passes for 52 yards and RB Deuce McAllister carried the ball three times for 24 yards, including a 2-yard touchdown run for the 14-0 score at the end of the first quarter. The Lions' lone score of the game came in the first drive of the second quarter as RB Kevin Smith carried the ball seven times for 24 yards, including a 1-yard touchdown scamper up the middle with 9:49 left in the first half. The Saints responded on the next drive as they marched down the field and RB Mike Bell capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run for the 21-7 advantage. After a Lions' three-and-out the Saints scored again shortly after the two-minute warning as Brees connected on 4-of-5 passes for 49 yards and RB Pierre Thomas ran in from 2 yards out for the touchdown and the 28-7 lead as both teams headed off the field at halftime. The Saints scored quickly in the third quarter on a 3-play, 76-yard drive as Brees connected with WR Devery Henderson on a 64-yard pass to the Detroit 6-yard line to set up a 6-yard touchdown pass to WR Marques Colston for the 35-7 score. With 7:00 remaining in the third quarter the Saints Brees orchestrated the Saints' final scoring drive as he connected with 5-of-6 passes for 73 yards, including a 3-yard touchdown pass to Colston for the 42-7 score. Neither team scored again in the fourth quarter and the Saints left with the 42-7 win.

SUMMARY

In the final game of the season the Detroit Lions lost to the Green Bay Packers, 31-21. The Packers were the first to score with 9:02 remaining in the first quarter as RB Deshawn Wynn took off for a 73-yard touchdown and the 7-0 score. After back-to-back three-and-outs from both teams, the Lions attempted to get a drive moving; however, with 4:25 left in the quarter a QB Dan Orlovsky pass intended for WR Calvin Johnson was intercepted by CB Charles Woodson for a 23-yard gain to the Detroit 41-yard line. The Packers capitalized on the turnover on the following drive as QB Aaron Rodgers connected with TE Jermichael Finley on a 3-yard pass for a touchdown and the 14-0 lead. The Lions put their first points of the game on the board at the start of the second quarter as RB Kevin Smith carried the ball five times for 16 yards and Orlovsky connected with Calvin Johnson on third-and-nine for the 9-yard touchdown and the 14-7 score to end the first quarter. On first-and-10 with 11:42 left in the third quarter the Lions' defense came up with a big play as S Kalvin Pearson forced a RB Ryan Grant fumble and recovered the ball at the Green Bay 11-yard line. On the following drive the Lions capitalized on the fumble recovery as Orlovsky connected with Johnson on a 14-yard touchdown strike to tie the game 14-14. After two back-to-back scoreless drives, the Packers took over at their own 20-yard line on first-and-10 with 4:22 remaining in the third quarter and Grant ran down the field 80 yards for a touchdown; however, Detroit challenged that Grant was down by contact and the play was reversed. At the start of the fourth quarter the Packers were able to score again as K Mason Crosby connected on a 36-yard field goal for the Packers' 17-14 lead. After a Lions' three-and-out the Packers scored again as Rodgers connected with FB John Kuhn on a 5-yard touchdown pass and the 24-14 lead. The Lions responded on the ensuing drive as Orlovsky connected with WR John Standeford for two deep passes of 35 and 36 yards respectively to the Green Bay 9-yard line and Kevin Smith ran in 9 yards for the touchdown and the 21-24 score. On the following drive the Packers scored on a one-play, 71-yard drive as Rodgers connected with WR Donald Driver on a 71-yard touchdown bomb and the 31-21 score. The Lions' attempted to score again with 7:16 remaining in the game; however, on fourth-and-27 an Orlovsky pass intended for Calvin Johnson was picked off by S Nick Collins for a 61-yard gain with 3:03 left to play. Neither team was able to score again and the Packers got away with the 31-21 victory.

TEAM CAPTIANS

In 2007, the NFL launched a formalized initiative for teams to select season-long captain, up to six per team, with each player wearing the letter "C" on the upper right chest of their home and away jersey. The Lions have selected numerous captains over the years, both on a season and game basis. Below are captains selected by the team beginning with the 2007 NFL initiative.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's series with the Cardinals is the oldest in the history of the Lions' franchise. The first game was played October 5, 1930 between the Portsmouth Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals, and it ended in a scoreless tie. That game is one of two scoreless ties (other was a 0-0 tie played September 15, 1940) played between the Lions and the Cardinals in their series. The Lions own a 31-23-5 advantage over the Cardinals. September 30, 1934 marked the first occasion that the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Cardinals matched up, and the Lions were victorious 6-0. In all, the Portsmouth Spartans were 2-2-2 vs. the Chicago Cardinals. Detroit has registered a 19-9-3 mark against the Chicago Cardinals, a 5-4 record over the St. Louis Cardinals and have a 5-6 mark since the Cardinals moved to Phoenix. Detroit currently has a three-game winning streak against the Cardinals moved to Phoenix.

- currently has a three-game winning streak against the Cardinals.

 The Lions-Cardinals series is one of four series (Chicago, Green Bay and New York Giants) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural
- season in the NPL.

 The teams met twice in 1993 with Detroit winning both contests, 26-20 at the Silverdome September 26 and 21-14 in Phoenix December 12.

 Behind the record-setting performance by QB Charlie Batch at Arizona November 18, 2001 (a franchise record 436 yards passing), the Lions' offense set several team records and collected some of the franchise's highest totals in other team offensive categories. The Lions' 62 pass attempts set the team's single-game record by
- surpassing the previous high of 57 attempts accomplished vs. Chicago 10/9/88. The team's 36 completions are better than the 33 completions tossed at Cleveland 9/28/86 and vs. Green Bay 10/25/87. The Lions' established a new record for net passing yards by airing out 429 yards, which is better than the previous high of 395 vs. Minnesota 11/23/95. And the 22 first downs gained on pass plays is a new team record, passing the old mark of 20 set vs. Minnesota 11/23/95.

 Detroit snapped a five-game losing streak in the series in the 2003 season opener with a 42-24 win over the Cardinals at Ford Field. The win was the first for former Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci. OB Joev Harrington threw for a career high four

In Detroit's 26-12 win over Arizona December 5, 2004, RB Kevin Jones ran for a career-high 196 yards on 26 carries, 105 of which came in the first half. It is the second highest rushing total by a Lions rookie in team history, just one yard shy of Mel Farr's record of 197 yards on 24 carries at Minnesota (11/12/67). In the same 2004 contest, K Jason Hanson became the 20th player in NFL history to reach the 1,300-point plateau. WR Roy Williams caught a career-high three touchdown passes in the Lions 29-21 win over Arizona November 13, 2005 at Ford Field.

 The Lions trip to Arizona November 19, 2006 marked Detroit's first visit to the Cardinals newly-opened University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz.

- Aside from the NFL's most recent expansion additions (Baltimore, Carolina, Houston and Jacksonville), the seven meetings between the Lions and Bills is the fewest number of games the Lions have played against any opponent.

 Two of the seven games have been played on Thanksgiving Day, with the Lions winning both outings. Detroit won the first Turkey Day game between the two clubs 27-14 November 25, 1976 and the second Thanksgiving Day affair 35-21 November 24, 1994.

 In the 1976 meeting, D.J. Simpson put on one of the greatest individual performances in pro football history as he rushed for a then-NFL record 273 yards. Simpson's historic

- Thanksgiving Day performance wasn't enough as the Lions prevailed 27-14. The Lions defeated the Bills 20-17 in their first regular season visit to Ford Field. The victory also was Rod Marinelli's first as a head coach.
 Bills' owner Ralph C. Wilson grew up in Detroit and at one time was a Lions' shareholder. He attended the University of Michigan law school, is the Chairman of Ralph C. Wilson Industries and resides in Grosse Pointe Shores, Mich.
 The Lions and Bills have met each other in the preseason each year since 2002, and the two teams will once again face each other in the preseason Thursday, September 3 at Ralph Wilson Stadium in Buffalo. Overall, the teams have played 28 times in the preseason, with Detroit holding a 16-11-1 edge in the preseason series.

- SERIES NOTES

 ➤ The Lions and Panthers faced off in their inaugural contest October 24, 1999. Detroit visited Carolina's Ericsson Stadium and handed the Panthers a 24-9 loss. The Panthers' made five trips inside the Lions' five-yard line, and the Detroit defense forced two turnovers and yeilded only three field goals.

 ➤ The contest was also the first of two straight games in 1999 where Detroit's defense did not yield a touchdown. That accomplishment marked the first time since 1983 that the Lions have kept opponents out of the end zone in back-to-back games (45-3 win vs. Pittsburgh November 24, 1983 and 13-2 win vs. Minnesota December 5, 1983).

 ➤ The Panthers evened the series record at 1-1 with a 31-7 victory at Ericsson Stadium

- September 15, 2002.

 Despite having both a fumble return and a punt return go for touchdowns, the Lions fell short at the eventual NFC Champion Panthers, 21-14, on December 14, 2003.

 LB Boss Bailey (34 yards) and S Kenoy Kennedy (64 yards) each returned interceptions back for touchdowns in the Lions last-minute 21-20 loss against Carolina at Ford Field October 16, 2005. The last time the Lions had two interceptions for touchdowns in a game was at Seattle October 24, 1976 when Levi Johnson and Lem Barney both returned interceptions for touchdowns.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions hosted the Bears for the inaugural Thanksgiving Day game on November 29, 1934. The game, played in front of a then-record 26,000 fans at the University of Detroit Stadium, was won by the Bears, 19-16, giving the Bears the Western Division championship. NBC Radio Network broadcast the game coast-to-coast and a Thanksgiving tradition was born.
- a Thanksgiving Cautolion Was bold.

 On Thanksgiving Day (November 27) in 1997 the Lions downed the Bears 55-20 for their largest offensive output ever against Chicago. - Five contests between the two teams have gone to overtime—including both in 2002—with the Bears winning three of them. The most recent in the series occurred when Bears S Charles Tillman picked off a Lions QB Jeff Garcia pass and returned it for a score to claim a 19-13 win in overtime October 30, 2005.
- In the 2004 season opener, Detroit topped Chicago 20-17 to end its 24-game road losing streak. S Bracy Walker returned a blocked FG an NFL-record 92 yards to give the Lions a 10-7 advantage, and QB Joey Harrington found WR Az-Zahir Hakim for a fourth-quarter touchdown to give the Lions a 20-14 lead they would not relieve the Lions and the season of the control of not relinguish.
- Not the Lions trailing 13-3 going into the fourth quarter vs. Chicago at Ford Field September 30, 2007, the Lions reeled off an NFL record 34 points in the fourth quarter to claim a 37-27 win. It marked just the fifth time in NFL history a team scored 30
- to claim a 37-27 win. It marked just the fifth time in NFL history a team scored 30 or more points in a quarter. Detroit scored five touchdowns, including two passing, one rushing, one interception and one kickoff return. The teams also combined for 48 points, which is a record for combined fourth quarter points.

K Jason Hanson, connected on a 52-yarder which was his career longest against the Bears on the road, and marked the longest in franchise history by a Lions kicker on the road vs. Chicago. It also marked the first 50-yard field goal on the road vs. the Bears by a Lions kicker in the series that dates back to 1930. Almost one year to the exact date (November 2, 2008), Hanson repeated this feat when he hit another 52-varder vs. the Pears 52-yarder vs. the Bears season games between the Lions and Browns.

December 28, 1952 (NFL Championship Game) - The Detroit Lions claimed their first NFL title in 17 years with a 17-7 win over the Browns. The Lions scored the first touchdown of the game on a two-yard run by Bobby Layne and extended the lead to 14-0 in the third quarter on a 67-yard scamper by Doak Walker. Detroit was outgained in total yardage by 151 yards and had 12 fewer first downs, but the Detroit defense stiffened at crucial times: The Lions came up with four important goal line stands. Layne attempted only nine passes, all coming in the fourth quarter. To pick up the slack, the Lions rushed for 199 yards with 97 yards coming from Walker. Detroit capped the title game win with a 36-yard field goal by Pat Harder.

December 27, 1953 (NFL Championship Game) - The game evolved into a defensive struggle as 20 of the 33 points scored in the game were direct results of turnovers. The mistakes began when Otto Graham fumbled on his own 13-yard line, the Lions capitalized on a one-yard touchdown run by Doak Walker. Although Graham completed only two of his 15 attempts, the Browns managed to hold a 16-10 lead with less than five minutes to play. Then, Detroit quarterback Bobby Layne put together an impressive drive that culminated with a 33-yard touchdown toss to Jim Doran. The 17-16 victory provided the Lions with their second consecutive title.

Impressive drive that culminated with a 33-yard touchdown toss to Jim Joran. The 17-16 victory provided the Lions with their second consecutive title.

December 26, 1954 (NFL Championship Game) - The game began on a good note for Detroit as Cleveland quarterback Otto Graham turned the ball over on an interception. But the Lions could only manage a field goal after the turnover and the rest of the afternoon was all Cleveland. Graham bounced back from the early interception to pass for three touchdowns and run for another three touchdowns as the Browns captured the World's Championship with a 56-10 win. Lions' quarterback Bobby Layne had a horrible day, as he threw six interceptions.

December 29, 1957 (NET, Championship Game) - Tohip Bots, playing for injured.

December 29, 1957 (NFL Championship Game) - Tobin Rote, playing for injured QB Bobby Layne, directed a relentless offensive attack as the Lions posted a 31-7 halftime lead and coasted to their fourth NFL title. The highlight of the day came on a 78-yard bomb from Rote to Jim Doran that gave the Lions a 38-14 lead. Detroit

- an 11-5-1 advantage in those games. The Lions have played the Packers more times on Thanksgiving than any other team in the league.

 The Lions and Packers met 13 consecutive years on Thanksgiving Day from 1951-1963 with the Lions winning nine of those contests. 2003 was the Packers' first visit to Ford Field on Thanksgiving.

 Each team has recorded five shutouts of one another since the beginning of the series in 1934, but there has not been a shutout between the two teams since the Lions held the Packers to zero points in a 20-0 win on December 20, 1970.

 The 11 consecutive wins that the Lions posted against Green Bay from December 11, 1949 to November 25, 1954 are the most by the Lions against any franchise. The 11-game streak came after the Lions were 8-29-1 in the first 38 games of the series.
- Frank Sinkwich set a Lions' record by intercepting seven passes in a 27-6 loss to the Packers on October 24, 1943.

 These two franchises played in 127 regular season games in 60 years before meeting in the playoffs for the first time following the 1993 season and then again following the 1994 season.

 The Packers came to Ford Field for its regular season opener on September 22, 2002 and defeated the Lions 37-31.

 K Jason Hanson became the 16th player in NFL history to reach the 300-point mark when he kicked a 36-yard field goal against Green Bay December 12, 2004.

 On December 12, 2004 rookie RB Kevin Jones registered his second-straight 150-yard rushing game, the first Lions rookie RB to do so since Barry Sanders in 1997.

 The 17-3 Lions win in the 2005 season opener was the lowest point total in any game (including postseason) Packers QB Brett Favre has ever started.

- Houston is the only team the Lions hold an undefeated record against. In the teams' only matchup September 19, 2004, Detroit topped the Texans 28-16 at Ford Field. In that series opener, WR Eddie Drummond returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown, his longest career return and his first career kickoff return touchdown. The first and only matchup between Houston and Detroit featured two of the top three picks from the 2002 NFL Draft. Houston QB David Carr and former Detroit QB Joey Harrington were selected first and third overall, respectively. Drummond's kickoff return was the eighth longest in team history and the longest since Terry Fair returned a kickoff 105 yards vs. Tampa Bay 9/28/98. Harrington completed 18-of-25 passes for 176 yards and finished the game with the - third-highest quarterback rating of his career (114.3) and the third-highest completion percenatge of his career (72%). In the Lions first trip to Houton's Reliant Stadium on November 19, 2008, WR Calvin Johnson caught two passes for 154 yards, including a career long of 96 yards. With 154 yards on two receptions against the Texans, Johnson's receiving yards were the third most for a player with 2-or-fewer receptions in a single game in NFL history. In that same game, K Jason Hanson hit two field goals of 54-yards at Houston which were his 36th and 37th career field goals of 50+-yards. It was the third time in Hanson's career he hit two-or-more field goals of 50+-yards in a game.

 The clubs have met just six times since the Colts moved to Indianapolis from
- Baltimore.

 A record-setting crowd of 63,107 witnessed the Lions take on the Colts November 25,2004. The crowd was the Lions' largest at Ford Field, breaking the previous best of 62,938 set vs. Green Bay (10/17/04). The contest also marked the Colts' first visit to Ford Field and the first time the teams had met on Thanksgiving since 1965. The Lions and the then-Baltimore Colts tied 24-24.

 On October 20, 1957, Bobby Layne threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Howard "Hopalong" Cassady with 46 seconds remaining in the game as Detroit overcame a 27-10 fourth quarter deficit to defeat the Colts 31-27 in one of the greatest cromeharks in team history.

- In their meeting November 23, 1997, a 32-10 Detroit win at the Silverdome, Jason Hanson became the only kicker in team history to convert two field goals of more than 50 yards in the same game. Hanson boted 52 and 55-yarders in the contest. In that same game, Barry Sanders rushed for 216 yards on 24 carries, including an 80-yarder for a touchdown. It was Sanders' fourth 200-yard outing of his career and the first against an AFC opponent.

 The 1997 game was the Colts' second trip ever to the Silverdome, and the first since the club moved from Baltimore. In Detroit's first visit to Indianapolis' Lucal Oil Stadium, December 14, 2008, K Jason Hanson connected on a 51-yard field goal. his 51-yarder set a new NFL record for most 50-yard field goals in a career (41) and it tied Morten Andersen's NFL record for most 50-yard field goals in a season (8). Hanson is the first player in NFL history to go 8-for-8 on 50-yard field goals in a single season.

- SERIES NOTES

 ➤ Detroit's 44-0 win over the Jaguars December 17, 1995 represents the largest victory margin in Lions' history and was the largest in the NFL in 1995. The game also marked the inaugural contest in the series between the Lions and the Jaguars.

 ➤ Lions KR Eddie Drummond had one of the finest performances by a returner in NFL history that ultimately forced the Lions' game at Jacksonville into overtime November 14, 2004. Drummond became the first player in NFL history to return two punts for touchdowns in the fourth quarter and the 11th (14th time) to return two punts for

 - a touchdowns in a single game.
 Drummond's six punt returns against the Jaguars (11/14/04) for 199 yards (33.2 avg) is the third-best single-game total in NFL history and set a new Lions' franchise record for most punt return yards in a game.
 His two punt returns for touchdowns (55 and 83 yards) at Jacksonville (11/14) marked the third time in Lions' history that a player recorded two punt return touchdowns in a game. Jack Christiansen accomplished the feat twice in 1951 (2 vs LA 10/14/51 and 2 vs. GB 11/22/51).

- SERIES NOTES

 ➤ The Lions and Chiefs have played four of their 10 games on Thanksgiving Day—two of them were played on November 26 (in 1981 and 1987).

 ➤ The Lions are 1-2 in home games (0-0 at Ford Field) against the Chiefs and 2-5 in games played in Kansas City.

 ➤ In the inaugural meeting—the 1971 Thanksgiving Day classic—Errol Mann contributed three field goals while Greg Landry threw touchdown passes to Charlie Sanders and Earl McCullouch in a 32-21 Lions' win. RB Ed Podolak scored all three touchdowns for the Chiefs touchdowns for the Chiefs.
- In the teams' first regular season meeting at the Silverdome, Detroit dominated defensively and claimed a 27-10 Thanksgiving Day win in 1981. The Lions held the Chiefs' top-ranked rushing attack to just 116 yards, and registered five sacks. The Lions hold a 6-4 preseason edge in the series against the Chiefs, and have won five of the last six preseason matchups. The two teams met August 23, 1975 in an exhibition affair that kicked off the opening of the Pontiac Silverdome. Detroit won the contest 27-24.

 Kansas City made their first ever trip to Ford Field December 23, 2007, with the Lions claiming a 25-20 victory.

SERIES NOTES

The first two head coaches in Dolphins' history both had ties to Detroit. George Wilson coached the Dolphins from 1966-69. He was an assistant with the Lions from 1949-56 and was the Lions' head coach from 1957-64. Wilson was at the helm when the Lions won their last championship in 1957. Don Shula was the Dolphins' head coach from 1970-95, and was an assistant under Wilson with the Lions from 1960-62.

The first three of Miami's triumphs over the Lions clinched AFC Eastern Division titles for the Dolphins (in 1973, 1979 and 1994).

Detroit's win over Miami in 1985 was a historic one for the Lions. The win marked the first time in NFL history that a club had beaten the Super Bowl participants from the previous year in back-to-back weeks (the Lions had edged the Super Bowl XIX champion San Francisco 49ers 23-21 only seven days earlier).

- The Lions trail 30-63-2 in the series with the Vikings in a NFC North Division rivalry that dates back to a 37-10 Detroit victory November 19, 1961 at Minnesota.

 With his opening kickoff return for a touchdown at Minnesota November 21, 2004, Eddie Drummond became the first player in NFL history to score three consecutive touchdowns for his team via punt and kickoff returns. He became only the second player in NFL history to return two kickoffs and two punts for touchdowns in a single season, the other being Danté Hall (Kansas City) in 2003.

 The Lions won the first five outings and nine of the first 14 games in the series; however, Minnesota then won 13 straight contests and 19 of the next 21.

 On two occasions, the Lions have accumulated 45 points in a single game against the Vikings. Detroit defeated Minnesota 45-14 December 9, 1978 and 45-7 December 12, 1981, with both games taking place at the Silverdome.

 Barry Sanders scored four touchdowns in the Lions' 34-14 win at Minnesota November 24, 1991. His four touchdowns established a new Lions' record for most rushing touchdowns in a single game. His four touchdowns and 24-point performance also

- tied Lions' single-game marks.

 Scott Mitchell set a Lions' single-game record for passing yards, breaking Bobby Layne's previous mark of 375, when he accumulated 410 yards vs. Minnesota in a memorable Thanksgiving Day clash November 23, 1995. Mitchell completed 30-of-45 passes and tossed four touchdowns. The wide receiver trio of Herman Moore, Brett Perriman and Johnnie Morton each reached the 100-yard receiving mark in the contest. The Lions won the game 44-38. In their final road game and the second-to-last game of the 1997 season, the Lions claimed a 16-13 wictory over the Vikings at the Metrodome when Scott Mitchell tossed a one-yard pass to Herman Moore in the endzone to claim the come-from-behind victory with two second remaining to play. Mitchell engineered the game-winning 72-yard drive that began with 1:55 remaining to play and with only one timeout. After losing 13 straight games to open the 2001 season, the Lions rallied against the Vikings and won their first game of the season at the Silverdome vs. the Vikings on December 16, 2001.

- New England has made just four regular season visits to Detroit, with each team taking a pair of victories.

 Detroit opened their series vs. the Patriots with a 34-7 victory September 26, 1971 in Schaefer Stadium (renamed Foxboro Stadium). Steve Owens scored two touchdowns for the Lions, including a 74-yard touchdown catch from Greg Landry. The Lions also scored a defensive touchdown as Mike Lucci returned an interception 25 yeards for a score.
- 25 yards for a score.

 The fastest touchdown in Lions' history was scored against the Patriots. Willie Clay (who later joined the Patriots as a free agent) recovered a New England fumble on

- the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown only 11 seconds into the game on September 12, 1993. In the 1993 matchup, the Lions edged New England 19-16 in overtime. The win gave Detroit its first 2-0 start since 1985, and was clinched on Jason Hanson's fourth field goal of the game, a 38-yarder. The Lions and Patriots met at Ford Field in 2002 in the 63st Thanksgiving Day game and the first in the holiday tradition at Ford Field. The game marked the first Thanksgiving Day classic in downtown Detroit since 1974. The Patriots won, 20-12. Included in the Patriots three visits to the Silverdome was a Lions' 34-9 win November 23, 2000 in the 61st Thanksgiving Day classic.

- In the second game ever played at Ford Field, the Lions claimed a 26-21 win over New Orleans for the first win at the team's new downtown Detroit home. Detroit also tied the series, 8-8-1.
 The first game played between the Lions and Saints was a 20-20 tie November 24, 1968 in Detroit.

- 24, 1988 in Detroit."
 The home team has generally had the upper hand in the series with Detroit compiling a 6-2-1 mark at home (2-0-1 at Tiger Stadium; 3-2 in the Silverdome and 1-0 at Ford Field) while New Orleans has managed a 6-3 record at home (2-0 at Tulane Stadium; 4-2 in the Superdome; 0-1 at San Antonio).

 In one of the NFL's all-time amazing finishes, New Orleans kicker Tom Dempsey booted a 63-yard field goal as time expired to give the Saints a 19-17 victory in Tulane Stadium November 8, 1970. Dempsey's mighty boot stood alone as the longest field goal in NFL history until Denver's Jason Elam tied the record October

- 25, 1998 vs. Jacksonville.
 Despite a 310-yard passing game from Detroit's Greg Landry (27-of-38 with two touchdowns), the Saints nipped the Lions 17-16 in the Superdome in 1976. Detroit RB Dexter Bussey led all rushers in the contest with 82 yards on only eight carries. The Lions' Richard Johnson tallied 248 yards receiving (second-most in team history) on eight receptions and earned NFC Player of the Week honors in Detroit's 21-14 win over the Saints on December 3, 1989.
 The Lions kicked off the 2000 season by defeating the Saints 14-10 at the Superdome. The Lions' only touchdown of the game was courtesy of Desmond Howard's franchise record 95-yard punt return in the fourth quarter.
 K Jason Hanson nailed a 39-yard field goal as time expired in regulation that lifted the Lions to a 13-12 win over New Orleans in San Antonio. The final drive was set up by a Roy Williams 40-yard grab on 4th-and-17. Williams' four catches for 111 yards against the Saints, all in the fourth quarter yards against the Saints, all in the fourth quarter

- SERIES NOTES

 The Lions-Giants series is one of four series (Arz, Chi and GB) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.

 The Lions hold a 21-17-1 lead in the series which dates back to a 19-6 New York victory at Detroit November 5, 1930, when the Lions were known as the Portsmouth Spartans.

 Detroit dominated the series initially, claiming eight of the first 12 contests, but the Giants have won eight of the last 12 decisions.

 The Giants were the opposition in the Lions' first-ever game in Detroit. The Lions won the game 9-0 September 23, 1934 at University of Detroit Stadium.

 The Lions and the Giants played the NFL's last scoreless tie. The 0-0 game was played November 7, 1943 at New York.

 Detroit claimed its first NFL championship with a 26-7 win over the defending champion Giants December 15, 1935. The contest marked the only time the two teams have met in postseason action. teams have met in postseason action
- In the Lions' 28-13 win over the Giants October 24, 2004, QB Joey Harrington had the most efficient outing of his career, completing 18-of-22 passes to set single-game career highs with an 81.8 completion percentage and a 140.5 quarterback rating. He finished the game with 230 yards passing, including four completions of at least 20 yards and seven completions of at least 18 yards to six different receivers. Rookie RB Kevin Jones scored his first career touchdown in Detroit's win over the Giants in 2004.
- the Glants in 2004.

 Two of the last five outings between the two teams have gone to overtime, with the road team winning each. Detroit won a 28-15 decision on October 31, 1994 at Glants Stadium, while New York defeated the Lions 26-20 at the Silverdome October 19, 1997.
- October 13, 1997.
 In 2000, the Lions jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead en route to a 31-21 win at Giants Stadium November 19. The first half was highlighted by two Charlie Batch touchdown passes and a blocked punt by WR Larry Foster, which was the first by the Lions since Bennie Blades blocked a punt December 13, 1992 vs. Cleveland.

- SERIES NOTES

 ➤ Detroit leads the all-time series 6-5, which dates back to a 37-20 Detroit victory November 23, 1972 at Tiger Stadium. Detroit has played seven of its 10 contests at home against the Jets with a record of 4-3 (1-0 at Tiger Stadium, 3-2 at the Silverdome and 0-1 at Ford Field).

 ➤ The Lions have won two of the three games played in New York/New Jersey. The Jets won 31-10 at Shea Stadium September 16, 1979 and Detroit defeated the Jets twice at Giants Stadium—18-7 December 10, 1994 and 10-7 December 17, 2000.

 ➤ The Lions completed their first undefeated home season since 1962 with a 34-20 win over the Jets December 8, 1991.

 ➤ Detroit claimed a memorable 13-10 decision over the Jets at the Silverdome December

- 21, 1997 in a game in which the winner qualified for the playoffs and the loser was eliminated. RB Barry Sanders' 184 yards rushing in the contest made him only the third player in NFL history to eclipse the 2,000-yard mark in a season. The noise was so boisterous at the sold-out Silverdome near the end of the game that players reported the turf actually vibrating beneath their feet. Unfortunately, Lions' LB Reggie Brown suffered a career-ending neck injury in the fourth quarter of the game.

 The Lions defeated the Jets 10-7 at the Meadowlands December 17, 2000 in the Lions' final road game of the season. Detroit's lone touchdown was a fumble recovery in the endzone by G Jeff Hartings.

- In the first meeting between the two teams, the Lions defeated the Raiders 28-14 on Thanksgiving Day November 26, 1970. The win was the second of five consecutive wins by the Lions that year, which propelled them to their first playoff berth since 1957. In that contest between the two clubs, the Lions scored 14 fourth quarter points on the way to knocking off the Raiders. Mel Farr rushed 21 times for 121 yards, rallying Detroit from a 14-0 deficit. The Lions shut out the defending Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders 16-0 September 27, 1981. Detroit was the first team to shut out the Raiders in 15 years, as the Lions limited Oakland to only 131 yards in total offense. The Lions collected six sacks and Jimmy Allen intercepted his fourth pass in as many games. Billy Sims earned his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game (133 yards) while Dexter Bussey passed Altie Taylor as the clubs' all-time leading rusher. Also in the game, Detroit QB Gary Danielson fractured his left wrist—an injury that would sideline him for 10 weeks.

 In the Monday Night meeting December 10, 1990, there were five former Heisman Trophy winners on the field—Barry Sanders and Andre Ware for Detroit, and Marcus Allen, Tim Brown and Bo Jackson for the Raiders. Sanders finished the game with

 The Lions defeated the defending AFC Champion Oakland Raiders on November 2, 2003 at Ford Field, the Raiders' first trip to Detroit since 1990.

 Detroit opened the 2007 season on the road at Oakland and came away with 36-21 victory. DE Dewayne White was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his Week 1 performance at Oakland as the veteran defensive end was a force in the fourth quarter when Detroit scored 16 unanswered points in the final 10-45 to come away with the victory. After the Lions took a 26-21 lead in the fourth quarter, White intercepted a pass on the ensuing Raiders drive and returned it 28 yards to set up a field goal to increase Detroit's lead to eight. On the first play of the next Oakland possession, White sacked the Raiders quarterback and forced a fumble. Another Oakland player recovered the ball and White forced another fumble, which was recovered by teammate DE Kalimba Edwards. The play helped set up a touchdown that put the game out of reach.
- Notice of the same out of reach.

 Kitna's 289 yards in the '07 opener at Oakland were the second-most passing yards by a Lions quarterback on opening day in franchise history, only behind Bobby Layne's 364 yards September 27, 1953 against Pittsburgh.

- Detroit claimed victories in the first four games of the series, with each being a shutout. The Lions also won seven of the first eight meetings.

 In 25 regular season meetings, the Lions have scored more than 30 points only twice (35 points in both 1935 and 1965). Philadelphia, however, has also been limited to only three 30-point outbursts (45 points in 1948, 44 points in 1979, and 30 points September 26, 2004).

 The Lions' last tile in a regular season game was against the Eagles (23-23) November 4, 1984 at the Silverdome, and was the only tie in Silverdome history.

 In 2004, Philadelphia visited the Motor City for the first time since November 4, 1984.

- The Detroit Lions played in Heinz Field's first game during the preseason (August, 25, 2011). In 2002, the Lions returned the favor as the Steelers played in the first game at Ford Field (August 24, 2002), which the Steelers won 34-22. In the first meeting between the two teams, the Lions beat the Steelers 40-7 behind a then-NFL record 426 yards rushing. Ernie Caddell scored three touchdowns in one of the more memorable games of the Lions' first season in Detroit. The Lions won the first four meetings of the series and were 12-4-1 through the first 17 contests, although the Steelers have bounced back to claim eight of the last 10 meetings. In the 1952 meeting, Bob Hoernschmeyer ran for 107 yards and the Lions rolled up 321 yards rushing. The Detroit defense held Pittsburgh to minus-3 yards rushing in a 31-6 win in Pittsburgh.

 Detroit passed for a then-club-record 375 yards (364 by Bobby Layne) in a 38-21 Lions' victory September 27, 1953.

The Lions also defeated Pittsburgh 19-16 in overtime November 26, 1998 in the second Thanksgiving Day matchup between the two teams. Jason Hanson made his fourth field goal of the game (42-yarder) 2:52 into the extra period. The game marked the first Thanksgiving overtime contest since 1980, and also was highlighted by a gutsy performance by Pittsburgh native, Charlie Batch, who completed 16-of-23 passes for 236 yards and a touchdown despite leaving the game for a time with a strained neck. The game will be remembered by a strange coin toss to begin the overtime period. When Pittsburgh visits Detroit October 11, 2009, it will mark the Steelers first regular season game at Ford Field. The Steelers were the first-ever Lions' opponent in a preseason game, and the Steelers defeated the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XL played at Ford Field.
- XL played at Ford Field.

- SERIES NOTES

 ➤ The St. Louis Rams lead the Lions in the all-time series 41-37-1. In their series, the Rams have been located in three different cities, Cleveland (1937-45), Los Angeles (1946-94) and St. Louis (since 1995).

 ➤ Overall, Detroit was 8-7 vs. the Cleveland Rams, 27-32-1 vs. the Los Angeles Rams and are 2-1 vs. the St. Louis Rams.

 ➤ The inaugural game between the two teams was played September 10, 1937 when the Lions claimed a 28-0 shutout at Cleveland.

 ➤ After the Rams moved to Los Angeles, the clubs faced off twice each season from

- 1946-66. The Rams owned a slight edge, 21-20-1, in those games played. The Lions played the Rams November 7, 1999 in the first meeting between the teams since the Rams moved from Los Angeles to St. Louis. Detroit won the affair 31-27 at the Silverdome in the final minute of the game when QB Gus Frerotte hit WR Johnnie Morton on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 28 seconds remaining to play for the game winning score. On the final drive, Frerotte completed a 57-yard pass to WR Germane Crowell on a fourth-and-26 play to keep the drive alive. In the 2003 season finale, the Lions defeated the St. Louis Rams at Ford Field, 30-20, denying the Rams' bid for homefield advantage throughout the playoffs.

- SERIES NOTES

 The Lions won each of the first three meetings between the two teams (all home games), but have dropped the six most-recent contests.

 Detroit recorded a 34-20 victory over the Chargers in the first meeting of the series October 22, 1972. Mel Farr ran for two touchdowns and gained 96 yards on 22 carries, helping the Lions rack up 182 yards on the ground for the game. Greg Landry also rushed for a touchdown and added 151 yards passing with a touchdown strike going
 - to Larry Walton, who finished with seven catches for 101 yards.

 Detroit fell to the Chargers 27-24 September 20, 1984 at Jack Murphy Stadium.

 Billy Sims ran for two touchdowns and 119 yards, including an 81-yard touchdown scamper. Detroit QB Gary Danielson matched Hall of Famer Dan Fouts every step of the way, completing 20-of-25 attempts for 269 yards, while Fouts was 22-of-35 for 268 yards. The Chargers forged to a 24-7 halftime lead, but Detroit scored two third quarter touchdowns to narrow the gap to 24-21.

SERIES NOTES

- 2001 marked the final year of the Lions and the Buccaneers annual home-and-home divisional series between the two teams. As the NFL re-aligned in 2002 with the addition of the Houston Texans, Detroit was grouped in the NFC North division (Chicago, Green Bay and Minnesota) and Tampa Bay shifted to the NFC South division (Atlanta, Carolina and New Orleans). The two teams, however, did play December 15, 2002 at Ford Field in the 49th game in the series' history. The Buccaneers won the game 23-20.

 The Lions are 1-1 at Ford Field, 14-9 in the Silverdome, and 12-14 in Tampa (regular season) vs. the Rurcaneers.
- The Eions are 1=1 at Polumeter, 143 in the Six Hospital and 15 season) vs. the Buccaneers.

 The series went 23 games during 1983-94 without either team winning more than two games in a row. The streak ended when Detroit claimed five wins in a row, starting November 13, 1994 and continuing with season sweeps over the Bucs in 1995-96.

- Detroit has been victorious in two of the five games the Lions have played at Raymond James Stadium, including a 28-14 win in a Thursday night nationally televised game October 19, 2000.

 In Detroit's 14-9 win at the Silverdome November 13, 1994, Barry Sanders rushed for a franchise-record 237 yards (then-sixth-highest single-game total in NFL history). Sanders gained a NFL record 200 yards in the second half.

 Sanders made more history in Detroit's 27-9 win over the Buccaneers at Houlihan's Stadium October 12, 1997. Sanders became the first player in NFL history to record two runs of 80 yards-or-more in the same game. He broke off an 80-yard scoring play late in the first quarter, and added an 82-yard touchdown romp in the third quarter and finished the day with 215 yards rushing on 24 carries.

 The two clubs met for the only time in the playoffs December 28, 1997, with the Buccaneers coming away with a 20-10 win.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LIONS

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football. In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. The Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925, but also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then-10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for $7,952.08 by a group headed by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before crowds that averaged 16,000, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in only their second year (1935). Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era included Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, Byron "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964, when William Clay Ford became the sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three league championships. Under the direction of head coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952-53, defeating Cleveland on both occasions. Stars of those powerful teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker and Lou Creekmur, as well as Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have continued searching for the league's top spot. Such performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players such as Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have also taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the playoffs, (first postseason trip since '57) but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Mich., a suburb located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome was at one time the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seated over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in 1980-81, before qualifying in 1982 — the Lions' first playoff appearance since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss at San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over for Clark in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by his defensive coordinator Wayne Fontes in November 1988 after Rogers' teams had posted a combined 18-40 record. Fontes was officially named the franchise's 18th head coach on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise-record 12 regular season games. Riding a tide of emotion after guard Mike Utley's paralyzing neck injury, Detroit defeated Dallas, 38-6, in the Lions' first Silverdome playoff contest. The victory gave the Lions a berth in the NFC Championship Game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

The Lions finished 10-6 in 1993 en route to capturing the NFC Central Division title, and earned a Wild Card playoff bid in 1994. The 1995 Lions featured the NFL's top-rated offense and won their final seven games to earn a third straight playoff berth. Herman Moore set an NFL record with 123 catches, and he and Brett Perriman became the first teammates to each total over 100 catches in the same season. The receiver tandem also set the NFL record for most receiving yards in a season. Quarterback Scott Mitchell set team passing records for yards (4,338), completions (346) and touchdowns (32).

In 1996, running back Barry Sanders captured his third NFL rushing title with a dramatic 175-yard outburst on the final Monday night of the season in San Francisco. The Lions, however, finished a disappointing 5-11 in '96 and following the season, Fontes was replaced as head coach by former San Diego Chargers' head coach, Bobby Ross. Fontes, who was the head coach for more than eight full seasons, finished his career as the team's all-time leader among head coaches in both wins (67) and games coached (138).

Ross was named the 19th head coach in team history January 13, 1997, and led the club back to the playoffs in his inaugural year at the helm with a 9-7 record. That season, Sanders, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in August 2004, continued his storybook career by becoming only the third player in league history to record 2,000 yards rushing in a single-season (2,053) and he reeled off an NFL record 14 consecutive 100-yard outings to finish the season.

The Lions closed out the 1990s reaching the playoffs for the sixth time in the 10-year span, which is a franchise record for playoff appearances during a decade. Detroit's playoff berth in 1999 marked the second time in Ross' first three years as head coach that he led the Lions into the postseason. The last Lions' head coach to accomplish that feat was Buddy Parker in 1952-53 during his second and third seasons at the helm.

After playing nine games into the 2000 season and compiling a 5-4 record, Ross abruptly resigned as head coach November 6 and was immediately replaced by Gary Moeller. Moeller guided the team to a 4-3 record over the last seven games, but narrowly missed the playoffs with a loss to the Chicago Bears in the season finale. Following the season, William Clay Ford named Matt Millen president and CEO, and he assumed control over team operations. On January 25, 2001 Gary Moeller was replaced as head coach by former San Francisco 49ers offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

On April 1, 2002, Detroit relocated the team's day-to-day operations into the new $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park. The new complex features outdoor and indoor practice fields, spacious training and meeting rooms and even the team's own broadcast studio.

A new era in Lions' history dawned as Ford Field, the team's $500 million downtown Detroit stadium, opened its doors in August 2002. The 65,000-seat stadium sparkled as its retro and innovative features glistened in the national spotlight as the premiere sports and entertainment complex. The Lions played the first game at Ford Field August 24, 2002 in a preseason tilt against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The inaugural regular season game was played between the Lions and the Green Bay Packers September 22, 2002.

In January 2003, Mornhinweg was fired after two seasons and former San Francisco 49ers Head Coach Steve Mariucci was tabbed the new Lions' head coach February 4.

For the first time since the Lions placed the Leaping Lion logo on the players' helmets in 1961, Detroit announced a major addition to the team's uniform on April 23, 2003. The Lions' classic uniform now features black trim on the logo, jerseys and pants, along with black shoes and black facemasks. In April 2005, the team introduced an alternate black jersey that would be worn through 2007.

On Novemver 28, 2005, Steve Mariucci was relieved of his duties as head coach and defensive coordinator Dick Jauron was named interim head coach for the remaining five games.

In 2006, the Lions hired Rod Marinelli as the team's 24th head coach, a position he would hold through 2008.

In 2008, the Lions commemorated the franchise's 75th season in Detroit. Just a handful of NFL teams have been around as long as the Lions, a franchise that spans several generations of fans over the years. Detroit has called three different stadiums home with nearly 1,400 players seeing action on a given gameday and numerous coaches strolling the sideline. That history is rich with great players who have donned the uniform -- the Lions are one of only nine teams to have at least 17 Pro Football Hall of Fame players don their respective uniforms -- and with traditions like the "Honolulu Blue and Silver", the leaping Lion logo, the "Roaring 20's" and the team's annual Thanksqiving Tradition.

With 75 years now in the rear-view mirror, Detroit is embarking on a new era of Lions football. In 2009, the franchise is led by ownership determined to deliver a winning team to the fans of Detroit. The Lions begin this endeavor with strong leadership and a renewed resolve to build a winner. For the first time in team history, the team enters the new season with a new president, Tom Lewand, a new general manager, Martin Mayhew, and a new head coach, Jim Schwartz, hired Janaury 16, 2009, who are the driving force for the team's success on and off the field.

LIONS THANKSGIVING DAY TRADITION

Four generations of Detroiters have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. The relationship between Detroit and Thanksgiving dates back to 1934 when owner G.A. Richards scheduled a holiday contest between his first-year Lions and the Chicago Bears. Some 75 years later, fans throughout Michigan have transformed an annual holiday event into the single greatest tradition in the history of American professional team sports. Indeed, if football is America's passion, Thanksgiving football is Detroit's passion.

It was, legend says, a typically colorful, probably chilly, November day in 1622 that Pilgrims and Native Americans celebrated the new world's bounty with a sumptuous

They sat together at Plymouth Plantation (they spelled it Plimouth) in Massachusetts, gave thanks for the goodness set before them, then dined on pumpkin pie, sweet potatoes, maize, cranberry sauce, turkey and who knows what else.

Actually, fish was just as predominant a staple. And history books say pumpkin pie really debuted a year later. But regardless of the accuracy of the details, that's how Thanksgiving Day is seen by Americans -- except

They may have most of the same images as everyone else, bút with a new twist that began in 1934.

That's when Detroiters and their outstate Michigan compatriots found themselves at the dawn of an unplanned behavior modification, courtesy of George A. "Dick" Richards, owner of the city's new entry in the National Football League: The Detroit Lions.

Larry Paladino, Lions Pride, 1993

Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions, was behind the Lions' inaugural Thanksgiving game in 1934. Richards had purchased the team in June of that year and moved the Lions from Portsmouth, Ohio, to the Motor City. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the Tigers of baseball. Despite the fact that the Lions had lost just one game prior to the Thanksgiving Day game that season, the largest crowd that season had been just 15,000.

November 29, 1934 was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears of George Halas and the rising star of that era, fullback Bronko Nagurski. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations), and additionally, an estimated 26,000 jammed into University of Detroit Stadium while thousands of disappointed fans were turned away.

In the inaugural game, the Bears won 19-16 and a classic was born. Since '34, the Lions have played 69 Thanksgiving Day games with Detroit leading the series 33-34-2. A total of 3,863,644 fans have witnessed Thanksgiving Day games in Detroit. The Lions Thanksgiving Day classic has been sold out in each of the last 14 seasons (since 1994).

The Detroit Lions 70th Thanksgiving Day Classic this year will feature the Lions hosting long-time rival Green Bay Thursday, November 26 at 12:30 p.m. This year's Lions-Packers Thanksgiving Day game will renew a holiday rivalry that dates back to 1951. It will mark the 19th time the Lions have battled the Packers on Thanksgiving, with Detroit holding an 11-6-1 (.647) advantage. The Lions have played Green Bay more than any other opponent in the Thanksgiving Day series.

For 13 consecutive years from 1951-63, the Lions and Packers met on Thanksgiving, with the Lions claiming a 9-3-1 record during that span. The Lions-Packers Turkey Day tilt marks the fourth time since 2001 that the two teams will play in Detroit on Thanksgiving and the third at Ford Field.

1934-1947: The first uniform donned by the Detroit Lions included a blue jersey with blue jersey with gleaming silver numerals, silver pants and a silver halmet. The shoes were black. The shade of blue used for the jersey became known as 'Honolulu' blue.

1948: Alvin 'Bo' McMillin joined the Lions after having success as a college coach at Indiana University. Soon after his arrival, McMillin changed the colors of the Lions' uniforms with the new colors resembling those of his Hoosier teams. The organization retained Honolulu blue and silver as their official colors

- The team had a second, all-black uniform, which would be worn only for certain important games that McMillin particularly wished to win. The jersey was black with white numbers and the pants were black with a thin coarlot extrine black with a thin scarlet stripe

 The two uniform sets ended up being worn in four different combinations (scarlet/white; black/black; scarlet/black;

1949: The Lions returned to wearing their Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home but continued to wear combinations of the scarlet and white uniforms and the all-black uniforms on the road. The team changed the color of their helmet to blue and some players went back to wearing plastic helmets after the NFL lifted the ban on plastic headgear from the previous season.

1950-55: After wearing five different combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue in the previous two seasons, the Lions went back to wearing the traditional Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home and on the road. For most of the 1950 season the team wore blue helmets but went back to wearing silver helmets for the 1951 season. During the early 50's, the NFL did not allow the Lions to wear silver helmets for night games because of their resemblance to the white ball under the night lights. They spray-painted their helmets blue for night games. Also, in 1951, the Lions wore the Detroit 250th Anniversary patch on their left sleeve. The patch was also worn by the Red Wings and Tigers.

1956: This was the first season that the Lions added their uniform numbers to the arm sleeves. Some players, like Lions Hall of Fame LT Lou Creekmur, were unhappy with the change – claiming that it made it harder to get away with holding.

1957-60: The Lions began wearing separate colored uniforms on the road on a permanent basis in 1957. The jersey was white with three blue stripes, one thick between two thin stripes, on the sleeves. The numbers were blue and the helmet and pants remained silver.

1961-67: In 1961, William Clay Ford's first season as the team's president, there were some signifipresident, there were some significant uniform changes. The helmet remained silver with a grey facemask but now had the leaping-lion logo as well as two vertical blue stripes running from the back to the front. The pants also had two vertical blue stripes. Three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, were added to the arm sleeves of the home jersey. The away jersey remained the same.

During the mid-60s, many players cut off part of the sleeves— giving appearance of only one or two stripes.

1968-69: 1968 was the first year the Lions had a white stripe between the two blue stripes on the helmet. The Lions and the rest of the league wore the NFL 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder in 1969.

1970-71: Last names were added to the back of the players' jerseys in silver lettering and white trim was added to the Leaping Lion logo on the helmet in 1970.

For the second half of the 1971 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve on their home and away jerseys, in honor of wide receiver Chuck Hughes. Hughes died of a heart attack with 62 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter against the Chicago Bears on October 24, 1971.

1972: The Honolulu blue home jersey had white trim on the silver numerals and the white jerseys had silver trim on blue numerals for the first time in 1972. It was also the first year that there was a white, vertical stripe between the two blue stripes on the pants.

The Lions tweaked the striping on the arm-sleeves for that season as well. The home jerseys had the one thick silver stripe between two thin white stripes and the away jersey had the one thick blue stripe between to thin silver stripes.

1973-75: Detroit changed back to the three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, on the sleeves of the Honolulu blue home jersey except now they had white trim. The away white jersey had three blue stripes, one thick between two thin, and they had silver trim.

- For the 1974 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve of their home and away jerseys, in honor of Head Coach Don McCafferty who died of a heart attack during training camp.

 1974 was also the season that the Lions started wearing

1976-79: In 1976, the players' numbers were added to the back of the helmet.

1980-81: The Lions changed the dull silver stripes and trimming on their uniforms to a shimmering silver glitter. This only lasted two seasons because of complaints by other teams about the glare.

1982-97:

- 1982: The Lions changed the color of the numbers on their home jerseys, making them white with silver trim.

 1983: The Lions wore a 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder. The Lions changed their facemask from silver/grey to Honolulu blue.

1991: The team wore a patch honoring Russ Thomas, a former player and General Manager for the Lions, who had recently passed away. For their final seven games (five regular season, two postseason), each player had a white circle decal with a blue number '60,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of RG Mike Utley. Utley suffered a spinal cord injury in a game against the Los Angeles Rams on November 17, 1991. The small NFL shield was added to the 'V' of the neck.

1992: They wore a black circle decal with a white number '65,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of LG Eric Andolsek, who was killed a few months prior to the season.

1993: The Lions wore a 60th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder. 1991: The team wore a patch honor-

- 1994: The Lions wore throwback jerseys for the 1994 season while the NFL was celebrating their 75th anniversary. This version of the uniform was intended to replicate the jersey worn by the Lions in 1935, which was the season that the team won their first world championship. Several players wore a black circle decal with a white number '50,' on the back right side of the helmet in honor of former Lions' LB Toby Caston.

1998: In what turned out to be Barry Sanders final season, the Lions changed their look on the road, wearing blue pants with a white stripe between two silver stripes.

1999: The Lions returned to wearing silver pants (with white stripe between two blue stripes) on the 2000-02: In 2000, the Lions moved the numbers that were on the sleeves up to the shoulders.

The Lions wore a patch commemorating the first game at Ford Field September 22, 2002 against the Green Bay Packers.

2003: The home jersey has a thick silver stripe between two thin blue stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers are white with silver trim and outside black trim. The pants have one vertical thick white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes.

2005: The Lions introduced a new black alternate jersey featuring Honolulu Blue numbers with silver and white trim. The alternate jersey can be worn in as many as two regular season games and one preseason game.

2008: To commemorate the Detroit Lions 75th Season, the team wore a patch on the home and away jerseys. Additionally, the Lions wore the franchise's classic "throwback" uniform sans 75th Season patch for two games. son patch for two games.

Lions new comprehensive brand

On April 20, 2009, the Detroit Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that includes a new logo and new uniforms. As part of the new comprehensive brand, the Lions also introduced a new logotype and a new proprietary font, "NFL Lions." The new logotype is additional imagery that presents the Lions brand and will be featured in such prominent places as the endzone marking at Ford Field. The classic Honolulu blue, white and black colors remain unchanged. black colors remain unchanged.

On the collar, there are three trim lines of equal width, with two black trim lines outside a silver trim line. The sleeves are a new knit sleeve that features a wide silver trim, inside two smaller white trims and those all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim. The new material is improved and more flexible for players. The trim is part of the knit-sleeve material, which was changed from the previous silk-screened sleeve the previous silk-screened sleeve.

The facemasks will remain black, but the new Lions logotype will be included on the front and the back of the helmet. At the top middle of the helmet, the striping pattern has been modified. Instead of a thick white stripe, two Honolulu blue stripes and a very thin black accent stripe, the helmet striping pattern is now a 5/8-inch Honolulu blue stripe, two 3/16-inch white stripes and two 3/16-inch black stripes. DETROIT LIONS CHARITIES

DETROIT LIONS CHARITIES GRANTS GIVING TOPS $5 MILLION MARK

Detroit Lions Charities (DLC) awarded 87 grants totaling $392,788.34 to non-profit agencies in 2008-09. This year's awards bring DLC, the football organization's philanthropic foundation, to more than $5.2 million in total donations in its 19-year history.

DLC was established in 1990 to assist all age groups in a diverse range of needs and programs in Michigan. Particular emphasis is placed on programs that benefit the children and youth of Detroit. "Detroit Lions Charities is pleased to once again assist a number of outstanding charitable organizations that are making an impact in our communities," said Lions' Vice Chairman William Clay Ford, Jr. "It is an honor to partner with these organizations that, especially in these difficult economic times, mean so much to so many."

For the 11th consecutive year, a $60,000 grant will sponsor the Think Detroit PAL Football League. The league involves 3,200 Detroit youngsters, ages eight through 14, playing in one of the nation's largest tackle football leagues. The Think Detroit PAL season will conclude with its annual championships to be held in November and hosted by the Lions at Ford Field.

Another major commitment to Detroit was made through a $50,000 grant to Communities in Schools (CIS) of Detroit for the Detroit Lions Academy. The Academy has a student body of 140 sixth, seventh and eighth grade Detroit children who have had difficulties in traditional school settings. The Academy, which opened in 2001, is a cooperative effort between the Lions, Detroit Public Schools and CIS in association with several corporate sponsors including Costco Wholesale, Ford Motor Company and The Dow Chemical Company.

A grant for $16,788 sponsored fitness equipment in the new "Lions' Den" at the Boys ® Girls Club in Highland Park in partnership with United Way and the NFL's Play 60 initiative that encourages children to be active at least 60 minutes each day. Also, in partnership with American Heart Association, DLC awarded a $10,000 grant to support youth fitness and nutrition programs at the Downriver Family YMCA in Southgate.

"Detroit Lions Charities is pleased to once again assist a number of outstanding charitable organizations that are making an impact in our communities. It is an honor to partner with these organizations that, especially in these difficult economic times, mean so much to so many."

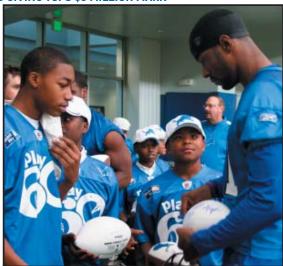

-- Vice Chairman William Clay Ford, Jr.

The Lions' High School Football Coach of the Week program awarded grants totaling more than $28,700 to 10 Michigan prep football programs from all over the state. East Grand Rapids' Peter Stuursma was named High School Coach of the Year.

A grant for $28,218 went to the Athletes with Disabilities Hall of Fame to promote programs for persons with disabilities. This grant among several others came from the proceeds from the annual Lions' Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Tournament held at Palazzo di Bocce in Orion Township.

Among other DLC grants, commitments were made to support The Children's Center, City Year, Sky Foundation, Visiting Nurses Association, The Henry Ford, Maplegrove Community Education, Pop Warner Football, and the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network (PanCAN).

DLC raises funds from several sources. Major support comes from corporate sponsors as well as funds raised through in-

DLC fundraisers include the bocce tournament, the Detroit Lions Invitational (DLI), All Pro Dad and the Lions' Kickoff Luncheon. All Pro Dad, founded by Family First, brought more than 1,000 fathers and their children together last year at Ford Field for a program where dads learned to be better fathers. The Lions' Kickoff Luncheon will be held September 2 at Ford Field.

For tax-exempt Michigan organizations interested in filing for future funding, grant requests will be accepted from October 1 through December 31. LIONS IN THE COMMUNITY

MAKING A POSITIVE IMPACT

The Ford Family's commitment to community service and dedication to making an impact in the lives of the citizens of Michigan is evident by the contributions made all year long by the Detroit Lions players, coaches and staff. The Lions take great pride in supporting those in need and make every effort to lend a helping hand to the community that has always supported the Detroit Lions. The following is just a sample of some of the programs and events the Lions have been involved in during the past year.

DONATIONS ® PLAYER APPEARANCES DONATIONS

The Detroit Lions understand that even though not every DLC grant application can be fulfilled, they have other means of helping out charities throughout Michigan with donated memorabilia for school and community fundraisers, charity auctions and raffles. The Lions filled more than 2,000 donation requests in 2008 and strive to fill all donation requests in the state of Michigan. A written notice at least six weeks in advance for these requests is required. All requests should be on the organization's letterhead and must include the nature of the event, date of event, what the donated item will be used for (i.e. raffle, auction, door prize, etc.) and a return mailing address (no PO boxes). Requests should be sent to: Detroit Lions Community Affairs, 222 Republic Drive, Allen Park, MI 48101.

PLAYER APPEARANCES

Lions' players spend much of their time away from football getting to know their fans by volunteering at special community events, hospitals, schools and fundraisers throughout the year. During 2008, players and coaches filled more than 250 appearance requests. Organizations requesting a player appearance must send a written request including information about the organization and appearance, where it will be held, what the player would be expected to do and if there is an honorarium available for the player. A six-week advance notice for all appearances is required.

FUNDRAISING

COURAGE HOUSE DINNER

Many Lions' players, alumni and staff joined sponsors and supporters at Ford Field for the 15th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner which recognized Lions' safety Daniel Bullocks as the recipient of the 2008 Ed Block Courage Award. The annual dinner benefits HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse. Previous dinners have raised approximately $1.5 million for HAVEN.

DETROIT LIONS INVITATIONAL

Detroit Lions Charities raised approximately $50,000 at the Detroit Lions Invitational, the 19th annual golf tournament held at the prestigious TPC Michigan in Dearborn. Factoring in this year's substantial contribution, Detroit Lions Charities has now generated approximately $1.85 million in the 19 outings. Approximately 135 golfers enjoyed good golf and great fellowship at TPC Michigan's championship course - including the event chairman Lions' head coach Jim Schwartz and over 70 Lions' players.

KICKOFF LUNCHEON

Lions' fans were given the opportunity to meet the entire 2008 team and coaching staff at the 12th annual Detroit Lions Kickoff Luncheon. The annual kickoff to a new Lions' season was presented by Tribute Restaurant @ The Wisne Family and hosted by the Detroit Economic Club at Cobo Center in Detroit. The primary recipient of Detroit Lions Charities' proceeds from the luncheon is the Think Detroit PAL youth football league. The league features approximately 3,200 youngsters playing in the nation's largest after-school tackle football program.

TONY FILIPPIS MEMORIAL BOCCE TOURNAMENT

The 2009 Detroit Lions' Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Tournament raised approximately $60,000 for Detroit Lions Charities to benefit the Athletes with Disabilities Hall of Fame and various other charities in Michigan. The tournament was named in honor of the late Tony Filippis, long-time advocate for the disabled community. This year's tournament was led by honorary chairmen Tony Battaglia, AJ Filippis, Lions' head coach Jim Schwartz and former Lions' lineman Mike Utley. The tournament has raised more than $785,000 since it first originated in 2004 by former Lions head coach Steve Mariucci.

The Academy is made possible through a collaborative effort between Detroit

Public Schools, Communities in Schools of Detroit, the Detroit Lions and corporate sponsors including Costco Wholesale, Dow Chemical Company and Ford Motor Company. The Lions continue their involvement with the Academy throughout the year with player and staff appearances.

NFL TAKE A PLAYER TO SCHOOL

Lions' quarterback Dan Orlovsky made a special appearance to Notre Dame Marist Academy in 2008 as a part of the "NFL Take a Player to School" sweepstakes. Orlovsky spent the day with second-grade student Sydney Newby and her classmates, thanks to the sweepstakes sponsored by the JC Penney Afterschool Fund and the National Football League. The program is part of the NFL's Play 60 campaign, which encourages youth to get at least 60 minutes of exercise a day.

2008 healthy eating event for children Family YMCA in Southgate. The purpose of the event was to fight childhood obesity, which is one of the nation's leading health threats, according to the AHA. To further support health education, the Lions and the AHA awarded a $10,000 grant to support the

HOSPITAL VISITS

The Detroit Lions commitment to the community is no more rewarding than when it touches the lives of youngsters, and one way in which players and staff are able to do just that is by making visits to Detroit-area children's hospitals. Children typically receive personal visits with the players, who help with homework, play games, share stories and provide the children encouragement. They also take time to sign autographs and take photos for the children and their families.

LIFT UP AMERICA

Lift Up America was founded in 2005 with a mission to give back to communities across the country. FORD FIELD

Ford Field, home of the Detroit Lions, is one of the premiere sports and entertainment stadiums in the world, and that fact has been proven over and over again the past few years with such high-profile international events like Super Bowl XL.

Every event at Ford Field impacts the city of Detroit beyond the event itself inside the stadium. For example, by hosting the Super Bowl in Detroit, Ford Field stood as the centerpiece to an over $260 million economic impact on Metro Detroit.

And none of that would have been made possible without the vision and investment made by Lions Owner and Chairman William Clay Ford and the Ford family to not only construct a fine football stadium but an unrivaled sports and entertainment venue.

HOME FOR FOOTBALL

More than just a home for the Lions, few stadiums in the country hold a football schedule as aggressive as Ford Field. Football championships have been held at virtually every level ranging from youth football to the Super Bowl. Ford Field is busy during the summer time as well when the Detroit Lions Youth Football Programs host both summer camps and a high school 7-on-7 tournament at the stadium.

SUPER BOWL XL RECAP

In 2006, Ford Field and Metro Detroit sparkled as the international sports community converged for the NFL's championship game.

"Much changed for the city of Detroit in 25 years since the Super Bowl was played there last," said former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. "The energy of the city and the revival of downtown Detroit are evident. Detroit was a wonderful host and the hospitality exceeded expectations.

"From the media center and NFL headquarters at GM World Headquarters and the Renaissance Center, to the NFL Experience at Cobo Center, to the events at some of downtown's historic theatres, to the game at Ford Field, our fans, teams, business partners and media enjoyed their Super Bowl experience in Detroit."

THE ROAD AHEAD

Football events are not the only major events on the docket at Ford Field. The future is gearing up for several spectacular events, including the return of Kenny Chesney's "Sun City Carnival" 2009 Tour in August and the NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four in April 2010. NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four reached new heights this past year as Ford Field served as the host site for one of the year's biggest sporting events. It capped off two years of setting new standards for the men's basketball championships, which included attendance records for the Final Four, National Championship and preliminary rounds.

With the Final Four and Midwest Regionals now a success, Ford Field and the Detroit Metro area is gearing up to have that same impact on the 2010 NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

2009 MEN'S NCAA FINAL FOUR

This year's Final Four finalized a process that included six years of planning with the ultimate goal of delivering a Final Four like no other, and the NCAA, Ford Field and the city of Detroit did just that. The cornerstone to this year's championship was the center stadium court and seating configuration that included customized risers and, for the first time, designated student sections. On the court, the Final Four featured Michigan State defeating Connecticut, 82-73, and North Carolina defeating Villanova, 83-69 in the National Semifinals. In the National Championship, North Carolina ousted Michigan State, 89-72, to claim the NCAA title.

The weekend kicked off on a record note as Final Four Friday drew a record crowd with nearly 30,000 in attendance. The games were expected to establish new records, and they delivered as well. The National Semifinals set an all-time record with 72,456 fans attending both games, and the National Championship upped that amount when it drew 72,992. Overall, 145,378 fans attended the Final Four, which also set a new record.

Festivities surrounding the Final Four livened up downtown Detroit. The ancillary events, like Hoops City, also drew record crowds over the five-day period. The NCAA and the Detroit Local Organizing Committee worked together on several community outreaches, which include a new legacy program. In the Detroit community, new early learning and literacy centers were opened. All of this was made possible by the vision of Ford Field and the NCAA to take this event to new levels. In the end, the Final Four generated an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit.

MIDWEST REGIONALS

Midwest Regionals, which included the Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight rounds, were held March 28 and 30 in downtown Detroit for the first time as well, and both sessions set new preliminary rounds attendance records with 57,028 and 57,563 respectively for each session. A record of 114,591 was also established for both sessions. The excitement for the Midwest Regional was evident when 50,000 tickets were sold prior to the announcement of the 65-team tournament. Teams in the regional included Kansas (1 seed), Wisconsin (3), Davidson (10 seed) and Villanova (12 seed). Davidson upset Wisconsin,73-56, in the first game and Kansas defeated Villanova, 72-57, in the second game. The regional title was claimed by Kansas with a win over Davidson, 59-57, in a game that came down to the final seconds. The previous attendance record for a single Regional game was 42,519. That mark was set at the Michigan State vs. Kentucky game in St. Louis' Trans World Dome in 1999.

NCAA HOCKEY

Beyond 2009, Ford Field will elevate collegiate hockey to an all-time level when it hosts the NCAA Men's 2010 Frozen Four. In an area that shows great support annually for college hockey and several Division I programs in the state of Michigan, Ford Field, which will be the largest stadium ever to host the Frozen Four, is the ideal venue to provide access to more fans of college hockey's version of the Final Four than ever before. In the state alone, there are eight Division I men's hockey programs, and in the 60 years of crowning an NCAA champion, five schools from Michigan have won the title a combined 19 times.

A LOOK AT THE PAST

On November 16, 1999, a new era in Detroit Lions' history began when the team officially launched the construction of its new downtown Detroit stadium. In 2002, the Lions and the city of Detroit unveiled one of the most impressive sports and entertainment venues ever built.

The Lions' downtown home is an incomparable 65,000-seat facility that includes a giant glass wall, revealing the picturesque Detroit skyline, and the old Hudson's Warehouse, originally built in 1920. The massive project encompasses a total of 1.85 million square feet of development.

The old Hudson's Warehouse, a major cornerstone of Ford Field, houses most of the stadium luxury seats, pressbox, restaurants, food courts, lounge areas, banquet facilities, entertainment venues and commercial space. The inclusion of the warehouse into the stadium project allows the sightlines at Ford Field to be among the very best in the NFL. In fact, even the locker room facilities have been built in the basement of the seven-story historic Detroit structure.

Detroit played its first home preseason game at Ford Field Saturday, August 24, 2003 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. Almost one month later, the Lions celebrated the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field Sunday, September 22 when they played host to their long-time divisional rival, the Green Bay Packers. The 2002 home opener marked the return of the Lions to downtown Detroit for the first time since 1974.

Following the grand opening event and the Lions' first regular season game, Ford Field's first concert was headlined by the rock-and-roll legends, the Rolling Stones. At Super Bowl XL, the Rolling Stones returned to headline the NFL's halftime show.

Not only has Ford Field impressed the NFL owners, but it has also made an impact on the NCAA to name the stadium the site of the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. Ford Field warmed-up for that championship event by hosting one of the four Men's Basketball Regional Finals in 2008. In addition to the men's basketball championship, the NCAA will return in 2010 as Ford Field hosts the Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

In April 2007, Ford Field expanded its portfolio when it hosted one of the biggest sports entertainment events of the year when the WWE's Wrestlemania extravaganza rolled into town. The event set a Ford Field record with 80,103 in attendance and it was the second-highest tally in the 23-year history of the event behind Wrestlemania III (93,173) held at the Pontiac Silverdome. Wrestlemania 23 at Ford Field included fans from 23 different countries, including all 50 states and nine Canadian provinces. Wrestlemania was the highest grossing one-day live event in WWE history, and holding the event at Ford Field helped pump an estimated $25 million into the local economy.

Ford Field has also hosted prominent motorsports events, including the United States Hot Rod Association's Monster Jam monster truck series for the past two years and the AMA Amp'd Mobile Supercross series.

Ford Field began as a construction phenomenon on multiple fronts, and is now a crown jewel of stadiums in the NFL and Detroit's downtown entertainment district. The stadium's impact continues to grow as Ford Field plays host to football games, sports and entertainment events, tradeshows and concerts.

HEADQUARTERS & TRAINING FACILITY

The Ford family not only made a commitment to bring the pride of the Detroit Lions back into downtown Detroit with the construction of Ford Field, but they also decided that the new training and practice facility would be rivaled by no other team in the National Football League.

The Lions' $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility is built on a 22.7-acre parcel and is located just west of Detroit on the border of Allen Park and Dearborn. In fact, the facility is just down the street from Ford Motor Company's World Headquarters.

The franchise broke ground on the new world-class facility in August 2000 and moved into its new digs in April 2002. The 460,000 square foot complex includes a full indoor practice field, 2.5 outdoor practice fields, a state-of-the art weight and training room, a massive locker room, a hydrotherapy room, a spacious equipment room, a cafeteria, meeting rooms for each position, a player lounge, a 106-person auditorium for full team meetings and large press conferences, a broadcast studio, a library and archive room, a media room along with offices for all personnel.

When entering the building from the main entrance, one is immediately hit with flashbacks of Lions' football. A 23-by-26 foot mural is covered with the likes of nine Hall-of-Fame Lions players.

In an effort to keep the environment clean, William Clay Ford, Jr. also made sure the building was built with renewable and recyclable products. The bamboo floors in the lobby, latex paint and rubber flooring have all contributed to this cause.
