MEDIA INFORMATION

On behalf of the Anaheim Ducks, welcome to the 2017-18 National Hockey League (NHL) season. We hope to make your job covering the Ducks as easy and pleasant as possible. In order to help you achieve your goals in the most efficient manner, we have a few procedural guidelines of which you should be aware.

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All season and individual game credential holders should enter through the press entrance off Douglass Avenue (Northeast corner of the building). The press entrance and press will-call opens two and one-half hours prior to all games. Credentials are non-transferable, and unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejection from Honda Center and result in a loss of credential privileges.

Season media passes will be issued to recognized newspapers, magazines, television and established radio stations as well as websites affiliated with major broadcast outlets. Requests for credentials must be made on company letterhead. Credentials will be distributed on an individual basis. Season pass holders must notify the communications office of their intentions to cover a game in order to reserve press seating.

Individual game credentials should be requested in writing through the communications department (e-mail or fax) a minimum of 24 hours prior to game time or by 2:00 p.m. Friday for all Saturday or Sunday contests. You can email requests to agilchrist@anaheimducks.com, or fax to 714-940-2925. Pre-arranged passes must be picked up at the press entrance located inside the northeast entrance. Credentials will be issued on an availability-only basis.

Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, press box, press dining room and both locker rooms. We suggest coming to the morning skate if you need an interview before the game. Both teams' locker rooms will open five minutes after the last player has left the ice, following the game's conclusion. Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere. ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIODS.

Interviews that need advance preparation or special accommodation can be arranged by contacting the Ducks communications department. This includes all live television interviews for pre and post-game.

Photo credentials will also be issued in the same manner as other passes, with camera positions assigned by team photographer Debora Robinson; photographers should check in with Debora in the press dining room prior to game time.

Telephones for the working media should be ordered through Shelly Baker with Honda Center at (714) 704-2408.

Facsimile and photocopy services are available by contacting the Ducks communications department prior to the game.

On game days when the Ducks choose to practice, they will take the ice at 10:00 or 10:30 a.m. The visiting team's practice usually starts at 11:30 a.m. Please call the Ducks communications department if there is a question regarding either team's practice schedule. ALL requests for in-between period interviews must be made by the time of the Ducks' skate that morning.

We hope this outline of procedures and guidelines will assist you in your coverage of the Ducks and the National Hockey League at Honda Center for the 2017-18 season. Please don't hesitate to contact us if you need any additional assistance. We look forward to working with you this season.

Sincerely,

Alex Gilchrist

HENRY & SUSAN SAMUELI

ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC & ANAHEIM ARENA MANAGEMENT, LLC

Susan Samueli was born and raised in Los Angeles, CA. She earned a B.S. in Mathematics from UC Berkeley in 1972. From 1972 to 1985 she was with IBM Corporation, where she worked initially as a software programmer in the Federal Systems Division, Westlake Village, CA, and then as a Systems Engineer in the National Marketing Division, Los Angeles, CA, providing technical marketing and sales support for IBM's mid-range computer systems. In 1985 she left IBM and focused her energy on raising her children, at which time she developed a keen interest in alternative health care. She developed an active consulting practice in the areas of nutrition, homeopathy and Chinese herbs, and subsequently received a Ph.D. degree in nutrition from the American Holistic College of Nutrition in 1993 and a diploma in Homeopathy from the British Institute of Homeopathy in 1994.

Henry Samueli was born in Buffalo, NY and grew up in Los Angeles, CA. He earned a B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in Electrical Engineering from UCLA in 1975, 1976 and 1980, respectively. From 1980-1985, he worked in the defense industry and held various engineering and management positions in the Electronics and Technology Division of TRW Inc. in Redondo Beach, CA. Since 1985 Dr. Samueli has been a professor in the Electrical Engineering Department at UCLA, and since 2003 he has also served as a Distinguished Adjunct Professor in the Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Department at UC Irvine. In 1991 he co-founded Broadcom Corporation, a global leader in providing semiconductor solutions for wired and wireless communications and took a leave of absence from UCLA in 1995 to be at Broadcom full-time. In 2016 Broadcom Corporation was acquired by Avago Technologies Limited and renamed Broadcom Limited. Dr. Samueli continues to serve as Chief Technical Officer of Broadcom Limited. He was elected a Fellow of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) in 2000, a member of the National Academy of Engineering in 2003, and a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2004.

In December 2003 Susan and Henry purchased the management contract for the Honda Center sports and entertainment venue, creating Anaheim Arena Management, LLC, to oversee all operations of the arena, and in June 2005 they purchased the Anaheim Ducks National Hockey League club, Honda Center's largest tenant. In 2007 the Anaheim Ducks became the first California team ever to win the Stanley Cup championship. Henry serves on the Executive Committee of the NHL Board of Governors.

The success of Broadcom Corporation has also provided Susan and Henry the opportunity to support many worthwhile nonprofit organizations. After Broadcom's initial public offering in 1998 they created the Samueli Foundation, and to date have gifted over $300 million primarily in the areas of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Education, Integrative Health, Youth Services, and Jewish Culture. In 2003 and 2004, Susan and Henry were listed among BusinessWeek's 50 Most Generous Philanthropists in the nation. In 2012, they joined the Giving Pledge, initiated by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates, whose members pledge the majority of their wealth to philanthropy.

Since relocating to Orange County, CA in 1995, Susan and Henry have become very active in the community. Susan is on the Board of the Orangewood Children's Foundation and is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Samueli Academy, a public Charter High School in Santa Ana for community, underserved and foster teens. She serves on the Board of the Susan Samueli Center for Integrative Medicine at UC Irvine's College of Medicine, which she and Henry established in 2001. In 2000, Susan was honored with the UC Irvine Medal. In 2002, she received the Ellen Cooperman Angel Award from the John Wayne Cancer Institute. In 2005, she received the General William Lyon Crystal Vision Philanthropy Award from the Orangewood Children's Foundation, and in 2012 she was awarded an Honorary Doctorate in Humanities from the Southern California University of Health Sciences.

Henry serves on the Dean's Advisory Board of both the Henry Samueli School of Engineering and Applied Science at UCLA and the Henry Samueli School of Engineering at UC Irvine. In 2000 he was awarded the University of California Presidential Medal, the UC Irvine Medal, the UCLA School of Engineering and Applied Science Alumnus of the Year, and the IEEE Circuits and Systems Society Industrial Pioneer Award. In 2005 he was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Science degree from the Technion-Israel Institute of Technology and the Edward A. Dickson Alumnus of the Year from UCLA. In 2006 he received the IEEE Communications Society Distinguished Industry Leaders Award. In 2010 he received the UCLA Medal. In 2011, he received the Global Semiconductor Alliance Dr. Morris Chang Exemplary Leadership Award, and in 2012, he was awarded the Marconi Society Prize and Fellowship.

BOB MURRAY

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC

Bob Murray enters his 43rd consecutive year in the National Hockey League, his 10th as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Anaheim Ducks. He won the NHL General Manager of the Year award in 2013-14 and has been a finalist for the honor in three of the last five seasons. He also served as an Assistant General Manager for Team Canada during the 2016 World Cup of Hockey. Murray played in 1,008 NHL games and has been a General Manager for an additional 875 games (188 with Chicago, 687 with Anaheim).

Under Murray's guidance, the Ducks have claimed the last five Pacific Division titles, including four consecutive years with 100+ standings points. The 2016-17 Ducks were the seventh different team in NHL history to win five consecutive division titles and the only team to win the Pacific Division five consecutive years since its creation in 1993-94. Anaheim defeated Calgary and Edmonton in the first two rounds of the Stanley Cup Playoffs before falling to Nashville in the Conference Final. It was Anaheim's fourth trip to the Conference Final since Murray joined the team in 2006 (only Chicago, 5, and Pittsburgh, 4, have made as many appearances).

The 2015-16 club went 46-25-11 for 103 points, fourth in the Western Conference. In 2014-15, Anaheim finished with the best record in the Western Conference (51-24-7, 109 points), becoming the first team since 2011-12 (Vancouver) to post consecutive 50+ win seasons. Anaheim defeated Winnipeg and Calgary in the first two rounds of the postseason before falling in the Conference Final to Chicago (seven games). The 2013-14 team finished with a record of 54-20-8, the best mark in franchise history. Anaheim posted the top record in the Western Conference for the first time in club history that season, setting season records for standings points (116), wins (54) and win/points percentage (.707), while also leading the league in goals (263). The 2012-13 club finished the regular season with the third-best record in the NHL (30-12-6, second in the West).

Murray was named to his current position on Nov. 12, 2008 after spending the previous three-plus seasons as the club's Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations. In that role, much of Murray's work behind the scenes led directly to many successful trades and other player transactions by Anaheim. During that three-year period, the Ducks won a Stanley Cup (2007), a Pacific Division title (2007), and qualified for the playoffs each season. Murray was the General Manager of the Portland Pirates (Anaheim's AHL affiliate) from 2005-06 through 2007-08. The Pirates went to the Conference Finals twice (2006 & 2008), appearing in six playoff rounds. Between 2005 and 2008 (three seasons), Anaheim and Portland combined to win 10 and appear in 14 playoff rounds, both the most of any organization in hockey.

Prior to joining the Ducks in July 2005, Murray worked as a Professional Scout with the Vancouver Canucks from 1999-05. Murray's scouting expertise helped to build teams that recorded 100+ point seasons two years in a row (2002-03 and 2003-04) and advanced to the Stanley Cup Playoffs four seasons in a row (2001-04). Before his stint in Vancouver, he served as a Scouting Consultant for Anaheim during the 1998-99 season.

Murray was a member of the Chicago Blackhawks organization for 25 years, serving as General Manager from 1997-99. He was named the sixth General Manager in team history on July 3, 1997. He was promoted to the post after serving as Assistant General Manager under Bob Pulford for two seasons. Before joining upper-management, Murray was named the Director of Player Personnel in 1991 and was largely responsible for the club's NHL Entry Draft selections over eight seasons.

Drafted by the Blackhawks in 1974, Murray spent his entire 1,008-game, 15-year career in a Chicago uniform. He became just the fourth player in Blackhawks history to reach the 1,000-game plateau in 1989-90. In addition, he became the first defenseman in club history to appear in 100 postseason contests, reaching the mark during the 1990 Stanley Cup Playoffs. In all, Murray scored 132-382=514 points and currently ranks second in all-time points among Blackhawks defensemen (15th overall in club history). He was named to both the 1981 and 1983 NHL All-Star Games. Murray retired at the conclusion of the 1989-90 season. Known for his work ethic, intelligence and determination as a player, Murray remained with the organization as a Professional Scout following his retirement in 1990.

Bob and his wife, Betsy, have four children: Kevin, Amanda, Andrew and Katie; and four grandchildren: Mikayla, Aisley, Lily and Kaden.

TIM RYAN

PRESIDENT/CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER,
ANAHEIM ARENA MANAGEMENT, LLC,
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER
ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC

Tim Ryan is in his 13th season as Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer for the Anaheim Ducks. Over the last 12 years, he has successfully led the Ducks business efforts to record growth, while initiating numerous community, fan-friendly and youth hockey programs that have increased the popularity of the sport in the Southern California market.

Ryan has served more than 25 years at Honda Center and has more than 39 years in arena management and event creation experience. In addition to his duties with the NHL club, he serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Anaheim Arena Management, LLC (AAM), the management company of Honda Center. In his role, Ryan oversees one of the premier entertainment and sports venues in the world. Over the years, Honda Center has repeatedly ranked among the top 10 arenas in the world for annual live entertainment.

Ryan has also led significant efforts to upgrade Honda Center, assuring it remains one of the world's top-of-the-line sports and entertainment venues, while continuing to elevate the live game experience. Over the past few years, the venue debuted a new state-of-the-art scoreboard, in addition to multi-million dollar upgrades to the Terrace (400) and Pacific Premier Bank Club Levels (300), the 15,000-square-foot indoor/outdoor Shock Top Terrace and Anaheim Ducks Team Store. Season passes to the Shock Top Terrace have been sold out since its inception, while the new team store has helped move Anaheim Ducks merchandise into one of the league's top 10 sellers.

Ryan's philosophy of continual venue upgrades continues this season with a newly expanded concourse. This area adds thousands of square feet to the building's south entrance and connects the Anaheim Ducks Team Store with innovative food & beverage concepts. Also new for 2017-18 is a state-of-the-art LED sports lighting system with custom optics.

Through strategic planning, creative business development and event production, Ryan ensures Honda Center is consistently booked with the world's top names in live entertainment and world-class sporting events. The Ducks have continually been recognized by ESPN The Magazine in its annual "Ultimate Standings" edition for successes both on and off the ice. The magazine has recognized the Ducks as a top franchise among 122 professional sports teams (NHL, NFL, MLB & NBA), ranking in the top eight in three of the last four years. In August 2016, J.D. Power also recognized the Ducks as the top franchise in Southern California with respect to overall customer satisfaction.

Ryan has spearheaded several initiatives in conjunction with the Samuelis, including charitable programs that support approximately 500 nonprofit organizations annually, a team foundation that supports the community in the areas of education, youth hockey and health and wellness, and an expanded grassroots marketing program. The Ducks launched THE RINKS development program in 2009, which supports and promotes youth ice and roller hockey in Southern California. The club also launched the first-ever Orange County high school hockey league in 2008 (named the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League). The league now has 49 teams for the 2017-18 season. Funded by the Anaheim Ducks Foundation, S.C.O.R.E. (Scholastic Curriculum of Recreation and Education), the club's education-based youth hockey program has reached more than 300,000 local school children since 2005. The Ducks also have a 7,000-member Kids Club, the largest in the NHL (among all U.S.-based teams).

In 1992, after a long career at the Long Beach Arena, Ryan joined the then-Arrowhead Pond of Anaheim (operated by Ogden Facility Management) as Assistant General Manager. He was promoted to General Manager in 1998 and was named Pollstar Magazine "Facility Executive of the Year" for 2001. JOHN AHLERS

TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY

John Ahlers is in the midst of his 16th season as the Anaheim Ducks' play-by-play voice on Fox Sports Prime Ticket. He has called 984 regular-season Ducks games since joining the club prior to the 2002-03 season along with numerous NHL games for NBC Sports Network over the previous eight seasons.

Each season, Ahlers is a significant contributor to the team's award-winning Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program, an educational initiative that impacts over 25,000 elementary school students. He teaches the students the value of teamwork in sports, in school and in life. Using team-building exercises that relate to hockey, this interactive presentation demonstrates the importance to work effectively with others to achieve success in all endeavors. Ahlers can also be seen and heard at many of the Ducks community relations events, where he works as host and emcee.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Ahlers was with the Tampa Bay Lightning organization. While in Tampa Bay, Ahlers served as radio play-by-play voice from 1999-02. A 29-year broadcast veteran with 2,192 games behind the microphone (including 1,343 in the NHL), he also worked as host of the Lightning's television pre-game show and Lightning Weekly, a magazine format program aired on Florida's Sunshine Television Network.

Prior to his stint with Tampa Bay, Ahlers spent five seasons as the television and radio voice of the International Hockey League's Detroit Vipers. During that time, he also worked as broadcaster of the IHL Game of Week and Turner Cup Finals for Fox Sports Net. While with the Vipers he received numerous awards, including the IHL Broadcaster of the Year in 1995 and Emmys for Best Sports Broadcasts in 1995 and 1998. With Anaheim, Ahlers won an Emmy in 2003 for Best Live Sports Broadcast during Game 4 against Detroit in the first round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

A graduate of Michigan State University, Ahlers has the call for NFL and NCAA college football games on SportsUSA Radio Network for the sixth consecutive season in 2017. He has also served as the voice of the Salt Lake Golden Eagles (IHL) and the Louisville IceHawks (ECHL), as well as Michigan State and Colorado College hockey.

John and his wife, Cindi, were married in the summer of 2008. The couple resides in Trabuco Canyon, CA.

BRIAN HAYWARD

TELEVISION COLOR ANALYST

The original television analyst for the Anaheim Ducks, Brian Hayward is in his 25th season with the club. He has called 1,469 regular-season Ducks games since joining the team and celebrated his 1,000th Ducks broadcast on Jan. 16, 2011 vs. Edmonton. Over the past 24 years, he has earned a reputation as one of hockey's most articulate and informative analysts. Hayward has also been an active member of the Orange County community since joining the Ducks, participating in numerous charitable events on behalf of the club.

Hayward has previously called national games for NBC, ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and CBC. He appeared as an analyst for the "NHL on NBC," which included work at the 2014 Stadium Series Game at Dodger Stadium and the 2006 Olympic Winter Games in Torino, Italy. He also served as color commentator for the 2004 World Cup of Hockey on ESPN's telecasts of the event. In 1998, he was a roving reporter during the Stanley Cup Final for ESPN, where he had the distinction of interviewing President Bill Clinton during a game in Washington.

After earning All-American honors as a goaltender at Cornell in 1982, Hayward went on to play in the NHL with the Winnipeg Jets, Montreal Canadiens, Minnesota North Stars and San Jose Sharks. In 1984-85, Hayward established a franchise record by winning 33 games with the Jets.

In Montreal, he teamed with Patrick Roy to win the William M. Jennings Trophy three consecutive years (1987-89) as the team allowing the fewest goals over the course of the regular season. Hayward also appeared in the Stanley Cup Final in 1986 with Montreal and 1991 with Minnesota.

A member of the inaugural San Jose Sharks in 1991-92, Hayward gained experience as an analyst on select Sharks games while sidelined with injuries. When a back injury forced a premature end to his playing career, he became a full-time broadcaster with the Ducks.

A native of Toronto, Ontario, Hayward holds a degree in business management from Cornell. He resides in Anaheim Hills with his wife, Angela. His daughter, Courtney, and her husband currently live in Los Angeles, CA.

The official team colors and logo were unveiled on June 7, 1993.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

On October 2, 1992, Walt Disney Pictures released the hit movie "The Mighty Ducks" and created a new wave of excitement among the nation's youth and ice hockey. Starring Emilio Estevez and a band of kids who learn to play and win as a team, "The Mighty Ducks" grossed $51 million at the box office and served as the inspiration for the name of the Walt Disney Company's NHL club.

The original official team colors and logo were unveiled on June 7, 1993, and Mighty Ducks merchandise was immediately propelled into one of the top sellers in all of professional sports.

Purple, jade, silver and white were chosen as the team's colors while an attractive crest featuring a duck head-shaped hockey mask was chosen to give the club its own unique identity. As a testament to the logos popularity, the Ducks original jersey was named the "most fashionable" uniform in all of sports at the inaugural ESPY Awards in 1997.

A NEW LOOK UNVEILED

In the spring of 2005, Henry and Susan Samueli entered into an agreement with the Walt Disney Company to purchase the Ducks franchise. In the Samueli's first year of ownership, the Ducks set then-franchise records for overall wins (43) and standings points (98). Entering the 2006 playoffs as the Western Conference's sixth seed, the Ducks upset the third-seeded Calgary Flames in a thrilling seven-game series and went on to sweep the Colorado Avalanche before losing to the Edmonton Oilers in the Western Conference Final.

On June 22, 2006, a new era began for the franchise as the team became officially known as the Anaheim Ducks. In addition, a new logo and color scheme was unveiled. The new look and identity of the Ducks were a collaborative effort, mixing opinions of fans as well as Ducks players, ownership and management. All parties involved unanimously decided to go beyond simply altering the original concept of an aggressive duck character.

In shaping the new design, the focus was sharpened to create an overall image that expressed excitement, speed and a competitive edge. In addition, a classic color palette of black and metallic gold was developed, with an accent of orange as a metaphorical link to the team's Orange County home.

The result was a strong, typographic mark anchored by a stylized "D" that echoed the image of a duck's foot or footprint. The custom typography had a powerful forward momentum and was made up of metallic gold letters with orange drop-shadows and a black holding shape. The uniforms were an evolution of the earlier sweater design but with gold, white and orange sweeping stripes influenced by the curves of the "D" in the Ducks logo. Set with a new look for the 2006-07 season, the Ducks made history and won the Stanley Cup.

THE NAME, LOGOS & COLORS

THIRD JERSEYS

The Ducks have appeared in five third jerseys (each pictured), beginning with a cartoon Duck breaking through a sheet of ice. The club moved to a more classic approach with its next two sweaters, using black with dark plum, silver and white accenting as its color palate for the alternate jersey worn during the 2003-04 and 2005-06 seasons.

The fourth third jersey debuted on Nov. 26, 2010. A black sweater with orange sleeves and side panels, it featured the “D” foot placed prominently on the chest. The shoulder patch integrated the original Mighty Ducks logo into a new oval mark, linking the team’s past and present.

The newest third jersey made its initial appearance on Oct. 16, 2015 and featured the original Mighty Ducks logo set on an orange colored jersey accented with gold, black and white trim. In a reversal of logos, the primary webbed “D” was displayed as a patch on both shoulders to represent the current Ducks team.

STADIUM SERIES

The Anaheim Ducks and Los Angeles Kings wore specially designed jerseys and uniforms for the 2014 Coors Light NHL Stadium Series™ contest at Dodger Stadium on Jan. 25, 2014. Anaheim’s jersey featured a chrome-treated “D” logo, unique to the 2014 Coors Light NHL Stadium Series™ contest and inspired from the chrome details in the NHL shield. The Ducks Stadium Series jersey was orange, currently an accent color in the club’s primary logo.

Anaheim’s orange jersey for the game included enlarged player numbers for improved visibility in an outdoor venue, as well as a shoulder logo to signify the geographic rivalry between the Ducks and Kings. An interlocked “OC” logo appeared on the left shoulder of the Ducks’ Stadium Series jersey. The NHL Stadium Series jersey was designed with creative input from the Ducks, Reebok and the NHL.

FROM THIRD TO PRIMARY

Beginning with the 2014-15 season, the club’s 2010-14 third jersey was transformed into the new primary sweater. A white “road” version of the jersey was added. Both versions of the jersey now incorporate white laces and permanent integration with the “D” on both sweaters.

TEAM HISTORY

The San Diego Gulls took the ice on Oct. 10, 2015 to open their inaugural American Hockey League season in San Diego, CA. One of seven teams in the AHL's recently created Pacific Division and one of five playing in their inaugural season, the Gulls concluded 2015-16 with a record of 39-23-4-2, earning second place in the Pacific Division and fifth in the Western Conference. The Gulls earned the franchise's first playoff series win in the first round against Texas before falling in the Pacific Division Final to Ontario. In 2016-17, the Gulls improved on their inaugural season's success, recording a 43-20-3-2 record, earning second place in the Pacific Division and third in the AHL. The club defeated Ontario in the first round of the Calder Cup Playoffs, advancing to the Pacific Division Final for the second consecutive season, eventually falling to San Jose in five games.

San Diego ranked second among league leaders in average attendance (8,675) in 2016-17, bringing nearly 300,000 fans to watch Gulls hockey at Valley View Casino Center.

Professional hockey in San Diego has a rich history, dating to the San Diego Skyhawks of the Pacific Coast Hockey League in 1944. Since then, San Diego has been home to several professional teams and leagues throughout the years, including the aforementioned Skyhawks (1944-50), Gulls of the Western Hockey League (1966-74), Mariners of the World Hockey Association (1974-77) and Pacific Hockey League (1977-78), Hawks of the PHL (1978-79) and Gulls of the International Hockey League (1990-95), West Coast Hockey League (1995-03) and ECHL (2003-06).

Valley View Casino Center, San Diego's home venue, opened on Nov. 17, 1966 with a 4-1 San Diego Gulls (WHL) victory over the Seattle Totems. Valley View Casino Center (formerly San Diego Sports Arena and iPayOne Center) has housed professional hockey, basketball, indoor soccer, arena football, tennis and numerous entertainment events. A central figure in San Diego sports history, Valley View Casino Center has recently seen significant arena upgrades, most notably a new state-of-the-art scoreboard prior to the Gulls' 2015-16 campaign.

BOB FERGUSON GENERAL MANAGER

Bob Ferguson enters his ninth season with the Anaheim Ducks organization and his third season as General Manager of the San Diego Gulls. In two seasons with San Diego, Ferguson helped build a team that has advanced to the Pacific Division Finals each year. The 2016-17 club went 43-20-3-2 for 91 points, second in the Western Conference and third in the AHL, defeating Ontario in the first round of the postseason before falling in the Pacific Division Finals to San Jose (five games). In the club's inaugural season in 2015-16, the team finished with a 39-23-4-2 record for 84 points, earning second place in the Pacific Division and the club's first berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs. Under Ferguson's guidance, San Diego won its first-ever playoff series over the Texas Stars, 3-1, prior to falling to Ontario in the second round (five games).

Ferguson previously spent three seasons as Assistant General Manager of the Norfolk Admirals, Anaheim's AHL affiliate from 2012-15. Ferguson has logged more than 30 years of experience in a coaching or management capacity at the minor league and junior levels, including the last eight seasons with the Ducks organization. He spent the 2010-11 and 2011-12 seasons as Assistant General Manager of the Syracuse Crunch, Anaheim's AHL affiliate prior to Norfolk. In 2009-10, he served as a scout for Anaheim, responsible for amateur and college scouting along with other special assignments in hockey operations. Ferguson's first season with the Ducks organization was 2008-09, when he held the post of Assistant General Manager for the Iowa Chops, Anaheim's 2008-09 AHL affiliate.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Ferguson spent nine years as a head coach in the professional ranks with the Indianapolis Ice of the IHL, as well as the Florida Everblades and Augusta Lynx of the ECHL. In his nine seasons as a professional coach, Ferguson's teams never missed the playoffs.

A native of Kingston, Ontario, Ferguson is a three-time USA Hockey National Champion (Gold Cup), a five-time United States Hockey League (USHL) Coach of the Year, a five-time USHL General Manager of the Year and two-time ECHL Coach of the Year. Before reaching the IHL, Ferguson coached in the USHL for 17 seasons with the Sioux City Musketeers and Des Moines Buccaneers. With 517 career USHL coaching wins, he ranks third all-time in league history. During his USHL tenure, he led Sioux City (2) and Des Moines (3) to multiple Clark Cup championships.

Ferguson and his wife, Lisa, have two children: Brett and Kaylee. The family resides in San Diego.

DALLAS EAKINS HEAD COACH

Dallas Eakins enters his third season as Head Coach of the San Diego Gulls in 2017-18. Named to his current post on June 26, 2015, Eakins led the Gulls to a 43-20-3-2 record last season, earning second place in the Pacific Division and third in the AHL. POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks won their second Pacific Division title with a 30-12-6 record for 66 points, marking their best winning percentage in club history (.688 over 2007's .671)...the 2012-13 Ducks also had the best points percentage in club history on the road with a 14-5-5 (.688) mark, also ahead of the 2007 team (.598)...the Ducks finished second in the Western Conference and third overall in the NHL, behind only Chicago and Pittsburgh...the club's third-place finish in the overall league standings was the highest in club history.

COMEBACKS:

The Ducks rallied from deficits 15 times to win a game, including a 12-10-2 record when opponents scored first...Anaheim, Pittsburgh (11-6-0) and Chicago (10-5-4) were the first NHL teams since 2009-10 to have a record over .500 in such situations...the last team prior to 2012-13 was Bruce Boudreau's Washington Capitals (16-8-6 in 2009-10)...the Ducks lost only two games in regulation when scoring the first goal (18-2-4).

HOME SWEET HOME:

Anaheim won 13 consecutive games at Honda Center from Jan. 26-Mar. 20, 2013, the longest home streak in franchise history...the consecutive wins matched the NHL's second-longest home win streak since 2009-10 (also Washington at 13 games in 2010-11 under Boudreau...Detroit had an NHL-record 23-game streak in 2011-12)...Ryan Getzlaf's 9-21=30 points earned at home ranked tied for third in the NHL.

HERE TO STAY:

On Mar. 8 and Mar. 18, 2013, Ryan Getzlaf and Corey Perry signed respective eight-year contract extensions through the 2020-21 season...Getzlaf led Anaheim in points, goals and assists (15-34=49), while ranking tied for 10th among NHL leaders in scoring and tied for eighth in assists...Getzlaf had a career-high 12-game scoring streak at Honda Center from Feb. 1-Mar. 20, 2013, scoring 7-15=22 points (+12)...Perry ranked second among team leaders with 36 points, led in PPG (5) and co-led in goals (15) and GWG (5)...his five GWG ranked tied for sixth in the NHL.

THE 2010-11 REGULAR SEASON

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 47-30-5 for 99 points, ranking second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference...the club's 47 wins were tied for the second-most in franchise history (48 in 2006-07 and 47 in 2007-08).

ANOTHER STRONG FINISH

With 20 games left, the Ducks were 32-25-5 with 69 points and ranked 11th in the Western Conference...the Ducks went 15-5-0 over the last 20 games, climbing to fourth in the West...during that stretch, Corey Perry led the NHL in goals and points (19-12=31 with a +12)...the Ducks also won their last two games, 10 of their last 13 (10-3-0), and went 29-13-1 over the last 43 contests.

PERRY WINS THE HART

Corey Perry won the 2010-11 Hart Memorial Trophy as "the player adjudged to be the most valuable to his team"...Perry was the first player from a Southern California team to win the Hart Trophy since Hall-of-Famer Wayne Gretzky earned the honor with Los Angeles in 1989...Perry was also just the third player from a California team to win the Hart, joining Gretzky and San Jose's Joe Thornton (2006)...his 50 goals also won him the Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy as the league's top goal scorer...he tied for the league lead in GWG (11, also Ovechkin), finished third in points (98), and tied for fifth in PPG (14) and SHG (4)

MORE PERRY

Perry's 50 goals were the most by a Ducks player since Teemu Selanne scored 52 during the 1997-98 season...he became the third player in franchise history to reach the 50-goal mark and the first in the Western Conference to score 50-or-more since Calgary's Jarome Iginla in 2007-08 (50)...Perry established numerous franchise records in 2010-11, including game-winning goals, third-period goals, and shorthanded goals.

BETTER WITH AGE

Teemu Selanne (40 years old in 2010-11) recorded 31-49=80 points in 73 games...25 of Selanne's 31 goals came in a tied game or a one-goal contest...he was one of 15 NHL players to average over one point-per-game (eighth with 1.10)...the second-oldest player on that list was Tampa Bay's Martin St. Louis (35 yrs.) who averaged 1.21 points-per-game...Selanne ranked third in the NHL with 16 PPG and tied for eighth in overall scoring...only two players in NHL history age 40+ have recorded more points: (Gordie Howe (DET), 1968-98, 103 pts., 40 yrs, 276 days; Johnny Bucyk (BOS), 1975-76, 83 pts., 40 yrs, 234 days...on Mar. 28 vs. Colorado, he became the first player in history age 40+ to record three goals and five points (3-2=5) in a single game and the fourth-oldest player in NHL history to record a 3+ goal game (also Howe, Bucyk & Lidstrom).

VISNOVSKY LEADS THE PACK

Lubomir Visnovsky led NHL defensemen in scoring (68), assists (50) and points-per-game (.84), and ranked second in goals (18).

HILLER SHINES BEFORE SEASON CUT SHORT

Jonas Hiller went 26-16-5 with five shutouts, a 2.56 GAA and .924 SV% before having his season cut short due to vertigo symptoms...he made only three appearances following the All-Star break, missing a total of 27 games during the second half of the season...Hiller finished tied for fifth among NHL goaltenders in SV% (.924)...he was named to the NHL 2010-11 All-Star team, the lone goaltender to represent the Western Conference...he was the second Swiss-born player to appear in an NHL All-Star Game (also Mark Streit in 2009).

TAKING THE REINS:

The Ducks were 23-13-4 in their last 40 games dating back to Jan. 5, which equaled the eighth-best record in the NHL...that stretch began with Jonas Hiller starting 31 of the final 40 games, including 19 straight from Jan. 5-Mar. 24...prior to that, Hiller started 26 of the first 42 games of the season, alternating starts with J.S. THE STANDINGS CLIMB:

After 69 games, the Ducks were 32-31-6, 12th in the Western Conference standings (13th by winning percentage)...Anaheim rallied to make the playoffs by posting the best record in the NHL (by points and winning percentage) over the last 13 games, going 10-2-1 (21 points, .808 win%)...the Ducks joined only the 1996-97 Ottawa Senators and 2006-07 New York Rangers as teams to rally from as low as 12th place to make the playoffs with 13 games-or-less remaining in the season...the 1996-97 Senators were 12th through 69 games and finished seventh, while the 2006-07 Rangers were 12th through 72 games and finished sixth.

STRONG FINISH:

ROAD SUCCESS:

LEADING THE WAY:

Center Ryan Getzlaf concluded the 2008-09 campaign ranked tied for third among NHL leaders in assists, tied for sixth in scoring (25-66=91) and tied for fourth in power play assists (28)...in addition to leading the club in assists and scoring, Getzlaf broke the Ducks single-season assist record (previously Kariya, 62) on his third helper of the night as part of a four-assist effort on Apr. 4 at San Jose...with two assists (0-2=2) on Apr. 2 at Vancouver, he set a single-season career high in assists (60), one game after establishing a personal best for points in a season on Mar. 31 at Edmonton (83).

HILLER STRONG IN NET:

Goaltender Jonas Hiller concluded the regular season ranked tied for seventh among NHL goaltenders in GAA (2.39) and tied for sixth in SV% (.919)...over his last 12 games, Hiller went 8-2-0 with a 2.44 GAA and .919 SV%, stopping 319-of-347 shots...prior to a 3-2 loss to San Jose on Apr. 5 at Honda Center, Hiller won seven consecutive decisions to tie Guy Hebert for the longest winning streak in franchise history (Hebert won seven straight games from Feb. 25-Mar. 22, 1995).

THE CAPTAIN LEADS THE WAY, AGAIN:

Scott Niedermayer concluded the regular season ranked second among all defensemen in scoring starting Jan. 1 (9-31=40, Mike Green of WSH had 23-27=50 points)...for the season, he ranked tied for third in the NHL in scoring and assists among defensemen...Niedermayer became Anaheim's all-time goal scorer among defensemen by surpassing Oleg Tverdokhovsky with his 46th goal as a Duck on Mar. 8 vs. Minnesota...Niedermayer recorded his third three-point night of the season (1-2=3) on Mar. 31 at EDM, tying a single-game career high.

MOVING ON UP:

Right wing Teemu Selanne scored his 1,200th career NHL point with his overtime goal on Mar. 18 vs. Nashville...Selanne became the 45th player in NHL history to reach the milestone and only the sixth player born outside North America to reach the mark, joining Jaromir Jagr, Stan Mikita, Jari Kurri, Mats Sundin and Paul Stastny...he became the franchise's all-time games played leader with his 617th game as a Duck on Jan. 31 at Colorado...with his appearance that afternoon at Pepsi Center, Selanne surpassed former teammate Steve Rucchin for sole possession of first in all-time Ducks appearances.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE SEASON:

The Ducks completed the 2007-08 regular season with a mark of 47-27-8 record for 102 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference...Anaheim eclipsed the 100-point mark for the second consecutive year, while setting new season club records for the fewest goals allowed (184) and most home wins (28)...Anaheim finished the year winning eight of its last 10 (8-2-0) and 15 of the last 20 games (15-4-1)...at Honda Center, the club went 12-1-0 in the last 13 games and 19-3-1 over the final 23 home contests...the club clinched a playoff berth for the third consecutive year and sixth time in franchise history on Mar. 26 vs. Los Angeles in a 2-1 shootout triumph.

DUCKS SELL OUT THE SEASON:

The Ducks' sellout vs. Phoenix on Apr. 6 (17,269) marked the club's 40th in 40 games at Honda Center in 2007-08, a complete sellout for the regular season...it was just the second time a local NHL team (Southern California market) had sold out a full (non-lockout) regular season...the 1991-92 Los Angeles Kings were the only other such team to do so at the 16,005-seat Forum...the Ducks set franchise attendance records last season for sellouts (40), average attendance (17,195) and percent capacity (100.12%)...the Ducks broke the team record for consecutive regular season sellouts on Feb. 22 against the St. Louis Blues when they surpassed the previous record of 51 straight regular season sellouts set from Dec. 22, 1993-Oct. 20, 1995...the Ducks finished the regular season with a sellout streak of 74 games, the third-longest active regular season sellout streak among U.S.-based NHL teams (behind only Minnesota and the NY Rangers).

LEADERS BY ADDITION:

The Ducks went 20-5-1 after the return of right wing Teemu Selanne on Feb. 5 against the New York Islanders at Nassau Coliseum...the Ducks also had similar success when they welcomed the return of defenseman Scott Niedermayer and arrival of center Doug Weight...the Ducks owned the best winning percentage in the NHL after Selanne's return on Feb. 5 (.788) and the best winning percentage following Niedermayer's return on Dec. 16 (.708)...below is a closer look:

THE TOP 10 LIST:

J.S. Giguere was one of only three goaltenders in the NHL in 2007-08 to rank among the top 10 in wins, goals-against average and save percentage...Giguere ranked second in GAA (2.12), third in SV% (.922) and tied for seventh in wins (35)...the only other two goaltenders who ranked among the top 10 in all three categories were New Jersey's Martin Brodeur and Minnesota's Niklas Backstrom.

WINNING WAYS:

Randy Carlyle (138-74-34) became Anaheim's winningest head coach in franchise history with a 2-1 victory over the New Jersey Devils on Feb. 8 at Prudential Center...Carlyle surpassed Ron Wilson's club record of 120 wins as a Ducks head coach with win No. 121 in his 223rd game behind the bench with Anaheim.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

PLAYOFF BOUND

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 43-27-12, good for 98 standings points and a sixth place finish in the Western Conference...the club clinched a playoff spot on Apr. 10 @ VAN, the fourth post-season berth in club history.

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON

The Ducks set club-records in wins (43) and points (98), eclipsing the previous marks of 40 and 95, respectively, set in 2002-2003...Anaheim's 26 wins at HOME (26-10-5) also set a club-record, breaking the record of 23 in 1996-97 (23-12-6)...the Ducks also set club-records for goals scored with 251 (not including team goals awarded in shootouts) and power play goals with 87...all of these marks were broken again the next season (2006-2007).

STEADY CLIMB

On Jan. 13, the Ducks were 10th in the Western Conference (19-16-7, 45 points) and eight points out of the last playoff spot (occupied at the time by Colorado)...from that point on, Anaheim had a record of 24-11-5 for 53 points...the Ducks became just the fourth NHL team to qualify for the playoffs when trailing the 8th place position by 8 points-or-more anytime after Jan. 1...the first three teams to do so were the NY Islanders (1993-94 - finished 7th), Ottawa Senators (1996-97 - finished 7th) & Vancouver Canucks (2001-2002 - finished 8th)...the San Jose Sharks followed suit by becoming the fifth such team to accomplish the feat...the NHL standings switched to the current format in 1992-93.

ANOTHER GREAT SEASON

Ducks Captain Scott Niedermayer established then career highs in points, assists and games played with 13-50=63 points in 82 games in 2005-2006...his assist and point totals were new franchise records for a defenseman (records he broke again the following season)...Niedermayer finished the season ranked 6th in the NHL in points and T-4th in assists by a defenseman...in his Norris Trophy winning season of 2003-04, Niedermayer scored 14-40=54 points in 81 games...in January, he was named to Canada's Olympic Team but elected not to play so he could have arthroscopic knee surgery during the Olympic Break...after the Olympic Break, he scored 4-17=21 points in 25 games in leading the Ducks to a 16-8-1 record...he was one of four Ducks' players to play in every game, marking the first time in his career he played all 82 games.

FLASHY FINN

Ducks right wing Teemu Selanne scored 40-50=90 points in 80 games with a +28 rating...he led the Ducks in goals, points, plus/minus, power play goals (18) and shooting percentage (15.0%)...after leading Finland to the Silver Medal at the 2006 Winter Olympics (was named best forward in the tournament), Selanne had 14-22=36 points with a +8 rating in his last 25 games (only Thornton and Cheechoo of SJ had more points)...his 40 goals are the most he scored in one season since 1998-1999, when he scored 47...he finished the season ranked T-13th in the NHL in points, T-10th in goals.

1995-96 SEASON:

Final Record: 35-39-8, 78 points (fourth, Pacific)...nearly qualified for a Western Conference playoff spot (the Ducks actually finished tied-for-8th in the conference with Winnipeg, but lost the tie breaker because the Jets had more wins)...Anaheim's 35 wins and 78 points marked new club records for one season...the Mighty Ducks finished out the season strong, going 6-1-1 in their last eight games and 12-3-2 in their last 17 games...the Ducks did a lot of their late-season damage at home, going 11-1-2 in their last 14 home games...Anaheim also had a 15-6-3 record in the last 24 contests and a 17-8-3 record in the last 28...the Ducks went 33-31-8 over the last 72 games after starting the season 2-8-0...the Mighty Ducks' home record was 22-15-4 (22 home wins was a franchise record for one season)...Anaheim ended the season with a club-record nine-game home unbeaten streak (8-0-1)...the Ducks went 11-1-2 in their last 14 at the Arrowhead Pond and 13-5-3 in their last 21...road record was 13-23-4...Anaheim had one of the best records in the NHL since March 1 (12-4-3); the second-best in the Western Conference...the Mighty Ducks earned 34.6% of their points on the season in the team's 19 games after March 1...Paul Kariya became the first Mighty Duck to make First Team NHL All Star, earning a spot on the 1995-96 squad at left wing. He also won the Lady Byng Trophy for the first time in his career...Here are a few facts of how Anaheim's acquisition of Teemu Selanne affected the Mighty Ducks...after Feb. 7, the day the trade went down: Anaheim earned a record of 17-9-3 (11-1-2 at home, 6-8-1 on the road)...the team earned club-records in overall winning streak (six games, Mar. 8-22), home winning streak (five games, Mar. 8-Apr. 3), home unbeaten streak (Mar. 8-Apr. 14, 8-0-1) and overall unbeaten streak (seven games, 6-0-1, Mar. 10-24)...the Ducks' power play went 29-145 for a .200 success rate (team had only gone 31-281 for .110 before trade)...Anaheim had three hat tricks (two by Selanne, one by Garry Valk). The Ducks had only one in their history before the arrival of Selanne (Terry Yake - Oct. 19, 1993 @ NYR)...Selanne's offensive numbers with Anaheim were 16-20=36 points in 28 appearances (1.29 points-per-game)...Paul Kariya's offensive numbers were 21-23=44 points in 29 appearances (1.52 points-per-game) after Selanne joined Anaheim...The Mighty Ducks were one of only three NHL clubs (also Colorado and Pittsburgh) to finish with two players in the top eight scoring leaders in 1995-96 (Paul Kariya, 50-58=108 pts. and Teemu Selanne, 40-68=108 pts.)...Anaheim was one of only eight teams in the NHL with a .900-plus team save percentage (.906) and a team goals-against-average (GAA) below 3.00 (2.97)...Anaheim finished tied-for-fifth in the league in save percentage and 10th in the league in GAA...Anaheim goaltending combined for a .952 save percentage and 2.08 GAA in 19 games from March 1 to the end of the season...Individually, Guy Hebert finished fourth in the league in save percentage with .914 on the season and tied-for-fifth in the league in shutouts with four (three of which came in his last 14 games).
