CALDER CUP PLAYOFFS • 2018

Julien BriseBois — General Manager, Syracuse Crunch | Assistant General Manager, Tampa Bay Lightning

Julien BriseBois enters his eighth season as assistant general manager of the Tampa Bay Lightning after being named to the position on July 16, 2010. He reports directly to vice president and general manager Steve Yzerman and assists him in all aspects of player personnel decisions, analytics, contract preparation and negotiation, as well as salary arbitration for the Lightning and the Syracuse Crunch of the American Hockey League, for whom he also serves as general manager. BriseBois also manages interpretation of the NHL's collective bargaining agreement and the salary cap for Tampa Bay.

As general manager of the Lightning's top affiliate, the Syracuse Crunch and the Norfolk Admirals before that, BriseBois has been the architect of teams that reached the Calder Cup Finals three times during his tenure, including winning the championship in 2012 in Norfolk. With the Lightning's emphasis on drafting and development, the Crunch play an integral role in Tampa Bay's success. During BriseBois' tenure overseeing the Lightning's top minor league affiliate, they have produced two AHL most valuable players, two defensemen of the year and have graduated numerous key players including most of the Lightning's roster that reached back-to-back Eastern Conference Finals, as well as the 2015 Stanley Cup Final, as well as head coach Jon Cooper. During the 2011-12 season, BriseBois' Norfolk Admirals set a professional sports record with a 28-game winning streak that propelled Norfolk to the AHL's best regular season record. The team's regular season success continued in the playoffs as the Admirals went on to win the organization's first Calder Cup, the first championship by a Lightning AHL affiliate. BriseBois was instrumental in helping build the organization's depth with signings that proved instrumental to both the Lightning and the Admirals, demonstrated by nine players being recalled to Tampa Bay during that season. In 2010-11 the Hockey News recognized BriseBois as the top hockey executive under 40 years of age in their "Top 40 Under 40" listing.

Prior to coming to Tampa Bay, BriseBois, 40, spent nine seasons with the Montreal Canadiens after joining the organization on September 1, 2001 as director of legal affairs. In July of 2003 he added director of hockey operations to his duties before being named vice president of hockey operations on July 24, 2006. In this capacity, BriseBois oversaw the Canadiens' AHL affiliate, the Hamilton Bulldogs. The Bulldogs went on to win the 2007 Calder Cup during the first season under BriseBois' direction. On August 23, 2007 BriseBois was named the general manager of the Hamilton Bulldogs, making him the youngest in the AHL at the time. During that time he retained his position with the Canadiens.

A native of Greenfield Park, Quebec, BriseBois was employed by the Heenan Blaikie law firm before joining the Canadiens. During that time he worked in the field of sports law, where he represented several NHL and Major League Baseball clubs in arbitration cases as well as acting as an advisor in contract negotiations. BriseBois also participated in the reform of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League.

BriseBois is a graduate of the University Of Montreal Faculty Of Law and earned a Master's degree in business administration from the John Molson School of Business at Concordia University. He is a member of the Quebec Bar, the American Bar Association and the Sports Lawyers Association.

Benoit Groulx — Head Coach

Groulx, 49, enters his second season as head coach of the Crunch after he was hired on May 10, 2016. In his first season in Syracuse, Groulx coached the Crunch to the franchise's second Calder Cup Finals appearance. Under his leadership, the Crunch won the North Division with a 38-24-7-7 regular season mark before rolling through the Eastern Conference playoffs with an 11-5 record through the first three rounds. The Crunch were defeated by the Grand Rapids Griffins in the 2017 Calder Cup Finals, four games to two.

He had been the head coach and general manager for the Gatineau Olympiques of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League during the 2015-16 season, guiding his team to a record of 46-19-2-1. The Olympiques were defeated in the 2016 QMJHL Quarter-Final by the Moncton Wildcats four games to two.

Groulx has worked 13 total seasons as a head coach in the QMJHL with the Hull/Gatineau Olympiques, posting a career record of 460-293-18-59. He led his teams to league championships in 2003, 2004 and 2008, earning QMJHL Coach of the Year honors for the 2003-04 season while coaching the Olympiques.

The Hull, Quebec native also served on the coaching staffs for Team Canada at the 2004 U18 World Championships as well as the 2014 and 2015 IIHF World Junior Championships. Groulx was an assistant coach for the Gold Medal winning Team Canada at the U18 World Championships in 2004. Groulx was also an assistant coach for Team Canada at the World Junior Championships in 2014 as Canada was defeated in the Bronze Medal game by Russia. The following year, Groulx was the head coach for Team Canada, winning the Gold Medal and earning a perfect 7-0 record during the tournament.

Groulx also has two years of head coaching experience in the American Hockey League with the Rochester Americans (2008-09, 2009-10), compiling a record of 73-76-11 while leading the Americans to one Calder Cup playoffs appearance.

Groulx is the ninth head coach in Syracuse Crunch history, replacing Rob Zettler, who had been the team's head coach for three and one-half seasons. Zettler replaced Jon Cooper, the first head coach of the Crunch's Lightning era, March 25, 2013.

Jeff Halpern — Assistant Coach

Halpern, 40, began his career behind the bench with the Crunch during the 2015-16 season as the team's player development coach. He worked closely with Lightning prospects in Syracuse to assist with individual development. He was hired as a full-time assistant for the Crunch June 27, 2016.

A native of Washington, D.C., Halpern is a veteran of 976 NHL games, including 126 with the Lightning from 2007 to 2010. Over his 14 seasons in the NHL, the centerman recorded 152 goals and 221 assists. Along with Tampa Bay, he spent time with the Washington Capitals, Dallas Stars, Los Angeles Kings, Montreal Canadiens and New York Rangers before finishing his career with the Phoenix Coyotes in 2014.

Ken Klee — Assistant Coach

Klee, 46, joins the Crunch after spending two years as the head coach of the U.S. Women's National Team, where he won two consecutive world championships in 2015 and 2016.

An Indianapolis, Indiana native, Klee skated in 934 NHL games over 14 seasons, the majority of which was spent with the Washington Capitals. The defenseman's NHL career spanned from 1994 to 2009, accumulating 195 points (55g, 140a) with the Capitals, Toronto, New Jersey, Colorado, Atlanta, Anaheim and Phoenix.

In addition to his NHL experience, Klee played in 191 games in the American Hockey League for Baltimore and Portland.

Karl Goehring — Goaltending & Video Coach

Goehring, 39, returns to Syracuse after being hired as the team's goaltending and video coach on July 12, 2017. He had been a volunteer assistant coach with his alma mater, the University of North Dakota, for seven seasons, starting in 2010. During his time as an assistant coach at North Dakota, the university made four Frozen Four appearances (2011, 2014, 2015, 2016) and won one National Championship (2016). Under his tutelage, Zane McIntyre won the Mike Richter Award as the NCAA's top goaltender, in 2014-15.

During his playing career, the Apple Valley, Minnesota native had two stints with the Crunch, from 2001-2005 and 2007-08. He holds the franchise record for wins (78) and games played by a goaltender (177). In four seasons as the netminder at the University of North Dakota, Goehring led the program to a National Championship in 2000 and an appearance in the championship game in 2001. He holds the program record for wins (80), winning percentage (.756) and shutouts (15).

Goehring replaces David Alexander, who took a similar position with the NHL's St. Louis Blues.
