Media Information Media Guidelines & Procedures

CREDENTIALS- To obtain press credentials please call Media Relations Director Josh Feldman at (704) 932-3267 x107 or email jfeldman@intimidatorsbaseball.com. Phone requests should be made at least one day before each game. All credentials can be picked up at the CMC-NorthEast Stadium Will Call Window at the F&M Bank Box Office.

CLUBHOUSES- All visits to the clubhouse must be cleared by the Kannapolis Intimidators media relations staff. The clubhouse will typically be open to accredited media up to 45 minutes prior to game time. There will be no admittance during rain delays or between games of doubleheaders, unless designated beforehand. Please allow for a 10-minute "cooling off period" upon completion of game before entering the clubhouse unless other arrangements have been made.

PRESS BOX- The press box is located directly behind home plate and is open to all working media. Press notes and statistics are provided to the media approximately two hours before each game. The press box is furnished with electric outlets at each work station. Free WI-FI is also provided for an Internet connection.

RADIO - Each Intimidators broadcast will be available online at IntimidatorsBaseball.com. The team will carry all home games and select road games during the 2014 season.

Stadium Ground Rules

- 1.) The top of the dugout is a dead ball. A player may lean into the dugout to make a catch. If a ball enters the dugout then the ball is dead. If a ball hits off the dugout netting then it is a live ball.
- 2.) Any baseball that hits off the backstop netting due to a pitch or throw is a live ball. Any ball hit to the netting off the bat will be ruled a dead ball.
- 3.) The bullpen areas are out of play.
- 4.) A ball that becomes lodged behind or under the tarp is considered a dead ball. The fielder should notify the umpires by raising arms if that occurs. A player may lean on the tarp to make a catch, but is not permitted to stand on the tarp.
- 5.) Any ball that enters the area down the right field line where the batting cages are stored is considered a dead ball. The fielder is required to raise his arms to notify the umpires.
- 6.) Any ball that gets lodged between the field and the padding is a dead ball. The fielder should notify the umpires by raising his arms.

Five of Sox Top 30 prospects on Opening Day roster

The Chicago White Sox assigned 25 players to the Class A Kannapolis Intimidators to open the 2014 season. Right-handed pitcher Tyler Danish, the Sox second round pick (55th overall) in the June 2013 First-Year Player Draft, headlines an Opening Day roster that features five of Chicago's Top 30 Prospects, according to Baseball America. Danish (#10) is joined in Kannapolis by fellow top prospects 3B Trey Michalczewski (#19), OF Adam Engel (#22), IF Cleuluis Rondon (#26) and RHP Andrew Mitchell (#27). Both Danish, the 2013 Louisville Slugger National High School Player of the Year, and Rondon, whom the White Sox acquired in last season's trade with Boston for Jake Peavy, are two of the 10 players that also spent time on the Intimidators roster in 2013. Ten members of the White Sox 2013 draft class will open the season in Kannapolis, including Danish, fourth rounder Mitchell, sixth rounder RHP James Dykstra, and seventh rounder Michalczewski, whom Baseball America tabbed the Best Power Hitter in the White Sox 2013 draft class. Catcher Omar Naraez, a Rule 5 draft pick from Tampa Bay this offseason, will also start the year with the Intimidators. A pair of former North Carolina collegians are coming to Kannapolis. Former Charlotte 49ers hurler Tyler Barnette is returning to the area after making his professional debut last season with Advanced Rookie Bristol. The right-handed pitcher, who was named Atlantic-10 Freshman of the Year in 2011, was drafted by the White Sox in the 14th round of the June 2013 First-Year Player Draft. Catcher Jeremy Dowdy, a former standout at Appalachian State, appeared in 31 games for Kannapolis in 2013. The Intimidators roster comprises 13 players who spent time on Rose's Great Falls Voyagers team, which went 48-28 en route to a playoff appearance, in 2013. Outfielder Jacob Morris, who spent his entire professional debut in 2013 with the Voyagers, was named to the Pioneer League All-Star Team last season.

Johnson named Annual All-Star in 2013

Kannapolis Intimidators second baseman Micah Johnson earned a spot on the South Atlantic League's Annual All-Star Team after a breakout 2013 season during which he led the Minor Leagues with 84 stolen bases. Johnson opened the season with the Intimidators and hit .342 and set a single-season franchise record with 61 stolen bases in just 77 games before earning a promotion to Winston-Salem on July 3. By season's end, he was with Double-A Birmingham and helped the Barons to the Southern League Championship where he was named Championship Series MVP. He enters the 2014 season at the No. 5 Prospect in the White Sox organization according to Baseball America.

2013 SEASON REVIEW

The 2013 season for the Kannapolis Intimidators marked the 19th year of professional baseball in Kannapolis and the 13th year as the Class A affiliate of the Chicago White Sox. Between the lines, the team set several individual and team records, including the third no-hitter in Intimidators history. While the Intimidators finished 61-76, fifth-best overall in the South Atlantic League's Northern Division, manager Tommy Thompson's squad enjoyed a strong finish to the season.

Highlighting the season, second baseman Micah Johnson ran his way into the record books with a franchise record 61 stolen bases in just 77 games before earning a promotion to Winston-Salem. Johnson finished with 84 swipes bags, best in Minor League Baseball and worked his way up to Double-A Birmingham by the end of the year, helping the Barons to the Southern League championship. Johnson was named to the South Atlantic League Annual All-Star Team, the first Intimidator to earn a post-season superlative in two years.

On June 5, three Intimidators pitchers combined to throw the team's first no-hitter since 2010 and just the third no-no since the team became a White Sox affiliate in 2001. RHP Braulio Ortiz spun four strong innings before reliever RHP Adam Lopez tossed two blank frames of his own. RHP Joe Dvorsky secured the gem with a perfect inning as Kannapolis shut out the Hagerstown Suns, 11-0 (F/7), in the first game of a doubleheader.

After the team went 27-41 in the first half, the White Sox sent reinforcements for the second half in the form of highly-selected draft picks. Shorstop Tim Anderson, the White Sox first round selection (17th overall) in the June 2013 First-Year Player Draft, made his professional debut with Kannapolis, batting .277 in 68 games. Anderson joined second-rounder RHP Tyler Danish (55th overall) and third-rounder CF Jacob May (91st overall) as the only trio of top three picks in the South Atlantic League by season's end. Additionally, first baseman Keon Barnum, a supplemental first round pick in the June 2012 First-Year Player Draft, joined the team in the second half. The Intimidators managed a 34-35 record in the second half of the season.

The Intimidators ended the 2013 season on the highest of highs on Sept. 2 against the playoff-bound Hagerstown Suns. With two outs in the bottom of the 10th inning, Jacob May lined the first pitch he saw over the left field wall to walk off the Suns, 4-3, on the final day of the 2013 regular season. The Intimidators trailed 3-0 before plating three runs in the bottom of the eighth to even the score. May's home run (8) was the first walk off blast for Kannapolis since May 31, 2012.

A franchise record eight Intimidators alumni made their MLB debut in 2013, including a pair of 2012 Intimidators pitchers Erik Johnson and Daniel Webb, joining Marcus Semien (2011), Miguel Gonzalez (2010-11), Jake Petricka (2010-11), Andre Rienzo (2010), Josh Phegley (2009) and Charlie Leesman (2008-09).

Opening Day Odds & Ends

Kannapolis 4-6 on Opening Day since 2004, including a 9-2 win at Lakewood in last season's opener on April 4, 2013. The Intimidators are 5-5 in the last 10 home openers, including 2-3 on the season's Opening Day. This is the sixth time in the last 11 years Kannapolis has opened the season at home.

Rice hit for cycle in 2012

Right fielder Bill Rice hit for the third cycle in franchise history, going 4-for-5 with three RBI and three runs scored to power Kannapolis past Greensboro, 14-5, on Sunday, July 15, 2012, at NewBridge Bank Park. Rice, who tripled to lead off the eighth inning to complete the feat, had the game-tying and go-ahead RBI early in the game before Kannapolis pulled ahead with an 8-run fifth inning.

Rice connected on a second-inning home run to tie what was still a close game, then singled in the third to put the Intimidators ahead for good. He doubled in the fifth before his cherry-on-top triple to highlight his career afternoon.

Rice, who joined the Intimidators on May 28 after batting .300 with the Atlantic League's Camden Riversharks, played in 60 games with Kannapolis, batting .293 (66-225) with two home runs and 15 RBI.

The only other cycle in Intimidators history occurred on July 3, 2008, when Dale Mollenhauer went 4-for-5 against Lake County. Under the Piedmont Boll Weevils moniker, Tom Batson cycled on June 28, 2000 against Hickory, going 4-for-6. No opposing player has ever hit for the cycle against the Piedmont/Kannapolis franchise.

Since the Spartanburg Phillies moved to Kannapolis, N.C., for the 1995 season, a total of 77 players from the Piedmont/Kannapolis franchise have gone on to the big leagues (including 53 since the Intimidators became a White Sox affiliate in 2001), with a franchise-record eight more players making their big-league debut in 2013, surpassing the old mark of seven during both the 2009 and 2010 seasons. On Sept. 4, 2013, a pair of former college teammates made their MLB debuts as RHP Erik Johnson (pictured left) and INF Marcus Semien (right) took the field for the White Sox on the road against the New York Yankees. Johnson and Semien were both on the California team that went to the College World Series in 2011. The duo did not play for the Intimidators at the same time.

Right-handed pitcher Jake Petricka (pictured left) made his big league debut with the White Sox in 2013. The former second-round pick in the June 2010 First-Year Player Draft made his professional debut that season with Advanced Rookie Bristol and Kannapolis before moving into the Intimidators rotation to open 2011. Petricka earned a mid-season promotion in 2011 to Class A-Advanced Winston-Salem.

In 2013, Petricka was one of five former Intimidators hurlers to make his big league debut, joining RHP Andre Rienzo, LHP Charlie Leesman, RHP Erik Johnson and RHP Daniel Webb. All five of them made their MLB debut with the White Sox.

Ortiz & Co. no-hit Hagerstown, first Intimidators gem since '10

On June 5, 2013, three Intimidators pitchers combined to throw the third no-hitter since the team became a White Sox affiliate in 2001 and the team's first since 2010. Kannapolis dropped Hagerstown, 11-0 (F/7), in the second game of a doubleheader. Making his first start of the season after spending his first two months as a reliever, flame-thrower Braulio Ortiz led Kannapolis with 4.0 hitless frames on the mound at Municipal Stadium in Hagerstown, Md. The 6'4" right-hander limited the Suns to two base-runners on a pair of walks before handing the ball to Adam Lopez, who tossed 2.0 scoreless innings, and Joe Dvorsky, who spun a perfect seventh to finish off the gem. The dynamic pitching performance came just hours after Jefferson Olacio earned a complete-game win in Game 1.

On August 20, 2010, three Kannapolis pitchers combined to no-hit the Hickory Crawdads en route to a 1-0 win in the second game of a doubleheader. It was the first combined no-no in franchise history. Matt Wicksbat spun five scoreless innings to open the contest, striking out five and walking one to earn the win, facing just one batter more than the minimum. He gave way after reaching his innings limit for the game. Jake Petricka took the mound in the sixth and issued a leadoff walk before striking out two and stranding the tying run on third. Taylor Thompson tossed a perfect seventh inning to earn the save and send the Crawdads home hitless. All three no-hitters in Intimidators history have been 7-inning games as part of doubleheaders.

No-hitting the 'Hoppers The only individual Intimidators no-no

On June 10, 2003, White Sox prospect Brian Miller tossed a seven-inning no-hitter for Kannapolis in the first game of a doubleheader against the Greensboro Bats. The Intimidators won, 2-0, as Miller fanned seven and walked four, retiring 21 of 25 batters faced.

The closest call of the night came when Greensboro third baseman Tom Merkle grounded deep into the hole at short, where Andy Gonzalez made a throw off one knee to pull the first baseman off the bag. The play was ruled an error, keeping the no-hitter intact.

Miller, then 20, was ranked as Chicago's No. 16 prospect entering the 2003 season. Before the no-hitter, he was just 4-4 with a 7.30 ERA, while surrendering 60 hits and 24 walks in 49 innings.

The White Sox selected Miller in the 20th round of the 2002 draft out of Charlotte (Mich.) High School. He made 25 starts with Kannapolis in 2003, going 8-12 with a 5.30 ERA and returned to the Intimidators in 2004, posting an 8-9 record with a 3.94 ERA in 21 starts to earn a promotion to Winston-Salem. Miller did not play beyond High-A and retired after a stint in the independent Atlantic League in 2006.

The other individual no-hitters in franchise history came prior to the 2001 season when the team played as the Piedmont Phillies/Boll Weevils. Rob Burger spun a no-no in Augusta on April 30, 1996, in a 1-0 win over the GreenJackets. Brad Baisley no-hit Hagerstown on Aug. 12, 1999, when he retired 27 of 31 batters faced, striking out a season-high 12 and walking four en route to a win over the Suns.
