TIME TESTED FAMILY APPROVED

2018 marks the second year of affiliation for the Arkansas Travelers with the new parent club, the Seattle Mariners.

Last season Travs centerfielder Ian Miller was named Seattle's "Ken Griffey Jr. Minor League Hitter of the Year". Spending most of the summer in Arkansas, Miller was leading the league in batting average, on-base percentage and stolen bases at the time of his promotion to Triple-A. The Mariners "Jamie Moyer Minor League Pitcher of the Year" was 20-year old Nick Neidert who finished the season in Arkansas after being promoted from Class-A Modesto. That Modesto team, many of whom will be Travs in 2018, won the California League Championship.

Last year saw four Traveler players (Zac Curtis, Andrew Moore, Max Povse and Thyago Vieira) make it to Seattle with Curtis and Povse getting the call directly from Arkansas. In addition to calling up four Travs, the Mariners sent six Major League players to the Travelers on rehab assignments. The list included LHP James Paxton and SS Jean Segura. Paxton was the top pitcher in Seattle's rotation, being named the AL Pitcher of the month for July. Segura played for the Travs in 2012, was a Major League All-Star in 2013 and batted .300 for the Mariners in 2017.

Since its inception in 1901 the Travs have prided themselves on delivering one of the best and most family-affordable forms of entertainment to the state of Arkansas. The "greatest game on dirt" is back again in 2018, and we can't wait to see you out here!
