THE 19TH SEASON OF CURVE BASEBALL: Altoona finished the season eight games over .500 and won the Western Division by two games over the Baysox. The title marked the franchise's third regular-season division championship in franchise history, winning the South Division in 2004 and the Western Division in 2010. This year, the Curve led the West for 96 of 140 games and took over sole possession of the top spot for good on August 22. The Curve won 10 of their final 16 games, including a regular-season-best five-game winning streak from August 20-24. Altoona clinched the Western Division regular-season title with a walk-off win over Harrisburg on September 4 and a loss by Bowie at Richmond that afternoon. The Curve advanced to the ELCS with a three-game sweep over the Bowie Baysox in the Western Division Series. In the Championship Series, the Curve took the first two games in Trenton before beating the Thunder, 4-2, at PNG Field on September 14 to lock up their second league title in franchise history. Including the regular season and the playoffs, the Curve won their final eight games, their best winning streak of the year.

PITCHING WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS: The Curve's pitching staff combined to post a 1.50 ERA in their six postseason games. Altoona starters went 6-0 with a 1.66 ERA (8 ER/43.1 IP) in the playoffs. Mitch Keller set the tone with a complete-game shutout in Game 1 of the Division Series at Bowie, holding the Baysox to two hits while throwing just 90 pitches. Keller returning to the mound for the championship-clinching ELCS Game 3 and allowed two runs in the second before settling in to go scoreless the rest of the way, totaling 7.1 innings with eight strikeouts. Keller was named as the Eastern League Postseason MVP, coming to go 2-0 in his two starts with a 1.10 ERA (2 ER/16.1 IP). Alex McRae (1-0, 6.00) allowed four runs over six innings in Game 2 of the Division Series, but the Curve won the game, 8-4. Austin Coley (1-0, 1.29) started the clinching Game 3 of the Division Series and allowed one run over seven innings. In the ELCS, Brandon Waddell (1-0, 0.00) started Game 1 in Trenton and worked six scoreless innings. In Game 2, J.T. Brubaker (1-0, 1.13) worked eight innings and allowed two runs (one earned). The Altoona bullpen allowed just one run in the playoffs and posted a 0.84 ERA (1 ER/10.2 IP) with three saves. In Game 3 of the ELCS, Tate Scioneaux struck out the side in order in the top of the ninth to cap the three-game sweep.

RYAN RETURNS HOME: The Curve were led in 2017 by first-year manager Michael Ryan, a native of nearby Indiana, Pa. He served as a coach with the Curve for the 2012 season before beginning his managerial career with West Virginia the following year. After winning the Florida State League championship as the manager of the Bradenton Marauders in 2016, Ryan led the Curve to their second Eastern League championship in 2017. Following the season, Ryan was voted to the Fans' Choice All-Time Altoona Curve team as the fans' pick for the best manager in Curve franchise history as part of the team's year-long celebration of their upcoming 20th season in 2018.

LUPLOW'S RISE: Behind a breakout first half of the season with Altoona, Jordan Luplow climbed from Double-A to the big leagues in a span of less than four months. He hit his first two home runs on April 11 at Richmond and went on a home run tear over his 73 games with the Curve. Luplow picked up Eastern League Player of the Week honors for May 29-June 4 after hitting .423 with five homers in seven games, including homering in three straight games from June 4-June 6. He became the fastest Curve player to reach 14 homers to open a season on June 6, hitting the mark in just 52 games. His 16 homers were the most for a Curve player prior to the All-Star Break since 2005. An Eastern League Mid-Season All-Star selection, Luplow was promoted to Triple-A Indianapolis on June 30. After carrying his hot stretch to Indy, it took less than a month for Luplow to earn his first call to the big leagues. He made his Major League debut on July 28 for the Pirates. He went on to play 27 major league games and knocked three homers.

EDWINNING: First baseman Edwin Espinal returned for a second season with the Curve and improved on his performance from 2016. Over his 95 games with the Curve, Espinal hit .283 with a team-leading 72 RBIs and set a new career high with 15 home runs prior to his promotion to Triple-A on July 28. At the time of his promotion, Espinal ranked second in the Eastern League with 25 doubles, second with 72 RBIs and fourth with 174 total bases. Even though he was promoted with five weeks left in the regular season, Espinal was named the Curve's Most Valuable Player for 2017. He also picked up an Eastern League Mid-Season All-Star selection, becoming just the fourth player in Curve history to achieve the honor twice. Espinal did not commit a single error at first base, becoming the first Altoona infielder to post a perfect fielding percentage at a single position in franchise history, and he was awarded an MiLB Rawlings Gold Glove Award as the top defensive first baseman in the minors.

DU-RAP IT UP: After picking up 22 saves in 2016, closer Montana DuRapau returned to the Curve to start the 2017 season. He picked up his fourth save of the year on April 18 against Erie to move ahead of Brandon Knight for sole possession of second place on the Curve's all-time career saves list with 28. On May 17, he closed out the 29th save of his Curve career at Binghamton to tie Matt Peterson's franchise mark. He took over first place on the Altoona all-time saves list with his 30th on May 19 against Erie, working two scoreless innings on the night. DuRapau was promoted to Triple-A Indianapolis on July 14 having stretched his record to 36 total saves. He ranked first in the Eastern League with 14 saves and 26 games finished at the time. For the year, he tied Tate Scioneaux for the team lead with 14 saves. Over his 27 outings for Altoona, DuRapau went 14-for-15 in save tries and posted a 1.49 ERA. DuRapau also picked up an Eastern League Mid-Season All-Star selection, the first all-star nod of his career.

SUIT UP: First baseman/outfielder Jerrick Suiter turned around his season beginning with his first Double-A homer on June 2 at Bowie. Over his final 79 regular-season games from that point, Suiter hit .299 (84-for-281) with ten homers and 49 RBIs on his way to being named Altoona's Unsung Hero for 2017. He especially caught fire over a three-game span from July 5-July 7 when he reached base in ten consecutive plate appearances, going 9-for-9 with a homer, two doubles, a walk and five RBIs. He finished the year ranked fifth in the Pirates' minor league system with 62 totals RBIs between his time in Bradenton and Altoona.

SHINING STARS: The Curve had six players selected as Eastern League Mid-Season All-Stars, tied for the second-most in team history: Jordan Luplow, Kevin Kramer, Wyatt Mathisen, Edwin Espinal, Alex McRae and Montana DuRapau. Espinal was also selected as an end-of-season E.L. All-Star.

AWARDS SEASON: The Curve announced their 2017 team awards on September 3 prior to their penultimate regular-season game at Peoples Natural Gas Field. Edwin Espinal was named the team's Most Valuable Player. Alex McRae and Austin Coley were honored as Co-Pitchers of the Year. Tate Scioneaux was selected as Fireman of the Year, recognizing the team's best relief pitcher. Jerrick Suiter was named the Curve's 2017 Unsung Hero of the Year.

PROSPECT WATCH: For the season, the Curve roster featured seven of the Pirates' top 30 prospects MLB.com's season-ending list, including Mitch Keller (2), Cole Tucker (5), Kevin Newman (6), Kevin Kramer (9), Yeady Garcia (19), Jordan Luplow (20), Brandon Waddell (23) and Dario Agrazal (29). Keller also ranked as MLB.com's No. 6 RHP prospect and No. 18 overall prospect in baseball. Kramer ranked as MLB.com's No. 7 2B prospect. Baseball America ranked three Curve players in their mid-season Top 10 Pirates prospects, including Keller (1), Newman (3) and Tucker (9). Baseball America also recognized Newman as the Eastern League's top defensive shortstop, Edwin Espinal as the league's best defensive first baseman and Elvis Escobar as having the circuit's best outfield arm.

ROAD TO THE SHOW: During the 2017 season, six former Curve players made their Major League debuts. Outfielder Willy Garcia (2014-15) debuted with the Chicago White Sox on April 14. First baseman/outfielder Jose Osuna (2015-16) debuted with the Pirates on April 18. Right-handed reliever Dovydas Neverauskas (2016) made his first appearance for the Pirates on April 24. Two days later on April 26, infielder Gift Ngoepe (2013-15) entered as a defensive replacement for the Pirates to make his first MLB appearance. On June 10, right-handed reliever Edgar Santana (2016) made his debut for Pittsburgh. On July 28, outfielder Jordan Luplow debuted with the Pirates in San Diego. The Curve have seen 144 former players reach the big leagues over their 19 seasons.

MONTHLY NOTES

APRIL

PROSPECTING THE 2017 CURVE: The Curve's Opening Day roster featured four of MLB.com's Top 30 Pirates' prospects: Kevin Newman (4), Yeudy Garcia (13), Brandon Waddell (17) and Kevin Kramer (21). The same four players were also ranked in Baseball America's Top 30 Pittsburgh prospects list: Newman (4), Garcia (16), Waddell (17) and Kramer (21). B.A. named Newman as the organization's "Best Hitter for Average" and Waddell as having the "Best Change-up."

A NEW SKIPPER: For the third straight season, the Curve were led by a new manager in 2017. Indiana, Pa. native Michael Ryan took over as manager after leading the A-Adv. Bradenton Marauders to the Florida State League title in 2016. Ryan was a coach with the Curve under manager P.J. Forbes in 2012 before spending the next two years managing the Single-A West Virginia Power in the South Atlantic League. He moved up to Bradenton in 2015 for the first of two seasons there. As a player, Ryan was drafted by the Minnesota Twins out of Indiana Area High School in 1996 and went on to play 15 professional seasons, including five in the majors with the Twins from 2002-05 and one with the Los Angeles Angels in 2010. The two previous Curve managers, Tom Prince and Joey Cora, joined the Pirates' major league coaching staff for the 2017 season.

OPENING DAY ROSTER: The 2017 Opening Day roster featured 10 players who have worn a Curve uniform prior to 2017. 14 players were playing at the Double-A level for the first time in their careers. There were 13 pitchers and 12 position players on the Opening Day roster. 24 of the 25 players were originally signed or drafted by the Pirates, with the lone exception being catcher Zane Chavez. 23 players had played only with the Pirates' organization in their professional careers (RHP Buddy Borden spent time in the Tampa Bay organization).

FAMILIAR FACES: The ten players who were with the Curve in 2016 and returned to start 2017 included pitchers Montana DuRapau, John Kuchno, Jared Lakind, Alex McRae, Miguel Rosario and Brandon Waddell, catcher Tomas Morales, infielders Edwin Espinal and Kevin Newman, as well as outfielder Elvis Escobar. Kuchno and Morales were the only two players with any experience playing above the Double-A level.

OPENING DAY NOTES: After being postponed due to rain on April 6, the Curve began their season with a 5-3 road win against the Harrisburg Senators on April 7. The Curve are now 8-11 all-time in season openers and 2-8 when opening on the road. The Curve are 6-11 on Opening Day against teams from their own division and 5-5 against National League affiliates. This year, Alex McRae became the first Curve starting pitcher to earn a win on Opening Day since Mike Crotta picked up a victory against the Harrisburg Senators in 2010.

TCB - TAKIN' CARE OF BUSINESS: Through his first eight games, Curve second baseman Kevin Kramer hit .464 (13/28) with three home runs. He hit two homers in the Curve's home opener on April 13, including a go-ahead blast in the bottom of the eighth inning in a 3-2 win over Akron. Kramer had seven RBIs in his first eight games, the highest on the team.

HOME COOKING: The Curve went 3-0 at PNG Field to open the home slate of their schedule, their best start at home since 2010, when they also started 3-0 and eventually went 7-1 in home games to open the year.

THE 'PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD: In the month of April, Sean Keselica held hitters to a .087 batting average, the lowest among relievers in the Eastern League. Buddy Borden (.119) ranked fourth. Tate Scioneaux led all E.L. pitchers with four wins. Curve relievers (excluding position player Chase Simpson, who pitched in one game) combined to post a 1.67 ERA (16 ER/86.0 IP) and a 0.95 WHIP (61 H + 21 BB/86.0 IP) in April. Members of the bullpen on the active roster at the end of April combined to post an 8-0 record with a 0.82 ERA (7 ER/76.2 IP) and a 0.87 WHIP (46 H + 21 BB / 76.2 IP) with 68 strikeouts.

APRIL WRAP: The Curve went 13-9 in the month of April and led the Western Division by two games at the end of the month with the second-best overall record in the Eastern League. In 22 games, pitchers combined to post a 2.99 ERA. Starting pitchers went 5-7 with a 3.88 ERA in April. The Altoona offense combined to hit .261 in April, third-best in the league.

MAY

McRAE DAY: After closing out the 2016 season on a strong run, Alex McRae carried the good momentum into 2017. Through his first six starts from April 7-May 8, McRae went 3-0 with a 1.96 ERA (8 ER/36.2 IP).

THE STARTING LINE: After working primarily as a reliever through his first two professional seasons, Tanner Anderson moved to the Altoona rotation to begin the 2017 season. Over his first five Double-A starts, Anderson went 2-1 with a 1.98 ERA (6 ER/27.1 IP).

300: With a 7-1 win over New Hampshire on May 12, Michael Ryan picked up the 300th win of his minor league managerial career.

KRAMERICA INDUSTRIES: Second baseman Kevin Kramer opened his Double-A career with a 32-game on-base streak, coming one game shy of matching the Altoona record for the longest on-base streak in franchise history (33 games - Ronny Paulino in 2004 and Steve Pearce in 2007). Through May 17, Kramer was hitting .361 (44/122), the best batting average in the Eastern League. He was also first in the league with a .451 on-base percentage (second in all of Double-A and fifth in MiLB), fifth with a .590 slugging percentage and tied for first with 13 doubles. His 1.042 OPS was the highest in all of Double-A and ninth-best in MiLB. He recorded at least one hit in 29 of his first 32 games. By the end of the year, Kramer's streak was tied for the second-longest on-base streak in the Eastern League this season.

DU-RAP IT UP: With a six-out save on May 19, Montana DuRapau locked up his 30th career save, moving ahead of Matt Peterson for first place on the Curve's all-time saves list.

HOME SWEET HOME: Through May 20, the Curve were 14-3 at PNG Field, which was good for an .824 winning percentage, the best in the minors.

HEY JOE!: Over 26 games from April 18-May 22, Connor Joe hit .364 (32/88), second-best in the Pirates' system in the span, raising his average from .194 to .319, eighth-best in the Eastern League. He was tied for the third-best on-base percentage (.413) and had the fourth-best TPA/SO ratio (9.27) in the league at that point. Over six games from May 17-May 20, Joe hit .524 (11/21) with four doubles, two triples and four RBIs.

SIX-GAME SLIDE: From May 21-May 26, the Curve lost six straight games to Erie and Akron, their longest streak at the time since losing seven in a row from July 15-21, 2016. Over those six games, the Altoona offense hit .176 (33/188) and scored 10 total runs (1.7/game). The pitching staff posted a 3.06 ERA (18 ER/53.0 IP) during the streak, and starting pitchers were charged with four of the six losses.

JAMO: Pittsburgh Pirates RHP Jameson Taillon made a rehab start for the Curve at Erie on May 28. He had been placed on the disabled list by the Pirates on May 6 with groin discomfort and underwent surgery for suspected testicular cancer on May 8. In his rehab start, Taillon worked three scoreless innings and allowed one hit with one walk and six strikeouts. The Curve won the game, 3-2, behind a go-ahead single by Jin-De Jhang in the eighth inning to snap a six-game losing streak.

WY NOT: Over 16 games from May 9-May 30, Wyatt Mathisen hit .380 (19/50) with one home run and six RBIs. During that stretch, he raised his batting average from .274 to .321. He added a walk-off single to beat Akron, 5-4, in the bottom of the tenth inning on May 30.

PITCH PERFECT: Over 11 games from May 20-May 30, the Curve pitching staff combined to post a 2.45 ERA (27 ER/99.0 IP). Opponents scored 29 runs in that span (2.6/game) and did not score more than four runs in a single game.

MAY WRAP: The Curve worked around a six-game losing streak to post a 15-13 record in the month of May. Through the completion of the month, the Curve were 28-22 with a 1.5-game lead over Bowie in the E.L. West standings. Jordan Luplow hit .303 with eight homers and 15 RBIs across 27 May games. Wyatt Mathisen hit .344 for the month. Reliever Buddy Borden went 4-0 with a 1.46 ERA in eight May outings, and Miguel Rosario went 3-1 with a 0.77 ERA in eight May pitching appearances. Austin Coley went 1-0 with a 2.03 ERA in six outings (four starts).

JUNE

AIR JORDAN: On June 6, Jordan Luplow became the fastest player in Curve history to hit 14 home runs to open a season, accomplishing the feat in 52 games. At the time, he was tied for second in the league in homers. His .597 slugging percentage was second in the league, he was third with 35 runs scored, fourth with 108 total bases and fourth with 27 extra-base hits. He was named Eastern League Player of the Week for May 29-June 4, a span in which he hit .423 (11/26) with five homers, two doubles, four walks, eight runs scored and six RBIs. He hit six homers over an eight-game span, all solo blasts, and homered in three straight games from June 4-6.

BOMB SQUAD: The Curve hit 20 home runs over 13 games from May 26-June 8, with at least one homer in 12 of those 13 games and each of the last seven. As a team, the Curve hit just 26 homers in their 44 previous games to open the season. In that stretch, home runs were hit by Jordan Luplow (6), Edwin Espinal (3), Kevin Kramer (2), Wyatt Mathisen (2), Chase Simpson (2), Jerrick Suiter (2), Jackson Williams (1), Tomas Morales (1) and Connor Joe (1).

KRAMER'S SEASON ENDS: On June 10, Kevin Kramer's regular season came to an abrupt end with he was hit by a pitch, fracturing his right hand. It was the 12th time Kramer had been hit by a pitch through 53 games, the most in the league. Kramer had 17 multi-hit games at the time, which led the team, and he was tied for third in the league with 17 doubles and seventh with 30 runs scored. He returned to the Curve roster during the playoffs.

ELVIS HAS LEFT THE BUILDING: Elvis Escobar clubbed his first home run of the season on June 13 during a hot surge. Over 19 games from May 28-June 20, Escobar hit .431 (25/58) with two doubles, two triples and six RBIs. On June 20, Escobar went 5-for-5 against Trenton, tying the franchise record for hits (five) and triples (two) in a game. It was the 14th time in franchise history a player recorded five hits in a game. Dan Gamache (2015) and Stetson Allie (2016) also recorded the feat over the last two seasons, but prior to 2015, it had not been done since 2008.

SMASH HIT: The Curve set season highs in hits (19) and runs (14) on June 20 against Trenton at PNG Field in a 14-4 win. It was Trenton's first loss of the season by more than four runs. It was the most lop-sided win for the Curve since a 13-1 win over Binghamton on August 29, 2016.

VIEW FROM THE TOP: The Curve held first place in the Western Division for 70 of their first 76 games and 64 straight games from April 18-June 30. From July 24, 2016 through June 30, 2017, the Curve held first place in the division for 100 of 108 games.

LUPLOW PROMOTED: Jordan Luplow was sent to Triple-A Indianapolis on June 30. At the time, his 16 homers were ranked sixth in the Eastern League and would lead the Curve for the entire 2017 campaign. He was on pace to hit 29 homers for the year. The 16 homers were the most for a Curve player prior to the All-Star Break since 2005 when Josh Bonifay had 17 at the break.

BATTING THE INJURY BUG: After placing just three players on the disabled list for the entire season in 2015 and three in all of 2016, the Curve had placed eight different players on the DL through the end of June in 2017. At the end of the month, the Curve had seven players on the DL, including four of the team's top-five prospects on MLB.com (Yeudy Garcia, Kevin Kramer, Brandon Waddell and Connor Joe).

SUIT UP!: Outfielder Jerrick Suiter hit .354 (23/65) in the month of June with four homers and 11 RBIs over 22 games, leading the Pirates' system in hitting for the month. After hitting .246 through his first 18 games, Suiter kick-started his hot stretch on June 2 at Bowie, going 2-for-4 with a doubles, three RBIs and his first Double-A home run. By the end of the month, Suiter lifted his season batting average to .302.

JUNE WRAP: The Curve went 12-15 in June, their only month in 2017 with a losing record. At the end of the month, they held a 40-37 overall record and sat in second place, a half-game behind Akron in the Western Division standings. The Curve posted a 4.44 ERA in June, their worst of the season. In eight games, Montana DuRapau posted a 0.90 ERA (1 ER/10.0 IP) and converted all three of his save attempts. Miguel Rosario had a 0.79 ERA (1 ER/11.1 IP) over his seven outings. Elvis Escobar hit .343 in June over 23 games with a homer and five RBIs. Jerrick Suiter batted .354 with four homers and 11 RBIs in 22 games.

JULY

UNLUCKY NUMBER SEVEN: From June 26-July 7, the Curve went on a season-worst seven-game losing streak to open an eight-game road trip in Bowie and Erie. The slide dropped the Curve from first to third place in the Western Division. The Curve offense hit just .219 (50/227) during the streak, averaging 2.0 runs per game. The pitching staff posted a 7.71 ERA (48 ER/56 IP), with the starters combining for a 8.54 ERA (31 ER/31.2 IP). The streak dropped the Curve to one game over .500 with a 40-39 overall record through 79 games.

FIREWORKS: On Independence Day, the Curve beat Binghamton, 6-0, behind a dominating pitching performance by Tanner Anderson. He set a career high with eight innings pitched and allowed just four hits with five strikeouts on 110 pitches. Yeudy Garcia closed out the game with a scoreless ninth inning. The game drew the ninth-largest crowd in Peoples Natural Gas Field history with 8,796 fans in attendance. Kevin Newman led the offense, going 3-for-4 with a homer, a double, two runs scored and four RBIs. He hit a two-run homer in the fourth, his fourth of the season, and added an RBI single in the sixth. Edwin Espinal had three hits.

HELLO, NEWMAN: From June 17-July 7, Kevin Newman posted a .370 (27/73) batting average over 17 games with seven doubles, one triple and two homers, raising his average from .229 to .263.

CRACKING THE CURSE OF THE CANAL: The Curve went 10-10 at Akron's Canal Park in 2017. Since the team's inaugural season in 1999, the Curve have posted a .500 or better record at Canal Park just four times, and they had a losing record in Akron for 13 of 18 years. However, the Curve allowed seven unanswered runs in the final game of the season at Canal Park on July 9 and lost on a walk-off walk, 7-6, with four runs scoring in the bottom of the ninth inning behind six walks issued by the Curve in the frame.

AT THE BREAK: The Curve won six of eight games from July 3-9 to head into the All-Star Break with a 47-41 record and a first-place tie with Bowie in the Western Division.

SHINING STARS: The Curve had six players selected as Eastern League Mid-Season All-Stars: Jordan Luplow, Kevin Kramer, Wyatt Mathisen, Edwin Espinal, Alex McRae and Montana DuRapau. The total was tied for the most in the Eastern League and the second-most for the Curve in team history (with 2006 and 2010) behind only the seven in 2014, the last time the Curve hosted the All-Star Game at PNG Field. Espinal became just the fourth player in Curve history to earn multiple Mid-Season All-Star selections, joining Shawn Garrett (2002-03), Jason Delaney (2008-09) and Brock Holt (2011-12). Kramer (injury) and Luplow (promotion) were not available to participate in the All-Star Game at New Hampshire's Northeast Delta Dental Stadium on July 12. Mathisen was the starting third baseman in the All-Star Game and went 0-for-2. Espinal came off the bench and went 0-for-2. McRae worked through the fifth inning without allowing a run. DuRapau pitched to one batter in the ninth and recorded a strikeout.

MONTANA MOVES ON: Closer Montana DuRapau was promoted to Triple-A Indianapolis following the All-Star Break. He left the Curve with 36 career saves, the most in franchise history. At the time of his promotion, DuRapau was ranked first in the Eastern League with 14 saves and 36 innings pitched. He also ranked second in the league among relievers with a 1.49 ERA.

SUITER SURGES: Over 38 games from June 2-July 18, Jerrick Suiter hit .364 (44/121), tops in the Pirates' system, with seven homers, eight doubles, 26 RBIs and 25 walks, raising his batting average from .246 to .324.

ONE WAY OR ANOTHER: From July 5-15, the Curve saw seven of their nine games decided by one run, going 3-4 in those contests. At the time, the Curve had played 33 one-run games, tied for the most in the league, with a 16-17 record in those games.

GOODBYE, NEWMAN: After posting a .309 average in 16 July games, Kevin Newman was promoted to Triple-A Indianapolis on July 20.

LOOKING FOR RELIEF: Over 11 games from July 9-July 23, the Curve bullpen combined for a 7.05 ERA (29 ER/37.0 IP) and a 2-6 record with six blown saves and 30 walks. In that span, the Curve lost a lead in the eighth inning or later six times (five losses) and allowed another go-ahead run in the eighth to break a 3-3 tie against the Baysox on July 13.

BESTED BY BOWIE: Through July 23, the Curve held a 2-12 record against the Bowie Baysox on the season and had surrendered a lead in the seventh inning or later seven times. On June 2, the Curve led 7-3 entering the seventh and allowed four runs that inning before Glynn Davis hit a walk-off single in an 8-7 loss. On June 4, Aderlin Rodriguez hit a game-tying solo homer in the seventh and Erick Salcedo hit a walk-off single in the 11th in a 7-6 loss. On July 28, the Curve led 3-1 entering the eighth before allowing five runs, including a game-tying single by Garabez Rosa and a go-ahead hit by D.J. Stewart in a 6-3 loss. On July 14, the Curve led 3-2 entering the eighth before allowing three runs on singles by Rosa, Jeff Kemp and Salcedo in a 5-4 loss. On July 15, the Curve led 4-1 entering the ninth and allowed five runs before tying the game in the bottom of the inning to force extras and then winning in the 13th on a homer by Pablo Reyes. On July 20, the Curve led 6-5 entering the eighth before Stewart stole home to tie the game and Marin worked a walk-off walk in the ninth in a 7-6 loss. The Baysox also broke a 3-3 tie in the eighth on July 13 to beat the Curve, 4-3. On July 21, the Curve led 5-4 entering the eighth before Aderlin Rodriguez tied the game with a double and Garabez Rosa hit a walk-off single in the ninth in a 6-5 loss.

LOSING GROUND: The Curve dropped eight of 11 games from July 9-July 22, dropping to 49-48, three games back of first and sitting in fourth place in the Western Division behind Bowie, Akron and Erie. It was the first time the Curve had been in fourth place or worse in the division since May 7, 2016.

RETURN OF THE JIN-DE: After missing the first six weeks of the season, catcher Jin-De Jhang was batting .184 in 31 games through July 7. From July 8-July 26, Jhang hit .386 (17/44) in 11 games with four doubles, a home run and nine RBIs. Through July 26 behind the plate, Jhang had thrown out 53.1 percent (17/32) of base stealing attempts, best in the Eastern League and well above the league average at the time of 35.6 percent.

READING HISTORY: The Curve recorded their first series sweep in Reading in franchise history from July 24-26 in their 43rd overall trip. It was also the first Altoona series victory at FirstEnergy Stadium since July 23-25, 2012, when the Curve won two of three games against the Phillies. The Curve posted a 3-14 record at FirstEnergy Stadium from 2013-2016.

EDWINNING: Two-time All-Star first baseman Edwin Espinal played 95 games for the Curve before being promoted to Triple-A on July 28. At the time of his promotion, Espinal was hitting .283 with a career-best 15 homers. He led the team and ranked second in the Eastern League with 72 RBIs and ranked first on the team and second in the league with 25 doubles. He posted a 23-game on-base streak from June 26-July 20, the second-longest for a Curve player in 2017 and the longest active streak in the league before it ended. He also posted a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage at first base for the year, the first Curve infielder to post a perfect fielding percentage at one position for a season.

CLOSE CALLS: From July 20-July 30, the Curve lost six of 11 games, with five of those losses coming by one run. From July 18-July 30, the Curve's seven losses came by an average of 1.3 runs.

JULY WRAP: The Curve went 15-14 in July, moving their overall record to 54-51, sitting in second place in the Western Division, 1.5 games behind Bowie. Pablo Reyes hit .304 in 26 July games with five homers and 14 RBIs. Jerrick Suiter posted a .301 average over 29 July games with four homers and 21 RBIs. Edwin Espinal hit seven homers in July and drove in 22 runs.

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER

THE SUMMER OF GEORGE: After joining the Curve on July 29, Jordan George made an immediate impact. He hit .444 (8/18) over his first five games through August 1 with three doubles, a homer and six RBIs. In his Double-A debut on July 29, George went 2-for-4 with a homer, a double and four RBIs.

MAC ATTACK: Over five starts from July 6-August 1, Alex McRae went 3-0 with a 2.18 ERA (8 ER/33.0 IP).

STARTING IMPROVEMENT: Over 24 games from July 17-August 10, Curve starting pitchers combined to go 10-3 with a 2.72 ERA (41 ER/135.2 IP). In that stretch, Alex McRae went 2-0 with a 1.80 ERA (4 ER/20 IP) in three starts, Austin Coley went 1-1 with a 2.42 ERA (7 ER/26 IP) in four starts, Brandon Waddell went 2-0 with a 2.45 ERA (4/14.2 IP) in three starts, Casey Sadler went 0-1 with a 4.50 ERA (8 ER/16 IP) in three starts, Cody Dickson went 2-1 with a 2.57 ERA (4 ER/14 IP) in three starts, J.T. Brubaker went 2-0 with a 3.12 ERA (9 ER/26 IP) in five starts, Mitch Keller went 0-0 with a 3.00 ERA (2 ER/6 IP) in one start and Tanner Anderson went 1-0 with a 2.08 ERA (3 ER/13 IP) in two starts.

MATHISEN ADDS UP: On August 3, Wyatt Mathisen went 5-for-5, tying the franchise record for hits in a game. It was the second five-hit game for a Curve player in 2017 and the 15th in franchise history.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU VERY MUCH: Elvis Escobar came through with walk-off hits in back-to-back days against the Trenton Thunder. On August 12 in the first game of a double-header, Escobar drove a game-winning single to lift the Curve to a 3-2 win in the bottom of the seventh. The next day, he knocked another walk-off single to give the Curve a 5-4 win in the bottom of the tenth. In 11 regular-season games against the Thunder, Escobar hit .325 (13/40) with two doubles, two triples and seven RBIs.

REYES ON A RUN: In 23 games from July 29-August 20, Pablo Reyes posted a .342 (27/79) batting average with five doubles, a triple, a homer and seven RBIs, and he raised his season average from .265 to .283. Over ten games from August 8-August 17, he hit .412 (14/34).

EAST FEAST: From August 4-August 23, the Curve played 19 consecutive games against teams from the Eastern Division. Overall, 26 of 30 games from July 24-August 23 were against teams from the East. In that span, the Curve went 15-11 against the opposite division. For the season, the Curve were 28-19 when facing the Eastern Division, including a 15-11 mark at home and a 13-8 record on the road.

C-N-O: Through August 21, reliever Tate Scioneaux had held opposing batters to a .198 average, third-best in the league among relievers. He was ranked second in the league with 42 appearances, had the second-lowest BB/9 iP ratio (1.50) and had allowed the third-fewest baserunners (8.19/9 IP) among relievers. He had also posted the second-best ERA (1.85) out of all relievers in the league with at least 50 innings pitched.

GOING THE DISTANCE: In a 2-1 win on August 24 against Bowie, Casey Sadler pitched a full nine innings on 95 pitches and held the Baysox to one run on seven hits. It was a career-long outing for Sadler, surpassing an eight-inning outing on May 6, 2013. It was the sixth nine-inning complete game for a Curve pitcher in the last 13 seasons and the first since Adrian Sampson went the distance on July 18, 2014. It marked the fifth straight win for the Curve, which would prove to be the longest regular-season winning streak of the year for the club.

BRU CREW: Over eight starts from July 18-August 25, J.T. Brubaker went 3-1 with a 2.86 ERA (14 ER/44.0 IP).

PLAYOFF BOUND: With a 3-1 win at Richmond on August 29, the Curve clinched a postseason berth for the third straight season. This year marked the second time in franchise history the Curve qualified for the playoffs in three straight years (They went to the playoffs in four straight seasons from 2003-2006). The win on August 29 also locked up the 12th winning season in the Curve's 19 years. Altoona is the only Eastern League team to reach the playoffs in each of the last three seasons.

COLE TRAIN: After hitting .194 through his first 27 games through August 19, Cole Tucker hit .373 (22/59) in his last 15 games with four doubles, two triples, two homers and 12 RBIs while adding 13 walks and six stolen bases. Tucker tied a franchise record on August 28 by working four walks in a single game.

AUSTIN CITY LIMITS: Starting pitcher Austin Coley solidified his strong season by not allowing any runs over his final three outings (two starts) spanning 15.0 innings. Coley was named Eastern League Pitcher of the Week for August 28-September 4 after making a pair of scoreless, seven-inning starts.

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER

BIG GAME BRANDON: After missing much of the season with a left forearm strain, left-hander Brandon Waddell returned from the disabled list on July 31. Over his final seven starts of the year, Waddell went 3-1 with a 2.82 ERA (12 ER/38.1 IP) after posting a 4.55 ERA (14 ER/27.2 IP) before going to the DL.

GOOD IN A PINCH: On August 9, Jonathan Schwind clubbed the Curve's third pinch-hit homer of the season, a three-run shot in the sixth to put the Curve ahead of the Fightin Phils, 6-3. All three of the Curve's pinch-hit homers through August 9 ultimately proved to be game-winners. Jordan Luplow hit a two-run homer as a pinch hitter on May 17 at Binghamton to break a 6-6 tie in an 8-6 win. Chase Simpson hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning on June 7 at Harrisburg in a 5-3 Curve win. Schwind added another pinch-hit home run on Sept. 4 in the Curve's regular-season finale in the seventh inning to give the Curve a 4-3 lead, but the Senators eventually tied the score and forced extra innings. Overall for the regular season, Curve pinch hitters posted a .333 (20/60) batting average. Connor Joe was 5-for-6 (.833) as a pinch hitter with a double and a walk prior to being traded to the Braves on August 5.

WHAT A RELIEF: Over his last 16 outings beginning July 15, Luis Heredia posted a 1.25 ERA (3 ER/21.2 IP). Tanner Anderson had a 1.25 ERA (3 ER/21.2 IP) in 10 appearances after moving to the bullpen full time on July 31. From July 3 through the end of the regular season, Tate Scioneaux converted all eight save chances and posted a 1.93 ERA (6 ER/28 IP). Yeudy Garcia posted a 2.96 ERA (8 ER/24.1 IP) and added three saves over 15 outings after moving to the bullpen full time in early July.

BEST OF THE WEST: The Curve clinched their third regular-season division title in franchise history in the last game of the regular season on September 4 in a back-and-forth battle with Harrisburg. The game was tied, 4-4, heading into extra innings, but Mitchell Tolman ended the game with a walk-off, three-run homer in the bottom of the 12th. The Curve also won regular season division titles in 2004 and 2010, coincidentally the only two previous years in which they advanced to the Eastern League Championship Series.

PITCH PERFECT: Over the last 15 games of the regular season beginning August 20, Curve starting pitchers combined to go 7-3 with a 2.34 ERA (25 ER/96.1 IP). In that stretch, J.T. Brubaker went 0-1 with a 4.09 ERA (10 ER/22 IP) in three starts, Brandon Waddell went 1-0 with a 1.45 ERA (3 ER/18.2 IP) in three starts, Mitch Keller went 2-1 with a 3.24 ERA (6 ER/16.2 IP) in two starts, Casey Sadler went 1-0 with a 1.00 ERA (1 ER/9.0 IP) in one start, Alex McRae was 1-0 with a 2.81 ERA (5 ER/16 IP) in three starts and Austin Coley went 2-0 with a 0.00 ERA (0 ER/14 IP) in two starts.

EXTRA! EXTRA!: In the final game of the regular season, the Curve set a new franchise record with their 18th extra-inning contest of the year, surpassing the previous mark of 17 from 2003. The team also tied the franchise record from 2008 with nine extra-inning wins, defeating Harrisburg, 7-4, in 12 innings on a walk-off homer by Mitchell Tolman. 2017 marked the third straight year in which the Curve went to extras in the final contest of the regular season.

KEEPING IT CLOSE: The Curve went 24-21 over their final 45 games, with ten of those losses coming by one run. Their final 21 losses since July 18 were by an average of 2.1 runs. The Curve played 54 one-run games in 2017, the most in the Eastern League, with a 27-27 record in those games.

PLAYING THE FIELD: The Curve matched or set four defensive records in 2017. The team totaled 105 errors, tying the 2016 team for the fewest in a season. The Curve's .980 fielding percentage also tied the 2016 team for the best in a season. Edwin Espinal set the franchise mark for the best fielding percentage by a first baseman with a perfect 1.000 mark, surpassing the previous record of .995. He was the first Curve infielder to hold a perfect fielding percentage at a single position with at least 75 games played. Espinal was honored after the season with the MiLB Rawlings Gold Glove Award as the top fielding first baseman in the minors. Kevin Newman set a new franchise record for fielding percentage by a shortstop, surpassing the .972 mark set by Shaun Skrehot in 2003.

AWARDS SEASON: On September 3, the Curve announced Edwin Espinal as their 2017 Most Valuable Player. Austin Coley and Alex McRae were named as the Co-Pitchers of the Year. Among the other annual awards that were presented, Jerrick Suiter was named as the team's Unsung Hero of the Year and Tate Scioneaux was named as the Fireman of the Year. Espinal was also selected as the Curve's lone representative on the Eastern League Season-Ending All-Stars as the as the first baseman honoree and won the MiLB Rawlings Gold Glove Award as the top defensive first baseman in the minors. Jordan Luplow was named as the Pirates' Minor League Player of the Year.

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER WRAP: The Curve went 19-15 in August and September. They moved back into sole possession of first place for good with a 5-4 win at Hartford on August 22.

WESTERN DIVISION SERIES

SETTING THE STAGE: The Curve faced the Bowie Baysox in the best-of-five Western Division Series, a rematch of the 2015 ELDS. The Curve went 74-66 in the regular season and finished two games ahead of the Baysox, who went 72-68 to win the Wild Card by three games over Akron.

BATTLING BOWIE: The Curve lost four regular-season sets and split one series against the Baysox in 2017. The Curve were 5-14 against the Baysox, but posted a 69-52 record against the rest of the Eastern League. The Baysox went 58-63 against their other ten E.L. opponents. The Curve dropped two of three games in Bowie from June 2-4, were swept in four games from June 26-29 at Bowie, lost three of four at home from July 13-16, lost three of four in Bowie from July 20-23 and split four games at PNG Field from August 24-27. The Curve surrendered a lead in the seventh inning or later seven times against the Baysox this season.

SETTING THE TONE: The Curve took Game 1 of the ELDS at Bowie, 2-0, behind a complete-game shutout by Mitch Keller on just 90 pitches. He faced the minimum 27 batters and allowed one hit, two walks and one batter reached on an error. The Curve turned two double plays, picked off a baserunner and threw out a stolen base attempt to keep the bases empty. Bowie never saw a baserunner reach second. Keller threw the second complete-game shutout in Altoona franchise history (Tom Gorzelanny tossed a four-hit shutout over Akron on September 9, 2005 with a franchise-record 13 strikeouts). The Curve broke a scoreless tie in the fifth inning with a two-out RBI single by Jordan George and added a second run with an RBI single by Mitchell Tolman in the seventh.

COMPLETING THE SWEEP: In Game 2, the Curve scored three runs in the third and sixth innings and added two more in the seventh to pull away from the Baysox in an 8-4 win. Michael Suchy had three hits, including a homer, and drove in three runs. Elvis Escobar also had a three-RBI night. Alex McRae allowed four runs over six innings, but Yeudy Garcia and Tate Scioneaux combined for three scoreless innings to finish the game. The series moved to Altoona for Game 3, and the Curve pulled away for a 6-1 win to complete a three-game sweep. Austin Coley allowed one run over six innings and Tanner Anderson tossed the final two frames to close out the game. Wyatt Mathisen hit a two-run homer and Pablo Reyes added a solo blast. Jin-De Jhang drove in two runs.

EASTERN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

SETTING THE STAGE: The Curve advanced to the Championship Series with a three-game sweep of the Baysox in the Division Series. After losing Game 1 of the Eastern Division Series, Trenton defeated the Binghamton Rumble Ponies in four games. Trenton posted their best record in franchise history in the regular season with a 92-48 record and a 52-20 mark at home. They finished the year with the top pitching staff in the league, posting a franchise-record 2.83 team ERA, the lowest in the Eastern League since 1976, with 1160 strikeouts. They also threw 20 shutouts this season, another franchise record. In Game 2 of the Division Series, Thairo Estrada hit for the cycle in a 9-6 win. In Game 3 of the Division Series, Justus Sheffield and Taylor Widener combined to no-hit Binghamton. They capped the series with a 9-1 win at home in Game 4. The Curve and Thunder met in one previous postseason series, with the Curve topping the Thunder in four games to win the 2010 Eastern League championship.

TRENTON MAKES FOR CLOSE GAMES: The Curve went 5-8 against the Thunder in the regular season, with five losses coming by one run and two by two runs. On June 20, the Curve handed the Thunder a 14-4 loss, their worst of the season. The Curve played one regular-season series in Trenton, dropping two of three games, including losing the last game in extra innings. The Thunder posted a 4.05 ERA against the Curve in 2017, their highest against any E.L. opponent, and had a 2.71 ERA against the other ten teams.

GAME 1: The Curve won the first game of the series in Trenton, 2-1. Starting pitcher Brandon Waddell pitched six scoreless innings, allowing five hits with no walks and six strikeouts. Luis Heredia allowed one run in 1.1 innings and Tanner Anderson pitched the final 1.2 innings to hold off the Thunder. The Curve opened the scoring in the fifth with a two-out RBI single by Mitchell Tolman. Elvis Escobar extended the lead to 2-0 with an RBI single in the seventh. Trenton went 1-for-8 with runners in scoring position and left eight on base.

GAME 2: The Curve won Game 2 in Trenton, 4-2. J.T. Brubaker allowed two runs (one earned) over eight innings with six strikeouts. Yeudy Garcia worked around a walk in the ninth with a pair of strikeouts to pick up the save. A fielding error plated the Curve's first run in the fifth. Later in the frame, Elvis Escobar hit an RBI single and Kevin Kramer worked a bases-loaded walk to open a 3-0 Altoona advantage. After a run by Trenton in the bottom of the fifth, Escobar drove an RBI single in the top of the sixth to push the Curve lead to 4-1. Trenton closed within two with a run in the eighth, but Brubaker worked a double play to end the inning.

GAME 3: The Curve beat the Thunder, 4-2, to win their second Eastern League championship in franchise history. Trenton scored two runs in the second inning to take an early lead against starting pitcher Mitch Keller, who settled in to finish his night with just those two runs allowed over 7.1 innings with eight strikeouts. Jerrick Suiter worked a bases-loaded walk in the fifth to get the Curve on the board. With two outs in the inning, Jin-De Jhang drove a bases-clearing, three-run triple to put the Curve ahead, 4-2. Johnny Hellweg worked out of a bases-loaded, one-out jam in the eighth without allowing a run. Tate Scioneaux entered in the ninth and struck out the side in order to close out the game.

PERFECT POSTSEASON: The Curve became just the third Eastern League team to sweep all six of their playoff games since 1983, joining the 1991 Albany-Colonie Yankees and the 2013 Trenton Thunder.

STRONG ARMS: The Altoona starting pitching staff combined to go 6-0 with a 1.66 ERA (8 ER/43.1 IP) in the postseason. Curve pitchers as a whole combined to post a 1.50 ERA (9 ER/54 IP) in the playoffs. In the ELCS, starters Brandon Waddell, J.T. Brubaker and Mitch Keller combined to go 3-0 with a 1.27 ERA (3 ER/21.1 IP).

OFFENSIVE SUPPORT: Elvis Escobar hit .348 (8/23) in the playoffs with six RBIs. After hitting .200 in the regular season, Michael Suchy batted .348 (8/23) in the playoffs with a home run, a double and three RBIs. Jin-De Jhang hit .333 (7/21) in the postseason with five RBIs, including the go-ahead three-run triple in Game 3 of the ELCS.

PEAK AT THE RIGHT TIME: The Curve won all six of their playoff games and their final eight games overall when including the regular season. Their longest winning streak during the 2017 regular season was only five games.

ALTOONA CURVE COACHING STAFF

Career Record: 354-335 2017 w/ ALT: 74-66	1st season 3rd overall	3rd season 11th overall	1st season 4th overall	1st season 8th overall	1st season 5th overall
Ryan returned to Altoona after serving as a coach for the Curve in 2012. He spent the past four seasons as a manager in the Pirates organization, leading the Bradenton Marauders the last two years and the West Virginia Power the two before that. He steered Bradenton to a 70-66 record in 2016, including winning the Florida State League championship. Ryan was drafted in the fifth round by the Minnesota Twins in 1996, and he went on to play 15 professional seasons, including five in the majors.	Hickerson joined the Altoona staff in 2017 for his first year in the Pirates' organization. He spent the last 18 years working in ministry, mostly in the context of professional baseball and the military. A left-handed pitcher, Hickerson was drafted by the Twins in the seventh round in 1986. He played a total of five major league seasons with the Giants, Cubs and Rockies. After his playing days, Hickerson served as a pitching coach in the Giants organization in 1997 & 1998.	2017 marked Riggs' third year as the Altoona hitting coach, and his third year in the Pirates' organization. Riggs spent eight seasons coaching in the Rockies' organization, and has some managerial experience, serving as the skipper for the Double-A Tulsa Drillers for two seasons (2013-2014). As a player, Riggs was drafted by Cincinnati in the 28th round in 1990 out of East Carolina, reaching Double-A. He ended his career by playing one season in China, where he was the league MVP in 1998.	Picart joined the Curve for his first season as a coach in Altoona. He played for Altoona in parts of two seasons from 2011-2012, appearing in 71 games. He was drafted in the 23rd round of the 2003 MLB draft by the Pirates out of Miami Dade College. With the Curve, In 2011, Picart hit .218 with one home run and 14 RBIs in 56 games. He closed out his playing career with Altoona in 2012, playing 15 games, along with one game for Triple-A Indianapolis.	In his sixth season as a member of the Pittsburgh organization, Aherns joined Altoona for the first time in 2017. He spent the last two years in Bradenton, where he was named Florida State League Athletic Trainer of the Year in 2016. He spent each of the last four seasons on the same staff as manager Michael Ryan. Aherns received a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Carroll University in 2011, and a master's degree in kinesiology from Fresno Pacific University in 2016.	Schlesinger joined the Curve for his first season, after making stops at Jamestown, West Virginia, and Bradenton within the Pittsburgh system. Prior to joining the Pirates, he served as the strength and conditioning graduate assistant at Duquesne University from 2012-2014. Schlesinger graduated from Toledo with a degree in exercise science in 2011 and completed his master's degree of science in sports leadership at Duquesne in 2014.
