From the editor:

Welcome to my pandemic project.

I had been meaning to put together a Hops record book—though nothing on the scale you see here—for a few years. And now, as I write this near the end of the endeavor, I realize none of it would have happened had I not been stuck at home for three months. With my Pac-12 Network television gigs cancelled and nothing on the horizon from ESPN or NBC, I had some time. And yet—as with a few other things I’ve done in my life—had I known how many hours it would take, I probably would not even have started.

Still, it was a joy to work on it.

And it was borne out of necessity, for two reasons. First, until now, I would tape yearly stats and game-by-game results—two pages total from each previous season—at the back of my scorebook. After seven seasons, it was becoming unwieldy transferring 14 pages and taping them in. I needed a document with them all in one place.

Second, while career and season records are easy to come by, single-game records are not. In other words, simply checking each year’s chart makes it easy to determine which Hops player has the most doubles in a single year (Joey Rose, with 21 in 2018). But what about most doubles in a single game? Let’s say a Hops player hits two-baggers in each of his first two at-bats. The question quickly becomes, “What’s the Hops’ record for most doubles by one player in a single game?” Well, my broadcast partner, Matt Richert, and I, were left shrugging our shoulders. We didn’t know.

Well, now we do. (It’s three, accomplished three times—by Todd Glaesmann, Luke Lowery and Daulton Varsho. You wanna know the record for most doubles in a game by an opponent against the Hops? I got that covered too.)

To build this record book required one of two things: first, somehow set up a database of all Hops box scores, which would require paying someone else, require hundreds if not thousands of hours to set up, and would still not be infallible. The second option—the one I chose—was to painstakingly go through all 555 box scores in team history by hand... not once, but dozens of times, focusing on each record one at a time. As you might imagine, this option took hundreds of hours.

And I’m sure it’s still not perfect. It’s entirely possible I’ve missed a thing or two. Rest assured that if I have, it wasn’t for lack of effort.

As I went through the box scores time and time again, it occurred to me to expand the document to other sections, and it blossomed into the project you see here.

In the following pages, you’ll find:

-- Year-by-year Hops recaps, including—yes—the game-by-game results and yearly statistics I used to tape into my scorebook.

-- Single-season and career top ten charts.

-- A yearbook-photo-style all-time register of the 302 people to have played for the Hops.

-- Year-by-year standings in the Northwest League since 2013—a.k.a. “The Dawn of Time”—when the Hops entered the Northwest League.

-- And many fun odds and ends, such details on the Hops’ incredible total of 39 walkoff wins, their all-time record in extra-inning games, and tons more. Want a listing of every pinch-hit ever recorded by a Hops player? Read on. (And, in case you didn’t know, take a guess which team has the best winning percentage over the past seven seasons among all 160 clubs in minor league baseball...)

My hope is that you will find Hillsboro Hops History & Records 2013-2019 as interesting as Matt and I will find it useful during our broadcasts.

My other hope is that, now that the structure of this history and record book is complete, and with seven years of history already recorded, it will be relatively easy to update these records after every season. I’ll bet I can get it done in under 50 hours.

This time, no pandemic necessary.

Enjoy!

Hillsboro Hops

2013

First things first: The Hops played the first game in franchise history on June 14, 2013—a 3-2 loss at Salem-Keizer. Center fielder Brian Billigen was the first batter, second baseman Ryan Gebhardt had the first hit, and third baseman Jordan Parr scored the first run. Two days later, in the finale of the series in Keizer, Josh Parr—Jordan’s brother—hit the first home run in team history.

Hops open their new yard: Beautiful Hillsboro Ballpark (it wouldn’t be renamed Ron Tonkin Field until the following season) opened on Monday, June 17, 2013—1,015 days since the previous professional baseball game in the Portland area (played by the Portland Beavers). The Hops treated the fans to a 12-0 win over Eugene, with Jordan Parr hitting the first home run at the new park.

Crazy, but true: The Hops scored runs in each of the first six innings in the first game at their new park en route to the 12-0 win. Through the end of the 2019 season, it remains the only time in franchise history, home or road, that the Hops have scored in six consecutive innings in the same game.

Hey 19: On July 7, 2013—the 24th game in club history—the Hops played the longest game they’ve ever played, a 19-inning, 5-4 win over the Vancouver Canadians. (With minor league baseball’s new extra-inning rules instituted in 2018, this record isn’t going anywhere.)

Humble beginnings: The Hops stumbled out of the gate in their first year, losing 25 of their first 33 games.

The turning point: July 18, 2013—the 34th game in franchise history—was an otherwise unremarkable 5-3 win at home over Spokane. From that date on, however—the final 43 games of the season—the Hops had the best record in the Northwest League. And in their seven-season history—incredibly, even including the 8-25 start—the Hops have the highest winning percentage in all of minor league baseball. (Details on page 24.)

The W.O.W. magic begins: Hillsboro had four walkoff wins in July 2013, and added another in late August—all five in extra innings. Left fielder Yogey Perez Ramos, a fan favorite in 2013, was the central figure, collecting the winning hit in four of the five games.

Top prospect trail begins: The Arizona Diamondbacks began their trend of sending top prospects to Hillsboro, with pitchers Braden Shipley and Aaron Blair both pitching for the Hops. Other strong prospects included pitchers Jimmie Sherfy and Jose Martinez and first baseman Daniel Palka.

Professional baseball returned to the Portland area on June 17, 2013. Local youth baseball players, surrounded by members of the Hops, delivered the ceremonial home plate on Opening Night, 1,015 days after that very home plate was unearthed from PGE Park in downtown Portland following the Triple-A Portland Beavers’ final game.

No-no magic in heat of pennant race: The Hops entered the final weekend of the season one game behind Salem-Keizer in the second half South Division standings, needing a three-game sweep in Boise, and hoping Eugene could take two of three in Keizer. With all of that on the line, Hops right-hander Kyle Schepel (“skay-pul”) tossed a nine-inning no-hitter in the series opener at Boise (8/31/13), a 5-0 Hops win. Other than a rain-shortened five-inning no-no some years before, Schepel’s gem was the first complete-game no-hitter in the NWL since 1993.

Hops hopes fizzle: Though Hillsboro swept Boise on the final weekend, their playoff hopes came to an end on the penultimate day, Saturday, Sept. 1st, when Salem-Keizer beat Eugene. (Boise swept Salem-Keizer 2-0 in the South Division Series, but themselves were swept by Vancouver in the NWL Championship Series.)

The one and only: Through 2019, including the postseason, the Hops have played 555 games in franchise history. Their 10-6 win at Boise on the final day of their inaugural season, Sept. 2, 2013, remains the only game they have ever played when they took the field knowing they had no chance to win a league championship.

2014

New man in the house: The Hops' manager, former major league catcher J.R. House, had been their hitting coach the year before. He collected his first managerial win 3-2 at Everett on June 14, 2014 in the season's second game. (Editor's note: don't be surprised when he's holding a World Series trophy as a big league manager.)

A different tune: Unlike in 2013, the Hops got off to a strong start, winning 14 of their first 21 games and building a four-game lead with 17 to play in the South Division first-half standings. Outfielder Todd Glaesmann led the way to the early success, hitting .404 with a 1.092 OPS in 14 games before being promoted.

Pop the corks: the Hops won 3-2 at Eugene on July 20th in the next-to-last game of the season's first half. Shortly after the win, Boise lost at home to Salem-Keizer, securing Hillsboro's first-ever playoff berth and setting off a joyous champagne celebration in the visitors' clubhouse.

No no-no this time: Nearly a year after their no-hitter at Boise on the final day of August in 2013, the Hops were at it again on August 13, 2014. A quintet of Hops pitchers—Jared Miller (4 ip), Nick Baker (2 ip), Dustin Loggins (1 ip), Luis Ramirez (1 ip) and Zac Curtis (1 ip)—held Boise hitless through nine innings. Unfortunately, the Hops had just one hit themselves in the first nine frames (a fifth-inning single by DH Jake Mayers) and no runs. Boise's David Bote hit a sinking liner to right for a double on the top of the 10th, which would be the Hawks' only hit of the game. Hops center fielder Taylor Ratliff drew a bases-loaded walk in the bottom of the 10th for a 1-0 win.

Brief, but dominant: 19-year-old Brad Keller had just one appearance in a Hops uniform, and he made it count, tossing six shutout innings (with one hit, one walk and eight strikeouts) in a 1-0 win at home over Eugene on August 30th. (Incidentally, that game remains the shortest in Hops history, at just an hour and 59 minutes.)

Hops win first-ever playoff game: Hillsboro won 5-2 at Boise on Sept. 2nd. Trailing 2-1 in the top of the sixth, second baseman Steve Nyisztor had a game-tying single, then scored the go-ahead run on a pair of Boise errors. Nick Baker, Rob Wort, and Zac Curtis provided five innings of shutout relief, allowing only two hits.

NWL president Mike Ellis presents the Bob Freitas Trophy to Hops manager J.R. House moments after the Hops vanquished the three-time-defending Northwest League champion Vancouver Canadians to win the 2014 title.

Hops top Boise to advance to NWLCS: It was another come-from-behind 5-2 win over Boise, this time at Ron Tonkin Field. Newcomer Stewart Ijames ("imes") tied the game 2-2 with a fourth-inning single, and first baseman Kevin Cron put the Hops on top to stay with a fifth-inning base hit. German native Markus Solbach tossed seven strong innings, allowing five hits and two runs.

Stunning comeback in Vancouver: You could sense it after the clearly nervous Hops kicked the ball around and fell behind 5-0 in Vancouver in game one of the best-of-three NWL Championship Series: the three-time-defending champion Canadians would take game one and then romp to their fourth straight title. But... no. Nate Robertson and Taylor Ratliff began the comeback with run-scoring hits, and Stewart Ijames and Stryker Trahan finished it with a pair of two-run home runs. Zac Curtis snuffed a rally in the ninth to preserve a 7-5 win.

Hops win first NWL championship in front of home fans: Sunday, Sept. 7th: the Hops scored three times in the first inning, highlighted by a Stewart Ijames RBI single and a Jordan Parr two-run double. Hillsboro led 4-3 in the top of the seventh when Taylor Ratliff made one of the biggest catches in club history, racing to the fence in deep center to save two runs. Zac Curtis pitched around a one-out walk to Tim Locastro in the 9th, striking out Franklyn Barreto and bare-handing Chris Carlson's comebacker before tossing to Kevin Cron at first for the final out. Curtis earned the save in all four of the Hops' postseason wins.

Another rookie manager... another title: For the second time in two seasons, the Hops' skipper was getting his first-ever managing experience. This time it was Shelley Duncan—who, like J.R. House in 2014—led Hillsboro to the Northwest League championship.

So, it IS possible: On July 2nd, the Hops lost at home to Eugene 2-1 in 11 innings. It was Hillsboro's first-ever extra-inning loss at home. Over the 2013 and 2014 seasons, the Hops went 10-0 in extra frames at home.

Dansby the debutante: The Diamondbacks had the top overall pick in the 2015 draft, and they chose Vanderbilt University shortstop Dansby Swanson. Originally ticketed for Advanced-A Visalia—two levels higher than the Hops—Swanson's expected July debut was delayed by his participation in the College World Series, by signing negotiations, and by a training-camp fastball to Swanson's face. Assigned instead to Hillsboro, Swanson made his debut on August 12th. He played 22 regular season games with the Hops, plus all six postseason games.

Carlos the Great: Carlos Hernandez was named the NWL pitcher of the year, going 6-3 with a 2.32 ERA. He struck out a franchise record 93 batters in 85.1 innings, walking only 27, and was particularly tough at home—he didn't give up a run in his first 35 innings at Ron Tonkin Field, allowing just 15 hits, with nine walks and 46 strikeouts.

Masters of the zero: The Hops pitching staff broke the NWL record by recording 11 shutouts, a feat that would be tied by the 2019 Hops. (Yes, no Northwest League team has ever notched more than 10 shutouts in a single season, except the Hops... and they've done it twice.)

Dinger streak: Trevor Mitsui set a Hops record by homering in five straight games from August 15-19.

As good as you can get: Because of a heavy college workload, Hops right-hander Taylor Clarke had a strict innings limit in his pro-debut season. He made the best of it, allowing no runs in 23 innings (including the postseason), with 10 hits, five walks and 30 strikeouts.

Dansby the hero: For sheer back-and-forth drama that built over several hours, no game in franchise history compares with the winner-take-all finale of the best-of-three South Division Series on Sept. 9th. Hillsboro led 4-3 at home against Salem-Keizer going to the top of the ninth inning, with tough lefty Alex Young on the hill. However, Ronnie Jebavy and Chris Shaw hit solo home runs to give the Volcanoes a 5-4 lead and put them three outs away from a berth in the NWL Championship Series.

On August 20th, as the Hops honored the 1970s' Portland Mavericks with replica uniforms, Dansby Swanson—the #1 overall pick in the 2015 draft—hit his first pro home run.

The Hops, however, mounted a rally of their own in the bottom of the ninth as a walk and a Grant Heyman double put runners at second and third with none out. A Trevor Mitsui infield single scored the tying run, but the Hops were unable to squeak home the game-winner. Hops right-handers Brody Greer (3 ip) and Breckin Williams (1 ip) combined for four hitless innings from the 10th through the 13th to keep the game tied. Finally, in the bottom of the 13th, two Salem-Keizer errors and a walk loaded the bases with none out. Dansby Swanson's single to deep center field scored the game-winner.

Hops win second straight title: Hillsboro took game one of the NWL Championship Series at home against Tri-City, a 2-1 nail-biter with both runs coming via key hits from Luis Veras. After a listless loss in game two at Tri-City, the Hops and Dust Devils met in the winner-take-all third game. Josh Anderson, Nate Robertson and Sergio Alcantara had run-scoring hits in a four-run top of the 2nd, which would be plenty for Hops pitching. Carlos Hernandez, without his best stuff, gutted his way through 5.2 innings, allowing just two hits and one run. Cameron Gann, Alex Young and Taylor Clark combined for 3.1 frames of shutout relief, and the Hops scored twice in the top of the 9th for a 6-1 lead. Clark struck out Nick Vilter to end it, as Hillsboro captured their second straight title.

Hello, my name is...: The Hops used a Northwest League-record 63 players in 2016—32 pitchers and 31 position players.

Second-best, but still in: After winning four straight halves, the Hops finished second in the South to the remarkable Eugene Emeralds (the Ems went 54-22) in both halves of the season. Still, that was enough to earn Hillsboro its third consecutive playoff berth.

Spoilers: Ten months after winning the NWL title on Tri-City's home turf, the Hops denied the Dust Devils a playoff spot in the first half of 2016, with a 3-0 win at Tri-City on July 25th, the final day of the half.

I was walkin...: On July 19th at Eugene, the Hops' Marcus Wilson tied the Northwest League record by drawing six walks in one game. As a team, the Hops drew an incredible 17 bases on balls, a franchise record (the next-highest total is 11).

Riot at the bat rack: The Hops had a big offensive series at hitter-friendly Everett in early August. On Aug. 4th, third baseman Ramon Hernandez went 5-for-5 with two HR (including the second grand slam in club history), and set franchise records with six RBIs and 12 total bases. The same night, catcher Luke Lowery was 4-for-5. Three nights later, Lowery did even better: he went 5-for-5 with five runs batted in in the Hops' 9-7 come-from-behind win.

Touchdown Tommy: RHP Tommy Eveld—a former star high school quarterback in Florida whose football prowess kept him out of baseball his first two years of college—had a great first pro year after being drafted in the 9th round as a redshirt junior following his second baseball season at the Univ. of South Florida. In 24 games for the Hops, mostly as a middle reliever, Eveld posted a 1.86 ERA with 31 strikeouts against just eight walks in 29 innings. He also picked up his nickname, "Touchdown Tommy," and his trademark, arms-in-the-air touchdown signal while celebrating Hops wins—which he has since utilized as a closer after picking up saves at the higher levels of the minor leagues.

Another Duck shines: The Hops continued their trend of former Oregon Ducks starring for the team when Mark Karaviotis hit .344 in 41 games.

Kevin Ginkel was a 22nd-round draft choice in 2016, and made his Hops debut shortly after pitching for the Univ. of Arizona in the College World Series. Between 2016 and 2017, he set the record for career pitching appearances as a Hop (38), and then made his major-league debut with a 1.48 ERA in 25 appearances for the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2019.

Elation...: Eugene entered play at Ron Tonkin Field for the final regular-season series on Sept. 3rd already having clinched both halves, and having won eight straight. They also knew who their playoff opponent would be: the Hops. In a precursor to the South Division Series, the Hops swept Eugene in the season-ending series, including a wild finish on the next-to-last day when Luis Veras scored from second on a passed ball to end the game. The Ems, despite their incredible 54 regular-season wins, had to be thinking, "Uh-oh."

... more elation...: The Hops then picked up where they left off at the end of the regular season, by taking game one of the South Division Series on Sept. 7th on a walkoff single by little-used catcher Jose Queliz in the bottom of the 10th.

... and finally, dejection: Hillsboro then traveled to Eugene, needing one win in two games to secure a third straight bid to the NWL Championship Series. They fell flat in game two, a 6-2 loss. And the deciding game three remains the most frustrating loss in team history: Hillsboro fell 2-1 as they had 10 hits and drew four walks... but went 0-for-15 with runners in scoring position and left 11 men on base. Eugene would go on to win their much-deserved first outright NWL championship in 41 years. Fifty days later, Eugene's parent club, the Chicago Cubs, won their first World Series in 108 years.

Big Three spend season in Hillsboro: the Diamondbacks had three of the top 68 picks in the 2017 draft, and they used all three on college position players, each of whom spent their entire first professional season with the Hops. First baseman Pavin Smith (#7 overall, from the University of Virginia) hit a club-record .318 with 15 doubles, third baseman Drew Ellis (#44 overall, University of Louisville) had eight home runs while committing just one error in 40 games at the hot corner, and catcher Daulton Varsho (#68 overall, Univ. of Wisconsin-Milwaukee) hit .311 and set franchise records for slugging (.534) and OPS (.902) while being what many consider the top defensive catcher the Hops have ever had.

Cyclin': Hillsboro shortstop Yan Sanchez accomplished a rare feat on July 5th at Salem-Keizer, becoming the first Hop to hit for the cycle. He singled in the first inning, homered in the third, walked in the fourth, struck out in the fifth and tripled in the seventh. He came to the plate in the eighth needing a double to complete the cycle, and he got it, smoking a shot to the left-center field gap.

Outburst: On the same night Yan Sanchez hit for the cycle—July 5th at Salem-Keizer—the Hops set a franchise record with 25 hits in a 17-2 romp. Sanchez went 4-for-6, Daulton Varsho was 5-for-6 with a home run, Pavin Smith was 4-for-5, Bryan Araiza and Drew Ellis had three hits apiece, and Eudy Ramos also went deep.

Making their mark: Along with top draft picks excelling, the Hops also had some less-heralded players post some excellent seasons. RHP Connor Grey, a 20th-round selection out of St. Bonaventure University in 2016, went 6-2 with a 2.74 ERA for the Hops in his second pro year, notching 41 strikeouts against just five walks in 46 innings. RHP Kevin Ginkel, in his second year with the Hops after being selected in the 22nd round in 2016 out of the Univ. of Arizona, struck out 49 with just 11 walks in 33.2 innings. RHP Kevin McCanna—signed by the D-backs out of the independent minor leagues—was dominant in his six appearances, going 5-1 with an ERA of 0.27 and striking out 43 in 33.1 innings. Camden Duzenack, a 9th-rounder in 2017 out of Dallas Baptist University, was a rock at shortstop while hitting .288 with a team-leading 34 RBIs. And second baseman Ryan Grotjohn, a 10th-rounder from CSU Bakersfield, hit .261 and committed just two errors in 30 games at second base.

Daulton Varsho was one of three top 2017 draft prospects—along with Pavin Smith and Drew Ellis—who spent their entire first professional seasons with Hillsboro in 2017. Varsho played in 50 games—36 behind the plate—and had arguably the best all-around season in team history. He hit .311 with 16 doubles, seven home runs and set club single-season records for slugging (.534) and OPS (.902).

Back-to-back spectacular grabs: in a game at Spokane on July 7th, center fielder Tra Holmes made two spectacular diving catches against the first two Spokane hitters in the bottom of the 7th. With the Hops trailing 4-3, Holmes made a full lay-out dive into right center to rob the first batter of the inning of extra bases. Two pitches later, Holmes made one of the smarter plays an outfielder can make: knowing the twilight sky could cause trouble for left fielder Dan Swain, Holmes broke into a full sprint from center on a routine fly ball to left. Sure enough, Swain never saw the ball... until, 20 feet behind him, in straightaway left field, Holmes made another full-layout grab. The Spokane fans, to their credit, appreciated the moment and gave Holmes a standing ovation. The Hops rewarded his efforts by scoring three times in the ninth—Holmes walked and scored the tying run—to win, 6-5.

Ousted: The Hops finished with their fewest number of wins other than 2013 (they went 41-35 overall), and yet won both halves in the South Division, each by one game over Eugene. Once again, though, it was the Emeralds who prevailed in the South Division Series, this time sweeping the Hops with a 2-1 win in Eugene and a 10-4 win in Hillsboro (a game which was tied 4-4 entering the top of the ninth). The Vancouver Canadians prevailed over Eugene to win the now best-of-five Northwest League Championship Series three games to one.

2018

Climbing the prospect chart, part 1: Eighteen-year-old shortstop Geraldo Perdomo joined players like Dansby Swanson and Daulton Varsho in the ranks of the best position-player prospects in Hops history. Perdomo joined the Hops from Missoula on July 28th, and in 30 games he hit .301 with three home runs and 14 runs batted in. Moreover, he flashed a spectacular glove at shortstop and showed a baseball IQ well beyond his years.

Climbing the prospect chart, part 2: If Perdomo was the top non-pitching prospect on the team, 19-year-old catcher Andy Yerzy wasn't far behind. Yerzy hit .297 with eight home runs and 34 RBIs in 63 games, 44 of them behind the plate.

Chase this: On July 1st at home against Spokane, Hops first baseman Francis Martinez became the first Hops player to hit a ball over the net protecting Century Blvd. beyond the right field fence. The ball took one hop and bounded into the dog park on the other side of the street.

Try this, Houdini: On July 5th at Salem-Keizer, the Volcanoes loaded the bases with none out in the bottom of the ninth and the game tied at four. Hops reliever Wesley Rodriguez, with the infield in, induced Kyle McPherson to ground into a third-to-home-to-first double play, and then retired Wander A. Franco on a lineout to center to end the inning. The Hops scored a run in the top of the 10th, and then held on to win 5-4 in the bottom of the 10th on in part because of a run-saving diving play by third baseman Jose Caballero for the inning's second out.

High five: On July 20th at Vancouver, the Hops clinched a playoff berth with three days remaining in the first half. With the 10-1 win, Hillsboro tied the Northwest League record by qualifying for the playoffs five straight years.

Where there's a Will...: On Opening Night in Everett on June 15th, Hops outfielder Will Gorman was struck in the face by a pitch in his second plate appearance of the year. Despite the fact the injury required facial reconstruction surgery, Gorman was back on the field within six weeks. He made his return to the Hops on July 29th at Spokane, went 4-for-4 on July 30th (also at Spokane), and saved the true heroics for August 1st. In his long-awaited home debut, Gorman stepped to the plate against Vancouver in the bottom of the ninth inning and smoked a game-ending three-run home run to give the Hops an 8-5 win.

Eighteen-year-old Geraldo Perdomo—three years younger than the average NWL player—emerged in 2018 as one of the best prospects ever to play for the Hops. In 30 games after his promotion from Rookie-level Missoula in late July, Perdomo hit .301 and made breathtaking plays at short.

Making a name: Nondrafted free agent signee Trevor McKenna posted excellent numbers. In 20 games, the left-hander posted a 0.93 ERA, with 31 strikeouts, 14 walks and just 16 hits allowed in 29 innings.

Bad News: The Hops' 51-25 record was their best in history, and for the fourth time in the past five seasons, the Hops won both halves in the South Division. Eugene finished with the worst overall record in the league (31-45), and yet squeaked into the postseason by finishing second in the South in the second half. Despite this, it was again Eugene—the “Bad News Ems,” they were called—who prevailed with a two-game sweep of the Hops in the South Division Series. Hillsboro lost both games 3-2, making it six consecutive postseason losses, all to the Emeralds. And get this: in the six straight playoff losses, Hillsboro was 3-for-57 (.053) with runners in scoring position. (Editor's note: Let that sink in. Three for fifty-seven. Honestly... sprinkle six more hits over those six losses—one per game—and the Hops likely have at least one more championship, and maybe two or three. Alas...)

Balk, balk: By the way, Eugene won game one of the South Division Series against the Hops in part because of a sixth-inning balk that brought home the go-ahead (and final) run. That scene would be repeated a few days later in the Championship Series, when Spokane's Emmanuel Clase balked home the series-ending run, giving Eugene their second title in three years.

2019

Slick: Hops infielder Ricky Martinez put together one of the most remarkable seasons imaginable. An 18th-round selection out of the Univ. of Tennessee, Martinez started at least 20 games at each of three different positions—second, short and third—and committed two errors all season. One error came on a throw to first early in the season, and another came on a relay to the plate when his throw short-hopped the catcher. Translation: playing at three different positions, Martinez didn't mis-handle a single ground ball all season. Oh, and he hit .283, the 10th-highest single-season average in team history.

Tradition, tradition: the Hops made for the playoffs for the 6th straight year—the first NWL team ever to do so.

More great prospects: Hops OF Kristian Robinson was the best player in the NWL from Opening Day until his promotion on August 3rd. Robinson hit .319 in 44 games with nine home runs and 14 steals, and played an excellent center and right field. And fleet-footed 2019 first-round draft choice Corbin Carroll finished the season with the Hops, hitting .326 with four triples in 11 games.

Peguero double snaps streak: Dating to 2016, the Hops had lost six straight playoff games, and they were on their way to a seventh in game one against Salem-Keizer. The Hops pitching duo of Tyler Holton (6 ip) and Nick Snyder (3 ip) allowed just one baserunner the entire game—a 4th-inning home run by Yorlis Rodriguez—but it looked like it might be enough to beat the Hops... until Andy Yerzy singled home the tying run in the bottom of the eighth, and Liover Peguero doubled home the game-winner in the bottom of the ninth. (The Hops completed the sweep with a 6-3 win in Keizer the following night.)

Yerzy does it: The Hops again met Tri-City in the NWL Championship Series. In game one, Hillsboro trailed 3-1 entering the bottom of the ninth. With one out, they loaded the bases. Jesus Marriaga's sac fly made it 3-2, but the Hops were down to their last out. First baseman Andy Yerzy—who, in his second season in the NWL had struggled by his standards—yanked the most dramatic HR in club history inside the right-field foul pole for a 5-3 win.

English, Arroyo lead the way: After the Hops dropped game two of the Championship Series at home to Tri-City, the teams headed to Pasco, Wash. In game three, heavy night air contributed to the pitching's dominance—neither team advanced a runner into scoring position until the eighth inning. In the top of the eighth the Hops left a runner at third; in the bottom of the inning, the Devils left a runner at second. But in the ninth, the Hops broke through: Corbin Carroll had a two-out infield single, and then Tristin English—in what might be the second-most dramatic home run in club history—muscled one through the thick night air over the left-field fence for a 2-0 lead. In the bottom of the ninth, however, Tri-City loaded the bases with none out. RHP Mailon Arroyo came out of the bullpen and got a line-out to right, gave up an RBI ground-out to make it 2-1, and—with the tying and winning runs at second and third—battled Luke Becker for 10 pitches, striking him out on a backdoor slider to end it.

With the Hops down to their last out in game one of the NWL Championship Series, first baseman Andy Yerzy connects on perhaps the most memorable home run in team history. With two out, two on and the Hops trailing 3-2, Yerzy's blast inside the right-field foul pole sent the fans—and Yerzy's teammates—into a frenzy. The Hops would win the hard-fought series three games to two to earn the third title in the team's seven-year history.

Hops take third championship: In the fifth and deciding game of the NWL Championship Series, Tri-City took a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the first, and would have scored more in the second if not for a ball that miraculously caromed off Hops starting pitcher Connor Grammes' foot. Hillsboro followed that stroke of good fortune with an RBI double by Corbin Carroll to tie the game in the third, a go-ahead single by Ryan January in the fourth and an RBI bloop single by Tristin English in the seventh. That was plenty for the pitching quartet of Grammes (3 ip), Ryne Nelson (3 ip), Justin Garcia (2 ip) and Eduardo Herrera (1 ip). Herrera whiffed Sean Guilbe to nail down the 3-1 championship-clinching victory.

* Affiliated with the first MLB club listed 2013-14 and the second club listed 2015-19

Actually, it's even better than it looks: The Hops' .582 winning percentage includes a horrible start. The franchise began with just eight wins through their first 33 games in 2013; since game #34 on 7/18/13, Hillsboro is 301-197 (.604)!

And what about the big leagues? If Major League Baseball is included, only the Dodgers at .591 have a higher winning percentage than Hillsboro since 2013 (Cleveland is next in MLB at .564; they would be seventh overall).

Who has won the most championships? Midland (an Oakland affiliate in the Double-A Texas League) has won four championships since 2013, the only team to win more than Hillsboro. Other clubs besides the Hops to have won three titles since 2013: Durham (Triple-A International League), Jackson (Double-A Southern League), Johnson City (Rookie-level Appalachian League).

And finally: The Hops' average won-loss percentage is .582; perhaps most remarkable of all, nearly half of the teams -- 78 of 160 -- don't have a single year since 2013 at or above .582

3-Game Series Notes

Hillsboro has swept 17 three-game series—10 at home and seven on the road. The Hops have been swept seven times—four times in Hillsboro and three times on the road.

Notes on a scorecard

Because, baseball: Only once in the Hops' 555 games have they scored runs in six consecutive innings in the same game. And when did this streak occur? During the first six innings they ever played at home. Yep: June 17, 2013, the Hops opened their new park by scoring in the first six frames en route to a 12-0 win over Eugene. In no other game, home or road, have they ever scored in six straight innings.

"The mayor sneaks into a farmer's field..." No, that's not the opening line to a joke. On August 11, 2014, Zach Esquerra hit the Hops' first-ever grand slam, clear out of the ballpark at Volcanoes Stadium in Keizer. Steve Callaway—who was still a few years away from becoming mayor of Hillsboro—hopped the fence in left field and searched in the dark, finally finding the ball. He presented it to Esquerra, who insisted it remain with the Hops.

Most... to Least: The Hops set the single-game franchise record (which still stands) with 25 hits on July 5, 2017 at Salem-Keizer in a 17-2 win. The very next night, they matched the franchise low (which still stands), with just two hits at Spokane in a 2-1 loss.

If at first you succeed: The Hops have played 33 games at Everett Memorial Stadium/Funko Field in their history (2013-19), and have scored in the first inning in 16 of those 33 games... for a total of 41 runs. (It includes an eight-run first inning and a 12-run first inning.) At one point—from the 2013 to 2015 seasons—the Hops had scored in the first inning at Everett in nine straight games.

Hitter-friendly, yes... but: The ballpark in Everett is known as the most hitter-friendly park in the NWL. So it's surprising that Everett is the only team against whom the Hops have never played a game decided by 10 or more runs (home or road).

Duck, Duck: Five former Oregon Ducks drafted and signed by the Arizona Diamondbacks have played for the Hops: RHP Jimmie Sherfy (2013), SS Mark Karaviotis (2016), C Tim Susnara (2017), RHP Matt Mercer (2018) and RHP Ryne Nelson (2019). (Related note: Marissa Everett, one of the top soccer players in Oregon Ducks history, is a cousin of former Hops infielder Ryan Dobson.) On the other side of the Civil War coin, just one former Oregon State Beaver has played for the Hops: RHP Scott Schultz in 2014.

Winning the close ones: The Hops' all-time record in one-run games is an astonishing 104-59. That's about the equivalent of a major league season, and it calculates to a remarkable winning percentage of .638.

Extra, extra: Including the postseason, Hillsboro is 33-15 all-time in extra-inning games, an incredible winning percentage of .688. At home, it's even better: 23-8 (.742).

Six straight: The Hops' current streak of six straight playoff appearances is the most in the history of the NWL, which began play in 1955. Second on the list is Vancouver, with five in a row from 2010-14. (Spokane has an active streak of four straight through 2019.)

 17 innings: 1 game, 1-0 (1.000)
 19 innings: 1 game, 1-0 (1.000)

Notes:

-- The Hops won the first 10 home extra-inning games they ever played, from July 5th, 2013 through Aug. 24th, 2014. Their first home extra-inning loss came in their third season, July 2nd, 2015

-- The Hops are 8-1 in games of 12 innings or more... and it is likely there won't be many games of that length in the future, since the rule was adopted prior to the 2018 season which places a runner at second base to begin all half-innings once extra innings begin.

Hillsboro & Eugene: a great rivalry

The Hillsboro Hops and Eugene Emeralds have developed one of the best rivalries in minor league baseball, with fans frequently making the 117-mile drive to the opposing park to cheer on their team. Here is how the rivalry has developed over the years:

The Hops largely had the upper hand in the early years...

June 17, 2013: Hops beat Eugene 12-0 in the first-ever game at Ron Tonkin Field.

August 28-30, 2013: Hops enter final home series of first season in first-place tie with six games remaining. Hillsboro drops 2 of 3 to Eugene—both losses by one run—to fall a game back; the Hops finish a game out and miss playoffs.

July 20, 2014: The Hops clinch the 1st-half title in Eugene—Hillsboro's first-ever playoff berth—with a 3-2 win on the next-to-last day of the half. The Hops have a champagne celebration—good-naturedly endorsed by the Ems' front office—in the visiting clubhouse at P.K. Park.

August 30-Sept. 1, 2014: The Hops cap a 9-3 season mark against Eugene with a sweep of the Ems in Hillsboro in the final regular season series. The Hops would later win their first championship.

Sept. 4-6, 2015: With the Hops already in the playoffs as the first-half champion, the Emeralds entered the final 3 games of season at The Tonk needing ONE WIN to clinch the 2nd-half title and join Hillsboro in the South Division Series.

Eugene's front office—with approval of the Hops' front office—wheeled in a cart of champagne before Friday's first game of the series, but after 2-0 and 4-1 Hops wins, the bubbly was still unused. In the final game, the Hops led 3-2 entering the top of the 9th. Eugene put the tying run at second with one out, but diving plays by 1B Trevor Mitsui and RF Stephen Dezzi end the game and Eugene's season. The still-wrapped champagne was wheeled back to the car for the trip back to Eugene, and the Hops later won their 2nd-straight title.

But more recently, the tables have turned in a BIG way...

Sept. 7-9, 2016: The Hops and Ems squared off in the postseason for the first time ever; Eugene had won both halves with a 54-22 record, but the Hops had swept a three-game series to end the season. Then, Hillsboro took Game One of the best-of-three South Division Series at Ron Tonkin Field when Jose Queliz hit a walkoff single in the 10th. Eugene, however, took game two at home 6-2 to force a deciding third game. In the most excruciating loss in Hops franchise history, Hillsboro went 0-for-15 with runners in scoring position and lost 2-1. The Ems advanced to the NWL Championship Series, where they beat Everett to win their first outright NWL title in 41 years. Some people predicted that the end of the Ems' drought meant their parent club, the Cubs, would break their curse. Indeed, 50 days after Eugene wins their title, the Cubs won the World Series for the first time in 108 years.

Sept 6-7, 2017: The two clubs met for the second consecutive year in the South Division Series. This time Hillsboro won both halves... and yet Eugene swept the series in two games. The Ems took game one in Eugene 3-2. Game two in Hillsboro was tied 4-4 entering the ninth, but Eugene exploded for six runs and a 10-4 win.

Sept 5-6, 2018: The Hops won both halves in the South, and though Eugene had the worst overall record in the NWL, the Ems snuck into the playoffs by finishing second in the South in the second half. Yep, David beat Goliath: Eugene swept the Hops again with a pair of 3-2 wins, with the go-ahead run in game one scoring on a balk. The Ems won the NWL title with a three-game sweep of Spokane... and the series-ending run scored on another balk.

Losing streak: The Hops have an existing six-game postseason losing streak to Eugene—with those six losses being by scores of 6-2, 2-1, 3-2, 10-4 (in a game tied 4-4 entering the 9th), 3-2 and 3-2.

RISPy business: In their current six-game playoff losing streak to Eugene, the Hops are an incredible 3-for-57 with runners in scoring position. That's a batting average of .053.

Pinch-Hit History

Through the end of the 2019 season, Hops pinch-hitters are 14-for-85 all-time—a .165 batting average—with no single player collecting more than one pinch-hit. Hillsboro has never had a pinch-hit HR.

Complete list of Hops pinch-hits:

7/02/13: double, Yogey Perez-Ramos, at Eugene
8/30/13: single, Denver Chavez, home vs. Eugene

Back-To-Back Jacks

The Hops have had back-to-back home runs 10 times in their seven-year history:

8/02/14: Steve Nyisztor and Kevin Cron, at Spokane
8/16/14: Stryker Trahan and Jordan Parr, at Eugene
8/16/15: Trevor Mitsui and Stryker Trahan, home vs. Vancouver
8/17/15: Josh Anderson and Trevor Mitsui, at Salem-Keizer
8/28/16: Josh Anderson (grand slam) & Luke Lowery, hm vs. Boi
6/15/17: Billy Endris and Eudy Ramos, at Everett
7/02/18: Francis Martinez and Ryan Tufts, home vs. Spokane
7/15/18: Jake McCarthy and Francis Martinez, home vs. Tri-City
8/19/18: Jorge Perez and Zack Jones, at Salem-Keizer
8/29/18: Andy Yerzy and Francis Martinez, at Boise

-- Twice the Hops have had three home runs in an inning (though never three in a row): August 2nd, 2014 when Steve Nyisztor, Kevin Cron and Pedro Ruiz all went yard in the top of the first inning at Everett; and August 19, 2018 when Jorge Perez, Zack Jones and Andy Yerzy all went deep in the top of the 7th at Salem-Keizer

-- When Billy Endris and Eudy Ramos hit back-to-back home runs at Everett on June 15, 2017, they came in the top of the first inning on Opening Night. Endris and Ramos were the second and third batters of the entire season. It would be the only time all year the Hops went back-to-back.

Four- and Five-Hit Games

A Hops player has had at least four hits in a game on 38 separate occasions, including six five-hit games. (By contrast, no opposing player has ever had five hits in a game against the Hops.)

7/02/19, 4x5, Steven Leyton at Vancouver
7/12/19, 4x4, Kristian Robinson at Boise

Notes:

-- Luke Lowery and Pavin Smith have the most 4+ hit games with three each; others with two occurrences are Camden Duzenack, Zach Nehrir, Steve Nyisztor, Eudy Ramos, Yan Sanchez, Elvin Soto, Daulton Varsho and Andy Yerzy

-- Zach Nehrir had four hits in back-to-back games—the first two home games of the 2015 season.

-- Dansby Swanson was 5-for-5 when he came to bat in the top of the 9th inning on 9/3/15 at Boise, with a chance to tie the NWL record of six hits in a game. Alas, he struck out in his final at-bat.

8/1/17: Hops Host NWL-Pioneer League All-Star Game

16 cities & 14 MLB organizations represented in multi-day celebration of professional baseball

On August 1st, 2017, the Hillsboro Hops set the standard as host of the annual Northwest League-Pioneer League All-Star Game, the midsummer classic featuring the best players from the two leagues.

- The game capped a multi-day celebration that included a fan-fest and a home run derby won by Boise's Daniel Jipping, who beat Idaho Falls' Robby Rinn in the final.
- ESPN's Neil Everett served as on-field announcer for the home run derby.
- The Northwest League won the All-Star Game 5-4. After trailing 4-0, the NWL came from behind.
- All nine runs were scored in two half-innings—the Pioneer League plated four runs in the top of the second, and the NWL responded with five in the bottom of the fifth. The tying and go-ahead runs came home on bases-loaded walks drawn by Daulton Varsho of the Hops and Steven Linkous of the Boise Hawks.
- Luis Asuncion of Tri-City (in the Padres organization) was named the game's Most Valuable Player in a tough decision—no single NWL player had more than one hit, run scored or RBI. Asuncion, who drove home the first run of the fifth inning with an opposite-field double, had the NWL's only extra-base hit.
- Six Hops appeared in the game, more than any other club: third baseman Eudy Ramos and first baseman Pavin Smith were starters, while shortstop Camden Duzenack and catcher Daulton Varsho entered in the bottom of the fifth; and pitchers Riley Smith and Erbert Gonzalez pitched in relief. Pitcher Tyler Keele was selected and in uniform, but did not pitch. Hops manager Shawn Roof, and coaches Mike Parrott, Franklin Stubbs, Jorge Cortes and Ben Petrick served as the NWL coaching staff.
- Idaho Falls (Royals organization) had the second-most players appear in the game, with five.

Hops, and only Hops:

Not including players from 2019 (many of whose careers are still in progress) four players spent their entire professional careers with the Hillsboro Hops... without ever playing for another team: outfielder Taylor Ratliff (2013-14, 116 games), outfielder Jordan Parr (2013-14, 108 games), infielder Justin Gonzalez (2014, 40 games) and infielder Nate Robertson (2014-15, 111 games). Interestingly, all made significant impacts on the Hops' championship team in 2014, and Robertson was a big part of two championship clubs (2014 and 2015). Ratliff, Robertson and Parr are currently #2, #3 and #4 on the Hops' all-time games played lists.

In addition, six other players have spent time in the independent minor leagues, but their only action with a major-league affiliated club came with Hillsboro: infielder Randy McCurry, catcher Nate Irving, infielder Steve Nyisztor, and pitchers Dustin Loggins, Taylor Wright and Brian Christian.
