ROBERT PERA

chairman and controlling owner

Robert Pera has served as Chairman and Controlling Owner of the Grizzlies since 2012. Pera has made significant investments into the Grizzlies, and under his stewardship, the organization has experienced unprecedented success, including a club-record 56-win season and the club's first appearance in the Western Conference Finals. The Grizzlies have also won more playoff games during Pera's tenure than in the 17 seasons prior. More importantly, Pera has stayed true to his commitment to "make a positive and meaningful difference in the community," becoming a strong supporter of the Grizzlies Foundation. Understanding the power of sport to transform lives, particularly those of children at risk, the Grizzlies Foundation has invested significantly in: increasing the number of high school graduates prepared for success in college and the workforce; enabling positive adult mentors to engage in youth mentoring and development; and ensuring that all Memphians have access to healthy exercise spaces. The Grizzlies are the first professional sports team ever to receive the prestigious President's Council on Fitness, Sports and Nutrition Award in recognition of exemplary service to the broader community.

Pera, who grew up in Silicon Valley and established his first computer services company at the age of 16, founded Ubiquiti Inc., a next-generation, global communications technology company, with $30,000 of his personal savings. Pera saw an opportunity to enhance existing 802.11 WiFi technology such that it could be used to bring the internet to underserved areas (e.g., rural areas and developing regions) lacking the infrastructure to access the internet through traditional avenues. Ubiquiti has since successfully expanded into new market segments (e.g., enterprise-class networking equipment and consumer electronics). Under Pera's leadership, Ubiquiti has made meaningful progress towards closing the digital divide. Ubiquiti's community of grass roots operators have connected millions of people to the Internet in some of the most remote regions in the world.

Pera continues to serve as Ubiquiti's Chief Executive Officer and Chairman, roles for which he does not receive any equity compensation. Pera has received numerous accolades and widespread media recognition, including Top 10 "Young and Powerful CEOs under 40" and Top 10 "Youngest Billionaires in the World." Pera earned a Bachelor of Arts in Japanese Language, a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering and a Master of Science in Electrical Engineering, all from the University of California, San Diego. Upon graduating, he accepted a position as a hardware engineer at Apple where he worked until leaving to launch Ubiquiti.

JASON WEXLER

Jason Wexler enters his seventh season with the Memphis Grizzlies and FedExForum and second as President. Wexler has leadership responsibility for Business Operations and Basketball Operations. Wexler was previously President of Business Operations and joined the organization as Chief Operating Officer in April 2013.

Prior to the Grizzlies, he served as President of the Henry Turley Company where he was responsible for spearheading efforts to realize compelling city center development initiatives and managing the day-to-day operations of a full service real estate firm. Before that, Wexler founded the real estate development and investment firm Greenhat Partners LLC, and was a partner in the Memphis law firm of Hanover, Walsh, Jalenak and Blair, PLLC. The recipient of the 2012 Downtown Vision Award for individual achievement by the Downtown Memphis Commission, Wexler currently serves on the Board of Directors for Neighborhood Preservation, Inc., the Memphis Brand Initiative, the Memphis River Parks Partnership and the Grizzlies Foundation.

Wexler graduated from the University of Virginia with a Bachelor of Science in Architecture and from Columbia Law School.

general manager & executive vice president of basketball operations

Zachary Z. Kleiman, General Manager & Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations, enters his sixth season with the Memphis Grizzlies. As the Grizzlies' lead basketball operations executive and personnel decision-maker, Kleiman oversees and manages all basketball matters, including professional and amateur scouting, draft preparations, player acquisitions, salary cap management, team operations and sports medicine programming.

Shortly after his promotion to lead Basketball Operations in April 2019, Kleiman hired Taylor Jenkins as head coach and acquired Ja Morant and Brandon Clarke in the 2019 NBA Draft. Morant, the 2019-20 NBA Rookie of the Year, and Clarke were each named to the 2019-20 NBA All-Rookie First Team, and the duo represented the Grizzlies alongside 2018-19 NBA All-Rookie First Team selection Jaren Jackson Jr. at the NBA Rising Stars as part of NBA All-Star Weekend 2020.

Kleiman served the Grizzlies as Assistant General Manager during the 2018-19 season. In this role, he participated in strategic efforts of the front office (including those related to salary cap management and the Collective Bargaining Agreement), handled various negotiations on behalf of the group and served as the team's primary liaison to the NBA on basketball operations-related matters.

Kleiman joined the organization in 2015 as the team's in-house legal counsel and worked in this capacity in addition to his responsibilities with the basketball operations department. In his role as team counsel, he was responsible for drafting, reviewing and negotiating agreements and providing guidance in connection with a broad range of business and basketball matters.

Prior to joining the Grizzlies, Kleiman practiced law at Proskauer Rose LLP, an international law firm based in New York. At Proskauer, Kleiman represented clients in the sports industry – including the National Basketball Association, Major League Soccer, Major League Baseball and the Buffalo Bills – in connection with a wide array of corporate matters, including team acquisitions and sales, financings, media rights, sponsorships and other commercial transactions.

Kleiman began his career in professional sports with internships with the then-Charlotte Bobcats (Basketball Operations), Oakland Raiders (Legal), Los Angeles Lakers (Public Relations) and New York Knicks (Basketball Operations). Kleiman earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Southern California and his J.D. from the Duke University School of Law.

Brady Graber enters his second season with the Memphis Grizzlies organization and his first as General Manager of the Memphis Hustle. Graber oversees all basketball decisions related to the Grizzlies' official NBA G League affiliate. Prior to receiving his current role, Graber served as Assistant General Manager for the Memphis Hustle during the 2019-20 season.

Prior to joining the Grizzlies front office, Graber spent one season as basketball operations manager for the Philadelphia 76ers' NBA G League affiliate Delaware Blue Coats. Prior to his time with Delaware, he served as a Basketball Operations Assistant and interned for the Charlotte Hornets.

The Sioux Falls, S.D., native holds a Bachelor of Science in Economics from Duke University, where he previously served as an Assistant Video Coordinator for the men's basketball program.

Jason March enters his second season as head coach of the Memphis Hustle and his 11th overall with the Memphis Grizzlies organization. March guided the Grizzlies' NBA G League affiliate to a 26-15 record during the 2019-20 season, his first on the Hustle's sidelines.

March previously served nine seasons (2007-16) with the Grizzlies, including the final three seasons as an assistant coach and advance scout. During his first stint in Memphis, March coached the Grizzlies' summer league team to the championship at the 2015 Orlando Pro Summer League. He also worked in the video department, rising to director of basketball information and technologies.

The Florida native worked three seasons (2016-19) as an assistant coach with the Sacramento Kings and his first two NBA seasons (2005-07) as an assistant video coordinator with the Phoenix Suns.

A graduate of Florida State University, March resides in Olive Branch, Miss. with his wife Barkley and two children, Easton and Oakley.

coordinator of basketball operations

Sunny Ahluwalia enters his second season with the Memphis Grizzlies organization and his first as Coordinator of Basketball Operations. Prior to receiving his current role, Ahluwalia served as a Basketball Operations Assistant for the Grizzlies during the 2019-20 season. Before joining the Grizzlies front office, Ahluwalia served as a Video Coordinator and Performance Analyst for Canada Basketball.

Ahluwalia holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Simon Fraser University. Originally from Surrey, British Columbia, Canada, Ahluwalia currently resides in Midtown Memphis.

basketball operations assistant

Tommy Eames enters his second season with the Memphis Grizzlies organization as a Basketball Operations Assistant. Before joining the Grizzlies front office, Eames served as the Basketball Program Assistant at Wake Forest University for three seasons. Eames also interned with the Charlotte Hornets Front Office in 2018.

Eames holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management from Wake Forest University. Originally a native of Mansfield, Massachusetts, Eames currently resides on Downtown Memphis.

BRETT BURMAN

With an array of experiences at both the professional and collegiate levels, Brett Burman enters his fourth season on the Hustle's staff after spending two seasons (2015-17) on Tom Crean's staff at Indiana University as director of basketball operations. He spent the previous season as the director of operations at the University of Tulsa.

A Miami, Fla., native and graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Burman spent two years with the Detroit Pistons' coaching staff. He also worked as the video coordinator at Hofstra University, served as a graduate assistant at the University of Miami, and has trained prospective NBA players in pre-draft workouts. With the Pistons, he logged film of opponents and constructed video scouting reports, assisted on the court with player development and assisted Piston players while they participated with the NBA G League.

He served as the basketball video coordinator at Hofstra during the 2011-12 season, coordinating film breakdown and scouting reports, and preparing scouting videos for opponents. He also facilitated film exchange and selfscouting, and assisted the coaching staff with recruiting, budget and travel planning.

From 2009-11, Burman was a graduate assistant at the University of Miami. He was responsible for video editing and opponent scouting, as well as the offseason player development program. He assisted with basketball operations, including travel, budget and academics.

Burman also spent two summers (2007-08) at the Abunassar Impact Basketball Camp, in Las Vegas, teaching basketball skills to players of all ages as well as working with college players during NBA pre-draft workouts. Burman assisted with player development, pre-draft training, daily operations, travel and scheduling.

Burman received his bachelor's degree in communication from the University of Wisconsin in 2009. He married the former Caroline Underwood in May 2015.

ALEX LLOYD

assistant coach

Alex Lloyd, a Burlington, Vt., native, enters his third season as assistant coach for the Hustle. Lloyd came to Memphis after four seasons with Texas A&M University, finishing his time there as the director of scouting and player development.

Lloyd served as an assistant coach alongside Grizzlies head coach Taylor Jenkins and under Grizzlies assistant coach and former Hustle head coach Brad Jones for three seasons with the Austin Toros, including the team's championship run in 2012. Lloyd also boasts strong NBA ties, serving as a player development assistant and scout for the Atlanta Hawks from 2012-14, and under multiple roles for the San Antonio Spurs from 2006-09.

Lloyd received his bachelor's degree in politics from Pomona College, where he was the 2005 SCIAC Player of the Year in 2006 before going on to receive his master's of education in 2008.

CARLDELL "SQUEAKY" JOHNSON

assistant coach

Carldell 'Squeaky' Johnson enjoyed a 10-year professional playing career, including a call-up to play for his hometown New Orleans Hornets during the 2011-12 season. He played six seasons in the NBA G League with the Austin Toros (2007-14), which included time under Taylor Jenkins, Brad Jones and Alex Lloyd.

Johnson earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from UAB and also played professionally in Belgium, Mexico, Mongolia and Venezuela. In his senior season at UAB in 2005-06, Johnson was named First Team All-Conference USA and Defensive Player of the Year while helping the Blazers to the Sweet 16.

Johnson is also the author of "My Faith Kept Me Going," which was used to mentor troubled youth in the inner city of Houston and New Orleans through non-profit organization GLORY (God Love Our Righteous Youth).

MICHAEL JOINER

Michael Joiner spent five seasons playing professionally in the NBA G League (2005-06, 07-11), including two with the Austin Toros (2009-11) alongside Taylor Jenkins, Carldell 'Squeaky' Johnson, Brad Jones and Alex Lloyd. The Fayetteville, N.C. native played for four seasons at Florida State University (2000-04) while March was on staff as a student manager. He also played professionally in the United Kingdom, Netherlands, New Zealand, Australia, China, and Japan until 2014.

Joiner, who started regularly during his four years with the Seminoles while earning his bachelor's degree in political science, and during his time in the NBA G League, was awarded his master's degree in Human Resources from University of Phoenix. Recently, he has worked out many players with his development program called Born2Win Sports Academy in Fayetteville, N.C., while assisting the community in helping develop many basketball programs in his hometown and surrounding areas.

head athletic trainer

Joseph Pettitt enters his fourth season with the Hustle. Additionally, Pettitt assists the Memphis Grizzlies medical staff during postseason and training camp.

Prior to joining the organization, he served as an athletic trainer through OrthoMemphis where he provided services at a local high school for over 500 student-athletes and also served as an athletic trainer with Mosaic Life Care in Missouri and as an assistant athletic trainer at Barton Community College in Kansas from 2012-14.

Pettitt is a veteran of the United States military, serving in the United States Army for seven years as an intelligence analyst and earned the rank of Sergeant early in his military career. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Northern Illinois University in 2012 and resides in Memphis with his wife, Jessica, and son Wesley (11).

BUSINESS OPERATIONS

director, business operations

MaKinzie Foos enters her 10th season with the Memphis Grizzlies organization and third as director of business operations with the Memphis Hustle, where she manages all day-to-day aspects of the Hustle's business operations, after recently being promoted from senior ticket sales manager for the Grizzlies and Hustle.

In December of 2011, Foos moved to Memphis to work as a group sales account executive for the Memphis Grizzlies before being promoted to ticket sales manager in June of 2014. Foos, a native of Louisville, Ky., earned her Bachelor of Science in Marketing and Management from the University of Kentucky in 2007.

Before joining the Grizzlies, Foos started her career in the sports industry as a Graduate Assistant for Marketing & Promotions with the Arkansas State Athletic Department, while also earning her masters of business administration from the Arkansas State College of Business. Upon her graduation in December of 2009, she was promoted to the Director of Marketing where she was responsible for the development and execution of marketing strategy for the athletic department.

Personal

Stockton is the son of John and Nada Stockton. His father played 19 years for the Utah Jazz and entered the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 2009. His great-grandfather, Houston Stockton, played football for Gonzaga from 1922 to 1924, going undefeated his senior year of 1924 as he earned All-America honorable mention honors. His eldest brother, Houston Jr., played football for University of Montana, and older brother, Michael, currently plays professionally. Stockton is eligible for a Croatian passport, because his mother Nada is Croatian.

LANDERS CENTER

The Hustle will play 24 home games at Landers Center in Southaven, Miss., this season. The facility is a multi-functional arena capable of hosting a wide variety of events each year.

The arena contains two Daktronics HD video-wall units and a state of the art sound and video system, reasonable concession prices, an ample amount of restrooms, and comfortable seating that will provide all guests an ideal surrounding to watch an event.

Landers Center complex features three unique venues within the edifice. First, there is a 10,000-seat arena where big names such as Motley Crue, Fantasia, Thomas Rhett, Mary J Blige and Eric Church's Holdin' My Own tour have packed the house with adoring fans in a festive mood.

Next, Landers Center contains a 17,000-square foot convention center that hosts over 300 events annually, including trade shows, weddings, banquets, and galas. The convention center has a 1,200-banquet style guest capacity. Landers Center also has a full service, in-house banquet, catering, and concession department.

Finally, the Landers Center Theatre is the site of movies, musicals, and community-based theatrical performances. The theatre, which can seat 404 guests, has hosted memorable shows such as The Little Mermaid, Oklahoma, Meet Me in St. Louis and The Diary of Anne Frank all put on locally by DeSoto Family Theater.

Arguably one of the busiest entertainment venues in the region, Landers Center administrators never let their plethora of events keep the public from being fully informed about happenings at the facility. Landers Center offers a backstage pass program which provides news, updates, and emails about upcoming shows and events of interest. Subscribers can register on the center's website and become privy to exclusive information.

Three tenants call Landers Center home including the Hustle, the Mid-South Fair and the DeSoto Family Theatre.

G LEAGUE

HISTORY

NBA G LEAGUE

The NBA Gatorade League, or NBA G League, is the NBA's official minor league, preparing players, coaches, officials, trainers and front office staff for the NBA while acting as the league's research and development laboratory.

Beginning with the 2017-18 season, the NBA Development League (NBA D-League) was renamed the NBA G League as part of a multiyear expanded partnership between the NBA and Gatorade. This marks the first time a U.S. professional sports league has named an entitlement partner.

The NBA G League played its inaugural season in 2001-02 as the National Basketball Development League, with eight teams based primarily in the Southeastern United States. Since its inception, the league has grown to 28 teams, featuring a reach stretching from Greater Los Angeles to Maine. Each team represents a single affiliation with a parent NBA club.

At the start of the 2019-20 season, an all-time high of 42 percent of players on 2019-20 NBA start-of-season rosters have NBA G League experience. The 208 players break the previous mark of 198 that was set last season. Additionally, every NBA team has at least three NBA G League veterans on its start of season roster. More than half of NBA teams (18/30) have at least seven NBA G League veterans on their start of season rosters.

nba g league and hustle faqs

How many games are in an NBA G League season?

This season teams will play 15 regular season games with the top eight teams advancing to a single elimination playoff.

Where do the Hustle practice?

The team has a permanent and dedicated locker room and basketball operations office at FedExForum in Memphis. They will share the Built Ford Tough Training Facility with the Grizzlies along with the weight room and other training amenities. This season the Hustle will practice at ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort near Orlando. .

Who will the Hustle play?

The team will compete in the NBA G League single-site in Orlando, Fla. The Grizzlies will play 17 NBA G League teams and NBA G League Ignite.

How can I watch the games?

All fans are encouraged to watch the live action of all Memphis Hustle home games at the Landers Center by purchasing tickets. All NBA G League games, with the exception of those that are televised nationally, are streamed live on Facebook Live. Log on to www.facebook.com/memphishustle or www.facebook.com/NBAGLeague before tip-off or find the link via the game page on memphishustle.com or gleague.nba.com.

How can i follow the team online?

You can follow the team @memphishustle on Twitter, Instagram and Facebook or online at memphishustle.com.

Who owns the team?

The Memphis Grizzlies.

Will Grizzlies players regularly play on the team?

The NBA G League provides an excellent avenue for young players to gain valuable experience. Ten players on the current Grizzlies roster have G League experience, and operating our own G League franchise will provide even more opportunities for our younger players to continue developing their skills. All NBA players are eligible to be assigned to the NBA G League, with players having more than three years of NBA experience needing to consent to the assignment.

Where do NBA G League players come from?

There are 10 different paths a player can take to the NBA G League:

- NBA teams can assign players to their NBA G League affiliate and recall them at any time.
- NBA teams can sign players with four years of service or fewer to two-way contracts, allowing them to retain their rights while the player spends the bulk of the season in the NBA G League.
- NBA teams can draft players and sign them to NBA G League contracts, thus retaining their rights through the "Draft Rights Player" rule.
- NBA teams can designate up to four players that they cut during training camp as "affiliate players," meaning those players will join that team's NBA G League affiliate (should the players choose to sign into the NBA G League). These players are signed under contract with the league rather than the team, however, meaning they are technically free agents who can be called up to any of the 30 NBA teams.
- NBA G League teams hold local tryouts each offseason and can invite up to five players from these tryouts to their training camps.
- The NBA G League holds a draft every year consisting of nearly 200 players who have signed contracts with the league. In 2016, the draft consisted of six rounds.
- Players who return to the NBA G League are, by rule, re-acquired by the teams that they played for within the last two seasons (Returning Players).
- Once the NBA G League season begins, players who sign NBA G League contracts are placed into a rotating waiver pool so that teams can claim them.
- If a player from high school, college or overseas enters the NBA G League without ever having declared for the NBA Draft, he will also join the waiver pool. That player remains NBA Draft-eligible but is not eligible to be called up to the NBA.

nba g league and hustle faqs

- Select Contracts will be available beginning with the 2019-20 season to elite prospects who are eligible to play in the NBA G League but not yet eligible for the NBA, as part of a comprehensive professional path. The contracts, which will include robust programmatic opportunities for development, are for elite players who are at least 18 years old and will pay $125,000 for the five-month season.

When a new franchise joins the league, an expansion draft is held in which the new team selects 16 players from a pool of unprotected players among the league's other teams. The expansion team will then hold that player's NBA G League rights for two seasons. Each returning team can protect up to 12 of its players from being selected.

Who is eligible to be drafted?

The league signs 100+ players each year to join the pool of draft-eligible prospects. They include college players who went undrafted in the NBA Draft, international prospects, and players who were recently waived by NBA teams following training camp. Players must be 18 years old to be eligible for the NBA G League Draft, as opposed to the NBA's age minimum of 19.

What is the value in owning/operating an NBA G League team?

Operating our own team gives up a valuable platform for developing players, coaches and even front office personnel. The team also gives us another vehicle to connect with the many passionate basketball fans across the region.

How many teams make the playoffs?

This season the eight teams with the best record following the regular season will make the single-elimination playoff tournament.

How many players are on an NBA G League roster?

There are a minimum of 10 players on rosters, with two additional spots for players placed on the inactive/injury list. A team's active roster may expand to up to 13 players if its parent club assigns players from the NBA roster.

How do NBA G League contracts work?

NBA G League players sign standard one-year contracts with the league, not individual teams, according to three different salary scales. (This excludes players on assignment from the NBA, who remain under NBA contract.)

Beginning in the 2017 offseason, NBA rosters expanded from 15 to 17 players with the addition of two spots for players under "Two-Way Contracts."

NBA teams may have up to two players under NBA Two-Way Contracts who will spend the bulk of the season in the NBA G League and not more than 45 days with their NBA team. Two-Way players are paid a corresponding daily amount based on the number of days they play in each league. Only players with four or fewer years of NBA service are able to sign Two-Way Contracts, which can be for either one or two seasons.

How can I try out for the NBA G League?

The league holds a National Tryout once each year. Participants must fill out an application and make a $350 online payment. The event is limited to 220 players, and between 25 and 40 typically sign contracts and become eligible for the NBA G League Draft. Four players from the NBA G League National Tryout have gone on to reach the NBA: Dennis Horner (Nets), Dwight Buycks (Raptors, Lakers, Pistons), Shaq Harrison (Suns) and Jaylen Morris (Hawks).

Additionally, each NBA G League team holds its own local tryout(s) prior to the start of the season and can invite up to five of the participants to its preseason training camp.

Is there an open tryout for the team?

This season's tryouts have already taken place. Tryouts for next season will be announced at a later date. All applicants must be eligible to play in the NBA G League and complete the required paperwork.

HISTORY

g league and hustle faq

What is a “Select Contract” and the professional path?

The NBA G League announced a Select Contract as part of a comprehensive professional path that will be available, beginning with the 2020-21 season, to elite prospects who are eligible to play in the NBA G League but not yet eligible for the NBA. The contracts, which will include robust programmatic opportunities for development, are for elite players who are at least 18 years old.

Can you explain two-way contracts for the NBA G League?

Beginning in the 2017 offseason, NBA rosters expanded from 15 to 17 players with the addition of two spots for players under “Two-Way Contracts.”

NBA teams may have up to two players under NBA Two-Way Contracts who will spend the bulk of the season in the NBA G League and not more than 45 days with their NBA team. Two-Way players are paid a corresponding daily amount based on the number of days they play in each league. Only players with four or fewer years of NBA service are able to sign Two-Way Contracts, which can be for either one or two seasons.

Do player signed to two-way contracts count toward the 20-player maximum allowed for NBA training camps?

Yes.

Does a Two-Way Contract Count Against the NBA Team’s Salary Cap?

No. Teams do not need cap room to sign a two-way player.

Can NBA Teams Without A G League Affiliate Utilize Two-Way Contracts?

Yes. The two teams without a G League affiliate—Portland Trail Blazers and Denver Nuggets—can still sign players to two-way contracts. When they assign them to the G League they will use the flex assignment rule.

Flex Assignment Rule—Upon receipt of an assignment from an independent NBA team, the NBA G League will identify any NBA G League team willing to accept the assigned player. The assigning independent NBA team will then choose the destination for assignment between those teams. If no NBA G League team is willing to accept the assigned player, he will be assigned to one of the hybrid affiliate teams pursuant to a lottery.

Can Other NBA Teams Call Up Players on Two-Way Contracts?

No. Players on two-way contracts have their NBA rights owned by the team they signed that contract with.

What Is The Maximum Amount Of Players on Two-Way Contracts One Team Can Have?

Two. Each team can have a maximum of two players on a two-way contract at any one point in time.

HISTORY

2019-20 quick facts

- Jason March returned to the Grizzlies organization as the Head Coach of the Memphis Hustle on Aug. 5, 2019 following three seasons as an assistant coach for the Sacramento Kings. The Florida State University graduate had previously worked nine seasons in Memphis (2007-16), including three seasons as an assistant coach and advance scout for the Grizzlies. He served as the head coach of the Grizzlies' summer league team that captured the championship at the 2015 Orlando Pro Summer League.
- The Hustle finished its third season with a 26-15 record (.634), which was fifth best in the NBA G League. Memphis placed second in the Western Conference and first in the Midwest Division.
- Grizzlies players Bruno Caboclo, Marko Guduric, Josh Jackson and De'Anthony Melton all spent assignments with the Hustle during the 2019-20 season.
- Caboclo averaged 11.5 points, 4.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game in two appearances. Guduric appeared in one game for the Hustle, combining for 20 points, three rebounds and three assists vs. the Santa Cruz Warriors on Jan. 13. Jackson was named to the Western Conference Midseason All-NBA G League Team, appearing in 26 games for the Hustle, averaging 20.4 points, 7.5 rebounds and 4.3 assists in 31.2 minutes per game. Melton averaged 17 points, 7.0 rebounds and 5.5 assists in two appearances with the Hustle.
- Memphis Hustle head coach Jason March was named the NBA G League Coach of the Month for November. In his first month as a head coach, March led the Hustle to a league-best 8-0 record, tying for the second-most wins to start a season in league history. The team won its games by an average of 14.3 points per game and won all but one by double digits.
- The Hustle began the 2019-20 season 10-0, becoming the only team in G League history to play 10 games before taking their first loss.
- On Jan. 17 vs. South Bay, the Hustle scored a season-high 152 points, led by Dusty Hannahs with 35 points on 7-of-9 shooting from 3-point range.
- The Hustle led all of the NBA G League during the 2019-20 with a 118.4 offensive rating.
- Dusty Hannahs led the hustle in scoring, averaging 21.4 points per game on 46.9 percent shooting. Hannahs was named to the Western Conference Midseason All-NBA G League Team and to the All-NBA G League Third Team. Hannahs signed a 10-day contract with the Memphis Grizzlies on Feb. 21.
- Jarrod Uthoff was named to the All-NBA G League First Team after averaging 19.0 points, 10.7 rebounds and 3.1 assists in 34 appearances. Uthoff signed a 10-day contract with the Memphis Grizzlies on Feb. 27.
- Hustle Guard Matt Mooney signed a two-way contract with Cleveland Cavaliers on Jan. 15, before making his NBA Debut on Jan. 20 vs. the New York Knicks.
- Grizzlies two-way player Yuta Watanabe appeared in 22 games for the Hustle, averaging 17.2 points, 6.0 rebounds and 1.9 assists while being named to the Western Conference Midseason All-NBA G League Team.

NBA G LEAGUE

HISTORY

history of grizzlies g league affiliation

On May 6, 2014, the Memphis Grizzlies and Iowa Energy entered into a single-affiliation partnership. At the time, Memphis became the 14th NBA team to have a one-on-one affiliation with an NBA G League team.

At the end of the 2016-17 season, the Grizzlies finished the third and final season of a hybrid partnership with the Energy, wherein Memphis controlled the basketball decisions while Iowa team ownership managed business and community operations. During the partnership, the Grizzlies assigned eight total players for development or rehabilitation, including current Grizzlies players Wade Baldwin IV, Deyonta Davis, James Ennis III, Jarell Martin and Wayne Selden Jr. In total, eight players on the Grizzlies' 2017 playoff roster had NBA G League experience, while assistant coach Nick Van Exel served as an NBA G League head coach during the 2015-16 season (Texas Legends). The Grizzlies opening night roster for the 2017-18 season also featured seven players with prior NBA G League experience.

The Grizzlies' partnership with the Energy became a critical part of the team's player development initiatives. In 2016-17, the Grizzlies suited up former Energy standouts Ennis III, Andrew Harrison, Martin and Selden Jr. Ennis played 24 games with Iowa during the 2015-16 season, respectively, before becoming regular rotation player for the Grizzlies during the 2016-17 season and starting 28 games. Harrison, a 2015 second round pick of the Phoenix Suns whose draft rights were acquired by Memphis, signed a multi-year contract with the Grizzlies prior to the 2016-17 season after showing continued improvement in 46 games as a member of the Energy in 2015-16. This season, Harrison averaged 5.9 points, 1.9 rebounds and 2.8 assists in 72 games (18 starts), helped the Grizzlies to a 7-2 record in Mike Conley's absence (lower back injury) and played a key role in the team's Western Conference first round series against the San Antonio Spurs. Martin has appeared in spurts over the last two seasons with the Energy, while also appearing in 69 games over that span with the Grizzlies. Selden spent 35 games with Iowa last season after a training camp with the Grizzlies. After a 10-day contract with the New Orleans Pelicans, Selden signed a multi-year contract with the Grizzlies and was a large contributor during the 2017 NBA Playoffs. Selden has since re-signed with the Grizzlies. 2016 Grizzlies draft picks Baldwin IV and Deyonta Davis also spent time with the Energy during the 2016-17 season.

On January 24, 2017, the Memphis Grizzlies and the NBA G League announced that the Grizzlies acquired the right to own and operate an expansion team that would begin play for the 2017-18 season. With the purchase, the Grizzlies became the 19th NBA team to own and operate a NBA G League affiliate, while the NBA G League grows to 26 teams. It was announced the team would play at Landers Center in Southaven, Miss., cutting the distance between the Grizzlies and its affiliate from nearly 500 miles through the air to a mere 20 mile drive down I-55 for games and allowing the team to practice and use Grizzlies facilities. The Hustle practice mainly at the Built Ford Tough Training Facility at FedExForum and play 24 home games at the 8,362-seat Landers Center.
