ABOUT THE NBA D-LEAGUE & LOS ANGELES D-FENDERS

Now entering its 11th season, the NBA Development League - the NBA's minor league established to develop talent across all disciplines for the NBA - is designed to help grow the sport of basketball both domestically and internationally by offering NBA-quality basketball and fun, family entertainment at affordable prices.

In July 2006, the Los Angeles Lakers became the first NBA franchise to own its own NBA Development League team. Starting in the 2006-07 season, the Los Angeles D-Fenders franchise began playing its home games either prior to or following Lakers home games at STAPLES Center and later added home games to the schedule at the Lakers practice facility, Toyota Sports Center.

On three separate occasions during the D-Fenders inaugural season, the Lakers utilized the minor league affiliate by assigning rookie guard Jordan Farmar to the team and recalling him following each game. What's further, the Lakers made history on April 1, 2007 when Farmar became the first player in league history to play in an NBA and NBA D-League game in the same day. In 2007-08, Coby Karl scored five points for the Lakers February 19 versus Atlanta, becoming the 2nd player in league history to play in same-day D-League and NBA games. In 2008-09, rookie guard Sun Yue became the third Lakers player to play for the D-Fenders. With no D-League assignments in 2009-10 and a one year hiatus from the D-League in 2010-11, the D-Fenders will return to competition this season with all home games being played at Toyota Sports Center.

The D-League's assignment system with the NBA will enter its seventh season in 2011-12. In all, the league will once again feature 16 teams and now has nine teams with single affiliations with NBA teams. A proven developer of talent, 23 percent of players in the NBA at the conclusion of the 2010-11 season boasted NBA D-League experience, while the league continues to develop coaches, referees, and front office staff for the NBA and its teams. During a 2010-11 season that saw league-wide attendance total 1,125,583 fans, a 7.9% increase from the previous year, 25 NBA teams assigned 37 first- and second-year players to develop with their NBA D-League affiliates. Of those 37 players, 18 were 2009 or 2010 first-round NBA Draft picks (six lottery picks) while 45% of the players selected in the 2010 NBA Draft played in the NBA D-League last season.

OWNER/GOVERNOR

DR. JERRY BUSS

In 1979, Jerry Buss ushered in an era of success unrivaled in the history of Southern California professional sports when he acquired the Los Angeles Lakers. In what was at the time the largest ever sports transaction, Buss purchased the Lakers, the Los Angeles Kings of the NHL, The Great Western Forum and a 13,000-acre Kern County ranch in June of that year. Some 27 years later, Buss became the first NBA owner to own and operate an NBA Development League team, starting the Los Angeles D-Fenders franchise in 2006. Now embarking upon his 5th season at the helm of the D-Fenders, Buss will continue to use his D-League entity to help develop NBA talent for the Lakers while building a competitive team that has already enjoyed the success of a playoff berth in just its second year of existence.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a Bachelor's degree in Chemistry, Buss earned his Ph. D in Physical Chemistry from the University of Southern California. After a brief career in aerospace, Buss and Frank Mariani, an aerospace engineer, drew upon their scientific training to launch a career in real estate. For Buss, the venture was intended only to provide income which would enable him to pursue his love for teaching. Soon, however, the real estate firm of Mariani-Buss Associates was expanding so fast that its demands would not allow time for other professions.

Ultimately, Buss was able to parlay his original $1,000 investment in a West Los Angeles apartment building into assets that eventually enabled to him to achieve his second love, ownership of a major league sports team.

Since his entry into the NBA, Buss has initiated many innovative marketing changes including a major advertising agreement with Great Western Bank in 1988 that resulted in the Lakers' former home being named the Great Western Forum. As a result, many of his marketing strategies are emulated today by franchises across each of the major North American professional sporting leagues.

In addition to his role with the Lakers, Buss has served two terms as President of the NBA Board of Governors. Among other accomplishments, he helped launch Prime Ticket Network (now FS West/Prime Ticket) in 1985. Changing the face of sports television, Prime Ticket televised all of the Lakers home games and shortly became the nation's premier regional sports cable network. Media mogul Rupert Murdoch purchased the network in 1996, making the valuable commodity the center piece of the FOX family of regional sports networks. On October 30, 2006, Buss' pioneering spirit enabling fans to never miss a home game earned him a star on Hollywood's Walk of Fame in a ceremony attended by current Lakers players and staff, Hall-of-Famers Magic Johnson, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Jerry West and Phil Jackson, celebrities, the Honorary Mayor of Hollywood Johnny Grant, Lakers fans, close friends and family. And of that family, each of Buss' six grown children are actively involved in his business operations.

Yet for all of his accomplishments in business and sports, Buss is equally respected for his philanthropic efforts. While he is specifically drawn to supporting education, the needs of disadvantaged youth and the elderly, his contributions are all encompassing and as diverse as the community in which he lives and works. For his efforts he has been honored by such organizations as the City of Hope, NAACP, the B'nai B'rith, United Negro College Fund, United Indian Development Associations, American Hebrew University, National Organization of Women, Boys and Girls Clubs of America, Muscular Dystrophy Association, the Los Angeles Human Relations Commission and Heart of Los Angeles Youth among many others. He also funds scholarships at his alma maters, Wyoming and USC, as well as having endowed the Magic Johnson Scholarship at Michigan State University.

Buss and his entities annually donate thousands of dollars, tickets, merchandise and autographed items to support countless neighborhood schools, libraries and churches as well as non-profit organizations which attend to the needs of Southern California communities. Most recently, Buss made a personal contribution of $100,000 in April of 2009 to New Image Shelter to support their efforts on behalf of homelessness in Los Angeles. In addition, when natural disasters and tragedies have struck, such as the Southern California wildfires in 2003, 2007 and 2008, Hurricane Katrina and the tsunami in Southeast Asia, Buss and the Lakers have been quick to offer assistance with sizable donations to charities providing immediate frontline disaster relief and long-term recovery support for those in need.

An avid poker player, Buss, who hosts tournaments to benefit charities such as Smile Train, has reached a level of proficiency where he has achieved success competing against the best professionals in the highest level tournaments. His most recent success, however, caps three-plus decades of excellence leading the Lakers. Named to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame's Class of 2010, Buss was enshrined in Springfield, Massachusetts on August 13, 2010. One of eight individuals and two teams comprising the 2010 class, Buss became the 3rd Laker to enter the Hall as a contributor (Chick Hearn, Pete Newell).

FRONT OFFICE

JOEY BUSS, PRESIDENT/CEO

Entering his fourth year as President/CEO of the Los Angeles D-Fenders, Joey Buss is responsible for overseeing the D-Fenders business operations while also serving as an Alternate Governor for the Los Angeles Lakers.

Prior to assuming his current position with the D-Fenders, Buss spent a year preparing for his role as Lakers Alternate Governor, working closely with both Jeanie Buss, Lakers Executive Vice President of Business Operations and Tim Harris, Senior Vice President of Business Operations. Not long after becoming an Alternate Governor, Buss accepted the Larry O'Brien Trophy on behalf of the organization after the Lakers defeated the Orlando Magic in the 2009 NBA Finals.

An alumnus of the University of Southern California, upon graduation, Buss served as a Coaching Associate for the Lakers during the 2006-07 season. Working alongside head coach Phil Jackson and his coaching staff, Buss was able to observe and learn the responsibilities of coaching by traveling with the team and attending all coaches' meetings.

Getting his first glimpse into the business of basketball at the age of 20, Buss held a summer internship in the basketball operations department of the Los Angeles Sparks during the 2004 and 2005 seasons.

Away from the court, Buss is actively involved in the community, working closely with Pediatric Therapy Network, a non-profit organization that tends to children with special needs by way of therapy.

Buss and his wife, Nicole, reside in Palos Verdes.

GLENN CARRARO, GENERAL MANAGER

A member of the team's front office since its inception, the 2011-12 campaign marks the first season for Glenn Carraro as General Manager of the Los Angeles D-Fenders. A club executive with the Los Angeles Lakers since 2000 who currently serves as Director of Basketball Administration, Carraro, in his dual role as GM of the D-Fenders, is responsible for the day-to-day management of the team. Included in his management duties are personnel decisions, contract negotiations, salary cap concerns and scouting; all of which are in addition to his duties of assisting Lakers General Manager Mitch Kupchak in all basketball operations.

Formerly the D-Fenders Assistant General Manager from 2006-10, Carraro brings nearly 20 years of professional basketball experience to the position. During his time in the Lakers front office alone, in which he has served in his current capacity since 2006 after six years as Assistant to the General Manager/Director of Camps, Carraro has been part of five NBA Championship teams and seven NBA Finals appearances.

Prior to joining the Lakers, Carraro served as Manager of Basketball Operations for the New York Knickerbockers from 1996-99 after originally joining the team in 1995 as Player Personnel Coordinator/Manager of Knicks Camps. With primary responsibilities including the creation and management of player personnel databases as well as separate salary cap reports, in his time with New York's front office, the Knicks posted a 174-122 (.588) record and made at least the Eastern Conference Semifinals in all four seasons while appearing in the 1999 NBA Finals.

A graduate of SUNY-Stony Brook after transferring from NYU-Polytechnic following two seasons on the men's basketball team, Carraro completed his graduate coursework in Athletic Administration at St. John's University (1991-94) while also serving as the USBL's Director of Sales and Marketing/Operations from 1992-95. Having also worked in the CBA for the Hartford Hellcats and Connecticut Pride, Carraro, in all, is a veteran of four professional basketball leagues.

A diehard Yankees and Steelers fan dating back to his childhood, Carraro currently resides in Silver Lake.

HEAD COACH

ERIC MUSSELMAN, HEAD COACH

At just 46 years of age, Eric Musselman brings more than two decades of coaching experience in professional basketball to Los Angeles, including three seasons as head coach for the NBA's Golden State Warriors and Sacramento Kings.

Prior to joining the D-Fenders, Musselman spent the 2010-11 season as head coach of the NBA Development League's Reno Bighorns, leading a club which ranked first league-wide in opponent ppg (98.1) and FG% (.440) to a postseason berth and the D-League Semifinals after amassing the best regular season record in the Western Conference (34-16).

His time in Reno ended a three season hiatus from coaching, interrupted only briefly in 2010 when he served as head coach for the Dominican Republic Men's National Basketball Team that went 5-1 and earned a silver medal in the 2010 Central American & Caribbean Basketball Championship while qualifying for the FIBA Americas Championship in 2011. He also coached internationally this past summer (2011), leading the Venezuela National Team to 12-9 record and a bid in the 2012 Pre-Olympic Qualifier.

In June of 2006, Musselman was named head coach of the Sacramento Kings, posting a 33-49 (.402) during his lone season in the state capitol. Under Musselman, the Kings ranked eighth in league-wide in scoring and first in free-throw attempts while defensively ranking third in steals, fourth in turnovers and fifth in points off turnovers.

Prior to his stint in Sacramento, Musselman earned his first career NBA head coaching position with the Golden State Warriors in 2002. Following a first season with the Warriors in which the team ranked second league-wide in scoring, he received 26 first-place votes and finished second in NBA Coach of the Year balloting to San Antonio's Gregg Popovich. That season, Musselman led the Warriors to 38 victories, the team's highest win total in a decade and a 17-win improvement from the previous season. In his second season with Golden State, the Warriors finished 37-45 (.451) and were the most-improved defensive team in the NBA, shaving 9.6 points off their opponent's scoring average from the year before.

In addition to serving as an NBA head coach, Musselman has also been an assistant on a number of staffs in his career; working as an assistant coach for the Memphis Grizzlies under Mike Fratello (2004-06), the Atlanta Hawks under Lon Kruger (2000-02), the Orlando Magic under Chuck Daly and Doc Rivers (1997-2000) and the Minnesota Timberwolves under his father, Bill Musselman (1990-91).

Cutting his teeth as a head coach in the CBA and USBL throughout the 1990s, Musselman left his mark as one of the most successful coaches in minor league basketball history. He served as head coach for the Rapid City Thrillers (CBA) for five seasons before the team relocated to West Palm Beach, Fla., where he was retained as general manager and head coach for the newly minted Florida Beachdogs. In all, he won 208 games in the CBA and carried a .671 winning percentage, the second best mark in league history.

A five-time CBA All-Star coach, Musselman won six division titles while earning a postseason berth in every season. Beginning his CBA career as the General Manager of the Thrillers in 1988, he hired current Washington Wizards head coach Flip Saunders, then a collegiate assistant, to head the coaching staff. A year later, the 23-year-old Musselman became the youngest head coach in CBA history. In his first season at the helm, Musselman led Rapid City to a 38-16 record, improving upon a 16-38 finish the year before. Five years later, at age 28, he became the youngest head coach in professional basketball history to win 100 games. In two additional USBL seasons (1995, 1996), the young head coach led the Florida Sharks to back-to-back league titles and a 54-3 (.947) record.

During his time away from the bench, Musselman was active as a radio and television analyst, serving as color commentator for Comcast and Versus in 2009-10, calling West Coast Conference and NBA Development League games, respectively. A Fox Sports Radio NBA analyst for the past three years, appearing weekly on several nationally-broadcast FSR programs, he has also been a guest columnist for The New York Times, The Sporting News, basketballnews.com and Winning Hoops from 2007-2009. Additionally, in 2004, he worked as color commentator on ESPN Radio's NBA Game of the Week.

A 1987 graduate from the University of San Diego with a degree in political science, Musselman was a three-time West Coast Athletic Conference all-academic team selection as well as co-captain, helping guide the Toreros to two NCAA Tournament appearances during his time there.

Musselman is married to Danyelle Sargent Musselman, who is currently a reporter for Yahoo! Sports and the NFL Network. The couple has one child, a daughter, Mariah. Musselman also has two sons: Michael (16) and Matthew (11).

CLAY MOSER, ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Clay Moser comes to the D-Fenders with more than two decades of professional basketball experience, including 10-plus years working for NBA and NBA D-League franchises. Most recently serving on head coach Eric Musselman's staff as Associate Head Coach with the Reno Bighorns last season, Moser helped lead the team to a Western Conference best 34-16 record and D-League Semifinals appearance.

Prior to his time with the Bighorns, Moser was tabbed by the Houston Rockets to be Head Coach of their D-League affiliate in Rio Grande Valley, going 21-29 with the Vipers during the 2008-09 campaign. In addition to his Reno and Rio Grande Valley D-League experience, Moser has also worked for three CBA teams, two of which later joined the D-League; serving as an assistant coach, vice president and general manager with the Sioux Falls Skyforce (1989-94), as CEO and general manager of the Idaho Stampede (1997-2001) and as head coach and general manager of the Great Lakes Storm (2003-04).

Formerly serving on USA Basketball's board of directors, Moser has also spent extensive time evaluating NBA-caliber talent as an advance scout for the Cleveland Cavaliers (2009-10), Orlando Magic (2007-08), Sacramento Kings (2006-07) and Golden State Warriors (2002-03). His other NBA experience includes time as Vice President of Business Development for the New Orleans/Oklahoma City Hornets (2005-06), as an assistant coach for the San Antonio Spurs 2005 Summer League Team and as a business consultant for the NBA (2005).

Moser, a former Senior Vice President of Basketball Operations for the Continental Basketball Association (1994-97), has also coached abroad in China as head coach for the Jilin Northeast Tigers (2004-05) and collegiately as assistant coach at North Carolina State (1987-89) under Jim Valvano.

A 1986 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse with a degree in sports management, Moser and his wife, Angela, have a daughter, Lily (4) and son, Carter (2). Moser also has a daughter, Chandler (18), who is currently a freshman at the University of Colorado-Denver.

THE D-LEAGUE

THE NBA D-LEAGUE SEASON

The NBA D-League season is 50 games, beginning in November and ending in April. Eight teams qualify for the D-League Playoffs, which consists of best-of-three Quarterfinals, Semifinals and Finals series.

Additionally, the NBA D-League All-Star Game will once again be played over the same weekend as the NBA All-Star Game. This year's contest will take place on February 25 in Orlando, FL. The NBA D-League Showcase will also return this season, with games to be played in mid-January (specific details on the event will be announced at a later date).

Joining the Rio Grande Valley Vipers (Houston Rockets) this season as hybrid models with the NBA franchise operating their Basketball Operations department will be the Springfield Armor (New Jersey Nets) and Erie BayHawks (New York Knicks). Overall, there are nine NBA D-League single-affiliations with NBA franchises, an increase from four during the 2010-11 season. In addition to the Armor and BayHawks, single-affiliation franchises for this coming season include the Austin Toros (San Antonio Spurs); Canton (Cleveland Cavaliers), Dakota Wizards (Golden State Warriors), L.A. D-Fenders (Los Angeles Lakers), Rio Grande Valley (Houston Rockets), Tulsa 66ers (Oklahoma City Thunder) and Texas Legends (Dallas Mavericks).

LIVE GAMES ONLINE: NBA FUTURECAST

As in past seasons, fans can follow the action all season long with NBA Futurecast, the NBA D-League's free interactive web-streaming platform (www.nba.com/futurecast). In offering NBA Futurecast, the NBA D-League became the first-ever professional sports league to show all of their games live online for free.

PLAYER MOVEMENT

There are two types of players in the D-League: those on assignment from NBA teams and free agents. While assigned players can only be recalled by the NBA team which owns the players rights, free agents can be signed by any NBA team at any time of the year.

- A Gatorade Call-Up occurs when an NBA D-League player is signed ("called-up") by an NBA team. Any NBA team may sign ("call-up") any NBA D-League player (other than assigned players) at any point during the NBA D-League season.
  - Through the 2010-11 season, a total of 128 players have earned 210 Gatorade Call-Ups.
- The NBA/NBA D-League assignment system began prior to the 2005-06 season and allows NBA teams to assign first and second-year players to their NBA D-League affiliate no more than three times during the season. There is no limit on the length of time an assigned player may spend in the NBA D-League.
  - NBA teams who share an NBA D-League affiliate may not assign more than two of their players to their NBA D-League affiliate at a time, while single-affiliated NBA teams may assign up to four players at a time.
  - Through the 2010-11 season, a total of 151 different NBA players have been assigned to their NBA D-League affiliate.

2012 D-LEAGUE SHOWCASE

The Reno-Sparks Convention and Visitors Authority will host the eighth-annual NBA Development League Showcase at the Reno Events Center. The 2012 Showcase, which will feature all 16 NBA D-League teams, will run from Jan. 9-12. Conceived prior to the 2004-05 season, the NBA D-League Showcase provides an opportunity for NBA D-League players and coaches to perform in front of NBA general managers, player personnel executives and scouts over four consecutive days at one location. The 2012 event will feature each NBA D-League team competing in two games each over four days.

MEDIA GUIDELINES / GENERAL INFO

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All requests should be submitted in writing (on company letterhead) and faxed to the D-Fenders Public Relations Department (310) 426-6105 at least 24 HOURS PRIOR to the game you wish to cover (3:00pm on Friday for weekend games).

Please make certain all requests for credentials are confirmed by the PR department prior to arriving at Toyota Sports Center.

Credentials can be picked up at will call, located at the main entrance to the Toyota Sports Center, adjacent to the hockey rinks. Proper identification is required to pick up all media credentials. Credentials must be visibly worn at all times and are non-transferable.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is available free of charge in the Toyota Sports Center general lot located at the front of the facility.

DIRECTIONS TO TOYOTA SPORTS CENTER

From 405 Freeway: Take 105 Freeway West. Exit on Nash. Take Nash three blocks south of Imperial Hwy. to 555 N. Nash Street. Toyota Sports Center will be on the west (right) side of the street.

PRE & POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

In accordance with NBA D-League policy, both the D-Fenders and visiting locker rooms will be open to media members for a 45 minute period prior to game time (5:30 - 6:15 for a 7:00 pm game) and after approximately 15 minutes following the conclusion of the game. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the media with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms.

ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIOD.

GAME NOTES & STATISTICS

Game notes, rosters, etc. are available in the press room 2 ½ hours prior to game time. Statistics for each quarter and half will be available to the working media following each quarter and at half-time. Postgame statistics are distributed as quickly as possible following the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Limited space is available for still photographers along each baseline, with exact locations to be determined on game day.

ABSOLUTELY NO TRIPODS ALLOWED.

Photographers must stay in their designated areas, and are asked to be considerate of print media and fans directly in their viewing area.

PRACTICE POLICY

The D-Fenders will conduct practices at Toyota Sports Center, located at 555 N. Nash Street in El Segundo, CA. Approximately the final 30 minutes of each practice will be open to the media, with players and coaches available for brief interviews immediately following each practice. Please contact the D-Fenders Public Relations Department to confirm practice times, sites and availability of players and coaches.

TOYOTA SPORTS CENTER

On April 28, 1999, the Los Angeles Lakers and the NHL's Los Angeles Kings officially "broke ground" on the new $24 million Toyota Sports Center. Located at 555 N. Nash Street in El Segundo, the sports center is built on a six-acre site which is part of the Grand Avenue Corporate Center. The sports center includes a basketball court, a pro shop, three public ice rinks and a restaurant as well as locker rooms, training facilities and office spaces for the Lakers, D-Fenders and Kings.

The state-of-the-art training facilities at the disposal of the teams and support staff include a weight room that boasts over 10,000 pounds of equipment. The York performance series equipment is specifically designed and customized for use by larger athletes. Also contained within the weight room are Olympic lifting platforms, the latest balance training equipment and a vast array of cardiovascular equipment.

In addition to the main court and two side courts, the Lakers/D-Fenders basketball court boasts a plyometric area, the first of its kind built into the basketball floor to help enhance the jumping ability and explosiveness of team members.

Other amenities include a therapy pool for the rehabilitation of injuries as well as cardiovascular exercise, a steam room, a nutrition and supplement station and a theater-style viewing room which the players and coaching staff use to watch video and conduct meetings.

Designed by the Drezner group of Los Angeles, the facility became the home of the Lakers players and staff in February of 2000.
