12 PLAYERS MAKE USL DEBUTS IN OPENING WEEKS

USL newcomers included: goalkeepers Tomas Romero and Jake McGuire, defenders Giliano Wijnaldum, Aaron Jones and Charlie Reymann; midfielders Brian Carroll, Adam Najem and Jack Elliott; and forwards Santi Moar, Issa Rayyan, Marcus Epps and Charlie Davies.

SEKU VERY MUCH

Liberian National Team forward Seku Conneh is off to a hot start in 2017. The 21-year-old is tied for the USL lead with three goals and set a club record against FC Cincinnati last weekend. In his impressive second half performance, Conneh became the first player to score two-goals in the same match in Steel FC history. His five career goals are currently tied for the most in team history (Derrick Jones/Ryan Richter). His effort last week also earned him the USL Week Three Player of the Week, winning 42 percent of the independent media vote. The award was Conneh's first of his career and the first time a Bethlehem Steel FC player had won the weekly honor.

THE UNION ARE COMING

Bethlehem Steel FC utilized its affiliation with MLS-side Philadelphia Union last weekend, with 10 members starting for Steel FC. In the home opener on April 1, the club started eight MLS-signed players, breaking the previous record of seven from 2016.

STEEL FC MAKES ROAD DEBUT AT HARRISBURG

Bethlehem Steel FC opens its 2017 USL road schedule on Saturday, April 15 against in-state rival Harrisburg City Islanders. The match will be the fourth all-time game between the Pennsylvania clubs, with Harrisburg emerging with a pair of wins and a draw in the three matchups last season.

LAST REGULAR SEASON MEETING:

In the series lone draw in its history, Steel FC and Harrisburg went back and forth at FNB Field. After Harrisburg struck with a 44th minute goal, Steel FC answered just before halftime on a goal from Eric Ayuk. The second half started strong for Steel FC, as James Chambers scored notched a free kick goal, however the hosts got a late goal from Craig Foster in the 81st minute to earn the 2-2 draw.

THEY SAID...

Bethlehem Steel FC head coach Brendan Burke:

Takeaways from the Cincinnati match ...

"It's a positive result and it's our first win of the season so I think everyone was happy with the effort that was put into the game. I thought the red card was the turning point but I feel that we earned that ability to be up a man. I thought Cory (Burke) and Seku (Conneh) were a hand full. We completed over 400 passes and now that has become an expectation for us since we've done that back to back weeks. We want to dictate the game."

On the play of Seku Conneh...

"I think his mentality has changed and I think he'd tell you that as well. He's worked extremely hard through preseason but he worked hard and stayed focus and got himself fit. You can see that coming through on the field. His quality was always there, he had the technical ability and was a good decision maker but he's established what he wants to be and he's pouring his heart out on the field."

On the upcoming match against Harrisburg...

"Watching the Richmond match, they pressed all over the field. But up watching them at New York Red Bulls II, they sat back and absorbed a ton of pressure. They have some tactical flexibility built as a team so we have to prepare for both types of game. What can't change is our intent which has led to four goals in two games. That is great return and hopefully we don't take our foot off."
