STEEL FC HOSTS ROCHESTER RHINOS IN 2017 OPENER

Bethlehem Steel FC kicks off the 2017 season on Saturday, April 1 when the team hosts the 2015 USL Champions Rochester Rhinos. It will be the third all-time game between the two Eastern Conference foes, both previous two battles in 2016 ending in draws.

LAST REGULAR SEASON MEETING:

In Steel FC's lone home match against the Rhinos, the two teams battled to a 1-1 draw at Goodman Stadium on July 24. Derrick Jones opened the scoring for Steel FC in the 19th minute with Kenardo Forbes notching the equalizer in the 57th minute.

PRESEASON TAKEAWAYS

FIVE NEW FACES SLATED FOR STEEL FC DEBUT

During preseason, Steel FC saw breakout performances from Santi Moar and Josh Heard. Moar led the team with three goals while Heard racked up a team-high four assists during the club's seven preseason contests that stretched from mid-February through late March.

THEY SAID...

Bethlehem Steel FC head coach Brendan Burke:

On Rochester in the first match of the season...

"Opportunity is a word we use a lot in our locker room and Rochester presents a big opportunity because everyone knows that they are a well established team in the USL. The present a big challenge with the experience in the back, they keep the ball in front of them and are disciplined and wait for you to make mistakes."

On the overall feeling of the team opening in Bethlehem

"I think excitement is the best word for all of us. We are starting a new season and the possibilities are endless. We have a good young core and I think the guys get along very well."

Bethlehem Steel FC midfielder Hugh Roberts:

On playing at Goodman Stadium as a member of Steel FC...

"I'm really looking forward to it as it puts a new look on the field overall. (Wednesday) was the first time on the pitch and it was great to get a feel for it. When I visited last season (with Richmond), the field was different and the environment was wild. We even loss here so I'm looking forward to getting victories inside the stadium."
