LAST TIME OUT..

Bethlehem Steel FC enters this weekend's match coming off a 1-0 loss on the road at USL Eastern Conference leaders Charleston Battery. After an early goal by the Battery's Ataulla Guerra in the 17th minute, Steel FC took control of the match, holding Charleston without on target in the second half. The final half saw Steel FC generate numerous chances but unable to find an equalizer.

TAKEAWAYS

WINGATE EARNS FIRST START

This offseason has been filled with many highs and lows for Steel FC midfielder Chris Wingate. After an offseason that included being selected by New York City FC in the 2017 MLS SuperDraft, being cut during training camp and signing his first contract with Bethlehem, Wingate made his professional debut two weeks ago against FC Cincinnati. The following week, the Hovik, Norway, native earned his first start in the USL, going 80 minutes and completing 52 passes.

CHAMBERS SET TO TAKE CLUB RECORD

Veteran midfielder James Chambers has brought many things to Steel FC since joining the squad in 2016. After adapting to American soccer, the Dublin, Ireland native made his 29th appearance last weekend at Charleston. When the club's third captain in history takes to the field against Toronto FC II, he'll become the club's all-time leader in appearances. Chambers is currently tied with the squad's first captain, former defender and New York Cosmos player Ryan Richter.

STEEL FC TO PLAY IN PHILADELPHIA UNION FESTIVAL

Earlier this week it was announced that Bethlehem Steel FC will participate in the 2017 Philadelphia Union Festival to be held in Reading, Pa., on May 31. The celebration for the organization's 'Path to the Pros', Steel FC will compete in a friendly against PDL-side Reading United as the feature event. Reading is coached by Steel FC assistant Stephan Hogan while defender Charlie Reymann played for Reading United last season.

Last season, Reading United won the Mid-Atlantic Division title and had an appearance in the Eastern Conference finals.

STEEL FC HEADS NORTH OF THE BORDER FOR TORONTO

After a tough one-goal loss to kick off the month of May, Steel FC will head north to Canada looking for its first victory against Toronto FC II. While the hosts have only netted two goals this season, goalkeeper Angelo Cavalluzzo has four clean sheets and made 21 saves that have produced points for the team. His performances earned him a nomination for USL Player of the Month in April.

LAST REGULAR SEASON MEETING:

The two squads last faced off last summer, in a back and forth affair that went in Toronto FC II's favor. Shaan Hundal collected his first of two goals in the first half while Steel FC answered with goals from Nick Bibbs and a penalty kick from Ryan Richter. However Luca Uccello's insurance goal in the 78th minute proved needed for the visitors to leave Goodman Stadium with all three points.

THEY SAID...

Bethlehem Steel FC assistant coach Stephen Hogan:

Takeaways from the Charleston Battery match...

"It was an unfortunate result given we all thought we played really well, especially in the second half. We had a gameplan and I think we stuck to it but the only thing needed was that final pass. If that final pass comes through, then we open them up. It's disappointing because going up against the league leaders, you never know what is going to happen. The way we played produced a lot of positives."

On preparing for a squad like Toronto FC II that can play numerous different players...

"It's very difficult to play a MLS-2 side because you don't know who you'll be playing against. This will be the first time we show up during the MLS match and you might see players from that match that don't feature, just start playing later in the day against us. They have a lot of advantage in that. Preparation for this week will be what we've always done which is attacking through the press. Another thing is trying to score on their goalkeeper who has had numerous clean sheets this season."

On what is needed to continue the positive momentum this weekend against Toronto FC II...

"I think we know how important this game is, even though it's early in the season. Playing against teams similar to us is where we have to take as many points as possible off them. The guys know that and I think it could feel like a playoff atmosphere given we'll be playing in the big stadium. We have to go out for all three points, not just a draw."

BETHLEHEM STEEL FC AT TORONTO FC II

BETHELEHEM STEEL FC TECHNICAL STAFF

Head coach Brendan Burke

Burke is in his second season as head coach of Bethlehem Steel FC, after coaching the squad to a 6-14-10 record during the club's inaugural campaign. He was formally introduced as the club's first head coach on Oct. 29, 2015. Prior to joining Steel FC, Burke served as an assistant coach for the Philadelphia Union from 2011 through 2014. He was heavily involved in all levels of the U.S. Soccer pyramid, including serving as head coach of the Union's PDL affiliate Reading United from 2008-13 where he had a record of 71-18-19. During his time with Reading, Burke coached 49 players that signed professional contracts including Ray Gaddis, C.J. Sapong, John McCarthy and Matt Hedges. Burke served as associate head coach at Northeastern University in 2015.

Assistant coach Jeff Cook

Cook is in his second season as an assistant coach with Bethlehem Steel FC and currently serves as head coach for the U-18 team at the Philadelphia Union Academy.

Cook coached the U-16 team from 2013-15 and under his leadership, the U-16 squad had one of its best seasons in 2014-15. The club finished 21-3-2 and earned the No. 2 national seed in the USSDA playoffs. The team finished third at the national semifinals in Carson, Calif.

Prior to joining the academy, Cook served as the head coach of Dartmouth College for 12 years. While at Dartmouth, Cook led the program to five conference titles and seven trips to the NCAA tournament, including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances.

Assistant coach Stephen Hogan

Hogan is in his second season with Steel FC. He also serves as the head coach of the Philadelphia Union's PDL affiliate, Reading United.

In his first season as Reading's head coach, Hogan led the team to a 10-3-1 record, the Mid-Atlantic Division title, and an appearance in the Eastern Conference finals. He made 52 appearances for Reading, while playing from 2007-10, and holds the second-most appearances in club history. He led the team to the 2009 PDL regular season title and the PDL national semifinals in 2008 and 2010.

A native of Dublin, Ireland, Hogan spent two seasons as head coach at the College of Saint Rose's men's soccer program. While on the staff of the Albany, N.Y. based college, Hogan established the Golden Knights training program, was active in recruiting players and monitored the academic progress of his student athletes.

Goalkeeper coach Jay Cooney

Cooney brings vast experience to Steel FC and is in his second season as goalkeepers coach and video coordinator.

Before joining Steel FC, Cooney served on several women's soccer championship staffs: the Bay Area CyberRays in 2001 and FC Gold Pride in 2009. He was the goalkeeper coach for the Stanford women's soccer team from 2003-14. During his time with Stanford, the team had a 73-match home unbeaten streak, a 64-match regular season unbeaten streak, a 51-match home winning streak, eight consecutive NCAA Sweet Sixteen and a NCAA Championship in 2011.

Cooney also serves as the Philadelphia Union Academy head goalkeeping coach and the Director of Video Technology.
