TAKEAWAYS

HISTORY IN PITTSBURGH

Last weekend Bethlehem Steel FC made history becoming the first club in the organization to claim a postseason win. Steel FC overcame a pair of one-goal deficits to force extra time and penalty kicks with goals from Michee Ngalina (the first postseason goal in club history) and a free kick goal from captain James Chambers in the final extra time period.

With the match knotted at 2-2, Steel FC showcased poise to go a perfect 8-for-8 from the penalty spot to advance to the next round of the USL Cup Playoffs.

#STEELTHECUP

For the second-consecutive season, Bethlehem Steel FC's postseason run goes through Louisville City FC. Steel FC is looking to avenge last season's postseason loss in its playoff debut, falling on the road to the eventual champions, 4-0.

TEENAGE DUO CALLED INTO INTERNATIONAL ACTION

After starting and helping lead Bethlehem Steel FC to its first postseason win, Philadelphia Union players Anthony Fontana and Matt Real earned international call-ups with the United States U-20 team. The duo could still rejoin Steel FC ahead of Saturday night's contest and then return to Florida ahead of the CONCACAF U-20 Championship that begins November 1.

STEEL FC EXTENDS POSTSEASON RUN TO LOUISVILLE

Much like last season, when Bethlehem Steel FC arrives in Louisville for a postseason match it will be historic. After claiming its first USL Cup Playoffs victory last weekend, the club makes its Eastern Conference Semifinal debut at defending USL Cup Champions Louisville City FC. The playoff match is a rematch of Steel FC's first-ever postseason match where they fell to the eventual champions, 4-0.

PREVIOUS MEETING

The two sides last faced off in early June, playing to a scoreless draw at Goodman Stadium. In the closely matched affair, Steel FC generated the most dangerous scoring opportunities in the opening 45 minutes while the defense was called upon late to hold on for a draw against the defending champions.

COACH'S CORNER

Bethlehem Steel FC head coach Brendan Burke:

On what it was like when you realized you had defeated Pittsburgh for the first playoff win

"It was just elation because I have so much respect for their staff, for their group of players that they have there. They just don't give anything away and they play with great urgency and fight and the athleticism is scary all over the field. Just a really happy moment that capped off a great season for a group of young guys. To start six teenagers in that game and come out of that environment is a highlight for most of us at this stage in our careers."

On Louisville's current run and preparing for them

"They are experienced all over the field, they won the league last year and are playing home games where they are comfortable. It's a difficult environment to play in and they are very well adjusted to it. They've been good on set pieces all year, they have the hottest goal scorer in the league. I would say all the pressure is squarely on them in this game."

On coaching against former boss [John Hackworth]

"I texted with him a little bit yesterday and we said that neither one of us are looking forward to the coaching against one another part but looking forward to sitting down and saying hello when we get down there. I learned so much from him and have a great respect for what he's doing there already at Louisville. He has them on a hot streak, as hot as they've been so looking forward to seeing them and hopefully they don't pick us apart."

MATCH RECAP

Despite a strong start on the road at the defending USL Cup Champions, three goals in a nine-minute span proved too difficult to overcome as Bethlehem Steel FC fell to Louisville City FC 3-1.

After being held without a shot in the game's opening, Louisville needed just three to take control of the contest. Cameron Lancaster opened the scoring in the 13th minute, collecting his own blocked shot before firing it home. Four minutes later, Kyle Smith floated a pass behind the Steel FC defense that Ilija Ilic connected on via a sliding effort. Two goals weren't enough as Lancaster notched a brace in the 22nd minute.

Steel FC battled back into the contest just before the halftime whistle with a late goal. Pushing for a goal, Catalano riffled a pass toward Marcus Epps. With a defender pressed against his back, the 23-year-old turned to his left and fired a shot that beat the home keeper. Epp's goal is his first of 2018 and his second all-time with Bethlehem Steel FC. Catalano was credited with an assist, giving him a team-high two in his rookie season.

MATCH RECAP

Bethlehem Steel FC continued its strong run of form with a strong defensive game plan to shutout the defending USL Cup Champion Louisville City FC at Goodman Stadium on the campus of Lehigh University.

Fielding six teenagers against the champions, Steel FC limited the Eastern Conference power to no shots on target in the opening half and just two overall. Philadelphia Union goalkeeper John McCarthy picked up his second clean sheet of the year in the scoreless affair.

In a physical affair that saw Steel FC's game plan come to fruition, forward Chris Nanco provided the top scoring chances of the evening. 18-year-old Michee Ngalina found space on the flank and whipped in a cross toward the Canadian forward. Unmarked in the center of the box, Nanco flicked a header that missed the far post. Nanco also had the host's best opportunity of the first half, beating the back line in the seventh minute but ultimately had his chance saved by LouCity's Greg Ranjitsingh.

With time winding down, both teams pushed for a break-through goal but ultimately was unable to break the stalemate. McCarthy was called up to deny Devon Williams in the 72nd minute while defender Matt Mahoney timed a tackle in the box to deny second-half substitute, Brian Ownby, late.

MATCH RECAP

Despite trailing twice on the road with six teenagers in the starting lineup, Bethlehem Steel FC battled until the end to win the organization's first postseason match, advancing on penalty kicks 8-7.

Bethlehem Steel FC forced extra time on Michee Ngalina's second-half strike, erasing the Riverhounds' goal by Ben Zemanski. With 90 minutes not enough, Hugh Roberts lifted the homeside ahead just before the intermission whistle but a free kick goal by James Chambers sent the match to the decisive penalties where all eight penalty kick takers scored.

With the scoreboard tied at 2-2, Bethlehem showed composure in its penalty takes shooting into the Riverhounds supporters' section. Team captain Chambers was the first to step to the mark, firing a right-footed shot into the top left corner. Chris Nanco made it two for two from the spot and was followed by Omar Holness, Santi Moar and Drew Skundrich. The two sides continued to trade penalty kicks into the eighth round that saw Oliver Mbaizo convert while Pittsburgh missed the mark.

Head coach Brendan Burke

Burke is in his third season as head coach of Bethlehem Steel FC, coaching the squad to an 32-38-26 regular season record during the club's modern era. He was formally introduced as the club's first head coach on Oct. 29, 2015 and recently signed an extension to remain with Steel FC for the foreseeable future.

During his three seasons with Bethlehem Steel FC, he has navigated 96 different starting XI combinations in 98 career matches while guiding four players to first team contracts with Derrick Jones in 2016, the duo of Cory Burke and Matt Real after the 2017 season and Olivier Mbaizo earlier this year. Overall, Burke had coached 74 players including 29 players with ties to the first team and 17 from the Philadelphia Union Academy the past three seasons. This season Burke guided Steel FC to its best season on record, with 14 regular-season wins and its first postseason win.

Prior to joining Steel FC, Burke served as an assistant coach for the Philadelphia Union from 2011 through 2014. He was heavily involved in all levels of the U.S. Soccer pyramid, including serving as head coach of the Union's PDL affiliate Reading United from 2008-13 where he had a record of 71-18-19. During his time with Reading, Burke coached 49 players that signed professional contracts including Ray Gaddis, C.J. Sapong, John McCarthy and Matt Hedges. Burke served as associate head coach at Northeastern University in 2015.

Assistant coach Stephen Hogan

Hogan, who formerly served as the head coach of the Philadelphia Union's PDL affiliate, Reading United, is in his third season with Steel FC.

Hogan guided the PDL squad to a 22-5-1 record in his two seasons with Reading United. The club went 10-3-1 and won the Mid-Atlantic Division title along with an appearance in the Eastern Conference finals. Hogan followed up with an even stronger 12-2-0 record in 2017, tying for the most wins in the 72-team league. During the season that saw the club reach the postseason for the ninth time in 10 seasons, Hogan's squad conceded an Eastern Conference-low 10 goals.

As a Reading player under Brendan Burke, he made 52 appearances, second most in club history, while playing from 2007-10. He helped lead the team to the 2009 PDL Regular Season Title and the PDL National Semifinals in 2008 and 2010. A native of Dublin, Ireland, Hogan spent two seasons as head coach at the College of Saint Rose's men's soccer program.
