MATCH NOTES:

Fury FC Injury/Suspension Report: Philippe Davies: 6-8 weeks – Arm (March 28), Oliver: Day-to-Day – Leg (May 20). Doubtful: Andrew Wiedeman (Head)

Points of Interest:

- Ottawa are 6-1-2 (W-D-L) lifetime when scoring 2 or more goals
- Through 35 games in the NASL this season, 14 have ended in a draw, 14 have been decided by one goal and 7 have been decided by two goals.
- Peiser, Richter and Falvey have played every minute in 2015
- Three of Ottawa's four goals this season have come in the second half
- Captain Richie Ryan has returned from injury and is available for selection

Scouting the Eleven: After going undefeated in their opening four matches (1-3-0), Indy Eleven have dropped their last two games and scored just twice in their last three. Despite boasting sellout crowds at all three of their home games, the Eleven have yet to win at home and sport a 1-1-1 record to date this season – a record that is identical to Ottawa's performance at TD Place in 2015. Sergio Peña is the man to watch for Indy. Not only their leading scorer, but also the man who can control the game through their midfield.

Head-to-Head: Ottawa recorded their first-ever road victory in club history last season in Indy 4-2. In fact Fury FC won both matches in Indianapolis (4-2 and 2-1) while the Eleven turned the trick at TD Place handing Ottawa a 2-1 defeat.

Coach Quote: "We are all very aware of the importance of this game. Everyone is focused on the details that will make us successful and we all know this will be another great challenge. The team has been working well, the attitude has been good and we are looking forward to coming back to play this weekend." – Marc Dos Santos.

Up Next: Fury FC close out their Spring Season home schedule against FC Edmonton on May 29 before a two-game road trip to complete the NASL Spring campaign in Jacksonville (June 7) and San Antonio (June 13). Tickets to the May 29 match available at OttawaFuryFC.com

MATCH PREVIEW:

As the month April came to a close it seemed like the sky was falling for Ottawa Fury FC, but the skies have cleared for the month of May and Saturday is expected to be a beautiful day at TD Place as a well-rested Fury FC look to get back in the win column against Indy Eleven.

“We are all very aware of the importance of this game,” said Marc Dos Santos who is confident that his squad is in the right frame of mind to earn all three points from Saturday’s contest.

“Everyone is focused on the details that will make us successful and we all know this will be another great challenge. The team has been working well, the attitude has been good and we are looking forward to coming back to play this weekend.”

Ottawa’s defensive woes are no longer a point of concern after conceding just one goal in the past two games that saw them fall 1-0 in a tight contest against the league-leading New York (May 2) and a scoreless draw against second place Tampa (May 9). A much needed bye-week has allowed for some tired legs to rest with having played 4 games in 11 days to close out the month of April.

While the defence looks sharp, the offensive is the final piece of the puzzle, but it certainly hasn’t been for lack of chances – Ottawa sits second in the NASL in shots and have out-chanced and out-possessed their opponents in most games this season.

Indy Eleven had a bright start to their 2015 campaign coming out of the gate with a win and three draws. The month of April, however, hasn’t been as kind to the second-year club as they’ve dropped their last two outings to Jacksonville (1-0) and Minnesota (3-1). Like Ottawa, offensive has been Indy’s point of concern for most of the season, especially in their last three games where they have been outscored 5-2.

The Eleven have yet to record a win at home this season, despite sellout crowds at every home match, but have recorded a 1-1-1 record on the road. Midfielder Sergio Peña leads Indy in scoring with two goals on the season and will be the key player in their success on Saturday. Kristian Nicht has also returned to Indy Eleven after the club had transferred him to the Montreal Impact during their chase for the CONCACAF Champions League title. The Impact released Nicht shortly after the final and Indy Eleven quickly signed their keeper.

On most days games are won and lost in the midfield and while the team that controls the middle of the pitch remains likely to come out on top, this game will be won and lost by the team that can put away their chances.

Fury FC took six out of nine possible points from Indy last season recording their first-ever road victory 4-2 and taking another win in Indy 2-1 later in the season with the Eleven stealing the points at TD Place with a 2-1 win of their own.

The New York Cosmos may appear to be the mid-season favourites to win the Spring campaign, the standings are very tight, so much so that Ottawa could find themselves within a point of a post-season position with a win. Through 35 games in the NASL this season, 14 have ended in a draw, 14 have been decided by one goal and 7 have been decided by two goals.

Fury FC close out their Spring Season home schedule against FC Edmonton on May 29 before a two-game road trip to complete the NASL Spring campaign in Jacksonville (June 7) and San Antonio (June 13). Tickets to the May 29 match available at OttawaFuryFC.com.

ABOUT THE INDY ELEVEN:

Indy Eleven was launched by Keystone Group CEO Ersal Ozdemir on January 16, 2013, to play in the North American Soccer League, beginning with the 2014 season. Originally born under the Indy Pro Soccer moniker, the club officially adopted its Indy Eleven identity on April 25, 2013, during a ceremony held at the iconic Soldiers and Sailors Monument - 152 years to the day of the initial enlistment of the 11th Indiana Regiment during the Civil War.

The unique Indy Eleven identity reflects the club's fans' desire to have a name tied both to the culture of "the beautiful game" and the State of Indiana, with the name referencing the 11 players giving their all on the field of play in addition to paying homage to the 11th Regiment of Indiana Volunteers, which fought for the Union Army during the Civil War. The inspiration for the name came from Donna Schmink, the Collection Manager at the Indiana War Museum, who, when asked by team officials for ideas on a team name connected to Indiana history, suggested "the Eleventh" in honor of the regiment that valiantly fought under the initial direction of Colonel Lew Wallace.

Indy Eleven's vision is to create a team that is representative of Indiana and creates strong emotional connections with its fans. Those connections - embodied in the team's symbolic name, crest and colors - will be made with Indiana's youth and adult soccer community and the active young adult urban and ethnic populations. The makeup of the team will reflect the community, so that it can live up to its slogan of "The World's Game, Indiana's Team."

About Ottawa Fury FC

Ottawa became the 9th club in the modern era of the North American Soccer League on June 20, 2011 when the NASL awarded an expansion franchise granted to the Ottawa Sports and Entertainment Group (OSEG). On February 26, 2013 it was announced that Ottawa's newest pro sports team would bear the name Ottawa Fury FC - a named already deeply rooted in the Ottawa soccer community. Ottawa Fury FC play out of TD Place at the redeveloped Lansdowne Park.

Prior to being granted an NASL franchise, the organization existed as the Ottawa Fury Soccer Club - one of the most recognizable names at the development level across North America. Founded in 2000, current Fury FC President and OSEG Partner John Pugh purchased the Fury franchise in 2002 and would spend the next decade building one of the most respected youth academies in North America, a successful PDL program that has seen players move on to the professional ranks and the W-League's most storied franchise that captured a North American Championship in 2012. The Club boasted several successful grassroots, skill development and community programs that, alongside the Youth Academy, continue under the Fury FC banner.

About the North American Soccer League (NASL)

The North American Soccer League is a professional soccer league established in the United States and Canada. The NASL member teams are: Atlanta Silverbacks, Carolina RailHawks, FC Edmonton, Fort Lauderdale Strikers, Indy Eleven, Minnesota United FC, New York Cosmos, Ottawa Fury FC, San Antonio Scorpions FC and Tampa Bay Rowdies. Jacksonville Armada FC will commence play in 2015, while Oklahoma City and Virginia Cavalry FC kick off their inaugural season in 2016. For more information about the NASL, visit www.NASL.com. About TD Place

TD PLACE at Lansdowne is Ottawa's exciting new urban sports and entertainment destination, featuring a spectacular 24,000 seat outdoor stadium and newly refurbished 10,000 seat indoor arena. TD Place will be the home of the CFL's Ottawa REDBLACKS of the CFL, Ottawa Fury FC of the NASL, and the OHL's Ottawa 67's. It will host concerts and performances by headline acts and entertainers the year-round. And it will all be surrounded by the restaurants, clubs, shops, services and excitement of the all-new Lansdowne community!

It's been home to CFL and Grey Cup drama, FIFA Women's World Cup games, FIFA U-20 World Cup games, performances by the Rolling Stones, David Bowie and the Tragically Hip. And now the stadium at TD Place has been transformed into a 24,000-seat venue that includes a dramatic and unique new south stand superstructure, a completely refurbished north stand, an all-new playing surface and new high tech scoreboards and in-stadium signage and services. Field Dimensions for Soccer: 105m x 68m (120y x 90y) - FieldTurf Revolution.
