MATCH PREVIEW:

While Fury FC find themselves south of the border for Canada Day, there could still be fireworks on July 1st for the club representing our nation's capital. Paul Dalglish's side clash with Louisville City FC who sit second in the tightly-contested USL Eastern Conference. Five points separate Ottawa (5th) and Louisville (2nd) in the East.

Both teams are on a good run lately with Louisville City FC having lost only two games this season, but saw their 5-game unbeaten streak snapped last weekend with a 1-0 loss against Harrisburg. Fury FC have lost just one of their last seven fixtures and have proved to be a strong side away from home in 2017.

Ottawa's Canadian content will try to lead the way for Fury FC, as Carl Haworth and Jamar Dixon will be looking to add on another solid performance in Louisville. Haworth has played three games – 119 minutes – since coming back from his ankle injury that forced him to miss the first 11 games of the season and the longest serving Fury FC member has already picked up two assists.

Haworth delivered a perfect corner to Dixon last Saturday setting up the Ottawa native for his first goal in Fury FC colours. Dixon's brilliant play in midfield should once again be on display this weekend against a very tight-defensive squad who conceded only 10 goals in 13 games.

After wrapping up a busy stretch of three games in eight days, Ottawa had a full week of training to prepare for its first-ever meeting against Louisville, so expect Fury FC to come out flying in Saturday's game which will be needed against the Eastern Conference's best defensive side. Louisville kicked off their 2017 campaign with a six-game unbeaten run before dropping a 2-0 decision to the Tampa Rowdies. James O'Connor's side bounced back right after with another impressive 5-game undefeated streak that ended last weekend in Harrisburg with a 1-0 loss against the City Islanders.

Following Saturday's match, Fury FC will come back to Ottawa to prepare for their next road fixture which is scheduled for Saturday July 8th in Toronto when they face TFC II. Fury FC return home on July 12 for a friendly against the Montreal Impact before hosting the Rochester Rhinos on July 15.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING:

Fury FC GM and Head Coach, Paul Dalglish:

"I always like watching James' teams play. They play attractive football, they build from the back and Louisville is no different, they're a very good side. We have to go there and understand that there will be spells of the game when they have possession but remain disciplined and play our style. I'm confident we'll have a good performance."

Fury FC Defender, Kyle Venter:

"Louisville is a good team that's been in the Conference Finals the last couple of years and are always hard to play against, especially at home. We're getting our legs back into it after three games in one week and we will try to go in there and get the best result we can. We will have to rely on what we are good at which is staying true to ourselves and our identity. We'll have to stay compact and not give them anything easy."

Fury FC Captain, Lance Rozeboom:

"It will be a very tough game. They're very good at home and they are definitely one of the, if not the best team in the East. We know it's going to be a good challenge for us and we will have to be ready for it. I feel like the guys are read and I'm excited to see what we are made of. You always want to test yourselves against the best, so it's a great opportunity for us."

ABOUT LOUISVILLE CITY FC

Louisville City FC is an American professional soccer club based in Louisville, Kentucky. Louisville City FC principal owner Wayne Estopinal acquired the USL license previously held by Orlando City when the latter began play in Major League Soccer (MLS) as an expansion side in 2014. Orlando City SC holds a minority ownership stake in Louisville City FC. The team maintained the colors of the Orlando City franchise, and installed former Orlando City player-coach James O'Connor as its first manager. Home games are played at Louisville Slugger Field. Though Slugger Field officially seats 13,131 for baseball games, an attendance of 8,000 is considered a soccer sellout due to limited viewing in the stadium's current baseball diamond configuration.
