MATCH NOTES

MATCH PREVIEW:

Wednesday night marks the start of a busy eight days for Fury FC with the first of three matches in that run coming against Orlando City B. While Ottawa is coming off their most dominant and impressive performance of the season in Saturday's 3-1 win over the Eastern Conference leading Charlotte Independence.

This week began with a major change with head coach and GM Paul Dalglish resigning from his position that will see Julian de Guzman take over the helm of Fury FC.

After busting Charlotte's 12-game unbeaten run in their last outing, Fury FC will look to halt another streak on Wednesday as Orlando is in the midst of an impressive eight-match unbeaten streak of its own. OCB also holds a one-point edge on Fury FC in the race for a playoff spot, but Fury FC hold two games in hand. With both clubs on the outside-looking-in on the playoff picture, expect an intense affair in central Florida.

Gerardo Bruna – who is possibly in his best form since joining the club in 2016 – will be looking to continue his streak. The Argentine midfielder has scored a goal and picked up two assists in his last three games, while also being named to the USL Team of the Week twice in the past three weeks.

Ottawa will try to continue their offensive prowess against Orlando. Having generated 62 shots in their last four games (19 on target), Fury FC will need to be clinical in their finishing as Orlando City B boast the best defensive record in the Eastern Conference (21 goals against in 22 matches). Orlando's goalkeeper Earl Edwards Jr. is tied for first place in the USL with eight clean sheets.

Orlando will be coming into Wednesday's game with plenty of confidence. Currently in the midst of an eight-game unbeaten streak, Orlando's last loss came on June 20 when they fell 1-0 to Fury FC at TD Place in front of a raucous crowd for the club's first-ever School Day Game. Anthony Pulis' side is coming into Wednesday's game after a 1-0 win against Richmond last Saturday. Hadji Barry is Orlando's leading scorer with five goals, while Pierre Da Silva leads the club in assists with seven.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING:

Fury FC GM and Head Coach, Julian de Guzman:

"It won't be an easy game for us. They certainly want revenge from our first meeting this season. So we expect nothing but a strong side. It's very important for us to start this three-game road trip on a good note. It's key to perform well and continue to gain confidence which will allow us to grow in the right direction throughout these 10 days on the road."

Fury FC Midfielder, Gerardo Bruna:

"It's going to be a difficult game because we don't know what to expect from them. They are a young team with plenty of energy but there also could be some MLS players that make an appearance. But I feel we are ready and we will perform well."

Fury FC Defender, Ramon Martin Del Campo:

"We see this game against Orlando the same way we see all games, a must win. We need to win for our fans, our club and our city, especially at this time of the year. We are kicking off a three game road trip so it is vastly important to have a good game in Orlando. It will set the tempo. But we really need to be focused on one game at a time."

ABOUT ORLANDO CITY B

On June 30, 2015, Orlando City SC announced that they would operate a USL club starting in 2016, in the Central Florida area. The team would be their USL affiliate, and Orlando City and Louisville City (their USL affiliate club for 2015) had negotiated a "long-term formal partnership" to replace their affiliation arrangement.

Orlando City also announced that Anthony Pulis would coach the new team. Pulis was a player for Orlando City SC's USL club from 2011–14 and is the son of Tony Pulis, currently the manager of English Premier League side West Bromwich Albion F.C.
