MATCH PREVIEW:

Following a very resounding and richly deserved 2-0 win over Toronto FC II last weekend, Ottawa Fury FC return to action Saturday evening under the lights at TD Place when they host Bethlehem Steel FC. Saturday's contest marks the second and final meeting between the two clubs after they played to a 1-1 draw in June.

Fury FC Head Coach and GM, Paul Dalglish believes that last Saturday's win was a mark of a season's worth of hard work. The stats from the match, supports Dalglish's beliefs. Ottawa generated 27 shots against Toronto FC II, 19 of which came from inside the box and five were on target.

The next step for Ottawa is to feed off of the confidence gained with the win over TFC II and reproduce that same kind of performance against Bethlehem in a "six-point game". Although this time, Fury FC will be looking to be even more clinical in front of the net.

In order to defeat Bethlehem, Ottawa will also count on its loyal fans who have showed up in great numbers over the last few weeks. Fury FC are very confident at home this season, having lost only once in nine USL games.

Ottawa is riding a two-game unbeaten streak coming into Saturday's game and is also undefeated in its last six USL games at home (4W-2D-0L). The game against Bethlehem will mark the third of four consecutive home matches for Fury FC.

Bethlehem Steel FC, the official affiliate of the Philadelphia Union of Major League Soccer, are coming to Ottawa after suffering a tough 4-0 loss against the Charlotte Independence at home last weekend. Brendan Burke's side is currently on a two-game losing skid and was outscored 7-2 during those two games. Bethlehem had a tough start to the 2017 campaign, losing six of its first nine games. The Pennsylvanian club was able to turn things around with an 8-game unbeaten streak after that (5W-3D-0L), before losing their last two matches. Seku Conneh is the club's leading scorer – 9th in the USL – with seven goals.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING:

Fury FC GM and Head Coach, Paul Dalglish:

"The second part of the season is to pick up points and put on good performances. We've implemented our tactics in the first part, now it's just maintenance and let the guys play free. We have to keep our positive momentum going. We can't be satisfied with one good performance, now we need to have two, three, four, five in a row and make sure that we are in good form going into playoffs."

Fury FC Forward, Carl Haworth:

"It's a big one for us. We can't get complacent in a situation like this. Yes, we had a good performance against Toronto and we've done a lot of good things in that game on the offensive and defensive side of things. It's just about taking those principles and carrying them into this weekend. We have to take confidence from it and keep building on it."

Fury FC Midfielder, Gerardo Bruna:

"We had a good performance last weekend, but now we are going to face a tough opponent in Bethlehem Steel. We had a draw against them in our first game and we are fighting against them for a playoff spot, so it's going to be a tough game but hopefully in front of our fans we will be able to collect the three points."
