Weekly Storylines:

- Fury FC tied a club record Sunday registering their fifth consecutive draw. It was last August/September when they produced five straight draws amidst a seven-match unbeaten run
- Nick DePuy's equalizer was his first professional goal since being drafted by Montreal in the 2017 MLS Draft
- Ottawa has now scored at least one goal in seven straight matches and 11 of their last 12
- With four games remaining Ottawa trails Bethlehem by 5 points and Orlando City B by six points for the final two playoff spots. Ottawa can finish the season with a maximum of 45 points
- Fury FC has lost just twice in 19 lifetime matches in the month of September (8W-9D-2L)
- Harrisburg has conceded at least one goal in eight straight contests being outscored 18-7
- Ropapa Mensah leads the City Islanders in scoring with 5 goals
- Wednesday night's match marks Ottawa's second of three games in an eight-day stretch

Scouting Harrisburg: After going goalless and winless in the month of August (0W-1D-4L 0GF 12GA), Harrisburg has had a solid performance in September going 2-1-1 with seven goals in four matches. Unbeaten in their last three Harrisburg will look to home field advantage (5W-5D-4L at home) to help them pass Ottawa in the standings.

Head-to-Head: Ottawa claimed a 1-0 win over Harrisburg at TD Place on June 10 thanks to a second half strike from Sito. Harrisburg keeper Sean Lewis was the difference maker on the day with 7 saves to keep the score close.

MATCH NOTES

MATCH PREVIEW:

After extending their unbeaten streak to five under the scorching sun on an unseasonably hot Sunday afternoon at TD Place, Ottawa Fury FC will look to move the needle in their quest for a playoff spot as they face the Harrisburg City Islanders at FNB Field on Wednesday, September 27 at 6:30 p.m.

Coming off of five consecutive draws, which ties a club record, Ottawa remains five points back of a playoff spot. Not from a lack of scoring form – Ottawa has registered at least one goal in each of their last seven games – head coach De Guzman's side has yet to fully capitalize from its renewed energy and productive style of play.

On the opposite end, the City Islanders will be sporting fresh legs, having last played over a week ago – a 2-1 win vs Toronto FC II). Sitting only two points behind Ottawa, a result on Wednesday could be pivotal for both teams. For Ottawa, they can pull to within two points of the eighth and final playoff spot, for Harrisburg they would be mathematically eliminated from post-season contention.

The last time the two met, Fury FC claimed a 1-0 win. A close score line salvaged by the prowess of Harrisburg's keeper Sean Lewis, who kept his club in the game for the better part of the second half.

With only four matches left in the regular schedule and still everything to play for, the Fury FC will look to make the most of this matchup, the only remaining match against a club ranked lower than they are in the standings.

Ottawa will return home to close out their run of three-games in eight days hosting the Charleston Battery in another Sunday matinee.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING:

Fury FC GM and Head Coach, Julian de Guzman:

- "Three points, three points and three points. We need to be brave and keep faith as we have in recent performances because the results we've been fighting for will follow."
- "Harrisburg won't be easy for a second and they have something to prove. It's our job to play our game and stick to what matters most, us!"

Jonathan Barden – Midfielder:

- "The lads are looking forward to the game this weekend. We wanted to come away with a win against Louisville on Sunday and we had the chances to do so, but unfortunately like too many times this season we didn't put them away."
- "Playoffs are going to be hard now, but we approach every game with a must-win attitude and that won't change against Harrisburg. Performance wise, I feel that things are moving in the right direction and we just need to turn one of those good performances into three points which that fans deserve."

ABOUT HARRISBURG:

The Harrisburg City Islanders are an American professional soccer team based in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, United States and were founded in 2003. The Harrisburg City Islanders were announced as a new professional soccer team on September 24, 2003 as a member of the USL Pro Soccer League's Atlantic Division. As the team prepared for its inaugural season, Bill Becher was named the first head coach of the club. Since the USL restructured, the City Islanders have struggled to keep pace, missing out on the playoffs for both the 2015 and 2016 seasons. On January 5, 2017, the United States Soccer Federation granted USL provisional Division II status; making the 2017 season the first time the City Islanders would compete as a Division II team
