MATCH PREVIEW:

Confidence is high among Fury FC players heading into Sunday's afternoon crucial tilt with the USL Eastern Conference-leading Louisville City FC. The first of three games in eight days, Ottawa's playoffs aspirations will undoubtedly be decided over the course of the next week.

Stretching their unbeaten run to four games with a 1-1 draw last Saturday in Charlotte, Julian de Guzman's side continues to produce an exciting brand of soccer and find the back of the net – they've scored at least one goal in six of their last seven games.

Their opponent for Sunday is no slouch. Leaders of the USL Eastern Conference, Louisville stole all three points from their mid-week tilt against Rochester to pad their first place lead. The highest scoring side in the conference with the second best defence, LouCity – who have already clinched a playoff spot – will be gunning for all three points which would all but lock up top spot in the East.

When Ottawa and Louisville last met, Fury FC were edged 2-1 on July 1 in a match that featured some spectacular saves from Callum Irving and a late surge from Ottawa that fell short after a goal from Steevan Dos Santos put an added jump in their step.

Ottawa remains in control of their playoffs aspirations and a win on Sunday could pull them to within striking distance of Orlando City B – the eighth place side that Ottawa also holds a game-in-hand on.

Gerardo Bruna is back available after serving his one-match suspension, following a red card against Rochester two weekends ago. Sergio Manesio, Jonathan Barden, Shane McEleney and Steevan Dos Santos are all one yellow card away from a one-match suspension due to yellow card accumulation.

Prior to the match, the club will honour its longest serving player, Carl Haworth, who featured in his 100th career match with Fury FC on September 9th in Rochester.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING:

Fury FC GM and Head Coach, Julian de Guzman:

- "Over the last few games we've seen a lot of moments that demonstrate that we're a playoff team. Unfortunately, we haven't been able to do it for 90-minutes. We just need to bring our performance up a notch and keep it for the full-90 and we'll win our results."
- "Wins at home are mandatory for the rest of the season. A win at home against Louisville will generate the type of momentum that we've been chasing in this last run of matches."

Eddie Edward – Defender:

- "This team continues to be confident and we know we're capable of beating anyone. Each and every day we work very hard and we continue to believe that we can make the playoffs. We just need to focus it one-game-at-a-time and rise to the big occasion."
- "I believe so much in this team. Regardless of what is at stake the mindset is always to win every game. Now we just need to go out there and do it!"

ABOUT LOUISVILLE CITY FC

Louisville City FC is an American professional soccer club based in Louisville, Kentucky. Louisville City FC principal owner Wayne Estopinal acquired the USL license previously held by Orlando City when the latter began play in Major League Soccer (MLS) as an expansion side in 2014. Orlando City SC holds a minority ownership stake in Louisville City FC. The team maintained the colors of the Orlando City franchise, and installed former Orlando City player-coach James O'Connor as its first manager. Home games are played at Louisville Slugger Field. Though Slugger Field officially seats 13,131 for baseball games, an attendance of 8,000 is considered a soccer sellout due to limited viewing in the stadium's current baseball diamond configuration.
