MATCH PREVIEW:

July 12 will be a special night at TD Place as Ottawa Fury FC host yet another MLS opponent - the Montreal Impact. The match will not only mark the first meeting between the two clubs at TD Place, but also a night where fans will have the opportunity, for one final time, to see Julian de Guzman play as the former captain of Fury FC and Canada's Men's National Team announced that he would come out of retirement for the match. Wednesday match will see the third and final Canadian MLS side come to TD Place where Fury FC have had strong performances against their Canadian foes. Ottawa produced a 2-1 come-from-behind win over Toronto FC in first leg the Canadian Championship semifinal this season after handing the Vancouver Whitecaps a 2-0 defeat in the tournament's semifinal round last year.

For de Guzman, and the fans, Wednesday night's match will be a final opportunity to recognize one of Canada's greatest players. His last match came July 30 of last year before an injury sidelined him for the duration of the season. After contemplating his future in the game during the offseason, de Guzman called it a career in January, beginning the next chapter of his career with Fury FC as the club's assistant GM and assistant coach.

Fury FC are coming into Wednesday's match following a tough 1-0 loss against TFC II last Saturday – despite dominating in every statistical category. Paul Dalglish's side will be looking to offer a good performance to its fans and gather some confidence ahead of a crucial 4-game home stand starting Saturday afternoon against Rochester. Fury FC entered into a year-long partnership with Montreal in last December. Since they announced their partnership, four Montreal players have signed with Fury FC for the 2017 season (David Paulmin, Aron Mkungilwa, Thomas Meilleur-Giguère and Jimmy-Shammar Sanon) with an additional two coming to Ottawa on loan (Michael Salazar and Nick DePuy).

Montreal is coming to Ottawa after losing two of its last three contests and being outscored 7-4 – most recently IMFC lost 3-1 against Houston a week ago. The club kicked off the 2017 campaign with a 1W-3D-4L record, but have turned things around lately, with a 4W-2D-3L record since. The Impact currently sits in ninth place in the MLS Eastern Conference with a 5W-6D-6L MLS record.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING:

Furv FC GM and Head Coach, Paul Dalalish:

"When you play against teams from higher divisions you learn more about yourself because they exploit things that were unexploited before. It also gives you a chance to have a measuring stick of where you are at as a player. We've always performed very well against MLS teams here at TD Place. We're looking forward to it, this is a celebration of the partnership between the two clubs and hopefully, the guys can showcase their skills.

Fury FC Assistant Coach, Julian de Guzman:

"It's a wonderful experience for the organization, but also for the players to showcase themselves at MLS levels, because a lot of them aspire to reach that level at some point. It's also great for the fans to witness a Canadian professional team from MLS to come here."

"Fury FC was my last club so I was really grateful and thrilled when they offered me the opportunity to come back for one game. It is my new home and to that here in Ottawa against an MLS team is a wonderful experience. I'm really looking forward to it."

Furv FC Defender, Thomas Meilleur-Giauère:

"This is a great opportunity for the team. We want to bounce back after the last game and prove to everyone that we can play against an MLS team. For me personally, the Impact is my first club, so I'll be happy to see some of the players I've played with and I want to prove them that I can compete at this level."

ABOUT MONTREAL:

The Montreal Impact is a Canadian professional soccer team based in Montreal, Quebec. The Impact competes as a member of the Eastern Conference in Major League Soccer (MLS). The team began play in 2012 as an expansion team of the league, being the league's third Canadian club, and replaced the North American Soccer League team of the same name.

In 2015, the Impact became the second MLS club, and first Canadian club, to advance to the final of the CONCACAF Champions League, in its current format since 2008, where they had finished runners up in the two game aggregate goal series against Club América. The Impact had won the Canadian Championship in 2013 and 2014.
