MATCH PREVIEW:

Coming off of a clutch win earlier in the week over Orlando in front of a USL School Day record crowd, Ottawa Fury FC look to extend their home winning streak to five games and continue their climb the USL Eastern Conference standings when they face New York Red Bulls II on Saturday afternoon.

Fury FC hold a two-point advantage over Red Bulls II in the tightly contested Eastern Conference adding further value to the three points up for grabs on Saturday. The last time these two sides met, Ottawa escaped with all three points with an impressive come-from-behind win erasing a 3-2 deficit to claim the 4-3 win. The goals in that fixture came from Tucker Hume, Sito, Michael Salazar and Ryan Williams.

While Ottawa will be looking to convert more offensive chances against New York on Saturday, Fury FC will also try to continue their defensive success as they have only conceded two goals in their last four games. After picking up his fifth clean sheet of the season on Tuesday, Callum Irving is currently tied for second in the league for clean sheets and his distribution abilities have proven beneficial to Ottawa's attack.

Fatigue could perhaps prove a concern for Paul Dalglish's side, however he was able to give his leading scorers Ryan Williams and Sito the day off on Tuesday in that 1-0 win over Orlando. With Steevan Dos Santos and Carl Haworth both now back in the line-up and match fitness improving, Dalglish has ample depth in his attacking players. Saturday's affair will mark Ottawa's third contest in eight days.

After losing to Ottawa on May 20, New York bounced back with back-to-back wins against Charleston and Richmond, before losing their last two games. Red Bulls II lost 3-0 against Louisville on June 11, before dropping a 2-0 decision against Bethlehem five days later. While New York has the second best offence in the Eastern Conference with 22 goals scored through 14 games, the club also has also the worst defensive record in the East, having allowed 28 goals. Ottawa will once again have to keep an eye on Red Bulls II leading point-getter, Vincent Bezecourt who is tied for first in USL for assists, with 6, and is tied for eleventh in scoring, with five goals.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING:

Fury FC GM and Head Coach, Paul Dalglish:

"They've scored more goals than us and conceded more goals than us so there are not many zeros in their fixtures. It should be open. We will need to be mindful of their attacking pieces and then make sure that we continue doing what has made us successful on the other side of the ball. Although we have a small squad, we have a quality squad. Doesn't matter what 11 we put out there, we know it's going to be a quality one."

Fury FC Goalkeeper, Callum Irving:

"I believe that they are going to come in and give us another tough game. They are a talented team and we have to come in with the same intensity that we displayed against Orlando. Ultimately, it falls upon us to produce a performance and so if we are able to come out firing, then we should be very confident"

Fury FC Forward, Steevan Dos Santos:

"I expect another difficult game, just like the first one, but this time we play at home and we need the three points to keep climbing up the table. The plan is to do what we did against Orlando and do even better. On a personal level, it's a good feeling to be back and I was very happy to score the game-winning goal to help the team. After a missing month of action because of an injury, it definitely feels good to be playing again."

ABOUT THE RED BULLS II

The New York Red Bulls II were founded on January 21, 2015, when the New York Red Bulls acquired the rights to start a USL club. Red Bulls II competes in the third tier of American soccer and serves as a reserve side for the first team as well as a developmental stage for young prospects and academy players. The club follows in the footsteps of many MLS clubs who created USL sides to help promote youth development throughout the nation. After spending the majority of the 2015 and 2016 season playing at Red Bull Arena, the club announced on May 10, 2016 that their new home field would be at Montclair State University's MSU Soccer Park at Pittser Field starting in 2017.
