MATCH NOTES

MATCH PREVIEW:

Great moments are born from great opportunities and Fury FC have a huge opportunity on Tuesday evening at TD Place in what could prove to be one of the biggest matches in club history. Ottawa will host the five-time Canadian champions and current holders of the Voyageurs Cup, Toronto FC, in the first leg of the Canadian Championship Semifinals.

The Semifinals open with the two clubs not only battling for national bragging rights, but for Provincial pride too as Fury FC and Toronto FC go head-to-head for the first-time in the Battle of Ontario. Ottawa's first foray into the semifinals came last season against the Vancouver Whitecaps where they made a strong first impression in the club's first-ever test against MLS competition. A 2-0 victory over the Caps in front of a raucous crowd of 9000+ at TD Place cemented itself as one of the most memorable games in club history.

Led by Canadian International goalkeeper Callum Irving, Fury FC will look to their standout defence to stifle the red-hot Toronto FC in the first leg on Tuesday night. While it was Ottawa's sound defensive play that put them 1-0 ahead of FC Edmonton after the first leg of the preliminary round, it was their offence that powered them to a 4-2 aggregate win over the Eddies thanks to three goals in the second leg that started with Sito's opener just 39 seconds into the match – the second fastest goal in Canadian Championship history.

Fury FC will enter Tuesday's match just 72-hours after picking up a crucial 4-3 road win in New York thanks to a late rally to send them past Red Bulls II. It was this highest scoring affair in club history as Fury FC have now scored seven goals in their past three matches. Tuesday's match will be special for Fury FC Assistant Coach Julian de Guzman, who played for his hometown club, Toronto FC, from 2009 to 2012. In September 2009, de Guzman became the first-ever Canadian Designated Player in MLS history. During his three seasons with Toronto, de Guzman featured in 93 games, scored three goals and won three consecutive Canadian Championship titles.

As Fury FC try to become the first non-MLS club to reach the Canadian Championship Final, they will need to be ready and focused against this red-hot Toronto FC side, who is currently riding a seven-game unbeaten streak (6W-1D-0L). Just like Fury FC, TFC were also in the Big Apple this weekend, facing the Red Bulls. Toronto FC saw their six-game winning streak in MLS come to an end Friday evening against New York, but extended their unbeaten streak to seven games with a 1-1 draw. The hottest team in Major League Soccer right now is led by international stars Sebastian Giovinco, Jozy Altidore and Michael Bradley. Greg Vanney's squad also boasts a strong core of Canadian talents that includes the likes of Tosaint Ricketts, Jonathan Osorio and their new starlet Raheem Edwards.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING:

Fury FC GM and Head Coach, Paul Dalglish:

"We know what system Toronto will play but have no idea who the 11 will be. Regardless, we need to be aggressive. If they play a strong team and we sit back we will allow good players time on the ball and allow them to hurt us. If we are aggressive and don't allow them time on the ball then we make them have to work hard to get anything out of the game. Regardless of who they start they are going to know they are in a game."

Fury FC Forward, Tucker Hume:

"It was a great feeling getting my first professional goal, I've been working hard and it's nice to see the ball go in. It gives me great confidence going forward because now the first one is out of the way and now I'm hungrier to get more goals. I expect a lot of quality from TFC, they are in great form right now and will be very organized tactically, also individually they have a lot of quality."

Fury FC Midfielder, Jamar Dixon:

"We need to stay focused on what we're doing right at this moment and continue to get better. We need to limit our mistakes and capitalize on our chances. It's going to be a great game and an opportunity to see how we match up against a top MLS team. TFC is a good team so we need to be ready to battle. They have a well-rounded team both offensively and defensively, their record proves this."

ABOUT TORONTO FC:

Toronto FC began play in 2007 as an expansion team, and was the first Canadian based franchise in the league. The team is coached by Greg Vanney and operated by Maple Leaf Sports & Entertainment,

Toronto FC are five-time winners of the Canadian Championship – most recently in 2016 when they defeated the Vancouver Whitecaps – were 2011-12 CONCACAF Champions League semi-finalists, and were 2016 MLS Cup Playoffs Eastern Conference champions.

In 2016, after clinching their second consecutive playoff spot, Toronto went on an impressive run, which saw them lose MLS Cup Final at home to the Seattle Sounders 5-4 in penalty shoot-out following a goalless draw after extra-time
