Weekly Storylines:

- Fury FC captured their first USL win last Saturday in Richmond defeating the Kickers 1-0 thanks to a spectacular goal from the halfway line by Steevan Dos Santos – his first with Ottawa
- Callum Irving made three clutch saves in the 1-0 win to collect his first clean sheet in Fury FC colours
- Saturday's match will mark Ottawa's first game at TD Place since October 29, 2016
- After three games played, Lance Rozeboom is leading Fury FC in terms of pass completion (86%)
- Fury FC lost 2-1 against Toronto FC II in preseason action March 3 at KIA Field
- Toronto is currently on a three-game winless streak (0W-1D-2L), most recently sharing the points in a 0-0 draw against Rochester two weeks ago and are coming off a bye-week
- TFC II have the 4th worst conversion rate in the USL (shots/goals) with 8%

Scouting Toronto FC II: Toronto comes into Saturday's game after enjoying a bye week last weekend. TFC II are currently on a three-game winless streak (0W-1D-2L). After winning their season opener 1-0 against Phoenix Rising FC, they lost two in a row – against the Tampa Bay and Orlando – before splitting the points in a scoreless draw against the Rochester Rhinos two weeks ago.

Head-to-Head: Saturday's match-up marks the first-ever regular season meeting between Ottawa and Toronto. The two teams will meet three times this season. Fury FC dropped a 2-1 decision against TFC II in preseason action.

Injuries/Suspensions: Carl Haworth: Ankle (March 14: Out 4-6 weeks)

MATCH NOTES

MATCH PREVIEW:

After a three-game road trip to open the 2017 USL season, Ottawa Fury FC return home to TD Place for their much anticipated Home Opener against Toronto FC II Saturday afternoon as chapter one of the 'Battle of Ontario' is set to be written.

Head coach Paul Dalglish and his players hope that the return home will give them an added boost as they look to collect a second straight win and continue to climb the USL standings.

It's been six months since Ottawa played at TD Place. The club's attendance averaged around the 5500 mark in 2016, as the average attendance for Fury FC continued to increase for another season. An anticipated crowd of 6000 energetic fans are expected for Saturday's All-Canadian home opener.

Saturday afternoon against TFC II, Paul Dalglish and his squad will be looking to feed off of the energy of the crowd to display a strong performance. Fury FC will be coming into their home opener with a lot of confidence after securing their first USL win last weekend when they defeated the Richmond Kickers 1-0 with Steevan Dos Santos scoring a spectacular goal from the halfway line.

Even though Saturday's fixture marks the first of three USL meetings this year between Ottawa and Toronto, Fury FC will also be looking to avenge the 2-1 loss that they suffered at the hands of TFC II in preseason action.

Toronto comes into Saturday's game after enjoying a bye week last weekend. TFC II are currently on a three-game winless streak (0W-1D-2L). After winning their season opener 1-0 against Phoenix Rising FC, they lost two in a row – against the Tampa Bay Rowdies and Orlando City B – before splitting up the points in a scoreless draw against the Rochester Rhinos two weeks ago.

What they're saying

Fury FC GM and Head Coach, Paul Dalglish:

"We've got wonderful fans. They showed up in numbers last year when we had our rebuilding year and we want to repay them this year with quality performances. There's no point in complaining about how hard it is to start the season on the road if you don't make a statement on home games. We definitely want to make a statement."

Fury FC Goalkeeper, Callum Irving:

"I'm super excited. Before I came here I was watching all the highlights videos from the games last year and just looking at all the fans in the stadium and thinking I can't wait to play on that pitch. We have to keep the same work rate that we've had in the previous weeks. We can't get complacent after winning our first game. We need to keep improving and hopefully we can get another good result Saturday."

Fury FC forward, Steevan Dos Santos:

"We have to focus on Toronto now, the Richmond game is over. We need to move on and do our best to get another win. When I got here I heard about the rivalry between Ottawa and Toronto so I think we can use that as an extra motivation to get three points in front of our fans. We're very excited. "

ABOUT TORONTO FC II :

Founded in 2014, TFC II is based in Vaughn with their home field being the Ontario Soccer Centre. TFC II plays in the United Soccer League (USL) which is USA's third division soccer league, under Major League Soccer and the North American Soccer League.

TFC II helps develop players from TFC's youth academy and prepares them for TFC's senior team. The club essentially closes the gap between the youth academy and the senior team, to help players transition smoothly to the senior team.

TFC II's 28 man roster consists of 16-23 year olds, 14 of which are under the age of 20. The squad is built of mostly Canadian player and also features 6 homegrown players who have graduated from TFC's academy.
