MATCH NOTES:

Weekly Storylines:

- Despite out shooting and out chancing the USL Eastern Conference leaders, Ottawa was edged 1-0 against the Rowdies last Saturday in Tampa Bay
- Saturday's match against Richmond marks Ottawa's last of three road games to open the season
- Shane McEleney returns to the lineup for Fury FC after serving his one-match suspension
- Ottawa will be facing several familiar faces in Richmond, as former Fury FC members Marcel DeBellis (GK), Mallan Roberts (D), Maxim Tissot (M) and Oliver Minatel (F) are now playing for the Kickers
- The Kickers are coming off a 1-0 loss to Louisville City FC suffered last Saturday
- Richmond's Head Coach, Leigh Cowlishaw, has been an integral member of the Kickers franchise since the club's inception in 1993. He played 152 games for Richmond over two stints with the club (93-99; 07-09)
- The Kickers are one of the more storied franchises in the USL's history having featured in USL A-League and USL First and Second Divisions winning the USL Second Division title twice (2006, 2009)

Scouting the Kickers: After winning their season opener 1-0 against the Harrisburg City Islanders, the Kickers have lost their last two games – a pair of 1-0 losses to New York and Louisville respectively. Richmond have been part of the USL Cup Playoffs every season and have conceded less than 30 goals in five of the past six seasons.

Head-to-Head: Saturday will mark the first meeting ever between Ottawa Fury FC and the Richmond Kickers.

Injuries/Suspensions: Carl Haworth: Ankle (March 14: Out 4-6 weeks)

MATCH NOTES

MATCH PREVIEW:

Fury FC travel to Richmond for their third contest of the season Saturday night taking on the 1-0-2 Kickers in their final road match before their April 22 home opener. While Paul Dalglish side has narrowly dropped their opening two fixtures, the GM and Head Coach believes that is not a reflection of their performances nor the potential of his squad.

While the points have gone begging in the opening two games, arguments have been made that a better fate was deserved for Ottawa in both St. Louis and Tampa Bay. With ample positives from both games, especially from Saturday's performance against the Rowdies, Fury FC bring plenty of energy into Saturday's tilt against the Kickers.

With the home opener just over a week away, players returned to their rightful home at TD Place this week as training moved outdoors bringing some added drive to the Fury players. With ample space to work with, Dalglish and his staff had the opportunity to fine tune the little things that went wrong over the first two games in order to be 100% ready for Richmond.

After winning their home opener 1-0 against the Harrisburg City Islanders to kick off the 2017 USL season, Richmond have lost their last two games – a pair of 1-0 losses against New York and Louisville respectively.

The Kickers have been part of the USL Cup Playoffs every season since the league kicked off in 2011 and in five of the past six seasons, the club has conceded less than 30 goals in the regular season. In three games this season, they have only conceded two goals.

While Saturday might mark the first meeting between Ottawa and Richmond, Fury FC will be facing several familiar faces at City Stadium. Former Fury FC members Marcel DeBellis (GK), Mallan Roberts (D), Maxim Tissot (M) – on loan from D.C. United – and Oliver Minatel (F) are now playing for the Virginia-based club.

What are they saying?

Fury FC GM and Head Coach, Paul Dalglish:

"The harder you work the luckier you get, so we are working really hard this week to make sure we make our own luck against Richmond. They are hard to break down and sit really deep, so scoring the first goal will be huge. We want to make sure we win our last game before our home opener."

Fury FC Captain Lance Rozeboom

"This team hasn't lost any belief whatsoever. We had two tough games on the road to start the season, so we had to face adversity right away, but we still believe in what we're doing here. Our pressing is going to be very important against Richmond and keep a shutout. If we do so we're confident that we can get a goal or two in that game. It will be good to see a few familiar faces as well and you always want to beat your former teammates so it should be a good match."

Fury FC Midfielder Jonathan Barden

"We have been working hard this week and we will be looking to exploit their weaknesses and hopefully come out with a good result. We're doing some good things we just need to keep pushing. We want to get a win in Richmond and come back home full of confidence ahead of our home opener." disrupting

ABOUT THE KICKERS:

Established in 1993, the Richmond Kickers have consistently been one of the most successful professional soccer clubs in America. Over the past 18 seasons, Richmond has qualified for postseason play 16 times, and reached the title match in 2010 for the sixth time in the past nine campaigns, falling just short of the Championship title following a 2-1 loss to the Charleston Battery.

Richmond's seven previous league Championship appearances (1995, 1996, 2002, 2005, 2006, 2007, and 2009) include winning the Premier League title in 1995, a shoot-out loss to Seattle in the USL First Division final in 2005 and taking the USL Second Division crown twice against Charlotte in 2006 and 2009. The Kickers have claimed Organization of the Year honors on five occasions (1995, 2000, 2006, 2007, and 2009) and have had 22 players progress from the Richmond Kickers into Major League Soccer.
