MATCH NOTES

Weekly Storylines:

- Ottawa Fury FC are coming off their first back-to-back wins since June 27 (including Canadian Championship).
- In Fury FC 2-0 win against Richmond on Saturday, goalkeeper Maxime Crépeau recorded his 13th shutout of the season, tying the USL single-season record held by Brandon Miller (2015, Rochester Rinos).
- With his goal on Saturday in Richmond, Carl Haworth became co-leader for Fury FC's all-time, all-competitions goal scorer, tying teammate Steevan Dos Santos at 16.
- With Ottawa's 12th win of the calendar, Head Coach Nikola Popovic established a new record for a Fury FC head coach in his first season with the club.
- In Louisville City FC, Ottawa will face current Golden Boot leader in Cameron Lancaster who has netted 19 goals already this season.

Scouting Louisville City FC: Heading into the week, Louisville was looking to break a four-game winless streak and move ahead of Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC into second place in the conference standings. Louisville was within minutes of claiming its first win since August 25 on Saturday night but it gave up two late goals in a 2-2 draw with the Hounds at Highmark Stadium. Louisville made the most of their visit to FNB Field on Wednesday as they capture an emphatic 3-0 win over Penn FC to jump to the second spot in the Eastern Conference.

Head-to-Head: This is the second and final meeting between the two sides this season. Earlier this summer, Louisville scraped a 3-0 win over Ottawa at TD Place. Last season, the two met twice, with Louisville stealing a win and Fury FC capturing a draw at home at the end of September.

Injuries/Suspensions: Michael Petrasso: hernia (September 5 - out); Onua Obasi: hamstring (September 4 - out); Daniel Kinumbe: ankle (August 21 - questionable); Maxim Tissot: knee (June 27 - out for the season); Michael Salazar and Shamit Shome: recalled to Montreal Impact.

Fourth Official: TBD

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

Head Coach Nikola Popovic

On the matchup against Louisville... "It's a very important game for us. We know they are the [reigning] champions. They have a fantastic team, very good players. It's a very difficult place to play so we have to be very focused. There is no room for mistakes. Louisville is a team that if you make a mistake they will take it [the chance]. We have to be very focused on our performance and try to be as compact as possible, and then with the ball we have to be aggressive and we have to finish the chances we create."

On the team's preparation... "Since the beginning we've had our model, our idea of how we want to play, so nothing is going to change. Perhaps some pieces will change, since we have again three games in eight days so we have to be prepared for all of them. They are all important for us at this time but we have first to be ready for Louisville."

Midfielder Jérémy Gagnon-Laparé

On the team's preparation... "It's been going well, we're on a good sequence with the two wins in the last games. We're just preparing every game on its own. The spirit's been good with the team and we just want to get this game done and execute what the coach is asking us."

On his own performance... "I'm just trying to adapt to the different tasks the coach is asking of myself and the team. I'm really happy with the playing that's for sure, now I just want to show my true self and what I can bring to this team."

Defender Eddie Edward

On the team's mindset... "I think everyone's pretty confident. We've got two positive results [of late] and obviously we know that every game matters at this time of the year. You try not to watch the table too much but you see how the teams are doing around you and you realise how crucial each point is. We know it's going to be a difficult task but we're going there with a lot of confidence and hoping for a good result."

On the back four unit's work... "Obviously anytime we can get goals, assists, it's fantastic. But a few weeks ago, when things weren't going our way offensively, we said that we were doing the right things and the goals are going to come. I don't think we changed too much, I think we sometimes just need some luck and we're getting some bounces now."
