MATCH NOTES

Weekly Storylines:

- This match is one of only 3 regular season matches left for Fury FC to play at home at TD Place.
- Fury FC GK Maxime Crépeau leads the league standings with 12 clean sheets this season, only 3 away from tying the club's record of 15 held by Romuald Peiser.
- Crépeau also leads the club for minutes played in USL this season (2,160), closely followed by Kevin Oliveira (2,157) and Jamar Dixon (1,985).
- Fury FC have maintained an average of 1,37 points per game through 30 league games.
- Saturday night's match marks Fury FC's celebration of Pride Week in Ottawa. Players will be sporting rainbow coloured numbers on their game kits, of which six will then be auctioned off online with a portion of the proceeds going to the OSEG Foundation.

Scouting Penn FC: Penn suffered its third consecutive defeat and saw its winless streak reach six games overall as it fell 3-2 to the Richmond Kickers last Saturday night at City Stadium. Penn scored twice from the penalty spot through Lucky Mkosana and Walter Ramirez but conceded a late winner and now enters the week nine points out of the playoff places with 11 games to go in the regular season.

Head-to-Head: Saturday will be the fourth meeting between the two sides, the third this season. In 2018, Fury FC has won both matchups; on a late winning goal on May 8 at Penn FC, and then in the come-from-behind win thanks to goals by Tony Taylor and Steevan Dos Santos at TD Place on July 14. In 2017, the two sides had split the honours, each winning their home match.

Injuries/Suspensions: Tony Taylor: suspended 1 game, yellow card accumulation; Jamar Dixon: foot (August 17 - questionable); Jimmy Sanon: questionable; Maxim Tissot: knee (June 27 - out for the season); Michael Salazar and Shamit Shome: recalled to Montreal Impact.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

Head Coach Nikola Popovic

On having flexibility with his formation... "The team was able to switch the shape and be able to give us a very good performance. So like for every coach, to be able to switch things like this and get a good performance is very important. Of course, these kind of switches are always related to what we have at that moment [in player availability and opponent]."

Message to the team as you battle around the playoff line... "I think when you behave like this, when your attitude is to the final whistle like we were today then I think we have to have hope that we can achieve the playoffs. We knew since the beginning of the season that it was going to be very, very tight. There are six, seven and if you push tight even eight teams that are looking for four places so it's going to be a tough run until the last week."

Forward Carl Haworth

On having control over the club's push for the playoffs... "We got ourselves in a very good situation right now, we're in a good position, with games that are in and around us in the standings. It is definitely in our hands. We've done really well to get here, but now it's about taking care of business and going on the road in sometimes tough situations coming up and hopefully get some points to at least maybe create a bigger gap between ourselves and the ninth, tenth, eleventh place teams just to give us some comfort for the last few games."

On the upcoming Pride Game... "[Ottawa] is a great city for that. We strive for equality in all walks of life, and we're glad to be in a sport where it's fully accepted. We're glad to be part of this as an organisation and looking forward to the game."

Midfielder Chris Mannella

On the club's destiny being in their hands... "We don't have to worry about anyone else but ourselves: we win our matches, we're in the playoffs. With the few games coming up, we're in a great position to push for the playoffs."

On the upcoming Pride Game... "It's very important. We need athletes all over the world to sort of step up and be leaders and show support for the LGBTQ community. I think Ottawa, and this club, has done a great thing, and coming up this weekend is such an important match: soccer is for everyone, it doesn't matter race, religion, sexuality, it doesn't matter. I think this match coming up is a testament to show that Ottawa is supportive."

Midfielder Jérémy Gagnon-Laparé

On the importance of their strong defending... "Defensive aspect is something we've put a lot of emphasis on in training, and whenever we get that shutout is a big plus for all the players, goalkeeper but also the forwards, because it really is a team effort. I think this is something we can bring into the end of the season. We need to take every game as they come, not look too much ahead, just focus on the one that's coming, and if we keep playing well we'll get good results."
