MATCH NOTES

Weekly Storylines:

- After a lengthy five-game road trip, Fury FC now play their next five USL games at home.
- Fury FC produced a 2W-1D-2L performance in their last five games.
- They are coming off a gritty 1-0 win over Indy Eleven. This win also gave Fury FC and goalkeeper Maxime Crépeau's their eighth clean sheet of this season. Crépeau now shares USL's top spot in this category.
- This will be fourth meeting between these two sides and Pittsburgh have the advantage with two wins and a draw in those games.
- Pittsburgh have just one loss this season and they are the only USL team to manage that this season.

Scouting Pittsburgh Riverhounds FC: They are unbeaten in their last five games, having won four of those. They have a stonewall defence that has conceded the least amount of goals (7) among the USL teams this season. Their goalkeeper Dan Lynd shares the top spot with Crépeau for the most shutouts this season. On the attacking front, they have Neco Brett who has scored eight goals so far. This all-round performance has helped them to an 8W-7D-1L record and the second spot in the Eastern Conference standings.

Head-to-Head: These two sides have faced each other three times. Fury FC have yet to beat Pittsburgh (0W-1D-2L). These two met earlier this season with Fury FC losing that contest by a late, solitary goal.

Injuries/Susensions: Gerardo Bruna: knee (May 22 - Questionnable); Maxim Tissot: knee (June 27 - out for season); Michael Salazar and Shamit Shome: recalled to Montreal Impact; Kyle Porter: released on July 6

MATCH PREVIEW

Ottawa Fury FC players will be a happy bunch this weekend as they face Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC on Sunday. One reason for that will be the start of a five-game home stand after a grueling road trip. Fury FC played seven games in 22 days with six of them being away games, including two Canadian Championship games. The home pitch at TD Place will be a welcome sight for Fury FC.

Despite the tough schedule, the Ottawa side has gathered seven crucial points with a 2W-1D-2L performance in their last five games. They are coming off a tenacious 1-0 road win over Indy Eleven. Having taken the lead off an own goal in the 28th minute, Fury FC players showed great determination to block out the opposition and grab three vital points. This result gave the team, and goalkeeper Maxime Cr  peau, their eighth clean sheet of this season. Cr  peau tops the USL in this statistic, sharing the honours with two other goalkeepers.

Fury FC should be a confident bunch after this victory. Indy was unbeaten in five games before this contest and battling for a Top 3 spot in the Eastern Conference standings.

The next five games will provide Fury FC with a great opportunity to maximise their home pitch advantage and climb into a playoff position.

Their game this weekend will be against the team with currently the best defence in the USL. Pittsburgh have conceded just seven goals in their 16 games so far and have lost just one game. No other team in the USL has done better in either statistic. Riverhounds' goalkeeper Dan Lynd shares the top spot for the most shutouts this season with Fury FC's Maxime Cr  peau, having posted eight clean sheets this season.

Pittsburgh, with an 8W-7D-1L performance, are second in the Eastern Conference and are unbeaten in their last five games. Fury FC will know what they are up against, having played against Pittsburgh earlier this season. That game ended in a 1-0 loss for the Ottawa side.

But this is a different setting. The Fury FC that took on Pittsburgh on the road in April had just been formed. The Fury FC of today are a team that is united, and they will be playing at home in front of their cheering fans.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

Head Coach Nikola Popovic

On the team's away performances... "In terms of performance, we have to be very satisfied with the two games that we played recently - Cincinnati and Indy. In the game against Cincinnati, the scoreboard wasn't in our favour but looking at the whole game we deserved more. Perhaps a draw would have been the best result for that game."

"The game against Indy was a very one for us. The accumulation of games that we had in our legs was starting to show. But we have to be proud of the way we played and all the effort put in. It was a very important three points for us."

On the growth in the team's character... "The team is growing. In this first year I am focusing more on creating a union between the players. It's about creating this culture and we are starting to feel this union. This brotherhood that is very, very necessary if you want to have success in this sport. And slowly you are starting to see that. But 100 per cent we are much better than we were at the beginning of the season."

On the opposition... "Pittsburgh is always a difficult game because of the way they play. They're a team that works a lot on the field. They play a compact game and we expect them to be putting pressure on us. We need to have a very good game here to get three points. But I think our team is playing some good football and if we can stay consistent then we can be very successful in this game."

Midfielder Cristian Portilla

On his return from injury... "I feel really good. I am excited to be back. I got back on the field during the game against Cincinnati and it was a good feeling. I am almost at 100 per cent now."

On playing at home... "We are really excited to come back to TD Place. We have played many games on the road. They were tough games and now we are playing at home and we hope to get good results. The players are really happy to be back here with our fans."

Forward Jimmy Sanon

On his role within the team... "I didn't play a lot in the beginning of the season but now I am healthy and I'm getting more and more minutes in each and every game. I am trying to bring my energy every time I go onto the field."

On the team's progress so far... "I think everyone is now on the same page. It's a nice group. Everyone wants to help everyone and that's why we are able to win games."

ABOUT PITTSBURGH RIVERHOUNDS FC

The Pittsburgh Riverhounds are an American professional soccer team based in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Founded in 1998 and beginning play in 1999. Since 2013, the Riverhounds have played their home games at the 3,500-seat Highmark Stadium, a soccer-specific stadium located in Station Square. Their current head coach is Bob Lilley. Saint Lucian international David Flavius currently holds the club records for most appearances and goals which he set over his eight seasons with the Riverhounds between 1999 and 2006. Since December 2015, the Riverhounds have had an affiliate partnership with Columbus Crew SC of Major League Soccer.
