HOME GROWN

Of the Seahawks 11 starting defensive players at the end of the 1982 season, only one, cornerback Dave Brown has ever appeared in another uniform. Brown was a first-round draft choice by the World Champion Pittsburgh Steelers in 1975, and was selected by the Seahawks in the veteran allocation draft. Including Brown, six former No. 1 draft choices start for the Seahawks on defense: linemen Manu Tuiaosopo (1979), Jacob Green (1980), and Jeff Bryant (1982); and defensive backs Brown (1975), Keith Simpson (1978) and Kenny Easley (1981).

NEW UNIFORMS

The Seattle Seahawks will premier more than a new head coach when they open the 1983 season.

Head Coach Chuck Knox's team will be outfitted in new jerseys, socks and face bars for the upcoming season.

Designed by the Medalist Sand-Knit Company of Berlin, Wisconsin, the jersey features the distinctive Seahawks blue and green helmet logo wrapping around each of the sleeves. Two other distinctive changes have the smaller uniform numbers moving from on the sleeves to the top of the shoulder, and the v-neck will be striped like the uniform's pants, instead of being solid blue.

The socks are now solid white with five inches of royal blue showing from the bottom of the pants leg. Unlike previous years, the sock will have no stripes.

In addition, the Seahawks will change from gray to royal blue face bars on their silver helmets.

RADIO

KIRO Newsradio 71 will serve as the flagship station for the Seattle Seahawks for the eighth consecutive year. Pete Gross will call the play-by-play and former Seahawks wide receiver Steve Raible will serve as the analyst. Wayne Cody will handle pre-game and post-game shows.

KINGDOME

The Kingdome, at a cost of $67 million and with a seating capacity of 64,984 for football, is the least expensive domed, air-conditioned stadium of its size in the world.

Built on a 35.9-acre site just south of Seattle's central business district, the walls of the Dome anchor the world's largest self-supporting concrete roof.

The project was completed by Peter Kiewit Sons' Construction Co. and was originally a bond issue passed by a 62 percent majority of the voters of King County and spearheaded by County Executive John Spellman, now state Governor. Construction began on November 2, 1972.

The first professional football game in the Kingdome, August 1, 1976, between the Seahawks and San Francisco 49ers drew 60,825 fans. Since that time, the Seahawks have played before 39 regular-season sellout crowds, and had a string of 47 consecutive sellouts, including pre-season games, dating from 1978 to 1982. The Seahawks have finished in the top nine among all NFL clubs in attendance each of their first seven seasons. The Kingdome is also the home of the American League Seattle Mariners, National Basketball Association Seattle SuperSonics and North American Soccer League Seattle Sounders. Among other events held in the Kingdome have been the Auto Show, Seattle Boat Show, rock concerts, and the Billy Graham Crusade. The Billy Graham Crusade on May 14, 1976, which attracted 74,000 people, still ranks as the single event attendance leader in the Kingdome.

SEA GALS

Sixteen returning members highlight the 20-member Sea Gals, the Seattle Seahawks sideline dance group that was chosen after four days of tryouts at the Kingdome.

In all, 22 women were selected, including two alternates from over 110 applicants by judges representing the Seahawks and Seattle-area business and media.

Among the returnees are Conrada Villa, Kelsey Kara, Martha Locke, Kathi Maletta, Kim Johanson and Dawn Gray of Seattle; Robin Houlbjerg and Keri Kangas of Bellevue; Torii Bosler of Kirkland; Jackie Heins of Woodinville; Candy Stone of Issaquah; Patty Schorsch of Tukwila; Kathi Tucker of Renton; Teresa Meyer of Edmonds; Val Anderson of Tacoma; and Sherri Thompson of Sumner.

Included among the six newcomers are two former Sea Gals — Keri Truscan of Seattle and Rena McDonald of Edmonds. Entering into their first seasons on the squad are Teri Spargo and Terisita Borromeo of Seattle; Lorri Parker of Snohomish; and Patricia Nichols of Corvallis, Oregon.

Paris Brown of Seattle enters into her third season as the groups' director, while Sheri Jones-Leonard serves as choreographer.

Not a line.

If you think the Seahawks ought to see our line-up. After twenty years of satisfying Puget Sound car buyers, we've learned a thing or two. First, you need selection, and at the right price. Second, and just as important, you've got to give every customer a fair shake on financing and service after the sale. That's why we've done so well. And that's not just another line.
