COACHING STAFF

CHUCK KNOX

Head Coach

Seahawks: Chuck Knox enters into his fifth year as head coach of the Seattle Seahawks. Knox was named head coach on January 26, 1983, after five seasons as vice president and head coach of the Buffalo Bills. Knox has led the Seahawks into the playoffs twice, in 1983 and 1984, the first such appearances in franchise history. The 12-4 record posted by the 1984 team is the most wins in team history, and the 10 wins registered by the 1986 squad are the second-most. Knox's first Seahawks team won nine regular season games, made the playoffs, and advanced to the AFC Championship Game, losing to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Los Angeles Raiders. His 1984 team advanced into the division playoff round, losing to the eventual AFC Champion Miami Dolphins. The winningest coach in Seahawks history (39-25-0), Knox earned NFL Coach of the Year honors after the 1983 season by the Seattle Gold Helmet Committee and the Vince Lombardi Committee and AFC Coach of the Year honors by UPI, Football News, and the Kansas City 101 Club. After the 1984 campaign, he received NFL Coach of the Year honors by the Gold Helmet Committee and AFC Coach of the Year honors from UPI and the Pro Football Writers' Association.

Head Coaching Experience: Knox has 14 years of head coaching experience with a 130-76-1 regular season won-loss record. His winning percentage of .630 trails only Miami's Don Shula (.720) among active coaches with at least 100 regular season wins and ranks seventh among coaches with at least 10 seasons of experience. His 130 regular season wins ties him with former Baltimore Colts and New York Jets head coach Weeb Ewbank for tenth all-time, one win behind Hank Stram. It was Ewbank that gave Knox his first NFL job, with the Jets in 1963. In 1983, he became only the 15th coach in NFL history to win 100 regular season games. He has been named NFL Coach of the Year four times; in 1973 with the Los Angeles Rams and in 1980 with the Buffalo Bills, along with the Seahawks in 1983 and 1984. With Los Angeles from 1973 through 1977, his teams won five straight division championships and compiled a 54-15-1 record. Knox still ranks as the winningest coach in Rams' history. He moved to Buffalo in 1978 and inherited a team that had won just two games in 1976 and three games in 1977. He equalled that total in his first year with a 5-11 mark and improved that to 7-9 the following season. In 1980, the Bills captured their first division title since 1966 with an 11-5 record. Buffalo finished 10-6 in 1981 and advanced to the playoffs, while in 1982 they were 4-5. Knox is only the second coach in NFL history to win division titles his first five seasons as head coach (Paul Brown won titles his first six seasons, 1950-55, with Cleveland) and is one of only nine coaches in NFL history to have inherited a team with a losing record and take it to the playoffs his first season, something Knox has done twice, with the Rams in 1973 and the Seahawks in 1983. He is also the only coach in NFL history to take three different teams to the playoffs. In all, Knox-coached teams have won six division championships and made the playoffs nine times in his 14 years as a head coach.

Assistant Coaching Experience: Prior to being named head coach of the Rams in 1973, Knox worked as an NFL assistant coach for 10 seasons. He joined the New York Jets in 1963 as offensive line coach and then moved to Detroit as offensive line coach in 1967. He broke into coaching as an assistant at Juniata College, his alma mater, in 1954, and then coached one year at Tyrone High in Tyrone, Pa., before being named head coach at Ellwood City High in Ellwood City, Pa., in 1956. He remained there until joining the Wake Forest University staff for the 1959 and 1960 seasons and then moved to Kentucky for the 1961 and 1962 seasons.

College: Graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in history from Juniata College in Huntingdon, Pa., where he lettered four years as a tackle and served as a team co-captain as a senior. He received the school's National Alumni Achievement Award in 1974, is currently on the college's Board of Directors and was given an honorary doctorate degree in 1983.

High School: Attended Sewickley High in Sewickley, Pa.

Personal: He is married to the former Shirley Rhine and they have four children, Chris, who operates a travel agency; Kathy, a teacher; Colleen, a health management director; and Chuck, who is a running back at the University of Arizona. He was born April 27, 1932, in Sewickley, Pa.

Ended the season with a 17-of-24, 238-yard outing versus Denver as Seattle scored on their first four possessions. Named AFC Offensive Player for the Month of December for his performance. The Seahawks paced the NFL in scoring over the last five games averaging 33.4 points and converted 59.7% (40-of-67) of their third down attempts. Completed over 60% of his passes in 10-of-15 games and threw two or more touchdown passes in seven-of-15, including three in the first Chargers game. His 60.0 completion percentage ranked second in team history to his 60.5 in 1983. Ended the season having attempted 66 consecutive passes without an interception and had only one in his last 130 attempts. Completed 123-of-203 attempts (60.6%) in the first seven games as Seattle went 5-2, but hit only six-of-16 at Denver and did not play the following week versus the Jets. Played only the third quarter at Kansas City and regained his starting job the next week in Cincinnati. Brought the Seahawks back twice from 10-point fourth quarter deficits at New England in week three. Threw a 67-yard touchdown pass to Ray Butler with 1:06 left for the win. Earlier had hit Butler with a 54-yard scoring pass. Had four games where he averaged over 10 yards per attempt topped by a 14.52 mark at San Diego. Threw a pair of 72-yard touchdown passes to Daryl Turner (versus Philadelphia and at San Diego) and had a 46-yarder to Byron Franklin.

His 84.5 rating ranks behind Dan Marino (95.2), Joe Montana (91.2), and Otto Graham (86.6). Has completed 1,046-of-1,822 passes for 13,677 yards, 107 touchdowns and 73 interceptions. Threw his 100th touchdown pass in his 65th game, only two other quarterbacks in NFL history, Dan Marino (44) and Johnny Unitas (53), did it quicker. Took over as the starter nine games into the 1983 season and has forged a 35-19 regular season record and 3-2 playoff mark. Has thrown more touchdown passes in his last four seasons, 98, than any other NFL quarterback, except Dan Marino (142). Also has outings of 334 yards versus Denver, 310 at Green Bay, both in 1984, 307 and 305 at San Diego in 1985 and 1986. In all, had eight games with 250 or more yards passing in 1984. His 57.4 career completion percentage is first in team history, as is his single season mark of 60.5% in 1983. Co-holds the team record for one game with a 79.3% (23-of-29) performance at San Diego in 1984. Has six other games with a better than 70.0% completion percentage. Signed with the Seahawks as a free agent after the 1980 season. Played as a reserve for the first 29 games of his career before taking over as a starter with three games left in the 1981 season because of Jim Zorn's broken ankle. Quarterbacked Seattle to two wins in those three games, including a 20-of-26, 264 yard and two touchdown performance in his first start, a 27-23 win over the playoff-bound New York Jets. Won the starting job in the 1982 preseason and started the first two games before the strike. Injured his thumb at Houston and did not see action until the season finale versus Denver. Was held to one reception in a 38-31 win at New England on week three, but that kept alive his streak of having caught at least one pass in 126 straight games, one off Harold Carmichael's NFL record of 127. Tied the mark the next week at Washington and broke it in Seattle on Monday night with a 17-yard pass from Dave Krieg with 10:38 left in the second period. Ended the season having a streak of 139 straight with one catch. Recorded three 100-yard games, 108 versus the New York Jets, 102 at Cincinnati, and 101 in the second Denver game. Needs 57 catches to move past first-place Charlie Joiner, who retired in the offseason with 750 career receptions. Holds the NFL record with nine 50-catch seasons and has caught 70 or more passes in his last four campaigns and five of his last six, more than any other receiver. 1986: Started all 16 games at running back and led the AFC in rushing with a team record 1,481 yards. Voted the Marcus Nalley Trophy as the Seahawks Most Valuable Player by his teammates. Was voted a starter in the Pro Bowl and named UPI's AFC Offensive Player of the Year. Finished third in the NFL behind Eric Dickerson (1,821) and Joe Morris (1,516). His 394-yard margin over the AFC's runner-up Cincinnati's James Brooks (1,087) was the fifth-highest in either division in the last 16 seasons. Only O.J. Simpson (1,000 in 1973), Earl Campbell (749 in 1980), Marcus Allen (428 in 1985), and Campbell (403 in 1979) surpassed Warner. Broke his own team record of 1,449 yards in 1983. Led the AFC in rushing for all 16 weeks. Paced the conference in rushing attempts (319), rushing touchdowns (13), and total yards from scrimmage with a team-record 1,823, finishing second to Dickerson (2,026) in the NFL and breaking his own record of 1,774 set in 1983. Eclipsed Sherman Smith's career record for yards (3,429) at Cincinnati on week 11. Broke his mark with a seven-yard run in the first period. It took him 44 games to get the record Smith set in 82 games. Finished the season with 4,064 yards on 955 attempts. Had already surpassed Smith's attempts mark (810) two weeks earlier against the New York Jets. Saved his best effort for the season finale versus the Denver Broncos. Rushed for 192 yards on 24 carries, and three touchdowns, and caught three passes for 29 additional yards. His 221 total yards from scrimmage set a team record; his three touchdowns equalled his team record; and his 60-yard scoring burst in the fourth period tied his personal career long and set a new Seattle record for longest rushing touchdown. His 60-yard scoring run capped a four-play, 77-yard drive in which he was responsible for all 77 yards (accounted for all 40 yards in a three-play drive at Dallas in the fourth quarter). Broke Smith's record of 28 rushing touchdowns on that drive. Topped the century mark in a team record seven games, including four of the last five. Gained 142 yards in the first San Diego game, 139 at Denver, 122 at Dallas, 116 in the second Raiders game, 114 against Pittsburgh, and 106 at Washington, a game in which he had 107 yards in the first half. Topped 70 yards in 12-of-16 games. Named AFC Player of the Month for October when he gained 411 yards in four games and scored two touchdowns. Out-rushed all other NFL backs during Seattle's five-game season-ending winning streak with 556 yards on 110 carries. His six touchdowns during that time tied him for the most, while his 5.1 average per carry was first among runners with at least 100 attempts. Gained 100 or more yards in three of the last four games (Dallas, Raiders, at San Diego and Denver) missing only at San Diego where he finished with 93 yards. His 13 rushing touchdowns is second for one season in team history. Scored two in two games, along with the three versus the Broncos. Finished second on the team in receiving with 41 catches for a career-high 342 yards. Equalled his single-game high with six at Kansas City. Had five the week before versus the New York Jets.

CAREER: Has played in 32 straight games since missing almost all of the 1984 season with a knee injury. Holds virtually every Seahawks rushing record after only 49 games. Totals 4,064 yards on 955 attempts, and 34 touchdowns, all team records. Has rushed for more yards in his three full seasons (4,024) than any other AFC back and trails only Eric Dickerson (4,863) and Walter Payton (4,305) in the entire NFL. His 4,064 in the last four years is an AFC high. Is the only Seattle player to ever top 1,000 yards rushing in a season with 1,449 in 1983, a total that led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL and was the fifth-most by a rookie in league history; 1,094 in 1985, and good for fifth in the conference; and 1,481 in 1986. Ranks first through third in season attempts, paced by his 335 in 1983, 319 in 1986, and 294 in 1985. Holds the top five and 10 of the top 11 single-game rushing attempt marks. Rushed 32 times versus Kansas City in 1983 and is the only player in team history to have carried 30 or more times in a game. SEAHAWKS HEADQUARTERS

Last season, the Seattle Seahawks moved into their new office and training headquarters on a 12-acre site adjacent to Northwest College in Kirkland.

The 36,000 square foot, two-story building is the Seahawks year-round home, containing facilities for training camp as well as offseason and regular season practices.

Downstairs contains a 105-man meeting room, six 10-man meeting rooms, a 1,700 square foot weight room, two racquetball courts, an enlarged locker room, training room with rehabilitative facilities, and equipment room.

Upstairs houses the administrative offices, coaches offices, ticket office, and conference rooms.

Outside, the Seahawks will be able to practice on three fields, two of natural grass and one artificial turf field. That field is covered by a 55-foot high inflatable bubble top eliminating travel to the Kingdome in inclement weather.

To reach the headquarters, take the N.E. 70th Street exit off I-405 travelling either north or southbound. If arriving southbound, take a left at N.E. 72nd Place and another left at 108th Avenue N.E. Go left at N.E. 53rd Street. The headquarters is approximately one-quarter mile up N.E. 53rd Street.

KINGDOME

The Kingdome, at a cost of $67 million and with a seating capacity of 64,984 for football, is the least expensive domed, air-conditioned stadium of its size in the world.

Built on a 35.9-acre site just south of Seattle's central business district, the walls of the Dome anchor the world's largest self-supporting concrete roof.

The project was completed by Peter Kiewit Sons' Construction Co. and was originally a bond issue passed by a 62 percent majority of the voters of King County and spearheaded by former King County Executive John Spellman. Construction began on November 2, 1972.

The first professional football game in the Kingdome, August 1, 1976, between the Seahawks and San Francisco 49ers drew 60,825 fans. Since that time, the Seahawks have soldout 87 of their last 88 games, including preseason and postseason games, dating from 1978 to 1986. The Seahawks have finished in the top nine among all NFL clubs in attendance each of their first eleven seasons. The Kingdome is also the home of the American League Seattle Mariners. Among other events held in the Kingdome have been the Auto Show, Big Seattle Boat Show, rock concerts, the 1977 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, 1979 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the 1984 and 1989 NCAA Final Four basketball tournament, the 1987 and 1988 NCAA West Regional Finals, and the Billy Graham Crusade. The Billy Graham Crusade on May 14, 1976, which attracted 74,000 people, still ranks as the single event attendance leader in the Kingdome.

CUTDOWN DATES

National Football League clubs will observe the following cutdown dates for the 1987 season; rosters must be trimmed to 60 players by Tuesday, September 1. The final cutdown, to 45 players will be on Tuesday, September 8.

INSTANT REPLAY APPROVED FOR 1987

For the second year in a row, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

The system basically stays the same as in 1986 with the exception that larger monitors will be used by Replay Officials. In 1986, there were 374 plays closely reviewed (defined as a contact to the field, but not necessarily stoppage of play). There were 38 reversals for an average of one reversal in each six games. There were three other rulings (clarification of rules) by Replay Officials.

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks—an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the game, and a “no frills” approach using existing television coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of nine nationally televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system that later was adopted for 1986 and 1987. A total of 28 plays were examined closely in 1985 (17 confirmed call, 4 were inconclusive, 1 was reversed, and 6 had no replay shown).

What is the objective of this system?

The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to what plays to show or not to show.

What is the step-by-step procedure of play review?

The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other monitor continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made, the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

The limited Instant Replay system concentrates on plays of possession or touching (e.g., fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g., receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line).

However, the Instant Replay system will not include the following fouls: clipping; encroachment and offsides; grasp of face-mask; false start; defensive pass interference; offensive pass interference; offensive holding and illegal use of hands; illegal batting or punching ball; illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick; illegal crackback; illegal motion; illegal use of forearm or elbow; illegal use of hands by defense; illegally kicking the ball; illegally snapping the ball; intentional grounding; member of the punting team downfield early; illegal formation; palpably unfair act; piling on; roughing the passer; running into or roughing the kicker; striking, kicking, or kneeling; unnecessary roughness; unsportsmanlike conduct; and use of the helmet as a weapon.
