1983: Elected offensive captain by his teammates prior to the start of the season. Led the Seahawks in receiving for the eighth consecutive season with 72 catches for 1,074 yards and a career-high 11 touchdowns. His 72 catches are second only to his 75 in 1981 and his 11 scoring receptions eclipsed his team record of 10 set in 1977, and was second in the AFC. Played in 15 games, missing only the first Raiders game with a knee injury. Did not start versus Dallas as Seattle opened with three tight ends in a goal line situation. Caught at least one pass in all 15 games, extending his consecutive game pass catching streak to 91. Had four 100-yard receiving days, capped by an eight-catch, 155-yard, three-touchdown effort at St. Louis. The 155 yards is the third highest total in Seattle history, and the three touchdown catches broke the existing team record of two accomplished 15 times previously, 11 by Largent. Had seven receptions and 133 yards, including a 46-yard touchdown in the season finale against New England when the Seahawks had to win to make the playoffs. Back-to-back eight-catch, two-touchdown, 100-yard plus efforts came versus San Diego (116 yards) and Washington (130 yards) on weeks three and four. Caught four passes for 76 yards versus Denver in the wild card game. Scored Seattle's first playoff touchdown with a 17-yard reception on the Seahawks first drive versus Denver. Caught a pair of passes for 25 yards against the Raiders in the conference championship game. Selected as Sporting News' first-team All-Pro and UPI second-team All-AFC.

CAREER: Will enter the 1984 season as the 20th leading all-time receiver in NFL history, and the leading active receiver since he entered the league in 1976. Has 471 career catches for 7,608 yards and 60 touchdowns since joining the Seahawks in the 1976 pre-season in trade from the Houston Oilers for an eighth-round 1977 draft choice. Those totals are the most of any player in the eight seasons that Largent has played. Has led the Seahawks in receiving in each of his seasons, and holds team records for most catches in a season, 75 in 1981, and yards receiving, 1,237 in 1979. That total led the entire NFL. Has five 1,000-yard plus receiving seasons, including four in a row, 1978-81. The NFL record is seven by Lance Alworth. Gained 1,224 yards on his 75 catches in 1981 to become the seventh player in league history to surpass 1,200 yards twice in a career. Selected as Washington State's Professional Athlete of the Year by the Tacoma Athletic Commission in 1978, and was a first-team All-AFC pick by The Sporting News and second-team selection by UPI, AP and NEA. His 71 catches that season was the first time that a wide receiver finished a season with more than 70 catches in the 1970's. Has 27 career 100-yard receiving days in 114 games and has caught at least three passes in 39 of his last 43 games. Largent has caught at least one pass in the last 91 games that he has played. That is the league's ninth-best all-time streak. Has been selected to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl three times, after the 1978, 1979, and 1981 seasons. Did not play in the 1979 game because of a broken wrist. All-Pro selection by Sports Illustrated, and College and Pro Football Newsweekly after his 1,237 yards performance in 1979 made him the only player to exceed 1,200 yards receiving in the decade of the 70's. Also an all-pro choice in 1979. Caught 64 passes as a rookie while earning All-Rookie honors by AP and UPI. Came back the following season to catch 10 scoring passes, a record that stood until last season. Had nine scoring catches in both 1979 and 1981. Is the Seahawks' all-time leading scorer with 366 points on 61 touchdowns, 60 on receptions and one rushing. Has caught two or more touchdown passes in 12 games. ## KINGDOME

The Kingdome, at a cost of $67 million and with a seating capacity of 64,984 for football, is the least expensive domed, air-conditioned stadium of its size in the world.

Built on a 35.9-acre site just south of Seattle's central business district, the walls of the Dome anchor the world's largest self-supporting concrete roof.

The project was completed by Peter Kiewit Sons' Construction Co. and was originally a bond issue passed by a 62 percent majority of the voters of King County and spearheaded by County Executive John Spellman, now state Governor. Construction began on November 2, 1972.

The first professional football game in the Kingdome, August 1, 1976, between the Seahawks and San Francisco 49ers drew 60,825 fans. Since that time, the Seahawks have played before 55 regular-season sellout crowds, and had a string of 47 consecutive sellouts, including preseason games, dating from 1978 to 1982. The Seahawks have finished in the top nine among all NFL clubs in attendance each of their first eight seasons. The Kingdome is also the home of the American League Seattle Mariners and National Basketball Association Seattle SuperSonics. Among other events held in the Kingdome have been the Auto Show, Seattle Boat Show, rock concerts, the 1984 NCAA Final Four basketball tournament, and the Billy Graham Crusade. The Billy Graham Crusade on May 14, 1976, which attracted 74,000 people, still ranks as the single event attendance leader in the Kingdome.

We give you a line-up. Not a line.

If you think the Seahawks ought to see our line-up. After twenty years of satisfying Puget Sound car buyers, we've learned a thing or two. First, you need selection, and at the right price. Second, and just as important, you've got to give every customer a fair shake on financing and service after the sale. That's why we've done so well. And that's not just another line.
