KEN BEHRING

Owner

Ken Behring is best known as the owner of the Seattle Seahawks football team, the developer of the prestigious Blackhawk community in Northern California and the benefactor of a spectacular automotive museum that bears his name.

He has provided housing and recreation for thousands of families in Florida and California. In addition to Blackhawk, he developed the entire city of Tamarac, 10 planned communities in South Florida, and Canyon Lakes in San Ramon, California.

Behring also founded The Behring Educational Institute in 1982, a non-profit charitable corporation that promotes the interests of the University of California at Berkeley and provides world-class cultural resources to the East San Francisco Bay area.

Behring traded up from his first automobile, a $90 Pontiac, to rare Packards, Hispano Suizas and Isotta Fraschinis, amassing one of the finest collections of classic and rare cars in the world. Recognizing that these automobiles are "an investment in mankind" and an important aspect of American culture, he built The Behring Auto Museum in affiliation with the University of California at Berkeley to preserve and exhibit the cars for generations.

This kind of foresight and determination has characterized Ken Behring's life. In 1950, he started a car dealership in a muddy lot, using an old chicken coop as an office. Two years later, he acquired a Lincoln-Mercury dealership.

In 1956, opportunity called Behring to then sleepy Fort Lauderdale, Florida. He built a house for his family that sold before it was half-finished. His company developed the entire city of Tamarac, a planned recreational retirement community, where homes initially sold for $8,990 to $9,900. Now they are worth close to $150,000.

Behring foresaw Florida's rapid growth, so he launched a modular home company to meet housing demands. The company built 3,000 homes in 1971, when Behring sold the firm to move to other interests.

On the advice of friends, Behring flew over the Blackhawk Ranch in the Mount Diablo foothills of northern California. He now had the resources to match his vision of the finest planned country club community. The result is Blackhawk, a 2,300-home community that offers residents two 18-hole golf courses, a tennis and swim club and a 25-acre sports complex.

Located in one of the fastest growing regions in the country, Blackhawk also provided the ideal setting for a world-class cultural plaza. In addition to the Behring Auto Museum, Blackhawk Plaza will feature the University of California at Berkeley satellite facility, encompassing 27,500 square feet of state-of-the-art lecture, classroom and exhibit space for University collections of Paleontology, Anthropology, Art and Science. Joining the Plaza in the summer of 1993, will be an Achievement Museum, using advanced exhibitry to allow visitors to interact with the great figures of the 20th century. A promenade of specialty retailers, restaurants, a 2-acre water park, a 7-screen movie theater and a variety of cultural events will offer Plaza visitors unlimited opportunities.

Since purchasing the Seahawks on August 30, 1988, Behring has become active in Seattle community affairs by serving as President of the American Academy of Achievement, as Honorary Chairman of the "Ken Behring Seahawks Dinner Auction" to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association, and by contributing to the PONCHO Auction and the Seattle Art Museum.

SEAHAWKS

COACHING STAFF

CHUCK KNOX

Head Coach

SEAHAWKS: Hired on January 26, 1983, Chuck Knox enters his ninth season as the head coach of the Seattle Seahawks ranking as the most successful coach in franchise history and one of the most successful in National Football League history. Knox has posted a 73-54-0 (57.4%) record in eight seasons in Seattle, the eighth-best mark in the NFL over that period and the third-best in the American Football Conference. He has posted Seattle's three best single-season win totals with 12 in 1984, 10 in 1986, and 9 in 1983, 1987, 1988, and 1990. In four of those seasons (1983, 1984, 1987, and 1988) he led the Seahawks into the playoffs, the only such appearances in team history. Included was the franchise's first-ever AFC Western Division title in 1988. Knox came to Seattle after five seasons as the vice president of football operations and head coach of the Buffalo Bills and immediately turned around a franchise that had recorded the NFL's third-worst record over the previous three seasons into one that has posted the NFL's eighth-best regular season win total (73-54) over the past eight seasons. Seattle's four playoff appearances in seven seasons ranks behind only the eight of the San Francisco 49ers, the six of the Los Angeles Rams, Chicago Bears and Cleveland Browns, and the five of the Denver Broncos. Over the past eight seasons, only one team, the San Francisco 49ers, have not suffered a losing season, and the Seahawks are one of only three teams that has had one losing season over that period. In 1983, Knox and his staff turned a team that posted a 14-27 record over the 1980-82 seasons into a 9-7 squad, one that earned the first playoff appearance in franchise history and advanced into the AFC Championship Game. The trip to AFC title game included a 31-7 win over Denver in the wild card game and a 27-20 upset over the defending AFC Champion Miami Dolphins in the Orange Bowl in the divisional playoffs. The eventual Super Bowl XVIII Champion Los Angeles Raiders eliminated Seattle, 30-14, in the AFC title game. The next season, Knox overcame injuries to several players, including one that put 1983 AFC Offensive Player of the Year Curt Warner out for the year in the first game, to post the franchise's best-ever record, 12-4, and again advance as a wild card entrant to the postseason. The Seahawks eliminated the defending NFL champion Raiders in the wild card game before losing at Miami to the eventual AFC Champion Dolphins. After both those seasons Knox was named NFL Coach of the Year. After an 8-8 record in 1985, the Seahawks registered the team's second-best record, 10-6, in 1986 and were denied a playoff berth on a tie-breaker. His 1987 squad went 9-6 and lost at Houston in overtime, 23-20, in the AFC First-Round Playoff Game. In 1988, Seattle held down first place in the AFC West for all 16 weeks and clinched their first division title with a win over the Raiders in Los Angeles on the season's final weekend. The Seahawks were eliminated in the AFC Divisional Playoffs by the eventual AFC Champion Cincinnati Bengals, 21-13. In 1989, Seattle suffered their first losing season under Knox finishing 7-9, but rebounded for a 9-7 mark in 1990. The Seahawks overcame an 0-3 start last year and injuries to nine players, including seven linebackers, to win nine-of-13 and miss the playoffs on a tie-breaker. Only two teams in league history have ever made the playoffs after starting out 0-3. Knox has earned NFL Coach of the Year honors after the 1983 season by the Seattle Gold Helmet Committee and the Vince Lombardi Committee and AFC Coach of the Year honors by UPI, Football News, and the Kansas City 101 Club. After the 1984 campaign, he received NFL Coach of the Year honors by the Gold Helmet Committee and AFC Coach of the Year honors from UPI and the Pro Football Writer's Association.

HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: Knox will enter the 1991 season as the seventh-winningest head coach in NFL history with a 164-105-1 regular season record (60.9%) in 18 seasons. He passed former Minnesota Vikings head coach Bud Grant in 1990 and needs three more wins to move into sixth ahead of former Cleveland Browns and Cincinnati Bengals head coach Paul Brown (166-100-6). Among active coaches, only the Miami Dolphins Don Shula (281-123-6) and the Pittsburgh Steelers Chuck Noll (186-139-1) rank ahead of Knox. His 60.9 winning percentage is tied with former San Francisco 49ers head coach Bill Walsh for ninth among coaches with 10-or-more seasons. Only Shula (69.3%) ranks ahead of Knox in winning percentage among active coaches. Knox has guided 11-of-his-18 teams into the postseason, including seven divisional championships. He is the only coach in NFL history to win divisional titles with three different franchises (Los Angeles Rams 1973-77, Buffalo Bills 1980, and Seahawks 1988). Knox was the second coach in NFL history to win divisional titles in each of his first five seasons, following Cleveland's Paul Brown, and is one of only nine coaches in league history to inherit a losing team and take it into the playoffs in his first season, something he has done twice, with the Rams in 1973 and the Seahawks in 1983. In 1983, he was the 15th coach in NFL history to win 100 regular season games and in 1989 became only the tenth coach in NFL history to coach in 250 regular season games. He has been named NFL Coach of the Year four times; in 1973 with the Los Angeles Rams, in 1980 with the Buffalo Bills, along with the Seahawks in 1983 and 1984. With Los Angeles from 1973 through 1977, his teams won five straight division championships and compiled a 54-15-1 record. He moved to Buffalo in 1978 and inherited a team that had won just two games in 1976 and three games in 1977. He equalled that total in his first year with a 5-11 mark and improved that to 7-9 the following season. In 1980, the Bills captured their first division title since 1966 with an 11-5 record. Buffalo finished 10-6 in 1981 and advanced to the playoffs, and were 4-5 in 1982.

ASSISTANT COACHING EXPERIENCE: Prior to being named head coach of the Rams in 1973, Knox worked as an NFL assistant coach for 10 seasons. He joined the New York Jets in 1963 as offensive line coach and then moved to Detroit as offensive line coach in 1967. He broke into coaching as an assistant coach at Juniata College, his alma mater, in 1954, and then coached one year at Tyrone High in Tyrone, Pennsylvania, before being named head coach at Ellwood City High in Ellwood City, Pennsylvania, in 1956. He remained there until joining the Wake Forest University staff for the 1959 and 1960 seasons and then to Kentucky for the 1961 and 1962 seasons.

COLLEGE: Graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in history from Juniata College in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, where he lettered four years as a tackle and served as a team co-captain as a senior. He received the school's National Alumni Achievement Award in 1974, is currently on the college's Board of Directors, and was given an honorary doctorate in 1983.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Sewickley High in Sewickley, Pennsylvania.

PERSONAL: He is married to the former Shirley Rhine and they have four children, Chris, who operates a travel agency; Kathy, a housewife; Colleen, a health management director; and Chuck, a graduate of the University of Arizona; and two grandchildren, Lee Ann and Bennett. Established a $20,000 scholarship at Quaker Valley High School in Sewickley, Pennsylvania, in the name of longtime friend Dominic Roppa, who passed away in 1988. Both his high school and college football fields have been renamed in his honor, Knox Field at Quaker Valley High (formerly Sewickley High) and Knox Stadium at Juniata College. Co-authored the Northwest's best-selling book of 1988, "Hard Knox," with Bill Platschke. Annually donates fine money collected from the players to local charities and has donated over $85,000 since arriving in Seattle. Born April 27, 1932, in Sewickley, Pennsylvania.

Woods is the 18th player picked. 6/12 Seahawks win lottery for first choice in supplemental draft and select Oklahoma linebacker Brian Bosworth. 9/13 After first two regular season games, NFL Players Association calls a strike that will last four weeks. Games for Sunday, September 18, are cancelled. 10/25 Seahawks defeat the Los Angeles Raiders, 35-13, in first game with regulars following the strike. Seattle builds up a 28-0 halftime lead and wins in Los Angeles for the first time since 1983. 12/13 Dave Krieg completes 23-of-33 passes for 238 yards and Ray Butler catches six passes for 107 yards and two touchdowns in leading Seattle past Denver, 28-21, at the Kingdome. 12/20 Seahawks defeat the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field as John L. Williams sparks the offense with a 75-yard touchdown on a screen pass from Dave Krieg and the defense contributes five takeaways. 12/27 Steve Largent catches six passes in a 41-20 loss at Kansas City and becomes the NFL's all-time leading receiver with 751. Largent breaks the previous record of 750 by Charlie Joiner.

1988 — 1/3 Seahawks close out the 1987 season with a 23-20 overtime loss to the Houston Oilers at the Astrodome in the AFC First-Round Playoff Game. 4/24 Seahawks use their second-round choice in the draft to select University of Miami wide receiver Brian Blades. The Seahawks first-round pick had been exercised in the June, 1987 supplemental draft. 8/30 Ken Behring and Ken Hofmann complete their purchase of the Seahawks from the Nordstrom family. 9/4 Seahawks open 13th season with a 21-14 win at Denver over the two-time defending AFC Champion Broncos. Curt Warner scores twice and John L. Williams accounts for 161 yards from scrimmage. It is Seattle's first win in Denver since 1984. 9/18 Steve Largent becomes the NFL's all-time leader in pass receiving yards with 12,167 at San Diego, but the Seahawks lose to the Chargers, 17-6. Largent breaks Charlie Joiner's record of 12,146 yards. 10/2 Rookie quarterback Kelly Stouffer makes his first NFL start for an injured Dave Krieg and leads the Seahawks to a 31-20 win over the Atlanta Falcons in Atlanta. John L. Williams ties a team record with three rushing touchdowns. 11/13 Seahawks defeat the Houston Oilers 27-24, as Dave Krieg returns after missing seven games with a shoulder separation. Krieg engineers a 10-play drive to set up Norm Johnson's game-winning field goal with less than one second left. 11/28 Dave Krieg equals his own team record with five touchdown passes as Seahawks defeat the Los Angeles Raiders, 35-27, on Monday night in the Kingdome. Curt Warner (130) and John L. Williams (105) become first pair of Seahawks to each gain over 100 yards rushing in the same game. 12/11 Seahawks score touchdowns on their first six possessions in a 42-17 win over Denver. Curt Warner establishes a team record with four rushing touchdowns. Warner (126) and John L. Williams (109) each top 100 yards rushing. 12/18 John L. Williams accounts for 239 yards of offense, including 180 receiving, and Dave Krieg throws for 410 yards and four scores, as the Seahawks defeat the Los Angeles Raiders, 43-37, in Los Angeles to clinch the first AFC Western Division title in franchise history. 12/31 Seahawks are eliminated from the playoffs by the eventual AFC Champion Cincinnati Bengals, 21-13, in Riverfront Stadium.

1989 — 2/22 Tom Flores named President/General Manager, replacing Mike McCormack. Flores guided the Los Angeles Raiders to an 83-53 regular season record and two Super Bowl titles in nine seasons, 1979-87, as their head coach. 4/23 Seahawks select Notre Dame tackle Andy Heck with the fifteenth pick of the first round of the draft. 9/10 Seahawks lose regular season opener in Philadelphia, 31-7, and also lose wide receiver Steve Largent for six weeks with a broken elbow. Largent, however, scores Seattle's only touchdown. 10/29 Dave Krieg and Brian Blades combine on a 21-yard touchdown pass with 40 seconds left in a 10-7 win over the San Diego Chargers. The win is the 100th in regular season play for the Seahawks. Blades catches a career high 10 passes for 117 yards. 11/26 Steve Largent ties Don Hutson's NFL record of 99 career receiving touchdowns in the Seahawks 41-14 loss at Denver. 12/4 Dave Krieg ignites a three-game winning streak with 298 yards passing and the game-winning touchdown pass in a 17-16 Monday night win over Buffalo. 12/10 Seahawks win 24-17 at Cincinnati as Dave Krieg throws three touchdown passes. One goes to Steve Largent, the NFL record 100th of his career. 12/17 John L. Williams catches a career high 12 passes for 129 yards as the Seahawks defeat the Los Angeles Raiders, 23-17. 12/23 Seahawks close out the season with a 29-0 loss to the Washington Redskins. In pregame ceremonies, retiring wide receiver Steve Largent is honored and his is the first name inducted in the Seahawks Ring of Honor.

1990 — 4/22 Seahawks trade four draft choices to the New England Patriots, including two first-rounders, to move up and select University of Miami defensive tackle Cortez Kennedy with the third overall choice. Seahawks also receive a second-rounder from the Patriots which they use to select Syracuse University linebacker Terry Wooden. 8/4 Seahawks play their first-ever international game as they drop a 10-7 preseason decision to the Denver Broncos in Tokyo, Japan. 10/1 Seahawks defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 31-16, for their first win after opening the season with three consecutive losses. Derrick Fenner scores three touchdowns for the second straight week. 11/11 Seahawks score their first win in Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium since 1980 as Dave Krieg throws a 25-yard touchdown pass to Paul Skansi as time expires. The PAT gives Seattle a 17-16 win and starts a four-game streak of games decided on the last play. The win is the 159th of Chuck Knox's career, moving him into seventh place all-time. 11/25 Norm Johnson's 40-yard field goal 3:01 into overtime gives the Seahawks a 13-10 win at San Diego. Seattle forces and recovers a pair of fumbles, the first with 48 seconds left in regulation and the second with 1:34 gone in overtime. 12/2 In almost a replay from the week before, Seattle defeats the Houston Oilers 13-10 in overtime after recovering a fumble. Norm Johnson connects from 42 yards out after David Wyman recovers a Tony Woods-forced fumble. Seahawks become only the third team in NFL history to win back-to-back overtime games. 12/9 The Seahawks defense sets single-game records for fewest rushing first downs (0) and yards allowed (13) in a game in a 20-14 win over the Green Bay Packers in Milwaukee. 12/23 Seattle moves over the .500 mark with a 17-12 win over the Denver Broncos. The Broncos are penalized on the game's last play, negating what would have been a game-winning touchdown pass. 12/30 Derrick Fenner scores two touchdowns for the fourth time as Seattle defeats the Detroit Lions 30-10 in the Kingdome, to finish at 9-7 after an 0-3 start. Fenner ends the season equalling team records for total touchdowns (15) and rushing touchdowns (14), totals that lead the AFC.

1991 — 4/21 Seahawks select San Diego State quarterback Dan McGwire with the 16th pick on the first round of the 1991 NFL Draft. The 6-8, 243-pound McGwire is the first quarterback ever selected on the first round by Seattle.

KINGDOME

The Kingdome, at a cost of $67 million and with a seating capacity of 64,981 for football, is the least expensive domed, air-conditioned stadium of its size in the world.

Built on a 35.9-acre site just south of Seattle's central business district, the walls of the Dome anchor the world's largest self-supporting concrete roof.

The first professional football game in the Kingdome, August 1, 1976, between the Seahawks and San Francisco 49ers drew 60,825 fans. Since that time, the Seahawks have soldout 125 of their last 128 games, including preseason and postseason games, dating from 1978 to 1990. The Kingdome is also the home of the American League Seattle Mariners. Among other events held in the Kingdome have been the Auto Show, Big Seattle Boat Show, rock concerts, the 1977 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, 1979 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the 1984 and 1989 NCAA Final Four Basketball Championships, the 1987, 1988 and 1991 West Regional Finals, the 1987 NBA All-Star Game, and the Billy Graham Crusade.
