EXCELLENCE IS OUR GOAL

The Seattle Seahawks' pursuit of excellence on the football field is mirrored by the organization's commitment in the community. Seahawks personnel made nearly 3,000 appearances at more than 650 events last year. The Seahawks' passion for helping those who are less fortunate is displayed in the focus on developmental programs for youth, especially academic and athletic programs. Following are some of the programs developed by the Seahawks, all of which have the intent of creating a positive impact in the community and on the 12th Man.

SPIRIT OF 12 PARTNERS

Founded in 2004, the Spirit of 12 Partners program embodies the team's commitment to the Pacific Northwest community and its fans. At every home game, Pacific Northwest youth service organizations partner with The Paul G. Allen Family Foundation and Seahawks fans to raise funds for kids' programs. As Spirit of 12 Partners, members of community-based nonprofits distribute the Seahawks Gameday Magazine, keeping 100 percent of the proceeds which are then matched by The Paul G. Allen Family Foundation. In 2013, more than $365,000 was raised in the Spirit of 12 Partners Program and more than $2.60 million in total funds since 2004. The Paul G. Allen Family Foundation's mission is to enrich lives and strengthen communities in the Pacific Northwest. Grant programs advance the areas of arts and culture, poverty alleviation, economic relief, education, and scientific research.

SEAHAWKS STATE OF WA LICENSE PLATES

In May of 2013, Washington State Governor Jay Inslee signed the official bill authorizing Seahawks and Sounders FC specialty license plates. Net proceeds from Seahawks plate sales will benefit InvestED, a Seattle-based non-profit that provides funding to support the efforts of secondary schools throughout Washington state with small amounts of short-term, item-specific, need-based funding – items such as shoes, coats, glasses, sports equipment, and academic fees.

The Seahawks specialty plates set a first-month sales record in January when more than 6,500 sets were issued. In six months, more than 10,000 Seahawks plates have been sold generating more than $216,000 for InvestED.

Prior to the public on-sale, Seahawks license plates No. 00001 through 00025 were auctioned for charity. More than $150,000 additional dollars was raised with plate No. 00001 auctioned for $41,000 to benefit A Better Seattle and plate No. 00012 for more than $42,000.

SEAHAWKS MILITARY SUPPORT

The Seahawks are deeply committed to honoring America's service members by hosting military men and women at home games, team practices and by visiting local bases. The Seahawks are proud of the men and women who serve our country and the legacy of service they represent.

The United States Military Sea Hawks Color Guard is formed from active military members of all branches of the armed services. This chapter of the booster club reaches all service members based throughout the world. The Sea Hawks Booster Club is the official booster club of the Seattle Seahawks. Their purpose is to have fun, support the Seahawks players and organization, and help support various local charities.

Military Appreciation Day

As part of the Seahawks 2013 Military Appreciation Day, the Seahawks hosted a Purple Heart Ceremony during halftime of the November 17 game vs. the Minnesota Vikings, honoring 20 soldiers assigned to 1st Special Forces Group (Airborne) on Joint Base Lewis-McChord. All branches of the United States military service were represented during the National Anthem, helping to present the flag.

Vietnam veteran and Olympia, Wash. native Major Bruce Crandall raised the 12th Man flag prior to kickoff. Crandall received the Medal of Honor for his actions in the Battle of Ia Drang during Vietnam War and his heroics were featured in the film "We Were Soldiers." He led over 900 combat missions in two tours of duty during the Vietnam War.

Million Fan Salute

The Seahawks were one of five NFL teams to earn rewards for their local military communities as part of USAA's "Million Fan Salute," a season-long military appreciation program that enabled NFL fans to salute U.S. military for the 2013-14 NFL season online at www.millionfansalute.com. Fans of of the Seahawks finished the season with the most votes in the USAA's "Million Fan Salute" online contest, earning substantial awards for the local military. The Seahawks presented a check for $20,000 to Joint Base Lewis-McChord. Past rewards have included athletic field refurbishment, athletic equipment and support for fitness programs.

A BETTER SEATTLE

A Better Seattle (ABS) is a community initiative founded and led by Head Coach Pete Carroll. Launched in August of 2011 by Carroll and the Seattle Seahawks, ABS works to reduce Seattle area youth gang violence by forging public-private partnerships that help generate the motivation and resources for youth who are at-risk to take control of their lives and strive for better futures. ABS supports and partners with the YMCA of Seattle's Alive & Free street outreach team and Seattle Youth Violence Prevention networks that mentor youth impacted by gangs, violence and the juvenile justice system in Seattle, Renton, Kent, Auburn, Tukwila and SeaTac. www.ABetterSeattle.com

WE DAY SEATTLE

In Spring 2013, Coach Carroll and A Better Seattle partnered with Free The Children co-founders, Marc and Craig Kielburger, to bring their signature youth program, We Act & We Day, to the U.S. and Seattle for the first time. Tied to a year-long We Act program, We Day brings together hundreds of thousands of youth and educators with world-renowned speakers, cultural icons and musicians to celebrate the power of youth to create positive change. Students earn their way to We Day by completing one local and one global action on any issue of their choice. In both the inaugural event in 2013 and the second annual event in March of 2014, Carroll and multiple Seahawks players joined 15,000 students from around Washington to participate in the inspirational event at the Key Arena. In year one, students raised over $500,000 for 300 different causes and volunteered over 820,000 hours of service. www.WeDay.com

PETE GROSS HOUSE

The Pete Gross House, which opened in November of 1999, is a 70-unit apartment complex providing housing for families undergoing treatment at the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center. The Pete Gross House is also the location of The Hutch School, a fully accredited K through 12 school for cancer patients and their siblings. The apartments have been at capacity since this housing development opened.

This housing project is named after Pete Gross, the Seahawks play-by-play announcer from 1976-92, who succumbed to cancer in 1992 just three days after being inducted into the Seahawks Ring of Honor. The Seahawks took a very active role in seeing this project through to completion. Last year, the Ultimate Sports Online Auction raised more than $29,000 for the Pete Gross House and The Family Assistance Fund.

Pete Gross and current play-by-play announcer Steve Raible worked together from 1982-92.

BEN'S FUND

Seahawks GM John Schneider and his wife Traci hosted the third annual Prime Time: A Spirited Celebrity Waiter Event on May 1, 2014. The event raised $385,000 to support Ben's Fund in partnership with Families for Effective Autism Treatment (FEAT) of Washington. The Schneiders set up Ben's Fund as a grant to help families with autistic children afford treatment, named in honor of their son, Ben, who was diagnosed with autism when he was three years old.

Over 30 Seahawks players, coaches and alumni participated in the event, waiting on tables, signing autographs and engaging with the event attendees all in the spirit of raising money for a great cause.

MAKE-A-WISH FOUNDATION

Working with the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Alaska and Washington, the Seahawks fulfill wishes for children with life-threatening medical conditions to enrich the human experience with hope, strength and joy. Over the years, the Seahawks have fulfilled more than 30 wishes. During 2013, the Seahawks fulfilled five wishes.

Last offseason, the club hosted 12-year old Kevin Lee, from Farmington Hills, Mich., who has had four open-heart surgeries. As part of the ESPN SportsCenter 'My Wish' feature series, Kevin signed a Seahawks contract and spent a day with the team during minicamp. He received a locker and custom-fit practice gear in addition to running through drills with Seahawks players.

Last season, 8-year old Brayden Ramus from Hartland, Wisc., had the opportunity to deliver the game ball to the referees at the start of the Seahawks' Monday Night Football game vs. the New Orleans Saints on December 2, 2013. Brayden, in remission from Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia, got to watch the game with his family in a suite and was able to go onto the field to watch the ESPN postgame show and meet his favorite player, Russell Wilson (right).

Due to a generous donation of eight Super Bowl tickets from the Snoqualmie Tribe, both Kevin and Brayden (left) received an all-expenses paid trip to New York for the Seahawks Super Bowl XLVIII victory over the Denver Broncos.

HIGH SCHOOL COACH OF THE WEEK AND YEAR

Each week during the high school football season, the Seattle Seahawks and the Washington State Football Coaches Association select two high school football coaches as the Coach of the Week winners. Each recipient receives a $500 donation to the school's football program from the Seattle Seahawks and the NFL Youth Football Fund, plus a framed certificate signed by Pete Carroll. Chiawana High School's Steve Graff was named the 2013 Seattle Seahawks High School Coach of the Year after leading the CHS Riverhawks to a last minute 27-26 win over Camas High School to secure the 4A State Football Championship. It was the first football state title in the school's history. As head coach since CHS opened in 2009, Graff has led his team to three league championships in five years. Graff received a $2,000 grant from the Seattle Seahawks.

BEEDE NAMED 2010 TEACHER OF THE YEAR

Former Seahawks guard Frank Beede, a teacher at Freedom High School in Oakley, Calif., was named the 2010 NFL Teacher of the Year. Beede received a $5,000 award in addition to the NFL presenting Freedom High School with a $5,000 grant. The Seahawks honored Beede by having him raise the 12th Man flag prior to the Seahawks preseason game against the Tennessee Titans (8/14/10). He was signed by Seattle in 1996 and played five seasons for the Seahawks.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

During the 2013 High School Fall Sports Seasons, CenturyLink, Q13 FOX/Joe TV and the Seattle Seahawks honored Washington State high school student-athletes that displayed exemplary performance both on and off the field. The CenturyLink High School Athlete of the Week program celebrates one deserving student-athlete who shows dedication to athletics, community involvement, leadership, reliability and athletic performance.

Winners received a $1,000 to their school ASB fund, courtesy of CenturyLink & the Seahawks, an in-school presentation hosted by CenturyLink, the Seahawks & Q13/Joe TV, a personalized 2013 Nike Seahawks jersey, custom Seahawks football, game tickets to a Seahawks game, recognition on the HawkVision videoboard and game day broadcast, and a CenturyLink High School Athlete of the Week Letterman Jacket patch.

THE STATE OF FOOTBALL

The "State of Football" at CenturyLink Field honors the rich tradition and legacy of high school football in the state of Washington. The helmet wall features replica helmets from every Washington State high school football program. On hand to help with the official unveiling in 2004 and to represent their state high schools were Marcus Trufant, Jack Thompson, Michael Jackson and Mike Alcantera, who all spoke to the significance of high school football and the tribute that is made by the helmet wall to the hard-working high school student-athletes.

THE LYSTEDT LAW

The law is named for Zackery Lystedt, who, in 2006, suffered a life-threatening brain injury following his return to a middle school football game after sustaining a concussion. Zackery, his family and a broad range of medical, business and community partners lobbied the state legislature for a law to protect young athletes in all sports from returning to play too soon. The Lystedt law contains three essential elements:

- Athletes, parents and coaches must be educated about the dangers of concussions each year.
- If a young athlete is suspected of having a concussion, he/she must be removed from a game or practice and not permitted to return to play. When in doubt, sit them out.
- A licensed health care professional must clear the young athlete to return to play in the subsequent days or weeks.

Seahawks team physician Dr. Stanley Herring was a major contributor to the successful passage of the Lystedt Law in Washington State. Dr. Herring is a member of the NFL Head, Neck and Spine Medical Committee and is medical director of spine care for UW Medicine. In October 2010, Dr. Herring and NFL Commissioner Goodell spoke at the "Keep Youth Sports Safe" conference at the Seattle Seahawks' offices. At the conference, Commissioner Goodell met Zack Lystedt and his family and pledged that the League will continue to support promotion and adoption of the Lystedt Law until all 50 states pass Zackery's law, or take action to keep youth sports safe from the risks of concussion. As of February 2014, all 50 states have passed laws to address concussion in youth sports.

SEAHAWKS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Women's Association

The Seahawks Women's Association was involved in many community events last year. The association hosted a "Football 101/201" workshop to benefit charity as part of the team's broader campaign to raise awareness for breast cancer. Fans registered for the event which was held at the Virginia Mason Athletic Center. The event raised $12,000 for Gilda's Club. Gilda's Club offers a broad, community-based program of social, emotional, and educational support for cancer survivors, their loved ones and friends that provides sustained support, education and resources on-site in the Seattle Clubhouse and off-site with collaborating partners. Proceeds from FB 101/201 were designated to a breast cancer educational project.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

To date, the NFL has raised more than $4.5 million for the American Cancer Society through A Crucial Catch campaign. Beginning in 2012, money raised through A Crucial Catch supports the American Cancer Society's Community Health Advocates National Grants for Empowerment (CHANGE) program, which hit the parts of the country deemed most at risk (low screening rates/high mortality rates) within 100 miles of an NFL city. In the Seahawks market, focus will be placed on breast cancer screening for Latino Women in Pierce County by partnering with three Sea Mar Community Health Centers and the Tacoma Medical Clinic.

SEAHAWKS COURAGE HOUSE

Childhaven, the Seahawks Courage House, assists abused or neglected children five years old or younger. Last year, the 12th annual Childhaven Dinner and Auction was held at the Hyatt Regency Bellevue. The event raised more than $798,000. Former defensive end Chris Clemons was honored as the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner for 2013. Voted on by his teammates after returning from a torn ACL in the Seahawks 2012 NFC Wild Card Playoff game against the Washington Redskins, the award is presented to the player who exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage.

Communities in Schools “Stuff the Bus”

For the past seven seasons, Seahawks fans have participated in the Communities in Schools “Stuff the Bus” program. Last season, “Stuff the Bus” was held before the Seahawks preseason game against the Denver Broncos on August 17. Two school buses were parked in front of the CenturyLink Field Event Center for fans to drop off school supplies. Fans filled the buses with supplies and cash donations which assisted more than 675 students with much-needed supplies. The promotion benefited students in the Seattle and Tacoma area with the highest percentage of low income students.

CELL PHONES FOR SOLDIERS®

Cell Phones for Soldiers

The Seahawks partnered with Cell Phones for Soldiers at their Military Appreciation game on November 17 against the Minnesota Vikings to collect used cell phones and cash donations to support cost-free communication services to active duty military members and veterans. The drive collected 1,431 phones and over $52,000 equaling over 1,664,370 minutes of donated talk time.

STATS FOR KIDS

Throughout the football season, there are a number of ways in which players can benefit local charities by raising their level of performance on the field. Programs have been developed that unite charities with sponsors who donate money based on game day performances. Listed below are the programs which were in place during the 2013 season:

POWER OF “12”

For every opponent false start at home, a donation was made to Communities in Schools of Washington. The program raised $10,000 last season and was sponsored by Western Washington Toyota Dealers.

Tackle Hunger Food Drive

The Seattle Seahawks, News Talk KIRO 97.3 FM, the Seahawks Women’s Association and Northwest Harvest encouraged fans to bring nonperishable food or cash donations to the Seahawks game versus the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on November 3. The donations assisted Northwest Harvest, the only statewide hunger relief organization in Washington. The drive collected more than 1,121 pounds of food and raised over $14,150 which provides over 65,000 meals.

U.S. Marines Toys for Tots

Every year the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve has representatives at CenturyLink Field to collect toys for the “Toys for Tots” program during a Seahawks game in December. Last year, the Marines collected toys on December 2 versus the New Orleans Saints. More than 1,600 toys and $7,600 were donated during the drive. Donated toys are distributed as holiday gifts to needy children in the Seattle community.

SPECIAL KICKS - FIELD GOALS & PUNTS

For every successful field goal and punt landing inside the 20-yard line, a donation was made to Camp Fire Snohomish County. Last season, the program raised $359,948.

Play 60 Challenge

Through a partnership with the NFL and The American Heart Association, over 35 groups across the state participated in this 4 week program, challenging youth to be active 60 minutes a day, four weeks in a row. Each site received PLAY 60 incentive kits and completion certificates. PLAY 60 grant funding was awarded to the top 5 locations based on participation.

School Visits

Last year, Seahawks players, Blitz and Sea Gals visited Super School contest winner Black Diamond Elementary School to host an assembly and deliver a $10,000 PLAY 60 Grant from the NFL.

Seahawks players also visited 15 different schools as part of the "PLAY 60 Tuesdays" program sponsored by Moda Health. This program encourages students to focus on education, stay active 60 minutes a day and maintain healthy eating habits.

Fuel Up to PLAY 60

The Washington State Dairy Council and the Seattle Seahawks have teamed up to bring healthy changes to schools around Washington with the Fuel Up to PLAY 60 program. This program is designed to empower students of all ages to eat healthfully and to be active at least 60 minutes a day. Students can earn points and prizes by tracking their healthy eating and physical activity online. More than 900,000 students are enrolled in over 1,900 schools in Washington State. For more information on this innovative program, go to www.EatSmart.org.

Hometown Huddle

In this league-wide day of community service, all 32 NFL teams participate in a community project in partnership with United Way. Last year was the 15th season the Seahawks participated in the program and were one of five sites featured by the NFL. Volunteers spent the day at Ryther, installing a Fit-Trail™ System along an existing jogging path. Seahawks players, Sea Gals, Blitz and Blue Thunder joined the festivities to host a PLAY 60 event for Ryther youth and provide a family style meal for everyone to enjoy.

Gatorade Jr. Training Camps

The Seahawks have made a commitment to the athletic improvement and life skills development of the youth of the Pacific Northwest by holding football camps at a number of locations throughout the region. During the summer months the Seahawks and Gatorade team up to host the Seahawks Gatorade Junior Training Camps. These two-hour camps are free to all boys and girls ages 7-14 and feature Seahawks players and area high school coaches who teach basic football skills to all participants. Camps are held in Seattle and various cities in central and eastern Washington and Canada.

Seahawks 12K Run

The Seattle Seahawks, The Landing and the City of Renton held the 5th Annual Seahawks 12K Run on April 13, 2014. The event included a 12K run, a 5K run/walk, a non-competitive half-mile Kids Run and a Block Party with free games, activities and entertainment. More than 12,000 runners turned out to participate in the event, which benefitted A Better Seattle.

Family Football Fest

Family Football Fest allows friends and family to share their football passion together at the same place the Seahawks play – CenturyLink Field. Families and friends join in the best NFL Football experience of the summer. Participants spend time with players, take tours of the locker room, run the 40-yard dash, and are a part of the Seahawks for the day!

FGI RESOURCE CONSERVATION PROJECT

In 2011, FGI implemented an energy conservation project that included the installation of a vast rooftop solar array; performance monitoring and other smart technologies, including high-efficiency lighting, mechanical system upgrades and ultra-low flow water fixtures; an LED stadium arch lighting system; and six electrical vehicle charging stations. The project was led by Seattle-based McKinstry.

The project has reduced annual utility costs by 25% percent and carbon emissions by 1,666 metric tons per year; the equivalent of removing 319 cars from the roadway, or powering 161 homes.

In addition to these conservation efforts, FGI recycled or composted 96% of all facility waste in 2013 (including 5,000 gallons of cooking oil that was converted to biodiesel fuel) and eliminated the use of over 27,000 gallons of cleaning chemicals by switching to an Electronically Activated Water cleaning system.

SEAHAWKS ALUMNI

Players and coaches of the Seahawks 1983 playoff team were honored at halftime of the November 3 game vs. Tampa Bay. Steve Largent raised the 12th Man flag before the game, surrounded by his former teammates and coaches.

BOEING CLASSIC

HOMETOWN CHARITY. WORLD-CLASS GOLF.

The Boeing Classic is an Official Event of the PGA TOUR Champions Tour, which features the most recognizable and accomplished players in the game 50 years of age or older. In the tournament's nine-year history, more than $4 million has been raised for the Heart Institute at Virginia Mason Medical Center, the Benaroya Research Institute at Virginia Mason and additional Greater Seattle Charities.

The Seattle Seahawks played a major role in the launch of the tournament and have continued to support the region's premier annual golf event in a variety of ways. As a community partner, the Seahawks staff serve on several tournament committees. The team also hosts the Kickoff event of the tournament - the Seahawks Rumble at the Ridge. Ring of Honor inductees, NFL Hall of Famers, plus local and national celebrities come together for a round of golf at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge and to raise funds for The Nutrition & Fitness for Life Program at Virginia Mason Medical Center, A Better Seattle and additional programs supported by Virginia Mason.

The Seahawks are proud to have been a part of the Boeing Classic since its inception and value the role the organization has played in helping to raise millions of dollars for local charities.

PAUL G. ALLEN

FOUNDER AND CHAIRMAN, VULCAN INC., AND CHAIRMAN SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Growing up in the Northwest, Paul G. Allen's passion for football was kindled at a young age while attending University of Washington football games with his father. As the years passed, he developed a fondness for the Seattle Seahawks, his hometown NFL team. After purchasing the franchise in 1997, Allen set his sights on creating a playoff-caliber team and building a world-class, multifunctional stadium for the state of Washington.

"From the beginning of this process, my goals have been to work with the community to create a lasting asset for our future and to ensure the long-term success of the Seahawks," said Allen when he purchased the franchise.

Both goals have been realized. CenturyLink Field & CenturyLink Field Event Center, which opened in 2002 as Seahawks Stadium and Exhibition Center, is a world-class facility that many argue is the best stadium in the NFL. In addition to Seahawks games, the venue hosts more than 300 events annually, including Major League Soccer matches, Supercross, concerts, graduation ceremonies and trade shows. The stadium's unique architecture – combined with the passion of the Seahawks' fan base – provides a definite home-field advantage: fans at CenturyLink Field have set the Guinness World Record for noise at an outdoor stadium on two separate occasions and the stadium has seen more false starts by opposing teams than any other venue in the NFL. The fans' ardent support of their team has also caused multiple registered seismic events in recent years.

Allen's ownership style is simple: he does what it takes to put the right people in the right place, provides them with tools for success and then lets them do their jobs. His approach has paid off: The Seattle Seahawks won the Super Bowl in 2014.

"Look around at the 12th Man flags flying today and savor a moment that Seahawks fans have been waiting for since 1976," said Allen at the Seahawks' championship celebration. "I can't say how proud I am that the Seahawks are able to bring the Vince Lombardi Trophy home to Seattle."

Allen has spent his career tackling some of the world's biggest challenges and pushing the boundaries of what's possible. Through both for-profit and philanthropic investments, he has sparked important developments and innovations in the areas of science, technology, education, conservation, the arts and community improvement. Mr. Allen first made his mark in 1975, when he co-founded Microsoft with Bill Gates, and he continues to be an innovator in the world of business and technology to this day. Mr. Allen is founder and chairman of Vulcan Inc., which oversees his philanthropic and business interests, he owns the National Basketball Association's Portland Trail Blazers and is part of the primary ownership group for Seattle Sounders FC, Seattle's Major League Soccer team.

With lifetime giving totaling more than $1.5 billion, Mr. Allen is one of the world's leading philanthropists; he has pledged to donate the majority of his fortune to charity. Most of Mr. Allen's giving is channeled through The Paul G. Allen Family Foundation, which supports innovative initiatives that have the potential to make significant, measurable impacts, but he also gives directly, including a $26 million gift to Washington State University's School for Global Animal Health in 2010.

In addition to his business and philanthropic efforts, Mr. Allen has a true love of science. In 2003, he created the Allen Institute for Brain Science to accelerate understanding of the human brain. The Institute has generated groundbreaking online public resources, including interactive atlases of the mouse and human brains that have become indispensable research tools for scientists worldwide. In 2012, Mr. Allen pledged $300 million to significantly expand the Institute's scientific programs. In 2013, he launched the Allen Institute for the Artificial Intelligence to explore critical questions in AI.

Growing up in the era of the Space Race, Mr. Allen has always been intrigued by the possibilities presented by space exploration. Mr. Allen underscored his passion for rocketry by sponsoring the development of SpaceShipOne, the first privately funded spacecraft to successfully enter suborbital space. In 2011, Mr. Allen got back into the space business with the formation of Stratolaunch Systems, an organization which is developing an innovative airborne launch system.

Mr. Allen is also one of the great conservationists of our time. Responding to the high rate of elephant mortality in history, he is advancing The Great Elephant Census, the largest pan-African aerial survey since the 1970s, which will provide new information critical to the species' future survival.

Mr. Allen is the founder of the EMP Museum, Seattle's critically acclaimed interactive music, pop culture and science fiction museum; the Flying Heritage Collection, a collection of rare WWII aircraft and artifacts restored to working condition; the Living Computer Museum, a collection of restored vintage timesharing computer equipment; and Vulcan Productions, the award-winning media company that develops and supports media projects that help audiences understand and respond to challenges facing the world around them.

JODY ALLEN

PRESIDENT & CEO, VULCAN INC. AND VICE-CHAIR OF FIRST & GOAL INC.

A big thinker and risk taker, businesswoman and philanthropist Jody Allen has spent nearly three decades developing and leading a variety of business projects and charitable endeavors around the world. She is president and CEO of Vulcan Inc., the project and investment management firm she co-founded with investor and philanthropist Paul G. Allen in 1986. In her role as president and CEO, Jody has developed and overseen a wide range of Mr. Allen's business and charitable endeavors around the world. Her projects include supervising the construction of the Rose Garden (now known as the Moda Center) in Portland, Ore. and the renovation of Seattle's Cinerama movie theater.

In addition to her role at Vulcan Inc., Ms. Allen is the vice-chair of First & Goal Inc., which oversees operations of the Seattle Seahawks. She played a key role in negotiating the public-private partnership that led to the construction of CenturyLink Field in Seattle and served as an advisor to Mr. Allen when he was first considering buying the Seahawks. Ms. Allen's work has paid off, as CenturyLink Field is widely regarded as one of the best stadiums in the NFL and the Seahawks are the reigning Super Bowl champions.

A dedicated philanthropist, Ms. Allen is co-founder and president of The Paul G. Allen Family Foundation, which has provided nearly half a billion dollars to improve communities and lives around the world. Ms. Allen believes in the importance of advancing progress to address the world's issues, and is an advocate of broad participation in solving the challenges of our time.

As passionate about the environment as she is about philanthropy, Ms. Allen has supported a number of major research projects. Of particular interest to Ms. Allen are projects that explore environmental issues pertaining to the oceans and climate change. Among the research projects supported by Ms. Allen are a study of the long-term effects of nuclear detonation testing on the marine environment and the work of marine biologist Hans Fricke, whose research unravels the mystery of the coelacanth, a rare order or prehistoric fish that was once thought to have gone extinct. Currently, Ms. Allen is helping oversee the Great Elephant Census, the largest pan-African aerial survey since the 1970s, which will provide new information critical to the species' future survival. She is also working on a number of projects aiming to sustain, support and replenish our oceans.

Ms. Allen also currently serves as president of Vulcan Productions, a company that initiates, develops and supports projects of substance and enduring significance. She was an executive producer of the critically acclaimed film Girl Rising, and co-produced the PBS series The Blues with Martin Scorsese, as well as the independent feature films Far from Heaven and Hard Candy. She is also president of the board of Seattle's EMP Museum, the critically-acclaimed museum of music, popular culture and science fiction, and serves on the boards of the Allen Institute for Brain Science and the Seahawks Charitable Foundation.

PETER MCLOUGHLIN

PRESIDENT – SEAHAWKS AND FIRST & GOAL, INC.

Named president of the Seattle Seahawks and First & Goal, Inc. on September 23, 2010, Peter McLoughlin is responsible for all financial and business operations, sales and marketing, sponsorship, and administration of the Seahawks. Additionally, as president of First & Goal, Inc., McLoughlin directs the management of CenturyLink Field, CenturyLink Field Event Center and WaMu Theater. He is the club's chief representative at NFL owners meetings and also serves on NFL committees for Business Ventures, Digital Media, Stadium Security, Fan Behavior and E-commerce.

In the fall of 2012, McLoughlin added the responsibility of the Portland Trail Blazers and Moda Center when Paul G. Allen named him CEO of Vulcan Sports and Entertainment. In this expanded role, McLoughlin has oversight of business operations for the Trail Blazers and Moda Center, while serving as an Alternate Governor for the Trail Blazers and representing the franchise at NBA owners meetings. McLoughlin also sits on the Team Media Advisory Committee, which works with the NBA Commissioner on upcoming media discussions.

Since joining the Seahawks, McLoughlin and his team have negotiated a multi-year stadium naming-rights partnership with CenturyLink, as well as long-term partnerships with Anheuser-Busch, Boeing, Delta Air Lines, HomeStreet Bank, Microsoft, Russell Investments, Sharebuilder, State Farm, Safeway, Starbucks and Verizon.

McLoughlin successfully inked media deals with Q13 FOX (KCPQ-TV), for preseason telecasts and team shows, and the club's radio partner, Bonneville (710 ESPN and KIRO 97.3FM). Local television ratings rose by 37% in 2013 and have increased a total of 77% since 2011, the largest increase in the NFL. The Seahawks averaged a 38.6 local household rating in 2013, with just over 700,000 households tuned to Seahawks games. Super Bowl XLVIII was the most watched program in television history, both locally and nationally, drawing a 56.7 household rating and a 92 Share on Q13 FOX in Seattle. More than 2.5 million people in Seattle watched the game.

In McLoughlin's fourth season with Seattle, the Seahawks enjoyed their most successful season in franchise history in 2013, capping off the run by winning their first NFL championship in Super Bowl XLVIII. The club matched that success in the box office by ending the 2013 season with 95-consecutive sell-outs. This offseason, the Seahawks posted a 99% season ticket renewal rate for 2014 and sold all 63,000 available season tickets, both franchise bests. The team launched Blue Pride, a 12,000 member wait list program that guarantees a spot in line to purchase season tickets when they become available. The program has reached its limit and currently has more than 30,000 members on the Blue Pride notification list.

McLoughlin was instrumental in the successful re-design of the team's uniform in 2012 for the first time in a decade with Nike, the exclusive supplier of NFL apparel. While other teams underwent limited change, Seattle and Nike teamed up to alter the team's color scheme and jersey make-up, focusing on the team's fan base, the 12th Man, and its Pacific Northwest heritage. Last year, the Seahawks secured four spots in the top-10 jersey sales (Russell Wilson, Marshawn Lynch, Richard Sherman, 12th Man). Wilson ranked no. 1 overall, while Sherman was the no. 1 selling defensive player. Previously, no Seahawks had been ranked in the top-10 since the league began collecting data in 2001.

It is with fan engagement as a top priority that McLoughlin established a Fan Advisory Council in 2013. A group of 12 season ticket holders meet quarterly with McLoughlin and Seahawks executives to provide an open dialogue, sharing their thoughts and ideas in the evaluation and enhancement of the overall Seahawks fan experience. It is this commitment to the fans that helped Seattle rank no. 1 in the NFL in the 2013 Voice of the Fan Survey and Fan Experience Expert Review.

McLoughlin's vision of a fan-friendly environment at CenturyLink Field has increased the number of fixed and portable points-of-sale and installed digital menu boards at all concession stands which will provide flexibility in pricing and menu, while adding flat screen HD televisions throughout the concourses so fans will not miss any action. These improvements, in partnership with new concessionaire Sportservice, a subsidiary of Delaware North Companies, will improve the concession experience, including the addition of 40 new portable food and beverage locations and a new beer hall.

This past April, McLoughlin's team installed new Mitsubishi digital hustle boards to enhance fans ability to keep up with the action and track live scores and stats from around the league.

Additionally, in 2013, the team expanded the stadium Pro Shop to 7,400 square feet of floor space and 30 points of sale. The expansion more than doubled the size of the store and offers fans more choices in Seahawks apparel and novelty items with faster service through mobile checkouts. The expansion, partnering with Fanatics to manage online sales, along with opening retail space in three local malls, helped the Seahawks increase merchandise sales by 268% from 2012.

In an effort to continually enhance fan safety, McLoughlin launched a program to employ undercover law enforcement officers in opposing team jerseys on game day. In recent years, the Seahawks have also added to its already comprehensive safety plans with additional measures such as bag checks, hand held metal detectors and the NFL bag policy.

He has also continued the initiative for stadium sustainability since his arrival. A solar array of 3,750 panels was installed on the roof of the CenturyLink Field Event Center that reduces annual utility costs by 21 percent, in addition to water and waste conservation efforts that reduce the effect on the environment.

This past offseason, McLoughlin and the Sounders helped transition the club to independent business operations, as part of the original plan when the two teams joined forces in 2007. McLoughlin currently represents Paul Allen's interest of the team. During McLoughlin's tenure as Sounders FC president, the club established itself as a model franchise in Major League Soccer (MLS) while setting the league attendance record for five-consecutive seasons (2009-13) and averaged 44,038 per game in 2013. Sounders FC finished the 2013 season with 88-consecutive sellouts, posted a 93% season ticket renewal rate for the 2014 season and sold more than 33,000 season tickets, the most in franchise history.

Before moving to Seattle, McLoughlin served as chief executive officer of the St. Louis Blues Enterprises from 2006-10. As CEO, he oversaw all business operations of the NHL Blues and Scottrade Center including sales, marketing and finance. During his tenure in St. Louis, the Blues achieved significant increases in revenue, season-ticket holders, sponsorship sales and a dramatic re-connection with Blues fans.

McLoughlin negotiated the arena naming rights agreement with Scottrade, a St. Louis-based investment firm, in time for the start of the 2006-07 NHL season. In addition, he negotiated a long-term extension with Fox Sports Network for Blues TV rights.

For 21 years prior to joining the Blues, McLoughlin served in a variety of executive roles at Anheuser-Busch. From 1998 to 2006, McLoughlin was vice president of Corporate Media and served as an officer of the company. He negotiated media agreements with television networks that included category exclusivity in 15 Super Bowls, 10 Olympics and dominant presence in MLB, NBA, NFL, NHL, NCAA and World Cup soccer telecasts. In addition, McLoughlin led negotiations for beer sponsorship of more than 80% of U.S. professional sports teams and stadiums, as well as league partnerships.

McLoughlin began his professional career at NBC Sports. From July 1979 to March 1984, he served as a senior unit manager at NBC Sports, where he managed production budgets and supervised on-site production of network programming. From March 1984 to October 1985, McLoughlin worked in NBC Sports Sales.

McLoughlin is a board member of the Washington Round Table and an executive board member on the Chief Seattle Council, Boy Scouts of America.

A graduate of Harvard University, he and his wife, Kelly, have five children and reside in Seattle.

JOHN SCHNEIDER

EXECUTIVE VP/GENERAL MANAGER

John Schneider enters his fifth season as General Manager of the Seattle Seahawks having been named to the position January 19, 2010. Schneider added the distinction of Executive Vice President in 2013. In his role, he manages all aspects of the Seahawks roster and draft process while working collaboratively with Pete Carroll in all facets of the football operations department. Schneider begins his 22nd season working in the professional ranks.

Schneider's philosophy is one primarily focused on building through the draft while making strategic acquisitions via trade and free agency that foster a competitive culture through a mix of youthful playmakers and veteran leadership. He is charged with piecing together a younger roster that will breed a sustained winning atmosphere for years to come. The signs of that philosophy have been evident during his first four years in a leading role. He constructed a team that won Super Bowl XLVIII, the first NFL title in franchise history, and the youngest 53-man roster to ever win a Super Bowl. He was named Sports Illustrated's Executive of the Year for 2012 after the Seahawks made the playoffs and just missed playing for the NFC Championship.

Schneider has continued to turn the roster over since 2010, totaling more than 800 transactions through the end of the 2013 season helping to cultivate depth on one of the NFL's most talented rosters. Also speaking to the depth of his roster and his expertise in selecting talent, 23 players that were unable to remain on Seattle's 53-man roster in 2013 were signed by other teams.

However, he has also made wise decisions in extending contracts to players such as Doug Baldwin, Michael Bennett, Kam Chancellor, Brandon Mebane, Richard Sherman, Earl Thomas, and Max Unger assuring continuity to the core of the roster while rewarding players for their commitment and performance.

He has shown a willingness and creativity to acquire extra draft picks and young talent via trade and free agency. Presented with two of the top 14 picks in the 2010 NFL Draft, he was able to acquire what many considered the best tackle prospect in Pro Bowler Russell Okung and a starting free safety with the selection of the two-time All Pro Thomas. Since 2010, the roster also features 10 players that have become regular starters that were drafted in the fourth round or later or signed as undrafted free agents. His penchant for making trades has seen the addition of Marshawn Lynch in 2010 and Percy Harvin in 2013.

After having no players selected to the Pro Bowl from 2009-10, Schneider's roster has seen nine different players selected from 2011-13: Thomas (3), Marshawn Lynch (3), Chancellor (2), Max Unger (2), Russell Wilson (2), Brandon Browner, Russell Okung, Michael Robinson and Sherman. All of whom, except Unger, were added via draft, trade and free agency after Schneider took over.

Before joining the Seahawks, Schneider enjoyed eight successful seasons with the Green Bay Packers. Originally joining the Packers March 1, 2002, as a personnel analyst to the general manager, he was promoted in May of 2008 to director of football operations. In his role, Schneider served as strategic counsel to General Manager Ted Thompson, addressing and evaluating the needs of the team in both free agency and in the draft while incorporating long-range planning processes that examined the Packers' roster, as well as the rosters of all NFL teams.

Before rejoining the Packers in 2002, he spent three seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs (1997-99), one year with the Seahawks (2000) and a year with the Washington Redskins (2001) as vice president of player personnel.

Schneider, a native of De Pere, Wis., first learned the tools of his trade with the Packers, beginning as an intern during the summer of 1992 under then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf. After graduating from the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minn., Schneider returned to Green Bay, serving as pro personnel assistant for four years (1993-96) and playing an integral role in the signing of several free agents who would help make up the team that won Super Bowl XXXI in New Orleans.

Schneider moved on to the Kansas City Chiefs in 1997 as director of pro personnel. It was in Kansas City that Schneider first worked with Marty Schottenheimer, whom he would later join in Washington. With the Chiefs, Schneider oversaw the scouting of all players with pro playing experience, including NFL Europe and the CFL, as well as the NFL. He also conducted advance scouting of all Kansas City opponents and was responsible for free agent acquisition.

In 2000, he subsequently signed on as director of player personnel for the Seahawks, joining Thompson and Mike Holmgren, with whom he had worked in Green Bay.

Schneider joined Schottenheimer with the Redskins in 2001 as vice president of player personnel, overseeing all aspects of the player personnel department, including college scouting, the college draft, pro scouting, free agency and day-to-day player personnel evaluations and operations. His duties included assembling and managing Washington's scouting staff, a process which involved the hiring of 15 personnel staff members and implementation of a new scouting system. In his role, Schneider advised Schottenheimer on all personnel matters.

In 2012, John and his wife Traci launched "Ben's Fund" in partnership with Families for Effective Autism Treatment (FEAT) of Washington. Named after their oldest son, "Ben's Fund" provides grants to families in order to help cover costs associated with medical bills, therapies and numerous other aspects of supporting a child, or children, on the autism spectrum. With the support of team and community, they have partnered to raise more than $900,000 for "Ben's Fund" in three short years.

Schneider earned a degree in history and also studied education at St. Thomas, playing football for one year before a shoulder injury cut short his career.

Born May 25, 1971, Schneider attended De Pere's Abbot Pennings High School and finished as one of the school's all-time leading rushers. He and Traci have two sons, Ben, 12, and Jack, 10.

KAREN BECKMAN

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER SEAHAWKS AND FIRST & GOAL

Karen Beckman is responsible for the financial oversight of the Seahawks and First & Goal Inc. She is charged with establishing budgets, forecasting and managing cash flow. She also oversees the teams' financial reporting and analysis as well as reporting to the Public Stadium Authority. Another aspect of this position is analyzing and handling economic challenges and opportunities as they relate to the National Football League. She also serves as the Treasurer on the Seattle Seahawks Charitable Foundation and the Seattle Seahawks Women's Association. Beckman originally joined the Seahawks in 1991 as a staff accountant and was promoted to her current position in May 2009. In 1990, Beckman was loaned to the Seahawks from the public accounting firm Arthur Andersen & Company to assist in the Seahawks accounting department before being hired full time the following year. Promoted to controller in 1997, Beckman was promoted to Finance Director of the Seahawks in 2003 and added the same responsibility for First & Goal Inc., in 2005. Was selected to attend the Inaugural Stanford Executive Education NFL Program for Managers in 2003. Beckman grew up in the North Seattle area before moving overseas where she lived in Tehran, Iran, from 1974-78. She returned to the states and graduated from Seattle's Nathan Hale High School at the age of 16. Went on to earn a B.A. in Accounting from Seattle University. Lives in Maple Valley, Wash., along the Cedar River.

JEFF DUNN

VP BUSINESS STRATEGY & ANALYTICS

Entering his second season with the Seahawks, Jeff Dunn was promoted to Vice President of Business Strategy & Analytics in June 2014, reporting to the CFO. In this role, he provides strategic and analytical support necessary to effect data-driven decision making across each department of the Seahawks business operations. He also leads special strategic initiatives including major stadium capital projects. Dunn is on the Board of Trustees of Make-A-Wish Alaska & Washington and has served on the Board of Directors of the Portland Trail Blazers since 2011. Prior to joining the Seahawks, Dunn worked in the private equity investment group of Vulcan Capital for nine years. After graduating from the McIntire School of Commerce at the University of Virginia in 2001, he started his career as an investment banking analyst with Greenhill & Co. in New York City. He resides in Mercer Island with his wife, Dawn, and two children, Emily and Luke.

MIKE FLOOD

VP COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Mike Flood originally joined the staff on July 1, 1997. Flood served as Community Outreach Director for Football Northwest prior to joining the Seahawks. He helped spearhead the state-wide campaign that resulted in the passage of Referendum 48 to build the new football/soccer stadium and exhibition complex. A Seattle native, Mike received a B.A. Degree in Industrial Education from Washington State University and a Master's Degree in Education from the University of North Carolina. He owned and operated Western Flyer Air Service, an agricultural flying service in Fort Scott, Kansas. He served as a pilot and civil engineering officer in the Coast Guard flying C130s, Dassault Falcon jets, and H60 Jayhawk helicopters. He managed Public Relations, Finance and Administration during tours in New York, Florida, North Carolina and Kodiak, Alaska. From 1994-96 he was the Air/Sea Rescue Operations Officer for coastal Oregon and Washington. Flood retired as a Commander in 1996 after 20 years in the service. He and his wife Marty, have a son, Dan, and a daughter, Shannon. Mike serves on the boards of the USO Northwest, Camp Patriot, Association of Washington Generals, WSU Marketing Committee and the Renton Chamber of Commerce. In 2012, Flood was awarded the Outstanding Service to Veterans award from the Washington Department of Veterans Affairs.

ED GOINES

GENERAL COUNSEL & VP GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS

Ed Goines enters his first season as the Seahawks General Counsel and Vice President, Government Affairs. Goines will administer the corporate legal affairs for the Seahawks and First & Goal and will be responsible for managing the organization's government relations strategy and policies. Goines joins the Seahawks after working most recently as assistant chief counsel for Disney Interactive/The Walt Disney Company. Prior to his time at Disney, he served five years as general counsel and vice president of business affairs for the San Francisco 49ers from 2001-2007, including one year as a legal consultant to the 49ers. Prior to the 49ers, his work in the entertainment and sports fields included serving as in-house legal counsel for Major League Soccer, Ticketmaster and Mattel. Goines began his law career as an associate in the Los Angeles office of the national law firm, Baker & Hostetler. A graduate of University of California, Berkeley, School of Law in 1992, he obtained a bachelor's degree from Stanford University in 1988. Goines was born and raised in Hot Springs, Arkansas. He has two daughters.

CINDY KELLEY

VP HUMAN RESOURCES & ADMINISTRATION

Entering her 32nd season with the club, Cindy Kelley was promoted to vice president on August 8, 2011, after spending 13 seasons as Director of Human Resources. She oversees this area for the Seahawks and First & Goal,

Inc. She began her career in 1983 in the finance department before managing the daily operation of the Kirkland office facility in the 1990s. Kelley is responsible for developing and establishing policies and objectives for all phases of human resources and administration functions in accordance with objectives of organization including: policies and procedures, recruiting, benefits, compliance, training, compensation, labor relations, employee relations/services, performance management, safety, and strategic planning. She also oversees corporate hospitality, security and facilities. Born in Wichita, Kan., she is a graduate of Interlake High in Bellevue and earned her degree in communications from Washington State University.

ADAM LINK

VP/GM FACILITY OPERATIONS & SERVICES

Link is currently in his fourth season with the organization and third as Vice President and General Manager of CenturyLink Field. After one season as assistant general manager, Link was promoted to Vice President and General Manager in July 2012. In this role, Link is responsible for the management and operations of CenturyLink Field and CenturyLink Field Event Center. With more than 150 events and 2,000,000 guests in 2013, CenturyLink Field and CenturyLink Field Event Center saw one of its busiest years to date including Kenny Chesney in concert, Supercross and PAC-12 football featuring Washington State vs. Stanford. Link is charged with leading a staff of more than 60 full time and 600 part time employees who continue to ensure that CenturyLink Field remains one of the industry's leaders. Prior to joining the organization, Link spent 10 years with Anschutz Entertainment Group (AEG) where he began his career in facility operations as an Event Manager at STAPLES Center in Los Angeles. While at STAPLES Center, Link managed events ranging from the X Games to the Grammy Awards. After five years at STAPLES Center, Link was promoted to Vice President of Events and Booking for The Home Depot Center, a 27,000 seat multi-use stadium and home to the Los Angeles Galaxy and Chivas USA. Link and his team were responsible for booking and managing all events at the venue. After graduating from Florida State University in 1996 with a Bachelor's degree in Marketing, Link started his career in ticket sales for the NHL's Phoenix Coyotes. He resides in Madison Park with his wife Aimee.

DAVE PEARSON

VP COMMUNICATIONS, BROADCASTING & WEB CONTENT

Dave Pearson is in his 26th NFL season and 17th with the Seahawks. Originally joining the Seahawks as director of public relations in 1998, he added the day-to-day oversight of the team's broadcast department in 2004. He was promoted to vice president of communications and broadcasting on April 29, 2008. Pearson is responsible for managing the public image and overall communications strategy for the Seahawks while serving as the primary liaison for local and national media outlets and broadcast partners. He also oversees all radio broadcasts, preseason telecasts, team-produced radio and television shows, publications and website content. As vice president, he also assumes various responsibilities revolving around game day operations at CenturyLink Field. Under his direction, Seattle's communications department has been nominated by the Pro Football Writers of America for the coveted Pete Rozelle Award six times and won the award in 2007. The teams' broadcasting department has won seven Northwest Region Emmy Awards. After beginning his career in 1989 as an intern in the Seahawks public relations department, the Tacoma, Wash., native worked for the Houston Oilers two seasons (1990-91). From 1992-93 he was the assistant PR director for the Los Angeles Rams before returning to Houston as PR director prior to the 1994 season where he would help manage the team's transition to Tennessee. Pearson earned a degree in media relations and interpersonal communications from Pacific Lutheran University. He and his wife, Beth, have two children, Allie and Chase, and reside in Mill Creek.

VP CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS & SUITES

Amy Sprangers is in her 14th season with the Seahawks and first as Vice President of Corporate Partnerships and Suites. In her new role, she is responsible for leading all revenue generation across sponsorship sales, local media rights and suite sales with the objective to deliver exceptional programs that measurably grow the team's business and the business of its partners. Since 2012, Sprangers has led the suites department as the Managing Director of Suite Sales and Service and has a proven track record of fostering key corporate relationships. Under her leadership, she provided the foundation by which the Seahawks were able to drive revenues, increase sell-through rates and build strong partnerships. Sprangers began her Seahawks career in 2001 as a corporate sales manager in the corporate partnership department, transitioned to the suite department as a manager in 2004 and director prior to the 2005 season. A Seattle native, she is a graduate from the University of Washington with a degree in speech communications and serves on the board of the Seattle Aquarium. Sprangers and her husband, Todd, have four children, Peyton, Jake, Sydney, and Sloane.

CHIP SUTTLES

VP TECHNOLOGY

Chip Suttles begins his third season with the Seahawks as vice president of technology. He is the voice in guiding the values and mission for the technology needs of the Seahawks and First & Goal, Inc. He is responsible for aligning technology vision with the overall business strategy of the organization and increase the performance of the organization through modernizing technology to improve the customer experience and drive increased revenue. Areas of focus include: improved stadium technology, player performance analytics, CRM systems development, websites and social media enhancement. Suttles joins the Seahawks after working most recently for the Vancouver Canucks in 2011 as director of technology. Prior to his two seasons with the Canucks, Suttles worked for the Vancouver Organizing Committee for the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games (VANOC); his fourth time participating in the Olympic Games. At VANOC, Suttles was the director of broadcast and prior to that had served in various technology roles from venue technology manager to director of the PMO in the planning through operations phases of the Olympic Games in Torino, Salt Lake City and Atlanta. Suttles and his wife, Lauren, have two sons. He enjoys participating in a variety of recreational sports and coaching little league.

SCOTT FITTERER

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Scott Fitterer joined the Seahawks' staff on June 25, 2001, as an area scout. He begins his fifth season as the club's director of college scouting after spending five as the western region director of college scouting. He coordinates the Seahawks' entire scouting operation and compiles all of the college scouting information required to set the draft board. He is responsible for the evaluations of all draft eligible players nationally, oversees the Seahawks college scouting staff and works closely with GM John Schneider and the Seahawks coaching staff regarding the NFL Draft and college free agency. Before joining Seattle, spent three seasons with the New York Giants, 1998-99, as a part-time scout before being assigned to the West Coast region for the 2000 season. Was a 1995 draft pick of the Toronto Blue Jays and spent three years in the Blue Jays system (1995-97) before his career ended due to three shoulder surgeries. Was a two-sport athlete in college, playing quarterback in football and pitcher in baseball at UCLA (1992-94) and LSU (1994-95). In 1998, Fitterer returned to UCLA to earn his undergraduate degree in history. Born in Seattle, he is a graduate of Kennedy High School in Seattle. Scott, his wife Cherish, daughter Ella, and son Cole live in Sammamish, Wash.

TRENT KIRCHNER

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Trent Kirchner begins his second season as Pro Personnel Director or having joined the Seahawks as assistant director of pro personnel on February 5, 2010. In this role, he oversees NFL free agency, the advance scouting of Sea-hawks' upcoming opponents, evaluation of NFL practice squads, as well as the scouting of all professional leagues including the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football Leagues. During the season he coordinates free agent tryouts, monitors NFL transactions and assists in the recruiting and signing of all free agent players. Since the 2010 season, Kirchner and the pro scouting staff have made more than 800 player transactions to help form one of the youngest rosters in the NFL. Kirchner and the pro scouting staff have also played integral roles in the trades of Marshawn Lynch and Percy Harvin. In addition, they were central to the unrestricted free agent acquisitions of Sidney Rice, Zach Miller, Michael Bennett, Cliff Avril and Tony McDaniel – all of whom played key roles in helping Seattle win Super Bowl XLVIII, the first title in team history. Before joining Seattle, Kirchner played an important role in helping turn the Panthers around from a 1-15 record to Super Bowl XXXVIII participants in just two years through key free agent acquisitions such as Jake Delhomme and Stephen Davis. Kirchner spent eight seasons in Carolina as a pro scout where they had one Super Bowl appearance, two conference championship appearances and won two division titles. Before his time with the Panthers, he spent one year as the college scouting coordinator for the Washington Redskins. During his senior year in college (spring of 2000) he volunteered with the Kansas City Chiefs at the NFL Scouting Combine in Indianapolis. From there, he joined the Seahawks as an intern splitting time between the public relations and college scouting departments. He also interned with the Minnesota Twins in 1999. A native of Minnesota, he graduated with a degree in business management from St. John's (Minn.) University, where he played quarterback for two years. Trent and his wife, Jessica, have two sons, Carter and Landon.

DAN MORGAN

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Dan Morgan enters his fourth season with the Seahawks and second as Assistant Director of Pro Personnel. Morgan helps scout future Seahawks opponents and assess talent in all professional leagues including the NFL, the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League. He also helps coordinate free agent visits, tryouts, and monitor NFL transactions. A former 11th overall selection in the 2001 NFL Draft by Carolina, Morgan started all 59 games played in seven seasons at linebacker for the Panthers. He helped lead the Panthers to a Super Bowl XXXVIII appearance in 2003, where he collected 18 tackles in the game. He was named a starter in the Pro Bowl following a 2004 season in which he led the team with 102 tackles. In 2005, he helped lead the Panthers to the NFC Championship Game versus the Seahawks. Unfortunate ankle and Achilles injuries cut his career short following the 2007 season. Morgan was one of the most decorated players in Big East history following a Hall of Fame career at the University of Miami. He became the first player in team history to be named captain as a sophomore. He went on to win the Nagurski Trophy and the Butkus and Bednarik Awards becoming the first player in NCAA history to win all three in a career (and the same year). He was an All-America selection as a senior and 2000 Big East Player of the Year. Morgan is married to Ashleigh and they have three children, Lexi, Brady and Cali.

PRO SCOUT

Nolan Teasley begins his first season as a pro scout with the Seahawks after working in 2013 as an intern in the team's scouting department. In his role, Teasley will help scout future opponents, help coordinate free agent visits and tryouts, and monitor NFL transactions. Before joining the Seahawks, Teasley worked in corporate marketing for six years. A 2007 graduate from Central Washington University with a degree in public relations, he was a running back on the Wildcats football team. Originally hailing from Ellensburg, Washington, Teasley and his wife, Morgan, live in West Seattle.

MATT BERRY NATIONAL SCOUT

Matt Berry begins his seventh season with Seattle and first as a national scout. He served the previous six seasons as a regional scout combing the southwestern states in search of college football talent. In his new role, he continues to cover the Southwest while cross checking other regions. Having spent the previous five seasons with the Atlanta Falcons before joining Seattle, Berry served his final three seasons as the Falcons' south central scout and 2005 as a scout for the northeastern part of the United States. He served the team in various in-house capacities for the 2003 and 2004 seasons. Prior to joining the Falcons, Berry worked as a summer intern for the Baltimore Ravens in 2002. A native of Nashville, Tenn., he holds a bachelor of arts degree in history from Davidson College (N.C.), where he played both baseball and football. Berry was a four-year starter on a Wildcat football team that had the most successful run in school history, including a 17-game winning streak. Married to professional runner and triathlete Desiree Ficker. They have a daughter, Beau, and currently resides in Austin, Texas.

ED DODDS NATIONAL SCOUT

Ed Dodds begins his eighth season with the Seahawks and seventh in college scouting after serving in the pro personnel department in 2007. Dodds begins his role as a national scout in 2014, having worked south central states in search of draft eligible college players. He will continue to search that region taking on an expanded role of cross checking other regions. Entering his 11th season in the NFL, Dodds joined the Seahawks in May 2007, after spending his first four seasons with the Oakland Raiders. Dodds joined the Raiders after earning a degree in business marketing from Texas A&M-Kingsville. He was a student coach at Texas A&M-Kingsville from 2000-03, serving one year as quality control assistant for the offense, then handling quality control on defense for two seasons. He was a four-year starter at H.M. King High School in Kingsville, Texas, where he was a three-year all-district pick at guard and line-backer earning an invitation to the South Texas Shriners East-West All Star Classic in 1998. Dodds is a U.S. Coast Guard licensed captain. Resides in Kingsville, Texas.

JASON BARNES AREA SCOUT (MIDWEST)

Jason Barnes begins his eighth season with the Seahawks, his fifth working with the college scouting department after working with pro scouting the first three years. While working with the pro department, Barnes helped scout future

Seahawks' opponents and assess talent in all professional leagues including the NFL, the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League. Lined up at wide receiver four seasons (2000-04) at Ball State University where he received a B.A. in criminal justice. A Fort Wayne, Ind., native, he attended Southside High School where he was a four-year starter in football and three-year starter in basketball. Earned All-State senior season as a cornerback, and was selected to play in the Indiana North South All-State All-Star Game. All Conference in basketball. Is married to Kristin, and has two sons Chase and Christopher.

TODD BRUNNER AREA SCOUT (NORTHEAST)

Todd Brunner joined the Seahawks as an area scout in 2012 and covers the northeast region. He served the same role with the San Francisco 49ers from 2001-11. Prior to joining the 49ers, he spent two seasons as an area scout with the Cleveland

Browns, where he combed the Northeast region in 1999-2000 for college talent. Brunner joined the Browns from the Philadelphia Eagles where he spent four seasons (1994-97) as an area scout covering the Northeast. He joined the Eagles as a scouting intern in 1992 and worked as a scouting assistant in 1993. Brunner attended Lehigh (Pa.) University and lettered two years in football. As a junior, he led the team in special teams tackles, and as a senior quarterback, tied or broke 14 school passing records. Following his football career at Lehigh, Brunner spent one season as a graduate assistant at Temple, in 1991, and earned his master's degree. Comes from a football family as his father John coached at Temple, Villanova, Princeton and in the NFL ranks with Detroit, Green Bay, Tampa Bay and Minnesota, before scouting for the 49ers for 12 seasons. Brother, Scott, spent time in the NFL with the N.Y. Giants. SAM RAMSDEN

DIRECTOR OF HEALTH & PLAYER PERFORMANCE

In 2014, Sam Ramsden will begin his 16th year with the Seattle Seahawks and his third in the role of director of health and player performance. His responsibilities include researching and developing emerging and advanced technologies that will lead to better on-field performance, as well as overseeing both the athletic training room and the weight room. Ramsden's primary area of expertise, for much of his 20 seasons in the NFL, has been centered on the physical rehabilitation and conditioning of professional football players. Ramsden originally joined the Seahawks as an associate athletic trainer in February of 1999. He was promoted to head athletic trainer in 2004 and was responsible for coordinating the overall healthcare provided for the Seahawks' players and staff. Before Seattle, he served six seasons with the Green Bay Packers as an assistant athletic trainer and was a member of the Super Bowl XXXI Championship Team. As a student athletic trainer at the University of Wisconsin - La Crosse, Ramsden worked with several inter-collegiate sports teams before joining the Packers' staff. He received a bachelor's degree in physical education with an emphasis in athletic training from the La Crosse school in 1992. A La Crescent, Minnesota native, he and his wife, Lisa, together with their two sons, Henry and Lachlan, live near Snoqualmie, Washington, in the foothills of the Cascade Mountains.

DONALD RICH

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Donald Rich, in his 11th season with the Seahawks, was promoted to head athletic trainer in 2014. Rich is responsible for the coordination of all aspects of health care for the Seahawks athletes and coaches. He manages the athletic training room, including all full-time athletic trainers and season-long certified intern athletic trainers. Rich and his staff are experienced in risk management and injury prevention, pathology of injuries and illnesses, conditioning and rehabilitation; and the nutritional aspects of injuries and illnesses. He is a certified Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES) through the National Academy of Sports Medicine and has completed a Fellowship in Applied Functional Science through the Gray Institute for Functional Transformation. Rich began his professional career as an intern with Seattle during training camp in 2003 and returned as a season-long intern in 2004. He served as an assistant athletic trainer from 2005-2011 before taking over the department in 2012. Rich served two years with Northwestern University athletic training staff following completion of his undergraduate studies at the University of Florida and before earning a Masters in exercise science from Boise State University. Rich spent one season working in NFL Europe for the Cologne Centurions in the spring of 2004. Rich is originally from Philadelphia, Pa., but grew up in Melbourne, Fla.

MATT CAPURRO FOOTBALL OPERATIONS COORDINATOR

Matt Capurro enters his 11th NFL season and his fifth with the Seahawks. He previously spent one season with the USC Trojans

(2009) and six seasons with the Oakland Raiders (2003-2008). Capurro works directly with Head Coach Pete Carroll in organizing the day-to-day operations of the team. His responsibilities include overseeing player and staff communications with the head coach and managing the football calendar, which include the offseason program, mini-camp, training camp and in-season schedules. In 2009 with the Trojans, Capurro was director of football operations. He organized the football calendar for the entire season, coordinated all travel logistics for home and road games, directed USC football camps and clinics, and served as liaison for the football department within the athletic department. In his six seasons with the Raiders, Capurro spent five seasons (2004-08) as the assistant to the head coach where he coordinated all the day-to-day operations, and spent his first season (2003) as a coaches assistant. During that span, he worked for Bill Callahan, Norv Turner, Art Shell, Lane Kiffin and Tom Cable. Prior to that, Capurro was a football operations intern for the Raiders for five years (1998-2002). He earned his bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of San Francisco in 2003. He lettered in football and baseball at St. Vincent High School in Petaluma (Calif.) Married to wife, Emily.

SEAHAWKS BOARD OF ADVISORS

In 2009, the Seahawks formed a board of advisors. This group has a close and personal affiliation with the franchise linking the past with the present. The members advise Seahawks ownership and management as to the direction of the franchise as it relates to the fans and the community. Current members are Seahawks Ring of Honor members Jacob Green, Cortez Kennedy and Steve Largent. John Nordstrom also serves on the board and is a family member of the Seahawks original ownership group. Gary Wright, a well-respected member of Seahawks management for 32 years (1976-2009), was added in 2012.

PETE CARROLL

EXECUTIVE VP OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/HEAD COACH

NFL EXPERIENCE: 21ST YEAR

Named head coach on January 11, 2010, Pete Carroll became the eighth head coach in Seahawks history after one of the most successful runs in USC history in the college ranks. He brings 20 years of NFL experience and 19 years of collegiate experience to Seattle.

Carroll's overall head coaching record is 71-57 in the regular season and 6-4 in the postseason in his eight years of head coaching.

In his four seasons as head coach in Seattle, Carroll and General Manager John Schneider constructed the best team in Seahawks history in 2013 as they led Seattle to its first Super Bowl title in franchise history with a 43-8 victory over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XLVIII in New York/New Jersey on February 2, 2014.

Carroll became the third-oldest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl (62 years, 140 days) and joined Jimmy Johnson and Barry Switzer as the only coaches to win a college football national title and a Super Bowl in their career.

Carroll and Schneider constructed one of the best defenses in the last 12 years, leading them to the NFL title. The Seahawks defense ranked first overall in the NFL in total defense (273.6 ypg), passing defense (172.0 ypg), points allowed (14.4 ppg), takeaways (39), interceptions (28), turnover differential (+20) and opponent quarterback rating (63.4). It was only the second time in franchise history that Seattle finished with a top-10 defense in three-consecutive seasons (1990-92).

The youngest Super Bowl-winning roster in NFL history (26 years, 162 days) was led by second-year quarterback Russell Wilson, who became the third-youngest quarterback to win the title game (25 years, 65 days).

Seattle won its eighth division title in club history in 2013, second under Carroll, after winning the NFC West with a club-record tying 13-3 record. Seattle has advanced to the divisional round in three of Carroll's four seasons as coach, winning one NFC Championship and Super Bowl, while claiming the No. 1 seed in the NFC for the second time in club history (2005).

Carroll continues to grow the team through his strong philosophy of preaching competition and taking care of the football.

Helping that cause, 25 of 39 draft choices since 2010 remain with the team to build a strong foundation of continuity, including 11 starters and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP Malcolm Smith (seventh round).

In 2012, Carroll led Seattle to the NFC Divisional Playoff round for the fifth time in the last eight seasons and second time in his three seasons as head coach, posting the third-best record in franchise history (11-5) at the time. Seattle won its first postseason road game since 1983 with a Wild Card Game victory at Washington.

One of the youngest teams in the NFL to end the season for the second-consecutive year (second overall, third-youngest defensive starters, fourth-youngest offensive starters), Seattle started 4-4 but went on to finish the season 7-1 led by rookie Russell Wilson and the league's fourth-ranked defense, that also led the league allowing 245 points (15.3 ppg).

Carroll's 2011 squad also ranked as one of the youngest in the NFL; beginning the season with the second-youngest roster in Week 1, once-having the third-youngest offensive line during the season and ending the year with the second-youngest starting defensive unit in the league.

He saw his 2011 defense improve weekly, ending the season ranked ninth in the league in total defense, just the sixth time Seattle has boasted a top-10 defense and first since 1997. His offense switched gears from a quick-strike no-huddle group to a grind-it-out ground game led by Marshawn Lynch over the last-half of the season. That offensive mentality helped Seattle rank fifth in the NFL with 1,212 rush yards over the last nine games of the season.

Always competing, the Seahawks jumped out to a 4-2 record to begin the 2010 season and parlayed that in to the club's fifth NFC West title in the past seven seasons, punctuating the season with a 41-36 victory over the defending Super Bowl Champion New Orleans Saints at CenturyLink Field in the Wild Card Game. It was Seattle's fifth playoff win in a row at CenturyLink Field.

Carroll returned to the NFL after spending nine years (2001-09) as head coach at USC, where he won seven consecutive Pac-10 titles (2002-08), two national championships (2003-04) and led the Trojans to a 97-19 record. He reached a bowl in each of his nine seasons and won seven. His 88 victories from 2001 to 2008 tied Bob Pruett of Marshall for most by a Division I coach in their first eight seasons since 1900 (Penn's George Woodruff - 102). He reached 50 career USC wins faster than any head coach in Trojans history. From 2002-08, his teams appeared in an NCAA-record seven consecutive BCS bowls, recorded at least 11 victories seven times (an NCAA record) and finished ranked in the AP Top 4. USC was the AP's No. 1 team for a national-record 33 straight polls (including two preseason polls) and was ranked in the AP Top 10 for a school-record 63 consecutive games. His teams were ranked in the AP Top 25 for 102 consecutive games, a school record. In 2009, he was named Coach of the Decade by Lindy's.

Also under Carroll, USC was the first school to have three Heisman Trophy winners in a four-year span (Carson Palmer, Matt Leinart, Reggie Bush). He also coached winners of the Walter Camp, Chuck Bednarik, Johnny Unitas, Doak Walker and John Mackey Awards. Carroll produced 34 All-American first-teamers and 53 NFL draft picks (including 14 first-rounders, with a No. 1 selection in Carson Palmer and a No. 2 in Reggie Bush). His USC program had the nation's most draftees in 2006, 2008 and 2009.

USC posted a 12-1 record in 2008 and advanced to its fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl, defeating Penn State, 38-24, to become the first team to win three straight Rose Bowls. In the polls, the Trojans finished ranked second by USA Today and third by AP. USC finished first in scoring defense (9.8 ppg, its finest in 41 years), surrendering just 14 touchdowns in 2008.

In 2007, USC went 11-2 and finished second in the USA Today poll and third in the AP poll, for its sixth AP Top 4 ranking in a row. Its 49-17 win over Illinois in the Rose Bowl equaled the most points ever in the bowl game. Five players were named All-American first-teamers.

USC posted an 11-2 mark in 2006, finished No. 4 in the final polls and shared the Pac-10 title at 7-2 to capture an unprecedented fifth

His Trojans held AP's No. 1 ranking for the entire regular season in 2005. USC went 12-1 overall to advance to the BCS Championship Game in the Rose Bowl. The Trojans, who finished second in both polls, boasted a school-record six All-American first-teamers, including Heisman Trophy-winning tailback Reggie Bush. He was the 2005 Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year, as well as the American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Region 5 Coach of the Year.

In 2004, he guided No. 1-ranked USC to its second consecutive national championship with a convincing win over Oklahoma in the BCS Championship Game in the Orange Bowl. USC became only the second team ever to hold its AP preseason No. 1 ranking all the way through a season. It was only the 10th time that a team won back-to-back AP crowns. His team was 13-0 (a school-record for wins) and went 8-0 in the Pac-10. A school-record six Trojans were named All-American first teamers.

The Trojans won the AP national championship, its first national crown since 1978, and entered the Rose Bowl also ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/ESPN poll, in 2003. USC was 12-1 overall and finished the season ranked second. USC's 534 points was a Pac-10 record. Five Trojans were first-team All-Americans. For this, Carroll was named the 2003 American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Coach of the Year, Home Depot National Coach of the Year, Maxwell Club College Coach of the Year, ESPN.com National Coach of the Year, Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. Coach of the Year and All-American Football Foundation Frank Leahy Co-Coach of the Year. He also was the Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year.

In 2002, USC posted its first 11-win season since 1979 and its highest ranking (No. 4) since 1988. Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Carson Palmer and safety Troy Polamalu were first team All-Americans.

Carroll was named USC's head football coach on December 15, 2000, and in his first season, led the Trojans to the Las Vegas Bowl and a 6-6 record.

He began his NFL career as defensive backs coach for Buffalo (1984) and Minnesota (1985-89) before becoming the New York Jets defensive coordinator (1990-93) and head coach (1994). He spent two years as San Francisco's defensive coordinator (1995-96), leading the league in total defense in 1995, before leading New England to a 27-21 record and two playoff appearances as head coach (1997-99).

Carroll spent the 2000 season as a consultant for pro and college teams, doing charitable work for the NFL and writing a column on pro football for CNN.com.

He began his coaching career at the collegiate level, serving as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Pacific, for three years (1974-76), working with the wide receivers and secondary. He then spent a season as a graduate assistant working with the secondary at Arkansas (1977) under Lou Holtz as the Razorbacks won the 1978 Orange Bowl, and then a season each as an assistant in charge of the secondary at Iowa State (1978) and at Ohio State (1979). He next spent three seasons (1980-82) as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at North Carolina State, before returning to Pacific in 1983 as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator.

Carroll was a two-time (1971-72) All-Pacific Coast Conference free safety at Pacific and earned his bachelor's degree in 1973 in business administration. He received his secondary teaching credential and a master's degree in physical education from Pacific in 1976. He was inducted into the Pacific Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995.

He was a three-sport (football, basketball and baseball) standout at Redwood High in Larkspur, Calif., earning the school's Athlete of the Year award as a senior. He played quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back. He was inducted into the inaugural Redwood High Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009. He then played football at Marin Junior College in Kentfield, Calif., from 1969-70 before transferring to Pacific.

In 2003, he helped develop "A Better L.A.," a non-profit group consisting of a consortium of local agencies and organizations working to reduce gang violence by empowering change in individuals and communities. In the spring of 2009, he received the Crystal Heart Award from the USC School of Social Work for his involvement with "A Better L.A.," and the Pete Carroll Scholarship was established for students pursuing graduate study in the school. He received the Courageous Leadership Award from Women Against Gun Violence in 2005. In the fall of 2008, he helped organize "L.A. LivePeace 08," a march and rally at the Coliseum to promote gang intervention and non-violence in Los Angeles. He has taken this model and created "A Better Seattle," in partnership with the YMCA of Greater Seattle and the Seattle Youth Violence Prevention Initiative to prevent violence in Seattle and South King County. It was launched on September 15, 2011.

Carroll also spearheaded the efforts to bring "We Day," a star-studded pep rally event to inspire children to make an impact to the world, to the United States for the first time when it came to Seattle in March 2013. The day-long event filled KeyArena with more than 15,000 high school students and included celebrity speakers and performers including Magic Johnson, Martin Luther King III, Macklemore, Jennifer Hudson, Martin Sheen and more. The one-of-a-kind event, which has been in eight Canadian cities since 2008 and will expand across the U.S. and in to England, will return annually to Seattle.

Carroll was born on September 15 in San Francisco. He and his wife, Glenna, who played volleyball at Pacific, have three children, sons Brennan (married to Amber), who played tight end at Delaware and Pittsburgh, Nate, and daughter Jaime (married to Mike), who played on the Women of Troy's volleyball team that competed in the 2000 NCAA Final Four. The couple also has four grandchildren.

DARRELL BEVELL OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL EXPERIENCE: 15TH YEAR

Named offensive coordinator on January 20, 2011, Darrell Bevell enters his fourth season leading Seattle's offense after spending five seasons (2006-10) as the Minnesota Vikings offensive coordinator.

During Seattle's Super Bowl XLVIII championship run in 2013, the Seahawks offense relied on the NFL's fourth-ranked rushing offense (136.8 ypg) and Russell Wilson's arm in leading the club to 26.1 ppg, ranking eighth in the NFL.

The Seahawks rushing attack has led the NFL with 5,979 yards since Week 9 of the 2011 season and Marshawn Lynch leads the NFL with 3,788 yards during that span.

Lynch totaled a career-high 14 touchdowns in 2013 (career-high tying 12 rush, two rec.) and added 1,257 yards on 301 carries. He is the only player to rush for 1,000 yards and score 10 rushing touchdowns in each of the last three seasons.

Under center, Wilson became the first player in NFL history to have a 100.0 passer rating in each of his first two seasons in the league, as he broke his own franchise record with a 101.2 rating last season. He also tied his career-high with 26 touchdowns, giving him 52 in two seasons, tying Peyton Manning for second place in NFL history for the most touchdown passes in a quarterback's first two seasons. Wilson also owns the NFL record for most wins by a quarterback in his first two seasons with 28 (regular and postseason).

Three players were voted to the Pro Bowl: Lynch, Wilson and center Max Unger.

The 2012 edition of Seattle's offense took off in historic fashion over the last half of the season led by rookie Wilson.

Aided by the NFL's third-ranked rushing attack led by Lynch and his career-highs in carries (315) and yards (1,590, 3rd NFL), along with 11 rushing touchdowns, Wilson gained a comfort level to excel in the offense.

Wilson would go on to end the season as the league's fourth-ranked passer with a franchise-record 100.0 passer rating, tie (Peyton Manning) the NFL rookie-record with 26 touchdown passes and set the NFL rookie-record with three consecutive games with a 125-plus passer rating, in addition to setting several other NFL and franchise records that season.

Bevell saw his offense jump from 30th in the league in Week 8 to 17th to end the season as Seattle set a club record with three consecutive games with 450-plus offensive yards (Weeks 13-15), while outscoring opponents 170-43 to end the regular season. His unit boasted four Pro Bowlers - Lynch, Wilson, T Russell Okung and C Max Unger. Lynch and Unger were also named first-team AP All-Pro selections.

Under Bevell's direction in 2011, Seattle's offense found its identity: running the football. Over the last-half of the season, the Seahawks running game ranked fifth in the NFL with 1,212 rush yards, posting 100-plus team rushing yards in eight of its last nine games, including a six-game streak that was its longest since the 2002-03 seasons.

With that success came Pro Bowl nods for Lynch and fullback Michael Robinson. Robinson paved the way for Lynch's 285 carries, 1,204 yards and career-high 12 rushing touchdowns. Lynch led the league the last-half of the season with 941 yards and nine touchdowns, rushing for 100-plus in six of the last nine games and became Seattle's first 1,000-yard rusher since Shaun Alexander (2005).

Bevell also saw former Vikings starter Tarvaris Jackson battle through a pectoral injury and set career-highs in attempts (450), completions (271), yards (3,091), completion percentage (60.2, min. 290 att.) and touchdowns (14), in compiling a 7-7 record as a starter.

With the Vikings, Bevell guided Adrian Peterson and Brett Favre to career years.

In 2010, the Vikings running game continued to churn up yardage with Adrian Peterson leading the way. Peterson earned his fourth straight Pro Bowl berth and rushed for 1,298 yards on the ground, the fifth-best mark in team history with four of the top five owned by Peterson. Peterson also had 12 rush scores, topping the 10-plus touchdown mark each year in the league. However, his offense was hobbled by injuries to their linemen, starting three different centers, losing both guards to injured reserve and getting only 20 total games out of 2009 Pro Bowl wide receiver Sidney Rice (6) and Percy Harvin (14).

The signing of Favre, who Bevell coached in Green Bay, spurred the Vikings to the eighth-ranked passing offense in the NFL in 2009. The Vikings air attack matched the established productivity of the ground game in 2009. Favre's favorite target was Rice, who led the team in receiving and earned his first Pro Bowl berth, and Visanthe Shiancoe, who set a Vikings record for tight ends with 11 touchdowns. Harvin earned AP Offensive Rookie of the Year, marking the second time in three seasons the Vikings drafted the Rookie of the Year, joining Peterson in 2007. On the ground, Peterson posted the third-best single-season rushing total in team history while leading the NFL and setting a team record with 18 rushing scores.

The 2009 Vikings ranked second in the NFL in scoring offense by one point to Super Bowl XLIV champion New Orleans, posting 447 of the Vikings 470 total points for the season on offense. The Vikings ranked fifth in the NFL in total offense. The offense distributed the ball with efficiency, becoming only the second team in NFL history to have six players catch 40-plus passes in a season.

In 2008, Peterson led the NFL and set a Vikings record with 1,760 rushing yards and set a team mark with 10 games over the 100-yard mark. Free agent addition Bernard Berrian led the team with 964 yards and tied an NFL record with a 99-yard receiving toss from Gus Ferrette.

The 2007 Vikings featured a dynamic backfield that set team records with 2,634 rushing yards and a 5.33 yard-per-carry average. The Vikings scored 22 rushing touchdowns, an improvement of 10 over the 2006 club.

Peterson burst onto the NFL scene in 2007 and left his name etched throughout the NFL's and the Vikings' record books. He won the 2007 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year. In his fifth NFL game, Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards at Chicago and three games later he set an NFL record with 296 yards on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish second in the NFL.

Peterson was the only offensive rookie in 2007 to earn Pro Bowl honors and was joined on the NFC squad by Tony Richardson, Matt Birk and Steve Hutchinson, who both repeated their trips from 2006.

In his first year as coordinator, the Vikings were led on the ground by Chester Taylor, who set a franchise record with 303 rushing attempts and the fourth-highest total in team history with 1,216 yards. The offense saw four different starting groups in the offensive line and only three players starting all 16 games across the front. Of the three players who did start every game, Birk and Hutchinson earned Pro Bowl berths.

Bevell worked in Green Bay for six years, serving the last three as quarterbacks coach, prior to his time in Minnesota.

He stepped into the Packers quarterbacks role in 2003 with solid results. Favre set a career high with a 65.4% completion rate, led the NFL with 32 touchdown passes and earned his eighth career berth in the Pro Bowl.

In 2005, Green Bay led the NFL in completions (383) and attempts (626) and set a team record in both categories. The 2004 Packers set a team record with 4,449 net passing yards, breaking an 11-year old franchise record en route to ranking third in the NFL in total offense. After setting a team record for rushing yards the season before, the Packers became the first NFL team since the 1988-89 San Francisco 49ers to set team marks in rushing and passing in back-to-back seasons.

Along with Favre in his first year in 2000, Bevell worked with Matt Hasselbeck before his trade from Green Bay to Seattle.

Bevell entered the coaching ranks at Westmar University in Lemars, Iowa, in 1996 where he worked as passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He moved on to Iowa State in 1997 as a graduate assistant and then the University of Connecticut for two seasons in 1998-99 as wide receivers coach. The 1998 UConn Huskies posted a 10-3 record, a school-record 461 points, won the Atlantic-10 Conference North Division title and advanced to the Division I-AA playoff quarterfinals.

In college, Bevell helped turn the University of Wisconsin program into a national power. A four-year starter for the Badgers, Bevell helped guide the team to a 10-1-1 mark as a sophomore in 1993. The squad claimed a share of the Big Ten championship for the first time since 1962 and defeated UCLA in the Rose Bowl. Between his sophomore and junior seasons, Bevell helped UW go 18-4-2. He left Madison as the school's all-time leading passer with 19 team records and a pair of Big Ten marks. His 67.8% completion mark set in 1993 stood as the conference record until 2010, and he was a 61.4% passer for his career.

A native of Yuma, Ariz., Bevell was a standout at Chaparral High in Scottsdale where he played under his father, James. After redshirting in 1989 as a freshman at Northern Arizona, Bevell went on a two-year Mormon mission in Cleveland in 1990-91.

Born on January 6, 1970, Bevell and his wife, Tammy, have three daughters, Kylie, Morgan and Hailey.

DAN QUINN DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL EXPERIENCE: 12TH YEAR

Dan Quinn re-joined Seattle's staff on January 17, 2013 as its defensive coordinator after spending two seasons (2011-12) in the same capacity at the University of Florida.

Quinn originally joined Seattle and Jim Mora's staff on January 12, 2009, after spending the previous six years coaching the defensive lines for the San Francisco 49ers (2003-04), Miami Dolphins (2005-06) and the New York Jets (2007-08). He began his NFL coaching career in San Francisco as their defensive quality control coach in 2001 before moving to the defensive line.

Quinn improved Seattle's fourth-ranked defense in 2012 and transformed it in to one of the NFL's best defenses in history and most dominant over the last 12 seasons in 2013.

Leading the club to a Super Bowl XLVIII championship, his defense ranked first overall in the NFL in total defense (273.6 ypg), passing defense (172.0 ypg), points allowed (14.4 ppg), takeaways (39), interceptions (28), turnover differential (+20) and opponent quarterback rating (63.4). It was only the second time in franchise history that Seattle finished with a top-10 defense in three-consecutive seasons (1990-92).

In Super Bowl XLVIII, Seattle held Peyton Manning and the highest scoring offense in NFL history to eight points (37.9 avg. in regular season), 27 rushing yards (117.1 avg.), 280 passing yards (340.3 avg.) and 306 total yards (457.3 avg.). Seattle also won the turnover battle 4-0 (two interceptions, two fumble recoveries).

In 2012, his defense jumped to fifth-overall (287.5 ypg) in the nation, helping Florida to an 11-2 record and ranking No. 9 in the AP poll and No. 10 in the USA Today/coaches poll. The Gators ranked second in pass efficiency defense (95.6) and passing touchdowns allowed (7), fourth in rush defense (94.9), fifth in points allowed per game (14.5), seventh in turnover margin (+15) and interceptions (SEC-best 20), recorded two shut outs and held No. 4 LSU to 200 yards of total offense and eight first downs, tied for second-fewest vs. a ranked team in school history, in their 14-6 victory.

In his first season at Florida, he led the nation's eighth-ranked defense as the Gators posted a 6-6 record.

He began his collegiate coaching career at William & Mary in 1994 and at Virginia Military Institute in 1995, working with their defensive lines.

Quinn then spent five years at Hofstra University, coaching the defensive line for four years before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 2000.

Was a four-year letterman as a defensive lineman at Salisbury State (Md.), where he was a co-captain in 1992 and 1993. Also lettered in track and held the school record in the hammer throw at the time of his departure. He was inducted to Salisbury State's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005.

He and his wife, Stacey, initiated the Quinn's Corps Program in 2004. The foundation is actively involved with helping wounded warriors and the Warrior Transition Battalion.

KIPPY BROWN

WIDE RECEIVERS

NFL EXPERIENCE: 21ST YEAR

Joined Pete Carroll's staff as wide receivers coach on February 4, 2010, joining his seventh NFL team in a coaching career that dates to 1978, including 14 years in the collegiate ranks.

He joined Seattle after spending one month at the University of Tennessee in 2009-10 as its wide receivers/passing game coordinator for the Chick-fil-A Bowl, then serving as its interim head coach after the departure of Lane Kiffin.

His Super Bowl XLVIII championship receiving group was led by Golden Tate, who set career-highs in catches (64), and yards (898), in addition to five touchdowns, and saw productive seasons from Doug Baldwin, after an injury-slowed 2012 year, and Jermaine Kearse. Baldwin caught 50 passes for 778 yards and a career-high five touchdowns, while Kearse recorded four receptions for 65 yards and one touchdown, breaking four tackles, in Super Bowl XLVIII.

In 2012, Sidney Rice started all 16 games for the first time in his career and saw the emergence of 15-game starter Tate. The team's top-two wideouts, they combined for 95 receptions, 1,436 yards and 14 touchdowns, helping QB Russell Wilson to a franchise-record 100.00 passer rating and a Pro Bowl appearance. Rice posted the second-most touchdowns of his career (7) and Tate had a career-high seven touchdowns.

Brown's second season in Seattle saw unexpected contributions from 2011 surprise Doug Baldwin, a rookie free agent from Stanford. Baldwin led the team in catches (51), yards (788), long gain (51t) and touchdowns (4), becoming the first undrafted rookie free agent to lead his team in catches and yards since Bill Groman of the Houston Oilers in 1960. His 51 catches ranked fourth among all rookies in the NFL, trailing only fourth-overall pick A.J. Green (65), 59th overall pick Greg Little (61) and sixth-overall pick Julio Jones (54).

In his first season in Seattle, Brown saw the emergence of talent that he first came across in Detroit in 2006 in Mike Williams. Out of football for two years, Williams led the team with career-highs in catches (65), yards (751) and touchdowns (2). He also had a six-game stretch with 41 catches for 516 yards, second only to Steve Largent's 42 catches for 669 yards over the same span in 1984-85.

Brown coached wide receivers in the NFL from 2002-08, spending four years in Houston and three years in Detroit, then serving as the Lions Assistant Head Coach/Passing Game Coordinator in 2008.

In 2007, the Lions wide receivers caught the second-most passes (268) and had the second-most yards (3,370 yards) among wide receiving units in the NFL (second only to New England in both categories). Detroit was the only team to have four players, all wide receivers, each with more than 650 receiving yards: Shaun McDonald (943 yards), Roy Williams (836 yards), Calvin Johnson (756 yards) and Mike Furrey (664 yards). The Lions also became the first team with four wide receivers recording over 650 yards since Houston in 1990.

In 2006, Detroit's top two receivers combined for 180 receptions and 2,396 yards, more than doubling the output of the Lions' top two receivers in 2005. Roy Williams, who led the NFC that season with a career-high 1,310 receiving yards, was the second receiver coached by Brown to be named to a Pro Bowl. He also coached the conference's receptions leader in Mike Furrey (98 receptions for 1,082 yards). It was the first time since 1999 that two Lions receivers finished with over 1,000 yards. Williams and Furrey became the first teammates to lead their conference in receiving yards and receptions since Houston's Haywood Jeffries tied with teammate Drew Hill with an AFC high 74 catches and Jeffries had 1,048 receiving yards. Williams and Furrey are the first NFC duo to accomplish this since the 1970 merger.

Before coming to Detroit, Brown spent four seasons as the Houston Texans wide receivers coach. Among his pupils in Texas was Andre Johnson, who was taken by Houston with the third overall pick in the 2003 draft. He became the first Texans offensive player to earn a trip to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was selected to the Pro Bowl for his outstanding 2004 season that included club records of 79 receptions for 1,129 yards.

Brown was the head coach of the XFL's Memphis Maniax prior to being hired by the Texans. He also served as the Green Bay Packers running backs coach (2000) where he helped guide Pro Bowl RB Ahman Green to his first career 1,000-yard season.

From 1996-99, Brown was on Jimmy Johnson's Miami Dolphins coaching staff, where he was the offensive coordinator from 1998-99 and the running backs coach from 1996-97. As a coordinator, he helped Miami to the second round of the playoffs in both years with Dan Marino at the helm. In 1996, Brown helped RB Karim Abdul-Jabbar become the first Dolphins running back to reach 1,000 yards in 18 years, and in 1997 Abdul-Jabbar tied a league-high 15 rushing touchdowns.

In 1995, Brown was the running backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He served two seasons as the assistant head coach and wide receivers coach during his second stint at the University of Tennessee from 1993-94. Brown's first NFL coaching position was with the New York Jets as running backs coach from 1990-92.

Brown's first stint at Tennessee was from 1983-89 as wide receivers coach, where he coached four first-round picks during his tenure. Prior to his arrival, he was the wide receivers coach at Louisville in 1982 where he coached future Dolphins great Mark Clayton.

His coaching career began at Memphis State, where he coached the wide receivers from 1979-80 and the running backs in 1978. Brown was a starter at Memphis State at quarterback, and graduated from MSU in 1977 with a degree in communications.

A native of Sweetwater, Tenn., Brown, born on March 6, 1955, and his wife, Deon, have two children, Jerome and Jennifer, and two grandchildren, Jaxon and Jordan.

TOM CABLE

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ OFFENSIVE LINE

NFL EXPERIENCE: 9TH YEAR

Cable joined the Seahawks staff on January 18, 2011, after spending four years with the Oakland Raiders, serving the last two-plus years as head coach.

In collaboration with offensive coordinator Darrell Bevell, the two spearheaded Seattle's rushing attack to become one of the best since the last-half of the 2011 season. Behind his lines, the Seahawks running game ranks first in the NFL with 5,979 rush yards (since Week 9, 2011), posted 100-plus team rushing yards in 33 of its last 41 games, including a six-game streak in 2013.

During this time, Marshawn Lynch leads the league in rushing since Week 9 of 2011 with 3,788 yards, rushing for 100-plus in 19 of the last 41 games.

Seattle enters 2014 with a three-game streak of 100-plus team rushing yards.

The Seahawks once again ranked in the top-five in rushing in 2013, averaging 136.8 ypg to rank fourth in the NFL. Center Max Unger earned a Pro Bowl nod for the second-consecutive season in helping Lynch to another Pro Bowl season with 1,257 yards and a career-high 14 total touchdowns (career-high tying 12 rush, two rec.) on 301 carries.

In Super Bowl XLVIII's win over Denver, Seattle's rushing attack gained 135 yards on 29 carries and recorded one touchdown.

Sticking with its offensive identity of running the ball, Cable's 2012 line was led by first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl center Unger and Pro Bowl LT Russell Okung, finishing the season as the league's fourth-youngest starting offensive line. Seattle's rushing attack ranked third in the NFL with a franchise-record 2,579 yards led by first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl running back Lynch. Lynch set career-highs in carries (315), yards (1,590, 3rd NFL), average gain (5.0, 4th NFL) and most yards from scrimmage (1,786, 4th NFL). He also scored the second-most rushing touchdowns of his career with 11 and set the franchise's highest yards per carry average (11.64, 11 for 128) vs. Arizona (12/9).

Seattle's line once ranked as the third-youngest in the NFL in 2011, but with injuries to rookie RT James Carpenter and RG John Moffitt, and second-year tackle Okung, the Seahawks line finished as the seventh-youngest starting line in the league. Despite that, Cable plugged away and maintained a solid unit as Seattle's line paved the way for Lynch's Pro Bowl season with 285 carries, 1,204 yards and career-high 12 rushing touchdowns, while becoming Seattle's first 1,000-yard rusher since Shaun Alexander (2005).

Cable was named the 17th head coach of the Oakland Raiders on February 3, 2009. He served as the interim head coach for 12 games of the 2008 season following the announcement on September 30, 2008, and led the Raiders to victories in the campaign's final two games.

He led Oakland to an 8-8 record in 2010, its most wins since the 2002 season and went 17-

27 in his time leading the Silver and Black. The Raiders rushing attack ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in 2007 (6th) and 2008 (10th) behind his offensive lines.

Cable broke into the NFL ranks in 2006 as the offensive line coach for Atlanta, where he tutored a unit that saw the Falcons lead the NFL in rushing.

From 2004-05, Cable was both the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at UCLA, where he helped develop one of the most productive offensive units in the nation. In 2005, he coordinated a UCLA offense that averaged 431 yards in total offense per game while earning 10 wins and a bowl berth. In 2004, the Bruins offense under Cable improved by more than 1,000 yards from the previous season while averaging 410 yards per game.

He served as the head coach of the University of Idaho from 2000-03. During his tenure at Idaho, his teams averaged 424.1 yards of total offense per game. Cable also spent two years at the University of Colorado, serving as the offensive line coach and the following year was promoted to offensive coordinator. Under his direction, the Buffaloes offense ranked 14th in the nation in 1999, averaging 424.9 yards per game.

He spent six seasons (1992-97) as offensive line coach at the University of California, where he tutored four first-team All-Pac-10 selections.

Cable began his coaching career at his alma mater, serving as a graduate assistant at Idaho in 1987 and 1988. He was a graduate assistant at San Diego State in 1989, defensive line coach at Cal State Fullerton in 1990 and offensive line coach at Nevada-Las Vegas in 1991.

The Merced, Calif. native played four years at Idaho, three as a starting guard, and spent one season with the Indianapolis Colts before beginning his coaching career.

Cable, born on November 26, 1964, and his wife Carol, have four children, Ryan, Amanda, Alex and Zach.

DAVE CANALES

ASSISTANT QUARTERBACKS OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

NFL EXPERIENCE: 5TH YEAR

Named to Seattle's coaching staff on February 4, 2010, Canales entered the NFL after one season as USC's offensive administrative assistant in 2009.

In addition to his quality control responsibilities of video study of opponents, self-scouting, playbook production, and assisting offensive coordinator Darrell Bevell, Canales added assistant quarterback coaching duties during Seattle's Super Bowl winning 2013 season, where he supports Carl Smith.

Prior to USC, he coached quarterbacks at El Camino College from 2006-08.

A graduate of Azusa Pacific, where he played receiver for four years, he earned his degree in business administration.

Born May 7, 1981, in Carson, Calif., Dave and his wife, Lizzy, have two children, Ashby and Benjamin.

CHRIS CARLISLE

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

NFL EXPERIENCE: 5TH YEAR

After nine years as USC's head strength and conditioning coach, Carlisle joined Seattle in the same capacity on February 4, 2010.

Carlisle oversees the Super Bowl XLVIII champion weight room that focuses on mobility, stability, flexibility, strength and power.

He was named the 2006 National Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

USC played in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game), 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game), 2007 Rose Bowl, 2008 Rose Bowl, 2009 Rose Bowl and 2009 Emerald Bowl during his tenure.

He came to USC from the University of Tennessee, where he was the associate head strength and conditioning coach for three years (1998-2000). The Volunteers football team won the 1998 BCS Championship Game and Southeastern Conference championship.

While coaching at Tennessee, Carlisle learned he had Hodgkin's Disease in December of 2000 and began radiation treatments. He was hired by USC in February of 2001, kept his illness a secret except to Trojans Head Coach Pete Carroll, continued treatments in Tennessee and at USC/Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center and Hospital, then doctors told him in the summer of 2001 that the cancer was in remission. He informed the USC players of his ordeal at the start of fall 2001 camp. He was one of 17 nominees for the 2003 Most Courageous Award presented by the Football Writers Association of America and was one of 11 nominees for the 2005 award.

Carlisle began his career as the head football coach and strength coach at Dodge (Neb.)

High in 1985. He then spent six seasons (1986-91) as an offensive line coach and strength coach at Blytheville (Ark.) High. He next was a strength and conditioning graduate assistant coach at Arkansas for two years (1992-93) before becoming the head football coach and strength coach at Subiaco (Ark.) Academy, a college prep school, for four seasons (1993-96). He spent 1997 as an offensive line coach and strength coach at Trinity Valley Community College in Athens, Texas, winning the NJCAA national championship that season.

After playing offensive line at North Iowa Area Community College in Mason City, Iowa, in 1980, he was a three-year (1981-83) starting offensive lineman at Chadron (Neb.) State College, earning All-Area honors.

He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Chadron State in 1985 and a master's degree in history from Arkansas in 1997.

Carlisle prepped at Mason City (Iowa) High, where he starred in football. Born on August 7, 1962, he and his wife, Louon, have one son, Alex.

NATE CARROLL

ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS

NFL EXPERIENCE: 4TH YEAR

Named to the Seahawks staff on July 26, 2010, Nate Carroll moved in to the coaching ranks in 2011 after spending the 2010 season as a personnel assistant in the scouting department.

He moved in to a new role in 2013 as an offensive assistant, working alongside wide receivers coach Kippy Brown during Seattle's Super Bowl XLVIII winning season. Brown's group helped Russell Wilson become the first quarterback in NFL history with a 100-plus passer rating in each of his first two seasons.

In his first two seasons on the Seahawks coaching staff as a defensive assistant, Carroll's primary responsibilities included video study of opponents, self-scouting, play-book production and assisting several coaches and defensive coordinator Gus Bradley.

A graduate of USC, he earned his degree in psychology in 2010. Carroll was a three-sport star at Peninsula High in Palos Verdes, Calif., earning Athlete of the Year honors in 2006, passing on playing college football to attend USC. Born on March 24, 1987 in Edina, Minn., Nate is the youngest son of head coach Pete Carroll.

MONDRAY GEE

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

NFL EXPERIENCE: 14TH YEAR

Hired on February 4, 2010, Mondray Gee enters his 14th year in the NFL, spending the first seven in Detroit and two in Green Bay's weight room. Recommended to coach Carroll by GM John Schneider, who also worked in Green Bay before joining Seattle.

In Seattle, Gee works alongside Chris Carlisle and Jamie Yanchar implementing a program with focuses on mobility, stability, flexibility, strength and power.

During his time in Seattle, Gee works closely with Carlisle and trainer Donald Rich to conduct comprehensive and rigorous rehabilitations for players returning from injured reserve and/or the team's physically unable to perform list.

This season, cornerback Tharold Simon and linebacker Korey Toomer return to the field to compete to be productive players on a talented and deep training camp roster.

In 2011, wide receiver Deon Butler, who suffered a broken leg, and cornerback Roy Lewis, who underwent knee surgery returned from the physically unable to perform list during the season to be productive backups. Gee followed this success with another rehabilitation program for cornerback Walter Thurmond in 2012, aiding him in his return to the playing field from multiple lower leg injuries.

While in Green Bay, Gee worked with players on improving power development, speed, recovery & regeneration and flexibility. Was a part of the staff that helped Pro Bowl players Nick Collins, Aaron Rodgers, Clay Matthews and Charles Woodson earn a trip to the post-season in 2009 with an 11-5 record.

His primary duties in Detroit included designing, organizing and executing strength and conditioning procedures, as well as assisting with practice and assisting the defensive staff on game days.

Prior to his tenure in Detroit, Gee worked in many capacities at Michigan State (1996-2001). At the school, he assisted the strength and conditioning department and the football team. He worked as an intern as an undergrad and served as a graduate assistant from 2000-01.

Gee earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology education in 1999, and secured a master's degree in athletic administration in 2002.

At Michigan State, he worked with several NFL players including Chris Baker, T.J. Duckett, Julian Peterson, Plaxico Burress and Renaldo Hill. He also worked with other athletes, including NBA players Jason Richardson, Charlie Bell and Zach Randolph.

In the summer of 1999, Gee interned for the Chicago Cubs Class A affiliate, Lansing Lugnuts, assisting major leaguer Carlos Zambrano.

Gee, pronounced like the letter 'G,' is an avid music listener and enjoys working out and bird-watching. His cousin, Karl Williams, who played in the NFL for nine seasons (1996-2004), is the all-time leader in punt return yards for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2,279).

Born on June 15, 1976, in Detroit, Mich., Gee attended Wayne Memorial High School in Wayne, Mich., where he played basketball, ran track and was a part of the school choir.

TRAVIS JONES

DEFENSIVE LINE

NFL EXPERIENCE: 10TH YEAR

Named to his current position on February 13, 2013, Jones joined Dan Quinn's staff after spending the previous five seasons as assistant defensive line coach for the New Orleans Saints. He began his NFL career with the Miami Dolphins from 2005-07, where he and Quinn were on the same defensive staff.

Jones' Super Bowl XLVIII-winning defensive line was one of the deepest positions on the squad in 2013. Veterans Red Bryant, Chris Clemons and Brandon Mebane were joined by free agent additions Cliff Avril, Michael Bennett and Tony McDaniel to improve Seattle's pass rush, always a priority in Pete Carroll's defense. Seattle ranked tied for eighth in the NFL with 44.0 sacks, the most in Carroll's four seasons as coach, as Bennett led the team with 8.5 sacks.

In 2009 with the Saints, defensive end Will Smith enjoyed his finest season as he ranked fifth in the NFL with 13.0 sacks, while the trio of Sedrick Ellis, Anthony Hargrove and Remi Ayodele provided a solid pass rush on the interior line that played an important role in its Super Bowl XLIV victory over Indianapolis.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Jones spent three seasons with the Miami Dolphins, his first year as assistant defensive line coach and his final two seasons tutoring the outside linebackers and defensive ends. During his Dolphins tenure, the line recorded 92.0 sacks. Defensive end Jason Taylor was selected to the Pro Bowl each year and was named the 2007 NFL Defensive Player of the Year. The Dolphins ranked second in the league in sacks in 2005 and third in 2006.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Georgia, in 1997 as a graduate assistant/defensive line before moving on to Appalachian State (1998-00), Kansas (2001-02) and LSU (2003-04), where he was the defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator for the Tigers.

At LSU, Jones coached a defensive front that featured defensive tackle Chad Lavalais, a consensus All-American, finalist for the Nagurski and Lombardi Awards and the SEC Defensive Player of the Year. Following the 2003 BCS National Championship season, Lavalais and defensive end Marquise Hill were both selected in the NFL Draft. Defensive End Marcus Spears was also named All-SEC in 2003, a consensus All-American in 2004 and a first-round draft pick by the Dallas Cowboys in 2005.

Jones was a four-year letter-winner for the Bulldogs (1990-92, 94) as a defensive lineman and served as team captain as a senior, playing one season with the Baltimore Stallions of the CFL in 1995 following graduation. He earned his master's degree in 1998.

Born on June 6, 1972, in Irwinton, Ga., for the last eight years Jones has held a football camp for youngsters in central Georgia that teaches the fundamentals of football, sportsmanship and the importance of goal-setting to serve them on and off the field.

Jones and his wife, Melody, have three children, Kennedi, Averi and Mason.

PAT McPHERSON

TIGHT ENDS

NFL EXPERIENCE: 17TH YEAR

Named to his position on February 4, 2010, McPherson joined Seattle after 11 years with the Denver Broncos, most recently serving as their tight ends coach from 2007-08. Before being named to that position, he spent four years (2003-06) as quarterbacks coach for the Broncos and also served as an offensive assistant (1999-2002) and defensive assistant (1998).

Zach Miller leads the Seahawks tight ends group. The former Pro Bowler has led Seahawks tight ends in receptions and yards for three seasons after signing with Seattle in free agency in 2011.

In their Super Bowl XLVIII winning season, Miller welcomed draft choice Luke Willson to the club as the two combined for 53 receptions for 659 and six touchdowns, with a career-high tying five coming from Miller.

In 2012, Miller and Anthony McCoy each had three touchdowns while Miller hauled in 38 passes for 396 yards and McCoy had career-highs in catches (18), yards (291) and touchdowns.

In Denver, McPherson's promotion to quarterbacks coach in 2003 coincided with the Broncos signing of Jake Plummer. Plummer's 39-15 regular-season record (.722) from 2003-06 with McPherson as his position coach marked the fourth-best winning percentage among all NFL signal callers. In addition, Plummer concluded his career with Denver as its all-time leader in passer rating (84.3).

In 2004, Plummer set a Broncos single-season record for passing yards (4,089) while tying the team's record for most touchdown passes (27) in a season and directing the AFC's No. 3 pass offense (249.9 ypg). Additionally, the signal-caller posted 499 passing yards against the Falcons (10/31/04) for the highest single-game total in franchise history.

Plummer took his game to new levels under McPherson in 2005, leading Denver to a 13-3 record, an AFC West title and a berth in the AFC Championship Game while throwing for 3,366 yards.

McPherson in 2006 helped ease rookie quarterback Jay Cutler's transition into the NFL as the first-round draft choice started Denver's final five games and made league history in the process. Cutler became the first rookie in NFL history and one of only two players in league annals to throw at least two touchdown passes in each of his first four games.

McPherson was hired by the Broncos following a four-year coaching stint at his high school alma mater, Bellarmine College Prep in San Jose, Calif. In addition to football, his duties included teaching English, algebra and physical fitness at the school.

During his tenure at Bellarmine, the football team compiled a record of 35-11, won three consecutive league titles and made one section championship appearance. He also gained valuable coaching experience volunteering with the San Francisco 49ers in 1996, serving in a defensive quality control capacity.

McPherson holds a bachelor's degree in English and an MBA from Santa Clara, where he captained the football team and was voted Most Inspirational Player as an inside linebacker during his senior season of 1992. He began his collegiate career in 1987 at UCLA, where he received the Charles Pike Award, which recognizes the school's outstanding freshman football player. McPherson signed with the 49ers as a rookie free agent in 1993.

His father, Bill McPherson, coached in the NFL for 21 years and worked as a personnel consultant for the San Francisco 49ers before retiring in February 2005.

McPherson was an all-state and All-America inside linebacker at Bellarmine College Prep and earned Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors as a senior. In April 2004, McPherson was inducted into Bellarmine's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McPherson worked with the National Multiple Sclerosis Society in Santa Clara, Calif., in 1994, organizing and implementing the chapter's largest fund-raising event, the 1994 MS Walk.

He was born on April 15, 1969, in Santa Clara, Calif. and has two sons, Jackson and Grayson.

MARQUAND MANUEL

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

SEAHAWKS EXPERIENCE: 3RD YEAR

NFL EXPERIENCE: 3RD YEAR

Entering his 11th overall season in the NFL (eight years as a player and three as a coach), Manuel was named to the Seahawks staff as assistant special teams coach on February 14, 2012.

He joined the NFL coaching ranks after spending 2011 as a coaching intern at his alma mater, the University of Florida and moved in to a new role in 2013 as a defensive assistant during Seattle's Super Bowl XLVIII championship season, concentrating his time with the defensive backfield.

Manuel spent eight seasons in the NFL, playing for six different franchises (Cincinnati 2002-03, Seattle 2004-05, Green Bay 2006, Carolina 2007, Denver 2008, Detroit 2009).

He was selected in the sixth-round (181st overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft, playing in 116 games with 58 starts, starting at least half his team's games in five of those seasons. Manuel totaled 332 tackles (259 solo), 1.0 sack, two interceptions, one touchdown, 16 passes defended, four forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and 36 special teams tackles in his career. He last played for the Detroit Lions in 2009, starting six of nine games played before ending the season on injured reserve.

He returns to Seattle where he spent two seasons with the club, helping it to a Super Bowl XL appearance in 2005. He played 31 games with 11 starts, collecting 77 tackles (61 solo) and 14 special teams tackles in the regular season. His only career postseason appearances were with the club, where he started three of four games, posting eight tackles (six solo), five passes defended and three special teams tackles. He recorded one interception in the NFC Championship Game vs. Carolina, returning it 32 yards.

Born on July 11, 1979 in Miami, Fla., Manuel is one of 18 children and earned his degree in criminology & law. He has two children, Madison and Marquand II.

CHRIS MORGAN

SEAHAWKS EXPERIENCE: 1ST YEAR

NFL EXPERIENCE: 6TH YEAR

Hired on March 17, 2014 as assistant offensive line coach, Morgan joins Seattle after spending the last five years with the Oakland Raiders (2009-10) and Washington Redskins (2011-13) in the same capacity.

Since 2012, the Redskins lead the NFL with 4,873 rushing yards, leading Seattle by only 106 yards over that span.

Morgan helped direct a unit in 2012 that helped Washington rush for a team-record 2,709 yards, marking the franchise's first team rushing crown since 1933, the team's second year of existence. His line helped block for the team's young backfield that featured rookie quarterback Robert Griffin III (who set the NFL rookie record for passer rating - 102.4), and rookie running back Alfred Morris, who became the team record-holder for rushing yards in a season with 1,613.

In 2010, Oakland ranked 10th in the NFL in yards per game (356.6) and sixth in points per game (25.6). In addition, the Raiders ranked second in both rushing yards (2,494) and yards per carry (4.9). They also tied for second and ninth in rushing touchdowns (19) and total offensive touchdowns (44), respectively.

Prior to Oakland, Morgan spent the previous five seasons coaching at the high school level in his native Texas, serving as offensive line coach, special teams coordinator, offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Westfield High School in Houston.

In 2003, Morgan served as a graduate assistant and offensive line coach at the University of Idaho after two years as an assistant coach at at Copperas Cove (Texas) High. He earned his Master's degree in educational leadership during his time at Idaho.

Morgan was an offensive lineman at the University of Colorado from 1995-99 where he helped the Buffaloes to a 4-0 record in bowl games, including Cotton, Holiday, Aloha and Insight bowl victories. He was named most improved offensive player in 1998.

Born on September 24, 1976, Morgan is a native of Killeen, Texas, where he helped Killeen High School to the Texas 5A-I State Championship in 1991. Morgan and his wife, Holly, have three children.

CHAD MORTON ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

NFL EXPERIENCE: 6TH YEAR

Hired on March 17, 2014 as assistant special teams coach, Morton joins the Seahawks after spending the last four seasons in the same role with the Green Bay Packers.

Morton's contributions in Green Bay affected various aspects of the return game, where Randall Cobb remained an explosive factor on kick returns and was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl as a kick returner in 2013. Cobb ultimately paired his proficiency on returns with his emergence as the offense's go-to receiver and became the first player in NFL history to have 900-plus kickoff return yards (964) and receiving yards (954) in the same season.

Cobb was also named a Pro Bowl alternate and to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team for his efforts as the team's primary returner in 2011. A former return specialist himself, Morton was instrumental in helping acclimate Cobb to the pro game. Cobb finished with 34 kickoff returns for 941 yards and a touchdown, and finished the season ranked

No. 2 in the NFL (first among rookies) with a 27.7 average.

A seven-year NFL veteran as a player, Morton was a running back and kick/punt returner who began his career with New Orleans in 2000 as a fifth-round draft pick. Serving primarily as a returner as a pro, Morton tallied 5,401 career kickoff-return yards and three kick-return scores, as well as 1,431 career punt-return yards and one score, in 93 career games. He was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate as a returner in 2002 and 2005.

He is the only player in NFL history to return a kickoff for a touchdown in regulation and overtime in the same game (at Buffalo, 9/8/02) and joins Chicago's Dave Williams (at Detroit, Nov. 27, 1980) as the only players in NFL history to return a kickoff for a touchdown in overtime. In 2000 with the Saints, Morton tied the NFL single-game playoff record with 13 receptions, against the Minnesota Vikings.

Morton was an All-Pac-10 selection at Southern California, where he served as the team's primary running back his final two seasons. He led the team with 1,141 yards and 15 touchdowns on 262 carries as a senior, and he ranks 11th on the Trojans' all-time rushing list with 2,511 career yards, including bowl games. He graduated from USC with a degree in sociology.

Born on April 4, 1977, in Torrance, Calif., Morton attended South High School in Torrance, where he played running back and also ran track. His older brother, Johnnie, played wide receiver for 12 seasons (1994-2005) in the NFL, including eight with the Detroit Lions.

Morton and his wife, Tamra, have two sons, Avery and Aiden, and two daughters, Alexis and Ariella.

KEN NORTON, JR. LINEBACKERS

NFL EXPERIENCE: 5TH YEAR

Hired on February 4, 2010, Norton, Jr. enters his fifth season in the NFL coaching ranks after retiring from the league in 2000, after 13 years as one of the premiere linebackers in the game.

In his first two seasons, Norton, Jr. helped David Hawthorne to his third-consecutive 100-tackle season, becoming the fifth player in Seahawks history to accomplish that feat. He also oversaw the development of 2011 fourth-round pick K.J. Wright in a starting role beginning Week 3 of the season with Wright finishing fifth on the team with 61 tackles (46 solo) and 2.0 sacks in only 12 games started. Wright followed that with a stellar sophomore season with a career-high 96 tackles (66 solo) in 2012.

In 2012, Norton saw another rookie emerge in second-round draft choice Bobby Wagner. Under Norton's guidance, the defensive signal-caller finished second in the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year voting after recording 140 tackles (86 solo), ranking first in Seattle history in tackles among rookies (2nd NFL among rookies, 7th overall). He also led all rookie linebackers (T4th NFL among all rookies) with three interceptions.

He earned his fourth Super Bowl ring (first as coach) in 2013 as Seattle defeated Denver, 43-8, in Super Bowl XLVIII. Wagner again led the way with a team-high 119 tackles (71 solo) despite missing two games (ankle). He became just the third player in franchise history (Terry Beeson, Lofa Tatupu) to begin his Seattle career with back-to-back 100-tackle seasons. Wagner led the team with 10 tackles (five solo) in the Super Bowl and tied (Kam Chancellor) for the team-lead in postseason tackles with 34 (17 solo).

Norton, Jr.'s corps boasted the Super Bowl XLVIII MVP in Malcolm Smith. Smith tallied nine tackles (five solo), returned an interception 69 yards for a touchdown and a 22-0 lead in the second quarter and picked up one fumble recovery in the 35-point win, the third-largest winning margin in Super Bowl history.

Norton, Jr. spent six seasons coaching linebackers for USC from 2004-09. In 2009, he added the title of assistant head coach of the defense. He spent his first year at USC as a graduate assistant (helping with the linebackers) after joining the Trojans staff in February of 2004.

His linebacking corps at USC is a Who's Who of drafted NFL linebackers; Brian Cushing, Jarvis Jones, Clay Matthews and Keith Rivers (first-round), Rey Mauluga and Lofa Tatupu (second-round), Kaluka Maiava (fourth-round) and Super Bowl MVP Smith (seventh-round) are among the standouts that Norton coached and recruited to USC.

In 2008, Mauluga was named first-team All-American, Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year, made his third consecutive All-Pac-10 first team and was USC's first-ever winner of the Bednarik Award. He also was a finalist for the Lombardi, Butkus and Nagurski Awards. Fellow linebacker Cushing was also a Butkus Award finalist and won All-Pac-10 first-team honors. Following the season, Cushing was an NFL first-round pick, as was Super Bowl XLV winner Matthews. Mauluga was a second rounder and Maiava was a fourth rounder.

In 2007, linebacker Keith Rivers was an All-American first teamer and was a first-round NFL draft pick following the season, while linebacker Thomas Williams was a fifth-round NFL selection. In 2006 and 2007, Rivers and Mauluga made the All-Pac-10 first team. Linebackers Dallas Sartz (fifth round) and Oscar Lua (seventh round) were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft.

In 2004, linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu were named All-American first teamers (Grootegoed also was a Butkus Award finalist and Tatupu was Seattle's second-round pick).

Norton, Jr. spent 13 years playing in the NFL, first with the Dallas Cowboys for six seasons (1988-93) and then seven years with the San Francisco 49ers (1994-2000). The All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection is the only player in history to play on three consecutive Super Bowl-winning teams (the Cowboys in 1992 and 1993 and the 49ers in 1994).

After retiring from the NFL, he was a radio and television commentator and analyst, including appearances on the NFL Network. He also served as the defensive coordinator at Hamilton High in Los Angeles in 2003.

He was the Cowboys second-round NFL draft pick in 1988 after earning All-American honors at UCLA in 1987. He lettered four seasons (1984-87) with the Bruins and was a finalist for the 1987 Butkus Award. He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from UCLA in 1998.

Born on September 29, 1966, he and his wife, Angela, have three children, daughters Brittney and Sabrina, and son Ken III. His late father is the former world heavyweight boxing champion and played football and basketball at Northeast Missouri State. He also has three brothers, Keith, Kenejon and Brandon, and one sister, Kenisha.

KRIS RICHARD

DEFENSIVE BACKS

NFL EXPERIENCE: 5TH YEAR

Richard begins his ninth season in the NFL, eighth overall in Seattle and fifth in the NFL coaching ranks, all with the Seahawks. He spent three seasons with the Seahawks (2002-04) and one season with the San Francisco 49ers (2005) as a cornerback.

He was promoted to his current position on January 18, 2011, after spending the 2010 season as assistant defensive backs coach. He joined the club on February 4, 2010.

Leader of the best secondary in the NFL in 2013, Richard's unit propelled Seattle's defense to one of the most dominant in NFL history and best in the last 12 seasons. The Seahawks secondary shut down opposing offenses in helping Seattle rank first in the NFL in passing defense (172.0 ypg), interceptions (28) and opposing quarterback passer rating (63.4). In Seattle's Super Bowl XLVIII victory over Denver, Seattle's secondary held Peyton Manning to 280 passing yards (340.3 avg. in regular season), a 73.5 passer rating (115.1 rating in reg. season) and forced one interception (two total).

Kam Chancellor (93 tackles), Richard Sherman (NFL-leading and career-high tying eight interceptions) and Earl Thomas (100 tackles and career-high tying five interceptions) were voted to the Pro Bowl and named AP All-Pro. Sherman and Thomas were named to the first-team for the second consecutive season, becoming the fourth and fifth Seahawks players to earn back-to-back first-team honors in franchise history.

Finishing 2012 as the NFL's fourth-ranked defense, Seattle was led by two first-team All-Pro selections in Sherman and Pro Bowl starter Thomas in the secondary.

Sherman led the team with a career-high eight interceptions (T2nd NFL) and NFL-leading 24 passes defended while Thomas tallied 61 tackles (39 solo) and scored his second career touchdown (first interception return touchdown) on a 57-yard return at Buffalo.

Richard's 2011 defensive backs squad was one of the NFL's most-improved, totaling 17 of the team's 22 interceptions, its most since the 2004 season. Led by the Pro Bowl tandem of Thomas and Chancellor, the two ranked second and third for most tackles on the team, combining for 186, with six interceptions and 18 passes defended.

His group saw the emergence of a CFL all-star in training camp in Brandon Browner, and a fifth-round find in Sherman after injuries to Marcus Trufant and Walter Thurmond. Browner led the team with six interceptions and set Seattle's single-season record for interception return yards (220) and longest return (94t). A Pro Bowl participant, Browner also tied Seattle records with an interception in four straight games and returning two picks for touchdowns in a single-season.

Sherman made the most of his 10 starts, tying for third in Seattle history in most interceptions by a rookie with four.

Prior to Seattle, Richard spent two seasons (2008-09) as a graduate assistant at USC, working with the defensive backs.

In 2008, safety Taylor Mays was an All-American first-team pick for the second consecutive year and also was a finalist for the Thorpe Award, while safety Kevin Ellison made his second consecutive All-Pac-10 first team. Ellison and cornerback Cary Harris were NFL sixth-round draft picks following the season, and Mays was a 2010 second-round pick.

Originally a third-round pick (85th overall) by Seattle, Richard played in 38 games with one start for Seattle before playing one season in San Francisco.

Richard lettered four years (1998-2001) at USC, starting his final three seasons. He had eight career interceptions and returned three for touchdowns, along with 125 tackles, 19 deflections and two fumble recoveries.

He was a prep All-American cornerback, quarterback and wide receiver at Serra High in Gardena, Calif., where he also ran track and was a member of Serra's 1996 state championship 400-meter relay team.

He received his bachelor's degree in sociology from USC in 2002 and is working on his master's degree in communication management.

Born on October 28, 1979, he and his wife, Chandra, have one daughter, Alyssa, and two sons, Aiden and Asher.

PAT RUEL ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

NFL EXPERIENCE: 10TH YEAR

Hired to assist the offensive line on September 6, 2010, Ruel begins his fifth season in Seattle. He joined the Seahawks after coaching five seasons (2005-09) at USC in the same capacity.

The Seahawks once again ranked in the top-five in rushing in 2013, averaging 136.8 ypg to rank fourth in the NFL during their Super Bowl XLVIII championship season. Center Max Unger earned a Pro Bowl nod for the second-consecutive year in helping Marshawn Lynch to another Pro Bowl season with 1,257 yards and a career-high 14 total touchdowns (career-high tying 12 rush, two rec.) on 301 carries.

Alongside Tom Cable, Seattle's 2012 line was led by first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl center Unger and Pro Bowl LT Russell Okung. Seattle's rushing attack ranked third in the NFL with a franchise-record 2,579 yards led by first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl running back Lynch. Lynch set career-highs in carries (315), yards (1,590, 3rd NFL), average gain (5.0, 4th NFL) and most yards from scrimmage (1,786, 4th NFL). He also scored the second-most rushing touchdowns of his career with 11 and set the franchise's highest yards per carry average (11.64, 11 for 128) vs. Arizona (12/9).

Assisting Cable in 2011, Seattle's line once ranked as the third-youngest in the NFL, but with injuries to rookie RT James Carpenter and RG John Moffitt, and second-year LT Russell Okung, the Seahawks line finished as the seventh-youngest in the league. Despite that, Cable and Ruel plugged away and maintained a solid unit as Seattle's line paved the way for Lynch's 285 carries, 1,204 yards and career-high 12 rushing touchdowns. Lynch also led the league the last-half of the season with 941 yards and nine touchdowns, rushing for 100+ in six of the last nine games and became Seattle's first 1,000-yard rusher since Shaun Alexander (2005).

At the college level in 2008, Ruel was picked as one of the country's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com.

In 2007, offensive tackle Sam Baker was named an All-American first teamer for the third consecutive year (third Trojan to do so), offensive guard Chilo Rachal made the All-Pac-10 first team and center Kristofer O'Dowd was a freshman All-American first teamer. Baker was a first-round NFL draft pick following the 2007 season, while Rachal was a second rounder.

In 2006, center Ryan Kalil was an All-American first-team pick and a second-round pick in the 2007 NFL draft.

In 2005, Baker and offensive guard Deuce Lutui were All-American first teamers and Kalil was on the All-Pac-10 first team. Lutui and offensive tackle Winston Justice were second-round picks in the 2006 NFL draft, while offensive guard Fred Matua was a seventh rounder.

Ruel spent the 2004 season as an offensive line assistant with the New York Giants after spending the previous four seasons with Buffalo (2003), Green Bay (2001-02) and Detroit (2000). The Packers advanced to the NFC playoffs both seasons.

Prior to that, Ruel worked on the college level for the first 26 years of his career. His coaching career began in 1973 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Miami. He was promoted to a full-time assistant handling the offensive line for the Hurricanes for the following three seasons (1974-76).

In 1977, he became the assistant offensive line coach at Arkansas (Pete Carroll was a member of that Razorbacks staff) before spending four seasons (1978-81) at Washington State (first two seasons as the offensive line coach before adding offensive coordinator duties for his final two seasons).

Ruel was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Texas A&M for the next three years (1982-84), before carrying that role (along with assistant head coach) to Northern Illinois (1985-87).

Ruel served at Kansas from 1988-96, with the first three seasons as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, then adding assistant head coach to his title the final years. The Jayhawks played in the 1992 and 1995 Aloha Bowls.

After spending 1997 in private business,

Ruel coached at Michigan State for two years (1998-99), the first year as the offensive line coach and then adding assistant head coach duties in the second season. The Spartans played in the 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl.

Ruel lettered at offensive guard for Miami in 1971 and 1972 while receiving his bachelor's degree in psychology in 1972. Ruel prepped at Coral Gables High, where he starred in football. He was born on December 5, 1950. He and his wife, Marti, have a daughter, Sabra. His full name is Golden Pat Ruel.

BRIAN SCHNEIDER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

NFL EXPERIENCE: 7TH YEAR

Named to his current position on February 4, 2010, Schneider returned to the NFL after one year at USC.

Since 2010, his special teams units lead the NFL in blocked kicks (13), touchdowns/safeties scored (10) and rank second in takeaways (11).

Seattle's special teams showcased its strong coverage units and reliable kicking game during 2013's Super Bowl XLVIII championship season.

Kicker Steven Hauschka had a career-year converting 33 of 35 field goals (Seahawks single-season record .943) for a club-record 143 kicker points. He also converted 22 consecutive field goals, the second-longest streak in franchise history. Seattle's punt coverage unit allowed only 25 yards through the first 15 games, on track to set the NFL record for a 16-game season, but came up just shy of that record, settling for 82 return yards and second place. Special teams played a major role in the Super Bowl. Missing the majority of the season, Percy Harvin returned and took the second-half opening kick 87 yards for a touchdown and a 29-0 lead to propel Seattle to the title.

In 2012, Seattle's special teams unit excelled in all phases and set records in the process. Schneider's unit scored on a blocked punt, kickoff return, muffed punt and blocked field goal during the season. The blocked field goal vs. San Francisco was returned 90 yards, the third-longest field goal block return in NFL history. Kick returner Leon Washington led the NFC (2nd NFL) with a 29.0 kickoff return average and tied the NFL record with his eighth-career kickoff return for a touchdown coming at Miami. Ryan set the franchise mark with a 40.8 net average and became just the third punter in NFL history to average 60-plus yards per punt in a single game (4 for 240 vs. New England). Hauschka also set a franchise mark making at least one field goal in 14 consecutive games (2011-12).

Schneider's kickers were again a strong unit in 2011. Punter Ryan continued his consistent play, breaking his own club record for highest punting average in a season (46.6) and leading the NFL with a career-high 34 punts landing inside the 20, tying for the second-most in Seattle history. Working with new kicker Hauschka, he converted 25 of 30 field goals on the season, tied the franchise mark and set a career-high with five made field goals vs. Baltimore and holds the club mark for longest field goal attempt (61).

In his first season, Seattle's special teams were one of the top units in the NFL. Schneider's schemes helped Washington become a second-team AP All-Pro kick returner and helped the team to rank third in the NFL with an average drive start at the 30.2 yard line. The Seahawks also excelled in kick coverage, as they ranked fifth in the NFL with opponents starting at their own 24.6 yard line.

Washington tied for the league-lead with three kickoff return touchdowns and became the first player in NFL history to return three kickoffs for touchdowns in two different seasons (2007). He became the 10th player in NFL history to return two kickoffs for touchdowns in a single game. Those two returns, 101 and 99 yards, are the longest in Seahawks history, and he became the third player in NFL history with two touchdowns of 99-plus yards in the same game.

His individual kickers won Special Teams Player of the Week awards with Olindo Mare earning Week 7 honors after connecting on a Seahawks-record five field goals vs. Arizona. Mare also set a Seahawks record with 30 consecutive made field goals that also tied for the sixth-longest streak in NFL history. Ryan had 27 punts inside the 20 and his 27:1 inside the 20 to touchback ratio led the NFL. He was named Special Teams Player of the Week 17 vs. St. Louis.

Schneider coached special teams in Oakland for two seasons (2007-08). In both seasons, Shane Lechler led the NFL in punting and was named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2006, he handled special teams and tight ends at Iowa State. He then moved briefly to the Air Force Academy in early 2007 before being hired by the Raiders that season.

He moved to UCLA for three seasons (2003-05), working with the linebackers and safeties in addition to the special teams. Maurice Jones-Drew led the nation in punt returns in 2005.

Schneider began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Colorado State, for three years (1994-96), working with the special teams and defense. He then was promoted as a full-time assistant for the next six seasons (1997-2002), as the special teams coordinator and coaching the tight ends.

He was a four-year (1990-93) letter-winning linebacker at Colorado State, starting three seasons and earning All-Conference first-team honors as a senior in 1993. He earned his bachelor's degree in social science from Colorado State in 1994.

Schneider starred in football, basketball and track at Pomona High in Arvada, Colo.

He was born on May 16, 1971. Schneider and his wife, Kelli, have a daughter, Jaden, and three sons, Jace, Joby, and Joel.

ROCKY SETO

DEFENSIVE PASSING GAME COORDINATOR

NFL EXPERIENCE: 5TH YEAR

Hired on February 4, 2010, in a quality control/defense role, former USC linebacker Rocky Seto joined the NFL coaching ranks after 11 seasons at USC. On January 18, 2011, he was promoted to assist Kris Richard with the defensive backs, with his focus on the safeties group, and on February 14, 2012, was promoted to his current role.

In collaboration with Richard, Seto works to devise game plans for the top secondary in the NFL.

It is this unit that propelled Seattle's defense to one of the most dominant in NFL history and best in the last 12 seasons. The Seahawks secondary shut down opposing offenses in helping Seattle rank first in the NFL in passing defense (172.0 ypg), interceptions (28) and opposing quarterback passer rating (63.4). In Seattle's Super Bowl XLVIII victory over Denver, Seattle's secondary held Peyton Manning to 280 passing yards (340.3 avg. in regular season), a 73.5 passer rating (115.1 rating in reg. season) and forced one interception (two total).

Kam Chancellor (93 tackles), Richard Sherman (NFL-leading and career-high tying eight interceptions) and Earl Thomas (100 tackles and career-high tying five interceptions) were voted to the Pro Bowl and named AP All-Pro. Sherman and Thomas were named to the first-team for the second consecutive season, becoming the fourth and fifth Seahawks players to earn back-to-back first-team honors in Finishing 2012 as the NFL's fourth-ranked defense, Seattle was led by two first-team All-Pro selections in Sherman and Pro Bowl starter Thomas in the secondary.

Sherman led the team with a career-high eight interceptions (T2nd NFL) and NFL-leading 24 passes defended while Thomas tallied 61 tackles (39 solo) and scored his second career touchdown (first interception return touchdown) on a 57-yard return at Buffalo.

Seto's defensive backfield was one of the NFL's most-improved, with three of its four starters playing in the Pro Bowl, with Thomas being selected as a starter. They totaled 17 of the team's 22 interceptions, its most since the 2004 season. Led by the Pro Bowl tandem of Thomas and Chancellor, the two ranked second and third for most tackles on the team, combining for 186, with six interceptions and 18 passes defended.

Seto was USC's defensive coordinator/secondary coach in 2009, after three seasons coaching the secondary from 2006-08, following two years of coaching the linebackers (2004-05).

During his time, safety Taylor Mays was an All-American first-teamer for three consecutive years, becoming just the fourth Trojan ever to be a three-time All-American, and he made his second consecutive All-Pac-10 first team.

In 2005, linebacker Rey Mauuluga was a freshman All-American first teamer, and in 2004, linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu were named All-American first teamers.

He spent two years (2001-02) as a Trojan graduate assistant, the first year working with the defense in general and then handling the safeties in 2002 where he worked with All-American first teamer and NFL first-rounder Troy Polamalu.

Seto began his coaching career in 1999 as a volunteer assistant, working with the defense and special teams. He spent the 2000 season as an administrative graduate assistant.

He was a linebacker at USC for two seasons (1997-98) after transferring to USC from Mt. San Antonio Junior College in Walnut, Calif., where he was a fullback and defensive end in 1995 and 1996. After spending 1997 as a walk-on, he earned a scholarship for the 1998 season.

He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from USC in 1999 after getting his associate's degree in general studies from Mt. San Antonio in 1997. He then earned his master's degree in public administration from USC in 2001.

QUARTERBACKS

NFL EXPERIENCE: 25TH YEAR

Hired on February 1, 2011, Carl Smith reunites with Pete Carroll and brings 24 years of NFL experience to the Seahawks staff, previously spending two years as the Cleveland Browns quarterbacks coach (2009-10). It was his second stint with Cleveland after originally joining the club from 2001-03 in the same capacity.

Over the last two seasons, Smith has mentored Russell Wilson to become one of the most successful quarterbacks in NFL history, winning Super Bowl XLVIII as the third-youngest starting quarterback. Wilson became the first player in NFL history to have a 100.0 passer rating in each of his first two seasons in the league, as he broke his own franchise record with a 101.2 rating in 2013. He also tied his career-high with 26 touchdowns, giving him 52 in two seasons, tying Peyton Manning for second-place in NFL history for the most touchdown passes in a quarterback's first two seasons. Wilson also owns the NFL record for most wins by a quarterback in his first two seasons with 28 (regular and postseason).

In 2012, Smith's training camp opened with a three-man race for the starting job with Tarvaris Jackson, Matt Flynn and Russell Wilson battling for the top spot. Throughout the process, it was Wilson's development, maturation and leadership at the position that would lead Seattle in to the regular season.

The NFL's third-ranked rushing attack allowed Wilson a comfort level to excel in the offense and he would go on to end the season as the league's fourth-ranked passer with a franchise-record 100.0 passer rating, tie (Peyton Manning) the NFL rookie-record with 26 touchdown passes, set the NFL rookie-record with three consecutive games with a 125-plus passer rating, and set other NFL and franchise records, including his 64.12 completion percentage ranking third in NFL history for a rookie quarterback.

With the help of a consistent ground game over the last-half of the 2011 season, Smith helped Tarvaris Jackson to career-highs in attempts (450), completions (271), yards (3,091), completion percentage (60.2, min. 290 att.) and touchdowns (14), in compiling a 7-7 record as a starter.

Of Smith's 24 years as an NFL assistant, 13 have been spent as an offensive coordinator, last leading the Jacksonville Jaguars offense from 2005-06. In 2006, Jacksonville's offense ranked 10th in the league and third overall in rushing with an average of 158.8 yards per game. In 2005, the Jaguars scored 361 points, 100 more than the previous season, and compiled a 12-4 record.

Smith worked with Carroll in 2004 at USC, where he mentored Heisman Trophy winner Matt Leinart and helped USC win the national championship.

For 29 of his last 32 seasons, Smith has been an assistant at the professional level, beginning with three years (1983-85) with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL. The Stars won the league title his final two seasons.

He entered the NFL coaching arena with New Orleans in 1986, serving as its offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the next 11 seasons. During that time, the franchise recorded its first-ever winning season, earned its first playoff berth, won its first division title and qualified for the postseason on four occasions.

Smith and Carroll worked together in New England from 1997-99. Under his watch in 1997, Drew Bledsoe completed more than 60 percent of his passes, threw for more than 3,700 yards and set career-highs in touchdown passes (28) and passer rating (87.7) as he was voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad.

Prior to the NFL, Smith was an assistant at the collegiate level for 12 seasons, with the final six as an offensive coordinator. Smith and Carroll first worked together in 1982 at North Carolina State when Smith was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach and Carroll was defensive coordinator/secondary coach.

Smith lettered in football as a defensive back at Cal Poly-SLO from 1969-70 after transferring from Bakersfield College where he played quarterback from 1966-67. He earned his bachelor's (1971) and master's (1972) degrees in physical education from Cal-Poly SLO, as well as a teaching credential.

Born on April 26, 1948, in Wasco, Calif., Smith and his wife, Dianne, have three sons, Tracy, Tyler and Nicholas, and a grandson, Troy.

SHERMAN SMITH RUNNING BACKS

NFL EXPERIENCE: 20TH YEAR

An original Seahawk, Smith returns to his NFL roots to continue his NFL coaching career. Hired to coach running backs on February 4, 2010, he returns to Seattle where he played for eight seasons.

The Seahawks rushing attack has led the NFL with 5,979 yards since Week 9 of the 2011 season and Pro Bowl back Marshawn Lynch leads the NFL with 3,788 yards during that span.

During Seattle's Super Bowl XLVIII championship run in 2013, the Seahawks offense relied on the NFL's fourth-ranked rushing offense (136.8 ypg) and Lynch. He totaled a career-high 14 touchdowns (career-high tying 12 rush, two rec.) and added 1,257 yards on 301 carries. He is the only player to rush for 1,000 yards and score 10 rushing touchdowns in each of the last three seasons.

Smith was in charge of the league's third-ranked rushing attack (161.2) with the club rushing for a franchise-record 2,579 yards in 2012. Led by first-team All-Pro member Lynch, he set career-highs in carries (315), yards (1,590, 3rd NFL), average gain (5.0, 4th NFL) and most yards from scrimmage (1,786, 4th NFL). He also scored the second-most rushing touchdowns of his career with 11 and set the franchise's highest yards per carry average in a single-game (11.64, 11 for 128) vs. Arizona (12/9), breaking Smith's record set in 1976.

In 2011, the Seahawks found their offensive identity of running the football led by Pro Bowlers Lynch and fullback Michael Robinson. Robinson paved the way for Lynch's 285 carries, 1,204 yards and career-high 12 rushing touchdowns. Lynch led the league the last-half of the season with 941 yards and nine touchdowns, rushing for 100-plus in six of the last nine games and became Seattle's first 1,000-yard rusher since Shaun Alexander (2005). He also broke Alexander's franchise-mark (9), scoring in 11 consecutive games played.

Smith's running back corps in 2010 was bolstered with the midseason trade for Buffalo's Lynch. He set a career-high with three rush scores vs. Carolina, the first time a Seahawks player accomplished that feat since Shaun Alexander in 2005.

A veteran of the NFL for 28 seasons as both a player and coach, Smith spent two seasons with the Washington Redskins (2008-09) after 13 years with the Tennessee Titans.

He served as the Redskins offensive coordinator and saw four members of the Redskins offense were named to the 2008 and 2009 Pro Bowls – TE Chris Cooley, RB Clinton Portis, T Chris Samuels and FB Mike Sellers.

Portis made his second Pro Bowl and his first as a member of the Redskins after he registered the second-most rushing yards (1,487) in a single season in franchise history, while Sellers was named to his first Pro Bowl after he paved the way for Portis to finish fourth in the NFL with the aforementioned 1,487 rushing yards.

Smith's coaching background is primarily with running backs, but he has worked under several offensive coordinators who have operated versions of the West Coast Offense, including Mike Heimerdinger and Norm Chow.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Smith spent 13 seasons as running backs coach with the Tennessee Titans (1995-2007). He also held the title of assistant head coach the last two seasons.

In his final season with the Titans in 2008, Tennessee finished with the NFL's fifth-ranked rushing attack, averaging 131.8 yards per game. Under Smith's guidance, second-year running back LenDale White led the Titans offense with 1,110 rushing yards on 303 carries. He logged five 100-yard rushing performances and led the Titans with seven rushing touchdowns.

In 2006, Tennessee amassed the sixth-highest rushing total in Titans/Oilers franchise history with 2,214 rushing yards. The team's yards-per-carry average of 4.72 established a new franchise mark. Travis Henry led the Titans ground game with 1,211 rushing yards and seven touchdowns on 270 carries.

From 1996-2003, Smith helped running back Eddie George develop into one of the great running backs in NFL history. With 10,441 career rushing yards, George is one of 28 running backs in NFL history to reach 10,000 career rushing yards and only the second to reach the mark without missing a game. The other was Hall of Famer Jim Brown.

Before joining the Titans, Smith was an assistant coach at Illinois for three seasons. He coached tight ends from 1992-93 and running backs in 1994. Smith also coached running backs at Miami (Ohio) University, his alma mater, from 1990-91.

Smith played nine years in the NFL as a running back, mostly with Seattle. He joined the Seahawks as a second-round draft choice (58th overall) in 1976 and led the team in rushing yardage in each of his first four seasons. For his career, Smith compiled 3,520 rushing yards and 28 touchdowns on 834 carries, as well as 217 receptions for 2,393 yards and 10 touchdowns.

He departed Seattle in 1983 as the Seahawks' all-time rushing yardage leader. He totaled 3,429 rushing yards in Seattle, which is currently seventh-best behind Shaun Alexander, Curt Warner, Chris Warren, John L. Williams, Ricky Watters and Lynch. He is also fifth in Seahawks history with 28 rushing touchdowns. Smith closed out his career with the San Diego Chargers from 1983-84.

At Miami (Ohio), Smith played quarterback. He led the Redhawks to a 33-1-1 record and the Mid-American Conference crown his last three years.

Upon retiring from playing football in 1984, Smith taught for five years and was the head boys track and basketball coach at Redmond Jr. High. He also coached football at Redmond High during this time.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Smith and his wife, Sharon, have two children, daughter Shavonne, and son Sherman, also a graduate of Miami (Ohio).

HOW ACQUIRED: Signed with Seattle as an unrestricted free agent March 13, 2013.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Originally drafted by the Detroit Lions in the third round (92nd overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft.
- Has played in 88 career games (62 starts) and amassed 181 tackles (133 solo), 47.5 sacks, 16 passes defended, 21 forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries (1 returned for a touchdown), and one interception (returned for a touchdown).
- Helped Seattle to 13-3 record and a Super Bowl 48 victory in first season with the team, 2013. Part of a defense that ranked first in total defense, passing defense, points allowed and turnover differential.
- Tied for team lead in 2013 postseason with 1.5 sacks and had five QB hits, three passes defended and two forced fumbles.
- Set career-high with 11 sacks during 2011 season, and added fumble and interception return touchdowns to season resume. Led the Lions in sacks in 2012 with 9.5. In 2010, registered 8.5 sacks, despite missing three games due to injury. Among all NFL rookies (2008), finished tied for first with 5.0 sacks and was first with four forced fumbles.
- Ranks fifth in Lions history with 39.5 sacks.
- Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for Week 8 (2011), first of career, following his performance against the Denver Broncos that included 2.0 sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble return for touchdown.

COLLEGE: Moved to defensive end in his final two seasons for the Boilermakers and registered 30 of 35.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage and 12.5 of 13 sacks from the left end position. Played in 40 games at Purdue, starting 35, with 12 starts coming at strong-side linebacker and the other 23 at left defensive end. Was 12th in school history with 13 sacks. Named All-Big Ten Conference by the NFL Draft Report and second-team by the league's media in 2007 after starting all 13 games at left defensive end, where he led the team and tied for 10th in the conference with 6.5 sacks and returned an interception for a touchdown. Started the first four games at strong-side linebacker in 2006 before shifting to left defensive end for the final 10 games. Played in 10 games as a sophomore in 2005 before a midseason back fracture forced him to sit out for the rest of the year and limited him in drills the following spring. Saw considerable action as a true freshman in 2004 while appearing in 12 games, starting four contests at strong-side linebacker.

PERSONAL: Attended Clay High School (Fla.) where he earned second-team All-State honors as a defensive end as a senior and was rated the 37th best outside linebacker in the nation by Rivals.com. Named to the Florida Times-Union Super 24 team and twice earned All-Conference accolades. As a senior, led the team to an 11-2 record and registered 80 tackles, 9.0 sacks, 11 stops behind the line of scrimmage and four passes defended. Named to Class 3A All-State team by the Florida Sports Writers Association senior year. Lettered in basketball, track and field and weight lifting. Retail management major.

HOW ACQUIRED: Signed by Seattle as an undrafted rookie free agent on April 27, 2013.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Saw action in 14 games as a rookie in 2013, mostly seeing time at tackle, but also guard and special teams. Saw action in all three playoff games and started as an extra blocker in Super Bowl XLVIII.

COLLEGE: Started 38 consecutive games to end his Razorbacks career as a redshirt junior and blocked consecutive seasons with a 3,000-yard passer, including the first season in school history with a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher in 2010. In 2011, he was named an All-American by Pro Football Weekly and a second-team All-SEC performer by the Associated Press and the conference's coaches after starting all 13 games as part of an offensive line that allowed the offense to break 16 game or season school records. He started all 13 games for the Razorbacks as Arkansas was the only school in the SEC to start the same offensive line every game in 2010. He was named to the FWAA Freshman All-America Team and the SEC All-Freshman Team. The line allowed Arkansas to break 24 game or season school records on offense in 2010. Quarterback Ryan Mallett set the Arkansas single-season passing yards record with 3,869 and running back Knile Davis posted the fourth-highest single-season rushing yards total in program history with 1,322 yards that season.

PERSONAL: He anchored the offensive line for Broken Arrow High School for three straight years. During his senior season, Bailey recorded 116 knockdowns and did not allow a sack and was named to the 2008 all-state team by the Daily Oklahoman and was an all-district Class 6A honoree. He could bench press more than 400 pounds and squatted 590 pounds in high school. His father, Alvin, Sr., was a basketball player for the Razorbacks in the late 1970s. Majored in recreation and sports management.

HOW ACQUIRED: Originally signed by Seattle as a rookie free agent on July 26, 2011. Signed a multi-year extension on May 29.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Finished 2013 season second on team with 50 receptions and 778 yards, while tying team lead with five TD receptions.
- Led team in postseason with 13 receptions and 202 yards with a TD, including 106 yards in NFC Championship Game vs. San Francisco, the ninth 100-yard receiving game in Seahawks postseason history.
- Started four of 14 games played in 2012.
- Led the team in receiving yards (788), receptions (51) and TD receptions (4) in 2011. Became the first undrafted rookie to lead his team in both receptions and receiving yards since Bill Groman of the Houston Oilers in 1960 (72 catches for 1473 yards).
- In 2011, led team with career highs in receptions (8) and yards (136) at New York Giants (10/9), and gave Seattle the winning score on a 27-yard TD from Charlie Whitehurst with 2:37 remaining in the game. Also earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week 12 versus St. Louis (12/12). Took a reverse handoff on the opening kickoff for 37 yards and after the Rams opening drive resulted in a punt, he downed a Jon Ryan punt at the St. Louis 6 after snagging it out of the air. After Seattle forced a St. Louis punt on the ensuing possession, he blocked the punt resulting in a 17-yard touchdown return on the play by Michael Robinson for the game's first score.

HONORS: 2011: NFC Special Teams Player of the Week 12.

COLLEGE: Appeared in 31 career games at Stanford. Proved to be a big-play threat both at wide receiver and in the return game, averaging 26.0 yards in 25 career kickoff returns and 76 yards in 23 punt returns. Played in 12 games and made nine starts at wide receiver during his sophomore campaign in 2008, leading the Cardinal with four touchdown receptions and averaging 14.4 yards per catch, finishing second on the team with 23 catches for 332 yards.

PERSONAL: Played football, basketball and was a three-year track letter winner in the high jump and long jump at Gulf Breeze High School in Florida, where he was rated as one of the top wide receiver prospects in the nation. Member of the National Honor Society, Math Honor Society and Spanish Honor Society. Majoring in Science, Technology, and Society.

HOW ACQUIRED: Traded by Minnesota to Seattle for a 2013 first-round draft choice, one of three 2013 seventh-round draft choices and a 2014 third-round draft choice on March 12, 2013.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Originally the 22nd overall draft choice by the Minnesota Vikings in the 2009 NFL Draft. Played in 54 games with 43 starts with 280 receptions for 3,302 yards and 20 touchdowns. Also rushed 107 times for 683 yards with four touchdowns and returned 114 kickoffs for 3,183 yards, a Vikings franchise record five kickoff return touchdowns, including a Vikings-record 105-yard return at Detroit (9/30/12).
- Underwent hip surgery during training camp and was placed on PUP to start his Seahawks career in 2013. After being activated to the 53-man roster leading up to Week 11 versus Minnesota (11/17), returned and had a key 17-yard reception and returned a kickoff 58 yards. Missed the remaining five regular-season games with the hip injury. Returned for the postseason and had three first-half receptions for 21 yards vs. New Orleans, but left the game with a concussion and was inactive for the NFC Championship Game. Saw action in Super Bowl XLVIII win over Denver and had a 5-yard reception, led team with 45 rushing yards (long of 30 on the Seahawks opening drive) and returned the second-half kickoff 87 yards for a TD.
- Left Minnesota as the Vikings record holder in career kickoff return touchdowns (5), career kickoff return average (27.9), single-season and career rushing yards leader by a wide receiver (345 and 587), holding the longest play in team history (105-yard kickoff return) and leading the team in receiving from 2010-12.
- Set Vikings record for combined net yardage in a player's opening two seasons with 3,922 yards, breaking Adrian Peterson's previous record.
- Named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and voted to the Pro Bowl after his rookie season in 2009. Posted second-most receptions by a rookie in team history with 60, trailing Randy Moss' 69 in 1998. Set team record as first player to return two kickoffs for touchdowns in a season or career. Established team record with 2,081 combined yards (rushing, receiving, returning), breaking the previous mark of 2,051 by Herschel Walker in 1990. Led NFL rookies with 48 points and tied for NFL lead among rookies in receptions (60) and receiving yards (790).

- Caught career-high 12 passes at Indianapolis (9/16/12).
- Voted by teammates the 2011 Vikings Offensive MVP when he led team in receiving with 87 catches for 967 yards and total offensive yards with 1,312. Scored touchdowns during the season by rushing, receiving and kickoff return to become the first Viking to score three different ways multiple times in career. Had career-best 156-yard receiving day vs. Denver (12/4/11) and matched career-high with two receiving touchdowns.
- Caught the final touchdown pass of Brett Favre's career vs. Chicago (12/20/10).

HOW ACQUIRED: Claimed by Seattle via waivers September 4, 2011, after being released by Denver on the final cut.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Originally signed by Minnesota as an undrafted free agent on May 2, 2008. Was waived by the Vikings August 30, 2008, and claimed by Baltimore the following day. Waived by Baltimore September 9, 2008, and signed to their practice squad two days later. Signed to the Ravens active roster October 30, 2008. Was waived the following season on November 18, 2009, before signing with the Atlanta Falcons December 29, 2009. Was waived by Atlanta the following camp on August 16, 2010, and claimed August 17 by Detroit. Was waived by Detroit September 4, 2010, and signed with Denver later that season on December 11, 2010.
- Led the NFC in 2013 and ranked 4th in the NFL in scoring with a career-high 143 points. Point total was most in Seahawks history among kickers and second overall to Shaun Alexander (168 in 2005).
- Had a streak of 22-consecutive field goals, second all time in team history behind Olindo Mare's 30, ended vs. Arizona (12/22/13).

Connected on a string of 19-consecutive field goals prior to having one blocked at Indianapolis - a streak that now ranks third.

- Since 2011, has made 76 of 81 (93.8%) attempts inside 50 yards.
- Earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week 4 in 2013 after connecting on all three field goals at Houston, including a game-winning 45-yarder in OT.
- Holds Seahawks record for the longest attempt of 61 yards vs. Atlanta (10/2/11) and at Detroit (10/28/12).
- Had a then career-high 118 points in 2012 after converting 24 of 27 field goals and 46 of 48 PATs.
- Tied the club record with a career-high five field goals made in five attempts vs. Baltimore (11/13/11), in which those FGs accounted for five of Seattle's six scores in a 22-17 win.
- Connected on 16-of-22 (.727) field goals during his career with Denver (2010) and Baltimore (2008-09).
- Made 9-of-13 field goals (.692) and 27-of-28 extra points in nine games during the 2009 season with Baltimore.

COLLEGE: Ended collegiate career as a graduate student at North Carolina State and connecting on 16-of-18 field goals in lone season of eligibility and was named a Lou Groza Award finalist. Led the Atlantic Coast Conference and ranked sixth in school history with an .889 field goal percentage. Graduated Middlebury College in Vermont, where he kicked three seasons connecting on 20-of-28 career attempts. Named first team all-conference as a kicker and punter senior year and earned second-team honors at both positions after sophomore and junior seasons.

PERSONAL: Played soccer at Needham (Mass.) High School. Also played soccer and lacrosse at Middlebury, earning a degree in neuroscience.

HOW ACQUIRED: Drafted with the 25th pick in the third round (87th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft. Second defensive tackle chosen in the third round in club history (Last: Brandon Mebane, 2007). Eighth player drafted out of Penn State in club history (Last: Deon Butler, 2009) and fourth highest player drafted out of Penn State in club history.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Saw action in four regular-season games as a rookie and totaled seven tackles and 1.5 sacks. Was inactive 12 times, including early in the season with a biceps injury. First career game played was at Indianapolis (10/6/13).

COLLEGE: Started 27 of 45 games at Penn State – 24 at left defensive tackle and three at right defensive end. Recorded 171 tackles (64 solos) and even though he made just 9.5 sacks, they proved to be big plays, totaling minus 68 yards. Registered 19.5 stops for losses of 91 yards and two quarterback pressures. Gained nine yards on an interception and deflected three passes. Recovered four fumbles and caused two others. Earned first-team All-Big Ten Conference honors from the league's coaches, media panel and ESPN.com as a senior starting all 12 contests, finishing fourth on the team with a career-high 64 tackles (29 solo), ranking second on the squad with 4.5 sacks for minus 32 yards and tied for third with 8.5 stops for losses totaling 40 yards. The team co-captain also had one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. As a junior earned honorable mention All-Big Ten Conference recognition. Played in all 13 games as a sophomore with four starts and registered 36 tackles (12 solos) with an assisted sack and two stops for minus five yards. As a freshman, made Penn State debut vs. Eastern Illinois, the sixth game of the season, and made an immediate impact, recording a season-high four tackles in the win over the Panthers. Played in the final eight games, he recorded 12 tackles and a sack.

PERSONAL: Attended Steelton-Highspire High School in Steelton, Pa. Earned all-Mid-Penn Conference and All-District accolades from 2006-2008. Helped team to 2007 and 2008 Pennsylvania Class A state championships and an undefeated senior campaign. Tallied 275 tackles, 19 sacks and five interceptions during career. Also gained 648 yards rushing with six TDs. Recreations, parks and tourism management major. Son of Sue and Larry Hill.

HOW ACQUIRED: Signed with Seattle on June 14, 2013, after being released by the Buffalo Bills on June 10, 2013.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Originally drafted by Minnesota in the second round of the 2006 NFL Draft (64th overall). Was the fifth quarterback selected. Spent first five seasons with the Vikings, playing in 36 games with 20 starts. Signed by Seattle as a restricted free agent on July 29, 2011. Traded to the Buffalo Bills by Seattle August 27, 2012. Was released by the Bills on June 10, 2013, and then re-signed with Seattle on June 14.
- After not playing a snap for Buffalo in 2012, played in three games for Seattle in 2013. Was 10 for 13 for 151 yards with one touchdown and a 140.2 passer rating in backup duty.
- Named the starter for the 2011 season for Seattle during training camp and started 14 of 15 games played missing one game and a start with a strained pectoral muscle in his throwing arm suffered at N.Y.Giants (10/9).
- Set career highs during 2011 in attempts (450), completions (271), yards (3,091), TDs (14) and interceptions (13). Tossed first two 300-yard games with a career best (323) versus Cincinnati (10/30/11) and 319 versus Atlanta (10/2/11). Tied a single-game high with 25 completions and set a personal best with a 137.0 passer rating on a Thursday Night Football performance versus Philadelphia (12/1).
- Spent 2009 and 2010 as the backup quarterback in Minnesota. Started one game in 2010 when Brett Favre's consecutive games played streak game ended at 297, completing 15 of 30 passes for 118 yards and one interception.
- Started five games in 2008, and posted a 2-1 record as the starter in the final three games of the regular season, helping the Vikings reach the postseason. Tied a career high with nine touchdowns with just two interceptions in nine games played. Completed 15 of 35 passes for 164 yards and one touchdown in the NFC Wild Card Game vs. Philadelphia (1/4/09), his first postseason game.
- Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week and Fedex Air Player of the Week for the first time in his career at Arizona (12/14/08) when he threw for a career-high four touchdown passes.
- Started and played in 12 games in 2007, leading the Vikings offense to the No. 13 overall ranking in the NFL. Notched an 8-4 record after taking over as the starting quarterback and threw for a career high 1,911 yards. Battled through injuries that caused him to miss four games.
- Set Vikings record and matched an NFL record by running and converting a pair of 2-point conversions in the 2007 season finale (12/30/07).
- In 2006, started the final two games of the regular season, becoming only the third Vikings rookie quarterback to start a game in franchise history (Fran Tarkenton and Tommy Kramer).
- Threw his first touchdown pass on a screen pass to Melwede Moore vs. the N.Y. Jets (12/31/06).
- Made NFL debut on Thursday Night Football at Green Bay (12/21/06).

COLLEGE: Left school ranked seventh in Southwestern Athletic Conference history with 68 touchdown passes, despite playing only three seasons in the league and ranked ninth in SWAC history with 7,839 yards. Ended ASU career ranked second in touchdown passes and passing yards. Competed with Matt Jones for time at QB when both played for Arkansas before transferring to ASU. Earned 2nd-Team All-SWAC honors as a senior. Was tabbed as the SWAC Preseason Offensive Player of the Year. ASU's captain and offensive MVP during senior year. Threw for 2,941 yards, the third-most in ASU history. Gained 3,226 yards of offense (2,941 passing/285 rushing), the third-most in school history. During junior season, guided the Hornets to SWAC title and a 10-2 mark, becoming only the second quarterback in school history to lead a team to 10 wins. Named MVP of SWAC Championship VI and the Detroit Football Classic as a junior in 2004. In his ASU debut in 2003, led team to an 8-5 record, the SWAC Eastern Division title and a berth in SWAC Championship V. In 2002 saw time in eight games for the Razorbacks in final season. Started first-career collegiate game at Auburn. Threw first career TD pass vs. South Florida. As a freshman in 2001, played in 3 games for the Razorbacks before shoulder injury sidelined him. Granted medical redshirt. Made college football debut against UNLV in 2001 season opener.

PERSONAL: Played quarterback and defensive back at Sidney Lanier High in Montgomery, Ala. Honorable-Mention All-State choice as a junior and senior. Helped team to 9-2 mark as a senior and served as team captain. Attended same high school as Packers Bart Starr. Majored in psychology at Alabama State. Participated in 2008 and 2009 NFL's Take a Player to School day when he accompanied a Twin Cities area elementary student on a day at school. Has a son, Tarvaris, and a daughter, TaKyla.

HOW ACQUIRED: Signed to Seattle's practice squad on September 6, 2010, and to the active roster on January 7, 2011.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Originally signed with the Kansas City Chiefs as an undrafted free agent on April 25, 2010, before being released following training camp on September 3.
- Signed to Seattle's active roster for the post-season on January 7, 2011, was inactive for both contests.
- In 2013, played in all 16 games with three starts at center for Max Unger (injured). Also saw time as an extra tackle late in the season in goal-line packages.
- Played in 15 games mostly on the PAT/FG units and saw time at center on four occasions late in Seattle victories in 2012.
- Saw action in all 16 games in 2011 on special teams and on the offensive line. Started five games, one at center (at Cleveland, 10/23) and the final four at right guard.

COLLEGE: Played on the defensive side of the ball the first two seasons at South Carolina before making the transition to the offensive line in the final week of the 2007 spring season. Played in 36 games (21 starts). As a senior, played in 13 games with eight starts at center and two starts at guard. As a junior, opened the first five games at either left or right guard, but missed the rest of the season after suffering a knee injury. Started five games at right guard after making the transition from defensive line to offensive line in spring practice as a sophomore. Saw action in 13 games with one start at defensive tackle as a redshirt freshman. Registered 17 tackles (11 solo), 6.0 stops for loss and 2.0 sacks.

PERSONAL: Played at Timber Creek School in Orlando, Fla. Earned 6A first-team all-state honors. Named first-team All-Orange County as a junior by the Orlando Sentinel after totaling 96 tackles and nine sacks. Played in the Central Florida All-Star Game. Regarded as the 44th-best defensive tackle in the country by Rivals.com and ranked #25 on the Orlando Sentinel's Top 100 players in the state of Florida. Three-year starter on the basketball team. Majored in Retailing and is working on a master's degree in Sport and Entertainment Management at South Carolina.

SUPER SEAHAWKS

Seattle's 43-8 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XLVIII was only the second Super Bowl since 1970 that the top-ranked defense met the top-ranked offense. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense defeated the Oakland Raiders, 48-21, in Super Bowl XXXVII. Last year's game was the fifth Super Bowl since 1970 that the top-ranked scoring defense (Seattle, 14.4) met the top-ranked scoring offense (Denver 37.9). The top-ranked scoring defenses are 4-1 in those games.

HOW ACQUIRED: Traded by Buffalo to Seattle for a 2011 fourth-round draft choice and an undisclosed 2012 choice on October 5, 2010. Re-signed to a multi-year contract in 2012.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Originally drafted by Buffalo with the 12th overall selection in the 2007 NFL Draft.
- Earned fourth-career trip to the Pro Bowl in 2013 and named first-team AP All-Pro for first time in career in 2012.
- Leads the NFL 39 total touchdowns since 2011 (35 rush, four rec.).
- Set career-high with 14 total touchdowns (career-high tying 12 rush, two rec.) in 2013. Added 1,257 rushing yards to become the only player to record 1,000 yards rushing and 10+ rush touchdowns in the last three seasons.
- Set Seattle's postseason record with 140 rushing yards vs. New Orleans in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/11/14). Had two 100-yard rushing yard games in the postseason. Recorded 15 rushes for 39 yards and one touchdown in Super Bowl XLVIII (2/2/14) in Seattle's 43-8 win over Denver.
- Had a career-year in 2012. Set career-highs in carries (315, 5th NFL), yards (1,590, 3rd NFL), average gain (5.0, 4th NFL), 100-yard games (10, T1st NFL) and total yards from scrimmage (1,786, 4th NFL) to go with 12 total touchdowns (T7th NFL with 11 rush, 1 rec.). Became just the third Seattle player to eclipse 1,500 yards (Chris Warren, Shaun Alexander).
- Set career-long gain with a 77-yard touchdown run at Detroit (10/28/12), tying for the fourth-longest in club history and longest since Shaun Alexander's 88-yarder in 2005.

- Holds three of the top-5 highest yards per carry averages in franchise history, with each entry coming in 2012. Ranks first with an 11.64 average on 11 carries for a season-high 128 yards vs. Arizona (12/9/12). Also holds the second (11.30) and fourth-highest averages (8.75).
- Tied (Shaun Alexander) postseason franchise mark with 132 yards on 20 carries and one touchdown at Washington (1/6/13) in the NFC Wild Card Game.
- In 2011, had 1,204 yards and set career-high in rushing touchdowns (12) with one receiving score. Set a club record with at least one touchdown in 11-straight games, breaking Shaun Alexander's 2005 record of nine. Became Seattle's first 1,000-yard rusher since Shaun Alexander set a club-record with 1,880 in 2005.
- Set career-high with 32 rushes for 109 yards and a touchdown vs. Baltimore's (11/13/11) third-ranked run defense. Also tied a career high with 58 receiving yards.
- Set a career-high with three rushing touchdowns vs. Carolina (12/5/10) on 21 carries for 83 yards. It was the first time a Seahawks player had three rushing scores since Shaun Alexander scored three vs. St. Louis (11/13/05). Tied that mark with three scores vs. Arizona (12/9/12).
- Rushed for 107 yards on 21 carries and a touchdown vs. the 49ers (12/24/11). First runner to eclipse 100 yards vs. the 49ers since November 2009 (36 games) and the first player to rush for a touchdown vs. the 49ers in 15 games dating to 2010.
- Played in 45 games with 37 starts for Buffalo, leaving the team as its 10th all-time leading rusher (2,765) and ninth all-time in rushing attempts (687).
- Became the fastest Bills running back to reach 1,500 yards (19 games) and joined Joe Cribbs and Willis McGahee as the only Bills running backs to reach 1,000 yards in each of their first two seasons.
- Rushed for 1,115 yards on 280 attempts during rookie season and followed that up with 1,036 yards on 250 carries and eight touchdowns in 2008, where he was selected to the Pro Bowl as an injury replacement for Tennessee's Chris Johnson.

Pro Football Weekly/Professional Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team Selection; NFL.com Gil Brandt's All-Rookie Team Selection; Diet Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week Winner (week 7 and week 10).

COLLEGE: Became the fourth player in Cal history to rush for more than 3,000 yards and ranked second in school history with 3,230 yards, first with the most 100-yard rushing games (17) and eighth on the scoring list (210 points) at the time of his departure. Only the second player in school history to gain more than 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons (2005 - 1,246; 2006 - 1,356). Became the fourth player in school history to amass more than 4,000 all-purpose yards. In 2006, was named Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year and All-Pac 10 Conference first team. Was an All-American first team selection by The NFL Draft Report and the American Football Coaches Association. Received the Bear Backer Award as the team's Most Valuable Player. Led the conference in both rushing (104.3 ypg) and all-purpose yardage (137.3 ypg).

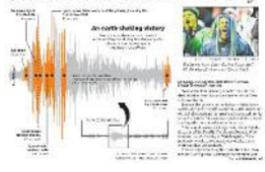

PERSONAL: Attended Oakland Technical High School. Cousin Josh Johnson was drafted in fifth round (160th overall) by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2008; cousin Robert Jordan was signed by the San Francisco 49ers as an undrafted free agent in 2008; cousin Virdell Larkins played defensive back at Idaho. Son of Delisa Lynch. Has one brother, Davonte.

BEASTQUAKE

In what many consider one of the best postseason runs in NFL history, Lynch's 67-yard touchdown run vs. the New Orleans Saints in the NFC Wild Card Game (1/8/11), did more than just give the Seahawks a 41-30 lead late in the fourth quarter to help seal the game. His run, in which he broke free from as many as eight Saints defenders, registered seismic activity near CenturyLink Field on one of the Pacific Northwest Seismic Network's monitoring stations. The station that picked up the tremors is mostly used for monitoring a two-level viaduct highway that runs along the Seattle waterfront and its seawall.

HOW ACQUIRED: Drafted by Seattle in the sixth-round (185th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Missed the entire 2013 season (Achilles).
- In 2012, played in 16 games with five starts, and started both postseason contests. Tallied a career-high five receptions vs. Dallas (9/16/12) and a career-high 105 yards with a career-long 67 yarder vs. Arizona (12/9/12), becoming just the fourth tight end in franchise history with a 100-yard game and first since John Carlson in 2008.
- Saw action in all 16 games in 2011, starting nine mostly when the team opened in two-tight end sets, and totaled 13 receptions for 146 yards.
- Made NFL debut vs. the N.Y. Giants (11/7/10). Played in two games before being placed on injured reserve (knee) on November 27.

COLLEGE: Started 23 of 40 career games at USC, catching 46 passes for 731 yards (15.9 avg.) and three touchdowns. Named All-Pac-10 Conference honorable mention and semi-finalist for the John Mackey Award, given to the nation's top tight end as a senior.

PERSONAL: Attended Bullard (Fresno, Calif.) High School. Earned 2005 Super Prep All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team and Fresno Bee All-Area first team as a senior wide receiver, tight end and defensive end. Rated fifth-best tight end prospect by Scout.com. Recorded 70 receptions for 1,210 yards (17.3 avg.) and 15 touchdowns. Also registered 65 tackles, 14 sacks, 13 tackles for loss and 15 deflections on defense as a senior.

HOW ACQUIRED: Signed by Seattle as an unrestricted free agent on August 3, 2011.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Originally drafted by Oakland in the second round (38th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft. Played four seasons for the Raiders, starting 61 of 62 games played. Has missed only five career games in seven seasons played.
- Played in 14 games with 12 starts in 2013. Tied (Doug Baldwin, Golden Tate) for the team-lead with five receiving touchdowns, tying his career-high. Recorded 33 receptions for 387 yards and a long of 60. Hauled in a career-high two touchdowns vs. Jacksonville (9/22). Started all three postseason games and totaled five receptions for 46 yards.
- Started 15 of 16 games played in 2012 and started both postseason games. Recorded eight receptions for 142 yards (the second-most in franchise postseason history) and one touchdown at Atlanta (1/13/13) in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game.
- Started 15 of 15 games played in first season with Seattle missing one (at Cleveland 10/23) with a neck/head injury. Had 25 catches for 233 yards spending much time as an extra blocker helping an offensive line decimated with injury.
- Hauled in 226 receptions for 2,712 yards (12.0 avg.) and 12 touchdowns in Oakland, ranking third all-time on the Raiders career receiving list for tight ends behind Todd Christensen (461) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Dave Casper (255) at the time of his departure.

- Named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad in 2010 after leading the team with 60 receptions for 685 yards. Led the Raiders in receiving in each of the last three seasons (2008-10). Became first tight end to lead the team in receiving in consecutive seasons since Christensen (1982-86). Ranked eighth among NFL tight ends in receiving. Also set a career high with five touchdowns.
- In 2009, recorded career-highs with 66 receptions for 805 yards while being named an AFC Pro Bowl alternate. Ranked eighth among NFL tight ends in both receptions and receiving yards.
- Totaled six receptions for a career-high 139 yards and a touchdown vs. Philadelphia (10/18/09). Also hauled in a career-long 86-yard touchdown reception.
- Became first tight end since Ethan Horton in 1991 to lead the team in receptions (56) in 2008. His 56 receptions ranked eighth among NFL tight ends and 778 receiving yards was sixth.
- As a rookie in 2007, started all 16 games and hauled in 44 receptions for 444 yards and three touchdowns to lead all NFL rookie tight ends. Receptions set a Raiders rookie tight end record.

HONORS: 2010: AFC Pro Bowl.

COLLEGE: Finished collegiate career at Arizona State ranked sixth in school history with 144 receptions, setting a school record for receptions by a tight end.

Started all 35 games played (2004-06). Career receiving yards (1,512) rank second on the ASU all-time list for tight ends when he left school. Had 14 touchdown catches to surpass the previous school career record for tight ends (11). Caught 56 passes in 2004, the single-season record for tight ends, topping the old mark of 55. Those 56 grabs also set a school single-season record for freshmen. 50 receptions in 2006 rank third on ASU's single-season record chart for tight ends. Only tight end to catch 50 or more passes twice in a career. His 552 yards receiving in 2004 rank seventh on the school's tight end single season list. One of only three players in the Pac-10 Conference to be named first team All-Pac-10 and first team Academic All-Pac-10 in 2006. Was named first-team All-American and finalist for John Mackey Award

HOW ACQUIRED: Selected with the sixth overall pick in the 2010 NFL Draft. Highest drafted tackle in club history (Walter Jones was also selected sixth overall in 1997) and first draft choice of General Manager John Schneider and Head Coach Pete Carroll.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Started all eight games played and missed eight games while on the injured reserve/designated to return list (toe). Helped Marshawn Lynch to set a career-high with 14 total touchdowns (12 rush, two rec.) and helped Seattle rank fourth in the NFL in rushing (136.8 ypg). Started all three postseason games.
- Started all 15 games played in the regular season and both playoff contests in 2012, being voted as a starter to the Pro Bowl. Helped Marshawn Lynch to a career-year with 315 carries for 1,590 yards (5.0 avg.) with 11 touchdowns.

- Started the first 12 games of 2011 before being placed on injured reserve with a torn pectoral muscle suffered vs. Philadelphia (12/1). Helped Marshawn Lynch post a club record scoring at least one TD in 11 consecutive games.

- Battled ankle injuries for most of the 2010 season. Started all 10 games played and both postseason contests. Missed the first three games of the season (ankle) and made NFL debut at St. Louis (10/3/10).

HONORS: 2012: NFC Pro Bowl.

COLLEGE: Played 52 games at Oklahoma State, starting final 47 contests – including last 39 at left tackle (first eight at right tackle).

Part of unit that saw the Cowboys lead the Big 12 Conference in rushing in each of his four seasons in the starting line-up. An Outland Trophy finalist, garnered All-American and Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year honors, becoming OSU's most decorated offensive lineman since former Pittsburgh Steelers stand-out center, Jon Kolb (1966-68). Registered 317 knock-downs with 48 touchdown-resulting blocks during his time as a starter. In final two seasons, total of 30 touchdown-resulting blocks were tops in the Big Twelve. As a senior, was an All-American first-team choice by The NFL Draft Report, Walter Camp Football Foundation and American Football Foundation Coaches Association. Was only offensive lineman named a semi-finalist for the Lombardi Award. Allowed just one sack on 336 pass plays.

PERSONAL: Attended George Bush High. Three-star prospect, according to Rivals.com. Ranked 33rd nationally among offensive tackles and placed 71st on Rival's Texas Top 100 list. Scout.com ranked the lineman 50th overall on the South-west Top 100 chart. Added first-team All-Greater Houston and All-District honors, along with being named to the Dallas Morning News Top 100 squad as a senior. Marketing major. Son of Dorothy Akabio and Victor Okung.

HOW ACQUIRED: Traded by Oakland to Seattle for a 2014 seventh-round draft choice on April 21, 2014.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Originally drafted by the Oakland Raiders in the third-round of the 2011 Supplemental Draft on August 22, 2011. Played in 15 games with 10 starts for Oakland, passing for 1,953 yards on 170 completions in 302 attempts, with nine touchdowns and 12 interceptions. Also rushed 93 times for 627 yards with three touchdowns for the Silver and Black.
- Recorded the longest rush in Raiders history and the longest rush in NFL history by a quarterback with a 93-yard touchdown run on the first play from scrimmage vs. Pittsburgh (10/27/13).
- Set the Raiders single-game franchise record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 112 yards at Indianapolis (9/8/13).
- Made his first career start at San Diego (12/30/12).

COLLEGE: Led Ohio State to a 31-4 record as a starter. Totaled 57 career touchdown passes to tie Bobby Hoying for most all-time at Ohio State. Accounted for 76 career touchdowns (57 passing, 17 rushing, two receiving). Completed 477 of 783 passes for 6,177 yards and rushed for an Ohio State-record for quarterbacks 2,164 yards on 436 carries in his career. As a junior in 2010, completed 65 percent of his passes for 2,772 yards and 27 touchdowns, leading an offense that averaged 38.8 points per game, second in the Big Ten and 11th in the nation. He was the 2010 Sugar Bowl MVP, rushing for a career-high 115 yards and throwing for 221 yards and two touchdowns against Arkansas. Also named the Rose Bowl MVP after his sophomore season and went 8-1 as starting quarterback as a true freshman, when he was Big Ten Freshman of the Year. Became only the second true freshman to start at quarterback for the Buckeyes.

PERSONAL: Attended Jeannette (Pa.) High School. Quarterbacked team to 16-0 record and the PIAA and WPIAL crowns and also helped the basketball team to WPIAL and PIAA titles, a first in the Keystone State, while scoring more than 2,000 points. Named the USA Today and Parade Player of Year. Finished high school career with 4,238 rushing yards and 4,340 passing yards, the first 4,000-4,000 year ever in Pennsylvania. Posted 1,899 rushing and 1,889 passing yards as a senior, accounting for 58 touchdowns. He was named the MVP of U.S. Army All-American Bowl and won consecutive Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and Pittsburgh Tribune-Review player of the year awards, as a junior and senior.

HOW ACQUIRED: Signed by the Seahawks as an unrestricted free agent on July 29, 2011. Released on February 28, 2014 and re-signed on April 18.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Originally drafted by Minnesota with the 12th pick in the second round (44th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft. Played four seasons and 48 games for the Vikings before signing with Seattle.
- Played in eight games with six starts in 2013 before tearing his ACL at St. Louis (10/28) and landing on injured reserve. Three of his 15 catches for 231 yards on the season were good for touchdowns.
- Started all 16 games for first time in career in 2012. Led Seattle in receiving (50) and yards (748) and tied Golden Tate in touchdowns (7), one shy of his career-high set in 2009.
- Has completed four of seven career pass attempts for 174 yards, including a 55-yard strike to Mike Williams on the first play of the game at St. Louis (11/20/11).
- In first season with Seahawks in 2011, started nine games totaling 32 catches for 484 yards and two touchdowns. Posted eight catches for 109 yards in Seattle debut. Missed the first two games of the season with a shoulder injury and spent the final five games on injured reserve (concussion).

- Returned from preseason hip surgery to play in six games in 2010 after beginning the season on physically unable to perform list. Versus Buffalo (12/5/10), caught five passes for season-high 105 yards and two touchdowns.
- En route to first Pro Bowl, hauled in 83 catches and was second in the NFC with 1,312 receiving yards in 2009. Also had a career-high eight touchdowns. Became the fourth player in team history to post more than 1,300 yards receiving in a season. Recorded five 100-yard games on the season.
- Established a career high with 201 receiving yards and hauled in seven passes while earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week at Detroit (11/15/09).
- Tied an NFL record with three receiving touchdowns in a playoff game vs. Dallas (1/17/10).
- Had impressive rookie season, ranking tied for first in the NFC and second in the NFL among rookies with four touchdown receptions in 2007. Led Vikings in touchdown receptions and was second on team in receiving yards with 396.
- Threw the longest pass by a Viking in 2007 (79 yards) and tied for the longest touchdown reception (60 yards).

- Made NFL debut in the season opener vs. Atlanta (9/9/07) and was only the fifth rookie wide receiver to start the opener in team history.

HONORS: 2009: NFC Pro Bowl; NFC Offensive Player of the Week vs. Detroit (11/15/09).

COLLEGE: Was a First-Team All-SEC honoree as a sophomore. Recognized as a Third-Team All-America as a freshman and sophomore. Set school record with 23 career touchdown catches, breaking the mark of 19 held by Robert Brooks and Jermale Kelly. Set a South Carolina record as the only player to break the 1,000-yard receiving mark in two seasons. Left with two of the three highest single-season reception marks at the school with 72 and 70, trailing Sterling Sharpe's 74. Started 23 of 24 career games. Broke the 100-yard receiving mark 11 times. Caught a pass in all 24 career games. Named 2006 Liberty Bowl Offensive MVP in his final college game against Houston. Played in 2005 Independence Bowl against Missouri and caught a career-high 12 passes. Medical red-shirt in 2004.

PERSONAL: Standout at Gaffney (S.C.) High was tabbed as South Carolina Offensive Player of the Year as a senior by High School Sports Report. Top WR prospect in the state caught 25 prep TDs. Helped lead Gaffney to Class 4A state title on the hardwood with a 28-0 record and was named the Player of the Year in Class 4A hoops.

HOW ACQUIRED: Acquired via waivers July 27, 2013, from the Arizona Cardinals.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Originally entered the NFL as a fourth-round selection (130th overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals.

- Started two of 15 games played in 2013, recording seven tackles (6 solo) and one sack.

- Made a remarkable recovery from a knee injury suffered in preparation for the Senior Bowl and went on to appear in 10 games for Arizona as a rookie. Appeared in all 16 games in 2011 and started the first nine games of the 2012 season before being placed on injured reserve (ankle) on 11/7/12.

- Started first nine games of 2012 before suffering a season-ending ankle injury vs. Green Bay in Week 9. Was placed on injured reserve. Finished tied for third on the team with 4.0 sacks and totaled a career-best 36 tackles while adding 11 QB pressures. Made his first career start and had five tackles vs. Seattle (9/9).

- Totaled 23 special teams stops in three seasons with Arizona and led the Cardinals with 17 special teams tackles in 2011.

- Saw action in the final 10 games of the 2010 season after beginning the year on the Reserve/Non-Football injury list due to a torn ACL in his left knee that was suffered prior to the Senior Bowl. Registered sacks in each of the final two games.

- Recorded first multi-sack game (2) and one forced fumble vs. Indianapolis (10/3/11). Also added five tackles.

COLLEGE: Started 27 of 44 games during his collegiate career and recorded 110 tackles, 33 tackles for loss, 17 sacks, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries as a DE. His 24.5 tackles for loss in 2009 ranked as the second-highest single-season total in school history and were the second-highest total in the nation in 2009. Earned the starting DE spot as a junior and started the final 26 games of his collegiate career and served as one of four team captains as a senior and was named team's co-MVP. Started all 13 games, was named a unanimous

All-Big Ten Conference first-team choice and was named the team's co-MVP as a senior. Semi-finalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award and earned Defensive MVP recognition at the East-West Shrine Game after switching to OLB for the postseason all-star game. His 12.0 sacks for minus 80 yards ranked third on the school's single-season record list. As a junior, took over as the starter at left DE and started all 13 games and recorded 40 tackles (27 solos) with 8.5 tackles for loss and also tied for the team lead with five sacks. Appeared in all 13 games (one start) as a sophomore. Appeared in five games as a freshman, mostly on special teams. A redshirted as a freshman in 2005.

PERSONAL: Attended North Chicago (IL) Community High School where he was an honorable mention All-State choice, a two-time all-county, all-area and all-conference selection and a two-time team MVP and captain. Recorded 99 total tackles, with 11 sacks and four fumble recoveries as a senior and returned three kicks for TDs and one punt for a score. Grew up in a military family as his father, Anthony Schofield, is in the Navy. Served in the Junior ROTC during high school where he was promoted to lieutenant junior officer as a sophomore, faster than any of his classmates. Born in South Carolina but moved to Florida before spending a few years in London and then returned to Zion, Ill., when he was 11 years old. Was an African American Studies major. Is the cousin of former NFL defensive end Vonnie Holliday and former NFL wide receiver Bobby Engram, and his uncle, Andre Carter, played football at Clemson. Full name is Alacce (pronounced a-LAY-see-a) O'Brien Schofield but has gone by his middle name since age 10 when he tired of people mispronouncing his name.

HOW ACQUIRED: Drafted with the 17th selection in the second round (49th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Voted to his second-consecutive Pro Bowl after starting 13 of 13 games played in 2013 and helping Marshawn Lynch to a third-consecutive 1,000-yard season and 12 rushing touchdowns.
- Voted starting center for the NFC in the 2013 Pro Bowl.
- Started all 16 games as well as both post-season games in 2012, helping to lead Marshawn Lynch to his second consecutive 1,000-yard season. Seattle's ground game ranked 3rd in the league with 2,579 yards in 2012.
- Started all 15 games played and missed one at Cleveland (10/23) in 2011. Helped pave the way for Marshawn Lynch to become Seattle's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2005.
- Started the 2010 season opener vs. San Francisco (9/12) at right guard before leaving the game with a season-ending toe injury. Was placed on injured reserve on September 14.

- In 2009, became the first rookie lineman to start all 16 games since Ray Roberts in 1992. Started first 13 games at right guard before moving to center for the final three games.

HONORS: 2013, NFC Pro Bowl;
2012, NFC Pro Bowl, Associated Press First-Team All-Pro

COLLEGE: Started 51 consecutive games and earned all-conference honors in every season, including being named first-team All-Pac-10 twice. Also named to several All-American teams. Earned those accolades at two positions: left tackle in 2005 and 2006 and center in 2007 and 2008. As a senior, started all 13 games, including 11 at center. The Ducks led the Pac-10 and finished second in the nation with an average of 280.08 yards per game on the ground. They also led the league in scoring (41.92 ppg, seventh in the country) and total offense (484.85 ypg).

PERSONAL: Attended Hawaii Preparatory (Honaunau, Hi.) Academy, playing football for head coach Tom Goodspeed. Ranked among nation's top 50 offensive guards by Rivals.com as a senior. Did not begin playing organized football until the ninth grade, but in only his second season, he was a member of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin's 2002 second-team All-State squad. Playing on both sides of the ball during his last two years, he received first-team All-Big Island Inter-scholastic Federation honors both times.

HOW ACQUIRED: Drafted with the 15th pick in the second round (47th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. Eleventh linebacker chosen in the second round in club history (Last: Lofa Tatupu, 2005). Second and highest player drafted out of Utah State in club history.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Started 14 of 14 games played. Missed two games due to a high-ankle sprain. Recorded 119 tackles (71 solo) and a career-high five sacks. Also notched two interceptions, six passes defended and a fumble recovery.
- Started all three postseason games in 2013 and tied Kam Chancellor for team lead in tackles with 34 (17 solo).
- Set club record for tackles by a rookie with 140 (Terry Beason, 136 in 1977) and ranked second among all rookies in 2012.
- Started 15 of 16 games played at middle linebacker as well as both postseason games in 2012, leading the team in tackles (140) in addition to recording three interceptions, two sacks and four passes defended.

HONORS: 2012, Pro Football Weekly All Rookie Team, Sports Illustrated Defensive Rookie of the Year

COLLEGE: A three-time All-Western Athletic Conference first-team choice by the league's coaches and media who started 46-of-48 games at Utah State (21 at strong-side linebacker and 25 at weak-side linebacker). Finished his career with 446 tackles (201 solo), 4.5 sacks for minus 35 yards, 29.5 tackles for losses of 80 yards and eight quarterback pressures. Caused two fumbles and recovered three others, while recording seven passes defended and intercepting four balls for 51 yards in returns. His 446 tackles tied the school career-record that was first set by Del Lyles (1988-91), becoming only the fourth player in WAC history to record more than 400 tackles, breaking the league all-time record of 443 tackles by Robert Rodriguez of Texas-El Paso (2001-04). Named an All-American Dream Team choice and WAC Defensive Player of the Year by The NFL Draft Report after his senior season.

PERSONAL: Dubbed the "Hardest Hitter" in college by The Sporting News, becoming the first player to ever lead the conference in tackles three consecutive seasons and is one of four to accomplish that feat at Utah State. One of 30 NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) student-athletes selected as a candidate for the 2011 Lowe's Award for excellence both on and off the field. Attended Colony High School where he lettered as a tight end and linebacker, guiding the team in each of his final two seasons to consecutive 12-2 finishes, capturing the CIF division title. Named to the All-CIF Central Division squad as a senior and picked up All-State California Division II second-team honors, as he recorded 125 tackles (92 solo) and four sacks, while hauling in 37 receptions for 595 yards and 11 touchdowns. A business entrepreneurship major at Utah State. Active in the community. Son of Bobby and the late Phenia Wagner. Born on June 27, 1990 in Los Angeles.

HOW ACQUIRED: Drafted with the 12th pick in the third round (75th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. The first quarterback drafted under Head Coach Pete Carroll and General Manager John Schneider and the highest quarterback selected by the club since Brock Huard was taken with the 77th overall pick in 1999.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Became the third youngest quarterback in NFL history to win the Super Bowl, leading the team to a 43-8 win over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XLVIII, completing 18 of 25 (72.0%) passes for 206 yards, two TDs and a 123.1 passer rating.
- Started all 16 games in his second season, completing 257 of 407 passes (63.1%) with career highs in yards (3,357) and passer rating

(101.2), tying a career high with 26 touchdowns, and a career-low nine interceptions. Added one rushing touchdown while setting career-highs with 96 rushes for 539 yards.

- Tied Peyton Manning's 1998 record for most TD passes by a rookie (26). Became the first rookie in NFL history to lead his team to an undefeated home record. Set a club record with a 100.0 passer rating - second-best ever by a rookie and 64.1 completion percentage was third all time.
- Set an all-time NFL record for a rookie at Miami with 16 consecutive completions. That game also marked his third-consecutive game with a 125.0 or better passer rating, also a record for a rookie. Became the first player in NFL history to record three rushing TDs and pass for a TD in the first half of a game (at Buffalo 12/16). Set franchise record for most rushing yards in a season by a QB (489), most rushing yards in a game (92) and most rushing TDs in a game (3) by a QB at Buffalo.
- Started all 16 games as a rookie, completing 252 of 393 passes (64.1%) for 3,118 yards and 26 TDs and a 100.0 passer rating. Also ran 94 times for 489 yards with 4 TDs.

HONORS: 2013, NFC Pro Bowl; NFC Offensive Player of the Week vs. Saints (12/2/13); 2012, NFC Pro Bowl; Pepsi Max NFL Rookie of the Year; Sports Illustrated Offensive Rookie of the Year.

COLLEGE: Wilson started 50 consecutive games, throwing 379 consecutive passes without an interception to establish an NCAA Football Bowl Sub-division record. Completed 907 of 1,489 passes (60.9%) for 11,720 yards, 109 touchdowns and 29 interceptions. Rushed 441 times for 1,421 yards (3.2 avg.) and 23 touchdowns, becoming the fifth player in the NCAA FBS ranks to rush for over 1,000 yards and throw for over 5,000 yards in a career. During his 36-game career at North Carolina State, Wilson connected on 682 of 1,180 passes (57.8%) for 8,545 yards, 76 touchdowns and 25 interceptions, as he piled up 9,628 yards in total offense and was responsible for 93 touchdowns, in addition to rushing 362 times for 1,083 yards (2.9 avg.) and 17 scores. Finished his Wolfpack career ranking second in school annals for pass attempts and touchdown passes, and third for pass completions, pass completion percentage and yards in total offense. His eight 300-yard passing games in 2010 rank second on the NC State season-record chart, while his total of 12 300-yard efforts for the Wolfpack rank second on the career list. Set NC State season-records with 308 pass completions in 2009, ranking second with 527 pass attempts, 3,563 yards passing and 3,998 yards in total offense in 2010, along with 31 touchdown tosses in 2009. His 28 touchdown throws in 2010 rank third and his 3,287 yards in total offense in 2009 rank fourth on the State annual record chart. His five touchdown passes vs. Florida State in 2009 tied the Wolfpack single-game record. In just one season at Wisconsin, Wilson connected on 225 of 309 passes (72.8%) for 3,175 yards, 33 touchdowns and only four interceptions, adding 79 carries for 338 yards (4.2 avg.) and six scores, compiling an NCAA record 191.7 pass efficiency rating and gaining 3,513 yards in total offense, along with being responsible for 39 touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Attended Collegiate High in Richmond, playing football and baseball. Earned all-state, all-region and all-district honors, in addition to being named the 2005 Richmond Times-Dispatch Player of the Year as a junior. That season, Wilson threw for 3,287 yards and 40 touchdowns while rushing for another 634 yards and 15 scores. The Cougars won the state title, as the team compiled a perfect 11-0 record. In 2006, was featured in Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd" for his state title game performance after completing 21-37 passes for 291 yards and two touchdowns while rushing 30 times for 223 yards and three more scores in a 38-17 win. Passed for 3,009 yards, 34 touchdowns and just seven interceptions as a senior. Also rushed for 1,132 yards, adding 18 more scores while again earning all-state, all-conference and conference player of the year accolades. On the baseball diamond, the shortstop batted .467 as a senior, enticing the Colorado Rockies to begin following him to North Carolina State and drafting him in the fourth round of the 2010 major league baseball draft. Communications major. His father, the late Harrison Wilson, III, played football and baseball at Dartmouth and was on the San Diego Chargers preseason squad. His older brother, Harrison, IV, played football and baseball at Richmond.

HOW ACQUIRED: Selected with the second pick in the 4th round (99th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Moved to weakside linebacker and started 13 of 13 games played, missing the last three games with a broken foot suffered at San Francisco (12/8). Missed the Divisional Playoff Game vs. New Orleans but returned to play in both the NFC Championship and Super Bowl XLVIII.

- Despite missing three games, ranked fourth on team with 80 tackles (46 solo) in the regular season. Also recorded 1.5 sacks, four passes defended and a fumble recovery.

- Played in two postseason games, starting Super Bowl XLVIII. Recorded 8 tackles (5 solo) in the postseason with seven tackles (5 solo) coming in SBXLVIII.
- Started all 15 games played in his second season, sitting vs. NYJ (11/11) after sustaining a concussion the week prior (vs. Minn, 11/4). Also started both playoff games.
- Ranked second on the team with 96 tackles (66 solo) in 2012 and also recorded a sack, an interception and a forced fumble.
- His emergence during rookie season led to team trading Aaron Curry to Oakland on October 13, 2011.
- Started 12 of 16 games played and recorded 61 tackles (46 solo) and 2.0 sacks in 2011. Posted a career-high eight tackles in back-to-back games (vs. St. Louis, 12/12/11 and at Chicago, 12/18/11).

COLLEGE: Started 35 of 47 games at Mississippi State (22 at strong-side outside linebacker and 13 at weak-side linebacker). Finished career with 259 tackles (131 solo), including nine sacks for minus 60 yards, 23.5 stops for loss totaling 104 yards and 11 quarterback pressures. Forced and recovered three fumbles and had 14 passes defended.

PERSONAL: Attended Olive Branch (Miss.) High School. Regarded as the nation's 45th best strong-side outside linebacker. Selected to play in the Mississippi/Alabama All-Star Classic.

Named first-team, all-state on the defensive line by the Clarion-Ledger in all classifications following his senior season. HOW ACQUIRED: Selected with the 13th pick in the second round (45th overall) in the 2014 NFL Draft. Third highest receiver chosen in club history. Sixth player drafted out of Colorado in club history (Last: D.J. Hackett, 2004).

COLLEGE: Emerged as the school's third-best all-time receiver with 156 catches, ranking fifth with 2,412 receiving yards and second with 21 touchdown grabs. He established a school record with three 200-yard receiving performances and his nine 100-yard aerial efforts rank third in school annals. On the way to setting or tying 44 school marks, he recorded 13 receptions for 50-yards or longer. His 21 touchdown receptions rank second in school history and included 11 that went past the 50-yard distance and totaled 841 yards, an average gain of 40.05 yards per scoring grab. Appeared in 33 games, started 25 contests for Colorado.

RS Junior: In 2013, he captured All-American and All-Pac 12 Conference honors, along with being named the Zack Jordan Award winner as the team's most valuable player during his junior season. Set school season records for receptions (83) and receiving yards (1,343). His 10 touchdowns were one shy of the mark in averaging 16.2 yards per catch (fifth-highest average at CU for a player with 50 or more receptions). He also recorded two 200-yard performances, leaving the team owning three of the five 200-yard receiving games ever produced by a Colorado player. Selected as one of six team captains for the season by his teammates. His 10 touchdowns averaged 16.2 yards per catch (fifth-highest average at CU for a player with 50 or more receptions).

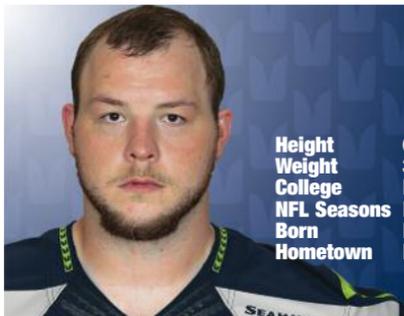

Sophomore: Earned honorable mention sophomore All-American honors from College Football News. Started all nine games he appeared in. Finished with 39 receptions for 555 yards (14.23 ypc) and five touchdowns. Finished third on the team in both receptions and yards, while being second in touchdown catches. Recorded six catches of 20 yards or longer, 20 of 10 or more, and earned 27 first downs. Earned Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week honors for his record-setting game vs. California, as he set a school mark for the most receiving yards in a game with 284 on 11 receptions, which tied CU's single-game mark. Two of the catches went for touchdowns, the pair covering 78 and 66 yards.

Freshman: Started nine of the 12 games he appeared in, recording 34 receptions for 514 yards (15.1 ypc) and six touchdowns. Against Texas Tech, caught four passes for 79 yards to become the first true freshman in CU history to have two touchdown receptions in the same game. Set school records for most catches (11) and yards (141) by a freshman, and tied the mark he set with two touchdowns vs. Kansas. The 11 receptions also tied the school's overall mark for catches in a game previously done by five different players. His six touchdown receptions on the season were a school record for the most by a true or redshirt freshman. His 514 receiving yards were the most by a freshman, and he was the first freshman to have two 100-yard receiving games.

PERSONAL: Transferred to Serra High School for his final prep season. Earned Prep Star and Super Prep All-American honors, the latter of which ranked him as the 26th-best receiver in the nation and 20th-best player in the Far West region. Caught 31 passes for 552 yards and seven touchdowns. Serra High claimed the state title in 2009 with a 15-0 record. Attended Los Alamitos High School until the end of his junior season. Recorded 79 receptions for 1,396 yards and 21 touchdowns in two seasons at Los Alamitos. His father, Paul Sr., played wide receiver at UCLA and was in camps in the National Football League with Philadelphia (played in one game with the Eagles in 1993), Oakland, Green Bay and the New York Jets. Majored in communication.

HOW ACQUIRED: Drafted with the 32nd pick in the second round (64th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft. Fourth tackle chosen in the second round in club history (Last: Todd Weiner, 1998). Highest player drafted out of Missouri and only the second player drafted out of Missouri in club history (Last: Tony Davis, 1985).

COLLEGE: Started 36 of the 49 games that he appeared in for Missouri, starting 30 of those contests at left tackle and six 2012 games on the right side. Credited with 35 touchdown-resulting blocks, adding 253 knockdowns as a starter.

RS Senior: The Associated Press All-Southeastern Conference first-team selection received second-team honors from the league's coaches. Started all 14 games at left tackle with career-bests of 14 touchdown-resulting blocks and 103 knockdowns, playing a major role in the rushing attack establishing a new school season-record with 3,330 yards, topping the old mark of 3,230 yards by the 1942 team. The Tigers' average of 237.86 yards per game on the ground was second-best in the SEC and ranked 16th in the nation. The passing game also improved with Britt around for the entire season, generating 3,540 of the team's total of 6,870 yards. Was named the SEC Lineman of the Week for his performance vs. Tennessee. The Tigers' 339-yard rushing total vs. the Vols marked the most rushing yards by a Mizzou team in a league game since putting 376 rushing yards up vs. Iowa State in 2003. Helped the offense tally at least 500 yards in six games, including 600-yard performances vs. both Murray State (694) and Indiana (623).

RS Junior: Started nine games for Missouri. Received the team's Underclassman Leadership Award, as he produced 68 knockdowns along with nine touchdown-resulting blocks while sandwiching three starting assignments at left tackle around six more starts at right tackle.

RS Sophomore: Started all 13 games at left tackle for the Tigers, delivering 72 knockdowns while posting nine touchdown-resulting blocks, as the front wall yielded only eighteen sacks. Helped an explosive offense generate 6,182 yards, ranking 12th in the nation with an average of 475.54 yards per game. The Tigers also led the Big 12 while finishing ninth in the nation with an average of 244.0 yards per game on the ground. The 3,172 yards gained by the ball carriers rank third on the school season-record list.

RS Freshman: An Academic All-Big 12 Conference second-team choice, Britt appeared in all 13 games to earn his first varsity letter. Performed at the key reserve at both offensive guard positions.

PERSONAL: Attended Lebanon (Mo.) High School. Played on both sides of the line of scrimmage during his prep career, concentrating at left tackle on offense. His senior campaign resulted in a regional championship and won a state playoff game for only the second time in school history. Earned first-team All-State, All-District and All-Conference honors as a senior. Allowed only one sack in 2008 in 434 pass attempts. Also excelled in wrestling and track at Lebanon High. Won the Class IV Missouri state heavyweight championship as a senior in 2009, going a perfect 45-0 on the schedule. Graduated from the University of Missouri's School of Education. Son of Kelly and Chris Britt. Married to Alicia with daughter Navy Noelle.

2013 SEASON

The Seattle Seahawks won their first road opener since 2006 behind a strong defensive effort and a game-winning touchdown drive in the fourth quarter by Russell Wilson and the Seahawks offense, beating the Carolina Panthers by a score of 12-7. The first five possessions of the game resulted in punts as both defenses held stout and didn't allow the offenses to get inside scoring position. Seattle's first score came in the second quarter on a 27-yard field goal by Steven Hauschka following a 15-play, 74 yard drive. Carolina responded with a scoring drive of its own, as QB Cam Newton capped the 80-yard drive with a three-yard TD pass to Steve Smith, taking the lead at 7-3. On Seattle's ensuing possession, after leading the team down to Carolina's 12-yard line, Russell Wilson was sacked by DE Charles Johnson, also causing a fumble that Johnson recovered for Carolina at its own 19-yard line with 40 seconds left in the first half. In the second half, Seattle added a second Hauschka field goal late in the third quarter to bring the score to 7-6. After forcing a Carolina punt, Seattle drove 74 yards and Wilson hit Jermaine Kearse on a 43-yard TD pass. Wilson's two-point conversion attempt fell incomplete, giving Seattle the 12-7 lead with just over 10 minutes remaining. Carolina responded by driving to Seattle's 24-yard line but Earl Thomas punched the ball out of DeAngelo Williams' grip on a 16-yard run and Tony McDaniel recovered for Seattle at the 8-yard line. With 5:25 left, Seattle gained four first downs and ran the clock out, preserving the 12-7 victory. Wilson completed 25 of 33 passes for 320 yards and one TD – his first-career regular season 300-yard game.

The Seahawks defense held the 49ers offense to 207 total yards and forced five turnovers as Seattle beat San Francisco by a score of 29-3 on Sunday Night Football at CenturyLink Field in front of a stadium record crowd of 68,338 in a game which saw a one-hour weather delay towards the end of the first quarter as lightning storms moved across the city of Seattle. Early in the first quarter, Craig Dahl blocked a Jon Ryan punt which Seattle recovered but gave the 49ers first down on Seattle's 33-yard line. Colin Kaepernick led the 49ers offense down to the 5-yard line but Walter Thurmond deflected the third down pass and Earl Thomas came up with the interception. Early in the second quarter, facing second-and-12 from their own 4-yard line, a holding penalty on Bruce Miller in the end zone gave Seattle a safety and the 2-0 lead. After Cliff Avril recorded a sack-fumble recovered by K.J. Wright on San Francisco's 29, Seattle added a Steven Hauschka field goal for a 5-0 lead which held through halftime. Seattle's first drive of the second half went 80 yards with Marshawn Lynch scoring on a 14-yard run, giving Seattle the 12-0 lead. After the 49ers responded with a field goal drive, Russell Wilson led another 80-yard drive, beating a blitz and passing to an uncovered Lynch for a 7-yard score, bringing Seattle's lead to 19-3. Richard Sherman intercepted Kaepernick on the following drive, setting up Hauschka's second field goal. Two drives later, Kam Chancellor intercepted Kaepernick and returned it to the S.F. 2-yard line, which set up Lynch's third score of the night (second rushing) on the following play, giving Seattle the 29-3 lead. Seattle's kick coverage team forced a fumble on the ensuing kickoff which Byron Maxwell recovered and Seattle's offense ran out the remaining time.

The Seattle Seahawks beat the visiting Jacksonville Jaguars by a score of 45-17, improving to 3-0 to start the season, tying the best start in franchise history (1986, 1998, 2003, 2004, 2006). Zach Miller caught two touchdown passes from Russell Wilson to put the Seahawks up 14-0 early in the second quarter. Seattle added three points when Steven Hauschka connected on a 21-yard field goal. Just before halftime, Seattle's defense forced a turnover as Jacksonville was driving toward the red zone. Bobby Wagner made a diving catch of a Chad Henne tipped pass, giving Seattle the ball on the 21-yard line with 0:44 remaining in the half. Wilson completed five passes in 34 seconds, taking the Seahawks 79 yards and capping it with an 11-yard TD strike to Sidney Rice in the back of the end zone for the 24-0 halftime lead. Rice added a second TD catch on Seattle's first drive of the second half on a 23-yard pass from Wilson where he jumped in front of two Jaguars defenders in the end zone to give Seattle the 31-0 lead. The Jaguars scored after LB Paul Posluszny intercepted a deflected Wilson pass at Seattle's 12-yard line and returned it to the 2-yard line, setting up a 2-yard TD run by Maurice Jones-Drew, bringing the score to 31-7. Tarvaris Jackson replaced Wilson at QB later in the third and led a five-play, 58-yard drive, hitting Doug Baldwin on a diving 35-yard TD pass on the sideline to give Seattle the 38-7 lead. Jacksonville responded with a Josh Scobee field goal and a 3-yard fourth-quarter TD run by Jordan Todman, bringing the score to 38-17. Seattle responded with a final touchdown - a 5-yard TD run by Jackson - for the 45-17 lead. Kam Chancellor recorded an interception in his second consecutive game, returning the ball to Seattle and sealing the game. Seattle's defense held the Jaguars to 51 yards rushing and 265 total yards.

The Seattle Seahawks improved to 4-0 for the first time in franchise history, winning in overtime on a Steven Hauschka field goal to beat the Houston Texans, 23-20. In the first quarter, Seattle scored first with a 48-yard Hauschka field goal to go up, 3-0. Houston scored two touchdowns in the second quarter when Matt Schaub hit Garrett Graham and Arian Foster on 31- and 5-yard touchdown passes, respectively, and added a Randy Bullock 22-yard field goal after Brian Cushing caused and recovered a Marshawn Lynch fumble on Seattle's 19-yard line, bringing the score to 17-3. Houston. Bullock converted on a 42-yard field goal with :01 left in the half, and a 17-point halftime lead for the Texans, 20-3. Houston's defense held Seattle to four first downs in the first half and 88 total yards and 24 yards passing. Late in the third quarter, Malcolm Smith forced a Ben Tate fumble which Bobby Wagner recovered for Seattle, setting up Hauschka's second field goal of the game and the Seahawks scored their first TD of the game on a 3-yard run by Lynch, after a 14-play, 98-yard drive on their next possession, pulling to within seven points and a score of 20-13. After Russell Wilson was intercepted by Johnathan Joseph, the Texans were looking to run off some clock with 5 minutes left when Richard Sherman jumped a Schaub pass intended for Owen Daniels, intercepting it and returning it 58 yards for a touchdown, tying the game at 20-20 with 2:40 remaining. Seattle's defense held and forced overtime, and forced punts on both Houston possessions during overtime. Seattle's offense worked its way 42 yards on its second possession, reaching Hauschka's field goal range and setting up the 45-yard game-winning kick with 3:23 left in overtime, giving Seattle the 23-20 victory.

The Seattle Seahawks were unable to put together a touchdown drive with 1:55 remaining in the game and the Indianapolis Colts held on to a 34-28 victory in Indianapolis. The Seahawks offense jumped out to a 10-0 lead after a Steven Hauschka field goal and a Russell Wilson-to-Golden Tate 10-yard TD pass. Seattle's defense forced three straight three-and-outs to start the game and Jermaine Kearse blocked a punt and the ball went through the back of the end zone for a safety, giving Seattle the 12-0 lead. Andrew Luck hit T.Y. Hilton on the Colts' following possession on a 73-yard TD pass and the Colts special teams blocked a Hauschka field goal attempt and Delano Howell returned it 61 yards for a TD, giving the Colts the 14-12 lead. Wilson connected with Kearse on a 28-yard TD and Adam Vinatieri added a 41-yard field goal for the Colts, and the Seahawks held a 19-17 lead at the half. Two third quarter field goals by Hauschka gave Seattle a 25-17 lead. The Colts pulled back to within two points after Luck found Hilton for a second time on a 29-yard TD pass, with the two-point attempt failing. Seattle added a 46-yard Hauschka field goal for a five-point lead, 28-23. But Indianapolis drove 86 yards and Donald Brown scored on a 3-yard run, with Luck connecting with Reggie Wayne for the 2-point conversion to give Indianapolis the 31-28 lead with 8:55 remaining. Forcing a Seahawks punt, the Colts then added a Vinatieri field goal with 1:55 remaining and a 34-28 lead. Wilson was intercepted on fourth down by Donald Butler, returning the ball to the Colts to run the clock out and seal the 34-28 victory.

The Seattle Seahawks held the Tennessee Titans offense to 223 total yards and overcame a seven-point first-half deficit to win 20-13 at CenturyLink Field to advance to 5-1 for the second time in franchise history (2003). The Titans opened scoring on their second possession when Rob Bironas connected on a 38-yard field goal. Seattle scored in the second quarter on a 74-yard drive capped off by a Marshawn Lynch 1-yard TD run, giving Seattle the 7-3 lead. On the ensuing kickoff, kicker Steven Hauschka had to leave the game to be tested for a possible concussion after a collision on the play. Seattle got the ball back and drove down to the Tennessee 4-yard line with 0:02 remaining in the half and sent in the field goal unit, with punter Jon Ryan filling in for Hauschka at kicker, and safety Chris Maragos filling in for Ryan at holder. After muffing the snap, Maragos tried to run but fumbled at the 16-yard line, which was recovered by Jason McCourty and returned 77 yards for a TD, giving Tennessee the halftime lead of 10-3. Hauschka returned in the second half and hit two field goals and Lynch added a 3-yard run in the fourth quarter, giving Seattle the 10-point lead at 20-10 with 7:33 remaining. A Bironas field goal brought the Titans to within 7 points with 2:18 left in the game but a 40-yard kick return by Jermaine Kearse and three Lynch rushes for 18 yards put Seattle in position to take a knee and run the clock, sealing the 20-10 victory.

The Seattle Seahawks improved to 6-1 for the first time in franchise history after defeating the Arizona Cardinals in Arizona on Thursday Night Football by a score of 34-22. Seattle jumped out to a 14-0 lead after Russell Wilson found Sidney Rice in the first quarter on a 31-yard TD pass and Zach Miller on a 15-yard TD early in the second quarter. Jay Feely connected on a 49-yard field goal for Arizona and Rashard Mendenhall scored on a three-yard run after Wilson was sacked at Seattle's six-yard line by Matt Shaughnessy, causing a fumble which Calais Campbell recovered for Arizona at the three-yard line. Seattle added a Steven Hauschka 51-yard field goal just before the half for a 17-10 halftime lead. Feely made his second field goal of the night early in the third to bring the score to 17-13, but the Seahawks responded with an 80-yard drive and Wilson hit TE Kellen Davis in the back of the end zone for a one-yard TD, giving Seattle the 24-13 lead. Brandon Browner intercepted Carson Palmer on the following possession and returned it to the Arizona one-yard line, where two plays later Marshawn Lynch powered his way into the end zone for a 31-13 Seattle lead. Arizona added a 22-yard Feely field goal after John Abraham sacked Wilson at Seattle's 15-yard line, also causing a fumble which Shaughnessy recovered. Hauschka connected on his second field goal of the night, bringing the score to 34-16 and Arizona made a TD drive late while the Seahawks defense had switched to prevent mode, for a final score of 34-22. Seattle's defense recorded seven sacks and held Arizona to 30 yards rushing and 234 total yards on the day.

The Seattle Seahawks defense held strong on their own goal line and prevented a St. Louis score after the Rams drove 96 yards and were held out of the end zone on five plays inside the 6-yard line, as the Seahawks preserved the 14-9 victory in St. Louis. The Rams outgained Seattle by a total of 339 to 135 yards, and rushed for 200 while Seattle only managed 44 on the ground. Russell Wilson was held to 139 yards passing and was sacked seven times with three each for defensive ends Robert Quinn and Chris Long. But, Seattle did not turn the ball over while intercepting Rams' QB Kellen Clemens twice, as Bruce Irvin notched the first of his career and Richard Sherman grabbed one to tie for the league lead with four on the season. The Rams jumped to a 3-0 lead on their second possession with a Greg Zuerlein field goal from 33 yards. Seattle took the lead after Sherman returned his second-quarter interception to the Rams' 26-yard line, leading to Russell Wilson connecting with Golden Tate on a 2-yard TD pass for a 7-3 lead. The Rams added another Zuerlein field goal in the third quarter to pull within one point, 7-6. Seattle responded on the next drive as Wilson again hit Tate, this time on an 80-yard catch and run for the TD, giving Seattle the 14-6 lead. Zuerlein connected on his third field goal on the Rams' ensuing possession to bring the score to 14-9. However, Zuerlein missed a 50-yard attempt later in the quarter setting up the Rams' final drive, down five with 5:45 remaining, starting from their own 3-yard line. Clemens led the team down inside Seattle's 10-yard line, but hard-nosed run stops by Earl Thomas and Heath Farwell and solid coverage by Sherman and Brandon Browner led to Clemens fourth-down attempt falling incomplete with no time left, and Seattle securing the 14-9 victory and advancing to 7-1 for the first time in franchise history.

The Seattle Seahawks engineered the largest comeback in franchise history, coming back from a 21-point deficit to beat the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in overtime by a score of 27-24. Tampa Bay scored 21-straight points to begin the second quarter on touchdown passes from Mike Glennon to Tim Wright and Tiquan Underwood, and a goal-line jump pass from RB Mike James to Tom Crabtree to put the Bucs up 21-0. Seattle engineered an 80-yard drive in 36 seconds on their final possession of the first half as Russell Wilson hit Jermaine Kearse on a 16-yard TD to bring the score to 21-7. The Bucs opened the second half with a 33-yard Rian Lindell field goal to push their lead to 24-7. The Seahawks responded with an 86-yard drive and Wilson rushing for a 10-yard TD to bring the score to 24-14. Seattle's defense forced a punt which Golden Tate returned 71 yards, setting up a Steven Hauschka field goal to make it a one score game at 24-17 with 14:47 left in the fourth quarter. Seattle looked to be in position to score with a first down at the Buccaneers' 3-yard line but Wilson was intercepted by Keith Tandy in the end zone on a pass intended for Doug Baldwin. The Seahawks defense forced another Tampa Bay punt — one of five on Tampa Bay's last five possessions of the game — giving Seattle the ball at its own 41-yard line with 6:13 remaining. Wilson led the offense down the field, hitting Doug Baldwin on a 10-yard TD pass, tying the game at 24-24 with 1:51 remaining. Seattle's defense held, forcing overtime. Tampa Bay won the toss elected to receive, but Seattle's defense forced a quick punt on a three-and-out, giving Seattle the ball at its own 40-yard line. Seattle then drove down to the Bucs' 6-yard line on runs of 10, 14, and 13 yards by Marshawn Lynch, setting up the 27-yard game-winning field goal by Hauschka, giving Seattle the 27-24 victory.

The Seattle Seahawks outgained the Atlanta Falcons 490 to 226 yards and controlled the game in every phase on the way to a 33-10 victory on the road and improving to 9-1 on the season. Steven Hauschka made two field goals early for Seattle before Matt Bryant added a field goal for the Falcons, bringing the score to 6-3, Seattle. The Seahawks found the end zone in the second quarter when Marshawn Lynch took a pitch to the right, but turned and threw it back to Wilson who hit Jermaine Kearse downfield for the 43-yard score, giving Seattle the 13-3 lead. Hauschka added a third field goal and Seattle got the ball back with 1:03 left in the first half and drove 60 yards with Wilson hitting Golden Tate in the corner of the end zone to give Seattle the 23-3 lead at the half. The Seahawks received to start the second half and set up a season-long, 53-yard field goal by Hauschka, who went 4-4 on the day on field goal tries, improving Seattle's lead to 26-3. Atlanta responded with a touchdown drive of its own, as Matt Ryan found Darius Johnson for a 12-yard score, pulling to within two scores at 26-10. Seattle then drove 80 yards on 12 plays, taking up 7:14 as Lynch ran for 46 yards and finished the drive off with a 1-yard touchdown run, giving Seattle the 33-10 lead which held as the final score. Lynch ran for a season-high 145 yards on the day, and Wilson threw for 287 yards, two touchdowns and a 134.6 passer rating.

The Seattle Seahawks improved to 10-1 on the season, beating the Minnesota Vikings by a score of 41-20 while winning the turnover battle, 4-0. The teams traded blows early, as Steven Hauschka hit a 50-yard field goal for Seattle and Minnesota responded with a Blair Walsh 32-yarder. Seattle took a 10-3 lead when Marshawn Lynch found the end zone from four yards out. The Vikings again tied the score as Christian Ponder hit Jarius Wright for a 38-yard touchdown. Seattle responded by driving 79 yards as Lynch capped the drive with a one-yard score, giving Seattle the 17-10 lead. Minnesota added a second Walsh field goal with 48 seconds remaining in the first half. Percy Harvin, filling in as kick returner for a concussed Jermaine Kearse, returned the ensuing kickoff 58 yards to the Minnesota 46-yard line, setting Seattle up for a quick drive where Russell Wilson hit Doug Baldwin on a 19-yard TD, giving Seattle the 24-13 lead at halftime. Seattle's defense stepped up in the second half, as Bobby Wagner and Walter Thurmond intercepted Ponder, with Wagner's setting up a Wilson to Lynch 6-yard TD pass and Thurmond returned his interception 29 yards for a touchdown, advancing Seattle's lead to 38-13. Matt Cassel replaced Ponder at QB and was intercepted by Clinton McDonald after Chris Clemons tipped the ball at the line of scrimmage, setting up a 26-yard field goal by Hauschka to put Seattle up, 41-13. Minnesota added a late TD drive as Cassel found Wright for a 21-yard TD pass, for a final score of 41-20. Wilson completed 13 of 18 passes for 230 yards and two TDs for a 151.4 passer rating, the second highest by a starter in franchise history.

The Seattle Seahawks held the New Orleans Saints to 188 total yards, their lowest total since the 2001 season, and the Seahawks offense gained 429 yards, culminating in a Seattle victory by a score of 34-7. Seattle jumped to an early lead on its first drive as Steven Hauschka connected on a 26-yard field goal. The Seahawks defense scored on the Saints ensuing possession as Cliff Avril sacked Drew Brees and forced a fumble which Michael Bennett caught out of the air and ran back 22 yards for a touchdown, giving Seattle the 10-0 lead. After the defense forced a third Saints three-and-out on as many possessions, Seattle's offense drove 73 yards as Russell Wilson hit Zach Miller on a 60-yard pass to the two-yard line and then the two connected on a two-yard TD pass for the 17-0 lead. The Saints responded by driving 80 yards on 13 plays and scoring on a two-yard pass from Brees to Jimmy Graham, bringing the score to 17-7. Seattle added a Hauschka field goal and the defense forced another Saints three-and-out, giving the Seahawks the ball back with 2:05 in the half. Wilson drove Seattle 88 yards on 12 plays and connected with Doug Baldwin on a four-yard TD to give Seattle the 27-7 halftime lead. Seattle added a second half touchdown when Wilson's pass to Kellen Davis caromed off his hands and Derrick Coleman caught it on the sideline and lunged into the end zone for the 8-yard score, giving the Seahawks the 34-7 lead which would hold. Seattle's defense never allowed Brees and the Saints offense to get going, holding Brees to 147 yards on 38 attempts. Wilson completed 22 of 30 passes for 310 yards and 3 TDs for a 139.6 passer rating (2nd highest in his career).

The Seattle Seahawks were unable to clinch the NFC West title in a close game with the San Francisco 49ers, as the 49ers offense drove into field goal range while running off most of the clock and kicked a field goal with 26 seconds remaining for the 19-17 victory over the Seahawks. The 49ers jumped out to a 6-0 first quarter lead after Phil Dawson connected on 23- and 48-yard field goals. Seattle responded in the second quarter, driving 80 yards in eight plays and Marshawn Lynch found the end zone on an 11-yard run, giving Seattle the 7-6 lead. San Francisco regained the lead with another Dawson field goal, this time from 52 yards. The Seahawks answered with a 72-yard drive capped by a 39-yard TD pass from Russell Wilson to Luke Willson, giving Seattle the 14-9 lead with 3:47 remaining. The 49ers scored with 6 seconds remaining in the half as Colin Kaepernick hit Vernon Davis on an 8-yard TD pass, after a 72-yard drive, giving San Francisco the 16-14 halftime lead. Neither team scored in the third quarter as the Seahawks punted twice and the 49ers punted once and Kaepernick was intercepted by Byron Maxwell deep in Seahawks territory. Forcing another 49ers punt, Golden Tate returned the punt 38 yards to the SF 27-yard line, but Seattle's offense could not convert on third-and-eight from the 13 and settled for a Steven Hauschka field goal, putting the Seahawks up, 17-16, with 6:20 to play. Frank Gore ripped off a 51-yard run to the Seattle 18-yard line, and Kaepernick ran for eight yards on a third-and-seven, allowing the 49ers to run the clock down to 0:31 before Dawson hit his fourth field goal of the game, putting San Francisco ahead by two, 19-17, with 26 seconds remaining. Wilson's last ditch attempt was intercepted by Eric Wright.

The Seattle Seahawks posted their first shutout of the season and first shutout on the road since 2005 in routing the New York Giants by a score of 23-0 behind five defensive interceptions. The win advanced Seattle's 2013 road record to 6-2, best in franchise history. Seattle's defense was dominant, forcing six three-and-outs, eight punts, recording five interceptions and holding Eli Manning and the Giants offense to 181 total yards and just 25 yards rushing. Steven Hauschka put Seattle on the board on the Seahawks' second possession with a 49-yard field goal. Richard Sherman recorded two interceptions on the day, as his first interception set up a 62-yard scoring drive with Marshawn Lynch powering into the end zone on a two-yard run, pushing the Seahawks lead to 10-0 before Hauschka hit a 44-yard field goal with three seconds remaining in the first half, for a halftime score of 13-0. Hauschka added a 24-yard field goal early in the third quarter. Byron Maxwell also recorded two interceptions for Seattle, as his second interception on a short crossing route gave Seattle the ball at New York's 16-yard line, and Russell Wilson hit Doug Baldwin on a slant for a 12-yard touchdown on third-and-goal from the 12, giving Seattle the 23-0 lead with 12:13 remaining in the game. Manning and the Giants' offense put together a late drive, moving 62 yards to Seattle's 13-yard line with just over three minutes remaining, but Manning's pass into the end zone intended for Hakeem Nicks was tipped by Sherman and Earl Thomas snagged it for the interception, Manning's fifth on the day.

The Seattle Seahawks intercepted Carson Palmer four times but could not generate enough offense, punting a season-high nine times and losing to the Arizona Cardinals by a score of 17-10. The loss was Seattle's first at home since December 24, 2011 and snapped Seattle's franchise record 14-game home winning streak. Kam Chancellor ended Arizona's opening drive when he intercepted Palmer in the back of the end zone on third down from the five-yard line. Two drives later, Richard Sherman intercepted Palmer at Seattle's 21-yard line, setting up a 70 yard drive ending in a Steven Hauschka 27-yard field goal, putting Seattle up, 3-0. Arizona tied it up with a Jay Feely 39-yard field goal in the second quarter. Malcolm Smith intercepted a Chris Clemons-batted pass of Palmer's with 42 seconds in the first half, returning it to the three-yard line. Unable to move the ball, Seattle had to settle for a field goal but Hauschka's 24-yard attempt hit the left upright and was no good. The second half opened with seven punts traded before Jay Feely added his second field goal on the day, a 46-yarder for the 6-3 lead. A fumble on the ensuing kickoff put Arizona in scoring position but Cliff Avril hit Palmer on his pass attempt and Sherman recorded his second interception on the day, in the end zone for a touch-back. A Seahawks punt led to another Feely field goal after a 45-yard drive, giving Arizona the 9-3 lead. Seattle responded with a 61-yard TD drive, as Russell Wilson hit Zach Miller on an 11-yard pass with just over seven minutes remaining in the game. Arizona drove right back down the field, going 80 yards with Palmer hitting Michael Floyd on a 31-yard touchdown pass on third down, and converting the two-point conversion to go up 17-10 with 2:13 left in the game. Arizona closed the door on Seattle as Wilson's first down pass to Doug Baldwin on a corner route ricocheted off Baldwin's arm on the ground and was caught by Karlos Dansby, allowing Arizona's offense to kneel the ball and run out the remaining clock. The Cardinals held Seattle's offense to 192 total yards.

Behind a strong defensive effort, the Seattle Seahawks defeated the St. Louis Rams in the season finale by a score of 27-9, clinching the NFC West and locking up the No. 1 seed heading into the playoffs. Seattle's defense started fast, as Malcolm Smith intercepted a tipped Kellen Clemens pass on the Rams' first possession and returned it 37 yards for a touchdown and the 7-0 lead. Seattle added two Steven Hauschka field goals in the second quarter for a halftime score of 13-0. In the third quarter, Austin Pettis returned a Seattle punt 32 yards to Seattle's 31-yard line, setting up a 36-yard field goal by Greg Zuerlein. Seattle's offense responded with a 14-play, 80-yard drive, helped by an unnecessary roughness penalty, two unsportsmanlike conduct penalties and a disqualification of the Rams' Kendall Langford. The drive ended with Marshawn Lynch going untouched into the end zone from two yards out, advancing Seattle's lead to 20-3. Several drives later, Russell Wilson connected with Golden Tate on a 47-yard touchdown pass. Tate would set career highs with eight catches for 129 yards, and the one touchdown. St. Louis scored a late touchdown after a 71-yard drive as Clemens hit Jared Cook for a two-yard TD pass with 4:13 remaining, but would not convert the 2-point conversion for a final score of 27-9. Seattle's defense held St. Louis to a franchise record-tying 13 yards rushing on the day, and a net yardage total of just 158 yards.

The Seattle Seahawks fended off a late rally by Drew Brees and the New Orleans Saints and Marshawn Lynch set a postseason franchise record with 140 yards rushing and two TDs as the Seahawks defeated the Saints by a score of 23-15 and advanced to the NFC Championship. Playing in driving sheets of rain, Seattle jumped to a first quarter lead of 6-0 after two Steven Hauschka field goals, from 38 and 49 yards, respectively. Early in the second quarter, Michael Bennett hit Mark Ingram, causing a fumble which Bennett recovered for Seattle on the Saints' 24-yard line. Two plays later, Lynch rumbled 15 yards for a touchdown, putting Seattle up 13-0. Seattle's defense held Brees and the Saints offense to 113 yards in the first half, with Brees passing for just 34. With 1:13 left in the second quarter, Seattle added a Hauschka 26-yard field goal for a 16-0 lead at the half. The Saints scored in the fourth quarter when Khiry Robinson ran it in from one yard out, and Ingram converted the two-point try to cut Seattle's lead to 16-8. Seattle's offense had trouble moving the ball in the second half but Russell Wilson found Doug Baldwin on a 24-yard completion to convert on third down, and Lynch took a handoff around the edge and beat a defender to go 31 yards for the touchdown, putting Seattle up 23-8 with 2:40 remaining. Brees drove the Saints down and hit Marques Colston on a nine-yard TD with :26 left in the game and the Seahawks leading 23-15. The Saints recovered the onside kick attempt but Seattle's defense held, preserving the victory.

The Seattle Seahawks advanced to the Super Bowl for the second time in franchise history, besting the San Francisco 49ers by a score of 23-17. The 49ers grabbed the lead early with a Phil Dawson field goal after Russell Wilson was strip-sacked by Aldon Smith on the Seahawks first offensive play of the game. Two possessions later, Anthony Dixon plunged into the end zone from one-yard out, giving the 49ers the 10-0 lead. Seattle pulled to within one score after a Steven Hauschka 32-yard field goal in the second quarter. Marshawn Lynch then broke off a 40-yard touchdown run on the Seahawks first possession of the second half, evening the score at 10-10. The 49ers responded by driving 83 yards and Colin Kaepernick found Anquan Boldin on a 26-yard TD. Seattle added another Hauschka field goal to close the 49ers lead to 17-13. The Seahawks took their first lead of the game when Russell Wilson hit Jermaine Kearse on a 35-yard TD on fourth-and-seven, on a free play when a 49ers player was called offside, giving Seattle the 20-17 lead. Seattle added a 47-yard Hauschka field goal to go up by six with 3:37 remaining in the game. Kaepernick drove the 49ers offense down to the Seahawks 18-yard line. On first down, Kaepernick threw to Michael Crabtree on a fade to the right side where Richard Sherman tipped the ball and Malcolm Smith caught the interception, returning the ball to Seattle and securing the 23-17 victory.

The Seattle Seahawks scored touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams and added a safety and several field goals en route to a 43-8 win over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XLVIII, claiming the franchise's first Super Bowl victory. On the first play of the game, Broncos' QB Peyton Manning had the snap fly over his head as he tried to make an audible, and Cliff Avril tackled Knowshon Moreno in the end zone for a safety and the 2-0 lead. Seattle added two first quarter field goals by Steven Hauschka for an 8-0 lead at the end of the quarter. Marshawn Lynch scored from one yard out early in the second quarter and on the following series, Avril hit Manning as he threw, and Malcolm Smith intercepted the ball and returned it 69 yards for a touchdown, advancing Seattle's lead to 22-0 with 3:21 remaining in the half. The Broncos drove down to Seattle's 19-yard line with just over a minute remaining but Manning's fourth-and-two pass attempt to Demaryius Thomas fell short and incomplete. Coming out of the extended half-time, the Broncos kicked off short, hoping to prevent a long return by Percy Harvin, but Harvin took the kick on the bounce and returned it 88 yards for a touchdown, pushing Seattle's lead to 29-0. Later in the third quarter, Denver was driving as Manning hit Thomas on a deep crossing route but Byron Maxwell punched the ball out and Smith recovered for Seattle. Russell Wilson led the offense 58 yards on six plays, hitting Jermaine Kearse on a slant route, who spun off four defenders and into the end zone for the 36-0 Seattle lead. The Broncos scored their lone touchdown when Manning hit Thomas for a 14-yard TD on the final play of the third quarter, converting the two-point attempt and bringing the score to 36-8. Seattle recovered Denver's outside kick attempt, and Wilson went five for five for 58 yards, capping the drive with a 10-yard TD to Doug Baldwin, pushing to score to 43-8. Seattle's defense prevented any further scoring opportunities for Denver, holding the Broncos to 306 total yards on the day while forcing four turnovers.

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular-season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to 9. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1-8 based on their records during the season.

FRANCHISE HISTORY

1972 — 6/15 Seattle Professional Football, a group of business and community leaders, announces their intention to attempt to secure a National Football League franchise for the City of Seattle. Herman Sarkowsky serves as spokesman for the group. 11/2 Construction begins on The Kingdome.

1974 — 6/4 The National Football League announces that Seattle will have a franchise for the 1976 season. 12/5 The National Football League announces that it has voted membership to Seattle Professional Football, Inc., headed by Lloyd W. Nordstrom with partners Herman Sarkowsky, D.E. “Ned” Skinner, Howard S. Wright, M. Lamont Bean, and Lynn P. Himmelman.

1975 — 3/6 John Thompson, Executive Director of the NFL Management Council, named General Manager. 6/17 Nickname “Seahawks” selected from 20,365 entries and 1,741 different names. One hundred fifty-one suggest “Seahawks.” 7/25 Season ticket applications mailed. 7/28 Season ticket applications accepted — 24,168 received the first day. 8/23 Season ticket sales closed after target of 59,000 reached. 12/18 Seahawks agree to a 20-year lease agreement to play all games in the Kingdome.

1976 — 1/3 Jack Patera, defensive line coach of the Minnesota Vikings, named head coach. 1/20 Lloyd W. Nordstrom, spokesman for the Nordstrom family, the Seahawks’ majority owner, dies of a heart attack while vacationing in Mexico. 3/30 Veteran Allocation held in New York City. Seahawks select 39 NFL veterans. 4/8-9 Seahawks select 25 collegians in their first college draft. Notre Dame’s Steve Niehaus is the first choice and he flies to Seattle for evening news conference on April 8. 7/9 Seahawks open training camp at Eastern Washington University in Cheney. 8/1 Seahawks play first game before 60,825 fans in the Kingdome. San Francisco holds on to defeat Seattle, 27-20, as Jim Zorn is tackled on the 49ers’ two-yard line when the gun sounds. 8/29 Seahawks capture first victory, a 17-16 preseason win over San Diego, as Ron Howard catches a three-yard Jim Zorn pass for the winning touchdown with only 13 seconds remaining in the contest. 9/12 Seattle opens regular season play with a near miss against St. Louis, 30-24. The game ends with the Cardinals intercepting a pass in the end zone. 10/17 Seahawks win Expansion Bowl with 13-10 victory over host Tampa Bay. Linebacker Mike Curtis blocks a Tampa Bay field goal attempt with 42 seconds remaining to preserve the victory. 11/7 Seahawks capture their first regular season victory at home with a 30-13 win over Atlanta. Sherman Smith becomes the first Seattle back to rush for over 100 yards with 124 yards on 14 carries.

1977 — 1/17 Seahawks host the Pro Bowl and it is the first sellout in the 27-year history of the game and is the largest crowd under the AFC vs. NFC format. AFC scores a 24-14 win before 63,214 fans. 5/3 Seattle trades its first-round draft choice, the second player in the draft, to Dallas for the Cowboys’ first-round selection and three second-round picks. The Seahawks select Steve August, offensive guard from Tulsa, in the first round. 10/30 After missing four games with an injury, Jim Zorn returns to lead Seattle to a 56-17 triumph over Buffalo. The Seahawks set 15 club records and equal six, including Zorn's four TD passes. 11/13 Seattle defense blanks the New York Jets, 17-0, in Shea Stadium, the first time an established team is shutout by a second-year team. 12/18 Seahawks win their fifth game of the year, a 20-19 decision over Cleveland before 61,583 fans in the Kingdome, to establish a record for most wins ever by a second-year expansion team.

1978 — 5/3 Keith Simpson, cornerback from Memphis State, is selected as Seattle's first-round draft choice followed by his college teammate Keith Butler, a linebacker, in the second round. 10/8 Efen Herrera kicks a 19-yard field goal on the final play of the game to give Seattle a 29-28 win over the Minnesota Vikings. 11/26 Seattle becomes the first team since 1965 to beat Oakland twice during the regular season with a 17-16 win on Efen Herrera's 46-yard field goal with just three seconds remaining. 12/17 Seahawks end their third season with a 9-7 record and finish one game behind Denver in the AFC West standings following a 23-19 win over Kansas City. Al Hunter rushes for 133 yards on 27 carries as Seahawks perform before sixth-straight home sellout crowd.

1979 — 1/29 Steve Largent catches a record-equaling five passes as Seattle's first representative to the Pro Bowl. National Football Conference defeats Largent and his AFC teammates, 13-7, in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. 5/3 Manu Tuiaasopu, defensive tackle from UCLA, becomes Seattle's first-round draft choice. 10/29 After trailing 14-0, the Seahawks rebound for a 31-28 win over Atlanta in Seattle's first appearance on ABC's Monday Night Football. Dan Doornink rushes for 122 yards on 21 carries and scores twice. 12/16 The Seahawks close out their second straight 9-7 season with a 29-24 win over Oakland. Sam McCullum sets a club record with 173 yards receiving on eight catches.

1980 — 4/29 Seattle trades its first-round draft choice (#16) and a third-round pick to Buffalo for the Bills' first-round choice, the tenth player in the draft. The Seahawks then select defensive end Jacob Green of Texas A&M in the first round. 9/28 Seahawks score second shutout in the club's history with a 14-0 win over Washington Redskins in Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium. 10/5 Sam McCullum catches two touchdown passes and Efen Herrera kicks four field goals in 26-7 win over Houston at the Astrodome. The win would prove to be Seattle's last of the season.

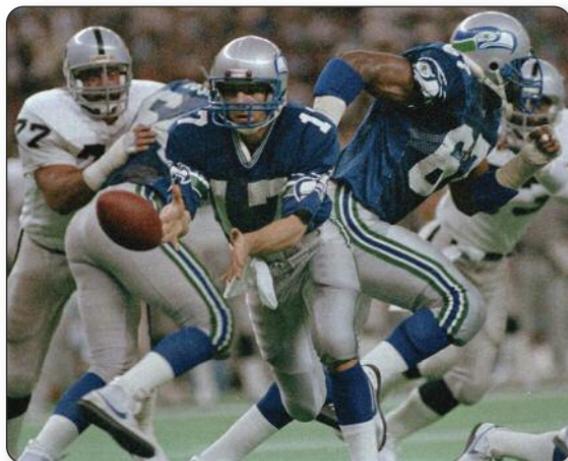

1981 — 4/28 Seahawks select UCLA safety Kenny Easley in the first round of the NFL draft. 11/8 Seattle holds the Pittsburgh Steelers scoreless in the second half and rallies for a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns to capture a 24-21 victory at the Kingdome. 11/16 The Seahawks score on their last eight possessions to defeat the San Diego Chargers, 44-23, on Monday Night Football. It is the Seahawks' first regular season victory over the Chargers after eight straight losses.

1982 — 3/11 Mike McCormack, former head coach with the Philadelphia Eagles and Baltimore Colts, is named Director of Football Operations. 4/27 Seahawks select Clemson defensive end Jeff Bryant in the first round of the college draft. 9/21 Players go on strike for 57 days. 10/13 Mike

McCormack named interim head coach after the firing of head coach Jack Patera and general manager John Thompson. 11/21 Seahawks capture 17-10 victory over the host Denver Broncos in Mike McCormack's first game as head coach following the players' strike. Steve Largent catches a 34-yard touchdown pass from Jim Zorn with 49 seconds left for the victory. 11/28 Seahawks shutout the Pittsburgh Steelers, 16-0, for the club's third shutout in history and first at the Kingdome.

1983 — 1/2 Seahawks conclude nine-game season with a 13-11 win over the Denver Broncos as Dave Krieg throws a 19-yard touchdown pass to Roger Carr with 47 seconds left. The Seahawks drive 87 yards in 10 plays with no timeouts to score the winning touchdown. Seattle finishes the season 4-5 but were 4-3 under Mike McCormack. 1/3 Mike McCormack named President and General Manager after previously serving as Director of Football Operations since March 11, 1982, and interim head coach since October 13, 1982. 1/26 Chuck Knox named head coach. Knox previously had served as head coach of the Los Angeles Rams (1973-77) and the Buffalo Bills (1978-82). He guided seven-of-his-ten teams to the playoffs, while winning six division championships. 3/15 Chuck Allen, who joined the Seahawks staff in June of 1975 as Director of Pro Scouting, named Assistant General Manager. 4/26 Seattle selects Penn State running back Curt Warner in the NFL Draft. Warner is the third player taken in the first round. To be able to get Warner, the Seahawks trade their first, second and third-round selections to the Houston Oilers for the Oilers first-round pick. 9/11 Seahawks win first game under Chuck Knox, 17-10, over the New York Jets, as the club sets a team record with 57 rushing attempts and Curt Warner gains 128 yards on 24 carries. 10/16 Seahawks force eight turnovers and register eight sacks in 38-36 victory over the Los Angeles Raiders. 10/30 Seahawks make it two straight over Raiders with 34-21 win. 12/18 Seahawks clinch first playoff berth with 24-6 win over New England. 12/24 Dave Krieg throws three touchdown passes and Curt Warner rushes for 99 yards in 31-7 win over Denver in the AFC Wild Card Game before 60,752 fans in Kingdome. 12/31 Seahawks drive 66 yards in five plays late in the fourth quarter to capture divisional playoff win over Miami, 27-20, before 71,032 fans at the Orange Bowl.

1984 — 1/8 Los Angeles Raiders defeat the Seahawks, 30-14, in the AFC Championship Game at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum before 88,734 fans. 5/1 Seahawks select cornerback Terry Taylor of Southern Illinois as their first-round choice in the annual NFL Draft. 9/3 Seahawks win regular season opener for the first time in franchise history, 33-0, over the Cleveland Browns. The enthusiasm is dampened by a knee injury to Curt Warner which will keep him out for the rest of the season. 10/29 Seahawks post their second shutout of the season with a 24-0 victory over the San Diego Chargers on Monday Night Football. Kenny Easley intercepts a club record three passes and Steve Largent catches three touchdown passes. 11/4 Seahawks set an NFL record by returning four interceptions for touchdowns, including two by Dave Brown, in a 45-0 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Kenny Easley and Keith Simpson had the other two interception returns for touchdowns. 11/25 Dave Krieg throws for 406 yards and three touchdowns, including an 80-yarder to Daryl Turner on the first play of the game, to lead the Seahawks past Denver, 27-24. Steve Largent catches 12 passes for 191 yards and one score. 12/2 Seahawks clinch playoff berth with a 38-17 win over Detroit as Dave Krieg throws a team record five touchdown passes. 12/15 Seahawks officially retire jersey #12 in honor of their fans, the 12th Man. Seattle becomes the first professional sports franchise to retire a jersey in honor of their fans. 12/22 Seattle eliminates the defending Super Bowl Champion Los Angeles Raiders, 13-7, from the playoffs in the AFC Wild Card Game at the Kingdome. Seahawks rush for 205 yards and force three turnovers, along with registering six sacks, in the victory. 12/29 Miami defeats the Seahawks, 31-10, in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game at the Orange Bowl.

1985 — 6/18 Seahawks and Northwest College agree to a long-term lease for a new practice and office complex for the club in Kirkland. The facility will be built on 12 acres adjacent to Northwest College. A 36,000-square foot building will house the club's administrative offices, locker room and training facilities. 7/20 Seahawks open their tenth and final training camp at Eastern Washington University in Cheney. 9/8 Curt Warner returns to the Seattle lineup after missing all but the 1984 opener as the Seahawks defeat Cincinnati, 28-24, at Riverfront Stadium. Warner gains 66 yards on 17 carries and scores the game-winning touchdown on an 11-yard run with 7:07 remaining. 9/15 Daryl Turner sets a club record with four touchdown catches and Dave Krieg equals another with five touchdown passes in Seattle's 49-35 victory over the San Diego Chargers at Jack Murphy Stadium. 10/13 Dave Krieg passes for 405 yards and four touchdowns, including a 12-yarder to Paul Skansi for the winning touchdown with 35 seconds remaining, as Seahawks defeat Atlanta, 30-26. Krieg directs the Seahawks 86 yards in 16 plays on the winning drive. 10/21 Ceremonial ground-breaking is held for team's new headquarters. 11/3 Terry Taylor returns an interception 75 yards for a touchdown and blocks a field goal attempt that is recovered by Byron Walker and returned 56 yards for a touchdown in Seattle's 33-3 win over the Los Angeles Raiders at the Kingdome.

1986 — 4/29 Seahawks select Florida fullback John L. Williams as their first-round draft choice. Williams is the 15th player picked overall. 6/18 Seahawks move into new headquarters on a 12-acre site adjacent to Northwest College in Kirkland. 7/16 Seahawks open their 11th training camp and first in Kirkland. 9/7 Seahawks kickoff their 1986 regular season schedule with a 30-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers at the Kingdome. 10/6 Seahawks defeat San Diego Chargers, 33-7, on Monday Night Football as Steve Largent breaks NFL record for most consecutive games with a pass reception. Largent catches a pass in the 128th straight game in which he participated. 10/19 Jacob Green registers four sacks and Dave Brown intercepts two passes in leading Seattle to a 17-12 win over the eventual Super Bowl champion New York Giants. 11/27 Seahawks defeat the Dallas Cowboys, 31-14, on Thanksgiving Day as Curt Warner runs for 122 yards and Dave Krieg completes 16-of-24 passes for 214 yards and two touchdowns. 12/8 Seattle hands the Los Angeles Raiders their biggest defeat since 1962, 37-0, as Curt Warner gains 116 yards and Dave Krieg passes for 243 yards and two touchdowns. Seattle gains 407 yards in total offense, while the defense holds the Raiders to 138 yards. 12/20 Seahawks close out five-game winning streak and a 10-6 season by defeating eventual AFC Champion Denver, 41-16. The Seahawks gain a season high 536 yards, including a club record 298 yards rushing, led by Curt Warner's 192 yards and three touchdowns on 24 carries.

1987 — 4/28 Seahawks select University of Pittsburgh linebacker Tony Woods in the first round of the NFL Draft. Woods is the 18th player picked. 6/12 Seahawks win lottery for first choice in supplemental draft and select University of Oklahoma linebacker Brian Bosworth. 9/13 After first two regular season games, NFL Players Association calls a strike that will last four weeks. Games for Sunday, September 18, are cancelled. 10/25 Seahawks defeat the Los Angeles Raiders, 35-13, in first game with regulars following the strike. Seattle builds up a 28-0 halftime lead and wins in Los Angeles for the first time since 1983. 12/13 Dave Krieg completes 23-of-33 passes for 238 yards and Ray Butler catches six passes for 107 yards and two touchdowns in leading Seattle past Denver, 28-21, at the Kingdome. 12/20 Seahawks clinch playoff berth with a 34-21 win over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field. John L. Williams sparks the offense with a 75-yard touchdown on a screen pass from Dave Krieg and the defense contributes five takeaways. 12/27 Steve Largent catches six passes in a 41-20 loss at Kansas City and becomes the NFL's all-time leading receiver with 751. Largent breaks the previous record of 750 by Charlie Joiner.

1988 — 1/3 Seahawks close out the 1987 season with a 23-20 overtime loss to the Houston Oilers at the Astrodome in the AFC First-Round Playoff Game. 4/24 Seahawks use their second-round choice in the draft to select University of Miami wide receiver Brian Blades. The Seahawks first-round pick had been exercised in the June 1987 supplemental draft. 8/30 Ken Behring and Ken Hofmann complete their purchase of the Seahawks from the Nordstrom family. 9/4 Seahawks open 13th season with a 21-14 win at Denver over the two-time defending AFC Champion Broncos. Curt Warner scores twice and John L. Williams accounts for 161 yards from scrimmage. It is Seattle's first win in Denver since 1984. 9/18 Steve Largent becomes the NFL's all-time leader in pass receiving yards with 12,167 at San Diego, but the Seahawks lose to the Chargers, 17-6. Largent breaks Charlie Joiner's record of 12,146 yards. 10/2 Rookie quarterback Kelly Stouffer makes his first NFL start for an injured Dave Krieg and leads the Seahawks to a 31-20 win over the Atlanta Falcons in Atlanta. John L. Williams ties a team record with three rushing touchdowns. 11/13 Seahawks defeat the Houston Oilers, 27-24, as Dave Krieg returns after missing seven games with a shoulder separation. Krieg engineers a 10-play drive to set up Norm Johnson's game-winning field goal with less than one second left. 11/28 Dave Krieg equals his own team record with five touchdown passes as Seahawks defeat the Los Angeles Raiders, 35-27, on Monday night in the Kingdome. Curt Warner (130) and John L. Williams (105) become the first pair of Seahawks to each gain over 100 yards rushing in the same game. 12/11 Seahawks score touchdowns on their first six possessions in a 42-17 win over Denver. Curt Warner establishes a team record with four rushing touchdowns. Warner (126) and John L. Williams (109) each top 100 yards rushing. 12/18 John L. Williams accounts for 239 yards of offense, including 180 receiving, and Dave Krieg throws for 410 yards and four scores, as the Seahawks defeat the Los Angeles Raiders, 43-37, in Los Angeles to clinch the first AFC Western Division title in franchise history. 12/31 Seahawks are eliminated from the playoffs by the eventual AFC Champion Cincinnati Bengals, 21-13, in Riverfront Stadium.

1989 — 2/22 Tom Flores named President/General Manager, replacing Mike McCormack. Flores guided the Los Angeles Raiders to an 83-53 regular season record and two Super Bowl titles in nine seasons, 1979-87, as their head coach. 4/23 Seahawks select Notre Dame tackle Andy Heck with the fifteenth pick of the first round of the draft. 9/10 Seahawks lose regular season opener in Philadelphia, 31-7, and also lose wide receiver Steve Largent for six weeks with a broken elbow. Largent, however, scores Seattle's only touchdown. 10/29 Dave Krieg and Brian Blades combine on a 21-yard touchdown pass with 40 seconds left in a 10-7 win over the San Diego Chargers. The win is the 100th in regular season play for the Seahawks. Blades catches a career high 10 passes for 117 yards. 11/26 Steve Largent ties Don Hutson's NFL record of 99 career receiving touchdowns in the Seahawks 41-14 loss at Denver. 12/4 Dave Krieg ignites a three-game winning streak with 298 yards passing and the game-winning touchdown pass in a 17-16 Monday night win over Buffalo. 12/10 Seahawks win 24-17 at Cincinnati as Dave Krieg throws three touchdown passes. One goes to Steve Largent, the NFL record 100th of his career. 12/17 John L. Williams catches a career high 12 passes for 129 yards as the Seahawks defeat the Los Angeles Raiders, 23-17. 12/23 Seahawks close out the season with a 29-0 loss to the Washington Redskins. In pregame ceremonies, retiring wide receiver Steve Largent is honored and his is the first name inducted in the Seahawks Ring of Honor.

1990 — 4/22 Seahawks trade four draft choices to the New England Patriots, including two first-round choices, to move up and select University of Miami defensive tackle Cortez Kennedy with the third overall choice. Seahawks also receive a second-round choice from the Patriots which they use to select Syracuse University linebacker Terry Wooden. 8/4 Seahawks play their first-ever international game as they drop a 10-7 preseason decision to the Denver Broncos in Tokyo, Japan. 10/1 Seahawks defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 31-16, for their first win after opening the season with three consecutive losses. Derrick Fenner scores three touchdowns for the second straight week. 11/11 Seahawks score their first win in Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium since 1980 as Dave Krieg throws a 25-yard touchdown pass to Paul Skansi as time expires. The PAT gives Seattle a 17-16 win and starts a four-game streak of games decided on the last play. The win is the 159th of Chuck Knox's career, moving him into seventh place all-time. 11/25 Norm Johnson's 40-yard field goal 3:01 into overtime gives the Seahawks a 13-10 win at San Diego. Seattle forces and recovers a pair of fumbles, the first with 48 seconds left in regulation and the second with 1:34 gone in overtime. 12/2 In almost a replay from the week before, Seattle defeats the Houston Oilers 13-10 in overtime after recovering a fumble. Norm Johnson connects from 42 yards out after David Wyman recovers a Tony Woods-forced fumble. Seahawks become only the third team in NFL history to win back-to-back overtime games. 12/9 The Seahawks defense sets single-game records for fewest rushing first downs (0) and rushing yards allowed (13) in a game in a 20-14 win over the Green Bay Packers in Milwaukee. 12/23 Seattle moves over the .500 mark with a 17-12 win over the Denver Broncos. The Broncos are penalized on the game's last play, negating what would have been a game-winning touchdown pass. 12/30 Derrick Fenner scores two touchdowns for the fourth time as Seattle defeats the Detroit Lions, 30-10, in the Kingdome, to finish at 9-7 after an 0-3 start. Fenner ends the season equalling team records for total touchdowns (15) and rushing touchdowns (14), totals that lead the AFC.

1991 — 4/21 Seahawks select San Diego State quarterback Dan McGwire with the 16th pick on the first round of the 1991 NFL Draft. The 6-8, 243-pound McGwire is the first quarterback ever selected in the first round by Seattle. 4/25 Head Coach Chuck Knox agrees to a two-year contract extension. 8/3 Quarterback Jim Zorn (1976-84) becomes the second person inducted into the Seahawks Ring of Honor. 9/1 Seahawks drop season opener, 27-24, at New Orleans and lose starting quarterback Dave Krieg for six weeks with a broken thumb in the process. Wide receiver Brian Blades sets career highs with 12 receptions, 160 yards, and two touchdowns. 9/8 Jeff Kemp makes his first start since September 25, 1988, and throws two touchdown passes in a 20-13 win over the New York Jets. One goes to Travis McNeal, the first of his career. 9/29 Chris Warren's 59-yard punt return touchdown, the first by a Seahawks player since 1986, sparks a 31-3 win over the visiting Indianapolis Colts. The defense limits the Colts to 137 yards and records five sacks. Rookie first-round draft choice Dan McGwire starts and plays the first half, engineering a 50-yard touchdown drive on his first possession. 10/6 The Seahawks defense stops the Cincinnati Bengals on a 4th-and-four inches short with 29 seconds left to preserve a 13-7 win at Riverfront Stadium. Dwayne Harper and Nesby Glasgow combine for the tackle, which comes at the Seattle 22. 10/20 Dave Krieg returns from missing six games on injured reserve to lead Seattle to a 27-7 win at Pittsburgh. Krieg throws for 266 yards, completing 25-of-31 passes, and two scores. 10/27 John Kasay equals an NFL record with two field goals of 50-or-more yards in a 20-9 win over the San Diego Chargers. Kasay connects from 54 and 51 yards. The 54-yarder equals the team record. 11/24 The defense forces four turnovers and has five sacks, three by Rufus Porter, in a 13-10 win over the eventual AFC West Champion Denver Broncos in the Kingdome. Additionally, the defense twice holds on downs inside Seahawks territory in the game's last 4:49. 12/22 Seattle finishes their 16th season with a 7-9 record after defeating the Los Angeles Rams, 23-9, in the Kingdome. It was the first win by the Seahawks over the Rams in five regular season games. James Jones rushes for a pair of scores, while the defense keeps their third 1991 opponent out of the end zone. 12/27 The Seahawks and Head Coach Chuck Knox agree to mutually end Knox's nine-year tenure as head coach. Knox leaves having compiled an 80-63-0 (55.9%) regular season record. He guided the Seahawks to four playoff appearances, including an AFC West title in 1988 and a berth in the AFC Championship Game in 1983.

1992 — 1/6 Seahawks President/General Manager Tom Flores is named President/Head Coach. Flores coached nine seasons, 1979-87, with the Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders and compiled an 83-53-0

(61.0%) regular season record. He led the Raiders to two Super Bowl Championships, XV and XVIII, the only Super Bowls won by the AFC in the decade of the 1980s. 1/8 Larry Kennan, Coach of the Year in the World League of American Football in 1991, is named Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks Coach. Kennan guided the London Monarchs to an 11-1 record and WFLA Championship in the league's first season. Kennan served as an NFL assistant with the Los Angeles Raiders (1982-87), Denver Broncos (1988) and Indianapolis Colts (1989-90). 1/9 Seahawks defensive assistants George Dyer (line), Rod Perry (secondary), and Joe Vitt (special assignments), along with John Becker (offensive coordinator/wide receivers) and Chick Harris (running backs) leave the Seahawks to join Chuck Knox with the Los Angeles Rams. 1/11 Seahawks Assistant Head Coach Tom Catlin announces he will stay with the Seahawks as assistant head coach/defense. In addition, Rusty Tillman is promoted from special teams coach to defensive coordinator, Russ Purnell from tight ends and assistant special teams to special teams and tight ends coach, and Paul Moyer from staff assistant to defensive backfield coach. 1/21 Offensive Line Coach Hudson Houck and Running Backs Coach Clarence Shelmon are added to Tom Flores' staff. Both coaches come to the Seahawks from the Los Angeles Rams. 1/22 Bob Bratkowski, offensive coordinator at the University of Miami for the past three seasons, is named wide receivers coach. Bratkowski's father Zeke, is a former NFL quarterback and current NFL assistant coach. 1/23 Tommy Brasher is named defensive line coach. Brasher has coached nine seasons in the NFL and 12 in college. 1/24 Former Seahawks cornerback Dave Brown (1976-86) returns to the club as a defensive assistant. An original member of the Seahawks, Brown still holds career records with 50 interceptions and four interception return touchdowns. 8/22 Dave Brown becomes the third inductee into the Seahawks Ring of Honor. 9/6 Cincinnati Bengals spoil Tom Flores' Seahawks coaching debut with a 21-3 Kingdome win. 9/20 Flores gains first win as Seahawks head coach, 10-6, at New England. Cortez Kennedy has four-and-a-half tackles for loss, including three sacks, to lead the defense while Chris Warren rushes for 122 yards and one score on 24 carries to lead the offense.

It's Warren's first career 100-yard game. 11/8 Chris Warren's 103 yards aren't enough as the Washington Redskins post a 16-3 Kingdome win. 11/22 Chris Warren rushes for a career-high 154 yards, including a touchdown, but the Kansas City Chiefs take a 24-14 win. 11/30 In pregame ceremonies, play-by-play broadcaster Pete Gross is inducted into the Seahawks Ring of Honor. The Seahawks then defeat the Denver Broncos 16-13 in overtime, snapping an eight-game losing streak. Brian Blades makes his first appearance since injuring his shoulder on opening day and catches the game-tying touchdown pass on the game's last play. John Kasay's 32-yard field goal 11:10 into overtime is the winner. The game also is the team record third straight that the Seahawks defense held the opposition to under 200 total yards. 12/2 KIRO Newsradio 710's Pete Gross, the only play-by-play broadcaster in the Seahawks 17-year history, dies after a four-year battle with cancer. 12/6 The Pittsburgh Steelers take a 20-14 comeback win in Pittsburgh, despite Eugene Robinson's record-equalling three interceptions. 12/13 Roger Ruzek's 44-yard field goal as time expires in overtime gives the visiting Philadelphia Eagles a 16-13 win. The game is the longest in Seattle's history (75:00). 12/27 Seattle closes out the regular season with a 31-14 Kingdome loss to the AFC West Champion San Diego Chargers. Chris Warren becomes only the second player in franchise history to rush for 1,000 yards, finishing the season with 1,017.

1993 — 1/19 David Behring, son of majority owner Ken Behring, is named team President. Tom Flores is named General Manager/Head Coach, while Player Personnel Director Mike Allman is placed in charge of both professional and college personnel. 1/28 Howard Mudd is named offensive line coach replacing Hudson Houck, who joined the Dallas Cowboys. Mudd is an eight-year NFL veteran guard and a 19-year NFL assistant, including a stint with the Seahawks from 1978-82. 2/5 Phil Neri, a Seahawks scout since 1985, is named College Scouting Director. 3/12 Ferrell Edmunds, two-time Pro Bowl tight end with the Miami Dolphins, signs as an unrestricted free agent. Edmunds, a five-year veteran, is the first free agent to sign with the Seahawks under the NFL new free agency system. 4/1 Wide receiver Kelvin Martin of the Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys is signed as an unrestricted free agent. 4/14 Linebacker Kevin Murphy signs with Seattle. 4/20 Four-time Pro Bowl center Ray Donaldson signs with the Seahawks as a free agent. 4/22 Buffalo guard Mitch Frerotte signs with the Seahawks as an unrestricted free agent. 4/25 University of Notre Dame quarterback Rick Mirer is selected by the Seahawks in the first round of the NFL draft. Mirer is the second player chosen overall. 9/19 Chris Warren rushes a club record 36 times for a personal best 174 yards in a 17-14 win over the Patriots in New England, Seattle's first win after two losses. 9/26 Rod Stephens' fumble recovery in the end zone provides the winning touchdown in a 19-10 win at Cincinnati. 10/3 Seattle makes it three straight with a 31-14 win over the San Diego Chargers in the Kingdome. Rookie Rick Mirer passes for 282 yards and a score and also rushes for a touchdown. The three-game winning streak is the Seahawks longest since 1990. 10/24 Rick Mirer throws the game-winning touchdown pass to Brian Blades with 25 seconds left in a 10-9 win over New England in the Kingdome. 11/14 Eugene Robinson records 11 tackles, two interceptions, two forced fumble, and one fumble recovery to spark a 22-5 win over the visiting Cleveland Browns. In all, the Seahawks defense forces seven turnovers and accounts for a touchdown and a safety. 12/26 Chris Warren rushes for 168 yards to become the second Seattle player to have back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons, but the Phoenix Cardinals tie the game on the last play of regulation and go on to a 30-27 overtime win in the Kingdome. 12/26 Jon Vaughn, who learned during warmups that he would start for an injured Chris Warren (abdominal muscle), rushes for a career-high 131 yards in a 16-6 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers. Seattle gains 267 yards rushing, giving them back-to-back 200-yard rushing games for the first time in franchise history.

1994 — 1/2 The Seahawks finish the season 6-10 after dropping a 34-24 decision to the AFC West Champion Kansas City Chiefs in Arrowhead Stadium. John L. Williams rushes for 102 yards, to give the Seahawks three straight games with an individual over 100 yards, a franchise first. Rick Mirer becomes the first rookie quarterback since 1973 to start all his team's games and only the third since the 1970 merger. Mirer ends the season with NFL rookie passing records for attempts (486), completions (274), and yards (2,833), while helping to improve Seattle's win total by four games. 2/24 Nate Odomes, two-time Pro Bowl cornerback of the Buffalo Bills signs as a free agent. 2/28 Odomes' Buffalo teammate and fellow two-time Pro Bowler, tackle Howard Ballard signs as a free agent. 4/24 Texas A&M University defensive tackle Sam Adams is the Seahawks first-round draft choice. Adams is the eighth player picked in the first round. 7/19 Kingdome ceiling tiles fall from roof forcing closure of the building until November 5. Seahawks play both pre-season games and first three regular season games in the University of Washington's 72,500 seat Husky Stadium. 8/13 Seahawks play first-ever outdoor game in Seattle defeating Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 29-6, in Husky Stadium. 9/4 Seahawks capture season opener for first time since 1988 with a 28-7 win at the Washington Redskins, as Chris Warren rushes for 100 yards and two touchdowns. The win is the 100th in the career of Head Coach Tom Flores. 9/11 Chris Warren scores two touchdowns for the second straight week as Seahawks go 2-0 with a 38-9 win over the Raiders in Los Angeles. Rick Mirer tosses three touchdown passes. 9/18 San Diego Chargers stop Seahawks two-game winning streak, 24-10, before Seahawks record crowd of 65,536 in Husky Stadium. 9/25 Chris Warren earns AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in a 30-13 win over the visiting Pittsburgh Steelers. Warren rushes for 125 yards and a touchdown, while the Seahawks defense intercepts four passes. 11/6 Cincinnati Bengals spoil Seahawks return to Kingdome with a 20-17 overtime win. Doug Pelfrey kicks six field goals, including a 26-yarder 8:14 into overtime for the win. 11/20 Mack Strong's seven-yard touchdown run with 42 seconds left gives Seahawks a 22-21 win over the visiting Tampa Bay Buccaneers, breaking a six-game losing streak. 11/27 Seahawks defeat Kansas City 10-9 behind John Kasay's 32-yard field goal with 1:42 left. The back-to-back one-point wins are a franchise first. Chris Warren surpasses the 1,000-yard mark in the 12th game, the earliest in team history. Curt Warner inducted into Ring of Honor. 12/11 Chris Warren rushes for a personal best 185 yards on 30 carries, including a touchdown in a 16-14 win at Houston. Warren, playing with cracked ribs, had 183 of his yards in the first three quarters. 12/18 Chris Warren tops 100 yards for the seventh time with 122, but the Los Angeles Raiders escape with a 17-16 Kingdome win. 12/24 Cleveland Browns defeat the Seahawks 35-9 in Cleveland Stadium, closing out a 6-10 season. Chris Warren finishes the season with a franchise record 1,545 rushing yards, a total that leads the AFC. 12/29 Tom Flores, Seahawks general manager/head coach from 1992-94, is relieved of his duties. Flores, who joined the organization in 1989 as president/general manager, compiled a 14-34 regular season record. All 12 of Flores' assistants were also fired.

1995 — 1/12 Dennis Erickson, head coach at the University of Miami, is named head coach. In six seasons at Miami, Erickson compiled a 63-9-0 record and won national championships in 1989 and 1991. A native of Everett, Washington, Erickson posted a 113-40-1 record in 13 seasons as a college head coach at the University of Idaho, University of Wyoming, Washington State University, and Miami. Erickson brings six coaches with him from Miami, Gregg Smith (assistant head coach/tight ends), Greg

McMackin (defensive coordinator), Dave Arnold (special teams), Dana LeDuc (strength and conditioning), Rich Olson (quarterbacks), and Willy Robinson (defensive backs). In addition he retains Bob Bratkowski (offensive coordinator/wide receivers), Tommy Brasher (defensive line), Tom Catlin (quality control), Dave Brown (defensive coach), Arnie Matsumoto (staff assistant), Howard Mudd (offensive line), and Clarence Shelmon (running backs) from the previous staff. 1/28 Wide Receiver Steve Largent becomes the first Seahawks player to be elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Largent was elected in his first year of eligibility. He played his entire NFL career with Seattle from 1976-89, and retired in possession of six NFL receiving marks, including most receptions (819), yards (13,089), touchdowns (100), and consecutive games with a reception (177). Largent's presenter for induction is Seahawks' Vice President Gary Wright. 2/9 Mike Murphy, a nine-season NFL coaching veteran, is named linebackers coach. Murphy coached with the Detroit Lions and Arizona Cardinals prior to serving one year in the Pro Personnel Department of the Carolina Panthers. 4/22 Seahawks select Ohio State University wide receiver Joey Galloway with the eighth pick in the first round of the NFL draft. Galloway is the second wide receiver chosen overall and the first ever picked by the Seahawks in the first round of the draft. 7/29 Steve Largent is formally inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. 8/12 Seahawks officially retire Largent's #80 jersey. 9/3 Seahawks lose NFL debut of Head Coach Dennis Erickson, 34-10, to the Kansas City Chiefs in the Kingdome. Seattle rallies from a 20-0 second quarter deficit for the win, the greatest comeback in franchise history. Friesz throws for two touchdowns, including the game-winner to Chris Warren with 49 seconds left. Antonio Edwards' club record 83-yard return of a Robert Blackmon-forced fumble in the third quarter, ignites the rally. 12/17 Chris Warren scores three touchdowns in a 44-10 win over the Oakland Raiders. The win is Seattle's eighth of the year, their most since 1990. 12/24 AFC Western Division champion Kansas City Chiefs end the Seahawks postseason bid with a 26-3 win in Arrowhead Stadium.

1996 — 2/2 Team owner Ken Behring announces that he is moving the franchise. 4/20 Ken Behring and Seattle native Paul Allen enter into an exclusive 14-month option for Allen to purchase the Seahawks. Allen can exercise the option at anytime until July 1, 1997. Allen is named Chairman of Football Northwest, Inc., with Bert Kolde serving as Vice Chairman and Bob Whitsitt as President. Seahawks select Boston College tackle Pete Kendall in the first round with the 21st overall pick. Seattle had traded down twice in the first round, acquiring defensive tackle Glenn Montgomery from the Houston Oilers in the first deal and adding an extra third-round pick from the Detroit Lions in the second. 9/1 Seahawks start 21st season with 29-7 loss at San Diego. 9/22 Lamar Smith's 14-yard run with 31 seconds left gives Seahawks a 17-13 win at Tampa Bay, their first win after three losses. 10/6 John Friesz throws touchdown passes of 51, 65 and 80 yards, the latter with 2:03 left to Brian Blades, for a 22-15 win at Miami. 11/3 Michael McCrary blocks Houston's game-winning field goal with 16 seconds left, recovers it, and laterals to Robert Blackmon to complete a 68-yard touchdown return to give Seattle a 23-16 win. John Friesz throws for 323 yards, Seattle's first 300-yard passing game since 1990. 11/10 Seattle completes three wins in three home games by defeating the Minnesota Vikings, 42-23. 11/17 Seattle misses a last play field goal in 17-16 loss at the Detroit Lions. Lamar Smith rushes for a career high 148 yards in his first career start. Seahawks also lose quarterback John Friesz for remainder of the season with a broken leg. 12/8 Seahawks snap three-game losing streak with 26-18 win over visiting Buffalo Bills. Chris Warren rushes for 116 yards, his franchise record 24th career 100-yard game. 12/22 Seahawks close season with 28-21 win at Oakland. Seattle forces seven turnovers and wins with backup quarterbacks Stan Gelbaugh and Gino Torretta playing for John Friesz (broken leg) and Rick Mirer (quadriceps). Torretta passes 32 yards to Joey Galloway for his first career touchdown. Lamar Smith rushes for two touchdowns.

1997 — 2/14 Seahawks make first strike in free agency signing Steelers Pro Bowl linebacker Chad Brown. Brown's signing is followed two days later with that of Pittsburgh teammate cornerback Willie Williams. 2/18 Quarterback Rick Mirer is traded to the Chicago Bears for a first-round draft choice. Seattle now has the 11th and 12th picks overall in the April 19-20 NFL Draft. 3/5 Seahawks announce a return of their training camp to Eastern Washington University in Cheney, Washington. Seattle trained at Eastern from 1976-85, before training year-around at their Kirkland Headquarters. 3/6 Detroit Lions safety Bennie Blades is signed as a free agent reuniting him with his brother, Brian. 3/7 Former University of Washington quarterback Warren Moon signs as a free agent after 13 seasons with the Houston Oilers (1984-93) and Minnesota Vikings (1994-96). Moon ranks fourth in league history in attempts (6,000), completions (3,514), and yards (43,787), and is tied for seventh in touchdowns (254). 3/28 Seattle trades their first-round pick obtained from the Bears, to Atlanta for the Falcons first-round pick, the third overall. Seattle also sends second and fourth rounders to Atlanta and the Falcons flip-flop their third round choices. 4/19 After selecting Ohio State cornerback Shawn Springs with the third overall choice, Seattle sends the 12th overall choice and a third-round pick to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for the sixth overall choice. That pick is used on Florida State University tackle Walter Jones. It is the first time in their history that the Seahawks have utilized two first-round draft choices. 4/25 Washington State Legislature passes Seahawks

Stadium Funding Plan, Referendum 48. The bill sets a statewide vote for June 17. 6/17 Washington state voters approve Referendum 48 by a 51.1 percent to 48.9 percent margin (820,354 yes, 783,584 no), including a 56.4 percent margin (275,358 yes, 213,092 no) in King County. 6/23 Metropolitan King County Council votes 9-3 to approve a new football stadium for the Seahawks. 6/30 Bob Whitsitt, President of Football Northwest, signs paperwork to purchase Seahawks from Ken Behring. 7/15 Seahawks open training camp at Eastern Washington University in Cheney, returning after an 11-year absence. 8/19 Football Northwest is approved as the Seahawks owners by the member clubs of the NFL. 8/31 Seattle loses season opener to New York Jets, 41-3, in the Kingdome and quarterback John Friesz for nine weeks with a broken right thumb. 9/14 Seahawks hold Indianapolis Colts to a franchise low 118 yards for their first win, 31-3, in Indianapolis. The 28-point margin of victory is the largest for Seattle on the road. 10/5 Seattle embarks on three-game winning streak by beating the Tennessee Oilers, 16-13, in the Kingdome. Steve Broussard scores on 77 and 43 yard runs within three second half carries overcoming a 10-0 deficit. Broussard rushes for 138 yards on just six carries. 10/26 Warren Moon throws a team record-equalling five touchdown passes, including three to Joey Galloway, in a 45-34 win over the Oakland Raiders. His 409 yards is third in team history for a single game and is an NFL high for 1997. 11/9 Moon connects with Galloway on a game-winning 40-yard touchdown pass at San Diego with 2:20 left. The 37-31 win is marred by a season-ending broken ankle suffered by six-time Pro Bowl defensive tackle Cortez Kennedy. 11/28 Seahawks open their first retail store, the Seahawks EndZone Store, in Seattle's Pioneer Square area, two blocks from the Kingdome. 12/14 Quarterback Jon Kitna makes his first career start and guides Seattle to a 22-21 win at Oakland, overcoming a 21-3 halftime deficit. Kitna throws for 283 yards and one score in becoming the sixth first-time quarterback starter in team history to win his debut. Todd Peterson's 49-yard field goal with 2:20 left is the winner. Seattle's win was their fifth of the season after overcoming a 10-point deficit, equalling the most in the NFL since 1970. 12/21 Seattle closes out season with a 38-9 win over the San Francisco 49ers. Warren Moon throws four touchdown passes and sets single season records for completions (313) and yards (3,378). STEVE LARGENT, WR 1976-89

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Steve Largent became the first Seahawks player to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, January 28, 1995. Largent was formally inducted in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, July 29, along with Jim Finks, Henry Jordan, Lee Roy Selmon, and Kellen Winslow. He was presented into the Hall of Fame by Seahawks' Vice President Gary Wright. Largent was the 23rd player to be elected in his first year of eligibility.

NFL Records: Concluded his 14 National Football League seasons with league career records for receptions, 819; yards, 13,089; touchdowns, 100; consecutive games with a reception, 177; 50-catch seasons, 10; and 1,000-yard seasons, 8. Became only the second player in NFL history to be the career leader in receptions, yards and touchdowns at the same time joining Green Bay's Don Hutson (1945). Ranked third all-time at the time of his retirement with 40-career 100-yard games, trailing Don Maynard (50) and Lance Allworth (41). Still ranks 18th in total touchdowns with 101 (has one rushing), 11th with 40 100-yard games, and is 34th in combined yards with 13,396.

Pro Career: Finished in the AFC's (NFC in 1976) top 10 in receptions 10 times in his first 12 seasons, failing only in 1977 and 1982, and in the top five seven times. Led the AFC in receptions in 1978 with 71 and finished second in 1981 (75) and 1987 (58), and was third in the NFC in 1976 (54). The only NFC wide receiver to catch more passes than Largent in 1976 was Dallas' Drew Pearson (58). Largent's total did lead all rookie wide receivers. Finished in the NFL's top 10 in receiving yards seven times, including a first-place finish in 1985, and a second in 1978, missing the lead by one yard. Missed only 10 games in his career due to injury, including six in 1989 with a broken elbow. Selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game seven times, after the 1978, 1979, 1981, 1984, 1985, 1986, and 1987 seasons. Unable to play in the 1979 game because of a wrist injury. Set the Pro Bowl career yardage record with 236, since surpassed by Jerry Rice with 495, and had 17 Pro Bowl receptions. Originally drafted in the fourth round in 1976 by the Houston Oilers. Was waived by the Oilers on August 24, recalled, and traded to the Seahawks for an eighth-round 1977 draft choice on August 26. The Oilers used that choice to select wide receiver Steve Davis from the University of Georgia.

Seahawks Records: Led the team in both receptions and yards in each of the team's first 12 seasons. Voted by his teammates as the Seahawks' Most Valuable Player after the 1977, 1979, 1981, 1985, and 1987 seasons. Was also elected Offensive Captain from 1979-83 and 1985-89. Third in games played (200) but has more starts (197) than any other player in team history. He was the first player voted into the team's Ring of Honor December 23, 1989.

Personal: Represented the 1st District of the State of Oklahoma for four terms. Was elected to the United States House of Representatives on November 8, 1994, and sworn in on November 29. Re-elected to a second two-year term in 1996, and resigned following the first year of his fourth term and sought election as the governor of Oklahoma in November, 2002. Attended Putnam City High School in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where he lettered in football and baseball. Steve and his wife, Terry, have three sons, Kyle, Kelly, and Kramer, and a daughter, Casie.

CARL ELLER, DE 1979

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Carl Eller was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Sunday, August 8, 2004, along with Bob Brown, John Elway and Barry Sanders. He was presented into the Hall of Fame by his son, Regis.

Pro Career: Selected in the 1st round of NFL draft by Minnesota and AFL draft by Buffalo in 1964. Eller quickly established himself at left defensive end on the Vikings "Purple People Eaters" defensive line. He amassed 44 sacks from 1975-1977 and named first- or second-team All-NFL each season from 1967-1973, playing in six Pro Bowls. He also was effective in blocking kicks and, during his career he recovered 23 opponents' fumbles, the third best mark in NFL annals at the time of his retirement. It was Eller who caused the now infamous fumble that led to teammate Jim Marshall's wrong-way run for a safety in 1964 in a game against the San Francisco 49ers. The Vikings won the 1969 NFL championship and NFC crowns in 1973, 1974, and 1976 and played in four Super Bowls.

Seahawks Career: The 16-year NFL veteran of 225 games played his final NFL season in Seattle, playing in all 16 games with 26 tackles and 3.0 sacks.

Personal: Born January 25, 1942, in Winston-Salem, N.C.

FRANCO HARRIS, RB 1984

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Franco Harris was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, August 4, 1990, along with Buck Buchanan, Bob Griese, Ted Hendricks, Jack Lambert, Tom Landy and Bob St. Clair.

Pro Career: Harris began his pro football career as the Pittsburgh Steelers No. 1 pick and the 13th player selected in the 1972 NFL Draft. For 12 seasons, the 6-2, 230-pounder from Penn State was a big-yardage running back, a key man in the powerful Pittsburgh offensive machine. Harris established himself as a future superstar when he became only the fourth rookie in NFL annals to rush for 1,000 yards. He gained additional attention by being on the receiving end of the famous "Immaculate Reception" pass from Terry Bradshaw that gave the Steelers their first-ever playoff win, a 13-7 victory over the Oakland Raiders. In his 13 seasons, the last of which was spent with the Seattle Seahawks in 1984, Harris rushed 2,949 times for 12,120 yards and 91 touchdowns. He rushed for 1,000 yards or more eight seasons and for more than 100 yards in 47 games. His career rushing total and his combined net yardage figure of 14,622 both ranked as the third highest marks in pro football history at the time of his retirement. Was an All-AFC choice in 1972, 1975, 1976, and 1977 and first- or second-team All-Pro six times. He was selected to nine Pro Bowls. Franco played in five AFC championships – missing a sixth because of injury – and four Super Bowls. In Super Bowl IX, when the Steelers won their first-ever league title with a 16-6 victory over Minnesota, Harris rushed for 158 yards, compared to just 17 yards rushing for the entire Viking team. He was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Harris held numerous Super Bowl and post-season game records by the end of his career. The most notable include 24 points and 354 yards rushing in four Super Bowls and 17 touchdowns and 1,556 yards rushing in 19 playoff games.

Seahawks Career: Harris played his final NFL season in Seattle in 1984. He played in eight games with six starts and rushed 68 times for 170 yards with one catch for 3 yards.

Personal: Born in Fort Dix, N.J., on March 7, 1950.

MIKE MCCORMACK 1982-88

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Mike McCormack was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 28, 1984. He was one of four players honored in 1984 along with Arnie Weinmeister, Willie Brown and Charley Taylor. McCormack played with the Cleveland Browns from 1954-1962 and served as head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles (1973-75), Baltimore Colts (1980-81) and Seattle Seahawks (1982). He also served as president and general manager of the Seahawks. In 1993, he was hired by the newly formed Carolina Panthers as their team president and general manager. He retired from the Panthers' organization in 1997.

Pro Career: One of the game's greatest offensive tackles, he began his pro football career with the NFL's 1951 New York Yanks where as a rookie he earned the starting right tackle spot. That year he earned the first of six trips to the Pro Bowl, before being called into military service. The Baltimore Colts, who acquired his rights before the start of the 1953 season, traded him to the Cleveland Browns in a massive 15-player deal. Even though the Browns knew McCormack would not be available for a full year, he was the key man in the trade. Coach Paul Brown always considered it one of his wisest personnel moves. In his first season in Cleveland, McCormack, a former University of Kansas star and Chicago native, was asked to fill the middle guard position that had been vacated by the retiring Bill Willis on the defensive unit. It was a tall order, considering Willis would himself be elected to the Hall of Fame. McCormack, not surprisingly, was up to the challenge. He quickly became an important factor on an excellent Cleveland defensive team. Mike enjoyed perhaps his most memorable individual moment on the defensive team when, in the 1954 NFL Championship Game, he stole the ball from Detroit Lions quarterback Bobby Layne to set up one of the early touchdowns in a 56-10 Cleveland rout. But it was as an offensive tackle that McCormack made his lasting mark in pro football. Mike was the Browns' offensive right tackle for eight years from 1955 through 1962. During that period, the Browns' forward wall played a major role in assuring a balanced offensive approach and McCormack, equally adept as a blocker on rushing plays and as a quarterback protector, was a stabilizing factor throughout the period.

Seahawks Career: In 1982, McCormack joined the Seattle Seahawks as director of football operations, eventually becoming president and general manager the following season. He also served as the Seahawks' interim head coach for the remainder of the 1982 season when Jack Patera was fired after the first two games. McCormack took over during the 57-day players strike and led the team to a 4-3 record. He then returned to his management position when the Seahawks hired Chuck Knox as their new head coach in 1983. Under McCormack's leadership, the Seahawks enjoyed the franchise's finest years until the mid 2000's. During his seven seasons with the team, Seattle reached the postseason four times, including the AFC Championship Game in 1983.

Personal: McCormack passed away on November 15, 2013. He was survived by his wife, Ann, and four children; Michael, Tim, Molly and Colleen. He was a member of the University of Kansas' all-time team and served as co-captain of the 1950 Jayhawks team.

WARREN MOON, QB 1997-98

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Warren Moon was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, February 4, 2006, the day before the Seahawks played the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XL. Moon was formally inducted in Canton, Ohio, on Sunday, August 6, along with Troy Aikman, Harry Carson, John Madden, Reggie White and Rayfield Wright. He was presented into the Hall of Fame by friend, agent and business associate Leigh Steinberg. Moon was the first African-American quarterback to be inducted.

Pro Career: Prior to the 1978 NFL Draft, some NFL scouts suggested that since University of Washington quarterback Warren Moon had played in a rollout rather than a drop-back passing offense, he would be a mid-round pick. Others speculated that since only one African American quarterback, James Harris, had achieved any measurable success in the NFL, Moon would have to play some other position. Regardless of which misguided reason motivated NFL scouts, Moon remained confident of his abilities and opted to sign with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League. He went on to lead the Eskimos to an unprecedented five consecutive Grey Cup victories. Eventually, Moon returned to the United States to play for the Houston Oilers in 1984. He racked up nearly 50,000 passing yards in 17 NFL seasons. Moon set a new club record with 3,338 yards passing in his first year with Houston, a mark he would break four more times. In 1986, when the Oilers installed the run-and-shoot offense, Moon's quarterback skills finally became apparent to all. The wide-open offense showcased Moon's strong arm, running skills, and big-play ability. In 1990, Moon led the league with 4,689 passing yards. He also led the league in attempts (584), completions (362), and touchdowns (33), and tied Dan Marino's NFL record with nine 300-yard games in a season. The following year, he again led the league in passing yards 4,690. At the same time, he joined Hall of Fame quarterbacks Marino and Dan Fouts as the only quarterbacks to post back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons. Moon also established new NFL records that season with 655 attempts and 404 completions. Moon was traded to the Minnesota Vikings before the 1994 season. In his debut season, he passed for 4,264 yards and led the team to the playoffs. In his second season in Minnesota, he again passed for more than 4,200 yards. Moon moved on to the Seattle Seahawks as a free agent in 1997 where the veteran star set franchise records for completions (313) and yards passing (3,678) and earned his ninth Pro Bowl selection. Injuries limited his play in 1998. In 1999, Moon joined the Kansas City Chiefs and spent two seasons as a backup there before retiring. Despite spending his first six professional seasons in the CFL, Moon ranked third all-time in NFL passing yardage and fourth in touchdown passes thrown at the time of his retirement.

Seahawks Records: The 17-year NFL veteran played for the Seahawks from 1997-98, setting the franchise record for passing yards in one season with 3,678 in 1997, surpassed by Matt Hasselbeck in the 2003 season. His 313 completions in 1997 are second-most in club history, behind Hasselbeck's 352 completions in 2007. He also holds the club record for most consecutive completions (17).

Personal: Named the NFL's Man of the Year in 1989 for his work in the community, Warren established the Crescent Moon Foundation in 1989 to raise money for college academic scholarships in Seattle, Los Angeles, Houston, and Minneapolis/St. Paul. Warren has worked as an ambassador for the NFL promoting the game of football both nationally and internationally to young people.

JOHN RANDLE, DT 2001-03

Pro Football Hall of Fame: John Randle was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, February 6, 2010, along with Russ Grimm, Rickey Jackson, Dick LeBeau, Floyd Little, Jerry Rice and Emmitt Smith. He was inducted on Saturday, August 7, 2010.

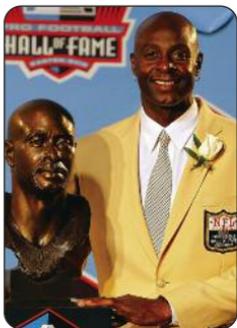

Pro Career: John Randle, a Little All-America from Texas A&I, signed as an undrafted free agent with the Minnesota Vikings in 1990. He embarked on an impressive streak from 1992-01 of 183 games played and 140 starts before a knee injury forced him out of a game. In the 1993 season, Randle registered 12.5 sacks, amassed 59 tackles and forced three fumbles to earn All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl invitation for the first time. It began a string of six straight All-Pro and Pro Bowl seasons for Randle. He improved his sack total again in 1994 with a NFC-high 13.5 sacks. Randle recorded perhaps his finest season in 1997 when he led the NFL with 15.5 sacks and also had a career-high 71 tackles. In all, Randle amassed 137.5 sacks during his 14-season career. He led the Vikings in sacks nine times and the Seahawks twice. Thirty-five times he recorded multi-sack games including eight games with three or more sacks. Randle was elected to seven Pro Bowls (1994-99, 2002) and named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s.

Seahawks Career: Randle played his final three seasons in Seattle, leading the club in sacks twice and making one Pro Bowl. In 43 games with 35 starts, he collected 23.5 sacks.

Personal: Born on December 12, 1967, in Hearne, Texas.

JERRY RICE, WR 2004

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Jerry Rice was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, February 6, 2010, along with Russ Grimm, Rickey Jackson, Dick LeBeau, Floyd Little, John Randle and Emmitt Smith. He was inducted on Saturday, August 7, 2010.

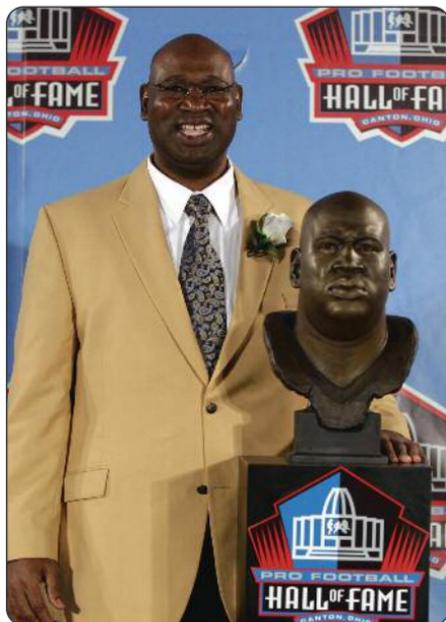

Pro Career: The San Francisco 49ers used their first round draft pick (16th overall) in 1985 on Jerry Rice from little known Mississippi Valley State. In 1986, Rice recorded a season that began perhaps the finest stretch by any receiver in NFL history. That year, he caught 86 passes for a league-leading 1,570 yards. He also led the NFL in touchdown catches with 15. It marked the first of 11 straight 1,000-yard seasons for Rice who also recorded double-digit receiving touchdown totals in nine of the next 10 seasons. The following year, Rice set the NFL record for touchdown receptions in a season with 22. His first of four seasons with 100 catches came in 1990 when he had an even 100 receptions to lead the NFL in that category. He led the NFL in receiving yards six times including a NFL record 1,848 yards in 1995. Rice also led the NFL in touchdown receptions six times. No wide receiver in NFL history played more than Rice's 20 seasons. By the time he retired after finishing his career with Oakland and Seattle, he was the most prolific wide receiver in NFL history with staggering career totals. He owns virtually every significant receiving mark. Some of the more notable career records include receptions (1,549); receiving yards (22,895 yards); most 1,000-yard receiving seasons (14); total touchdowns (208); and combined net yards (23,546). Rice has a hold on multiple NFL playoff and Super Bowl records. He played in eight conference championships and four Super Bowls. He earned three Super Bowl rings with the 49ers and was named the Most Valuable Player of San Francisco's Super Bowl XXIII win over the Cincinnati Bengals. Rice, who was named first-team All-Pro 11 consecutive seasons and voted to 13 Pro Bowls, is also a member of the NFL's All-Decade Teams of the 1980s and 1990s and NFL's 75th Anniversary Team.

Seahawks Career: Rice finished his career in Seattle, playing in 11 games with nine starts in 2004. He caught 24 passes for 362 yards with a long of 56 and three touchdowns.

Personal: Born on October 13, 1962, in Starkville, Miss.

CORTEZ KENNEDY, DT 1990-2000

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Cortez Kennedy was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, February 4, 2012, the day before Super Bowl XLVI. Kennedy was formally inducted in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, August 4, along with Jack Butler, Dermontti Dawson, Chris Doleman, Curtis Martin and Willie Roaf. Kennedy follows only Steve Largent to enter the Hall of Fame representing the Seahawks. He was presented into the Hall of Fame by Dixie Fraley Keller, the widow of long-time agent, financial advisor and friend, Robert Fraley.

Pro Career: The Seattle Seahawks used the third overall selection of the 1990 NFL Draft on All-America defensive tackle Cortez Kennedy from the University of Miami. The move proved to be wise as Kennedy became a fixture on the Seahawks defensive line for 11 seasons. Extremely durable, he did not miss a single game until his eighth season. In his rookie season, Kennedy played in all 16 games, two of which were starts. He produced impressive numbers including a season-high 10 tackles and a sack against the Miami Dolphins. For his efforts, he was named to the NFL's All-Rookie team. The following season Kennedy moved into a full-time starting role at right defensive tackle for the Seahawks and responded by earning his first Pro Bowl berth. In 1992, despite the Seahawks finishing with a disappointing 2-14 record, Kennedy was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year. It marked just the third time in league history that a player from a losing team won the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year Award. He led Seattle that season with a career-high 14 sacks, the most of any interior lineman, and also recorded a career-best 92 tackles, recovered one fumble and batted down two passes. Although he was often double- or even triple-teamed Kennedy managed to lead or rank near the top in tackles each season. In 1996, he was voted to a team record sixth consecutive Pro Bowl and also was named the team's MVP and the winner of the Steve Largent Award given to the player that best exemplified the spirit, dedication and integrity of the Seahawks. He added two more Pro Bowls following the 1998 and 1999 seasons. Kennedy recorded one of his finest seasons in 1999. A 10-year veteran, he started all 16 games, recorded 73 tackles, 6.5 sacks and intercepted two passes to help the Seahawks reach the playoffs for the first time since 1988. In all, he registered 58 sacks, intercepted three passes and scored one touchdown on a fumble recovery during his 167-game career. He twice led the team in sacks (1992 and 1995). Aside from his eight Pro Bowls, Kennedy was named first-team All-NFL in 1992, 1993 and 1994, selected second-team All-Pro twice, All-AFC four times and was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s. On September 17, 2006, Kennedy became the 10th member inducted into the Seahawks Ring of Honor.

Seahawks Records: Kennedy ranks among the top-10 in many Seahawks categories, including: eighth in games played (167), seventh in games started (153), fourth in forced fumbles (13), eighth in tackles (668), fourth in sacks (58.0), fourth in sack yardage (390.5) and second in Pro Bowl nominations (8).

Personal: Born on August 23, 1968, Kennedy attended Northwest Mississippi Community College before transferring to Miami. Prepped at Rivercrest High School in Wilson, Ark.

WALTER JONES, T 1997-2009

ALL-TIME HONORS

HALL OF FAME

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Walter Jones was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, February 1, 2014, the day before Seattle defeated Denver in Super Bowl XLVIII in New York/New Jersey. Jones was formally inducted in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, August 2, along with Derrick Brooks, Ray Guy, Claude Humphrey, Andre Reed, Michael Strahan and Aeneas Williams. Jones joins Steve Largent and Cortez Kennedy to enter the Hall of Fame representing the Seahawks for their entire careers.

Pro Career: Jones retired from the NFL on April 29, 2010. In his honor, the team immediately retired his number 71 jersey and Governor Christine Gregoire declared the following day, Walter Jones Day, urging all citizens to join her in saluting his remarkable career. Since coming to Seattle as a first-round pick in 1997, Jones started all 180 games played while becoming the most dominant left tackle of his time. In 13 seasons, he was called for holding nine times and in 5,703 pass attempts, surrendered just 23 sacks according to coaches statistics. He was selected to nine Pro Bowls (1999, 2001-08), passing Cortez Kennedy for most in team history, and was also a six-time AP All-Pro (1st Team in 2001, 2004, 2005, 2007 and 2nd Team in 2006 and 2008). Seattle selected Jones with the sixth overall pick in the 1997 NFL Draft, which was acquired in a draft-day trade with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in exchange for Seattle's first-round pick (#12, RB Warrick Dunn) and third-round pick (#66, CB Ronde Barber). He was named to his first Pro Bowl following the 1999 season, becoming the first Seattle offensive lineman to accomplish that feat. Jones was part of the offensive line that helped Shaun Alexander to the fourth-best (currently seventh) rushing game in NFL history with 266 yards vs. Oakland (11/11/01) and helped Alexander to an NFL-record five first-half touchdowns vs. Minnesota (9/29/02). In 2005, he paved the way for Alexander's MVP year with a Seattle-record 1,880 rushing yards and then-NFL-record 28 total touchdowns.

Seahawks Records: Jones ranks fourth in Seattle history in games played (180) and second in games started (180). He also ranks first in Seahawks history with 10 postseason games played and started in his career.

Personal: A second-team All-ACC selection as a junior, he transferred to Florida State after two seasons at Holmes (Miss.) Community College, where he was named Mississippi Junior College Player of the Year in 1994. Jones prepped at Aliceville (Ala.) High where he lettered in basketball and football.

The inaugural inductee into the Ring of Honor in 1989, Steve Largent concluded his 14 National Football League seasons with league career records for receptions, 819; yards, 13,089; touchdowns, 100; consecutive games with a reception, 177; 50-catch seasons, 10; and 1000-yard seasons, 8. Largent became the first Seahawks player to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1995, and only the 23rd player to be elected in first year of eligibility. He finished in the AFC's (NFC in 1976) top 10 in receptions 10 times in his first 12 seasons. Led the AFC in receptions in 1978 with 71 and finished second in 1981 and 1987. Largent finished in the top 10 in receiving yards seven times, including a first-place finish in 1985, and second in 1978, missing the lead by one yard. Selected to play in the Pro Bowl seven times (1978, 1979, 1981, 1984, 1985, 1986, and 1987) and was first-team All-NFL (AP) in both 1979 and 1985. Largent led the team in both receptions and yards in each of the team's first 12 seasons. Third in games played (200) but has more starts (197) than any other player in Seahawks history. After retiring from the game in 1989, Largent would gain political aspirations and represented the 1st District of the State of Oklahoma for four terms. He would then serve and be re-elected for his home state in the United States House of Representatives before resigning in his first-year of his fourth term to pursue the governorship of Oklahoma.

Inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1991, Jim Zorn was the starting quarterback for the Seahawks during their inaugural season in 1976 and would remain at the helm for the next seven years. Named the NFC Offensive Rookie of the Year in 1976 as he led the NFL in attempts with 439 and set a then-record 2,571 passing yards, which was also a record for an expansion team. By the end of the 1979 season, Zorn became only the third player to throw for 10,000 yards in his first four seasons. In 1978, he earned numerous accolades, which included being named AFC Player of the Year by the Washington D.C. Touchdown Club and first-team All-NFL by the NEA. Zorn, along with former Seahawks QB Matt Hasselbeck, are the only two Seahawks quarterbacks to throw for 300 yards in back-to-back games which he accomplished twice, once in 1979 and again in 1981. Zorn finished his career leading the Seahawks in every passing category amassing 20,122 passing yards and 107 touchdown passes.

Inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1992, Dave Brown was an 11-year starter in the Seahawks' secondary from 1976-86. Coming over from the Pittsburgh Steelers in the Veteran Allocation Draft in 1976, Brown played at the free safety position leading the team with four interceptions. The following season No. 22 would shift over to the right-side cornerback position where he would be the "cornerstone" of the Seahawks' defense for the next 10 years, picking off another 46 passes, retiring as the all-time Seahawks leader in the category with 50. In 1984, Brown picked off eight passes and was named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad and first-team All-NFL by NFL Films. Two of those interceptions were part of a NFL-record four interception returns for touchdowns on November 4, 1984, against the Kansas City Chiefs. Brown had returns of 90 and 58 yards. Brown retired as the Seahawks' leader in interception return yards (643), interception returns for touchdowns (5), and the aforementioned interceptions (50).

PETE GROSS

Radio
Play-by-Play

17 Seahawks Seasons (1976-92)

Birthdate: December 28, 1936
Whittier, California

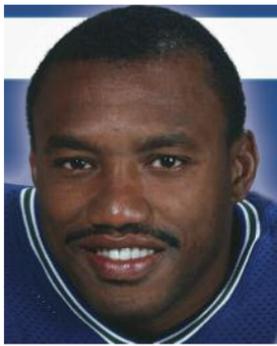

Ring of Honor: November 30, 1992

Inducted into the Seahawks' Ring of Honor in 1992, Pete Gross served as the radio play-by-play for 17 seasons from the Seahawks' inaugural 1976 season through 1992. One of the most beloved people to have ever been associated with the Seahawks' franchise, fans will never forget his numerous "touch-down Seahawks" calls. Over his 17 seasons, Gross called all but the five games he missed in 1992 while battling cancer. His career included eight playoff games and in the 1983 season Gross came within one game of the Super Bowl when Seattle faced the Los Angeles Raiders in the AFC Championship Game. The Seahawks lost that game 30-14. Gross was diagnosed with cancer in 1989. He succumbed to the disease in 1992, just two days after his induction into the Ring. He was inducted into the Ring during a Monday night game versus the Denver

Broncos, a game the 2-14 Seahawks won in overtime. Prior to moving to the Seahawks, he was the play-by-play voice of the University of Washington in both football and basketball. He came to Seattle after calling play-by-play for the University of the Pacific. Gross' legacy remains; the Seahawks are actively involved with the Pete Gross House. The Pete Gross House, which opened in November of 1999, is a 69-unit apartment complex that provides housing for families undergoing treatment at the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center. The Pete Gross House is also the location of the Hutch School, a fully accredited K through 12 school for cancer patients and their siblings. The Seahawks took an active roll in seeing the project through to completion and participate in an annual fund-raiser for the continued upkeep of the facility.

Gross was inducted into the Seahawks' Ring of Honor during the Seahawks Monday night game versus the Denver Broncos. The Seahawks won the game and presented Gross with the game ball. Gross passed away three days later.

Curt Warner was inducted into the Ring of Honor on November 27, 1994, after a career that spanned seven years from 1983-89 and saw him hold every Seahawks rushing record when he was done. Immediately thrust into the Seahawks' lineup his rookie season, Warner would rush for 1,449 yards and 13 touchdowns highlighted by a then, Seahawks record 207-yard-effort against Kansas City. The season was capped off by being named a starter in the Pro Bowl, 1983 AFC Player of the Year by the Washington D.C. Touchdown Club and NFLPA, AFC Offensive Player of the Year by the NFLPA and UPI, second-team All-NFL by the AP and Football Digest and first-team All-Rookie by Pro Football Digest and Pro Football Weekly. After suffering a season-ending injury in the first game of 1984, Curt would bounce back in 1985 rushing for 1,094 yards and being named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated. Warner would not look back his final three seasons leading the team in rushing each year, averaging 1,164 a season and 10 touchdowns, including a then-Seahawks record four TDs vs. Denver in 1988. Warner would be named to two more Pro Bowls (1986-87) bringing his career total to three, and was named AFC Offensive Player of the Year by the UPI in 1986, and first-team All-NFL by Sports Illustrated in 1987. He finished his career with 6,705 yards rushing on 1,649 carries with 62 touchdowns. He is currently third all-time in Seahawks history in rushing yards, third in total touchdowns and second in rushing attempts.

Jacob Green became the second Seahawks defensive player to be inducted into the Ring of Honor on September 3, 1995. Green was a fixture at the left defensive end position for 11 years (1980-91). From the time the NFL made it an official statistic in 1982 until his retirement, Jacob was the third-most productive sack artist in the game, trailing only the likes of Lawrence Taylor and Reggie White. In 1983, Green registered a single-game Seahawks record 3.5 sacks against the Los Angeles Raiders, and the NFL's longest interception return for the season, a 73-yard touchdown at Cleveland. The following year, Green equaled a team-record four fumble recoveries and registered a then-playoff record 2.5 sacks in a Wild Card game against the Los Angeles Raiders. Green's career was highlighted by two Pro Bowl selections in 1986 and 1987. In '86, he set a Seattle record with 4.0 sacks vs. the Giants. Green can be found scattered all over the Seahawks' record book having played in the fifth-most games (178), third-most starts (176), most fumble recoveries (17), fifth-most tackles (718), and most career sacks (116.0).

Kenny Easley was inducted into the Ring of Honor on October 14, 2002, with a sellout crowd and millions watching the Monday Night Football halftime ceremony at home. Easley redefined the strong safety position in seven years from 1981-87. Voted by the Associated Press as the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1984, Easley had 32 interceptions in his storied career. This fierce hitter registered 107 tackles, three interceptions and returned an interception 82 yards vs. Cleveland in his rookie campaign, earning him AFC Rookie of the Year by the NFL Players' Association. The following season, Easley would earn the first of five Pro Bowl appearances, including being named a starter from 1983-85, and again in 1987. The crowning jewel of Easley's career came in 1984 where he spearheaded the NFL's sixth-rated defense that culminated into a Seahawks record 12 wins in the regular season and a Wild Card victory over the rival Los Angeles Raiders. He tied a Seahawks team record by intercepting 10 passes, including three against San Diego on October 29. Easley would be named first-team All-NFL by the Associated Press for the second year in a row and was bestowed that honor again in 1985. Easley finished his career with 498 tackles, seven sacks, 10 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries, and 32 interceptions.

Dave Krieg became the eighth member of the Seahawks' Ring of Honor on September 26, 2004. Krieg spent the first 12 years (1980-91) of his 19-year NFL playing career with the Seahawks while becoming the club's all-time leader in 31 career, season and single-game passing categories at the time of his departure. He is still at the top of 20 of those categories, including career passing yards (26,132), completions (2,096), attempts (3,576), and touchdowns (195). Krieg originally joined the Seahawks as an undrafted free agent from Milton College in 1980, and became the regular starter nine games into the 1983 season. The three-time Pro Bowler (1984, 1988 and 1989) was the only Seattle quarterback with a playoff victory and led the Seahawks to their only conference championship game in 1983, a club-record 12 wins and the playoffs in 1984, and back-to-back playoff appearances again in 1987 and 1988, since matched and surpassed in 2005 by Matt Hasselbeck.

CHUCK KNOX

Head Coach

Juniata College
9 Seahawks Seasons (1983-91)

Birthdate: April 27, 1932
Sewickley, Pennsylvania
Ring of Honor: September 25, 2005

Chuck Knox was the ninth member inducted to the Ring. He spent nine of his 22 illustrious seasons at the helm of the Seahawks from 1983-91, during which time he led Seattle to 80 wins en route to becoming the winningest coach in club history, since surpassed by Mike Holmgren. Compared to 63 losses, his winning percentage of .559 is tops among Seattle coaches with at least eight games coached. Knox posted six winning seasons with Seattle and led the Seahawks into postseason play four times. The Seahawks' three playoff wins under Knox were the only postseason wins in club history until 2005. Knox was named NFL

Coach of the Year following both the 1983 and 1984 seasons, where Seattle posted a 21-11 record, advanced to the 1983 AFC Championship Game and in 1984 posted the best record in franchise history at the time with a 12-4 mark. One of the NFL's all-time winningest coaches, Knox ranks ninth in league history with 193 career victories (193-158), including playoffs. He was the first coach in NFL history to lead three different franchises to the playoffs and was named NFL Coach of the Year four times while coaching three different teams (L.A. Rams-1973, Bills-1980, Seahawks-1983-84).

Cortez Kennedy became the 10th member inducted into the Seahawks Ring of Honor on September 17, 2006. Kennedy established himself as one of the premier interior defensive linemen in the game while playing 11 NFL seasons (1990-2000), all with the Seahawks. He appeared in eight Pro Bowls, and a franchise-record six consecutive Pro Bowls (1991-96), including four as a starter. The three-time All-Pro is found throughout the Seahawks' record books, ranking eighth on the club's all-time list in games played (167), seventh in games started (153) and eighth in tackles (668). Kennedy ranks fourth in sacks (58), yards lost on sacks (390.5), and forced fumbles (13). His finest season came in 1992 when he became the second Seahawks player to win the Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year Award (Kenny Easley, 1984) after recording 93 tackles (76 solo), 14.0 sacks, five forced fumbles, and four fumble recoveries. The 1999 Co-Defensive Captain, Kennedy helped lead Seattle back to the postseason for the first time since 1988.

A TRADITION CONTINUES

In 2003, the 12th Man was honored once again, this time with a flag. The tradition of the 12th Man Flag began October 12, 2003, when 12 original season ticket holders hoisted the flag versus the San Francisco 49ers. Now, at every home game just before kickoff, the flag is raised in honor of the 12th Man. From former Seahawks greats, to local celebrities and sports personalities, being called upon to raise the flag has become an honor within itself. The flag has become a symbol of Seahawks supporters all over the Northwest and the spirit of community that the organization and fans share.

Sea Gals

The 2014 Sea Gals

Sherri Thompson

Thirty-two women make up the 2014 Sea Gals, a sideline dance group that balances a busy schedule of practicing, performing and making public appearances in the community throughout the year.

Sherri Thompson, who has been involved with the Sea Gals since 1981 as a squad member (1981-83) and choreographer (1984-86) will begin her 28th year as director. In addition to numerous practices and game day performances, the Sea Gals are heavily involved in the community, donating much of their time to benefit local charities and organizations.

The Sea Gals hold an annual fund-raising event to provide Christmas presents for the women and children living at a local women's shelter. The dance group also established the Sea Gal's Guild at Children's Hospital, which they contribute to annually.

The Junior Sea Gals has become a popular program for girls ages 7 – 14. The Sea Gals work directly with these young ladies to develop character, team building, and dance skills.

The Sea Gals have a "Show Group," a one-hour variety show that includes colorful costume changes, character dance routines, singing and crowd participation for all ages. The Show Group has performed across the nation, Middle East and European military bases. Information about the Sea Gals can be obtained by accessing www.seahawks.com or by calling (425) 203-8000.

BLITZ

As the Seahawks mascot, Blitz does his part to make sure CenturyLink Field is the loudest, most exciting stadium in the NFL. Always the entertainer, Blitz has been known to jump off the roof of CenturyLink Field, fly with the Blue Angels and skydive with Red Bull.

When Blitz isn't busy with fans at CenturyLink Field, he can be found at Generation 12 Kid's Club and Play60 events throughout the Pacific Northwest. Blitz is the life of any party – you will often find him at community events, birthday parties and everything in between. To request Blitz for your event, visit www.seahawks.com/community/appearancerequests.com.

BLUE THUNDER

Seahawks Blue Thunder is the heartbeat of the fans. The high-energy, entertainment drumline was established in 2004 at CenturyLink Field, performing throughout the stadium before, during and after games. Blue Thunder uses a variety of rhythms and visuals, incorporating rock and roll drumming alongside drum corps style, endearing them to Seahawks fans of all ages. Blue Thunder is also available for parades, parties and corporate event appearances.

For booking information please visit Seahawks.com.

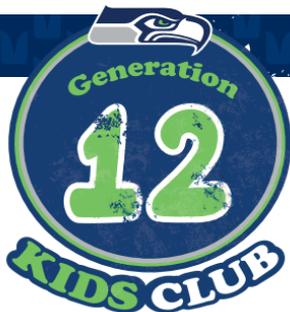

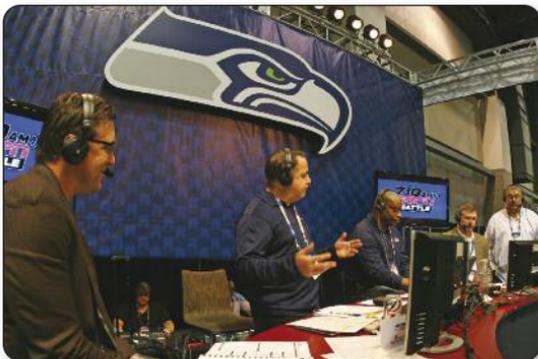

AMERICAN FAMILY INSURANCE TOUCHDOWN CITY

The Seattle Seahawks are dedicated to providing the fans with a unique game-day experience.

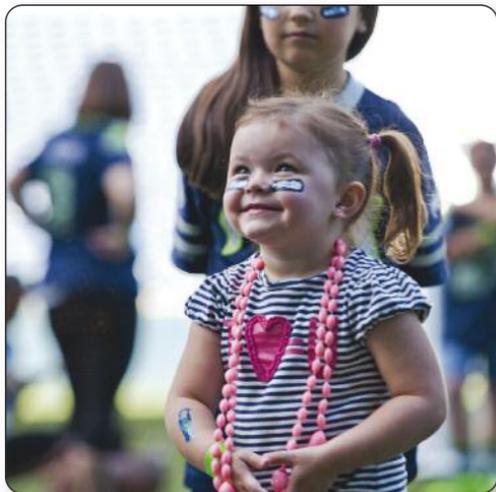

American Family Insurance Touchdown City is a high energy interactive pregame gathering where fans experience the pageantry and spectacle of the NFL before each Seahawks home game. Featuring more than 30 exhibits including inflatable games that test your football skills and knowledge, 710 ESPN's pregame broadcast stage, free face and hair painting booths, energizing performances by the Sea Gals and Blue Thunder, and a Seahawks Pro Shop Kiosk, Touchdown City has something for fans of all ages and interest.

Admission into Touchdown City is free and open to all Seahawks fans three hours before each home game. Touchdown City is located inside the CenturyLink Field Event Center, which is connected to the south end of CenturyLink Field.

KIDS CLUB

The Seattle Seahawks Generation 12 Kids Club offers fans (12 years-and-under) the opportunity to connect with the team. Members enjoy benefits including a membership kit, exclusive events, member-only e-blasts, contests, and special mailings throughout the year. For more information and to sign up, fans may visit Seahawks.com.

SEA HAWKERS 2014

Just as the Seattle Seahawks are entering 2014 with renewed energy, the Sea Hawks Booster Club enters the season with some energy of its own.

MEMBERSHIP

There is strength in numbers and the Sea Hawks are always looking to attract a new legion of members. The Sea Hawks will be actively recruiting through membership drives, as well as an increased visibility in the media, in the stands, and in the community.

BENEFITS

Benefits of a Sea Hawks membership include: Monthly club meetings and get-togethers, access to Sea Hawks "tailgate zone" prior to all home games, opportunity to attend the annual Sea

Hawks picnic at Seahawks Headquarters and the Sea Hawks Banquet which includes a sneak peak of the NFL Films Seahawks Annual Highlight Video and dining with Seahawk players and staff, and exclusive offers not available to the general public to the Seahawks Pro Shop.

CHARITY EVENTS

Since their inception in 1976, the Sea Hawks have been involved in helping charities throughout the community. This year the Sea Hawks will again support the Ronald McDonald House and many other Seahawks supported charity events.

The Sea Hawks expect to do great things in 2014. For more information, please visit www.seahawkers.org.

Located inside CenturyLink Field, the newly renovated and expanded Seahawks Pro Shop features official sideline product and the best selection of Seahawks merchandise available.

Re-opened on June 7, 2013 after four months of renovations, the CenturyLink Field Pro Shop grew in size from 3,000 to 7,400 square feet, allowing for a 40 percent increase in product selection. The new store now provides not only the six permanent points of sale that the old store had, but it also features up to 20 mobile point-of-sale devices, expediting checkouts for all customers.

During the season, fans are encouraged to come meet their favorite players at weekly autograph sessions. For the best selection of Seahawks merchandise, fans can also shop www.seahawks.com and visit the Pro Shop online. For more information fans can call 206-682-2900.

Fans can also visit the Pro Shop's location on 401 Pike Street in downtown Seattle.

KEEPING THE SEAHAWKS LEGACY ALIVE

Seahawks alumni continue to make their mark off the playing field by staying involved in the community and making various appearances year after year.

After giving their heart and soul during their playing days with the Seahawks and the National Football League, they continue that drive and urgency off the field well after their professional playing days are over.

More than 60 Seahawks alumni in the state of Washington made over 200 appearances in 2013. Those visits included community celebrations, check presentations and everything in between.

Former players like Nesby Glasgow (DB, 1988-92), Sam Adkins (QB, 1977-82), Manu Tuiaosopo (DT, 1979-83), Craig Terrill (DT, 2004-10), and Mack Strong (FB, 1993-2007) all participated in community events that left lasting impressions on everyone involved.

Seahawks Ring of Honor inductee Jacob Green (DE, 1980-91) continues to stay active in the community, namely by hosting the Jacob Green Charity Golf Classic and supporting charitable causes such as the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Center, Child Advocates, Inc., the American Heart Association, The Boys and Girls Club, and many others. Green is the Seahawks' all-time sack leader with 116.0.

After a 15-year NFL career, Jon Kitna (QB, 1997-2000) returned to the Pacific Northwest to be a high school math teacher and is entering his second season as the head football coach at his former high school, Lincoln H.S., in Tacoma. Kitna has always invested in the lives of kids in the various cities he's played (Seattle, Cincinnati, Detroit, Dallas) and has spoken of his excitement to have a positive impact on high school boys in the years to come.

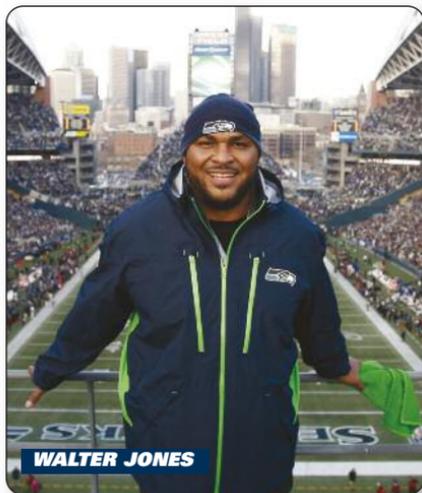

On April 23, 2014, Marcus Trufant re-signed with Seattle, where he spent his entire 10-year career, so that the Pro Bowl cornerback could retire as a Seahawk the next day on April 24, holding a ceremony at the Virginia Mason Athletic Center in front of dozens of family, friends and Seahawks staff-members.

Trufant was 11th overall pick in the 2003 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks and became an immediate starter. He played in 136 games with 125 starts for Seattle from 2003 to 2012 and also started nine of a franchise-high 11 postseason games played in his career with the Seahawks. He continues to be active in the Seattle and Tacoma communities, where he has called home for his entire life.

Steve Raible (WR, 1976-81) is an original member of the Seahawks and is entering his 33rd season broadcasting Seahawks games for 710 ESPN Radio and 97.3 KIRO FM.

Walter Jones (T, 1997-2009) was voted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame just before Super Bowl XLVIII and was inducted into the Hall of Fame during August of 2014, joining Steve Largent and Cortez Kennedy as the three Hall of Fame members to have played their entire careers in Seattle. Drafted by Seattle with the sixth overall pick in the 1997 NFL Draft, Jones started all 180 games he played in and was a nine-time Pro Bowl selection.

CURT MENEFFEE - PLAY-BY-PLAY

Curt Menefee begins his sixth season with the Seahawks broadcasting team as the play-by-play announcer for preseason telecasts. Menefee currently hosts FOX's award-winning NFL pre-game show, FOX NFL Sunday. Prior to taking over as full-time host in 2007, he called play-by-play for NFL and NFL Europe League games on FOX Sports and FSN.

BROCK HUARD - ANALYST

Former Seahawks QB and local sports radio personality, Brock Huard, begins his second season in the Seahawks broadcast booth as the preseason television analyst. The former University of Washington star and Puyallup High School All-American has been calling college football for ESPN since August 2008, working as a college football analyst for ESPN and ABC's Saturday games, and is also a studio analyst for the networks. Since 2009, Huard has co-hosted a sports radio morning show on 710 ESPN Seattle. After a standout high school career at Puyallup and a record-setting stint at the UW, Huard went on to play six years in the NFL, including four spent with the Seahawks, from 1999-2001 and 2004.

"SEAHAWKS ALL-ACCESS"

Join former Seahawks QB Warren Moon and ROOT Sports' Angie Mentink for "Seahawks All-Access." Beginning with training camp, as the title implies, "All-Access" gives the Seahawks fan a perspective on the club not seen anywhere else through in-depth analysis and exclusive footage. Catch "Seahawks All-Access" each Thursday night on ROOT Sports.

"SEAHAWKS SATURDAY NIGHT"

"Seahawks Saturday Night" returns August 2nd for its second season in primetime at 10:30pm on Q13 FOX and 9:30pm on JOEtv. The half-hour program will feature total access to players, coaches, practices and games including a player "mic'd up" every week to get a real feel for what's happening on the field and an exclusive one-on-one with Coach Carroll.

SEAHAWKS RADIO NETWORK

Seahawks Radio can be found on 710 ESPN Seattle, the flagship station for the 2014 season, and 97.3 KIRO FM. In addition, in their 2nd year, ESPN Deportes will be the Spanish-speaking flagship on 1490 AM with Alex Rivera calling the games. Wall to wall coverage begins each game day with the "Pregame Huddle" hosted by Dori Monson and joined by former Seahawks Paul Moyer, Sam Adkins, Dave Wyman, Craig Terrill and Mack Strong with executive producer Matt Johnson. Steve Raible and Warren Moon follow with the call in the booth with Jen Mueller providing sideline reports, and the broadcast day concludes with a post-game show featuring exclusive interviews with Seahawks players from the locker room. Check Seahawks.com for the Seahawks Radio Affiliate in your area.

"SEAHAWKS HUDDLE"

"Seahawks Huddle," the club's weekly radio show, can be heard on 710 ESPN Seattle every Thursday from 12:00-2:00 p.m. and also streams live on Seahawks.com. Beginning during training camp, the "Huddle" offers an inside look at the Seahawks and the NFL and features Seahawks players, coaches and guests from around the League.

STEVE RAIBLE - PLAY-BY-PLAY

Steve Raible returns for his 33rd season in the radio booth, his 11th as the play-by-play announcer and "Voice of the Seahawks" after 22 seasons as the Seahawks analyst. An original member of the Seahawks, Raible played wide receiver from 1976-81 and has missed only four games in the franchise's history, either as a player or broadcaster after suffering a collapsed lung vs. Oakland in 1981. Steve also co-authored the book, "Tales from the Seahawks Sideline" with former Tacoma NewsTribune beat writer, Mike Sando, who is currently working for ESPN. Following his football career, Steve joined KIRO-TV where he has won five local Emmy Awards including two for "Best Anchor." He currently anchors KIRO-7 Eyewitness News at 5:00, 6:00 and 11:00 p.m.

One of the Northwest's favorite masters of ceremonies, Steve has twice been honored with the United Way Community Service Award and was named Outstanding Role Model of 2000 by Big Brothers/Big Sisters. He was also recently honored by Governor Christine Gregoire proclaiming May 4, 2005, as Steve Raible Day in honor of his community activities. He was also a 2001 recipient of the prestigious NCAA Silver Anniversary Award along with former Seahawks teammate, Steve Largent.

A graduate of Georgia Tech and a member of the school's athletic Hall of Fame, Steve lives in Seattle with his wife, Sharon.

WARREN MOON - ANALYST

Hall of Fame quarterback, Warren Moon, returns to the Seahawks radio team for his 11th season after serving as the preseason television analyst for the previous two seasons. After finishing a playing career in which he was nominated to an NFL record eight-straight Pro Bowls (1988-95), adding a ninth overall in 1997, Moon has become one of football's leading broadcast analysts. He has spent recent years as a Westwood One radio analyst and sideline reporter and also spent time in the booth during Fox Sports Net's Pac-12 College Game of the Week.

The 17-year NFL veteran played for the Seahawks from 1997-98, setting the franchise record for passing yards in one season with 3,678 in 1997, surpassed by Matt Hasselbeck in the 2003 season. He also ranks in the top-three of 11 categories all-time in the NFL record books, including most career passing yards (third with 49,325), most career completions (third with 3,988), most yards passing in a single game (second with 527) and most career 400+ passing games (tied for second with seven).

Named the NFL's Man of the Year in 1989 for his work in the community, Warren established the Crescent Moon Foundation in 1989 to raise money for college academic scholarships in Seattle, Los Angeles, Houston, and Minneapolis/St. Paul. He remains active in charity work. Warren has worked as an ambassador for the NFL promoting the game of football both nationally and internationally to young people.

CENTURYLINK FIELD

In 1996, Paul G. Allen obtained an option to purchase the Seattle Seahawks and launched a campaign to win public support for a new world-class football/soccer stadium and exhibition center. Six years later, the dream became reality as the Seahawks opened the 2002 preseason against the Indianapolis Colts in Seahawks Stadium, renamed Qwest Field on June 2, 2004. After seven seasons, the stadium was renamed CenturyLink Field on June 23, 2011.

The CenturyLink Field stadium complex includes CenturyLink Field and the 200,000 sq. ft. CenturyLink Field Event Center. The versatile Event Center is often converted into an intimate music theater to host a wide array of musical acts from Paul Simon to Snoop Dogg. CenturyLink Field and CenturyLink Field Event Center host approximately 165 events that attract more than two million attendees annually. In 2011, the stadium served as host to U2 with more than 70,000 fans in attendance, the largest attended event since the stadium opened in 2002.

from FieldTurf and two Mitsubishi Electric Diamond Vision video displays were installed. The new video displays introduced fans to a new and enhanced viewing experience.

In 2013, FGI signed a new concessionaire partner, Delaware North Sportservice, to enhance the food and beverage experience, develop new hospitality amenities and increase efficiency for fans by introducing new food concepts and additional portable concessions carts throughout the stadium. Capital improvements to the stadium included an expanded and redesigned retail store with an increased footprint from 3,000 to 7,400 square feet and 30 new mobile points-of-sale in addition to a new Beer Hall featuring 14 different selections. FGI also invested in DAS network (Distributed Antenna System) to help improve cellular connection in stadium, installed 90 new CISCO Access Points to enhance existing Wi-Fi infrastructure, installed 47 new digital menu boards and HDTVs to provide flexibility in pricing and menu and 40 additional fixed and portable points of sale.

CENTURYLINK FIELD FACTS & FIGURES

- CenturyLink Field, CenturyLink Field Event Center and WaMu Theater host more than 165 events per year that attract more than two million attendees
- FGI employs over 800 staff for the 10 Seahawks game days and over 400 staff for the 18 Sounders FC matches each season
- 67,000 fixed seats
- 1,400 seats for people with disabilities and their companions – compared to 70 at the Kingdome
- 63 restrooms (799 toilets/364 urinals) – twice as many as the Kingdome
- 100% of urinals are retrofitted with low-flow fixtures, saving more than 58,618 gallons of water during every home game
- 12 elevators – compared to three at the Kingdome
- 50 concession stands and 47 beer concessions – twice as many per person as the Kingdome
- 100% of the concrete from the Kingdome was processed and recycled (50% built into CenturyLink Field)
- 2,000 car garage
- Six electric vehicle chargers - four in north lot and two in the garage
- Events hosted in the CenturyLink Field Event Center have generated more than $2.1M for Common School Fund

CENTURYLINK FIELD FUNDING

The $430 million facility is owned by the public and was funded by a private-public partnership. Private contributions totaled at least $130 million, while the public contributed up to $300 million through a lottery and a variety of taxes generated by events in the stadium/exhibition center.

A breakdown of the funding package:

- $130 million private investment led by Paul G. Allen
- $127 million from new, sports related lottery games, similar to the Mariners' baseball-themed scratch games
- $101 million in sales taxes collected in King County attributable to events in the stadium/event center
- $56 million from facility admission and parking taxes
- $15 million from extending King County's share of the existing hotel-motel tax
- $1 million per year of in-kind advertising for the new lottery games will be provided by Paul G. Allen
- All excess stadium revenues will fund youth athletic facilities throughout Washington State in addition to a $10 million contribution from Paul G. Allen
- $14 million of the public contribution will come from interest earned on the $50 million private contribution from Paul Allen
- Paul G. Allen agreed to pay for any construction cost overruns
- As an added measure, the debt on the Kingdome was retired, freeing property taxes for other purposes

FIRST & GOAL INC.

In June of 1997, Washington State voters approved a funding package to build a new football/soccer stadium and exhibition center. With that, Paul G. Allen and Football Northwest created First & Goal Inc., to manage the stadium and event center on a daily basis.

VIRGINIA MASON ATHLETIC CENTER

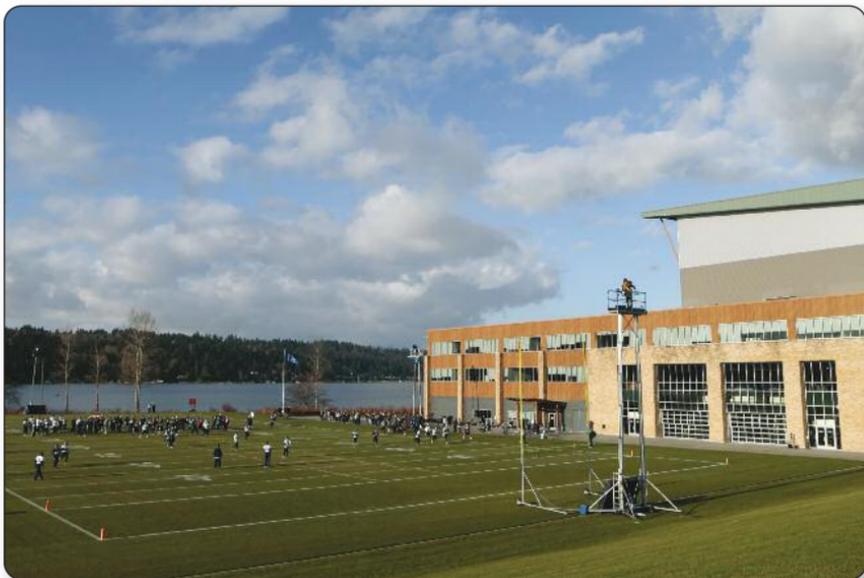

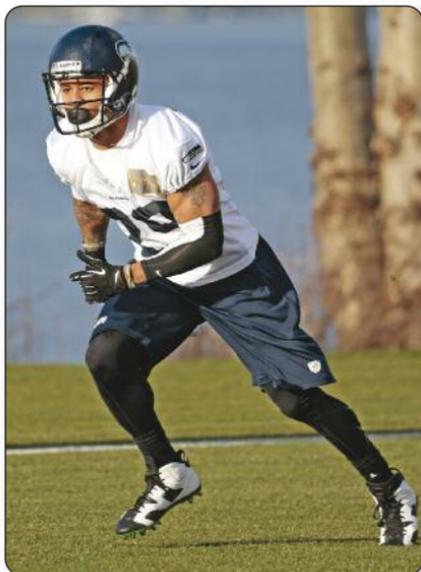

The Seahawks moved into the 200,000 square foot waterfront facility in August 2008. Virginia Mason Athletic Center (VMAC) is the second-largest facility in the NFL.

The property is bounded by Interstate 405 to the east, Lake Washington to the west, residential property to the north and 44th Street to the south.

The privately funded practice facility is situated on 19 acres of industrial property. It houses a permanent indoor practice facility, and the team's entire front office. In addition, there are three outdoor practice fields, 50,000 square feet of training facility space, 15,000 square feet of player meeting space and 48,000 square feet of administrative office space. VMAC allows fans to watch practice during training camp.

Purchased by Vulcan Real Estate in 2000, the land was formerly home to a coal tar refinery & creosote plant, since remediated by Vulcan in concert with the City of Renton and the Washington State Department of Ecology. The project will improve the environmental climate of Renton and its wetlands by improving and redeveloping the site. Since the team's inaugural season in 1976, the Seahawks were housed at Carillon Point for 10.5 years from 1976-86.

The Kingdome was originally located on 35.9 acres. Due to construction of the new parking garage and event center the acreage is now 23.9 acres.

The Kingdome had the largest concrete roof in the world - 7.85 acres. A new roof and ceiling was completed in 1994. The new ceiling had improved acoustics through the use of a spray on cellulose material.

The building itself, contained 52,800 cubic yards of concrete and 443 tons of structural steel.

It was 250 feet high and 660 feet across to the inside walls making it wider than the Space Needle is tall.

The Kingdome hosted football, soccer, baseball, basketball, tennis, volleyball, rodeos, motor sports, concerts, meetings and trade & consumer shows of all types.

The Kingdome boasted the 43rd largest facility exhibition space in North America.

More than 72 million people entered the Kingdome through a variety of entertainment over 23 years.

Over 3,250 major events were held and many hundreds of smaller special events.

The largest event attendance at the Kingdome was 74,000, set on May 14, 1976 during a Billy Graham Crusade.

Original cost, including property, was $67 million; another $47 million in capital improvements was added over the years. The remaining debt on both the original cost and capital improvements is $57 million.

The roof and ceiling renovation was $70 million.

The total debt on the Kingdome is $127 million with the majority of it due to be retired in the year 2016.

Annual payments of $6.3 million are received from a 2 percent hotel/motel room tax and a 1 percent rental car tax. This pays for the original construction, the roof and ceiling repair and millions of dollars in improvements.

The stadium employed 70 full-time staff and up to 1,200 part-time event personnel.

HUSKY STADIUM

The Seattle Seahawks played their entire 2000 and 2001 home schedule at Husky Stadium. With the demolition of the Kingdome and creation of the new football stadium, the Seahawks looked to the home of the Washington Huskies for the 2000 and 2001 NFL seasons.

Seating capacity at Husky Stadium for Seahawks games was 68,589, with nearly 70 percent of those seats between the endzones.

stadium in 1994, when ceiling tiles fell from the Kingdome's roof.

Built in 1902 at a cost of $600,000, the stadium's initial capacity was 30,000. The stadium officially opened on November 27, 1920, when Dartmouth defeated the University of Washington, 28-7.

Capacity was increased to 40,000 in 1936 and again to 55,000 in 1950. The second of these upgrades included roof-covered seats in the south stands and cost $1.7 million.

The current press box was originally constructed as part of the 1950 expansion.

An additional 4,000 seats were added in 1968, to take capacity to 59,000.

Husky Stadium became just the second stadium to don AstroTurf, when it replaced the original natural grass in 1968. The University of Washington supplied more than 200 pairs of shoes for opponents, due to the rarity of the surface. The turf was replaced in 1972, 1977, 1987, 1995, and new FieldTurf was laid down in 2000. Seating capacity increased one more time in 1987, in a $13 million project.

FORMER KIRKLAND HEADQUARTERS

From June 18, 1986, through training camp of 2008, the Seattle Seahawks office and training headquarters was located adjacent to Northwest College in Kirkland, Washington.

The two-story building went through major renovation that was completed in 1999, to create a first-class facility. The lower-level housed meeting rooms, locker rooms for the players and coaches, training and equipment rooms as well as an

Upstairs houses the administrative offices, coaches offices, and conference rooms.

The Seahawks were able to practice on three regulation fields, two natural grass and one artificial turf. The original turf field was replaced by a new one in 1997. That field was then covered by an inflatable bubble as the weather worsened.
