ROBERT C. McNAIR

Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Robert C. McNair is perhaps best known in the business community as the founder of Cogen Technologies, which was sold in 1999. Cogen was the largest privately-owned cogeneration company in the world, with aggregate capacity of 1,400 megawatts.

McNair also serves as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of The McNair Group, headquartered in Houston, Texas, where he oversees an investment portfolio that includes interests in three cogeneration plants in the eastern United States. McNair owns Palmetto Partners, Ltd. and RCM Financial Services, L.P., private investment entities that manage the McNairs' public and private equity investments, and is Chairman of the Robert and Janice McNair Foundation and the Houston Texans Foundation.

Committed to bringing a National Football League team to Houston, McNair formed Houston NFL Holdings in 1998. On October 6, 1999, the NFL announced that the 32nd NFL franchise had been awarded to McNair, returning football to the city of Houston in the year 2002 and Super Bowl XXXVIII in 2004.

On September 8, 2002, the Houston Texans kicked off their Inaugural Season with a victory over the Dallas Cowboys, 19-10, in the franchise's nationally-televised season opener. The victory over Dallas made Houston the first expansion club to win its opening game since the 1961 Minnesota Vikings. The Texans also won at Jacksonville and upset the Giants and Steelers, both playoff teams.

Despite facing a rash of injuries and the NFL's toughest schedule in 2003, the Texans posted a 5-11 campaign in their second NFL season. And in 2004, the Texans continued their steady climb by winning seven games. Houston won consecutive games for the first time and earned its first sweeps of divisional opponents by defeating Jacksonville and Tennessee twice. The Texans' second win over the Jaguars, a 21-0 road triumph, marked Houston's first shutout win in franchise history.

After the team finished with a disappointing 2-14 record in 2005, McNair displayed courage and conviction by hiring a rookie head coach and a first-time general manager to build a winning team in Houston. Gary Kubiak, a Houston native, was named the Texans' second head coach on January 26, 2006 after spending the previous 11 seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Denver Broncos. On June 5, 2006, McNair introduced Rick Smith as the franchise's second general manager. Smith, who followed Kubiak from Denver where he was the assistant general manager, became the youngest general manager in the NFL at age 36.

McNair is also Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Texas Bowl, Inc. which brought the inaugural Texas Bowl game to Reliant Stadium on December 28, 2006. Rutgers and Kansas State played in front of the largest bowl crowd in Reliant Stadium history—over 52,000. Annual Texas Bowl games will feature teams from the Big 12, the Big East and Conference USA.

Stonerside Stable, a major thoroughbred horse farm in Kentucky, is also among McNair's successes. A 1,500-acre thoroughbred horse farm and racing stable, Stonerside is home to over 200 racehorses, broodmares, yearlings and weanlings. Since its inception in 1994, Stonerside has won 59 Graded Stakes races including Grade I wins in the Belmont, Breeders Cup Mile, the Travers, the Haskell, the Hollywood Gold Cup, the Cigar Mile, the Carter, the Swaps, the Wood Memorial, the Matriarch and the Oak Leaf Stakes. Stonerside also has finished second and third in the Kentucky Derby and was the co-breeder of Fusaichi Pegasus, winner of the Derby.

McNair is a current or past member of the Boards of Trustees of a number of institutions, including Rice University, Baylor College of Medicine, the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston Grand Opera, the Greater Houston Partnership, the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Free Enterprise Institute and the Federal Reserve Banks of Dallas and Houston.

McNair is a member of the Texas Business Hall of Fame and a recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award, the Northwood University Outstanding Business Leader Award and the Association for Private Enterprise Education's Herman W. Lay Memorial Award. In 1999 he received the Distinguished American Award from the Houston Chapter of the National Football Foundation and the Distinguished Citizen Award from the Rotary Club of Houston. In April 2002, The South Main Center Association presented McNair with the prestigious City Builder Award. The Houston Advertising Federation honored McNair in November 2002 with the Annual Trailblazer Award recognizing him for significantly enhancing the overall image of Houston, both locally and globally. In April 2003, McNair received the Distinguished Citizen Award from the Sam Houston Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America, and in May 2003, McNair received The Denton A. Cooley Leadership Award from the Texas Heart Institute. In November 2003, the McNairs received the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge National Award for Outstanding Patriotism, Responsible Citizenship and Community Involvement. The McNair Foundation was honored as the 2003 Outstanding Philanthropic Foundation at the National Philanthropy Day luncheon sponsored by the Association of Fundraising Professionals, and in November 2004, the Foundation was honored at the Houston Independent School District Partnership Appreciation Breakfast with a Hall of Fame Award. In April 2004, McNair was honored with the Heart of Houston award from the Fifth Ward Enrichment Program. In March 2005, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes presented McNair with the President & Mrs. George H. W. Bush Community Impact Award. In June 2005, Rice University announced that the newest building on the campus, the 167,000 square foot home of the Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management, had been officially named Janice and Robert McNair Hall by the Rice Board of Trustees. McNair also is a founder of the Cotswold project, a revitalization project focused on downtown Houston.

Born in Tampa, Fla., McNair has been a resident of Houston since 1960. He graduated from the University of South Carolina in Columbia in 1958 with a Bachelor of Science degree. In 1999, McNair received an honorary doctor of humane letters degree from the University of South Carolina.

PHILIP BURGUIÈRES

Vice Chairman

Philip Burguières, one of Houston's most innovative leaders, serves as Vice Chairman of the Houston Texans.

Burguières also serves as Chairman and CEO of EMC Holdings, an investment management company specializing in oil services and exploration and production industries. Additionally, he serves as Chairman Emeritus of Weatherford International, an international energy company. Until 1996, Burguières was Weatherford International's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

Prior to joining Weatherford, Burguières was Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Panhandle Eastern Corporation and Cameron Iron Works, Inc. During his career in the energy industry he was named C.E.O. of the year three times by Financial World Magazine.

Burguières is the current Chairman of the Menninger Clinic and serves on the Executive Committee of M. D. Anderson Cancer Center. In 2005, he received the Woodrow Wilson Corporate Citizenship Award from the Smithsonian Institute, was the 2003 recipient of the National Mental Health Association's William Styron Award, and in May of 2000 was awarded the prestigious Ima Hogg Award from the Mental Health Association of Greater Houston. He is a Director of Bridges to Life, Catholic Charities, the Mental Health Association and the Texas Heart Institute.

He is on the board of directors at FMC Technologies, Inc., Newfield Exploration Company, and J.P. Morgan Chase Bank. He also serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of The J.M. Burguières Co., Ltd. (a family-owned limited partnership). He is a member of the National Petroleum Council, the World's President's Organization, is past president of the Petroleum Club of Houston, the Petroleum Equipment Suppliers Association; past chairman of the National Ocean Industries Association.

A native of Franklin, La., he graduated with a bachelor's of science degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Louisiana, where a Chair in the engineering department has been named in his honor. He was a recipient of his alma mater's Outstanding Alumni Award in 1992. He served in the U.S. Navy for four years, reaching the rank of Lieutenant. Burguières received his master's in business administration from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business where he is a Director.

RICK SMITH

General Manager

11th NFL Season • 2nd with Texans

Rick Smith was named the second general manager in Texans history on June 5, 2006. He utilizes a superbly honed ability for identifying player talent along with an exceptional aptitude for fine-tuning football operations in his role with the Texans.

Smith, the former assistant general manager with the Denver Broncos, was reunited in Houston with Texans head coach Gary Kubiak, who was Denver's offensive coordinator from 1995-05. As general manager, Smith oversees all aspects of football operations including player personnel, salary cap management and budgeting. He works closely with the coaching and scouting staffs to build the club roster via free agency as well as overseeing the annual college draft.

At 37 years old, Smith is the youngest general manager in the NFL. Upon his hiring, he also became the fourth African-American to head an NFL personnel department, joining Arizona's Rod Graves, Jacksonville's James Harris, and Baltimore's Ozzie Newsome.

In his first full offseason in Houston, Smith has given the Texans a fresh new look while improving the team as a whole. In March, 2007 the Texans signed unrestricted free agent running back Ahman Green. The four-time Pro Bowler entering his 10th NFL season was the Green Bay Packers leader in yards from scrimmage with 10,870 and total 1,000-yard rushing seasons with six. Later in the month, Smith executed a trade that brought QB Matt Schaub to Houston from Atlanta. Schaub will enter the fall as the Texans new quarterback and field general.

Smith continued to improve the Texans by reorganizing Houston's draft process to streamline information enabling scouts and coaches to have the most up-to-date information in order to select the best players for the Texans future. In the first round the Texans selected DT Amobi Okoye from Louisville, who was first team All-American during his senior season. Okoye's selection made history, becoming the youngest player at 19 to be drafted in the first round of the modern NFL draft.

Smith significantly strengthened the Texans team during the 2006 season by strategically acquiring solid new talent to bolster a roster hit hard by injury. While the Texans finished the season with a league-high 17 players on injured reserve, the team also successfully integrated 20 players that were not on the Texans training camp roster to the active lineup.

One of the pivotal components of the 2006 season were players not on the opening day roster who ultimately made key contributions, leading to an improvement in the Texans win total of four games over the 2005 season. The Texans had four different running backs lead them in rushing in a game at some point during the season. Houston was paced by RB Ron Dayne, whom the Texans signed after training camp last season. Dayne enjoyed his best season in six years, rushing for 429 yards in the month of December, second most in Texans history.

In his former role with the Broncos, Smith was responsible for evaluating players from around the NFL, as well as those in NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League, the Arena Football League, and other professional leagues. He also played a central role in the club's preparation for the college draft and was one of the Broncos' primary negotiators for player contracts.

With Smith heading the pro personnel department, the Broncos posted the league's fifth-best regular-season record from 2000-05, going 61-35 (.635). The 61 wins were the most of any AFC West team over that span, 10 more than the next closest team, Kansas City. Not surprisingly, Denver was one of only four teams in the NFL to reach the playoffs each season from 2003-05.

Before moving into the front office, Smith spent four years as the Broncos' assistant defensive backs coach and earned two Super Bowl rings while helping guide a unit that consistently ranked as one of the league's best. The team won more games from 1996-98 (46) than any club in NFL history over a three-year period.

Smith joined the Broncos on April 3, 1996, following a two-year stint as defensive backs coach at his alma mater, Purdue University. He left Purdue in February to accept a coaching position at TCU but spent just one month at the school before being hired by the Broncos.

A 1992 graduate of Purdue, Smith began his coaching career with the Boilermakers shortly after his graduation, serving as the school's assistant strength and conditioning coordinator as a grad assistant. After serving as the team's tight ends coach for one season, Smith was hired as the secondary coach, becoming the youngest position coach in the Big Ten Conference at the time at the age of 24.

Smith was a starter at strong safety and defensive captain for Purdue as a senior in 1991. A native of Petersburg, Va., he attended Meadowdale High School in Dayton, Ohio. Smith also is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Smith and his wife, Tiffany live in Houston with son Robert LaMar.

Texans LB DeMeco Ryans was named the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year. He recorded double-digit tackles in nine-of-16 games, more than any other defender in the league and four more than any other rookie. He led the team or tied for the team lead in tackles 10 times. In addition to his historic tackle numbers, Ryans finished tied for the lead among rookie inside linebackers with 3.5 sacks.

Ryans joins a long line of successful rookies with the Texans to gain recognition for their accomplishments during their rookie season. In 2003, RB Domanick Williams was voted NFL Rookie of the Year on NFL.com. CB Dunta Robinson was selected by Pro Football Weekly as the 2004 Rookie of the Year. In 2005, WR Jerome Mathis was named first team kickoff returner by the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated and Sporting News.

JAMEY ROOTES

President

8th NFL Season • 8th with Texans

Jamey Rootes serves as president of the Houston Texans and is responsible for all business functions of the club.

Since joining the Texans, Rootes has overseen the team's efforts to secure stadium naming rights and sponsorship, coordinated radio and TV broadcasting relationships, engineered the club's successful ticket and suite sales campaigns, led the creation and launch of the team's identity, and developed the team's highly-acclaimed customer service strategy.

Under Rootes' leadership the Texans have earned many distinctions, including the American Marketing Association's "Crystal Award" for the best overall marketing campaign. J.D. Power & Associates recognized the team for providing the best fan experience in the NFL and even featured the Texans as a service success story in their recent book entitled Satisfaction. Also, the Texans were recognized with Sports Business Journal's PRISM Award, which is given annually to the top major league professional sports team based on business excellence criteria. In 2003, the Texans were also named by Sports Business Journal as the best sports start-up over a five-year period. In 2006, the Texans extended their sell-out streak to 50 consecutive home games, a Houston NFL record and a testament to the consistent quality of service and entertainment provided by the organization on gameday. As a result, the Texans have consistently been recognized as one of the most valuable professional sports franchises both in the NFL and globally, as measured by a variety of business publications

Rootes was selected twice by Sports Business Journal as a member of their distinguished "Forty Under 40" list of leading sports executives. Also, Rootes maintains an active role in the community and serves on a number of boards, including the United Way of Greater Houston and Junior Achievement.

Prior to joining the Houston Texans, Rootes helped to launch Major League Soccer as president and general manager of the Columbus Crew. During his tenure, the Crew was consistently among the league's strongest teams both on and off the field, and Rootes was recognized as Executive of the Year in 1996 and Marketing Executive of the Year in 1999. Rootes helped lead the construction of Crew Stadium in 1999, which was the first stadium of its type in America. This facility earned distinction as America's Foremost Sports Facility of the Year.

A native of Stone Mountain, Ga., Rootes attended Clemson University and was a member of the Tigers' soccer team that captured two NCAA titles and served as Student Body President. While earning an MBA at Indiana University, he served as an assistant soccer coach for the Hoosiers. Rootes previously held positions at IBM and Procter & Gamble before entering sports.

SCOTT E. SCHWINGER

Senior Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer

8th NFL Season • 8th with Texans

Scott Schwinger was named the Texans' vice president, treasurer and chief financial officer in August 2000. He was promoted to his current position in May 2001.

For the past 13 years, Schwinger has held positions with various companies owned, directly or indirectly, by Robert C. McNair, including president of Palmetto Partners Ltd. and RCM Financial Services, L.P., and vice president for Cogen Technologies, an independent power company. As President of Palmetto and RCM Financial Services, he serves as the investment manager for portfolios of public and private equities. Schwinger also serves as managing director of EMC Holdings, L.L.C., a private energy investment fund.

Schwinger oversees a staff of more than 25 and is responsible for financial reporting, budgeting, cash management, risk management, management information systems and all debt and equity financings of the Texans and other McNair Group companies. He provided the financial analysis support in the effort beginning in 1998 to bring professional football back to Houston. Schwinger also served on the Houston Super Bowl XXXVIII Host Committee, Inc. In addition, he provides strategic and investment management oversight, venture capital due diligence, and negotiates deal structuring for Palmetto and RCM Financial Services.

Since the awarding of the team in 1999, Schwinger has successfully coordinated and structured debt financings totaling $675 million, one of the largest and most successful series of financings to date for a professional sports team.

Schwinger received a Bachelor of Arts in mathematics from Vanderbilt University and a Master's of Business Administration from the University of Texas at Austin. In the community, he serves on the boards of the YES Prep Public Schools, The Make-A-Wish Foundation and The Endowment Fund. He and his wife, Becca, both native Houstonians, are the parents of sons, Corbin and Charley and daughter, Cara.

Rookie Pass Catcher

TE Owen Daniels tied for the team lead and set a franchise rookie record with five receiving touchdowns last year. His five touchdowns were tied for the seventh-most in the NFL by a tight end in 2006 and were more than any other rookie tight end last year.

8th NFL Season • 8th with Texans*

Suzie Thomas joined the Houston Texans and the McNair Group in March 2000. She oversees the legal, human resources and business administration functions for both groups and holds positions with various other entities in The McNair Group.

Thomas previously served as general counsel and vice president of Human Resources of Corporate Brand Foods America, Inc., a meat processing business that was subsequently purchased by Tyson Foods. Prior to CBFA, Thomas spent 16 years at Weatherford International, Inc., an international energy service and manufacturing company, the last 12 years as senior vice president and general counsel. She started her legal career as an associate attorney at Baker Botts L.L.P. in Houston.

Thomas earned her law degree from the University of Houston's Bates College of Law and her undergraduate degree in Spanish from the University of Texas. Thomas is a member of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas, where she served as Chair of the Corporate Counsel Section from 1994-95. Thomas also serves as a director and executive committee member of and general counsel to Child Advocates, Inc. Thomas received the 2004 University of Houston Law Center's Corporate Sector Award and the 2005 Houston Business Journal Award for Best General Counsel with a staff of two to ten.

Ms. Thomas resides in Houston.

MARILAN LOGAN

*Vice President and Controller
27th NFL Season • 7th with Texans*

Marilan Logan joined the Texans as the team's controller in February 2000 and was promoted to vice president in April 2007. She is responsible for maintaining the team's financial records.

Logan came to the Texans after serving as controller/treasurer for the Houston Aeros Hockey Club, Aerodromes Ice Rinks, and Houston Aeros Foundation for two seasons. Prior to joining the Houston Aeros, Logan was the controller for the Houston Oilers (now Tennessee Titans) from 1978-97. Her responsibilities included accounting for player contracts, maintaining the club's financial records, and aiding club management with special projects. Prior to the Oilers, she was a cost accounting specialist for Reed Tool Company.

Marilan and her husband, Rick, have a daughter, Sandy, two sons Jeff and Roy, and two grandsons Kyle and Todd. The couple resides in Humble.

JOHN SCHRIEVER

*Vice President, Ticket Operations
8th NFL Season • 8th with Texans*

John Schriever is entering his eighth year with the Texans and his 24th in the professional sports industry. During his career, Schriever has been part of the sales and service of more than 30 million tickets to sporting events. He started with the Texans in July 2000 as director of ticket operations and was promoted to vice president in July 2003. Schriever oversees all aspects of ticketing for the Texans, including the sales and service of PSLs, suites, season tickets, Director's Club and group and individual game tickets.

Schriever began his sports business career with the Texas Rangers Baseball Club in 1984 as a season ticket sales intern. By the 1989 season, Schriever had been promoted to director of ticket operations. During his 12 seasons with the Rangers, the team was purchased by an ownership group headed by George W. Bush, acquired pitcher Nolan Ryan, closed Arlington Stadium, opened The Ballpark in Arlington and hosted the 1995 Major League Baseball All-Star Game.

During the summer of 1996, Schriever worked with the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games at the Summer Olympics. He worked in ticketing as a customer service manager at Fulton County Stadium and Olympic Stadium.

Following the Olympic Games, Schriever took the position of director of tickets for Texas Motor Speedway in Ft. Worth. He was part of the management staff that opened the Speedway in the spring of 1997. The speedway debuted that year with a crowd in excess of 200,000 for its inaugural Winston Cup race.

Schriever is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas, where he earned a degree in business management. John and his wife, Dana, who holds a degree in teaching from the University of Texas, have two children, Nicholas and Sarah.

JOHN VIDALIN

Vice President, Sales and Marketing
4th NFL Season • 4th with Texans

John Vidalin enters his fourth season with the Texans as vice president of sales and marketing. Vidalin oversees all of the team's corporate partnerships and sales of all related properties, team promotional rights and media. Vidalin is responsible for directing the Texans gameday experience, HoustonTexans.com, advertising, in-game productions, TORO, the Houston Texans Cheerleaders and team merchandise.

Vidalin came to the Texans from the Washington Capitals of the NHL where he served as vice president of marketing, in charge of all branding, advertising, media, fan development, merchandise and game operations efforts. During his time with the Capitals, the team won three Golden Matrix awards for "Best Opening Video" and "Best Show in Professional Sports."

Prior to the Capitals, Vidalin was vice president of client service with MGM Communications, a full-service advertising agency based in Calgary, Alberta. Previously he also served as director of marketing for the Calgary Flames of the NHL for six seasons and as key accounts manager with Alberto Culver Canada.

Born and raised in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, Vidalin is a graduate of communications from Lethbridge College at Lethbridge, Alberta. He and his wife, Carol, have two daughters, Amy and Allison.

GREG WATSON

Vice President of Finance
8th NFL Season • 8th with Texans

Greg Watson joined The McNair Group and the Houston Texans in November 1999 after working as an international finance associate in the energy industry. In his current position as vice president of finance, Watson is involved in all aspects of the team's debt and equity financing activities, long range financial forecasting and special project analyses. His other responsibilities include financial analysis, due diligence and deal structuring for The McNair Group private equity investments.

Watson received his Bachelor of Arts in political science from Vanderbilt University and his MBA with a focus on finance and entrepreneurship from The University of Texas. He and his wife, Cathy, both native Houstonians, live in Houston with their children, Claire, William and Gardner.

TONY WYLLIE

Vice President, Communications
15th NFL Season • 8th with Texans

Tony Wyllie is entering his 15th season in the NFL and his eighth campaign as the Texans' vice president of communications. He is responsible for shaping and molding the image of the team in the public and the community. He serves as the liaison between the local and national media and the Texans' front office, coaches and players. Wyllie generates publicity for the club while serving as the team spokesman. He also oversees the Texans' public relations, community relations, media products departments and the Houston Texans Foundation.

Wyllie began his NFL career as a game day intern with the Houston Oilers in 1991 before working as a summer intern with the San Diego Chargers PR department in 1992. He spent 1993 as an intern in the PR department with the Dallas Cowboys, earning a Super Bowl ring before heading west to Los Angeles to work with the Rams as the assistant director of public relations. Wyllie moved with the team to St. Louis in 1995 and became the youngest PR director in the NFL three years later when the Tennessee Oilers hired him in 1998. He picked up an AFC championship ring with the Titans in 1999 before joining the Texans staff in the summer of 2000. During his NFL career, Wyllie has assisted in promoting five players that have been elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Aikman and Irvin, Cowboys; Slater, Rams; Munchak and Matthews, Oilers/Titans).

Most recently, Wyllie and his staff earned the Pete Rozelle award, which is presented annually by Pro Football Writers of America to the best NFL public relations staff. It was the second time (2004 and 2007) in five seasons the Texans earned the honor and it marked the fourth time that Wyllie has been on a staff that has won the award. The Rams' PR department won the award in 1997 and the Titans in 2000.

He also was chosen by the NFL to work the 1996 and 1997 NFC Championship games, the 1999 Pro Bowl in Hawaii, and the last seven Super Bowls. He also participated in the NFL's management program at Stanford University in 2004 and the first NFL Football Operations Personnel Symposium in May.

Wyllie serves on numerous Boards of Directors including the Ensemble Theatre in Houston, the John P. McGovern Museum of Health & Medical Science, and the Touchdown Club of Houston. He serves on the advisory board for Inner City Youth and the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. He also served as a sub-committee chairman on Houston's Super Bowl XXXVIII host committee.

Wyllie worked three years in the sports information department of Texas Southern University, where he received his degree in journalism. In 2004, Wyllie received TSU's "Distinguished Alumnus" award. Last May, he earned a Masters in Business Administration from the Jones School of Business at Rice University after completing the prestigious Executive MBA program.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Wyllie grew up in Northwest Houston and attended Cy-Fair High School. He resides in Houston with his wife, Natasha, and son, James.

GARY KUBIAK

Head Coach

14th NFL Season • 2nd with Texans

Gary Kubiak returned to his hometown of Houston on January 26, 2006, becoming the second head coach in the history of the Houston Texans.

In his rookie season as a head coach, Kubiak guided the Texans to a 6-10 record, tripling the team's win total of the year before. The six victories included wins in three of the last five games of the season and the franchise's first-ever win over Indianapolis. Six wins were the second-most in franchise history. All six wins came versus AFC opponents, giving the Texans their most wins over conference foes in team annals.

Houston's three wins in December matched the best month in team history, and wins over Indianapolis and Cleveland to close the year gave the Texans back-to-back wins for the first time in 32 games. The win over Cleveland on New Year's Eve was the team's first season-ending victory in five years. Kubiak guided his team to a 4-4 record at home, the most wins at Reliant Stadium in team history.

Under Kubiak's leadership, the offense showed improvement from the year prior, particularly in the running game. Although the team struggled on the ground early, by the end of the year the rushing attack had become a team strength. Houston averaged 122.6 rushing yards per game over the last 11 weeks of the season, and 12 of the team's 13 rushing touchdowns came during that time span.

One of the hallmarks of Kubiak's tenure as offensive coordinator in Denver was the Broncos' ability to get solid production from seemingly any back on the roster. In his first season in Houston, Kubiak showed similar effectiveness with the Texans' running backs. Three different backs ran for 90 yards or more in a game, highlighted by Ron Dayne's 153-yard, two touchdown effort in the team's 27-24 win over Indianapolis on Christmas Eve.

The passing game improved by nearly 40 yards per game over 2005, and quarterback David Carr led all NFL passers with a 68.3 completion percentage. The player who benefited most from Kubiak's offensive system was wide receiver Andre Johnson, who earned his second trip to the Pro Bowl and was named a Pro Bowl starter for the first time in his career. Johnson led the NFL with 103 receptions, and he turned in his second career 1,000-yard season with 1,147 yards. The offensive line also improved under Kubiak's scheme, allowing 25 fewer sacks than in 2005.

As a head coach, Kubiak found himself responsible for the defense for the first time in his career. Under the guidance of defensive coordinator Richard Smith, the defense improved by nearly 30 yards and four points per game over its 2005 performance and turned in three of the six best games in franchise history.

After a slow start, the defense improved throughout the year and was one of the top 10 defenses in the league over the last three months of the season. From Week 4 through the end of the season, the defense lowered its yards allowed by nearly 180 yards per game, and it allowed 12.1 fewer points per game over the last 13 games compared to the first three.

Another first for Kubiak was having the final say in the draft, and the results were outstanding. With the first overall pick in the draft, the Texans selected defensive end Mario Williams, who set the franchise rookie sack record with 4.5 sacks and was the only Texans defensive lineman to start every game. Second-round pick DeMeco Ryans started every game at middle linebacker and was named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year after collecting 156 tackles, more than any rookie in 20 years. The third round yielded a pair of offensive linemen, each of whom started during the season. Charles Spencer opened the year as the starting left tackle before suffering a season-ending injury in Week 2, and Eric Winston started the final seven games at right tackle. Fourth-round pick Owen Daniels led all rookie tight ends in catches, yards and touchdowns. Running back Wali Lundy, drafted in the sixth round, was second on the team with 476 yards, and wide receiver David Anderson, a seventh-round pick, was a key contributor on special teams.

Kubiak spent 20 of the previous 23 years in the Denver area, where he earned a reputation as a brilliant offensive mastermind. He played for the Broncos from 1983-91 as the backup for Hall of Fame quarterback John Elway. Kubiak played in 119 games during his career and tossed 14 touchdowns in that span. During his time as a player in the Mile High City, he was a part of three teams that reached the Super Bowl.

Kubiak began his coaching career in 1992-93 as the running backs coach at his alma mater Texas A&M. Under Kubiak's watchful eye, running back Greg Hill was named second team All-America his junior year. Hill was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the first round of the 1994 draft.

Kubiak started his NFL coaching career with the San Francisco 49ers in 1994. As quarterbacks coach, he guided Hall of Famer Steve Young to his best season as a pro. Young was named the NFL MVP for the second time in his career.

Under Kubiak's tutelage, Young had a career-high 70.3 completion percentage. He threw 35 touchdowns, passed for 3,969 yards and set an NFL record with a 112.8 passer rating, a mark that would stand for 10 seasons. Young captured Super Bowl XXIX MVP honors by tossing a record six touchdowns in San Francisco's 49-26 win over the San Diego Chargers.

In the spring of 1995, Kubiak returned to the Broncos as offensive coordinator, where he would steer Denver to the organization's best numbers in team history and help lead the team to seven postseason trips and two Super Bowl titles in 11 seasons.

Kubiak began his tenure in Denver as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach to his former teammate, Elway. Kubiak made an immediate impact as Elway threw for 3,970 yards, the second-best mark of his Hall of Fame career. Elway increased his touchdown passes from 16 in 1994 to 26 in 1995. During the final four years of his career (1995-98), Elway tossed 101 touchdown passes, second only to Brett Favre in that span.

Kubiak's offense featured one of the best tight ends in NFL history. Shannon Sharpe, the NFL's leader among tight ends in receptions, receiving yards, and touchdowns, spent seven years under Kubiak. Sharpe averaged 61 receptions and had the most yards receiving with 1,107 yards in 1997.

Kubiak's offenses always have been based on balance. The Broncos' running game has focused around a strong system instead of an individual. Broncos runners have gone over the 1,000-yard rushing mark 10 seasons out of the past 11. Denver has seen five different runners rush for more than 1,000 yards, more than any team in the NFL over the past 11 years.

Kubiak turned to Terrell Davis to tote the ball as the Broncos won back-to-back Super Bowls in the late '90s. In 1997, Davis became only the fourth running back in NFL history to rush for more than 2,000 yards. During the 1997-98 seasons, he rushed for 3,758 yards, most of any running back in back-to-back campaigns between 1995-2005. Davis' 2,008 rushing yards are the fourth most in NFL history. He won AP Offensive Player of the Year honors in 1996 and 1998.

Following Elway's retirement, Kubiak turned his offense over to second-year quarterback Brian Griese, who threw for 3,032 yards in his first season as the Broncos' starter. In the 2000 season, Griese guided the Broncos' offense to rank second in the NFL in points scored and total offense. He was named to the Pro Bowl that season.

That same season Mike Anderson rushed for 1,487 yards, a Bronco record for a rookie. Anderson set the NFL single-game rookie rushing record with 251 yards against the New Orleans Saints. That year, Kubiak's receivers, Ed McCaffrey (101) and Rod Smith (100), became just the second pair of teammates in NFL history to grab at least 100 receptions.

In 2002, the Broncos drafted running back Clinton Portis in the second round. In his rookie season, Portis rushed for 1,508 yards, breaking Anderson's rookie mark, and was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. The Broncos' rushing attack averaged 141.6 yards per game, which ranked second in the AFC. The offense totaled 380.6 yards per game, which was third in the NFL.

Kubiak relinquished his quarterbacks coach title in 2003, turning the duties over to Pat McPherson. That offseason, Denver signed quarterback Jake Plummer from the Arizona Cardinals and Plummer was immediately transformed. Despite missing five games his first season in Denver, Plummer threw for more touchdowns (15) than interceptions (7) for the second time in his career. The 2004 season saw Plummer throw for 4,089 yards, most in Broncos history. He also tossed 27 touchdown passes, tying Elway's 1997 club record.

Plummer stayed on his feet in Kubiak's offense. After being sacked an average of 36 times per season in Arizona, Plummer was sacked an average of 17 times per year in Denver. Every season in Kubiak's system, Plummer threw more touchdowns than interceptions and led the Broncos to the playoffs from 2003-05.

In 2005, Kubiak's offense ranked fifth in the NFL with 5,766 total yards. His rushing attack was second in the league, averaging 158.7 yards per game. The Broncos were led by Anderson's 1,014 yards on the ground and Tatum Bell's 921 yards. Denver finished 2005 with a 13-3 record, winning their division for the first time since 1998, the last time they appeared in the Super Bowl.

In his 11 years as offensive coordinator, Kubiak's Broncos amassed 66,501 total yards and 465 touchdowns, most in the NFL in that span. He has coached 14 different Broncos that made the Pro Bowl. Denver's rushing attack has totaled 25,022 yards, most in the NFL over the last 11 seasons.

Kubiak's return to Houston is a return to his roots. He starred at St. Pius High School, where he was an all-state selection, passing for 6,190 yards during his high school career. He was inducted into the Texas High School Hall of Fame in 1999.

Kubiak attended Texas A&M, where he was selected All-Southwest Conference in 1982. He led the conference in attempts (324), completions (181), percentage (55.9) yardage (1,948), touchdowns (19), and total offense (1,885) as a senior. He set the SWC touchdown record with six against Rice during his junior season. He received his degree in Physical Education before being drafted by the Broncos in the eighth round (197th overall) in the 1983 draft.

Kubiak, born in Houston, is married to Rhonda. The couple has three sons Klint, Klay, and Klein. Klint currently attends Colorado State, where he plays defensive back for the Rams.

MIKE SHERMAN

Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator
11th NFL Season • 2nd with Texans

Mike Sherman enters his second season with the Texans and first as the team's offensive coordinator. Sherman was hired by the Texans as assistant head coach/offense on February 15, 2006, and was named offensive coordinator on January 17, 2007.

In his first season with the Texans, Sherman worked with offensive line coach John Benton and had a prominent role in installing a new rushing attack. Under Sherman's direction, the ground game improved throughout the 2006 season, averaging 122.6 yards per game over the last 11 weeks of the season. Running back Ron Dayne rushed for 429 yards in December, more than any single month in his career, including a career-best 153 yards in a win over Indianapolis.

Both opening-day starters at tackle, Charles Spencer and Zach Wiegert, finished the year on Injured Reserve, as did center Mike Flanagan. Despite that, Sherman and Benton shuffled the line and produced nine games in which the team rushed for better than 100 yards, including two of the three best rushing performances in franchise history—191 yards in a win over Indianapolis and 188 yards versus Buffalo.

Prior to joining the Texans, Sherman spent six seasons as the head coach of the Green Bay Packers, including five as the team's executive vice president. From 2001-04, Sherman assumed the duties of general manager as well.

Sherman became the Packers head coach in 2000, guiding the team to five winning seasons. From 2002-2004, Sherman led the Packers to three consecutive NFC North Division titles. His .663 winning percentage (53-27) over his first five years was second only to the great Vince Lombardi in Packers history.

Under Sherman, the Packers offense set numerous team records, including producing two of the four highest-scoring seasons in franchise history. In 2003, Green Bay totaled 442 points, which was just 14 points shy of the franchise record of 456 set in the team's world championship season of 1996.

Sherman's 2004 team set team records with 6,357 total net yards and 4,449 net passing yards. That year, the team surrendered only 14 sacks in 598 attempts, another franchise record. The 2003 squad ranks third in Packer history with 5,798 yards and set a franchise record for rushing yards with 2,558, thanks in large part to new Texans RB Ahman Green's franchise-record 1,883 rushing yards. Green Bay also set a franchise record by averaging a whopping 5.05 yards per rush attempt that year.

Before his head coaching stint in Green Bay, Sherman was the Seattle Seahawks' offensive coordinator in 1999. He first coached for the Packers from 1997-98, when he was the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach. He spent seven years in College Station as the Texas A&M offensive line coach from 1989-93 and 1995-96, where he met current Texans head coach Gary Kubiak during the 1992-93 seasons. Between those times, Sherman spent the 1994 season as the offensive line coach for UCLA.

Sherman's coaching career began in 1981-82, when he was a part-time coach at the University of Pittsburgh. From there, he moved on to Tulane, where he coached the offensive line in 1983-84, and then to Holy Cross, where he also coached offensive line in 1985-87 before being named offensive coordinator in 1988.

Sherman, who played defensive end and offensive tackle at Central Connecticut State University, was born in Norwood, Mass. He and his wife, Karen, have five children: daughters Sarah, Emily, and Selena, and sons Matthew and Benjamin.

RICHARD SMITH

Defensive Coordinator

20th NFL Season • 2nd with Texans

Richard Smith enters his second season as the defensive coordinator of the Texans. He was hired on February 2, 2006 after spending the 2005 season as the defensive coordinator of the Miami Dolphins.

In his first year in Houston, Smith presided over a defense that finished the season ranked 24th in the NFL in total defense, giving up 337.5 yards per game, and tied for 25th in scoring defense, allowing 22.9 points per game. However, over the last three months of the season, Smith's defense performed like one of the top-10 units in the league.

No defense improved as much as Smith's from the beginning of the 2006 season to the end. Houston shaved 179.9 yards and 12.1 points off of its average per game from October 1 through the end of the season.

After struggling early on, Houston's defense began to hit its stride in a Week 4 win over Miami, holding the Dolphins to 289 yards and 15 points. From that point on, the Texans allowed an average of 303.8 yards per game, ranking 10th in the league over that time span. The Texans gave up an average 20.6 points per game in that span as well, which ranked 13th in the league.

In back-to-back weeks in late October, Smith's unit turned in two of the four best defensive performances in Texans history. The Houston defense held Tennessee to 197 total yards, the second-lowest total allowed in team history, a week after giving up just 220 yards, fourth-best, to Jacksonville.

A pair of rookies highlighted the defense's performance last season. Middle linebacker DeMeco Ryans led the league with 126 solo tackles, and his 156 total tackles were more than any rookie in over 20 years. Ryans' spectacular performance earned him AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. Defensive end Mario Williams, the first overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft, set the franchise rookie sack record with 4.5 on the year. Williams was the only Texans defensive lineman to start every game and led his unit with 47 total tackles.

The secondary improved as well, increasing its interception total from seven in 2005 to 10 in 2006 and recovering four fumbles compared to one the year before. Starting cornerbacks Dunta Robinson and DeMarcus Faggins each scored a touchdown, and they combined to break up 26 passes. Safeties C.C. Brown and Glenn Earl combined for 145 tackles, three sacks, two interceptions and two forced fumbles.

In his year with the Dolphins, Smith's defense ranked 18th in the NFL in total defense and finished the season with 49 sacks, second-most in the league.

Before joining Miami, Smith served as the assistant head coach/linebackers for the Detroit Lions during the 2003 and 2004 seasons and as the linebackers coach for the San Francisco 49ers from 1997-02.

During his time in San Francisco, Smith helped four of his linebackers reach the Pro Bowl, including Julian Peterson in 2002, Winfred Tubbs in 1998, and both Ken Norton Jr. and Lee Woodall in 1997.

During Smith's tenure with the Denver Broncos that began in 1993, Smith worked with Texans head coach Gary Kubiak in 1995 and 1996. He served as the Broncos' special teams coach and also assisted with the linebackers.

From 1988-92, Smith coached tight ends, specials teams, linebackers, and offensive line with the Houston Oilers. He coached on the collegiate level before that, tutoring the linebackers and special teams for the University of Arizona in 1987, and the outside linebackers and special teams at California from 1984-86.

Smith broke into coaching in 1979, when he was the offensive line coach at Rio Hondo (Calif.) Junior College for two seasons before coaching the defensive line at Cal State-Fullerton from 1981-83.

Smith played on the offensive line at Rio Hondo for two years (1975-76) before transferring to Fresno State, where he competed in football for two years and graduated in 1979 with a degree in physical education.

Smith has four children: daughters Morgan, Aimee, and Whitney, and a son, Travis.

Texans LB DeMeco Ryans was honored by Texas State Representative Harold V. Dutton Jr. for winning the 2006 Defensive Rookie of the Year after receiving 72 percent of the votes cast for this prestigious award.

Later during the offseason, Ryans was honored by his native Alabama as the 2006 Alabama Sports Writers Association Pro Athlete of the Year.

JOE MARCIANO

Special Teams Coordinator
22nd NFL Season • 6th with Texans

Joe Marciano enters his sixth season as special teams coordinator for the Houston Texans. Regarded as one of the league's top coaches in his field, Marciano has directed special teams for 21 NFL seasons.

Under Marciano's guidance, punter Chad Stanley posted the best gross punting average of his career, averaging 41.6 yards per punt, and kicker Kris Brown led the team in scoring for the fifth consecutive season. A rash of injuries resulted in four different players returning punts and eight players lining up to return kickoffs, but the Texans still ranked sixth in the league in punt return average, at 10.5 yards per return. The kick coverage team held opponents to the sixth-worst starting field position in the league.

Marciano's tenure as special teams coordinator was highlighted during the 2005 season. Pro Bowl selection and AP first team All-Pro kick returner Jerome Mathis was also honored by the NFL Alumni as the Special Teams Player of the Year and the Texans Rookie of the Year. He finished the season ranked second in the league for return men, returning 54 kickoffs for 1,542 yards and two touchdowns. He was the only player in the NFL to return two kicks for scores in the season. Mathis broke team records for kickoff return yards in a season and highest kick return average in a season of 28.6 yards per return.

Marciano helped guide kicker Kris Brown to a career year in 2005. Brown finished the season with 102 points to establish a franchise record, breaking his old mark set in 2004 by 17 points. He also connected on 26 field goals, the second most of his career. Punter Chad Stanley also had a stellar 2005 season, finishing with 29 punts inside the 20-yard line, fourth most in the NFL. His 6.6 yard-per-return average also ranked sixth in the NFL.

The Texans' special teams units have been one of the more consistent elements over their brief history. Brown has connected on 92 of his 113 field goal attempts under 50 yards over five seasons and 131 of his 132 PAT attempts. Stanley has averaged 40.9 yards over his career in Houston. He leads all NFL punters since 2002 in placing punts inside the 20 with 135.

In 2004, Brown set a club record with 85 points and nailed a career-high nine touchbacks. Second-year linebacker Antwan Peek had a breakout year with 18 special teams tackles and a blocked punt. Meanwhile, the Texans ranked seventh in the AFC in opponent average starting field position.

In 2003, Stanley led the NFL with 36 punts inside the 20 and his 36.7-yard net average ranked sixth in the league. Brown nailed 18 of 22 field goals, missing just one inside 50 yards. J.J. Moses ranked fifth in the AFC with a 23.4-yard kickoff-return average.

In 2002, Brown connected on 13 field goals from 40-plus yards and Stanley ranked second in the AFC in net average (36.8), leading the conference with 36 punts inside the 20. The Texans also scored two touchdowns on special teams (punt return, punt block), recovered three fumbles, and yielded just 5.7 yards per punt return, leading the AFC.

Marciano arrived in Houston after spending the previous six seasons in the same capacity with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Under Marciano, the Bucs boasted one of the NFC's most consistent special teams units. Tampa Bay blocked 20 kicks, registered nine of the 10 longest punt and kickoff returns in club annals, and recorded 10 NFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards during his six seasons.

Kicker Martin Gramatica posted remarkable numbers during his first three NFL seasons. Gramatica nailed 84 of 101 field-goal attempts (counting playoffs) and earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2000, breaking his own club single-season records in points scored (126), field goals (28), consecutive field goals (16), 50-plus-yard field goals (5), and extra points (42). Also in 2000, Tampa Bay set a team mark and tied a league mark by blocking seven kicks (four field goals, three punts), returning two for touchdowns.

In 1999, linebacker Shelton Quarles broke a 10-year Bucs single-season record with 31 special teams tackles. Tampa Bay opponents averaged just 17.6 yards per kickoff return, which set a club record. In 1998, Marciano's charges set single-season club marks in both kickoff return average (23.7) and punt-return average (13.7). In 1997, the Bucs finished first in the NFL in opponent net punting and opponent field-goal percentage.

Marciano joined the Bucs after spending the previous 10 years as the special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints. For the first nine of those campaigns, he also coached the team's tight ends. During Marciano's New Orleans tenure, he coached three special teams players who were selected for the Pro Bowl (Morten Andersen, Tyrone Hughes, Bennie Thompson).

Marciano's first professional football job came as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL, helping the club win two league championships. Marciano joined the Stars after spending 1982 as the tight ends/special teams coach at Temple.

In 1981, Marciano tutored the tight ends for Joe Paterno at Penn State. Marciano also coached wide receivers at Villanova (1980) and Rhode Island (1978-79). He began his college coaching career overseeing the tight ends at East Stroudsburg University in 1977. Marciano coached at Wyoming Area High School in West Pittston, Pa., in 1976.

A native of Dunmore, Pa., Marciano was a quarterback at Temple, where he earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He serves as a spokesperson for Cure Autism NOW and Autism Speaks and is very active in the organization's annual fundraising walk held each fall in Houston. Marciano is an avid fisherman who has conducted various fishing tournaments and has appeared on numerous ESPN fishing shows. In 1993, Marciano was inducted into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He is single and resides in Missouri City with his son, Joseph.

FRANK BUSH

Senior Defensive Assistant
17th NFL Season • 1st with Texans

Frank Bush enters his first season with the Texans as senior defensive assistant. He spent the 2006 season in Arizona as assistant head coach/linebackers.

Before joining Dennis Green in Arizona, Bush worked as an assistant with the Denver Broncos (1995-03) and Houston Oilers (1992-94). Bush's linebackers had another impact season in 2005 for the Cardinals as middle linebacker James Darling finished his second straight season with over 100 tackles, ending the campaign second on the team with 106 tackles (91 solos). Second-year outside linebacker Karlos Dansby finished third on the team with 103 tackles (81 solos), his first 100-tackle season as a pro. Dansby also became the only linebacker in team history to record two interception returns for a touchdown in the same season. He added four sacks, making Dansby one of only five linebackers in the NFL in 2005 to record more than three sacks and three interceptions. Bush's linebackers helped the Cardinals defense to finish the season as the 8th ranked defense in the NFL, an improvement from the 12th ranked defense in 2004 and the 26th ranked defense in 2003.

Bush served nine seasons with the Broncos—three as special teams coach (2001-03), one overseeing the defensive secondary/nickel packages (2000), and five as linebackers coach (1995-99). In 2003 Denver ranked fifth in the AFC in both punt and kickoff return average. Kicker Jason Elam accounted for 120 points for the second consecutive season, placing him fourth (2003), and second (2002), respectively. In 2001, Elam's 86 percent field goal accuracy mark (31-of-36) was the best in Bronco history and Reuben Droughns ranked third in the AFC with a 25.8-yard kickoff return average.

In 1995, his first season as linebackers coach with Denver, the Bronco defense improved from 28th to 15th, then skyrocketed to the fourth overall defense in the league in 1996, including first against the run. The 1997 season saw two of his pupils—John Mobley (162) and Bill Romanowski (117) rank 1-2 on the club in tackles as Denver forged consecutive World Championships with victories in Super Bowl XXXII over Green Bay following the 1997 season and Super Bowl XXXIII over Atlanta after the '98 campaign. In the latter campaign, the linebacker trio of Mobley (132) Glenn Cadrez (105), and Romanowski (95) led the team in tackles, Romanowski earned his second Pro Bowl berth, and the Bronco run defense finished third in the NFL.

After an outstanding college career as a three-year starter at North Carolina State, Bush was a fifth-round draft choice by Houston in the 1985 NFL Draft and earned all-rookie acclaim starting 11 of 16 games for the Oilers before a spinal injury prematurely ended his pro career a year later. After serving as a college scout for the Oilers for five years (1987-92), he was the team's linebackers coach for three seasons, bringing his tenure with Houston as a player, scout, and assistant coach to 10 years. Bush's linebackers continued to play an integral role the following two seasons with the Broncos. In 2002, his special teams ranked among the best in the league as Denver ranked third in the AFC in kickoff coverage and fourth in kickoff return average. Born in Athens, Ga., Bush and his wife, Stephanie, reside in Houston.

MARTIN BAYLESS
Assistant Defensive Backs Coach
5th NFL Season • 2nd with Texans

Martin Bayless enters his second season in Houston, where he serves as the assistant defensive backs coach working alongside Jon Hoke.

In his first season with the Texans, Bayless helped coach a secondary that saw six different players combine to intercept eight passes. Starting cornerbacks Dunta Robinson and DeMarcus Faggins each scored touchdowns last season, with Robinson returning an interception for a score and Faggins scoring on a fumble return.

Bayless is a former fourth-round pick of the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1984 draft and a first-round pick by the Memphis Showboats of the USFL out of Bowling Green. He ranks second in NCAA history for career interceptions with 27. During his NFL career, Bayless started 133 games making 986 tackles, 11.5 sacks, and 12 career interceptions.

Upon his retirement in 1998, Bayless began his coaching career at Castle Park High School in San Diego. He was a coaching intern at North Carolina in 2002. He worked as a defensive backs and special teams coach with Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe. He moved to Carolina as defensive assistant during the Panthers' Super Bowl XXXVIII run of 2003.

Prior to moving to Houston, Bayless coached in Oakland, where he served as the special teams assistant from 2004-05.

Bayless established the Martin Bayless Football Camp in 1986 in his hometown of Dayton, Ohio. His camps have spread from Ohio to California as more than 100,000 youths participated in his camp over the past 20 years. His camps have produced three Heisman Trophy Winners (Reggie Bush, Ricky Williams and Rashaan Salaam) and two first overall picks in the NFL Draft (Alex Smith and Dan Wilkinson).

TIM BENDER
Administrative Coordinator, Coaching
2nd NFL Season • 2nd with Texans

Tim Bender enters his second season as a coach in the NFL, serving as the Texans administrative coordinator, coaching, handling many of the administrative issues facing the offensive staff.

On the field, he will assist John Benton and Frank Pollack with the Texans' offensive line. In his first season with the Texans, Bender worked under Benton and current Texans assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Mike Sherman with a line that improved throughout the season despite suffering a rash of injuries.

The 26-year-old Bender spent the 2005 season as a football operations intern in the Texans organization before joining the coaching staff last season. He also assisted with promotional activities for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2004-05.

The Pittsburgh, Pa. native began his college career at Clarion University in Clarion, Pa. before transferring to and graduating from California University of Pennsylvania in 2005. While at Cal, Bender worked with the Vulcans' football equipment and video departments. Bender does have prior coaching experience, serving as the defensive coordinator at Keystone Middle School in Keystone, Pa. while he attended Clarion.

JOHN BENTON

Offensive Line Coach

4th NFL Season • 2nd with Texans

John Benton enters his second season coaching the offensive line for the Houston Texans.

In his first season with the team, Benton helped the offensive line overcome a rash of injuries to improve in both pass protection and run blocking. Despite using eight different starting lineups, the 2006 Texans offensive line surrendered 25 fewer sacks than in 2005. On the ground, the line improved throughout the year and helped the team average 123.4 rushing yards per game over the second half of the season.

Benton broke into the NFL as the assistant offensive line coach in 2004. During his first season, the Rams' offensive line was led by Pro Bowl LT Orlando Pace. St. Louis finished the season with an 8-8 regular-season record, but qualified for the playoffs. The Rams rushed for 102 yards on their way to a 27-20 win at division rival Seattle in a Wild Card match-up. The offensive line gave Rams quarterbacks enough time to finish fourth in the NFL with 252.3 passing yards per game. The St. Louis ground attack gained 1,496 yards.

Benton was named the Rams' offensive line coach in 2005. His line opened holes for RB Stephen Jackson to rush for more than 1,000 yards for the first time in his career. Rams running backs averaged 1,579 rushing yards during Benton's two years as the line coach.

Benton lettered at Colorado State from 1983-86 and earned honorable mention All-WAC accolades during his junior and senior seasons. He was a graduate assistant at Colorado State from 1987-90. His first offensive line job was at California University (Pa.), where he also served as the recruiting coordinator.

Benton returned to his alma mater in 1996. He was the offensive line coach until 2000 and also took over as the co-offensive coordinator in 2000 until 2003. Upon his promotion, Benton looked for tutelage from Denver Broncos offensive coordinator Gary Kubiak. Colorado State emulated the Broncos' power rushing attack.

A Durango, Colo. native, he and his wife Nicole, have two daughters – Gabrielle and Paige. The family resides in Sugar Land.

PERRY CARTER

Defensive Assistant

2nd NFL Season • 2nd with Texans

Perry Carter enters his second season as a coach with the Texans, serving as the Texans defensive assistant. Carter also has coaching experience at the collegiate level and in NFL Europa.

In his role as defensive assistant, Carter works under Texans defensive coordinator Richard Smith, and works primarily with defensive backs coaches Jon Hoke and Martin Bayless. He originally joined the Texans staff through the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship program during the 2006 training camp. Carter began his coaching career in 2004 as the secondary coach at Texas A&M-Commerce. He worked in private business in 2005, then returned to coaching with NFL Europa's Hamburg Sea Devils as a defensive backs/defensive assistant in the summer of 2006. Carter also worked with the special teams in Hamburg.

The 35-year-old Carter, a native of McComb, Miss., earned four letters playing cornerback at Southern Mississippi from 1990-94. Carter was drafted by the Arizona Cardinals in the fourth round (107th pick overall) of the 1994 NFL Draft, and went on to play for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1995 and the Oakland Raiders from 1996-98. Carter also played five seasons in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos (2000-01), Montreal Alouettes (2002) and British Columbia Lions (2003-04).

JETHRO FRANKLIN

Defensive Line Coach

7th NFL Season • 1st with Texans

Jethro Franklin enters his first season as the Texans defensive line coach.

Franklin spent the 2006 season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the defensive line coach. The Bucs finished the year 17th in total defense. He spent the 2005 season at USC where the Trojans advanced to the BCS Title Game. USC had two players, DE Frostee Rucker and DT LaJuan Ramsey selected in the 2006 draft.

Franklin spent five seasons with the Green Bay Packers (2000-04) as defensive line coach under current Texans offensive coordinator Mike Sherman. In 2004, under Franklin's guidance, Packers DE Kaber Gbaja-Biamila tied his career high and led the team with 13.5 sacks, which ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL. Franklin helped the speedy pass rusher become the first player in Packers history to post double-digit sacks in four consecutive seasons (2001-04).

From 2001-02, Franklin's unit contributed to 95 quarterback takedowns, a club record for sacks in consecutive years. During his five-year tenure in Green Bay, Franklin helped lead the Packers to the playoffs four times (2001-04).

In helping the Packers defense surrender only 237 points in 2001, the fifth-lowest total in the league, Franklin's linemen contributed to a team-record 52 sacks, good for third in the NFL. The constant pressure up front led to the defense allowing just 10.3 yards per pass play, the second-lowest figure in the NFL and tops in the NFC, as well as allowing only 4.7 yards per play overall, the sixth-best mark in the league. Franklin's work in 2000, his first year in Green Bay, was similarly successful. The Packers yielded a mere seven rushing touchdowns, second-lowest total in the NFL and the second-fewest yielded by the Packers since 1962.

Prior to joining Green Bay, he coached the interior defensive line at UCLA in 1999, following eight years (1991-98) as defensive line coach at Fresno State. A coach in three bowl games at Fresno State, Franklin's tutoring produced several all-conference players.

A veteran of two NFL coaching fellowships, Franklin worked with Buffalo in the summer of 1994 after receiving the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr., Minority Coaching Fellowship, and in the summer of 1995 interned with the Cleveland Browns.

Franklin earned back-to-back All-America honors in 1986 and 1987 at Fresno State. He finished his career with 31.5 sacks, second on Fresno State's all-time list. He set a then-school record with 19.5 sacks as a junior and, as a senior, was named Pacific Coast Athletic Association Defensive Player of the Year and the Bulldogs' Most Valuable Player. He later earned a bachelor's degree in criminology from Fresno State in 1989.

Franklin returns to Houston where he was an 11th-round draft choice by the Oilers in 1988. He was the No. 1 draft choice of the San Antonio Rough Riders of the World League of American Football (WLAF) in the winter of 1991, he instead opted to start his coaching career.

Franklin was born in St. Lazaire, France, where his father was stationed in the military. He and his wife, Cherise, have two children Khalil and Takara.

CHICK HARRIS

Running Backs Coach
27th NFL Season • 6th with Texans

Chick Harris enters his sixth season as running backs coach for the Houston Texans. Harris boasts 27 years of NFL coaching experience.

Harris turned in an impressive coaching performance in 2006. After losing projected starter Domanick Williams early in training camp, Harris turned to a quartet of backs to carry the load on the ground. Houston was one of three teams to have three different players rush for at least 90 yards in a game, and the Texans were the only team that had a pair of rookies each top the 90-yard mark in a game.

Sixth-round pick Wali Lundy opened the year as the starter and started 10 games as a rookie. Lundy ran for 476 yards and four touchdowns on the season, including a 93-yard performance in a win over Jacksonville and a career-high 116 yards at Tennessee. Second-year back Samkon Gado finished with 217 yards and a touchdown, and sealed the Texans' second win over Jacksonville with a key conversion on fourth-and-one late in the game.

Veteran running back Ron Dayne, the 1999 Heisman Trophy winner, came on late in the year and rushed for 429 of his team-leading 612 yards and all of his five touchdowns in the month of December, including a career-high 153 yards and two touchdowns to lead Houston to its first-ever win over Indianapolis. Rookie free agent Chris Taylor spelled an injured Dayne in the season finale and ran for 99 yards and a touchdown.

Harris helped Williams earn the 2003 Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year award and develop into a two-time 1,000-yard rusher. Williams, drafted in the fourth round in 2003, is the franchise's all-time leading rusher with 3,195 career yards, and his 28 career touchdowns are the most in team history. He holds 27 team records, including the single-season records for rushing yards, with 1,188 in 2004, and rushing yards by a rookie, with 1,031 in 2003.

During Harris' seven-year tenure with the Panthers, injuries forced the club to suit up a bevy of running backs, from Tshimanga Biakabutuka to Richard Huntley to Brad Hoover to Fred Lane to Anthony Johnson to Derrick Moore. Harris helped Carolina set an expansion record with seven wins in 1995 and also helped the Panthers reach the NFC Championship Game the following season.

Harris launched his NFL coaching career with the Buffalo Bills in 1981, coaching two seasons. He entered the coaching profession at Colorado State in 1970, coaching three seasons before heading to Long Beach State. After one season at Long Beach, Harris joined the Detroit Wheels of the World Football League in 1974. He then moved on to the University of Washington, where he spent six seasons, helping the Huskies to two bowl wins, including a Rose Bowl triumph over Michigan.

Harris lettered in football and track at Northern Arizona, where he is a member of the Lumberjacks' athletic hall of fame.

Born in Durham, N.C., Harris attended Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High School. He has a son, Tyler, and a daughter, Tarana. Harris and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Kara. The family lives in Sugar Land.

RICHARD HIGHTOWER
Administrative Coordinator, Coaching
 4th NFL Season • 4th with Texans

Richard Hightower enters his second season as a coach in the NFL and fourth overall with the Texans, serving as administrative coordinator, coaching.

Hightower assists Jon Hoke and Martin Bayless with the Texans' defensive backs and assists Joe Marciano with special teams. Prior to joining the coaching staff, he worked in business operations side of the Texans front office as a corporate sales intern in 2004 before joining the organization full-time as the corporate development event coordinator.

The 26-year-old Hightower is a native Houstonian and a 1998 graduate of MacArthur High in Aldine. He walked on to the football team at the University of Texas and earned three letters while playing wide receiver, where he played under current Chicago Bears receivers coach Darryl Drake. Hightower also played defensive back and on special teams. Hightower's dedication and work ethic earned him a football scholarship for his final season in 2002.

JON HOKE
Defensive Backs Coach
 6th NFL Season • 6th with Texans

Jon Hoke enters his sixth season as the Texans' defensive backs coach, directing one of the league's most talented secondary units.

In 2006, Hoke's secondary unit accounted for eight of the team's 10 interceptions, including two each by Dunta Robinson and DeMarcus Faggins. Robinson continued to grow as the leader of a young defensive backfield, and led the secondary in tackles, with 83, and pass breakups, with 14. He scored the first touchdown of his career on a nine-yard interception return against Buffalo. Faggins scored his second career touchdown on a 58-yard fumble return at Oakland. Safeties C.C. Brown and Glenn Earl were both solid in run support and in coverage. Brown finished fourth on the team with 75 tackles and also recorded a sack and an interception, while Earl was fifth with 70 stops and also turned in 2.5 sacks and an interception of his own.

In 2005, Robinson continued his success from his rookie season finishing his sophomore campaign with a career-high 93 tackles and team-leading 21 passes defended. Faggins also had a career-high with 53 tackles and finished behind Robinson in team rankings with 14 passes defended. Earl led the team with two interceptions.

His defensive backs accounted for 18 of the Texans' team-record 22 interceptions in 2004. Nine of those picks resulted in returns of 20 yards or more, tying the Texans for third in the league in that category. Robinson tied for the lead among NFL rookies with six picks.

Hoke came to Houston after spending the previous three seasons as defensive coordinator at the University of Florida. Hoke replaced current University of Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops at Florida in 1999, initially serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach. In 2000, he added the title of assistant head coach.

Hoke arrived in Gainesville after five seasons tutoring the defensive backs at Missouri. The Tigers earned bowl bids in Hoke's last two seasons, thanks in large part to a defense that forced 48 turnovers, leading to 208 points.

Prior to coaching at Missouri, Hoke spent four years at Kent State, coaching defensive backs all four seasons and adding the title of defensive coordinator in his final season. He coached defensive backs and special teams at San Diego State from 1987-88 and launched his coaching career in the same capacity at Bowling Green in 1983, helping the Falcons win the Mid-American Conference title with an 11-0 mark in 1985.

Hoke was a four-year letterman at Ball State (1976-79), earning All-MAC honors as a defensive back. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education before playing in 11 games for the Chicago Bears in 1980.

A native of Kettering, Ohio, Hoke and his wife, Jody, have four children – Mallory, Kyle, and twins Kendall and Carly. The family lives in Sugar Land.

Johnny Holland enters his second year with the Houston Texans as the linebackers coach after spending the previous three seasons with the Detroit Lions. Holland, who starred on the field for the Green Bay Packers for seven years, enters his 13th season as a coach in the NFL.

In his first year with the team, Holland helped middle linebacker DeMeco Ryans earn AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors after one of the greatest seasons by a rookie defender in league history. Under Holland's guidance, Ryans led the NFL in solo tackles with 126, and his 156 total tackles were more than any rookie in the last 20 years. Ryans also recorded 3.5 sacks, an interception, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, and eight pass deflections.

Holland inherited a linebacking corps which returned standouts such as Morlon Greenwood, who led the team in tackles with 144 in 2005, and Shantee Orr, who emerged as one of the best playmakers on the Texans defense in 2005. With the addition of Ryans, Greenwood slid outside and finished second on the team with 110 tackles. Orr started 11 games and finished with 27 tackles and 1.5 sacks.

In 2005, Holland's first year as linebackers coach with the Lions, the unit was ravaged by injuries with four linebackers ending the season on injured reserve, including Boss Bailey and Earl Holmes, who entered the season as starters. Holland molded his group into a solid unit and helped the defense hold opposing offenses under 300 total yards in five of the team's last seven games.

In 2003-04, Holland was a defensive assistant for the Lions, helping Texans defensive coordinator Richard Smith coach the linebackers. Holland began his coaching career as a defensive quality control coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1995-97 before coaching special teams in 1998 and linebackers in 1999. While on Mike Holmgren's staff in Green Bay, he helped lead the Packers to back-to-back NFC Championships following the 1995 and 1996 seasons and a World Championship in Super Bowl XXXI.

In 2000, Holland re-joined Holmgren in Seattle, where he served as the assistant special teams/assistant strength and conditioning coach. From 2001-02, he returned to his more familiar role as linebackers coach for the Seahawks.

A native of Hempstead, Texas, Holland was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Texas A&M. He led the Aggies' vaunted "Wrecking Crew" defense in tackles in each of his final three seasons in College Station before moving on to the NFL as a second-round draft choice by the Packers in 1987.

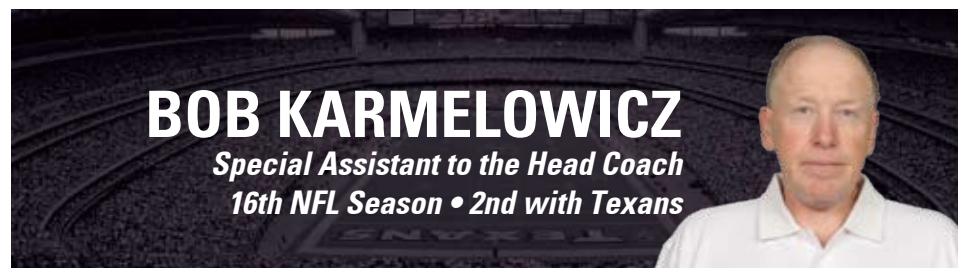

Holland posted six consecutive seasons with at least 100 tackles for Green Bay before retiring in 1994. In 1993, after suffering a neck injury in 1992, he led the team in tackles with 145 and helped guide the Packers to their first playoff birth in 11 years.

Holland was enshrined in the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1993 and was inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in 2000. In July, 2001, he was inducted into the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame.

Holland and his wife, Faith, have a son, Jordan, and a daughter, Joli.

Karmelowicz will work on advanced scouting for the coaching staff and doing special projects for coach Gary Kubiak.

A 32-year coaching veteran, Karmelowicz worked last year with the Texans defensive line. He spent nine years tutoring the defensive line for the Kansas City Chiefs. Prior to joining the Chiefs' staff, he spent three years with the Washington Redskins (1994-96) and two seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals (1992-93).

The Plainville, Conn. native broke into the NFL in 1992 with Cincinnati after a highly successful 17-year career at the collegiate level. A three-year starter and a consensus Little All-America nose tackle at the University of Bridgeport, Karmelowicz began his coaching career at Arizona State, coaching the Sun Devils offensive line from 1975-79. He coached the offensive lines at Massachusetts (1980) and Texas-El Paso (1981) before switching to the defensive side of the ball at UNLV in 1982. He moved on to Illinois, where he coached the Fighting Illini defensive line from 1983-85 and the offensive line in 1986, before moving permanently to the defensive side of the ball with Washington State from 1987-88. From 1989-91, he coached the defensive line at the University of Miami before making the leap to the NFL.

Karmelowicz earned his bachelor's degree from Bridgeport in 1972 and received a master's degree from Arizona State in 1977. He and his wife Olga have three children: daughters Liz and Marissa and son Dave.

LARRY KIRKSEY
Wide Receivers Coach
11th NFL Season • 1st with Texans

Larry Kirksey enters his first year as the wide receivers coach for the Texans. He brings over a decade of experience to coaching wide receivers. He has coached three receivers, Jerry Rice (1,549), Jimmy Smith (862) and Terrell Owens (801), that have over 800 receptions in their career.

Kirksey spent the 2006 season as an asst. head coach/running backs at Middle Tennessee State. The Blue Raiders won the Sun Belt title on their way to the Motor City Bowl.

Kirksey spent the 2004 season in Denver as a volunteer coach for the Broncos. He spent 2003 as the wide receivers coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars. During his time in Jacksonville, Jimmy Smith led the team with 54 receptions while missing four games.

He spent the 2001-02 season in Detroit. During the 2001 season, Johnnie Morton finished the year 12th in the NFL with 1,154 receiving yards. The Lions finished sixth in the league with 224.8 yards per game.

Kirksey, a Kentucky native, was an assistant head coach in charge of the wide receivers at Texas A&M in 2000. That year, he helped lead the Aggies to a berth in the Independence Bowl while injecting hints of the West Coast offense.

In 1994, Kirksey began his NFL coaching career with the responsibility of coaching the NFL's all-time reception and receiving yards leader Jerry Rice. Under Kirksey, Rice set an NFL record with 1,848 receiving yards, while setting a career high of 122 receptions in 1995. From 1994-99 Rice caught 606 passes for 6,666 yards.

From 1990 to 93, Kirksey coached running backs for Alabama, where he helped lead the Crimson Tide to a national championship in 1992. Kirksey's running back corps led the SEC in rushing that season with an average of 252 yards per game.

He coached running backs at the University of Florida under Charlie Pell and Galen Hall from 1984 to 88. During his tenure at Florida, he coached star running backs Lorenzo Hampton, Neal Anderson, John L. Williams, and Emmitt Smith. After leaving Florida, Kirksey spent one year as running backs coach at Pittsburgh.

Prior to joining the Gators, Kirksey gained valuable experience by taking over head coaching duties at Kentucky State in 1983.

Kirksey got his start in coaching when he became the wide receiver/tight end coach at Miami of Ohio in 1974 and remained with the Redskins for three seasons before joining the staff at Kentucky. He also coached wide receivers and tight ends for the Wildcats from 1977 to 1981, then spent the 1982 campaign coaching the same positions at Kansas.

Kirksey earned a bachelor's degree from Eastern Kentucky in 1974, where he was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at wide receiver. As a senior, he earned all-conference honors. Kirksey was out of coaching in 2005 while serving as deputy executive director of the Kentucky Sports Authority.

He and wife Anita have two children, Jessica and Jared.

MIKE MCDANIEL

Offensive Assistant

2nd NFL Season • 2nd with Texans

Mike McDaniel enters his second season as a coach in the NFL, serving as the Texans offensive assistant, handling the quality control aspects of the offense.

He will assist Larry Kirksey with the Texans' wide receivers. In his first season with the Texans, McDaniel assisted then-wide receivers coach Kyle Shanahan and worked with Pro Bowl receiver Andre Johnson.

The 24-year-old McDaniel spent the 2005 season as a coaching intern under Texans head coach Gary Kubiak with the Denver Broncos. The Greeley, Colo. native played collegiately at Yale as a wide receiver from 2001-04.

BRIAN PARIANI

Tight Ends Coach

17th NFL Season • 2nd with Texans

Brian Pariani enters his second season with the Houston Texans as the tight ends coach. Pariani is responsible for one of the more utilized units in the Texans' new offensive scheme. During his time in Denver from 1995-04, Pariani's tight ends combined for 859 receptions and 9,948 receiving yards, most in the NFL over that 10-year period.

In his first season with Houston, Pariani developed fourth-round draft choice Owen Daniels into the most productive rookie tight end in the NFL and a first-team PFWA/Pro Football Weekly all-rookie selection. Daniels set the Texans rookie record with five receiving touchdowns, which matched wide receiver Andre Johnson for the team lead. Daniels finished his first year with 34 catches for 352 yards and five touchdowns, all of which were first among rookie tight ends.

The Texans tight ends had their second-most productive season in team history last year, combining for 56 catches for 539 yards and seven touchdowns. In addition to Daniels' outstanding season, Jeb Putzier, a former pupil of Pariani's in Denver, caught 13 passes for 125 yards. Veteran tight end Mark Bruener hauled in nine passes for 62 yards and two touchdowns—his first two scores as a Texan. The move to Houston returned Pariani to the pro coaching ranks after spending the 2005 season as the offensive coordinator at Syracuse University. He spent 1995-04 coaching the tight ends with the Denver Broncos alongside Texans head coach Gary Kubiak. Before his time with the Broncos he coached with the San Francisco 49ers from 1991-94. Pariani teamed with Kubiak to bring the 49ers a Super Bowl championship in 1994.

In coaching with the Broncos during Super Bowl XXXII and XXXIII and with the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XXIX, Pariani became one of only 17 coaches in the NFL to have won World Championships with two different organizations and one of nine coaches to have done it with teams from different conferences.

While with the Broncos, Pariani coached Shannon Sharpe, the leading receiving tight end in NFL history. Sharpe led the NFL in receptions by a tight end from 1996-98 averaging 73 catches over the three year span. Sharpe totaled 425 receptions for 5,373 yards and 38 touchdowns with Pariani. Sharpe retired in 2004 finishing his career with eight Pro Bowl selections. He holds the NFL tight end career record for receptions with 815 and yards with 10,060 and 62 touchdowns. On October 20, 2002, Sharpe set an NFL record with 214 receiving yards in a 37-34 OT win at Kansas City.

As the Broncos tight ends coach, Pariani helped lead the way for Denver runners to rush for 22,483, most in the NFL from 1995-04.

In 1990 Pariani served as a scouting assistant with the San Francisco 49ers before being promoted to offensive coaches assistant in 1991. Pariani began his career at UCLA in 1989 as a graduate assistant.

Pariani, a northern California native, was a three sport athlete at Marin Catholic High School in Kentfield, Calif. Pariani and his wife, Stephanie, have two daughters, Jessica and Gianna. The family resides in Houston.

A Whole Lot of Tackles

Texans rookie LB DeMeco Ryans led the team with 156 total tackles, including 126 solo stops, and was third on the team with 3.5 sacks.

Ryans' 156 tackles were the most by a rookie in the last 20 years, and he led all NFL defenders in solo tackles on his way to being named the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year.

FRANK POLLACK

Assistant Offensive Line Coach
1st NFL Season • 1st with Texans

Frank Pollack is in his first year as the Texans assistant offensive line coach. Pollack will work closely with offensive line coach John Benton to mold the Texans front five.

Pollack's first collegiate coaching position was at his alma mater, Northern Arizona, in 2005 as the co-offensive line coach working specifically with the tackles and tight ends. He was promoted to the offensive line coach in 2006 where the Lumberjacks produced the Big Sky Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year. The Northern Arizona offense led the conference in scoring (34.4) and passing (267.2) and finished second in rushing (137.9). Their points per game were fourth in the Division 1-AA.

Pollack was a sixth-round selection by the San Francisco 49ers in 1990. He played by the Bay from 1990-91 before moving to Denver where he played from 1992-93 before ending his career with the 49ers from 1994-98. He finished his career with 90 career games and one Super Bowl Championship with San Francisco in 1994.

Following his NFL career, Pollack worked as a sales associate with Cisco Systems before co-founding eHome, serving as vice president of business development for two years. He was an associate with HRJ Capital/Champion Ventures in San Jose, Calif.

Pollack attended Greenway High School in Phoenix and graduated from Northern Arizona with a degree in advertising in 1990. He and his wife, Wendy, have two sons, Frankie and Carter.

26th NFL Season • 7th with Texans

Dan Riley joined the Texans as the club's first strength and conditioning coach on February 1, 2001. Riley enters his 26th year as a strength coach in the National Football League.

Prior to joining the Texans, Riley spent the previous 19 seasons in the same capacity with the Washington Redskins. He served as an integral part of three Super Bowl champions, four NFC champions, and five NFC East champions during his tenure.

Riley has authored four books on weight training. In addition, he wrote a weekly column for the Washington Post and also authored the "Power Line," a monthly fitness column for Coach and Athletic Director magazine. Riley co-hosts a weekly fitness and nutrition show on Houston's SportsRadio 610 with Texans team nutritionist Roberta Anding.

Prior to his stint with the Redskins, Riley spent five years as the strength coach at Penn State after serving four years as the strength coach at the United States Military Academy at West Point.

A native of Manchester, N.H., Riley graduated from Keene State College with an undergraduate degree in physical education. He has a master's degree in physical education from Indiana University.

Riley and his wife Brenda have two sons – Marty, who works for Microsoft and lives in Redmond, Wash., and T, who lives in Houston and is employed at the St. John's School as a teacher, coach and assistant athletic director.

KYLE SHANAHAN

*Quarterbacks Coach
4th NFL Season • 2nd with Texans*

Kyle Shanahan enters his second season with the Houston Texans, fourth in the NFL, and first coaching the Texans quarterbacks. Shanahan coached wide receivers in 2006 before being named quarterbacks coach on January 17, 2007. At age 27, Shanahan is the youngest position coach in the NFL.

As quarterbacks coach, Shanahan will work closely with head coach Gary Kubiak and offensive coordinator Mike Sherman the passing attack. Under Shanahan's coaching last season, wide receiver Andre Johnson turned in the best season of his young career and earned a starting nod in the 2007 Pro Bowl. Johnson led the NFL with 103 receptions and had his second 1,000-yard season with 1,147 yards. Johnson's 103 catches accounted for 31.3 percent of the Texans' total completions, more than any receiver in the league.

Opposite Johnson, veteran Eric Moulds contributed 57 catches for 557 yards and a score. Moulds, a three-time Pro Bowler with Buffalo, became the 23rd player in NFL history to catch 700 passes with his third catch against Jacksonville on 10/22. Kevin Walter, signed as a restricted free agent in the offseason, proved to be a solid addition with 17 catches for 160 yards on the year.

Shanahan joined the Texans from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he served as offensive quality control coach during the 2004 and 2005 seasons. In his first season with the Bucs, he helped rookie Michael Clayton establish franchise rookie records for receptions and receiving touchdowns. He also helped receiver Joey Galloway finish seventh in the NFL in receiving yardage in 2005.

He spent the 2003 season as a graduate assistant at UCLA, who participated in the Silicon Valley Bowl at the end of the season.

During his senior year playing at the University of Texas as a wide receiver, Shanahan played in 12 games and averaged 8.9 yards per reception.

He attended Duke University in 1999 and played wide receiver for the Blue Devils before transferring to the University of Texas in 2000. He spent two seasons at wide receiver for the Longhorns.

Shanahan was born in Minneapolis and attended Cherry Creek (Colo.) High School. Shanahan and his wife Mandy reside in Houston.

RAY WRIGHT

*Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach
8th NFL Season • 6th with Texans*

Ray Wright enters his sixth season as assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Houston Texans. Wright assists Dan Riley in all aspects of the Texans' exhaustive strength and conditioning program.

Before coming to Houston, Wright spent one season as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Maryland, helping the Terps capture the Atlantic Coast Conference title and a berth in the Orange Bowl.

Prior to his stint in College Park, Wright spent six months with the Chicago Bears as a college and pro personnel assistant. He spent the 2000 season as the recruiting coordinator at Cornell University.

Wright launched his NFL career with the Washington Redskins in 1997, serving as a scouting intern. He was promoted to college/pro scouting administrator in 1998, then to the club's director of player programs in 1999.

Wright played football at Duke from 1990-95 before working as a personal trainer for one year at Gold's Gym in Durham, N.C.

A native of Fort Worth, Texas, Wright is a certified strength and conditioning specialist and has his United States of America Weightlifting Coaching Certification. He is single and lives in Houston.

KEVIN BASTIN

Head Athletic Trainer

19th NFL Season • 7th with Texans

Kevin Bastin enters his seventh year as the Texans' head athletic trainer. Bastin spent the previous 12 seasons as the assistant athletic trainer for the Washington Redskins, helping the team to four playoff appearances and a Super Bowl XXVI victory.

Bastin spent two years working with Morgantown (W.Va.) Physical Therapy Associates before assuming his post with the Redskins. He previously had worked as an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Louisville. Bastin also worked with the University of Miami football team while he earned his master's degree in health and athletic training at Miami in 1985.

Bastin, a native of Quiet Dell, W. Va., graduated from West Virginia University in 1984. He and his wife, Carrie, live in Sugar Land with their two children: daughter Shelby and son Blake.

JAY BRUNETTI

Director of Equipment Services

33rd NFL Season • 7th with Texans

The Texans hired Jay Brunetti as the team's first equipment director in April 2001.

Brunetti came to Houston from Washington, where he spent the previous 26 years with the Redskins. Brunetti joined the Redskins on a part-time basis in 1975 when he was in junior high. He then became a full-time assistant in 1979 before becoming the youngest equipment manager in the NFL in 1981 at the age of 19. Coach Joe Gibbs' teams advanced to four Super Bowls and won three World Championships with Brunetti heading the equipment staff.

From 2000-07, Brunetti has served on NFL commissioner Roger Goodell's appointed subcommittee on mild traumatic brain injuries. He is also a certified member of the AEMA.

Brunetti and his wife, Linda, have two sons, Jimmy and Drew, and a daughter, Tori. The family lives in Houston.

BOB BEERS

College Scout

13th NFL Season • 1st with the Texans

Bob Beers enters his first year with the Texans as a college scout following four seasons with the Detroit Lions. He spent eight years as a college scout with the Denver Broncos from 1995-02. Beers was the head coach for the Colorado Crush of the Arena Football League in 2003. He was the offensive coordinator for the then-World League (NFLE) Amsterdam Admirals, helping them to a 9-1 regular season record and World Bowl appearance.

Beers was the head coach at Western Montana for two seasons (1993-94) and earned Conference Coach of the Year honors both years while claiming two consecutive conference titles. Beers got his first taste of the professional coaching ranks, spending 1990-92 as the offensive coordinator for the Frankfurt Galaxy of the World League. He began coaching on the collegiate level at his alma mater, the University of Montana and as the defensive coordinator at Montana Tech. As a linebacker at Montana, Beers earned All-American honors.

Bob and his wife, Janelle, have three children, son Bobby, who scouts for the Denver Broncos, and two daughters, Carrie and Joey.

LARRY BRYAN

College Scout

21st NFL Season • 8th with Texans

The Texans hired Larry Bryan in April 2000, the second scout tabbed by the club. Bryan is responsible for scouting college talent in the western region.

Bryan spent the previous 10 years in a similar capacity for the Washington Redskins. He joined Washington in 1990. For his first four Redskin seasons, Bryan was the team's BLESTO scout before becoming a college scout in 1994. Prior to that, Bryan worked as a coach and in scouting/player personnel on the high school, college and pro levels. From 1988-89, he coached at Corona Del Mar High School in Newport Beach, Calif. During that span, Bryan also published the Orange County Football Magazine, which detailed high school football in that area.

During the 1988 season he also worked as a part-time scout for the Kansas City Chiefs. Bryan spent 1987 scouting for the San Diego Chargers after working in 1986 as a scout for the Canadian Combine.

Bryan also had coaching stints on the collegiate level with USC, Utah State and Oregon State. He also coached for the USFL's Oakland Invaders and Portland Breakers.

Bryan holds a B.A. in physical education from Utah State (where he played running back) and a master's degree in secondary education from Cal State-Los Angeles. A native of Huntington Park, Calif., he and his wife, Gayle, reside in Balboa Island, Calif. They have two sons, Derek and Pete.

JON CARR

College Scout

1st NFL Season • 1st with the Texans

Jon Carr was hired by the Texans in the spring of 2007 as a college scout following two seasons at the University of Toledo as their receivers coach. The Rockets appeared in the 2005 GMAC Bowl.

Carr was the offensive coordinator at Eastern Illinois in 2003-04. He joined the Tennessee State coaching staff in 1997. He was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000-02. Carr's offense was third in I-AA in 2001 in passing (302 ypg), sixth in total offense (465 ypg) and 14th in scoring (35.4 ppg).

During the summer of 2002, Carr was a member of the Oakland Raiders' preseason coaching staff as part of the NFL's Minority Internship Program. He has worked with the National Football League Properties as the Program Coordinator for Chicago and Detroit summer youth inner-city football camps.

Carr was a quarterback at Southeast Missouri State from 1987-89. He transferred to Purdue, earning a degree in law and society in 1991.

Carr and his wife Shenikwa are the proud parents of Corbyn and Kennedy.

TOM COLT

Coordinator of Rehabilitation

6th NFL Season • 6th with Texans

Tom Colt enters his sixth season as coordinator of rehabilitation for the Texans. In his current role, Colt coordinates all player rehabilitation and assists with daily athletic training duties.

Prior to coming to Houston, Colt worked as a physical therapist and athletic trainer for Physiotherapy Associates in Phoenix. Before his stint in Phoenix, Colt spent six years at Morgantown (Wa.V.) Physical Therapy Associates. During his time at that clinic, he served as the head football athletic trainer at West Virginia University, as well as the head athletic trainer for NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy.

Colt graduated from West Virginia in 1986 before earning his master's degree in adapted physical education from Arizona State University. In 1996, he graduated from WVU's School of Physical Therapy.

Colt and his wife, Kristy, who is also a physical therapist, and daughter Caroline, live in Houston.

KEVIN COOPER

Director of Public Relations

7th NFL Season • 6th with the Texans

Kevin Cooper is entering his sixth season with the Texans and second as the director of public relations.

Cooper began his NFL career with summer internships in the PR departments with the Tennessee Titans and St. Louis Rams. He spent the 2001 season as a public relations intern with the New York Giants and served in the same capacity with the Texans in 2002 before being hired as the team's media relations assistant in 2003.

In 2004 and 2007, Cooper was part of a staff that won the Pete Rozelle Award, which is voted on by the Pro Football Writers Association recognizing the NFL's outstanding public relations department. He attended the NFL's Stanford School for Managers in June 2006.

Cooper is a 2001 graduate from Syracuse University with a degree in broadcast journalism. A native Houstonian, Cooper attended Jack Yates High School. Cooper and his wife, Allison, reside in Houston.

BRIAN GARDNER

Director of Pro Personnel

16th NFL Season • 1st with Texans

Brian Gardner enters his first year with the Texans as the director of pro personnel. He comes to Houston after spending the last two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a national scout. Gardner began his NFL career with the Buccaneers as a scout from 1992-94. He spent 10 seasons as an area and national scout with the San Francisco 49ers from 1995-04.

Gardner served as a defensive coordinator and director of player personnel with the New Orleans Night of the Arena Football League in 1991-92. He also served as director of player personnel and receivers coach for the Washington Marauders of the Professional Spring Football League in the fall of 1991.

Gardner played three seasons in the Arena Football League with New England (1988), Pittsburgh (1989) and Albany (NY) (1990). He also spent time in the Canadian Football League with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders (1989) and with the Barcelona Dragons (1991) in the World League. In college, he played at Nicholls State (1982) and Prairie View A&M (1983-86).

Gardner was a member of the NFL Stanford Program for Managers at Stanford University in 2006. He is a native of New Orleans, and is married to the former Vanessa James. The pair are the proud parents of sons Royal and Tyler.

BOBBY GRIER

*Associate Director of Pro Personnel
26th NFL Season • 8th with Texans*

Bobby Grier was tabbed as Houston's associate director of pro personnel in May 2000. Grier previously held the title of vice president/player personnel for the New England Patriots.

Grier spent 18 years as a player personnel executive and as a coach with the Patriots, serving in his vice president role for more than four years. In that capacity, he was responsible for overseeing all aspects of New England's pro and college scouting departments, player evaluations, free agency, and the annual NFL Draft. From 1995 until he joined the Texans, Grier served as New England's director of player personnel.

From 1985-92, Grier was New England's running backs coach, working under three different head coaches (Raymond Berry, Rod Rust, Dick MacPherson). The 1985 squad captured the franchise's first AFC championship before losing to the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XX. That season, Grier's backs gained 2,331 rushing yards, including 1,227 by Houston native Craig James. Grier was a college scout for New England from 1982-84. Grier's first NFL position came in New England in 1981 when he was the running backs coach under Ron Erhardt.

Grier spent 1978-80 as running backs coach at Boston College under Ed Chlebek, helping the team improve from 0-11 to 7-4. Grier's initial college coaching post came at Eastern Michigan where he coached the running backs for George Mans and then Chlebek from 1974-77. From 1970-73, Grier was the head coach at Detroit's Martin Luther King High School. Grier's first coaching assignment came as an assistant at Kettering (Mich.) High School from 1966-69.

Grier is a native of Detroit. He holds a bachelor's of science degree in physical education from Iowa, where he was a three-year starter at running back as well as a two-time honorable mention All-Big Ten selection. As a senior, Grier led the Hawkeyes in rushing. He and his wife, Wendy, live in Houston. They have two sons — Chris, who is the director of college scouting for the Miami Dolphins, and Michael, who plays for the NHL's San Jose Sharks.

They Like Backers

LB Zac Diles is the eighth linebacker drafted by the Texans. Houston has drafted a linebacker in every draft, and it has taken more linebackers than any other position.

GREG GRISSOM

*Director of Corporate Development
6th NFL Season • 6th season with the Texans*

Greg Grissom has been a part of the Houston Texans business operations staff since the team began competition in 2002. He was promoted to Director of Corporate Development in January 2006.

Grissom is responsible for identifying potential corporate partnerships, negotiating contracts, and servicing the accounts of the team's current corporate partners. Grissom has over 10 years experience in sports sponsorship sales, planning, execution and event marketing.

Before joining the Texans, he worked for Enron Corp. as a sports marketing specialist and spent over four years with the Houston Astros as an account services manager and later as the club's promotions coordinator.

Grissom represents the Texans on the Board of Directors of the Gulf Coast Chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. A native of Austin, he attended Baylor University. He lives in Houston with his wife, Jamie, and their daughter, Campbell.

MATTHEW GRUPP

*Assistant Equipment Director
12th NFL Season • 6th with Texans*

Matthew Grupp enters his sixth season as assistant equipment director for the Texans. Before coming to Houston, Grupp spent three seasons in a similar role for the St. Louis Rams, helping the club win two NFC titles and Super Bowl XXXIV.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Grupp served on the Carolina Panthers' equipment staff for three seasons (1996-98).

Grupp attended Illinois State University (1992-96), where he earned a bachelor's degree in biology with a minor in chemistry.

Opening Our Doors

The Houston Texans hosted their second annual Texans All Access event at Reliant Stadium on Saturday, May 19. The event featured Texans GM Rick Smith and the 2007 Houston Texans team, as well as appearances by the Houston Texans Cheerleaders, TORO, and the Bull Pen Pep Band. The Bull Pen Pep Band performed in Budweiser Plaza before the gates to the stadium opened.

Once inside, fans got the opportunity to get autographs from a select group of Texans players, Houston Texans Cheerleaders and Texans Ambassadors. Fans took a self-guided tour of the Texans locker room, weight room, training room, team cafeteria and players' lounge. The tour concluded with a walk down the players' tunnel onto the field level.

HONORS: Played in the 2003 Pro Bowl.

PRO: Seasoned veteran has been counted on to mentor a young offensive line...spent the end of last season on injured reserve...led the line that drastically reduced sack total from 68 in 2005 to 40 in 2006...spent 10 seasons in Green Bay playing for Texans assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Mike Sherman...has played in 107 games with 73 starts...has postseason experience with Green Bay, starting in five playoff games...started every game for the Packers from 2001 to 2003...Pro Bowler in 2003...holds a consecutive games played streak of 87 games, including postseason, before an injury snapped the streak in 2004.

2006 (Houston 9/9): Started nine games before being placed on injured reserve with cracked ribs...started at center to open the season against Philadelphia (9/10)...started his 100th career game at center at Indianapolis (9/17)...inactive against Washington (9/24) and Miami (10/1)...rejoined the starting lineup at center at Dallas (10/15)...blocked for rookie RB Wali Lundy who finished the game with 93 rushing yards on 19 carries against Jacksonville (10/22)...with the rest of the offensive line, assisted Lundy rush for a career-high 116 yards on 18 carries at Tennessee (10/29)...started at center at the New York Giants (11/5)...started at center and blocked for Samkon Gado, who rushed for 67 yards on 17 carries at Jacksonville (11/12)...started at center against Buffalo and once again led the line blocking for Gado, who rushed for a new season-high 69 yards on 10 carries (11/19)...started and played in his final game of the season where he suffered a rib injury at New York Jets (11/26).

2005 (Green Bay 14/14): Played in and started 14 games at center...inactive against New Orleans (10/9) and at Minnesota (10/23)...recovered a fumble on the first play of the game to preserve a scoring drive against Cleveland (9/18)...anchored an offensive line that helped the offense gain 351 total yards and blocked for the Packers' first 100-yard rusher of the year, RB Samkon Gado, in a 33-25 victory at Atlanta (11/13)...provided a key block on Gado's 33-yard TD run, taking Eagles LB Jeremiah Trotter out of the play at Philadelphia (11/27)...left the game after aggravating a hernia injury against Chicago on Christmas Day (12/25)...started after refusing to sit out the season finale against Seattle (1/1/06).

2004 (Green Bay 3/3): Fought back from a knee injury suffered in preseason to begin the regular season as Green Bay's starting center for the fourth straight year...started the first three games at center before being placed on injured reserve...started against Chicago (9/19), but missed parts of the Packers' final two offensive series as a result of knee discomfort that stemmed from his preseason condition...returned to play at Indianapolis (9/26), anchoring an offensive line that allowed QB Brett Favre to throw for 360 yards...placed on injured reserve (10/2) and underwent left knee surgery five days later.

2003 (Green Bay 16/16): Served as the Packers' starting center for the third straight season...started all 16 games, plus both playoff contests...played every meaningful snap over the course of the year...made his first-career Pro Bowl appearance becoming the first Green Bay center named to the NFC squad since 1996...received the most fan votes by a center (143,655) in Pro Bowl balloting conducted on NFL.com...helped Green Bay to single-season franchise records for yards rushing (2,558) and yards per carry (5.05), including 1,883 yards by Green to break Jim Taylor's 41-year-old team rushing mark...played a key part in November stretch when Green Bay rushed for 190-or-more yards in four straight games.

2002 (Green Bay 16/13): Played in all 16 regular-season games, making 13 starts...demonstrated his versatility by starting games at center and left tackle in addition to reserve duty at a pair of other spots...also was the starter at left tackle for Green Bay's playoff game with Atlanta (1/4/03)...saw limited playing time at both right guard and tight end at other points in the year when injuries necessitated it...did not have a holding penalty called on him for the second straight year...missed most of training camp after fracturing the thumb on his right (snapping) hand in practice...made his first start of the year at center, but was forced to move to right guard late in the third quarter, replacing G Marco Rivera in win over Carolina (9/29)...played the first quarter-and-a-half at left tackle before moving back inside to center for the rest of the contest against Miami (11/4)...helped Green Bay run for 181 yards in full-time return to left tackle (12/1).

2001 (Green Bay 16/16, playoffs 2/2): Entered training camp as the likely starter at center and held off the challenge of the incumbent, Frank Winters, during the preseason to win the starting job...started all 16 regular-season games, plus both playoff contests...did not incur a single holding penalty in his first season as the starter...played an integral role in the success of the Packers' offensive line, which allowed the third-fewest sacks in the NFL (22) and the least by a Green Bay team in 27 years.

2000 (Green Bay 16/2): Played in all 16 games for the first time as a pro, starting twice...made first NFL start – and saw his most extensive playing time to that point – when he replaced the injured C Frank Winters (ankle) at Arizona (9/24)...also started for Winters the following week against Chicago (10/1)...was on the field for most of the fourth quarter of rematch at Chicago (12/3)...played two-and-a-half quarters at center against Philadelphia (9/17).

1999 (Green Bay 15/0): Served as the backup center throughout the season...played in 15 games, mostly in a special teams capacity...dressed but did not play in the season opener against Oakland (9/12)...received late-game action at center in victories at San Diego (10/24) and at San Francisco (11/29).

1998 (Green Bay 2/0): Saw his first playing time as a professional following two years on the sidelines...got into two regular-season games plus the team's playoff loss at San Francisco...made NFL debut as part of the field goal protection group against Chicago (12/13)...inactive for 12 of the team's first 13 games before suiting up for the final three contests following a season-ending leg injury to Winters.

1997 (Green Bay 0/0): Sideline for a second consecutive season when the muscle and nerve damage associated with his 1996 leg injury were slow to respond...initially went on reserve/physically unable to perform list during training camp (8/19), forcing him to miss at least the league-mandated first six games...recovered sufficiently to practice with the team before being placed on season-ending physically unable to perform list (11/11).

1996 (Green Bay 0/0): Spent his entire rookie season on injured reserve after suffering a fracture to both bones in his lower right leg while blocking on the opening kickoff of the team's second preseason game, against Pittsburgh (8/11)...underwent surgery the next day to place a stabilizing rod in the larger bone of his lower leg...placed on injured reserve (8/19).

COLLEGE: Was a three-year starter and letterman (1993-95) at UCLA...started 32 consecutive games, longest streak on the team, to close out his career...earned first-team All-Pacific 10 Conference honors as a junior and senior...also received third-team All-America recognition from Football News in 1995...was co-offensive winner of the school's Kenneth S. Washington Award for outstanding senior, a season when he registered 79 knockdown blocks...played under Texans assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Mike Sherman, who was the Bruins' offensive line coach, in 1994...went on that year to be chosen as one of three offensive winners of the Captain Don Brown Memorial Trophy for most improved player...was redshirted in 1991...earned a spot on the Director's Academic Honor Roll three times...holds B.A. degree in history.

PERSONAL: Flanagan and his wife, Jen, have one daughter, Adeline...was an all-state, all-league, and all-city selection in football at Rio Americano High School in Sacramento, Calif., where he played offensive and defensive tackle, lettering twice...helped lead team to an 11-1 record and the CIF section finals as a senior, when the team captain recorded 91 tackles and 13.5 sacks...also was a two-time letterman in basketball...enjoys reading, particularly spy and historical novels as well as mysteries...worked with the American Cancer Society of Green Bay, taping a public service announcement to promote breast cancer awareness in 1999...prior to the 2002 NFL season, completed his coursework to earn his undergraduate degree in history...born Michael Christopher Flanagan in Washington, D.C.

2006 (Green Bay 14/14): The Packers' primary halfback for a sixth straight year, started 14 games and was inactive for two others...missed consecutive contests (Weeks 4-5) with a hamstring pull, then returned after the bye week...with a sixth 1,000-yard season, took sole possession of the franchise's career record...led the team with 1,059 yards on 266 carries (4.0 avg.) with five touchdowns and five of the Packers' seven 100-yard rushing performances...finished second on the club with 46 receptions for 373 yards and one touchdown...went 225 offensive touches (197 carries, 27 receptions, one recovery) without a fumble from Sept. 24-Dec. 31 until a fumble in the season finale...played 647 offensive snaps and piled up 1,432 total yards...rebounded impressively from a ruptured quadriceps tendon that ended his '05 season...started the season opener against Chicago (9/10) and had a game-high 110 rushing yards on 20 attempts...at Detroit (9/24), had 131 yards from scrimmage and led the team with eight catches for 68 yards, including a 10-yard touchdown reception that gave the Packers a 31-21 fourth-quarter advantage...inactive at Philadelphia (10/2) and against St. Louis (10/8)...ran for 118 yards on 18 carries at Miami (10/22)...galloped for a 70-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter...ran for a game-high 106 yards on 21 carries with two touchdowns in 31-14 victory over Arizona (10/29)...posted a season-high 122 yards on 23 carries at Buffalo (11/5)...had a five-yard touchdown on the Packers' first drive at Seattle (11/27), giving Green Bay a 7-0...also finished second on the team with five catches for 39 yards...ran for 102 yards on 14 carries against the New York Jets (12/3)...had 21 carries for 77 yards at San Francisco (12/10), including a one-yard touchdown plunge that gave Green Bay a 17-3 lead...amassed 123 total yards of offense (79 rushing and 44 receiving yards on seven catches) in 17-9 win over Detroit (12/17)...made a 13-yard run to set up the team's first field goal, and was on the receiving end of QB Brett Favre's 5,000th career completion against Minnesota (12/21)...collected 110 total yards (22 rushes for 71 yards, four catches for 39 yards) in the season finale at Chicago (12/31)...reached 1,000 yards on a three-yard carry that helped to set up the Packers' first touchdown.

2005 (Green Bay 5/5): Started five games and was inactive for one other contest before being placed on Injured Reserve (10/25)...ruptured his right quadriceps tendon at Minnesota (10/23) and underwent season-ending surgery two days later...finished second on the team with 255 yards rushing on 77 carries (3.3 avg.) and also made 19 catches for 147 yards to go over 300 career receptions.

2004 (Green Bay 15/15): Was a key component of an offense that set a Packers franchise record with 6,357 yards...voted to the Pro Bowl for the fourth straight year, he started 15 regular-season games and was inactive for the other contest, against St. Louis (11/29), due to injury...also started NFC Wild Card playoff game against Minnesota (1/9/05)...finished fourth in NFC rushing with 1,163 yards (259 carries, 4.5 avg., seven TDs)...also made 40 receptions for 275 yards and one TD...completed a 20-yard touchdown pass to WR Donald Driver at Detroit (10/17), his first TD toss as a pro...surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for a fifth consecutive season to tie the Green Bay franchise record...enjoyed four 100-yard rushing days, pushing his Green Bay total to a club-record 28...recorded a multitude of accomplishments in victory over Dallas (10/24) in running for a season-high 163 yards and two touchdowns, including a 90-yard score, on 15 carries as he captured NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors...his 90-yard TD was the longest run ever against the Cowboys and was voted as the 'Levitra Play of the Week' for Week 7...the play also was the NFL's longest rush in 2004...the performance against Dallas put him over 10,000 all-purpose yards as a professional, including his kickoff returns during the 1998-99 seasons with Seattle...had a career-high 33 carries for 119 yards (3.6 avg.) and two TDs in the season-opening Monday night game at Carolina (9/13), adding another score on a three-yard reception for only the second three-touchdown game of his pro career.

2003 (Green Bay 16/16): Started all 16 regular-season games for the second time in three years, along with both playoff contests, and turned in one of the best seasons by a back in NFL history...tied for the seventh-best rushing season in NFL history with 1,883 yards and was second only to Baltimore's Jamal Lewis (2,066 yards) for the league rushing title...his 1,883 yards, which would have led the NFL in 77 of the league's 85 seasons, was the best individual rushing season by a player not winning the rushing title...twice broke the Packers' single-game rushing record over the course of the season...first set the mark with 192 yards on Monday night against Philadelphia (11/10), surpassing the prior club record of 190 set by Dorsey Levens in 1997...later, in the regular-season finale with Denver (12/28), became the first Green Bay player to rush for 200-or-more yards in a game with a 218-yard effort (adding a nine-yard reception, his 227 yards from scrimmage were a club single-game record by a RB)...the 98-yarder stands as the second-longest rushing play in NFL history, behind only the 99-yard run of the Cowboys' Tony Dorsett (Jan. 3, 1983, at Minnesota), and marked Green's 20th TD of the season, a franchise record...set a team record with an NFC-best 2,250 yards from scrimmage, surpassing his own 2001 mark of 1,981 and becoming first Packer to top 2,000 in a single season...voted as a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad and received the most fan votes by an NFC running back in Pro Bowl balloting conducted on NFL.com...second-team All-Pro selection by Football Digest and was named to the All-NFC team of Pro Football Weekly...received recognition as the NFC Offensive Player of the Year from the Kansas City Committee of 101...a three-time selection as NFC Offensive Player of the Week, earning the honor for showings at Chicago (9/29) and against San Francisco (11/23) and Denver (12/28)...also garnered two Snickers Hungriest Player awards, for games at Chicago (9/29) and against Philadelphia (11/10, shared with Donovan McNabb)...won the inaugural FedEx Ground NFL Player of the Year award, based on fan voting conducted on NFL.com...did not fumble over his last 246 offensive touches, including postseason...led the team in rushing during the postseason with 222 yards and two TDs on 48 carries...ripped off a 65-yard touchdown on the second play of the game against Detroit (9/14) to help spark the Packers to their first win of the year...enjoyed his third straight 100-yard day (139) against Kansas City (10/12)...carried 27 times for 154 yards in 20-10 win over San Francisco (11/23)...ran for a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns in Wild Card playoff victory against Seattle (1/4/04), lifting Green Bay from a 20-13 deficit to a 27-20 advantage in its eventual 33-27 overtime triumph...ran for a Green Bay postseason record 156 yards in Divisional playoff game at Philadelphia (1/11/04).

2002 (Green Bay 14/14): Finished with the fifth-best rushing season in Green Bay history, gaining 1,240 yards, good for fourth in the NFC, on 286 carries despite missing two full games and sitting out the second half of two other contests due to injury...also added 393 yards and two TDs on 57 receptions...started 14 regular-season games and was inactive for the other two contests...had a career-high three rushing touchdowns in win over Washington (10/20)...averaged a season-best 6.5 yards per carry (12 attempts for 78 yards) versus Chicago (12/1)...started and rushed 11 times for 34 yards in NFC Wild Card playoff game vs. Atlanta (1/4/03).

2001 (Green Bay 16/16): Started in all 16 games for the first time in four professional campaigns...also started both playoff contests...finished second in the NFC in rushing yards, with 1,387, and total yards from scrimmage, 1,981...also led the Packers in receiving for the second straight year with 62 catches for 594 yards and two TDs...earned selection to his first-ever Pro Bowl and was a second-team All-Pro selection of the Associated Press and Football Digest...also was an All-NFC pick of Pro Football Weekly/Professional Football Writers of America and Football News...chosen to the 'All-Madden Team' of then-Fox Sports analyst John Madden...named as the team's Most Valuable Player...became the first player to lead his team in rushing and receiving in back-to-back years since Roger Craig led the 49ers in each category in 1987 and '88...had three runs of 60-or-more yards, all in the season's first half (83t vs. Detroit, 61 at Minnesota and 63t in the Tampa Bay rematch)...was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week two times (vs. Detroit 9/9 and vs. Tampa Bay 11/4)...scored on runs of 31 and 83 yards to help catapult Green Bay to a 21-0 first quarter lead while rushing for 122 yards on four carries in the first quarter of season-opening 28-6 victory over Detroit (9/9)...ran for 125 yards and one touchdown on a season-high 29 carries in 17-7 rematch victory against Chicago (12/9), becoming the first 100-yard rusher allowed by the Bears in 21 games...led Green Bay in postseason rushing with 180 yards and one TD on 37 carries (4.9 avg.)...also had 10 catches for 67 yards...ran 21 times for 86 yards in NFC Wild Card playoff win over San Francisco (1/13/02), including a nine-yard touchdown romp off right tackle in the last two minutes to seal 25-15 triumph.

2000 (Green Bay 16/11): Played in all 16 games for the second time in his career and started 11, including the final eight contests...responded by rushing for 1,175 yards on 263 carries to pace the team and rank sixth in the NFC...also posted 10 rushing touchdowns...coupled with a team-leading and career-high 73 receptions for 559 yards and three TDs, he became the first Green Bay player to lead the club in both rushing and receiving in 23 years...total of 1,734 yards from scrimmage ranked fourth in the NFC...returned from a knee injury sustained in preseason to start in the season opener against New York Jets (9/3)...turned in the first two-TD game of his pro career with two- and one-yard scoring plunges in 31-28 victory over San Francisco (10/15), the first of five two-TD games on the season...scored a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns in 26-13 victory over Detroit (12/10), including a season-long 39-yard scamper, while rushing for 118 yards on a season-high 27 attempts...notched two rushing touchdowns in season finale against Tampa Bay (12/24)...also matched his single-game best for receptions with nine and established a career high for yards receiving (78).

1999 (Seattle 14/0): Saw action in 14 regular-season games with the Seahawks and was inactive for the other two contests...also played on special teams in Seattle's Wild Card playoff game vs. Miami (1/9/00)...made his mark on special teams as the club's main kickoff returner, finishing with a 22.7-yard average on 36 returns for 818 yards, ranking sixth in the AFC...was Seattle's second-leading rusher with 120 yards on 26 carries (4.6 avg.)...rushed three times for 29 yards in win over Buffalo (10/24), his first offensive action of the season...also had a season-long 54-yard kickoff return against the Bills...registered a season-high nine carries for 40 yards versus Cincinnati (11/7).

1998 (Seattle 16/0): Appeared in all 16 games in his rookie season with Seattle and finished with 209 yards and one TD on 35 carries (6.0 avg.)...made a significant contribution on special teams with 27 kickoff returns for 620 yards (23.0 avg.) and also posted six tackles on the coverage units...made his first NFL action memorable with 100 yards on just six carries in pro debut at Philadelphia (9/6), including a season-long 64-yard scamper that led to a six-yard scoring plunge on the following play for his first NFL TD...registered a career-long 57-yard kickoff return in the second half at San Diego (10/25).

COLLEGE: Was a three-year starter from 1995-97 at the University of Nebraska...finished career with 3,880 rushing yards and 42 touchdowns, both totals good for second place on the Cornhuskers' all-time list...also posted 300 yards and three TDs on 35 career receptions...in three bowl games, rushed 45 times for 326 yards and three touchdowns...as a junior (1997), garnered All-Big 12 Conference recognition and was named second-team All-America by the Associated Press and The Sporting News as Nebraska captured the national championship...also was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award, the annual honor for college football's top running back...registered 278 carries for 1,877 yards (6.8 avg.) and 22 touchdowns, a school record for juniors...rumbled for 206 yards and two TDs in 42-17 Orange Bowl victory over Tennessee to help Nebraska capture the national title...earned honorable mention Academic All-Big 12 honors that season as well...posted a career-high 214 yards and one touchdown in 1996 game against Iowa State...enjoyed a successful freshman campaign during Nebraska's 1995 national championship season, rushing for 1,086 yards and 13 touchdowns on 141 carries (7.7 avg.)...holds degree in geography.

Haven't Seen You Yet

After this season, Arizona, Green Bay, Minnesota and St. Louis will be the only cities that the Texans have not visited in the regular season. Houston played at St. Louis in the 2006 preseason and will travel to Arizona in preseason play this year, but the team has yet to travel to Green Bay or Minnesota.

On the opposite end of the spectrum, Chicago, Detroit, San Francisco and Seattle will be the only teams not to have played at Houston during regular season play. Chicago will open preseason play in Houston.

Denver, New Orleans and Tampa Bay will visit Reliant Stadium for the first time in the regular season in 2007.

- Texans head coach Gary Kubiak needs to win 12 games to tie Dom Capers for most wins by a Texans head coach with 18.
- DE Jason Babin needs four sacks to become the Texans all-time leader in sacks with 17.
- K Kris Brown needs 78 points to become the first Texan to score 500 points as a member of the franchise.
- Brown needs to score a point in nine consecutive games to break his personal best streak of 59 games with a point scored.
- RB Ron Dayne needs 51 rushing yards to reach 3,000 for his career.
- RB Ahman Green to rush for more than 1,000 yards for the seventh time in the last eight seasons. Green would join RB Domanick Williams as the only Texans running backs to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season.
- Green needs 1,509 yards on the ground to reach 10,000 rushing yards for his career.
- Green needs 799 yards combined rushing and receiving yards to reach 12,000 for his career.
- LB Morlon Greenwood to have his third consecutive 100-plus tackle season as a member of the Texans.
- WR Andre Johnson to catch more than 100 passes in back-to-back seasons. Johnson looks to join wide receivers Marvin Harrison, Randy Moss and Rod Smith as the only players to catch 100 balls in back-to-back seasons over the last decade. Johnson led the NFL with 103 receptions in 2006.
- Johnson needs 1,050 receiving yards to reach 5,000 yards for his career.
- Johnson needs 89 receptions to reach 400 for his career.
- G Steve McKinney to play in nine games to reach 150 in his career.
- G Chester Pitts to continue his streak as the only Texan to start every game in franchise history. Pitts has started 80 consecutive games.
- TE Jeb Putzier needs 10 catches to reach 100 receptions for his career.
- DT Amobi Okoye to become the youngest player to suit up for the Texans. When he takes to the field on kickoff weekend he will be 20 years, 91 days old. DE Mario Williams previously held the record at 21 years, 223 days old in 2006.
- CB Dunta Robinson needs three picks to become the franchise leader with 12 interceptions.
- LB DeMeco Ryans to lead the NFL in solo tackles for the second year in a row. Last season the 2006 AP Defensive Rookie of the Year was the league's top tackler with 126 stops.
- QB Matt Schaub to make his Texans debut. Schaub spent the last three seasons as the backup in Atlanta. Schaub came to the Texans in an offseason trade.
- The Texans to continue their consecutive sellout streak in pre- and regular season. The current streak stands at 50.
- With a win on Kickoff Weekend, the Texans would extend their franchise winning streak to three.

Out of the Frying Pan

The Texans started five rookies in the season opener against the Philadelphia Eagles (9/10), more than any other team in the NFL. Number one overall pick Mario Williams started at defensive end and second-round choice DeMeco Ryans started at middle linebacker. On the offensive side of the ball, third-round pick Charles Spencer won the starting left tackle job, and fourth-round draft choice Owen Daniels played his way into the starting lineup at tight end. Sixth-round pick Wali Lundy was the opening day starter at running back. Rookies starting in season openers was nothing new for Houston. In the team's inaugural game against the Dallas Cowboys, Houston trotted out five rookie starters on offense on their way to a 19-10 win over the Dallas Cowboys.

The Texans have appeared in five overtime games with a record of 0-5.

SUMMARY

The Texans (0-1) lost in head coach Gary Kubiak's NFL debut when the Philadelphia Eagles won 24-10 at Reliant Stadium behind 314 yards and three touchdowns from Donovan McNabb. The Texans wasted no time getting on the scoreboard. Houston began the game with a drive of over six minutes culminating with an Eric Moulds' 25-yard touchdown grab. After allowing the Eagles one first down, Houston's defense answered the bell. Dunta Robinson sniffed out a screen to Brian Westbrook and that was followed by a tackle in the backfield by DeMeco Ryans, who started at linebacker in his NFL debut. Houston couldn't match their success from their opening drive on the ensuing possession. A tipped ball on second down put the Texans in a third-and-long situation and the Eagles defense sniffed out a run and forced a Chad Stanley punt. A 22-yard reception from the newly-acquired Donte Stallworth put the Eagles in Texans' territory for the first time, but on the following play, Jason Simmons made an acrobatic interception to stymie the Eagle attack. Houston did little on the next possession, ending the first quarter with a three-and out. It would prove costly as the Eagles hit pay dirt on their next drive. Faced with a third-and-six on the Texans 49, McNabb found Greg Lewis for a first down to extend a drive that began on the Eagles' 16-yard line.

Doing most of their damage on the ground, Philadelphia caught Houston looking in the backfield on a beautiful play action pass. McNabb found a wide-open Stallworth and the Eagles were on the board with just under 12 minutes remaining in the half. Two Eagles sacks stalled Houston's next possession after the Texans were able to move the ball close to midfield after taking over on their own 20-yard line. A 22-yard completion to Andre Johnson highlighted the Texan drive that resulted in a 31-yard punt by Stanley. The Texans defense looked to go three-and-out on the Eagles' next possession, but McNabb was cool under pressure on third-and-seven at his own 28. In the face of a Houston blitz, McNabb found L.J. Smith, who laid out for an 18-yard reception to extend the Eagles drive, but the Houston defense stood strong eventually forcing a Philadelphia punt. Houston used some big plays to move into striking distance on their next drive. On third down, Carr found Moulds for a nine-yard gain to the Houston 35-yard line. A late hit by Philadelphia's Jeremiah Trotter moved the ball to midfield and Carr found Johnson down the sideline for 44 yards to give the Texans first and goal at the Eagles' five-yard line, but the Texans had to settle for a 34-yard field goal by Kris Brown after the Eagles defense dug in at the goal line. Armed with all three of their timeouts, Philadelphia started their last drive of the half at their own 20. A 23-yard completion to Stallworth moved the Eagles within striking distance at midfield. A 10-yard scramble by McNabb and a 37-yard completion to Stallworth gave the Eagles the ball at the Houston five where the found pay dirt with a five-yard hookup between McNabb and Reggie Brown. The play gave the Eagles their first lead of the game at 14-10 with 11 seconds remaining in the first half and Philadelphia wouldn't look back. Philadelphia added 10 more points in the second half, while Houston managed just 11 offensive plays in the last two quarters that were dominated by the Eagles. Houston fell to 0-2 all-time against Philadelphia with the loss, ruining a stellar debut by Ryans, who had 13 tackles to lead both teams.

SUMMARY

The Texans (0-2) dropped their ninth-straight game to the Colts (2-0) at RCA Dome despite three touchdown passes from David Carr. Indy was powered by 515 yards of total offense, including 400 passing yards from Peyton Manning, the seventh-highest total of his storied career. After receiving the opening kickoff, the Texans fumbled on the second snap of the game one play after Carr was sacked by Colts' defensive end Robert Mathis for an eight-yard loss and Indianapolis recovered. Following two runs for six yards, Indianapolis scored on third-and-four when Manning found wide receiver Brandon Stokley for a 10-yard touchdown pass. Adam Vinatieri's extra point gave the Colts a 7-0 lead with 12:48 left in the first quarter. Almost five minutes later, after the Texans' first punt of the game, the Colts extended their lead to 14-0 when Manning found rookie running back Joseph Addai for a 21-yard touchdown pass to cap a six-play, 63-yard drive. On their third series of the game, the Texans gained three first downs before running back Wali Lundy fumbled on the Indianapolis 19-yard line. Colts' defensive tackle Montae Reagar recovered for the Colts' second takeaway. Addai rushed for a two-yard touchdown on the ensuing drive, but head coach Gary Kubiak challenged the ruling, arguing that Addai fumbled before crossing the goal line. The officials reviewed the play and overturned the call shifting the momentum to Houston, if only for a moment. Houston took over on their own 20 since they had recovered the fumble in the endzone, but were still stymied by the Colts defense. On Indy's next drive Manning passed for 44 yards on three completions to set up a Vinatieri 39-yard field goal, which put the Colts ahead 17-0 with 6:02 left before the half. Carr found his rhythm the next series completing his first four pass attempts for 36 yards, including a 19-yard pass to wide receiver Andre Johnson. On third-and-nine from the Indianapolis 32, running back Samkon Gado sprinted nine yards up the middle to set up a Kris Brown 43-yard field goal, cutting the Colts' lead to 17-3 with 1:54 remaining in the first half, but the Colts were not done in the first 30 minutes, going 44 yards in nine plays before time expired as Vinatieri converted on a 43-yard field goal. The Colts opened the second half with a 13-play drive highlighted by an Addai 16-yard rush to the Houston 12. On third-and-13, Manning connected with tight end Bryan Fletcher on a 15-yard touchdown pass, which gave Indianapolis a 27-3 lead after Vinatieri's extra point and that's all the points Indy would need. The Texans would outscore the Colts 21-16 from there thanks to touchdown grabs from Mark Bruener and Owen Daniels. Houston's last scoring drive ended with a Carr to Johnson hook-up in the endzone making the final score 43-24.

SUMMARY

The Texans (0-3) dropped their third straight game losing to the Washington Redskins (1-2) 31-15 at Reliant Stadium. The Redskins amassed 495 total yards on the day, including 234 rushing yards behind strong performance from Ladell Betts and Clinton Portis. Redskins quarterback Mark Brunell set the NFL single-game record for consecutive completions with 22 on his way to a 24-27 performance totaling 261 yards and a touchdown. Andre Johnson starred for Houston, racking up 152 receiving yards on 11 catches. For Johnson, it was his second 100-yard receiving game of the season and 11th of his career. David Carr tossed two touchdowns in the loss, one each to tight ends Owen Daniels and Mark Bruener, who each found the endzone for the second consecutive week. Houston managed just 61 rushing yards, while playing from behind most of the game. Houston's defense dominated early, forcing the Redskins three-and-out thanks to a tackle for a loss by Seth Payne on third-and-one. The Texans offense took over from there moving the ball 66 yards on just four plays. The drive was fueled by a 53-yard reception by Johnson, his longest of the day and second longest of his brilliant career. A play later, Bruener had his second touchdown of the season from two yards out giving Houston a 7-0 lead with 11:34 remaining in the first quarter. Houston's defense looked to get off the field early again on the ensuing drive, but on third-and-six, Brunell hit Portis on a shovel pass out of the shotgun that went for 74 yards. Two plays later Betts scampered into the endzone from nine yards and after the extra point, Washington had tied the score at seven with 8:48 remaining in the first quarter. Houston did little on their next drive, moving the chains just once before surrendering possession to the Redskins. Washington's second drive lasted nearly six minutes and went 74 yards on the way to a second score of the game. Working their way down the field using a combination of the run and pass, Washington chose a short screen to Antwaan Randle El on third-and-four. He ran 23 yards for the touch, giving the Redskins their first lead of the day at 14-7, eight seconds into the second quarter. Houston made their way to midfield on their next possession, but again the drive ended with a Chad Stanley punt. Washington's ensuing drive was slowed by several holding penalties, but they still managed to hit pay dirt again. From the Texans' 30-yard line and faced with just nine seconds on the clock, Portis took a hand-off and carved his way through the Texans' defense for a 30-yard touchdown, giving Washington a 21-7 lead, as the two teams headed to the locker room. Houston went three-and-out to start the second half and Washington worked the clock for nearly eight and a half minutes on their next drive, essentially icing the game, going 70 yards for their fourth touchdown of the day. Portis ended the drive, bulging his way into the endzone, giving Washington a 28-7, lead with 5:35 remaining in the third quarter. A John Hall 46-yard field goal followed Houston's next possession which resulted in no points. Hall's kick gave Washington a 31-7 lead, 10 seconds into the final quarter. Daniels' second touchdown of his career followed and Ron Dayne's two-point conversion closed out scoring at 31-15, Washington.

SUMMARY

The Texans (1-3) handed head coach Gary Kubiak his first NFL win by defeating the Miami Dolphins (1-3) 17-15 at Reliant Stadium. Andre Johnson was again the offensive star, surpassing the century mark in receiving yards for the third time in 2006 as Johnson hauled in nine passes for a game-high 101 yards. Though Johnson's day was filled with several clutch grabs, none were more important than his three-yard touchdown reception with 9:49 remaining in the fourth quarter that put Houston on top for good. David Carr, who entered the game as the NFL's top-rated passer, finished the day still on top thanks to another steady performance. Carr completed 22 of his 29 pass attempts, threw one touchdown and ran for another score on a naked bootleg that gave the Texans their first lead of the game just five seconds into the fourth quarter. While Houston was outgained on the ground and through the air, the Texans controlled the clock, holding the ball for almost 34 minutes of action, but still had only a 32-yard field goal by Kris Brown to show for it entering the fourth quarter. The game was also highlighted by the first sack of Mario Williams' career. Williams' 1.5 sacks led a Texans defense that collected five sacks on the day. DeMeco Ryans again led the defense in stops with eight tackles and also collected a half a sack. Houston's defense entered the game allowing opponents to convert on over 68 percent of their third downs. Miami could only collect three first-down conversions on 12 attempts (25 percent) and didn't find the endzone until there was less than two minutes left in the game. Olindo Mare provided all of the Dolphins scoring until that point hitting on field goals of 52, 29 and 22 yards, but when Daunte Culpepper found Chris Chambers with 1:39 remaining in the game, Miami was in position to knot the score at 17 with a two-point conversion. However, a Ronnie Brown pass on an option play was tipped by Williams and fell to the ground giving the Texans their first win thanks to two fourth-quarter touchdown drives by Carr and Co.

SUMMARY

It was a tale of two halves in Irving, Texas as the Texans (1-4) fell to the Dallas Cowboys (3-2) 34-6, despite leading 6-3 at halftime. It was the second meeting between the two franchises and Dallas equaled the series at one win a piece with the win. The first half, which was played in rain most of the time, was dominated by both defenses as the Cowboys and Texans each only managed a field goal for the first 29 plus minutes of action. Dallas followed a Kris Brown 19-yard field goal in the first quarter with a Mike Vanderjagt 22 yard field in the second to knot the score at three. The Texans were in position to score a touchdown on their first series with a first-and-goal at the four, but two runs by Ron Dayne were stuffed at the line of scrimmage and after an incomplete pass, the Texans had to settle for three. Houston took a lead heading into the locker room thanks to a 48-yard field goal by Brown as time expired in the first half. Both teams managed just 114 yards of total offense in the first half and it appeared as though it would be a low-scoring affair. It turned out it was, but for only one team. Dallas outgained Houston 240 yards to 118 in the second half and scored 31 second-half points. The Cowboys scored on their first possession of the second half to take their first lead of the game at 10-6 with 10:13 remaining in the third quarter. Dallas didn't look back. Led by three touchdown receptions from Terrell Owens, the Cowboys capitalized on two David Carr interceptions and a fumble from Edell Shephard to seize momentum and cruise to the win, ruining a solid first-half effort and another strong performance from Andre Johnson, who had a game-high nine receptions for 75 yards in the loss for the Texans.

SUMMARY

The Texans (2-4) collected consecutive home wins for the first time in franchise history by defeating the Jacksonville Jaguars (3-3) 27-7, improving their all-time record against Jacksonville to 5-4. In their Battle Red jerseys, Houston dominated every aspect of the game against Jacksonville totaling 349 yards, while holding the Jags to just 220 total yards. David Carr, Andre Johnson and Wali Lundy starred for the offense. Carr threw for 224 yards to go along with two touchdowns. One of those scoring strikes came to Johnson, who broke the 100-yard receiving mark for the fourth time on the season with eight catches for 106 yards. Lundy emerged from a crowded Houston backfield to shine with 93 yards on 19 carries, including the first scoring run of his career. The offense was backed up by a stout Houston defense that forced two second-half turnovers that led to 14 points, the Texans first points off turnovers in 2006. Johnson started scoring in the second quarter with a 35-yard reception on a fade route in the corner of the endzone. Kris Brown added a 43-yard field goal with 1:10 remaining in the half to make the score 10-0 at halftime. Jacksonville's only scoring drive of the game came on their first of the second half. Maurice Jones-Drew bulled into the endzone from one yard out to make the score 10-7, Houston, with 9:20 remaining in the third quarter. Houston's offense left the door open for Jacksonville with back-to-back three and outs, but when Antwan Peek forced a Fred Taylor fumble on what could have been a go-ahead scoring drive, Houston's offense caught fire. Lundy capped off a 78-yard scoring drive to put Houston up by two scores, 17-7, with 11:32 remaining in the game. On Jacksonville's next offensive snap, DeMarcus Faggins forced another turnover by stripping Ernest Wilford after a 15-yard reception. Three plays later, Owen Daniels was in the endzone with his third touchdown of the season, tying the single season record for touchdowns by a tight end in Texans history. Leading 24-7 with 9:57 remaining, Houston cruised to the win with Brown ending scoring with a 21-yard field goal with 3:12 remaining on the clock.

SUMMARY

The Texans (2-5) couldn't overcome five turnovers and fell 28-22 to the Tennessee Titans (2-5) at LP Field, suffering their 11th consecutive loss away from Reliant Stadium. Houston dominated the Titans in every statistical category out-gaining Tennessee 427 yards to 197, largely thanks to the Texans passing for 279 yards while the Titans managed just 86 yards through the air. The total yardage by the Titans was the second fewest total by any Texans opponent in franchise history. David Carr, who was responsible for three of Houston's five turnovers (two fumbles and one interception), gave way to Sage Rosenfels in the second half. Rosenfels threw a career-high three touchdown passes in the second half as the Texans battled back from a 21-3 deficit with just over 23 minutes remaining in the game. Rosenfels' three touchdowns tied the franchise record for scoring strikes in a game. Owen Daniels caught two touchdowns, giving him five scoring receptions just seven games into his rookie season, setting a Texans' franchise record in that department. On the day, Daniels hauled in nine catches for 99 yards to lead both teams. Andre Johnson also scored, finding the endzone for the fourth time on the season, while making nine receptions for 78 yards. Not to be outdone by the passing game, Houston's ground assault continued to show signs of improvement. Wali Lundy followed up his breakout performance against the Jaguars at home with 116 yards on the ground, helping Houston dominate time of possession as the Texans held the ball for over 36 minutes in Nashville. Vince Young got the Titans on the board first with a 20-yard touchdown scamper 10 minutes before halftime. Kris Brown's 27-yard field goal cut the score to 7-3, Titans, with 4:46 remaining in the half. It looked like that would be how the first half ended, but Carr fumbled in the Texans' own end and Tony Brown returned it 40 yards making the score 14-3, Tennessee, with just eight seconds remaining in the second quarter. Young threw for just 87 yards in the game, but 20 came on a touchdown pass to Bo Scaife with 8:13 remaining in the third quarter. With the score 21-3, Titans, with just over 23 minutes left in the game, Rosenfels led a comeback that fell just short as Houston stormed back to get within six points with 1:54 remaining, but the Texans failed to recover an on-side kick after Daniels' second touchdown reception essentially ending any hopes of a win. With Houston only having one timeout remaining, Tennessee ran the ball three times and punted giving the Texans just four seconds from their own 20-yard line to try to get the winning score. Rosenfels found Johnson for 11 yards, but his lateral fell incomplete and so to did the Houston comeback.

SUMMARY

The Texans (2-6) were upset minded in East Rutherford, N.J., leading the Giants (6-2) 10-7 in the fourth quarter, but when Eli Manning found Jeremy Shockey in the right corner of the endzone with 7:49 remaining in game, New York took the lead for good. The ensuing Texans drive moved into Giants territory, but when Jameel Cook fumbled on New York's 38-yard line after a three-yard catch, the game was essentially over as the Giants recovered and were able to kill the last five minutes off the clock. Cook's fumble was the only turnover of the game for the Texans in a game that was dominated by both team's defenses. Houston's defense allowed just two scores on the day and just 285 yards to a Giants team that ranked fourth in the NFL in total yards entering the game. The Giants defense was up to the challenge as well, limiting Houston to 81 rushing yards and 251 yards total for the game. David Carr bounced back from a rough outing in Nashville, connecting on 21-of-30 pass attempts for 176 yards and no interceptions. Carr also had 24 yards rushing on five attempts, including a touchdown. The Giants go on the board first with a 16-yard run by Tiki Barber, giving New York a 7-0 lead 10 minutes into the game. Kris Brown got the Texans on the board in the second quarter thanks a 41-yard field goal making the score 7-3, Giants, with 7:16 remaining in the first half. It was a bit of redemption for Brown who missed a 42-yard try following Houston's first drive of the day. The two teams played to a stalemate for the remainder of the half and for much of the third quarter until Carr took to the air, launching himself from the Giants' two-yard line into the endzone to give the Texans a 10-7 lead with 1:14 remaining in the third quarter. However the NFC East-leading Giants would not be denied shutting the Houston offense down for the remainder of the game, while adding Shockey's touchdown to their scoring total. Shockey led the Giants with eight receptions and 66 yards receiving and actually had a chance for a touchdown in the second quarter, but fell victim to a vicious hit from Glenn Earl, who made a game-saving play at the time. Andre Johnson continued his torrid receiving pace adding nine catches to his NFL-leading total as well 83 yards. The loss marked Houston's 12th straight setback on the road.

SUMMARY

The Texans (3-6) swept the season series from the Jacksonville Jaguars (5-4) by defeating the Jags 13-10 thanks to a turnover minded defense. Houston's defense entered the ninth game of the season with just two interceptions. It left Jacksonville with six after intercepting Jaguars quarterback David Garrard four times. Garrard entered the game with the Jaguars team record in consecutive pass attempts without an interception. That streak ended at 176 pass attempts when Morlon Greenwood collected his first interception of his career. Houston's first turnover came after the Texans drove 70 yards on their first possession of the game. Andre Johnson's 41-yard grab from David Carr put the Texans in position to score and Wali Lundy capped the drive with a one-yard plunge, giving him two rushing scores on the season, equaling Carr for the team lead in that department. The Texans turned Greenwood's big play into three points when Kris Brown converted on a 25-yard field, giving Houston an early 10-0 lead. The defense took over from there, snatching three more errant passes from Garrard. DeMarcus Figgins got his first interception since 2004, Anthony Weaver collected the second of his career and first ever by a Texans defensive lineman, and Dunta Robinson nabbed the eighth of his fine career and first in 2006. Even with Houston's strong defensive showing, it looked as though Jacksonville might have a chance to tie or win the game in the final moments. After Sage Rosenfels, who replaced Carr in the second half after Carr suffered a shoulder contusion, was stuffed on a third-and-one at the Texans' 41-yard line, it appeared as though Jacksonville would get the ball back with about a minute and half remaining in the game. However, Gary Kubiak gambled and on fourth-and-one with the game on the line, the rookie head coach handed the ball to Samkon Gado who surged forward for the first down giving Houston the win, their sixth against Jacksonville in 10 chances all time. Carr passed for 167 yards and no interceptions and rushed for 48 more before leaving with his shoulder injury. Gado relived Lundy, getting 17 carries for 67 yards to lead both teams rushing. The win came with a price as right tackle Zach Wiegert was lost for the year with a torn ACL to his right knee to go along with a boat load of bumps and bruises for a Houston team that won its first road game in two seasons.

SUMMARY

The Texans (3-7) stormed back from a 14-point deficit to lead 21-17 late in the fourth quarter against the Buffalo Bills (4-6), but a 15-yard touchdown pass from J.P. Losman to Peerless Price with just nine seconds remaining earned Buffalo the win, their second against Houston in the past two seasons. The loss snapped a two-game winning streak for the Texans and ruined a record setting performance by David Carr, who threw 22 consecutive completions at one point to tie the NFL single-game record. For the game, Carr was 25-30 for 223 yards, but threw did not throw a touchdown and had one pass picked off. The Houston offense was powered by a running game that saw Samkon Gado rush for 69 yards on just 10 carries and Wali Lundy rush for 61 yards on merely eight carries. Both Gado and Lundy rushed for a touchdown as they powered a 188-yard rushing attack, the second most single-game rushing yardage in team history. There was just one problem. The Bills set some records themselves. J.P. Losman threw for a career-high 340 yards to go along with three touchdowns and just one interception. His favorite target, Lee Evans, snagged 11 balls for an eye-popping 265-yard performance, the most ever by a Bills receiver in a single game. It was Evans who got the Bills on the board early with 83-yard touchdown receptions on the Bills' first two possessions giving Buffalo a 14-0 lead with 6:35 remaining in the first quarter. Evans had over 200 yards receiving in the first quarter to become the first player in NFL history to reach that mark in the first 15 minutes of play. Following Evans' exploits, the Texans began their hike down the comeback trail with a 17-yard run by Lundy to make the score 14-7, Bills, with 3:02 remaining in the first. A Rian Lindell 40-yard field goal with 12:13 remaining in the first half made the score 17-7, Buffalo, but when Gado scored from one-yard out with 6:01 remaining in the half, the Texans were within three points at 17-14. Houston got deep into Buffalo territory again before the break, but a costly Jameel Cook fumble after a short pass from Carr cost the Texans at least three points. Houston was on the board first in the second half when Dunta Robinson picked off Losman deep in Bills territory and returned it nine yards for the first touchdown of his career. The play was set up by a beautiful punt by Chad Stanley, who pinned the Bills inside their own five-yard line three times on the day. Leading 21-17 with 7:02 remaining in the third quarter, the Texans never managed to strike with a decisive score. In the end, Houston was one first down away from a win after receiving the ball at its own 11-yard line with 2:17 remaining in the game. Gado managed one yard on first down and seven on second to give Houston a third-and-two at the 19 following the two-minute warning. A pass to Andre Johnson fell incomplete and the Bills drove 55 yards in 1:36 to win the game.

SUMMARY

The Texans (3-8) never led and fell to the New York Jets (6-5) 26-11 at The Meadowlands. Despite holding the Jets to a franchise best of 27 yards rushing defensively, Houston couldn't find the endzone until the waning moments of the fourth quarter. David Carr set career bests in both attempts (54) and completions (39) on his way to 321 yards passing, but when he finally found a receiver in the endzone, the game was out of reach. On the day the Texans out gained the Jets 332 yards to 304, but managed only 25 yards on the ground themselves. Andre Johnson surpassed career single-season bests with 10 receptions for 98 yards and a touchdown. Eric Moulds had his finest day as Texan with 10 catches for 79 yards. DeMeco Ryans led the defense with a career-high of 14 tackles to lead both teams, but all those efforts went for naught. Chad Pennington didn't match Carr in yardage, but with 286 yards and one touchdown, he did more than enough to allow his team to win. Four Mike Nugent field goals also fueled New York, who stayed alive in the AFC playoff race. Neither team found the endzone in the first half as the Jets took a 9-3 lead into the locker room at halftime thanks to three of Nugent's field goals. Kris Brown supplied the only points for the Texans with a 47-yard field goal. New York marched down the field on their first possession of the second half after forcing the Texans three-and-out to start the third quarter. The Jets moved 91 yards using a no huddle attack, culminating with a touchdown strike from Pennington to Laveranues Coles from 12 yards out. After another three-and-out in which the Texans lost seven yards, Carr threw an interception on Houston's third drive of the second half. The Jets took advantage and moved the ball 26 yards on just four plays with Cedric Houston ending the drive with a one-yard touchdown run. With the score 23-3, with 3:33 remaining in the third quarter, Houston went into comeback mode, but to no avail. New York added another field goal in the fourth to make the score 26-3, and when the Texans finally found the endzone with 3:54 remaining in the game, it was too late as the Jets cruised to the win.

SUMMARY

The Texans (4-8) used a stellar performance by DeMeco Ryans and three Kris Brown field goals to out-last the Oakland Raiders 23-14 at McAfee Coliseum. Ryans was sensational in the win totaling 15 tackles, a career-high, to go along with a sack, three passes defended, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and an interception in the endzone on the Raiders last drive of the game. In a game that saw that Texans amass minus-five yards passing and just 124 yards of total offense, it was the Texans defense and special teams that carried Houston to the win. Jerome Mathis returned to the lineup for the first time in the 2006 season and had a 87-yard kickoff return to set up a three-yard TD run by Wali Lundy, Houston's only offensive score of the game. Mathis was also used as decoy in a fake reverse on a punt return of 58 yards by Dexter Wynn, setting up one of Brown's three field goals. The lone star offensively for Houston was Ron Dayne, who emerged from a month of inactivity to rush for 95 yards on 18 carries. With the Texans struggling through the air, it was Dayne who controlled the flow of the game by toting the ball 15 times during Houston's last 18 plays from scrimmage. The flow of the game manifested early as the Texans were first on the board, using a 58-yard fumble return by DeMarcus Faggins to take a 7-0 lead with 11:54 remaining in the first quarter. The Raiders defense set up Oakland's only offensive scoring drive of the game pinning the Texans deep in their own end and allowing the Raiders to engineer a 21-yard touchdown drive after a 34-yard punt return by Chris Carr. When Justin Fargas scored from three yards out to end the drive, Oakland had tied the score at seven with 13:46 remaining in the first half. The Raiders stole momentum shortly before the half when Kirk Morrison recovered a Carr fumble and rumbled 35 yards for a touchdown to give the Raiders a 14-7, advantage with just 56 seconds remaining in the first half. Houston erased that lead quickly, using Mathis' return to start the second half to set up their only offensive scoring play with Lundy knotting the score at 14 just 16 seconds into the second half. It was all Texans from there as the defense dominated and shut out the Raiders for the remainder of the game. Nine points from Brown in the fourth quarter were enough for the win, Houston's second away from home on the season.

SUMMARY

The Texans (4-9) rallied to tie the Tennessee Titans (6-7) at 20 points apiece with 2:09 remaining in the fourth quarter, but succumbed in overtime 26-20, thanks to a 39-yard touchdown sprint by Titans' quarterback Vince Young. Young threw for just 218 yards, no touchdowns and one interception, but rose to the occasion in overtime on a third-and-14 play from the Texans' 39-yard line. Houston never got the ball in the extra period. If they had, they probably would have given it to Ron Dayne, who rushed for 87 yards on 21 carries to go along with two touchdowns. Dayne was the lone bright spot of a Houston offense that was out-gained by the Titans 418-240. Defensively, linebacker DeMeco Ryans continued his stellar play recording a game-high 14 tackles. Tennessee got on the scoreboard first with a 41-yard field goal by Rob Bironas with 3:06 remaining in the first quarter. With the Titans inching close to the goal line early in the second, Houston's defense refused to let Tennessee score and the Titans had to instead settle for another Bironas field goal, this one from 33 yards, to put Tennessee on top 6-0 with 13:20 remaining in the first half. Much as he did a week before in Oakland, Dayne emerged as Houston's top runner after Wali Lundy got the start in the backfield. In a drive that saw Dayne account for 29 total yards, Houston took its first lead on their next possession when Dayne punched it into the endzone from one-yard out to make the score 7-6, Houston, with 7:53 remaining in the opening half. That's how the score remained until the third where Houston marched down the field on its first possession to take a 14-6 lead thanks to another short touchdown plunge by Dayne with 9:26 remaining in the third quarter. Tennessee got their own rushing attack going on their next possession. When Travis Henry, who had a game-high 88 yards and two touchdowns, collected his first of the game with 1:49 left in the third quarter, the Titans were within one at 14-13, Houston. Kris Brown added his first field goal, a 49-yarder on the Texans next possession after DeMarcus Faggins intercepted Young in the fourth quarter. Facing a 17-13 deficit with 12:00 remaining in the game, the Titans answered with a long touchdown drive punctuated by a two-yard touchdown run by Henry to put the Titans back on top 20-17 with 3:53 remaining in regulation. Brown answered with his second field goal and Young worked his magic in overtime to earn Tennessee its second win over Houston in 2006.

SUMMARY

The Texans (4-10) fell to the New England Patriots (10-4) 40-7 in their first ever trip to Gillette Stadium. Houston couldn't overcome four turnovers and trailed 27-0 before Ron Dayne opened scoring in the second half with a one-yard touchdown run. David Carr threw a career-high four interceptions, two in each half, while throwing for 127 yards and no touchdowns. A stout Houston defense couldn't keep an opportunistic Patriots' offense in check as Houston allowed just 230 net yards, but were faced with a short field for much of the day. The 230 yards was the third lowest total of the season. The lone bright spot on offense was again Dayne, who rushed for at least 85 yards for the third-straight game with 94 yards on 18 carries. DeMeco Ryans collected 10 tackles, marking the fourth-straight game in which the rookie linebacker reached double-digit stops and the eighth time overall on the season. The Texans approached midfield on their opening drive of the game, but a fake punt on fourth-and-one was sniffed out by Patriots' linebacker Larry Izzo and Jason Simmons was stopped for no gain giving New England good field position. The Texans defense dug in, however, and only surrendered a 36-yard field goal from Stephen Gostkowski, his first of four in the game. Carr threw his first interception on the ensuing possession and the rout was on from there as New England was in the endzone two plays later after Kevin Faulk went 43 yards on a screen pass, his first of two total touchdowns in the game. New England took a 27-0 lead into the locker room and after allowing Houston one scoring drive to start matters in the second, cruised to the win, holding the ball for nearly 36 minutes. With the loss, Houston finished its 2006 road schedule 2-6.

SUMMARY

The Texans (5-10) sprinted out to a 14-0 lead against the Indianapolis Colts (11-4) and didn't look back, claiming a 27-24 win thanks to a 48-yard field goal from Kris Brown as time expired. Houston pounded the ball into the Colts defense all day with the Texans offense being led by a resurgent Ron Dayne, who had 32 carries for 153 yards and two touchdowns. Colts' quarterback Peyton Manning was sharp, but Indy's offense just couldn't get on the field in a game that saw Houston dominate time of possession. Manning threw three touchdowns and the Colts punted just once during the game, but one turnover ultimately cost them the game. The Texans marched 61 yards after the opening kickoff to take a 7-0 lead with Dayne punctuating the drive with a three-yard scoring run. On the Colts ensuing possession, Mario Williams forced a Joseph Addai fumble and Houston recovered. Nine plays later Dayne was in the endzone again, this time scoring from six yards out to give the Texans a 14-0 lead with 5:46 remaining in the first quarter. A bit stunned, Indy answered on their next possession, going 80 yards in 10 plays with Marvin Harrison scoring on a 37-yard scoring strike from Manning to get the Colts on the board. Houston's offense was stopped on its next possession and after the Texans punted for the first time, the Colts went 85 yards to knot the score at 14 with 8:16 remaining in the first half. The Texans answered right back, going back to the ground, controlling the clock for the remainder of the half with Vonta Leach adding a three-yard touchdown reception to an 85-yard scoring drive. Leach's first NFL touchdown gave the Texans a 21-14 lead with just 16 seconds remaining in the half. Indy received the second half kickoff looking to tie things up, but was promptly stopped, gaining just 19 yards before punting for the only time on the day. Houston's offense didn't fair much better on their next drive, but was able to hold the ball for five minutes. Indy added a 33-yard field goal from Adam Vinatieri shortly before the end of the third quarter, but Houston answered with three points of its own to make the score 24-17 with 6:54 remaining in the game. Knowing that it might be the last time he touched the ball, Manning engineered a third touchdown drive on the Colts' ensuing possession and tied the score at 24 thanks to a second scoring strike to Harrison with 2:41 remaining in the game. With overtime looming, the Texans carefully made their way down the field, needing only 31 yards to get Brown in range after a 38-yard kickoff return from Dexter Wynn. Brown's heroics followed and the Texans claimed their first win over the Colts in franchise history.

SUMMARY

The Texans (6-10) defeated the Cleveland Browns (4-12) 14-6 for their first ever season-ending victory. With Houston's win against the Indianapolis Colts, the Texans finished the 2006 season with back-to-back wins and finished with their best home record in franchise history with a 4-4 mark at Reliant Stadium. Ron Dayne, who led the team in rushing for the 2006 season, was lost during pregame and it was feared that a vaunted Texans running game would take a hit. Enter rookie Chris Taylor. Taylor, who spent the first half of the season on the practice squad, had a career-high 99 yards on 20 carries. He added his first NFL touchdown to the stats sheet as well, the only offensive score in a game dominated by each team's defense. Houston managed just 177 total yards in the game and had the ball for less than 22 minutes. However, after falling behind before halftime thanks to a Phil Dawson field goal for the Browns, Taylor scored to culminate Houston's first drive of the second half to make the score 7-3. The game's decisive play happened on Cleveland's ensuing drive as defensive tackle Anthony Maddox forced a fumble while sacking Browns's quarterback Charlie Frye. Maddox picked the ball off the ground and rumbled 47 yards for his first career touchdown to make the score 14-3 with 6:43 remaining in the third quarter. Houston held on from there as Cleveland could manage only three more points the remainder of the game. Houston's 6-10 record marked a four-game improvement over the 2005 season and also the second-best record in franchise history.

Defensive Improvement

After giving up an average of 483.7 yards per game in the first three games of the season, the Houston defense was one of the best in the league over the last three months, allowing almost 180 fewer yards per game in that time span. Beginning in Week 4 home win over Miami (10/1), the defense allowed just 303.8 total net yards per game. The defense ranked 24th in the league in total yards per game allowed, but since the beginning of October, Houston was 10th in that category. Houston's improvement of 179.9 yards per game was nearly 100 yards better than the next-most improved team.

Going Deep

The Texans teamed with Reliant Energy to raise money for Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Houston this offseason by swinging for the fences. For every home run hit, Reliant donated $250 through the Reliant Energy PowerBlast Program.

Player scheduled to participate are Andre Johnson, Matt Schaub, Sage Rosenfels, DeMeco Ryans, Steve McKinney, Chester Pitts, Bryan Pittman, C.C. Brown, Jeb Putzier, Mark Bruener, Dexter McClean and Kris Brown.

The Texans hit five home runs out the park and were helped by Astros OF Hunter Pence who hit six to help the cause. Brown and Rosenfels shared the title this year as the Texans top home run hitters.

1997

June 18: The NHL bypasses Chuck Watson and Bob McNair's efforts to bring an expansion hockey club to Houston.

July 3: Houston Oilers owner Bud Adams gets the green light to move his team to Nashville, Tennessee. U.S. District Judge Lynn Hughes signs the final consent judgment in the lawsuit against the team after all parties involved agree to a settlement.

October 15: NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue praises the early plans of Bob McNair and Houston for an expansion franchise at the NFL Owners' Meetings.

October 17: In reaction to Tagliabue's comments, officials from the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo (HLS&R) say they will push for the building of a domed stadium that the Rodeo will share with an NFL team, as opposed to renovating the Astrodome. It marks the Rodeo's first public statement in support of McNair's efforts.

March 23: The NFL expansion committee awards an expansion team to Cleveland. McNair, Harris County Judge Robert Eckels, and Mayor Lee Brown meet with Tagliabue for the first time as a group at the owners' meeting held in Houston.

May 7: Los Angeles-based entertainment broker Michael Ovitz announces he will spearhead a $750-million proposal to build a stadium in Carson, California, in an effort to bring the NFL back to L.A.

June 30: Tagliabue and NFL Stadium Committee head Jerry Richardson visit Houston to see plans for the city's retractable-roof stadium, meeting for several hours with McNair, Houston Sports Authority Jack Rains, Brown, Eckels, and HLS&R president Jim Bloodworth.

September 25: The HLS&R votes unanimously to approve paying a $1.5 million annual lease to use the proposed retractable-roof NFL stadium.

October 27: Tagliabue announces that NFL owners will have a decision on the league's newest expansion team by April.

1999

February 16: The NFL Expansion Committee meets, but does not pick a winning bidder from the three finalists. Tagliabue says the decision will come within a month.

March 16: The NFL Expansion Committee votes 29-2 to give Los Angeles until September 15 to work out a feasible stadium and ownership plan. If L.A. cannot get a plan together, the committee will then recommend Houston for the league's 32nd franchise.

May 25: Ovitz unveils a new plan for a 60-acre spread of parks, parking garages, and a new stadium where the Los Angeles Coliseum currently sits. The plan impresses the NFL, but the league remains concerned about a lack of financial planning for the proposed project.

June 3: In a two-hour meeting with Tagliabue, McNair is encouraged to step up his efforts for an expansion team.

July 28: Los Angeles presents an exclusive negotiating agreement to the NFL but the league does not sign it, stating that it does not address the financial situation behind the New Coliseum at Exposition Park.

September 9: NFL executives tell the Houston group to be prepared to come to the owners' meetings in Atlanta on October 6.

September 28: Marvin Davis, one of the bidders for the Los Angeles franchise, bows out of the expansion race.

October 6: The National Football League owners vote 29-0 to award the 32nd NFL franchise to Houston and Bob McNair for a record amount of $700 million.

November: McNair and Houston NFL executives start the first of 40 separate focus group sessions, which eventually total 500 individual participants. The sessions are conducted not just in Houston, but in Galveston, Austin, Beaumont, San Antonio, and Corpus Christi as well. Fans are asked for their opinions on the image of Houston and its surrounding areas, the image of the NFL, and the expectations for the Houston franchise.

November 24: Houston NFL debuts its "transition" logo, which serves as the organization's mark until a team name is selected, and the corresponding official logo, team colors, and uniform are developed. The "transition" logo is created by NFL Properties, the New York-based licensing and marketing arm of the NFL.

January 19: Houston NFL hires Charley Casserly as Executive Vice President/General Manager. Casserly comes to Houston after 23 years with the Washington Redskins, the last 10 as general manager. The Redskins captured Super Bowls XVII, XXII, and XXVI during his tenure in Washington.

February: The National Football League begins researching and developing computerized designs for potential logos. Additional focus groups are conducted in Houston and San Antonio.

March 2: Houston NFL announces that its team name search has been narrowed to five choices: Apollos, Bobcats, Stallions, Texans, and Wildcatters. The five names were determined after several months of research conducted jointly by Houston NFL 2002 and National Football League Properties. That research included multiple focus group studies performed in both English and Spanish in not only Houston, but also in numerous surrounding markets such as San Antonio, Austin, Galveston, and Beaumont.

March 9: Houston NFL 2002 celebrates the official groundbreaking of the new stadium that will house the team when it begins play in 2002. The 69,500-seat state-of-the-art facility will be the world's first retractable-roof football stadium. Houston NFL 2002 will be a co-tenant of the new stadium with the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Participants in the groundbreaking ceremony include Bob McNair, NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo President Mike Wells, Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Commissioner Steve Hatchell, Houston Mayor Lee Brown, Harris County Judge Robert Eckels, Harris County Commissioner (Precinct 1) El Franco Lee, Harris County Sports & Convention Corporation Chairman Mike Surface, and Harris County-Houston Sports Authority Chairman Billy Burge.

April: The list of five team names is shaved to three – Apollos, Stallions, and Texans. Color logo designs are presented to focus groups for feedback.

August 10: McNair and other club officials view the final proofs of the selected team logo at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. NFL Properties conducts television and photo testing of the logo as well.

September 6: The NFL's 32nd franchise is officially christened the Houston Texans before thousands at a downtown rally on Texas Avenue. NFL commissioner Tagliabue introduces McNair, who then unveils his team's name, colors, and logo to the crowd. The ceremony, televised live on ESPN2, includes simultaneous unveilings in Austin and San Antonio. McNair then heads to Enron Field, where he throws out the first "pitch" (actually a Texans football) to Houston Astros owner Drayton McLane before the Astros play the Florida Marlins.

September 7: The Texans are honored by the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in Waco. Club officials present the Hall of Fame with a Texans helmet, football, and other merchandise, which is placed in a display case in the football wing of the Hall of Fame.

October 26: Reliant Energy acquires the naming rights for Houston's new state-of-the-art football stadium and the sports, entertainment, and convention complex then known as the Astrodome Complex. Reliant Energy's 32-year agreement to acquire the naming rights for five different buildings and the complex is the most comprehensive naming rights agreement in history. Reliant Park will be a partnership of mutual support between the Harris County Sports and Convention Corporation, the Houston Texans, RodeoHouston, and Reliant Energy. The facilities at Reliant Park will include Reliant Stadium, Reliant Astrodome, Reliant Arena, Reliant Hall, and Reliant Center.

November 1: At its owners' meetings in Atlanta, the NFL announces that Reliant Stadium will host Super Bowl XXXVIII on February 1, 2004. Houston becomes the seventh city to host multiple Super Bowls. Rice Stadium hosted Super Bowl VIII in 1974.

January 21: The Texans introduce Dom Capers as the club's first head coach. Capers comes to Houston from Jacksonville, where he served the previous two seasons as the Jaguars' defensive coordinator. From 1995-98, Capers was the head coach of the expansion Carolina Panthers, leading the team to the NFC West title and a berth in the NFC Championship Game in 1996.

February 2: Chris Palmer is hired as the Texans' first offensive coordinator. Palmer spent the previous two seasons as head coach of the expansion Cleveland Browns.

May 22: The NFL formally unveils its realignment plan for the 2002 season at league meetings in Chicago. The league will feature eight four-team divisions. The Texans are placed in the AFC South with Indianapolis, Jacksonville, and Tennessee.

June 12: Bob McNair and Titans owner Bud Adams each donate $100,000 to the Red Cross in an effort to aid Houston flood victims. NFL Charities matches the donation. More than 20,000 Houston-area families were displaced from their homes by raging flood waters the previous weekend.

August 15: The NFL announces its new schedule rotation for 2002. In addition to their home-and-home series with AFC South rivals Indianapolis, Jacksonville, and Tennessee, the Texans will host Baltimore, Cincinnati, Dallas, the New York Giants, and the fourth-place team from the AFC East in 2002. Houston will then travel to Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Washington, and the fourth-place team in the AFC West.

September 25: The Texans unveil their team uniforms before a crowd of 12,000 fans in downtown Houston. Local dignitaries and numerous Texan celebrities join Bob McNair on stage for the ceremony. The Houston Texans Cheerleaders also make their debut.

November 5: The Texans hold their first player workouts, evaluating a group of defensive backs.

December 29: The Texans sign 10 players to the first contracts in club history. The team's first players are running back Michael Basnight, safety Leomont Evans, tackle Robert Hicks, defensive tackle Jason Nikolao, quarterback Mike Quinn, fullback Matt Snider, cornerback Jason Suttle, linebacker Casey Tisdale, safety Kevin Williams, and tackle Jerry Wisne.

2002

January 14: The Texans hire former Indianapolis Colts defensive coordinator Vic Fangio as their first defensive coordinator.

March 4: The Texans execute the first trade in club history, shipping QB Danny Wuerffel to Washington in exchange for DT Jerry Deloach.

March 6: The Texans sign their first unrestricted free agent, inking former Colts offensive lineman Steve McKinney.

March 25: The Texans launch their offseason program at Reliant Astrodome. All 65 players report.

April 20: The Texans select Fresno State quarterback David Carr with the first-overall selection of the 2002 NFL Draft. Carr flies back to Houston from New York that afternoon to sign a seven-year contract. He is the first of 12 players Houston selects over seven rounds.

April 26: The Texans open their first mini-camp with 99 players, including 25 rookies.

April 28: The Texans launch their first Texans Outreach Tour, taking players to Austin, Beaumont, College Station, Corpus Christi, and Lufkin over a five-day stretch.

July 20: Ninety-seven players report for the Texans' first-ever training camp. Camp is held at the club's training facility in Houston. The players go through conditioning drills the following day before hitting the practice field on July 22.

August 5: In their first preseason game, the Texans fall to the New York Giants 34-17 in the annual Pro Football Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio. Kris Brown kicks a 22-yard field goal for Houston's first points. TE Billy Miller and WR Sherrod Gideon follow with touchdown receptions.

August 10: The Texans record their first preseason win, defeating the New Orleans Saints 13-10 at the Louisiana Superdome.

August 24: The Texans open Reliant Stadium with a 24-3 preseason loss to the Miami Dolphins.

September 8: The Texans become the first NFL team in 41 years to win their expansion debut, stunning the Dallas Cowboys 19-10 before 69,604 at Reliant Stadium. Carr throws two touchdown passes, including a 19-yarder to Miller for the club's first-ever touchdown. DT Seth Payne sacks Cowboys QB Quincy Carter in the end zone for a safety to clinch the victory.

October 27: The Texans win on the road for the first time, defeating Jacksonville 21-19 at ALLTEL Stadium. Brown nails a 45-yard field goal with 2:11 left to provide the winning points.

December 8: Despite just 47 yards of total offense, the Texans shock eventual AFC North champion Pittsburgh 24-6 at Heinz Field. All three of Houston's touchdowns are scored by the defense – two interception returns by CB Aaron Glenn and a fumble return by CB Kenny Wright. The 47 yards mark the lowest output by a winning team in NFL history.

December 19: Glenn and DE Gary Walker are selected to represent the AFC in the 2003 Pro Bowl. It is the third selection for Glenn (1997, 1998) and the second for Walker (2001). The Texans tie the 1961 Vikings for the most players selected on an expansion team and become the first expansion club to be represented since the Saints in 1967, when all teams were required to have at least one player selected.

February 2: Glenn and Walker start for the AFC in the Pro Bowl and help their conference to a 45-20 win before 50,125 at Aloha Stadium in Honolulu.

February 13: Texans general manager Charley Casserly is named to the NFL's Competition Committee for the second time in his 25-year NFL career.

April 26: The Texans use the third-overall selection of the 2003 NFL Draft to pick Miami (Fla.) WR Andre Johnson, who caught 22 touchdown passes in three seasons with the Hurricanes.

September 7: The Texans become the first NFL expansion team to win two consecutive regular-season openers, stunning the heavily-favored Dolphins 21-20 in Miami. Brown hits a game-winning 35-yard field goal in the final minute.

September 21: The Texans, in conjunction with Siemens and the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, open a photography exhibit entitled First Down Houston: The Birth of an NFL Franchise. The exhibit features 86 black-and-white photos taken by Robert Clark, who followed the Texans throughout their inaugural season.

September 28: Carr leaps over the goal line from one yard out on the game's final play, lifting Houston to a 24-20 win over Jacksonville at Reliant Stadium. Capers is named Staples NFL Coach of the Week for his decision to go for the touchdown.

November 13: After rushing for 104 yards and one touchdown in Houston's loss to Cincinnati, rookie RB Domanick Williams wins his fourth-consecutive NFL Rookie of the Week honor, the first player in league history to do so.

January 29: Williams is named NFL Rookie of the Year at a press conference at the George R. Brown Convention Center. NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue is on hand to present Williams the trophy. Johnson is another one of the five finalists.

February 1: Reliant Stadium hosts one of the most exciting Super Bowls ever as New England defeats Carolina 32-29 in Super Bowl XXXVIII. Patriots K Adam Vinatieri nails a 41-yard field goal with four seconds remaining to give his team the win.

March 4: The Texans sign three unrestricted free agents, inking former Titans DT Robaire Smith, former Dolphins T Todd Wade, and re-signing G Todd Washington.

March 31: NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue selects McNair to chair a new league committee that will study revenue and costs.

April 24: The Texans select twice in the first round of the NFL Draft for the first time in club history, using the 10th pick to select South Carolina CB Dunta Robinson and trading up to get Tennessee's first-round pick (27th overall), where Houston selected Western Michigan LB Jason Babin.

October 3: The Texans defeat the Raiders 30-17 at Reliant Stadium to notch back-to-back wins for the first time in their history. Houston had defeated Kansas City 24-21 the previous Sunday.

November 28: The Texans rally from a 21-3 deficit to defeat the Titans 31-21 at Reliant Stadium, earning their first-ever sweep of a division opponent.

December 26: The Texans defeat Jacksonville 21-0 at ALLTEL Stadium, earning the first shutout in franchise history. Houston sets team records for yards allowed (126) and passing yards allowed (31), and also rushes for a club-record 211 yards.

February 13: Johnson becomes the first Texans offensive player to play in the Pro Bowl, making one catch for 24 yards in the AFC's 38-27 win over the NFC.

April 21: The Texans trade their second-round pick in the 2005 draft and one of their two third-round picks to Oakland in exchange for CB Phillip Buchanon.

April 23: After trading down from the 13th overall selection to the 16th pick, the Texans draft Florida State DT Travis Johnson.

September 19: The club promotes Joe Pendry from offensive line coach (centers/guards) to offensive coordinator, Steve Marshall from offensive line coach (tackles) to offensive line coach, dismissed Chris Palmer.

December 21: Rookie KR Jerome Mathis is selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Chargers LB Shawne Merriman as one of only two rookies to make the squad.

2006

January 2: The Texans dismiss Capers as head coach one day after Houston completes the 2005 season with a 2-14 record. Capers leaves after four seasons with a record of 18-46.

January 26: The Texans hire former Denver Broncos offensive coordinator Gary Kubiak as the second head coach in team history.

January 30: Houston hires Troy Calhoun as the offensive coordinator.

February 2: The Texans hire Richard Smith as the defensive coordinator.

February 15: Head coach Gary Kubiak announces the completion of his coaching staff with the hiring of assistant head coach/offense Mike Sherman. The former Packers head coach caps off a staff that has 16 coaches each average more than nine years of NFL coaching experience.

April 6: The Texans trade a fifth-round pick (134th overall) in the 2006 NFL Draft to the Buffalo Bills in exchange for WR Eric Moulds.

April 28: Houston signs North Carolina State DE Mario Williams to a six-year contract.

April 29: The Texans select DE Mario Williams number-one overall in the 2006 NFL Draft. Williams joins Carr as the team's second number-one overall player taken in the draft.

May 10: Casserly announces he will resign his position with the team effective June 1.

June 5: The Texans name Rick Smith the second general manager in team history.

January 3: Texans LB DeMeco Ryans is named the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year. Ryans finished the season second in the NFL with 156 tackles and led the league with 126 solo tackles.

February 10: Texans WR Andre Johnson hauls in three passes for 73 yards including a career-long 47-yard grab in his second Pro Bowl. The AFC goes on to the win 31-28.

March 5: The Texans sign unrestricted free agent RB Ahman Green.

March 22: Texans GM Rick Smith facilitates a trade that brings QB Matt Schaub to Houston to become the Texans new signal caller.

April 28: The Texans select DT Amobi Okoye in the first round of the 2007 NFL draft.

What Irony

Senior defensive assistant Frank Bush, while scouting the west coast for the Houston Oilers, saw a defensive tackle from Fresno State that had some potential in Jethro Franklin. So with the 298th selection in the 1988 draft, based on Bush's assessment, the Oilers selected Franklin. This is the first stop the two have worked together at since 1988.

PETE ROZELLE AWARD

2004, 2007

Houston vs. the AFC South

Six of the Texans' nine division wins have come against Jacksonville. Jacksonville is the only division opponent against whom Houston has a winning record. The six victories against the Jaguars are the most against an opponent.

The Texans have swept the season series against division opponents three times: In 2004 against both Jacksonville and Tennessee and last season against Jacksonville.

Houston and Tennessee have never split a season series. Houston won both contests in 2004, while Tennessee swept both games in 2002, 2003, 2005 and 2006.

The Texans picked up their first win over Indianapolis in 10 tries last season in the next-to-last game of the season. The Colts had won the first nine meetings between the two teams.

LEADERS

in cancer care

Dr. Brian Butler, Radiation Oncologist

Chet Harrod, Cancer Survivor

Chet Harrod was diagnosed with advanced prostate cancer. Despite visits to several prominent cancer centers, he was given little hope. But he didn't give up. His journey and research led him to The Methodist Hospital where a combination of hormone therapy, targeted radiation, and a revolutionary gene therapy delivered promise — and a cure.

At Methodist, physicians are pioneering great advances in cancer treatment and using leading-edge technology to help patients beat their life-threatening diseases.

This is what drives us. And this is just the beginning.

The city of Houston has always been on the cutting edge of stadium development. Houston first introduced the Astrodome, which opened in 1965 as the world's first dome stadium. The trend continued in 2002 with the debut of Reliant Stadium.

Reliant Stadium, the first NFL stadium with a retractable roof, opened for business on Aug. 24, 2002, as the Texans hosted the Miami Dolphins in their first home preseason game. Houston's regular season debut against Dallas on Sept. 8 was televised nationally on ESPN. The Texans stunned the Cowboys before a raucous crowd, unveiling a gameday atmosphere that would become a staple throughout the Texans' inaugural campaign.

Counting preseason contests, the Texans have played to 50 consecutive sellouts and set a team record in 2004 with 565,192 fans during the regular season, an average of 70,649 per game. The Texans' largest crowd to date was 70,769 in their prime time showdown with the Green Bay Packers in November 2004, the largest non-Super Bowl crowd in the city's history.

And speaking of the Super Bowl, the world's biggest sports spectacle returned to Houston for the first time in 30 years in 2004 as Reliant Stadium hosted a memorable Super Bowl XXXVIII between the New England Patriots and Carolina Panthers. The Patriots won 32-29 on Adam Vinatieri's 41-yard field goal with four seconds remaining before a raucous crowd of 71,525. The event also featured elaborate pre-game and halftime shows featuring the likes of Aerosmith, Beyoncé, Kid Rock, P. Diddy, Nelly, Toby Keith and Willie Nelson.

Reliant Stadium also has played host to numerous college football games, including three Houston Bowls and the 2002 and 2005 Big 12 Championship Games. The stadium has also played host to the Inaugural Texas Bowl and the 2007 East/West Shrine All-Star Game. The stadium also has become one of the nation's leading soccer venues. The U.S. National Soccer Team hosted Mexico in May 2003 in the two teams' first match since their 2002 World Cup meeting. In 2005, Reliant Stadium hosted the championship matches of the Mexican League's InterLiga qualification competition.

The Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo continued to play to a packed house in 2007, boasting such acts as ZZ Top, George Strait, Clay Walker, Brooks & Dunn and Hannah Montana. Reliant Stadium has also played host to The Rolling Stones, Metallica, Disney on Ice and the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Ground broke on Reliant Stadium on March 9, 2000. The stadium, covering 1.9 million square feet, features 44,000 seats on the sideline. There are 8,200 club seats and 187 suites. The suites are the closest to the field in the NFL.

With the innovation of the retractable roof, Houston returned to outdoor NFL action in 2002 for the first time since Super Bowl VIII at Rice Stadium in 1974. The roof is made of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass fabric, and takes 10 minutes to open and close. When it opens, the roof splits at the 50-yard line and docks in the end zones. The roof can withstand winds as strong as 140 miles per hour when closed and secured.

The climate-controlled stadium also features a natural grass-playing surface. The grass is grown on eight-foot square trays then transported to the stadium.

Reliant Stadium features an open view of the playing field from the main concourse and on

The Texans' front office is located on the south end of the stadium, enabling the club's day-to-day operations to be under one roof. Players report to the stadium to take part in film sessions, practice, treatment and training. The 10,000-square-foot weight room is the largest in the league. The players can also take advantage of a three-lane lap pool.

Houston's working media has its own offices and library on the ground level of Reliant Stadium. Texans head coach Gary Kubiak conducts his weekly press conference in the media workroom. His post-game press conferences are held in one of the team's two media the club level. The main concourse is 40-feet wide, which makes it the largest in the NFL. Each concession stand has multiple televisions enabling Texans fans to stay on top of the action.

Reliant Stadium also can boast a larger than life scoreboard. Following the trend that was started with the Astrodome scoreboard, Reliant Stadium houses two of the largest in the league. Both include out of town scores, down and distance, the game clock and a host of other traits. The video boards are among the largest in the NFL.

auditoriums on the ground level. The stadium's press box is located on the eighth level of the stadium's west side, flanking Kirby Drive.

Across the street, the Methodist Training Center features three grass practice fields. One field is lit for night sessions during training camp. The Texans also have an indoor practice field outfitted with Field Turf. The air-supported structure offers the team a seamless transition from outdoor to indoor practice in case of inclement weather. The state-of-the-art facility also doubles as the team's training camp headquarters.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE POLICIES

Alcohol may not be brought into Reliant Stadium. Guests who appear to be under age 35 are required to show valid photo ID indicating legal proof of age when purchasing alcohol at Reliant Stadium. Alcohol sales are limited to two (2) drinks per person per transaction. All public alcohol sales will end at the end of the third quarter.

Please note that different areas of Reliant Stadium are licensed for different types of alcoholic drinks (beer only, both beer and liquor or neither). The Reliant Stadium staff will prevent certain drinks from being taken from a licensed area into a non-licensed area. For instance, beverages purchased in a Verizon Wireless Club Lounge must be consumed in the Lounge and may not be removed from that area. These policies are the law and will be strictly enforced.

BAG SEARCHES

For your safety, bag searches will be performed at all entrances to Reliant Stadium. In order to expedite this process, please leave all unnecessary items in your vehicle or at home and have any items open for search before you approach a gate. Items not permitted into the Stadium must be returned to your vehicle or discarded. Staff may not store or hold items for you until postgame. Please see the Prohibited Items section at HoustonTexans.com for a list of items not permitted to be brought into the Stadium. Please be aware that at certain times pat-down searches or additional security measures may be implemented upon all persons entering Reliant Stadium. Please be prepared and arrive early to the game to allow for this extra security procedure.

BANNERS AND SIGNS

The Houston Texans and Reliant Stadium welcome signs and banners but request that you adhere to specific guidelines in order to ensure that these articles do not detract from the enjoyment of other guests. Banners and signs should in no way infringe on the sightlines of other fans and must be small enough for one person to hold. They may not be affixed to anything in Reliant Stadium or held so that they block the view of scoreboards or any permanent signage in the Stadium. In addition, poles are prohibited in Reliant Stadium, so banners or signs affixed to a pole will not be permitted into the Stadium. All banners and signs must be in good taste, must be in the spirit of the event and must not have any corporate name, logo or message. The Texans reserve the right to remove any banner or sign that does not meet these guidelines.

CAMERAS AND VIDEO RECORDERS

Fans are welcome to bring small flash photography cameras into Reliant Stadium, but no professional lenses are permitted. Digital cameras are also permitted as long as they do not record video. Please do not block any aisles or the view of other fans while taking pictures.

Video cameras and audio recorders are not permitted in Reliant Stadium and will not be stored during the game.

EMERGENCY PHONE NUMBERS AND PAGING

To contact someone during a game in the event of an emergency, please visit a Guest Services Information Booth or call 832.667.1400. Pages will only be made for emergency situations. If you are anticipating an emergency phone call, please report your name and seat number to the Guest Services Information Booth so you can be easily located.

EVACUATION PROCEDURES

Reliant Stadium staff are trained to handle any emergency situation that arises. Should an evacuation become necessary, please make sure that you are aware of the Exits nearest your seat and be prepared to follow the instructions of the Reliant Stadium staff.

FAN CODE OF CONDUCT

Reliant Stadium is a fan-friendly environment. We are committed to creating a safe, comfortable and enjoyable experience for everyone. Our staff will proactively intervene to support an environment where the game will not be disrupted by the interference of guest actions or any unauthorized persons on the playing field. This includes refraining from obscene or indecent language and gestures, as well as inappropriate clothing. All guests must show their ticket when requested and only sit in their ticketed seat.

The Houston Texans Two Strike Program allows for a warning to fans who are disruptive or acting inappropriately by giving out a yellow card with a reminder about our Fan Code of Conduct. However, if a staff person must approach someone a second time during a game for inappropriate behavior, the fan will be required to leave Reliant Park property. Any fan acting in a disruptive manner will be asked to leave immediately. Evicted guests are not welcome to return for the remainder of the game and may be subject to further disciplinary action, including the revocation of season tickets.

LOST AND FOUND

Found articles may be turned into any Guest Services Information Booth and will be recorded by Reliant Stadium staff. Guests needing assistance in retrieving lost items during games may proceed to a Guest Services Information Booth or call the Reliant Park Lost and Found phone number (832.667.1714) on weekdays. Items will be held for 30 days.

LOST CHILDREN

If you are separated from a child, please proceed to the nearest Guest Services Information Booth for assistance. In addition, if you should find a child that has been separated from his or her group, please request assistance from the nearest staff person or police officer. If outside of Reliant Stadium, please call 832.667.1400.

NOISEMAKERS

National Football League policy prohibits noisemakers from being brought inside the Stadium. This includes, but is not limited to, all horns, including air horns, cow bells and whistles. We reserve the right to confiscate any item that does not adhere to this policy.

PROHIBITED ITEMS

For your safety and the continuity of the game on the field, the following items are prohibited in Reliant Stadium: backpacks, bags larger than 11"X17", beach balls, bottles, cans, containers, coolers, fireworks, footballs brought in from outside, Frisbees, illegal substances, laptop computers, laser pens, noisemakers, outside food and beverages and weapons/firearms. Please note that this is not an exhaustive list and other items may be prohibited from Reliant Stadium if they are deemed to be dangerous or disruptive. Guests are not permitted to bring outside food, beverages, thermoses, coolers, backpacks, bags or jugs into Reliant Stadium. Children's juice boxes, infant bottles and items necessary for medical purposes are permitted.

RE-ENTRY INTO RELIANT STADIUM

Once you leave Reliant Stadium, you may not re-enter. In the event of an emergency, please visit a Guest Services Information Booth (see maps on pages 24 and 25). Please note that the Go Texan Store and Budweiser Plaza cannot be accessed from inside the Stadium until after the first quarter.

SECURITY

Suspicious activity, disruptive guests and guest related problems should be reported to a Guest Services Team Member or police officer immediately. Uncooperative guests showing disregard for Reliant Stadium or the Texans may be ejected from the facility. Intoxicated fans will not be allowed into the Stadium. An ejected guest is no longer welcome for the remainder of the game and must vacate Reliant Stadium and the Reliant Park grounds. They may not re-enter the building, even with a valid admission ticket. Re-entry by an ejected guest is grounds for arrest.

You and your belongings may be searched upon entry into the Stadium. By tendering this ticket and entering the Stadium, you consent to such searches and waive any related claims that you might have against the NFL, its member clubs, their affiliates and stadium landlord, or their agents. If you elect not to consent to the searches, you will be denied entry into the Stadium.

SMOKING

In consideration of the health and comfort of others, smoking is not permitted in the seating area or on the concourses. There are designated smoking terraces located on all four sides of the Field Level and the Verizon Wireless Club Level and also in each corner of the Upper Level. Please note that certain smoking terraces may be closed at times; however, alternate smoking terraces on the same level will remain open.

STANDING ROOM ONLY

Every ticket has a seat assignment. Please note that there are no standing room only tickets, and ushers will be clearing the top of each section and aisle. We appreciate your cooperation in keeping the sightlines clear for all fans.

STROLLERS

Although not a prohibited item, the Houston Texans and Reliant Stadium request that you do not bring strollers into the Stadium, as there is no place to store them and they pose a trip hazard when left in aisles or seating areas.

TICKETING AND WILL CALL

If any tickets are available for single games, they will go on sale in July of 2007. These tickets will be available at Ticketmaster outlets, by calling Ticketmaster at 713.629.3700 or by visiting www.ticketmaster.com.

- Children: All children two years of age and older must have a ticket. Those children under the age of two do not need a ticket and are expected to sit on an adult's lap during the game.
- Exchanges/Refunds: No exchanges or refunds will be given once a game ticket has been purchased.
- Lost or stolen tickets: Please remember that game tickets are like cash and should be secured at all times. For directions on procedures to follow if game tickets are lost or stolen, please contact the Houston Texans Ticket Office at 866.GO.TEXANS. Please note that there will be a $15 per ticket lost ticket fee.

- Resale/Scalping: Reselling or scalping tickets is strictly prohibited in Reliant Stadium or on Reliant Park property. Violators are subject to prosecution by the Houston Police Department.

UMBRELLAS

Umbrellas are permitted in Reliant Stadium if they are small enough to be stored under your seat during the game.

Houston-based Reliant Energy is one of the largest independent power producers in the nation with approximately 16,000 megawatts of power generation capacity in operation or under contract across the U.S. In Texas, the company provides service to approximately 1.9 million retail electricity customers, including residential, small business, commercial, industrial, governmental and institutional customers. Reliant also serves commercial, industrial, governmental and institutional customers in the PJM (Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Maryland) market.

RELIANT ENERGY IN THE COMMUNITY

Reliant Energy is committed to caring for the environment and communities it serves, while fulfilling its responsibility to provide reliable electricity services for customers. Through both volunteer activities and financial contributions, the company enjoys relationships with many charitable organizations, including the United Way of the Texas Gulf Coast, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Houston, March of Dimes, Houston Food Bank, Gulf Coast (Regional) Blood Center, Rebuilding Together Houston, Rebuilding Together Greater Dallas, Habitat for Humanity Dallas, Habitat for Humanity Corpus Christi, Junior Achievement of Southeast Texas and the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo. Reliant also provides bill payment assistance to customers experiencing severe hardships through its CARE program.

RELIANT ENERGY AND THE HOUSTON TEXANS

Reliant Energy is proud to be the power behind the Houston Texans – and to have played a role in bringing the NFL back to Houston. Reliant Stadium represents a major investment in the city of Houston, but the company's relationship with the Texans extends beyond the stadium and includes participation in community activities that impact children and young adults. Reliant partnered with the Texans to start the Reliant Energy Power Players Program, supporting after-school flag football and homework programs for the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Houston. Reliant also assists with the Texans youth outreach by supporting Houston-area youth football clinics and establishing the Reliant Energy Scholarship for Champions, awarded to the city's top high school student-athletes. The tandem also reaches into the community with Promoviendo Oportunidades (Promoting Opportunities) and Rebuilding Together Houston. The Promoviendo Oportunidades program provides language and parenting classes to Spanish-speaking families at the Spring Branch Boys & Girls Club. Reliant and the Texans partnered with Rebuilding Together Houston to provide home repair services for low income, elderly and/or disabled Houston-area homeowners.

Together - Reliant Energy and the Texans are making a difference in our community.

HOUSTON TEXANS FOUNDATION

The Houston Texans Foundation is committed to encouraging and enabling all youth and families in Houston and the surrounding area to reach their full potential and to achieve success. The Foundation seeks to assist through educational, financial, volunteer and collaborative support while administering programs that develop strong minds and bodies, with an emphasis on leadership, integrity and character for the youth who will become the leaders of the next generation.

The Texans Foundation provides substantial financial support to Boys and Girls Country, Child Advocates, Inc., The Health Museum, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, Rebuilding Together Houston and Heart of a Champion Character Education programs.

THE IMAGENET ALL STARS TICKET PROGRAM

Our earned ticket program which has created ultimate gameday experiences for over 1,000 youth during the 2006 pre-season. The Foundation provided T-shirts, parking passes and food vouchers donated by ARAMARK. ImageNET sponsored the program for the second year and provided 1,000 tickets to assist the Foundation in rewarding the youth for their hard work and service to the community.

HOUSTON TEXANS CHARITY GOLF CLASSIC

On May 14, 2006, Houston Texans players and coaches hit the links to raise money for the Houston Texans Foundation. Approximately 130 golfers enjoyed the challenge of River Oaks Country Club while visiting with players, coaches and Houston Texans Cheerleaders.

This event, presented by Verizon Wireless, featured a hole-in-one competition and an amazing gift bag! This fun-filled event raised more than $185,000 for the Houston Texans Foundation and its primary charities.

During the 2006 season THE RELIANT ENERGY POWER PLAYERS program has provided over 800 youth from various Units of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Houston with the opportunity to meet and interact with Houston Texans Players Anthony Weaver and Chester Pitts and Texans Cheerleaders each Tuesday before a home game. The youth also have the opportunity to cheer on the players and the rest of the Texans during the game on Sunday. The Foundation along with the program's corporate sponsor Reliant Energy provides T-Shirts and football equipment along with Texans tickets and parking. ARAMARK kindly provides participants with a free hot dog, soft drink and T-shirt. This program provides youth outreach and advances the Foundation's mission by emphasizing physical fitness and educational elements. This program also provides in game experience components, which visually relay our commitment to youth to our 70,000 guests attending each home game.

THE CHEERING CHILDREN PROGRAM allows Season Ticket Holders the opportunity to make a tax-deductible contribution to a non-profit organization by donating their unused tickets. Thanks to the generosity of Houston Texans Season Ticket holders the Houston Texans Foundation was able to distribute a grand total of over 1,400 tickets and 200 parking passes for a combined total value of over $86,000.00! The tickets were distributed to over 50 non-profit organizations. This year the foundation also donated Texas Bowl and East West Shrine game tickets to non-profit groups.

ALL PRO DAD

On Saturday July 29, 2006, the Houston Texans Foundation and special teams coach Joe Marciano invited area fathers and fathering organizations to become All Pro Dads at Training Camp. The event is a joint venture with All Pro Dad, a charity which features NFL players and coaches who speak out about the importance of fatherhood. Bryan Davis, National Director of the All Pro Dad program, along with Coach Marciano, and motivational speaker/author R. V. Brown addressed the crowd after practice. All-Pro Dad Day is an opportunity for dads to share a fun experience with their children and to learn methods to assist them in becoming more committed and involved.

In addition to receiving a firsthand look at the Texans practice, the first 1,000 fathers received a free All Pro Dad/Texans t-shirt, goodies for the kids and the opportunity to win Texans prizes by signing up for All Pro Dad's daily e-mail called Play of the Day. Our All Pro Dad event is challenging Houston area fathers to commit to being a better dad.

BEAR...BE A RESOURCE FOR CPS KIDS

Every year BEAR...BE A Resource for CPS Kids provides holiday wishes to children under the care of Child Protective Services in Harris County. BEARing Gifts ensures that over 5,000 children's holiday wishes come true. This year the Houston Texans were given 150 cards. Our players and coaches donated over $2,317.00 to the BEARing Gifts Program and with the assistance of Texans staff we were able to provide fulfill all 150 Christmas wishes for the first time!

THE NFL COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK

AWARDS recognizes outstanding volunteers who exemplify leadership, dedication and a commitment to improving their communities. Six finalists were selected for extraordinary volunteer work. Five were selected to receive $1,000 each for their respective non-profit organization. Texas Children's Hospital volunteer Jackie Crowley was the overall winner will be awarded $5,000.

Through the NFL MINI GRANT PROGRAM

the Foundation awarded grants of $200 to help finance community improvement and volunteer projects. Non-profits were responsible for the creation and execution of a new project-based service or program. Projects required a sponsoring organization in the form of a school, religious or community organization, or other 501(c) (3) groups. The 25 grant recipients performed services such as food/clothing collection drives, community clean-ups, beautifications of youth or senior centers, etc.

HOUSTON TEXANS TEAM LUNCHEON

The Houston Texans kicked off the 2006 Season with their fans at the Houston Texans TEAM Luncheon presented by Amegy Bank of Texas. 600 Texans' supporters packed into the Hyatt Regency Houston on August 30th to cheer on their team and to raise funds for the Houston Texans Foundation. Guests dined on a wonderful meal and enjoyed the opportunity to visit with the Texans player seated at their table.

The event, hosted by the "Voice of the Texans", Marc Vandermeer, featured remarks from team founder Robert McNair, head coach Gary Kubiak and several Texans players including David Carr and number one draft pick, Mario Williams. The Houston Texans Cheerleaders and TORO were also on hand to pump up the crowd. Most importantly, more than $85,000 was raised for Foundation's charities and programs.

PANCAKES & PIGSKINS ROOKIE BREAKFAST

The 2006 Houston Texans Rookies made their debut at this fun-filled breakfast on Tuesday, September 12, 2006 presented by H-E-B. 600 fans mingled with TORO and were treated to a performance by the Houston Texans Cheerleaders. General manager Rick Smith introduced the rookies and facilitated a question and answer segment.

Guests enjoyed a tasty pancake breakfast and enjoyed a new venue, The Woodlands Water Way Marriott. The event, which raised more than $40,000, benefited the Houston Texans Foundation and Junior Achievement of Southeast Texas.

IN-STADIUM AUCTIONS

A new initiative in 2006, the Foundation hosted in-stadium silent auctions during each home game. The auctions were a tremendous success. Fans enjoyed the opportunity to bid on exciting team items and unique Houston Texans experiences. In 2006, more than $30,000 was raised during In-Stadium auctions for the Houston Texans Foundation its programs.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS PROGRAMS

When Robert McNair formed the league's 32nd franchise, he envisioned that the Texans' success would reside in its character, attitude and enthusiasm both on and off of the field.

The Texans take tremendous pride in the greater Houston community. Whether showing support through community, civic or charitable efforts, the organization is committed to aiding the community that has been there to cheer on the Texans' efforts from the outset. Here is a glance at some of the club's continuing community endeavors.

HOUSTON TEXANS CAREER SYMPOSIUM

The Texans hosted more than 150 undergraduate students from local universities for the Fourth Annual "Join the Team: Integrating Business and Sports" Career Seminar on Saturday, March 31, 2007 at Reliant Stadium. The students took part in seminars led by guest speakers from the sports marketing, business and journalism fields. The forum gave students an opportunity to get an early jump on pursuing a career in the sports industry. For more information, please contact (832) 667-2141.

HOUSTON TEXANS OUTREACH TOUR

Community Relations and Public Relations assist Corporate Development with their annual "Houston Texans Outreach Tour". Texans players, cheerleaders and mascot TORO visited 12 cities in seven days. Sites included hospitals, schools and community centers.

TRAINING CAMP VISITS FOR NON PROFIT, COMMUNITY AND SCHOOL GROUPS

Local community groups attend practices during the Houston Texans Training Camp. Youth get a chance to see Texans on the practice field and play with inflatables set-up at the Methodist Training Center. If you are interested in having your camp group or charitable organization attend a morning or afternoon practice during the 2007 Houston Texans Training Camp, please call (832) 667-2141. Space is limited and available on a first come first-served basis.

TACKLE PROSTATE CANCER CAMPAIGN

The Houston Texans, The Methodist Hospital and Reliant Energy will sponsor the Tackle Prostate Cancer Campaign during the month of June. The purpose of the campaign is to heighten awareness that early detection and treatment can lead to complete recovery of the cancer. The promotion will consist of free prostate cancer screenings, public service announcements and stadium mentions. Last year, over 2,000 men were screened at Reliant Park. The free prostate cancer screenings will take place at Reliant Center during June 2007. Please contact 832-667-5864 for additional information.

HISD CULTURAL ARTS POSTER CONTEST

In an effort to promote cultural awareness through art, the Houston Texans along with Aramark, are sponsors of the HISD Poster Contest. Throughout the year students from HISD middle schools participate in the program. The young artists are required to create posters that incorporate various influences from the Asian/Pacific, Black, Hispanic and American Cultures. The contests will take place, in November, February and May.

GIRLS...GET IN THE GAME!

Girls...Get in the Game! is a one-day sports camp for middle school youth (ages 8-14) that introduces them to a variety of physical activities, including cheerleading and football drills. The program also focuses on physical fitness, nutrition, positive self-esteem and personal achievement. The program is coordinated by the Lady Texans, the players' wives association and the Community Relations Department. Please contact (832) 667-2141 for more information.

HOUSTON TEXANS BLOOD DRIVE

The Houston Texans will conduct their 6th Annual Blood Drive with the Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center, the Methodist Hospital and Reliant Energy. The blood drive will benefit local hospitals and health facilities in Houston. The 12-hour event will be held at Reliant Stadium and several Methodist Hospital locations. Houston Texans players, cheerleaders, TORO and local celebrities will be on hand to thank donors for their participation.

NFL HOMETOWN HUDDLE

The Houston Texans and United Way will sponsor "Hometown Huddle." This event is a partnership between by NFL teams on a designated day and involves players participating in a community service activity with a United Way Agency.

WALTER PAYTON-NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Walter Payton -NFL Man of the Year Award is the only League-sponsored award honoring players who excel in service within the community as well as on the field. Established in 1970, this prestigious NFL award was created to recognize the commitment of NFL players to community service.

PRE-THANKSGIVING ACTIVITY

Several Houston Texans players serve a traditional thanksgiving dinner to either youth or adults at a local facility or distribute turkeys to families in need. This holiday event allows players to get close and personal with individuals and families associated with the selected organization. Several Houston Texans players either serve a traditional thanksgiving dinner to youth or adults at a local facility or distribute turkeys to families in need.

SHOP WITH THE TEXANS

A shopping spree is coordinated during the Christmas holidays for disadvantaged children. Houston Texans players help them shop for their holiday purchases. Academy Sports and Outdoors provides $100 gift certificates to 25 youth from local shelters.

HOLIDAY LUNCH WITH THE TEXANS

Underprivileged youth are treated to a holiday lunch with Houston Texans players, cheerleaders and TORO, at a local restaurant. The youngsters were able to have their photos taken with the Texans crew who signed autographs and passed out Texans memorabilia and goodie bags.

HOSPITAL VISITS

Throughout the year, Houston Texans players make routine hospital visits in local hospitals to spread cheer and uplift the morale of patients. The players spend time signing autographs and distributing team memorabilia. Texans players visited a rehabilitation facility and a veteran health center as well.

In Addition: Some of the other Houston area organizations the Texans have assisted include The American Heart Association, Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Houston, The Children's Assessment Center, Chinese Community Center, Hispanic/Chicano Family Services Center, Houston Area Women's Center, The Institute for Rehabilitation and Research, I Have A Dream-Houston, Special Olympics and Star of Hope Mission.

Bowl-a-Rama Part II

For the second year in a row, coach Kubiak gave the players and coaches a break by cancelling the final practice of minicamp and bowling instead. The team was broken up into three teams, offense, coaches and defense, where they bowled one game for all the marbles. Each side involved selected their top ten bowlers and rolled one frame to aid their respective team's cumulative score.

The defense trailed by more than 10 pins going in the final frame, but made a miraculous comeback to beat the offense for the second year in a row. Again the coaching staff finished a distant third.

SportsRadio 610 (KILT 610AM) and heritage country KILT-FM (100.3 FM) are the flagship stations and broadcast home for the Texans Radio Network. The game broadcasts are simulcast on both stations with SportsRadio 610 broadcasting pre and post-game programs in addition to weekly player and coach's shows. CBS Radio Houston sister stations Smooth Jazz 95.7, The Wave, and CNN 650 Radio News are promotional partners with the Houston Texans as well.

MARC VANDERMEER

SportsRadio 610 morning host Marc Vandermeer enters his sixth season as the "Voice of the Houston Texans." Vandermeer brings a solid 18 years of radio broadcasting experience to the booth. Prior to his work in Houston, Vandermeer was the voice of the University of Miami Hurricanes football and basketball teams. Joining Vandermeer in the booth to provide analysis is Heisman Trophy winner and KILT morning co-host Andre Ware. Ware, a native Houstonian, played his college football at the University of Houston before becoming a first-round draft pick of the Detroit Lions. After his football career, Ware made the jump into the broadcast booth as color commentator for the Houston Cougars. He also currently serves as an analyst for college football games on ESPN. Ware was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

CBS Radio signed a 10-year agreement with the Houston Texans in September 2000. This agreement gave CBS Radio the exclusive right to broadcast Houston Texans Football games through the 2012 season and produce numerous ancillary programs featuring the team.

LA TREMENDA 1010 AM

KLAT La Tremenda 1010 AM is proud to be the flagship Spanish-language radio broadcaster of the Houston Texans for the fifth consecutive season. Representing 37.4 percent of Houston's 1.9 million people, the Hispanic community offers a huge fan base for the Texans. Since the team's inception, the Texans have realized the power of Hispanic Houston and recognized how many long-time fans they stood to gain. It's no wonder they turned to Houston's Heritage Spanish Station, La Tremenda, to reach Hispanic fans with their broadcast. So get your team spirit pumping, strap on the pads and ask yourself: Are you ready for some fútbol Americano?

La Tremenda 1010 AM is owned and operated by Univision Communications Inc., the premier Spanish-language media company in the United States, which currently owns and/or operates 68 radio stations in 17 of the top 25 U.S. Hispanic markets and four stations in Puerto Rico. In Houston, they also broadcast KLTN-FM (Estereo Latino 102.9 FM), KOVE-FM (Recuerdo 106.5FM), KQBU-FM (Que Buena 93.3 FM), KRTX-AM (Tejano 980 AM) and KPTY-FM (Party 104.9 FM).

An avid sports fan, Rolando Becerra will continue to serve as the play-by-play voice for the Texans on La Tremenda. Becerra is the only Hispanic commentator to have done play-by-play broadcasts for five major sports teams: the Houston Astros (1986-1992), the Houston Rockets (1988-1993), the Houston Oilers (1995-1997), the Houston Aeros (1999-2000) and the Texans (2002-05).

Becerra, originally from Cuba, began his radio career in Miami in 1973. He's been a Houston resident and radio constant for more than 30 years. You can also catch him on KLAT-AM as host of "Hoy Con Rolando Becerra," which airs Monday through Friday from 6-9 a.m. Becerra has been married to his wife, Jenny, for 38 years and they are parents to four children: Barbra, Jason, Jaron and Megan.

Enrique Vasquez returns to handle color commentary duties for Texans broadcasts on La Tremenda. Vasquez came back to the Houston football scene after a two-year run doing color commentary for the Dallas Cowboys, where he also did play-by-play in the late 1990s. He has also done sports broadcasting for Fox Sports, covering everything from basketball to the Olympics to Super Bowls. Some Texans fans and La Tremenda listeners may remember Vasquez as one of the Spanish broadcast voices for the Houston Oilers from 1992 to 1995. Vasquez also writes a popular weekly column for the Spanish section of HoustonTexans.com.

Hyperextension	Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.
Iliotibial Band	A thick, wide facial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.
Impingement Syndrome	Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.
Isokinetic Exercise	A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.
Isometric (static) Contraction	A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.
Isokinetic	A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.
Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction	A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).
Itis	Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).
Joint Mobilization	Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.
Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL)	Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.
Ligament	Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Lumbosacral	Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI)	Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.
Malleolus	Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.
Medial	Pertaining to or near the middle.
Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL)	Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.
Meniscus	Crescent shaped cartilage usually pertaining to the knee joint.
Meniscectomy	An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.
Metacarpals	Five long bones of hand, just below fingers.
Metatarsals	Five long bones of foot, just below toes.
Mobilization	Passive stretching movements performed by a therapist at a slow speed slow enough that a patient can stop the movement.
Myositis	Inflammation of a muscle.
Myositis Ossificans	Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.
Necrotic	Relating to death of a portion of tissue.
Neuritis	Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic	Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.
Osteochondritis Dissecans	A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.
Osteomyelitis	An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.
Parasthesia	Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.
Patella	The kneecap.
Patella Tendinitis	Inflammation of the patella tendon.
Pathology	Study of the nature and cause of disease.
Pectorals	Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.
Peroneal	Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for everting the foot.
Plantar Fascia	The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.
Plica	A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.
PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation)	An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.
Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL)	Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.
Quadriceps (Quads)	The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.
Radiography	Taking of X-rays.
Radius	Forearm bone on thumb side.
Reconstruction	Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.
Referred Pain	Pain felt in undamaged area of body away from actual injury.
Rotator cuff	Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area; supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.
S-C joint	Sternoclavicular joint; articulation between the sternum and the clavicle.
Sacroiliac	Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.
Scan	Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).
Scapula	The shoulder blade.
Sciatic Nerve	Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.
Sciatica	Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the cap.
Sesamoid Bones	Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.
Shin splint	A catch-all syndrome describing pain either in the front of the lower leg or on the inner aspect of the leg.
Spasm	Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.
Spleen	Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.
Spondylitis	Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.
Spondylolisthesis	Forward displacement of one lumbar vertebra.
Spondylosis	Abnormal vertebrae fixation or immobility.
Sprain	A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.
Stinger	Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck.
Strain	A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle or a tendon.
Stress X-Ray	A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.
Stress Fracture	A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.
Stretching	Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.
Subluxation	Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.
Synovial Fluid	Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.
Synovitis	Inflammation of the synovium.
Talus	The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula.
Tarsus	Arch of foot.
Tendinitis	Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.
Tendon	Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.
Tennis Elbow	General term for lateral elbow pain.
Tibia	Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.
Tomograph	A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue is a particular depth.
Trachea	The windpipe.
Trapezius	A flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.
Triceps	Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.
Turf Toe	Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.
Turf Burn	Abrasion resulting from contact with artificial turf in which one or more layers of skin are removed.
Ulna	One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side.
Ulnar Nerve	Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.
Wrist	The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetrum, lunate and scaphoid).

FUTURE OPPONENTS

Here are the Texans' non-division opponents for the next three seasons based on the NFL's scheduling rotation.

The Texans played a key role in the development of the scheduling rotation. When the franchise entered play in 2002, bringing the league to 32 teams, the NFL realigned for the first time since 1970. The scheduling rotation, which began in 2002, takes each team through a cycle of games—home and away—against every other team in the league. By 2009, the Texans will have played every team in the NFL at least twice—once in Houston and once on the road.

The Texans' 16-game schedule will include each of the following:

- Home and away games against Indianapolis, Jacksonville and Tennessee (6 games)
- The four teams from another AFC division on a rotating three-year cycle (4 games)
- The four teams from an NFC division on a rotating four-year cycle (4 games)
- Two games—one home and one away—against a team from the two AFC divisions that the Texans are not scheduled to face that season. These games will be based on the prior year's standing, matching a first-place team against the first-place finishers from the other two AFC divisions. The second-place, third-place, and fourth-place finishers will matched in the same way.

2008

Home: Baltimore, Cincinnati, Chicago, Detroit, AFC East

Away: Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Green Bay, Minnesota, AFC West

2009

Home: New England, N.Y. Jets, San Francisco, Seattle, AFC West

Away: Buffalo, Miami, Arizona, St. Louis, AFC North

GAME DAY COVERAGE

Credential Requests (Home Games):

Only credential requests from working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication will be honored credential requests. Credentials will not be issued to free-lance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. Season-long credentials are issued in August; game-by-game credentials must be requested before 5 p.m. on the Tuesday prior to each home game. The Texans do not credential online-only media outlets. All credential requests must be submitted online at www.houstontexans.com/media.

Credential Requests (Road Games):

If you are a regular member of the Houston media who wishes to cover the Texans on the road, submit request for game credentials and parking passes through Tiffani Walker at twalker@houstontexans.com. All requests must be submitted to no later than one game previous to a road contest. Credentials will be distributed on either Wednesday or Thursday during open locker room.

Parking:

(Game day) Parking for Texans games must be applied for online at <http://houstontexans.com/media/credentials>. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to media parking lots on game day.

Entry on Game Day:

The media entrance at Reliant Stadium is on the west side of the stadium on the corner of Kirby and Murworth. Enter the media entrance which is located just right of the Verizon VIP gate.

Will Call:

Media will call is located on the west side of the stadium at the corner of Kirby and Murworth. The media will call gate is located just right of the Verizon VIP gate. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the credential will-call window. Please remember to bring a valid ID. The window will open three hours prior to kickoff and bags will be checked upon entrance to the stadium.

Phones and Internet:

To request a phone on gameday, contact Nick Ignatiev of the Houston Texans IT department at (832-667-2122) the week prior to the game. The Texans press box offers complementary wireless Internet and high-speed lines upon request. To request high speed Internet access, contact Kevin Cooper at kcooper@houstontexans.com. If you have any questions on game day, see Nick Ignatiev. His post in the press box is located on the third level behind Kevin Cooper and Tony Wyllie.

Postgame Interviews and Locker Room Access:

Members of the media needing to conduct post game interviews will be given access to the Texans' and visiting interview rooms after the game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. NO STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS OR AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED IN THE TEXANS LOCKER ROOM. With six minutes remaining in the game take the media elevator the field level. Photographers will be in the team auditorium for the duration of the game. Gary Kubiak's post-game interview session with the media will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the Texans team meeting room (white arrow). Electronic media covering the press conference are asked to use the mult-box to ease congestion at the podium. Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. The visiting head coach will be available in the visitor's interview room adjacent to the visiting locker room.
