COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Driven by Ownership's top down direction, the Mets embrace the philosophy of "Doing Well While Doing Good" to give back to the community through multiple platforms and initiatives in and around the Tri-State area. Ownership, players, executives and front-office staff leverage the appeal of the Mets to positively impact organizations and individuals in our hometown by addressing social, cultural and educational needs. The Mets work together with our community, sponsors and partners on a variety of programs involving schools, libraries, hospitals, museums and youth baseball leagues.

The New York Mets Foundation funds and promotes a variety of educational, social and athletic programs and other charitable causes. Founded in 1963, it continues its mission to invest in the future of our community, and to provide assistance to organizations that benefit children and others in need. A registered 501(c)3 charity, the Mets Foundation takes no portion of the funds raised to offset internal costs. The Mets pay 100% of the Foundation's overhead to ensure that the entirety of a donation is directed toward helping others.

TEAMMETS

TeamMets is a community volunteerism initiative that directs the attention of the Mets and their players toward encouraging fans to join the team in helping others. Members of the Mets front office and players donate their time to events during the year, working with organizations including City Harvest, Urban Dove and the Everybody Wins! Foundation. To spread the word, the Mets produce a series of public service announcements that promote NYC Service, Mayor

Bloomberg's volunteer initiative which positions New York City as the easiest place in the world to volunteer:

R.A. Dickey pitches in at a community garden in Harlem.

TEAMMATES IN THE COMMUNITY WEEK

The Mets, in conjunction with Citi and New York City, launched "Teammates in the Community Week" in 2010, a series of initiatives designed to foster the spirit of volunteerism and service in their hometown. Mets Ownership, players and front-office executives participated in a series of diverse community outreach initiatives to bring attention to the selfless work of local volunteers and highlight their impact on the community.

FUNDRAISING

WELCOME HOME DINNER

The Mets hold their annual Welcome Home Dinner at the start of the season to celebrate the return of the team to New York for another season. The players, manager, coaches and the rest of the organization attend the event that features a fundraising auction, raffle and autograph session. The gala, which raised over $800,000 for the Katz Women's Hospital and Women's Health Institute/North Shore-LIJ Health System and the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society in 2010, is scheduled this year for Sunday night, April 10.

A NIGHT TO BELIEVE

The Mets hosted their eighth annual Night to Believe fundraiser at Citi Field to benefit Project ALS, a non-profit organization renowned for its outstanding leadership in finding and funding treatments and a cure for Lou Gehrig's disease. Darryl Strawberry was part of a pre-game reception in celebration of the more than $200,000 raised in 2010 and almost $1.5 million over the past eight years.

STARLIGHT NIGHT

The Mets have partnered with ARAMARK the past eight years to raise $1.1 million for the Starlight Children's Foundation, whose mission is to improve the quality of life for children who suffer from critical, chronic and life-threatening illnesses. The 2010 event raised $160,000 as the Mets donated tickets and ARAMARK provided catering for 850 people in the Big Apple section of Citi Field. To celebrate the partnership of the Mets and Starlight, a Starlight Care Room was donated to New York Hospital of Queens in honor of the Mets. The room, which features a kid-friendly Mets theme, was dedicated in January by Jose Reyes, Josh Thole, and Terry Collins.

EDUCATION

CITI FIELD KIDS

Citi Field Kids is an educational and motivational program for New York City school students conducted before select games at Citi Field. The community-based initiative, developed by Citi in collaboration with the Jackie Robinson Foundation, United Neighborhood Houses, and the Mets, seeks to positively impact middle and high school students through the nine values and ideals of Jackie Robinson. The pre-game program, which launched on Jackie Robinson Day April 15, 2009, begins with a private tour of the Jackie Robinson Rotunda led by a Jackie Robinson Foundation Scholar, followed by guest speakers from the Mets and Citi in the auditorium before an afternoon of baseball.

JACKIE ROBINSON FOUNDATION

As part of their landmark partnership, the Mets and Citi have built on the team's longstanding relationship with the Jackie Robinson Foundation to support its education and leadership development program. The Foundation provides extensive mentoring and scholarships for college students who exemplify Jackie's humanitarian ideals and standard of excellence. The Mets established an endowed scholarship with the Foundation in 1996, which is created in perpetuity, to assist promising students in reaching their goals through a college education.

POWER LUNCH

Since 2000, Mets employees have visited P.S. 92 in Corona, Queens to read books and share lunch with the same fourth or fifth grader every week from November through May. The school visits are coordinated by the Everybody Wins! Foundation, a leading non-profit literacy and mentoring organization that pairs adult volunteers with children in elementary schools for weekly reading aloud and conversation. The Mets add a Reading Rally hosted by Mets player for the entire student body and an annual fourth grade field trip to Citi Field for a game.

STUDENT ATHLETE LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE SERIES

The Mets/Sharp Electronics Student Athlete Leadership Conference Series trains more than 1,200 student-athletes from 35 high schools on Long Island to deliver drug and alcohol abuse prevention programming to grade school children. The workshops prepare the Student Athlete Leaders for their ongoing visits with fifth graders in their school districts to promote positive activities such as sports while also educating students about the dangers of drugs and alcohol.

HELPING HANDS

WEATHER EDUCATION DAY

The Mets and their broadcast television partner PIX II team up each spring to provide an educational and entertaining field trip for students prior to a game at Citi Field. PIX II weather experts Mr. G and Linda Church join Mets players for the pregame event followed by an afternoon of baseball.

HOLIDAY PARTY

In keeping with a decades-long tradition, David Wright played Santa and his elves, Terry Collins, Jason Bay, Carlos Beltran, and Ike Davis, helped hand out presents that had been selected and wrapped by Mets employees.

BLOOD DRIVE

The Mets and their longtime partners at the New York Blood Center collected a record-breaking 921 blood donations at Citi Field in 2010, which earned the Mets the Blood Center's prestigious Diamond Award. The Mets host two blood drives a year in the Caesars Club and thank each donor with a pair of tickets to a Mets game. Over the past decade, Mets fans have contributed 3,200 blood donations in support of the Center's mission.

COAT DRIVE

KIDS DAY AT CITI FIELD

When the Mets were on the road, TeamMets and the grounds crew hosted their sixth annual Kids Day at Citi Field for children and families served by The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society of New York City. The grounds crew taught the children how to drag the infield, put the bases in place, and take a home run trot. #### GREATER NEW YORK SANDLOT ATHLETIC ALLIANCE

The Mets provide financial support to the Greater New York Sandlot Athletic Alliance (GNYSAA) for citywide tournaments and programs including the organization's annual All-Star Games for 15-16 and 17-18 year old players at MCU Park, home of the Brooklyn Cyclones. The GNYSAA serves as an umbrella organization to several metropolitan amateur baseball organizations representing 20,000 young people and 1,100 teams each year.

HARLEM RBI

Since Harlem RBI named Mets centerfielder Carlos Beltran "Honorary Commissioner" in 2006, he has donated more than $235,500 to the program that provides year-round academic, enrichment and sports programs to children ages 7 to 18. Carlos donates $500 for every RBI he collects and since 2007, the Mets Foundation has matched that pledge, adding an additional $150,000 to the cause. Carlos also hosted a clinic for Harlem RBI's REAL Kids program participants at Citi Field and makes an annual appearance at their "Field of Dreams" on 101st Street in Harlem.

YMCA JR. METS

The Mets Foundation sponsors the YMCA Jr. Mets, a comprehensive youth baseball program that emphasizes athletic and social skills while also teaching how to improve health and wellness. The YMCA Jr. Mets program is an eight-week initiative that has introduced thousands of young people to baseball since its inception in 2001. The Mets provide members with caps and arrange for a player and coach to lead a baseball clinic at a YMCA site and at Citi Field.

STRIKING OUT HUNGER

Former Met Todd Zeile and volunteers bag apples for City Harvest event.

CITY HARVEST

The Mets support City Harvest in its effort to feed the hungry in New York City by collecting excess food and delivering it to more than 600 community food programs. This past season, members of the Mets Alumni Association Presented by Citi and Citi employees repacked 25,000 pounds of apples on Mets Plaza at Citi Field, and Mets minor league standouts, prior to picking up their Sterling Awards, assisted in the distribution of food from a pantry in Jamaica, Queens. During the off-season, Carlos Beltran and Goya teamed up for a holiday delivery of food to the Community League of the Heights in Manhattan.

ISLAND HARVEST

For seven years, the Mets have hosted a fundraiser for Island Harvest, with last year's event raising $35,000 to boost the total to $164,000. Island Harvest distributes surplus food to 500 community food programs, making it Long Island's largest hunger relief organization.

ROCK & WRAP IT UP!

After each game at Citi Field in 2010, the Mets and ARAMARK helped Rock & Wrap It Up! collect unsold food for delivery to area food kitchens to help feed the hungry. The Mets expanded their partnership with Rock & Wrap It Up! in 2010 by launching the Snack Wrap! program that encourages students in Long Island schools to donate unopened snacks to the needy.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL PARTNERSHIPS

WELCOME BACK VETERANS

Mets owner Fred Wilpon and private citizens created Welcome Back Veterans, a national public awareness and fundraising initiative that addresses the mental health and employment needs of America's returning war veterans and their families. Major League Baseball, Major League Baseball Advanced Media, the Entertainment Industry Foundation and the McCormick Foundation support the program, which provides returning veterans the quality medical treatment they deserve. The Mets salute a "Veteran of the Game" at each home game at Citi Field to build awareness of Welcome Back Veterans.

National Wheelchair Softball Tournament was played in New York City for the first time.

MAJOR LEAGUE WHEELCHAIR SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT

The New York Mets have hosted their annual Major League Wheelchair Softball Tournament at Shea Stadium and Citi Field from 2001-2010. In celebration of their 10-year collaboration with the United Spinal Association, New York City's Parks and Recreation Department, Major League Baseball and the Wheelchair Sports Federation, the National Wheelchair Softball Tournament was brought to the east coast and New York City for the first time. Fourteen teams competed over three days in August and the top-ranked Nebraska Barons lived up to their reputation by taking home the championship trophy.

PITCH, HIT & RUN

Aquafina MLB Pitch, Hit and Run - the official skills competition of Major League Baseball - is a free grass roots program which encourages youth participation and emphasizes the fun of baseball. The competitor's ability to hit, run, field and throw is tested at regional trials and compared with others in his or her age group across the United States to qualify for the National Finals held during Major League Baseball's All-Star Game. The Mets host an on-field regional competition at Citi Field and recognize the local winners in a pre-game ceremony.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

The Roberto Clemente Award, presented by Chevy, recognizes the player in Major League Baseball who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. In September, a nominee from each of the 30 MLB teams is announced on Roberto Clemente Day, established by MLB in 2002 to pay homage to the Hall of Famer's legacy. The Mets 2010 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award was Angel Pagan.

EQUIPMENT COLLECTION DRIVE

To support the growth of youth baseball and softball, the Baseball Tomorrow Fund (BTF) has teamed up with MLB clubs to organize equipment collection drives across the United States. The Mets have collected over 1,000 bats, gloves, balls and catcher's gear the past three seasons to benefit the Greater New York Sandlot Athletic Alliance, which distributes the donations to area youth baseball organizations. The BTF also presents a grant of $5,000 to go toward the purchase of additional equipment.

MOTHER'S DAY - SUSAN G. KOMEN FOR THE CURE

Major League Baseball and its 30 clubs join Susan G. Komen for the Cure each year for "Going To Bat Against Breast Cancer," a program that incorporates numerous facets of the game on and off the field to generate awareness about breast cancer and raise funds to help fight the disease. Mother's Day games feature an Honorary Bat Girl, special in-park programs and a 'pink theme' throughout, including many players using pink bats.

FATHER'S DAY - PROSTATE CANCER FOUNDATION

Major League Baseball teams up with the Prostate Cancer Foundation on Father's Day to increase awareness and early detection of prostate cancer. On-field personnel wear blue wristbands, eye glare and ribbon uniform decals, while blue ribbon logos appear on bases, commemorative home plates and line-up cards. The circular Mets logo was unveiled on November 16, 1961 and has gone virtually unchanged throughout the history of the club. The shape of the insignia, with its orange stitching, represents a baseball, and the bridge in the foreground symbolizes that the Mets, in bringing back the National League to New York, represent all five boroughs. It's not just a skyline in the background, it has special meaning. At the left is a church spire, symbolic of Brooklyn, the borough of churches. The second building from the left is the Williamsburg Savings Bank, the tallest building in Brooklyn. Next is the Woolworth Building. After a general skyline view of midtown comes the Empire State Building. At the far right is the United Nations Building.

MEET THE METS THEME SONG

By Ruth Roberts & Bill Katz (1962)

Meet the Mets, meet the Mets, Step right up and greet the Mets. Bring your kiddies, bring your wife, Guaranteed to have the time of your life. Because the Mets are really sockin' the ball, Knockin' those home runs over the wall. East side, West side, everybody's coming down, To meet the M-E-T-S Mets, of New York town.

Oh, the butcher and the baker and the people on the streets,

Where did they go? To MEET THE METS!

Oh, they're hollerin' and cheerin' and they're jumpin' in their seats,

Where did they go? To MEET THE METS!

All the fans are true to the orange and blue,

So hurry up and come on down -

'cause we've got ourselves a ball club, The Mets of New York town!

Give 'em a yell! Give 'em a hand! And let 'em know you're rootin' in the stands! Come on and Meet the Mets, meet the Mets, Step right up and greet the Mets. Bring your kiddies, bring your wife, Guaranteed to have the time of your life. Because the Mets are really sockin' the ball, Knockin' those home runs over the wall.

East side, West side, everybody's coming down,

To meet the M-E-T-S Mets,

Of New York town.

Of New York town!!!!!

CHRIS YOUNG'S FAMILY CONNECTION TO THE NHL

Mets righthander Chris Young is married to the former Elizabeth Patrick, who comes from a family of hockey legends.

Her great grandfather, Lester Patrick, is the namesake for the National Hockey League's Patrick Division and the Lester Patrick Award. The former GM of the 1940 Stanley Cup champion New York Rangers is credited with inventing the blue line, the penalty shot, on-the-fly line changes and the playoff system. He was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1947.

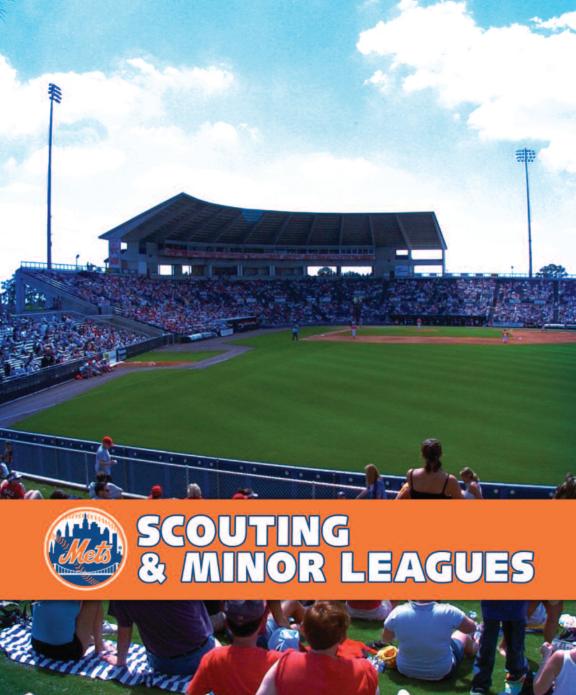

Lester's sons, Muzz and Lynn Patrick, followed in their father's footsteps and played for Lester on the 1940 Rangers team that won the Stanley Cup. Muzz, Elizabeth's grandfather, coached and served as the Rangers General Manager, while Lynn did the same for the St. Louis Blues. Lynn joined his father in the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1980.

Lynn's son, Craig Patrick, played in the NHL for eight seasons and served as an assistant coach for the 1980 US Olympic Men's Hockey team that won a gold medal at Lake Placid in what became known as the "Miracle on Ice." Craig later served as the coach and GM of the Rangers, before being the architect of the two Stanley Cup winning teams in Pittsburgh.

Muzz's son and Elizabeth's father, Dick, is part of the ownership group that bought the Washington Capitals in 1998 and the Washington Wizards in 2010.

Overall, four Patrick family members are in the Hockey Hall of Fame and five have won the Stanley Cup.

NEW YORK METS HISTORY

1986 - 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Keith Hernandez never felt pressure like he did on October 15, 1986. That was the day the Mets rallied for a 7-6, 16-inning victory over the Houston Astros, a triumph that propelled manager Davey Johnson's team to the World Series. Twenty-five years later, Hernandez still can vividly recall every detail of Game Six of the National League Championship Series at the Astrodome.

"It was sudden death from the ninth inning on," said Hernandez, the Mets' first baseman and current broadcaster who played every inning of the four hour, 42 minute marathon." One error, one mistake and it was over. I don't think I relaxed for one second when I was on the field.

"We all felt this was kind of do-or-die," he continued. "Even though we were in front in the series, we knew what was ahead if we lost. That created the extra pressure."

What was in store for New York should there be a Game Seven was righthanded pitcher Mike Scott, who was practically unhittable his first two games against the Mets. In Game One of the Series, Scott allowed five hits, no runs with one walk and 14 strikeouts in a 1-0 victory. Scott, practically duplicated his performance in Game Four, a Astros 3-1 win. In a complete-game effort, he permitted three hits, one run, with no walks and five strikeouts.

TimTeufel, Howard Johnson, Bobby Ojeda and Ron Darling wear their rally caps.

"There is no doubt about it, Scott was in our heads," said second baseman Wally Backman. "That's all we were thinking about on the bench and in the locker room. Maybe that's why winning Game Six became so urgent for us."

Game Six couldn't have started out any more poorly for the Mets. The Astros pushed across three runs on four hits against New York in the first inning against starter Bobby Ojeda. Phil Garner, Glenn Davis and Jose Cruz each had RBI hits.

"The last 11 innings were living hell for me" said Ojeda, who didn't allow a run over the next four innings. "I just sat in the locker room, iced my arm and paced back and forth. This was our Game Seven. If we lost, all Mike Scott had to do was show up and we probably would have been done."

Through eight innings, Johnson's team could only muster two hits against Houston starter, Bob Knepper. The score remained 3-0 when the Mets came to bat in the ninth.

"This game just symbolized what our club was about," said rightfielder Darryl Strawberry. "We didn't win 108 regular season games for nothing. The ninth inning couldn't have been a more dire situation, but we came through, like we did all year long."

Lenny Dykstra opened the ninth with a pinch-hit triple. Mookie Wilson followed with a single to score Dykstra and make it 3-1.

"Honestly, when I hit the ball I thought it was a fly out," said Dykstra." I just wanted to get on base some way. I guess the baseball gods were on our side and they wanted us to win."

Wally Backman turning the double play.

After Kevin Mitchell grounded out, Hernandez doubled home Wilson and it was 3-2. Strawberry and Gary Carter walked to load the bases before Ray Knight's sacrifice fly tied the score 3-3. Then the fun really began.

Mookie Wilson getting rady to steal

"It was truly a remarkable game for a lot of reasons," said pitcher Rick Aguilera, who pitched 3.0 scoreless innings from the sixth to the eighth. "When you look at the box score you will see we had only four pitchers who covered 16 innings. You would never ever see that today. Every one of us knew that we just had to find a way to win that game."

The Mets thought they had won the game in the 14th inning when Backman singled in Strawberry who had walked for a 4-3 lead. But there was more, much more.

Keith Hernandez and Gary Carter hoist the World Series trophy at City Hall after the parade.

"Standing there in the field I thought I was going to be the hero," said Backman. "I couldn't imagine was going to happen next."

What happened was that after Bill Doran struck out to lead off the inning, Billy Hatcher hit a home run off the foul pole against Jesse Orosco and the score was tied again.

"I went to the mound after the home run and just told Jesse, 'Here we go again',' recalled Carter. "I said, 'Let's just get out of the inning."

Orosco kept his composure after the Hatcher home run.

"The home run just tied the score," he explained "I just had to find a way to get the side out."

A minute before the Hatcher home run, Johnson turned to pitching coach Mel Stottlemyre with these words:

"I told Mel 'Let's enjoy this," said Johnson. "I laughed and told him this is what playoff baseball is all about. When Hatcher hit the home run, I turned back to him and said, 'Forget what I just told you.'"

But Mets would not be denied as they scored three runs in the top of the 16th for what seemed like an insurmountable 7-4 lead. Knight and Dykstra had key RBI hits in the frame.

However. Houston wouldn't quit.

The Astros scored two runs and had runners on first and second with two outs when Kevin Bass came to the plate.

"I really had nothing left at that point," said Orosco, who was in his his third inning of work in the game and his eighth inning of pitching in the series. "Honestly, before I got into the game I was really tired . For the first 13 innings I was running up and down that big dugout being a cheerleader. By the time I did get into the game I was drained."

Before Bass hit, Carter and Hernandez joined Orosco on the mound for a conference.

"I told Jesse we had to pound Bass with breaking ball after breaking ball," said Carter. As Hernandez jogged back to first base, he yelled over to Orosco, "If you throw a fastball, I'll break your arm."

Mookie Wilson, Gary Carter and Roger McDowell

Jesse followed orders and struck out Bass on a 3-2 breaking ball. The Mets had won the NLCS and were ready to take on the Boston Red Sox in the World Series.

"There is no doubt in my mind that the Houston series was the reason for our rough start in the World Series," said Johnson. "We were all drained and we wound up losing the first two games. I did something going into the third game of the Series that you probably couldn't do today," he went on. "We had a scheduled workout before Game Three in Boston and I told the team to stay home and relax. Myself, Ron Darling (the starter for Game Three) and Mel Stottlemyre were the only ones who met the media."

Mookie Wilson, one of the Mets heroes in the World Series triumph over Boston, feels the playoff series against Houston has indeed been overlooked by baseball historians.

"Everyone always asks me about the Buckner play," said Mookie. "Hardly anyone remembers I got a hit in the ninth inning against Houston. Of course, you can't predict the future, but a lot of us felt that if we don't win Game Six there is no World Series.

"The LCS had everything extra innings, walk-off wins great pitching and clutch hitting," continued Wilson. "It doesn't have the same notoriety as the World Series, but if you ask anybody who played in Game Six they would tell you it should."

METS RETIRED NUMBERS

Casey Stengel's #37 was officially retired on September 2, 1965 in a small, private ceremony at Shea Stadium. Stengel was named the Mets first manager on September 29, 1961 and despite the team's early on-field struggles, the city proudly embraced their "lovable losers" due to Stengel's witty charm and dynamic personality. Stengel led the Mets to a 40-120 record in 1962 and then had an 11-game improvement, going 51-111 the following year. The Mets were 31-65 when Stengel fractured his hip on July 24, 1965 ending his managerial career. Stengel continued to serve in the Mets front office as a scout, public speaker and Vice President. He was still a member of the Mets front office when he passed away due to cancer on September 29, 1975 at age 85. Stengel was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1966 and later was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1981.

Gil Hodges' #14 was retired on June 9, 1973 during the Old Timers Day ceremony at Shea. Hodges played for the Mets from 1962-1963 and hit the club's very first home run on April 11, 1962 in the team's first game at St. Louis. He was named the club's third manager on October 11, 1967. Just two years later, after never posting a winning season, Hodges guided the Miracle Mets to the 1969 World Championship after beating the Atlanta Braves in the National League Championship Series and then topping the heavily favored Baltimore Orioles in five games in the World Series. Hodges was named the Manager of the Year by The Sporting News and the National League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press following the season. Hodges guided the Mets from 1968-1971, compiling 339 victories. He died from a heart attack on April 2, 1972 shocking and saddening the organization and baseball community. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1982.

Tom Seaver's #41 is the only player number in franchise history to be retired. The ceremony took place in a special tribute at Shea Stadium on June 24, 1988. Seaver won three Cy Young Awards and was a nine-time All-Star with the Mets. The Franchise won 20 or more games four times with the Mets. He earned Rookie of the Year honors in 1967. Seaver was 25-7 in 1969 to help the Mets capture the World Series. He ranks first in team history in wins (198), complete games (171), ERA (2.57), strikeouts (2,541), and shutouts (44) after pitching with New York from 1967-1977 and returning for one final year in 1983. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1992 with the highest percentage (98.84) in Hall of Fame history. Seaver was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1988.

On April 15, 1997 in a historic ceremony at Shea Stadium, acting commissioner Bud Selig announced the retirement of Jackie Robinson's #42 throughout Major League Baseball."The day Jackie Robinson stepped on a major league field will forever be remembered as baseball's proudest moment," said Selig during the ceremony as he stood side-by-side with Jackie's widow Rachel and President Bill Clinton. "Major League Baseball is retiring #42 in tribute to his great achievements and for the significant contributions he made to society. Number 42 belongs to Jackie Robinson for the ages."

On April 8, 2008, in the final home opener in Shea Stadium's history, the Mets honored William A. Shea, the man for whom their previous ballpark was named after, by placing the name "Shea" alongside the retired numbers. Thirty member of the Shea family spanning three generations took part in the celebration. Shea was an attorney and the driving force to bring National League baseball back to New York City after the departure of the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers in 1957. He spearheaded New York City Mayor Robert Wagner's four-man baseball task force, which helped form the proposed rival Continental League. Major League Baseball granted New York a National League expansion franchise in 1960 and the Continental League agreed to disband. Shea was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1983. He died at age 84 on Oct. 2, 1991.

METS UNIFORMS

1962

Home Uniform: The colors chosen were "Dodgers Blue" and "Giants Orange," and the NY monogram on the cap was a resurrection of the Giants' logo. The jersey was white with blue pinstripes and "Mets" in script across the chest on an upward slant, which was based on the Brooklyn Dodgers uniform. Road Uniform: The words "New York" in all capital letters with orange piping were used. The home pinstripe base was replaced by a solid gray color. The Mets skyline logo appeared on the left sleeve, and the same royal blue cap was used for both home and road uniforms.

1964-1965

During the team's first two seasons at Shea Stadium, a patch commemorating the city's hosting of the World's Fair replaced the Mets skyline logo on the sleeve of the home and road jersey. This was a relatively new innovation in baseball uniforms across the country and in New York. Only the Brooklyn Dodgers during the 1938 season had used a patch unrelated to the team's history, also to promote the upcoming World's Fair in 1939. The patch featured the Unisphere, which is still synonymous with Queens to this day.

1969

A patch commemorating the 100th Anniversary of Major League Baseball is worn on the left sleeve of both the home and road jerseys, again replacing the skyline logo. The patch features the Major League Baseball logo and the wording 100th Anniversary.

1972

The Mets wear a black armband on the left sleeve of both the home and road uniforms in memory of Mets manager Gil Hodges, who passed away prior to the start of the 1972 campaign.

Both the home and road uniforms are changed from flannel uniforms with double-knit lettering to tackle twill. In addition, "zig-zag" pinstripes are featured on the home uniform. "New York" on the front of the road jersey is replaced by "Mets."

1976

The Mets once again wear black armbands commemorating the passing of two of the primary figures at the time of the club's inception - owner/president Joan Payson and manager Casey Stengel-both of whom passed away following the 1975 season. In addition, a patch commemorating the bicentennial of the United States of America is worn on the right sleeve. For selected games during the season the team also wears special striped hat as part of the celebration surrounding America's bicentennial.

The white jersey changes to a pullover with a two-button, crew-neck style collar. Two blue stripes and one orange stripe, equal in width, are added to the cuff of both the left and right sleeve, as well as around the collar. In addition, orange and blue striping is added down the leg of the road pants.

1979

Prior to the start of the season, the National League passed a rule requiring all teams to wear names on the backs of their road uniforms. Although not required by the League offices, the Mets also add names to the back of their home uniforms.

The Mets add an alternate blue road jersey for the '82 campaign. The royal blue pullover jersey features thick orange and blue racing stripes with "Mets" across the chest.

The pullover white pinstriped jersey with thick striping from the neck all the way down to the socks is unveiled. In addition, the skyline logo is removed from the jersey. The Mets road jersey also changed to the pullover variety with "Mets" in script across the chest of the gray jersey with the thick stripes down the side.

1986

The team wears a special 25th Anniversary patch commemorating the franchise's founding year of 1962

1987

The only Mets uniform to last but a single year. The 1987 road uniform marked the first appearance of the words "New York" written in script across the chest.

1988

"New York" on the front of the road jersey is changed to block lettering in an arch across the chest. A white outline is added to the outline of all letters and numbers as well as to the racing stripe down the side of the uniform.

1991

Buttons return to the uniform. The home jersey still features the script "Mets" and the road jersey keeps the block-lettered "New York".

1992

A special "S" patch is added to the sleeve of both the home and road jerseys in tribute to the late William A. Shea, who was instrumental in the birth of the franchise.

1993

The skyline logo returns to the left sleeve of both the home and road jerseys while the thick racing stripes are removed from both uniforms entirely. A new style script is used for the "Mets" lettering across the chest of the home uniform. The lettering is similar to the script "Mets" used from the team's inception, with an added tail that underlines the entire word. In addition, the "zig-zag" pinstripes that had been featured on the home uniform since 1972, is changed to a straight pinstripe. The road jersey features a script lettering "New York" that also is underlined. Finally all hats worn by teams across Major League Baseball feature the MLB logo, centered on the back of the cap.

1994

A patch commemorating the 125th Anniversary of Major League Baseball is worn on the right sleeve of both the home and road uniforms. The skyline logo on the left sleeve is also replaced for this season with a special patch commemorating the 25th Anniversary of the Miracle Mets.

1995

The skyline logo returns to the sleeve of both the home and road uniforms, while the underlining of the "Mets" and "New York" on both versions of the jerseys is removed in favor of the more classic lettering. The button atop the blue Mets cap is changed from royal blue to orange.

1996

Both the home and road jerseys are embroidered with a special logo which features a home plate design and inscription "J.M., N.L. Umpire, 10" in memory of John McSherry, an umpire who died during a game on Opening Day of the 1996 season.

1997

An alternate home "snow white" uniform is added. The jersey is very similar to the traditional home uniform, without the pinstripes. The team also adds an alternate white cap with a blue brim and an interlocking orange NY. Finally, all teams across Major League Baseball feature a special 50th Anniversary patch commemorating Jackie Robinson's breaking baseball's color barrier.

1998

Alternate Home Uniform (1998-Present)

The alternate white cap is scrapped in favor of a new black cap with royal blue trim and an inter-locking NY in royal blue. The team also adds a second alternate jersey, which is worn both at home as well as on the road. The black uniform, with "Mets" across the chest on an upward slant, features blue letters and numbers with a white and orange drop shadow.

A second alternate cap is added. The all-black cap features an interlocking NY in royal blue with white and orange drop shadow. In addition, player names are removed from all three jerseys worn at home - white pinstripes, "snow white," and black alternate. An alternate black road jersey is added as well, similar to the alternate black home jersey, but featuring "New York" across the chest. Additionally, a slight change is made in the Mets skyline logo, as the small interlocking NY is removed. This is the first change to the skyline logo since the team's inception in 1962.

SHEA STADIUM 40TH ANNIVERSARY

2000

All teams add the Major League Baseball logo to the back of the home, road and alternate jerseys. The team also opens the season in Tokyo, Japan and feature a special patch commemorating the first games played outside North America. Player names return to the back of all versions of the home jersey after a one-year hiatus. Finally, the Mets wear a patch with the official logo of the 2000 World Series during that years' Fall Classic.

2001

The team wears a special patch in memory of the passing of Mets legend Tommie Agee, who died of a heart attack prior to the season and prospect Brian Cole, who was killed in an automobile accident. The patch featured 20 and 60, the numbers worn by Agee and Cole, and was worn for the Mets home opener on April 10, 2001. Later in the season, in response the attacks on September 11th, the Mets wear caps honoring the NYPD, FDNY, Port Authority, Emergency Medical Services, and numerous other city services that were affected by the terrorist attacks. An American flag is also added to the back of all jerseys league wide, and American flags are also added to the side of all caps.

The Mets honor the franchise's 40th Anniversary with a commemorative patch on the right sleeve of the home jerseys, below which is stitched "9-11-01" in remembrance of the September 11th attacks.

2004

The team celebrates Shea Stadium's 40th birthday with a patch on the right sleeve of the home jersey. The logo is split between blue and orange and features the iconic pitcher and batter neons which adorned Shea Stadium's exterior. All jerseys also feature an embroidered "Ya Gotta Believe-Tug" patch, in memory of former Mets reliever Tug McGraw. The team also honors the passing of the voice of the Mets, as "Bob Murphy" is embroidered above the Mets logo on the left sleeve in memory of the Hall of Fame broadcaster.

2008

In recognition of the team's final season at Shea Stadium, the Mets wear a patch commemorating their time in the ballpark which opened in 1964. The logo is adorned to the right sleeve and features a split image of the stadium's original façade from 1964 coupled with a more modern version. The imagery is then surrounded by the wording "Shea Stadium 1964-2008."

2009

Alternate Home Uniform (2010)

The Mets open Citi Field with a patch commemorating their first year in their new world-class home. The logo is placed on the right sleeve of the Mets home jersey and resembles the Citi Field logo, but features the wording "Inaugural Season 2009."

2010

The Mets introduced a new pinstripe jersey that combines elements of both new and old Mets uniforms. The natural color and pinstripes were staples of the Mets uniform when the team debuted in 1962, and were complemented by a more modern day script "Mets" across the chest.

POLO GROUNI

For the first two years of their existence, the Mets played their home games at the historic Polo Grounds while waiting for the finish of the construction of Shea Stadium.

The stadium where the Mets won 56 games during the 1962 and 1963 seasons actually was the fourth venue to carry the name the "Polo Grounds."The first structure, located between 110th and 112th Streets and Fifth and Sixth Avenues in upper Manhattan, opened its doors in 1876 as a home to polo matches. In 1880, the New York Metropolitans leased the grounds for baseball with the New York Giants following suit three years later.

The second Polo Grounds, sporting a 15,000-seat wooden grandstand, was located on 155th Street and Eighth Avenue with the Giants as the main tenants. Although polo was not played there, the team brought the name of its former home. It was here that the famous quirky The Mets first game at the Polo Games, April 13, 1962. dimensions—475 feet to centerfield and only 258 feet out to right—were first unveiled. After a fire destroyed the stadium in 1911, it was rebuilt later that year with a capacity of 34,000.

In 1913, the Yankees joined the Giants as tenants, but left after an attendance dispute in 1922. Finally, in 1924, the fourth remodeling of the Polo Grounds was finished, complete with seating for 55,987. It was this incarnation that the Mets began calling home in 1962.

The Giants left New York and the Polo Grounds in 1957, leaving the stadium with only the memories of some of the most famous moments in baseball history, such as Bobby Thomson's game-winning "Shot Heard 'Round the World" to clinch the 1951 pennant, and Willie Mays' over-the-shoulder catch in the 1954 World Series. Without a Major League Baseball team as a regular tenant, the stadium deteriorated to the point where the Mets needed to spend $300,000 to refurbish the ballpark before moving in to start the 1962 season.

With a fresh coat of paint, a new scoreboard, better lighting, more dining options for fans and a complete overhaul of the outfield and infield grass, the Mets played their first home game in the Polo Grounds on April 13, 1962 and lost 4-3 to the Pittsburgh Pirates. New York played 160 more games at their temporary home over the next two seasons and left for good following a 5-1 loss to Philadelphia Phillies on September 18, 1963.

The aging stadium was finally demolished over a period of four months in 1964. A housing development now occupies the famous site.

SHEA STADIUM

In 1964, the Mets moved from Manhattan to Queens and their brand-new home, William A. Shea Municipal Stadium. Located on 126th Street and Roosevelt Avenue, Shea would welcome more than 94 million fans and some of the most famous moments in Mets history during its 45 years.

The Mets first game at Shea Stadium, April 17, 1964

The stadium originally was to be called "Flushing Meadows Stadium." But in 1962, behind a movement led by department store magnate Bernard Gimbel, the Flushing Meadows Stadium label was dropped in favor of a name that honored the man most responsible for returning National League baseball to New York, prominent attorney Bill Shea. Shea Stadium was born.

Architect John Waterbury drew up the plans for the stadium and the ceremonial groundbreaking took place on October 28, 1961. The designs called for the city to contribute $24.5 million to construct the ballpark, with the Mets to chip in another $6.5 million for office space, restaurants and other amenities.

The 55,300-seat stadium was completed and Shea opened to 48,736 fans on April 17, 1964. But in a scene reminiscent of Opening Day at the Polo Grounds two years earlier, the Pirates again beat the Mets, 4-3.

In their first season at Shea, the Mets drew 1,732,597 fans and hosted the All-Star Game before baseball handed off the reigns to football and the New York Jets for the winter. Football would be a permanent winter staple in Queens until 1983, when the Jets left for New Jersey.

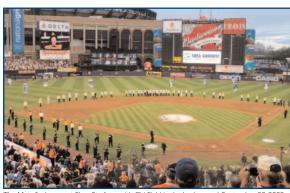

Shea was designed to be a multi-purpose complex—it was the first major stadium in the United States to have two movable field box sections—and as such held a variety of events. The Beatles gave the first-ever concert at Shea Stadium on August 15, 1965, in front of more than 55,000 fainting, crying and screaming fans. It was, and remains to this day, the most historic concert ever, as it was the first time in history that a sports stadium was used for a rock concert. The ground-breaking Beatles concert at Shea set new attendance records at the time; it was the first large-scale, outdoor concert that demonstrated such events could be hugely successful and profitable.

Other unforgettable Shea moments include the historic papal Mass celebrated by Pope John Paul II in 1979, plus concerts staged by music legends including Billy Joel, The Rolling Stones, Elton John, Eric Clapton, Jimi Hendrix and Bruce Springsteen. The stadium also played host to a wide variety of sporting events, such as soccer, boxing and wrestling matches and college football, along with the normal schedule of baseball and NFL football games.

Pope John Paul II address the crowd at Shea Stadium in 1979.

In 1975, Shea was the center of the New York sports world. The Mets, Yankees, Jets and Giants all called the stadium home, marking the first and only time in professional sports history that two baseball teams and two football teams shared the same facility in the same year. Both the Yankees and Giants needed a temporary home while Yankee Stadium underwent renovations.

The Mets final game at Shea Stadium, with Citi Field in the background, September 28, 2008.

Throughout the years, Shea was the site for some of the most memorable moments in Mets history: Cleon Jones catching the clinching out of the 1969 World Series, the amazing comeback in Game Six of the 1986 World Series, and President Bill Clinton joining Jackie Robinson's widow, Rachel, to retire the Hall of Famers uniform number 42 on April 15, 1997. Shea finally closed its doors on September 28, 2008 following the Mets' 4-2 loss to the Florida Marlins.

The demolition of Shea took several months, with the final piece coming down on February 18, 2009 at 11:22 A.M. Citi Field's Parking Lot D covers the grounds where Shea once stood, with markers commemorating the original locations of the stadium's home plate, bases and pitching mound.

- •The National League posted its seventh straight All-Star Game victory with a 7-4 win over the American League on July 7, 1964 at Shea Stadium. The Mets Ione All-Star Game ended in dramatic fashion as Philadelphia's Johnny Callison stroked a three-run, walk-off home run in the bottom off the ninth inning off Boston's Dick Radatz to cap a four-run frame for the NL.
- San Francisco's Willie Mays started the ninth inning rally with a walk and stolen base. He scored on an infield single by teammate Orlando Cepeda's infield single and error by Yankees' first baseman Joe Pepitone. The Cardinals' Curt Flood ran for Cepeda and Cincinnati's Johnny Edwards followed with a walk. Two outs later; Callison sent National League fans home happy.
- Ron Hunt became the first Met to start an All-Star Game with his appearance at second base. Hunt went 1-3 with a single
- The AL jumped out on top 1-0 in the first inning on a RBI single by Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew off Los Angeles' Don Drysdale.
- The Cubs' Billy Williams and St. Louis' Ken Boyer each belted solo home runs in the bottom of the fourth off Kansas City's John Wyatt to give the National League a 2-1 lead.
- The NL extended its lead to 3-1 in the fifth when Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente singled and scored from first on a two-out double by the Cardinals' Dick Groat.
- The American League tied the contest up 3-3 in the sixth when the Yankees' Mickey Mantle and Killebrew opened the frame with singles. One out later, Baltimore's Brooks Robinson tripled both runs home as Mays just missed what would have been a spectacular diving catch.
- The AL retook a one run lead in the seventh inning. The Yankees' Elston Howard was hit by a pitch and Kansas City's Rocky Colavito laced a pinch-hit double to put runners at second and third. The Angels' Jim Fregosi lofted a sacrifice fly to center to score Howard.
- Boyer finished 2-4 for the NL while Killebrew was 3-4 and Robinson went 2-4 for the AL.
- Ron Hunt became the first Met to start an All-Star Game with his appearance at second base. Hunt went 1-3 with a single in the third off the Angels' Dean Chance.

CITI FIELI

Citi Field continues to set a new standard in dining and fan experiences at sports and entertainment venues three seasons after opening on April 13, 2009. The 41,800-seat ballpark brings fans closer to the action for a more intimate experience, offering unprecedented amenities and comfort throughout its 1.3 million square feet.

HIGHLIGHTS

Citi Field's design produces a superior experience for fans throughout the ballpark, offering a warm atmosphere with seating closer to the action and angled toward the infield. Citi Field features some of the widest, unobstructed concourses of any sports and entertainment facility. Concession stands and restrooms are located within the facility's exterior walls, allowing fans uninterrupted views of the field. Wider seats provide enhanced comfort throughout the ballpark with more space between rows providing additional legroom. Fans throughout Citi Field can choose from wide-ranging menus at multiple sit-down, climate-controlled restaurants, bars, clubs, and lounges including the Delta Sky360 Club, Champions Club, Caesars Club and Promenade Clubbehind home plate, and the Acela Club, the multi- centerfield.

The Mets and ARAMARK's unique partnerships world-renowned restaurateurs Danny Meyer of Union Square Hospitality Group, Drew Nieporent of Myriad Restaurant Group, and Dave Pasternack of Esca have redefined the dining experience to make Citi Field a culinary destination. Taste of the City on the Field Level in the outfield showcases the very best from these restaurateurs at Shake Shack, Blue Smoke, El Verano Taqueria, Box Frites and Catch of the Day. The World's Fare Market reflects the diversity of Queens with Italian, Japanese, Chinese and Korean cuisine from local dining institutions.

Citi Field's 2K Sports FanFest behind the centerfield scoreboard features activities for the whole family including: Mr. Met's Kiddie Field, a miniature replica of Citi Field complete with its own video board, the Hershey Park dunk tank, batting cages and a 2K Sports video game

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN

Citi Field's design is inspired by the Mets' National League heritage. The brick, limestone, granite and cast stone throughout the ballpark closely resembles the masonry used at Ebbets Field, the legendary home of the Brooklyn Dodgers. The dark green seats and soot-colored exposed steel recall the Mets' first home, the historic Polo Grounds and former home of the New York Giants. A structural steel "bridge" motif throughout Citi Field reinforces the Mets' connection to New York's five boroughs while symbolically linking the team's beloved tradition to its future. The Mets last year dedicated the bridge in right-centerfield as the Shea Bridge after William A. Shea, extending the legacy of the man who was the driving force behind bringing National League baseball back to New York and for whom Shea Stadium was named.

JACKIE ROBINSON ROTUNDA

The iconic main entry to Citi Field honors Jackie Robinson, the great American trailblazer who became the first African-American player to break Major League Baseball's color barrier with the Dodgers in 1947. Evoking the classic design of Ebbets Field, the Rotunda recognizes and perpetuates the humanitarian ideals of one of our country's civil rights pioneers.

Engraved into the Rotunda's 160-foot diameter floor and etched into its 70-foot archways are words and larger-than-life images that defined Jackie's "nine values": Courage, Excellence, Persistence, Justice, Teamwork, Commitment, Citizenship, Determination, and Integrity. The Rotunda features an eight-foot sculpture of Jackie's uniform number 42, which was retired perpetuity throughout Major League Baseball in 1997.

METS HISTORY AT CITI FIELD

The Mets Hall of Fame and Museum at Citi Field is the home for nearly 50 years of Mets history. Located adjacent to the Jackie Robinson Rotunda, this spectacular attraction is a virtual walk down memory lane, featuring a treasure trove of artifacts and images. Its interactive, touch-screen exhibits showcase video and audio highlights of the franchise's signature moments. The Mets Hall of Fame and Museum is open during Mets home games.

Citi Field's VIP entrances are named after individuals who made an indelible mark on the club and whose numbers have been retired. First Base VIP honors Gil Hodges, the manager who led the Mets to their first World Championship in 1969. Third Base VIP recognizes Tom Seaver, the Hall of Fame pitcher and Mets leader in wins, earned run average and strikeouts. Left Field VIP is named after Casey Stengel, the first manager in Mets history.

Fans tour the Mets Hall of Fame and Museum before a Mets home game.

Photographic imagery of famous Mets and historic moments are displayed inside Citi Field along the concourses and outside the ballpark with banners on Mets Plaza, in the parking lots and encasing the ramp in leftfield. More than 20,000 bricks outside the Jackie Robinson Rotunda on the Citi Field Fanwalk pay tribute to the Mets, their fans and the Amazin' Moments in team history. Championship banners hang on the outfield wall and in the Bullpen Plaza.

The original Home Run Apple from 1981 is one of the most popular attractions at Citi Field and its position on Mets Plaza serves as a meeting spot for many fans.

THE METS AND CITI

On November 13, 2006, the Mets and Citi signed a 20-year landmark partnership that includes the naming rights for Citi Field a commitment to work together on a series of community outreach initiatives.

The Mets and Citi launched Citi Field Kids to provide an oncein-the-lifetime experience for New York City students from United Neighborhood Houses. Since the program launched on Jackie Robinson Day, April 15, 2009, students are treated to a unique experience at Citi Field with a tour of the Jackie Robinson Rotunda where Jackie Robinson Foundation Scholars teach them about his nine values. They have also heard inspiring words from guest speakers including legendary broadcaster Bob Costas and Jackie Robinson's daughter Sharon, before enjoying a Mets game.

Citi Field Kids after touring the Jackie Robinson Rotunda.

The Mets Alumni Association Presented by Citi honors Mets history while serving the community. Dozens of Mets players spanning all eras visit Citi Field throughout the season, interacting with fans at the ballpark and participating in community events. The program launched in 2010 with Tom Seaver, Mookie Wilson, Ed Kranepool, Bud Harrelson, Rusty Staub and Al Jackson joining 25 U.S. military veterans and the Wounded Warrior Project for a tour of the new Mets Hall of Fame & Museum. During every visit by the Mets Alumni Association, the former players and Citi honor individuals who have demonstrated extraordinary service to New Yorkers with the "Teammates in the Community" award.

The Mets and Citi partnered on "Teammates in the Community Week," a series of initiatives supported by Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg designed to foster the spirit of volunteerism and service in their hometown. Mets Ownership, players and front-office executives participated in diverse community outreach initiatives in Manhattan, Queens and Brooklyn culminating in a Service Day at Citi Field.

The Mets and Citi have also built affordable housing for New Yorkers in Brooklyn and at Citi Field with Habitat for Humanity, and repackaged apples to feed the hungry with City Harvest.

CITI FIELD AND THE ENVIRONMENT

Citi Field's building management system monitors and automatically controls all aspects of energy operation from temperatures to lights to minimize energy consumption. The ballpark's 414 hands-free faucets, 635 automated toilet flush-valves, and 270 waterless urinals save more than four million gallons of water per year. A 11,000 square foot green roof atop the administration building in rightfield, white PVC roofs throughout the ballpark, high mast parking lot light fixtures, permeable pavers, and an underground well used to irrigate the playing field are other ways the Mets are working to protect the environment.

APRIL 28, 1962: The Mets score six times in the sixth inning and Roger Craig pitches 3.0 innings of scoreless relief as New York beats Philadelphia, 8-6, to win for the first time at the Polo Grounds.

MAY 9, 1962: Mary Throneberry is acquired from Baltimore in exchange for Hobie Landrith and cash.

The Mets being welcomed by New York City at City Hall in Manhattan

MAY 30, 1962: The Dodgers return to New York for the first time and sweep

JUNE 8, 1962: Jay Hook and the Mets stop a franchise-record 17-game losing streak with a, 4-3, win over the Cubs in the first game of a doubleheader. Hook limits the Cubs to three runs over 8.0 innings to end the skid that started on May 21st at Houston.

JULY 30, 1963: The Mets end a modern-day major league record 22-game road losing streak with a 5-1 win at Los Angeles.

AUGUST 7, 1963: With a single in the first, a double in the second, a triple in the fourth and a home run in the sixth, Jim Hickman becomes the first Mets player to hit for the cycle, victimizing St. Louis at Sportsman Park. Hickman's natural cycle is still the only one in franchise history and one of 14 in the major league record books.

AUGUST 9, 1963: Jim Hickman hits a two-out, game-winning grand slam off Lindy McDaniel to give the Mets a 7-3 victory over the Cubs at the Polo Grounds and also end Roger Craig's then-franchise record 18-game losing streak.

APRIL 17, 1964: William A. Shea Municipal Stadium opens to a near-capacity crowd of 48,736 and a Mets loss, 4-3 to the Pirates. MAY 26, 1964: The Mets rout the Cubs, 19-1 at Wrigley Field. The 18-run win is still the largest margin of victory in team history.

MAY 31, 1964: The Mets and Giants play the longest doubleheader in history, combining for a total of 32 innings. The Giants complete the sweep with an 8-6 win in the 23-inning nightcap, despite a triple play by the Mets in the top of 14th.

JUNE 21, 1964: Jim Bunning pitches a perfect game against the Mets, striking out 10 in the 6-0 victory.

JULY 7, 1964: Shea plays host to its only All-Star Game and Ron Hunt becomes the first Mets player to make the All-Star team as the National League uses a four-run ninth inning to beat the American League, 7-4. Hunt starts at second base and finishes with one hit in three at-bats.

OCTOBER 4, 1964: With the NL pennant on the line for the Cardinals, the Mets drop the season finale, I I-5, at St. Louis. A Mets victory would have created a three-way tie between the Cardinals, the Reds and the Phillies.

NOVEMBER 17, 1964: The Mets sign catcher and future Hall of Famer Yogi Berra to a two-year contract.

NOVEMBER 23, 1964: The Mets get their second future Hall of Famer in less than a week when the team acquires lefthander Warren Spahn from Milwaukee.

The Yankees won both games by the same 4-2 score. According the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first day-night doubleheader taking place in different venues since September 7, 1903. On that day, the New York Giants played two games against the Brooklyn Superbas (later known as the Dodgers). The first game was played in the morning at Brooklyn's Washington Park with John McGraw's Giants winning, 6-4. The second game was an afternoon contest at the Polo Grounds with Brooklyn winning, 3-0. The other day-night, Shea-Yankee Stadium doubleheaders were on June 28, 2003 and June 27, 2008. In 2003, the day game took place at Yankee Stadium with the Yankees winning, 7-1. The night cap was at Shea and the Yankees prevailed, 9-8. In 2008, the final year of both Shea Stadium and Yankee Stadium, the Mets and Yankees played a day-night, cross-borough doubleheader. # 1969 WORLD SERIES

The New York Mets entered the 1969 World Series as heavy underdogs against Baltimore. After falling in Game One, the Amazins' rattled off four straight wins to earn their first championship, just eight years after the franchise was born.

In Game One, Baltimore's leadoff batter Don Buford smacked a home run off Tom Seaver. Mike Cuellar and the Orioles went on to a 4-I triumph. In Game Two, Jerry Koosman tossed 6.0 no-hit innings before Paul Blair singled to lead off the seventh. With the game tied, I-I, in the ninth, Ed Charles, Jerry Grote and Al Weis strung together consecutive two-out singles to give New York a 2-I lead. Koosman retired the first two batters in the ninth, before walking the next two. Ron Taylor got the final out of the game, retiring Brooks Robinson to even the series at one game apiece.

A raucous Shea crowd of 56,335 watched the Mets shut out Baltimore, 5-0 in Game Three. Tommie Agee hit a leadoff home run off Jim Palmer;

A jubilant Jerry Koosman leaps into the arms of catcher Jerry Grote after the final out of the 1969 World Series in Game Five vs. Baltimore.

the only leadoff home run the Hall of Famer would ever allow, to put the Mets on the board early. In the fourth, the Orioles threatened, with runners at the corners and two outs, when Agee made a running, backhanding catch at the warning track in left-center to rob Elrod Hendricks. In the seventh, Baltimore loaded the bases with two outs, Blair laced a high drive to right-center; Agee running full tilt caught the ball sprawling on the warning track. Tommie had made two of the greatest World Series catches, ever just three innings apart.

In Game Four, Seaver out-dueled Cuellar in a thrilling 10-inning, 2-1 victory. Donn Clendenon belted a solo home run in the second to give the Mets a 1-0 lead, which would hold up until the ninth. The Orioles put runners at first and third with one out, Brooks

Robinson laced a sinking line drive to right-center. Ron Swoboda made a full length, diving catch. The tying run scored, but the brilliant catch prevented further damage. In the bottom of the 10th, with runners at first and second and nobody out, J.C. Martin pinch-hit for Seaver. Martin dropped a bunt down and Orioles' pitcher Pete Richert fielded the ball, but his throw hit Martin and the ball caromed into rightfield allowing Rod Gaspar to score from second. The Mets were one win away from their first title, while Baltimore argued that Martin was outside the base-path.

The unthinkable occurred on October 16, 1969 at Shea, behind a 5-3 victory, New York's lovable losers were champions. The Orioles led 3-0 early, but home runs by Clendenon and Weis tied the game. In the eighth, Swoboda gave the Mets the lead with an RBI double. Koosman induced future Mets Manager Davey Johnson to fly out to Cleon Jones in leftfield for the final out. Jones (Sport Magazine) and Weis (BBWAA) were the Series MVP's.

1973 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

New York captured their second pennant in five years with a thrilling five-game series win over Cincinnati.

In Game One, Pete Rose and Johnny Bench each belted home runs to upend Tom Seaver and the Mets, 2-1. Seaver allowed just six hits and fanned a NLCS record 13 batters in the losing effort.

Jon Matlack was brilliant, tossing a two-hit, 5-0 shutout in Game Two to even the series. Rusty Staub's solo home run in the fourth was the only run of the game until New York plated four runs in the ninth, two coming home on Jerry Grote's single.

The Mets scored all nine runs in the first four innings en route to a 9-2 victory at Shea in Game Three. Staub cracked a solo home run in the first and a three-run shot in the second. However, the game will always be remembered for the fight that broke out between Pete Rose and Buddy Harrelson after Rose slid hard into second base attempting to break up a double play. With the bench-clearing brawl behind them, Jerry Koosman continued to dominate the Reds.

Rose got his revenge with a 12th inning home run in Game Four to give the Reds a 2-1 victory and send the series to a fifth and deciding game.

Ed Kranepool gave New York a 2-0 lead in the first with a two-run single in Game Five in front of 50,323 fans at Shea. After Cincinnati tied the game 2-2 in the top of the fifth, the Mets exploded for four runs in the bottom of that frame. Cleon Jones, Willie Mays, Don Hahn and Harrelson each collected a RBI. Seaver and Tug McGraw held the Reds at bay as New York advanced to face Oakland in the World Series.

1973 WORLD SERIES

New York lost its first ever postseason series, falling in a sevengame set to the Oakland Athletics. In Game One, the A's nipped the Mets, 2-1, despite managing just four hits off Jon Matlack and Tug McGraw. Second baseman Felix Millan's error in the third inning proved costly as Oakland's only two runs of the game would score in that inning. New York evened the series with a 10-7, 12-inning victory. Oakland scored two runs in the ninth to tie the game, 6-6, to force extra innings. Willie Mays singled home Bud Harrelson with the go-ahead run in the 12th, last hit in the majors.

which would prove to be Mays's out at home in the 10th inning of Game Two of the 1973 World last hit in the majors.

The great Willie Mays can not believe that Buddy Harrelson was called which would prove to be Mays's out at home in the 10th inning of Game Two of the 1973 World last hit in the majors.

Series vs. Oakland... NewYork eventually won that contest, 10-7, in 12 innings on a RBI single by Mays.

The Series returned to Shea and Wayne Garrett cracked a solo home run as the Mets jumped on top, 2-0 in the first inning of GameThree. Once again, Oakland rallied to tie the game in the eighth and scored in the 11th for a 3-2 victory.

The Mets tied the series at two games apiece with a 6-I triumph in Game Four. Rusty Staub drove in five runs, with a three-run home run in the first and a two-run single in the fourth. Matlack allowed three hits in 8.0 innings to pick up the win.

New York took a 3-2 series lead with a 2-0 win at Shea in front of 54,817 fans in Game Five. Jerry Koosman and McGraw shut out the A's on three hits.

Needing just one win in Oakland to capture their second championship, the Mets lost Game Six, 3-1 and Game Seven, 5-2. In Game Six, Reggie Jackson had two RBI doubles off

Four Oakland runs in the third inning on home runs by Bert Campaneris and Jackson in Game Seven broke the game open. Garrett, the tying run in the ninth, popped out to end the series and New York's dream.

1986 LEAGUE CHAMPIO

HOUSTON ASTROS

NEW YORK METS

Mets Won Series 4-2

New York improved to 3-0 in the NLCS with a dramatic six-game victory, avoiding Houston ace Mike Scott in Game Seven.

The Mets returned to the postseason after a 13-year absence and lost Game One, I-0. Scott hurled a complete-game, five-hit shutout with 14 strikeouts. Glenn Davis swatted a home run in the second inning for the lone run of the game.

Bobby Ojeda matched Scott in Game Two, with a complete-game, 5-1 victory to tie the series. Gary Carter had an RBI double in the fourth and Keith Hernandez added a two-run triple in the fifth.

In Game Three, back at Shea, the Mets fell behind 4-0, but Darryl Strawberry's three-run home run in the sixth helped tie the game. Trailing 5-4, with one on and one out, Lenny Dykstra cracked a two-run home run into the Mets bullpen to give New York a 6-5 victory.

Scott again was brilliant in Game Four, tossing a complete-game, three-hitter as the Astros won 3-1.

Lenny Dykstra rounds the bases after hitting the game winning home run in Game Three of the NLCS to give the Mets a 6-5 victory.

Nolan Ryan and Dwight Gooden locked horns in a tremendous pitching duel in Game Five. Ryan allowed two hits (Strawberry home run) with 14 strikeouts in 9.0 innings, while Doc scattered nine hits in 10.0 innings. Carter's RBI single in the 12th gave New York the win and left them one win away from their third trip to the World Series.

Game Six at the AstroDome was simply a classic, the longest postseason game in time (4:42) and innings (16). Houston led 3-0 until the Mets tied it in the ninth on RBI's from Mookie Wilson, Hernandez and Ray Knight. With the Mets leading, 4-3, in the bottom of the 14th, Billy Hatcher hit a home run off the leftfield screen off Jesse Orosco. In the 16th, New York scored three times, Strawberry's double and Knight's single put the Mets ahead. Houston rallied for two runs, but Orosco struck out Kevin Bass with the winning run on base, to become the first pitcher to earn three wins in one LCS.

1986 WORLD SERIES

BOSTON RED SOX

NEW YORK METS

Mets Won Series 4-3

For only the second time in World Series history, a team lost the first two games at home, but emerged as the World Champion, as New York won its second title in amazing fashion against the Boston Red Sox.

In Game One, Bruce Hurst and Calvin Schiraldi combined to shut out the Mets, I-0. Jim Rice scored the lone run on an error by second baseman Tim Teufel.

Boston scored nine times on 18 hits in a 9-3 win in Game Two.

In Boston, Lenny Dykstra led off Game Three with a solo home run to ignite a four-run first inning. Bobby Ojeda stymied the Sox through 7.0 innings as New York won, 7-1.

In Game Four, Gary Carter cracked two home runs and Ron Darling's 7.0 shutout innings helped the Mets even the series with a 6-2 triumph.

In the pivotal fifth game, Hurst tossed a complete-game for the Red Sox as Boston of the 1986 World Series vs. Boston. won, 4-2.

Ray Knight races home with the winning run in New York's dramatic 7-6, 10th inning comeback in Game Six

The Mets returned to Shea for Game Six in a contest that would become part of World Series lore. New York, facing elimination, trailed 2-0 in the bottom of the fifth, 3-2 entering the bottom of the eighth and 5-3 going to the bottom of the tenth. Ray Knight's RBI single helped tie the contest in the fifth and Carter's sacrifice fly tied the game in the eighth. After Dave Henderson's home run had put the Sox ahead in the 10th, both Backman and Hernandez were retired. But Carter, Kevin Mitchell and Knight followed with singles to cut the deficit to 5-4. Boston reliever Bob Stanley was summoned and on a 2-2 count, Mookie Wilson fouled back two pitches before dodging a wild pitch that allowed Mitchell to score to tie the game. Wilson then hit a dribbler up the first base line that bounced under Bill Buckner's legs enabling Knight to score the winning run. After a day of rain, the Mets won their second World Championship with an 8-5 triumph. Boston built a 3-0 lead, but New York scored three runs in the sixth, two runs coming home on a single by Hernandez. Knight's seventh inning home run gave the Mets the lead for good. Santana and Hernandez would drive in runs later in the inning and Darryl Strawberry cracked a solo home run in the eighth. Orosco struck out Marty Barrett for the final out as Shea erupted in euphoria. Knight was named the Series

Mets Lost Series

4-3

Despite beating the Dodgers in 10 of 11 match-ups during the regular season, Los Angeles knocked off New York in seven games. It was the first time in four NLCS appearances that the Mets failed to reach the World Series.

New York rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to take Game One, 3-2. Darryl Strawberry had an RBI double in the inning and a two-out, two-run double by Gary Carter proved to be the difference.

The Dodgers scored five runs off David Cone in the first two innings of Game Two and went on to win, 6-3.

In a steady cold rain, the Mets won Game Three, 8-4. Trailing 4-3, the Mets scored five times in the bottom of the eighth. A two-out RBI double by Wally Backman tied the game and Mookie Wilson's RBI single gave the Mets the lead for good.

Darryl Strawberry led the National League with 39 home runs and drove in 101 runs in 1988.

The turning point of the series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Four when Mike Scioscia's two-run home run off Dwight Gooden tied the game, 4-4. Kirk Gibson cracked a home run off Roger McDowell to win the game in the 12th as Los Angeles tied the series.

Gibson remained hot and belted a three-run home run in the fifth inning to lift the Dodgers to a 7-4 victory in Game Five.

On the brink of elimination, Kevin McReynolds went 4-4 with three RBI and Cone hurled a complete-game in a 5-1 Game Six win to force a seventh and deciding game.

Orel Hershiser tossed a complete-game, five-hit, 6-0 shutout to beat the Mets in Game Seven. Los Angeles scored five times in the second inning to break open the contest.

1999 DIVISION SERIES

The Mets returned to the postseason for the first time since 1988, and defeated Arizona in the NLDS in four games.

John Olerud and Edgardo Alfonzo each touched up Randy Johnson for home runs as the Mets built a 4-I lead in Game One. The Diamondbacks tied the contest in the sixth, but Alfonzo walloped his second home run of the night, a grand slam, in the ninth to lift New York to an 8-4 win.

Arizona captured Game Two, 7-1, behind Steve Finley's five RBI to even the series.

Back in New York and with Mike Piazza on the bench for Game Three with a bad thumb, the Mets scored six times in the sixth to beat the D-Backs, 9-2. Olerud and Darryl Hamilton each collected two RBI.

In the fourth game, in front of 56,177 fans at Shea, the Mets trailed, 3-2, but Roger Cedeño tied the game in the eighth with a sacrifice fly. In the 10th, back-up catcher Todd Pratt ended the series and sent the Mets to the NLCS with a solo walk-off home run

Todd Pratt is greeted at home plate after his 10th inning, walk-off, series-ending home run in Game Four vs. Arizona in the 1999 National League Division Series.-Pratt's solo blast to center just eluded D-Back Centerfielder Steve Finley to give the Mets a 4-3 win.

1999 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Atlanta outlasted New York in a dramatic six-game series. Gerald Williams had an RBI single to break a I-I tie in the bottom of the fifth inning as the Braves went on to a 4-2 victory in Game One.

The Mets returned to Shea in a 0-2 hole after losing, 4-3, in Game Two. Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez each hit a two-run home run off Kenny Rogers in the sixth inning to erase a 2-0 Mets lead.

In GameThree, two Mets errors in the first inning allowed Atlanta to score the only run of the game in a  $\,$  I-0 loss.

Trailing 2-I in the bottom of the eighth, four outs from having their season end, New York responded in Game Four. John Olerud, who had hit a solo home run in the sixth, singled to centerfield in the eighth which plated two runs to give the Mets a 3-2 victory.

Game Five was a classic. A 15-inning, five-hour and 46-minute marathon was played in driving rain. The Mets led 2-0 in the first inning on a two-run home run by Olerud, but the Braves tied the game in the fourth. Seven New York relievers combined to hold Atlanta scoreless entering the 15th. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the 15th when Keith Lockhart's triple off Octavio Dotel scored Walt Weiss. Shawon Dunston sineled to center after a 12-pitch at-bat to lead off the 15th for the Mets. Matt Franco walked and Alfonzo sacrificed the runners over. Olerud was walked intentionally to load the bases. Todd Pratt walked to force home Dunston with the tying run. Robin Ventura then cracked a "grand slam single" as the Shea crowd exploded. As Robin rounded first base his teammates mobbed him, never allowing him to finish his trot around the bases, and thus officially settling for a single.

Trailing 5-0 after the first inning the Mets battled back in Game Six. Darryl Hamilton would add a two-run single in the sixth and Mike Piazza crushed a two-run home run in the seventh inning to tie the game, 7-7. New York led 8-7 in the eighth and 9-8 in the 10th, but could not hold on. Rogers walked Andruw Jones with the bases loaded in the 11th to end the series.

For the first time in franchise history, the Mets qualified for the postseason in consecutive years. New York met the team that abandoned the city in 1958, the San Francisco Giants.

In Game One, the Giants scored four times in the third inning to break a 1-1 tie and won, 5-1.

Timo Perez, subbing for an injured Derek Bell, collected three hits and two RBI in Game Two. The Mets took a three-run lead into the ninth, but J.T. Snow hit a three-run home run to tie the contest. Jay Payton's RBI single in the 10th gave New York a 5-4 lead and John Franco struck out Barry Bonds to end the game.

Back at Shea for Game Three, the Mets trailed 2-1 until Edgardo Alfonzo's two-out, RBI double in the eighth. Benny Agbayani crushed a solo walk-off home run in the 13th to lift New York Bobby Jones pitches a one-hitter in the Division Series to send to a 3-2 triumph.

Bobby J. Jones hurled baseball's first postseason complete-game, one-hit shutout in 33 years as the Mets advanced to the NLCS with a 4-0 win in Game Four Jeff Kent collected the only Giants' hit, a double in the fifth inning. Robin Ventura got the Mets on the board with a two-run home run in the first.

the Mets to the NLCS agains the St. Louis Cardinals.

2000 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

NEW YORK METS

Mets Won Series 4-1

New York defeated its longtime nemesis, the St. Louis Cardinals, in five games to advance to its first World Series since

In Game One, Mike Piazza had an RBI single as the Mets jumped on top 2-0 in the first inning. Jay Payton and Todd Zeile cracked home runs in the top of the ninth to give New York some breathing room in a 6-2 victory.

In Game Two, the Mets never trailed, but let leads of 2-0, 3-1, and 5-3 vanish before Payton's ninth inning RBI single gave New York a 6-5 win.

The Cardinals ruined the Mets return to Shea scoring five runs in the first four innings en route to an 8-2 win in Game Three.

New York set a postseason record with five doubles in one inning (first) and scored seven runs in the first two innings in a 10-6 victory. Robin Ventura had three RBI, while Piazza, Todd Zeile and Benny Agbayani each chipped in with two RBI.

Mike Hampton closed out the NLCS and with a complete-game, three-hit, 7-0

Mike Hampton is mobbed by teammates after hurling a complete-game 7-0 shutout against the St. Louis Cardinals in Game Five of the 2000 National League Championship Series picked up his second win of the series to send the Mets to their first World Series since 1986.

shutout in Game Five. Edgardo Alfonzo singled home Timo Perez in the first inning to set a new club record with 16 career postseason RBI. Ventura and Payton would add RBI singles later in the inning. Zeile's bases-loaded, bases-clearing double in the fourth put the game away. Rick Wilkins flew out to Perez in centerfield for the final out.

Hampton was named the NLCS MVP for his efforts. Mike finished with 16.0 scoreless innings, surrendering nine hits with 12 strikeouts. Zeile finished the NLCS hitting .368 (7-19) with eight RBI and Perez tied an NLCS record by scoring eight runs.

NEW YORK METS

Mets Lost Series 4-1

The Fall Classic was billed as the City's first Subway Series since 1956, as the Mets faced the New York Yankees.

In Game One, the Yankees jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but the Mets scored three times in the sixth on a two-run single by Bubba Trammell and an RBI single by Edgardo Alfonzo. The Yankees tied the game in the bottom of the ninth on a sacrifice fly by Chuck Knoblauch and won the game in the 12th on a two-out, bases loaded single by Jose Vizcaino.

Roger Clemens fired 8.0 shutout innings as the Mets fell, 6-5 in Game Two. The Mets scored five times in the ninth on a two-run home run by Piazza and a three-run shot by Jay Payton.

The World Series returned to Shea for the first time since 1986 and the Mets responded with a 4-2 victory in Game Three. Benny Agbayani laced an RBI double in the eighth to snap a 2-2 tie. John Franco earned the win after starter Rick Reed hurled 6.0 innings.

The Bronx Bombers scored single runs in Championship Series.

The Mets and Yankees met in the first Subway Series since 1956. Here the two teams line-up for the national anthem before Game Three of the 2000 World

New York swept the Dodgers, three games to none, to advance to the NLCS.The Mets won Game One, 6-5, as Carlos Delgado went 4-5 with two RBI and David Wright chipped in three RBI. Delgado became the fifth player in major league history to have four or more hits with at least one home run in his first career postseason game. Carlos also tied the team record with four hits in a playoff game. In the second inning, Russell Martin singled to right, Shawn Green retrieved the ball and threw it to Jose Valentin, whose relay throw to Paul Lo Duca nailed Jeff Kent at the plate. Lo Duca then turned around and tagged out J.D. Drew trying to score. Tom Glavine posted his 13th career postseason victory in New York's 4-1 win over the Dodgers in Game Two.

2006 DIVISION SERIES

Glavine fired 6.0 shutout innings. Billy Wagner notched his second save of the series with a 1-2-3 ninth inning. Endy Chavez collected two hits and Jose Reyes drove in two runs.

in a series-changing play at the plate, Paul Lo Duca celebrates after tagging out two Dodgers on the same play in the second inning of Game One of the 2006 NLDS. Los Angeles' Russel Martin singled to the right, Shawn Green retrieved the ball and threw it to Jose Valentin, whose relay throw to Lo Duca nailed Jeff Kent at the plate. Lo Duca then turned around and tagged out J.D. Drew trying to score.

The Mets completed the sweep with a 9-5 triumph at Los Angeles. The Mets grabbed a 3-0 first inning lead, but the Dodgers regained a 5-4 lead after five innings. New York retook the lead with consecutive RBI singles by Reyes, Lo Duca and Carlos Beltran in the sixth inning. Green had three hits and two RBI. He also caught the final out (Ramon Martinez) of the series.

RALPH KINER

The Ralph Kiner Television Booth was dedicated on August 16, 2002 during the Mets 40th Anniversary celebration at Shea Stadium. The Mets television booth at Citi Field bears Kiner's name. Kiner started his broadcasting career as an original Met in 1962 and continues to call games on SNY.

RALPH KINER - 50 YEARS OF METS BASEBALL

It's incredible for Ralph Kiner to fathom that 2011 will mark his 50th season of broadcasting Mets games. In his mind, even making it to year two was a struggle.

"The first five seasons, I just had one-year contracts," recalled Kiner who has been announcing games on SNY since the network's inception in 2006. "It took me a while to get my first multi-year deal."

Kiner, who was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975, has interviewed many colorful characters in his half century of broadcasting. His number one favorite, hands down, was Casey Stengel, the Mets' first manager.

"You never knew what he was going to say," said Ralph. "He had a different story about every player. He used to twist his words and you never knew what was going to come out of his mouth."

Kiner and Stengel became friends long before they joined the Mets together.

"Casey in fact scouted me when I was playing high school ball and he was the manager of the Boston Braves," said Kiner. "It was great looking up in the stands and seeing Casey there watching me play."

Ralph's first interview at the Polo Grounds in 1962 was with Casey and put mildly, it was a disaster:

"We were talking on the field," Kiner said. "We had Casey hooked up with a microphone and he walked away without taking everything off. Well, he pulled the set down and everything collapsed while we were on camera, it wasn't the best way to begin my career."

Another of Ralph's favorites was Tug McGraw. Tug loved to give haircuts and during one Kiner's Korner, he gave Ralph a classic cut.

"It took my hair three months to grow back," Kinder laughed. "It was one of the worst haircuts that I ever got in my entire life."

In the first season of Mets baseball, Kiner tried to speak to e very one of the Mets players. One of the toughest to speak to was catcher Clarence "Choo Choo" Coleman.

"People kept telling me to stay away from Choo Choo because he was really, really quiet," recalled Ralph. "One day I decided to take a chance and boy was I sorry, I said 'Choo Choo, how did you get your nickname? Did you like trains as a kid? Was your father a conductor? When I asked him the question, all he replied was 'I duuno."

Three other players Kiner enjoyed talking to were Willie Mays, Tom Seaver and Cleon Jones.

MAYS: "There was a month that Willie had 17 home runs and that broke my record of 16.1 started the show by saying Willie they say records are made to be broken, but right now I am mad that you broke my mark tonight. I just needed to tell you that. Willie had a strange look come across his face and nothing was said for about 30 seconds. Finally, I started laugh and reached over and shook his hands and said congrats."

SEAVER: "This was in July of 1969 and it was after the game when Tom lost a no-hitter in the ninth inning on a Jimmy Qualls single. He came on Kiner's Korner with his wife Nancy who was crying uncontrollably. Tom said to his wife 'Don't worry Nancy we won the game. I will get a no-hitter again soon. The main thing is that we won the game." (Saver's only career no-hitter came with the Reds, not the Mets.)

JONES: "When he first started doing Kiner's Korner, I literarily had to pull words out of his mouth. He didn't want to say anything about anything. By the time he was done playing, he was reading promos for me."

Kiner also mentioned players like Ed Kranepool, Mookie Wilson, Buddy Harrelson and Nolan Ryan as some of his most enjoyable guests.

"I still love coming to work," said Ralph. "I love being around ballpark. I prepare for each game just as I did in 1962."

CITI FIELD SCOREBOARDS

Citi Field features a unique, integrated, state-of-the-art video scoring and display system developed specifically for the ballpark. Over 13,000 square feet of digital display technology provides fans with high definition video, real-time statistics and much more.

Working closely with the Mets, the integrated system at Citi Field was designed and manufactured in the USA by Daktronics. Designed with fans in mind, it incorporates the latest LED display and control technologies to provide an even greater game-day experience. Daktronics is recognized as the world's leading LED video provider and has scoring/video systems installed at 26 MLB ballparks.

The center field display is 51 feet high by 70 feet wide, and provides 1,200 lines of resolution with full color LED lines of pixels on 12 mm (.47") spacing. No other outdoor venue's primary video board has tighter resolution.

The second giant HD display is located in right field, providing line ups, scores and game in progress information and statistics in addition to high definition video and graphics. A third high definition video display in the right field corner provides scoreboard features, game action and replays to fans seated in left and center field. Both HD displays utilize cutting edge Daktronics HDX technology, providing incredible viewing angels (nearly 180 degrees horizontal viewing), improved contrast for more vibrant colors, increased brightness (7,500 nits), world-class image processing and a fast refresh rate for enhanced detail and smooth motion.

Citi Field is also home to one of the longest ribbon boards in baseball. Surrounding the seating bowl on the Promenade level fascia, the board is nearly 850 feet in length. The ribbon board provides a variety of scoring information, as well as option captioning of the PA Audio system - a helpful amenity for the hearing-impaired.

One of MLB's largest out-of-town scoreboards graces the front of the roof canopy in left-center field, keeping fans informed with continuous display of score, inning, pitchers, base runners and outs of all the day's MLB games around both leagues.

Seven additional LED displays are located outside the seating bowl. Video and scoring displays are mounted on the rear of the main center field scoreboard, providing video and game information to fans visiting the "Taste of the City" and "2KSports Fan Fest" areas beyond center field. An additional LED video display is located on Mr. Met's Kiddie Field in the Fan Fest area, a scale replica of the ballpark's major league playing field, where kids can see themselves as they take a few swings or shag flies.

An exterior marquee display on the North side of the building greets arriving fans, and provides information to those passing by. Citi Field's main entrance, the beautiful Jackie Robinson rotunda, is served by two 9 foot by 16 foot LED video displays, providing multi-media imagery of the great Jackie Robinson as well as game day information and video. An additional HD video screen carries all of the game action for fans visiting the shops and eateries on the Promenade plaza behind home plate.

The video and scoring displays at Citi Field are operated by the Mets Video & Entertainment staff. The New York Mets organization is a member of IDEA, the Information Display & Entertainment Association, and has won several IDEA Golden Matrix Awards for excellence in video and scoreboard programming.

Digital Domain Park 525 Northwest Peacock Boulevard Port St. Lucie, FL 34986 (772) 871-2100

Digital Domain Media Group – an Academy Award winning digital production company – entered a multi-year marketing partnership with the New York Mets last year that includes naming rights to Digital Domain Ballpark, the Spring Training home of the Mets.

Digital Domain, a pioneer in visual effects for feature films and advertising, will work with the Mets to use digital technology to enhance the fan experience in Port St. Lucie and in New York at Citi Field.

Digital Domain receives extensive branding inside and outside the Mets' 100-acre Florida facility, home of the St. Lucie Mets of the Florida State League and Gulf Coast Mets of the Gulf Coast League. It includes prominent locations at the entrance to the complex, on the exterior façade and at each fan entrance.

The partnership with the Mets builds upon Digital Domain's commitment to the community which includes the 2010 opening of a 65,000 square foot production facility and the in-process construction of an additional larger digital production studio, both in Port St. Lucie. These studios, which will create more than 500 jobs, will focus on the creation of original content and digital imagery for animated feature films, visual effects-driven live action films and video games.

Founded in 1993, Digital Domain has built a legacy of achievement, listing Titanic, The Day After Tomorrow, The Curious Case of Benjamin Button, 2012 and TRON: Legacy among its 75 plus film credits and three Academy Awards for Best Visual Effects.

Also a creative giant in advertising, Digital Domain has earned scores of Clio, AICP and Cannes Lion awards for some of the world's most memorable advertisements. The studio works with top directors and has become renowned for its technical innovation, claiming four Scientific and Technical Achievement Awards from the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.
