GAME DAYS

CREDENTIAL POLICY

To receive a media credential for a Bengals game, one must be a member of an accredited news organization with a legitimate working function that requires access to the stadium. No one under 18 years old may use a credential. Interns of news organizations are not permitted to use credentials unless prior clearance from the Bengals' public relations department is sought and granted. Media are not permitted to have guests of any kind (executives, sponsors, advertisers, friends, family, etc.) in secured areas of the stadium (in the press box/booth area, on the field, in the locker rooms, etc.) at any time. Credential privileges can be revoked if any part of this policy is not honored. Credential use is monitored.

CREDENTIALS FOR HOME GAMES

All credential requests for home games should be made in writing by the media organization's manager — the sports editor of a newspaper, for example, or the sports director of a TV or radio station. Place all requests to the attention of Bengals PR director Jack Brennan (jack.brennan@bengals.nfl.net). All requests should be e-mailed no later than 5 p.m. on the Mondays preceding the games. Please specify the types of credentials requested — reporter, photographer or otherwise — and note whether locker room access is necessary. Also note whether you wish to pick up the credentials in person or have them left at will call. All credentials are nontransferable.

MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

Will call is located on the plaza on north side of the stadium (the downtown side) between Gates B and C. Media must enter the media entrance next to Gate B on the plaza on the northwest side of the stadium (downtown side, close to practice fields). The media entrance opens five hours prior to kickoff (at 8 a.m. for a 1 p.m. game). To enter the stadium, each reporter or photographer must meet the following three conditions: (1) He/she must have the proper credential; (2) he/she must present a government-issued photo ID (a driver's license, for example); and (3) his/her name must be on the media list (names must be provided to Bengals PR by your sports editor/director prior to each home game). All equipment and baggage is subject to visual search.

DIRECTIONS TO PRESS BOX/BOOTHS

Option No. 1: Enter media entrance on the plaza next to Gate B on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium. Take the escalator just inside the gate entrance. The escalator terminates one level above the press box. Take a right at the end of the escalator, and descend one flight of stairs and turn right. The press box will be straight ahead inside the glass doors.

Option No. 2: Enter media entrance on the plaza next to Gate B on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium and turn right. Follow the concourse and descend the large flight of concrete stairs. The elevators are on the right immediately after the glass wall and escalator. Take an elevator to CS (Club Suite) Level. The press box is adjacent to the elevators.

DIRECTIONS TO PHOTOGRAPHERS' WORK AREA

Enter media entrance on the plaza next to Gate B on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium and turn right. Follow the concourse and descend the concourse stairs on the west side of the stadium. The elevators are located on the right immediately after the glass wall and escalator. Take an elevator to FL (Field Level) and follow the signage for "Photographer Check-In".

TELEPHONES/WI-FI ACCESS

There are four general-use telephones (analog only) located in the media work room behind the third row of the press box. They provide free local calls, but require an 800 number for long distance service. In addition, high-speed wireless internet access is available in the press box and in the photographers' work area on field level. The wireless internet service is free.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS/LOCKER ROOM ACCESS

For media with locker room access, the locker rooms are opened for interviews with players and coaches within 12 minutes after games. Both the Bengals' and the visitors' locker rooms have news conference rooms for news conferences with the head coaches and star players. Both news conference rooms include built-in mult-box systems for television and radio reporters, as well as proper lighting and audio amplification. TV/radio media may access the rooms before games to set up equipment for use after games.

CREDENTIALS FOR AWAY GAMES

All credential requests for away games should be made in writing by the media organization's manager — the sports editor of a newspaper, for example, or the sports director of a TV or radio station. Place all requests to the attention of Bengals PR director Jack Brennan (jack.brennan@bengals.nfl.net). All requests should be e-mailed no later than 10 days before the game. Please specify the types of credentials required — reporter, photographer or otherwise — and note whether locker room access is necessary. Media from outside the Greater Cincinnati area should submit requests to the home team.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS FOR AWAY GAMES

Place all requests to Bill Connelly (william.connelly@bengals.nfl.net), the Bengals' business manager, no later than 5 p.m. on the Tuesdays before the games. Please note the types of accommodations required.

BENGALS IN THE COMMUNITY

REACHING OUT TO HELP OTHERS

The Bengals organization is committed to improving lives in Greater Cincinnati and the surrounding region.

Bengals players, coaches and staff acknowledge their unique public role and are devoted to working with non-profit organizations, schools and civic groups to make positive contributions and change. The club promotes an understanding of how team involvement can bring a voice to critical issues. The Bengals welcome the opportunity to give back to a community that has unconditionally supported the team for 45 years.

Non-profit organizations throughout Greater Cincinnati and the surrounding region look to the Bengals for assistance. Beneficiaries may receive money, food, toys, clothing, autographed items, tours, training camp visits, or a smile brought about by a visit from a player or coach.

Community involvement takes many forms. The Bengals sponsor fundraising events, make donations to many charitable organizations, make personal appearances, and provide vital community information on the team's Web site (www.bengals.com). Staff, players and coaches also serve on various community boards and commissions.

The Bengals provide support to the annual United Way of Greater Cincinnati campaign through both corporate and individual gifts by coaches, players and administrative employees.

Head coach Marvin Lewis continues to use his voice, doing public service announcements for a range of non-profit organizations in the region.

Running backs coach Jim Anderson has been a member on the steering committee of United Way's African-American Leadership Initiative — The Herbert R. Brown Society. Assistant head coach Paul Alexander worked for the D.A.R.E. drug resistance program in schools and gives time to the Boy Scouts. Tight ends coach Jonathan Hayes is a board member of the Greater Cincinnati chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

Bengals players also continue to make an impact in their hometown communities and in the TriState area. Veterans and young players alike continue to bring awareness to youth being active through the NFL's Play60 program. They stress importance of education through school initiatives and support charitable events.

Many Bengals players have their own foundations or sponsor charitable fund-raising activities dedicated to improving the community. Players in this active role entering 2012 include Andy Dalton, Leon Hall, Thomas Howard, Michael Johnson, Terence Newman, Domata Peko, Pat Sims, Andre Smith and Andrew Whitworth.

MARVIN LEWIS COMMUNITY FUND

Since Lewis arrived in Cincinnati in 2003, he has strengthened the franchise's ties to the community, making almost 400 personal appearances and encouraging the players to become active in the community.

In 2003, he launched the highly successful Marvin Lewis Community Fund (MLCF). Since its inception, the MLCF has donated more than $6 million, touched the lives of over 400,000 individuals, and is proud to invest 93 cents of every dollar back into the community.

The Community Fund has eight outreach programs that seek to empower, educate and inspire young people in the Greater Cincinnati region. Its two premier programs are:

Learning is Cool: This signature program was launched in 2008 and has seen great success in three years. LIC recognizes students in grades one-through-eight for strong academic performance. Results have been particularly strong in the Cincinnati Public Schools (CPS), where the program started:

- In the first three years in CPS the number of "A" honor roll achievements increased by 110 percent.
- The program also now runs in Covington (Ky.) Public Schools and North College Hill City Schools.
- There currently are 24,000 students in the program, and further expansion is imminent.

Marvin Lewis Scholarship Fund: The Fund awards four-year, $20,000 college scholarships to several outstanding high school seniors each year, enabling them to attend the college of their choice with substantially less financial stress:

- 41 scholarships have been awarded for a total of over $1.1 million.
- 12 students have graduated.
- 28 now are in college and combine for a cumulative GPA of 3.34 (as of December, 2011).
- Many continue their commitment to community service while in college and some return to volunteer for the Fund whenever their calendar permits.

In 2009, Coach Lewis was the first individual to receive the national Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy, recognizing the impact his work has on the community and the example he sets for everyone in professional sports.

OTHER TEAM PROGRAMS

NFL Grassroots Grant Program: The Bengals and the NFL have teamed up to support youth sports by contributing to local efforts to improve football fields throughout the region. Most recently, Northern Kentucky's Campbell County School District was granted $200,000 toward the completion of a new synthetic field in Alexandria, Ky. Almost $1.5 million has been contributed in past years to Woodward, Withrow, Oak Hills, Lockland and Clinton-Massie high schools to install these state-of-the-art synthetic fields. In addition to boosting football programs, these multi-use fields serve as valuable assets for the entire community.

Hometown Huddle: The NFL/United Way "Hometown Huddle" is a day of service that provides NFL players, coaches, wives, and staff from each team, along with volunteers from their communities, the opportunity to create a lasting impression in the city in which they work. In 2011, the Bengals led the way in the renewal of Veterans Park in the Cincinnati suburb of North College Hill. The extensive makeover included a new playground, a Parcourse FitCircuit, a family picnic area, a community garden and a storage shed. Additionally, the space was beautified with the addition of native trees, shrubs, mulch and flowers.

Coach of the Week: A league-wide program that is designed to give the recognition that high school football coaches deserve for molding the lives of young adults. Each winner's school receives a $1000 donation to the school's football program.

Play 60: Bengals players have enthusiastically supported this NFL program that encourages kids to enjoy at least 60 minutes of vigorous outdoor activity per day, and also to adopt a proper diet. Some players have reached the 10-15 range in number of school visits.

Taste of the NFL: Bengals players, coaches and alumni join with benefactors of the Freestore Foodbank while dining on samples from over 40 of Cincinnati's finest restaurants. The Bengals Taste of the NFL has been held each year since 2003, and in 2011, with nearly 1000 guests in attendance, the event raised more than $120,000, helping the Freestore Foodbank to provide more than 400,000 meals during the year to our neighbors in need.

Hoxworth Blood Drive: Bengals coaches, players, alumni, cheerleaders and staff are present annually at Paul Brown Stadium to help the Hoxworth Blood Center collect donations before the busy holiday season. In 2005, the drive earned the Bengals a Special Recognition Award from America's Blood Centers, an organization based in Washington, D.C. The drive, entering its 11th year in 2012, has set numerous records for largest single-day blood drive in Greater Cincinnati.

Canned Food Drive: For more than a decade, the Bengals have conducted a canned food drive to benefit Cincinnati's Freestore/Foodbank. In 2011, more than 8000 pounds of non-perishable and canned goods were collected, and fans with no food to offer contributed more than $14,000 in cash. During the drive's history, an estimated 118,000 pounds of food and $107,000 in donations have been secured.

Toys for Tots: The Bengals also designate one home game per year when fans are asked to bring new toys or cash donations to benefit underprivileged children during the holiday season. Last year's drive netted 2,748 toys and $33,675 in cash.

COACHING STAFF

MARVIN LEWIS HEAD COACH

Marvin Lewis is in his 10th season as Bengals head coach, having posted the most wins (69) in franchise history. He has led the team to the postseason in two of the last three years.

Lewis' Bengals were one of the NFL's surprise teams last season, a young squad with new stars that posted a 9-7 record and earned a Wild Card playoff berth. Cincinnati lost at Houston in the Wild Card game, but the point was already made — the Bengals far exceeded widespread forecasts that they would not be a playoff contender.

Regarded among the NFL's top defensive minds, Lewis in 2011 revamped a Cincinnati offense that had struggled in 2010. Under new coordinator Jay Gruden, offense featured rookie standouts in QB Andy Dalton and WR A.J. Green, and the young unit played superbly in clutch situations, winning five games featuring fourthquarter comebacks. Dalton and Green became the first rookie QB-WR duo from the same team to play in the Pro Bowl, and secondyear TE Jermaine Gresham also was selected for the Pro Bowl.

With second-year DT Geno Atkins completing the Bengals' Pro Bowl lineup, the Bengals had four players in the game, with a total of only six NFL seasons among them.

Lewis spreads the praise much more widely, however.

"This whole team worked their butts off and I'm proud of them," he said. "They just have to know they don't get to start where they left off (as a playoff team). We have to start over again from step one, and work as hard and smart as we did last year, and then we take it up a notch and work even harder."

Lewis is the Bengals' all-time leader in seasons as a head coach (10th season in '12). Paul Brown and Sam Wyche are tied for second at eight seasons. Lewis has risen to third in the NFL in longest current tenure with one team, trailing Philadelphia's Andy Reid (14th) and New England's Bill Belichick (13th). In the category of most seasons as head coach with any team, Lewis ranks seventh among active coaches.

Lewis' Bengals record is 69-74-1 in regular season, 0-3 in postseason and 69-77-1 overall. In a win on Oct. 23 of last season at Seattle, Lewis passed Wyche (64-68-0) into first place for Bengals head-coaching wins.

Lewis was the consensus choice as NFL Coach of the Year in 2009, when the Bengals won the AFC North title while sweeping all six division games. The Bengals are among only 10 NFL teams to make the playoffs in two or more of the last three seasons. Lewis has a total of three playoff berths and two division titles, as the Bengals also won the division in 2005.

Named the ninth head coach in Bengals history on Jan. 14, 2003, Lewis started quickly. His '03 club finished 8-8, six games better than the '02 club, good for the biggest improvement in the NFL. Lewis finished second (behind Belichick of Super Bowl champion New England) in Associated Press Coach of the Year voting.

Lewis came to the Bengals with credentials as a record-setting NFL defensive coordinator, having played a huge role in a championship season. His six seasons (1996-2001) as Baltimore Ravens coordinator included a Super Bowl victory in 2000, when his defense set the NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game campaign (165). That team clipped 22 points off the previous mark. The 2000 Ravens are always an entry in discussions regarding the best NFL defensive units of all time.

In 2002, the season before he joined the Bengals, Lewis led the Washington Redskins to a No. 5 NFL defensive ranking, serving as assistant head coach as well as defensive coordinator.

He had his first NFL assignment from 1992-95, as linebackers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers. He aided the development of four Pro Bowl players — Kevin Greene, Chad Brown, Levon Kirkland and Greg Lloyd.

Lewis began his coaching career as linebackers coach at his alma mater, Idaho State, from 1981-84. ISU's team (also nicknamed the Bengals) finished 12-1 in Lewis' first season there and won the NCAA Division 1-AA championship.

Lewis played LB at Idaho State, earning All-Big Sky Conference honors for three consecutive years (1978-80). He also saw action at quarterback and free safety during his college career. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Idaho State in 1981, and earned his master's in athletic administration in '82. He was inducted into Idaho State's Hall of Fame in 2001.

Born Sept. 23, 1958, Lewis attended Fort Cherry High School in McDonald, Pa. (near Pittsburgh), where he was an all-conference quarterback and safety. He also earned high school letters in wrestling and baseball. He and his wife, Peggy, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Marcus.

Playing and coaching history: 1978-80—Played linebacker, quarterback and safety at Idaho State. 1981-84—Assistant coach (AC), Idaho State. 1985-86—AC, Long Beach State. 1987-89—AC, New Mexico. 1990-91—AC, Univ. of Pittsburgh. 1992-95—AC, Pittsburgh Steelers. 1996-2001—Defensive coordinator, Baltimore Ravens. 2002—Assistant head coach/defensive coordinator, Washington Redskins. 2003-present—Bengals head coach.

PAUL ALEXANDER ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ OFFENSIVE LINE

Paul Alexander is in his 18th straight season as Bengals offensive line coach, and he is also the team's assistant head coach, having added that designation in 2003, when Marvin Lewis took over as head coach. He has 19 seasons overall with Cincinnati, having opened his tenure with one season as tight ends coach.

Alexander's line led a pass protection effort in 2011 that saw the Bengals finish tied for fourth in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed (25). The line found some stability with three young veterans — LOT Andrew Whitworth, C Kyle Cook and LG Nate Livings — all starting every game. And ROT Andre Smith, the Bengals' first-round draft choice in 2009, hit his stride after being held back by injuries in his first two seasons.

In 2010, the Bengals' pass protection was also in the league's top ten, ranking tied for eighth with 28 sacks allowed. In 2009, the line strongly supported a 10-6 Bengals run to the AFC North Division title, supporting eight rushing games of 100 or more yards by individual backs, breaking the franchise record of six. In each of the last three seasons, HB Cedric Benson topped the 1000-yard rushing mark.

Twice with Alexander's lines, the Bengals have set new franchise records for fewest sacks allowed. Cincinnati posted a new best in the division championship season of 2005 with 21 sacks allowed, and that mark was bettered in 2007, with only 17 sacks by opposing defenses.

On Oct. 22, 2000, Alexander's line shared the glory of a 278-yard rushing game by HB Corey Dillon vs. Denver. It was an NFL record at the time, and it still stands fourth in league annals entering the 2011 season. The Bengals' 407 total rushing yards in that game ranks as the fifth-highest single-game total in NFL history, and as the most rushing yards in 60 years. The last team to top it was the N.Y. Giants, who gained 423 against Baltimore in 1950.

Alexander began his NFL coaching career in 1992 as tight ends coach of the N.Y. Jets, under head coach Bruce Coslet. When Coslet moved to Cincinnati as offensive coordinator in 1994, Alexander joined him, in the role of Bengals tight ends coach.

But Alexander's first love in football was always the offensive line. He was afforded the chance to take over that job for the Bengals in 1995, and has held it ever since.

Alexander is a product of distinguished teachers. He coached under Joe Paterno at Penn State and Bo Schembechler at Michigan. He also was offensive line coach at Central Michigan, a school whose coach, Herb Deromedi, ranks with Paterno and Schembechler among the winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history.

Alexander's birth date is Feb. 12, 1960. He's a native of Rochester, N.Y., where he attended Cardinal Mooney High School. He was an Academic All-American at Cortland State (N.Y.) and holds a master's degree in exercise physiology from Penn State. Off the field, he is actively involved with the Boy Scouts and high school linemen camps.

Alexander is also a pianist, and in 2011 he authored a well-received book — "Perform" — linking the mentality and training techniques of top athletes and musicians.

He and his wife, Kathy, have three daughters — Mary Beth, Carolyn and Emily.

Playing and coaching history: 1979-81—Played offensive tackle at Cortland State. 1983-84—Graduate assistant, Penn State. 1985-86—Graduate assistant, Michigan. 1987-91—Assistant coach (AC), Central Michigan. 1992-93—AC, N.Y. Jets. 1994-2002—AC, Bengals. 2003-present—Assistant head coach/offensive line coach, Bengals.

JIM ANDERSON RUNNING BACKS

Jim Anderson is in his 29th year as Bengals running backs coach, setting a franchise record for most total seasons in any full coaching staff role. In 2012, he breaks a tie with former strength and conditioning coach Kim Wood, who coached 28 seasons (1975-2002).

Anderson has coached a long line of Bengals running backs to outstanding performances, with five earning spots in the Pro Bowl. And over the past four seasons, he guided a notable comeback for Cedric Benson, a high first-round draft pick who had struggled to break through in three seasons with Chicago. Benson led the Bengals in yards from scrimmage in all four of his seasons, and in each of his three full seasons (2009-11), he topped the 1000-yard rushing mark (average of 1143 yards).

Among current NFL position coaches, Anderson has the most years with his team. He has had that designation since 2007, when Pittsburgh assistant Dick Hoak retired after 35 seasons with the Steelers. Anderson joined the Bengals in 1984, after 13 seasons as a college coach. He has worked under five Bengals head coaches — Sam Wyche, Dave Shula, Bruce Coslet, Dick LeBeau and Marvin Lewis.

Anderson has been the coach in charge of nearly every running back listed in the Bengals record book. The top 15 individual rushing seasons in Bengals history have all been accomplished by backs coached by Anderson, and his roster of Pro Bowl backs includes:

- James Brooks (played 1984-91, four Pro Bowls): Amassed 6447 yards with an average of 4.8 yards per carry, and he was one of the NFL's standout receivers among RBs, with 297 catches for 3012 yards as a Bengal.
- Harold Green (played 1990-95, one Pro Bowl): Ranks fifth in Bengals rushing yards (3727) and made the Pro Bowl after the '92 season with 1170 yards and a 4.4 average.
- Corey Dillon (played 1997-2003, three Pro Bowls): Leads Bengals in alltime rushing yards (8061) and held one of the NFL's glamour records when he rushed for then-league best 278 yards vs. Denver in 2000.
- Lorenzo Neal (played 2001-02): Earned his first Pro Bowl berth in '02, as lead blocker for Corey Dillon's 1311 rushing yards.
- Rudi Johnson (played 2001-07, one Pro Bowl): Johnson owns the two top rushing seasons in Bengals history (1458 and 1454 yards), and his 4221 yards over 2004-06 are the most by any Bengal in a three-year span.

Anderson is also one of the coaches behind the NFL's top team rushing performance in the last 61 years. On Oct. 22, 2000, when Dillon rushed for 278 yards vs. Denver, the team gained 407 on the ground. It's the fifth-best team rushing total in NFL history and stands entering 2012 as the most since 1950, when the N.Y. Giants gained 423 against Baltimore.

Anderson also coached Ickey Woods, who was a league-wide sensation as a rookie in 1988 before having his career derailed by a knee injury in '89.

Anderson's troops won NFL rushing titles in 1988 and '89, and won the AFC rushing crown in '86. From 1986-90, the Bengals finished 2-4-1-1-5 in league rushing.

Anderson's coaching excellence was recognized following the 2001 season when he was interviewed for the Stanford University head coaching job. Anderson was on the Stanford coaching staff from 1980-83.

Anderson was born March 27, 1948, in Harrisburg, Pa. He graduated from Cal Western with a degree in physical education, and has a lifetime teaching certificate in California. Jim and his wife, Marcia, have a son, Derek.

Playing and coaching history: 1967-69—Linebacker-defensive end at Cal Western (U.S. International). 1970-71—Assistant coach (AC), Cal Western. 1972—Defensive coordinator, Morse High School (San Diego). 1973—AC, Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College. 1974-75—AC, Nevada-Las Vegas. 1976-79—AC, Southern Methodist. 1980-83—AC, Stanford. 1984-present—AC, Bengals.

MARK CARRIER

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Mark Carrier, a three-time Pro Bowl selection as an NFL safety, joined the Bengals on Feb. 13 of this year as defensive backs coach.

Carrier is entering his seventh year as an NFL position coach. He spent the last two seasons (2010-11) as defensive line coach for the N.Y. Jets and was defensive backs coach for the Baltimore Ravens from 2006-09.

"Mark is a great choice for us as he moves back to his old position, coaching the defensive secondary," said Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis. "He experienced success as a coach with two fine NFL defenses, and he will do very well with our group."

In 2011, Carrier's defensive line helped the Jets finish fifth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed per game (312.1), fifth in fewest yards allowed per play (5.0) and seventh in fewest yards allowed per rushing play (3.9). In 2010, the Jets finished third in the NFL in fewest rushing yards allowed and third in fewest yards per rushing play.

During Carrier's term as defensive backs coach in Baltimore, the Ravens had the NFL's second-most interceptions (93), with S Ed Reed performing as one of the league's premier players. Reed earned Pro Bowl selections in each of his four years playing under Carrier, and in 2008, Reed was the only unanimous selection to the prestigious Associated Press All-Pro team.

Carrier will bring an aggressive approach to his work with Bengals DBs.

"The way the game is played now, you just can't sit back," he says. "You have to force the action. If you don't, the way the quarterbacks and the rules are, it's just too tough. You have to be disciplined, but you still have to make things happen."

As a player, Carrier was a standout safety over 11 seasons for Chicago, Detroit and Washington, earning three Pro Bowl selections. He was an NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year selection in 1990, when Chicago made him the sixth overall pick in the draft. He also went to the Pro Bowl with the Bears after the 1991 and '93 seasons, and he opened his career by playing in 108 consecutive games, not missing a contest due to injury until his seventh campaign.

As a Detroit player, Carrier twice received the team's Joe Schmidt Leadership Award, named for the Lions' Hall of Fame linebacker.

He finished his NFL career with 168 games played, 164 starts, 32 interceptions, 111 passes defensed, 16 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries and 556 tackles.

He played in college at Southern California and won the 1989 Jim Thorpe Award, given annually to the player voted the nation's top defensive back.

Carrier's hometown is Lake Charles, La. He and his wife, Andrea, have a son (Mac) and a daughter (Lexi).

Mark established the MacKids Foundation in honor of his son, to raise money for causes including disaster relief. In 2001 and 2002, before beginning his career in coaching, he worked as a full-time sports commentator with various radio and TV outlets, including a role as co-host of the pregame and postgame shows on the USC Football Radio Network. He prepped for his media work by serving in a part-time role during his playing career as an on-air personality with two Chicago television stations.

Playing and coaching history: 1987-89—Played S at Southern California. 1990-96—NFL safety, Chicago Bears. 1997-99—NFL safety, Detroit Lions. 2000—NFL safety, Washington Redskins. 2003—Assistant coach (AC), Brophy College Prep (Phoenix, Ariz.). 2004-05—AC, Arizona State. 2006-09—AC, Baltimore Ravens. 2010-11—AC, N.Y. Jets. 2012—AC, Bengals.

KYLE CASKEY OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL/ ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Kyle Caskey is in his third season on the Bengals coaching staff, handling the duties of offensive quality control coach and assistant offensive line coach. He and line coach Paul Alexander directed the line last season to a pass protection effort that saw the Bengals finish tied for fourth in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed (25).

The line found some stability with three young veterans — LOT Andrew Whitworth, C Kyle Cook and LG Nate Livings — all starting every game. And ROT Andre Smith, the Bengals' first-round draft choice in 2009, hit his stride after being held back by injuries in his first two seasons.

Caskey came to Cincinnati from the University of Mississippi, where he served in 2009 as a defensive assistant working with safeties and quality control. In addition to his on-field work, he handled all opponent offensive breakdowns and scouting report materials.

Caskey entered college coaching in 2004 at Louisiana-Monroe as a graduate assistant. He coached safeties in 2004 and linebackers in '05. In 2005, the Warhawks were Sun Belt Conference co-champions.

From 2006-08, Caskey was at Indiana State. In 2008, he coached the TEs and RBs while also serving as recruiting coordinator. The '08 ISU recruit class was ranked seventh among NCAA FCS teams by Rivals.com. He was TE/WRs coach at Indiana State in 2006, and was defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator in '07.

He has earned a bachelor's degree in industrial distribution from Texas A&M, and he holds master's degrees from both A&M (agribusiness) and Louisiana-Monroe (instructional technology).

Caskey is married (wife Kayla), and his hometown is Daingerfield, Texas. He played tight end at Texas A&M in 1997-98, and while he was on the team, the Aggies won a Big 12 championship (1998) and played in the Cotton and Sugar bowls.

He was a four-year Aggie letterman in track and field from 1999-2002, including 2000 All-Big 12 honors in the discus. He earned Big 12 All-Academic honors three times — in 2000, '01 and '02.

BRAYDEN COOMBS OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Brayden Coombs takes on a full staff position with the Bengals for 2012, serving as offensive assistant. He spent the previous two seasons as an assistant to the staff

He will work with offensive coordinator Jay Gruden on video breakdown and game-planning, as well as seeing duty as an advance scout, and on the field he will have a specific focus on wide receivers, assisting receivers coach James Urban.

Coombs' work with receivers last season aided the rapid development of the Bengals' young group, including rookies A.J. Green, Andrew Hawkins, Ryan Whalen and Armon Binns.

Green emerged as one of the NFL's best young receivers, leading all league rookies in receptions (65) and receiving yardage (1057), and he became the first rookie WR selected for the Pro Bowl since the 2003 season. Hawkins developed into an offensive weapon as the season progressed, tallying 23 catches for 263 yards. Whalen saw action on offense in the last four regular-season games, and he had two receptions for 24 yards in the Wild Card Playoff at Houston.

Coombs first joined the Bengals in December of 2009 as a coaching intern, and was elevated to coaching assistant before the 2010 season. He spent 2010 working primarily with the defensive staff, focusing on the defensive backs and assisting with video breakdown and game-plan construction.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Coombs played collegiately at Miami (OH) from 2005-09, where he lettered four times. He spent two seasons as a DB, then was switched to WR for his final three years. He set a school record for receptions (14) in his final game as a senior, against Buffalo.

Coombs is a Cincinnati native and a graduate of Colerain High School. He earned a degree in business from Miami. His father, Kerry, is the cornerbacks coach at Ohio State.

Playing and coaching history: 2005-09—Played DB and WR at Miami University. 2010-11—Coaching assistant, Bengals. 2012—Assistant coach, Bengals.

JEFF FRIDAY ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Jeff Friday is in his third season as Bengals assistant strength and conditioning coach. He is in his 15th NFL season, including nine seasons (1999-2007) as head S/C coach of the Baltimore Ravens.

His tenure with the Ravens included a Super Bowl championship in the 2000 season, when he was named Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by a national vote of his peers.

In Cincinnati, Friday is reunited with Chip Morton, Bengals head strength and conditioning coach since 2003. In Baltimore, Morton worked as an assistant under Friday from 1999-2001.

"Jeff has proven his ability at the NFL level and we are fortunate to have him on board," Morton said. "He knows how to manage and direct players. I've known Jeff since the mid-'90s and I have all the respect in the world for how he does the job."

Marvin Lewis, Bengals head coach, was defensive coordinator in Baltimore during Friday's first three seasons with the Ravens.

Friday began his coaching career in 1990-91 as a graduate assistant S/C coach at Illinois State. He was assistant S/C coach at Northwestern from 1992-95, and in '96, he entered the NFL as assistant S/C coach for the Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings made the playoffs in each of his three seasons.

In 2008, Friday started his own sports training business, and in '09, he was a consultant to the United Football League, supervising the league's strength and conditioning program and assisting in the hiring of head strength coaches.

Friday is a native of Milwaukee, Wis. He holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and a master's degree in exercise science from Illinois State.

He holds numerous professional certifications, including: Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Certified Level 1 Strength Coach by the United States Weightlifting Federation, Certified Practitioner by the National Board for Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork, Certified Active Release Technique (ART) Provider, and Functional Movement Screen (FMS) Certified Specialist.

JAY GRUDEN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Jay Gruden is in his second season as Bengals offensive coordinator, following a 2011 campaign in which his young unit's performance far exceeded most analysts' forecasts.

Rookie QB Andy Dalton became an instant standout in Gruden's system, fueling the team's drive to the playoffs by leading four wins featuring fourth-quarter comebacks. The team had a total of five such comebacks, as backup QB Bruce Gradkowski led one after Dalton was injured.

Rookie WR A.J. Green was also an instant success, leading all NFL rookies in receptions (65) and receiving yards (1057). Dalton and Green became the first QB-WR duo to play in the Pro Bowl as rookies, and second-year TE Jermaine Gresham also prospered in Gruden's system, earning a Pro Bowl berth as he bettered the solid numbers he had posted as a rookie.

Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis credited Gruden's offensive system with helping Dalton, a second-round draft choice, enjoy success from the outset.

"We are much more simple (compared to pre-2011) in our scheme for the quarterback," Lewis says. "We are not re-inventing the wheel against every new defense we face. Jay sees the offense through the quarterback's eyes, and it's a case of building from week to week, rather than starting over. The quarterback has a lot of leeway in the things he can call, and Jay recognized that Andy was the type of player who could use those options effectively."

Prior to joining the Bengals, Gruden coached for seven seasons (2002-08) in the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning a Super Bowl championship ring in 2002. He also ranks among the most outstanding players and coaches in the history of the Arena Football League, having won four league championships as a quarterback and two as a head coach. In 18 AFL seasons as a player and head coach, he never missed the playoffs.

In 2010, Gruden was head coach and general manager of the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League, leading the Tuskers to the UFL championship game.

Gruden played four seasons at QB for the University of Louisville (1985-88), including three years as the starter. He was a two-time team MVP and left the program ranked fourth in Cardinals history in completions (572), passing yards (7024) and touchdown passes (44). He played QB in the Arena League for six seasons (1991-96) with the Tampa Bay Storm, winning four AFL titles and posting numbers as the league's all-time leading passer.

He was head coach for the AFL's Orlando Predators for nine seasons (1998-2001 and 2004-08). He led the team to four championship game appearances, with two league titles, while compiling a 93-61 record (.604 winning percentage). During a two-year hiatus from coaching the Predators, in 2002-03, he returned to the playing field as Orlando's QB, leading two playoff seasons. He was elected in 1999 to the AFL Hall of Fame.

In 2002, Gruden accepted a position as an offensive assistant coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, taking on a dual role as he also continued his AFL exploits during NFL offseasons. He worked for seven seasons at Tampa Bay under his brother Jon, who was Bucs head coach. He contributed to three division championship seasons, including the 2002 campaign that saw the Bucs defeat Oakland 48-21 for a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Gruden was born March 4, 1967 in Tiffin, Ohio. He and his wife, Sherry, have three sons — J.J., Joey and Jack.

Playing and coaching history: 1985-88—Played QB at University of Louisville. 1990—Played QB for Barcelona Dragons and Sacramento Surge (WLAF). 1991-96—Played QB for Tampa Bay Storm (AFL). 1997—Offensive coordinator, Nashville Kats (AFL). 1998-2001—Head coach, Orlando Predators (AFL). 2002-03—Played QB for Orlando Predators. 2004-08—Head coach, Orlando Predators. 2002-08—Assistant coach, Tampa Bay Buccaneers. 2009—Offensive coordinator, Florida Tuskers (UFL). 2010—Head coach, Florida Tuskers. 2011-present—Offensive coordinator, Bengals.

PAUL GUENTHER

Paul Guenther is in his eighth season on the Bengals coaching staff in 2012, and this season he will direct Cincinnati's linebackers.

"I have a high confidence level working with Paul," said Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis, "and so does Mike Zimmer (Bengals defensive coordinator). We're excited about what he can bring our defense in this new role."

Guenther worked last season in a dual role, with defensive backs and special teams. He also worked closely with Zimmer on blitz techniques, and last season the Bengals ranked fifth in the NFL in sacks (45), up from 27 the previous year. Guenther had an expanded role last year in all aspects of the Bengals' defensive strategy on passing downs.

"I like working with Zim because he's so aggressive and likes to be on the cutting edge," Guenther says. "It's important to understand the whole concept. What kind of routes are they running against the pressures? What are the protection schemes against the pressures we run? Get players to understand how they react as well."

Working with special teams coach Darrin Simmons last season, Guenther helped Cincinnati finish seventh in the NFL in punt return average (11.5 yards per return), seventh in punt coverage (7.2) and third in kickoff coverage (20.8). In 2010, Guenther helped Cincinnati lead the NFL in punt coverage, with an average yield of only 4.8 yards on 26 opponent returns. No foe had a return of longer than 20 yards.

Guenther assisted with linebackers as well as special teams on the Bengals staff from 2006-10, and in '10, he contributed to a "trifecta" year for the linebackers in the team tackling totals, as starters Dhani Jones, Keith Rivers and Rey Maualuga finished 1-2-3 on the squad.

Guenther (pronounced "GUN-thur") was offensive assistant on the Washington Redskins staff from 2002-03. Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis was one of his associates in 2002, serving as Redskins assistant head coach/defensive coordinator. Guenther's primary position assignment with the Redskins was running backs.

From 1997-2000, Guenther was head coach at Ursinus College, an NCAA Division III school in Collegeville, Pa. He was the youngest head coach in college football in '97, at age 25, and he led the team to the playoffs in '99 and 2000.

His 1999 Ursinus team finished 10-2, advancing to the second round of the playoffs. The 10 wins were most in school history, and the team broke most of the offensive and defensive marks in the school record book.

Guenther began his coaching career from 1994-95 at Western Maryland. He was an assistant at Ursinus in 1996, moved to Jacksonville University as defensive coordinator in '97, and returned to Ursinus that same year.

Guenther was born Nov. 22, 1971. His hometown is Richboro, Pa. He played LB in college at Ursinus, setting a school career tackles record (355) while three times earning all-conference honors.

He received his undergraduate degree in communications from Ursinus in 1994, and a master's degree in sports administration from Western Maryland in '97.

JAY HAYES

DEFENSIVE LINE

Jay Hayes, a 24-year veteran of major college and NFL coaching, is in his 10th season as Bengals defensive line coach. Last season his unit had four players post career highs in sacks as the Bengals earned a Wild Card playoff spot.

Cincinnati's total of 45 sacks — ranked fifth in the NFL — included 34.5 by the line. The surge was led by the rapid development of DT Geno Atkins, a fourthround 2010 draft pick who made the Pro Bowl as a second-year player. Atkins' team-leading 7.5 sacks tied for the NFL lead among interior linemen.

In 2010, Hayes oversaw the development of rookie DE Carlos Dunlap into a producer of 9.5 sacks, a half-sack off the NFL rookie lead. Dunlap's availability in 2011 was limited due to injuries, but in addition to Atkins, the line got career-high sack performances from DEs Jonathan Fanene (6.5), Michael Johnson (6.0) and Frostee Rucker (4.0).

Overall, the defense finished seventh in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (316.3 per game) and eighth in fewest yards per rushing play (3.9).

NFL trends of recent years have blurred the distinctions between starters and reserves on successful defensive lines, and when all Hayes' hands were healthy last year, the Bengals would make regular use of up to eight linemen in a game. When injuries or other factors limited the active field to six or seven players, all would get 20 or more snaps.

"It's my job to pick somebody to get a spark, so we can have the chemistry and keep it running hot," Hayes says. "We want to keep getting after people and not let them find room to breathe. If we can continue doing that, we can be successful."

Hayes came to the Bengals from the Minnesota Vikings, where he was special teams coach in 2002. The '02 Vikings tied for fifth in the NFL in punt coverage.

Hayes was special teams coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1999-2001. In 1999, under Hayes' direction, Steelers rookie kicker Kris Brown set an NFL record for most consecutive field goals made to start a career (13).

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks with the Steelers, Hayes coached 11 years at the major college level — at Notre Dame, California and Wisconsin.

He began his coaching career in 1988 as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, and for the next three seasons, he coached outside linebackers and special teams for the Irish. He moved to California as outside linebackers coach in 1992, and he also held that job in '93 before adding special teams responsibilities in '94.

Hayes' last college assignment before entering the NFL was from 1995-98 at Wisconsin, where he was outside linebackers and special teams coach. Hayes' Badgers were consistently among the top special teams units in the Big Ten.

Hayes played DE at the University of Idaho and earned all-conference honors in 1980 and '81. He spent some time in NFL camps before moving on to play in the USFL, for the Michigan Panthers in 1984 and the Memphis Showboats in '85.

Hayes' younger brother, Jonathan, is Bengals tight ends coach.

Hayes was born March 3, 1960 in Pittsburgh, and attended South Fayette High School. He and his wife have three children. His son Jesse is a defensive end at Wisconsin, and this year his daughter Jazmin begins a basketball scholarship at Lafayette College (Easton, Pa.).

TIGHT ENDS

Jonathan Hayes, an NFL tight end for 12 seasons, returns for his 10th year as Bengals tight ends coach in 2012

Last season, Hayes continued the development of second-year tight end Jermaine Gresham, Cincinnati's No. 1 draft pick in 2010, who immediately became one of QB Andy Dalton's most reliable targets. Gresham finished the season 56-for-595 receiving with six TDs, while also continuing to develop into a productive runblocker. He earned a spot on the AFC roster in the Pro Bowl.

Despite battling injuries which caused him to miss two games, Gresham's 2011 numbers topped those of his rookie season, when his 52 catches tied for the lead among AFC rookies and tied for third among NFL rookies. His 2010 total was a Bengals rookie TE record, besting the mark of 44 set by Tony McGee in 1993, and he tied teammate Jordan Shipley for the most catches by any Bengals rookie since 1985.

Added to the mix at tight end in 2011 were veteran Donald Lee and rookie free agent Colin Cochart. Lee, who won a Super Bowl with Green Bay in 2010, made some significant contributions, though he was limited by injuries. Cochart, from South Dakota State, was the only Bengals' 2011 college free agent signee to make the opening day roster, and under Hayes he developed steadily throughout the season, playing in 10 games with three starts.

Together, the TEs contributed to the run-blocking effort in 2011 that propelled RB Cedric Benson over 1000 yards rushing for the third straight year. Benson finished with 1067 yards on the ground. In addition, they aided a pass-blocking effort that ranked tied for fourth in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed (25).

And twice since 2005, the tight ends' blocking has helped Cincinnati set a club record for fewest sacks allowed. A record of 21 was set in 2005, and that mark was re-written at 17 in '07.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Hayes spent four years (1999-2002) at the University of Oklahoma as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. He helped the Sooners to a four-year record of 44-9, including a 13-0 mark in 2000 for the NCAA championship.

Under Hayes' tutelage, tight end Trent Smith finished his Oklahoma career in 2002 as the school's No. 2 all-time receiver, with 148 catches. Also in 2002, Sooners special teams blocked seven kicks and had three punt returns for TDs.

Hayes began his NFL playing career in 1985 with the Kansas City Chiefs, as a second-round draft pick out of Iowa. He played for the Chiefs through 1993, serving as a team captain, and closed his NFL career with three seasons in Pittsburgh ('94-96). He had 153 career receptions for 1718 yards with 13 TDs.

He saw action in 184 NFL games with 122 starts, and he played all 16 games in each of his final six seasons. He played in three AFC Championship games and a Super Bowl (for Pittsburgh vs. Dallas in SB XXX).

At the University of lowa, he earned first-team All-America honors as a senior TE and was a team captain. He holds a degree from lowa in general studies.

Hayes' older brother, Jay, is Bengals defensive line coach.

Hayes' hometown is South Fayette, Pa. He attended South Fayette High School, He and his wife have four children.

Playing and coaching history: 1981-84—Played linebacker and tight end at lowa. 1985-93—NFL tight end, Kansas City Chiefs. 1994-96—NFL tight end, Pittsburgh Steelers. 1999-2002—Assistant coach (AC), Univ. of Oklahoma. 2003-present—AC, Bengals.

HUE JACKSON ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS/ ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Bengals on Feb. 17 of this year signed Hue Jackson to an assistant coach position. Head coach of the Oakland Raiders in 2011 and a Bengals assistant from 2004-06, Jackson is slated to assist primarily in the areas of special teams and defensive backs, working closely with DBs coach Mark Carrier and special teams coach Darrin Simmons.

"Hue is a tremendous addition to our staff," said Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis. "I relied on Hue greatly when he was with us (in 2004-06), and his success overall in the NFL, including being selected for a head coaching position, is well documented. He has expertise in all aspects of the game, and we are fortunate to have obtained his services."

Jackson is entering his 12th consecutive season as an NFL coach. In addition to serving as head coach last season with Oakland, he has held offensive coordinator posts for Washington (2003), Atlanta (2007) and the Raiders (2010). As Oakland head coach last season, he directed an 8-8 finish, tied with Denver and San Diego for best in the AFC West, but the Raiders were eliminated on tiebreakers from the playoffs. The Raiders finished ninth in the NFL in total offense (379.5 yards per game) and seventh in rushing offense (131.9).

Jackson's three seasons with the Bengals saw him in the role of wide receivers coach, with Chad Ochocinco (then Chad Johnson) averaging 93 catches, 1358 yards and 8.3 touchdowns per campaign. Ochocinco led the AFC in receiving yards in each of those seasons, and in 2006, WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh also topped 1000 yards as the Bengals logged the first 1000-yard receiving duo in franchise history. Jackson left the Bengals after the '06 season to become offensive coordinator for Atlanta.

In 2010, prior to being named Raiders head coach, Jackson coordinated an Oakland offense that led the team to an average of 25.6 points per game, fourth in the AFC and sixth in the NFL. The Raiders more than doubled their 2009 point total of 197, totaling 410.

Before joining the Raiders, Jackson spent two seasons as quarterbacks coach for Baltimore, helping the Ravens advance to the playoffs in both campaigns. He fostered the rapid development of Joe Flacco, who in 2008 became the first rookie QB to win two playoff games.

Jackson coached in the college ranks from 1987-2000 and entered the NFL with Washington in 2001. Marvin Lewis and Jackson were coaching colleagues on the Redskins staff in 2002.

Jackson's jumping-off point to the pro ranks was the University of Southern California, where he was offensive coordinator from 1997-2000. He was active in the recruiting and early coaching of QB Carson Palmer, with whom he later was reunited in Cincinnati. Palmer's play at USC earned him the No. 1 overall selection by Cincinnati in the 2003 draft.

Born Oct. 22, 1965 in Los Angeles, Jackson played QB at the University of the Pacific, passing for 2544 yards and 19 TDs over the 1985-86 seasons. He began his coaching career at Pacific in 1987.

Playing and coaching history: 1985-86—Played QB at University of the Pacific. 1987—Graduate assistant, Pacific. 1988-89—Assistant coach (AC), Pacific. 1990-91—AC, Cal State-Fullerton. 1992-95—AC, Arizona State. 1996—Offensive Coordinator, University of California. 1997-2000—Offensive coordinator, University of Southern California. 2001-02—AC, Washington Redskins. 2003—Offensive coordinator, Washington Redskins. 2004-06—AC, Bengals. 2007—Offensive coordinator, Atlanta Falcons. 2008-09—AC, Baltimore Ravens. 2010—Offensive coordinator, Oakland Raiders. 2011—Head coach, Oakland Raiders. 2012—AC, Bengals.

DAVID LIPPINCOTT DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL/ ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS

David Lippincott is in his second season with a Bengals full staff position in 2012. He will serve again as defensive quality control coach, and this season his title also includes a designation as assistant linebackers coach, a role in which he will work with LBs coach Paul Guenther.

This is Lippincott's fifth season with the Bengals. From 2008-10, he was in a support role as a coaching assistant.

Lippincott handles defensive video breakdowns and game plan preparation, and he has had previous on-field duties with front-seven players. Last season, his work contributed to Cincinnati finishing seventh in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (316.3 per game) and ninth in fewest points allowed per game (20.2). Also, the Bengals finished the season with 45 sacks, fifth in the NFL and up 60 percent from a total of 27 during an injury-plagued 2010 season. Fifteen players contributed to the sack total, tied for the most in franchise history with the exception of a 1987 club that essentially had two different rosters due to strike replacement play.

The 2011 defense also posted top 10 NFL rankings in fewest yards allowed per play (fourth at 5.0), fewest yards per rushing play (eighth at 3.9) and fewest yards per passing play (fourth at 6.8).

As a Bengals coaching assistant from 2008-10, Lippincott's duties included advance scouting and coaching wide receivers, as well as game preparation. His 2009 work contributed to the Bengals' second AFC North Division title during the tenure of head coach Marvin Lewis.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Lippincott coached in college for three seasons at Bluffton University (2000-02), two seasons at Minnesota (2003-04) and three seasons at Richmond (2005-07). He worked with all three defensive position groups — line, linebackers and defensive backs — over the course of his college seasons.

During his two seasons at Minnesota, when he worked as a graduate assistant on defense, the Gophers posted wins in the Sun and Music City bowls.

At Richmond, where he was assistant defensive line coach, the team won an Atlantic 10 title in 2005 and a Colonial Athletic Association crown in '07. The 2005 team was a quarterfinalist in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs, and the '07 team was a semifinalist in the (re-named) FCS division.

Lippincott is a Cincinnati native — a graduate of Moeller High School and the University of Dayton.

Coaching history: 2000-02—Assistant coach (AC), Bluffton. 2003-04—Graduate assistant, University of Minnesota. 2005-07—AC, Richmond. 2008-10—Coaching assistant, Bengals. 2011-present—AC, Bengals.

CHIP MORTON

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Chip Morton is in his 10th season as Bengals strength and conditioning coach. During his tenure, Morton and his staff have established a program that features innovative ideas, while never straying far from the fundamental principles of productive training.

"But any program is only as good as its players," Morton says, "and we have a group that is accountable, consistent, and diligent in their efforts."

In order to build a quality product, the previous year's programming is evaluated, and adjustments are made to help the team reach its goals for the upcoming season. The Bengals' strength and conditioning program is characterized as comprehensive and progressive in nature. At its very core lies a foundation of traditional training principles, with an emphasis on teaching, communication and service to the players. Morton and assistant S/C coach Jeff Friday both have coached on successful teams that have reached the Super Bowl.

"Under Chip's direction, our strength and conditioning program remains on the cutting edge of training techniques and philosophy," says head coach Marvin Lewis. "I am very pleased with the outcome, using this program to both improve our players' football performances and to increase their resistance to injuries."

Morton was a coaching colleague of Lewis with the Baltimore Ravens from 1999-2001, serving as Ravens assistant strength and conditioning coach, and he was with Lewis in '02 at Washington, serving as head strength and conditioning coach for the Redskins.

Morton is in his 21st NFL season, having also served as strength and conditioning assistant at San Diego from 1992-94 and as head strength and conditioning coach at Carolina from '95-98. He has coached with two Super Bowl teams — the 1994 Chargers and the 2000 World Champion Ravens.

He started his career in the collegiate ranks, serving as assistant strength coach at Ohio State (1985-86) while completing his master's degree in physical education. He moved to Penn State in 1987 as the first-ever full-time strength and conditioning assistant for the Nittany Lions football team. He also worked with 14 other men's and women's sports during his five years (1987-91) at Penn State.

Morton's hometown is Hamden, Conn. He graduated from the University of North Carolina in 1985 with a degree in zoology, where he also earned a varsity letter in swimming.

Continuing education has always been a hallmark of Morton's coaching career. He recently was re-certified as a Level One Sports Performance Coach by the United States Weightlifting Association and has been a Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist (C.S.C.S.) through the National Strength & Conditioning Association since 1990. In 2006, Morton became the first NFL strength coach to receive the Russian Kettlebell Instructor's Certification (RKC), and in '08, he was certified as a Level I coach in John Brookfield's Battling Ropes training system.

Chip is married, and he and his wife Stacey have seven children.

DARRIN SIMMONS SPECIAL TEAMS

Darrin Simmons is in his 10th season as Bengals special teams coach. Last season his units played a key role in Cincinnati securing a playoff berth, posting top 10 NFL finishes in three of the four major kick return and kick coverage areas. The Bengals were third in kickoff coverage, allowing only 20.8 yards per return, seventh in punt coverage (7.2 yards) and seventh in punt returns (11.5).

Also last season, the Bengals led the NFL in opponents' starting field position after kickoffs (20.3-vard line.)

Cincinnati's individual special teams leaders had excellent production under Simmons last season:

- K Mike Nugent returned from a 2010 knee injury and set franchise records for points (132) and field goals (33). He put 67 of his 80 kickoffs into the end zone, 36 of those going for touchbacks. "I've become a better kicker working with Darrin," says Nugent, who joined the Bengals in '10 after five seasons with other clubs. "I've been open to some ideas, and Darrin led me to change how I position the ball for field goals and PATs. It gave me more consistency."
- Brandon Tate joined the Bengals just a week before the 2011 season opener, on waivers from New England, and he contributed immediately. He finished the season with a 10.6 average on punt returns, with a TD, and he is now officially the franchise's career leader in punt return average, as his clubrecord of 51 returns meets the minimum requirement of 50. Tate also averaged 23.8 yards on 42 kickoff returns.
- P Kevin Huber averaged a career-best 44.2 yards per kick and now ranks second in franchise history in career average (43.3). Huber and the punt team have worked together over the last three seasons to produce 76 punts downed inside the opponent 20 and only 25 touchbacks.

In 2010, Cincinnati led the NFL in punt coverage for the season's final five weeks and finished with an average yield of only 4.8 yards on 26 opponent returns. No foe had a return of longer than 20 yards.

Simmons' Bengals special teams have shown a nose for the ball, forcing 23 fumbles in his nine completed seasons. That's well over twice the total (nine) for the nine seasons prior to his tenure.

Simmons entered the NFL in the 1998 season on the same Baltimore Ravens staff as Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis, who was Ravens defensive coordinator at the time. Simmons was assistant special teams coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Ravens, and he held that same role for the Carolina Panthers from 1999-2002. He joined the Bengals in 2003.

A former college punter himself, Simmons played an integral role at Carolina in the development of Todd Sauerbrun as one of the NFL's top punters of the time.

Simmons began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kansas University in 1996. He moved to the University of Minnesota in 1997.

Simmons punted in college for Kansas from 1993-95, earning All-Big Eight honors his final year. As a senior, he helped the Jayhawks to a top 10 national ranking and to an Aloha Bowl victory over UCLA. Also as a Kansas senior, he won honors as an academic All-American.

Prior to playing for Kansas, Simmons was a punter and QB for Dodge City (Kan.) Community College. In 1992 at Dodge City, he led the nation's junior colleges in punting and was a first-team JUCO All-American.

Simmons earned a degree in sports management from Kansas in 1996.

Born April 9, 1973, in Elkhart, Kan., he graduated from Elkhart High School. He and his wife, Rhonda, have a daughter and two sons.

Playing and coaching history: 1991-92—Played quarterback and punter at Dodge City (Kan.) Community College. 1993-95—Punter, University of Kansas. 1996—Graduate assistant coach, Kansas. 1997—Assistant coach (AC), University of Minnesota. 1998—AC, Baltimore Ravens. 1999-2002—AC, Carolina Panthers. 2003-present—AC, Bengals.

JAMES URBAN WIDE RECEIVERS

James Urban returns in 2012 for his second season as Bengals wide receivers coach. With the benefit of a full season and full offseason under his belt, Urban will look to further tap into the potential of his young receivers.

In 2011, Urban was charged with leading an inexperienced Bengals receiving corps into a new offensive scheme. The presence of a rookie quarterback (Andy Dalton) and limited preparation time (due to NFL labor issues) increased the challenge. But the results were more than favorable, as the young receivers immediately developed a rapport with Dalton and saw continued production throughout the season and into the playoffs.

The crown jewel of Urban's first year in Cincinnati was the rapid development of rookie A.J. Green, who led the Bengals in receptions (65), receiving yards (1057) and TDs (seven). Green established himself early as one of the top young receivers in the NFL and earned a Pro Bowl selection, voted directly to the AFC squad rather than joining later as an alternate. Green was the first rookie WR in the Pro Bowl since Anguan Boldin of Arizona in 2003.

Despite missing a game and a half due to injury, Green's receptions and receiving yardage totals were tops among NFL rookies. His 1057 receiving yards set a new Bengals rookie record, breaking Cris Collinsworth's 1981 mark of 1009, and his 65 catches fell just two short of Collinsworth's rookie record.

Green's development as a deep threat added another dimension to the Bengals offense. He had 11 receptions of 35 or more yards, which tied for the most in the NFL and was the most by a rookie since 1998, when Minnesota's Randy Moss had 14.

As for Green's fellow receivers, the 2011 season was one of development. Jerome Simpson enjoyed career highs in catches (50), receiving yards (725) and receiving TDs (four). Rookie Andrew Hawkins worked his way into a contributing role after starting the season on the practice squad, tallying 23 catches for 263 yards. Andre Caldwell (37 catches, 317 yards) continued his role as a steady contributor and rookie Ryan Whalen earned his way into the receiving rotation late in the season.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Urban was the Eagles' QBs coach in 2009 and '10, where he helped direct Pro Bowl seasons for Donovan McNabb (2009) and Michael Vick ('10). In 2010, Vick earned accolades as the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year and was the NFC starter in the Pro Bowl.

Urban spent seven total seasons with the Eagles (2004-10). He was assistant to the head coach from 2004-06 and was offensive quality control coach in 2007 and '08. During his seven Philadelphia seasons, the Eagles earned five playoff berths and won three division titles. He first worked with the Eagles in 2003, serving as a coaching intern while employed full-time at the University of Pennsylvania.

A native of Mechanicsburg, Pa., Urban played in college at Washington and Lee (Lexington, Va.) as a wide receiver and kick returner. He worked for seven years in the college ranks — at Clarion (Pa.) University and at Penn — before joining the Eagles.

James and his wife, Patrice, have two daughters, Brielle and Cassidy, and a son, Jameson. He holds a bachelor's degree in English from Washington and Lee and a master's degree in communications from Clarion.

Playing and coaching history: 1992-95—Played WR at Washington & Lee. 1997-98—Assistant coach (AC), Clarion. 1999-2003—Director of football administration/operations, University of Pennsylvania. 2004-10—AC, Philadelphia Eagles. 2011-present—AC, Bengals.

KEN ZAMPESE QUARTERBACKS

Ken Zampese is in his 10th season as Bengals quarterbacks coach. After guiding Andy Dalton in 2011 to one of the top statistical seasons for a rookie QB in NFL history, Zampese looks to help Dalton build on his success with the benefit of a full offseason and a year of familiarity with the Cincinnati offense.

As a rookie in 2011, Dalton started all 16 games, posting team and league records en route to a playoff berth and a spot in the Pro Bowl. He passed 300-for-516 (58.1 percent), for a Bengals rookie record of 3398 yards, with 20 TDs and 13 INTs (80.4 rating). Dalton became the first rookie in NFL history to throw 20 or more TD passes while starting eight or more victories, and he became only the fifth rookie to pass for 3000 yards.

A second-round draft pick (35th overall), Dalton also became the only NFL rookie QB not drafted in the first round to start 16 games for his team, much less start 16 games and lead his team into the playoffs. Four of the Bengals' nine victories in 2011 were fourth-quarter comebacks led by Dalton, and backup Bruce Gradkowski also led a fourth-quarter comeback win.

Prior to Dalton's arrival, Zampese helped guide Carson Palmer to the ranks of the Bengals' all-time top passers. Palmer, who spent eight years in Cincinnati, finished his Bengals career as the team's all-time leader in passer rating (86.9) and completion percentage (62.9), and he still holds season records for completions (373), passing yards (4131), TD passes (32) and passer rating (101.1).

In 2003, his first season with the Bengals, Zampese had success with a veteran starting quarterback in Jon Kitna. The '03 campaign saw Kitna post career highs at that point in completions (324), passing yards (3591), TD passes (26), completion percentage (62.3) and rating (87.4).

Zampese (pronounced "zam-PEE-zee") came to the Bengals following three seasons (2000-02) in St. Louis. With the Rams, he had an expanding role with a passing offense that ranked among the NFL's most prolific.

Zampese joined the Rams in 2000 as an offensive assistant. He was promoted to wide receivers coach in 2001, and the Rams led the league in passing yards for a second straight year, averaging 291.4. In 2002, he added the title of passing game coach, and the Rams finished second in the league at 259.6 yards per game.

Zampese began his NFL career in 1998 as an offensive assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles under head coach Ray Rhodes. He moved with Rhodes to Green Bay in 1999 before beginning his stint with the Rams.

Prior to entering the NFL, Zampese coached for nine years in college. He had one Cincinnati-area assignment, as passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 1996-97 at Miami (Ohio). In '97, Miami averaged 37.4 points per game.

Zampese played wide receiver and kick returner at the University of San Diego from 1985-88. He was the team's Special Teams Player of the Year as a senior. He earned an undergraduate degree in business from San Diego, and later received a master's degree in adult education from Southern California.

Zampese was born July 19, 1967, in Santa Maria, Calif. He and his wife have two children. Ken's father, Ernie Zampese, was a longtime NFL offensive coordinator who coached on a Super Bowl winner with the 1995 Cowboys, and he also coached for the Chargers, Rams and Patriots.

Playing and coaching history: 1985-88—Played wide receiver, kickoff returner and punt returner at University of San Diego. 1989—Assistant coach (AC), University of San Diego. 1990-91—AC, Southern California. 1992-94—AC, Northern Arizona. 1995—Offensive coordinator, Northern Arizona. 1996-97—AC, Miami (Ohio). 1998—AC, Philadelphia Eagles. 1999—AC, Green Bay Packers. 2000-02—AC, St. Louis Rams. 2003-present—AC, Bengals.

MIKE ZIMMER DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Mike Zimmer is in his fifth season as Bengals defensive coordinator, coming off a 2011 campaign during which his unit helped lead Cincinnati into the playoffs for the second time in three years.

Cincinnati finished seventh in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (316.3 per game) and ninth in fewest points allowed per game (20.2). One of Zimmer's stated goals for 2011 was to strengthen the pass rush, and the Bengals finished the season with 45 sacks, fifth in the NFL and up 60 percent from a total of 27 during an injury-plagued 2010 season. Fifteen players contributed to the sack total, tied for the most in franchise history with the exception of a 1987 club that essentially had two different rosters due to strike replacement players who filled the roster for three games.

The 2011 defense also posted top 10 NFL rankings in fewest yards allowed per play (fourth at 5.0), fewest yards per rushing play (eighth at 3.9) and fewest yards per passing play (fourth at 6.8).

In 2009, Zimmer earned NFL Assistant Coach of the Year honors from Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers and from CBSSports.com. He also won the assistant of the year award from FOX broadcaster and Hall of Fame quarterback Terry Bradshaw.

Supporting the Bengals' run to the 2009 AFC North championship, the defense ranked No. 4 in the NFL (301.4 yards allowed per game) and led the team to a No. 6 ranking in scoring defense (18.2).

Before Zimmer opted to return to the Bengals for 2012, his work earned him interviews for the head coaching positions at Tampa Bay and Miami.

Zimmer is in his 19th season as an NFL coach, and 2012 marks his 13th straight year as a defensive coordinator. He was Dallas' coordinator from 2000-06, including four years ('03-06) under head coach Bill Parcells. Zimmer moved to the Atlanta Falcons as coordinator in 2007 and signed with the Bengals on Jan. 15, 2008.

Zimmer joined the NFL with Dallas in 1994, working his first six seasons as secondary coach.

He led top-10 defenses for Dallas in both the 4-3 and 3-4 schemes. His 4-3 defenses finished No. 4 in net yards allowed (287.4) in 2001 and No. 1 in '03 (253.5). And in 2005, Zimmer installed a 3-4 scheme, marking the Cowboys' first departure from the 4-3 since the club was founded in 1960. In that transition year, Dallas finished 10th in the NFL in total defense.

Six times during Zimmer's tenure as secondary coach and coordinator, the Cowboys finished fifth or better in the NFL in scoring defense.

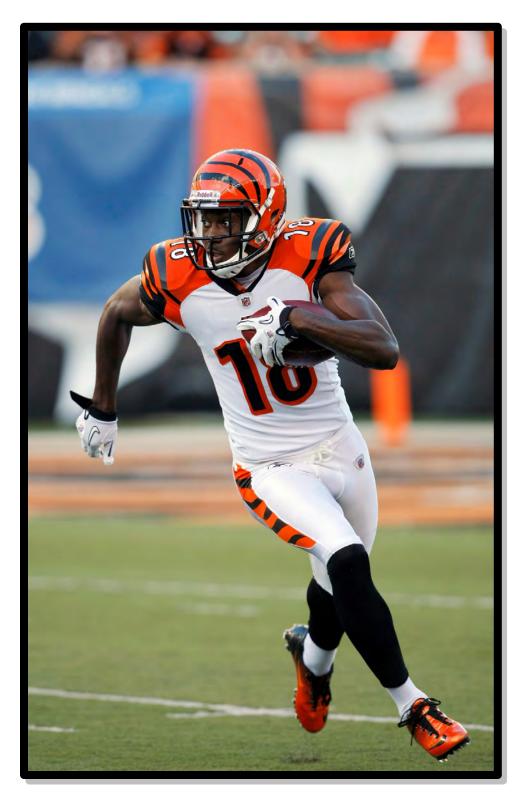

Zimmer earned a Super Bowl ring as secondary coach with the 1995 Cowboys team that defeated Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XXX. One of Zimmer's players, unheralded CB Larry Brown, won the game's MVP award with a pair of interceptions.

Zimmer coached 15 years in the college ranks before joining the Cowboys, working at Missouri, Weber State and Washington State.

Born on June 5, 1956, in Peoria, III, Zimmer played QB and later LB at Illinois State. He has three children — son Adam and daughters Corri and Marki. Adam Zimmer earned a Super Bowl ring in 2009 as defensive assistant/linebackers coach for the New Orleans Saints, and Adam in 2012 is in his third year on the Kansas City Chiefs staff. Mike's father, Bill, made the Illinois Hall of Fame as a prep football and wrestling coach.

Vikki Zimmer, Mike's wife of 27 years, passed away in Cincinnati on Oct. 8, 2009. The Pro Football Writers of America recognized Zimmer's ordeal, and the defense's strong 2009 performance, by voting him the organization's '09 Halas Award, which goes annually to the individual in the NFL who overcame the most adversity to succeed.

Playing and coaching history: 1974-76—Played QB and later LB at Illinois State. 1979-80—Assistant coach (AC), Missouri. 1981-82—AC, Weber State. 1983-88—Defensive coordinator, Weber State. 1989-93—Defensive coordinator, Washington State. 1994-99—AC, Dallas Cowboys. 2000-06—Defensive coordinator, Dallas Cowboys. 2007—Defensive coordinator, Atlanta Falcons. 2008-present—Defensive coordinator, Bengals.

DALTON, ANDY

Height: 6-2 Weight: 220

College: Texas Christian

Experience: 2nd-year player in 2012

2011 games-starts: 16-16 Career games-starts: 16-16

Born: 10-29-87 Hometown: Katy, Texas

Acquired: D2'11

Dalton looks to build in 2012 on the most successful rookie season by any QB in Bengals history, a campaign capped by a Pro Bowl appearance ... Spent all of 2011 season in starting role and drew widespread praise for his leadership and clutch play as Bengals earned Wild Card playoff spot ... Led four wins featuring fourth-quarter comebacks — vs. Buffalo, at Jacksonville, at Tennessee and vs. Cleveland ... Set Bengals rookie record for TD passes (20) ... Led rookie QBs, including three who were among first 12 draft picks, in TD-INT differential (plus-seven) ... Enters this season with the benefit of his first full Bengals offseason program, as normal work prior to last season was cancelled due to labor issues.

Career transactions: Selected by Cincinnati in second round of 2011 NFL Draft (35th overall) ... Signed with Bengals on 7-30-11.

Pro Bowl participation: Has played in one Pro Bowl ... Played for AFC in 2011 season (game at Honolulu) and passed seven-for-nine for 99 yards with two TDs (47 and three yards, both to Brandon Marshall) and no INTs.

Only Andy: Elias Sports Bureau confirms that Dalton in 2011 became the first rookie QB in NFL history to start as many as eight wins and throw as many as 20 TD passes ... Since 1978, when the NFL went to a 16-game schedule, Dalton is the only rookie QB not selected in the first round to start 16 games, much less start them all and also lead his team into postseason.

More history-makers: With 3398 passing yards in 2011, Dalton became only the fifth rookie in NFL history to hit 3000 for a season, joining Peyton Manning, Cam Newton, Sam Bradford, and Matt Ryan ... On Sept. 11 at Cleveland, Dalton directed the offense to scores on the first three possessions, the first time that had happened in a Bengals season opener ... On Sept. 18 at Denver, set Bengals rookie passing record with 332 yards, and he surpassed that mark with 373 yards Nov. 20 at Baltimore ... Also at Denver, Dalton and WR A.J. Green became first rookie pair in NFL history to combine for 10 completions in a game ... Dalton joined Hall of Famer Dan Marino in becoming only the second rookie since the 1970 merger to log a 100-plus passer rating in each of his first two starts (102.4 on Sept. 11 at Cleveland; 107.0 on Sept. 18 at Denver).

More 2011 highlights: One of seven players to start every Bengals game ... Completed 300 of 516 passes (58.1 percent) for 3398 yards, 20 TDs and 13 INTs (80.4 rating) ... Rushed 37-for-152 (4.1), with one TD ... Passed 10-for-15 for 81 yards in first half on Sept. 11 at Cleveland, with two-yard TD strike to TE Jermaine Gresham, but sat out second half due to a right wrist injury ...

Passed 27-for-41 for 332 yards and two TDs on Sept. 18 at Denver, surpassing former Bengals rookie record of 327 by Greg Cook vs. San Diego in 1969 ... On Oct. 2 vs. unbeaten Buffalo, led Bengals from 17-3 halftime deficit to 23-20 win, posting second-half performance that included 17-yard TD pass to Jermaine Gresham, a three-yard rushing score and a game-winning 56-yard FG drive ... Led second straight fourth quarter comeback Oct. 9 at Jacksonville, directing drive on which he set up game-winning TD with nine-yard connection to Jermaine Gresham on fourth-and-six play, producing first down at Jaguars 10 ... On Oct. 16 vs. Indianapolis, posted season-bests in passer rating (111.5) and completion percentage (78.1), on 25-of-32 for 264-1-0 ... On Oct. 30 at Seattle, pushed Bengals to 17-3 second-quarter lead with 43-yard TD pass to A.J. Green ... On. Nov. 6 at Tennessee, completed his third fourth-quarter comeback, throwing second-half TD passes of 15 yards to Jerome Simpson and five yards to Andre Caldwell as Bengals won 24-17 after trailing 17-7 at halftime and 17-14 after three quarters ... Had season-best three TD passes against Titans ... Season-high 373 passing yards in loss Nov. 20 at Baltimore, but also had season-high three INTs ... Led a fourth-quarter comeback for the fourth time on Nov. 27 vs. Cleveland, posting 105.6 passer rating ... In rallying Bengals from 17-7 halftime deficit vs. Cleveland, threw 22-yard TD strike to Jermaine Gresham in third quarter and connected with Green on 51-yard pass late in fourth quarter, putting ball at Browns two and setting stage for Mike Nugent's game-winning FG ... Passed 27-for-42 for 257-0-3 in Wild Card playoff on 1-7-12 at Houston ... Voted in December as a first alternate to AFC Pro Bowl squad, and was named to the team as replacement for New England's Tom Brady.

DUNLAP, CARLOS

Height: 6-6 Weight: 280 College: Florida

Experience: 3rd-year player in 2012

2011 games-starts: 12-1 Career games-starts: 24-1

Born: 2-28-89

Hometown: North Charleston, S.C.

Acquired: D2'10

One of Cincinnati's most promising young players, Dunlap looks for a fully healthy season after being slowed by injuries in his sophomore 2011 campaign ... His sack total dipped to 4.5 last season, from 9.5 as a rookie, but despite missing four games he still led team in QB pressures (27) and had an impressive fumble return for a key TD ... Second-round draft pick was one of the NFL's top rookies at any position during a strong finishing stretch in 2010, as he posted all 9.5 of his sacks in the last eight games, setting Bengals rookie record and finishing second among all NFL rookies.

Career transactions: Selected by Cincinnati in second round of 2010 NFL Draft (54th overall) ... Signed with Bengals on 7-28-10.

2011 participation: Missed all four preseason games due to knee strain, but was ready for season opener ... Played in 12 games (Games 1-8, 10 and 14-16) and in Wild Card playoff ... Missed Games 9 and 11-13 due to hamstring injury.

Crazylegs Carlos: On Oct. 16 of last season, with Indianapolis looking to erase a 20-17 Bengals lead in the fourth guarter, Dunlap scooped a Pierre Garcon fumble at the Colts 35 and ran for a game-clinching TD. The 6-6, 280-plus pounder did not have a clear path to the end zone, but got there by displaying speed and moves rarely seen in a player his size. "He was moving like a running back," said Bengals S Reggie Nelson. "He wasn't going to take no for an answer." What's more, Dunlap is a former kickoff returner. At Fort Dorchester High School in North Charleston, S.C., he did occasional kickoff return duty while holding a day job as a 240-pound DE. He had a 95-yard return for a TD against Summerville, the high school alma mater of current Bengals teammate A.J.

More 2011 highlights: Supported effort for Bengals defense to rank seventh in NFL in fewest yards allowed per game (316.3) and fourth in fewest yards allowed per offensive play (5.0) ... On Sept. 11 at Cleveland, logged a team-high four QB pressures, and his pressure in fourth quarter helped force INT by DE Michael Johnson ... Had a team season-high of eight QB pressures on Oct. 30 at Seattle, along with a nine-yard sack of Tarvaris Jackson in fourth quarter ... On Nov. 6 at Tennessee, had two sacks of Matt Hasselbeck for 22 yards, along with a pass defensed ... Two tackles Dec. 24 vs. Arizona, including a nine-yard sack of Kellen Clemens, and had three QB pressures ... His five tackles on 1-1-12 vs. Baltimore tied his season high, set previously on Sept. 18 at Denver, and he had shared sack of Joe Flacco ... Three tackles in Wild Card playoff on 1-7-12 at Houston.

2010: A Pro Football Weekly all-rookie team selection, Dunlap contested Detroit DT Ndamukong Suh for the league's rookie sacks title, losing the crown when Suh went to 10.0 with a zero-yard sack late in fourth guarter in Week 17 ... Dunlap's 9.5 sacks set Bengals rookie record, surpassing 8.5 by DE Justin Smith in 2001 ... All of Dunlap's sacks came in last eight games, including 8.5 in last six games ... Became first rookie to lead the team in sacks for a season since 1990, when LB James Francis led with 8.0 ... On Nov. 14 at Indianapolis, brought down Peyton Manning for first career sack, for four-yard loss in second quarter ... Sacked Mark Sanchez twice on Nov. 25 at N.Y. Jets ... His 1.5 sacks of Drew Brees on Dec. 5 vs. New Orleans included 15-yard loss on third down, forcing punt that led to Bengals' go-ahead FG in fourth quarter ... Sacked Ben Roethlisberger for eight yards on Dec. 12 at Pittsburgh ... His two tackles in win Dec. 19 vs. Cleveland were both sacks of Colt McCoy ... Seven-yard sack of Philip Rivers in upset win Dec. 26 vs. San Diego ... Closed season with his fourth multiple-sack game of the last six, getting 1.5 against Joe Flacco on Jan. 2 at Baltimore.

College: Played three seasons (2007-09) at Florida, with totals of 84 tackles, 19.5 sacks, 26 tackles for loss, eight passes defensed and four blocked kicks ... Entered NFL Draft following his junior season ... Named Defensive MVP of 2008 season BCS national championship win over Oklahoma ... Helped Gators to 13-1 records in each of his last two seasons, including 51-24 Sugar Bowl victory over University of Cincinnati to close 2009 campaign.

Personal: Hometown is North Charleston, S.C. ... Attended Fort Dorchester High School, and closed his career ranked 15th on ESPN's Top 150 recruits list ... Pursuing a business degree from Florida ... Selected to SEC Academic Honor Roll as a freshman ... Enjoys playing basketball.

GREEN, A.J. WR #18

Height: 6-4 Weight: 207

College: Georgia

Experience: 2nd-year player in 2012

2011 games-starts: 15-15 Career games-starts: 15-15

Born: 7-31-88

Hometown: Summerville, S.C.

Future appears unlimited for Cincinnati's top 2011 draft choice, who carried his dominant college ways to the NFL last season ... Excelled as a deep threat and also as a player who can consistently claim contested balls against double coverage ... His impact was duly recognized Dec. 27, when he was announced as first rookie WR voted to Pro Bowl since 2003 season (Arizona's Anquan Boldin) ... Green was first Bengals rookie at any position voted to Pro Bowl in more than 30 years (WR Cris Collinsworth, 1981) ... Led all NFL rookies in receptions (65) and receiving yards (1057) ... Led Bengals in TDs (seven), and second among rookies in receiving TDs ... Set Bengals rookie record for most receiving yards, passing Collinsworth's record of 1009, and fell two short of Collinsworth's rookie receptions record of 67.

Career transactions: Selected by Cincinnati in first round of 2011 NFL Draft (fourth overall) ... Signed with Bengals on 7-28-11.

Pro Bowl participation: Has played in one Pro Bowl ... Started for AFC in 2011 season (game at Honolulu) and had two catches for 42 yards, including 34-yard TD from Ben Roethlisberger.

History-maker: In his pro debut on Sept. 11 at Cleveland, put Bengals ahead to stay in fourth quarter with 41-yard TD catch from Bruce Gradkowski, a play certified as longest game-winning TD catch in NFL history by a rookie playing in his team's season opener ... On Sept. 18 at Denver, hooked up with rookie QB Andy Dalton for 10 receptions, the first time in league annals a rookie passing duo hit double figures in completions ... On Oct. 2 vs. Buffalo, Green's catches of 58 and 40 yards made him first Bengal in 23 years, since WR Eddie Brown in 1988, to record two catches of 40 or more yards in a game ... Green's four 100-yard receiving games set Bengals rookie season record, breaking mark of three set by WR Isaac Curtis in 1973 and tied by Eddie Brown in '85.

Deep threat: Green had 11 receptions of 35 or more yards last season, tied with Calvin Johnson of Detroit and Victor Cruz of the N.Y. Giants for most in the NFL. Green's total was the most by an NFL rookie since 1998, when Minnesota's Randy Moss had 14.

More 2011 highlights: Played and started 15 games, and started Wild Card playoff ... Missed second half of Game 9, Nov. 13 vs. Pittsburgh, due to knee injury, and was inactive due to the injury for Game 10 at Baltimore ...

Among his 65 catches, 43 converted first downs (66.2 percent) ... His 10 receptions for 124 yards on Sept. 18 at Denver included an acrobatic five-yard TD catch in fourth quarter ... Four receptions for 118 yards Oct. 2 vs. Buffalo ... On Oct. 9 at Jacksonville, scored on a 37-yard reception on third-and-17 in the first quarter ... Five catches for 51 yards Oct. 16 vs. Indianapolis, including an 11-yard TD in the first quarter in which he outfought tight coverage in the end zone ... On Oct. 20 at Seattle, his 43-yard TD gave Bengals 17-3 lead in second quarter ... On Nov. 6 at Tennessee, led all receivers in catches (seven) and receiving yards (83), and beat double coverage to gain 20 yards to Titans seven on a key third-and-18 play in the fourth quarter ... Had one reception Nov. 13 vs. Pittsburgh — a leaping 36-yard TD over two defenders in second quarter, but suffered knee strain upon landing and missed the next game ... Three-for-110 receiving on Nov. 27 vs. Cleveland, including a 51-yarder to the Cleveland two on a third-and-eight late in the fourth quarter, setting up Mike Nugent's gamewinning FG ... Had game highs in receptions (six) and receiving yards (87) on Dec. 4 at Pittsburgh, along with one TD — an 11-yarder in the second guarter ... Six receptions for 115 yards Dec. 18 at St. Louis, including a 55-yarder to Rams two in first quarter ... Held to two catches for 25 yards on Dec. 24 vs. Arizona, but also rushed two-for-25, and he drew a pass interference call of 20 more yards against defense for the third straight game ... Caught five-for-47 in Wild Card playoff on 1-7-12 at Houston.

College: Played three seasons (2008-10) at Georgia, and was a consensus choice after his junior season as nation's top WR prospect ... In just 32 career games, he posted the third-most receptions (166) and third-most receiving yards (2619) in Bulldogs history ... His 23 TD catches ranked second in program annals ... Named to Georgia's Team of the Decade ... Playing in only nine games as a junior, he led team with 57 catches, 848 receiving yards and career-best nine TDs ... Played 10 games a sophomore and led team in catches (53), receiving yards (808) and receiving TDs (six) ... In 2008, his career-best 963 receiving yards helped earn him SEC Freshman of the Year honors, and on special teams, he blocked a FG attempt vs. Arizona State.

Personal: Hometown is Summerville, S.C. ... Attended Summerville High School, where he was a four-time all-state selection by Associated Press ... Was the only prep junior named to USA Today's 2006 All-USA team ... Also lettered in baseball and track ... Housing major at Georgia, and earned spot on Athletic Director's academic honor roll ... His initials stand for "Adriel Jeremiah."

Posted totals of 938 and 794 rushing yards in his two seasons at Indiana, with 12 TDs.

Team-leading 10 tackles Oct. 9 at Jacksonville, along with key pass defensed as Bengals held Jaguars to second-quarter FG after Jacksonville returned INT to Cincinnati two ... On Nov. 13 vs. Pittsburgh, in first action after missing three games, logged seven tackles (third on team) ... Set up first Bengals score Dec. 24 vs. Arizona, intercepting John Skelton pass with twovard return to Cardinals 23 ... Led team with personal season-high 14 tackles on 1-1-12 vs. Baltimore ... Three tackles in Wild Card playoff on 1-7-12 at Houston.

Suffered left ankle fracture in Game 15, Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City, and was placed Dec. 30 on Reserve/Injured list ... Missed season finale and Wild Card playoff vs. N.Y. Jets ... Had key forced fumble against HB Ryan Grant in third quarter Sept. 20 at Green Bay, with Bengals recovering at their 38 and driving 62 yards for TD that put Cincinnati ahead to stay ... Also at Green Bay, had sack and forced fumble on Aaron Rodgers (Packers recovered) and six total tackles. 2010—Tied for club lead with six tackles Sept. 26 at Carolina, including team-best five solos ... Named a freshman All-American in '05, and was first-team All-Pac 10 in his final three seasons, topped by consensus All-American honors as a senior ... Won 2008 Bednarik Award (nation's top defensive player) and was named National Defensive Player of the Year by CBSSports.com ... Height: 6-2 Weight: 210

College: Rutgers

Experience: Rookie in 2012

2011 games-starts: 0-0 Career games-starts: 0-0

Born: 8-22-89

Hometown: South Brunswick, N.J.

Acquired: D3a'12

Tall, tough and versatile, Sanu figures to challenge for plenty of playing time as an NFL rookie ... Scorched defenses for 115 receptions last season, shattering Larry Fitzgerald's Big East record of 92 for Pitt in 2003 ... Has displayed great hands, with exceptional desire to beat defenders for the contended catch, and can overpower tacklers like a RB in the open field ... Concentrated on WR duties last season, aiding two young QBs in Rutgers offense, but has potential to get looks for extra roles on offense such as "Wildcat" QB ... Passed for 207 yards with four TDs and no INTs during his career, and rushed for 653 yards and nine scores ... Opted to enter draft after his junior season, already holding Big East career receptions record (210) ... Broke the receptions record of 207 set for Rutgers by Bengals teammate Brian Leonard (from 2003-06).

Career transactions: Selected by Cincinnati in the third round of the 2012 NFL Draft (83rd overall) ... Signed with Bengals on 6-11-12.

Wide receivers coach James Urban says: "Mo is very crafty. He has a great knack for sticking his foot in the ground and using his big body to get in between the defender and the ball. He uses his body very well. He has a great natural instinct in zone, a good feel for where the zones are and how to stick and slide in zone. He has great hands too. So you put those things together, you get 115 catches. And he was originally recruited as a safety, so he's got that mentality — he blocks."

College: Played three seasons (2009-11) at Rutgers, catching Big East-record 210 passes for 2263 yards and 12 TDs ... Scored 21 total TDs, including nine as a rusher ... His receiving yards total ranks fourth in school history ... Played in 38 games, with 37 starts. 2011—His Big East-record 115 receptions produced 1206 yards and seven TDs for Rutgers club that finished 9-4 with Pinstripe Bowl victory over lowa State ... Ranked fifth nationally in catches per game (8.85) ... His 16 receptions vs. Ohio set a Big East single-game mark, and his 13 catches against both North Carolina and Army are tied for second-most ...

Gained 100 or more receiving yards in seven games. 2010—Played 12 games with 11 starts as a sophomore, catching 44-for-418 with two TDs, and he also was Rutgers' third-leading rusher, gaining 309 yards with a 5.2 avg. and scoring four TDs ... Also saw some action on defense, with an INT vs. Connecticut ... Completed six-of-nine passes for 160 yards and three TDs, with a 51-yarder to Jordan Thomas on first scrimmage play vs. Cincinnati ... Set Rutgers record with a 91-yard rushing TD vs. Tulane. 2009—Came to Rutgers as a safety, but was switched to WR in spring camp ... Started every game and helped Rutgers finish 9-4 with win over Central Florida in St. Petersburg Bowl ... Caught 51-for-639 with three TDs, and rushed 62-for-346 (5.6) with five scores ... Became first Scarlet Knight since 1993 to log a rushing, receiving and a passing TD in the same season.

Sanu on versatility: "If my coach asks me to do it, I'm willing to do it. I like the fact that I can play different positions. It makes you more valuable to the team. I'm very comfortable as a receiver both outside and in the slot. My first two years I played outside, and last year I was inside, because our depth inside wasn't real good. As far as starting out as a safety, it was very beneficial to me. I know what both positions are thinking. I used both sides of the ball to help become a better receiver."

High school: Attended South Brunswick (N.J.) High, where he played S, WR and QB, and he also punted during each of his three varsity seasons ... Because he turned 19 prior to his senior season, he was ineligible to play under state rules, and he was limited to practice work throughout the full 2008 campaign ... In 2007, he passed for 900 yards and rushed for 700 on offense, and he had 90 tackles with five INTs on defense as South Brunswick gained its first playoff berth in nearly 40 years.

Personal: Hometown is South Brunswick, N.J. ... Labor studies major at Rutgers ... His parents are both natives of the West African nation of Sierra Leone ... Last name is pronounced "suh-NOO."

Career transactions: Selected by Cincinnati in second round of 2012 NFL Draft (53rd overall) ... Signed with Bengals on 5-12-12.

Outland excellence: Still didn't win the 2011 Outland Trophy, the third-oldest major national award in college football, but he was the Outland's highest-rated defensive player. The Outland Trophy is awarded annually to the nation's top offensive or interior defensive lineman.

Head coach Marvin Lewis says: "Devon has had days when he just basically has taken over the football game. He has that kind of ability. Now the challenge is to do it at this level. He's got the speed and athleticism, and the size and strength. He gets off the ball well and uses his hands well."

College: Played four years (2008-11) at Penn State, preceded by redshirt year in '07 ... Started career slowly due to two serious injuries (ACL tear in '07 and ankle fracture in '08) but broke out with fine junior season, and topped it with much better senior year. 2011—Became first Penn State player since DE Courtney Brown in 1999 to earn Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors

Led Big Ten's top scoring defense (16.8). 2010—In his first year as full-time starter, the junior led team in sacks (4.0) while posting 39 tackles and 10.0 tackles-for-loss ... Started 12 of 13 games ... Received All-Big Ten honorable mention in media vote. 2009—After two seasons lost almost entirely to injury, the redshirt sophomore played his first full college campaign, logging 19 tackles and two sacks ... Team went 11-2 with Citrus Bowl win over Louisiana State. 2008—Suffered left ankle fracture in fall camp ... Recovered in time to play in the last two games ... Made college football debut on big stage, as his two appearances were in season finale vs. Michigan State and in Rose Bowl vs. Southern California. 2007—Freshman was granted medical redshirt year after suffering left knee injury (ACL tear) in fall camp.

Capped his four-year term last season with All-America first-team honors from the American Football Coaches Association, Pro Football Weekly and the NFL Draft Report ... As a junior and as a senior, helped his team capture Big Ten championships and Rose Bowl berths ... Carrying 315 pounds on a trim, muscular frame, he has displayed balance, explosion and short-space quickness ... Career transactions: Selected by Cincinnati in first round of 2012 NFL Draft (27th overall) ... Signed with Bengals on 5-25-12.

Head coach Marvin Lewis says: "Kevin comes to us from a Wisconsin line group that has been outstanding year after year. He's a guy who really stands out when you put the tape on, and when you meet him, you can feel the drive and intensity that makes him a special player."

Zeitler on run-blocking: "Run blocking is always fun. It's a 'must win' mentality. You have to get ball movement, no matter what. Wisconsin has been known for running the ball since Barry Alvarez took over (as football coach and subsequently AD). We've had some of the top rushing stats in the country. It shows that we were doing the right things, and NFL teams seem to like it."

College: Played four seasons (2008-11) at Wisconsin, starting 37 games over his final three seasons ... Helped lead Badgers to 32-8 record in his last three campaigns ... Credited with 68 TD-producing blocks, and had 23 games of blocking grades at 90 percent or higher. 2011—Helped lead Wisconsin to 11-3 record, with Big Ten title and Rose Bowl berth ... Led FBS interior linemen in TD-resulting blocks (19), and his average of 1.46 TD blocks per game was Wisconsin's highest since All-American Joe Thomas posted 1.64 while winning the Outland Trophy in 2006 ... Supported rushing attack that averaged 245.7 yards per game, 12th nationally. 2009—Helped Wisconsin finish 10-3, with Champs Sports Bowl win over Miami ... Took over No. 1 RG duties as a sophomore, starting all 13 games ... Supported Big Ten-leading performance in net offensive yards per game (445.2). 2008—Lettered as a true freshman on Badgers team that finished 7-6 with Champs Sports Bowl loss to Florida State.

Offensive line coach Paul Alexander says: "Kevin has toughness, consistency and brains. His greatest strength is simply that he's so productive. You see very few if any errors. He set records there for blocking grades. He's also a great program guy, a great team guy. He'll help your whole team, not just his spot. People are going to like this kid."

Enter 'The Vise': One of the first things Bengals coaches and staff noticed about Zeitler was his massive hands and powerful handshake. "First impression," Zeitler says simply. "You've got to give 'em something to remember." Zeitler's hands play a big part in his game as well. Scouts rated his hand-punch against opposing rushers as unsurpassed among college linemen.

High school: Attended Wisconsin Lutheran High School in Milwaukee, where he started for two 13-1 teams ... Named Little Ten Conference Lineman of the Year as a senior ... Also as a senior, was ranked as No. 4 college prospect in the state by Scout.com.

WEEK 1, GAME 1

Cincinnati Bengals 27, Cleveland Browns 17 Sunday, Sept. 11, at Cleveland Browns Stadium

The Bengals rallied for two TDs in the final five minutes to win the first 2011 renewal of the Battle of Ohio. Lightning struck with 4:28 to play, when the offense broke a long period of sluggishness with a 41-yard TD pass from backup QB Bruce Gradkowski to rookie WR A.J. Green. The Browns defense appeared not ready for the play, but officials ruled the Bengals lined up and snapped the ball legally. The issue was not decided at that point, with the Bengals leading 20-17, but Cincinnati's defense continued some tenacious second-half play, and the Bengals iced the game on a 39-yard Cedric Benson TD run with 1:49 left. Benson rushed for 121 yards on 25 carries. Gradkowski played the second half in relief of starter Andy Dalton, who suffered a wrist injury late in the second quarter. The Bengals took a 40-36 all-time series lead against Cleveland, tying their largest-ever leading margin.

Denver Broncos 24, Cincinnati Bengals 22 Sunday, Sept. 18, at Sport Authority Field at Mile High

The Bengals had their chances to open the season with a second straight comeback victory on the road, but they were denied points on three fourth-quarter possessions that reached Denver territory while they were trailing by the eventual final score of 24-22. Cincinnati had a plus-two margin in turnover differential and outgained the Broncos 382-318, but the Broncos prevailed by dominating on third and fourth downs, particularly on defense. The Bengals offense was held to one-for-11 on third-down conversions and zero-for-two on fourth down. The most encouraging signs for the Bengals were big outputs by their top two draft choices, WR A.J. Green and OB Andy Dalton. Green caught 10 passes for 124 yards with an acrobatic TD catch, and Dalton posted a 107.0 passer rating, completing 27 of 41 for 332 yards with two TDs and no INTs. The Bengals fell to 1-1 and the Broncos improved to 1-1.

WEEK 3, GAME 3

San Francisco 49ers 13, Cincinnati Bengals 8 Sunday, Sept. 25, at Paul Brown Stadium

San Francisco trailed for most of the day in the Bengals' 2011 home opener, but after falling behind 6-3 with 9:04 left in the fourth quarter, the 49ers mounted the game's only TD drive, going 72 yards in 10 plays for a 10-6 lead. San Francisco raised its lead to 13-6 on a 53-yard FG by K David Akers with 2:16 to play, and the 49ers gave up an intentional safety as time was running out. On a day when both offenses struggled, the most glaring statistic was a one-for-10 Bengals performance on third-down conversions. Cincinnati settled for a FG after gaining a second-and-goal from the 49ers' two on the game's opening drive. And in the fourth quarter, after DE Jonathan Fanene recovered a fumble forced by LB Rey Maualuga at the San Francisco 16, Cincinnati was again forced to settle for a FG. The Bengals fell to 1-2 while the 49ers improved to 2-1.

WEEK 4, GAME 4

Cincinnati Bengals 23, Buffalo Bills 20 Sunday, Oct. 2, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals rallied from a 17-3 halftime deficit to deal Buffalo its first defeat of the season. The Bengals won after trailing by 14 or more points in the second half for the first time since Dec. 5, 2004, when they erased a 17-point deficit to win 27-26 at Baltimore. QB Andy Dalton had a hand in both Bengals TDs in the second half, on a 17-yard pass to TE Jermaine Gresham in the third quarter and on a three-yard run in the fourth quarter. Dalton's rushing TD tied the score 20-20, and after LB Rey Maualuga's third-down tackle on RB Fred Jackson forced a three-and-out by Buffalo's offense, the Bengals drove 56 yards in seven plays for a game-winning 43-yard FG by Mike Nugent as time expired. The Bengals got a 104-yard rushing game from HB Cedric Benson and a 118-yard receiving effort from WR A.J. Green. The Bengals improved to 2-2 and Buffalo fell to 3-1.

Cincinnati Bengals 30, Jacksonville Jaguars 20 Sunday, Oct. 9, at EverBank Field

The Bengals played "sloppy," according to DT Domata Peko, but they had a decided edge on big plays in winning for only the second time in franchise history at Jacksonville. The defense gave a yeoman effort in the first half, as two Jacksonville drives that started with great field position wound up netting only FGs after reaching the two. The Bengals managed a 13-13 tie at halftime and won the game with a fourth-quarter TD that erased a 20-16 deficit. The winning drive featured a conversion of a fourth-down-and-six from the Jaguars' 19-yard line, as QB Andy Dalton hit TE Jermaine Gresham with a nine-yard pass, and HB Bernard Scott scored the deciding TD on a two-yard run three plays later. Cincinnati padded its margin of victory to 10 — its largest ever against Jacksonville — when DT Geno Atkins returned a fumble 10 yards for a TD on the game's final play, with the Jaguars in full desperation-lateral mode. The Bengals improved to 3-2 and Jacksonville

Cincinnati Bengals 27, Indianapolis Colts 17 Sunday, Oct. 16, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals had some anxious moments after Indianapolis cut a 20-7 Cincinnati lead to 20-17 with 9:33 to play. But the Colts were denied a tying score when CB Nate Clements blocked a 52-yard FG attempt at the 5:43 mark, and the Bengals sealed a win with 2:36 left when S Reggie Nelson forced a fumble by WR Pierre Garcon, with DE Carlos Dunlap recovering and making a 35-yard run for a TD. Bengals QB Andy Dalton posted his highest passer rating (111.5) of the season, and his 78.1 completion percentage was the highest by a Bengal since QB Carson Palmer's 83.3 in Game 7 of 2009. The Bengals broke a seven-game losing streak against Indianapolis and improved to 4-2. The Colts fell to 0-6.

WEEK 8, GAME 7

Cincinnati Bengals 34, Seattle Seahawks 12 Sunday, Oct. 30, at CenturyLink Field

The Bengals scored 17 points in the last 4:50 for the team's largest win margin since a 45-10 romp over Chicago in 2009. K Mike Nugent gave Cincinnati a 20-12 lead with a 48yard FG, and the Bengals later scored TDs on a 56-yard punt return by WR Brandon Tate and a 75-yard interception return by S Reggie Nelson. It was the first time in a 213-game span — since Game 2 of 1998 — for the Bengals to score TDs on offense, defense and special teams. Cincinnati made a key play on the last play of the first half. Trailing 17-3, the Seahawks eschewed a FG try on a fourth-and-two from the Bengals' three-yard line. Nelson and LB Brandon Johnson stopped RB Marshawn Lynch at the one, and though that was good for a Seattle first down, the clock ran out before Seattle could run another play. The Bengals won for only the second time in their last 13 games on the West Coast, and they improved to 5-2. The Seahawks fell to 2-5.

WEEK 9, GAME 8

Cincinnati Bengals 24, Tennessee Titans 17 Sunday, Nov. 6, at LP Field

After a sluggish first half, the Bengals dominated Tennessee in the third and fourth quarters. Cincinnati secured its fifth straight victory, tying the team's longest winning streak since a season-opening, six-game streak by the 1988 AFC Championship club. Rookie QB since a season-opening, six-game streak by the 1988 AFC Championship club. Rookie QB Andy Dalton led his third fourth-quarter comeback of the season. The Bengals trailed 17-7 at halftime, but Dalton closed the gap to 17-14 with a 15-yard TD pass to WR Jerome Simpson in the third quarter, and he got the winning score on a five-yard pass to WR Andre Caldwell early in the fourth quarter. CB Nate Clements stopped Tennessee's last good comeback chance with a forced fumble and recovery against TE Jared Cook, and Bengals K Mike Nugent tacked on a FG for the final margin. Dalton threw three TD passes — his first game with three — and no INTs. The Bengals improved to 6-2, including 4-1 on the road, and gained a tie with Baltimore for first place in the AFC North. Tennessee fell to 4-4.

WEEK 10, GAME 9

Pittsburgh Steelers 24, Cincinnati Bengals 17 Sunday, Nov. 13, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals spotted the defending AFC champions a 14-0 first-quarter lead and spent the rest of the day in comeback mode, rallying strongly but ultimately falling short. Cincinnati tied the score at 17-17 midway through the third quarter, on a one-yard TD pass from QB Andy Dalton to TE Jermaine Gresham, but the Steelers responded immediately with an 81-yard drive to get the deciding TD. The Bengals had a big opportunity with 4:28 left, taking possession at the Steelers' 49-yard line after a 16-yard punt return by WR Brandon Tate, and they moved to a first down at the Steelers' 26 on three consecutive rushes by HB Cedric Benson. But on second down from the 25, Steelers CB William Gay intercepted a Dalton pass, and after gaining two first downs, the Steelers were able to take knees until the clock expired. The Bengals fell to 6-3, seeing the end of a five-game winning streak. They fell into a second-place tie with Baltimore in the AFC North Division, a half game behind the 7-3 Steelers.

WEEK 11, GAME 10

Baltimore Ravens 31, Cincinnati Bengals 24 Sunday, Nov. 20, at M&T Bank Stadium

The Bengals piled up 483 yards — their most in a span of 72 games — with OB Andy Dalton resetting his Bengals rookie passing record at 373 yards. Too much of that total, however, came while trying to catch up. The Ravens took a 31-14 lead early in the fourth quarter and wound up denying Cincinnati a tying TD after a Bengals drive reached the Baltimore seven-yard line with 0:50 to play. Cincinnati was minus-two in turnover differential, with Dalton suffering his first three-INT game, and the Cincinnati defense gave up five scrimmage gains of 25 or more yards. The Ravens had a 100-yard receiver (WR Torrey Smith, with 165 and a TD) and a 100-yard rusher (RB Ray Rice, with 104 and two TDs). Bengals WR Jerome Simpson had a career-high 152 receiving yards for Cincinnati. The Bengals fell to 6-4, one game behind co-leaders Baltimore and Pittsburgh (both 7-3) in the AFC North Division race.

WEEK 12, GAME 11

Cincinnati Bengals 23, Cleveland Browns 20 Sunday, Nov. 27, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals engineered their fifth win of the season in which they trailed in the fourth quarter. Cleveland opened the final period with a 20-17 lead, but a pair of Bengals FG drives and a final-period shutout by the defense did the trick. OB Andy Dalton's 51-yard pass to WR A.J. Green carried to the Cleveland two-yard line with 0:58 left, setting up K Mike Nugent's game-deciding 26-yard FG. The Browns had a chance to break a 20-20 tie with 1:55 left, but a bad snap helped force a miss by K Phil Dawson on a 55-yard FG try. The miss allowed the Bengals to start at their 45-yard line on their winning FG drive. HB Cedric Benson had 130 yards from scrimmage for Cincinnati (106 rushing, 24 receiving), and WR Green had 110 yards on three receptions. Dalton posted a 105.6 passer rating. The Bengals improved to 7-4 and opened their widest-ever lead in the Battle of Ohio series against Cleveland (five games at 41-36). The Browns dropped to 4-7.

WEEK 13, GAME 12

Pittsburgh Steelers 35, Cincinnati Bengals 7 Sunday, Dec. 4, at Heinz Field

The Bengals had a grand beginning, stopping Pittsburgh three-and-out on the game's first possession and then driving inside the Steelers 10 on their first series. But a four-yard TD pass on that possession was nullified by a false start penalty, and there began a series of events that proved nightmarish by halftime. Cincinnati had a FG attempt blocked on that first possession, and the Steelers went on to score 28 second-quarter points — the most allowed by Cincinnati in a quarter in 382 games, since Dec. 13, 1987. The Steeler onslaught included two rushing TDs by RB Rashard Mendenhall, a OB Ben Roethlisberger TD pass to WR Mike Wallace and a 60-yard punt return TD by WR Antonio Brown. The Bengals got their only TD on an 11-yard second-quarter pass from OB Andy Dalton to WR A.J. Green. For the first time since the season opener, when he missed the second half with a wrist injury, Dalton did not play every offensive snap. He was relieved (not injury related) by OB Bruce Gradkowski for the fourth quarter. The Bengals fell to 7-5 while Pittsburgh improved to 9-3.

Houston Texans 20, Cincinnati Bengals 19 Sunday, Dec. 11, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals, with five fourth-quarter comeback victories on the books, got a taste of their own medicine as Houston erased a 19-10 final-period deficit by driving 83 yards for a FG and 80 yards for a TD on its last two possessions. The winning score was a six-yard pass from rookie QB T.J. Yates to former Bengal WR Kevin Walter with just :02 remaining. The Walter TD was set up by a pass interference call the Bengals disputed, a 17-yarder against CB Adam Jones that put the ball at the six with 0:12 to play. The Bengals, who led 16-3 at halftime, suffered the relatively rare feat of losing despite a plus-two turnover differential. Houston racked up 412 net yards, the most allowed by Cincinnati on the season to date. The Bengals fell to 7-6. Houston improved to 10-3, and its win combined with a Tennessee loss to New Orleans to clinch the Texans the AFC South championship and the franchise's first playoff berth.

Cincinnati Bengals 23, Arizona Cardinals 16 Saturday, Dec. 24, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals took a 23-0 lead with 3:09 left in the third quarter, but the Cardinals closed the gap to 23-16 with 3:16 left in the final period. To claim victory, the Bengals had to fend off subsequent Arizona possessions which died at the Cincinnati 17- and 34-yard lines. The win, tense as it turned out to be, gave the Bengals a 9-6 record and control of the No. 2 AFC Wild Card spot entering the final week of the regular season. OB Andy Dalton became the first rookie to throw for 20 TDs and win eight or more games. The Bengals defense gave up a whopping 208 yards in the fourth quarter, but its performance in the first three periods (just 108 yards, six first downs and no points allowed) eventually outweighed the late Cardinals surge. Arizona fell to 7-8.

WEEK 17, GAME 16

Baltimore Ravens 24, Cincinnati Bengals 16 Sunday, Jan. 1, 2012 at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals fell behind 17-3 at halftime, and though they closed the gap to 17-13 with 12:35 left in the fourth quarter, the day would belong to the Ravens. Cincinnati had the ball trailing only 17-13, but Baltimore recovered a fumble by TE Jermaine Gresham, and three plays later, Ravens HB Ray Rice ran 51 yards for a TD. It was the second long TD of the day for Rice, who went 70 yards for the game's first score. Rice finished with 191 rushing yards, and the Bengals gave up a season-high 221 for the game. Cincinnati began the game not knowing if it could make the playoffs without a win, but as the final seconds ticked away on their loss, they learned that they had qualified for a Wild Card spot by virtue of a Denver loss to Kansas City. The Bengals finished the season 9-7 and claimed the AFC's No. 6 playoff seed. The Ravens, who finished 12-4, claimed the AFC North title and the No. 2 seed.

2011 SEASON

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Houston Texans 31, Cincinnati Bengals 10 Saturday, Jan. 7, 2012 at Reliant Stadium

The visiting Bengals set the tone early with a one-yard Cedric Benson TD, a Mike Nugent FG and a strong defensive first half. But big plays would prove to be the difference in the game, and Houston had plenty. With 52 seconds left in the first half, Texans DE J.J. Watt intercepted an Andy Dalton pass and returned it 29 yards for a TD, stirring an already-raucous Reliant Stadium crowd. Trailing 17-10 entering the second half, the Bengals briefly kept the game close, but the Texans pulled ahead 24-10 when WR Andre Johnson scored on a 40-yard reception with 1:08 left in the third quarter. With 5:15 left in the contest, Texans RB Arian Foster, who had a game-high 152 rushing yards, ran 42 yards down the right sideline for a TD that completed the scoring. Bengals QB and Houston area native Andy Dalton passed 27-for-42 for 257 yards, but had three INTs. Houston advanced to the divisional round of the playoffs with the win, but lost to the Baltimore Ravens in that game, 20-13.

PLAYER HISTORY

To be eligible for the all-time roster, a player must have been in uniform for at least one regular-season or postseason game, or spent a minimum of four games on the roster (including inactive status). A player who qualifies at any point under these guidelines also will be credited for seasons in which he was on a reserve list but did not play or dress for a game. Players who spend time on a reserve list but have never played or dressed for a game do not qualify for the all-time roster. The Practice Squad does not qualify.

This all-time uniform numbers list is organized in

This all-time uniform numbers list is organized in chronological order for each number. Generally, this list credits a player for having ownership of a uniform number for an entire season, even if he was with the team for only part of that season. However, game-by-game breakdowns within seasons are provided if (1) a player changed his uniform number during a season, or (2) more than one player wore the same number in the same season.

one player wore the same number in the same season.

Numbers in parentheses behind players' names denote other uniform numbers worn by those players during their careers with the Bengals.

* NOTE: Time of possession became an official statistic in 1977. However, the game clock at Cincinnati's Oct. 23 game vs. Denver failed, thus no time of possession was documented for that contest. Without that information, it is impossible to determine the correct time of possession averages for both Cincinnati and Denver that season. The Bengals' averages listed above include only their remaining 13 games of '77, and thus are considered incomplete and unofficial.

Two-point conversions: (NA*).

NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994.

NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

** NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994.

<sup>**</sup> NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994.

<sup>**</sup> NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994.

NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994

NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special leams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

HALL OF FAME HISTORY

ANTHONY MUNOZ

The Bengals' Anthony Munoz, who defined the art of playing offensive tackle in the National Football League, was inducted on Aug. 1, 1998 to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. It was the first year of Hall eligibility for Munoz, whose final NFL season was 1992 with the Bengals. There currently are 273 Hall of Famers, and Munoz is one of only 71 players selected in their first year of eligibility.

Munoz was a consensus All-American at the University of Southern California, and the Bengals claimed him with the third overall pick in the 1980 draft, despite the fact some teams considered him damaged goods due to past knee surgery. The move turned out as the best draft gamble in franchise history, as Munoz went on to play 13 Bengals seasons (1980-92),including 11 seasons (1981-91) in which he was chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game. At the time of his retirement (1992), that was the most selections of any player in NFL history. He also earned All-Pro honors (full NFL) every season from 1981-91.

"Anthony's induction was very gratifying to our organization and to all of our fans," said Mike Brown, Bengals president. "It was particularly so because the selectors recognized Anthony as a truly special player and person who deserved election on his first try. During his playing days, no one in the NFL was better. It's justifiable to consider him as the best offensive lineman ever, and he has conducted his personal and family life in a way that is a great credit to the Bengals and the NFL."

Munoz's off-field efforts earned him the NFL's prestigious Man of the Year Award in 1991.

Munoz was a consensus All-American at the University of Southern California, and the Bengals claimed him with the third overall pick in the 1980 draft, despite the fact some teams considered him damaged goods due to past knee surgery. The move turned out as the best draft gamble in franchise history, as Munoz went on to play 13 Bengals seasons (1980-92), including 11 seasons (1981-91) in which he was chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game. At the time of his retirement (1992), that was the most selections of any player in NFL history. He earned All-Pro honors every season from 1981-91.

Munoz played for the Bengals in both of their Super Bowl appearances, as a second-year player in Super Bowl XVII and a ninth-year vet in Super Bowl XXIII.

In 1994, he was one of three offensive tackles named to the NFL's official 75th Anniversary Team. He joined his fellow tackles from that 75th Anniversary Team — Forrest Gregg and Roosevelt Brown — in the Hall of Fame.

Munoz's exceptional agility and athleticism is reflected by his entry line in the Bengals' all-time pass receiving statistics. He caught seven passes, playing as a tackle-eligible, and four of those catches were for touchdowns.

In six of his 13 Bengals seasons, Munoz earned at least one major award as

NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year. One award citation, issued by NFL Alumni, reads: "The NFL has three levels of offensive linemen. The bottom rung is for players aspiring to make the Pro Bowl. The next step is for those who have earned all-star status. Then there's Anthony Munoz. He's alone at the top, a sure Hall of Famer."

Though there are other Hall of Fame members with some Hispanic ancestry, Munoz is considered the first player of primarily Hispanic background to enter the Hall. Munoz was born in Ontario, Calif. His parents also are native Californians, and his grandparents were born in Chihuahua, Mexico.

OTHER PLAYER/COACH CONNECTIONS

Munoz is the only player who performed primarily for the Bengals to gain entry to the Hall.

One other Hall of Fame player, wide receiver Charlie Joiner, was a Bengal from 1972-75, but he played the majority of his career with San Diego. He was inducted in 1996.

Paul Brown, founder and first head coach of the Bengals and the Cleveland Browns, is in the Hall, but he was inducted in 1967, before the Bengals' first season.

Three other Hall of Famers also spent time as Bengals coaches. Bill Walsh, inducted for his success as head coach of the San Francisco 49ers, was a Bengals assistant under Paul Brown from 1968-75. He was inducted in 1993. Forrest Gregg, Bengals head coach from 1980-83, was inducted in 1977, based on his playing career as an offensive tackle, primarily with Green Bay. And Dick LeBeau, a Bengals coach for 19 seasons, was inducted in 2010 for his exploits as a cornerback for the Detroit Lions. LeBeau was Bengals head coach for the last 13 games of 2000, as well as 2001-02. LeBeau was a Cincinnati assistant coach from 1980-91 and from 1997 through the first three games of 2000.

More on Paul Brown: Brown was not only the founder and first coach of both the Bengals and the Browns, but he was one of the great innovators in pro football history.

"Whether they know it or not, nearly everyone in football has been affected by Paul Brown," former NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle said in 1991. "His wealth of ideas changed the game."

Elected in 1967 to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Brown also was founder and first coach of the Cleveland Browns, whom he guided to seven league championships in their first 12 seasons. He posted a .665 winning percentage over 25 years of pro coaching (222-112-9, including playoffs). Earlier in his career, he created an Ohio dynasty at Massillon High School and coached Ohio State University to a national championship (1942).

Brown pioneered coaching as a year-round profession, invented the draw play, introduced the use of face masks on helmets, initiated film study and classroom instruction of players, and was the first coach to call plays from the sidelines. He also broke the color barrier in modern American pro sports, as his Cleveland team featured black stars Marion Motley and Bill Willis in 1946, a year before Jackie Robinson's debut in Major League Baseball.

Born in Norwalk, Ohio, and reared in Massillon, Ohio, Brown was Bengals coach and general manager from 1968-75. He stepped down as coach following an 11-3 season in 1975, and continued in the GM's role until his death at age 82 on Aug. 5, 1991.

STADIUM HISTORY

PAUL BROWN STADIUM — 2000-PRESENT

Paul Brown Stadium. home of the Bengals on Cincinnati's downtown riverfront, plays host to its 13th NFL season in 2012. PBS, as it's known for short, opened in 2000. The first game an Aug. preseason contest vs.

Chicago, a 24-20 Bengals win. The first regular-season game was a 24-7 loss to Cleveland on Sept. 10.

Named for the NFL legend who was Bengals founder, chief executive and first head coach, the stadium has won numerous honors and has helped keep Cincinnati in the national sports spotlight. Over the last six seasons (2006-11), PBS has hosted eight nationally televised prime-time Bengals games, and at least one game is assured in 2012.

From 2003-10 at PBS, the Bengals sold out a franchise-record 57 consecutive home games (regular and postseason).

The stadium features a sleek design and blends seamlessly with the city, open to views of downtown to the north and the Ohio River to the south.

National recognition for PBS has come in various modes. In 2007,

PBS was the only football stadium to make a Harris Interactive list of "America's favorite 150 buildings and structures." PBS ranked 101st on a list whose range included all manner of major structures — skyscrapers, museums, churches, hotels, bridges, national memorials and more. No other football stadium was voted among the top 150, and among all sports venues, only two historic baseball parks — Wrigley Field and the old Yankee Stadium — ranked higher than PBS

In 2002, in an industry rarity, the stadium was singled out by both of the nation's premier architecture magazines, Architectural Record and Architecture. The two stories came on the heels of PBS receiving the 2001 Merit Award from the American Institute of Architects (California Council). It marked the first time an NFL stadium received the award from the prestigious AIA.

And in May of 1998, well before its completion, studies of the stadium's design led to it being among 15 winners from a field of more than 300 projects for an American Architecture Award.

The stadium includes 132 suites and 7600 club seats.

Additional facts and figures on PBS:

SEATING CAPACITY: 65,515.

DIMENSIONS: The stadium site covers approximately 22 acres, and Paul Brown Stadium itself reaches a height of 157 feet.

PLAYING SURFACE: Synthetic surface by UBU Sports (Speed S5M turf system, installed in 2012).

RIVERFRONT STADIUM/CINERGY FIELD 1970-99

(Stadium was called Riverfront Stadium from 1970-95 and was renamed Cinergy Field in '96.)

Like PBS, Riverfront Stadium was located in downtown Cincinnati, on the bank of the Ohio River. Its site was just less than a quarter-mile east of where PBS lies. It was renamed Cinergy Field in 1996.

Housing the Bengals and baseball's Cincinnati Reds, Riverfront/Cinergy was one of a number of circular, dual-sport facilities built in the U.S. in the '60s and early '70s. Seating capacity was 60,398 in the stadium's full football configuration and 56,759 during shared periods with baseball.

Riverfront hosted the most celebrated victory in Bengals history, the 1981 season AFC Championship game known as the "Freezer Bowl." The Bengals defeated San Diego 27-7 on a day with the lowest wind chill (minus-59 degrees) and second-coldest temperature reading (minus-9) in NFL history.

The Bengals won their second AFC title at Riverfront in 1988, defeating Buffalo.

The longest Bengals sellout streak at Riverfront was 43 games, from the 1988 season opener through the 1992 home finale.

The Reds continued playing in Cinergy Field for two seasons (2001-02) after the Bengals departed for PBS, and Cinergy was imploded in December of 2002 to make room for new riverfront development.

NIPPERT STADIUM

The Bengals played their first two seasons in Nippert Stadium on the University of Cincinnati campus. Its seating capacity then was 31,301.

The Nippert site hosting UC began games in 1902, and it remains the home of the Bearcats today, expanded and upgraded in recent years. It is the fourth-oldest playing site still in use in college football.

The stadium began in 1902 as Carson Field, named after Arch Carson, who played a significant role in starting football on the UC campus in 1885. Fans watched from wooden bleachers constructed on the hillside adjacent to the field.

Construction began in 1916 on a permanent brick-and-mortar stadium, and the structure was completed in 1924. The stadium was named after Jimmy Nippert, a UC player who died in 1923 of while still in college. His grandfather, James N. Gamble of Procter and Gamble, provided the funds necessary to complete construction.

The Bengals reached the playoffs in just the franchise's third season by winning the AFC Central Division title with an 8-6 regular-season record.
- FIRST PLAYOFF VICTORY: On Jan. 3, 1982, the Bengals defeated the Buffalo Bills, 28-21, at Riverfront Stadium in Cincinnati in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game. A week later, the Bengals beat San Diego in the AFC Championship Game to earn a trip to Super Bowl XVI.

Munoz made Pro Bowl history: Former Bengals OT Anthony Munoz was selected to play in 11 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl games, the most by any Cincinnati player by a margin of five. WR Chad Ochocinco and CB Lemar Parrish are tied for second with six each.

At the time of his retirement (1992), Munoz's total of 11 was the most selections of any player in NFL history. Twenty years later, Munoz is tied for ninth in most Pro Bowl selections all time. The leader is former Houston Oilers and Tennessee Titans OL Bruce Matthews, with 14.

Hold that line: Over Games 5-12 of the 2009 season, the Bengals set a franchise record by holding eight straight opponents under the 100-yard mark in rushing. Prior to 2009, the franchise record for consecutive games in this category was six, and that spanned two seasons (1981-82). The previous record for one season was five straight games, set in 1983.

Sellout streaks: The Bengals sold out 57 consecutive home games (regular and postseason) from Nov. 16, 2003 through Nov. 8, 2010. That Paul Brown Stadium run stands as the longest in club history, topping a 43-game streak accomplished at Riverfront Stadium between 1988 and '92.

Bengals boast winning mark in overtime: The Bengals are 15-11-1 in regular-season overtime games, for a winning percentage of .574.

Overtime was put in place for regular-season games in 1974. The Bengals have not played an overtime game in postseason. Cincinnati's last overtime game was a 23-20 victory at Cleveland in 2009, breaking a four-game OT winless streak. In their previous four OT games, the Bengals had lost three and tied one

Their 13-13 tie in 2008 vs. Philadelphia was the NFL's first deadlocked game since 2002, and there have been no others in the NFL since.

Record on the road: From the 2008 road finale at Cleveland through Nov. 15, 2009, the Bengals set a franchise record by compiling five consecutive road wins. In starting 4-0 on the road in 2009, the Bengals tied the club record for consecutive road wins within a season. The four-game streak put them on equal footing with some of the best clubs in team annals.

Other Bengals clubs that won four straight on the road in the same season have been:

- The 1975 team, which finished 11-3, for the best regular-season winning percentage (.786) in franchise history.
- The 1981 club, which finished 12-4 and reached Cincinnati's first Super Bowl.
- The 2005 team, which went 11-5 and claimed the AFC North championship.

Passing fancy: Boomer Esiason passed for more than 300 yards in a game a team-record 23 times during his Bengals career (1984-92, 1997).

Ken Anderson (a Bengal from 1971-86) ranks second in 300-yard passing games with 19, followed by Carson Palmer (2003-10) with 17 and Jeff Blake (1994-99) with eight.

The longest victory: The Bengals' 23-20 win at Cleveland Oct. 4, 2009 was the longest game the Bengals ever won. Four seconds remained in the overtime period when K Shayne Graham booted a 31-yard field goal to break a 20-all tie.

The previous longest Bengals win was 34-31 in a road game against the Los Angeles Rams on Oct. 7, 1990. Jim Breech's 44-yard field goal ended that game with 3:04 remaining in overtime. The longest Bengals loss came on Sept. 23, 1979 against the Houston Oilers at Riverfront Stadium. The Oilers won 30-27 on a 29-yard Toni Fritsch field goal with 0:32 left in the extra period.

The only 75-minute game in Bengals history was a 13-13 tie with Philadelphia on Nov. 16, 2008. The only other tie in team history — a 31-31 deadlock in 1969 at Houston — took place before overtime was instituted in the regular season.

Bengals double-digit club: Twenty-five players share the distinction of having played 10 or more seasons for the Bengals:

The name game: The most common last name among players on the Bengals' all-time roster is Johnson. Twenty-two players named Johnson are on the roster (not including Chad Johnson, who changed his last name to Ochocinco).

Smith is second with 15, Williams third with 13, and Jones fourth with 12.

The Bengals' all-time roster has more last names start with the letter B than any other letter — a total of 89. The letter S is second with 85 names.

The only letter without a player on the team's all-time roster is X.

Fond farewell: The Bengals played their final game at Cinergy Field (previously known as Riverfront Stadium) on Dec. 12, 1999, and they made the finale a memorable one.

Before a sellout crowd of 59,972, the Bengals defeated Cleveland, 44-28, as the Cincinnati defense set a team record by allowing only 11 net rushing yards (11 carries). The Browns' longest rush of the day was three yards. The previous low by a Bengals opponent had been 22 yards by Houston on Dec. 23, 1990.

Offensively, the last game at Cinergy saw the Bengals roll for 279 rushing yards (on 53 carries) — at the time the second-most rushing yards in team history and the most ever in a home game (now the fourth-best in club history and the third-highest figure for a home game).

10 wins, no playoffs: The best Bengals team to miss out on postseason play was coach Bill Johnson's 1976 club, which went 10-4 but lost a tiebreaker to Pittsburgh for the AFC Central title.

Only one Wild Card team made the playoffs from each conference at that time, and it went to 11-3 New England, who lost an AFC East division tiebreaker.

One other Bengals team — the 1986 club — won 10 games (10-6) and failed to make the playoffs.

100 x 3 = team first: The Bengals' 27-10 win over Oakland on Dec. 10, 2006 at Paul Brown Stadium was the team's only game ever with a 100-yard rusher (Rudi Johnson, 117 yards) and two 100-yard receivers (T.J. Houshmandzadeh, 118; Chad Ochocinco, 101).

Big crowds at PBS: The Bengals' 10 largest home crowds in franchise history have all come since 2005:

AT	TENDANCE	DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT

Talent isn't everything: The 1989 Bengals were a talented team, but never could put it all together on a weekly basis. They outscored opponents 404-285, but finished only 8-8.

Not since the 1950 Philadelphia Eagles had a break-even team outscored its foes by such a large point margin (7.4) per game.

That's no misprint: In Games 3 and 4 of the 2009 season, the Bengals won vs. Pittsburgh and at Cleveland by the same score — 23-20 — and yes, that was unusual.

It marked the only time in franchise history for the team to win consecutive games (or lose consecutive games) by the same score in the same season.

In the beginning: The Bengals' inaugural season was 1968, when they began play in the American Football League (which merged with the NFL in 1970). The first-ever Bengals game was a preseason matchup vs. Kansas City on Aug. 3, 1968 at the University of Cincinnati's Nippert Stadium.

That first Bengals team had a seven-man coaching staff (in contrast to the 2012 club's 18-man staff). Head coach Paul Brown was joined by Bill Johnson (offensive line coach), Rick Forzano (offensive backfield), Jack Donaldson (defensive line), Tom Bass (defensive backfield), Bill Walsh (offensive ends) and Frank Smouse (linebackers).

The first player acquired by the Bengals was quarterback John Stofa, obtained from the Miami Dolphins in a trade for two draft choices. The Bengals' first draft choice was center Bob Johnson, from the University of Tennessee.

A rare runner: The only Bengals quarterback ever to rush for 100 yards in a game was Virgil Carter, who gained 110 on nine carries against Cleveland on Nov. 15, 1970.

The game was the first Bengals-Browns match in Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field), and marked Cincinnati's first victory (14-10) over its Ohio rival.

Long distance leaders: Chris Bahr and Doug Pelfrey are the only Bengals kickers to convert two field goals of 50 or more yards in the same game. Bahr booted field goals of 55 and 52 yards vs. Houston on September 23, 1979. Pelfrey connected from 53 and 50 yards at Houston on October 24, 1993.

Get the point? Only three times in the Bengals' first 44 seasons has a non-kicker led the team in scoring.

In 1979, FB Pete Johnson was the team's leading scorer with 90 points (15 TDs). FB Ickey Woods led the 1988 Bengals with 90 points (15 TDs). And in 2001, HB Corey Dillon scored a team-high 78 points (13 TDs).

A special explosion: The Bengals record for most points in a game by the special teams is 31, from a 43-14 victory at Buffalo on Nov. 8, 1970.

CB Lemar Parrish scored two special teams TDs, one on a 95-yard kickoff return and another on an 83-yard return of a blocked field goal attempt. K Horst Muhlmann added 15 points on five field goals, and four PATs by Muhlmann completed the special teams onslaught.

The offense scored only one TD, on a one-yard run by RB Jess Phillips. The defense scored a TD on an eight-yard fumble return by DE Royce Berry.

Perfection at home: The Bengals have gone undefeated (and untied) at home during the regular season three times in team history:

- 8-0 in the Super Bowl season of 1988
- 7-0 in the 1973 playoff season
- 4-0 in the strike-shortened 1982 campaign

Bengals QBs as league MVPS: Two Bengals, both quarterbacks from the club's Super Bowl teams, have been named by nationwide panels of media as winners of the Associated Press NFL Most Valuable Player Award.

Ken Anderson was the winner in 1981, leading the NFL with a 98.4 passer rating. He completed 300 of 479 passes (62.6%) for 3754 yards, with a then-club record 29 TD passes against 10 interceptions.

Boomer Esiason was the 1988 winner, leading the league with a 97.4 rating and tying for the AFC lead in TDs with 28. He completed 223 of 388 passes (57.5%) for 3572 yards, with 14 interceptions.

Both QBs led their teams to 12-4 records in the regular season.

Double whammy: Twice in Bengals history, two Cincinnati players have broken the 100-yard rushing mark in the same game.

On Oct. 29, 1972, in a 30-7 win vs. Houston, RB Doug Dressler gained 110 yards and HB Essex Johnson ran for 103 yards. On Dec. 7, 1986, in a 31-7 victory at New England, HB James Brooks rushed for 163 yards and FB Stanley Wilson gained 120 yards.

Worst to first: Four times in their history, the Bengals have finished first in their division after finishing in last place the season before. The Bengals followed a cellar season with a division title in 1970, '81, '88 and '90.

Record crowd: The official attendance figure of 87,786 for Cincinnati's 17-10 win on Nov. 14, 2004 at FedExField in Washington was the largest ever for a Bengals regular-season game.

The record for all Bengals games remains 92,045, recorded at the Los Angeles Coliseum for the 1990 season Divisional Playoff game against the Los Angeles Raiders on Jan. 13, 1991.

High-scoring affairs: The two highest-scoring games (combined point totals of both teams) in Bengals history have both come against the Cleveland Browns.

The five highest-scoring games in franchise history:

TOTAL POINTS	DATE AND OPPONENT	RESULT

2. 96	Sept. 16, 2007 at Cleveland	L, 45-51

The longest shots: The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster for a regular-season game was K-P Dave Green of Ohio University.

Green was the 418th selection in the 1972 draft, taken in the 17th round. He didn't make the roster in 1972, and had a brief stint (no games played) with Houston in '73 before being re-acquired by Cincinnati. Green played for the Bengals from 1974-75, scoring 70 points and averaging 40.1 yards on 134 punts. He was acquired by Tampa Bay in 1976, and stayed in the NFL through '79.

The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster in the same season of his selection was LB Larry Ely of Iowa. Ely was the 397th selection in 1970, a 16th-round pick. He played for Cincinnati in 1970 and '71.

Riley reigns supreme: In the Bengals record book, the most dominant lead in a major career category belongs to CB Ken Riley. His 65 interceptions nearly double the total (33) of second-place CB Louis Breeden.

Bengals tap the Buckeye pipeline: Ohio State is the top supplier of college talent to the Bengals, with 25 former Buckeyes having qualified for the team's official all-time roster.

Notable former Buckeye Bengals include former Pro Bowl FB Pete Johnson (1977-83), the No. 4 rusher in Bengals history, as well as RB Archie Griffin (1976-83), CB Ray Griffin (1978-84), OT Rufus Mayes (1970-78) and DT Dan Wilkinson (1994-97).

Florida is second with 18 Bengals alumni, followed by Michigan and West Virginia at 16. The University of Cincinnati and Penn State are tied for fifth place with 15 each.

Parrish hits paydirt: The only Bengals player ever to score two touchdowns in a game on returns and/or recoveries is Lemar Parrish — and he did it three times.

Parrish, a Bengals cornerback and kick returner from 1970-77, scored two TDs on Nov. 8, 1970 at Buffalo (95-yard kickoff return and 83-yard return of a blocked FG attempt); on Dec. 17, 1972 at Houston (25-yard interception return and 33-yard interception return); and on Oct. 6, 1974 vs. Washington (90-yard punt return and 47-yard fumble return).

Go long ... real long: The Bengals record book shows two pass plays of 90 or more yards:

- QB Ken Anderson hooked up with WR Billy Brooks for a team-record 94yarder for a touchdown Nov. 13, 1977 at Minnesota.
- QB Virgil Carter connected with WR Speedy Thomas for a 90-yard TD strike on Sept. 19, 1971 vs. Philadelphia at Riverfront Stadium.

This record holds the record: The oldest season record in Bengals history — and the only one still standing from the Nippert Stadium years — is QB Greg Cook's average of 9.41 yards gained per passing attempt in 1969. The only other average of more than nine yards was 9.21 by QB Boomer Esiason in 1988.

1000-yard duos ... and a trio: Twelve times in the Bengals' previous 44 years (1968-2011), the team has had both a 1000-yard rusher and a 1000-yard receiver in the same season.

In 2006, for the only time, the Bengals had a 1000-yard rusher and two 1000-yard receivers.

No TDs; no problem: Five times in their history, the Bengals have won without scoring a touchdown:

- On Sept. 24, 1972, K Horst Muhlmann's five FGs (41, 32, 20, 32, 34) fueled a 15-10 victory over Pittsburgh at Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field).
- On Oct. 21, 1984, K Jim Breech kicked four FGs (24, 23, 25, 33) for all the Bengals' points in a 12-9 victory over Cleveland at Riverfront.
- On Nov. 6, 1994, K Doug Pelfrey booted six FGs (36, 44, 36, 47, 28, 26) and LB-DE Alfred Williams scored on a safety as the Bengals posted a 20-17 overtime victory at Seattle.
- On Nov. 11, 2007, K Shayne Graham kicked a team-record seven FGs (34, 19, 22, 35, 35, 21, 33) for all of Cincinnati's points in a 21-7 win at Baltimore.
- On Sept. 19, 2010, K Mike Nugent kicked five FGs (36, 30, 46, 38, 25) for all the Bengals' points in a 15-10 win over Baltimore at Paul Brown Stadium.

Doubling up: Twice in Bengals history, a Cincinnati player has managed 100-plus yards both rushing and receiving on the same day.

HB Essex Johnson was the first, rushing for 121 yards on 21 carries and getting 116 yards on two receptions on Sept. 30, 1973 at San Diego. He stood alone in the category until Dec. 7, 1986, when HB James Brooks burned the Patriots at New England for 163 yards on 18 rushes and 101 yards on six receptions. Cincinnati won both games.

Bengals opponents have managed double 100-yard performances twice, and Cincinnati lost both of those games.

On Nov. 23, 1975, Cleveland HB Greg Pruitt had 121 yards on 17 rushes and 106 yards on seven receptions vs. Cincinnati at Cleveland Stadium. On Sept. 22, 1985, San Diego RB Lionel James became the only NFL player to record dual 100s at Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field). James had 127 yards on 12 rushes and 118 yards on five receptions.

Unpredictable NFL playoff participants: In 2011 — for the 16th consecutive season — five or more NFL teams qualified for the playoffs after not making the postseason the year before. The Bengals were in this category last season, and also in 2005 and '09.

Last year's total was six, including the Bengals. The teams since 1996 to make the playoffs a season after failing to qualify:

P.B. and the hall of fame: Paul Brown, founder of the Cincinnati Bengals, was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967, and numerous other Hall of Fame members played and/or coached under Brown.

The most recent addition to P.B.'s disciples in the Hall of Fame was Bengals tackle Anthony Munoz, considered by many to be the greatest offensive lineman in NFL history. Munoz, a 1998 inductee, played his entire 13-year pro career ('80-92) with the Bengals. Some analysts thought he was too risky a prospect for an early first-round draft selection because he had experienced knee injuries in college. But Brown, as Bengals general manager in 1980, selected Munoz with the No. 3 overall pick.

The 1997 Hall of Fame class included Don Shula, winningest coach in NFL history, who played defensive back in the NFL and was a rookie on Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in '51.

WR Charlie Joiner, who played for the Bengals under Brown from 1972-75, was elected to the Hall of Fame in the '96 class of inductees. Also, 15 other players Brown coached for the Cleveland Browns are in the Hall of Fame. These

PRO FOOTBALL HISTORY IN CINCINNATI

Cincinnati was home to two other football teams in the National Football League prior to the present-day Bengals.

One of the teams, known as the Cincinnati Celts, was a member of the NFL — then known as the American Professional Football Association — in the league's second season in 1921. That team finished with a 1-3-0 record in its only season.

In 1933, the NFL granted the city another franchise, this time called the Cincinnati Reds. They competed in the league for two seasons before folding. The Reds finished with a 3-6-1 record and fourth place in the league's Western Division in 1933. In 1934, they lost their first eight games before suspending operations. The St. Louis Gunners, an independent team, joined the NFL by buying the Cincinnati franchise and went 1-2 the last three weeks of the season.

It was a third team, however — one which was not a member of the NFL — that eventually proved to be the closest link to today's modern-era team.

In 1937, a team called the Cincinnati Bengals was formed as a member of the rival American Football League. It was that team's nickname which was later adopted by today's NFL franchise.

The 1937 Bengals finished with a 2-4-2 record in their first year, but the AFL folded after the season. The Bengals continued as an independent team in 1938, playing three NFL teams that year. They beat the Chicago Bears, 17-13, and the Pittsburgh Pirates, 38-0, and tied the Chicago Cardinals, 7-7.

In 1939, the Bengals joined a new AFL, finishing in second place with a 6-2 record. But again, the league folded after the season.

Once again, in 1940, another new AFL emerged, and again the Bengals joined. They recorded 1-7-0 and 1-5-2 marks in 1940 and '41, respectively. That AFL suffered the fate of the two AFLs before it, folding after the 1941 season as the United States entered World War II. Only this time, the Bengals folded along with it.

Pro football returned to Cincinnati 26 years later in 1967, when Paul Brown headed an ownership group which landed an expansion franchise in the modernera American Football League. Brown, a Pro Football Hall of Famer who founded and coached the Cleveland Browns from 1946-62, picked the name Bengals for the new team "to give it a link with past professional football in Cincinnati."

Hundreds of names were suggested by fans in an effort to name the new Cincinnati team, the most popular being Buckeyes. It was rejected to avoid confusion with the Ohio State Buckeyes.

The Bengals began play in the AFL in 1968. The AFL merged with the NFL in 1970.

NOTE: It is not possible to accurately list all-time postseason possession averages because time of possession was not recorded until 1977. Postseason possession averages after 1977 are listed in the year-by-year breakdowns on the following pages.

<sup>**</sup> NOTE: The Bengals' and their opponents' two-point conversion totals listed here were recorded in 2005 and thereafter. Prior to that season, all of the Bengals' playoff appearances had occurred in years in which the two-point conversion did not exist. The two-point conversion, which existed in the AFL when the Bengals were members in 1968 and '69, was not instituted in the NFL until '94.

**** NOTE: It is not possible to accurately list all-time postseason defensive statistics because the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — were combined through 1987, but separated in '88 and thereafter. Defensive statistics are, however, listed in each of the year-by-year breakdowns on the following pages. All defensive statistics on the following pages are press box statistics produced at the games.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Baltimore Colts 17, Cincinnati Bengals 0 Saturday, Dec. 26, 1970 at Memorial Stadium

In their first season in the NFL after two in the American Football League, the Bengals in their first season in the NFL after two in the American Football League, the Bengals made a furious run to reach the playoffs, winning their last seven games after a 1-6 start and claiming the first AFC Central Division title. But the powerful Colfs, who would go on to defeat Dallas in Super Bowl V, were too much for Cincinnati. Legendary Baltimore QB Johnny Unitas threw TD passes to WRs Roy Jefferson and Ed Hinton in the first and fourth supports and the Politimore defeate some through the acade winds do lighting Cincinnati quarters, and the Baltimore defense came through on a cold, windy day, limiting Cincinnati to 63 yards rushing and 76 passing. Colts rookie RB Norm Bulaich rushed for 116 yards on 25 carries. Jim O'Brien, the Colts Kicker from the University of Cincinnati, kicked a 44-yard FG. O'Brien would wind up making the game-winning FG as time expired in Super Bowl V. Cincinnati's lone scoring attempt, a 50-yard FG try by K Horst Muhlmann, was blocked by LB Ray May

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Miami Dolphins 34, Cincinnati Bengals 16 Sunday, Dec. 23, 1973 at the Orange Bowl

As was the case in their first postseason appearance three years earlier, the Bengals lost in the opening playoff round to the team that would go on to win the Super Bowl. The Bengals had tied Pittsburgh at 10-4 atop the AFC Central Division and won the title by virtue of a better AFC record. Miami took the first step toward a Super Bowl VIII win over Minnesota by outgaining Cincinnati 400-194 in net yards and posting 27 first downs to Cincinnati's 11. Cincinnati trailed only 21-16 at halftime after being down 21-3 midway through the second quarter, but the Dolphins shut out Cincinnati in the second half while getting a seven-yard TD pass from QB Bob Griese to TE Jim Mandich and a pair of FGs from K Garo Yepremian. Miami RB Mercury Morris rushed for 106 yards on 20 carries and FB Larry Csonka had 71 yards on 20 carries. The Bengals did not score an offensive TD. FB Larry Csonka had 71 yards on 20 carries. The Bengals did not score an offensive TD, getting their only TD on a 45-yard INT return by S Neal Craig.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Oakland Raiders 31, Cincinnati Bengals 28 Sunday, Dec. 28, 1975 at Oakland Coliseum

The 1975 Bengals posted the best regular-season winning percentage in franchise history (.786), and they led the NFL in passing yards. But their 11-3 record earned them only a Wild Card spot behind 12-2 Pittsburgh in the AFC Central Division, and they drew a road game at 12-2 Oakland in the first playoff round. QB Ken Stabler, who went on to lead the Raiders to the AFC Championship game for the third straight year, passed for three TDs against Cincinnati. The Bengals closed a 31-14 fourth-quarter deficit to 31-28 with QB Ken Anderson's TD passes of 25 and 14 yards to WRs Charlie Joiner and Isaac Curtis, and Cincinnati had a chance to win after DT Ron Carpenter recovered a Raiders fumble on the Oakland 38 with 4:19 left. But a sack by future Hall-of-Fame LB Ted Hendricks helped the Raiders hold the Bengals without a first down, and after failing on a fourth-down try, the Bengals never regained possession. Stabler completed 17 of 23 attempts for 199 yards, three TDs and just one INT, while the Raiders totaled for 173 yards rushing. Anderson completed 17 of 27 passes for 201 yards, two TDs and no INTs, but was sacked five times.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Cincinnati Bengals 28, Buffalo Bills 21 Sunday, Jan. 3, 1982 at Riverfront Stadium

It took four tries, but the AFC Central Division Champion Bengals finally won a playoff game — their first-ever at home — when they held off a rallying Bills Wild Card team, taking the first step toward Super Bowl XVI. Cincinnati, which failed to produce a postseason win in its first three playoff appearances — in 1970, '73 and '75 — lost leads of 14-0 and 21-14 before eventually winning with what was a solid performance by the entire team. The offense didn't yield a furnover while the defense intercepted two Buffalo passes, and the special teams played soundly the entire game. QB Ken Anderson, who was the NFL's top-rated quarterback and its consensus MVP in the regular season, connected on a 16-yard TD pass to rookie WR Cris Collinsworth with 10:39 remaining in the fourth quarter to break a tie and take a 28-21 lead. The Bills were again poised to tie the game and set up an overtime period after driving 50 yards to the Bengals' 20 with just over three minutes left. But a costly delay-of-game penalty on fourth down led to giving the ball back to Cincinnati, and Buffalo was unable to mount another serious threat. Anderson completed 14 of 21 passes for 192 yards and directed a 305-yard attack, and TE Dan Ross recorded a game-high six receptions for 71 yards. The Bills held Bengals FB Pete Johnson, who had a career-high 1077 rushing yards in the regular season, to just 45 yards on 17 carries. But HB Charles Alexander — Johnson's blocker for the majority of the regular season responded for Cincinnati with a season-high 72 yards, with two TD runs.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

"The Freezer Bowl" Cincinnati Bengals 27, San Diego Chargers 7 Sunday, Jan. 10, 1982 at Riverfront Stadium

This game not only brought the Bengals their first AFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XVI, it was played in conditions that made the 46,302 fans on hand feel like champions themselves. With a frigid temperature of minus-9 degrees, winds gusting from 20 to 35 miles per hour and an incredible wind-chill factor of minus-59, this famous game became known as the "Freezer Bowl." To this day, no NFL game has been played with a wind chill so cold. More than 13,000 ticket holders stayed home, but those who came saw the Bengals dominate their opponents from sunny San Diego. The Bengals first attacked them mentally, as every Cincinnati offensive and defensive lineman — along with FB Pete Johnson — took the psychological initiative to tough the cold and play in short sleeves. The teams were relatively even in yards gained with Cincinnati leading 318-301, but the Bengals won the turnover battle 4-0 with two INTs and two FRs. Chargers QB Dan Fouts struggled more in the arctic atmosphere than Bengals QB Ken Anderson, who completed 14 of 22 passes for 161 yards, two TDs and no INTs. Only one player suffered a weatherrelated injury in the game — Bengals DE Eddie Edwards with a frostbitten right ear.

SUPER BOWL XVI

San Francisco 49ers 26, Cincinnati Bengals 21 Sunday, Jan. 24, 1982 at Pontiac Silverdome (Pontiac, Mich.)

Cincinnati outgained San Francisco by 81 yards (356-275), marking the first time in Super Bowl history the losing team led in scrimmage yardage. Bengals QB Ken Anderson set Super Bowl records (since surpassed) for completions (25) and completion percentage (73.5), and his 300 passing yards nearly doubled the 157 by 49ers OB Joe Montana, the game's MVP. But Cincinnati suffered four turnovers to San Francisco's one, and three of those giveaways led to 17 first-half points for the 49ers, who led 20-0 at intermission. Leading 20-7, San Francisco staged a memorable goal-line stand late in the third quarter, stopping Cincinnati for no gain on three straight plays from the one-yard line. The Bengals still closed the gap to 20-14 with a four-yard TD pass from Anderson to TE Dan Ross with 10:06 left, but the 49ers added FGs of 40 and 23 yards by K Ray Wersching to pull away. Cincinnati crept to within 26-21 with 16 seconds left on a second Anderson-to-Ross TD pass, but San Francisco recovered the Bengals' ensuing onside kick to seal the victory. Wersching's four FGs tied a Super Bowl record (still tied) and Ross' 11 receptions set a Super Bowl record (since tied)

AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

N.Y. Jets 44, Cincinnati Bengals 17 Sunday, Jan. 9, 1983 at Riverfront Stadium

The defending AFC Champion Bengals lost an early 14-3 lead and were dismantled by the underdog Jets. The 7-2 Bengals were the AFC's No. 3 seed in 16-team "Super Bowl Tournament," organized for the strike-shortened regular season. RB Freeman McNeil led No. 6 seed New York, rushing for 202 yards and a TD against Cincinnati's No. 3-ranked rush defense. Cincinnati trailed only 23-17 after three periods, but suffered a particularly demoralizing fourth quarter, which included two INTs (one for a TD), a TD pass nullified by a false start penalty, a missed FG, a lost fumble and two rushing TDs allowed.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Cincinnati Bengals 21, Seattle Seahawks 13 Saturday, Dec. 31, 1988 at Riverfront Stadium

Unbeaten at home in eight regular-season games, the AFC Central Division Champion Bengals ran their Riverfront Stadium mark to 9-0 by rushing for a season-high 254 yards. They scored all three of their TDs in the first half and withstood a 13-point Seattle fourth quarter. The Seahawks pulled to within 21-13 on QB Dave Krieg's one-yard sneak with 6:05 to play, but K Norm Johnson's missed PAT left the visitors štill two scores short, as the two-point conversion would not be added to NFL rules until 1994. The victory earned the Wo-point conversion would not be added to the Littles until 1994. The victory earned the Bengals their first trip to the AFC Championship game since the 1981 season. Bengals rookie FB Ickey Woods rushed for 126 yards on 23 carries, and his one-yard TD run midway through the second quarter gave Cincinnati a 21-0 halftime lead. A pair of three-yard TD runs in the first and second quarters by FB Stanley Wilson opened the Bengals' scoring. Wilson added 45 rushing yards on seven attempts, while HB James Brooks rushed for 72 yards on 13 attempts. Cincinnati's defense held Seattle to just 22 yards rushing the entire game and only 49 total net yards in the first half. The Bengals stayed on the ground to win, getting only seven completions from QB Boomer Esiason, the NFL's toprated quarterback and its consensus MVP in the regular season, and only one reception from WR Eddie Brown, who led the AFC in the regular season with 1273 receiving yards.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

Cincinnati Bengals 21, Buffalo Bills 10 Sunday, Jan. 8, 1989 at Riverfront Stadium

The week before the AFC Championship game was filled with controversy, as Bills head coach Marv Levy convinced the NFL office that Bengals head coach Sam Wyche's no-huddle offense was illegal. Cincinnati had developed and employed the no-huddle attack all season, but shortly before kickoff, the league informed the team that game officials would severely restrict its use. Wyche would eventually prevail in this rule book battle. Nevertheless, his offense, forced to abandon its no-huddle tactics for this contest, returned to basics and led the charge in beating Buffalo for a berth in Super Bowl XXIII. It was Cincinnati's third victory of the year over Buffalo, the Bengals having also downed the Bills in the preseason and regular season. Cincinnati won with a punishing rushing game, running the ball on 50 of 73 offensive plays and gaining 175 of its 249 total yards on the ground. Cincinnati's defense recorded a solid performance, holding the Bills to 181 total yards, including just 53 in the second half. Cincinnati made eight of 16 combined third-down and fourth-down conversions while allowing the Bills a debilitating none of 11. Bengals rookie FB Ickey Woods had his second 100-yard rushing game of the postseason, gaining 102 on 29 carries. The Bengals advanced to the Super Bowl from what was, at the time, the worst previous-season finish (4-11) of any Super Bowl qualifier. Even to the present time, only the 1999 St. Louis Rams (4-12 in '98) have gone farther.

SUPER BOWL XXIII

San Francisco 49ers 20, Cincinnati Bengals 16 Sunday, Jan. 22, 1989 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, Fla.)

NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle termed it the most exciting of the first 23 games in Super Bowl history, and the result regained some respect for the AFC, which had lost the last four contests by an average of more than 27 points. But the dominant emotion of the day still was heartbreak for head coach Sam Wyche's underdog Bengals, who took a 16-13 lead with 3:20 to play on Jim Breech's 40-yard FG before succumbing to a 92-yard, 11-play TD drive led by San Francisco QB Joe Montana. WR John Taylor's game-winning 10-yard TD catch from Montana came with just 34 seconds remaining. Never before had a Super Bowl been won on a TD so late in the game. Cincinnati played without FB Stanley Wilson, who was suspended for a substance abuse violation that occurred the night before the game. In addition, the Bengals played almost the entire contest without All-Pro NT Tim Krumrie, who suffered a severely broken leg early in the first quarter. The teams were tied 3-3 at halftime, tied again at 6-6 late in the third quarter, and then swapped TDs in quick succession. A 93-yard kickoff return by Cincinnati HB Stanford Jennings was countered by a four-play San Francisco TD drive. The third of Breech's three FGs gave Cincinnati its third lead of the day before Montana's final heroics saved the day for the 49ers. San Francisco WR Jerry Rice tied a Super Bowl record with 11 receptions (still tied; originally set by Bengals TE Dan Ross in Super Bowl XVI) for 215 yards and one TD, earning the game's MVP award. Montana completed 23 of 36 passes for 357 yards, two TDs and no INTs. The victory made San Francisco the first NFC team to win three Super Bowls.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Cincinnati Bengals 41, Houston Oilers 14 Sunday, Jan. 6, 1991 at Riverfront Stadium

Having been involved in a feisty regular-season rivalry with Houston for several years, Cincinnati got the chance to tangle with the Oilers in the postseason and responded with the most lopsided playoff win in team history. The Bengals outgained the Oilers by 123 yards (349-226) and set team postseason records for points (still stands) and victory margin (still stands), using a well-balanced offensive attack. Cincinnati's rushing game outgained Houston 187-67, yet no Bengals rusher totaled more than 57 yards. Cincinnati's passing game added another 162 net yards, yet no Bengals receiver had more than two catches. Houston, however, failed to mount a serious threat the entire game. The Bengals led 34-0 before the Oilers scored their first point late in the third quarter. Ironically, it was the Oilers who helped put the Bengals in the playoffs the previous week. Houston beat Pittsburgh 34-14 in its Sunday night regular-season finale, allowing Cincinnati to win the AFC Central Division tiebreaker (the Bengals, Oilers and Steelers all had finished 9-7).

1990 SEASON

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

L.A. Raiders 20, Cincinnati Bengals 10 Sunday, Jan. 13, 1991 at Los Angeles Coliseum

Los Angeles QB Jay Schroeder, who would join the Bengals as a free agent in 1993, threw two TD passes to help the Raiders defeat Cincinnati and advance to the AFC Championship game. Cincinnati scored first on Jim Breech's 27-yard FG in the second quarter, but Schroeder hit WR Mervyn Fernandez with a 13-yard scoring strike to give Los Angeles a 7-3 halftime lead. The Raiders increased their lead to 10-3 on K Jeff Jaeger's 49-yard FG in the third quarter, and put the game away with 10 unanswered fourth-quarter points on a 41-yard Schroeder pass to TE Ethan Horton and a 25-yard Jaeger FG. The Raiders rushed for 235 yards, including 140 on 21 carries by RB Marcus Allen. DE Greg Townsend had three of the Raiders' four sacks. Raiders RB Bo Jackson, a popular two-sport professional athlete who also played Major League Baseball, rushed for 77 yards on six carries. This game, however, is best remembered by many as the contest that ended Jackson's NFL career. He suffered a hip injury on a tackle by Cincinnati LB Kevin Walker in the third quarter and, though the injury was not considered particularly severe at the time, Jackson never fully recovered to play in the NFL again.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Pittsburgh Steelers 31, Cincinnati Bengals 17 Sunday, Jan. 8, 2006 at Paul Brown Stadium

The atmosphere was super-charged at Paul Brown Stadium as the AFC North Champion Bengals made their first postseason appearance in 15 years. But Cincinnati was dealt a devastating blow on its second offensive play, as QB Carson Palmer was lost to a serious knee injury while completing his first NFL postseason pass — a club postseason-record 66 yards to WR Chris Henry. Backup QB Jon Kitna took over for Palmer and helped Cincinnati earn a 17-14 halftime lead, but Pittsburgh owned the second half. The Bengals' offense had just six first downs and 105 net yards in the final two periods and failed to score another point. The Steelers used a botched snap on a Bengals FG attempt and two INTs thrown by Kitna to control the second half and claim the first-ever postseason meeting between the divisional rivals. Pittsburgh, which finished second to the Bengals in the AFC North and entered the playoffs as No. 6-seeded Wild Card, went on to win Super Bowl XL.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

N.Y. Jets 24, Cincinnati Bengals 14 Saturday, Jan. 9, 2010 at Paul Brown Stadium

In a Wild Card Playoff that was relatively even in most statistical categories, the AFC North champion Bengals were minus-two in turnover differential and could not hold an early lead against the visiting Jets. Cincinnati led 7-0 after the first quarter, on an 11-yard TD pass from QB Carson Palmer to WR Laveranues Coles, but New York gained a 14-7 halftime lead with two scores in a span of less than six minutes in the second quarter. Possession for the go-ahead TD drive was gained by the Jets on an INT by Pro Bowl CB Darrelle Revis. The Bengals' second-half comeback efforts were crippled by missed FG attempts of 35 and 28 yards by K Shayne Graham. Bengals HB Cedric Benson scored on a 47-yard run in the fourth quarter, and his 169 rushing yards for the game set a Bengals postseason record. The Jets defeated the San Diego Chargers in their Divisional Playoff the following week to advance to the AFC Championship game, where they lost to the Indianapolis Colts.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Houston Texans 31, Cincinnati Bengals 10 Saturday, Jan. 7, 2012 at Reliant Stadium

The visiting Bengals set the tone early with a one-yard Cedric Benson TD, a Mike Nugent FG and a strong defensive first half. But big plays would prove to be the difference in the game, and Houston had plenty. With 52 seconds left in the first half, Texans DE J.J. in the game, and Houston had plenty. With 52 seconds left in the first half, Texans DE J.J. Watt intercepted an Andy Dalton pass and returned it 29 yards for a TD, stirring an already-raucous Reliant Stadium crowd. Trailing 17-10 entering the second half, the Bengals briefly kept the game close, but the Texans pulled ahead 24-10 when WR Andre Johnson scored on a 40-yard reception with 1:08 left in the third quarter. With 5:15 left in the contest, Texans RB Arian Foster, who had a game-high 152 rushing yards, ran 42 yards down the right sideline for a TD that completed the scoring. Bengals QB and Houston area native Andy Dalton passed 27-for-42 for 257 yards, but had three INTs. Houston advanced to the divisional round of the playoffs with the win, but lost to the Baltimore Ravens in that game, 20-13.
