WILLIAM CLAY FORD

OWNER AND CHAIRMAN

In an age where ownership changes and franchise moves in professional sports have become alarmingly commonplace, William Clay Ford continues to provide the Detroit Lions organization, its fans and the community with unwavering stability and sound leadership.

His commitment to the franchise is imprinted on virtually every aspect of the organization. By combining one of the finest sports and entertainment venues, Ford Field, and a world-class headquarters and training environment with a strong management team, Mr. Ford has given the organization a structure and foundation that will ensure continued stability and competitiveness on and off the field.

The 2009 season signaled the beginning of a new era for Detroit Lions football. Everything from the team management to the logo on the helmet changed with the mindset to improve this franchise and compete for championships. There were considerable changes to the organization starting with Mr. Ford's promotion of Tom Lewand as team president and Martin Mayhew as general manager. Lewand oversees the direction of the organization, including business operations, and Mayhew is responsible for all football matters.

Both set out to find the best coach for this team, and with Mr. Ford's blessing and endorsement, did so when the team hired Jim Schwartz, who had served as defensive coordinator for many successful Tennessee Titans teams, as the Lions' new head coach. The 2009 season also marked the first time in franchise history that the team began the season with a new general manager, new team president and new head coach.

With the vision Mr. Ford set forth, those changes are paying dividends in many ways. In 2011, the Lions returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1999, and they won 10 games for only the eighth time in franchise history and first since 1995. In fact, only two teams in Lions' history have won more than 10 regular-season games (12 in 1991 and 11 in 1962).

That season, Schwartz joined Buddy Parker (1951-53) as the only coaches in team history to improve the team's record in each of their first three seasons leading the Lions.

Team and individual record-breaking performances have generated wins and much excitement over the past two years. On several occasions, the Lions executed late, comeback wins. In 2011, Detroit set new NFL records with four 13+-point comeback wins, three 17+-point comeback wins and back-to-back 20+-point comeback wins. A 24-point comeback at Dallas tied an NFL record for the biggest comeback by a road team. In 2012, three Lions' wins occurred as the team scored go-ahead or game-tying scores in the final minute of the fourth quarter.

Over the past two seasons, Detroit has produced a significant amount of firepower on offense. In 2012, the team set new franchise records for total offense (6,540), passing offense (4,927) and first downs (382). Detroit ranked third overall on offense in the NFL, the highest offensive ranking since 1997. In fact, the club has broken the franchise record for total offense and passing yards in each of the past two seasons, after the Lions tallied 6,337 total yards and 4,814 passing yards in 2011.

In 2011, Detroit set a club record with 474 points scored and followed that up in 2012 with the franchise's sixth-best output with 372 points. Part of that 372-point effort occurred via 17 rushing touchdowns, the most by the team since 1997.

Individually, QB Matthew Stafford has completed two of the greatest seasons for a Lions quarterback in team history, throwing for more than 10,000 yards combined in 2011 and 2012.

In 2011, he set new team records in virtually every passing category. Stafford became the fifth passer in NFL history to eclipse 5,000 yards (5,038), and his 41 passing touchdowns tied for the seventh-most among League single-season leaders. Last year, Stafford threw for 4,967 yards, second in the NFL, and set a new club record with 435 completions. He has eight 300-yard passing games in each of the past two seasons.

All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson set a new NFL mark for receiving yards in 2012 as he broke Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice's single season record (1,848 in 1995) when Johnson registered 1,964 yards and threatened the unprecedented 2,000-yard mark. He had an NFL record eight consecutive 100-yard receiving games and tied the league record with 11 on the season. His 122 receptions in 2012 were the second-highest single-season total in team history.

In 2011, Johnson set a new franchise record for touchdown catches (16), and he accumulated 1,681 yards. He now has two of the three highest single-season outputs for receiving yards in team history.

Two years ago, Johnson became the first player in NFL history to catch two touchdown passes in the season's first four games.

In addition to Stafford and Johnson, TE Brandon Pettigrew has now twice set new team single-season records for Lions tight ends in receptions (71 in 2010 and 83 in 2011) and receiving yards (722 in 2010 and 777 in 2011).

On defense, Pro Bowl DT Ndamukong Suh earned his second trip to Hawaii as he accumulated eight sacks, the second-highest total among defensive tackles in the NFL. In just three seasons, Suh has registered 22 career sacks and is tied for the fifth-most among Lions defensive tackles since 1982.

Over the past five years, the Lions have continued to improve and develop every position on the team. This progress has been forged with tremendous effort from the front office, a coaching staff that excels in game-planning and player development, and players who are combining ability and work ethic to ensure this team is moving in the right direction.

On the football side, Mayhew has re-vamped the team's player personnel and football operations in numerous ways and those efforts have resulted in successful drafts. In that time, Mayhew and the front office have worked diligently to improve the team's roster utilizing every resource from free agency and trades to the League's waiver wire.

Mayhew has worked alongside Schwartz to find players based on their shared philosophy on the types of skills that are necessary to win in the NFL. To guide those players on the field, Schwartz has built a coaching staff that works to maximize those talents and produce game strategies to complement the players' abilities. For Schwartz, he leads with the philosophy that consistency with the coaching staff and the team schemes provides a competitive edge in the team's development.

After the playoff-clinching win vs. San Diego on Christmas Eve in 2011, Schwartz and WR Nate Burleson presented a game ball in the locker room to Mr. Ford for his overwhelming support, dedication and commitment to the team.

"Our goal for this franchise will always be winning the Super Bowl," said Mr. Ford. "Our fans deserve nothing less and we will do everything to achieve that goal. I believe in our players, coaches and front office. I am especially encouraged by this offseason and what we did in both the draft and free agency. We are as well-positioned entering a season as we have been in a long time."

"We have made tangible strides over the past four years, and I expect that progress to continue this season," Ford said. "But the only true satisfaction will be when we raise the Lombardi Trophy and celebrate with our fans."

"The support of our fans, especially at Ford Field, over the past few years has been both exciting and humbling. They have made a real difference at Ford Field and have continually shown over the years to be the most passionate and loyal fans in all of sports. They deserve a championship."

On the business side, Lewand continues to forge ahead with a strategic approach to make sure every element off the field impacts the team on the field. Whether it is through revenue streams generated at Ford Field, effective management of player contracts, improvement of the club's financial processes or building stronger relationships with fans and business partners, Lewand ensures that Mr. Ford's vision to become one of the best franchises in professional sports is being realized.

As it's always been with Mr. Ford, the mission is for the Detroit Lions to win a Super Bowl. Mr. Ford understands that with competitive realities of today's NFL, reaching the game's pinnacle takes a concerted organizational effort both on and off the field. While everyone appreciates the importance of the coaching staff and the front office staff, you also need the proper infrastructure, such as state-of-the-art stadium and practice facilities.

Mr. Ford's commitment was evident in the Lions' return "home" to a new downtown Detroit stadium, Ford Field, in 2002. The $500 million stadium enhanced the Lions' ability to compete in several facets of the game. In this NFL age, the revenues produced from Ford Field help level the economic playing field with the Lions' NFL counterparts.

The Ford Family and Ford Field overwhelmingly factored in Detroit being awarded the right to host Super Bowl XL in February 2006. That championship game clearly added to the city's economic landscape in numerous ways, including a $260 million boost to Metro Detroit.

"We wouldn't be here if it were not for the Ford family, who led the way in developing Ford Field as a catalyst for the redevelopment of downtown Detroit, including the return of the Super Bowl to Detroit," former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue declared in 2006 during his annual state of the league press conference held just prior to Super Bowl XL.

"And the Ford family's leadership has certainly been a big part, not just of the NFL and NFL history, but of Detroit and our nation's history."

Ford Field has been a key cog in shaping further revitalized growth for the city of Detroit. The stadium's effect on the city continues to be comprehensive with its contributions as it hosts several events besides Lions' games.

In May 2003, the Detroit News honored Mr. Ford as a Michiganiaan-of-the-Year, an annual tribute to select citizens who made significant contributions to the state or local community, as he had brought the Lions "back home" with the opening of Ford Field in 2002. In September 2005, he was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame.

Another example of Mr. Ford's commitment was the construction of the team's $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park, Mich., which opened in April 2002 and was hailed as the NFL's premier training center. The joint venture between the Lions and Ford Land Development Corporation has continued to provide state-of-the-art facilities for both the front office and for the players' off-season workouts, training camp, and in-season meetings and practices.

Throughout his tenure as owner, William Clay Ford has guided the Detroit Lions organization with a sense of balance, integrity and honest leadership. Never one to seek the limelight, Mr. Ford has not sought public accolades for his many contributions to football, the automotive industry and his community.

Known as Bill Ford to his friends and business associates, his relationship with the Lions began during his childhood when his father, Edsel Ford, took him to the University of Detroit Stadium to see the first Lions' team play in their maiden season in the Motor City in 1934.

He became a club director in 1956 and was asked by then-Lions' President Edwin J. (Andy) Anderson to become the Lions' president in 1961.

In November 1963, Mr. Ford purchased the team outright for $4.5 million and officially took over the club January 10, 1964.

Of course, Mr. Ford's other passion in life is the automotive industry, he being the only surviving grandson of inventor and auto pioneer Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company.

For the entire Ford family, 2003 marked a year of great pride and celebration as Ford Motor Company commemorated its historic 100 years as an icon in American industry.

In May 2005, Mr. Ford retired from the Board of Directors of Ford Motor Company after nearly 57 years of service. He remains director emeritus on the Board of Directors. Mr. Ford most recently served as a member of the Board of Directors and was on the company's Finance Committee, and in years past served on its Governance Committee. He had been a board member since 1948 and was chairman of the company's Design Committee from its inception in 1957 until his retirement as vice chairman in March 1989.

Utilizing his expertise in design, Mr. Ford was also on special assignment as a design consultant focusing on the Jaguar.

During his career with the company, Mr. Ford gained special satisfaction and acclaim as the executive in charge of the design, development and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, the successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father Edsel in 1939. In 1973, Mr. Ford was appointed vice president-Product Design.

Mr. Ford was elected to the Board of Directors in 1948 and began his employment at Ford following graduation from Yale University. He served several executive positions before appointment as vice president and general manager of the Continental Division in 1954. In 1956, he assumed responsibility for corporate product planning and design.

When the Design Committee of Ford's Policy and Strategy Committee was formed in 1957, Mr. Ford became the committee's first chairman, a post he held until retirement in 1989.

In 1978, Mr. Ford was elected chairman of the Executive Committee and appointed a member of the Office of the Chief Executive. He was elected vice chairman of the Board in 1980 and chairman of the Finance Committee in 1987. He retired as chairman of the Finance Committee in 1995.

The youngest of Edsel's four children, William Clay Ford was born March 14, 1925. Following a tour of duty with the U.S. Naval Air Corp in World War II, he enrolled at Yale, where he lettered in both tennis and soccer at the Ivy League school. As a collegian, he won league tennis titles in singles and doubles, and he earned All-American honorable mention honors in soccer. In fact, he was a nationally-ranked tennis player until two Achilles tendon surgeries relegated him to the sidelines. Mr. Ford's athletic participation today includes golf, a game in which he became nearly a scratch performer, while registering a remarkable seven (7) holes-in-one over the years.

He graduated from Yale with a bachelor's of science degree in economics and then joined Ford's sales and advertising staff. He later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

Mr. Ford also is chairman emeritus of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford. He is an honorary life trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center, is a national trustee for the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of America and honorary chair of the United Way Community Services. He is also on the Texas Heart Institute National Advisory Council. Mr. Ford received an honorary doctor of science degree from the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, Calif., in 1981.

Mr. Ford's generosity as a benefactor was again recognized in 1997, as the outdoor courts of the University of Michigan's new tennis center were named in his honor. Also, a new addition to Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital (which bears the name of Mr. Ford's grandfather) opened in 1996 - The William Clay Ford Center for Athletic Medicine - which is one of the leading sports medicine treatment and research institutions in the country.

He is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio. They are the parents of three daughters—Martha, Sheila and Elizabeth—and a son, William Clay Ford, Jr., who serves as the Lions Vice Chairman, in addition to his role as Executive Chairman of Ford Motor Company.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD, JR.

VICE CHAIRMAN

William Clay Ford, Jr. has made a positive and lasting impact on the Detroit Lions since assuming his post of vice chairman in February 1995. He remains focused not only on creating a winner in the present, but on ensuring success well into the 21st century—both on and off the field.

Ford shares his father's commitment and devotion to the Lions and has a burning passion to win. He wants nothing less than for the Lions to become a premier franchise in the National Football League, and knows that elite status includes delivering a championship to Lions fans.

"Our determination to win a championship for the city of Detroit and all of our fans drives us in everything we do," said Ford. "To win a Super Bowl and celebrate with our fans—the most passionate, loyal and dedicated in all of sports—consumes us."

"Winning is a team effort, and our coaching staff, personnel department and front office work collaboratively toward that goal."

"I am very encouraged by the make-up of our team and what we have done to supplement the roster this off-season," continued Ford. "While we obviously have some of the best young talent in the game in Calvin Johnson, Matthew Stafford and Ndamukong Suh, I believe we made the necessary moves this off-season to surround those players with even more talent. I'm especially encouraged by some of our free agent signings, including Glover Quin and Reggie Bush, both of whom had excellent off-seasons."

"I am genuinely excited for this season," Ford said. "I believe in our team and its ability to compete each and every week. While I am always optimistic entering a new year, I am even more confident this season."

To see Ford's influence off the field, one has to look no further than Ford Field in downtown Detroit and the team's practice facility in Allen Park. Both are considered among the best facilities in all of sports, and were shaped by Ford's resolve for the Lions to be a leader in the NFL.

Ford's dedication and commitment to the fans was never more evident than when he spearheaded the team's stadium negotiations that led to the 1996 decision to build Ford Field. Due largely to his determination and perseverance, the Lions struck a deal with the city of Detroit and Wayne County that established the foundation for the team to return to downtown Detroit in 2002.

Along with moving the Lions to downtown Detroit, Ford has provided a world-class practice facility to complement the team's stadium project. The $36 million Allen Park facility, which opened in April 2002, has been universally praised as one of the best facilities in the NFL. Its state-of-the-art football facilities—including an indoor practice facility with a regulation-size field—provide the ideal training center for NFL players and coaches.

In addition to developing new homes for the team to practice at and play in, Ford played a vital role in Detroit's bid for Super Bowl XL. Through his leadership, the Ford family, the Detroit Lions and Ford Motor Company were integral in Detroit's hosting of Super Bowl XL, which exceeded expectations. Overall, Super Bowl XL generated a $260 million economic impact, including $100 million in downtown improvements, $10 million in emerging businesses, the most in Super Bowl history, and $6 million in the NFL/Boys & Girls Club Youth Education Town, the largest in the country.

Detroit's hosting of Super Bowl XL in February 2006 received extraordinary reviews from the international community, and is perhaps the finest moment in Ford's vision to build a stadium in downtown Detroit.

FAN ENGAGEMENT AND COMMUNITY INVESTMENT

Ford continually pushes for the Lions and Ford Field to improve fan engagement and become an even greater benefit to the community and its economic growth.

According to Ford, nothing impacts the organization more than the game-day stadium experience realized by Lions' fans at every home game.

"Their support and impact on the game has created a home-field advantage that is real and absolutely makes a difference for our football team," Ford said. "We have all seen and experienced how that impact has grown over the years to a point where, in each of the last two seasons, Ford Field was as loud and intimidating as any stadium in the NFL."

"Besides winning, creating a unique and special game-day environment for our fans is critically important. We want our fans to have an impact on the game, and we want them to know they have an impact on the game. They help us win, and that's the best compliment a fan can receive."

In Ford's 18 years in his current role, he has helped the Lions take major steps forward on several fronts. Ford has strongly supported active community outreach programs, which have been recognized as the best of any team in all of professional sports. Several initiatives, such as Detroit Lions Charities, have served Detroit and the state of Michigan.

In September 2012, the Lions began a new community initiative, Living for the City, that has reshaped the club's impact to improve the lives of Detroiters. The team's transformational approach focuses on the belief that healthy families are the backbone of a healthy community, and the Lions have targeted partnerships—with an emphasis on health wellness and development—that have the most potential to support Detroit's resurgence.

"It's critically important that we give back to our city and our region," said Ford. "We must continue to invest in the city of Detroit and its people. It's not an option, it's an obligation, and our Living for the City initiative is a wonderful example of our commitment.

"We are privileged to be in a position to make a positive difference in our community, and we cherish that opportunity."

Community involvement does not stop with the team's community outreach and charitable contributions, as Ford also emphasizes the importance in growing the game of football and the development of youth. The Detroit Lions Youth Football program is one of the most extensive youth sports programs operated by a professional sports team. From numerous youth camps held statewide to coaching clinics, the goal of the program is to impact children's lives on and off the field through the game. Ford believes it is valuable to grow interest in football among youths, to provide instruction in player safety and to assist in the development of youth coaches.

Under Ford's direction, the team has launched one of the most aggressive business operations in all of sports. Elements are derived from both Lions' games and all other events held at Ford Field. Ford ensures that every aspect of the team's business operations ultimately focuses on the impact it has on the Lions' ability to win.

Over the years Ford's leadership has generated several key business initiatives. Allowing fans greater opportunities to attend Lions games has always been a priority for the Ford family, and that includes offering several fan-friendly ticket options that enable a larger number of fans to experience the Lions and the NFL in person.

In 2009 the team introduced comprehensive changes to its brand that include a new, fierce-looking logo and other unique branding elements. That same year the organization revamped Lions merchandise operations with a strong emphasis on improving customer service.

Another area in which Ford emphasizes progressive growth includes digital and social media, which allows the team to connect directly with its fans. Shortly after Ford assumed his role with the club, the Lions became one of the first professional sports teams to launch its own website, Detroitlions.com. Today, the Lions reach and engage with millions of fans through multiple digital platforms and social media outlets.

The team also entered into a partnership with CBS Radio, a relationship it extended in 2009 for the Lions' radio broadcast rights, and started production on weekly radio and television shows that air throughout the season.

In other past roles within the NFL structure, Ford also served on the NFL's Finance Committee and NFL Properties Committee.

FORD FIELD ENTERTAINMENT IMPACT

Besides football, Ford Field hosts some of the nation's largest sports and entertainment events.

It has hosted two of the biggest events in college athletics history. In 2009 Ford Field hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four, a first for downtown Detroit. The event shattered attendance records, provided metro Detroit with a $30 million to $50 million economic boost and provided a number of community outreach initiatives that will have a lasting impact on the city. One of those legacy outreach programs established early learning and literacy centers in the community. Ford Field also had been the host site for the Midwest Regional Finals in March 2008, which broke regional and preliminary round attendance records, with more than 57,000 people attending each session.

In April 2010, the focus was again on Ford Field as Detroit hosted the NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four. Ford Field became the first venue in NCAA history to host the Final Four and the Frozen Four in back-to-back years. The Frozen Four at Ford Field generated record crowds and established a new indoor hockey world attendance record.

Since its opening in 2002, Ford Field has hosted some of the biggest concert events each year and is one of the finest large-scale stadium concert venues in the United States.

OFF THE FIELD

Though football remains a passion for Ford, his father and his family, his top priority continues to be in serving as Ford Motor Company's executive chairman. His current role is a professional and personal commitment, as he leads the company founded by his great-grandfather, American automotive pioneer Henry Ford. A member of the board of directors since 1988, he assumed the role of chairman of the board January 1, 1999. He also served as chief executive officer from October 2001 through September 2006. Additionally, he serves as chairman of the board's Finance Committee and as a member of the Sustainability Committee.

Among his many outside leadership roles, Ford serves on the board of trustees of The Henry Ford, as chairman of the Detroit Economic Club and chairman of the New Michigan Initiative Committee. He is also a member of the board of directors of eBay.

Born in Detroit in 1957, Ford is an avid fly-fisherman and car enthusiast, enjoys playing hockey and tennis, and is a black belt in Tae Kwon Do. In his spare time, Ford competes in pond hockey tournaments, and his team has claimed the USA Hockey Pond Hockey National Championship in past years. He holds a bachelor of arts degree from Princeton University and a master of science degree in management as an Alfred P. Sloan fellow from Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

TOM LEWAND

PRESIDENT

Tom Lewand, who was named team president December 29, 2008, oversees the team's day-to-day operations and reports to Mr. Ford on all business, organizational and NFL matters. Now in his 19th season with the Detroit Lions, fifth as president, he guides the overall direction of the franchise.

Lewand's fundamental principle is to consistently present the Lions as a first-class organization with a clear sense of mission and direction.

Among his responsibilities, Lewand is the chief player contract negotiator and he oversees all day-to-day business operations of both the Detroit Lions and Ford Field entities. This includes the management of finance, football administration, player development, security, equipment operations, medical staff, ticketing, sponsorship and marketing, communications, broadcasting, digital media, human resources, Ford Field operations and administration, acquisition of events and the development of Ford Field's lease space in the stadium's progression as a multi-use facility.

An extremely talented, creative and astute businessman, Lewand has held a myriad of positions and responsibilities during his tenure with the Lions, most recently as executive vice president and chief operating officer.

On a League-wide level, Lewand contributes to several key business and labor initiatives. He serves on the Super Bowl Advisory Committee and the NFL Management Council's Club Executives Committee, and he was on the Committee on Revenue Sharing Qualifiers and Special Committee on League Economics. Lewand represents the organization for all League-level business matters.

Lewand's leadership positions every aspect of the Lions' organization, including Ford Field operations, to significantly impact the Lions' drive for a Super Bowl title. For Lewand, everything from football transactions to Ford Field events influences the team's ability to compete and win.

In January 2009, Lewand and General Manager Martin Mayhew completed an exhaustive and thorough search for a head coach that would lead the team on the field. They completed that process with the hiring of Head Coach Jim Schwartz, who brought the organization an impressive resume in both coaching and players personnel.

Schwartz's philosophy on the game and how to build a successful team, along with his contributions to winning organizations and working under successful coaches, made him the right choice for the Lions new head coach. The hiring of Schwartz has brought stability to the coaching staff and tremendous development on the field as the team continues to move in the right direction.

Over the past four seasons, the team has increased its win total from the previous season three times, and Detroit won 10 games in 2011 to earn a spot in the playoffs for the first time since 1999.

During his tenure with the Lions, Lewand has negotiated player contracts totaling more than $1.4 billion.

Since 2009, Lewand executed some of the NFL's more extensive and complex contract negotiations by re-signing All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson in 2012 to the highest contract ever signed by a receiver in League history and inking QB Matthew Stafford and DT Ndamukong Suh to their contracts.

Johnson was the biggest off-season move for the Lions in 2011 as Lewand negotiated a new eight-year contract that has him signed with the Lions through 2019. Stafford's rookie contract occurred within just a few hours of the 2009 NFL Draft allowing the team to sign the first overall pick prior to the draft. This offseason, Lewand led the negotiations with Stafford to extend his contract through 2017. Suh's contract was the largest by a drafted player who did not play quarterback in NFL history.

Johnson, Stafford and Suh represent three of the young, highly-talented core of players who will help continue to lead the Lions' progress on the field.

Lewand's additional contract highlights include: the Lions' last 21 first-round draft choices, Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders' last NFL contract, the contracts of several Pro Bowl players and recent key free agent acquisitions.

BUILDING THE LIONS BRAND

On the business side, Lewand constantly evaluates and reviews opportunities to grow the team's operations in order for those to impact the team's ability to win on the field. Lewand desires to combine a championship team with unique fan engagement and in-stadium experiences.

One key area of improvement the past three seasons has been the growth in season ticket holders and ticket sales. The Lions have sold out 23 of their last 24 home games, including the past 21. The introduction of numerous fan-friendly and family-oriented ticket options has greatly improved attendance at all Lions games.

When the Lions defeated the Chicago Bears 24-13 on October 1, 2011 during its first Monday Night Football appearance since 2001, the team claimed victory in front of a Ford Field record crowd (67,891) for a Lions home game.

In fact, the Lions have set new season attendance records for Lions games at Ford Field in each of the past two years as the club has attracted over 500,000 during both the 2011 and 2012 seasons. Among the top 12 largest Lions crowds in Ford Field's 11-year history, all 12 have occurred the past two seasons, with seven generated last season. In 2012, the Lions reached a record 510,158 fans at home.

In 2010, attendance to Lions games increased 14-percent. It was the largest increase by any NFC team, and Detroit was one of only two teams in the NFL to experience a double-digit increase in ticket sales.

Lewand not only wants the team to provide the best possible product on the field for the fans, but he also is determined to make the experience affordable and one of the most valuable investments for Lions fans. For season ticket holders, the team offers additional unique interactive opportunities, such as town hall meetings, conference calls, online chats, meet-and-greets with players and special training camp access among others to complement their purchase of season tickets.

Since 2009, the Lions have achieved the NFL's largest growth in both total season ticket holders and percentage of Club Seats sold.

The interest in the Lions has not only increased at the gate but in home viewership as well. Over the past two seasons, Lions games have averaged a local television rating (Detroit market) of 26.6, which is an increase of 37.8-percent over the prior two-year average during the 2009-10 seasons. In 2011, the Lions averaged a local household rating of 27.5—the highest for the team on record since 1998.

During the team's Monday Night Football game October 10, 2011 vs. Chicago, the Lions generated its highest regular season single-game rating ever with a 36.4 household rating.

Over the past two seasons, Detroit has played on national television eight times, including three on MNF, three on Sunday Night Football and twice on Thanksgiving. The Lions' eight nationally televised games tied the most appearances by Detroit on national television during a two-year stretch in the past 43 seasons. In 2012, the Lions played five nationally televised games for just the fourth time in team history, and also had four prime time games for only the second time since 1970.

Seeking opportunities to reach and communicate with more fans, Lewand emphasizes the importance of growing fan interaction through digital media. In the past year, the team has attracted over 7 million combined unique visitors to Detroitlions.com and engaged fans on various social media and mobile app platforms.

Establishing the Lions as a great partner in the community has remained a top priority for Lewand. In September 2012, the Lions launched its new Living for the City philanthropic program that produces transformational efforts that improve the well-being of metro Detroit's underserved communities by focusing on sustainable health and wellness initiatives and community development. Living for the City supports organizations that pursue integrated approaches to physical fitness, healthy eating, housing, land use and environmental planning, public transportation, community infrastructure, and aligned workforce opportunities.

In 2009, Lewand completed two major initiatives that continue to help transform the Lions business operations. The Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that launched changes to the team's logo and uniforms, a new team logotype and font and streamlined branding elements. The evolution of the Lions brand is the most complete and all-encompassing modification in franchise history. The new brand now extends beyond the logo on the helmet and presents a consistent visual identity in new, versatile and distinctive ways.

Additionally that year, the team partnered with MainGate on a 10-year exclusive retail and merchandising agreement. The partnership focuses on providing greater service to Lions fans and consumers, including significant improvements to the organization's retail operations. Headlining the overhaul was the re-vamped team store at Ford Field, now known as "Lions Pro Shop," and the re-launch of the Lions' online store, Detroitlionsstore.com.

FORD FIELD PHENOMENON

Under Lewand's guidance and direction, Ford Field has become the crown jewel of downtown Detroit and serves as a cornerstone in the city's urban renewal and revitalization efforts. The facility opened to rave reviews in 2002, with the publisher of the Detroit Free Press stating that Ford Field "tells [Detroiters] who we are and suggests what we can be. Now it's up to the rest of us to create a downtown and a city that matches the vision Ford Field realizes."

Few venues, considering space, amenities and operations, have the flexibility to host and execute the variety of large-scale events as does Ford Field.

Lewand leads in the procurement of all events at Ford Field, including college football, MHSAA high school football, concerts, motorsports and various trade shows. Few venues in the U.S. host as many football events of all levels as does Ford Field, filling virtually every weekend in the Fall. In any given year, approximately 14 high school, college and NFL games are played at Ford Field from Thanksgiving Day through December.

Lewand and the Lions are currently working with the Big Ten to launch a new college bowl game at Ford Field in 2014.

For the past 11 years, Ford Field has been the home to the Little Caesars Bowl, and for the MAC Football Championship Game for the past nine years as well.

An example of Ford Field's unique capability occurred in 2010 when it hosted the New York Giants and Minnesota Vikings on a re-scheduled Monday Night Game, December 13, a day after the Lions defeated the eventual Super Bowl Champion Green Bay Packers, 10-3, with just less than 20 hours to prepare for the relocated NFL game.

SUPER BOWL XL

Ford Field dazzled in 2006 when the city of Detroit hosted Super Bowl XL. Lewand served as the point person for the Lions and Ford Field on the Host Committee for Super Bowl XL, and he was among the key figures leading the city's hosting of the game and events surrounding Super Bowl XL, which was widely-acclaimed as successful and critical to Detroit's future growth. Super Bowl XL injected a $260 million economic boost to the Metro Detroit region.

OTHER SHINING MOMENTS

Behind Lewand's leadership, Ford Field once again stepped to the forefront in April 2009 as Detroit, for the first time, hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. The championship culminated six years of planning, including Lewand representing the organization in a partnership with the NCAA to present the Final Four in a groundbreaking manner that has set the standard for all future sites.

The event featured a first for the Final Four—a center-stadium configuration that utilized the entire stadium seating structure along with customized risers. Ford Field broke long-standing records, including: attendance for the practice session on Final Four Friday (nearly 30,000), the National Semifinals (72,456) and National Championship game (72,992). Overall, a record 145,378 fans attended the Final Four. By hosting the Final Four, Ford Field was the centerpiece for a weekend that had an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit and the metro area.

Attendance records were not only set inside Ford Field, but the ancillary events, such as Hoops City at the COBO Hall Convention Center that also set attendance records.

All of these events generated a tremendous opportunity for both residents and visitors to enjoy downtown Detroit over a five-day period.

Paced by Lewand's leadership, the organization followed up that tremendous accomplishment with the highly successful hosting of the 2010 Men's Hockey Frozen Four. Like the basketball championship, Ford Field allowed the NCAA to elevate one of its marquee events to even greater heights. For the first time, the 2010 Frozen Four was held in a large-stadium venue with the portable ice configuration set-up used in the NHL's annual Winter Classic. The championship garnered record crowds (34,954 for the National Semifinals and 37,592 for the National Championship) that not only set NCAA Frozen Four records but world indoor hockey records as well.

Ford Field became the first venue to host the Men's Final Four and the Men's Frozen Four in back-to-back years.

In April 2007 Ford Field hosted WWE's Wrestlemania 23 that set a new Ford Field all-events attendance record (80,103) and had a $25 million impact on the Metro Detroit area.

In June 2011, Ford Field hosted the opening round of the 2011 CONCACAF Gold Cup with two soccer matches between Panama and Guadeloupe and the United States and Canada. The opening round match was the first soccer game played by the U.S. Men's National Team played in the Metro Detroit area since the World Cup in 1994, and it drew the largest crowd (28,209) for a U.S. match in the Gold Cup opening round since 2003.

A "LEADER AND BEST"

Lewand possesses a strong educational background, having received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Michigan in 1991, and completing both his Juris Doctor at the University of Michigan Law School and his Master's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan Business School in 1996. Lewand aided the Michigan football program in various capacities on a volunteer basis while attending the school. He also worked for the Lions on a part-time basis while completing work on his graduate degrees.

In 1991, Lewand served as an environmental advisor for the Governor of Indiana, Evan Bayh.

Following a year in that position, he entered graduate school at Michigan. He spent time working for the law firm of Dickinson Wright in Detroit, and the Chicago law firm of Kirkland and Ellis. In the summer of 1993, he worked in the White House in the Counsel's Office for Presidential Personnel.

Lewand's family history is entrenched in the Detroit area community. His father, F. Thomas Lewand, works as an attorney and was both the Chief of Staff for former Governor James Blanchard and the Chairman of the Michigan Democratic Party. His late grandfather, Joseph B. Sullivan, was a judge in the Michigan Court of Appeals and was the deputy mayor of Detroit in the 1960s.

OFF THE FIELD

Lewand is active in the community, acting as Past Chairman of the Detroit Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau and serving on the Boards of Directors of the Detroit Zoological Society, the Downtown Detroit Partnership, the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation and the Parade Company.

In a collaborative effort to reduce and prevent youth sports concussions, Lewand represented the Lions and the organization's work with Michigan legislators, the NFL and various youth sports organizations to pass state laws that have implemented concussion education and awareness programs along with a medical protocol for young athletes to return to action.

Lewand also is on the Corporate Advisory Board for the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business. Lewand was named as one of Crain's Detroit Business "40 Under 40" in 1998, which honored and recognized 40 top business people in the Detroit area under the age of 40. Lewand has also been recognized nationally twice, in 2003 and 2005, by the Sports Business Journal as one of the top "40 Under 40" sports executives in the United States.

He and his wife, Suzanne, have four daughters: Cayleigh, Paige, Shannon and Erin.

MARTIN MAYHEW

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER

Since becoming the Lions Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager, Martin Mayhew has orchestrated a dramatic transformation of a team that in 2011 resulted in the Lions making their first playoff appearance in more than a decade.

With 2013 marking Mayhew's fifth season as the team's executive football decision-maker, he continues to build the Lions roster through a plan that focuses on developing a physically-tough football team with the multi-dimensional players that Head Coach Jim Schwartz covets. Mayhew adamantly believes that smart players with great football character should lead this franchise. Now in his 13th season with the Lions, Mayhew reports directly to Mr. Ford on all football matters.

The process of improving the Lions' success on the field began to take shape in January 2009 with the team's search for a new head coach. Along with President Tom Lewand, Mayhew searched for a coach who shared his philosophies and possessed the following characteristics: strong communication and leadership skills; a track record of success in the NFL; demonstrated ability to overcome adversity; the right mixture of youth and experience; and a coach with enthusiasm and energy for the challenge ahead.

The search concluded with the hiring of Schwartz, who most recently served eight years (2001-08) as the Tennessee Titans defensive coordinator before coming to Detroit. Schwartz is unique because he had tremendous experience as a coordinator and position coach in the NFL, but he also previously worked in player personnel when he began his NFL career. These attributes appealed to Mayhew, and both have worked in concert on free agency and the draft.

Along with the coaching staff, Mayhew reorganized the team's player personnel department. From the start of the 2009 offseason, the team set out to add a personnel executive who was successful in overseeing both pro and college scouting in the NFL. That was accomplished with the hiring of James "Shack" Harris, who now has worked 26 years in scouting, including six seasons as the Jacksonville Jaguars' vice president of player personnel.

Mayhew's improvement of the Lions player personnel operation continued this past January when he added former Denver Broncos general manager Brian Xanders as one of the team's senior personnel executives. Xanders, now in his 20th NFL season, brings experience in a variety of player personnel, football operations and coaching roles gained during his time with the Broncos and Atlanta Falcons organizations. Xanders recently served four seasons as the Broncos general manager, including the 2011 season when Denver won the 2011 NFC West Division title. Since joining the Lions, Xanders has overseen the creation of a new proprietary personnel database and analytical program that is expected to greatly enhance and aid the team's scouting operation and also assist with the college draft.

In his role, Mayhew oversees the player personnel department, including college and pro scouting, and plays an integral role in the coordination of the team's salary cap objectives and negotiation of player contracts. Mayhew and Lewand collectively work on all team matters pertaining to the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement and League policies and procedures.

In addition to his duties, the coordination of all football operations, managed day-to-day by Vice President of Football Operations Cedric Saunders, is under the direction of Mayhew. This includes team travel, training camp operations, security, medical staff, equipment operations, video department and cafeteria staff. Mayhew also works on many of the Lions' football-related legal matters.

In February 2001, Mayhew joined the Lions' front office as senior director of football administration/staff counsel. He was promoted to senior vice president of football administration/legal affairs on February 3, 2003, and on October 14, 2004, he was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager.

ROSTER CONSTRUCTION

Along with free agency and the draft, Mayhew utilizes every resource, including trades and the league's waiver wire process, year-round to improve the team's roster from top to bottom.

Significant change to the team's roster over the past four seasons underscores Mayhew's 24/7 philosophy and approach to improving the team's roster. Only three players remain from the 2008 roster when Mayhew began overseeing its development.

In 2011, Mayhew's approach paid dividends when the Lions won 10 regular-season games for the first time since 1995 and also earned a playoff berth for the first time since 1999. Only twice in the team's previous 78 seasons had a Lions team won more than 10 regular-season games (11 in 1962 and 12 in 1991). It marked only the sixth time the team won 10 games in the regular season.

With each year taking on its own dynamic, Mayhew continues to find areas of improvement as the Lions seek to return to the playoffs in 2013. One example of this was the Lions' selectively aggressive approach to free agency this past offseason to acquire proven veteran talent and improve key areas. On the first day of free agency, Detroit signed RB Reggie Bush, DE Jason Jones and S Glover Quin. Bush provides a dual-threat at running back that gives the Lions' potent offense an additional dynamic weapon out of the backfield. Jones adds size to the team's aggressive pass rush, and Quin is a veteran playmaker in the team's defensive backfield.

Neither free agency nor the draft is ever the finish line for Mayhew as he continues to seek an upgrade in talent by any means to develop and improve the team's roster.

MASTER OF TRADE

When Mayhew first assumed the role of interim general manager in October 2008, he immediately began evaluating and upgrading the roster. Since then, he has completed 24 trades for veteran players and draft picks.

Among the veterans acquired by Mayhew via trade that have contributed to the Lions as starters or improved the team's depth include QB Shaun Hill, CB Chris Houston, G Rob Sims and TE Tony Scheffler. All four have signed contract extensions since joining the club.

Two of Mayhew's trades generated additional first round draft picks in 2009 and 2010. It marked the first time in franchise history that the Lions have made two selections in the first round of the draft in back-to-back seasons.

BUILDING THE CORE

Mayhew understands that the best rosters in the NFL begin with successful drafting each and every year. Since 2009, Mayhew has built this roster around young talent at all positions with several of those players forming the core that will lead this team in 2013.

While each of his personnel decisions will impact the team's performance, it may be Mayhew's very first draft choice as general manager that could have the greatest long-term impact. That selection, QB Matthew Stafford, produced at a level the past two seasons that is unrivaled in the history the franchise.

Stafford had one of the biggest breakout seasons in 2011 when he set franchise passing records for yards (5,038) and touchdowns (41). He led the team to several comeback wins, including an NFL record three wins after trailing by 17+ points, four after trailing by 13+ points and two 20+-point comebacks in back-to-back-weeks. His performance earned him the 2011 AP Comeback Player of the Year award.

In 2012, Stafford continued to pass that ball and move the offense at a record pace. The Lions offense finished third in the NFL and set new franchise records with 6,540 total yards and 4,927 passing yards. Stafford finished second in the NFL with 4,967 passing yards and first with 435 completions.

Despite the fact that he will be entering his fifth NFL season in 2013, Stafford is still just 25-years old heading into the 2013 season.

Along with Stafford, Mayhew's first draft also produced three other starters in TE Brandon Pettigrew, who has set multiple single-season receiving records for Lions tight ends, S Louis Delmas and LB DeAndre Levy.

Mayhew obtained two-time Pro Bowl DT Ndamukong Suh in his second draft in 2010. Suh anchors the defense and will lead a refreshed defensive line. Later in the draft, the Lions drafted T Jason Fox in the fourth round and DE Willie Young in the seventh round, who are both battling for starting positions this season.

In 2011, DT Nick Fairley was taken with the 13th overall pick. Despite battling injuries, Fairley proved that he could disrupt opponents' offenses alongside Suh as he collected 5.5 sacks in 2012.

Last year's first-round draft pick T Riley Reiff saw valuable action throughout the season and is expected to anchor the left tackle spot following the retirement of 12-year veteran Jeff Backus. Second-rounder Ryan Broyles adds value to the offense in the slot, and three cornerbacks, Bill Bentley, Chris Greenwood and Jonté Green are all competing for key spots in the Lions secondary.

STRENGTHENING POSITIONS

Mayhew maximizes his resources in an effort to not only strengthen the team by improving individual talent, but by strengthening each position unit from top to bottom. Instead of just featuring some standout players, this team now moves forward with deep, talented position groups.

Offensively, wide receiver and tight end have become positions of strength and a critical complement to Stafford at quarterback.

Leading the receivers is All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson, who is a three-time Pro Bowl selection. After signing a new eight-year contract in March 2012, Johnson is now entering his seventh year with the club. He combines unparalleled athletic ability and size with an outstanding work ethic that has resulted in him now being considered among the very best players in the game.

While he produced at a high level early in his career, Johnson, the past two seasons, elevated his game to historical proportions.

In 2012, Johnson broke Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice's single-season receiving yards record when he recorded 1,964 yards. No receiver has registered more yards (3,645) over a two-year period. He also set records in 2012 for the most consecutive 100-yard games (8) and tied an NFL record with 11 100-yard games in a season.

In 2011, Johnson set a team record with 16 touchdown catches, and he accumulated 1,681 receiving yards, now the third-most in team history.

For the second year in a row, the NFL Network poll of current players ranked Johnson third-highest overall. He is the only player in the NFL ranked in the Top 3 in each of the past two seasons.

While Johnson leads the receiver group, veteran WR Nate Burleson and second-year WR Ryan Broyles accompany him to give the Lions inside and outside receiving threats. Burleson set a career-high with 73 receptions in 2011, and his veteran leadership continues to positively impact the team in many ways.

Few teams feature a group of talented tight ends who offer multiple dimensions as do the Lions. Fifth-year TE Brandon Pettigrew re-wrote the record books for Lions tight ends in 2010 and 2011, and he continues to move toward threatening the team's career receiving records by tight ends. Along with Pettigrew, TE Tony Scheffler presents matchup challenges for opponents with his size, speed and ability to flex out wide.

Upfront, the Lions have worked diligently to improve the offensive line after the departure of Jeff Backus and two other 2012 starters. C Dominic Raiola is the only starting offensive lineman remaining prior to 2008. Since then, Mayhew has signed free agents G Rob Sims and T Corey Hilliard and drafted players such as T Jason Fox, T Riley Reiff and G Larry Warford to retool the team's offensive line.

With the free agent signing of Bush, the Lions expect to attack opponents with multiple and diverse weapons out of the backfield, utilizing the complimentary skills of running backs Bush, Mikel Leshoure and Joique Bell.

On defense, the team's ability to disrupt opponent offenses starts upfront with the Lions defensive line. Over the past three years, it has led the Lions defense with its ability to attack. Since 2010, the Lions have registered 105 sacks, the most among defensive line units.

The defensive line is led in the middle by Suh and Fairley. Last year, the Lions defensive tackles led all NFL DT groups with 15.5 sacks, 36 negative plays (sacks and losses on rushing plays) and 20.5 tackles for losses on rushing plays.

This year, they will be complemented on the outside with Jones, who was obtained in free agency from Seattle, Young and Ansah.

At linebacker, the team returns two of its three starters with Stephen Tulloch in the middle and DeAndre Levy at one of the outside spots. In 2011, Tulloch had career highs in sacks, interceptions and fumble recoveries in his first season with Detroit, which led to him signing a new five-year contract in the following offseason. The importance of re-signing Tulloch to a long-term deal was not understated by Mayhew as he referred to him as the quarterback on defense. Tulloch's knowledge of the schemes and ability to attack from the linebacker spot gives the team an anchor in the middle.

In the secondary, the Lions are led by Houston at cornerback, who signed a new five-year deal this past offseason. He will be joined by Quin, Delmas and Don Carey at safety, along with Ron Bartell, Bill Bentley, Chris Greenwood, Jonté Green and Darius Slay at cornerback. Bentley, Greenwood and Green are all members of the 2012 draft class and Slay was the Lions second round selection in 2013.

Though the Lions return Pro Bowl LS Don Muhlbach and S John Wendling, one of the best cover specialists in the league, the team enters 2013 with a new kicker and punter, marking the first time since the 1977 season that both positions will have new players. The team signed six-time Pro Bowl K David Akers following the retirement of Jason Hanson, one of the team's all-time greats. Mayhew also drafted rookie P Sam Martin in the fifth round to compete for the new spot at punter.

LEGAL BACKGROUND

Throughout his journey leading up to his current post, Mayhew has always kept an eye toward the future, as evidenced by his strategic exposure to several jobs and internships while earning his law degree from Georgetown's Law Center (2000). He is one of three Lions' front office executives and administrators with law degrees.

During the 1999 NFL season, while attending law school, Mayhew served a nine-month internship in the Washington Redskins' pro personnel department, which exposed him to the responsibilities of an NFL scouting department. While with the Redskins, he scouted NFL players and late NFL cuts and worked the waiver wire and also assisted in the evaluation of college players for the 2000 NFL Draft. Mayhew also had two separate internship stints with the NFL in both the labor operations and legal departments.

In labor operations, Mayhew worked closely with NFL executives on issues involving player contracts and the salary cap. With the legal department, Mayhew assisted the NFL's in-house labor counsel by researching legal issues, digesting cases in preparation for arbitration hearings and drafting legal memoranda related to player injury and non-injury grievances. He also was exposed to corporate law while working for Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, L.L.P. in Washington D.C., one of the NFL's primary firms used as outside counsel. At Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, he researched legal issues, wrote legal documents and assisted firm associates and partners in preparation for litigation.

PRO CAREER

Mayhew played nine years in the NFL as a cornerback for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96). He was the Bills' 10th-round selection in the 1988 NFL draft and was a starter on the Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI championship team.

SEMINOLE STANDOUT

He entered the League after graduating from Florida State with a Bachelor of Science degree in business management. While at FSU, he was a National Merit and Achievement Scholar and earned GTE CoSida Academic All-America honors. He was also a two-sport athlete, lettering on both the Seminoles' football and track teams. Between graduation and the draft, Mayhew was a corporate trainee at First Union National Bank in Charlotte, N.C.

OFF THE FIELD

Throughout his professional career, Mayhew has contributed to several community endeavors both as a player and as an executive. In 1993, while playing for Tampa Bay, Mayhew was given the Chelo Huerta Community Service Award, and the following year he was a nominee for the True Value Hardware Man of the Year. From 1995-96, Mayhew was the Bucs' United Way Spokesperson. Mayhew is a member of the Florida Bar. Additionally, Mayhew is a member of the Board of Trustees for the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village and Board of Directors of Detroit PAL.

For the past five years, he has hosted the Martin Mayhew Youth Football Coaching Academy for approximately 100 coaches from Detroit PAL. The purpose of the camp is to provide additional teaching and training tools for coaches so they can continue having a positive and long-lasting impact on the young lives they touch through youth football.

Mayhew and his wife, Sabrina, have a daughter, Sierra, and two sons, Ryan and Justin.

JIM SCHWARTZ

HEAD COACH

Year with Lions: 5
Years as NFL head Coach: 5
Years in NFL: 20

On January 16, 2009, the day he was named the Detroit Lions new head coach, Jim Schwartz immediately began implementing a methodical approach to his job—one he has maintained ever since.

“When you talk about changing culture, when you talk about improving the team, my mantra has always been and is always going to be a day-to-day approach,” said Schwartz. “Let’s get better today. Let’s not worry about what’s going to happen next week or a month from now. Let’s worry about today. If you take care of today and get better every day, I believe you will achieve your ultimate goals.”

From player development, to coaching schemes and ultimately to performance on the field, Schwartz’s day-to-day process, executed with consistency and determination, has impacted every aspect of this football team.

In 2011, he led the Lions to 10 regular-season wins for the first time since 1995 and clinched a playoff spot for the first time since 1999. He became the eighth coach in franchise history to lead the Lions to the playoffs. Since 1962, only the 1991 squad won more (12) regular-season games than the 2011 Lions.

Supporting Schwartz’s methodical approach is the fact the Lions improved their record in each of Schwartz’s first three seasons and became the first Lions head coach since Buddy Parker (1951-53) to improve the team’s record in each of his first three seasons as head coach.

During his tenure the Lions have generated some of the franchise’s most prolific offensive production, and he has instituted a defense that attacks the passer and works to get the offense back on the field via turnovers and stopping drives.

Schwartz, 47, provides a unique blend of coaching and player personnel experience to the Lions head coaching position. Having spent the past 20 seasons in the NFL—17 years as a coach and three in player personnel—Schwartz has worked his way up from his first job in the NFL as an entry-level football operations and player personnel position with the Cleveland Browns in 1993.

He began his NFL coaching career as a defensive assistant and quality control coach with the Baltimore Ravens in 1996. He advanced to position coach and then had a very successful eight-year stint as defensive coordinator for the Tennessee Titans from 2001-08 before being named the Lions head coach.

Schwartz, now in his fifth season as the Lions head coach, continues to build his team with what he commonly refers to as “multi-dimensional” players. He firmly believes the team’s ability to adapt in all three phases (offense, defense and special teams) and to tailor personnel to particular game strategies produces success.

CONSISTENT COACHING

Critical in the progress made thus far is Schwartz’s insistence on building stability and consistency, and that starts with his coaching staff. This consistency impacts the team development and growth due to the player’s extensive knowledge and familiarity of the schemes.

The 2013 season will mark the first time since 1972, under Head Coach Joe Schmidt, that the Lions will enter a season for the fifth-straight year with the same head coach along with defensive and offensive coordinators.

This consistency is nearly unparalleled in the NFL. The Lions enter the 2013 season as the only team in the NFL led by the same head coach, defensive coordinator and offensive coordinator for the fifth-straight season.

Schwartz understands the importance of his coordinators. Following his hiring in 2009, Schwartz targeted two highly-regarded former head coaches, Gunther Cunningham (assistant head coach/defensive coordinator) and Scott Linehan (offensive coordinator) to assist him in Detroit. Combined, Cunningham and Linehan have 28 years of experience in the NFL as a coordinator or head coach. Since Schwartz added them to his coaching staff, each has implemented philosophies and schemes that not only fit Schwartz’s insistence on adapting to personnel and strategies, but they also have provided sound player development. This past offseason, Schwartz added John Bonamego to his staff to coordinate special teams. Bonamego brings with him 14 years of experience working with special teams in the NFL.

2012 OVERVIEW

While the team got off track in 2012 in terms of its win production, the Lions did show both improvement and consistency in key areas.

Overall, Detroit finished third in the NFL in total offense (408.8 yds/g) and 13th in total defense (223.1 yds/g) in 2012.

It marked the first time since 1997 that the team finished in the Top 10 in total offense and Top 15 in total defense. The Lions’ 6,540 total offensive yards broke the team record for the second consecutive season. By finishing 13th on defense, Detroit finished with its highest defensive ranking since the team was sixth in 1993.

Once again, Detroit’s offense set the pace in 2012 with several team and individual record performances. The offensive unit set team records in the following offensive categories: total yards (6,540), total plays (1,160), attempts (740), completions (445), passing yards (4,927), first downs (382) and passing first downs (272).

Pacing the team’s offense are QB Matthew Stafford and All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson, who continue to approach several of the team’s all-time records. Both are positioned in 2013 to become the franchise's leaders in both career passing and receiving yards.

After throwing for a franchise record 5,038 yards in 2011, Stafford last season finished second in the NFL with 4,967 passing yards, falling just 33 yards shy of becoming the second quarterback in NFL history with back-to-back 5,000-yard seasons.

In 2012, Johnson staked his claim as the NFL's best receiver when he broke the NFL record for receiving yards in a season with 1,964, eclipsing the previous mark of 1,848 yards, held for 17 seasons by Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice.

Johnson also finished one reception shy of tying the team's single-season franchise record when he accumulated 122 catches last year.

Detroit's defense completed the year ranked in the upper-half in the NFL, despite numerous injuries that resulted in the team never starting the same line-up twice all season. The unit most impacted by injuries was the secondary, where 13 different combinations started for the Lions.

Despite the constant line-up changes, 2012 marked the first time since 1993 that the Lions defense finished ranked at least 16th or higher in both rush (16th) and pass (14th) defense.

The Lions finished in the Top 10 in third down defense by allowing a conversion rate of 36.5-percent, 10th best in the NFL. Over that past two years, the Lions' 34.6-percent third down conversion rate allowed is the fifth-lowest two-year total by Detroit in the past 40 years (since 1972) and the lowest over two seasons since 1979.

Johnson, DT Ndamukong Suh and LS Don Muhlbach each earned 2013 Pro Bowl nods. With three Pro Bowl players, it marked the first time since the 2004 season that Detroit had at least three players named to the Pro Bowl. Johnson became the first Lions player to earn a spot in the Pro Bowl three-straight years since RB Barry Sanders completed his run of 10-straight Pro Bowl selections (1990-99).

Suh has now earned Pro Bowl nods in two of his first three seasons, and he is the first Lions defensive linemen to earn two Pro Bowl nods since DT Shaun Rogers (2005-06). He also is the first Lions player to earn Pro Bowl trips in two of his first three NFL seasons since RB Barry Sanders (10, 1989-98).

Long-snapper Muhlbach became the first-ever Lions' specialist who did not kick, punt or return to play special teams in the Pro Bowl.

A COMEBACK SEASON

In many ways, 2011 was "the comeback season" as Schwartz and the Lions repeatedly won games in which they overcame huge deficits, some in historic fashion. Among the Lions' 10 wins, three were 17+-point comebacks, marking the first time in NFL history a team won three games after trailing by such a large margin.

Schwartz's team was also the first in NFL history with four 13+-point comeback wins. In Weeks 3 and 4, the Lions defeated the Minnesota Vikings 26-23 in overtime and the Dallas Cowboys 34-30 to become the first team in history with consecutive 20+-point comeback wins. At Dallas, the 20+-point come-from-behind win tied an NFL record for the largest comeback by a road team.

In fact, the two 20-point comebacks are two of the four biggest regular season comeback wins in team history.

The comeback wins were capped off in Week 15 when the Lions improved their playoff hopes by completing a comeback at Oakland after trailing 27-14 with 7:47 left to play in the fourth quarter.

While the comebacks provided the drama, the highlight of the season undoubtedly was the Lions return to the playoffs for the first time since 1999.

The 2011 Lions also produced some of the largest individual game and season point totals in team history.

For only the second time in team history and first since 1952, the Lions scored at least 45 points in three different games. In Week 2, the 48-3 win over Kansas City was the largest margin of victory in team history. The team's 45 points in a Week 8 win at Denver tied for the most points scored by a Lions team on the road in franchise history. With a 49-point outing that produced a victory over the Carolina Panthers in Week 11, the Lions scored seven offensive touchdowns in a game for only the second time in team history.

Though 2011 may be remembered for the comebacks, Schwartz's Lions also started the season with five consecutive wins, marking the team's first 5-0 start since 1956 and only the third 5-0 start in franchise history (also in 1934). The five wins to start 2011 combined with four wins to end 2010 gave the Lions a nine-game regular-season win streak, the longest by the team since 1953-54.

In the record books, Schwartz's team set a franchise record for points scored (474), total touchdowns (57), total yards (6,337) and net passing yards (4,914). The seven touchdowns (five interceptions, two fumbles) scored via fumble or interception returns tied a franchise record set back in 1937.

Under Schwartz's guidance, no player represented the comeback more in 2011 than QB Matthew Stafford, who became the first Lions player named the AP Comeback Player of the Year. Injuries forced him off the field for most of 2010, but Stafford led the Lions with a historic passing year and one of the finer ones in NFL history. He set team records in completions (421), completion percentage (63.5), passing yards (5,038), touchdowns (41), passer rating (97.2), attempts (663) and 300-yard passing games (8). Among all-time NFL single-season leaders, his 2011 totals are third in attempts, fifth in completions, fifth in passing yards and tied for seventh in passing touchdowns.

In 2011, WR Calvin Johnson was named All-Pro, and was selected as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year. Johnson set a new franchise record with 16 receiving touchdowns and had the second-most receiving yards (1,681) in team history. Johnson caught two touchdowns in each of the first four games and became the first player in NFL history to accomplish that feat.

Offensive records were also set by third-year TE Brandon Pettigrew who set team single-season records by a tight end in receptions (83) and receiving yards (777).

The team's defense continued to improve and become the aggressive defense Schwartz envisions. The unit finished third in the NFL in takeaways (34), first in combined fumble and interception return touchdowns (7), fourth in forced fumbles (17), third in opponent fumble recoveries (13) and fifth in interceptions (21). The Lions' five interceptions returned for touchdowns were also a League-high in 2011.

A key to Schwartz's defensive approach is limiting opportunities, especially on third down. The Lions finished third in third down defense (32.7 pct.) and first in defensive efficiency on third- and fourth-and-1 plays (11-of-29, 37.9 pct.).

The defensive line continued to prove its prowess as one of the best in the NFL. Among defensive lines, the Lions 35 sacks ranked fourth in the NFL. DE Cliff Avril led the team with 11 sacks and became the sixth player since 1982 to register 10+ sacks, while also returning both a fumble and an interception for touchdowns. His seven forced fumbles tied for the League lead in that category.

Combined, the Lions ranked fourth in the NFL with a +11 turnover margin (34 takeaways, 23 giveaways).

SECOND-SEASON IMPROVEMENT

In 2010, Schwartz led one of the most-improved teams in the NFL. The Lions finished the season as the only NFC team, and one of four in the NFL, to end the season on a four-game winning streak. Included in those four wins was a 7-3 victory over the Super Bowl Champion Green Bay Packers. That four-game win streak was the first for the Lions since 1999, and it marked the eighth time in team history the team ended with at least four-straight wins with the last occurring in 1995.

Detroit joined the New York Giants, San Diego Chargers and Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the only teams in the NFL to improve in all three key offensive and defensive League rankings (total, rushing and passing) compared to 2009.

On offense, the Lions scored 100 more points (third-most improved scoring offense), gained 639 more yards (fourth-most improved offense) and passed for 642 more yards (fifth-most improved) in 2010 than they did in 2009.

As the team progressed on offense, so did its efficiency in the Red Zone. The Lions were second in Red Zone Efficiency converting 29 touchdowns in 45 trips (64.4 percent). With 12 more touchdowns than the previous year, Detroit's offense was the third-most improved unit in Red Zone touchdowns, and they scored the third-highest improvement with 82 more points in the Red Zone.

Injuries at quarterback forced the team to start Stafford, Shaun Hill and Drew Stanton in at least three games each in 2010. The team's passers combined for third in the NFL in completions (383) and attempts (633), 12th in gross passing (4,001) and tied for 11th in touchdowns (26). For the first time in team history, three quarterbacks each registered 20-or-more attempts and a passer rating of 90.0 each in two games during the same season. Each quarterback attempted 90 passes on the season and the team combined for a passer rating of 82.0, marking the first time since the 1993 Miami Dolphins that a team had three quarterbacks each attempt 90 passes in a season and finish with an 80.0 passer rating. The quarterback unit also produced 26 touchdown passes and 16 interceptions for a +10 difference, and Detroit became the first team since Philadelphia in 1993 to start three quarterbacks in a season and compile a +10 TD to interception ratio.

Besides the quarterback play, production and improvement was across the board on offense. Johnson was second in the NFL with 12 receiving touchdowns and ninth in receiving yards (1,120). The offensive line allowed only 27 sacks (tied for sixth-lowest in NFL) as the team threw the third-most pass attempts in the League. Their sacks-per-pass ratio (4.09) was the fifth lowest and the third-lowest allowed by a Lions squad since 1960. In just his second season, Brandon Pettigrew set team single-season records for Lions' tight ends with 71 receptions and 722 receiving yards. Pettigrew also finished third among NFL tight ends in receptions. Pettigrew and TE Tony Scheffler combined for the second-most catches (116) among NFL tight end duos. In the backfield, rookie RB Jahvid Best set a team rookie record with 58 receptions, led the team in rushing and became the first NFL rookie to score five touchdowns in their first two games since Lions RB Billy Sims in 1980.

Defensively, the Lions featured the most-improved unit in all of the NFL—the defensive line. The re-built unit featured starters DE Kyle Vanden Bosch (unrestricted free agent acquisition), DE Cliff Avril, DT Corey Williams (acquired by trade), and rookie DT Ndamukong Suh (selected second overall in 2010 NFL Draft). Suh earned Defensive Rookie of the Year and All-Pro honors, and he was voted a starter in the Pro Bowl as a rookie. Though opponents threw the ball less against the Lions than they did in 2009, the Lions picked up 18 more sacks, which accounts for a 3.28 percent increase from the previous season for the ratio of sacks per pass plays.

Of the Lions' 44 sacks, 39 were attributed to the defensive line, 23.5 more than the Lions defensive line accounted in 2009—the most improvement among any defensive line unit in the NFL. The line was also the most-improved unit in the League in regards to sack yardage and the group was responsible for 179 more yards of sack yardage.

On his way to capturing numerous post-season accolades, Suh dominated during his rookie season when he led all rookie and all defensive tackles with 10 sacks, and led all defensive tackles with 66 tackles. He also tacked on an interception and returned a fumble for a score. He set the Lions rookie sack record and became only the second rookie defensive tackle in the NFL to record 10 sacks since sacks became an official stat in 1982.

The team's defense improved overall as a unit as well. In defending the pass, the defense was the most-improved unit in the NFL allowing 751 less yards (46.9 yards per game) than in 2009. It was also the NFL's most-improved unit in points allowed giving up 125 points less (7.8 points per game) than the year before. In total yards allowed, it was the fourth-most improved defense yielding 777 yards less than in 2009.

Among the team's defensive highlights in 2010 occurred in the team's four home wins. The defense allowed just two touchdowns, and it did not yield a touchdown in wins vs. St. Louis (10/10), Green Bay (12/12) and Minnesota (1/2).

The improvement was not only produced on offense and defense, but there was significant progress on the team's special teams units in virtually every aspect. KR Stefan Logan, who earned Pro Bowl alternate honors, was one of those catalysts as the team's kick returner. Detroit had the League's third-best improvement on kickoff returns, gaining 3.5 yards per return more in 2010. Logan finished second in the NFL in total kick return yards (1,810) and was the only player to finish in the Top 5 in both kickoff return average (26.8) and punt return average (12.1). Logan tied a franchise record with a 105-yard kickoff return in the team's win over St. Louis (10/10).

With respect to the cover units, the Lions were much improved in that area as well. The team's kickoff return unit allowed 2.7 yards less per kickoff return last year (fourth-best improvement). S John Wendling, who was also named an alternate to the Pro Bowl as a special teamer, led the entire NFL with 24 special teams tackles.

Schwartz' kicking units also persevered in the season's second half as the team continued to produce despite missing K Jason Hanson for the most extended time of his career. Dave Rayner stepped in and nailed 13-of-16 field goals (81.3 pct.) in the team's final eight games, including his final seven attempts. Rayner was critical in the Lions win at Tampa Bay in December as he became the first kicker in team history to hit a field goal on the final play of regulation and then win the game in overtime on a game-winning kick. During the team's four-game win-streak to end the season, Rayner was 6-of-7 on attempts with his only miss coming on a 55-yard attempt.

Additionally, the across-the-board improvement was shown in the team's ability to secure the football and generate turnovers. In 2010, Detroit registered 29 takeaways and 25 giveaways for a +4 turnover margin and had a difference of +22 in turnover margin when comparing the past two seasons—the biggest improvement in the NFL.

The Lions were the most improved team in giveaways as well, as they gave the ball away 16 less times than they did in 2009. Among the team's giveaways, 16 occurred via interception, an improvement of 16 picks from the year before (32 in 2009). They were the second-most improved club in terms of throwing interceptions and were one of only two teams to throw at least 10 interceptions less than the year before. They accomplished that while starting three different quarterbacks.

TITAN TOUGH

Before his tenure in Detroit began in 2009, Schwartz spent 10 seasons with the Tennessee Titans, including eight (2001-08) as defensive coordinator. While with the Titans, he worked under Head Coach Jeff Fisher, one of the most successful coaches in the NFL, for 16 seasons.

In 2008, Schwartz's defense guided the Titans to an NFL-best 13-3 record and an AFC South title. The Titans' defense ranked in the Top 10 in several key defensive categories, including: defensive points allowed (third, 14.2), total yards allowed (seventh, 293.6), rushing yards allowed (sixth, 93.9), passing yards allowed (second, 161.0), third down percentage allowed (6th, 35.0) and sacks (fifth, 44). Tennessee's defense was one of only six teams to finish among the Top 10 in the league in both rushing yards and passing yards allowed.

As the Titans' defensive coordinator from 2001-08, Schwartz's defensive unit held firm in two major categories that factored significantly in the team's overall success; rushing defense and third down conversion. In those eight seasons, Tennessee ranked fifth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.5) and sixth in third down conversion (36.1). The Titans allowed just nine rushers over 100 yards in 64 home games.

During his tenure as defensive coordinator, the Titans claimed two AFC South titles (2002 and 2008), earned two other AFC Wild Card spots (2003 and 2007), and in four seasons finished with 10 or more wins, including 2002 (11-5), 2003 (12-4), 2007 (10-6) and 2008 (13-3).

In Schwartz's last two seasons (2007-08) in Tennessee, the Titans claimed 23 victories and their winning percentage of .719 (23-9) was the third-best in the NFL. They are one of only three teams (New England and Indianapolis) with 23-or-more wins. From 2006-08, the Titans record was 31-17 (.646), which was tied for the fourth-best record in the league.

The Titans 2007 defense helped rejuvenate the team and led the team's return to the playoffs. Among the NFL's rankings, Schwartz's defensive unit completed the season among the league best in the following categories: total yards allowed (fifth, 291.6), rushing yards allowed (fifth, 92.4), passing yards allowed (10th 192.2), defensive points allowed (17.3, 7th), first down yards per play allowed (4.34, first), sacks (40, seventh) and takeaways (34, sixth).

The Titans limited three teams in 2007 under 200 total offensive yards, and All-Pro RB LaDainian Tomlinson was held to the lowest rushing total of his career (42) with 20 or more carries in the Titans' playoff game at San Diego.

Schwartz managed a defense that, much like the rest of Titans' team, was in transition during the 2005 and 2006 seasons. That unit replaced seven regular starters from the 2004 squad with new and, often younger, talent. Schwartz's defense held their own throughout the process, and one example of that was when Tennessee held the Super Bowl Champion Indianapolis Colts and their high-powered offense in 2006 to a combined 31 points in both games, the lowest tally allowed by a Colts division opponent in the history of the AFC South.

In 2005, the Titans defense was one of the youngest defenses in the NFL with their average years of experience being only 3.5 years. That defense included two starting rookie cornerbacks for only the second time in the team's 46-year history, and the unit ranked eighth in third down percentage allowed (35.5), ninth in sacks (41) and second in three-and-out drives (31.3 pct.).

For just the second time in franchise history, and first since 1993, Schwartz put together a defense that finished first in the NFL in rushing defense. Finishing in the Top 10 in rush defense extended the team's streak of nine consecutive seasons ranked in the Top 10. That nine-year streak was also the longest streak in the league at the time.

As remarkable as it was for the Titans defense to finish first in rushing yards allowed, it was even more remarkable of a feat considering the talented rushers they faced nearly week-in and week-out. That year, the Titans faced eight (total of 10 games) of the NFL's Top 13 rushers who combined for 12,018 yards on the season. The Titans' defense dominated the league's leading rusher, Ravens RB Jamal Lewis who rushed for over 2,000 yards that season, in the AFC Wild Card game as the team held Lewis to just 35 yards. It was Lewis' second-lowest career single-game rushing tally as a starter in the NFL through that year.

Combined with the stellar rushing defense was the strong effort by the defense on third down, once again proving a common theme of Schwartz's defense. The Titans led the league in third down defense by allowing an opponent conversion percentage of 27.7. It was the lowest in franchise history and the lowest in the NFL since 1998 (Oakland Raiders, 26.3).

Beyond those two categories the Titans defense ranked fourth in the AFC in red-zone defense (43.9 pct.), fifth in the AFC in takeaways (34) and it recorded the most interceptions (21) by a Titans defense since 1995.

In just his second-year (2002) as the Titans defensive coordinator, Schwartz's defense finished in the Top 10 as they persevered through a season which they lost All-Pro DE Jevon Kearse to injury and added six new defensive starters. The Titans defense finished fifth overall in defensive points allowed (282).

Prior to his eight seasons as the Titans defensive coordinator, Schwartz contributed to the Titans defense as the linebackers coach where he also coordinated the team's third down package in 2000. That year, the Titans led the NFL in opponent third down efficiency by allowing a league-low 30.8 percent. He also was instrumental in the integration of newly-acquired linebacker Randall Godfrey into the Titans defensive scheme, as he set career highs in tackles (169) and interceptions (2).

Schwartz originally joined the Titans in 1999 as defensive assistant/quality control. In his first year, the team claimed the AFC Championship and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXXIV.

PRO FOOTBALL LOGY

Schwartz's first job in the NFL was with Cleveland Browns from 1993-95, where he worked in the Browns player personnel department, and served as both a college and pro scout. During his time with the Browns, he also assisted Head Coach Bill Belichick and the coaching staff with film breakdown and scouting reports.

After the Browns moved to Baltimore following the 1995 season, Schwartz made the transition from player personnel to coaching, spending three years (1996-98) as a defensive assistant/quality control coach and also coaching the outside linebackers.

COACHING IN THE COLLEGE RANKS

In addition to his pro coaching and scouting experience, Schwartz worked on the college level for four years before moving onto the NFL. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Maryland, tutoring the Terrapins' linebackers from 1989-90 and then served as graduate assistant at the University of Minnesota (1990-91). He became a position coach in the secondary at North Carolina Central (1991-92) before moving to Colgate (1992) as linebackers coach.

COLLEAGUE ON GRIDIRON

The Baltimore, Md., native was a four-year letter winner as a linebacker at Georgetown University, where he earned a degree in economics. He received Distinguished Economics Graduate honors at Georgetown, and in 1989 he earned numerous honors that include Division III CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-America, All-America and team captain.

OFF THE FIELD

In the community, Schwartz supports the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation International and stresses the importance of giving back through entities like Detroit Lions Living for the City. For the past five years, Schwartz served as chairman of the Detroit Lions Invitational Golf Tournament, and he was a two-time co-chairman for the Lions Celebrity Bocce Ball Tournament. In June 2012, Schwartz and the Lions launched the team's annual Detroit Lions/Kevin VanDam Charity Fishing Tournament presented by Bass Pro Shops that support both Detroit Lions Charities and Kevin VanDam Charities.

Schwartz and his wife, Kathy, have twins Christian and Allison along with a younger daughter Maria.

GUNTHER CUNNINGHAM

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Year with Lions: 5

Years in NFL: 32

Cunningham is a 44-year coaching veteran on the college and pro levels, including the past 32 seasons in the NFL. He has been a defensive coordinator in the league for 14 seasons and a head coach (Kansas City, 1999-2000) for two. Cunningham has also worked with linebackers and defensive linemen for 16 of his seasons in the pros. As a coach in the NFL, Cunningham has earned the respect of both his peers and players for his intense and straightforward approach to coaching. He is known as a strong motivator who emphasizes the importance of an aggressive and hard-hitting defense. Additionally, Cunningham also brings the elements of being a talented defensive teacher and tactician.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Cunningham's defenses are guided by the ability to attack the quarterback and generate disruptive plays. Since 2010, the Lions have accumulated 119 sacks, the eight-highest tally in the NFL. The Lions have also forced 80 turnovers the past three years which is 10th-best in the League. Attacking in the passing game has become a cornerstone to the Lions defense under Cunningham. Combined the Lions have registered seventh-highest tally (165) of sacks and interceptions since 2010.

2012

- The 2012 edition of the Detroit Lions defense ranked 13th overall in the NFL in total defense and seventh in the NFC, the highest Lions ranking since 1995, despite starting 16 different lineup configurations and 14 different lineups in the secondary
- Cunningham's dedication to a consistent pass rush proved evident once again in 2012 as the Lions' defensive line applied heavy pressure to opponent offenses week in and week out, accounting for 31 of the team's 34 sacks.
- The aggressiveness showed at the line of scrimmage as the Lions forced 123 negative plays on defense (sacks, tackles for loss on rushing plays, tackles for loss on pass completions), which was the third-best output in the NFL. The defensive unit was also second in the number of losses they generated on opponents rushing plays by accumulating 78. On passing plays, Detroit also had 11 tackles for loss.
- DE Cliff Avril and DT Ndamukong Suh led the team in sacks with 9.5 and 8, respectively, while Cunningham's development of DT Nick Fairley led to 5.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery for the second-year defensive tackle.
- The Lions defensive linemen accounted for 62.5 negative plays (sacks and rushes for loss), which was the third-best in the NFL among defensive line units. On rushing plays, the Lions' 31.5 tackles for loss by the defensive line ranked second among line units in the League.

- With Suh and Fairley leading the way internally, Detroit tallied 15.5 sacks by defensive tackles, the most in the NFL. The Lions defensive tackles also registered 36 negative plays, the highest in the NFL, and 20.5 tackles for loss on rushing plays, also the most in the NFL among defensive tackles.
- Despite a carousel of defensive backfield combinations in 2012, CB Chris Houston established himself as a leader in the Lions' secondary, recording two interceptions, 10 pass defenses and 56 total tackles (45 solo).

2011

- Detroit ranked at the top of the NFL in third-down efficiency in 2011. The Lions allowed 67 third-down conversions, which was tied for the fewest in the League (New Orleans), and held opponents to a third-down conversion percentage of 32.7 which was the third-best in the NFL.
- The Lions' 34 takeaways were tied for third in the NFL in 2011 and fifth with 21 interceptions, which was also the most by the team since it registered 25 in 2000.
- The defense tied for fourth in the League with 17 forced fumbles and was third with 13 recoveries – two of which were returned for touchdowns.
- On defense, the Lions scored seven return touchdowns off interception and fumble returns in 2011, which tied a single-season franchise record that was set in 1937.

2010

- In 2010, the Lions had one of the most improved defenses in the NFL. Detroit was one of six teams to improve their overall total defense ranking by 11 spots (32 in 2009 to 21 in 2010), and they were one of just three teams to improve their pass defense by 16 (32 in 2009 to 16 in 2010).
- In the passing game, the defense was the most-improved unit in the NFL in 2010, allowing 751 less yards (46.9 yards per game) than in 2009.
- Detroit was also the most-improved defensive unit in the League in points allowed in 2010 with 125 points fewer (7.8/game) than the previous season.
- The Lions defense was the NFL's fourth-most improved unit in regards to total yards allowed, giving up 777 yards less than in 2009, which equates to 48.6 less yards per game.

The Lions defense has been built around young playmakers and improved by quality veterans. Cunningham believes in putting tremendous pressure on opponents upfront, and the team's front four, led by two-time Pro Bowl DT Ndamukong Suh and third-year DT Nick Fairley, is beginning to make its mark in the League. That unit will continue to lead the way for the Lions defense in the foreseeable future.

The success by a defense many times can be measured by pressure and turnovers. Cunningham's defense in 2011 registered 41 sacks and 34 takeaways. These elements continue to improve as the team adds talent to all three units on defense.

From, 2004-08, Cunningham served as the Kansas City Chiefs defensive coordinator during his second stint with the organization. In 2008, he also coached the team's linebackers as the Chiefs' defense began a transition with six new starters and endured numerous injuries throughout the season. From 2004-07, his imprint on the defense was prevalent in several areas.

In 2007, Cunningham's defense ranked in the top five in nine different defensive categories, including a League-high in third-down defense (30.2 pct.), negative plays forced (121) and 10+ play drives (1). The Chiefs ranked second in allowing touchdowns on defensive possessions (37.2 pct.) and in Red Zone defense (37.2 TD pct.). Kansas City was third in the league by allowing just 28 offensive touchdowns, the lowest tally for the team since 1997. The defense allowed 18.6 offensive points per game, the lowest for the Chiefs since 1999.

Overall, Kansas City's pass defense ranked fifth in the NFL in 2007 allowing only 188.9 yards per game. They also tied for fifth in three-and-outs forced (47) and first downs allowed (278).

After just two seasons following his return to Kansas City, Cunningham improved the Chiefs rushing defense that ranked 30th in the League in 2003 (146.5 yards allowed per game) to seventh in the NFL in 2005 (98.1 yards allowed per game). The 98.1 rushing yards allowed per game was the lowest the Chiefs yielded since 1997. In 2005, the Chiefs were ninth in Red Zone defense (46.7 TD pct.) after ranking 27th the previous season. They also tied for the second highest tally of forced fumbles that year with 33.

In 2004, Cunningham began the process of improving the team's defense as Kansas City tied for seventh in the NFL with 41.0 sacks, the club's best total since 2000, Cunningham's last year as Kansas City's head coach.

Cunningham coached alongside Schwartz at Tennessee (2001-03) under Head Coach Jeff Fisher. Cunningham served as the Titans assistant head coach/linebackers. In those three seasons, the Titans defense helped the franchise earn two playoff berths. From 2001-03, the Titans led the League in rushing yards allowed (86.5 yards per game) and were third in opponents' third down percentage (33.6). In 2003, Tennessee's defense led the NFL in both rushing defense (80.9 yards per game) and opponents' third-down percentage (27.7). That year, LB Keith Bullock earned a spot in the Pro Bowl under Cunningham's tutelage as his position coach.

As head coach for the Kansas City Chiefs from 1999-00, Cunningham compiled a 16-16 (.500) record. In 1999, the Chiefs were 9-7 and tied with the Seattle Seahawks with the best record in the AFC West but lost out on a playoff tie-breaker. Cunningham became the first coach in Chiefs' history to claim nine wins in his first season as Chiefs' head coach. In 1999, the Chiefs led the NFL with a +21 turnover margin and set a team record by scoring nine defensive touchdowns. In his two seasons, his club was 4-0 against Denver and defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion St. Louis Rams October 20, 2000 54-34 in a high-scoring affair.

As defensive coordinator for the Chiefs from 1995-98, the defense was a key cog in Kansas City compiling a 42-22 (.656) record, including a 23-9 record (.719) against the AFC West. In those four seasons, the Chiefs allowed a NFL-low in offensive points (16.4 points per game), and led the league in scoring defense during the 1995 (15.1 points per game) and 1997 (14.5 points per game) seasons. Cunningham's defenses were critical in Kansas City producing an AFC-best +30 turnover margin from 1995-98, as they were responsible for 127 takeaways. They also scored 77 points on 10 touchdowns and four safeties. The Chiefs produced 172.0 sacks over those four years, a total which ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL over that span.

The 232 points allowed by the Chiefs in 1997 was a franchise record for a 16-game season. That season, they set a NFL record, previously held by the 1934 Detroit Lions, by not permitting a second half touchdown in 10 consecutive games. They led the AFC in interceptions (21) and total takeaways (34), and ranked second among NFL team in opponents' third-down percentage (31.6). Kansas City's 54.0 sacks in '97 were the second-highest total in team history, leading the AFC and ranking third in the NFL.

In '95, Kansas City's defense was even better in terms of actual offensive points allowed as opposing offenses scored an average of just 12.9 points per game, and they were ranked second in the entire league by allowing just 284.3 yards per game. They also ranked third in rushing defense (82.9 yards per game). Additionally, the Chiefs led the League in scoring defense, turnover margin (+12), touchdowns allowed (23) and yards allowed per play (4.3).

Cunningham not only has compiled great defensive units, but he has coached and mentored several Pro Bowl and All-Pro players. He has shared a special bond as a mentor to the late, great nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas, who concluded his illustrious career as the all-time leading sack artist in Chiefs history with 126.5 QB takedowns. Cunningham served as Thomas' position coach in '97, helping him earn his final Pro Bowl invitation. He also coached DE Neil Smith (second in Chiefs history with 86.5 sacks) and DE Jared Allen, who earned his first spot in the Pro Bowl after the 2007 season when he lead the League in sacks with 15.5. Another defensive lineman who excelled under Cunningham was DT Dan Saleaumua. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 1995 after anchoring the team's defensive front.

In the secondary, CB Dale Carter and CB James Hasty were one of the most formidable cornerback tandems in Chiefs history, as they combined for six Pro Bowl berths, and each intercepted 21 passes.

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Cunningham spent four seasons (1991-94) with the Los Angeles Raiders, as linebackers coach (1991), defensive coordinator (1992-93) and defensive line coach (1994). As the Raiders defensive coordinator, his defense ranked ninth in the NFL both seasons, and they allowed a NFL-low 11 touchdown passes in 1992.

Cunningham was the San Diego Chargers defensive line coach for six seasons (1985-90) after originally being hired by the team's player personnel department. During those six seasons, the chargers led the AFC in sacks three times and garnered a club record 62.0 in 1986. As the defensive line coach, he developed DE Lee Williams and DE Leslie O'Neil into Pro Bowl players.

In 1982, Cunningham entered the NFL coaching ranks when he joined the Baltimore Colts coaching staff, learning from the late Bud Carson. He was the team's defensive line/linebackers from 1982-84. Before entering the NFL ranks, his previous pro coaching experience was with the defensive line/linebackers coach for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 1981 with head coach Frank Kush who also hired Cunningham in Baltimore.

As a college coach, Cunningham's last stop was at California. Cunningham coached the Bears defensive line from 1979-80, the linebackers in 1978 and secondary in 1977.

Prior his stop in Berkeley, Cunningham coached at the Stanford Cardinal from 1973-76. He was hired by Head Coach Jack Christensen, a Hall of Fame defensive back for the Detroit Lions in the 1950s and a member of the Lions 75th Season All-time Team. While at Stanford, he coached the defensive line from 1974-76 and was the assistant offensive line and freshmen coach during his first year in 1973.

Cunningham worked at the University of Arkansas in 1972 on a staff headed by Frank Broyles that included Joe Gibbs and Raymond Berry.

In 1969, Cunningham began his coaching career at the University of Oregon, his alma mater. He was with the Ducks program for three years from 1969-71 where he began his longtime relationship with another noted defensive coach, George Seifert. Cunningham was a graduate of Oregon and was a linebacker and kicker for the Ducks from 1966-68.

Cunningham played his prep football at Lompoc High School in Lompoc, California. He was then recruited to play at Allan Hancock College by Hall of Fame coach John Madden. Madden left the school prior to Cunningham's freshman year and was replaced as head coach by Ernie Zampese.

Cunningham, who became a naturalized U.S. citizen on April 6, 2010, is just one of four foreign-born individuals in league history to ever serve as an NFL head coach, joining Hugo Bezdek (Cleveland Rams, 1937-38), Jock Sutherland (Pittsburgh, 1946-47) and Al Saunders (San Diego, 1986-88). Born in Munich, Germany, he moved to Greenfield, Mass., at the age of 10 in 1956 with his mother Katharina and his adoptive father, Air Force Sergeant Garner Cunningham.

Cunningham and his wife, René, have two children, Natalie and Adam.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Year with Lions: 5

Years in NFL: 12

Linehan begins his fifth season as the Lions offensive coordinator after joining the club in 2009. He is now entering his 12th season as an NFL coach, going on 24 years of coaching experience.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS:

- During his tenure with the Lions, Linehan has coordinated some of the most prolific offenses in franchise history, producing several team and individual record-breaking performances. These prolific offenses have also translated as some of the most productive units in the NFL under Linehan.
  - Over the past three seasons (2010-12), Detroit ranks third in total offense with 381.2 yards per game, third in passing offense (282.3 yards/game), fourth in first downs per game (21.6) and second in completions per game (26.1). The Lions rank sixth in scoring with 25.2 points per game and are one of just six teams averaging 25-plus points per game from 2010-12. Detroit's 126 offensive touchdowns also rank sixth during that three-year span.
  - In the Red Zone, the Lions offense ranks third with a 62.6-percent scoring efficiency (99 TDs, 158 possessions) over the past three years.
  - Since the beginning of 2011, the Lions offense, behind its passing attack, has moved into the upper echelon of the League's productive offenses. Over the past two years, Lions quarterbacks threw for 10,210 yards, the second-most (gross) passing yards over a two-year span in NFL history. Detroit's 9,741 net passing yards ranks fifth all-time in NFL history over a two-year stretch, and the Lions are one of only five teams to net over 9,700 passing yards over two years.
  - From 2011-12, The Lions rank third in total offense with 402.4 yards per game (one of only three teams with 400-plus yards per game average), third in passing offense (304.4) third in first downs per game (22.8) and fourth in points per game (26.4).
  - Detroit's 61.3 Red Zone efficiency (68 TDs, 111 possessions) ranks fourth in the NFL over the past two years
- 2012: Last season, Detroit's offense established new franchise standards while breaking team records in total yards (6,540), yards per game (408.8) and net passing yards (4,927). The Lions finished third in the NFL in total offense and second in passing offense.
- The team's third overall ranking in total offense in 2012 was the Lions' highest since it finished second in the NFL in 1997. By ranking second in passing offense, it is tied for the highest the team has reached since it was second in the NFL in 1995.
  - Three of the franchise's top eight single-game bests for total offense occurred under Linehan's
- guidance in 2012 (583, 9/23 at Tennessee; 525, 11/22 vs. Houston; 522, 12/22 vs. Atlanta).
- Detroit's Red Zone offense was among the best in the League in 2012 as the Lions finished the season ranked fifth in Red Zone offense (83.6 pct), ninth in Red Zone points (271) and now rank third in Red Zone efficiency (88.6 pct) since 2010.
  - Linehan's continued development of QB Matthew Stafford was evident once again in 2012 as Stafford (4,967) finished just 33 yards shy of becoming only the second quarterback in NFL history to throw for 5,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.
  - Stafford finished the season 435-of-727 (59.8 pct) for 4,967 yards, 20 touchdowns and 17 interceptions. In only four years with the team, Stafford is now the Lions career leader in pass completions (1,114), and ranks second in career passing yards (12,807) and is tied for second in career passing touchdowns (80).
  - Stafford's two-year tally in passing yards under Linehan (10,005) ranks third in the NFL behind only Drew Brees (10,653) and Tom Brady (10,062).
  - Despite injuries to his receiving corps across the board, Linehan's offense allowed WR Calvin Johnson to record one of the most prolific seasons for a wide receiver in NFL history. With 122 receptions for 1,964 yards and five touchdowns, Johnson broke the single-season record for receiving yards set by Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice in 1995.
  - Johnson led every League category on the receiving end, including receptions (122), receiving yards (1,964), 25+-yard receptions (21) and 100-yard receiving games (11). His 11 100-yard receiving games in 2012 tied WR Michael Irvin (1995) for the most 100-yard receiving games during a season in NFL history.
  - Johnson was also named the NFC Offensive Player of the Month for November, the first of his career and the first Lions offensive player to earn the honor since Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders (December 1997).
  - After compiling only nine rushing touchdowns in 2011, Linehan's ground attack, led by second-year RB Mikel Leshoure and RB Joique Bell, recorded 17 rushing touchdowns last season. Seventeen rushing touchdowns is the highest output by the Lions since they had 15 in 2000, and Leshoure's nine touchdowns is the most by any Lions rusher since James Stewart had 10 in 2000.
- 2011
- The Lions' 474 points scored during the 2011 regular season are the most in team history, breaking the team record (436) set in 1995.
  - Linehan's work with Stafford began to show dividends in 2011 as he set franchise passing records for passing yards (5,038), touchdowns (41). Stafford also established the team's all-time best single-season completion percentage (63.5) and passer rating (97.2). Based on NFL qualifier of minimum 244 attempts.

- Stafford's numbers also ranked among the best in NFL history: 4th quarterback to throw for more than 5,000 yards in a single season; 5th most yards (5,038); 7th most touchdowns (41); 5th most completions (421) and 3rd most attempts (663).
- Stafford was one of three NFL quarterbacks, along with Saints QB Drew Brees and Patriots QB Tom Brady, to finish 2011 in the top five of all six major passing categories: 3rd in yards (5,038); 3rd in touchdown passes (41); 5th in quarterback rating (97.2); 5th in completion percentage (63.5); 1st in attempts (663); 2nd in completions (421).

2010

- In 2010, the Lions were one of just seven teams to improve at least nine positions in total offense from 2009, as they went from 26th to 17th. In the passing game, they were one of just three teams to improve their ranking by nine spots (21 in 2009 to 12 in 2010).
- Detroit had the third-most improved scoring offense in the NFL, scoring 100 more points than they did in 2009, which accounted for an average of 6.3 more points per game.
- The Lions had the fourth-most improved offense in the NFL in 2010, gaining 639 more yards than they did in 2009 (39.9 more yards per game).
- The Detroit offense was the third-most improved unit in Red Zone touchdowns with 12 more touchdowns in 2010 than 2009. That equates to a 17.2-percent difference, which made the Lions' offense the second-most improved unit in Red Zone touchdown percentage as well.
- Detroit had the fifth-highest increase of Red Zone possessions in the League. The Lions had 45 red zone possessions in 2010 compared to 36 in 2009.

In 2009, his first season directing the Lions offense, Linehan focused on implementing a versatile offensive attack along with the maturation of the team's young, talented offensive playmakers.

Working directly with the team's quarterbacks, Linehan was instrumental in the growth of rookie quarterback Matthew Stafford, who became one of the youngest players to ever start the season at quarterback in the NFL. Stafford steadily progressed with each outing until injuries slowed him down towards the end of the year. Stafford finished the season ranking near the top of almost every franchise rookie passing record, including first in touchdown passes (13) and second in yards (2,267), completions (201) and completion percentage (54.1) despite starting only 10 games.

Linehan joined the Lions coaching staff after spending three seasons (2006-08) as the head coach of the St. Louis Rams.

As a first-time NFL head coach, Linehan quickly put his stamp on the Rams in 2006 via the ground game, giving the ball to RB Steven Jackson 346 times in 2006 – the most by a St. Louis player in 20 seasons. Jackson finished the year with 1,528 rushing yards (3rd, NFC), 105 first downs (1st, NFC) and 2,334 all-purpose yards (1st, NFL), earning his first-career Pro Bowl appearance. Jackson averaged 21.0 carries per game over Linehan's three-year span with the Rams compared with 16.9 carries per game in 2005 and established himself as one of the NFL's big running threats.

Other Rams saw career bests under Linehan. QB Marc Bulger passed for a career-best 4,301 yards in 2006, setting franchise records with a 1.4 interception percentage and 588 passing attempts. His 370 completions for 24 touchdowns were also second in Rams' history. That season, WR Torrey Holt and WR Isaac Bruce finished with 1,188 and 1,098 yards, respectively, combining for 167 pass receptions.

In addition to his three seasons as an NFL head coach, Linehan brings four years of league experience as an offensive coordinator. He spent the 2005 season with the Miami Dolphins, improving the team's total offense from 4,960 yards (29th, NFL) in 2004 to 5,198 yards (14th, NFL) in 2005 and bettering the run game from 402 rush attempts (31st, NFL) in 2004 to 444 (12th, NFL) in 2005.

That year, the Dolphins' two primary running backs – Ronnie Brown and Ricky Williams – combined for 1,650 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns. WR Chris Chambers earned his first-career Pro Bowl appearance under Linehan, finishing with 82 catches for 1,118 yards and 11 touchdowns, marking his only 1,000-yard season.

Linehan broke into the league as an offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach with the Minnesota Vikings in 2002, helping the franchise to some of its best offensive seasons to date, ranking second, first and fourth from 2002-04. During his tenure, the Vikings compiled a franchise-best 36 consecutive games of 300-yards-or-more of total offense (2002-04) and, in 2004, compiled a franchise-best five games of 400-yards-or more of total offense.

In Vikings history, his offenses also rank first and second in total yards (6,339 yards, 2004; 6,294 yards, 2003), first and second in first downs (351, 2004; 350, 2002), second and third in touchdowns (51, 2003; 50, 2004), second in points (416, 2003), first in passing first downs (225, 2004), first in rushing touchdowns (26, 2002) and second and third in rushing yards (2,507 yards, 2002; 2,343 yards, 2003).

Minnesota's top offensive players had some of their best years under Linehan, including QB Daunte Culpepper and WR Randy Moss, who each had career years while he was with the Vikings. Moss became the team's featured 'big man' in 2002 after the departure of WR Cris Carter, starting 45 games over that span and garnering two Pro Bowl selections (2002, 2003) under Linehan.

Moss finished with 106 catches for 1,347 yards and seven touchdowns in 2002 while his 111 receptions for 1,632 yards in 2003 remain personal bests. He also tied a career high in 2003 with 17 touchdowns, a personal best he held until he brought in 23 in 2007 with New England.

Culpepper also had some of his best seasons with Linehan calling the plays, including a career year in 2004. That year, his second Pro Bowl season, Culpepper finished with a passer rating of 110.9 for the fourth-highest in NFL history and his 69.2 completion percentage (379-of-548), league-leading 4,717 passing yards, 8.6 yards per play average and 39 touchdowns still mark career bests.

Linehan was able to effectively utilize the Culpepper-Moss tandem over his three seasons with the Vikings, bettering the team's total points to 390, 416 and 405, respectively, after Minnesota scored 290 points in 2001. He maintained the team's solid performance through the air, as the offense ranked 9th, 4th and 2nd, respectively, throughout his three seasons.

But even with the dynamic passing game, Linehan also made significant improvements to the team's running game. Prior to his arrival in 2001, the Vikings finished 25th in the league with 376 rushing plays for 1,609 yards (4.3 average). In 2002, Linehan helped the Vikings to the league's top ground game, finishing with 473 rushing plays for 2,507 yards (5.3 average).

That year, Minnesota's running game was led by Michael Bennett, who earned his first Pro Bowl selection following the 2002 season. He finished the year 11th in the NFL in rushing with a career-best 1,296 yards – his only 1,000-yard performance to date – on 255 attempts. In 2003, Linehan utilized a trio of runners – Moe Williams, Onterio Smith and Bennett – to finish third in the league in rushing with 493 rushing plays for 2,343 attempts.

Linehan coached collegiately for 13 years on teams that played in seven bowl games and won five conference titles: one Pac-10, two Conference USA and two Big Sky. Five of Linehan's quarterbacks were drafted by NFL teams: Louisville's Chris Redman and Dave Ragone, Washington's Brock Huard and Marques Tuiasosopo and Idaho's Doug Nussmeier.

He was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Louisville from 1999-2001, coaching the team to three bowl games and becoming the first Conference USA team to win consecutive league championships. A Louisville quarterback earned Conference USA Player of the Year honors in each of Linehan's three seasons.

Prior to his time in Louisville, Linehan spent five years at the University of Washington (1994-98), advancing to four bowl games and winning the 1995 Pac-10 title. He also spent four total seasons at Idaho, his alma mater, as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1992-93) and as the wide receivers coach (1989-90) and Linehan spent one season at Nevada-Las Vegas (1991) as the quarterbacks coach. While a coordinator with Idaho in 1993, the Vandals led the nation in scoring (47.5 points per game) and total offense (532 yards per game).

Linehan was a quarterback for Dennis Erickson's Idaho Vandals from 1982-86, winning the Big Sky Championship in 1985 and earning Division I-AA playoff appearances in three straight seasons (1984-86). He signed as a rookie free agent with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987, but a shoulder injury ended his playing career.

Born in Sunnyside, Wash., Linehan and his wife, Kristen, have three sons: Matthew, Michael and Marcus. Linehan's son, Matthew, signed to join the University of Idaho football program in the fall of 2012.

JOHN BONAMEGO

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Year with Lions: 1
Years in NFL: 15

John Bonamego, a 15-year veteran coach in the NFL, joined the Lions in January 2013 and will oversee the team's special teams units. During his coaching career, he has worked 14 previous years in the NFL and 11 years at the college level.

While with the Jaguars last year, Bonamego oversaw the development of rookie P Bryan Anger, who was selected by the Jaguars in the third round of the 2012 NFL Draft. Anger set franchise records for punting average (47.8) and net punting average (40.8), with both totals leading all rookie punters. He finished sixth in the NFL in punting average and seventh in net punting average.

During the 2011 season, Bonamego was assistant special teams coach for New Orleans.

From 2008-10, Bonamego served as the special teams coordinator for the Miami Dolphins, where he developed young specialists including K Dan Carpenter, P Brandon Fields and KR Ted Ginn, Jr.

Bonamego guided Carpenter's development after he signed with the Dolphins as an undrafted rookie in 2008. During his first two seasons, he made 46-of-53 field goal attempts (86.8 pct.). As a rookie, he established a new Dolphins rookie record with 11-straight made field goals. He was selected to the 2009 Pro Bowl after making 25-of-28 attempts.

In 2009, Bonamego's special teams units featured Fields setting a franchise record for net punting average (39.9) and Ginn, Jr. becoming the first player in NFL history to record two kickoff return touchdowns of 100 yards or more in the same game (at NYJ, November 1, 2009). Ginn, Jr. also was the first NFL player in 42 years to have two returns for touchdowns in the same quarter while also recording 299 return yards, the second-most single-game kickoff return yardage total in NFL history. That season, the Dolphins' 2009 special teams units were ranked 10th in the NFL by universally respected Dallas Morning News special teams rankings.

Prior to his time in Miami, Bonamego was the New Orleans Saints special teams coordinator from 2006-07. In 2006, his units played a critical role in the team's 10-6 record, as they claimed the NFC South title and appeared in the NFC Championship game.

Two of the Saints' biggest plays that season occurred on special teams when S Steve Gleason blocked a punt vs. Atlanta that was recovered for a touchdown in the first quarter in the season opener, which was the first post-Katrina game in the Superdome. The Saints also blocked a field goal later in that opening game.

In Week 5 vs. Tampa Bay, Saints RB Reggie Bush returned a punt 65 yards for a game-winning score. The Saints finished 2006 ranked sixth in opponent punt return average (7.0) and fourth in the NFC in kickoff return average (23.0). The Saints did not allow a kickoff return of more than 40 yards.

Bonamego's experience in the NFC North includes a three-year stint as the special teams coordinator for Green Bay from 2003-05. In 2005, the Packers registered the League's longest punt return for a touchdown (85 yards vs. Chi), didn't allow a return touchdown, blocked two PATs and blocked one field goal attempt. In 2004, Green Bay finished as one of only four teams in the NFL that did not surrender a return touchdown or have a kick blocked. The Packers allowed only 20.2 yards on kickoff returns and ranked sixth in field goal percentage (85.7). The club had four game-winning field goals in 2004, the most by the team since the 1970 merger.

During his first season in Green Bay (2003), Bonamego's special teams units ranked fourth in FG percentage, fifth in kick return average and did not allow a blocked punt or field goal. The Packers blocked a field goal and a punt in the same season for the first time since 1997 and won the NFC North.

Bonamego's first stint in the NFL was from 1999-2002 with the Jacksonville Jaguars. For the first three seasons, Bonamego worked as the assistant special teams coach under legendary NFL special teams coach Frank Gansz and was promoted to special teams coordinator in 2002. In his first season as special teams coordinator, the Jaguars were ranked third by The Dallas Morning News. The unit blocked four kicks (two field goals, two punts) and led the AFC in kick coverage (19.5-yard avg.). The Jaguars also led the AFC in gross and net punting average and were one of only two NFL teams that did not allow a return touchdown or a blocked kick. P Chris Hanson was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad in 2002.

Before entering the NFL, Bonamego worked 11 years on the college level, including six years at Army (1993-98) and at Lehigh in 1992.

From 1988-91, Bonamego was an assistant coach at Maine. While serving as an assistant coach, he earned a master's degree in physical education in 1992.

In 1987, Bonamego served as the head junior varsity coach at Mt. Pleasant (Mich.) High School, and in that same year he spent time in Europe as a player-coach with the Verona (Italy) Redskins.

Bonamego, graduated from Paw Paw (Mich.) High School before moving on to Central Michigan University, where he played wide receiver and quarterback. In 1987, he earned a degree in health fitness from CMU. In 2009, Bonamego gave the graduation commencement speech and received an honorary doctorate degree from Central Michigan.

JASON ARAPOFF
Coordinator of Physical Development
Years with Lions: 13
Years in NFL: 26

Jason Arapoff enters his 13th season directing the Lions' strength and conditioning program. His primary role is to oversee the physical fitness of all Lions' players.

Focusing equally on the off-season regimen and the regular season program, Arapoff utilizes high-end cardiovascular strength training and free weight equipment in the team's state-of-the-art facility. His hands-on training techniques emphasize a balance of muscular strength and cardiovascular fitness, and are underscored by a comprehensive, personalized approach to each athlete. He also has introduced a shift toward more football-specific activities that encompass high-intensity protocols to train the entire body.

Arapoff arrived in Detroit prior to the 2001 season with 13 years of experience with the Washington Redskins. While serving as the team's conditioning director for nine years, he was instrumental in computerizing and implementing the team's strength and conditioning and nutritional programs.

Arapoff has been a monthly columnist for Scholastic Coach Magazine and is a frequent speaker for industry events, schools, universities and football camps. He, along with Strength and Conditioning assistant Ted Rath, started the annual Detroit Lions Strength and Conditioning Clinic in 2011. The event is a forum for providing, sharing and exchanging information in the ever changing world of strength & conditioning.

During his playing career as a collegian, Arapoff was a four-year letter-winning defensive back at Springfield (Mass.) College, where he earned his undergraduate degree in health fitness. He went on to obtain his master's degree in exercise physiology from American University in Washington, D.C.

Arapoff and his wife, Jennifer, have three daughters: Julia, and twins, Anna and Alexa.

BRADFORD BANTA
Assistant
Linebackers
Years with Lions: 6
Years in NFL: 6

Bradford Banta, a former Lion, enters his sixth season with Detroit's coaching staff. He was promoted to assistant linebackers coach in 2012 after being the assistant special teams coach the previous four seasons.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- The Lions linebacker corps of Stephen Tulloch, Justin Durant and DeAndre Levy led the Lions in total tackles in 2012, finishing with 112, 103 and 81, respectively.
- S John Wendling is tied for first in the NFL with 51 special teams tackles over the past three seasons (2010-12) and was fourth on the team last season with 10.
- In 2011, K Jason Hanson finished with 126 points which was the fourth best for a single season in franchise history.
- Hanson also had five 50-yard field goals (second-highest of his career) and became the first player in NFL history to kick 50 50-yard field goals in his career.
- In 2010, the Lions' kick return unit was the third-most improved unit in the League in kickoff return average with 3.5 more yards per return than in 2009.
- Detroit also had the NFL's 10th-most significant improvement in punt return average in 2010: the Lions had an 8.8 punt return average in 2009 and improved to an average of 12.1 yards per return in 2010.
- In average kickoff return yardage allowed, Detroit had the fourth-most improved coverage unit, allowing an average of 2.7 less yards per each kick return in 2010.

Before returning to Detroit in 2008, Banta spent the 2009 season as a tight ends coach for the University of Tennessee Chattanooga. He played three of his 11 NFL seasons with the Lions (2001-03) as a tight end and longsnapper.

After being drafted by Indianapolis in the fourth round of the 1994 NFL Draft, Banta spent six seasons with the Colts and established himself as one of the League's best longsnappers. He joined the New York Jets for the 2000 season before coming to Detroit in 2001. He finished his career with Buffalo in 2004.

Upon his retirement from the NFL, Banta worked with George Wright Construction, as a supervisor, for a year and in Chase's Home Financial Division for nearly two years in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Banta was a two-year starter at tight end at the University of Southern California (1989-93) as well as a four-time letter-winner. He earned Honorable Mention All-Pac 10 Conference honors as a junior and senior and received his bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in sociology in 1993.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Banta was a Parade All-American as a senior at University High School and helped them to the state championship (1988) while playing tight end and linebacker. He and his wife, Amy, have three children.

MATT BURKE
Linebackers

Years in NFL: 10

Matt Burke, in his fifth season as linebackers coach, came to Detroit after spending five seasons (2004-08) with the Tennessee Titans.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Lions linebackers continued their defensive leadership in 2012 as they collectively led the team in total tackles. LBs Stephen Tulloch and DeAndre Levy finished in the top three on the team in total tackles with 112 (74 solo) and 81 (56 solo), respectively.
- Despite a season with limited turnovers, Burke's linebackers recorded 11 pass defenses and directly contributed to a combined five turnovers in 2012. Levy recorded an interception and a fumble recovery, while Tulloch recovered two fumbles and forced another.
- Tulloch joined the team during training camp in 2011 and quickly emerged as the rock of the defense at middle linebacker. Since coming to Detroit, he has recorded a team-leading 223 total tackles (158 solo), 3.5 sacks, one forced fumble and 11 pass defenses.
- Since Levy was drafted in 2009, Burke has been instrumental in his development as one of the best young linebackers in the League. Throughout his four seasons in Detroit, Levy has registered 339 tackles (233 solo) which is the most of any Lions defensive player during that span. In 2008, Burke helped coach the Tennessee Titans to an NFL best 13-3 record and rank seventh in overall defense with 4,698 yards allowed as well as third in offensive points allowed with 227. In his first two seasons with the Titans, he worked as an administrative assistant in the football department assisting the coaching staff with scouting breakdowns during the week and on gamedays. Burke was promoted to defensive assistant/quality control coach in 2006. He was primarily responsible for breaking down film on upcoming opponents and self-scouting, also conducting on-field work with the linebackers.

Prior to joining the Titans, Burke was the assistant secondary coach for one season (2003) at Harvard, originally entering the college ranks at Boston College (2000) as a graduate assistant for recruiting before working with the defense from 2001-02. His first coaching position came at Bridgton Academy (Maine), where he worked in 1998 and 1999.

A native of Hudson, Massachusetts, Burke played safety at Dartmouth and was part of an undefeated Ivy League champion team in 1996.

TODD DOWNING
Quarterbacks

Years in NFL: 11

Todd Downing enters his fifth season with the Lions and his fourth working with quarterbacks. He spent his first season with Detroit as an offensive quality control coach. Before joining the Lions, he coached three seasons with St. Louis as an assistant secondary/defensive quality control coach (2008) and a defensive assistant coach/assistant special teams coach (2006-07).

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS:

- Downing coaches a quarterback corps led by QB Matthew Stafford who has emerged as one of the top young quarterbacks in the NFL.
- In 2012, Stafford followed up his stellar 2011 season by finishing 435-of-727 (59.8) for 4,967 yards, just 33 yards shy of becoming the second quarterback in NFL history to throw for 5,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.
- His 20 touchdown passes in 2012 moved his career total to 80, tying Greg Landry for second place in Lions all-time history behind Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne (118). Stafford is also now the Lions career leader in pass completions with 1,114 and second in career passing yards with 12,807.
- With a two-year tally of 10,005 passing yards, Stafford ranks third in the NFL behind only Drew Brees 10,653 and Tom Brady (10,062) for the most passing yards over two seasons.
- Stafford set franchise passing records for yards (5,038), touchdowns (41) in 2011, as well as completions (435) and pass attempts (727) in 2012.
- He also established the team's all-time best single-season completion percentage (63.5) and passer rating (97.2) in 2011. Based on NFL qualifier of minimum 244 attempts.

- Stafford's 2011 numbers also ranked among the best in NFL history: 4th quarterback to throw for more than 5,000 yards in a single season; 5th most yards (5,038); 7th most touchdowns (41); 5th most completions (421) and 3rd most attempts (663).
- Stafford was one of three NFL quarterbacks, along with Saints QB Drew Brees and Patriots QB Tom Brady, to finish 2011 in the top five of all six major passing categories: 3rd in yards (5,038); 3rd in touchdown passes (41); 5th in quarterback rating (97.2); 5th in completion-percentage (63.5); 1st in attempts (663); 2nd in completions (421).
- Despite injuries at the Lions quarterback spot in 2010, all three of the team's signal callers maintained production throughout the season and all three have led the Lions to victory. In all, the Lions started Stafford (3 games), QB Shaun Hill (10 Games) and QB Drew Stanton (3 games), and the team ranked third in the NFL in completions (383), third in attempts (633), 12th in gross passing yards (4,001) and were tied for 11th in touchdown passes (26).
- The 2010 quarterback unit also produced 26 touchdown passes and 16 interceptions for a +10 difference. The last team to finish the season having three quarterbacks start three games and finished with a +10 TD to Int ratio was the Philadelphia Eagles in 1993 (+10, 23 TD to 13 Int; Randall Cunningham, Bubby Brister and Ken O'Brien).

Downing entered the NFL with the Minnesota Vikings, spending three years on the Vikings coaching staff as Offensive Quality Control Coach (2005) and football systems analyst (2003-04), helping the Vikings to a Top 5 Offense in all three years and a playoff appearance in 2004. During the summers from 2000-02, Downing played quarterback for a semi-pro team, the Minnesota Maulers.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Downing began his coaching career with Eden Prairie High School in Minneapolis (1999-2000). In 2000, he helped his alma mater to the Minnesota Class 5-A state title.

A native of Eden Prairie, Minn., Downing studied Business Communications at the University of Minnesota (1999-2002) and now resides in Michigan with his wife Julie.

TERRY HEFFERNAN
Assistant Offensive Line
Years with Lions: 1
Years in NFL: 1

Sticking with his Michigan coaching roots, Heffernan joins the Lions coaching staff as assistant offensive line coach after serving as the offensive line coach at Wayne State University in Detroit for the past six seasons.

In 2012, Heffernan mentored All-GLIAC guard Curtis Ferguson and five Academic All-GLIAC selections (C Thom Box, DE/LS Mike Komor, G Sean McCarthy, T Nate Theaker and T Ben Walker). Ferguson was also voted as the team's 2012 Offensive Most Valuable Player. His 2011 offensive line unit helped the Warriors average more than 200 rushing yards per game, leading WSU to a school record for overall wins (12), road wins (8) and four consecutive road playoff games to reach the national title contest.

The Warriors ranked in the Top 40 nationally in four categories in 2011 – ninth in fewest sacks allowed (0.94/game), 23rd in scoring offense (34.38 ppg), 26th in passing efficiency (144.02) and 33rd in rushing offense (200.56). In 2010, Senior LT Joe Long was named the recipient for the Gene Upshaw Award as the top lineman, both offensive and defensive, in Division II under Heffernan's guidance.

Prior to his tenure at WSU, Heffernan spent two seasons (2005-06) as a graduate assistant offensive line coach at Michigan. During his time in Ann Arbor, the Wolverines compiled a 18-7 overall record and appeared in the Rose Bowl and Alamo Bowl. Heffernan began his coaching career in 2003 as the offensive line coach at Cumberland University before working as a graduate assistant with the defensive line at Louisville.

A native of Arlington Heights, Ill., Heffernan attended Loyola Academy in Wilmette, Ill. and went on to become a three-year letterman and two-year starter at center for the University of Dayton. He earned All-Pioneer Football League academic honors twice and was a member of four consecutive conference championship teams. He graduated from Dayton in 2003 with a Bachelor of Arts degree, majoring in communications.

Heffernan is married to the former Jamie Paulson and the couple lives in Plymouth with their son, Connor.

BOBBY JOHNSON

Tight Ends
Years in NFL: 4

Bobby Johnson joins the Lions coaching staff in 2013 as the team's tight ends coach and brings with him 18 years of coaching experience. This season marks Johnson's fourth season coaching in the NFL. Overall, Johnson has 18 years of coaching experience including 15 at the collegiate level.

For the past three seasons, Johnson served as the Jacksonville Jaguars tight ends coach in 2012 and the assistant offensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills from 2010-11.

From 2005-09, Johnson was the offensive line coach at Indiana University where he developed two current NFL linemen in Rodger Saffold (St. Louis Rams 2010 2nd round selection) and James Brewer (New York Giants 2011 4th round selection).

Prior to his stint at Indiana, Johnson was an assistant coach at Miami (Ohio), his alma mater, from 1999-2004 including his final season as offensive line coach. He served as tight ends coach from 1999-2003. During his five-year tenure, the Red Hawks were 36-5 when outrushing the opponent.

At Miami, Johnson worked with eventual NFL draft picks Jacob Bell (Tennessee Titans 2004 5th round selection) and Alex Sulfsted (Kansas City Chiefs, 2001 6th round selection) along with free-agent signees Matt Brandt (Detroit Lions, 2004) and Ben Herrell (Carolina Panthers, 2004).

Johnson spent four years at the University of Akron, two as a graduate assistant (1995-96) and two as the Zips' defensive line coach (1997-98).

Johnson played offensive tackle at Miami (Ohio) and graduated with a degree in health appraisal and sport organization. During his playing career, Johnson was a three-year starter on the offensive line from 1992-94. A native of Akron, he was a standout lineman at Akron Hoban High School where he also lettered in track and field. He and his wife, Kristen, have two daughters, Madilyn (14) and Olivia (11).

KRIS KOCUREK

Defensive Line
Years with Lions: 5
Years in NFL: 5

Kris Kocurek enters his fifth season as defensive line coach after joining Detroit as the Lions' assistant defensive line coach in 2009. He had spent the previous season coaching defensive line at Stephen F. Austin State.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Detroit's defensive line continued to be the heart of the Lions' defense in 2012. The unit contributed 31 of the team's 34 sacks and helped the Lions defense rank third in total negative plays (123) and second in tackles for loss on rushing plays (78).

- The 31 sacks by the defensive line in 2012 were the seventh-most in the NFL among defensive line units.
- The Lions' defensive line ranked third in total negative plays with 62.5. (31.0 sacks, 31.5 tackles for loss on run plays.)
- DE Cliff Avril and DT Ndamukong Suh led the team in sacks with 9.5 and 8 respectively, while Kocurek also helped guide second-year DT Nick Fairley to a breakout season. Fairley was an internal force up front for the Lions, finishing with 5.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.
- Of the team's 41 sacks in 2011, 35 were generated by the Lions defensive line (85.4 percent), tying for fourth in the NFL among defensive line units.
- Avril finished the 2011 season with 11 sacks, ranking tied for 11th in NFL.
- In 2010, Kocurek's first season as the Lions' defensive line coach, Detroit had the most-improved pass rush in the NFL. Even though teams threw the ball nine times less against the Lions in 2010 season than they did in 2009, the Lions picked up 18 more sacks, which accounted for an increase of 3.28 sacks per pass play.
- Kocurek was also instrumental in Suh's development in 2010, who led all NFL defensive tackles with 10.0 sacks and had 66 tackles (49 solo). Suh was voted as a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad and was named to the AP All-Pro team. He was also the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. During his rookie season, he set a new team record for sacks by a rookie since the stat became official in 1982.

In 2009, Kocurek helped rookie DT Sammie Hill, who was drafted out of Stillman College in the fourth round (115th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft, emerge as an opening day starter. He finished the season with 26 tackles (14 solo) and two fumble recoveries in 13 games while making the transition from a small college prospect to NFL starter (12 starts).

In 2007, Kocurek served as the assistant head coach and defensive line coach at West Texas A&M where he helped coach the Buffaloes to the 2007 Lone Star Conference title as well as the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs. The Buffaloes became one of the top defensive units in the LSC and led the conference in scoring defense.

Under Kocurek's guidance, Brandon Swain became one of the top defensive players at the Division II level and was a 2007 First-Team Daktronics, AFCA and AP Little All-American and conference defensive lineman of the year after recording 24.5 tackles for losses and 14 sacks.

Kocurek served as the defensive line coach at Texas A&M-Commerce in 2006 and helped guide the Lions' top-ranked defensive unit which finished with No. 1 in total and scoring defense.

For two seasons (2004-05) Kocurek served as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M-Kingsville and coached the Havelina's defensive line where he was active in the development of Wilbert Martin, who was twice selected as first team All-LSC and was a free agent signee of the Baltimore Ravens.

Kocurek began his coaching career in 2003 as a student assistant at Texas Tech. While in Lubbock, he assisted with the defensive linemen and helped coach the Red Raiders to a 2003 Houston Bowl win over Navy.

Prior to coaching, Kocurek spent two years in the NFL with the Tennessee Titans (2002) and the Seattle Seahawks (2001) after being selected in the seventh round (237th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft by Seattle.

Kocurek played collegiate football at Texas Tech and was a three-time All-Big 12 selection. As a senior, he was selected as team captain and named defensive player of the year.

TIM LAPPANO
Wide Receivers
Years in NFL: 8

Tim Lappano, after coaching the Lions tight ends for the past four seasons, begins his new role as wide receivers coach in his fifth season with Detroit. Before coming to Detroit, Lappano served four seasons (2005-08) as the offensive coordinator at the University of Washington. He is entering his 30th season as a coach and his eighth in the NFL.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS:

- Lappano oversaw the development of TE Brandon Pettigrew through his first four seasons as Pettigrew amassed 243 receptions for 2,412 yards and scored 14 touchdowns over that span.
  - Pettigrew finished second on the team in receiving yards in 2012 with 567 and three touchdowns on 59 receptions. TEs Tony Scheffler and Will Heller each finished with 504 and 150 receiving yards and one touchdown, respectively. Scheffler's 504 yards ranked third on the team.
  - Pettigrew had 83 receptions in 2011 (third in the NFL among tight ends), establishing a new team single-season record for receptions by a tight end. He is the first tight end in Lions history to record 70 receptions in two different seasons and the first tight end with 80 catches.
  - With five TD catches by Pettigrew combined with Scheffler's career-high six touchdowns in 2011, Pettigrew and Scheffler were the second pair of Lions tight ends in team history to each register five touchdown catches each in a season. In 1976, Hall of Fame TE Charlie Sanders and TE David Hill each recorded five touchdown receptions.
  - In 2010, Pettigrew had one of the best seasons ever for a Lions tight end in 2010 while returning from a knee injury sustained late in his rookie year. He started all 16 games and was second on the team with 71 receptions for 722 yards – both of which were the most by a tight end in team history – and four touchdowns. Pettigrew had the third most receptions (71) and was seventh in receiving yards (722) among all NFL tight ends.
  - Scheffler finished with 45 receptions (378 yards) in 2010 and the Lions were the only team in the NFL to have two tight ends with 45+ receptions. Pettigrew and Scheffler combined for 116 catches, the second most by a tight end pair.
  - In 2009, Pettigrew led all rookie tight ends in receptions (30) and yards (346) despite being forced out after 11 games with knee injury.
  - Heller flourished in 2009, with career-highs in receptions (29), yards (296) and three touchdowns.
- Lappano's previous pro coaching stop was with San Francisco (2003-04) where he was the running backs coach. In his first season, their running game was third in the NFC with 2,279 yards as FB Fred Beasley made his first Pro Bowl appearance and RB Kevan Barlow rushed for a career-high 1,024 yards despite starting only four games.
- In 1998, Lappano made his NFL debut as running backs coach for Seattle. There he helped Ricky Watters rush for 1,239 yards and nine touchdowns, earning team Offensive Player of the Year honors. Lappano was the offensive coordinator at Oregon State (2000-02) and contributed heavily to the resurgence of the Beavers program. OSU led the Pac-10 in rushing yards (1,933) and in rushing offense, averaging 148.7 yards per game in 2002. Current Atlanta Falcons RB Steven Jackson led the conference with 1,690 yards while earning first-team All-Pac-10 honors.

Lappano began his coaching career as running backs coach at Idaho where he was a four-year letterman. He finished collegiate career as the school's second all-time leading rusher with 2,196 yards. In 1985, he helped the Vandals to a Big Sky Conference championship before leaving to coach running backs for Wyoming (1986). He then served as running backs coach at Washington State (1987-88) before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1989. In his first season as offensive coordinator, he led the Cougars to a Top 10 finish with former NFL Pro Bowl quarterback Drew Bledsoe and running back Steve Broussard (Pac-10 Offensive Player-of-the-Year).

Lappano moved on to California in 1992 as assistant head coach/running backs coach. Lappano coached Heisman Trophy candidate Russell White as Cal defeated Iowa to claim the Alamo Bowl in 1993. He returned to Wyoming in 1996 as receivers coach, helping the Cowboys to a WAC Championship while coaching All-American Marcus Harris to the Fred Biletnikoff Award.

In 1997, Lappano joined the Purdue coaching staff as co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach. The Boilermakers led the Big Ten in offense that season and ranked seventh in the nation.

Lappano earned a bachelor's degree in general studies at Idaho in 1983. He played high school football at Gonzaga Preparatory School in his native Spokane, WA and earned All-State honors as a senior. Lappano and his wife, Sandi, have two sons, Taylor and Kyle.

Years in NFL: 6

Curtis Modkins enters his sixth year in the NFL and first with the Lions. For the past three seasons, Modkins was the offensive coordinator/running backs coach for Buffalo. In 2012, he coordinated the Bills offense that ranked sixth in rushing (2,217 yds) and fourth in rushing average (5.0).

Two years ago (2011), Buffalo was fourth (led AFC) with a 4.9-yard average, also fourth-best in Bills history and highest since 1975. Jackson (5.5 avg., 1st in AFC) and Spiller (5.2 avg., 5th in AFC) both finished with an average of 5.0-plus yards In 2010, Buffalo was one of five AFC teams with a 3,000-yard passer and two players with 1,000 scrimmage yards (WR Stevie Johnson and Jackson).

Prior to joining the Bills, Modkins was the running backs coach for the Arizona Cardinals in 2009, and he entered the NFL as the running backs coach for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2008.

From 2002-07, he worked at Georgia Tech, first as the school's defensive backs coach in 2002 and then as running backs coach from 2003-07. Modkins enjoyed a successful four-year tenure at New Mexico from 1998-2001 as the cornerbacks coach. He started his coaching career at his alma mater, Texas Christian University, where he served as a graduate assistant in 1995, secondary coach in 1996 and was tight ends coach in 1997.

Modkins was a three-time intern through the NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship program. He worked with the following teams: Philadelphia Eagles (Head Coach Ray Rhodes) in 1997, Dallas Cowboys (Head Coach Chan Gailey) in 1999 and Pittsburgh Steelers (Head Coach Bill Cowher) in 2005.

Modkins was a three-year starter for TCU and a led the Horned Frogs in rushing from 1990-92. He finished his career third on the school's all-time rushing list with 2,763 yards and was twice named second team all-Southwest Conference. He earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1993 and earned his M.L.A. degree in 1997.

He and his wife, Kristi, have four children, Ciera, Jett, Mariah and Dash.

Strength & Conditioning
Years with Lions: 5
Years in NFL: 5

Ted Rath returns for his fifth season as the Lions assistant strength and conditioning coach after joining the team during the 2009 offseason. He had spent the previous two years as the assistant director of strength and conditioning for his alma mater, the University of Toledo. Rath was a linebacker for the Rockets (2003-2006) and helped them claim the 2004 MAC Championship and earn two bowl game berths, including the 2004 Motor City Bowl at Ford Field.

While working with Toledo's strength and conditioning program, Rath directed the strength regimens for all 15 of their Olympic Sports. He also assisted with all phases of football training protocols, including design and implementation of their workouts. Prior to being named assistant director, Rath worked as a graduate assistant and focused on the strength programs for men's basketball, baseball, track, cross country, golf and swimming.

Rath, along with Coordinator of Physical Development Jason Arapoff, started the annual Detroit Lions Strength and Conditioning Clinic in 2011. The event is a forum for providing, sharing and exchanging information in the ever changing world of strength & conditioning.

After graduating from Toledo with a degree in Physical Education, Rath started his professional career at nearby Crestwood (Dearborn Heights, Mich.) High School where he was an assistant football coach as well as their director of speed and strength training. The Monroe, Mich., native is certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (C.S.C.C.A.). Rath is a member of the advisory board for UltimateStrengthAndConditioning.com and is a contributing expert for Stack Magazine. He has written articles for multiple publications and speaks at numerous conferences and football camps throughout the year.

MARCUS
Secondary
Years in NFL: 7

Marcus Robertson enters his 23rd season in the NFL and his seventh season as a coach. This season, Robertson was named the Lions secondary coach after serving as the team's defensive assistant/secondary coach in 2012. He coached the previous five NFL seasons with Tennessee where he started as an assistant secondary coach (2007-08) and finished as their secondary coach (2009-11).

Robertson's first season assisting with the secondary was 2007. That season the Titans improved from 27th to 10th in pass defense and from 32nd to fifth in overall yardage allowed.

In 2008, three of Titans secondary players (CB Cortland Finnegan, S Chris Hope, S Michael Griffin) were invited to the Pro Bowl for the first time in their careers. Overall, the defensive backs collected 19 interceptions, which ranked second in the NFL in interceptions by a secondary. The Titans ranked ninth in pass defense and seventh in total defense.

Robertson was promoted to Secondary coach in 2009 and the Titans finished that season eighth in the NFL in interceptions (20) and second in interceptions returned for touchdown (4). Over the span of his three seasons coaching Tennessee's secondary (2009-11), the Titans were second in the NFL in average passing yards/completion (10.55).

Robertson played 12 NFL seasons after being drafted out of Iowa State in the fourth round by the Houston Oilers in 1991. He played his first 10 seasons in Houston/Tennessee and finished his career with Seattle (2001-02). Robertson's NFL career was highlighted by All-Pro seasons in 1993 and 1997. He played in 157 games (144 starts) with 851 tackles, 24 interceptions and 1.5 sacks.

After Robertson's playing career ended with the Seahawks, he returned to the Titans as their director of player development (2003-06). He spent the next four years assisting players with their career transition into and out of the NFL through continuing education, financial education and dealing with family matters through player programs. Robertson and his staff won the Winston and Shell Award in 2006 for their innovation and commitment to player development in the NFL.

Robertson was inducted into the Iowa State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009, where he starred as a cornerback and totaled 257 tackles, six interceptions and nine forced fumbles during his four-year career.

In 2012, Robertson earned a bachelor's of science degree in management and organizational development from Bethel University.

A native of Pasadena, Calif., Robertson and his wife, Holly, have three children: Morgan, Milan and Marcus Andrew.

Rothstein joined the Lions coaching staff in the 2012 offseason as a quality control/special teams coach. He is responsible for opponent film breakdown and self-scouting in addition to assisting with all aspects of special teams.

Rothstein arrived in Detroit after spending two seasons as the offensive quality control coach for the Syracuse University Orange football program.

As an undergraduate student, Rothstein began his coaching career with the SUNY Cortland Red Dragons where he served as the student assistant offensive line coach, quality control, and director of video operations from the fall of 2006 to the spring of 2009.

For the fall of 2009, Rothstein interned with the Syracuse University football video operations department before returning briefly to SUNY Cortland as their offensive line coach for the spring of 2010. He returned to the Syracuse University football staff as their offensive quality control coach in July of 2010.

The Merrick, N.Y. native attended Bellmore John F. Kennedy High School, earning recognition as a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete for the Cougars. Rothstein graduated SUNY Cortland with a bachelor of science in sport management in 2009 and a master of science in sport management in 2012. He has a wife, Carol.

JEREMIAH WASHBURN

Offensive Line
Years in NFL: 12

Jeremiah Washburn joined the Lions coaching staff as the assistant offensive line coach in 2009 and was promoted to offensive line coach in 2013. Before coming to Detroit, he had spent six seasons working in the Baltimore Ravens player personnel department. Washburn was the Ravens' area scout for the Southwest from 2005-08 and covered schools from the Big 12, SEC, WAC and Conference USA. He also assisted with the acquisition of rookie free agents following the draft.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS:

Detroit's offensive line continues to be one of the top pass protecting lines in the NFL for an offense that has passed more than any other team the past four seasons (2,039 pass attempts).

- In 2012, the Lions offensive line helped pave the way for 17 rushing touchdowns. The Lions' 17 touchdowns on the ground ranked sixth overall in the NFL, and were the most rushing touchdowns by the team since Detroit scored 19 in 1997.
- Washburn was instrumental in the development of rookie T Riley Reiff in 2012. Reiff played a key role in his first season on the Lions offensive line in an unbalanced tight end formation.
- Over the past three seasons, Detroit has allowed only 92 sacks, tying for eighth in the NFL. Their sacks-per-pass-play percentage during that span is 4.3 (4th best in the NFL).

During his first two years in Baltimore (2003-04), Washburn was a player personnel assistant. He assisted in pro scouting, including some advance scouting of opponents, unrestricted free agents, NFL Europa and other free agents, and he also assisted the college scouting director in preparation for the NFL Draft.

In 2002, Washburn entered the NFL as a football operations assistant with the Carolina Panthers.

Washburn was a three-year guard at the University of Arkansas. He was an international economics major and was a graduate assistant for the Razorbacks' athletic department while he earned his MBA.

Washburn and his wife, Susan, have two daughters, Ally and Megan, and a son, Drew.

JIM WASHBURN

Assistant Defensive Line
Pass Rush Specialist
Years with Lions: 1
Years in NFL: 15

Heralded as one of the best defensive line coaches in the NFL, Washburn joins the Detroit Lions coaching staff as assistant defensive line/pass rush specialist after serving as the Philadelphia Eagles' defensive line coach from 2011-2012. Washburn's stout coaching resume features five defensive linemen he has coached to the Pro Bowl, including Jason Babin, Kyle Vanden Bosch, Kevin Carter, Albert Haynesworth and Jevon Kearse.

In his first year with Philadelphia, Washburn led the Eagles to a League-leading 50 sacks in 2011, 46 of which came from his defensive line unit. Under Washburn's guidance, Babin notched a career-high 18 sacks and earned his second trip to the Pro Bowl.

Washburn brings 15 years of NFL coaching experience to the Lions, beginning his professional coaching career with the Tennessee Titans as defensive line coach from 1999-2010. During his time in Tennessee, the Titans ranked seventh in the NFL in sacks and fifth in rushing yards allowed. Washburn helped lead the Titans to six playoff berths, three division titles and one AFC championship.

Prior to joining the Titans, Washburn spent more than 20 years coaching in the Arena Football League, NFL Europe and collegiate programs, including defensive line coach positions at Houston (1998), Arkansas (1994-1997) and South Carolina (1983-1988).

Washburn began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Southern Methodist University. A native of Shelby, N.C., he was a four-year letterman at Gardner-Webb College where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1973. He later added his master's degree from North Carolina A&T in 1975.

Washburn and his wife, Sandy, have three children, Jessica Brady, Jeremiah, daughters-in-law Susan and Ashley and seven grandchildren, Allison, Grace, Luke, Drew, Avery, Jane, Megan, Cash and Noah.

Years in NFL: 26

James Harris joined the Lions player personnel department after spending six seasons (2003-08) as the Jacksonville Jaguars Vice President of Player Personnel. While directing the Jaguars player personnel area, he oversaw all player acquisitions, including: college draft, free agency, undrafted player signings and the scouting of players in other professional leagues.

Known affectionately as "Shack," Harris has 37 years of NFL experience, with the past 25 years working in player personnel and scouting.

Harris originally began his front office career in 1987 when he joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a scout, a position he would hold for six years (1987-92). He then moved on to the New York Jets and served as the team's assistant general manager from 1993-96. In 1997, Harris was named the director of pro personnel for the Baltimore Ravens. He was a member of the Ravens' player personnel department from 1997-2002, and he earned a Super Bowl ring with the Ravens as the team claimed a world championship with a victory in Super Bowl XXXV.

In 1969, Harris was drafted by Buffalo in the eighth round of the draft—an achievement of its own right since he was just one of a few blacks ever drafted at quarterback at the time. He would play for the Bills from 1969-71, and he would become the first black in NFL history to open the season as a starting quarterback. Harris then played for Los Angeles from 1973-76. While with the Rams, he was the Pro Bowl MVP in 1975 after throwing two touchdowns in a 14-13 win over the AFC. In 1976, he led the NFC with an 89.8 passer rating, which included a 436-yard outing against the Miami Dolphins. He concluded his career in San Diego where he played for the Chargers from 1977-81.

Harris has also impacted the community through the Shack Harris Doug Williams Foundation, which is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization dedicated to creating opportunities for economically disadvantaged youth. The foundation, established in 2005 with fellow NFL quarterback pioneer and Grambling State alumnus Doug Williams, provides grants for after-school initiatives, leadership development, mentoring programs and minority higher education assistance.

Harris' front office work has been recognized by numerous organizations. For two years in a row (2003 and 2004), he was one of the top-50 most influential minorities in sports by Sports Illustrated, and in 2005 he received recognition as one of "the most powerful African Americans in sports" by Black Enterprise. In March 2006, he was awarded the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Paul "Tank" Younger Award that recognized his efforts to level the playing field and improve life for minorities. In February 2007, William Rhoden featured Harris as a member of the Field Generals in ESPN's "Third and a Mile: The Trials and Triumphs of the Black Quarterback." Last year, Harris received the Onyx Awards Achievement in Sports by Onyx Magazine.

Prior to being drafted in 1969, Harris played for one of college football's most legendary coaches, Eddie Robinson, at Grambling State. During each of his four seasons (1965-68), the Tigers won or shared the SWAC title. He was named MVP of the 1967 Orange Blossom Classic and was named Pittsburgh Courier Player of the Year in 1968. As a legendary athlete and quarterback at Carroll High School in his hometown of Monroe, La., Harris received two-time All-State honors as he led Carroll to two unbeaten seasons and a state title.

Harris and his wife, Vickie, have two sons, James and Aaron, and two daughters, Felicia and Ashley.

BRIAN XANDERS
Senior Personnel Executive
Years in NFL: 20

Xanders joined the Lions in 2013, following a five-year stint with the Denver Broncos, including the last four seasons as the Broncos' general manager. For the Detroit Lions, he will assist the player personnel department in college scouting, pro personnel, and scouting systems development.

This season marks his 20th NFL season which includes him serving in a variety of player personnel, scouting, football operations and coaching staff roles during his time at three different teams (Lions, Broncos and Falcons). He has direct experience in player evaluations with the last 16 NFL Draft classes and 12 Free Agency periods.

During his tenure as the Broncos' general manager, Broncos won the AFC West Division for the last two years (2011-2012), where 55/61 players (90%) were acquired through the draft, free agency or re-signed during his tenure as GM. Denver became only the third team since the 1970 NFL merger to win its division and a playoff game with a new head coach following four wins the previous season.

The Broncos executed high-producing NFL Draft classes over the last three years, which finished #1 in the NFL in playtime and #2 in games started during 2010-12. There were nine primary starters from those draft classes, including three Pro Bowl players: LB Von Miller, WR Demaryius Thomas and OG Zane Beadles. There were also eight other Pro Bowl players who were acquired, signed or extended during his tenure: QB Peyton Manning (FA, 2012), SS Brian Dawkins (UFA, 2009-11), WR Brandon Lloyd (FA, 2009-11), RB Willis McGahee (FA, 2011), CB Champ Bailey (re-signed, 2011), DE Elvis Dumervil (re-signed, 2010), WR Brandon Marshall (re-signed, 2010), and OT Ryan Clady (1st round, 2008).

During his tenure in Denver, he also supervised the day-to-day operations of the Broncos' college scouting, pro scouting, labor operations/salary cap, equipment, medical, video, football systems and turf operations departments. He served on NFL College Advisory, NFL Combine Selection and the NFL Statistics Committees. He was originally hired by Denver as assistant general manager in 2008.

Before joining the Broncos, he worked 14 seasons (1994-2008) with the Atlanta Falcons in various scouting, player personnel, football operations, coaching staff and technology/systems roles. Xanders was a member of the Falcons' defensive coaching staff on their 1998 team that became the first in franchise history to earn a Super Bowl berth (XXXIII). Selected by the Falcons to attend Stanford University's NFL Program for Managers in 2005, he has given presentations at several universities on NFL player personnel issues.

A former linebacker who played for Bobby Bowden at Florida State University from 1989-92, Xanders was a member of four bowl-winning teams with the Seminoles that had a 42-7 combined record. He was an All-Atlantic Coast Conference academic team selection and graduated from FSU with a master's degree in business administration and a bachelor's degree in business management. He and his wife of 15 years, Amy, have two children, Reid and Mary Claire.

SHELDON WHITE

Vice President of Pro Personnel

Years in NFL: 17

Sheldon White is entering his 17th season with the Lions. He was promoted to Vice President of Pro Personnel April 30, 2009. During his first three years in the Lions personnel department, White fulfilled a myriad of roles: in 1997 as the team's BLESTO area scout, in 1998 as an area scout and in 1999 working in both the college and pro scouting areas before becoming Director of Pro Personnel in 2000.

In his current capacity as Vice President of Pro Personnel, White is involved in all player personnel matters and remains in constant communication with general manager Martin Mayhew, president Tom Lewand and head coach Jim Schwartz, as well as agents, the coaching staff, trainers, the media department, equipment managers, and the finance department regarding personnel transactions. He heads a team of personnel scouts that are responsible for evaluating all of the players in the National Football League, including the current Lions roster, and is also in charge of tryouts and visits for potential additional signings. White runs the free agent meetings, plays a key role in free agency and is an integral part of the draft process. He is also involved with the negotiating process, providing detailed reports on pro and college prospects, and has negotiated high round draft choices and selected free agents. Additionally, White runs a scouting internship program for prospective scouts during training camp and is in charge of the seasonal interns. Finally, he is responsible for the Lions official daily transactions and ensures that the team is in compliance with the NFL Player Personnel rules and regulations.

In 2012, White was a recipient of the Johnnie Cochran Salute to Excellence award, alongside five general managers, two head coaches and former commissioner Paul Tagliabue. The awards were given to Tagliabue and some front office executives from high achieving teams during the 2011 season.

In 2004, White completed the NFL's career development program at Stanford's Graduate School of Business.

White, a Lions defensive back from 1990-1992, initially re-joined the organization in '97 as a BLESTO scout after coaching wide receivers at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio) from 1994-96. That post followed a six-year NFL playing career in which White also saw action for the New York Giants in 1988-89 and the Cincinnati Bengals in 1993.

A native of Dayton, OH, White was a four year starter at Miami (Ohio) from 1984-87, and was named to their first team All-Century team. He earned first team All-MAC and honorable mention All-American honors in 1986-87 and served as a

CHARLIE SANDERS
Assistant Director of Pro Personnel
Years in NFL: 24

Long-time Lions' player and coach, Charlie Sanders re-joined the club in a scouting role February 18, 1998. He was promoted to Assistant Director of Pro Personnel March 1, 2000 after serving the previous two seasons as a pro scout. Sanders compiles reports and evaluations on upcoming Lions' opponents and players throughout the league and aids in preparation for the NFL Draft.

Sanders is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2007 and is only the seventh tight end in NFL history to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Overall, Sanders has spent 40 years affiliated with the Detroit Lions organization, including 10 years as a player (1968-77), seven as a broadcaster (1983-88, 1997), eight as a coach (1989-96) and the last 15 as a player personnel scout (1998-13).

After eight years on the Lions' coaching staff (tight ends in 1989-90 and wide receivers in 1991-96), Sanders spent the 1997 season as a radio broadcaster on the team's flagship station, WXYT. That assignment added to a radio broadcast resume that includes time as the club's color commentator from 1983-88.

One of the best tight ends of his era, Sanders caught 336 passes (fifth on the team's all-time list) during his 10-year career (1968-77) for 4,817 yards. He appeared in seven Pro Bowls, was twice named All-Pro and missed only 12 games during his career.

Drafted by the Lions in the third round from the University of Minnesota in 1968, Sanders was the only rookie that season selected to play in the Pro Bowl and he finished second to then-teammate Earl McCullough for NFL Rookie of the Year honors. He was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in 1990, the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, his native state, in 1997 and the Guilford County Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

Sanders and his wife, Georgianna, have nine children -- Mia, Charese, Mary Jo, Georgianna, Charlie Jr., Nathalie, Tallisa, Wayne and Jordan. Daughter Mary Jo was a professional boxer and a six-time world champion and his son Wayne played football for the Saginaw Valley State University.

CEDRIC SAUNDERS

Football Operations

Years with Lions: 8
Years in NFL: 15

Cedric Saunders is in his eighth year with the Lions and was named vice president of football operations September 24, 2008. In 2007, Saunders was promoted to director of football operations in his second season with the club. He came to Detroit after spending the previous five seasons with Tampa Bay.

Saunders works closely with Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Martin Mayhew and oversees the team's football operations, including the coordination of the year-round football calendar. Among his football operations duties, Saunders oversees the Lions' player development department, video department, equipment operations, team travel, athletic training staff, strength and conditioning, cafeteria operations, security department and human resources. Along with the coordination of those departments, he handles the annual budgets for the coaching staff, coaching support staff and player personnel department.

He also assists with player personnel, including the development of the team's roster, college scouting and on-campus visits and pro talent evaluation. Saunders plays a role in the coordination of the team's free agency and draft agenda, including free agent and draft eligible visits.

Each season, Saunders is responsible for interviewing and hiring coaching interns as part of the NFL Minority Coaching Program.

In addition to his various football operations responsibilities, he also assists with contract negotiations.

This past off-season, Saunders attended the NFL Career Development Symposium for General Manager and Head Coach talent held at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, one of the most prestigious business schools in the country.

While directing the player development department in Tampa Bay, Saunders helped get players involved in continuing education programs, off-season internships and jobs to prepare for possible post-NFL careers. He was also the main contact between the players and the club's community relations department and encouraged player involvement in charities and community activities.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Saunders spent the previous two seasons as an area scout for the Kansas City Chiefs, evaluating college talent in the Midwest. A native of Sarasota, Fla., Saunders was in training camp for three seasons with Tampa Bay (1994-96), and saw action on both the practice squad and active roster in 1995 as a tight end and special teams player. He also played with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe in 1997.

A four-year starter at Ohio State, Saunders posted 68 career receptions for 853 yards for the Buckeyes. He recorded 27 catches and earned second-team All-Big 10 honors as a senior in 1993 and was an honorable mention selection as a junior.

Saunders and his wife, Bashi, have two daughters, Reagan and Charlie Bleu, and two sons, Cayden and Kai.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

DEAN KLEINSCHMIDT

Coordinator of Athletic Medicine/Athletic Trainer

Years with Lions: 7

Dean Kleinschmidt, who was hired in April 2007, has acquired over four decades of experience in the athletic medicine field, most of which occurred on the NFL level. Kleinschmidt, now in his seventh season with the Lions, oversees the team's athletic training and medical operations.

Kleinschmidt's distinguished career as an athletic trainer includes 40 years in the NFL and three seasons in Division I college athletics. Prior to joining the Lions, he completed three seasons (2004-06) as the head athletic trainer for Indiana University's football program.

Previous to his stint at Indiana, Kleinschmidt was the head athletic trainer for the Washington Redskins (2002-03). For a two-year period, he worked in the private sector as the administrative director at East Jefferson Hospital Wellness Center in Metairie, La. (2001-02).

For 31 years, Kleinschmidt served as an assistant (1969-70) and head athletic trainer (1971-99) for the New Orleans Saints. He was promoted to head athletic trainer in 1971, becoming the NFL's youngest ever head athletic trainer at the age of 24.

Kleinschmidt is a 1970 graduate from Indiana University where he earned a bachelor's degree in health and safety and a major in athletic training. His work has been well-recognized throughout his career, and he is an inductee in the Senior Bowl Hall of Fame (2008), Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame (2007), New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame (2002), National Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame (1994) and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame (1990).

In 2003, Kleinschmidt was awarded the National College Football Foundation Athletic Trainer of the Year, and he has received distinguished awards from Indiana University and the U.S. Sports Academy.

In 1986, he directed an athletic training department for the Saints that was named the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year.

In addition to his duties over the years, Kleinschmidt has coordinated all sports medicine efforts at the Senior Bowl All-Star Game in Mobile, Ala., since 1971. He also has served on the board of directors and as president, including three terms, of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. ## ADMINISTRATION

BILL KEENIST

Senior Vice President of Communications

Years with Lions: 29

Bill Keenist embarks upon his 29th year within the Lions' organization. In 2001, he was promoted to the post of senior vice president of communications. Keenist is the team's chief spokesman on organizational matters.

Along with leading the team's football communications initiatives and operations, he also works closely with other team business initiatives, including broadcasting, community affairs, corporate communications, digital media, marketing, sales and tickets.

Additionally, he also is on the Board of Directors for Detroit Lions Charities.

Keenist has been with the Lions since 1985 when he was hired as assistant public relations director. In 1987 he was named director of public relations, a position he held until his appointment as director of marketing, broadcasting and communications in 1991. He held that position until 1994 when he was promoted to vice president for administration and communications.

From 1996-2001, Keenist, as a team vice president, supervised the areas of communications, broadcasting and marketing. Under his direction, the Lions launched several in-house media initiatives in the 1990s, including: a team television show, radio shows, a state-wide preseason TV and highlight show network, team newspaper, magazine and Internet site. Many of those entities are still in operation today. Keenist, also coordinated the teams' broadcast negotiations for local TV and Radio from 1989 thru 2001.

Keenist's NFL career began in 1981 when he worked for the Washington Redskins as a public relations assistant. He was a member of the Redskins staff when the team won Super Bowl XVII in 1983 over Miami. He also served as the Redskins' director of promotions in 1983.

After leaving the Redskins, Keenist returned home to the Pittsburgh area where he was the public relations director for the Pittsburgh Maulers of the United States Football League in 1984. After the Maulers' one season in the USFL, Keenist served as the sports public relations director for the Pittsburgh Civic Arena, where he worked primarily with the Pittsburgh Penguins.

Keenist's talents have been recognized around the NFL. For Super Bowls XXIV through XXVIII he had the honor of being selected a public relations co-captain, which involves the coordination of all media-related activities at the Super Bowl. In all, he has worked a total of 20 Super Bowls for the NFL. In the past, he has served on the following NFL PR/Marketing Committees: Broadcasting; Governmental Affairs and Insider Magazine. Keenist has been the P.R. Chairman of the NFC Central division and Chairman of the Public Relations Special Projects Committee.

In 2002, Keenist was honored by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association with the "Best of the Best" award, which annually honors the top sports public relations person in the Detroit media market. In 2003, the Lions' 2002 club seat ticket commercial, produced by Keenist, was nominated for an EMMY, a first for any Lions' production.

Also among Keenist's accomplishments, he served as a member of Detroit's Super Bowl XL Communications Task Force Committee, and played a key role in the organization's public relations efforts during several Super Bowl XL related events.

Keenist holds a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. He also received his bachelor's degree in journalism from Ohio and was a recipient of a Sports Administration Scholarship from the NFL in 1981. As sports editor of The Ohio University Post in 1980, his sports section was named the Best College Sports Section in America by a national panel of sportswriters and columnists, an honor for which he received a post-graduate scholarship.

He then served a graduate internship at Duke University where he worked in the athletic department.

In 2004, Keenist was inducted into the Elizabeth Forward High School Hall of Fame in his hometown of Elizabeth, Pa., and was a member of the school's Class of 1976.

In 2006, Keenist was awarded a medal of merit by Ohio's Alumni Association, which annually honors alumni who have distinguished themselves in their respective professions.

Among his philanthropic endeavors, Keenist works closely with Lions Hall of Fame tight end Charlie Sanders and his foundation's Have a Heart, Save a Life program that raises awareness and funding for the detection of potentially serious heart conditions in young athletes' through free heart screenings. Keenist is also on the Board of Directors for Team Joseph, a local charity fighting Duchene Muscular Dystrophy.

Keenist, 55, lives in Oxford with his wife Cindy and their three children: sons, Billy and Christopher, and daughter, Lindsay. He is an active member of Oxford High School's Athletic Boosters, a member of the Oxford School District Strategic Planning Committee and serves on Oxford's School Board.

Both sons, Billy and Christopher, played college football at Adrian (Mich.) College and now are coaching in the Oxford High School Football program.

ELIZABETH PARKINSON
Senior Vice President of Marketing and Partnerships
Years with Lions: 2

Elizabeth Parkinson joined the Lions senior management staff in 2012 as senior vice president of marketing and partnerships. Parkinson oversees marketing, promotions, corporate partnerships, community relations and digital media, and she works closely with broadcasting, guest services and youth football.

Prior to joining the Lions, Parkinson served as the senior vice president of marketing and communications for the Michigan Economic Development Corporation, reporting to MEDC President Michael Finney and Governor Rick Snyder. The MEDC serves as the state's marketing arm and lead agency for business, talent and jobs, tourism, film and digital incentives, arts and cultural grants, and overall economic growth.

In her role at the MEDC, she directed all business and consumer marketing and communications, which included oversight of Travel Michigan, media relations, advertising, events, web development and graphics. She had direct oversight of the award-winning Pure Michigan campaign.

Before joining the MEDC, Parkinson served as director of marketing and public relations for Ann Arbor SPARK, developing and implementing the organization's integrated marketing and public relations effort. Through aggressive public outreach and targeted advertising, along with the development of digital and social media tools, SPARK was recognized nationally under her leadership.

Parkinson also worked at Edelman Public Relations in Chicago, serving as executive vice president of the Creative Solutions group. She developed, coordinated and executed several creative campaigns for multi-national clients, including: Microsoft, Kraft, KFC, Pizza Hut, FTD, Case IH, Allstate, Abbott, Pfizer, Fuji Film, Mexico Ministry of Tourism, Illinois Board of Tourism, Bacardi, Underwriters Laboratories and Whirlpool.

As a graduate from Alma College, Parkinson holds a bachelor of arts degree in marketing and accounting from Alma College. She and her husband, Frank, have four children, Madeline, Isabella, Carmen and Frank. Parkinson has held numerous board positions including the Michigan Travel Commission, Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, Washtenaw Economic Club and the Arts Alliance.

LUIS PEREZ

Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer
Years with Lions: 3

Perez joined the Detroit Lions front office as Senior Vice President CFO in 2011 and now is in his third year with the organization. He oversees the club and stadium's financial, insurance, banking, information technology, business systems, retail store and purchasing operations. Perez reports directly to President Tom Lewand.

Before joining the Lions, he spent seven years as the managing director at Modell Ventures.

Perez comes to Detroit with 12-plus years of financial related experience in the sports industry. He has served as the chief financial officer for the Baltimore Ravens (1998-2004) as well as controller for the New York Knicks and the New York Rangers (1997-98). Prior to joining the Knicks and Rangers, Perez was controller for the Philadelphia Phillies (1992-97). He began his career as a member of the international accounting firm of KPMG (1986-92), becoming a CPA in 1990.

In 1986, Perez graduated from the College of New Jersey with a B.S. in accounting. While at the College of New Jersey, he was a captain of the baseball team and was an Academic All-America nominee after his junior and senior years.

Perez has sat on the board for The SEED Foundation since 2007. SEED (www.seedfoundation.com) partners with urban communities to provide innovative educational opportunities that prepare underserved students for success in college and beyond.

Born in Las Villas, Cuba, Luis moved to the United States at the age of four. He and his wife, Joanne, have three daughters: Kelly, Allison and Christina.

TRANSACTIONS

- Placed on Reserve/Injured list by the Lions December 4, 2012.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round (54th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft.

PRO

Versatile slot wide receiver who made an immediate impact in the Lions high-powered passing game in his rookie season. 2012: Impressive rookie season was cut short by a knee injury that featured 22 receptions for 300 yards and two touchdowns. Played in 10 games (three starts) and answered the bell when called upon when starting WR Nate Burleson was lost for the season to injury. Breakout performance came on Thanksgiving Day against Houston (11/22) when he hauled in six passes for 126 yards.

- Did not play in game at San Francisco in Week 2 (9/16).
- Saw first action of the season in Week 3 at Tennessee (9/23) in four-receiver sets.
- Had a big day on Monday Night Football at Chicago in Week 7 (10/22), catching his first-career touchdown and finishing with three catches for 51 yards in the Lions' 13-7 loss to the Bears.
- Followed up his solid performance at Chicago on Monday Night Football in Week 7 with his second career touchdown reception vs. Seattle in Week 8 (10/28), hauling in a six-yard touchdown pass from QB Matthew Stafford in the first quarter. Finished the game with three receptions for 37 yards.
- Caught all six passes thrown his way and finished second on the team with 52 yards in the Lions' 31-14 win over Jacksonville in Week 9 (11/4), setting new career highs in receptions and receiving yards.
- Had one reception for six yards in Week 10 at Minnesota (11/11).
- Hauled in two receptions for 35 yards, his longest coming on a 27-yard catch on a key third down play in Week 11 vs. Green Bay (11/18).
- Had a career day vs. Houston on Thanksgiving Day (11/22), setting new career highs in receptions (6), receiving yards (126) and longest reception (40 yards) against the Texans.
- Broyles teamed up with WR Calvin Johnson (140 yards) against Houston to become the first duo of Lions receivers to each record 125 yards in a game since WR Brett Perriman (153) and WR Herman Moore (127) each did so November 23, 1995 vs. Minnesota.
- Placed on Reserve/Injured December 4 after suffering an ACL injury in Week 13 vs. Indianapolis (12/2) and missed the rest of the season.

COLLEGE

Broyles finished his collegiate career as the NCAA career leader in receptions (349) and is second in receiving yards (4,586). The two-time Biletnikoff Award Finalist started in 43-of-48 career games before being lost to a torn ACL in his senior season. Broyles holds 10 Oklahoma game, season, and career records. He caught a pass in every game he played for the Sooners. Was a 2010 All-American and consensus All-Big 12 selection. Reached 100 career receptions faster than any player in school history. Also served as the Sooners' primary punt returner throughout his career, returning 107 career punts for 1,186 yards.

- Holds Oklahoma school records for receptions in a game (15), single-season receptions (131), career receptions (349), single-game receiving yards (217), single-season receiving yards (1,622), career receiving yards (4,586), single-season touchdown receptions (15), career touchdown receptions (45), single-season 100-yard games (10) and career 100-yard games (45).
- Biletnikoff Award finalist in 2011, Walter Camp First Team All-American and First Team All-Big 12. Started nine games before losing the rest of the season to injury. Registered 83 catches for 1,157 yards and 10 touchdowns before injury. Broke his own single-game record for receiving yards with 217 at Kansas. Scored touchdowns in seven of nine games on the season, including four multi-touchdown games.

PERSONAL

Attended Norman High School in Norman, Okla. Played football under coach Butch Peters. Had 79 career receptions for 1,688 yards and 18 touchdowns. Also registered 157 tackles and 20 interceptions as a defensive back. Named 6A-2 All-District and OCA All-State.

- Averaged 18 points per game as a high school basketball player.
- Ranked by Scout (No. 23) and Rivals (No. 11) as a top cornerback prospect.
- Son of Edward and Stephanie.
- Human Relations major.

MANE FACTS

- Pronunciation: BURL-uh-sun
- Twitter: @Nate13Burleson
- Voted by his teammates for the Mike Utley Spirit Award in 2012.
- Big cartoon fan. Favorites include: Looney Toons, Smurfs, Chip and Dale, and Dark Wing Duck.
- Owns tremendous shoe collection (over 500 shoes). Has many collector shoes, dress shoes, and one-time release shoes.
- Loves opening up a fresh new box of shoes and smelling them. Claims the new shoe smell is better than new car smell.
- After his playing career, Burleson would like to be a football commentator for TV or radio. Has appeared as guest host on NFL Network several times. Focus in college was speech communication. One of his passions is to speak to audiences.
- Part of an athletically gifted family, started by father, Alvin, who played for the Calgary Stampeders of the CFL from 1976-81. Brother, Kevin, played for the NBA's Charlotte Bobcats.

TRANSACTIONS

- Signed five-year contract with the Detroit Lions as an unrestricted free agent on March 6, 2010.
- Placed on Reserve/Injured by the Seahawks September 9, 2008
- Signed by the Seattle Seahawks as restricted free agent March 31, 2006.
- Drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in the third round (71st overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft.

PRO

Eleven-year veteran wide receiver who stretches the field and gains valuable yards after the catch. Spent the first three years of his career (2003-05) with the Minnesota Vikings and then the next four years with the Seattle Seahawks (2006-09).

- In 126 career games (95 starts), he has accumulated 418 career catches for 5,169 yards (12.4 avg) and 38 touchdowns. Also has 38 rushes for 265 yards (7.0 avg).
- Had breakout season for Minnesota in his second season (2004), leading the team in receiving yards with 1,006.
- Led Seattle in touchdowns with seven receiving touchdowns and two return touchdowns in 2007.
- Has garnered eight career 100-yard receiving games, including one in 2011 with the Lions.
- 2012: Opened 2012 as starting receiver opposite WR Calvin Johnson. Registered 27 catches for 240 yards and two touchdowns in his six games (five starts) before a leg injury ended his season in Week 7. His 17-yard touchdown reception at Philadelphia (10/14) was part of a late Lions comeback victory. His 10-catch, 69-yard, one-touchdown performance at Tennessee (9/23) marked his most productive outing of the season.
- Recorded 6 catches for 69 yards in the Lions' 27-23 season home opener against the St. Louis Rams (9/9). Also carried the ball for a 6-yard run on opening play. Caught crucial 20-yard pass with 1:25 remaining in the game on the Lions' game-winning drive that led to a Kevin Smith touchdown.
- Nearly tied a career high for receptions with 10 catches for 69 yards in Week 3 at Tennessee (9/23). Burleson and WR Calvin Johnson each caught 10 passes in the game, becoming the first pair of receivers in team history to each have 10 receptions in a single game. Among his catches included a three-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter, immediately followed by his second career two-point conversion reception.
- Caught 5 passes for 51 yards, his longest for 26 yards, and rushed once for eight yards in Week 4 vs. Minnesota (9/30).
- Caught his second touchdown pass of the season in Week 6 at Philadelphia (10/14) on a 17-yard strike from QB Matthew Stafford that sparked a Lions comeback to send the game into overtime on their way to a 26-23 (OT) victory. Finished the game with four catches for 24 yards and also had two carries for 22 yards on the ground.
- Caught one pass for 16 yards before leaving the game with a broken leg injury in Week 7 at Chicago (10/22).
- Placed on Reserve/Injured for remainder of the season with a broken leg injury.

COLLEGE

Recorded 248 catches for 3,293 yards and 22 touchdowns during his three years at Nevada. Finished second in NCAA history for single-season receptions (138) in 2002. Finalist for Biletnikoff Award (nation's top receiver).

- Led nation in receptions per game and receiving yards as a senior (2002) and was named first-team All-America by AFCA, All-WAC and team MVP. Was also a second-team All-America by The Sporting News and CNN/SI.

PERSONAL

Earned eight letters in football, basketball and track at O'Dea High School in Seattle.

- Named Seattle Athlete of the Year as a senior in 1999.
- Born in Calgary during his father's playing days.

MANE FACTS

- Pronunciation: DEL-mus
- 2011 Pro Bowl Alternate.
- While growing up in Florida, Delmas was huge fan of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers mainly because he enjoyed watching fullback Mike Alstott run over defenders.
- Delmas' favorite actor is Chris Tucker. He considers Friday one of the best movies ever made.
- While getting dressed before games, Delmas will put his game pants on last.
- Delmas loves to fish and when he is back in Florida, he drives around with his pole just in case he comes across a fishing spot.
- When his career is over, he would like to open up a Boys and Girls club.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed with the Detroit Lions as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2013.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

PRO

Hard-hitting safety who flies around the field with speed and aggressiveness. Delmas brings athleticism and toughness to the Lions' defensive backfield.

- One of the League's best, young defensive playmakers.
- Has played in 49 career game (49 starts), garnering 264 tackles (191 solo), three sacks (14 yards), three interceptions, 16 pass defenses, two forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries.
- Became the first rookie in NFL history and the second player (Rams LB Rod Martin, 1984) ever to register an interception return TD, fumble return TD and a safety in the same season.
- Named to Sporting News 2009 All-Rookie Team.
- During rookie season in 2009, named NFL Defensive Player of the Month for September.

2012: Hampered by a lingering knee injury, was able to play through pain to start eight games. Totaled 38 tackles (28 solo) and one interception. Made an immediate impact upon his return to the field, making seven tackles (seven solo) and one interception at Philadelphia (10/14).

- Inactive for first four games of the season due to a knee injury.
- Returned to action as the starting free safety in Week 6 against the Eagles (10/14), making an immediate impact with seven solo tackles and the Lions' first interception of the season in the 26-23 overtime win. His interception was the third of his career and his first since his rookie season in 2009.
- Finished with three tackles (two solo) in the Lions' 13-7 loss at Chicago in Week 7 (10/22).
- Finished fourth on the team in tackles with three solo tackles vs. Seattle in Week 8 (10/28), but left the game in the third quarter with a knee injury.
- Inactive in Week 9 at Jacksonville (11/4) and Week 10 at Minnesota (11/11) with a knee injury.
- Inactive in Week 11 vs. Green Bay (11/18) with a knee injury.
- Returned to action in Week 12 vs. Houston (11/22) on Thanksgiving Day, finishing with five tackles (three solo).
- Finished with three tackles (two solo) in Week 13 vs. Indianapolis (12/2).
- Inactive in Week 14 at Green Bay (12/9).
- Returned to action in Week 15 at Arizona (12/16) and finished fifth on the team in total tackles with three solo tackles, including one tackle for loss against the Cardinals.
- Led the team in tackles in Week 16 vs. Atlanta (12/22) with nine tackles (six solo).
- Had five tackles (two solo) and one pass defense in Week 17 vs. Chicago (12/30).

COLLEGE

Delmas started in 44 of 45 games at Western Michigan, 33 at free safety and 11 at cornerback as he began his career as a left cornerback before moving inside to free safety as a sophomore. He became just the 14th player in school history to register 300 or more tackles in a career, finishing tied for eighth on that record list with 310 hits. He also appeared on special teams and saw brief action as a receiver in the 2008 Texas Bowl.

- In 2008, Delmas led the Broncos with a career-high 111 tackles (61 solo) and earned All-American status for the first time. Also had four interceptions, including one that he returned for a touchdown. His 111 tackles ranked sixth among the nation's defensive backs during his final season.
- All-American Dream Team choice by The NFL Draft Report, adding All-MAC first-team honors from the league's coaches. Earned MAC Defensive Player of the Week honors vs. Northern Illinois and Illinois.
- In 2007, started nine of 10 games played in, recording 64 tackles (48 solos), ranking fifth on the team. Earned All-MAC second-team honors.
- As a sophomore in 2006, started 11 games at free safety. Finished third on the team with 53 tackles (39 solos), coming up with 0.5 stops for minus one yard. Caused and recovered a fumble, as he deflected five passes and intercepted four others for 52 yards in returns.
- During his freshman season in 2005, started all 11 games at left cornerback. Ranked third on the squad with 82 tackles (54 solos), the most by any first-year player in the MAC during 2005. Also had 1.5 sacks for minus 7 yards among his - four stops behind the line of scrimmage and recovered two fumbles and registered one safety.

- Freshman All-American second-team selection by College Football News. Added All-MAC second-team honors after deflecting a team-high eight passes and pacing the Broncos with three interceptions.

PERSONAL

Attended North Miami Beach (Fla.) High School, where he was teammates with fellow Western Michigan players Daniel Marks and E.J. Biggers.

- Was voted his team's best defensive back three straight seasons.
- Broke school records for single game and career kickoff return yardage, as he collected 178 tackles with three interceptions on defense and had 61 receptions for 841 yards and seven touchdowns on offense.
- Brother Greg Joseph plays safety at Florida Atlantic.
- Born Apr. 12, 1987 in Fort Pierce, Florida.

MANE FACTS

- Hill earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance vs. St. Louis (11/16/08), where he became the first 49ers quarterback to post a perfect QB rating in the first half.
- Loves to fish. Started reeling in fish inhabiting farm ponds in his home state of Missouri during high school. When he lived in Minnesota as a member of the Vikings, Shaun caught a 30-inch, 9-pound walleye on his first trip out. He was able to lure the fish using a leech for bait 40-feet deep. Also in his fishing repertoire is a 48-inch muskie.
- Shaun owns all of the weightlifting records for quarterbacks at Maryland - power clean (303 lbs), bench press (320 lbs), and squat (500 lbs).
- Has supported the Muscular Dystrophy Association.
- Hosts annual fundraising golf tournament at high school alma mater to benefit booster club. Hosts annual football camp in conjunction with the Parsons Police Football League.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed with Lions to a two-year contract extension with the Detroit Lions on March 7, 2012.
- Signed one-year contract extension (through 2011) with the Detroit Lions July 10, 2010.
- Acquired by the Detroit Lions via trade from the San Francisco 49ers Mar. 16, 2010.
- Signed by the San Francisco 49ers as an unrestricted free agent June 2, 2006.
- Signed as an undrafted rookie free agent with the Minnesota Vikings Apr. 25, 2002.

PRO

As a proven, veteran quarterback, Hill adds valuable depth to the team's quarterback position. Has a 13-13 record as a starter (9-3 at home).

- Through his first 16 career starts (10-6), his career .625 winning pct. as a starter was the fourth-highest winning percentage among all undrafted quarterbacks since 1970 (min. 10 starts). All 16 starts at quarterback occurred while with the San Francisco 49ers (2006-09) and winning percentage (.625) is the third highest winning percentage in 49ers history.
- In his first NFL start, he set a record for the highest completion percentage in NFL history for a player making his first pass attempts.
- Originally entered the league as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2002 with Minnesota where he served primarily as the team's third quarterback from 2002-05.
- While with Minnesota, he worked with Lions Offense Coordinator Scott Linehan (2002-04) who served in the same role for the Vikings.

2012: His one appearance on the season featured a remarkable comeback effort at Tennessee (9/23). Replacing injured QB Matthew Stafford, Hill led two late touchdown drives, including a 46-yard Hail Mary completion to tie the game and force overtime.

- Did not play in season opener vs. St. Louis (9/9) and Week 2 at San Francisco (9/16) as team's backup quarterback.
- Entered the game with 1:16 left to play in the fourth quarter in Week 3 at Tennessee (9/23). In that time he engineered two scoring drives that time the game at the end of regulation. The first was completed with a 3-yard pass to Calvin Johnson and a 46-yard Hail Mary deflection that landed in the hands of WR Titus Young for a 46-yard score with no time left.
- Hill became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw two touchdown passes in the final 18 seconds to either take the lead or send the game into overtime. During overtime, he added another 50 yards. In all, Hill completed 10-of-13 passes for 172 yards and 2 touchdowns. His passer rating was 157.9.
- Did not play vs. Minnesota (9/30) in Week 4 and at Philadelphia (10/14) in Week 6 as the team's backup quarterback.
- Did not play in Week 7 at Chicago (10/22) as the team's backup quarterback.
- Did not play in Week 7 at Chicago (10/22) and at Jacksonville (11/4) in Week 9 as the team's backup quarterback.
- Did not play the rest of the season as the team's backup quarterback.

COLLEGE

Two-year letterman for Maryland Terrapins, registering career passing totals of 3,158 yards and 19 touchdowns.

- Helped school earn first All-Atlantic Coast title since 1985 after guiding Maryland to a berth in the Orange Bowl and a 10th overall national ranking during senior season in 2001.
- Transferred to Maryland after starting college career at Hutchinson Community College (Kansas) from 1998-99 where he was All-Jayhawk Conference honorable mention as sophomore and All-Jayhawk Conference and NJCAA All-American honorable mention as freshman.

PERSONAL

As a three-year starter at quarterback and two-year starter at free safety at Parsons (Kan.) H.S., he was a two-time All-Southeast Kansas first-team selection and an Honorable Mention All-state selection as a senior.

- Also lettered in basketball, baseball and track.
- Was a three-time All-SEK first-team choice in basketball, serving as team captain and earning All-state honors three times after guiding team to state tournament as a junior and senior.

MANE FACTS

- Voted by his teammates for the Lem Barney Defensive MVP Award in 2012.
- Founded an organization called Athletes Achieving More Excellence that features youth programs offered during the summer. The organization also monitors kid's grades throughout middle school and high school. For more information, visit www.aameaustin.org.
- Growing up in Texas, Houston watched a lot of the Dallas Cowboys and was a big Deion Sanders fan. He was also a fan of Jerry Rice and Champ Bailey.
- Favorite TV show is Martin.
- Enjoys reading inspirational books – books about Gandhi and other people whose minds can go further than the average person.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed by the Detroit Lions as an unrestricted free agent to a five-year contract on March 14, 2013.
- Re-signed by the Detroit Lions to a two-year deal August 4, 2011.
- Acquired by the Detroit Lions via trade with the Atlanta Falcons Mar. 9, 2010.
- Drafted by the Atlanta Falcons in the second round (41st overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft.

PRO

Acquired by Detroit through a trade with Atlanta after spending the first three years (2007-09) with the Falcons. During four-year career has accumulated 325 career tackles (277 solo), 11 interceptions (241 yards; 3 TD), 71 pass defenses, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries, along with seven special teams tackles.

- Seven of 10 career interceptions have come the past two seasons (2010-11) with the Lions.
- In 2009, he played in 12 games (10 starts) before ending the year on the reserve/injured list due to a hamstring injury.
- Started 16 games in 2008 and had two interceptions, one returned 10 yards for a TD (vs. KC, 9/21). Also started in Falcons' playoff game.
- Played all 16 games as rookie and led Falcons rookies with 55 tackles. Emerged as starter (11 starts), primarily at RCB.
- 2012: Played and started in 14 games, totaling 55 tackles (44 solo), 11 pass defenses, two interceptions and two forced fumbles. Was a lone rock amidst a constant shuffle in the defensive backfield and often matched up against the opponent's best receiver.
- Inactive with ankle injury in first two games vs. St. Louis (9/9) in season opener and Week 2 at San Francisco.
- Returned to action in Week 3 at Tennessee (9/23) and had five tackles (four solo) and two passes defended.
- Had four tackles (two solo and one for loss) and one pass defense vs. Minnesota (9/30) in Week 4.
- Recorded his first interception of the season against the Philadelphia Eagles (10/14) in Week 6. Also finished the game with two solo tackles in the Lions' comeback win.
- Tied for third on the team in tackles with six (five solo), including one tackle for loss in the Lions' 13-7 loss at Chicago in Week 7 (10/22).
- Led the team in tackles with eight (six solo), including one tackle for loss, in the Lions' 28-24 win vs. Seattle in Week 8 (10/28). The Lions defense recorded seven tackles for loss against the Seahawks in the comeback victory.
- Finished fourth on the team in tackles with four solo tackles and had one pass defended in the Lions' 31-14 win over Jacksonville in Week 9 (11/4).
- Had three tackles (two solo) in Week 10 at Minnesota (11/11) before leaving the game with an ankle injury.
- Returned from an ankle injury and finished with four tackles (three solo) in Week 11 vs. Green Bay (11/18).
- Had his best game of the season on Thanksgiving Day vs. Houston in Week 12 (11/22), picking off his second pass of the season and finishing with five passes defended. His five passes defended set a new career high, breaking his previous mark of four set in 2009 against the New York Giants (11/22/09).
- Finished third on the team in tackles with six (five solo) in Week 13 vs. Indianapolis (12/2).
- Had one solo tackle in Week 15 at Arizona (12/16).
- Had two tackles (one solo) and two pass defenses in Week 17 vs. Chicago (12/30).
- Recorded five total tackles (four solo) in Week 16 vs. Atlanta (12/22).

COLLEGE

A Pro Football Weekly All-America honorable mention and All-Southeastern Conference second team selection by the league's coaches and Associated Press in 2006 at Arkansas.

- Houston gained 129 yards on two interceptions against Mississippi State, which set a school game-record, topping the old mark of 99 yards by Orlando Watters vs. Louisiana State in 1993.
- Returned an interception 87 yards for a touchdown in the same game against MSU, which was the ninth-longest return in school history and the longest since Jermaine Petty returned an interception 88 yards vs. Auburn in 2001.
- Blocked a punt that he recovered for a touchdown in 2004.

PERSONAL

Attended Lyndon B. Johnson (Austin, Texas) High School, competing as a running back and cornerback.

- As a senior, Houston rushed for 426 yards and six touchdowns before moving exclusively to cornerback.

MANE FACTS

- Pro Bowl: 2011, 2012, 2013
- Voted by his teammates for the Bobby Layne Offensive MVP Award in 2012.
- 2012 AP All-Pro; 2012 PFW/PFWA America All-NFL Team
- 2011 AP All-Pro Second Team
- Named NFC Offensive Player of the Month for November 2012.
- By a vote of fans across the country via a contest promoted by ESPN's SportsNation, Johnson was voted to appear on cover EA Sports Madden NFL 13 video game.
- Calvin Johnson, Jr. Foundation was established in 2009 that focuses on the self-development and empowerment of aspiring youth. The Calvin Johnson Jr. Foundation, Inc.'s vision is to see youth emerge out of seemingly difficult situations and change into productive members of society. The foundation's motto is "Catching Dreams," and it provides scholarships to Metro Detroit and Metro Atlanta football athletes, gives toys to children during the Christmas holidays in Detroit and Atlanta, collaborates with The Department of Corrections Metro Atlanta Transitional Women's Center in providing toys to inmate children, conducts a free Wide Receiver Camp for rising 9th-12th grade Metro Atlanta football athletes on football and life skills along with other miscellaneous donations and support.
- Growing up in Atlanta, Johnson was a big Deion Sanders fan. On Sundays, he was a Denver Broncos fan, mostly because he loved to watch Terrell Davis.
- When Johnson first started playing football, he was a defensive back and running back. He started playing receiver when he got to high school.
- Johnson enjoys drawing and wants to finish his degree in management and eventually buy a business franchise.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed by the Lions to a new eight-year contract (through 2019) on March 14, 2012.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (2nd overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft.

PRO

One of the league's elite receivers who possesses a unique blend of size, strength and speed. With career tallies of 488 receptions for 7,836 yards and 54 touchdowns, he is quickly rising to the top of the team's all-time receiving charts

- Produced one of the most historic seasons among receivers in NFL history during 2012 season. Finished the season with 122 receptions for an NFL record 1,964 yards and five touchdowns.
- By establishing an NFL single-season record (1,964), he broke the mark set by WR Jerry Rice (1,848 in 1995) by 116 yards.
- His 122.8 yards per game average was the third-most in NFL history (minimum 12 games) and the most since WR Charley Hennigan recorded a 124.7 yard per game average (14 games) in 1961.
- Johnson's 122 receptions in 2012 made him the second player in team history and sixth player in NFL history (eight times) to register 120 receptions in a season. 122 receptions are second-most in Lions history (WR Herman Moore 123 in 1995) and tied for fourth-highest single-season tally in NFL history.
- Tied with WR Michael Irvin (1995) for the most 100-yard receiving games (11) during a season in NFL history.
- Ended 2012 averaging 16.02 yards per reception. He and WR Rod Smith are the only players in NFL history to register 100 receptions and a yard per receptions average over 16. Smith averaged 16.020 (100-1602), which was slightly higher than Johnson (16.016; 122-1,964).
- First player in NFL history with 1,900 receiving yards in a season, the second player to register over 1,800 receiving yards and the fifth player to record over 1,700 yards in NFL history. Rice (1,848 in 1995) and Johnson are the only players to record 1,800 receiving yards in a season, and Johnson joins Rice, WR Isaac Bruce (1,781 in 1995), Hennigan (1,746 in 1961) and WR Marvin Harrison (1,722 in 2002) in the group of receivers to record 1,700 yards in a season.
- By gaining over 100 yards in Week 16 vs. Atlanta (12/22/12), he set an NFL record with his eighth-straight 100-yard receiving game. He broke the previous record (7) by WR Charley Hennigan (1961) and WR Michael Irvin (1995).
- With 225 yards vs. Atlanta, Johnson registered his fourth career 200-yard game and became the fifth player in NFL history with four career 200-yard games (WR Lance Alworth, 5; E Don Hutson, WR Charley Hennigan and WR Jerry Rice). Johnson's 225 yards against the Falcons are the fourth-highest single-game total in Lions history and the second-highest of Johnson's career.
- Four 200-yard games are tied for the second-most in NFL history.
- First player in NFL history to record two 200-yard games in two different seasons (2011, 2012).
- Johnson's 11 receptions against Atlanta (12/22/12) was his fourth-straight game with 10+ receptions and he became the first player in NFL history to register 10+ receptions in four-straight games.
- Ranks second in Lions history in receiving yards (7,836), second in receiving touchdowns (54) and fourth in receptions (488).
- 2011 post-season accolades: AP All-Pro; NFC starter for 2012 Pro Bowl (second consecutive year). Finished 4th in fan voting among all players and was first among non-quarterbacks.
- 2010 post-season accolades include: NFC starter for 2011 Pro Bowl. Johnson was first Lions wide receiver to be named to the Pro Bowl since WR Roy Williams in 2007 and he was the seventh Lions Pro Bowl receiver in team history. Became the first Lions offensive player to be elected to the original Pro Bowl squad (non-alternate) since TE David Sloan in 2000 and first receiver since WR Herman Moore in 1998.
- Second Team AP All-Pro in 2010.

- Already the only player in team history who has recorded seven 100-yard receiving games in two different seasons, Johnson is now the first player in team history to record eight 100-yard games in two different seasons.
- Johnson's 171 yards in Week 13 vs. Indianapolis (12/2/12) increased his season total through 12 games to 1,428 receiving yards. He reached the 1,300-yard and 1,400-yard marks for the second consecutive season.
- Only player in team history with at least two seasons garnering 1,300 receiving yards and now has three (1,331 in 2008, 1,681 in 2011, 1,428 in 2012).
- With 140 yards on Thanksgiving Day vs. Houston (11/22/12), Johnson registered four-straight 100-yard games, and collected three-straight 140+-yard games (207 at Min 11/11, 143 vs. GB 11/8 and 140 vs. Hou 11/11). Johnson is the first player in team history to register three-straight games of 140+ receiving yards.
- With a 20-yard reception during the Lions' opening drive of the game vs. Houston, Johnson surpassed 7,000 career receiving yards in 87 games. He is the second player in team history, along with WR Herman Moore, to reach 7,000 receiving yards. Moore holds the franchise record with 9,174 receiving yards. His 140 yards increased his career totals to 7,129 yards.
- He reached 7,000 career yards the fastest in team history at 87 games. Moore surpassed 7,000 career yards in 89 games.
- Fifth receiver in NFL history to register 7,000 career yards in 87 or fewer games. He joined four other players to accomplish this feat, including: WR Lance Alworth (72), WR Torry Holt (82), WR Randy Moss (83) and WR Jerry Rice (83).
- By reaching 1,200 yards this season, Johnson joined WR Herman Moore as the only players in Lions history to reach 1,200 receiving yards in a season three times. Moore registered 1,200 receiving yards in three-straight seasons from 1995-97. Johnson also registered 1,200 receiving yards in 2008 and 2011.
- On Johnson's 53-yard reception in the first quarter vs. Green Bay (11/18/12), he surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the season. He reached 1,000 receiving yards for the fourth time in his career and for the third season in a row (2010-2012). Johnson also registered 1,000 receiving yards in 2008 (1,331), 2010 (1,120) and 2011 (1,681).
- By reaching 1,000 yards in 2012, Johnson joined WR Herman Moore and WR Johnnie Morton as the only players in Lions history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in four seasons. Moore (1994-97) and Morton (1997-99, 2001) each did it four times during their careers with the Lions. Joined Moore (1994-97) and Morton (1997-99) as only players in Lions history to register 1,000 receiving yards in three-straight seasons.
- Johnson's 12 receptions at Minnesota in Week 10 marked the first time a Lions player grabbed 12 passes in a game since WR Herman Moore set the franchise's all-time single-game record with 14 vs. Chicago December 4, 1995. He became the fifth player in team history, seventh time overall, to record 12 receptions in a game.
- With seven receptions for 129 yards against Jacksonville (11/4/12), Johnson recorded his 25th career 100-yard receiving game and joined WR Herman Moore (34) as the only players in team history to register 25 career 100-yard receiving games.
- With 54 yards receiving in Week 4 vs. Minnesota (9/30), Johnson increased his tally of receiving yards on the season to 423 yards. It is only the third time in team history that a Lions receiver has gained 400 yards in the month of September and the first to do so while playing just four games. WR Herman Moore did it twice in his career (507 in 1997 and 480 in 1996) with both times occurring in 5 games played during the month.
- Caught a 3-yard touchdown pass with 18 second left at Tennessee (9/23/12). It was his 50th touchdown reception of his six-year career. He became the second player in Lions history (WR Herman Moore, 62) to record 50 career touchdown passes.
- Johnson reached that mark in his 79th career game and became the fastest player in Lions history to record 50 career touchdowns. Moore caught his 50th touchdown pass in his 99th career game.
- Sixth player in NFL history with 45 TD catches and 5,500 receiving yards through first five seasons (Jerry Rice, Randy Moss, Lance Alworth, Marvin Harrison and Larry Fitzgerald).
- 85.2 yards per game average (7,836 yards, 92 games) is the highest in NFL history among players with 80 career games.
- Fastest player in Lions history to reach 400 career receptions (81 games).
- Most receptions (366), yards (5,872) and touchdowns (49) by a Lions receiver in their first five seasons with the club.
- Most receptions (270), yards (4,191) and TDs (33) by Lions' receiver in team history through first four seasons.
- Career rushing totals include: 19 attempts for 167 yards (11.0 avg) and 1 TD.
- Since 2008 season, Johnson is first in the NFL with 50 receiving touchdowns, first in receiving yards (7,836) and first in the NFL with 70 receptions of 25+ yards.
- Since entering the NFL in 2007, Johnson is first with 54 touchdown receptions. Also has recorded 76 receptions of 25+ yards, the most in the NFL since he entered the League, and has the most receiving yards (7,836).
- One of three players in team history with 70+ receptions in three seasons (WR Herman Moore, 5; WR Johnnie Morton,).
- First player in team history with 70+ receptions in three of his first five seasons with the club.
- Only player in team history with 1,000 receiving yards and 12 touchdowns in 2 separate seasons (2008 and 2010), and now he has done it three times adding his totals in 2011.
- Only player in team history with 10 touchdown receptions in three different seasons – 2008 (12), 2010 (12) and 2011 (14). Second player in team history to record 10 touchdown receptions in back-to-back seasons.
- Fastest player in team history to reach 5,000 career receiving yards (69 games) and 300 receptions (66 games).
- Johnson is the only player in Lions history with two receptions of 85+ yards.
- With three career receptions of 75+ yards, he is tied with WR Herman Moore and E Cloyce Box for the second-most receptions of 75+ yards in franchise history behind WR Leonard Thompson (4).
- Five career receptions of 70+ yards. Tied WR Leonard Thompson for the most 70+-yard receptions in team history.
- In 2008, he led Detroit with 78 receptions for 1,331 yards (17.1 avg) and 12 touchdowns. Johnson finished the 2008 season with some of the top offensive statistics in the NFL: tied for first in touchdown receptions (12), fifth in receiving yards (1,331), second in yards per catch among receivers with 60 receptions (17.1), tied for second in 20+-yard receptions (21), tied for second in 40+-yard receptions (seven) and tied for first in 25+-yard touchdown catches (six).
- He was also named an alternate to the 2009 NFC Pro Bowl squad.

2012: For the 2012 season, Johnson led the League in receiving yards with 1,964 yards on 122 receptions and earned his third-straight nod to the Pro Bowl. Johnson's 122 receptions and record-setting 1,964 yards both paced the NFL to go along with his five touchdown grabs. Set all-time single-season receiving yards mark in Week 16 with an 11-catch, 225-yard performance against Atlanta (12/22). His string of eight consecutive games with over 100 receiving yards set a new NFL record, while his 11 games over 100 yards on the season tied the all-time mark. Was able to shatter franchise and League records despite battling numerous injuries and facing triple teams and vice coverage with several of the other Lions receivers out with injuries.

- Led Lions with 111 receiving yards on six receptions (18.5 avg) in the team's 27-23 season opener win over St. Louis (9/9). It was Johnson's 22nd-career 100-yard receiving game and fourth-straight dating back to the end of 2011.
- His 111 receiving yards also were the most Johnson has recorded on opening day in his career.
- Among his team-tying high six receptions against St. Louis was a 51-yard reception in the second quarter.
- Led all Lions receivers with eight receptions for 94 yards in Detroit's 27-19 loss at San Francisco (9/16) in Week 2. His 24-yard reception in the second quarter moved his receiving totals over 6,000 for his career.
- Became the eighth player in NFL history to reach 6,000 yards in 80 games or less (78 games).
- He also became the third receiver in Lions history to reach 6,000 career yards. He joined WR Herman Moore and WR Johnnie Morton as the only Lions players to reach that mark. He accomplished this in the least amount of games. Moore tallied 6,000 receiving yards in his 86th career game and Morton did so in his 119th career game.
- Registered 10 receptions for 164 yards at Tennessee (9/23). It was the fourth time in his career that he caught 10 passes in a game, and he passed WR Brett Perriman (3) for the second-most 10+ receptions games in team history. He is now behind WR Herman Moore (9) for the all-time team record.
- His 164 yards was the 23rd 100-yard game of his career, and it was Johnson's fifth career game of 150+ receiving yards.
- With 54 yards receiving in Week 4 vs. Minnesota, Johnson increased his tally of receiving yards on the season to 423 yards. It is only the third time in team history that a Lions receiver has gained 400 yards in the month of September and the first to do so while playing just four games. WR Herman Moore did it twice in his career (507 in 1997 and 480 in 1996) with both times occurring in 5 games played during the month.
- Completed day with six catches for 135 yards in the Lions' 26-23 win at Philadelphia in Week 6 (10/14). It was Johnson's 24th career 100-yard game and the third this season.
- On his fifth catch of the day against Philadelphia, he became the fourth player in Lions history to record 400 career receptions. He is the fastest player in team history to record 400 career receptions, accomplishing the feat in 81 games (WR Herman Moore, 85 games; WR Brett Perriman, 90 games and WR Johnnie Morton, 112 games).
- Johnson caught passes of 28, 37, 20, 17, 16 and 17 yards to average 22.5 yards per catch against the Eagles. His final five catches occurred in the fourth quarter or overtime, and all six receptions occurred on scoring drives.
- His final reception for 17 yards against the Eagles occurred in overtime to move the ball to the Eagles 27-yard line when the team faced 1st-and-20. The catch help set up the game-winning field goal.
- Finished with three catches for 46 yards in the Lions' 28-25 comeback win vs. Seattle in Week 8 (10/28). Moved past WR Johnnie Morton (6,499) for second on the team's all-time receiving yards list.
- Finished with three catches for 34 yards in Week 7 at Chicago (10/22). Recorded his 25th career 100-yard game against Jacksonville in Week 9 (11/4) as he finished the game with seven receptions for 129 yards. Johnson joins WR Herman Moore (34) as the only players in team history to register 25 career 100-yard receiving games.
- Set a new single-game career high with 12 receptions at Minnesota in Week 10 (11/11), breaking his previous record of 11 set in the 2011 season finale at Green Bay, and finished the game with 206 receiving yards and one touchdown.
- Became the fifth player in team history, seventh time overall, the record 12 receptions in a single game.
- Surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for the season with a five-catch, 143 yard day vs. Green Bay in Week 11 (11/18). By reaching 1,000 yards this season, Johnson joins WR Herman Moore and WR Johnnie Morton as the only players in Lions history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in four seasons.
- With a 20-yard reception during the Lions' opening drive of the game vs. Houston, Johnson surpassed 7,000 career receiving yards in 87 games. He is the second player in team history, along with WR Herman Moore, to reach 7,000 receiving yards. Moore holds the franchise record with 9,174 receiving yards. His 140 yards increased his career totals to 7,129 yards.
- Caught 13 passes for 171 yards and 1 touchdown vs. Indianapolis in Week 13 (12/2), giving him five-straight games with 125+ receiving yards which ties an NFL record set by Lions WR Pat Studstill in 1966. (Courtesy of Elias Sports Bureau).
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his streak of four games with 140+ yards ties longest streak in NFL history by Lions E Cloyce Box (spanning 1952-53). Only player with four-straight games with 140+ yards in the same season.
- Johnson's 13 catches set a new career high and are the second-most receptions in a game in Lions history. He was one shy of the team record of 14 set by WR Herman Moore vs. Chicago December 4, 1995.
- He also set a career high with eight receptions in the first half against the Colts. His previous best was six accomplished twice (at Chicago 11/2/08 and at Jacksonville 11/4/12).
- Caught 10 passes for 118 yards in Week 14 at Green Bay (12/9), his sixth-straight 100-yard receiving game this season. His six-consecutive 100-yard games is now tied for the third-longest streak in NFL history and trails the NFL record by just one game (7) set by Houston WR Charlie Hennigan (1961) and Dallas WR Michael Irvin (1995).
- His 118 yards was his 30th career 100-yard receiving game and he joined WR Herman Moore (34) as the only players in NFL history with 30 career 100-yard receiving games.
- Against Green Bay he became first receiver in Lions history to record 1,500 receiving yards in two seasons and seventh player in NFL history to accomplish this feat. He joined Jerry Rice (four times), Marvin Harrison (three times), Charlie Hennigan, Torry Holt, Michael Irvin and Andre Johnson as players to register 1,500 receiving yards at least twice.
- Caught 10 passes (fifth game with 10+ receptions of season), for 121 yards at Arizona (12/16). With 121 yards against, he registered seventh-straight 100-yard receiving game, tying the NFL all-time record for most-consecutive 100-yard games.
- In Week 16 vs. Atlanta (12/22), Established new NFL single-season record for receiving yards (finished game with 1,892 yards), by breaking Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice's 17-year old mark of 1,848 yards in 1995. New record occurred on 10th reception of the game (26 yards with 3:05 left in fourth quarter). Finished with 11 catches for 225 yards.
- Capped off his historic season with 72 yards on five catches, his longest going for 24 yards, in Week 17 vs. Chicago (12/30). Johnson finished just 36 yards shy of becoming the first player in NFL history to reach 2,000 receiving yards.

COLLEGE

Johnson was a two-time All-American who claimed the 2006 Biletnikoff Award (nation's top receiver) and 2006 ACC Conference Player of the Year. ### MANE FACTS

- Pronunciation: LE-shore
- Favorite TV shows are SportsCenter and Martin.
- Favorite player growing up was Emmitt Smith.

TRANSACTIONS

- Placed on Reserve/Injured list (Achilles) on August 13, 2011
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round (57th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

PRO

Third-year back who has established himself as a bruising runner in the Lions' backfield after rupturing his Achilles tendon as a rookie.

- Suffered ruptured Achilles tendon in training camp and missed his entire rookie season.
- With a one-yard touchdown run in Week 16 vs. Atlanta (12/22), Leshoure tallied his ninth rushing touchdowns on the season, the most by a Lions rusher since RB James Stewart had 10 in 2000.
- The Lions racked up 17 rushing touchdowns on the season in 2012, the most the team has registered since they had 15 in 2000.

2012: Coming off of an injured Achilles that prevented him from playing in his rookie year, Leshoure became a force near the goal line and feature back in the Lions offense in his sophomore season. Opened his career with 100 yards and a touchdown at Tennessee (9/23) as a start to his proficiency near the goal line. Totaled 798 yards on 215 rushes (3.7 avg) and nine touchdown runs, including three in the first half alone at Jacksonville (11/4). Also caught 34 passes for 214 yards (6.3 avg) out of the backfield.

- Placed on Reserve/Suspended list due to two-game suspension.
- Made his NFL debut at Tennessee (9/23) and registered 26 rushing attempts for 100 yards and 1 TD. He also caught four passes for 34 yards. Leshoure's 100-yard game was the first by a Lions rusher in their first NFL game since RB Billy Sims registered 153 yards at the Los Angeles Rams September 7, 1980.
- Leshoure's 26 rushing attempts are the most by a Lions rusher in their first NFL game ever. He broke the previous mark of 22 by Sims (at LARm 9/7/10)
- Leshoure is only the third non-rookie to record 26+ rushing attempts in an NFL debut and the first to do so since 1987. The previous two times were accomplished by Cleveland RB Larry Mason (32) and Washington RB Lionel Vital (27) on October 4, 1987 during the strike games. He is the only non-rookie to accomplish this feat in non-strike games.
- Recorded 26 yards on 13 carries vs. the Vikings (9/30) in Week 4.
- Tied his career-long with a 14-yard run in Week 6 at Philadelphia (10/14), finishing the day with 70 yards on 15 carries in the Lions' 26-23 overtime win over the Eagles. Also had three receptions for 24 yards.
- Ran the ball 12 times for 63 yards, including a career-long rush of 15 yards in the Lions' 13-7 loss at Chicago in Week 7 (10/22). Averaged 5.3 yards per carry against a Bears defense that came into the game only allowing 65.8 rushing yards per game.
- Led the Lions in rushing with 46 yards on 10 attempts, setting a new career long with a 16-yard pickup in the Detroit's 28-24 win vs. Seattle (10/28).
- Rushed his way into Lions history in Week 9 at Jacksonville (11/4) as he carried the ball 16 times for 70 yards and three touchdowns in Detroit's 31-14 win over the Jaguars. He became the first player in Lions history to rush for three touchdowns in the first half of a game.
- With his three touchdowns against Jacksonville, Leshoure became the 10th player in Lions history with three rushing touchdowns in a game and it is the 16th time it has occurred in team history.
- Carried the ball 13 times for 43 yards, his longest run going for 14 yards, in Week 10 at Minnesota (11/11).
- Rushed the ball 19 times for 84 yards and scored on a one-yard touchdown run in Week 11 vs. Green Bay (11/18).
- Had 12 carries for 32 yards and a touchdown, his sixth of the season, in Week 12 on Thanksgiving Day vs. Houston (11/22).
- Scored his seventh touchdown of the season on a six-yard touchdown run and finished with 57 yards on 21 carries in Week 13 vs. Indianapolis (12/2).
- Carried the ball 14 times for 49 yards in Week 14 at Green Bay (12/9). Leshoure and fellow RB Joique Bell combined for 98 of the Lions' 135 rushing yards against the Packers.
- Rushed for 55 yards on 14 carries and a one-yard score in Week 15 at Arizona (12/16).
- Rushed for 46 yards on 16 carries and one touchdown in Week 16 vs. Atlanta (12/22), giving him nine rushing touchdowns on the season, the most by a Lions player since RB James Stewart recorded 10 in 2000.
- Finished the 2012 season with a 57-yard performance on 15 carries in Week 17 vs. Chicago (12/30).

COLLEGE

Started 17 of 33 games at Illinois, carrying the ball 424 times for 2,557 yards (6.03 yards per carry) and 23 touchdowns. Added 37 receptions for 439 yards (11.86 yards per catch) and 5 touchdowns to his career total. His 2,557 rushing yards tie Juice Williams (2006-09) for sixth place on the school career-record list, while his 23 touchdown runs tie the legendary Red Grange (1923-25) and Ty Douthard (1993-96) for seventh on the school career-record chart. In 2010, his 1,697 yards on the ground broke the previous Illini season-record of 1,681 yards by Rashard Mendenhall (2007), and his 281 rushing attempts are the second-highest season total by an Illinois player, behind only Robert Holcombe (297 in 1997).

- Gained 330 yards rushing vs. Northwestern in 2010, topping the old school game-record of 315 by Robert Holcombe vs. Minnesota in 1996. They are the only Illini ball carriers to gain 300 yards rushing in a contest.
- Ran for 100 yards in 12 contests, tying Jim Grabowski (1963-65) for second in school annals behind Robert Holcombe's 16 (1994-97).
- Generated 1,893 all-purpose yards in 2010, joining Mendenhall (1,999 in 2007) and Keith Jones (1,818 in 1988) as the only Illini players to gain over 1,800 all-purpose yards in a campaign.

PERSONAL

Attended Centennial High School (Champaign, Ill.), playing football for Head Coach Mike McDonnell. Received a three-star prospect rating from both Rivals.com and Scout.com after his senior season. Rated the tenth-best overall prospect in the state and the nation's 28th-best running back by Rivals.

- Named first-team All-State by the Champaign News-Gazette, earning special mention All-State honors by the Chicago Tribune in 2007.
- The Prep Star All-American was also a member of Scouts.com's Midwest Hot 100 squad.
- During his sophomore season, he rushed for over 1,400 yards.
- As a junior, he received All-Area, All-Conference and All-State first-team honors and accumulated 2,474 yards, averaging 6.4 yards per carry, scoring 29 touchdowns on the ground and picking up 192 yards and 3 more scores receiving in only 10 games.
- Closed out his Chargers career by 4,652 yards on 681 carries for an average of 6.8 yards, as he scored 52 rushing touchdowns.
- Son of Jacqueline Frazier-Jones and resides in Champaign, Illinois.

MANE FACTS

- Father, Tom Martin, was a three-sport athlete (soccer, basketball and baseball) at Eastern Michigan University.

TRANSACTIONS

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the fifth round (137th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE

Ranks third in Appalachian State history with 226 punts and 9,397 yards and sixth with a 41.6-yard punting average. Became only the second specialist in Appalachian State history to be selected in the NFL Draft since Harold Alexander was drafted by the Atlanta Falcons in the third round (67th overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft.

2012: Became a multi-dimensional threat on special teams, going 7-for-10 on field goal attempts in addition to his punting duties. Had a stellar senior season, racking up a career-high 2,755 punting yards on 60 punts (45.9 avg, the largest of his career) with a long of 68 yards, nearly tying his career-long of 69.

- Named 2012 NCAA Division I FCS Punter of the Year by College Football Performance Awards and was an AP first-team All-American. Named first-team all-Southern Conference as a punter by the league's coaches and media and named second-team all-SoCon as a place kicker by the league's coaches.
- Earned SoCon Player of the Week three times (9/1 at East Carolina, 10/13 vs. Samford, 11/10 vs. Furman).
- Averaged 45.9 yards per punt, ranking third nationally and second in Appalachian State history.
- Of his 60 punts in 2012, 29 were fair-caught (48.3 percent), 25 were downed inside the 20-yard line (41.6 percent), 14 traveled 50 yards or more (23.3 percent) and only 16 were returned (26.6 percent). His 25 punts downed inside the 20-yard line set a new school record.
- Took over ASU's place-kicking duties for the final four games of the season and made 23-of-27 kicks (7-of-10 field goals, 16-of-17 extra points).

2011: Earned second-team all-Southern Conference accolades despite battling a nagging groin injury throughout the season, finishing fourth in the conference and 27th nationally in punting average (40.9 ypp).

- Turned in perhaps his best individual performance of the season in the season-opening loss at Virginia Tech, averaging 45 yards on eight punts, including two kicks of 50 yards or more.
- Booted a season-long 69-yard punt in the home opener against North Carolina A&T that tied for eighth-longest in school history. Also kicked a 51-yard field goal in the game, tying for seventh-longest in program history.
- Was named national and conference Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance against Savannah State.

2010: Played in all 13 games, booting 60 of ASU's 61 punts on the season and ranking fourth in the Southern Conference with a 39.2-yard average. 31 of his 60 punts were fair caught (51.7 percent), 19 were downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line (31.7 percent) and only nine were able to be returned (15 percent).

- Had seven punts of 50 yards or longer and downed at least one punt inside the 20-yard line in 11-of-13 games.
- Was twice named SoCon Special Teams Player of the Week.
- Averaged a season-high 46 yards per kick and booted a season-best 63-yarder against Villanova.
- Handled kickoffs for the first four games of the season, averaging 65.5 yards per kick.

2009: Exclusively handled ASU's punting and kickoff duties as a red-shirt freshman and was named to the Southern Conference all-freshman team by the league's coaches. Averaged 40.0 yards on 52 punts, ranking third in the SoCon and 28th nationally.

PERSONAL

A former soccer standout, played just one year of high school football where he averaged 69 yards per kickoff and was named all-county following his only gridiron campaign at Starr's Mill (Ga.) High School under Head Coach Mike Earwood.

- Four-year soccer letterman and earned all-state recognition as a junior.
- A member of the Dean's List and ASU athletics' and Southern Conference academic honor rolls, majored in business marketing (pre-law).

Draft: '09, R1 (20)-Det

Complete biographical information available on DetroitLions.com.

MANE FACTS

- Growing up in Texas, Pettigrew was naturally a Cowboys fan and his favorite players were QB Troy Aikman and WR Michael Irvin. He was also a fan of WR Jerry Rice.
- Goes bowling every week, often with teammates, and has around a 200 average.
- His favorite musical artist is Lil' Wayne; favorite actor is Denzel Washington; favorite movies include Man on Fire and Book of Eli.

TRANSACTIONS

- Placed on Reserve/Injured list by the Lions December 1, 2009.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (20th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

PRO

Pettigrew is a big, athletic tight end who has the ability to stretch the field as a receiver and aggressively block at the line of scrimmage. Has emerged as one of the best young tight ends in the game.

- Ranks first and second in team history for receptions (83 in 2011; 71 in 2010) and receiving yards (777 in 2011 and 722 in 2010) by a tight end in a season. First tight end with 2 seasons recording 70+ receptions and 2 seasons with 700+ receiving yards. He accomplished this in back-to-back seasons.
- With 2,068 career receiving yards after Week 4 vs. Minnesota, he passed TE David Sloan (2,024) for fourth on the Lions career receiving yards list for tight ends.
- Only tight end in Lions history with 3 100-yard receiving games, including 2 in 2011.
- Reached 100 career receptions the fastest by a Lions tight end by doing so in 27 games. The previous mark was 34 games by TE Jim Gibbons.
- Also reached 1,000 career yards in 26 career games, the second fastest tight end in team history to reach that milestone. Hall of Fame TE Charlie Sanders reached 1,000 career yards in 25 games.
- Ranks third in NFL among tight ends since 2010 with 211 receptions and sixth with 2,055 receiving yards.
- Fifth tight end in team history to register 100 career catches and 1,000 career yards.
- Started in the first 11 games of his career before a knee injury on Thanksgiving Day vs. Green Bay (11/26) forced him out for the remainder of his rookie season.
- Led all NFL rookie tight ends in 2009 with 30 catches for 346 yards, and was tied for the most receiving touchdowns (two).
- Regarded by many as most complete tight end to enter 2009 NFL Draft. Lions selected him in first round (20th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.
- Career statistics include 56 games (54 starts), 241 receptions, 2,401 receiving yards for a 10.0 avg. and 14 touchdowns.

2012: Pettigrew followed up his stellar 2011 season with 59 receptions for 567 yards and three touchdowns in 2012, finishing second on the team in receptions and receiving yards. The fourth-year tight end set the tone early in the season when he caught passes of 20, 18 and 24 yards in the Lions' game-winning drive against the St. Louis Rams in Week 1 (9/9), combining for 62 of the team's 80 yards on the drive.

- Tied a team-high with six receptions that went for 69 yards in the Lions' 27-23 win over the St. Louis Rams (9/9), marking the 14th game in his career that he caught at least 6 passes.
- Talled three receptions on the Lions' fourth-quarter drive that tied the game at 20-20, grabbing passes of 20, 18 and 24 yards for a combined total of 62 of the team's 80 yards on the 5-play drive.
- Caught three passes for 18 yards and a touchdown in the Lions' 27-19 loss at San Francisco (9/16) in Week 2.
- Surpassed over 2,000 receiving yards for his career with an eight-catch, 61-yard performance in Week 3 at Tennessee (9/23), putting him at 2,001 career receiving yards.
- Caught a team-high seven passes for 67 yards, his longest going for 15 yards, vs. Minnesota (9/30) in Week 4.
- Finished with three catches for 38 yards, his longest going for 16 yards, in Week 6 at Philadelphia (10/14).
- Caught five passes for 37 yards, his longest going for 13 yards, in Week 7 at Chicago (10/22).
- Finished second on the team in receiving with seven catches for 74 yards in the Lions' 28-24 win vs. Seattle in Week 8. Pettigrew and TE Tony Scheffler combined for 11 catches in the game for 120 yards and played a key part in the offense's success after losing WR Nate Burleson to injury.
- Caught one pass for 11 yards in the Lions' 31-14 win at Jacksonville in Week 9 (11/4).
- Caught his second touchdown of the season on a 16-yard strike from QB Matthew Stafford and finished the game with three catches for 32 yards in Week 10 at Minnesota (11/11).
- Finished second on the team in receptions with four catches in Week 11 vs. Green Bay (11/18) for a total of 22 yards.

MANE FACTS

- Pronunciation: rye-OH-la
- Donated home game tickets to the Children's Center through CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Regularly attends annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- A big fan of Al Pacino, he owns most of the movies the actor is in including his favorite, Scarface, which he has watched repeatedly.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed by the Detroit Lions June 25, 2009 to a four-year contract extension (through 2013).
- Re-signed by the Detroit Lions March 13, 2005 to a five-year contract extension.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round (50th overall) in the 2001 NFL Draft.

PRO

Raiola is in his 13th season in the NFL with the Detroit Lions, and his 12th as the starting center. Utilizes tremendous quickness, tenacity and intelligence to anchor the team's offensive front.

- Named team captain six-straight seasons (2006-11).
- Has played in 188 career games (172 starts). He is the 10th player in Lions history to play 170 games for the club. He joins K Jason Hanson (327) and T Jeff Backus (191) as players on the Lions all-time roster who have each played 170 career games for the club.
- Raiola passed FB Cory Schlesinger (181) for sixth place on the Lions career games played list with a start vs. Green Bay in Week 11 (11/18). To date, Raiola has played in 186 of a possible 190 games during his 12-year career. The only games he missed occurred during stretch of four games during the 2008 season.
- With a start at Minnesota in Week 10 (11/11), Raiola tied FB Cory Schlesinger (181) for sixth place on the Lions career games played list.
- With a start at Chicago in Week 8 (10/22), Raiola reached 178 games with the Lions during his 12-year career. He passed with C Kevin Glover (177) for seventh place on the franchise's all-time career game played list. Raiola also passed Glover for the second-most games played by a Lions offensive lineman. Both trail T Jeff Backus (184) in that category.
- With the Lions starting lineup of Raiola, LT Jeff Backus, LG Rob Sims, RG Stephen Peterman and RT Gosder Cherilus in the team's season opener 27-23 win over St. Louis (9/9), the offensive line became the unit that marked the first time a Lions team has started the same offensive line combination for three consecutive years since 1980-82 (LT Karl Baldischeiler, LG Homer Elias, C Amos Fowler, RG Russ Bolinger and RT Keith Dorne). With starts by all five offensive linemen, they moved their collective total of regular season starts with the Lions to 494, the most starts by an offensive line unit with one team in the NFL.
- In 2008, a hand injury forced him to miss his first career game and start vs. Jacksonville (11/9/08).
- He had the second most consecutive starts (104) behind Denver C Casey Wiegman (120) and Atlanta C Todd McClure (120) since 2001.
- In 2006, Raiola emerged as one of the most effective all-around centers in the league with his ability to get outside and block on the perimeter and to get to the second level.
- In 2004, he centered an offensive line that developed into one of the top run-blocking lines in the NFL as the offensive line led the way for a rushing attack that ranked second in the NFL over the final seven games of the season.

2012: Played and started in all 16 games and helped pave the way for 17 rushing touchdowns and almost 5,000 yards passing from QB Matthew Stafford. Part of unit that ranked fourth in the NFL in sacks allowed per pass play.

- With the Lions starting lineup of Raiola, LT Jeff Backus, LG Rob Sims, RG Stephen Peterman, and RT Gosder Gosder in the team's season opener win against St. Louis (9/9), the offensive line became the unit that marked the first time a Lions team has started the same offensive line combination for three consecutive years since 1980-82 (LT Karl Baldischeiler, LG Homer Elias, C Amos Fowler, RG Russ Bolinger and RT Keith Dorne). With starts by all five offensive linemen, they moved their collective total of regular season starts with the Lions to 494, the most starts by an offensive line unit with one team in the NFL.
- Part of the Lions offensive line in Week 3 at Tennessee 99/23) that helped Detroit's offense gain 583 yards against the Titans. Detroit set a new all-time team single game record with 583 total yards, breaking the previous record of 582 vs. the New York Yanks November 23, 1950.
- On the ground, the Lions chewed up 141 yards rushing along with 11 rushing first downs (tied for most by Lions since 2002). Also helped RB Mikel LeShoure become the Lions first rusher to gain 100 yards in an NFL debut since rookie RB Billy Sims in 1980.
- Against the Titans, allowed just 4 negative plays (minus 8 yards) on 92 total offensive plays.
- Helped the Lions' offensive line hold the Eagles' defense to no sacks on the day in the Lions' comeback 26-23 overtime win at Philadelphia in Week 6 (10/14). Team also had 138 yards on the ground with only three rushes for loss (4 yards) on 28 attempts). Moved past Kevin Glover (177) for second-most games by an Lions offensive lineman in team history and seventh overall.
- The offensive line saw their best game of the season in Week 9 at Jacksonville (11/4), helping RBs Mikel LeShoure and Joique Bell combine for four rushing touchdowns against the Jaguars and tally 149 yards on the ground in the Lions'

- 31-14 win.
- Helped the Lions ground game to two rushing touchdowns from RBs Mikel Leshoure and Joique Bell, respectively, in Week 12 vs. Houston on Thanksgiving Day (11/22).
- Contributed to an offensive line effort that allowed zero sacks against the Colts' pass rush in Week 13 vs. Indianapolis (12/2)..

COLLEGE

Turned pro after playing three seasons at Nebraska, but was a four-year collegian (redshirted in 1997).

- Cornhuskers' first freshman offensive lineman to start a game since Rob Zatechka in 1991.
- The two-time Nebraska Lifter of the Year finalist set a school record with 140 knockdown blocks (11.67 per game) as a sophomore in 1999, only to better that mark as a junior in 2000 with 145 (13.2 per game).
- Besides on-field accolades, he garnered Academic All-Big 12 Conference honors the last two years while making the conference's honor roll three times.
- In 2000, he was an All-American first-team selection by the Football Writers Association, Walter Camp, Associated Press and American Football Coaches Association, rated the best center in the country by The Sports Xchange, a finalist for both the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award, given to the nation's top lineman and a consensus All-Big 12 first-team selection.
- Junior year was first full year as starter and was named a consensus All-Big 12 first-team selection, the first sophomore Nebraska offensive lineman to earn such honors since Dave Rimington in 1980 and was a member of Sports Illustrated's All-Bowl Team.

PERSONAL

Three-year starter on the offensive line for St. Louis High School in Honolulu.

- Team went undefeated in each of his last three years and ranked 15th nationally in 1996, winning its 11th straight state championship.
- Earned first-team all-state honors as a junior in 1995 and as a senior in 1996.
- Also a National Honor Society member, a three-year scholar-athlete and ranked sixth in his class of 180.

- Placed on Reserve/Injured list by the Seahawks on September 10, 2008.
- Drafted by the Seattle Seahawks in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft.

PRO

Soon became the starter at left guard after joining Detroit via trade with Seattle in 2010. Played all 16 games last season and helped solidify the left side of the offensive line.

- Has appeared in 93 games (82 starts) during his career, and has played in five postseason games (five starts).
- With the Lions starting lineup of Sims, LT Jeff Backus, C Dominic Raiola, RG Stephen Peterman and RT Gosder Cherilus in the team's season opener 27-23 win over St. Louis (9/9), the offensive line became the unit that marked the first time a Lions team has started the same offensive line combination for three consecutive years since 1980-82 (LT Karl Baldischweiler, LG Homer Elias, C Amos Fowler, RG Russ Bolinger and RT Keith Dorne). With starts by all five offensive linemen, they moved their collective total of regular season starts with the Lions to 494, the most starts by an offensive line unit with one team in the NFL.
- Played first four seasons (2006-09) with the Seahawks.
- In 2009, Sims saw action in 14 games with 14 starts at left guard and was inactive for two contests with an ankle injury.
- Played and started in only one game during the 2008 season after being placed on injured reserve with a pectoral injury.
- Started in all 16 games played in 2007, including both postseason matchups.
- Saw time in 14 games during his 2006 rookie campaign with three starts, and played and started in both postseason appearances.
- Started all four playoff games during his first two seasons for Seattle and helped Shaun Alexander rush for 108 yards and two touchdowns in NFC Divisional Playoff his rookie year at Chicago (1/14/06).

2012: Played and started in all 16 games and helped pave the way for 17 rushing touchdowns and almost 5,000 yards passing from QB Matthew Stafford. Part of unit that ranked fourth in the NFL in sacks allowed per pass play.

- With the Lions starting lineup of Sims, LT Jeff Backus, C Dominic Raiola, RG Stephen Peterman and RT Gosder Cherilus in the team's season opener win against St. Louis (9/9), the offensive line became the unit that marked the first time a Lions team has started the same offensive line combination for three consecutive years since 1980-82 (LT Karl Baldischweiler, LG Homer Elias, C Amos Fowler, RG Russ Bolinger and RT Keith Dorne). With starts by all five offensive linemen, they moved their collective total of regular season starts with the Lions to 494, the most starts by an offensive line unit with one team in the NFL.
- Part of the Lions offensive line in Week 3 at Tennessee that helped Detroit's offense gain 583 yards against the Titans. Detroit set a new all-time team single-game record with 583 total yards, breaking the previous record of 582 vs. the New York Yanks November 23, 1950.
- Helped pave way for 141 rushing yards against the Titans (36 attempts), along with RB Mikel Leshoure gaining 100 yards. Leshoure became the first Lions rusher to gain 100 yards in a debut since RB Billy Sims in 1980.
- Of 92 offensive plays at Tennessee, only four were negative plays (one sack, three negative rushes).
- Helped the Lions' offensive line hold the Eagles' defense to no sacks on the day in the Lions' comeback 26-23 overtime win at Philadelphia in Week 6 (10/14). Offensive line also paved the way for 138 yards on the ground (4.9 average) with only three rushes for loss (four yards) on 28 attempts.
- The offensive line saw their best game of the season in Week 9 at Jacksonville (11/4), helping RBs Mikel Leshoure and Joique Bell combine for four rushing touchdowns against the Jaguars and tally 149 yards on the ground in the Lions' 31-14 win.
- Helped the Lions ground game to two rushing touchdowns from RBs Mikel Leshoure and Joique Bell, respectively, in Week 12 vs. Houston on Thanksgiving Day (11/22).
- Contributed to an offensive line effort that allowed zero sacks against the Colts' pass rush in Week 13 vs. Indianapolis (12/2).

COLLEGE

Started 40 of 47 games for the Buckeyes, earning 12 of those starts at left guard. Shifted to left guard from left tackle prior to senior season earning All-Big Ten Conference first-team honors.

- Made 28 starts at left tackle as an underclassmen and produced 83 key blocks and eight touchdown-resulting blocks for an offense that collected 5,068 yards, an average of 422.8 yards per game his senior year.

- His ability to shut down the blitz and stunts saw the offensive line allow only 18 quarterback sacks on the season.
- Took over left tackle duties when incumbent Ivan Douglas was sidelined with health problems (blood clot) during sophomore season.

MANE FACTS

- 2013 Pro Bowl Alternate
- 2011 AP Comeback Player of the Year.
- Voted by fans the 2012 ESPY for Best Comeback Athlete.
- During the Lions' dramatic 38-37 last second, come-from-behind win against Cleveland at Ford Field when he set an NFL rookie passing records for yards (422) and tied a record for touchdowns (five), Stafford was mic'd up by NFL Films for that memorable win. Stafford suffered a shoulder injury on the last timed play of regulation. Following a pass interference penalty in the endzone and a Browns timeout, Stafford forced himself back on the field for one more throw that resulted in the game winning touchdown to TE Brandon Pettigrew. As published in the Detroit Free Press: NFL Films president Steve Sabol said Stafford "earned a lasting place in the cinematic folklore of the NFL." Stafford was wired for sound when he suffered an AC joint separation, came back and threw the winning touchdown with no time left against the Browns. Sabol called it "the most dramatic player wiring ever" -- and NFL Films has wired more than 350 players since 1965.
- Attended Highland Park High School in Dallas, Texas, the same high school that Lions Hall of Famers QB Bobby Layne and RB Doak Walker attended. Layne and Walker led the Lions to NFL Championships in 1952 and 1953. Layne also led the team to the 1957 NFL Championship.
- While growing up in Texas, he was fan of the Dallas Cowboys.
- After his football career, he would like to either coach or work in broadcasting and then one way or the other play a lot of golf.
- Among his favorite TV shows are: Entourage and Eastbound and Down; favorite movies: Blood Diamond and Gladiator; favorite actor/entertainer: Will Ferrell.

TRANSACTIONS

- Placed on Reserve/Injured by the Lions on December 24, 2010.
- Placed on Reserve/Injured by the Lions on December 26, 2009.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (1st overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

PRO

As the Lions starting signal caller, Stafford combines great arm strength and accuracy with exceptional ability to read opponents defenses to lead the team's offense.

- Stafford completed 37-of-56 passes for 443 yards against Atlanta in Week 16 (12/22). On his 22nd completion of the game, he surpassed Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne (1,074) for the most pass completions in Lions history. His new team record now stands at 1,114 completions, becoming the first quarterback in Lions history to complete 1,100 career passes.
- Stafford's 37 completions vs. the Falcons established a new Lions single-game record. Stafford (at GB 1/1/12) and QB Charlie Batch (at Ari 11/8/01) held the previous record of 36.
- With 42 pass attempts vs. Chicago in Week 17 (12/30), Stafford set the NFL record for single-season attempts by registering 727 pass attempts. He broke the record held by QB Drew Bledsoe (691) in 1994. Stafford is the first player in NFL history to attempt 700 passes in a season.
- Stafford has the two highest seasons of pass attempts (727 in 2012 and 663 in 2011) in team history.
- Stafford and QB Bobby Layne (332 in 1951 and 336 in 1950) are the only Lions quarterbacks to ever lead the NFL in pass attempts. Stafford joined Layne as the only Lions players to accomplish this twice and to do it in back-to-back seasons.
- Stafford's three touchdown passes against the Bears moved his season total to 20, and he became the first Lions quarterback in team history to throw for 20 touchdowns in two different seasons.
- Stafford's three touchdown passes against the Bears also moved his career total to 80. He surpassed QB Scott Mitchell (79) for third on the Lions all-time career touchdown passes list and is now tied with QB Greg Landry (80) for the second most touchdown passes in team history.
- Stafford threw for 272 yards vs. Chicago (12/30) and ended the season with 4,967 passing yards, the second-most in franchise history for a season (Stafford, 5,038 in 2011).
- With 272 passing yards vs. the Bears, Stafford (12,807) moved past QB Scott Mitchell (12,647) for second place on the team's all-time career passing list.
- Stafford (435) broke his own team single-season franchise record of 421 completions set in 2011.
- Stafford became just the second quarterback in NFL history to register 420 completions in two different seasons. He joins Brees (422 in 2012; 469 in 2011; 448 in 2010; 440 in 2007) as the only passers in history to accomplish this feat.
- Stafford's 264 yards at Green Bay in Week 14 (12/9) gave him 4,006 yards through 13 games, the first time in franchise history a quarterback reached 4,000 yards through the first 13 games of the season. By reaching 4,000 passing yards this year, he became the second passer in team history to throw for 4,000 yards in two seasons (QB Jon Kitna, 2006-07).
- With 27 pass completions in Week 13 vs. Indianapolis (12/2), Stafford surpassed 1,000 career completions in 41 games. He became the third passer in team history to register 1,000 pass completions (Bobby Layne, 1,074; Scott Mitchell, 1,049). Stafford now has 1,002 career completions. He also passed QB Joey Harrington (986) for third place on the Lions all-time career completions list.
- He reached 1,000 pass completions the fastest in Lions' history by doing so in his 41st career game. Layne reached 1,000 completions in 86 games and Mitchell accomplished this in 55 games.
- Stafford set a new Lions record on Thanksgiving Day with 441 yards on 31-of-61 passing. His 441 passing yards vs.

Houston on Thanksgiving Day (11/22) ranks third-all time in Lions history for single-game passing yards and it is the second highest of his career.

- On the first completion of the game (25 yards to WR Ryan Broyles), Stafford surpassed 3,000 yards in the season first 11 games for the second-consecutive year. Passing for 3,000 yards in the first 11 games is a franchise record, and Stafford is the only player in team history to accomplish this feat.
  - With three touchdown passes in Week 10 at Minnesota (11/11), Stafford reached 71 career touchdown passes in 38 games, becoming only the third player in NFL history to throw 70 touchdowns in fewer than 40 games. He joins Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino (29) and QB Kurt Warner (31) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to throw 70 touchdown passes in fewer than 40 games.
  - Stafford also became the fourth Lions quarterback in team history to throw 70 career touchdown passes, which includes Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne (118), QB Greg Landry (80) and QB Scott Mitchell (79).
  - With 329 passing yards at Minnesota (11/11), Stafford reached 2,500 yards in the first nine games of the season for the second consecutive year. In 2011, he threw for 2,508 yards in the first nine games of the season. With 2,722 yards, Stafford has the most passing yards through nine games by a Lions quarterback.
  - Stafford, who has now accomplished this twice, is the only quarterback in team history to throw for 2,500 yards in the season's first nine games of the season.
  - On a 28-yard completion to TE Tony Scheffler in the first quarter at Jacksonville (11/4), Stafford surpassed 10,000 yards for his career. He became the second fastest player in NFL history to reach 10,000 career yards, doing so in 37 career games. Only QB Kurt Warner took fewer games (36) to reach 10,000 career passing yards.
  - Stafford is also the fourth youngest quarterback (24 yrs, 271 days) to throw for 10,000 career yards. Only QB Drew Bledsoe (23, 299), QB Dan Marino (24 yrs, 63 days) and QB Peyton Manning (24 yrs, 212 days) reached 10,000 career yards at younger ages. Among Lions quarterbacks, Stafford broke the franchise record for fewest games to pass for 10,000 yards with 37. Previously, QB Scott Mitchell held the fastest mark when he threw for 10,000 yards in 45 games.
  - Stafford also became the seventh quarterback in Lions history to throw for 10,000 yards with the club.
  - In Week 8 vs. Seattle, Stafford rallied the Lions to a 28-24 comeback victory over the Seahawks in Week 8 (10/28) as he connected with WR Titus Young on a 1-yard touchdown strike with :20 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. The game-winning drive was the ninth of his career.
  - The 17-point comeback at Philadelphia (10/14/12) was Stafford's eighth career game-winning drive in the fourth quarter or overtime and the second overtime winning drive of his career.
  - Since the beginning of the 2011 season, Stafford has engineered six fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives, including two this season.
  - The 24-point comeback at Dallas (10/2/11) was the third 20+-point comeback of his career, and second in consecutive weeks, making the Lions the only team to do so in NFL history. Stafford now joins Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne as the only quarterbacks in team history to lead the Lions back to victories from 24-point deficits. Stafford led the team's only 24-point comeback on the road.
  - With the 24-point comeback on the road, the Lions tied an NFL record for the largest comeback by a road team, accomplished three previous times. The last 24-point comeback occurred December 6, 1992 when the Los Angeles Rams won at Tampa Bay 31-27 after trailing by 24 points.
  - The 20-point comeback at Minnesota (9/25/11) was the second 20+-point comeback Stafford engineered during his career. In 2009, he helped bring the Lions back from 21 points down vs. Cleveland (11/22/09) at Ford Field. The comeback against the Vikings was also the Lions largest halftime deficit to overcome in team history (20 points). He and Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne are the only quarterbacks in team history to engineer 20+-point comebacks in team history (regular season). Layne engineered the largest comeback ever by bringing the Lions back from 24 points down vs. Baltimore (10/20/57). In the postseason, the Lions also came back from a 20-point deficit at San Francisco December 22, 1957, quarterbacked by Tobin Rote, to claim a 31-27 win after training 27-7 in the third quarter. The playoff game is known in Lions history as the "Comeback at Kezar."
  - Since the beginning of the 2010 season, he has started in 35 games and has tossed 67 touchdown passes (34 interceptions), and 24 of those touchdowns have gone to WR Calvin Johnson.
  - Became the second player in NFL history (Fran Tarkenton) to record four games of 4+ TD passes in first 16 career games.
  - First quarterback in NFL history with three games with at least 5 touchdown passes in his first 29 career games.
  - Team record 17 career 300-yard games, breaking record held by Scott Mitchell (8, 1994-98). Of Stafford's 17 career 300-yard games, eight occurred in 2011. Franchise best 4 career 400-yards games, including 2 in 2011. First player ever to throw for over 500 yards in a game in Lions history.
  - Team is 8-1 when Stafford throws three touchdowns in a game. His 9 games are tied for the second-most 3+touchdown pass games in team history.
  - Lions are 10-2 when Stafford records a passer rating over 100.0.
  - Nine career game-winning drives with team trailing or tied in fourth quarter or OT.
  - Has thrown for a TD or rushed for a TD in 41 of his 45 career starts.
  - Rookie campaign was highlighted by his 13 touchdowns passes (Lions rookie passing record) and his gritty performance against Cleveland when he threw for an NFL record 422 yards and tied a league single-game rookie record with five touchdown passes.
  - Was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week and was voted Rookie of the Week for Week 11 of the 2009 season.
  - Selected by Lions with the first overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft and was named the team's starting quarterback to start the regular season. He was the youngest player to start the regular season at quarterback since drew Bledsoe in 1993.
- 2012: Voted team captain for the third-straight year (2010-12) and was a Pro Bowl alternate in 2012. Finished the season just 33 passing yards shy of becoming only the second player in NFL history to throw for 5,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. In 2012, Stafford was 435-of-727 (59.8 pct) for 4,967 yards, 20 touchdowns and 17 interceptions and had a passer rating of 79.8 as he led the League in pass completions and finished second in passing yards behind QB Drew Brees (5,177). He passed his way into Lions lore by becoming the franchise leader in multiple categories, including career pass completions (1,114), single-season pass completions (435) and single-season pass attempts (727). He also became the fastest Lions quarterback to throw for 4,000 yards in a single season (13 games). With only four years under his belt, Stafford (12,807; 80) now trails QB Bobby Layne (15,710; 118) for the most passing yards and touchdowns in Lions history.

- Registered his seventh-career fourth quarter game-winning drive when trailing or tied as he led the Lions back to a 27-23 victory over the Rams on opening day (9/9). Trailing 23-20 with 1:55 left to play and with only one time out, Stafford and the Lions went on a 9-play, 80-yard drive that lasted 1:45.
- Threw for 355 yards in win against Rams, the second highest tally in Lions history on opening day (QB Bobby Layne, 364 vs. Pit September 27, 1953). Also joins Layne as the only passers in team history with two 300-yard games on opening day.
- Threw for 230 yards and a touchdown at San Francisco (9/16), giving him 1,869 yards over his past five games. His 1,969 yards over the past five games were the second-highest total in franchise history over a five-game span. He now holds eight of the nine highest five-game passing outputs in team history.
- Completed 33-of-42 passes for 278 yards and a touchdown in Week 3 at Tennessee (9/23). Helped lead the Lions to achieving 583 yards of total offense. Detroit's 583 yards were the second-highest single game tally in team history.
- Left the game at Tennessee late in the fourth quarter with a leg injury.
- Completed 30-of-51 passes for 319 yards vs. Minnesota (9/30) in Week 4. Also recorded his-fourth career rushing touchdown in the fourth quarter on a one-yard quarterback sneak.
- Rebounded in the fourth quarter to help lift the Lions to a 26-23 overtime win at Philadelphia. In the fourth quarter and overtime, Stafford was 15-of-24 (62.5 pct) for 220 yards and threw one touchdown as he compiled 106.3 rating in the final quarter and overtime. Trailing as much as 10 points in the fourth, Stafford guided the Lions to a game-tying field goal with 0:03 left and helped put them in position for a 45-yard game-winning field goal.
- Also rushed for a one-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter at Philadelphia to narrow the Lions deficit to three points with 10:30 remaining to play. It was his fifth career rushing touchdown and second of the season.
- Completed 28-of-46 passes for 261 yards and one touchdown pass to rookie WR Ryan Broyles in the Lions' 13-7 loss at Chicago in Week 7 (10/22). Also ran the ball three times for 23 yards.
- Connected with WR Titus Young on a one-yard touchdown pass on 3rd-and-1 with 20 seconds left to play that resulted in the game-winning touchdown pass against Seattle. It gave the Lions a 28-24 victory over the Seahawks in Week 8 (10/28). The pass was Stafford's fourth career game-winning touchdown pass, and second this season, in the game's final minute.
- He is the only quarterback in the NFL since the 1970 merger to throw four-game winning touchdown passes with less than one minute to play in his first 36 career starts (courtesy Elias Sports Bureau).
- Stafford holds the franchise record with four game-winning touchdown passes in the final minute of the game. His game-winning TD pass vs. St. Louis (9/9) earlier this year broke Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne's previous team record of two.
- Overall, Stafford now has nine career fourth-quarter or OT game-winning drives (36 career starts), including three this season. Since the beginning of 2011, he has led the team to comeback wins seven times in the fourth quarter or overtime.
- On a 28-yard completion to TE Tony Scheffler in the first quarter at Jacksonville (11/4), Stafford reached 10,000 yards for his career. He became the second fastest player in NFL history to reach 10,000 career yards, doing so in 37 career games. Only QB Kurt Warner took fewer games (36) to reach 10,000 career passing yards.
- Went 28-of-42 for 329 yards and three touchdowns in Week 10 at Minnesota (11/11) and recorded his 14th-career 300-yard game in 38 career games. Stafford holds the record for most 300-yard games in franchise history.
- Threw for 266 yards vs. Green Bay (11/18) and increased his career total to 10,828. Stafford moved into fifth place on the Lions all-time career passing list, surpassing QB Eric Hipple (10,711).
- Was 31-of-61 for 441 yards and tossed 2 TD passes in Week 12 on Thanksgiving Day vs. Houston (11/22). Marked fourth time he has thrown for 400 yards in his career, as well as his 15th career 300-yard game and sixth this season.
- Registered 246 passing yards in the first half against Houston, which was his fourth-highest tally in the first half of his career. He has now thrown for 200 yards in the first half eight times during his career.
- With 313 passing yards vs. Indianapolis in Week 13 (12/2), Stafford increased his season total to 3,742 and reached 3,500 yards in the first 12 games of the season for the second consecutive year. Throwing for 3,500 yards in the first 12 games of a season is a franchise record and Stafford is the only player in team history to accomplish this feat.
- With 313 yards vs. the Colts, Stafford (3,742) has thrown for the most yards through the first 12 games of any season in team history. He broke his own record of 3,527 yards set last year.
- By reaching 3,500 yards, Stafford became the second quarterback in team history to throw for 3,500 yards in a season twice (Jon Kitna, 2006-07).
- Completed 27-of-45 passes for 264 yards and had one touchdown pass and one rushing touchdown at Green Bay in Week 14 (12/9). His four-yard touchdown run in the first quarter was his fourth rushing touchdown of the season, the most by a Lions quarterback since QB Scott Mitchell scored four in 1996.
- Threw for 443 yards on 37-of-56 passing in Week 16 vs. Atlanta, surpassing Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne (1,074) for the most pass completions in Lions history. His new team record now stands at 1,090 completions.
- Threw for 272 yards on 24-of-42 passing and three touchdowns in Week 17 vs. Chicago (12/30), setting the NFL record for single-season attempts by registering 727 passing attempts (QB Drew Bledsoe, 691 in 1994).

COLLEGE

Stafford closed out his three-year career at Georgia ranking third on the school's all-time record list for yards passing (7,731), pass attempts (987), completed passes (564), touchdown passes (51), touchdowns responsible for (57), and yards in total offense (7,944). In 34 starting assignments, he compiled a 27-7 record (.794).

- Stafford enjoyed his most successful collegiate season in 2008 starting in all 13 games and completed 235-of-383 passes (both fourth on the school season-record list) for 3,459 yards (second-best season total by a Bulldog passer), compiling a 61.36 pass completion percentage. He also set the Bulldog season-record with 25 touchdown tosses and 10 interceptions and averaged 9.03 yards per pass attempt, the third-best season total in Georgia history. His passing efficiency rating of 153.54 is the second-best annual mark in school annals. Also ran for 40 yards and a score on 55 carries (0.7 avg).

- On 423 plays, he amassed a school season-record 3,499 yards in total offense (269.15 yards per game), along with being responsible for 26 touchdowns (third on the Georgia season-record list).
- Capital One Bowl MVP. Earned All-SEC second-team honors from the league's coaches and Associated Press.
- Earned the team's Vince Dooley Most Valuable Player of the Year Award and received SEC Academic Honor Roll distinction for the fall semester.
- The recipient of the Dr. and Mrs. Howard Williams, II, Football Scholarship.
- The team ranked 74th in the nation with an average of 375.62 yards per game, but Stafford proved to be an opportunist, as the Bulldogs placed 34th in scoring (32.62 points per game).
- In 2006, became the first quarterback to start for Georgia right out of high school (graduated from high school early and enrolled at UGA in Jan.) since Eriz Zeier in 1991. Completed 135-of-256 passes (52.73%) for 1,749 yards, as he had seven touchdowns and 13 interceptions. Scored three times and gained 191 yards on 47 carries (4.1 avg). Participated in 303 plays, compiling 1,940 yards in total offense (149.23 yards per game).
- Selected to the Freshman All-SEC team by the league's coaches, twice earning SEC Freshman of the Week honors.

- Pro Bowl: 2011, 2013
- Associated Press All-Pro: 2011, Second-year 2012
- Named 2011 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year; 2011 Pepsi Rookie of the Year.
- During the 2012 offseason, Suh donated $250,000 to his high school (Grant H.S.) in Portland to help build a new football field.

TRANSACTIONS

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (2nd overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

PRO

Suh brings aggressiveness and instinct to the Lions' front four and is expected to be a dominant mainstay in the middle for years to come. Possesses great versatility to move around in a variety of defensive packages and formations.

- 22 sacks since entering the NFL are the second most sacks by a defensive tackle in the League since 2010. Has 22 sacks in 46 career games. Has tally of 39.5 total negative defensive plays (22 sacks. 17.5 TFL on rushing plays) are the most among defensive tackles since 2010.
- With 22 sacks in his three-year career, Suh is now tied with DT Kelvin Pritchett for fifth in Lions career sacks by a defensive tackle.
- With a 0.5 sack in Week 16 vs. Atlanta (12/22), Suh reached 21 sacks for his career and passed DT Dan Owens for sole possession of sixth place on the Lions all-time leaders list for sacks by a defensive tackle.
- Named 2013 Pro-Bowl alternate and Second-team AP All-Pro in 2012.
- Named starter to 2011 Pro Bowl as a rookie. Became first Lions rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since RB Barry Sanders was selected to the 1990 NFC Pro Bowl Squad. He also became the Lions' first rookie defensive player to be named to the Pro Bowl since DE Al "Bubba" Baker in 1979.
- Among Lions defensive tackles, he was the sixth player at that position named to the Pro Bowl and the first ever to do so as a rookie. Suh is also the 10th rookie in team history named to the Pro Bowl and fourth Lions rookie defensive player.
- Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2010. Suh became seventh rookie in team history to win an AP Rookie of the Year award, the most by any franchise since the AP began honoring Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year in 1967. Joins RB Mel Farr (1976), CB Lem Barney (1967), WR Earl McCullough (1968), DE Al "Bubba" Baker (1978), RB Billy Sims (1980) and RB Barry Sanders (1989) as Detroit Lions honored as AP Rookie of the Year.
- Third Lions' rookie to be named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and the first since Baker in 1978.
- Since the AP Rookie of the Year Award was first established in 1967, Suh is only the sixth defensive tackle to win the honor and the first since Dolphins DT Tim Bowens in 1994.
- Named Rookie of the Year by the Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly/PFWA. Also named All-Pro by Sporting News and PFW/PFWA.
- Named to Associated Press All Pro Team in 2011. He was the first rookie defensive tackle to be named to the Associated Press All-Pro Team since the recognition was designated by offense and defense in 1951 and he is the first rookie defensive linemen to be named AP All-Pro since Titans DE Jevon Kearse in 1999.
- Joined RB Doak Walker (1950), DE Al "Bubba" Baker (1978), K Eddie Murray (1980) and RB Barry Sanders (1989) as only Lions rookie named to AP All-Pro Team, with Suh and Baker as the only Lions defensive players.
- Became Lions first rookie since RB Barry Sanders in 1989 to be named AP All-Pro.
- 2010 NFL Alumni Defensive Linemen of the Year.

2012: Named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2012 after finishing second on the team in sacks with eight behind DE Cliff Avril (9.5) in 2012, Suh ended the season with eight sacks (67 yards), 33 total tackles (23 solo) eight tackles for loss and two pass defenses.

- Finished with two tackles and a sack for a 12-yard loss on QB Sam Bradford in the Lions' 27-23 season home opener win over the St. Louis Rams. Also recorded two tackles for loss, including a one-armed stop on RB Steven Jackson.
- Part of a defensive line effort that tallied three sacks total in the game and held Rams RB Steven Jackson to only 53 yards rushing.
- Registered one sack for a total loss of 17 yards on QB Alex Smith in the Week 2 against the 49ers (9/16), marking the second time in three NFL seasons he has registered sacks in each of the season's first two games. He recorded sacks in the first two games of his rookie season in 2010.
- Had two solo tackles in Week 3 at Tennessee (9/23).
- Registered half a sack and also had tackles (one solo) in the Lions' 20-13 loss vs. Minnesota (9/30) in Week 4.
- Finished with two solo tackles and one key pass defended that came on a 3rd-down play in Week 6 at Philadelphia (10/14). The Lions defensive line finished their day with three sacks and helped lead the Lions defense to 10 tackles for loss in the 26-23 overtime win over the Eagles.
- Recorded his third sack of the season on Bears QB Jay Cutler for a loss of eight yards in Week 7 at Chicago (10/22) and also finished with one tackle for loss. Suh now has 17.5 sacks through 36 career games.
- Had two tackles for loss in the Lions' 28-24 win vs. Seattle in Week 8 (10/28). The Lions defense combined for seven

- tackles for loss against the Seahawks, six of which were from the Lions defensive line.
- Had one solo tackle in Week 10 at Minnesota (11/11).
- Led a disruptive defensive line effort in Week 11 vs. Green Bay (11/18) with five total tackles (two solo). The Lions' defensive line recorded three sacks (17 yards) and had three of the five tackles for loss against the Packers.
- Had five quarterback hits in Week 12 vs. Houston on Thanksgiving Day (11/22).
- Delivered a dominating performance in Week 13 vs. Indianapolis (12/2), racking up one sack, six tackles (five solo, four for loss) and one pass defended against the Colts.
- Assisted on one tackle in Week 14 at Green Bay (12/9).
- Picked up the Lions' only sack of the game on a one-yard takedown on Cardinals QB Ryan Lindley and finished with three tackles (two solo) in Week 15 at Arizona.

MANE FACTS

- Pronunciation: TULL-uck
- Named Detroit Lions Robert Porcher Man of the Year Award for his community service efforts in 2012.
- Born and raised in Miami, Fla., Tulloch has Jamaican heritage. His parents arrived in the United States as young adults from Jamaica before he was born. He is appreciative of his Jamaican ancestry and frequently enjoys his mother's native cuisine.
- Tulloch credits his mother, Mercedes, as his inspiration and reason for his success. As a single mom, she worked as a nurse to provide for him and two siblings.
- Older brother David Tulloch played defensive tackle at Florida State (1995-1998).
- Hosts annual free football camp in July for Miami area youth.
- List of favorites: (movie) Green Mile; (actor) Denzel Washington; (sports hero) Mike Singletary; (food) Jamaican; (car) Mercedes S550; and (vacation getaway) Jamaica.
- After completing his professional football career, Tulloch desires to develop a youth center to provide a healthy environment for children to grow, stay out of trouble and participate in extracurricular activities. He already has launched The Stephen Tulloch Foundation to benefit underprivileged children in Miami and has organized a bowling event and football camp through the foundation.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed by Lions to a five-year contract extension on March 22, 2012.
- Signed with the Detroit Lions on August 1, 2011.
- Selected with Tennessee's second pick of the fourth round (116th overall) in the 2006 NFL Draft.

PRO

Tulloch is an aggressive, downhill defender who possesses quick feet and fluid lateral movement. Has proved to be durable while participating in every game during his first five NFL seasons and was elected as Tennessee's defensive captain in 2010.

- Career totals: 112 games (78 starts), 651 tackles (470 solo), eight sacks, four interceptions, 22 pass defenses, 10 fumble recoveries and 28 special teams tackles.
- Surpassed 600 tackles for his career with nine total tackles (four solo) in Week 11 vs. Green Bay (11/18).
- In 2010, Tulloch led Titans with a career-high 169 tackles, fourth highest total for the franchise during "Titans era" (1999-present).
- In first full season (2009) as team's starting middle linebacker, he led team in tackles for first time, setting a then-career high with 132 total stops.
- In 2008, he moved into the starting lineup during the season and finished second on the squad with 98 tackles.
- 2012: Voted team captain for the first time with Lions and second time in career (Tennessee in 2010). Led the team in tackles for the second straight season, finishing the year with 112 total tackles (74 solo), 0.5 sacks, six pass defenses, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. Tulloch and fellow linebackers Justin Durant (103) and DeAndre Levy (80) finished in the top three in total tackles.
- Finished second on the team in tackles with nine (three solo) behind fellow LB Justin Durant in the Lions' 27-23 season home opener win over the St. Louis Rams (9/9). Helped lead of an overall defensive effort that tallied three sacks total in the game and held Rams RB Steven Jackson to only 53 yards rushing.
- Recorded five tackles and two pass defenses in the Lions' 27-19 loss at San Francisco (9/16) in Week 2, giving him over 400 tackles for his career (404).
- Tied a team-high for tackles with six (three solo), one of which went for a loss, in the Lions' Week 3 game at Tennessee (9/23) and also had one pass defended.
- Played in his 100th-career game in Week 4 vs. Minnesota (9/30), finishing third on the team in tackles with six solo tackles.
- Finished second on the team in tackles with eight (seven solo) in the Lions' 26-23 overtime win over the Eagles in Week 6 (10/14). Also recorded his ninth career fumble recovery on a botched snap by Eagles QB Michael Vick.
- Combined with LB Justin Durant for a half a sack on Bears QB Jay Cutler for a loss of 4.5 yards and finished with six total tackles (five solo) in the Lions' 13-7 loss at Chicago in Week 7 (10/22).
- Finished third on the team in tackles with five total (four solo) and had one pass defended in the Lions' 28-24 win vs. Seattle in Week 8 (10/28). Had five solo tackles in the Lions' 31-14 win over the Jacksonville Jaguars in Week 9 (11/4).
- Had three tackles (2 solo), including one tackle for loss, in Week 10 at Minnesota (11/11).
- Led the Lions in tackles in Week 11 vs. Green Bay (11/18) with nine total tackles (four solo), including one tackle for loss, giving him 601 tackles for his career.
- Led the Lions in tackles for the second straight week with 15 (12 solo), nearly surpassing his career-high mark of 17, in Week 12 vs. Houston on Thanksgiving Day (11/22). Tulloch and fellow LB Justin Durant combined for 23 of the Lions 63 tackles against the Texans.
- Led the Lions in tackles for the second straight week with 15 (12 solo), nearly surpassing his career-high mark of 17, in Week 12 vs. Houston on Thanksgiving Day (11/22). Tulloch and fellow LB Justin Durant combined for 23 of the Lions 63 tackles against the Texans.

TRANSACTIONS

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the third round (65th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE

A mainstay at guard during his time at Kentucky, started 37-of-47 games as a Wildcat and earned All-SEC accolades all four years of his career.

- In three seasons as the starting right guard, led the SEC interior blockers with an 88.47-percent grade for blocking consistency and registered 36 touchdown-resulting blocks.

2012: Received All-American second team and All-SEC honors from The NFL Draft Report as the watch list member for both the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award. Started all 12 games at right guard, pacing the Wildcats with 48 knockdowns and 13 touchdown-resulting blocks as he did not allow a sack all season.

- Garnered SEC Lineman of the Week honors after he delivered eight knockdowns vs. Kent State.

- Despite the Wildcat offense only accumulating 58 rushing yards vs. South Carolina, Warford paved the way for two rushing scores from 10 and eight yards out, respectively.

- Against Samford, Kentucky rushed for 275 of its 342 yards behind Warford's right side as Warford had six knockdowns and two touchdown-resulting blocks.

2011: Named All-SEC second-team by the league's coaches as he led the league's interior blockers with a blocking consistency grade of 87.5-percent.

- Of the 21 Wildcat touchdowns in 2011, Warford paced the Wildcats with 13 touchdown-resulting blocks.

- Allowed just one of the team's 35 sacks.

2010: Took over the starting right guard duties and started all 13 games to achieve All-SEC second-team recognition.

- Of the 21 Wildcat touchdowns in 2011, Warford paced Kentucky with 13 touchdown-resulting blocks.

- Contributed to Kentucky's 427.85 yards per game average, the 27th-best mark in the nation.

2009: Appeared in 10 games as a reserve at right guard. Named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Recorded 194 tackles (109 solos) with 20.0 sacks for minus 140 yards, 46.0 stops for losses totaling 235 yards and 29 pressures. Caused four fumbles and recovered two others. Deflected 11 passes and intercepted three others for 42 yards in returns, including a touchdown. Young became just the sixth player in school history to register 20.0 sacks during a career.

- Young's 8 sacks in 2009 tied for seventh place on the school's season-record chart.
- One of five Wolfpack defenders to record at least 40 tackles for loss in a career, as only Mario Williams (55.5, 2003-05) had more than Young's 46.0 on the school's all-time record chart.
- His 15 stops for loss in 2007 tied Levar Fisher (2000), Pat Thomas (2003) and Mario Williams (2004) for seventh on State's season-record list.
- In 2009, named second-team All-ACC selection. Started all 12 games for the first time during his career, leading the team in sacks and tackles for loss. Finished sixth on the squad with 54 tackles (32 solos). His eight sacks for minus 56 yards ranked third in the ACC and tied for 35th in the nation. Also finished third in the conference and tied for 37th in the major college ranks with 14.0 stops for losses totaling 85 yards. Had three pressures, 2 forced fumbles and 3 pass defense, also recorded first career interception.
- Served as one of the team's three captains, participating in 526 defensive snaps.
- Started 11 of 13 games in 2008 at right defensive end. Participated in a career-best 608 plays, as he led the team with 6.5 sacks for minus 51 yards and 12.5 stops for losses of 72 yards. Also paced the Pack with 10 pressures. Recovered two fumbles, blocked a kick, intercepted one pass and deflected four others. Had three sacks, 6.5 stops for loss and seven pressures in the final five games after returning to the lineup from his benching.
- As a sophomore in 2007, played in all 12 games, starting the final eight contests at left defensive end. Saw action in 590 snaps, leading the team with 5.5 sacks for minus 33 yards. His team-high 15.0 stops for losses of 66 yards are the second-highest total by a sophomore in school annals and ranked fourth in the ACC. Credited with 11 pressures, as he caused 2 fumbles and had 3 pass defenses.
- Saw action in all 12 games as a freshman, started five contests, including the last four of the season while sharing right defensive end duties with Martrel Brown. Recorded five quarterback pressures with 4.5 stops for losses of 12 yards and 44 tackles (24 solos).
- Turned his first career interception into a 34-yard touchdown return vs. Clemson. Also added a pass defended.
- Red-shirted while competing on the scout team as a defensive end in 2005. Originally signed with the Pack in 2004, but attended prep school in the fall before enrolling back at State in Jan., 2005.

PERSONAL

TRANSACTIONS

- Signed by the Detroit Lions as an undrafted rookie free agent on May 3, 2013.

COLLEGE

Four-year receiver at Central Michigan with great hands and flashy speed across the middle. Finished his career as a Chippewa ranked third in program history in receptions (230) and fifth in receiving yards (2,729).

2012: Named third team All-Mid-American Conference as a senior and also earned second team Capital One Academic All-America honors. Ended his career by recording a reception in 42 consecutive games, tying for the second longest active streak in the NCAA. Led the team with 74 receptions and ranked second on the team in receiving yards (840) and receiving yards per game (64.6).

- Finished career with a 10-catch, 101-yard performance in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl, including the 11-yard game-winning touchdown.

2011: All-MAC third team selection as a receiver and recipient of Central Michigan's Ring of Honor award, which is presented to the player who best exemplifies great leadership on and off the field. Was also a Capital One CoSIDA Academic All-American second team selection and Academic All-MAC Honoree as the team's co-captain.

2010: Started seven games at wide receiver, receiving second team All-MAC accolades as well as third team All-MAC honors as a punt returner. Recorded the sixth 1,000-yard season by a receiver in school history, becoming only the fifth different CMU player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in a single season.

- His 1,137 receiving yards in 2010 rank third in school history and his 83 receptions are fifth most in school history.
- Ranked eighth nationally in receiving yards per game (94.8 avg), 11th in receptions (6.9 avg) and 13th in total receiving yards (1,137).

2009: Played in all 14 games as a freshman, making seven starts. Caught at least one pass in 11 games played.

- Caught three passes for 27 yards and a touchdown against Ohio in the MAC Championship Game.

PERSONAL

Three-year starter at receiver at Rochester Adams (Mich.) High School where he was part of back-to-back OAA championship teams in 2007 and 2008. Helped lead his team to a 12-1 record and a regional championship in 2007.

- Ranked No. 18 on the Detroit Free Press Fab 50, setting school records with 52 receptions, 985 receiving yards and 12 touchdowns as a senior.
- Also rushed for 440 yards and seven scores in 2008.
- Selected to play in 2009 Michigan High School Football Coaches Association All-Star Game.

SUMMARY

The Lions offense marched straight down the field for 12 plays, 72 yards to a 1st and Goal at the Rams three-yard line, only to have Rams rookie CB Janoris Jenkins pick off QB Matthew Stafford's pass in the end zone and return it to the St. Louis 34. Defense held the Rams to a 48-yard field goal by rookie K Greg Zuerlein after a 10-play, 36-yard drive. On the next drive, Stafford moved the chains 80 yards, setting up RB Joique Bell for a one-yard touchdown rush up the middle in front of his hometown. Detroit's defense was at it again soon after when DT Ndamukong Suh brought down Jackson with one arm on a 3rd-and-2, helping force a punt situation. Stafford's ensuing drive was thwarted by LB Jo-Lonn Dunbar as he picked off a pass intended for TE Brandon Pettigrew at the St. Louis 14 and returned it 42 yards to the Detroit 44. DT Nick Fairley came in with a sack on QB Sam Bradford for a loss of five yards, compelling the Rams to settle for a field goal. Seconds after the two minute warning, Stafford was picked off by CB Cortland Finnegan at the Detroit 31 for the 31-yard score. Keen on shaking off the interception, the Lions ended the first half with a 41-yard field goal from K Jason Hanson. After a false start penalty and a Suh-sack (12 yards), the offense once again had an opportunity to score. The Lions took the 45-yard field goal to tie the game after coverage from CB Janoris Jenkins and a sack for a loss of nine yards courtesy of DE Robert Quinn. In the third quarter, Stafford hammered down the field for a five-play, 80-yard touchdown drive to tie the game at 20-20. The Rams answered with a 13-play drive which garnered only a field goal to give St. Louis a three point lead. The Lions traveled 80 yards in under two minutes on their final drive of the game and finished with Stafford connecting with RB Kevin Smith for a five-yard pass with 10 seconds to play. Detroit's high-energy win marked the franchise's 50th home-opening win in team history.

SUMMARY

The Lions ventured to Candlestick Park seeking a win for the first time since 1975 in front of a primetime audience, but fell eight points short to San Francisco, 27-19. The 49ers wasted no time traveling for 67 yards in four plays and a touchdown in just over a minute as QB Alex Smith connected deep for 21 yards to TE Vernon Davis. After a five-yard penalty on 49ers TE Demarcus Dobbs at Detroit's 27, RB Kevin Smith edged down the field for four yards in two plays and WR Calvin Johnson and TE Will Heller used height to their advantage and picked up 15 yards. K Jason Hanson capitalized on a field goal attempt, concluding an eight-play, 48-yard scoring drive. The Lions special teams unit forced a turnover with a fumble caused by rookie LB Tahir Whitehead that was recovered by WR Kassim Osgood at the San Francisco 25. RB Joique Bell's 2-yard acquisition was the lone gain on the ensuing drive that resulted with another field goal from 41 yards out. Lions QB Matthew Stafford was picked off on the third play of the ensuing drive by S Dashon Goldson at the Detroit 43 who returned it 20 yards. K David Akers added a 35-yard field goal that was voided after a roughing the kicker penalty on Lions CB Drayton Florence. Two plays later, CB Jacob Lacey had a pass interference penalty which set the 49ers up for a one-yard rushing touchdown in five plays, 23 yards and 2:24 off the clock. On Detroit's following possession, The Lions offense pushed down the field using an effective run-pass combination, but Hanson missed the 40-yard field goal attempt. Detroit answered soon after with a 40-yard field goal drive that went for 10 plays, 39 yards and 6:02 with just under four minutes to play in the fourth. Akers came back with a 48-yard field goal in 10 plays and 55 yards, while Stafford was victim of two sacks for a combined loss of 24 yards as the Lions settled for their fourth and final field goal of the night. Smith's 23-yard touchdown pass to Davis extended the 49ers' lead late in the game.

SUMMARY

After trading early field goals, the Titans ran a trick play on a punt return with RB Darius Reynaud throwing a reverse pass to CB Tommie Campbell for a 65-yard score. On the following drive the Lions went three-and-out with Hanson filling in to punt due to P Ben Graham's injury. After a five-yard penalty on Fairley, Locker threw a 61-yard touchdown pass to Cook as the Titans then held the Lions to another field goal. At the end of the first half, Titans K Rob Bironas added a 38-yard field goal. At the start of the third quarter, RB Mikel Leshoure came in for a one-yard rush touchdown on the Lions' next possession. Following a Titans fumble, Stafford responded with a three-yard TD pass and a two-point conversion both to WR Nate Burleson. Reynaud extinguished the Lions' momentum with a 105-yard touchdown kickoff return, tying the score 27-27. Locker followed up with a 71-yard pass to WR Nate Washington for a touchdown on the Titans' next drive to put Tennessee ahead one. With the ball back, Stafford moved down the field until TE Brandon Pettigrew was stripped as the Titans ran it back for a 72-yard touchdown. Lions QB Shaun Hill came in at 1:16 due to injury and found Johnson in the end zone for a three-yard touchdown. Hill forced overtime with a Hail Mary pass to WR Titus Young, but a Titans field goal and a miscel of fourth down handed the Lions their second loss.

SUMMARY

The Lions' first NFC North contest of the 2012 season opened with a 105-yard kickoff return courtesy of Vikings WR Percy Harvin just 12 seconds into the game. QB Matthew Stafford led the Lions' offensive retaliation with an attempted deep pass to WR Calvin Johnson that was incomplete, but drew two penalties on the defense. Hanson booted a 40-yard field goal after the four-play, 58-yard drive to narrow the score to 7-3. Vikings RB Adrian Peterson had a 12-yard run for a first down, but DE Cliff Avril tackled Harvin on a reverse play for -3. WR Jerome Simpson had a first down, but another tackle for loss of a yard by LB DeAndre Levy had the Vikings in a third down situation that led to a P Chris Kluwe punt. TE Brandon Pettigrew and RB Mikel Leshoure were able to gain two first downs on the next drive, but a loss of three yards on Leshoure's carry on 2nd-and-13 and a Stafford sack put Detroit in a difficult position to keep the drive alive. Lions S Ricardo Silva stepped it up on the ensuing Vikings drive as he made two tackles to halt the Vikings before a pass interference penalty on CB Bill Bentley gave Minnesota 31 yards. After a failed third down conversion, K Blair Walsh added a field goal from 49 yards out. Harvin got the Vikings to the 48 on their next drive after a 17-yard pass, while another pass interference penalty on Bentley moved the chains 26 more yards. DE Kyle Vanden Bosch stepped up on a third down at the Lions' own nine-yard line, forcing a Minnesota chip shot field goal that capped off an 82-yard drive. K Jason Hanson added a 31-yard field goal on the ensuing drive as the Lions were forced to settle for three points after two end zone drops from WR Calvin Johnson and Pettigrew. Detroit's defense held the score at 13-6 before the end of the half. To begin the second half, Avril was just shy of an interception on the first play, while he and DT Ndamukong Suh combined for a 10-yard sack on Ponder to force a failed attempt on 3rd-and-20. Midway through the third quarter, Lions P Nick Harris punted 41 yards, only to have CB Marcus Sherels return it 77 yards for a touchdown and the Vikings' second return touchdown of the game. The only other score of the game came late in the fourth with Stafford on a one-yard quarterback sneak after 11 plays and 75 yards. The Lions left Ford Field with a 1-3 record going into their Bye week.

SUMMARY

Detroit engineered a late fourth-quarter rally led by QB Matthew Stafford to overcome a 10-point deficit to beat the Eagles 26-23 in overtime when K Jason Hanson kicked a 45-yard field goal on Detroit's first possession of the extra period. Hanson gave the Lions an early first quarter lead with two field goals after the Eagles stalled on their first possession. The second quarter opened up with a Stafford interception by CB Ndamisi Asomugha, but the Eagles were not able to produce as a result of the takeaway and were forced to punt. On the Eagles' next possession, Lions S Louis Delmas made a grand entrance back to the field and granted the Lions with their first interception of the season. Unfortunately, Detroit was not able to capitalize on the turnover. The Eagles then found their way on the scoreboard in the first half when QB Michael Vick flipped the ball to RB LeSean McCoy on a screen pass as McCoy fought his way into the end zone to give the Eagles a 7-6 lead with 1:16 left in the first half. The third quarter saw a sluggish Lions offense while the Eagles managed to score three field goals (26, 32, 49) on three consecutive possessions. After a would-be Stafford to Johnson touchdown was nullified due to offensive pass interference on Johnson, a 20-yard reception by Johnson set Stafford up to scramble into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run. The Eagles pushed their lead to 23-13 on a 70-yard touchdown pass from Vick to WR Jeremy Maclin with 5:18 left to play, but the Lions responded with a 17-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to WR Nate Burleson and a 19-yard field goal by Hanson with three seconds left to play to send the game into overtime. Back-to-back sacks on Vick by DE Cliff Avril and a combined effort from DE Kyle Vanden Bosch and DT Nick Fairley set up the Lions' game-winning drive after the Eagles won the coin flip to start overtime and elected to receive. Detroit got the ball back at midfield and trusted the golden leg of Hanson as the veteran kicker knocked home the 45-yard field goal to give the Lions the 26-23 victory.

SUMMARY

A lack of third down conversions and two Red Zone fumbles had Detroit's offense scoreless early on until the end of the fourth quarter. The first drive of the game had the Lions receiving and going three-and-out after WR Calvin Johnson had two drops and RB Mikel Leshoure only picked up four yards on the ground. Chicago scored on its ensuing possession in less than three minutes when QB Jay Cutler connected seven yards to his favorite target WR Brandon Marshall to cap off a six-play, 59-yard drive. After another three-and-out for the Lions, the Lions defense held the Bears as LB Stephen Tulloch had a big tackle on third down to force a punt. Cutler took advantage of another possession following a Lions punt and scrambled for 24 yards, tacking on 15 more from an unnecessary roughness penalty. The Lions forced a 39-yard field goal from Bears CB Robbie Gould after a tackle for a loss of three yards on third down by LB DeAndre Levy. Detroit's defense began the second quarter as Cutler was sacked on third down for a loss of 9 yards by LBs Stephen Tulloch and Justin Durant, resulting in a field goal situation. Gould attempted a 47-yarder but DE Lawrence Jackson thwarted the Bears' scoring opportunity with the block. DT Ndamukong Suh delivered a rib-bruising sack to Cutler on the subsequent Bears' control and allowed for another three-and-out. Just after the two-minute warning of the half, Leshoure fumbled at Chicago's 18-yard line and it was recovered by DE Julius Peppers. The half opened with the Lions' defense managing to get the Bears off the field in three downs, but P Adam Podleski's punt was muffed by RB Stefan Logan and recovered by Bears CB Zack Bowman at the Detroit 27. The turnover was converted to three final points when Gould booted a 21-yard field goal to make the score 13-0. In a late attempt to bring his team back into the game, QB Matthew Stafford drove the Lions all the way down the field to the Chicago one-yard line. Detroit would get on the board with 30 seconds remaining in the game as Stafford connected with rookie WR Ryan Broyles for his first career touchdown, but it proved to be too little too late as the Bears recovered Hanson's onside kick to seal the win 13-7.

SUMMARY

The Lions picked up their third win of the season with a come-from-behind 28-24 victory over Seattle at Ford Field. Seahawks QB Russell Wilson used the first drive to push Seattle down the field, but the Lions defense was able to hold them to a 23-yard field goal delivered by K Steven Hauschka. On the ensuing Lions possession, an 82-yard drive was capped off with a Stafford-to Broyles six-yard touchdown pass. On the initial play of the second quarter Seahawks RB Marshawn Lynch broke free for a 77-yard touchdown dash to put Seattle back up 10-7. Seattle's offense continued their momentum with a nine-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to WR Sidney Rice in six plays, 80 yards and 2:50, pushing their lead to 17-7. On the Lions next chance with the ball, however, Stafford connected a deep 46-yard pass to WR Titus Young in the end zone. Stafford went 80 yards in six plays and just under three minutes to put the score at 17-14 in going into halftime. Both teams traded interceptions midway through the third quarter as Stafford went on to scramble in for a one-yard touchdown to put the Lions up three at the beginning of the fourth quarter. Right away, however, Seattle WR Zach Miller caught a 16-yard touchdown pass from Wilson with 5:27 left in the game to put the Seahawks ahead once again. However, Seattle was unable to stop the Lions on their final possession as Johnson opened up the drive with a 15-yard reception. Stafford went for the pass play and found Young wide open for a low one-yard pass and the win with only 20 seconds to play. The 16-play drive began at Detroit's 20 and traveled 80 yards in 5:07. To seal the victory, Silva recovered a Seattle fumble with eight seconds left to go in the game.

SUMMARY

The Lions started their second drive of the game at their own 8-yard line after a 73-yard punt from Jaguars P Bryan Anger. K Jason Hanson got the Lions on the board with a 47-yard field goal. Following another deep Anger punt, QB Matthew Stafford orchestrated a drive spilling into the second quarter for 13 plays, 91 yards and 5:50 that culminated into Leshoure's first touchdown of the day. Working with their best field position thus far in the game following a third straight Jacksonville punt, a 38-yard reception by Johnson took the ball to the one-yard line as Leshoure dashed in on the next play for a 14-0 lead. Though the Jags were able to obtain their sole first down of the half on their next possession, the Lions defense ultimately forced another punt. With the ball back in Stafford's hands and staring at a third down situation, a pass interference call on the Jaguars provided 20 free yards and a first down. A 12-yard catch by Johnson and a 17-yard catch by WR Titus Young landed Leshoure at the eight-yard line on 2nd-and-7 as T Riley Reiff gave Leshoure a clear shot to book it into the end zone and give Detroit a cushy 21-0 lead just before halftime. Jaguars QB Blaine Gabbert was picked off by S Erik Coleman on Jacksonville's ensuing control of the ball to begin the second half, but Detroit was unable to produce a score and punted. Near the end of the third quarter after scoreless drives from each team, Jacksonville rushed and passed to get into scoring position at Detroit's 26. Gabbert then had a pass tipped in the Red Zone, allowing rookie CB Jonte Green to grab his first career interception. Stafford moved the chains to get K Jason Hanson in position to sink a 42-yard field goal, giving the Lions a 24-0 lead with 13:56 to play. Jacksonville responded with its first scoring drive of the game as Gabbert found WR Michael Spurlock in the end zone from five yards out and RB Rashad Jennings then caught a pass on the two-point conversion to make it 24-8. Detroit's answer was swift with a nine-play drive that covered 80 yards as RB Joique Bell ran up the middle 10 yards for another six points to extend Detroit's lead to 31-8.

SUMMARY

After the Lions were forced to punt on their opening drive, Vikings QB Christian Ponder took the field and led a seven-play, 67-yard, 3:31 drive that ended in a three-yard touchdown pass to WR Jarius Wright. On the ensuing Lions drive, Stafford's intended short pass to Pettigrew was picked off by Vikings LB Chad Greenway who returned it three yards. DE Cliff Avril rushed Ponder on the ensuing drive and came up with a big 15-yard tackle for loss, but the Vikings managed to get within field goal range for Walsh as he booted a 48-yarder to put Minnesota up 10-0 at the end of the first quarter. A Stafford sack pushed the chains backwards 11 yards after two gains on the ground, however, as K Jason Hanson was called upon to deliver a 41-yard field goal after 12 plays, 69 yards to narrow the score to 10-3. Answering the call for Minnesota was RB Adrian Peterson as he broke through holes for 15 yards, followed up by a 20-yard run from Ponder. Walsh later capped off the drive with a field goal, followed by a 23-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. On the resulting Lions drive, Stafford sailed it 16 yards to Pettigrew in the back of the end zone for seven after just four plays and 81 yards. Ponder responded with a 20-yard pass to Rudolph and a two point conversion from Peterson after eight plays and 62 yards. In the fourth quarter, Stafford hit WR Titus Young in the end zone after two more long passes to Johnson, but Peterson stifled any Detroit momentum as he darted 61 yards for another Vikings score. Stafford and Johnson would eventually connect in the end zone for the first time all season, but the Vikings were able to keep possession late into the game to seal the win 34-24.

SUMMARY

Incomplete passes early on from QB Matthew Stafford and a sack at the hands of Packers S Morgan Burnett had the Lions settling for a 30-yard field goal from K Jason Hanson to give the Lions a 3-0 lead. The Packers' ensuing possession carried into the start of the second quarter as QB Aaron Rodgers sailed a 20-yard pass to TE Jermichael Finley for a touchdown after 81 yards in 11 plays. Facing a 1st-and-Goal after a pair of Stafford completions, Leshoure rushed it in for the score and Hanson added the point after to put Detroit back up by three. Following a stout defensive stand, a promising Detroit drive aided by two defensive penalties was thwarted by Packers CB Casey Hayward as he picked off Stafford's pass intended for WR Titus Young and returned it 20 yards. Lions CB Jacob Lacey picked off Rodgers, however, and returned it for 10 yards on the second play of the Packers' ensuing possession. Two incomplete passes put Stafford in a 3rd-and-10 situation as he fumbled the ball following a sack by LB Dezman Moses. A missed 50-yard field goal from Packers K Mason Crosby, though, allowed the Lions to carry the 10-7 lead into halftime. Midway through the third quarter, however, Green Bay S M.D. Jennings hand-delivered Stafford's second interception of the day and returned it 72 yards to the end zone to put the Packers back on top 14-10. The next drive provided Detroit's best and most dynamic answer, a Stafford to WR Calvin Johnson 25-yard touchdown after 10 plays, 83 yards and 5:30 to give the Lions a 17-14 lead. Hanson provided a further boost with a 27-yard field goal after 9 plays and 63 yards with nearly four minutes remaining in the game. Misplays by Lacey and S Ricardo Silva, however, allowed Rodgers to complete a 22-yard touchdown pass to WR Randall Cobb to put the Packers up 21-20. Detroit was unable to reach a first down in the ensuing possession as Crosby nailed a 39-yard field goal with only 0:19 seconds to play. Johnson's attempted lateral on the final play of the game was fumbled and recovered by Green Bay as the Packers went on to win 24-20.

SUMMARY

QB Matthew Stafford opened up with a deep ball to WR Calvin Johnson, got Detroit to the 44 while a 12-yard run by RB Mikel Leshoure and a 12-yard pass to WR Mike Thomas resulted in two more first downs. Leshoure pushed his way two yards for a touchdown as the drive marked the first time the Lions scored on their first possession. At the start of the second quarter, Houston scored on the successive push down the field when RB Arian Foster raced six yards into the end zone. After a pair of Stafford completions, two more 12-yard passes to Johnson and TE Brandon Pettigrew, respectively, helped drive the ball down the field to the Houston five-yard line. A five-yard pass from Stafford down the middle sailed into Thomas' waiting hands for six more points to give the Lions the 14-7 lead. QB Matt Schaub responded with a deep pass to WR Andre Johnson for 43 yards. Two plays later Houston TE Owen Daniels caught a nine-yard pass to bring the score to 14-14. Lions' Stafford responded with a pass to Broyles for 37 yards and then 22 yards to Johnson for a touchdown in just two plays, 59 yards and 0:22. K Jason Hanson sank a 46-yard field goal on the Lions' first drive to open up the third quarter. Following a controversial, 81-yard touchdown run from RB Justin Forsett, K Shayne Graham booted in a 45-yard field goal to tie the game again. The opening play of the fourth quarter saw RB Joique Bell darting 23 yards for the go-ahead score as the Detroit defense held Houston scoreless until the two minute warning when Foster added a one-yard rush to tie the game at 31-31 and send it into overtime. A Pettigrew fumble was recovered by LB Darryl Sharpton as a pair of missed field goals from both Graham and Hanson allowed Graham one last shot to win the game, resulting in the go-ahead 32-yard field goal to give Houston the 34-31 win.

SUMMARY

The first score of the game came when Stafford sailed a 14-yard pass to Johnson on third down as K Jason Hanson eventually concluded the drive with a 48-yard field goal to give Detroit the early lead. Luck converted a third down on the next drive with a 60-yard pass to WR T.Y. Hilton. Facing another third down, WR Donnie Avery snagged a 17-yard pass from Luck for his first score as the Colts took the lead 7-3. RB Stefan Logan returned a 73-yard kick from P Pat McAfee 21 yards to Detroit's 13 as Stafford moved the chains with three quick passes down the field. Stafford then passed deep right to TE Brandon Pettigrew in the end zone on second down to take the lead 10-7. Indianapolis went three-and-out as Johnson's one-armed, 32-yard catch helped set up Leshoure's rush up the middle for a six-yard touchdown. In three plays and two defensive penalties, Colts TE Coby Fleener responded with a 26-yard touchdown pass from Luck in the end zone to regain the lead. Two drives later, CB Drayton Florence's pick resulted in another field goal from Hanson, followed by another one from 52 yards out. After both teams traded interceptions, Colts RB Vick Ballard marched down the field to start the third quarter and capped it off with an 11-yard touchdown run. Stafford looked to Johnson soon after for a 46-yard sliding touchdown as Johnson's 12th catch of the day put him over the 125+ yard receiving mark for the fifth straight game. On the subsequent Detroit possession, Bell dashed for a 67-yard run that helped set up Hanson's fourth field goal to give the Lions a 33-21 lead. However, despite having just thrown his third interception of the game, Luck came right back with a 42-yard pitch for six to WR LaVon Brazill to set the score at 28-33 with only 2:39 to play. The Colts defense held the Lions on the ensuing drive, allowing Luck to have the ball for one last drive. Luck managed his way down the field to the Lions 14-yard line before finding Avery on a checkdown route for the game-winning score and Avery's second touchdown of the game."

SUMMARY

A nine-yard reception from WR Calvin Johnson, 11 yards on the ground from RB Joique Bell, 15 more from Johnson and a 22-yard dash from WR Mike Thomas had Detroit sitting pretty at Green Bay's 13-yard line. On 4th-and-Inches, Stafford trotted in for the four-yard touchdown run after 12 plays and 80 yards. On the following possession, DE Lawrence Jackson sacked QB Aaron Rodgers at Detroit's 12-yard line for a loss of six yards and forced a fumble that was recovered by LB Stephen Tulloch. On 2nd-and-6 from Green Bay's 33-yard line, Stafford passed deep right to WR Kris Durham, who made a stellar one-armed snag to pick up 27 yards in his Lions debut. Two plays later Stafford connected with Scheffler on a three-yard touchdown pass giving Detroit a 14-point cushion. The Packers mustered out a 49-yard field goal from K Mason Crosby to cut the Lions' lead to 14-3. On Stafford's ensuing control of the ball, TE Will Heller converted a third down with a three-yard reception. Durham picked up another first down shortly after with a 10-yard grab, but the following snap slipped out of Stafford's hands, allowing for Packers DE Mike Daniels to scoop it up for a 43-yard fumble return for a touchdown. The Packers were in command of the ball to start the third as Rodgers scrambled 27 yards into the end zone for the go-ahead score. Stafford rebounded by converting a third down when he clicked with WR Calvin Johnson on a 19-yard pass that drew an unnecessary roughness penalty on S Morgan Burnett. Two yards from RB Mikel Leshoure and six more from Johnson had the Lions settling for a 46-yard field goal from Jason Hanson to tie the game at 17-17. Hanson and Crosby both missed 51-yard field goal attempts on their teams' ensuing possessions, but the Packers soon turned to the ground game as RB DuJuan Harris bolted 14 yards for a touchdown to regain the lead. After the Lions were unable to score, WR Randall Cobb returned P Nick Harris' punt 13 yards and followed up with a 38-yard reception to put the Packers in scoring position. Crosby came in on 4th-and-7 for a 41-yard field goal to push the lead to 24-17. The Lions were held to a 34-yard field goal in the waning minutes of the game that would eventually be the final scoring play of the game as the Packers sealed the win, 27-20..

SUMMARY

The Cardinals opened up the game with back-to-back first downs, but the drive ultimately ended in a 29-yard punt from P Dave Zastudil. After a three-and-out from the Lions offense, LB DeAndre Levy intercepted Lindley's pass on the first snap to hand the ball right back over to QB Matthew Stafford. Leshoure finished off a long drive with a one-yard touchdown run to give the Lions a 7-0 lead. Detroit's defense successfully held Lindley's crew to a punt, but return man RB Stefan Logan was accidentally hit by his teammate CB Pat Lee, causing him to muff it as the ball was recovered by Arizona's CB Michael Adams at Detroit's five-yard line. On 1st-and-5, RB Beanie Wells ran it in to make it a tie game. With 4:10 left in the half, back-to-back penalties on T Gosder Cherilus and T Riley Reiff had Detroit pinned back at 1st-and-15 when Stafford's pass intended for Johnson was intercepted by CB Patrick Peterson and returned 31 yards before Johnson took him down. Two plays later, RB Beanie Wells pushed one yard into the end zone to make the score 14-7. Stafford converted two third-down situations on the Lions' successive drive, but on 3rd-and-15 at Detroit's 43-yard line, S Rashad Johnson darted out for a 53-yard pick six. K Jay Feely sank a 51-yard field goal after eight plays spanning 30 yards to cushion Arizona's lead early in the second half. Detroit's final score of the game came in response when K Jason Hanson nailed a 41-yard field goal to cap off an 11-play, 57-yard drive. The fourth quarter saw three three-and-outs before Stafford passed it deep 30 yards to Johnson to set up a potential comeback with nearly five minutes left in the game. Logan caught a 10-yard pass, Johnson racked up six more and Scheffler caught a 29-yard pass for a first down at Arizona's 12. Logan picked up eight more yards and at the four-yard line, WR Kris Durham caught Stafford's pass in the end zone for what would have been a touchdown if not for a delay of game penalty. Stafford looked again to Durham in the end zone on the very next play, but Arizona CB Greg Toler intercepted the pass and returned it 102 yards for a touchdown. Arizona ended the game with a 31-yard touchdown run from Wells, his third rushing touchdown of the game.

SUMMARY

History was made in a primetime Saturday night matchup against the Falcons when Lions' WR Calvin Johnson surpassed Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice's single-season record of 1,848 receiving yards (1995) to bring his total to 1,892 yards with one game left to go in the season. Following a RB Mikel Leshoure fumble in the first quarter, Atlanta QB Matt Ryan made quick work of the turnover with a 16-yard completion to WR Roddy White. Ryan capitalized on the good field position, tossing a 44-yard bomb to White to take the lead 7-0. On the Lions' ensuing drive, K Jason Hanson's 34-yard field goal capped off an 11-play, 58-yard drive to bring the score to 7-3. The second quarter had Ryan hitting a short pass to White as he darted into the end zone for a 39-yard touchdown, his second of the game. Capitalizing once again on a stalled Detroit drive followed by a fumble from Johnson, Ryan converted the turnover into another seven points for the Falcons when he threw a 16-yard pass into the back of the end zone to WR Julio Jones. Four run plays and four pass plays into the third quarter, including 14 more yards for Johnson, Leshoure rushed up the middle for a one-yard touchdown. The resulting drive had Detroit's defense halting Atlanta as Leshoure pushed down the field with several gains on the ground. Confronting a 3rd-and-4, Stafford shot it 21 yards to Johnson to get the first down. Leshoure picked up another first down on a pass, but Hanson came out for the chip shot on the 4th-and-Goal. On the ensuing drive, TE Michael Palmer caught the one-yard pass after the drive spanned 11 plays and 78 yards. On the next drive Stafford tried for the record-breaking reception to Johnson, but was picked off by CB Asante Samuel. Following a Falcons field goal, Stafford hit Johnson for a 26-yard gain as Johnson officially broke the 17-year old NFL receiving yard record. Stafford drove the ball all the way to the two-yard line following the historic play. However, Atlanta took over after an incomplete pass to Heller. DE Kyle Vanden Bosch tackled RB Michael Turner in the end zone on the first play of the Falcons' possession for a safety sealing the score at 31-18.

SUMMARY

After Chicago forced the Lions to punt, Bears QB Jay Cutler found WR Alshon Jeffrey for a deep, 55-yard completion down the sideline to the Lions 27-yard line. However, the drive stalled from there due to a false start penalty on Chicago, stiff play by the Lions defense and a costly Cutler fumble that the Bears recovered at the 50-yard line, forcing a punt. Lions QB Matthew Stafford met with TE Tony Scheffler for 28 yards and a first down, then to WR Calvin Johnson for another 18. RB Mikel Leshoure managed to convert a 3rd-and-5, but on the following 4th-and-1 K Jason Hanson came in to deliver a 44-yard field goal to cap off the nine-play, 65-yard drive. Cutler then passed short left to WR Earl Bennett for a 60-yard touchdown play to put the Bears up 7-3. Making quick work of a Lions fumble at Detroit's 24, Bears K Olindo Mare booted a 33-yard field goal to pad the Bears' lead to 10-3. On the third Lions possession following a series of punts, Stafford was strip-sacked by Bears DL Israel Idonije for a loss of 11 yards, and the fumble was recovered by Bears DE Julius Peppers. Sitting at Detroit's 10-yard line with a first down, Forte punched it one yard into the end zone for another Chicago touchdown, extending the Bears' lead to 17-3. On the second snap of the ensuing Lions' possession Stafford was picked off by CB Tim Jennings who returned it 31 yards. Again with a turnover that placed them in the Red Zone, Chicago capitalized with a 40-yard field goal. Unwilling to give in, Stafford orchestrated a long drive of relatively short gains to meet WR Kris Durham with a 25-yard touchdown pass to end the first half. The Bears' drive went scoreless to begin the third quarter as Stafford connected with TE Will Heller for a 10-yard grab in the end zone to make it just a three point game. Another costly fumble allowed the Bears to set up in the Red Zone and quickly turn the opportunity into a 28-yard field goal from Mare. Chicago began the fourth quarter with yet another chip shot field goal. Stafford drove down the field to connect with WR Brian Robiskie for a nine-yard touchdown pass to bring the score back to 26-24. Three incomplete passes, though, gave the Bears the ball back with just under four minutes to go. Cutler successfully ate up the time remaining to secure Chicago's win.

YALE LARY SPECIAL TEAMS MVP

Yale Lary Award is presented to the Special Teams MVP. Yale Lary was an All-Pro defensive back and one of the NFL's greatest punters. Along with his 50 interceptions, he became an even more valuable weapon on Detroit's special teams. Lary won NFL punting titles in 1959, 1961 and 1963, missing in 1962 by just 3.6 inches. Lary played in nine Pro Bowls and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1979.

MEL FARR ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Mel Farr Award is presented to the team's outstanding rookie performer. Mel Farr enjoyed one of the finest rookie campaigns in Lions' history. In 1967, Farr led Detroit in both rushing (860 yards on 206 carries) and receiving (39 catches for 317 yards) and tied for the club lead in scoring with six touchdowns. As a result, he was named the Lions' Offensive MVP and was honored as the NFL Rookie of the Year by the Sporting News.

TEAM CAPTAINS

In 2007, the NFL launched a formalized initiative for teams to select season-long captains, up to six per team, with each player wearing the letter "C" on the upper right chest of their home and away jersey. The Lions have selected numerous captains over the years, both on a season and game basis. Below are captains selected by the team beginning with the 2007 NFL initiative.

PRIDE OF THE LIONS

On November 22, 2009, the Lions unveiled the team's Pride of the Lions, a permanent stadium display honoring greatest players in team history during a halftime celebration at Ford Field against the Cleveland Browns. The team introduced the 12 members of the Pride of the Lions charter class. The Pride of the Lions is a very visible feature on the old Hudson's warehouse of Ford Field (south suite levels) that includes the players' jersey numbers, name and years played with the Lions.

LIONS ALL-PROS

The Associated Press All-Pro Team dates back to 1930. In 1951, the AP began designating the All-Pro Team by offense and defense. From 1930-50, positions selected included the following: End (E), Tackle (T), Guard (G), Center (C) and Back (B). This designation represented the offensive and defensive systems of the era as well as the commonality of two-way players. The first year the offensive backfield was separated by Quarterback, Fullback and Half (Running) Back was 1954. The first year the AP designated the defensive backfield by Safety (S) and Cornerback (B or CB in 1963) was 1955. Wide Receiver (WR), also known as Flanker (FL) from 1963-69, were first separated in 1963, having been previously combined as the End (E) position. Punter (P) and Placekicker (PK) was first honored in 1970 and Kick Returner (KR) in 1978.

			➤ On October 28, 2007, the Lions defeated the Bears 16-7 at Soldier Field. K. Jason Hanson, connected on a 52-yarder, which was his career longest against the Bears on the road, and marked the longest in franchise history by a Lions kicker on the road vs. Chicago. It also marked the first 50-yard field goal on the road vs. the Bears by a Lions kicker in the series that dates back to 1930. Almost one year to the exact date (November 2, 2008), Hanson repeated this feat when he hit another 52-yarder vs. the Bears. ➤ In front of a Ford Field record crowd (67,861), Detroit defeated the Bears 24-13 on ESPN's Monday Night Football October 10, 2011. It was the Lions first appearance on MNF since 2001. The game was highlighted by a 73-yard touchdown bomb from QB Matthew Stafford to WR Calvin Johnson and the second-longest rush in team history by RB Jahvid Best (88-yards). The crowd was so electric that their noise played a large part in Chicago committing nine false start penalties throughout the game.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions trail 33-67-2 in the series with the Vikings in a NFC North Division rivalry that dates back to a 37-10 Detroit victory November 19, 1961 at Minnesota.
- With his opening kickoff return for a touchdown at Minnesota November 21, 2004, Eddie Drummond became the first player in NFL history to score three consecutive touchdowns for his team via punt and kickoff returns. He became only the second player in NFL history to return two kickoffs and two punts for touchdowns in a single season, the other being Dante Hall (Kansas City) in 2003.
- The Lions won the first five outings and nine of the first 14 games in the series; however, Minnesota then won 13 straight contests and 19 of the next 21.
- On two occasions, the Lions have accumulated 45 points in a single game against the Vikings. Detroit defeated Minnesota 45-14 December 9, 1978 and 45-7 December 12, 1981, with both games taking place at the Silverdome.
- Barry Sanders scored four touchdowns in the Lions' 34-14 win at Minnesota November 24, 1991. His four touchdowns established a new Lions' record for rushing touchdowns in a single game. His four touchdowns and 24-point performance also tied Lions' single-game marks.
- Scott Mitchell set a Lions' single-game record for passing yards, breaking Bobby Layne's previous mark of 375, when he accumulated 410 yards vs. Minnesota in a memorable Thanksgiving Day clash November 23, 1995. Mitchell completed 30-of-45 passes and tossed four touchdowns. The wide receiver trio of Herman Moore, Brett Perriman and Johnnie Morton each reached the 100-yard receiving mark in the contest. The Lions won the game 44-38.
- In their final road game and the second-to-last game of the 1997 season, the Lions claimed a 14-13 victory over the Vikings at the Metrodome when Scott Mitchell tossed a 1-yard pass to Herman Moore in the endzone to claim the come-from-behind victory with 0:02 remaining to play. Mitchell engineered the game-winning 72-yard drive that began with 1:56 remaining to play and with only one timeout.
- The Lions overcame a 20-0 halftime deficit and roared back to beat the Vikings, 26-23, in overtime on September 25, 2011. K Jason Hanson kicked a game-winning 32-yard field goal in the extra session for the victory.
- After trailing 20-0 at halftime at Minnesota September 25, 2011, the Lions mounted a comeback in the second half and claimed a 26-23 win in overtime. It was the Lions' first win at Minnesota since 1997. WR Calvin Johnson caught 2 touchdown passes for the third-straight game, and had a critical 40-yard over-the-shoulder grab in overtime to set up the team's game-winning field goal.
- With a 34-28 win vs. Minnesota December 11, 2011, the Lions captured its first season sweep of the Vikings since 1997 and kept their playoff hopes alive. Minnesota came back in the second half and had possession at the Lions 1-yard line with :09 left to play. LB DeAndre Levy raced in and forced a fumble on QB Joe Webb which caused a furious scramble for the ball. Eventually, DE Cliff Avril would recover it at the Vikings 43-yard line to seal the victory.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's first regular season game, as well as its last, at the Pontiac Silverdome, was played against Dallas. The Cowboys won the Monday Night contest 36-10 October 6, 1975 during the Silverdome's inaugural regular season game and the Lions won the finale 15-10 on January 6, 2002.
- The Lions have won nine of the last 16 regular season meetings with Dallas, in addition to Detroit's 38-6 win in the 1991 Divisional Playoff game.
- The Lions and Cowboys have squared off twice in postseason play, with each team claiming victory on its own turf. The first postseason contest occurred December 26, 1970 with Dallas posting a 5-0 shutout against Detroit.
- The Lions captured the victory in the second playoff contest when they defeated the Cowboys, 38-6, at the Silverdome January 5, 1992.
- Lions RB Barry Sanders set a Lions' record for carries in a game (40) in a Monday Night contest in Dallas on September 19, 1994. The Lions won the game 20-17 in overtime.
- The Lions overcame a 24-point deficit in the third quarter and beat the Cowboys, 34-30, on October 2, 2011. The Lions returned two interceptions for touchdowns in the second half to spark the comeback.
- The Lions tied a NFL-record for a road team with a 24-point comeback win at Dallas October 2, 2011. With 20+ point comebacks in consecutive weeks, Detroit became the first team in NFL history to accomplish that feat.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions-Giants series is one of four series (Arz, Chi and GB) in franchise history dating back to 1930. The Lions hold a 20-19-1 lead in the series starting with a 19-6 New York victory at Detroit November 5, 1930, when the team was located in Portsmouth.

➤ Detroit dominated the series initially, claiming eight of the first 12 contests.

➤ The Giants were the opposition in the Lions' first-ever game in Detroit. The Lions won the game 9-0 on September 23, 1934 at University of Detroit Stadium.

➤ The Lions and the Giants played the NFL's last scoreless 0-0 tie November 7, 1943 at New York.

➤ Detroit claimed its first NFL championship with a 26-7 win over the defending champion Giants on December 15, 1935. It was the only postseason meeting between the franchises.

➤ In 2000, the Lions jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead en route to a 31-21 win at Giants Stadium on November 19. The first half was highlighted by two Charlie Batch touchdown passes and a blocked punt by WR Larry Foster, which was the first by the Lions since Bennie Blades blocked a punt December 13, 1992 vs. Cleveland.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit claimed victories in the first four games of the series, with each being a shutout. The Lions also won seven of the first eight meetings.
- The Lions' last tie in a regular season game was against the Eagles (23-23) November 4, 1984, the only tie in Silverdome history.
- On September 26, 2004, the Eagles visited Detroit for the first time since 1984. With 135 yards, WR Roy Williams became the first Detroit rookie receiver to gain 100 receiving yards since 2000.
- In the Lions' first visit to Lincoln Financial Field (Sept. 23, 2007), QB Jon Kitna set a franchise record with 446 passing yards. Kitna connected with WR Roy Williams for a 91-yard TD, career highs for both players. With 204 receiving yards, Williams' career high was the then third-highest tally by a receiver in Lions history.
- In the most recent meeting on Oct. 14, 2012, the Lions pulled off a 26-23 comeback victory against the Eagles on a K Jason Hanson field goal in overtime. The Lions' defensive line forced Eagles QB Michael Vick into two sacks on the opening drive of overtime, causing the Eagles to punt the ball. QB Matthew Stafford then led his eighth-career game-winning drive that was capped off by Hanson's 45-yard game winning field goal as the Lions sealed the win 26-23.

^ NFC Championship Game; The Lions were located in Portsmouth from 1930-33.

The Redskins were located in Boston from 1932-36.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The last time the Lions defeated the Redskins on the road was October 13, 1935, a 17-7 victory at Boston.

➤ Lions K Jason Hanson played in his 200th career game as a Lion when the Redskins visited Ford Field in 2004. Hanson's 200th game tied him for first on the Lions' all-time games played list with Wayne Walker (1958-72).

➤ Detroit's 33-17 win over the Redskins on December 5, 1999 at the Silverdome snapped a 16-game losing streak against Washington dating back to a 14-10 Lions' win at Tiger Stadium on October 3, 1965.

➤ On September 27, 2009, Lions rookie QB Matthew Stafford threw for 241 yards and one TD and was 21-of-36 (58.3 pct.) with no interceptions for his first win as an NFL starting quarterback.

➤ QB Matthew Stafford connected with WR Calvin Johnson for 3 TDs and rookie DT Ndamukong Suh registered 2 sacks and a fumble return for a touchdown in the team's 37-25 win over Washington on October 31, 2010 at Ford Field.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions have dominated the series against the Falcons, amassing a 23-11 record. The initial meeting took place at Tiger Stadium on September 25, 1966, Atlanta's inaugural season, with the Lions running away with a 28-10 win. The Lions are 14-5 at home (5-0 in Tiger Stadium; 8-3 in the Silverdome; 1-2 at Ford Field). Detroit has won 10 of the last 16 games in the series.
- The Lions and Falcons met in the regular season opener or closer seven times between 1985-94. The two teams opened or closed the season every year from 1985-89, and met in the regular season opener again in 1997.
- Detroit was victorious 13-10 over the Falcons on November 12, 2000 at the Pontiac Silverdome. The contest marked the first game and victory by Gary Moeller, who replaced Bobby Ross as head coach six days earlier.
- The Lions' winning-percentage against the Falcons (.657) is their highest among all NFC opponents and their second highest among all NFL opponents (Cleveland, .778).
- With 11 receptions for 225 yards in the teams' most recent meeting (12/22/12), WR Calvin Johnson set a new NFL single-season record for receiving yards (1,892) by breaking Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice's 17-year old mark of 1,848 in 1995.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions and Panthers faced off in their inaugural contest October 24, 1999. Detroit visited Carolina's Ericsson Stadium and handed the Panthers a 24-9 loss. The Panthers' made five trips inside the Lions' five-yard line, and the Detroit defense forced two turnovers and yielded only three field goals.

➤ The contest was also the first of two straight games in 1999 where Detroit's defense did not yield a touchdown. That accomplishment marked the first time since 1983 that the Lions have kept opponents out of the end zone in back-to-back games (45-3 win vs. Pittsburgh November 24, 1983 and 13-2 win vs. Minnesota December 5, 1983).

➤ The Panthers evened the series record at 1-1 with a 31-7 victory at Ericsson Stadium September 15, 2002.

➤ Despite having both a fumble return and a punt return go for touchdowns, the Lions fell short at the eventual NFC Champion Panthers, 21-14, on December 14, 2003.

➤ LB Boss Bailey (34 yards) and S Kenoy Kennedy (64 yards) each returned interceptions back for touchdowns in the Lions last-minute 21-20 loss against Carolina at Ford Field on October 16, 2005. The last time the Lions had two interceptions for touchdowns in a game was at Seattle October 24, 1976 when Levi Johnson and Lem Barney both returned interceptions for touchdowns.

➤ QB Matthew Stafford tossed 5 touchdown passes and Kevin Smith scored 3 times (2 rush, 1 rec) to lead the Lions past rookie QB Cam Newton and the Panthers, 49-35, on November 20, 2011.

➤ After a sluggish start against Carolina on November 20, 2011, the Lions overcame a 17-point deficit to defeat the Panthers 49-35 behind QB Matthew Stafford's 5 touchdown passes, all to five different receivers. Just recently re-acquired, RB Kevin Smith rushed for a career-high 140 yards (201 total yards), along with 2 rushing and 1 receiving touchdowns.

Note: New Orleans split home games between San Antonio and Baton Rouge due to Hurricane Katrina.

SERIES NOTES

➤ In the second game ever played at Ford Field, the Lions claimed a 26-21 win over New Orleans for the first win at the team's new downtown Detroit home.

➤ The first game played between the Lions and Saints was a 20-20 tie on November 24, 1968 in Detroit.

➤ The home team has generally had the upper hand in the series with Detroit compiling a 6-3-1 mark at home (1-1 at Ford Field) while New Orleans has managed a 6-3 record at home (5-2 in the Superdome).

➤ In one of the NFL's all-time amazing finishes, New Orleans kicker Tom Dempsey booted a 63-yard field goal as time expired to give the Saints a 19-17 victory in Tulane Stadium on November 8, 1970. Dempsey's mighty boot stood alone as the longest field goal in NFL history until Denver's Jason Elam tied the record on October 25, 1998 vs. Jacksonville.

➤ The Lions' Richard Johnson tallied 248 yards receiving (second-in team history) on eight receptions and earned NFC Player of the Week honors in Detroit's 21-14 win over the Saints on December 3, 1989.

➤ The Lions kicked off the 2000 season by defeating the Saints 14-10 at the Superdome. The Lions' only touchdown of the game was courtesy of Desmond Howard's franchise record 95-yard punt return in the fourth quarter.

➤ K Jason Hanson nailed a 39-yard field goal as time expired in regulation that lifted the Lions to a 13-12 win over New Orleans in San Antonio. The final drive was set up by a Roy Williams 40-yard grab on 4th-and-17. Williams' four catches for 111 yards against the Saints, all in the fourth quarter.

SERIES NOTES

➤ In Detroit's 14-9 win at the Silverdome on November 13, 1994, Barry Sanders rushed for a franchise-record 237 yards (then-sixth-highest single-game total in NFL history). Sanders gained a NFL record 200 yards in the second half.

➤ Sanders made history in Detroit's 27-9 win over the Buccaneers at Tampa Bay on October 12, 1997. He became the first player in NFL history to record two 80-yard TD runs in the same game. He broke off an 80-yard scoring play late in the first quarter and added an 82-yard touchdown romp in the third quarter, finishing the day with 215 yards.

➤ The Lions ended a 26-game road losing streak on December 29, 2010 when they claimed a 23-20 overtime win.

➤ In the 2011 season opener, the Lions claimed a 27-20 win on the road behind 305 passing yards and 3 TDs by QB Matthew Stafford and 2 TD grabs by WR Calvin Johnson.

Note: From 1930-33, the Lions were the Portsmouth (POR) Spartans. The Arizona Cardinals were located in Chicago from 1920-59 and in St. Louis from 1960-87 before moving to Phoenix, Ariz., in 1988. The team became the Arizona Cardinals in 1994.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's series with the Cardinals is the oldest in the history of the Lions' franchise. The first game was played October 5, 1930 between the Portsmouth Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals, and it ended in a scoreless tie. That game is one of two scoreless ties (other was a 0-0 tie played September 15, 1940) played between the Lions and the Cardinals in their series. The Lions own a 31-24-5 advantage over the Cardinals.
- September 30, 1934 marked the first occasion that the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Cardinals matched up, and the Lions were victorious 6-0.
- In all, the Portsmouth Spartans were 2-2-2 vs. the Chicago Cardinals. Detroit has registered a 19-9-3 mark against the Chicago Cardinals, a 5-4 record over the St. Louis Cardinals and have a 3-8 mark since the Cardinals moved to Phoenix.
- The Lions-Cardinals series is one of four series (Chicago, Green Bay and New York Giants) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.
- The teams met twice in 1993 with Detroit winning both contests, 26-20 at the Silverdome September 26 and 21-14 in Phoenix on December 12.
- Behind the record-setting performance by QB Charlie Batch at Arizona November 18, 2001 (a then franchise record 436 yards passing), the Lions' offense set several team records and collected some of the franchise's highest totals in other team offensive categories. The Lions' 62 pass attempts set the team's single-game record by surpassing the previous high of 57 attempts accomplished vs. Chicago (10/9/88). The team's 36 completions are better than the 33 completions tossed at Cleveland (9/28/86) and vs. Green Bay (10/25/87). The Lions' established a new record for net passing yards by airing out 429 yards, which is better than the previous high of 395 vs. Minnesota (11/23/95). And the 22 first downs gained on pass plays is a new team record, passing the old mark of 20 set vs. Minnesota (11/23/95).
- Detroit snapped a five-game losing streak in the series in the 2003 season opener with a 42-24 win over the Cardinals at Ford Field. The win was the first for former Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci. QB Joey Harrington threw for a career-high four touchdown passes in the game.
- In Detroit's 26-12 win over Arizona December 5, 2004, RB Kevin Jones ran for a career-high 196 yards on 26 carries, 105 of which came in the first half. It is the second-highest rushing total by a Lions rookie in team history, just one yard shy of Mel Farr's record of 197 yards on 24 carries at Minnesota (11/12/67).

- In the same 2004 contest, K Jason Hanson became the 20th player in NFL history to reach the 1,300-point plateau.
- In a 2009 meeting at Ford Field (12/20) S Louis Delmas returned an interception 101 yards for a touchdown which was the longest by a NFL rookie since 1926 (Columbus RB Pete Barnum, 103t at Canton (9/26/26). It also ranks as the longest by a Lions rookie in team history and is tied for the second longest in franchise history.
- WR Calvin Johnson tied an NFL record for most-consecutive games with 100+ receiving yards with 7 in the teams' most recent meeting at University of Phoenix Stadium (12/16/12). Johnson finished the game with 10 receptions for 121 yards.

Note: The Rams were located in Cleveland from 1937-45 and Los Angeles from 1946-94. The club relocated to St. Louis in 1995.

SERIES NOTES

- The St. Louis Rams lead the Lions in the all-time series 42-39-1. In their series, the Rams have been located in three different cities, Cleveland (1937-45), Los Angeles (1946-94) and St. Louis (since 1995).
- Overall, Detroit was 8-7 vs. the Cleveland Rams, 27-32-1 vs. the Los Angeles Rams and are 4-3 vs. the St. Louis Rams.
- The inaugural game between the two teams was played September 10, 1937 when the Lions claimed a 28-0 shutout at Cleveland.
- After the Rams moved to Los Angeles, the clubs faced off twice each season from 1946-66. The Rams owned a slight edge, 21-20-1, in those games played.
- The Lions played the Rams on November 7, 1999 in the first meeting between the teams since the Rams moved from Los Angeles to St. Louis. Detroit won the affair 31-27 at the Silverdome in the final minute of the game when QB Gus Frerotte hit WR Johnnie Morton on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 28 seconds remaining to play for the game winning score. On the final drive, Frerotte completed a 57-yard pass to WR Germane Crowell on a fourth-and-26 play to keep the drive alive.
- In the 2003 season finale, the Lions defeated the St. Louis Rams at Ford Field, 30-20, denying the Rams' bid for homefield advantage throughout the playoffs.
- In the Lions 44-6 win over St. Louis, October 10, 2010, KR Stefan Logan set a new team record with a 105-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. QB Shaun Hill connected on 3 touchdown passes, CB Alphonso Smith returned a 42-yard interception for a touchdown and rookie DT Ndamukong Suh registered his first career interception on a tipped pass (20-yard return).
- In the teams' most recent meeting, the Lions orchestrated a 27-23 come-from-behind win over the Rams on September 9, 2012 in the team's season home opener. QB Matthew Stafford led the team on a 9-play, 80-yard drive with 1:55 left to play before finding RB Kevin Smith for a 5-yard touchdown pass for the go-ahead score. The victory marked Stafford's seventh career fourth quarter game-winning drive when trailing or tied.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions opened up a 20-0 lead and rolled to a 41-14 victory over the Seahawks in the first-ever meeting between the two teams October 24, 1976. Greg Landry threw three touchdown passes for the Lions, and Jim Zorn was intercepted six times, including two that were returned for touchdowns (Levi Johnson and Lem Barney). Zorn was the Lions' quarterbacks coach from 1998-00.

➤ The Seahawks defeated the Lions 37-14 in the third and final game during the 1987 players' strike. In a game played predominantly by replacement players, Seattle QB Jeff Kemp passed for 344 yards and four touchdowns, while Hall of Famer Steve Largent caught 15 passes for 261 yards (both individual Silverdome records) and three scores.

➤ In the 1990 regular season finale played December 30, Barry Sanders rushed for 23 yards on nine carries to claim the NFL rushing title with 1,304 yards.

➤ The Lions' game with the Seahawks played October 17, 1993, a 30-10 Lions' win, was Detroit's 800th contest (including regular and post-season games) since the Portsmouth Spartans moved to the Motor City in 1934.

➤ In the 1999 regular season opener, the Lions built a 25-7 halftime lead and held on for a 28-20 victory over Seattle for the club's first season opening road win since 1986.

➤ The Lions and Seahawks met outside for the first time in 2003, the Lions' first trip to Seahawks Stadium. Seattle was victorious, 35-14.

➤ In the teams' most recent meeting on October 28, 2012, QB Matthew Stafford engineered his ninth career fourth-quarter or overtime game winning drive with :20 seconds left to play in the fourth quarter as he connected with WR Titus Young on a 1-yard touchdown pass to beat the Seahawks 28-24.

SERIES NOTES

- Aside from the NFL's recent expansion additions (Baltimore, Carolina, Houston and Jacksonville), the nine meetings between the Lions and Bills is the fewest number of games the Lions have played against any opponent.
- Two of the nine games have been played on Thanksgiving Day, with the Lions winning both outings. Detroit won the first Turkey Day game between the two clubs 27-14 November 25, 1976 and the second Thanksgiving Day affair 35-21 on November 24, 1994.
- In the 1976 meeting, O.J. Simpson put on one of the greatest individual performances in pro football history as he rushed for a then-NFL record 273 yards. Simpson's historic Thanksgiving Day performance wasn't enough as the Lions prevailed 27-14.
- Bills' owner Ralph C. Wilson grew up in Detroit and at one time was a Lions' shareholder. He attended the University of Michigan law school, is the Chairman of Ralph C. Wilson Industries and resides in Grosse Pointe Shores, Mich.
- The Lions and Bills have met each other in the preseason each year since 2002, including last preseason on Aug. 30 with the Lions winning 38-32. Overall, the teams have played 32 times in the preseason, with Detroit holding a 20-11-1 edge in the preseason series.

SERIES NOTES

- The first two head coaches in Dolphins' history both had ties to Detroit. George Wilson coached the Dolphins from 1966-69. He was an assistant with the Lions from 1949-56 and was the Lions' head coach from 1957-64. Wilson was at the helm when the Lions won their last championship in 1957. Don Shula was the Dolphins' head coach from 1970-95, and was an assistant under Wilson with the Lions from 1960-62.
- The first three of Miami's triumphs over the Lions clinched AFC Eastern Division titles for the Dolphins (in 1973, 1979 and 1994).
- Detroit's win over Miami in 1985 was a historic one for the Lions. The win marked the first time in NFL history that a club had beaten the Super Bowl participants from the previous year in back-to-back weeks (the Lions had edged the Super Bowl XIX champion San Francisco 49ers 23-21 only seven days earlier).
- In their last trip to Miami in 2010, Detroit overcame a 27-17 fourth quarter deficit for a 34-27 victory, the Lions' first against the Dolphins in Miami. LB DeAndre Levy intercepted a pass and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown with 2:11 remaining to give Detroit the win.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit opened their series vs. the Patriots with a 34-7 victory on September 26, 1971 in Schaefer Stadium (renamed Foxboro Stadium). Steve Owens scored two touchdowns for the Lions, including a 74-yard touchdown catch from Greg Landry. The Lions also scored a defensive touchdown as Mike Lucci returned an interception 25 yards for a score.
- The fastest touchdown in Lions' history was scored against the Patriots. Willie Clay (who later joined the Patriots as a free agent) recovered a New England fumble on the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown only 11 seconds into the game on September 12, 1993.

➤ In the 1993 matchup, Detroit edged New England 19-16 in overtime. The win gave the Lions their first 2-0 start since 1985, and was clinched on Jason Hanson's fourth field goal of the game, a 38-yarder.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions completed their first undefeated home season since 1962 with a 34-20 win over the Jets on December 8, 1991.

➤ Detroit claimed a memorable 13-10 decision over the Jets at the Silverdome on December 21, 1997 in a game in which the winner qualified for the playoffs and the loser was eliminated. RB Barry Sanders' 184 yards rushing in the contest made him only the third player in NFL history to eclipse the 2,000-yard mark in a season. The noise was so boisterous at the sold-out Silverdome near the end of the game that players reported the turf actually vibrating beneath their feet. Unfortunately, Lions' LB Reggie Brown suffered a careerending neck injury in the fourth quarter of the game.

➤ The Lions defeated the Jets 10-7 at the Meadowlands on December 17, 2000 in the Lions' final road game of the season. Detroit's lone touchdown was a fumble recovery in the endzone by G Jeff Hartings.

SERIES NOTES

- The inaugural game between Detroit and Baltimore occurred December 27, 1998 at PSINet Stadium in Baltimore, with the Lions losing to the Ravens 19-10 in the '98 season finale.
- Detroit's first game with Baltimore ended up being RB Barry Sanders' final game in his 10-year career. He rushed 19 times for 41 yards, finishing nine yards (1,491) shy of collecting his fifth-straight 1,500-yard rushing season.
- In the Lions 35-17 win over Baltimore at Ford Field October 9, 2005, Detroit's rushing attack was steller as the offense registered four rushing touchdowns, the most ever yielded by the Ravens defense. Among the rushing touchdowns were two scores by RB Kevin Jones and a 77-yard dash by RB Shawn Bryson.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions and Bengals met every year in preseason from 1970-2001 and the rivalry was renewed in 2003. The two teams have played a total of 35 preseason games, with the Bengals holding a slight 18-17 series edge.

➤ In the initial meeting of the series, the Lions jumped out to 31-0 halftime lead and never looked back as they trounced the Bengals 38-3 on September 27, 1970. The Detroit defense limited Cincinnati to six first downs and 140 yards on offense. Mel Farr led the Lions with 70 yards rushing on 13 carries.

➤ An eight-yard touchdown toss from Greg Landry to Charlie Sanders (now Lions' Assistant Director of Pro Personnel) with 29 seconds remaining in the game gave the Lions a 23-19 victory at Cincinnati in the 1974 matchup.

➤ In the Lions' November 22, 1992 game at Cincinnati, RB Barry Sanders passed Billy Sims to become Detroit's all-time leading rusher. He rushed 29 times for 151 yards and scored a touchdown as the Lions won 19-13.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions hold a 14-4 (.777) series lead over the Browns, dating back to the clubs' initial meeting in 1952. Detroit owns an 9-1 record in games played in Detroit.

➤ Jason Hanson booted the longest field goal in franchise history against the on Browns October 8, 1995. Hanson drilled a 56-yard effort on the last play of the first half.

➤ Lions QB Matthew Stafford led the Lions to a thrilling, come-from-behind 38-37 win over Cleveland (11/22) with one of the most remarkable performances by a rookie quarterback in NFL history. Stafford brought the team back from deficits three different times (21, 3 and 6 points) to either tie or take the lead. The win was Stafford's first career come-from-behind fourth-quarter win.

SERIES NOTES

➤ In the first meeting, the Lions beat the Steelers 40-7 behind a then-NFL record 426 yards rushing. Ernie Caddell scored three touchdowns in one of the more memorable games of the Lions' first season in Detroit.

➤ The Lions won the first four games of the series and were 12-4-1 through the first 17 contests.

➤ In 1952, Bob Hoernschmeyer ran for 107 yards and the Lions rolled up 321 yards rushing. The Detroit defense held Pittsburgh to minus-3 yards rushing in a 31-6 win in Pittsburgh.

➤ Detroit's 45-3 win over the Steelers November 24, 1983 stands as the Lions' largest winning margin in the history of the team's Thanksgiving Day series (second-largest in team history).

➤ The Lions defeated Pittsburgh 19-16 in the second Thanksgiving Day (11/26/98) matchup between the two teams. Jason Hanson made his fourth field goal of the game (42-yarder) 2:52 into the extra period. The game marked the first Thanksgiving OT contest since 1980, and also was highlighted by a gutsy performance by Pittsburgh native, Charlie Batch, who completed 16-of-23 passes for 236 yards and a TD despite leaving the game for a time with a strained neck. The game will be remembered by a strange coin toss to begin the overtime period.

SERIES NOTES

➤ In the teams' first matchup at Ford Field on September 19, 2004, Detroit topped the Texans 28-16.

➤ In that series opener, WR Eddie Drummond returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown, his longest career return and his first career kickoff return touchdown.

➤ Drummond's kickoff return was the eighth longest in team history and the longest since Terry Fair returned a kickoff 105 yards vs. Tampa Bay on September 28, 1998.

➤ In the Lions' first trip to Houston's Reliant Stadium on November 19, 2008, WR Calvin Johnson caught two passes for 154 yards, including a career long of 96 yards. With 154 yards on two receptions against the Texans, Johnson's receiving yards were the third-most for a player with 2-or-fewer receptions in a single game in NFL history.

➤ In that same game, K Jason Hanson hit two field goals of 54-yards at Houston which were his 36th and 37th career field goals of 50+-yards. It was the third time in Hanson's career he hit two-or-more field goals of 50+-yards in a game.

➤ In the Lions' 73rd-annual Thanksgiving Day Classic on November 22, 2012, Detroit fell to the Texans 31-34 in a gripping overtime battle. QB Matthew Stafford threw for a season-high 441 yards and two touchdowns, while WRs Ryan Broyles and Calvin Johnson both racked up over 100 yards receiving with performances of 126 and 140 yards, respectively.

SERIES NOTES

- The clubs have met just six times since the Colts moved to Indianapolis in 1984.
- On October 20, 1957, Bobby Layne threw a 29-yard TD pass to Howard "Hopalong" Cassady with 46 seconds remaining in the game as Detroit overcame a 27-10 fourth quarter deficit to defeat the Colts 31-27 in one of the greatest comebacks in team history.
- In the 1997 meeting, a 32-10 Lions win at the Silverdome, Jason Hanson became the franchise's first kicker to convert two 50-yard field goals (52, 55) in a game. Barry Sanders rushed for 216 yards, including an 80-yarder for a touchdown. It was Sanders' fourth 200-yard outing of his career.
- In Detroit's first visit to Indianapolis' Lucal Oil Stadium on December 14, 2008, K Jason Hanson connected on a 51-yard field goal. His 51-yarder set a new NFL record for 50-yard field goals in a career (41) and it tied Morten Andersen's NFL record for 50-yard field goals in a season (8). Hanson is the first player in NFL history to go 8-for-8 on 50-yard field goals in a single season.

SERIES NOTES

➤ Detroit's 44-0 win over the Jaguars December 17, 1995 represents the largest victory margin in Lions' history and was the largest in the NFL in 1995. The game also marked the inaugural contest in the series between the Lions and the Jaguars.

➤ Lions KR Eddie Drummond had one of the finest performances by a returner in NFL history that ultimately forced the Lions' game at Jacksonville into overtime November 14, 2004. Drummond became the first player in NFL history to return two punts for touchdowns in the fourth quarter and the 11th (14th time) to return two punts for a touchdowns in a single game.

➤ Drummond's six punt returns against the Jaguars (11/14/04) for 199 yards (33.2 avg) is the third-best single-game total in NFL history and set a new Lions' franchise record for punt return yards in a game.

➤ His two punt returns for touchdowns (55 and 83 yards) at Jacksonville (11/14) marked the third time in Lions' history that a player recorded two punt return touchdowns in a game. Jack Christiansen accomplished the feat twice in 1951 (2 vs LA 10/14/51 and 2 vs GB 11/22/51).

➤ In the Lions' 31-14 win over the Jaguars in the teams' most recent meeting, RB Mikel Leshoure ushered his way into Lions history in as he carried the ball 16 times for 70 yards and three touchdowns. He became the first player in Lions history to rush for three touchdowns in the first half of a game. Leshoure also became the 10th player in Lions history with three rushing touchdowns in a game and it is the 16th time it has occurred in team history.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions and Titans have hooked up 10 times in the regular season with Tennessee holding a 7-3 lead. The Lions were 2-3 in Houston and 1-1 in the Pontiac Silverdome.

➤ The teams first met October 17, 1971 in Houston, with the Lions coming away with a 31-7 win.

➤ The Titans have won seven of the last nine contests.

➤ The Titans, then the Oilers, put a damper on Detroit's 1992 Thanksgiving Day festivities with a come-from-behind 24-21 win November 26 over the Lions in the Silverdome. Lorenzo White's 8-yard touchdown scamper with 1:17 remaining sealed the Titans' victory and ended Detroit's three-game Thanksgiving Day win streak.

➤ On December 10, 1995, QB Scott Mitchell set the Lions' all-time record for touchdown passes in a season. Bobby Layne had previously owned the record (26 in 1951). Mitchell completed the '95 season with 32 touchdown passes. In the most recent meeting between the two teams, the Titans defeated the Lions 44-41 in an overtime thriller at LP Field. Lions QB Shaun Hill connected on a last-second Hail Mary pass to WR Titus Young for 46 yards to send the game into overtime, but Detroit was unable to convert on a 4th-and-1 play in the extra stanza as the Titans went on to win the game.

SERIES NOTES

➤ Detroit posted a 24-20 win November 7, 1971 in the first meeting between the two teams. After a Detroit fumble and interception gave the Broncos a 10-0 halftime lead, the Lions roared back in the second half, scoring on their first two possessions, including a Greg Landry-to-Earl McCullough 76-yard bomb which gave the Lions the lead.

➤ Denver's 31-27 win in 1974 was the last Thanksgiving Day game played in Tiger Stadium, with the Lions moving into the Pontiac Silverdome the next season.

➤ In 1999, the Lions hosted the Broncos on another holiday, Christmas Day, with the Broncos claiming a 17-7 victory at the Silverdome.

➤ In Denver's first regular season trip to Ford Field November 4, 2007, the Lions crushed the Broncos 44-7, which marked the largest margin of victory, 37 points, by the Lions since they shutout the Jacksonville Jaguars 44-0 December 17, 1995. The 44 points were also the most by the team since they put up 55 points vs. Chicago November 27, 1997. The 37-point difference by Denver was the largest margin in a loss by the Broncos since the team lost at New Orleans 42-0 November 20, 1988.

➤ Detroit scored the second-most points in a road game by the club in a 45-10 win at Denver on October 30, 2011. It was the largest margin of victory on the road for the Lions since 1970. CB Chris Houston registered the fourth-longest interception return TD in team history with a 100-yard return.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions are 3-2 in home games (2-0 at Ford Field) against the Chiefs and 2-5 in games played in Kansas City.

➤ In the inaugural meeting—the 1971 Thanksgiving Day classic—Errol Mann contributed three field goals while Greg Landry threw touchdown passes to Charlie Sanders and Earl McCulloch in a 32-21 Lions' win. RB Ed Podolak scored all three touchdowns for the Chiefs.

➤ In the teams' first regular season meeting at the Silverdome, Detroit dominated defensively and claimed a 27-10 Thanksgiving Day win in 1981. The Lions held the Chiefs' top-ranked rushing attack to just 116 yards, and registered five sacks.

➤ The Lions hold a 6-4 preseason edge in the series against the Chiefs, and have won five of the last six preseason matchups. The two teams met on August 23, 1975 in an exhibition affair that kicked off the opening of the Pontiac Silverdome. Detroit won the contest 27-24.

➤ Kansas City made their first trip to Ford Field on December 23, 2007, with the Lions claiming a 25-20 victory.

➤ In Detroit's 2011 home opener on September 18, the Lions set a regular season franchise record with a 45-point margin of victory as they defeated the Chiefs 48-3. K Jason Hanson played in his 297th career game, which is the most by any player with one team in NFL history.

SERIES NOTES

- In the teams' first meeting, the Lions defeated Oakland 28-14 on Thanksgiving Day (11/26/70). The win was the second of five straight wins by the Lions that propelled them to their first playoff berth since 1957. Mel Farr rushed 21 times for 121 yards, rallying Detroit from a 14-0 deficit.
- The Lions shut out the defending Super Bowl champion Raiders 16-0 on September 27, 1981. Detroit was the first team to shut out the Raiders in 15 years, as the Lions limited Oakland to only 131 yards in total offense. The Lions collected six sacks and Jimmy Allen intercepted his fourth pass in as many games. Billy Sims earned his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game (133 yards) while Dexter Bussey passed Altie Taylor as the club's all-time leading rusher.

➤ In a Monday Night Football meeting on December 10, 1990, there were five Heisman Trophy winners on the field (Det: Barry Sanders and Andre Ware, Oak: Marcus Allen, Tim Brown and Bo Jackson). Sanders finished the game with 176 yards rushing, while Jackson led the Raiders with 129 yards on the ground.

➤ The Lions defeated the defending AFC Champion Oakland Raiders on November 2, 2003 at Ford Field, the Raiders' first trip to Detroit since 1990.

➤ Detroit opened the 2007 season on the road at Oakland and came away with 36-21 victory. DE Dewayne White was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his Week 1 as the defensive end was a force in the fourth quarter when Detroit scored 16 unanswered points in the final 10:45 to come away with the victory. After the Lions took a 26-21 lead in the fourth quarter, White intercepted a pass on the ensuing Raiders drive and returned it 28 yards to set up a field goal to increase Detroit's lead to eight. On the first play of the next Oakland possession, White recorded a sack-fumble that was recovered by the Lions. The play helped set up a touchdown to seal the win.

➤ Trailing 27-14 with 7:47 left in the fourth quarter on December 18, 2011, the Lions completed the 13-point comeback and became the first team in NFL history to record four 13+-point comebacks in a season. The Lions game-winning drive started at the Raiders' 2-yard line with 2:14 left in the fourth quarter and was completed when QB Matthew Stafford hit WR Calvin Johnson on a 6-yard pass with 0:39 left to play.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions won each of the first three meetings between the two teams (all home games), but have dropped the six most-recent contests.

➤ Detroit recorded a 34-20 victory over the Chargers in the first meeting of the series on October 22, 1972. Mel Farr ran for two touchdowns and gained 96 yards on 22 carries, helping the Lions rack up 182 yards on the ground for the game. Greg Landry also rushed for a touchdown and added 151 yards passing with a touchdown strike going to Larry Walton, who finished with seven catches for 101 yards.

➤ Detroit fell to the Chargers, 27-24, on September 20, 1984, at Jack Murphy Stadium. Billy Sims ran for two touchdowns and 119 yards, including an 81-yard touchdown scamper. Detroit QB

Gary Danielson matched Hall of Famer Dan Fouts every step of the way, completing 20-of-25 attempts for 269 yards, while Fouts was 22-of-35 for 268 yards. The Chargers forged to a 24-7 halftime lead, but Detroit scored two third quarter touchdowns to narrow the gap to 24-21.

➤ With a 38-10 win over San Diego at Ford Field on December 24, 2011, the Lions clinched their first playoff berth since 1999. The team was led by QB Matthew Stafford who completed 29-of-36 passes for 373 yards. His completion percentage (80.6) and passer rating (137.6) were both career highs. His rating also set a franchise single-game record by a quarterback who attempted 35 passes.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LIONS

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football. In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. The Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925, but also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then-10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for $7,952.08 by a group headed by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before crowds that averaged 16,000, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in only their second year (1935). Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddell, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era included Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, Byron "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964, when William Clay Ford became the sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three league championships. Under the direction of head coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952-53, defeating Cleveland on both occasions. Stars of those powerful teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker and Lou Creekmur, as well as Les Bingham, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have continued searching for the league's top spot. Such performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players such as Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have also taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the playoffs, (first postseason trip since '57) but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Mich., a suburb located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome was, at one time, the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seated over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in 1980-81, before qualifying in 1982 — the Lions' first playoff appearance since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss at San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over for Clark in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by his defensive coordinator Wayne Fontes in November 1988 after Rogers' teams had posted a combined 18-40 record. Fontes was officially named the franchise's 18th head coach on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise-record 12 regular season games. Riding a tide of emotion after guard Mike Uteley's paralyzing neck injury, Detroit defeated Dallas, 38-6, in the Lions' first Silverdome playoff contest. The victory gave the Lions a berth in the NFC Championship Game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

The Lions finished 10-6 in 1993 en route to capturing the NFC Central Division title, and earned a Wild Card playoff bid in 1994. The 1995 Lions featured the NFL's top-rated offense and won their final seven games to earn a third straight playoff berth. Herman Moore set an NFL record with 123 catches, and he and Brett Perriman became the first teammates to each total over 100 catches in the same season. The receiver tandem also set the NFL record for most receiving yards in a season. Quarterback Scott Mitchell set team passing records for yards (4,338), completions (346) and touchdowns (32).

In 1996, running back Barry Sanders captured his third NFL rushing title with a dramatic 175-yard outburst on the final Monday night of the season in San Francisco. The Lions, however, finished a disappointing 5-11 in '96 and following the season, Fontes was replaced as head coach by former San Diego Chargers' head coach, Bobby Ross. Fontes, who was the head coach for more than eight full seasons, finished his career as the team's all-time leader among head coaches in both wins (67) and games coached (138).

Ross was named the 19th head coach in team history January 13, 1997, and led the club back to the playoffs in his inaugural year at the helm with a 9-7 record. That season, Sanders, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in August 2004, continued his storybook career by becoming only the third player in league history to record 2,000 yards rushing in a single-season (2,053) and he reeled off an NFL record 14 consecutive 100-yard outings to finish the season.

The Lions closed out the 1990s reaching the playoffs for the sixth time in the 10-year span, which is a franchise record for playoff appearances during a decade. Detroit's playoff berth in 1999 marked the second time in Ross' first three years as head coach that he led the Lions into the postseason. The last Lions' head coach to accomplish that feat was Buddy Parker in 1952-53 during his second and third seasons at the helm.

After playing nine games into the 2000 season and compiling a 5-4 record, Ross abruptly resigned as head coach November 6 and was immediately replaced by Gary Moeller. Moeller guided the team to a 4-3 record over the last seven games, but narrowly missed the playoffs with a loss to the Chicago Bears in the season finale. Following the season, William Clay Ford named Matt Millen president and CEO, and he assumed control over team operations. On January 25, 2001 Gary Moeller was replaced as head coach by former San Francisco 49ers offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

On April 1, 2002, Detroit relocated the team's day-to-day operations into the new $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park. The new complex features outdoor and indoor practice fields, spacious training and meeting rooms and even the team's own broadcast studio.

A new era in Lions' history dawned as Ford Field, the team's $500 million downtown Detroit stadium, opened its doors in August 2002. The 65,000-seat stadium sparkled as its retro and innovative features glistened in the national spotlight as the premiere sports and entertainment complex. The Lions played the first game at Ford Field August 24, 2002 in a preseason tilt against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The inaugural regular season game was played between the Lions and the Green Bay Packers September 22, 2002.

In January 2003, Mornhinweg was fired after two seasons and former San Francisco 49ers Head Coach Steve Mariucci was tabbed the new Lions' head coach February 4.

For the first time since the Lions placed the Leaping Lion logo on the players' helmets in 1961, Detroit announced a major addition to the team's uniform on April 23, 2003. The Lions' classic uniform was enhanced with black trim on the logo, jerseys and pants, along with black shoes and black facemasks. In April 2005, the team introduced an alternate black jersey that would be worn through 2007.

On November 28, 2005, Steve Mariucci was relieved of his duties as head coach and defensive coordinator Dick Jauron was named interim head coach for the remaining five games.

In 2006, the Lions hired Rod Marinelli as the team's 24th head coach, a position he would hold through 2008.

In 2008, the Lions commemorated the franchise's 75th season in Detroit. Just a handful of NFL teams have been around as long as the Lions, a franchise that spans several generations of fans over the years. Detroit has called three different stadiums home with nearly 1,400 players seeing action on a given gameday and numerous coaches strolling the sideline. That history is rich with great players who have donned the uniform -- the Lions are one of only nine teams to have at least 18 Pro Football Hall of Fame players don their respective uniforms -- and with traditions like the "Honolulu Blue and Silver", the leaping Lion logo, the "Roaring 20's" and the team's annual Thanksgiving Tradition.

With 78 years now in the rear-view mirror, Detroit is surging ahead in a new era of Lions football. In 2009, for the first time in team history, the team entered the season with a new president, Tom Lewand, a new general manager, Martin Mayhew, and a new head coach, Jim Schwartz, hired January 16, 2009. Together, they have been the driving force for the team's success on and off the field. In that same year, the Lions introduced a new logo and new brand, along with new team uniforms that features the first significant change to the Lions logo since it was introduced in 1961.

As Coach Schwartz labeled the 2011 season upon its conclusion, it was not a great year but an important one. Perhaps most notably, 2011 will be remembered for the "comeback" as the Lions returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1999 and set NFL records with four comeback wins of 13+ points, three comeback wins of 17+-points and two back-to-back 20+-point comeback wins. The Lions set several team records, including points (474) and yards (6,337), as well as individual records. Perhaps the two biggest stars leading the Lions in 2011 were QB Matthew Stafford, named AP Comeback Player of the Year, and All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson.

In 2012, the season was highlighted by Johnson's remarkable performance as he broke the NFL record for receiving yards in a single season. He finished with 122 receptions for 1,964 yards, breaking Jerry Rice's previous record of 1,848 yards in 1995.

LIONS TALES

NAMING THE LIONS

When the team moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio in 1934, the organization settled on the name that would be uttered in Detroit and all around the league to this very day. After deciding to be known as the Lions, (staying consistent with the jungle cat image of the city's baseball team, the Tigers) two Lion cubs were given to the team by John Millen of the Detroit Zoo. Their names were "Grid" and "Iron." They accompanied the team to all of their games.

- The previous Detroit professional football teams were known as the Heralds, Panthers and the Wolverines.

HOMES OF THE DETROIT LIONS

In 2002, the Lions moved into their current home, Ford Field, in downtown Detroit. It marked the team's return to the city for the first time since 1974.

GRIDIRON HEROES

As the new pro football franchise took root in Detroit, owner G.A. Richards called for an original fight song to be written for the Lions. In the late 1930s, Wayne State University director of bands Graham T. Overgard, who was also the Lions' director of entertainment, penned the lyrics and music for "Gridiron Heroes—The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions."

- "Gridiron Heroes" has become one of the NFL's oldest and most popular songs today, and it is still played after each Lions' score.

(Verse)

Hail the colors Blue and Silver let them wave.

*Sing the song and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,
Fighting for fame, winning the game.
Dashing to victory as they go.*

(Chorus)

*Forward down the field,
A charging team that will not yield.
And when the Blue and Silver wave,
Stand and cheer the brave.
Rah, Rah, Rah!
Go hard win the game.
With honor you will keep your fame
Down the field and gain,
A Lion victory!*

PAPER LION

Filming of the George Plimpton book, "Paper Lion," began in early 1968. Alan Alda starred as Plimpton, the Sports Illustrated feature writer who masqueraded as a quarterback with the Lions during training camp. The world premier was held Thursday, Oct. 3, 1968, at the Adams Theatre. The film introduced Lauren Hutton to the silver screen, and featured actual members of the Detroit Lions, including coach Joe Schmidt, Alex Karras, John Gordy, Mike Lucci, Pat Studstill and Roger Brown.

- The 2003 season marked the 40th anniversary of George Plimpton's visit to Lions' training camp when he began writing the original script for his book. Last year was also the 35th anniversary of the "Paper Lion" movie release.
- The Detroit Lions reunited most of the cast in 2003 with a "Paper Lion" reunion that was held in Sept.. Forty players, including Plimpton and Karras, rekindled friendships that formed during their experience together in the 1960s.
- The reunion turned out to be the final chapter of Plimpton's life as he passed away days later (September 26, 2003) at the age of 76.

IN MEMORIAM

Several members of the Detroit Lions served in World War II and made the ultimate sacrifice for their country in the fight against fascism.

- Lt. Charles Behan was killed by Japanese machine gun fire on Okinawa, May 18, 1945.
- Sgt. Alex Ketzko was killed in France with Patch's Seventh Army, Dec. 23, 1944.
- Lt. Chet Wetterlund was killed flying a Navy Hellcat on night patrol along the New Jersey coast, Sept. 5, 1944.

DECADE OF DOMINANCE

Only a handful of great teams over the years in the NFL can claim the title of dynasty. One of those great teams was the Detroit Lions in the 1950s when the franchise captured world championships three times in a six-year span. Winning three championships in six years has occurred only nine times by eight different teams in the history of the NFL.

- Detroit won back-to-back titles in 1952 and 1953 and became the third team since the beginning of NFL Championship games in 1933 to win championships in consecutive years.
- Overall since '33, back-to-back titles has occurred just 15 times. Including 1954, the Lions appeared in the NFL title game four times in a six-year period.

DEEP IN THE HEART OF TEXAS

The Detroit Lions have a deep history of outstanding players who have Texas roots. Five players on the Lions' All-Time Team played college football in the Lone Star State, including : QB Bobby Layne (Texas), S Yale Lary (Texas A&M), RB Doak Walker (Southern Methodist), G Harley Sewell (Texas) and DT Doug English (Texas). Layne, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

- Joining those stars on the franchise's All-Time Team are Texas prepsters CB Dick "Night Train" Lane (Austin), who is also a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and RB Billy Sims (Hooks).
- Layne, Lane, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pride of the Lions charter class.

Texas roots go back even deeper with Layne and Walker who grew up only a few blocks apart in Dallas, Texas, and were friends as children. Both players started in the backfield at Highland Park High School in 1943. After stints in the military during World War II, Layne went to Texas University while Walker played for rival Southern Methodist University. The two were reunited when they joined the Lions in 1950.

- That connection has been revisited with the Lions drafting QB Matthew Stafford with the first overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft. Stafford also is from Highland Park, Texas and went to the same high school as Layne and Walker.
- He was joined in the first round of 2009 NFL Draft by another Texas prep star when the Lions drafted TE Brandon Pettigrew who is from Tyler, Texas.

The Lions' current roster with connections to the Lonestar State:

- Texas Christian: DE Braylon Broughton (Dallas)
- Texas A&M: LS Don Muhlbach (Lufkin), DT Spencer Nealy (San Antonio)
- Texas A&M Kingsville: DT Jimmy Saddler-McQueen (Houston)
- Texas Tech: C Dylan Gandy (Harlingen), T LaAdrian Waddle (Columbus).
- Houston: WR Patrick Edwards (Hearne)

THE ORIGINAL DETROIT LIONS OFFICES

Where were the first offices of the Detroit Lions located? Shortly after the club's move from Portsmouth, Ohio, Lions owner G.A. Richards, who also owned radio station WJR, set up Head Coach George "Potsy" Clark with a temporary office in room 2107 of the Fisher Building, in downtown Detroit.

- Since 2002, the Lions have operated out of the team's headquarters in Allen Park, with portions of the organization's business operations housed in the old Hudson's warehouse portion of Ford Field.

LIONS TRAINING CAMP LOCATIONS

Since their first training camp in 1934, the Lions have trained at 10 different sites during the pre-season.

LIONS THANKSGIVING DAY TRADITION

It was, legend says, a typically colorful, probably chilly, November day in 1622 that Pilgrims and Native Americans celebrated the new world's bounty with a sumptuous feast.

They sat together at Plymouth Plantation (they spelled it Plimouth) in Massachusetts, gave thanks for the goodness set before them, then dined on pumpkin pie, sweet potatoes, maize, cranberry sauce, turkey and who knows what else.

Actually, fish was just as predominant a staple. And history books say pumpkin pie really debuted a year later. But regardless of the accuracy of the details, that's how Thanksgiving Day is seen by Americans -- except Detroiters.

They may have most of the same images as everyone else, but with a new twist that began in 1934.

Larry Paladino, Lions Pride, 1993

Four generations of Detroiters have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. The relationship between Detroit and Thanksgiving dates back to 1934 when owner G.A. Richards scheduled a holiday contest between his first-year Lions and the Chicago Bears. Some 77 years later, fans throughout the State of Michigan have transformed an annual holiday event into the single greatest tradition in the history of American professional team sports. Indeed, if football is America's passion, Thanksgiving football is Detroit's passion.

The game was the brainchild of Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions. Richards had purchased the team in 1934 and moved the club from Portsmouth, Ohio to the Motor City. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the baseball Tigers. Despite the fact the Lions had lost only one game prior to Thanksgiving in 1934, the season's largest crowd had been just 15,000.

The opponent in 1934 was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations) and additionally, an estimated 26,000 fans jammed into the University of Detroit Stadium while thousands more disappointed fans were turned away.

In 2009, the Lions Thanksgiving Day game against Green Bay marked the NFL's 75th anniversary of the first NFL national game broadcast. Graham McNamee was the announcer for NBC Radio for that historic game in 1934.

Despite two Ace Gutowsky touchdowns, the Bears won the inaugural game 19-16, but a classic was born. Since 1934, 73 games have been played with the Lions holding a 33-38-2 (.434) record in the series. And each game, in its own way, continues to bring back memories of Thanksgiving, not only to Lions fans, but to football fans across the nation.

The 2013 schedule features the Lions' 74th Thanksgiving Day Classic Thursday, November 28 at 12:30 p.m. ET vs. the Green Bay Packers. This year's game marks the 21st meeting between the Lions and Packers on Thanksgiving and the sixth time since 2001. Detroit has played Green Bay more than any other opponent in the Thanksgiving Day series and holds an 11-8-1 (.579) advantage.

THANKSGIVING DAY FACTS

- The series began with a 19-16 loss to the Chicago Bears on November 29, 1934.
- A total of 73 games have been played with the Lions owning a 33-38-2 record in the annual holiday classic.
- More than 4 million fans have witnessed the Lions' 73 Thanksgiving Day games. The total attendance for the first 73 games is 4,114,082 an average of 56,375 fans per game.
- The Lions have played 24 different teams since the first Thanksgiving Day game. The most common opponent has been the Green Bay Packers, who the Lions played in 2011 for the 20th time in the Thanksgiving series. Their second most common opponent is the Chicago Bears (15 times).
- The two highest scoring games were a 44-40 Packers' win in 1986 and a 52-35 Detroit romp over Green Bay in 1951.
- The lowest scoring game was a 12-0 Philadelphia win in the 1968 "Mud Bowl."
- Eleven times in the series has a game been decided by three points or less, with the Lions' record standing at 4-5-2 in those meetings.
- The most lopsided game was a 45-3 Lions win over Pittsburgh in 1983.
- Seven shutouts have been recorded, but only one by the Lions (20-0 over the Bears in 1979).
- Three Thanksgiving Day games have gone into overtime. The first came in 1980 when the Bears' David Williams returned the opening kickoff of OT for a 95-yard touchdown. At the time, the game marked the shortest overtime game in NFL history (21 seconds). The second overtime game occurred in 1998 when the Lions defeated the Steelers 19-16 on a 42-yard Jason Hanson field goal in a game that will be remembered for the controversial coin toss before overtime began. The third occurred against the Houston Texans in 2012 in a game categorized by back-and-forth possessions and two missed field goals from each side, with Houston K Shayne Graham pulling out a 32-yarder for the win.

UNIFORM HISTORY

1948: Alvin 'Bo' McMillin joined the Lions after having success as a college coach at Indiana University. Soon after his arrival, McMillin changed the colors of the Lions' uniforms with the new colors resembling those of his Hoosier teams. The organization retained Honolulu blue and silver as their official colors.

- The jersey was scarlet with white numbers and the pants were white with a thin black stripe between two thin scarlet stripes. The helmets were black. All the players wore leather helmets that season due to the league's ban on plastic helmets.
- The team had a second, all-black uniform, which would be worn only for certain important games that McMillin particularly wished to win. The jersey was black with white numbers and the pants were black with a thin scarlet stripe between two thin white stripes.
- The two uniform sets ended up being worn in four different combinations (scarlet/white; black/black; scarlet/black; black/white).

1949: The Lions returned to wearing their Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home but continued to wear combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue on the road. The team changed the color of their helmet to blue and some players went back to wearing plastic helmets after the NFL lifted the ban on plastic headgear from the previous season.

1950-55: After wearing five different combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue in the previous two seasons, the Lions went back to wearing the traditional Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home and on the road. For most of the 1950 season the team wore blue helmets but went back to wearing silver helmets for the 1951 season. During the early 50's, the NFL did not allow the Lions to wear silver helmets for night games because of their resemblance to the white ball under the night lights. They spray-painted their helmets blue for night games. Also, in 1951, the Lions wore the Detroit 250th Anniversary patch on their left sleeve. The patch was also worn by the Red Wings and Tigers.

1956: This was the first season that the Lions added their uniform numbers to the arm sleeves. Some players, like Lions Hall of Fame LT Lou Creekmur, were unhappy with the change – claiming that it made it harder to get away with holding.

1957-60: The Lions began wearing separate colored uniforms on the road on a permanent basis in 1957. The jersey was white with three blue stripes, one thick between two thin stripes, on the sleeves. The numbers were blue and the helmet and pants remained silver.

- They wore a white jersey on at least one other occasion in a previous season. On October 24, 1954, the Lions wore a similar white uniform in a game at San Francisco which they lost, 37-31, to the 49ers.

1961-67: In 1961, William Clay Ford's first season as the team's president, there were some significant uniform changes. The helmet remained silver with a grey facemask but now had the leaping-lion logo as well as two vertical blue stripes running from the back to the front. The pants also had two vertical blue stripes. Three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, were added to the arm sleeves of the home jersey. The away jersey remained the same.

- During the mid-60s, many players cut off part of the sleeves—giving appearance of only one or two stripes.

1968-69: 1968 was the first year the Lions had a white stripe between the two blue stripes on the helmet. The Lions and the rest of the league wore the NFL 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder in 1969.

1970-71: Last names were added to the back of the players' jerseys in silver lettering and white trim was added to the Leaping Lion logo on the helmet in 1970.

- For the second half of the 1971 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve on their home and away jerseys, in honor of wide receiver Chuck Hughes. Hughes died of a heart attack with 62 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter against the Chicago Bears on October 24, 1971.

1972: The Honolulu blue home jersey had white trim on the silver numerals and the white jerseys had silver trim on blue numerals for the first time in 1972. It was also the first year that there was a white, vertical stripe between the two blue stripes on the pants.

- The Lions tweaked the striping on the arm-sleeves for that season as well. The home jerseys had the one thick silver stripe between two thin white stripes and the away jersey had the one thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes.

1973-75: Detroit changed back to the three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, on the sleeves of the Honolulu blue home jersey except now they had white trim. The away white jersey had three blue stripes, one thick between two thin, and they had silver trim.

- For the 1974 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve of their home and away jerseys, in honor of Head Coach Don McCafferty who died of a heart attack during training camp.
- 1974 was also the season that the Lions started wearing white shoes.

1976-79: In 1976, the players' numbers were added to the back of the helmet.

1980-81: The Lions changed the dull silver stripes and trimming on their uniforms to a shimmering silver glitter. This only lasted two seasons because of complaints by other teams about the glare.

1982-97:

- 1982: The Lions changed the color of the numbers on their home jerseys, making them white with silver trim.
- 1983: The Lions wore a 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder. The Lions changed their facemask from silver/grey to Honolulu blue.

- 1991: The team wore a patch honoring Russ Thomas, a former player and General Manager for the Lions, who had recently passed away. For their final seven games (five regular season, two postseason), each player had a white circle decal with a blue number '60,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of RG Mike Utley. Utley suffered a spinal cord injury in a game against the Los Angeles Rams on November 17, 1991. The small NFL shield was added to the 'V' of the neck.

- 1992: They wore a black circle decal with a white number '65,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of LG Eric Andolsek, who was killed a few months prior to the season.
- 1993: The Lions wore a 60th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder.
- 1994: The Lions wore throwback jerseys for the 1994 season while the NFL was celebrating their 75th anniversary. This version of the uniform was intended to replicate the jersey worn by the Lions in 1935, which was the season that the team won their first world championship. Several players wore a black circle decal with a white number '50,' on the back right side of the helmet in honor of former Lions' LB Toby Caston.

1999: The Lions returned to wearing silver pants (with white stripe between two blue stripes) on the road.

2000-02: In 2000, the Lions moved the numbers that were on the sleeves up to the shoulders.

- The Lions wore a patch commemorating the first game at Ford Field September 22, 2002 against the Green Bay Packers.

2003: The home jersey has a thick silver stripe between two thin blue stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers are white with silver trim and outside black trim. The away jersey has a thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes.

The numbers on the away jersey are blue with silver trim and outside black trim.

- The helmet has one vertical white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes on the outside. The Leaping Lion has white trim and outside black trim and the facemask is black.
- The pants have one vertical thick white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes.

2005: The Lions introduced a new black alternate jersey featuring Honolulu Blue numbers with silver and white trim. The alternate jersey can be worn in as many as two regular season games and one preseason game.

2008: To commemorate the Detroit Lions 75th Season, the team wore a patch on the home and away jerseys. Additionally, the Lions wore the franchise's classic "throwback" uniform sans 75th Season patch for two games.

LIONS COMPREHENSIVE BRAND

On April 20, 2009, the Detroit Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that includes a new logo and new uniforms. As part of the new comprehensive brand, the Lions also introduced a new logotype and a new proprietary font, "NFL Lions." The new logotype is additional imagery that presents the Lions brand and will be featured in such prominent places as the endzone marking at Ford Field. The classic Honolulu blue, white and black colors remain unchanged.

HOME HONOLULU BLUE JERSEYS

- Numerals were customized specifically for the Lions uniform. They are Honolulu Blue, trimmed in silver and black.
- Above the new numerals is the new Lions logotype.
- On the collar, there are three trim lines of equal width, with two black trim lines outside a silver trim line.
- The sleeves are a new knit sleeve that features a wide silver trim, inside two smaller white trims and those all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim. The new material is improved and more flexible for players. The trim is part of the knit-sleeve material, which was changed from the previous silk-screened sleeve.
- Numerals remain on the shoulders but are now in the customized Lions jersey numerals.
- Players' nameplates on the back of the uniform

ROAD WHITE JERSEYS

- The road jerseys are the traditional “road whites,” with blue numerals trimmed in silver and black.
- On the road jerseys, the collar is in the same black and silver trim pattern as the home uniforms.
- Sleeves are of the same new knit-sleeve material that are on the new home uniforms. The trim on the sleeves includes a wide Honolulu blue trim, inside two smaller silver trims and those are all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim.

HELMET

- The helmet now features the new logo on each side. It is the most significant change since the Lions logo was first placed on the team's helmet in 1961.
- The facemasks will remain black, but the new Lions logotype will be included on the front and the back of the helmet.
- At the top middle of the helmet, the striping pattern has been modified. Instead of a thick white stripe, two Honolulu blue stripes and a very thin black accent stripe, the helmet striping pattern is now a 5/8-inch Honolulu blue stripe, two 3/16-inch white stripes and two 3/16-inch black stripes. The striping pattern is the same striping pattern as the team's game pants.

PANTS AND GAME SOCKS

- The game pants will remain in the team's traditional silver. Like the striping pattern on the helmet, the pants vertical trim on the side of the legs are now a thick Honolulu blue stripe inside smaller white stripes, which are all inside black stripes that are the same width as the white stripes.
- The game socks, which are the same for the home and road uniforms, now have a 5/8-inch black stripe on the calf midline. The top half is Honolulu blue and the bottom half is white.

NIKE ELITE 51 UNIFORMS

2012: The NFL launched its new partnership with Nike in April 2012, and now the Lions uniform not only features the NIKE logo but also features the new Nike Elite 51 technology. The collar changed from black and silver piping to a solid blue.

Designed and engineered from the inside out, the new Nike Elite 51 uniform focuses on creating a system where the baselayer, padding, jersey and pant work in concert. New innovations include integrating Nike Flywire Technology into the neckline to reduce weight and provide lockdown fit over pads, increasing sleeve articulation for better range of motion, and integrating new four-way stretch fabrication to provide a streamlined shrink-wrap fit.

The Nike Elite 51 key features:

- LIGHTER – The Nike jersey and pant, wet or dry are on average 20% lighter
- NIKE FLYWIRE – Eliminates layers, reduces weight, and provides lockdown fit

- ZONED MESH VENTILATION – Provides cooling zones for optimal thermoregulation
  - ZONED STRENGTH – High tenacity, stretch material, for light weight lockdown strength.
  - CUT FOR MOBILITY – Four-way stretch, hydrophobic materials enable range of motion wet or dry.
  - STRETCH TWILL NUMBERS – Four-way stretch even on numbering system
  - CUSTOMIZABLE BASELAYER PADDING – Nike Pro Hyperstrong baselayer with integrated lightweight, Deflex padding offering customizable flexible protection.
  - DEFLEX PADDING – Lightweight, flexible impact protection integrated into top “hit zone” areas
  - ALUMINUM D-RING BELT – Aircraft-grade aluminum D-ring belt reduces weight.
- The uniform also features the Nike Vapor Game Sock – a highly innovative sock designed specifically for football. The knee-high design combines compression, Nike Pro inspired cushioning, mesh venting and structure precisely where needed.

FORD FIELD

Ford Field, home of the Detroit Lions, is one of the premiere sports and entertainment stadiums in the world, and that fact has been proven over and over again the past few years with such high-profile international events like Super Bowl XL.

Every event at Ford Field impacts the city of Detroit beyond the event itself inside the stadium. For example, by hosting the Super Bowl in Detroit, Ford Field stood as the centerpiece to an over $260 million economic impact on Metro Detroit.

And none of that would have been made possible without the vision and investment made by Lions Owner and Chairman William Clay Ford and the Ford family to not only construct a fine football stadium but an unrivaled sports and entertainment venue.

HOME FOR FOOTBALL

More than just a host site for the Super Bowl XL in 2006, few stadiums in the country hold a football schedule as aggressive as Ford Field. Football championships have been held at virtually every level ranging from youth football to the Super Bowl.

2013 FALL FOOTBALL EVENTS

- 10 Lions home games
- The Lions 74th Thanksgiving Day Classic
- 16th annual Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl
- MAC Football Championship
- MHSAA High School State Championship
- Detroit Public School Championship
- High School Catholic League Championship
- Annual Detroit PAL Football Championships

DETROIT BOWL GAME

The Detroit Lions announced in July 2013 that they have entered into a six-year partnership with the Big Ten Conference for a bowl game that will be played at Ford Field beginning in 2014.

The game will be officially named once sponsorship agreements are in place. The inaugural game is tentatively scheduled for December 30, 2014 (pending TV broadcast schedule).

SUPER BOWL XL RECAP

In 2006, Ford Field and Metro Detroit sparked as the international sports community converged for the NFL's championship game.

"Much changed for the city of Detroit in 25 years since the Super Bowl was played there last," said former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. "The energy of the city and the revival of downtown Detroit are evident. Detroit was a wonderful host and the hospitality exceeded expectations."

"From the media center and NFL headquarters at GM World Headquarters and the Renaissance Center, to the NFL Experience at Cobo Center, to the events at some of downtown's historic theatres, to the game at Ford Field, our fans, teams, business partners and media enjoyed their Super Bowl experience in Detroit."

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four reached new heights in 2009 year as Ford Field served as the host site for one of the year's biggest sporting events. It capped off two years of setting new standards for the men's basketball championships, which included attendance records for the Final Four, National Championship and preliminary rounds.

2009 MEN'S NCAA FINAL FOUR

The 2009 Men's Basketball Final Four finalized a process that included six years of planning with the ultimate goal of delivering a Final Four like no other, and the NCAA, Ford Field and the city of Detroit did just that. The cornerstone to the championship at Ford Field was the center stadium court and seating configuration that included customized risers and, for the first time, designated student sections. On the court, the Final Four featured Michigan State defeating Connecticut, 82-73, and North Carolina defeating Villanova, 83-69 in the National Semifinals. In the National Championship, North Carolina ousted Michigan State, 89-72, to claim the NCAA title.

The weekend kicked off as the Final Four Friday drew a record crowd with nearly 30,000 in attendance. The games were expected to establish new records, and they delivered. The National Semifinals set an all-time record with 72,456 fans, and the National Championship upped that amount when it drew 72,992. Overall, 145,378 fans attended the Final Four, which also set a new record.

Although the primary focus of Final Four weekend was on the student athletes, the festivities surrounding the event livened up downtown Detroit. The ancillary events, like Hoops City, also drew record crowds over the five-day period. The NCAA and the Detroit Local Organizing Committee worked together on several community outreaches, which include a new legacy program. In the Detroit community, new early learning and literacy centers were opened. All of this was made possible by the vision of Ford Field and the NCAA to take this event to new levels. In the end, the Final Four generated an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit.

2008 MIDWEST REGIONALS

Midwest Regionals, which included the Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight rounds, were held March 28 and 30 in downtown Detroit for the first time as well, and both sessions set new preliminary rounds attendance records with 57,028 and 57,563 respectively for each session. A record of 114,591 was also established for both sessions. The excitement for the Midwest Regional was evident when 50,000 tickets were sold prior to the announcement of the 65-team tournament. Teams in the regional included Kansas (1 seed), Wisconsin (3), Davidson (10 seed) and Villanova (12 seed). Davidson upset Wisconsin, 73-56, in the first game and Kansas defeated Villanova, 72-57, in the second game. The regional title was claimed by Kansas with a win over Davidson, 59-57, in a game that came down to the final seconds. The previous attendance record for a single Regional game was 42,519. That mark was set at the Michigan State vs. Kentucky game in St. Louis' Trans World Dome in 1999.

NCAA HOCKEY

In 2010 Ford Field elevated collegiate hockey to an all-time level when it hosted the NCAA Men's 2010 Frozen Four. In an area that shows great support annually for college hockey and several Division I programs in the state of Michigan, Ford Field, which was the largest stadium ever to host the Frozen Four, proved the ideal venue to provide access to more fans of college hockey's version of the Final Four than ever before.

For both the National Semifinals and National Championship, the crowds that gathered set new NCAA records and new world records for an indoor hockey game. Overall, approximately 19,000 fans experienced the Frozen Four weekend than ever before. The first night of the Frozen Four, the National Semifinals, commenced as Ford field established a new attendance record of 34,954. Wisconsin defeated Rochester Institute of Technology 8-1 and Boston College upended Miami 7-1. In the National Championship game, Boston College claimed the NCAA title by shutting out Wisconsin in front of a record crowd of 37,592. In total, 72,546 fans watched the Frozen Four at Ford Field.

A LOOK AT THE PAST

On November 16, 1999, a new era in Detroit Lions' history began when the team officially launched the construction of its new downtown Detroit stadium. In 2002, the Lions and the city of Detroit unveiled one of the most impressive sports and entertainment venues ever built.

The Lions' downtown home is an incomparable 64,500-seat facility that includes a giant glass wall, revealing the picturesque Detroit skyline, and the old Hudson's Warehouse, originally built in 1920. The massive project encompasses a total of 1.85 million square feet of development.

The old Hudson's Warehouse, a major cornerstone of Ford Field, houses most of the stadium luxury seats, pressbox, restaurants, food courts, lounge areas, banquet facilities, entertainment venues and commercial space. The inclusion of the warehouse into the stadium project allows the sightlines at Ford Field to be among the very best in the NFL. In fact, even the locker room facilities have been built in the basement of the seven-story historic Detroit structure.

Detroit played its first home preseason game at Ford Field Saturday, August 24, 2003 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. Almost one month later, the Lions celebrated the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field Sunday, September 22 when they played host to their long-time divisional rival, the Green Bay Packers. The 2002 home opener marked the return of the Lions to downtown Detroit for the first time since 1974.

Following this grand opening event and the Lions' first regular season game, Ford Field's first concert was October headlined by the rock-and-roll legends, the Rolling Stones. At Super Bowl XL, the Rolling Stones returned to headline the NFL's halftime show.

Not only has Ford Field impressed the NFL owners, but it has also made an impact on the NCAA to name the stadium the site of the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. Ford Field also hosted Men's Basketball Midwest Regional Finals in 2008. In addition to the men's basketball championship, the NCAA returned in 2010 as Ford Field presented the Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

In April 2007, Ford Field expanded its portfolio when it hosted one of the biggest sports entertainment events of the year when the WWE's Wrestlemania extravaganza rolled into town. The event set a Ford Field record with 80,103 in attendance and it was the second-highest tally in the 23-year history of the event behind Wrestlemania III (93,173) held at the Pontiac Silverdome. Wrestlemania 23 at Ford Field included fans from 23 different countries, including all 50 states and nine Canadian provinces. Wrestlemania was the highest grossing one-day live event in WWE history, and holding the event at Ford Field helped pump an estimated $25 million into the local economy.

Besides events like the NCAA Final Four,

Midwest Regionals and Frozen Four, Ford Field has also hosted prominent motorsports events, including the Monster Jam monster truck series for the past three years and the AMA Amp'd Mobile Supercross series.

Ford Field began as a construction phenomenon on multiple fronts, and is now a crowning jewel of new stadiums in the NFL and Detroit's downtown entertainment district. The stadium's impact will continue to grow as Ford Field plays host to football games, sports and entertainment events, tradeshows and concerts.

FEATURES

Ford Field is nestled at the intersection of I-75 and I-375 in downtown Detroit. The 40-foot glass wall entrance is located at the corner of Adams and Brush Street. Brush Street runs between Ford Field and Comerica Park, home of the Detroit Tigers. St. Antoine Street runs on the east side of the stadium and Beacon St. borders Ford Field on the south side.

LUXURY SUITES

The luxury suite options are like no other in the sports industry. Ford Field incorporates 129 luxury suites, including 115 in the warehouse and 14 on the north side of the stadium. The 115 suites in the warehouse are located on four different levels.

The inspired design that integrates luxury suites into the historic Hudson's warehouse affords each suite holder significant opportunities, including optimum views, easy access and customized floor plans. By eliminating end zone suites, Ford Field luxury suites offer goal-line-to-goal-line, corner-to-corner views of every play. Since suites are centrally located, access is simple and direct, and creative use of warehouse space provides flexibility to create a wide selection of suite shapes and sizes.

Suites can accommodate from eight to 30 people, which allows for a wider variety of suites than any other football stadium.

Suite holders receive amenity packages consisting of tickets for all Lions' home games, tickets for most non-Lions events, first option on additional tickets to non-Lions events, VIP parking, private entrance, private concourse, private bathroom access, premium catering, in-suite televisions to view additional NFL action, full concierge service and day use of suite (during normal business hours).

CLUB SEATS

There are 7,500 club seats at Ford Field. 3,100 club seats are located on the north side, and 4,400 are located on the club level that is adjoined to the warehouse. Club seats at Ford Field represent the ultimate in club experience with an unrivaled game day opportunity.

Club seat ticket holders have access to four exclusive clubs in the stadium with expanded food selection of upscale cuisine.

Amenities include: wide, leather padded seats (manufactured by Visteon) with cupholders, elevator and escalator services from main entrances, two private entrances, climate controlled atmosphere, televisions and video walls in club lounges, club level concierge service, exclusive Lions merchandise store, opportunities to purchase tickets to other Ford Field events and opportunities for year-round use of club lounges for business meetings and social functions.

LIONS PRO SHOP

The Detroit Lions' official merchandise store, Lions Pro Shop, is located inside Ford Field on the Adams St. Concourse. The team store is open for business Monday-Friday from 10:30 a.m.-3 p.m. and during select events.
