NATE WALLACK/CLEVELAND BROWNS EDUCATION FUND

Each year the Cleveland Browns donate a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the media guide to the Nate Wallack/Cleveland Browns Education Fund at Cleveland State University. In 1981, the Cleveland Browns established a scholarship fund in honor of the Northeast Ohio media. Through annual gifts of $4,000 beginning in 1984, the Browns supported scholarships for CSU students interested in sports media relations. Nate Wallack, a former PR director of the Browns, was widely viewed as a pioneer in the field of NFL media relations and genuinely revered by his NFL PR colleagues as well as the working sports media. Following Wallack's passing on January 16, 1984, the Browns asked that the CSU fund be named in honor of Nate Wallack. Today, the fund provides annual scholarship support for student interns in CSU's Sports Information Department.

COMMITMENT

THE CLEVELAND BROWNS ARE COMMITTED TO IMPACTING THE COMMUNITY THROUGH EFFORTS FOCUSED ON CITIZENSHIP, EDUCATION, HEALTH & WELLNESS AND YOUTH FOOTBALL.

CLEVELANDBROWNS.COM/COMMUNITY

BROWNS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Cleveland Browns remain committed to the fans and communities in Northeast Ohio and look forward to sharing the excitement, pride and anticipation of what the future holds. The Browns will continue to make a difference in the community through distinct and direct outreach efforts.

During the last year, the Cleveland Browns and Cleveland Browns Foundation raised awareness and extended support through efforts focused on citizenship, education, health & wellness and youth football. Through these platforms, local and national causes including breast cancer awareness, reading, Hispanic heritage, military appreciation and the Play 60 movement have inspired remembrance, thought and activation.

CITIZENSHIP

While the Browns appreciate the opportunity to support others, there is no gratitude more profound than which is felt for those serving our country. Through the Browns signature "Hats Off to Our Heroes" gameday program which was created in 2002, more than 1,000 tickets have been donated to very deserving individuals who unselfishly risked their lives to serve in the armed forces and our local community. Players not only show their support on gameday for these individuals but also had the chance to directly impact those serving overseas through "Pro vs. GI Joe".

Browns players challenged U.S. troops in a fun head-to-head video game competition both online and in person as part of the "Pro vs. GI Joe" nonprofit organization. The players connected with military representatives overseas at sites in Afghanistan and Germany.

The Browns hosted a culture change forum between the NFL and the Ohio National Guard to share information, provide education and engage in discussion on concussions and other health-related issues affecting both organizations. The goal was to promote help-seeking behaviors among players and soldiers.

Aligned with the NFL's Salute to Service campaign, the Browns dedicate a home game during the month of November as a way to honor past and present heroes who serve our country.

EDUCATION

With education at the core of the Browns outreach efforts, kids discovered stories of their own as reading accomplishments were celebrated by the Browns through Cleveland Metropolitan School District recognition programs, summer reading programs and the signature "Touchdown for Reading" opportunity for local library systems.

More than 2,600 kids logged nearly 2 million minutes of reading through the Browns signature "Touchdown for Reading" program offered to students in grades K-8.

The Browns recognized 100 students from the Cleveland Metropolitan School District who were identified as top performers at their school through the Study Island Program.

In 2012, Browns coaches, players and staff combined to volunteer more than 2,000 hours in the community, which included visiting more than 20 Cleveland area schools.

HEALTH & WELLNESS

Over the course of 14 seasons, the Browns have installed 18 play spaces to ensure kids have a safe place to play through the annual Fitness Zone and Hometown Huddle volunteer projects. The Browns Play 60 movement continues to inspire kids to be active for 60 minutes a day, and a local school was crowned as the Cleveland Browns Play 60 Super School.

Over the course of the 2012 spring and fall Play 60 Challenges, more than 7 million minutes of physical activity were logged by more than 2,000 seventh and eighth grade Northeast Ohio participants.

Browns players visited Youth Challenge, which brings together children with physical disabilities and volunteers who enrich each other's lives through participation in adapted sports and recreational activities.

The Browns hosted a Play 60 Field Day for 100 seventh and eighth grade students from Forest Park Middle School in Euclid who were the grand prize winners of the Spring 2013 Cleveland Browns Play 60 Challenge.

Annually the Browns partner with the American Heart Association to host a Healthy Family Training Camp. All kids received an example of a healthy meal both in content and in size. Nearly 600 people were on-hand to learn the value of being "heart-healthy".

This past year, more than 30 Browns players visited local hospitals and rehabilitation centers to spend time with patients and help brighten their day.

Big Creek Elementary School in Middleburg Heights was crowned the Browns Play 60 Super School and was presented with a $10,000 NFL Play 60 grant for health and wellness programming or equipment.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

With youth football providing year-round programming for players, coaches, officials and parents, the Cleveland Browns continue to evolve as a development leader for the game of football. Through camps, clinics and other football-based initiatives, the Browns strive to provide quality programs to ensure the youth of today are involved with the sport for generations to come.

The past year, the Browns donated more than $250,000 of football equipment to 23 area high schools. The equipment included new or slightly used cleats, jerseys, pants and other football-related gear.

In 2010, the Browns launched the High School Game of the Week program where fans can vote for that week's featured contest. In all, more than 3 million Game of the Week votes have been cast on ClevelandBrowns.com.

In 2012, more than 250 kids participated in the Cleveland Browns Youth Football Camp. The three-day camp gave the participants the opportunity to sharpen their skills and work on basic football fundamentals.

For the second time in the last three years, the Browns hosted the NFL High School Player Development National 7-on-7 Tournament. This year, the club also hosted the National Lineman Challenge.

A new football field/stadium was constructed at Roehm Middle School as a way to pay tribute to the late Lou Groza. The field is used by the school district, Lou Groza Youth Football and select Browns youth football events. The project was made possible in part through a $250,000 grant contributed by the Cleveland Browns, as part of the NFL Foundation.

BROWNS OVERSEAS

Browns players have participated in the NFL-USO All-Star tour in recent years, illustrating a team and personal commitment to extend military appreciation. D'Qwell Jackson (2013), Alex Mack (2012) and Joe Thomas (2010) each participated in week-long visits to U.S. troops at military bases throughout the Middle East. In addition, former Brown Eric Metcalf (1989-94) participated in the USO Alumni Tour in July 2013. The NFL and USO have organized overseas morale-building visits for more than 45 years.

JIMMY HASLAM

OWNER
YEAR WITH BROWNS: 2ND
YEAR IN NFL: 6TH

On August 2, 2012, Jimmy Haslam agreed to purchase 70 percent of the Cleveland Browns from Randy Lerner. The sale was unanimously approved by the NFL owners on October 16, 2012, while the closing took place on October 25.

A native Knoxville, Tenn., Haslam in addition to his ownership of the Browns serves as CEO of Pilot Flying J, a position he has held since 1994. In 1976, he joined Pilot Corporation, a company his father, James A. Haslam II, founded in 1958. In those 37 years, Pilot Travel Centers has grown annual gallon sales from approximately $125 million to $8 billion. The company also has grown its network from seven states in the Southeast to 43 states in the U.S., and six Canadian provinces, with more than 600 travel centers and travel plazas. Today, Pilot Flying J is the sixth-largest privately held company in the United States, and employs more than 25,000 people.

Haslam and his wife, Dee, are immersed in numerous philanthropic endeavors. His civic involvement includes service on the boards of directors for the United Way of Greater Knoxville and Lakeshore Park. He is the co-founder of the Haslam Scholars Program at the University of Tennessee, and he formerly served as campaign chair for both Knox Area Rescue Ministries and United Way of Greater Knoxville.

Haslam also serves on the boards of the National Association of Truckstop Operators and Anderson Media Corporation. In 2006, he served as Tennessee statewide campaign chair for Bob Corker, now a United States Senator. Haslam was also the 2010 Tennessee statewide campaign chair for Governor Bill Haslam. In 2010, he was named a recipient of the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year award for the Southeast region. In October 2011, Haslam was recognized as a "Significant Sig" by the Sigma Chi Foundation. He also received the University of Tennessee College of Business Administration's Distinguished Alumni Award.

From an NFL perspective, Haslam is a member of the league's business ventures committee.

In 2008, Haslam became a part owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers, marking the first time ownership of the franchise expanded beyond the Rooney and McGinley families. Haslam kept that stake until taking control of the Browns.

Haslam is married to Susan "Dee" Bagwell Haslam. Dee is CEO of RIVR Media, an Emmy Award-winning TV production company specializing in reality and documentary programming, based in Knoxville. The Haslams have three adult children, Jim, Whitney and Cynthia, and five grandchildren.

JOE BANNER

Joe Banner was named the Browns' Chief Executive Officer by owner Jimmy Haslam on October 16, 2012. He joined the team after spending the previous 19 years (1994-2012) with the Philadelphia Eagles, including the final 12 as the club's president. Banner spent the first seven years of his tenure with the Eagles overseeing the day-to-day operations of the organization.

During Banner's time with the Eagles, the team boasted a regular-season record of 162-124-2, made the playoffs 11 times, won six NFC East titles, advanced to the NFC Championship game on five occasions and made one Super Bowl appearance. From 2000-09, the Eagles led the NFC with 103 regular-season wins, becoming just the 13th team in NFL history to top the century mark in victories over the course of one decade. Stability was established during Banner's tenure, as the team had just two head coaches since 1995. He was instrumental in the process of identifying and hiring Andy Reid as head coach in 1999. At the time, Reid had just seven years of experience as an assistant in the NFL, and none as a coordinator. He went on to become the winningest head coach in Eagles history and one of the most successful head coaches in the entire NFL during his tenure in Philadelphia.

The franchise was equally successful off the field under Banner's leadership. He worked closely with the City of Philadelphia to ensure that the Eagles moved into their new home, Lincoln Financial Field, in 2003. The team played in front of sellout crowds for every home game from 2003-11, as well as its final four years at Veterans Stadium (1999-2002). In addition, the club constructed its new state-of-the-art practice facility, the NovaCare Complex, in 2001. The Eagles also were consistently among the top NFL teams in total revenue.

The Eagles were active members of the Philadelphia community during Banner's time with the organization. During his tenure, the club formed the nationally acclaimed Eagles Youth Partnership and was instrumental in the Eagles Tackling Breast Cancer campaign.

Since Banner has been with the Browns, the team has received national acclaim for assembling one of the strongest coaching staffs in the league, led by a bright, young offensive mind in Rob Chudzinski. It also includes offensive coordinator Norv Turner, defensive coordinator Ray Horton and special teams coordinator Chris Tabor, three of the most respected football men in their areas of expertise. Banner also has led the transformation of the business side of the club, which has seen a stadium naming-rights deal consummated and a landmark flagship radio partnership formed under his guidance.

Personally, Banner has been heavily involved in several philanthropic endeavors, particularly in helping children in need through his involvement with City Year. As the co-chair of the Philadelphia City Year Board, he helped to grow the non-profit organization, which sends teams of young people to city schools to teach and mentor at-risk children.

In 2001, Banner received the leadership award from the renowned PARTNERS program, a charitable organization with a goal to enhance social and race relations in the Philadelphia area. In addition, he received in 2009 the Lifetime of Idealism Award from City Year Greater Philadelphia, and in 2006 the Distinguished Community Leadership Award from Operation Understanding.

Banner is a graduate of Denison University in Granville, Ohio, and was a sports producer and reporter at WCAU Radio in Philadelphia upon graduation. Following his stint there, he opened a chain of clothing stores in Boston called "Designer's Clothing."

Banner and his wife, Helaine, have a daughter, Jill, and two sons, Jason and Jonathan.

ALEC SCHEINER

Alec Scheiner was named President of the Cleveland Browns on December 18, 2012. He joined the Browns after spending the previous eight years with the Dallas Cowboys, including the last five as Senior Vice President and General Counsel. In his role with the Browns, Scheiner oversees all business functions of the club including revenue generation, stadium operations, finance, legal, information technology, and fan engagement. Scheiner also helps lead football analytics for the club and has various other involvement with team operations.

Scheiner joined the Cowboys in 2004 as General Counsel. In his position with the Cowboys, Scheiner oversaw all legal aspects, business planning, strategy, human resources and analytics for the entire organization. He negotiated and developed all agreements for the design, construction, financing, marketing and lease of Cowboys Stadium. Scheiner drafted and negotiated all sponsorship, merchandising, event, seat/suite and broadcast agreements for the team, oversaw any litigation or disputes, and provided general legal and business guidance and advice to the Cowboys and the Jones family.

Scheiner, who grew up in Lower Merion, Pennsylvania, attended Georgetown University, where he earned his degree in economics and Latin American studies in 1992. He went on to earn his J.D. from Georgetown Law School in 1997.

Upon graduating from Georgetown Law Center, Scheiner practiced at Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering (now WilmerHale) from 1997 until joining the Cowboys in 2004. During that time he served as outside counsel for the Dallas Cowboys (on a variety of matters, including the Cowboys' opt-out from the NFL's merchandising program). While at the law firm, he also advised on the sale of the Baltimore Ravens, the relocation of the Charlotte Hornets to New Orleans, the sale of various ownership interests in the Washington Wizards and Washington Capitals, the sale of ownership interests in the Toronto Raptors and Toronto Maple Leafs, and the Rose Bowl's attempts to secure an NFL team in Pasadena. In 2010 Scheiner was named one of Sports Business Journal's Top 40 sports business executives under 40.

Scheiner is currently on the executive committee and the board of directors of Legends Hospitality, the concessionaire, sales and marketing company owned by the Dallas Cowboys and New York Yankees, which was formed in 2008.

Alec and his wife, Nadya, have a daughter, Norah (7), and two sons, Rafe (3) and Max (1).

MICHAEL LOMBARDI

GENERAL MANAGER

YEAR WITH BROWNS: 10TH

(1ST AS GENERAL MANAGER)

YEAR IN NFL: 23RD

Michael Lombardi re-joined the Browns as Vice President-Player Personnel on January 18, 2013. He was named General Manager on March 5. Lombardi brings 22 years of NFL experience as a front office executive to his second stint with the Browns, most recently spending eight seasons (1999-2007) in the player personnel department of the Oakland Raiders. From 2008 until coming back to the Browns, he worked primarily as an analyst with NFL Network and NFL.com.

Over the course of his NFL career, Lombardi has been associated with teams that have advanced to the playoffs on 10 occasions, won seven division titles, made five conference championship game appearances and earned two trips to the Super Bowl, including capturing Super Bowl XIX following the 1984 season while with the San Francisco 49ers.

During his tenure with the Raiders, Lombardi's role included dealing with personnel decisions and contract negotiations in the player personnel department. Oakland captured three consecutive AFC West titles (2000-02) and advanced to Super Bowl XXXVII while he was a member of the organization.

Prior to joining the Raiders staff, Lombardi spent two seasons (1997-98) with the personnel department of the Philadelphia Eagles. He played an integral role in the 1998 draft, one in which the Eagles selected future Pro Bowlers in offensive tackle Tra Thomas, linebacker Jeremiah Trotter, kick returner Allen Rossum and linebacker Ike Reese. As a part of that draft, the club also traded for defensive lineman Hugh Douglas, who would become a key component of the defense, as he led the team in sacks for three straight seasons (2000-02) and was voted to the Pro Bowl each of those years. Those players helped lay the foundation for Philadelphia, who would reach the playoffs five straight seasons (2000-04), including four consecutive trips to the NFC Championship game (2001-04) and a berth in Super Bowl XXXIX.

In his first tour with the Browns, Lombardi joined the club as a member of the scouting staff in 1987. He was named the team's pro personnel director in 1989, a title in which he held until 1993. The Browns won two AFC Central titles - in 1987 and 1989 - along with advancing to the AFC Championship game both seasons. He was promoted to director of player personnel in 1993, and the following season of 1994, the Browns compiled an 11-5 record and advanced to the divisional round of the playoffs after having won just three games in 1990.

Lombardi joined the NFL personnel ranks in 1984, spending three seasons (1984-86) in the personnel department of the San Francisco 49ers. With the 49ers, Lombardi coordinated scouting reports and evaluated collegiate talent as the club captured the 1984 and 1986 NFC West titles and defeated the Miami Dolphins, 38-16, in Super Bowl XIX to conclude his first season with the team.

Outside of the front office, Lombardi has held multiple positions as a collegiate coach, analyst, reporter and writer throughout his career. Immediately following his collegiate playing career, he spent two seasons (1982-83) as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Nevada - Las Vegas. As a member of the media, he spent 1996 as an NFL draft analyst for ESPN. He also spent portions of 1998 and 1999 as a studio analyst for CBS Sports as on-air talent for the NFL Today pregame show.

A native of Ocean City, New Jersey, Lombardi lettered in both football and baseball at Valley Forge Military Academy in Wayne, Pennsylvania. He then attended Hofstra University, where he was a three-year letterman (1979-81) as a defensive lineman and earned a bachelor's degree in sociology.

Michael and his wife, Millie, have two sons, Mick, a coaching assistant with the San Francisco 49ers, and Matthew, a 2013 graduate of the University of Delaware.

ROB CHUDZINSKI

Rob Chudzinski was named the 14th full-time head coach in Browns history on January 10, 2013. Chudzinski comes to the team after spending the past two seasons (2011-12) as the offensive coordinator for the Carolina Panthers. Overall, Chudzinski's résumé includes 19 years of experience, including nine seasons in the NFL. Chudzinski re-joins the Browns organization, where he spent the 2004 season as tight ends coach and 2007-08 as offensive coordinator.

With the Panthers, the team went from two wins in the year before Chudzinski's arrival to winning six in 2011 and seven in 2012, including victories in the final four games of 2012. In 2011, the team set club records for total yards (6,237) and first downs (345), one year after experiencing franchise lows in both categories. Carolina also scored 48 touchdowns after recording 17 the year prior to Chudzinski's arrival. The Panthers also moved from last in total yardage to seventh, marking the biggest improvement in the league since the St. Louis Rams went from 27th in 1998 to first in 1999. In 2011, Chudzinski tutored Cam Newton, who became the first rookie in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards, while setting an NFL record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with 14 en route to being named the 2011 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year. The Panthers also became the first team in league history with three 700-yard rushers in DeAngelo Williams (836), Jonathan Stewart (761) and Newton (706). Wide receiver Steve Smith eclipsed 1,000 yards receiving both seasons under Chudzinski.

Chudzinski had two stints with the San Diego Chargers, where he served as the assistant head coach/tight ends coach from 2009-10 and tight ends coach from 2005-06. As assistant head coach under current Browns offensive coordinator Norv Turner, Chudzinski was intricately involved in team operations and many gameday elements, in addition to his coaching duties. During Chudzinski's initial stint with the Chargers, he worked under former Browns Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer. As tight ends coach, Chudzinski tutored Antonio Gates, who was voted to the Pro Bowl in each of Chudzinski's four seasons with the team. Gates recorded 1,157 receiving yards in 2009 and 1,101 in 2005, marking the only times he has eclipsed the 1,000-yard plateau in his career. In four seasons working with Chudzinski, Gates averaged 72.3 receptions, 991.0 yards and 9.3 touchdowns per season, compared to an average of 58.8 receptions, 726.1 yards and 7.7 touchdowns in six seasons without Chudzinski.

In 2007, Chudzinski guided the Browns' offense as they scored 402 points and amassed 5,621 yards of total offense, as both figures ranked as third-best in franchise history. In 2007, the Browns ranked 8th in the NFL in total offense after finishing 31st in 2006. In addition, they racked up 42 offensive touchdowns in 2007 and tied for 7th in the league in this category, after finishing 30th with 22 the year before. Wide receiver Braylon Edwards set franchise records with 1,289 receiving yards and 16 touchdowns, tight end Kellen Winslow set a career-high with 1,109 receiving yards and running back Jamal Lewis finished fifth in the NFL with 1,304 rushing yards. The Browns won 10 games that year, which are the most victories by the team since 1994 (11).

Chudzinski began his pro coaching career in 2004 as the Browns' tight ends coach, where he worked with first-round draft choice, Kellen Winslow. During that season, Chudzinski was elevated to offensive coordinator for the final five games following Butch Davis' resignation as head coach.

From 1994-2003, Chudzinski coached at his alma mater, the University of Miami (Fla.). He spent two seasons (1994-95) as a graduate assistant, five (1996-2000) as tight ends coach and three (2001-03) as offensive coordinator. During his three seasons as offensive coordinator, the Hurricanes compiled a record of 35-3 and played in a BCS Bowl game each year, including two National Championship appearances. He helped shape future NFL Pro Bowlers Bubba Franks, Frank Gore, Andre Johnson, Willis McGahee, Bryant McKinnie, Clinton Portis, Jeremy Shockey and Kellen Winslow.

In 2001, the 'Canes went 12-0 and defeated Nebraska to win the National Championship. In 2002, Miami's offense set school records for points (527), total yards (6,074) and rushing touchdowns (33), one year after establishing school records in those same categories. In 2002, they averaged 40.5 points per game, 284.2 passing yards per game and 183.0 rushing yards per contest. The Hurricanes went 12-1 in 2002, with their only defeat coming in overtime against Ohio State in the National Championship game. In 2003, Miami finished with an 11-2 record, including a 16-14 victory over Florida State in the Orange Bowl.

At Miami, Chudzinski tutored Kellen Winslow, who won the John Mackey Award in 2003 as the nation's top collegiate tight end, while he also helped to develop two other All-America tight ends in Bubba Franks (1999) and Jeremy Shockey (2001). All three players went on to be first-round NFL draft picks.

Chudzinski played tight end at Miami from 1986-90 and was a three-year starter and a member of two national championship teams (1987 and 1989). He graduated with a B.A. in business administration in 1990 and went on to earn his MBA in 1996. # CHRIS TABOR

Chris Tabor was named the Browns' special teams coordinator on January 25, 2011. He has 20 years of coaching experience between the high school, collegiate and professional levels.

In 2012, kicker Phil Dawson and kick returner Joshua Cribbs were both selected to the Pro Bowl, marking just the second time in team history that two specialists made the annual all-star game in the same year (2008, Cribbs and LS Ryan Pontbriand). The Pro Bowl selection was the first of Dawson's 14 year career. His 93.5 (29 of 31) field goal percentage clip led the AFC and was a career-best. Dawson's seven field goals from 50 yards or longer tied for the second-most in the NFL in 2012, while his 14 field goals of 50 yards or longer since Tabor arrived in Cleveland in 2011 are the most in the NFL. Cribbs finished fourth in the NFL in kickoff return average (27.4) and sixth in punt return average (12.0). In addition, Johnson Bademosi led all rookies and finished tied for third in the NFL with 18 special teams tackles en route to being named the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie special teams player.

As a team, the Browns led the NFL with nine punt returns of 20 yards or longer in 2012, including rookie Travis Benjamin's team record 93 yard return against Kansas City (12/9/12). The Browns also led the league in the league in opponents' average starting position after kickoffs (19.9) and were second in the NFL in opponents' kickoff return average (19.8).

In Tabor's first season as special teams coordinator, the Browns finished second in the league with an average starting position of 24.5 after kickoffs, trailing only the New York Jets (26.1). Dawson converted on seven field goals of 50 yards or longer, which tied for the most in the NFL in 2011. Punter Brad Maynard tied the Browns' single-season record with 32 punts inside the 20. Cribbs finished sixth in the league in punt return average (11.4) and 12th in kickoff return average (25.0).

Prior to joining the Browns, Tabor spent three seasons (2008-10) as assistant special teams coach with Chicago. During Tabor's tenure with the Bears, Chicago consistently ranked among the league leaders in numerous departments. The Bears ranked in the top five in no less than nine different special teams categories combined over that three-year period.

Chicago led the NFL in total return yards (6,570) and kickoff return yards (5,415), posted the second-best kickoff return average (25.1), ranked third in punt return defense (7.1) and produced the fifth-best punt return average (10.4). The Bears also registered six total kick returns for touchdowns in that time, which tied for second-most in the league.

Also during Tabor's stint in Chicago, the Bears tied for fifth in the league in punts inside the 20-yard line (90) and tied for seventh in field goal percentage (86.2). From 2008-10, Chicago was one of only six teams in the NFL to allow one or fewer kick return touchdowns as that total tied for second in the league over that three-year span.

Tabor also has helped shape some of the NFL's top return specialists. In 2008, Daniele Manning led the NFL in kickoff return average (29.7). In 2009, Johnny Knox finished second in the league in kickoff return average (29.0) and earned a Pro Bowl selection as a kick returner. In 2010, Devin Hester led the NFL in punt return average (17.1) and punt return touchdowns (3) en route to earning a Pro Bowl nod as a kick returner.

In 2010, the Bears ranked first in the league in punt return average (17.1), second in kickoff return average (25.4), second in average drive start after kickoffs (31.5) and ninth in punt return defense (7.8). The Bears' special teams unit also ranked fourth in the NFL, based on a composite formula devised by Rick Gosselein of the Dallas Morning News.

Prior to Chicago, Tabor spent two seasons at Western Michigan University (2006-07) as the running backs and special teams coach. He spent also four seasons at Utah State University, where he was the running backs and special teams coach in 2005 after being the Aggies' assistant head coach in charge of wide receivers from 2002-04.

Tabor coached at Central Methodist College (1995-96) in Fayette, Mo., before spending four seasons at the University of Missouri. He was also the head coach at Culver-Stockton College in Canton, Mo. in 2001.

From 1993-1994, Tabor built experience at the community college and high school levels, coaching at Hutchinson (Kansas) Community College (1994) and Benton High School (1993) in St. Joseph, Mo.

Center Alex Mack was a consensus all-rookie selection in 2009 and was selected to the 2010 AFC Pro Bowl roster and Sports Illustrated's All-Pro team. The 2010 season marked the first time since the 1981 Pro Bowl that at least two Browns offensive linemen were chosen to the AFC squad.

Last season, four linemen participated in every offensive play as Thomas, Mack, right guard Shawn Lauvao and rookie right tackle Mitchell Schwartz played every offensive snap. Thomas has started and played in each of the first 96 games of his career, while Mack has started the first 64 games of his career. Neither player has missed an offensive snap during their career. boys, tackle Flozell Adams and guard Larry Allen were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl squad both times.

That catapulted him into the position of offensive line coach with the Arizona Cardinals in 1998, a spot he held for the next five years. During his tenure with the Cardinals, Warhop tutored the group through a steady decline in quarterback sacks allowed from the 78 surrendered in 1997 – the year prior to his arrival – to 50 in 1998, 45 in 1999, 35 in 2000 and 29 in 2001.

He then served on the offensive staffs at the University of Kansas (1984-86), Vanderbilt University (1987-89) and the University of New Mexico (1990-91). ## DOUBLE YOUR PLEASURE

In 1985, Browns running backs Kevin Mack and Earnest Byner became the third tandem in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards or more in the same season. That year, Mack accounted for 1,104 yards rushing (222 atts., 7 TDs) while Byner tallied 1,002 yards (244 atts., 8 TDs). In fact, Byner surpassed the 1,000-yard plateau with a 101-yard effort in the finale at the New York Jets on December 22. His rushing total that day included a 9-yard run on the game's final play from scrimmage. Previously, teams that had dual 1,000-yard rushers were Miami in 1972 (Larry Csonka-1,117, Mercury Morris-1,000) and Pittsburgh in 1976 (Franco Harris-1,128, Rocky Bleier-1,036). Since Mack and Byner accomplished the feat, it has been done three times. In 2006, Falcons running back Warrick Dunn (1,140) and quarterback Michael Vick (1,039) did it. They were followed by the 2008 New York Giants (Brandon Jacobs-1,089, Derrick Ward-1,025) and the 2009 Carolina Panthers (Jonathan Stewart-1,133, DeAngelo Williams-1,117)

NFL OVERTIME PROCEDURES

For the 2010 postseason, the NFL installed a modified sudden death system to determine the winner when the score is tied at the end of regulation. In 2012, the system was expanded to cover all NFL games, including regular-season and preseason games. Modified sudden death guarantees each team a possession or the opportunity to possess, unless the team that receives the opening kickoff scores a touchdown on its initial possession.

At the end of regulation time, the Referee will immediately toss coin at center of field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.

Following a three-minute intermission after the end of regulation, there shall be a maximum of one 15-minute period for all preseason and regular season games. Each team must possess or have the opportunity to possess the ball unless the team that has the ball first scores a touchdown on its initial possession. Play continues in sudden death until a winner is determined, and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal, or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by Referee for a palpably unfair act. Each team shall be entitled to two timeouts, and if there is an excess timeout, the usual rules shall apply. Try is not attempted if touchdown scored. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.

If the score is tied at the end of a 15-minute overtime during the preseason or regular season the game shall result in a tie.

During the postseason, play will be continued in 15-minute periods until a winner is declared. During the postseason each team is entitled to three timeouts per half.

Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay official.

Key Definitions

Possession: Actual possession of the ball with complete control. The defense gains possession when it catches, intercepts, or recovers a loose ball.

Opportunity to possess: The opportunity to possess occurs only during kicking plays. A kickoff is an opportunity to possess for the receiving team. If the kicking team legally recovers the kick, the receiving team is considered to have had its opportunity. A punt or a field goal that crosses the line of scrimmage and is muffed by the receiving team is considered to be an opportunity to possess for the receivers. Normal touching rules by the kicking team apply.

KEY GAME NOTES

• Rookie running back Trent Richardson rushed for 105 yards on a career-high 25 carries. He added 31 receiving yards, while tying a career-best with six receptions. Coupled with his 122 rushing yards last week against San Diego (10/28), he joins Earnest Byner (1984) and Bobby Mitchell (1958) as the only Browns rookies to register back-to-back 100-yard rushing games.

• Richardson joins Jacksonville's Fred Taylor (128 on September 20, 1998) as the only rookies to rush for 100-yards against the Ravens. Richardson's 105 rushing yards today are the third-most by a Brown against the Ravens.

• With 74 kickoff return yards today, Joshua Cribbs became the NFL's all-time leader in kickoff return yards with one team. He has now racked up 9,638 career kickoff return yards with the Browns and passed Brian Mitchell who previously held the record with 9,586 as a Washington Redskins.

- Today's 30-7 win was the Browns' largest margin of victory since a 44-6 decision against Arizona on November 16, 2003.
- Following a touchdown on Kansas City's first play of the game, the Browns scored 30 unanswered points for the win. Today marks the first time the Browns scored 30 consecutive points in one game since 1991 when the team topped Indianapolis 31-0 on December 1.
- Rookie Travis Benjamin returned a punt 93-yard for a touchdown, which marked the longest punt return in Browns history. The previous team record was 92 yards by Eric Metcalf at Cincinnati on September 4, 2004. It is the fifth time a Browns rookie has returned a punt for a touchdown and the first since Ben Davis returned had a 52 yard return for a score on November 5, 1967.

KEY GAME NOTES

- The Browns are just the second team in the Super Bowl era (since 1966) to have a rookie lead the team in passing (Brandon Weeden 3,385), rushing (Trent Richardson 950) and receiving yards (Josh Gordon 805) in the same season. Cleveland joins the 1968 Buffalo Bills as the only teams to accomplish that feat.

- Making his NFL debut, quarterback Thaddeus Lewis became the 18th quarterback to start to start for the Browns since 1999. He is also the seventh quarterback from Duke to start an NFL game and first since Dave Brown started for Arizona at Jacksonville on December 10, 2000.

- Defensive lineman Jabaal Sheard tied a career high with two sacks. He finished with a team-leading seven sacks this season, including six sacks over the final eight games. He is the first player to lead the Browns in sacks in back-to-back seasons since linebacker Kamerion Wimbley (2006-07) and first defensive lineman since Michael Dean Perry (1990-91). Sheard also recorded two sacks at Arizona on December 18, 2011.

The Cleveland Browns have one of the richest traditions in all of professional football, boasting eight league titles, including four in the NFL. In addition, 16 former Browns have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, the sixth-most of any NFL franchise.

The Browns were founded in 1945 as a charter member of the All-America Football Conference (AAFC), under businessman Arthur B. "Mickey" McBride, who would name Paul Brown as the team's general manager and head coach. The franchise conducted a team naming contest, and the No. 1 choice was "Browns," highlighting Paul Brown's popularity in the area. In addition to Brown, that first team consisted of future Hall of Famers in center Frank Gatski, quarterback Otto Graham, offensive tackle/kicker Lou Groza, receiver Dante Lavelli, fullback Marion Motley and lineman Bill Willis.

In their first season in the AAFC (1946), the Browns posted a 12-2 record and went on to defeat the New York Yankees in the league's inaugural championship game, 14-9. They were as equally successful off the field, averaging more than 57,000 fans to their home games at Municipal Stadium. The Browns would go on to claim the AAFC title in all four years of the league's existence, including a 15-0 record in 1948.

In 1950, the Browns were one of only three AAFC teams to merge with the National Football League, along with the San Francisco 49ers and Baltimore Colts. Despite joining a more established league, Cleveland continued its success as they marched through the 1950 regular season with a 10-2 record before defeating the New York Giants in the playoffs and the Los Angeles Rams in the championship game. In fact, the Browns appeared in the NFL Championship game in each of their first seven years in the league (1950-56), coming away with three titles during that time (1950, 1954-55).

Quarterback Otto Graham guided the Browns to the championship game in all 10 of his professional seasons, helping the team capture seven titles (four AAFC and three NFL). Graham led the AAFC in passing all four years and led the NFL in passing twice (1953 and 1955), while totaling 23,584 passing yards combined in both leagues.

In 1957, the Browns selected Syracuse running back Jim Brown with the sixth overall pick of the NFL Draft. Brown would go on to lead the league in rushing that year with 942 yards in just 12 games as he was named NFL Rookie of the Year. He helped the Browns back to the NFL title game that season, although they dropped a 59-14 decision to the Detroit Lions. The following year, Brown again led the league in rushing, with 1,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. It marked one of seven times over the next eight years in which he rushed for more than 1,100 yards.

After going consecutive seasons without making the playoffs for the first time in franchise history (1961-62),

Blanton Collier took over for Paul Brown as head coach in 1963, and guided the team to a regular season record of 10-4 as they returned to the postseason, led by Jim Brown's career-high 1,863 rushing yards. The following year saw the Browns put together a record of 10-3-1, capped by a 27-0 victory over Baltimore in the NFL Championship game. The 1964 season marked the first of three NFL title game appearances for the Browns over the next five years.

Following the 1965 season, Brown unexpectedly announced his retirement to pursue an acting career. In his final year, Brown rushed for 1,544 yards, the third straight year and eighth time in his nine NFL seasons that he topped the league's rushing chart.

Following Brown's retirement, Cleveland could not be derailed as they qualified for the postseason in three of the next four years, including two NFL Championship game appearances (1968-69). Future Hall of Fame running back Leroy Kelly, an eighth-round draft choice of the team in 1964, rushed for more than 1,000 yards in three of those seasons (1966-68).

On September 21, 1970, the Browns became part of history as they had the distinction of hosting the New York Jets in the first-ever Monday Night Football game, emerging with a 31-21 victory.

Collier wrapped up his coaching career following the 1970 season. He registered a 76-34-2 (.688) regular season record and guided the Browns to four NFL Championship games.

The decade of the 1970s started with the Browns making two trips to the playoffs in the first three years. Then came a stretch in which the Browns missed the postseason seven straight seasons (1973-79). In the final year of that span, however, the Browns, under the guidance of second-year Head Coach Sam Rutigliano, put together a record of 9-7 and affectionately earned the nickname of the "Kardiac Kids." Of the team's nine victories that year, seven came by seven points or less. Two of those wins occurred in overtime while three others were decided within the final two minutes of regulation.

This excitement continued into the following season of 1980. After starting the year 2-3, the Browns reeled off five straight wins and victories in eight of their next nine. Of those eight triumphs, six came by six points or less. On the final week of the season, Don Cockroft's 22-yard field goal with less than two minutes to play lifted the Browns to a 27-24 victory over the Bengals at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, as Cleveland captured its first AFC Central crown since 1971 and its first playoff berth since 1972.

In 1985, the franchise underwent a makeover as Marty Schottenheimer was named the team's sixth full-time head coach and the club selected University of Miami quarterback Bernie Kosar – a Youngstown native who grew up in Boardman, Ohio – in the NFL Supplemental Draft. By midseason of his rookie year, Kosar had cracked the starting lineup, leading the Browns to wins in four of his first six starts. Cleveland went on to post an 8-8 record that year, which was good for first place in the AFC Central division. That season, running backs Earnest Byner and Kevin Mack both topped the 1,000-yard rushing mark, a feat that would not be accomplished again by a pair of running backs on the same team in the same season until 2008.

The Browns seemed poised for their first playoff win since 1969 as they held a 21-3 third-quarter lead over the Dolphins at the Orange Bowl before Miami reeled off 21 unanswered points to come away with a 24-21 victory. With Kosar at the helm, the Browns would win three AFC Central division titles over the next four years (1986-87, 1989) and qualify for the playoffs on each occasion. Three of those four appearances resulted in a spot in the AFC Championship game, only to be stopped short of their ultimate destination by the Denver Broncos each time.

In August of 1991, the Browns moved into a new administrative complex in Berea and began holding training camp there in July of the following year.

On November 6, 1995, it was announced that the Browns had signed a deal to relocate to Baltimore for the following season. In February 1996, the NFL announced that the Browns would be "deactivated" for three years and that a new stadium would be built for a new Browns team – either as an expansion team or one that would move from another city – that would begin play in 1999. Cleveland NFL Football (Cleveland Browns Trust) was formed by the NFL with Bill Futterer as President and NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue as Trustee. The Trust represented the NFL in the stadium design and construction, managed the sale of suites and club seats, and sold Permanent Seat Licenses and season tickets. In March 1998, at the owners meeting in Orlando, Tagliabue announced that the Browns would be an expansion team rather than a relocated team. On September 8, 1998, the NFL awarded the new Cleveland Browns franchise to a group led by Alfred Lerner, while the NFL formally transferred ownership on October 23, 1998.

The new Cleveland Browns franchise played their first game on August 9, 1999 when they edged the Dallas Cowboys, 20-17 in overtime, in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Fawcett Stadium in Canton to open the preseason. They played their first regular season game on September 12 against their long-time rival Pittsburgh Steelers at FirstEnergy Stadium. Their initial regular season victory occurred in dramatic fashion as a 56-yard Hail Mary from quarterback Tim Couch to wide receiver Kevin Johnson as time expired lifted the Browns to a 21-16 decision over the Saints at the Superdome, in what would be the first of two wins in that first season back for Cleveland.

On October 23, 2002 owner Alfred Lerner passed away and his son, Randy, took over control of the team. Later that year, the Browns won their final two regular season games to finish with a record of 9-7, earning them their first playoff berth since returning just four years earlier.

On September 19, 2010, the team unveiled a Ring of Honor at FirstEnergy Stadium at halftime of the home opener against the Kansas City Chiefs. The inaugural class consisted of the franchise's 16 Hall of Famers, as the name of each man was permanently displayed on the stadium's upper deck facade. In 2012, the years of the team's eight league championships were added to the southeast end of facade.

On August 2, 2012, Jimmy Haslam agreed to purchase controlling interest of the Cleveland Browns from Randy Lerner. The NFL approved Haslam as the owner on October 16, and Joe Banner was named the Browns' Chief Executive Officer the same day. Rob Chudzinski was named the 14th full-time head coach in Browns history on January 10, 2013.

On January 15, 2013, the Browns and FirstEnergy Corp. announced that the team's venue will be called FirstEnergy Stadium, Home of the Cleveland Browns.

Michael Lombardi re-joined the Browns as Vice President-Player Personnel on January 18, 2013 and was named General Manager on March 5.

HOW THE BROWNS WERE NAMED

One myth is that the team was named after the popular boxing champion, Joe Louis, "The Brown Bomber." The truth, according to several published reports, is this:

When owner Arthur McBride brought an AAFC team to Cleveland in 1945, he held a newspaper contest to name the team and offered a $1,000 war bond to the winner. Most of the entries submitted wanted the name Browns, because the extremely popular Paul Brown was the team's head coach.

Coach Brown thought it wouldn't be proper to name the team after him, and the entry "Panthers" was selected. A few weeks later, a man approached McBride and said he owned a semi-pro team in the 1920s called the Cleveland Panthers and he still owned the rights to the name.

McBride could have bought the man off, but Brown vetoed the idea. The coach didn't want the new team to be associated with a losing franchise. Instead of holding a new contest, Brown reluctantly agreed to name the team Browns. But, in sticking with his original ideals, Brown suggested publicly that since Louis was "The Brown Bomber", that was how the team got its name. Not a single entry in the contest listed Louis or his nickname as a reason for choosing "Browns."

#14 OTTO GRAHAM

From 1946-1955, Otto Graham guided the Browns to 10 league crowns and NFL Championships in 1950, 1954 and 1955. He led the NFL in passing for two seasons and recorded 23,584 career passing yards. In 1953, Graham finished the season with a 64.73 completion percentage, the highest in club history. He was an All-League selection from 1951-55. Graham was inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1965.

#32 JIM BROWN

Brown was the NFL's leading rusher in eight seasons and holds the Browns franchise record for career rushing yards, attempts and touchdowns. An All-America selection from Syracuse in 1956, Brown was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 1957. He participated in nine consecutive Pro Bowls from 1958-66 and was voted NFL most valuable player in 1957, 1958 and 1965. Brown was inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

#45 ERNIE DAVIS

After being selected first in the 1961 NFL draft, the Browns acquired Ernie Davis in a trade with the Washington Redskins. Tragically, Davis passed away two years later from leukemia and never played a professional game. A star running back from Syracuse, Davis was the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy in 1961 and guided the Orangemen to their only national championship the same year.

#46 DON FLEMING

Don Fleming was selected by the Chicago Cardinals in the 28th round of the 1959 NFL draft. He was traded to the Browns in 1960 and was a mainstay at the safety position. From 1960-63, Fleming intercepted 10 passes and was named to The Sporting News All-AFC team in 1962. During the 1963 offseason, Fleming and a co-worker were sadly electrocuted working a construction job. His passing came a few weeks after Ernie Davis' death.

#76 LOU GROZA

Lou Groza is Cleveland's all-time top scorer with 1,349 points on 234 FGs, 641 PATs and one TD. He scored at least one point in 107 consecutive games and his last-second field goal sealed the 1950 NFL Championship for the Browns. Originally an offensive left tackle, Groza suffered a back injury which converted him into a kicking specialist from 1961-67. He was an All-NFL tackle on six occasions and was the NFL Player of the Year in 1954. Groza was inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1974.

SETTLE MAKES HISTORY

During his second NFL season with the Atlanta Falcons in 1988, Browns running backs coach John Settle became the first undrafted player since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to rush for 1,000 yards in a single-season.

That year, Settle ran for a career-high 1,024 yards en route to making history and earning a Pro Bowl selection.

METCALF MAKES HISTORY

Eric Metcalf tied an NFL record when he returned two punts for touchdowns, lifting Cleveland to a 28-23 victory against the Pittsburgh Steelers at Municipal Stadium on October 24, 1993. Metcalf returned his first punt 91 yards for a second quarter score to put the Browns ahead 14-0. Pittsburgh was able to come back and held a 23-21 fourth quarter lead, until Metcalf took his second punt back 75 yards for a touchdown with 2:05 remaining. Prior to Metcalf, the feat had been achieved just four times previously. Currently, only 12 players (14 times) in NFL history have returned two punts for touchdowns in a single-game. Metcalf and Baltimore's Jermaine Lewis are the two who have accomplished the feat twice during their careers.

PAUL BROWN'S INNOVATIONS

Hall of Fame Coach Paul Brown not only led the Browns to a 167-53-8 record, four AAFC titles and three NFL Championships, but he was also an innovator who helped shape the NFL into the game it is today.

A Few Of Paul Brown's Innovations:

- * First to use intelligence test as a hint to a player's learning potential.
- * Set up complete film clip statistical studies and graded his own players based on film study.
- * First use of a radio transmitter to communicate with players on the field.
- * First to install face masks on helmets (at the professional level).

CHAMPIONSHIP PEDIGREE

The Browns began to make history early in their existence, as they appeared in a league championship game in each of their first 10 years. This included their first four seasons in the All-America Football Conference (1946-49) and their first six in the NFL (1950-55). This streak of 10 straight appearances is tied for the most among the major professional sports leagues (NFL, NBA, MLB, NHL).

Cleveland Browns	AAFC/NFL	10	1946-55
Boston Celtics	NBA	10	1956-65

NFL PLAYER LIMITS

The Active/Inactive List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract who are eligible for preseason, regular-season, and postseason games. Teams are permitted to open training camp with no more than 90 players under contract and thereafter must meet two mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted an Active List of 46 players and an Inactive List of seven players for each regular-season and postseason game. Teams also are permitted to establish Practice Squads of up to eight players who are eligible to participate in practice, but these players remain free agents and are eligible to sign with any other team in the league.

August 27.....Roster reduction to 75 players
 August 31.....Roster reduction to 53 players
 September 1.....Teams establish a Practice Squad of up to eight players

In addition to the squad limits described above, the overall roster limit of 90 players remains in effect throughout the regular season and postseason. The overall limit is applicable to players on a team's Active, Inactive, and certain Exempt Lists, players on the Practice Squad, and players on the Reserve List as Injured, Physically Unable to Perform, Non-Football Illness/Injury, and Suspended by Club.

NFL WAIVERS

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the League. During the procedure, the 31 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so — thus the term "waiver." Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. The claiming period is 24 hours from the first business day after the Super Bowl through the conclusion of the regular season. If a player passes through waivers unclaimed, he becomes a free agent. All waivers are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from the beginning of the waiver system each year through the trading deadline, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit is not subject to the waiver system if the club desires to release him. After the trading deadline, such players are subject to the waiver system.

1950 CLEVELAND BROWNS NFL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

After joining the NFL following winning four consecutive AAFC titles, Cleveland captured the NFL Championship in its first season. The Browns are one of only three teams in NFL history to claim an NFL Championship their first year in the league, joining the Akron Pros (1920) and the Houston Oilers [AFL] (1960). Running back Marion Motley led the NFL with 810 rushing yards and kicker/offensive lineman Lou Groza led the NFL with 13 field goals made as the Browns went 10-2 during the regular season. The Browns topped the Los Angeles Rams, 30-28 at Municipal Stadium, for their first of four NFL Championships.

FirstEnergy Stadium is home not only to a storied football franchise but also to a dedicated, ardent, passionate group of people – the only group that can lay claim to the title of “World’s Greatest Fans.” At FirstEnergy Stadium, fans take pride in supporting their team in a safe, enthusiastic and family-oriented atmosphere. This special combination of sportsmanship and exhilaration makes Sunday afternoons with the Browns a memorable and momentous experience.

FirstEnergy Stadium was built on the hallowed ground of the old Municipal Stadium. There’s no better place than on the lakefront for the home of the Cleveland Browns than where legendary Coach Paul Brown established Cleveland’s first football dynasty in the 1940s. No other site could have been as appropriate as the location where 16 Cleveland Browns – Jim Brown, Paul Brown, Joe DeLamielleure, Len Ford, Frank Gatski, Otto Graham, Lou Groza, Gene Hickerson, Leroy Kelly, Dante Lavelli, Mike McCormack, Bobby Mitchell, Marion Motley, Ozzie Newsome, Paul Warfield and Bill Willis – established their credentials for induction into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton. In 2010, these Hall of Fame members were further honored by the unveiling of their names in the Ring of Honor, which recognizes their contributions to the Cleveland Browns organization. The names of these 16 greats are now permanently displayed on the facade of the stadium’s upper deck.

While the location of the stadium honors the glorious history of athletic achievements in Cleveland, FirstEnergy Stadium is a celebration of the city’s renaissance, drawing people to the lakefront every day. The crown jewel of the Northcoast Harbor, FirstEnergy Stadium is located next to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum and the Great Lakes Science Center. When visiting the stadium, it is impossible to miss the distinctive architectural design of the columns, beams and notches in the seating bowl. These spacious gaps allow visitors to get an inside perspective of the stadium and field when the Browns are away and allow ticket holders to see the downtown skyline during the game. While on the south side of the stadium, Browns fans can catch a game and a bite to eat at The Gridiron Grille, and grab a personalized Browns jersey at the Team Shop.

NOT JUST FOR BROWNS GAMES

In addition to Browns games, FirstEnergy Stadium plays host to numerous other events. On May 29 of this year, the U.S. Men’s National Team hosted Belgium for the first international soccer match at the stadium since 2006.

On six occasions since 2005, the High School Charity Games have been staged at FirstEnergy Stadium, showcasing some of the top area high school football talent. College football has been a regular on FirstEnergy Stadium’s docket. On September 21 of this year, Tuskegee University and Winston Salem State University will square off in the Third Annual Cleveland Classic HBCU football game. Since 2006, a college game will have been played at the stadium each year except 2010.

The stadium is not limited to athletic events only. “The Brothers of the Sun Tour,” featuring Kenny Chesney and Tim McGraw, performed at FirstEnergy Stadium last year. The stadium has also played host to Kenny Chesney concerts in 2007 and 2008, as well as The Three Tenors (2000), George Strait (2000) and “N Sync (2001). In addition, the stadium is available for private events such as wedding receptions, proms, holiday parties and business luncheons.

CLEVELAND BROWNS TRAINING AND ADMINISTRATIVE COMPLEX

The Cleveland Browns Training Facility is located in Berea, Ohio, where it sits on 13 acres of land. The building originally opened in August of 1991 and has undergone many renovations since then. The 90,000 square foot building has two floors, both of which have been renovated over the past few years. In 2009, the first floor was completely remodeled and improvements were made to all player meeting rooms, the player locker room and the cafeteria. In addition, the team auditorium was expanded to 2,300 square foot and features 120 theater seats.

During the 2013 offseason, the facility's second floor underwent a 36,000 square foot renovation. The new space boosts an open floor plan and was designed to create a vibrant, energetic and collaborative space for the club's football and business operations. The new space houses a state of the art media studio where radio and television production will take place in house.

Connected to the facility is the team's 60,000 square foot indoor field house. The facility also hosts four regulation-size natural grass practice fields ideal for year-round football operations, including the club's training camp.

THE DINO LUCARELLI MEDIA CENTER

The Dino Lucarelli Media Center, which opened in December of 2002 at the Browns Training and Administrative Complex in Berea, features an expansive media work room, one radio/television interview room and a kitchen for media members.

Lucarelli, 78, worked with Cleveland media for more than 50 years and has been affiliated with the Cleveland Browns organization since 1975 with responsibilities in player relations, media services and alumni relations. Lucarelli called the naming of the media center "one of the biggest thrills of my life."

The Cleveland Chapter of the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA) has named its "Good Guy Award" for Lucarelli. The Good Guy Award is given annually for cooperation with the media and for the way a player carries himself in the community and with his teammates. The National Football Foundation (Northeast Ohio Chapter) Lifetime Achievement Award is also named for Lucarelli.

CLEVELAND BROWNS TRAINING CAMP HISTORY

The training and administrative complex is host to the Browns 2012 training camp, which marks the 18th time (1992-95, 1999-2012) the Browns have conducted training camp at the facility.

PNC BANK CLEVELAND BROWNS RADIO NETWORK

In one of the most expansive radio rights deals in the NFL, the Browns in 2013 entered a long-term partnership with two local all-sports stations, CBS Radio's 92.3 The Fan (WKRK-FM) and ESPN 850 WKNR, to broadcast all Browns games. CBS Radio's WNCX (98.5 FM) will also carry live game action beginning in 2013, as the team will have a triplecast of games in the local market. The stations will serve as the flagship stations on the PNC Bank Cleveland Browns Radio Network. In addition to game broadcasts, more than 1,000 hours of Browns-related shows will air on the PNC Bank Cleveland Browns Radio Network on an annual basis.

The talent lineup for the broadcast team features WKYC Channel 3 Sports Anchor Jim Donovan as the play-by-play announcer, former Browns offensive tackle Doug Dieken as analyst and Jamir Howerton of www.ClevelandBrowns.com as sideline reporter. Fourteen of the Browns' 16 opponents for 2014 have already been determined. On the road, the Browns will face Atlanta, Carolina, Jacksonville and Tennessee. Also at home, the club will host the AFC West team that finishes in the same position this year as the Browns. They will also play a road contest against the AFC East team that finished in the same place as the Browns.
