STEELERS Training Camp History

THE STEELERS have held their annual training camp at several locations throughout club history before settling on their current camp home at Saint Vincent College. The 2013 season marks the 48th consecutive year that the Steelers have held their preseason training camp in Latrobe, Pa. The Steelers' 48-year tenure at Saint Vincent College ranks second (tied with Minnesota) in the NFL for training camp longevity, trailing only the Green Bay Packers, who have held their preseason camp at St. Norbert College in DePere, Wisc., for 56 years. The final two weeks of the Steelers' 1966 training camp were held at St. Vincent College after beginning camp at the University of Rhode Island.

The Steelers first full camp at St. Vincent College took place in 1967.

The following is a complete list of places where the Pittsburgh Steelers have held their training camps, along with the years they were there:

LOCATION	YEARS
Moore Field, Pittsburgh, Pa.	1933-37
St. Francis College	1938-40
Hershey, Pa.	1941-42, 1945-46
Philadelphia, Pa.	1943
Waukesha, Wisconsin	1944
Alliance College (Cambridge Springs, Pa.)	1947-51
St. Bonaventure College	1952-57
California State Teachers College	1958-60
Slippery Rock College	1961
West Liberty College (Wheeling, W. Va.)	1962-63
University of Rhode Island	1964-66
Saint Vincent College	1966-Present

HEINZ KETCHUP

Bottles Facts: The bottles are exact replicas—down to the embossed “57” on the bottle’s neck—of the Heinz Ketchup 14 ounce glass bottle. Each bottle includes 8,000 pounds of fiberglass, 375 feet of neon tubing and 20,500 light-emitting diodes (LEDs). Each Heinz Ketchup Bottle measures 35 feet X 9 feet and each weighs 8,000 pounds, both totaling 16,000 pounds, the equivalent of 53—300 pound NFL linemen. If the Heinz Ketchup bottles were filled with Heinz Ketchup, they would contain 1,664,000 fluid ounces each. That is enough to give each person seated at Heinz Field at least one 14-ounce bottle of ketchup to take home. If both bottles were emptied, the entire football field would be covered in 3/4 of an inch of ketchup. Approximately 4,500 footballs could fit into each scoreboard ketchup bottle.

Media-Only Site

The Steelers' Media Relations department offers a "Media-Only" section on the team's website, www.steelers.com. This service enables registered media to view the media guide, necessary game releases, stats, rosters, injury reports, quotes and much more, including media policies and information about Heinz Field. To register for this service:

Go to www.steelers.com and click on News on the top navigation bar. Media-Only Access will be the last option on the drop down bar. Click on it and register. Once your registration is approved you will receive an automated email.

You can also go directly to <http://members.steelers.com/> to register. If you have any problems, please email Teresa Varley at varleyt@steelers.nfl.com.

The Steelers reserve the right to deny access at the team's discretion to the Media-Only portion of the club's website.

Press Information

All Steelers press releases and weekly media packets are distributed via email and are posted on the team's Media-Only site, www.steelers.com/mediarelations/. Most general press releases are also posted on www.steelers.com. Please see the above guidelines to register for the Steelers' Media-Only site.

Please contact Steelers Media Relations to be added to the team's email distribution list for all press releases and media advisories.

Media can access the latest league press information by visiting the NFL's media site at www.nflmedia.com. The NFL's official website address is www.nfl.com.

Credentials

Home Games: Credential requests for Steelers home games must be submitted to credentials@steelers.nfl.com.

Due to recommended security procedures, user names must be provided for every credential that is requested. Please specify which credential users need field access throughout the entire game and those who need pre-game field access only.

All parties should be aware that the names submitted for the credentials must be the names that show up to the stadium with valid government-issued photo identification. Once the credentialed members of the media arrive at Heinz Field, their credential number will be on a security list and matched with a name.

Credentials cannot be transferred or altered on game days or days leading up to the game to reflect a credential user other than the person the credential was issued to by the Steelers organization.

Media who are assigned to cover every Steelers' home game may apply for season credentials. Season-long credentials will be distributed prior to the team's first preseason game.

Media who receive credentials on a game-by-game basis must pick up their credentials at Media Will Call located at Heinz Field next to the Steelers administrative offices entrance on Allegheny Avenue, across from the Carnegie Science Center. Government-issued photo identification is required to pick up credentials at Will Call.

Due to recommended security procedures, the Steelers do not mail out credentials.

Road Games: Pittsburgh media traveling to Steelers' road games must submit their requests to credentials@steelers.nfl.com no later than seven days prior to the road game.

Game Day

Parking

Parking at and around Heinz Field is limited and not all credentialed media will receive a parking pass. Following are additional game day parking recommendations for media who do not receive parking passes:

Utilize parking areas Downtown, in Station Square, Rivers Casino garage or one of the Port Authority's Park and Ride Lots.

Downtown parking is available at eight (8) Pittsburgh Authority Garages, the Mon Wharf and the Convention Center. Recommended private garages include the Brunner Advertising Building, the PPG Building, Fifth Avenue Place and US Steel Building.

From Downtown parking lots, media can access Heinz Field via sidewalks on the Roberto Clemente Bridge and the Ft. Duquesne Bridge.

Reserved, pre-sold parking lots around the stadium open five hours before kickoff.

Satellite Truck parking requests must be submitted by completing the satellite parking request form which can be obtained by emailing Brittany Bellovich (bellovichb@steelers.nfl.com). Questions regarding satellite parking should be directed to Brittany Bellovich.

Television trucks will park in the satellite truck lot located on Allegheny Avenue, across from the Carnegie Science Center, adjacent to the stadium.

Due to limited space, all requests will not be granted. Requests should be submitted no later than the Monday leading up to a Sunday game.

Will Call

Media Will Call is located at Heinz Field next to the Steelers' administrative offices entrance on Allegheny Avenue, across from the Carnegie Science Center.

All media picking up credentials on game day must do so at Media Will Call.

Media Will Call opens four hours prior to kickoff.

A valid form of government-issued photo identification is required to pick up credentials.

Media Will Call is not the same as the general ticket Will Call window, which is located between the Great Hall and Gate B on the northeast side of Heinz Field.

Phone Lines

Media interested in setting up a game day phone line at Heinz Field should log onto www.steelers.com/media-phones. Please contact Greg Hoyer with any questions at (412) 697-7147.

Frequency Coordinator

Please contact the NFL Game Day Coordinator, Otto Schellin, via email at GDCSteelers@NFL.com before game day. Please be contacted that the holder of NFL game credentials employing a wireless radio frequency device such as a wireless microphone, communications radio, etc. (cell phones excluded) must register their frequency information. Please distribute the attached info to your media.

Internet

The press box and photo rooms at Heinz Field are equipped with wireless internet access. You will be supplied with this information in those areas.

Directions to Heinz Field Locker Rooms (from Press Box)

Steelers: Exit press box to the left to elevator bank. Take elevator to ground level. Proceed straight through Steelers Administrative Offices lobby to rear doors. Walk through doors approximately 30 feet and Steelers locker room is on your right. For the Steelers interview room, make a sharp right prior to the rear doors of the Steelers lobby.

Visitors: Exit press box to the left to elevator bank. Take elevator to ground level. Proceed straight through Steelers Administrative Offices lobby to rear doors. Proceed through the rear lobby doors and make a left. Follow corridor about 50 yards. The visiting locker room is on your right. The visiting interview room is inside the locker room entrance.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS Media Guidelines

Training Camp

Credentials

Media seeking credentials to the Steelers training camp at Saint Vincent College (Latrobe, Pa.) must first contact the team's media relations department for approval by emailing credentials@steelers.nfl.com. Guidelines will be provided at that time. The Steelers reserve the right to deny media credentials to the team's training camp. Requests will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

Check-in

All media covering Steelers training camp must immediately check in at the team's media relations office located at St. Benedict Hall. All media must present a valid photo ID for a media credential.

Credentialed media will receive access to designated areas of the Steelers training camp facility, including the media workroom in Benedict Hall, practice fields and the cafeteria. Interviews are prohibited in the team's cafeteria. Media members are prohibited from entering the players'/coaches' dormitory or locker room at any time.

Parking

Upon check-in media will be provided with a parking pass and will be directed to park in the upper parking lot behind the team's dormitories. Parking passes are required for all media attending Steelers training camp.

Interviews

All interview requests must be approved by the Steelers' media relations department.

Players are generally available on the field after each practice. Locker room access is prohibited during training camp. Interviews of any kind are prohibited in the team's cafeteria.

Coach Tomlin is generally available on the field on a daily basis after the team's final practice of the day. On the days when Coach Tomlin holds his weekly press conference, he will not be available to media after practice.

The team's Offensive, Defensive, and Special Teams Coordinators and assistant coaches are generally available after each practice with the approval of the Steelers' media relations department.

All interview requests for Steelers' owners, director of football operations or other football/non-football staff must first be approved by Steelers media relations. Live shots are allowed in designated areas at Steelers' training camp. Steelers' media relations must be notified in advance of any TV live shots.

TV/radio sit-down interviews must be approved in advance by Steelers' media relations.

Media members are permitted to utilize all social networking tools (Twitter, Facebook, blogging, text alerts, etc.) only during practices that are open to the public.

Practice Field Access

Credentialed print and electronic media are allowed to watch Steelers practices in their entirety. All media must be at field level. Media are prohibited from watching practice from the hillside without prior approval from the team's media relations department. Videotaping any portion of practice from the hillside or other remote locations is strictly prohibited. All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

All photographers (still and video) are allowed to tape warm-ups and individual position drills. Photographers are prohibited from taping any one-on-one or team drills, including 7-of-7 drills or anytime players are in a team formation. All photographers are prohibited from any use of their cameras anywhere on Saint Vincent's campus other than the designated spots on the practice fields and outside of the cafeteria.

Media are allowed to tape stand-ups during the designated periods when video cameras may shoot practice, any other exceptions must be cleared through Steelers media relations.

Media are prohibited from interacting with players and coaches during practice.

In the event of inclement weather, the team may be forced to practice indoors. Media may be allowed to attend indoor practices (at the team's discretion), but access will be limited.

Media are asked to silence cell phones and pagers before entering the practice area.

The Steelers reserve the right to change their access policy without prior notice.

In Season/Off-Season

Steelers Practice Facility

All Steelers daily football operations take place at the team's headquarters at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex and not at Heinz Field. Coaches and players are at Heinz Field only on game days.

All media visiting Steelers headquarters must sign in at the front desk upon arrival and receive a day badge. Badges must be worn at all times.

All media must remain in the team's media workroom while at the team's headquarters. The team's first and second floor lobby areas are not to be used for workspace or to conduct interviews.

Media are to access the practice fields from the first floor only.

Media setting up for sit-down interviews must be chaperoned to designated areas by Steelers media relations.

Coaching offices and team meeting rooms are off limits to media. Interviews and any videotaping in the Steelers parking lot are prohibited. The team requires all interviews at the team's headquarters only be conducted in the team's locker room and other areas specifically designated by the team's media relations department.

While we understand the importance of breaking news, our expectation is that all media that cover the team will respect club policies that close walk-thru's and offseason workouts to the media, and that media will not resort to alternate means of recording those sessions even from a remote location. Media that continue to violate this request may have their access to the team's practice facility or on game days subject to review.

Steelers South Side Camera Credential Policy

The Pittsburgh Steelers require all visiting media who intend to use any type of electronic recording device to comply with the following policies when covering the team at club practices or events. The policies govern the online use of audio and video interviews and press conference content on non-game days and weekdays. These rules are designed to enable news organization websites to "illustrate" their coverage of the NFL with daily audio/video sound bites that supplement and complement the work of their reporters and columnists:

- All media members are required to wear credentials when on-site covering the Steelers at team headquarters.
- Camera operators may shoot video and still photos only in designated areas at the Steelers headquarters. These areas include and are limited to the practice field, locker room, media workroom and areas designated by the club's media relations department only. Still photographers do not have access to the locker room.
- Up to 90 seconds per day of audio and/or video of interviews or press conferences with NFL employees (including, but not limited to, players and coaches) or of team practice footage may be used on the Internet by credentialed news organizations. The content may not be used live and may be archived for no more than 24 hours. This applies to both game days and non-game days.

Video/audio material comprised entirely of a credentialed media organization employee providing commentary or analysis, including stand-up video/audio material shot on the field or at other stadium or club facility locations (subject to generally applicable safety and venue management restrictions or shooting locations and times), may be distributed via media organizations' Internet sites.

The usage conditions are as follows:

- The page featuring the audio/video must provide links to NFL.com and the corresponding club site. For example: For more info, go to www.nfl.com and www.steelers.com.
- The content may be used only in an editorial context (such as in links that illustrate stories or in multimedia news sections) and may not be presented in stand alone multimedia entertainment sections of third party websites.

Practice Field Access

Only local Pittsburgh media are allowed to watch Steelers practices. All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

Out of town media are prohibited from watching any portion of the team's practices.

All photographers are allowed to tape warm-ups and individual position drills. Photographers are prohibited from taping any one-on-one or team drills, including 7-on-7 drills or anytime the players are in a team formation.

Media are allowed to tape stand-ups during the designated periods when video cameras may shoot practice.

Media may not shoot video of the team leaving the field at the end of practice.

Any other exceptions must be cleared through Steelers media relations.

Media are prohibited from interacting with players and coaches during practice.

Media are asked to silence cell phones and pagers before entering the practice area.

The Steelers reserve the right to change their access policy without prior notice.

Media are to access the practice fields from the first floor only.

Interviews

All interview requests must be approved by the Steelers' media relations department. The Steelers ask that media respect the privacy of players/coaches/staff and refrain from approaching any members of the organization or their families at their places of residence. Media that continue to violate this request may have their access to the team's practice facility or on game days subjected to review.

Players are generally available in the locker room only at lunchtime and after practice on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Players are available in the locker room after practice only on Fridays. Player interviews are not to be conducted on the practice field or in other areas outside of the locker room, including the parking lot area, without prior approval from the Steelers' media relations department. Still photographers are not allowed in the Steelers' locker room.

Coach Tomlin will hold a weekly press conference every Tuesday at noon in the Steelers' media workroom. He will also be available after practice on Wednesdays and Thursdays (upon request) in the media workroom.

The team's Offensive, Defensive, and Special Teams Coordinators will generally be available on Thursdays. Assistant coaches are available only with the approval of the Steelers' media relations department. The best time to interview assistant coaches is as they leave the field after practice.

Only Coach Tomlin will be available to media on game days. Assistant Coaches are not available for interviews on game days.

All interview requests for Steelers' owners, director of football operations or other football/non-football staff must first be approved by Steelers' media relations.

Live shots are allowed in designated areas at Steelers' headquarters. Steelers' media relations must be notified in advance of any TV live shots.

Satellite trucks are required to park on the side of the Steelers' practice facility (near the train tracks). Media must seek prior approval for any exceptions.

TV/radio sit-down interviews must be approved in advance by Steelers' media relations.

Interviews of any kind are prohibited in the team's cafeteria.

Parking

All media are required to park on the opposite side of the Steelers' indoor practice facility from the team's offices.

Media with physical disabilities should make prior arrangements with Steelers media relations for access to handicapped parking.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Pittsburgh Steelers are proud to be a part of the Western Pennsylvania community.

The organization's strong commitment to this area dates back to 1933 when Arthur J. Rooney, Sr. founded the team. Steelers Chairman Dan Rooney and President Art Rooney II are known as two of the most active NFL owners and are some of Pittsburgh's most involved executives in civic affairs. Steelers players, coaches and front office staff are involved in appearances, charitable donations and outreach programs with nonprofit and community groups. It's our way of giving back to the community that has given us so much for 81 years!

STEELERS Community Outreach Programs

Academics in Motion

The Steelers and PPG Foundation partner to support Academics in Motion (AIM), which uses sports as a vehicle to improve the academic, career and personal development of students from economically disadvantaged communities. The program places a youth development coach in local high schools to work with student-athletes to improve GPA and college readiness, increase graduation rates, SAT and ACT participation, parental involvement and the number of students going to college.

All-Pro Dad

Head Coach Mike Tomlin is a member of the All-Pro Dad Team, a program of Family First. The All-Pro Dad Team is a resource for men who want to become better fathers. Team members include active NFL players, coaches and alumni who speak to fathers about positive parenting through radio and TV spots, billboards and events.

American Heart Association®
Learn and Live

American Heart Association

The Steelers, the NFL and the American Heart Association (AHA) partner on the Play 60 Challenge, a health and fitness program that incorporates physical activity for middle school students into daily classroom and after-school activities. The Steelers also support the AHA's annual Healthy Family Training Camp and Heart Walk.

Art Rooney Scholarship Fund

The Art Rooney Scholarship Fund, in partnership with the Pittsburgh Promise, annually provides college scholarships for three graduating seniors at high schools located on Pittsburgh's North Side, where Art Rooney Sr. himself spent most of his life. The annual Gatorade/Steelers 5K Race, Fitness Walk and Kids' Kickoff Run is the major fundraiser for the scholarship fund. The event features a 3.1-mile level course on the North Side highlighted by a spectacular finish in Heinz Field.

Back to Football Friday/ Play 60 Super School

Each year, as part of the NFL's Back to Football Friday contest, a Steelers player visits a local school to celebrate it being named a Play 60 Super School. In 2012, Ryan Clark visited Pittsburgh Whittier K-5 and spoke about the importance of being physically active for 60 minutes each day. He led the students in activities including jump rope, weight lifting and hula hoops and presented Whittier's principal with a $10,000 NFL PLAY 60 grant for health and wellness programming.

Boys & Girls Club

The Steelers annually sponsor the Boys and Girls Club of Western Pennsylvania Dapper Dan Flag Football League and host the league championships at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex indoor practice facility. Steelers players have visited the different club sites.

Breast Cancer Awareness

▲ Local soldiers lead the crowd in the Terrible Towel twirl prior to last season's Breast Cancer Awareness game.

The Steelers participate in numerous breast cancer awareness initiatives each year including NFL Breast Cancer Awareness month, the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, player hospital visits and special pink-logoed merchandise sales.

At the breast cancer awareness game in October, the team recognizes local breast cancer survivors in a pregame ceremony. Pink Terrible Towels are distributed to all fans at the game in partnership with UPMC and Ford. In addition, proceeds from the sale of pink Steelers merchandise are donated to breast cancer charities. Many Steelers players wear pink uniform items to bring more awareness to this important cause.

As part of the Steelers' breast cancer awareness activities, players who have a loved one affected by the disease serve as chefs at the "Cooking and Eating for a Healthy Life" class at Magee Women's Hospital of UPMC. In attendance are breast cancer survivors who enjoy the players' efforts in the kitchen.

Tight end Heath Miller and his wife Katie chair the annual Bid for Hope to benefit A Glimmer of Hope Foundation, which raises funds for breast cancer research.

Members of the Zeta Tau Alpha sorority distribute breast cancer information at GameDay Live before the breast cancer awareness game.

STEELERS Community Outreach Programs

Cancer Caring Center

A portion of the proceeds from the annual Steelers Style Fashion Show goes to the Cancer Caring Center. A current player chairs the annual Cancer Caring walk and has lunch with the top 10 fundraisers. The Cancer Caring Center is dedicated to helping people diagnosed with cancer, their families and friends cope with the emotional impact of cancer.

CASA

▲ Cameron Heyward and Cortez Allen passing out backpacks.

Steelers players annually participate in the CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) backpack giveaway. CASA works with children in the child welfare system that are neglected or abused. The advocates serve as a voice for the children in court and other situations to help ensure that every child has a safe, supportive and permanent home.

Catholic Youth Association

The Steelers organization annually supports the Art Rooney Award dinner, named for the team's founder, Art Rooney, Sr. For more than 80 years, Catholic Youth has served the most vulnerable members of our community, children and the elderly. At this past year's dinner General Manager Kevin Colbert received the Bob Prince Award, which is annually given to a sports personality who carries on the enthusiasm inspired by the former "Voice of the Pirates."

Central Blood Bank Blood Drive

The Steelers hold an annual blood drive in the team's locker room at Heinz Field in the Fall and in the East Club around the holidays. Please visit www.steelers.com for information about the next blood drive.

Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh of UPMC

Steelers players and team mascot Steely McBeam make frequent visits to Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh to bring a smile to kids who are battling health issues. Players participate in various events for patients and their families, including the WDVE Radiothon at the hospital. The team also annually holds a monetary collection at a selected home game.

Defensive end Brett Keisel has become known for his world-famous beard. When he is ready to shave the beard, he holds a fundraiser to benefit Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh of UPMC's Pediatric Cancer Center. "Shear the Beard" celebrity "barbers" have included Steelers Chairman Dan Rooney, President Art Rooney II, Head Coach Mike Tomlin and several of Brett's teammates. The event annually raises more than $40,000 for the Research Center.

Cystic Fibrosis

Defensive end Brett Keisel serves as honorary chair of the 65 Roses Sports Auction which features several of his teammates and benefits the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. The foundation raises funds for research to discover a cure for the disease.

Extra Mile Education Foundation

The Extra Mile Education Foundation provides support for parochial elementary schools educating children of inner-city families. Extra Mile Education Foundation subsidies make tuition in the schools affordable for disadvantaged families seeking a quality, values-based education. Head Coach Mike Tomlin serves as honorary chair of the annual Extra Mile golf outing.

Gala Pittsburgh Sports Night

Each fall, the Steelers host a "Gala Pittsburgh Sports Night" at Heinz Field to raise much-needed funds for North Side children and their families who attend local Catholic schools. The evening features current and former athletes from the Steelers, Pirates and Penguins, as well as local universities.

Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank

▶ LaMarr Woodley passing out turkeys.

The Steelers hold an annual food drive at a selected home game to encourage fans to help those less fortunate. Individual players annually host turkey giveaways for 300 needy families in the Pittsburgh area.

Heroes at Heinz Field

The Steelers partner with VA Health Care VISN 4 for a special evening at Heinz Field for Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom veterans. Participants, many injured in the war, try out their football skills with the help of Steelers players. The players enjoy the opportunity to thank the "true heroes" for their service to ensure our continued freedom.

▶ Veterans pose with players at Heinz Field.

Highmark Caring Place

The Steelers support the Highmark Caring Place, a center for grieving children. The annual Hoge/Starks/Ward golf outing is held at Southpointe Golf Club and is chaired by former Steelers Merrill Hoge, Hines Ward and Max Starks. The players also attend a luncheon honoring students who have raised money for the charity.

Holy Family Institute- Pittsburgh Steelers Courage House

Greta Rooney, wife of Art Rooney II, chairs the annual Courage House Awards luncheon. Each year a Steelers player is chosen as the Ed Block Courage Award winner for overcoming illness or injury. Former offensive lineman Willie Colon was chosen by his teammates, and received the 2012 award from Head Coach Mike Tomlin.

Homeless Children's Education Fund

Defensive end Brett Keisel and his wife Sarah chair the annual fundraiser for the Homeless Children's Education Fund, which serves as a voice for homeless children in Allegheny County to ensure they are afforded equal access to educational opportunities.

KidsVoice

A current player hosts a holiday party in December for clients of KidsVoice, which diligently guides children through the court process and ensures that every agency involved meets the full range of a child's needs.

Leukemia/Lymphoma Society Light the Night Walk

For the fourth year in a row in 2012, many Steelers players and family members attended the annual Leukemia & Lymphoma Society Light the Night Walk at Heinz Field in support of Elijah Smith, son of former Steelers defensive end Aaron Smith and his wife Jaimie, in his battle against leukemia. The players joined "Team Elijah" and sported tee-shirts designed by Elijah.

Make-A-Wish

The Steelers organization works closely with Make-A-Wish to grant wishes. The wish experiences include meeting QB Ben Roethlisberger and other favorite players, a behind-the-scenes look at the Steelers practice facility and tickets to a home game. Roethlisberger makes an annual donation to Make-A-Wish from his personal foundation.

Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA)

Each year, several current and former Steelers participate in MDA's Pittsburgh Muscle Team which benefits families living with neuromuscular diseases in Western Pennsylvania. At the event the players partner with child ambassadors, who are battling the disease, in a variety of fun activities.

NFL Play 60

The NFL's program for an active generation encourages kids to be physically active for 60 minutes each day in an effort to combat childhood obesity. Many Steelers events incorporate the Play 60 message with players and coaches demonstrating the importance of fitness and activity. The efforts include building Steelers Youth Fitness Zones at area non-profits and awarding grants to local schools that participate in the Play 60 Challenge.

Operation Once in a Lifetime

Since 2010, the Steelers and safety Troy Polamalu hosted a group of Special Forces service members at a home game each season. The visit was arranged with Operation Once in a Lifetime, which works to make the dreams of soldiers and their families come true by providing financial and moral support.

Prostate Cancer Awareness

Each September during prostate cancer awareness month, former Steelers linebacker and prostate cancer survivor Robin Cole hosts a booth outside Heinz Field before a home game to help promote awareness of the disease. Several of Robin's brothers are also survivors, and they lost their father to prostate cancer. In tribute to his dad and to promote screening and early detection, Robin founded the Obediah Cole Prostate Cancer Foundation.

Rebuilding Together Pittsburgh

The Steelers, along with 84 Lumber, serve as sponsors of Rebuilding Together Pittsburgh. This annual program renovates the homes of low-income elderly in the Pittsburgh area with a goal of safety for the homeowner. Steelers staff and players participate in the program each year, along with 84 Lumber employees.

STEELERS Community Outreach Programs

▲ Steelers Rookie Club.

Rookie Club

The Rookie Club enables the new players to work as a group in order to gain confidence in their ability to interact with the community as Pittsburgh Steelers. It is an introduction to community service during the players' first year with the team and provides a sense of camaraderie.

Salvation Army - Project Bundle-Up

Players and their families annually take disadvantaged children shopping for winter outerwear as part of the Salvation Army's Project Bundle-Up program. Patricia Rooney, wife of Steelers Chairman Dan Rooney, and Joe DiNardo, retired WTAE-TV weatherman, are founders of the program. Tight end Heath Miller hosts the annual miniature golf classic in the Spring. In addition, the Steelers host a monetary collection at a home game each fall.

▲ Players taking part in the annual Project Bundle-Up.

Shop with a Steeler

The Steelers partner with American Eagle Outfitters (AEO) for the annual Shop with a Steeler event. Children from Big Brothers/Big Sisters receive an AEO gift card and have the chance to shop with Steelers players for holiday gifts for themselves and their families.

▲ Pouncey and Keisel on stage at the annual Steelers Fashion Show.

Steelers Style Fashion Show/ Alumni Weekend Dinner

The team annually holds two fundraisers as part of Steelers Style: Fashion, Food and Football. The annual fashion show features current players and their families modeling clothing from local retailers. The show is chaired by Greta & Art Rooney and Kiya & Mike Tomlin, with two current Steelers players serving as co-captains. Proceeds benefit the UPMC Sports Medicine Concussion Program and the Cancer Caring Center. The Steelers Alumni Weekend Dinner features a sampling of culinary delights, along with an exciting auction of unique, one-of-a-kind items.

Steely McBeam

Mascot Steely McBeam makes appearances at training camp, home games, Children's Hospital and numerous charitable events. For more information, visit www.steelers.com and click on Community.

Toys for Tots-Marine Corps

Steelers fans generously brighten the lives of needy children during the holidays by donating to the Marine Corps Toys for Tots drive held at a select home game each fall.

STEELERS Community Outreach Programs

▲ The Steelers annually pay tribute to local veterans as part of Salute to Service around Veterans Day.

United Way

The annual Hometown Huddle is a program through-out the NFL partnering players with local United Way agencies to encourage volunteerism and giving back to the community. The Steelers annually host the United Way's campaign kickoff at halftime of a preseason game, featuring three corporate participants in a field goal competition. The winner presents the United Way with its first campaign donation of the year. Steelers players and staff also participate in the annual Day of Caring.

Urban Impact Foundation

The Urban Impact Foundation (UIF) is a faith-based, nonprofit corporation which fosters Christian community development on Pittsburgh's North Side. One of the outreaches is through athletic programs and events. Several Steelers players participate in a football clinic held by UIF on Pittsburgh's North Side each summer.

▲ Kelvin Beachum at a Hometown Huddle event.

Veterans/Military

Steelers players visit the local VA Hospitals to spend time with the patients who have served our country. At several home games each year, veterans and active military personnel are honored for their service to the United States. For Veterans Day, the Steelers honor a veteran from each of the wars going back to World War II and Pearl Harbor. Color guards, representing all branches of the military, are present at each home game.

In 2012 several Steelers players visited the 171st Air Refueling Wing in Pittsburgh to thank our soldiers for their service.

Westmoreland County Food Bank

Steelers fans attending the night practice at Latrobe Memorial Stadium each August help the less fortunate in Westmoreland County by donating food and money to the local food bank. Giant Eagle matches the food donation pound-for-pound which means twice as many residents are fed. The Westmoreland County Food Bank serves nearly 15,000 area residents each month, including 4,000 children and more than 2,000 seniors.

Women's Center and Shelter of Greater Pittsburgh

Players provide holiday dinners at the Women's Center & Shelter which works to put a face on domestic violence. In doing so the shelter aims to help survivors heal, encourage batterers to seek help and build empathy and understanding of this issue.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

USA Football Heads Up Program

The Steelers and USA Football are working hard to improve the safety of football at all levels, especially with youth and high school players. USA Football's "Heads Up Football" program is a comprehensive solution to player safety which promotes concussion awareness and management, coaching education, proper equipment fitting and heads up tackling as well as a set of recommended standards for parents, coaches and leagues. USA Football will train player safety coaches for local leagues, who will then train the coaches, players and parents for only $5 per coach within the organization. Learn more at www.usafootball.com.

Don't Hit the Head, Don't Use the Head Program

In conjunction with USA Football's "Heads Up Football" program, the Steelers and UPMC Sports Medicine created the "Don't Hit the Head, Don't Use the Head" program. This joint concussion education and awareness program shows our dedication to educating football coaches and players on the steps they can take on the field to lessen the chance of head injuries, and the importance of seeking the right treatment if injuries do occur. Local youth and high school programs have received literature about concussion education and Coach Tomlin posters with the "Don't Hit the Head" logo. To add your youth or high school program, head to www.Steelers.com/PlaySmart.

Youth Football in Steelers Country Show on ROOT Sports

A weekly show completely dedicated to the passion of youth and high school football in Western Pennsylvania, "Youth Football in Steelers Country" is a must watch for anyone who loves youth football. The show airs each Saturday on ROOT Sports at 10 a.m. and can also be viewed on Steelers.com. The show features great weekly matchups at both levels of youth football, selects a Coach and Player of the Week, and gives a Most Valuable Person award.

High School Football

Each year, the Steelers host the WPIAL Championship games at Heinz Field in November. Each class champion is then hosted at a later Steelers game to honor their accomplishment.

Football Safety: A Clinic for Moms

In May the Pittsburgh Steelers held a clinic to inform moms of the increased efforts in safety for youth football. During the clinic mothers heard from a variety of speakers including representatives of USA Football's Heads Up Football program and the UPMC Concussion program. They were also taught proper equipment fitting and heard Jaimee Hoke talk about her experiences with her husband, former Steelers' nose tackle Chris, and their young boys playing. While the moms heard from the speakers, the kids were put through five youth football stations and a youth skills clinic.

PROGRAMS FOR PLAYERS:

Official Youth Football Development Partner

Steelers/USA Football Month (August)

The Steelers and USA Football celebrate the start of football during the preseason games through in-stadium banners, promos on the Daktronics video board and by inviting youth football teams to enjoy the preseason games. Youth football programs that have been involved with the Steelers Youth Football and USA Football's programs have had the opportunity to send some players to the games, many of which have never seen a game in person before. Programs that have benefitted include Braddock, Carlynton, Hollidaysburg, Hopewell, Mt. Pleasant, North Shore, Penn Hills, Woodland Hills and many others.

STEELERS Youth Football*Steelers Youth Football Camps

These two-day football camps for boys and girls ages 6-14 offer instruction by the area's best high school coaches and current and former Steelers players. Held in June and July at California University of Pennsylvania, Slippery Rock University and West Allegheny High School in Imperial, these non-contact camps provide instruction on every position, proper tackling, two tickets to a Steelers preseason game, Steelers Kids Club membership, camp t-shirt and more.

Gatorade Junior Training Camp

These non-contact camps are free for youth boys and girls ages 7-14, and hosted at Heinz Field during the Kickoff and Rib Festival, the team's indoor practice facility, and prior to the annual night practice during training camp outside of Latrobe Memorial Stadium. The camps emphasize football fun drills and teach skills at running back, quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back, as well as proper tackling techniques.

Youth Football Co-Captains

The Steelers, with help from Dick's Sporting Goods, have two youth football players serve as co-captains for each home game at Heinz Field. The two players enjoy pregame hospitality, sideline passes for pregame warm-ups and tickets to the game.

Youth Football Games at Halftime

Presented by Dick's Sporting Goods, the Steelers host four youth football games at halftime during home games. The teams also receive game programs, Terrible Towels, team photos, and an experience of a lifetime.

Youth Football Teams at Training Camp

The Steelers and Dick's Sporting Goods help celebrate "Back to Football" by inviting youth teams to welcome the Steelers onto the field each day of training camp. The players, decked out in their own jerseys, make a tunnel for the players as they walk to practice.

Punt, Pass & Kick

The Steelers and the NFL continue to host the league's longest running grassroots initiative at a late season home game at Heinz Field. The Regional Championship is held at the team's indoor practice facility during the morning, and those competitors get to enjoy the game at Heinz Field and display their passing talents at halftime.

PROGRAMS FOR COACHES:*Steelers/USA Football Coaching Forum

This is a program offered by USA Football where youth football league presidents/commissioners are invited to discuss the state of the game, their issues and best practices. The Steelers and USA Football then outline programs offered to youth teams to lend support. The event was held on March 9 at North Hills Junior High School.

Steelers Coaching Clinic

Held in May, this annual youth football coaching seminar incorporates classroom instruction, roundtable discussion, and on-field sessions with our coach of the week winners. In addition, coaches are educated on health and safety with a speaker from the UPMC Concussion Program.

Steelers Strength & Conditioning Clinic

This event is designed for youth and high school coaches who are interested in learning more about training and conditioning their athletes in a safe manner, while using the latest techniques. Steelers staff members provide training and coaches are also able to visit display booths filled with the best training tools from the Steelers Training Partners.

High School Coach of the Week

Each week, a local high school coach is honored as a High School Coach of the Week. This coach has either led his team to a big victory, an upset win, or done something special in their community. Each winner is invited to a Steelers home game, presented with a certificate, and receives a $1,000 grant from the Steelers and the National Football League Foundation. A Coach of the Year is also selected, and his program receives a $2,000 grant to improve his football program.

Head Coach

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on January 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Tomlin became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers' history.

In Tomlin's first six years as head coach, he has guided the Steelers' defense to the NFL's top ranking in total defense four times, including most recently in 2012. He has also sent a total of 38 selections to the league's annual Pro Bowl, including two following the 2012 season. Tomlin has reached the playoffs four times in his first six seasons, including two trips to the Super Bowl (winning Super Bowl XLIII).

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers' head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin has compiled a 63-33 record in the regular season during his six-year head coaching career. His .656 winning percentage in his first six seasons is the second-best in team history and it is the fifth-highest winning percentage amongst active NFL coaches. Tomlin was appointed by Commissioner Roger Goodell to the NFL's Competition Committee in March, 2013.

Tomlin is very active in the community and was recognized, along with his wife Kiya, in February, 2013, by the Chuck Cooper Foundation with the Career Achievement in Leadership Diversity and Community Service Award. He has also been a spokesman for the Steelers' "Don't Hit the Head, Don't Use the Head" program, which is in conjunction with USA Football's Head's Up program that promotes safety in all levels of football. Tomlin is also a member of the All-Pro Dad Team and serves as an honorary chair for the annual Extra Mile golf outing, which provides support for parochial elementary schools educating children of inner-city families.

In 2012, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 27-10 victory over the New York Jets in the home opener, becoming the first coach in team history to win his first six home openers. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked overall defense (275.8 ypg) and finished first in passing defense (185.2 ypg).

In 2011, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record, marking the second straight season the team posted 12 wins, which marked only the second time in team history it has been achieved. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked total defense (271.8 ypg) and scoring defense (14.2 ppg). Pittsburgh posted a 7-1 record at home in 2011, for the second time in Tomlin's career (2007). He also had five players (Ben Roethlisberger, Mike Wallace, Maurkice Pouncey, Troy Polamalu and Antonio Brown) selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

Tomlin's seven road wins during the 2010 regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and 2004. The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during the regular season.

In all, the Steelers defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed, points allowed (232), touchdowns (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Hines Ward, Santonio Holmes) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record in 2009 after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers' history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), while finishing second in rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007 and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season. Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers' head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and the pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by Willie Parker, who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1) while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers' coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 touchdown catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

John Mitchell is in his 20th season as the Steelers' defensive line coach, ranking him as the longest-tenured current member of the Steelers' coaching staff. He remained with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January of 2007, and was promoted to assistant head coach.

Mitchell, 61, joined the Steelers' coaching staff January 31, 1994, and is in his 41st season of coaching, including 15 years at the college level and two in the United States Football League. This is his 23rd season as an NFL coach.

Since 2004, Steelers' defensive linemen have earned seven Pro Bowl selections under Mitchell's coaching, including current Pittsburgh Steeler Brett Keisel.

Under his guidance, Pittsburgh's defensive front helped the Steelers lead the NFL in rush defense five times and finish in the top three on 13 separate occasions. The team only allowed one 100-yard rusher for a stretch of 50 straight regular season games from 2007-10, and allowed just 62.8 yards per game rushing in 2010, shattering the previous team record set in 2001. In addition, the 62.8 yards allowed per game were the third-fewest in a single season out of any NFL team since the 1970 NFL merger.

The Steelers' defensive line guided the group to tops in the NFL in total defense and second in rush defense, giving up 90.6 rushing yards per game in 2012. The defensive line was led by Keisel, who led the team with a career-high 40 quarterback pressures. He also led the line with 58 tackles and had the second-most sacks in a single season in his career (4.5).

In 2011, the Steelers defense continued to dominate opposing offenses, only giving up 4.5 yards per play, 271.8 yards per game and 14.2 points per game, ranking first in the NFL in all three categories. Pittsburgh put on a defensive showcase in 2010 by leading the NFL in at least eight categories, including total sacks (48) and fewest points allowed (232). They became the first team in NFL history to hold their opponents to 75 or fewer rushing yards in each of their first eight games.

Strong play by Mitchell's line was a huge reason why the Steelers finished the 2008 regular season second overall in the NFL against the run. In 2009, Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 sacks. Mitchell was instrumental in the development of five time Pro Bowler Casey Hampton, who became the first Steelers' defensive linemen to be named Steelers' MVP or Co-MVP since Hall of Famer Joe Greene in 1970.

A former All-America defensive end for Alabama, Mitchell was the first African-American to play for the University of Alabama. Mitchell's early years in coaching were spent studying under two of college football's greatest coaches, as he was the defensive line coach under Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama (1973-76) and the defensive line coach at Arkansas (1977-82) under Lou Holtz.

In 1983, Mitchell made his first move to the professional level. From 1983-85 he served as the defensive line coach for the USFL's Birmingham Stallions. He returned to the college ranks in 1986 as the defensive ends coach at Temple University. Mitchell was then hired by Louisiana State University in 1987. He spent four years at LSU, coaching linebackers (1987-90). In 1990, Mitchell also served as LSU's defensive coordinator, becoming the first African American defensive coordinator in SEC history.

Mitchell joined the NFL ranks in 1991 with the Cleveland Browns, where he tutored two Pro Bowl defensive tackles, Michael Dean Perry and Rob Burnett. Mitchell accepted his current appointment following three seasons coaching the defensive line for the Browns.

A two-time All-American defensive end at Eastern Arizona Junior College from 1969-70, Mitchell then transferred to Alabama. A starter at defensive end from 1971-72, Mitchell earned All-America honors in 1972. He earned a bachelor's degree in social work in 1972, and in 2009 he was elected into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

Born in Mobile, Ala., Mitchell and his wife, Joyce, live in Pittsburgh.

Todd Haley is in his second season as the Steelers' offensive coordinator, after being hired on February 7, 2012. Haley, 46, is in his 19th season in the NFL and 17th as a coach.

In his first season as offensive coordinator, the Steelers' offense finished second in the NFL in time of possession (32:07), fourth in red zone scoring (91.8%) and 10th in third-down efficiency (42%). Ben Roethlisberger had one of his best seasons despite missing three games due to injury. Roethlisberger threw for 3,265 yards, marking the fifth consecutive season that he threw for at least 3,200 yards. He also tied for the third-most passing touchdowns in franchise history, and second-most passing touchdowns of his career (26), while throwing the second-least interceptions of his career (8).

Haley's offense also aided Maurkice Pouncey and Heath Miller in earning selections to the Pro Bowl. Pouncey was also named to the USA Football All-Fundamentals Team in 2012. In addition to the Pro Bowl, Miller became the first tight end in team history to be named Steelers MVP. Miller led the team with 71 receptions and set career highs in receiving yards (816) and receiving touchdowns (8).

Prior to joining the Steelers, Haley was the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs for the majority of three seasons (2009-11). In his second season as the Chiefs' head coach, the team completed the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history, and the 2010 Chiefs reached the postseason for the first time since 2006. Following the club's highest win total since 2005, Haley was named the 101 AFC Coach of the Year voted on by national media members and was also awarded NFL Alumni Coach of the Year. The Chiefs' offense led the league in rushing yards, with 2,627 yards on 556 carries, after finishing 11th in rushing in 2009. The Chiefs also posted 27 touchdown passes, tying for the seventh-highest total in franchise history.

Before becoming head coach of the Chiefs, he served as the Arizona Cardinals' offensive coordinator for two seasons (2007-08). During his tenure with the Cardinals, the team won the club's first division title since 1975 and played in Super Bowl XLIII. Under Haley's guidance, Arizona's offense was one of the league's most explosive units. In 2008, Arizona tied for third in the league with a franchise record 427 points, finished fourth in total offense, averaging 365.8 yards per game and finished second in the league in passing offense. The Cardinals also became just the fifth team in NFL history to have three wide receivers eclipse 1,000 yards in the same season.

From 1999 to 2006, Haley spent time as wide receivers coach for the Dallas Cowboys, Chicago Bears and New York Jets, helping each team earn a playoff berth. Haley began his NFL career as an assistant in the Jets scouting department in 1995, where he scouted regionally and assisted in player evaluations.

Haley earned a degree in communications from the University of North Florida in 1991. In February of 2010, Haley was recognized with the Distinguished Alumni Achievement Award, the highest award given by the University of North Florida Alumni Association, recognizing those who have made a significant contribution to their profession, community and society. He was a member of the golf squads at the University of Florida and the University of Miami, and participated in the NCAA golf tournament during his time with the Gators.

Haley is the son of Dick Haley, former Director of Player Personnel for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1971-91). As a youth, Haley was a ball boy for the Steelers and attended Steelers training camps with his father. Alongside his father, Haley would watch the Steelers' game and practice film.

Haley was born in Atlanta, Ga., but attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, Pa. He and his wife, Chrissy, have four daughters, Taylor, Peyton, Kady and Ella, and one son, Richard Todd, Jr.

Dick LeBeau is in the 10th year of his second tour of duty with the Steelers, for whom he experienced much success during the mid-1990s as both the team's defensive backs coach and defensive coordinator.

Considered the architect of the Steelers' famed "zone blitz," LeBeau was named the Steelers' defensive coordinator on January 16, 2004, after spending the 2003 season with the Buffalo Bills. In LeBeau's 12 seasons as the Steelers' defensive coordinator (1995-96, 2004-12) Pittsburgh has won six division titles, four AFC Championships and two Super Bowls, while making the playoffs a total of eight times.

In 2009, LeBeau was recognized for his outstanding football career, both as a coach and player. In September, he was inducted into the Varsity O Alumni Association's Hall of Fame, honoring his career at Ohio State University and over 50 years in the NFL. Then in February of 2010, LeBeau was honored with the highest individual award in professional football when the Pro Football Hall of Fame announced him as a member of its Class of 2010 for his 14-year playing career as a cornerback for the Detroit Lions. LeBeau was enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, August 7, at Fawcett Stadium.

For the second straight season and fifth time since LeBeau returned to the Steelers in 2004, Pittsburgh finished with the number-one rated defense in the league in 2012. Dating back to 1970, the 2012 season was the second time (2008) that Pittsburgh finished in the top-two of fewest net yards, rushing yards and passing yards allowed. In addition, the Steelers had the number-one rated pass defense for the second consecutive season, allowing 185.2 passing yards per game.

The Steelers ranked second in the NFL in rush defense in 2012, giving up 90.6 yards per game and limited teams to the fifth-lowest percentage (35.4) in the league on third-down conversions. Pittsburgh also held its opponent to 20 points or less in 11 games in 2012.

In 2011 the Steelers defense finished first in the league in total defense and pass defense. The secondary held nine teams to less than 175 net passing yards and only gave up 21 pass plays of 25+ yards, which tied for first in the NFL. Pittsburgh was the only team to record two shutouts in 2011, marking the fifth time since 1960 that Pittsburgh recorded multiple shutouts in a season. The defense also led the NFL in fewest points allowed (14.2), marking only the third time in team history that the Steelers gave up less than 15.0 points per game in back-to-back seasons (2010, 14.5)

The Steelers led the league in at least eight defensive categories in 2010 and shattered the team record for rushing yards per game allowed (62.8). The Steelers finished the season with 21 interceptions, the most since 1996, and Troy Polamalu was named AFC Defensive Player of the Year, becoming the second Steelers' player to earn the honor (James Harrison, 2008) with LeBeau as defensive coordinator.

LeBeau's defense had a season for the ages in 2008 as they led the league in a number of categories and wreaked havoc on a week-to-week basis on opposing offenses. The Steelers defense ended the season first in fewest yards allowed, pass defense and points per game, while finishing second in rush defense. The defense was led by Harrison, who won several major awards, including AP Defensive Player of the Year, after setting a franchise record with 16 sacks. LeBeau was named "Coordinator of the Year" by Sporting News following the 2008 season.

When LeBeau came back to the Steelers in 2004, his impact on the coaching staff was profound as Pittsburgh returned to the top of the NFL in total defense and rushing defense. In 2005, his defensive game plans played an integral part in stopping four of the NFL's top five offenses in the AFC playoffs, including limiting Seattle to just 10 points in Super Bowl XL.

Since 1994, the Steelers have led the AFC in sacks six times and the entire NFL three times. Since 2004, the Steelers have the most sacks in the NFL with 381.

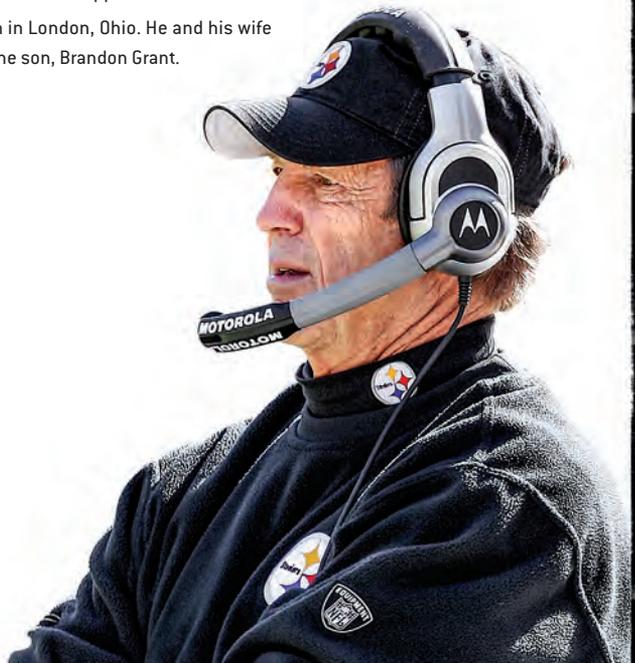

LeBeau, 75, is in the 55th year of his NFL career, 14 as a player and the past 41 as a coach. Prior to his return to Pittsburgh, LeBeau served one year as the assistant head coach with the Buffalo Bills and the previous two-plus years as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals.

After five seasons in Pittsburgh from 1992-96, when he coached the secondary (1992-94) and then was defensive coordinator (1995-96), LeBeau returned to Cincinnati as the Bengals' assistant head coach/defensive coordinator (1997-2000). He was later promoted to head coach (after three games) on September 25, 2000, and served in that capacity for two more seasons.

LeBeau began his coaching career as a special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1973-75. He also was an assistant coach at Green Bay (1976-79) and Cincinnati (1980-83), before serving his first term as the Bengals' defensive coordinator from 1984-91.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, LeBeau produced an outstanding pro career. He still holds the NFL record for most consecutive games played at cornerback (171), and is currently tied for eighth all-time with 62 career interceptions. His nine interceptions in 1970 led the NFC, and his 62 career interceptions ranked third in the NFL at the time of his retirement. LeBeau also appeared in three Pro Bowls.

He was born in London, Ohio. He and his wife Nancy have one son, Brandon Grant.

Special Teams Coordinator

Danny Smith is in his first season with the Steelers as the special teams coordinator. Smith, who was hired on January 31, 2013, came to Pittsburgh with 18 years of NFL coaching experience.

Smith most recently served as the Washington Redskins' special teams coordinator from 2004-2012. He helped establish Washington's special teams as one of the top coverage and return units in the NFL.

In 2012, Smith's coverage units finished eighth in punt coverage and 12th in kickoff coverage in the NFL. This propelled linebacker Lorenzo Alexander to be selected to the Pro Bowl as the NFC's designated special teams player.

In 2011, Smith's special teams units ranked first in the NFC in kickoff return average allowed (20.8 yards) for the second consecutive season. Under his tutelage, Brandon Banks became one of the league's most consistent return men. Banks finished first in the NFL in kickoff returns (51) and kickoff return yards (1,174), which were also career highs.

Also in 2011, Smith guided Graham Gano to a career season. Gano finished the season with a career-high 31 field goals made, which tied for the second-most field goals made in a single season in Redskins' history. In Week 9, Gano set a team record for the longest field goal, when he connected on a 59-yarder.

The Redskins finished first in the NFC in kickoff return average allowing 19.0 yards per return, and second in the NFC in opponent's average starting position on kickoffs (23.7-yard line) in 2010. In addition, Gano made three game-winning field goals in overtime, which established a team record and tied the NFL record.

Smith's 2009 special teams units finished third in kickoff return average, allowing 19.1 yards per return, and sixth in punt return average, allowing 6.9 yards per return. The Redskins were only one of two teams in the NFL to finish in the top-six in each category.

Smith's teams also produced two of the biggest plays of the 2009 Redskins' season. Hunter Smith had an eight-yard touchdown run on a fake field goal in Week 1, and he threw a 35-yard touchdown in Week 10. In doing so, Smith became the first specialist in NFL history to rush for a touchdown and throw a touchdown in the same season.

The Redskins' special teams excelled in average starting field position from 2007-08. In 2008, the Redskins' offense started on average at the 29-yard line, which ranked third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL. And in 2007, the Redskins' offense started on average at the 30.8-yard line, which ranked second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL.

During the 2007 season, long snapper Ethan Albright earned his first and only selection to the Pro Bowl to represent the NFC.

In 2006, Smith's units ranked among the best in the NFL, finishing fourth in the NFL in kickoff coverage and eighth in the NFL in punt coverage. The season was filled with numerous special teams splash plays, including one kickoff return for a touchdown, one punt return for a touchdown, two blocked punts and one blocked field goal.

In Smith's second year with the team, Washington finished second in the NFL in punt coverage and sixth in the NFL in kickoff coverage.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Smith was the special teams coordinator for the Buffalo Bills (2001-03), coached tight ends for the Detroit Lions (1999-2000), and he split duties as the defensive backs and special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles (1995-98).

Smith spent eight years (1987-94) as an assistant coach for Georgia Tech, where he coached running backs, wide receivers and defensive backs. He was on the staff for the Yellow Jackets' 1990 team that was named co-NCAA National Champions.

Smith played defensive back for Edinboro State from 1971-1975. His first collegiate coaching position came as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1976. Smith also was an assistant coach at Clemson University (1979), The College of William & Mary (1980-83) and The Citadel, the Military College of South Carolina (1984-86).

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Smith attended Pittsburgh Central Catholic High School. He coached at Central Catholic (1977-78), helping tutor future Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino.

Bicknell is entering his fifth season in the NFL as an assistant, having served as the offensive line coach for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2012 and the offensive line coach for the New York Giants from 2009-11.

Bicknell was part of a Giants' coaching staff that helped lead the team to victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLVI. In 2011, the Giants offensive line only allowed 28 sacks, as New York's offense finished fifth in the NFL in passing. Bicknell was instrumental in coaching the Giants' Chris Snee and Shaun O'Hara to three straight Pro Bowl selections each (2009-11). In his first season with New York, three offensive linemen were selected to the Pro Bowl, marking the first time since 1962 that three Giants from the same position group were selected to the Pro Bowl.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Bicknell coached at the college level from 1985-2008, including eight seasons as the head coach at Louisiana Tech (1999-2006), where his 43 victories are still the third-most in school history. At the end of the 2001 season, he was named WAC Coach of the Year after leading Louisiana Tech to a conference championship in its first year of membership. Bicknell also served as the Bulldogs' offensive line coach from 1997-98.

Bicknell began his coaching career at his alma mater, Boston College, as a graduate assistant from 1985-86, and he returned in 2007 to serve as the Eagles' assistant head coach/offensive line coach for two seasons (2007-08). He also coached at New Hampshire from 1987-96 (defensive line from 1987-92 and the offensive line from 1993-96).

Bicknell played center for Boston College from 1981-85. He snapped the ball to QB Doug Flutie to begin one of the most iconic plays in the history of college football, as Flutie's Hail Mary, game-winning touchdown pass beat the Miami Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl in 1984. In Bicknell's final season at Boston College, he was honored with the Scanlon Award, the highest honor bestowed upon a Boston College football player, the Scarminach Award for athletic and academic excellence and the Dean's Award in the school of education.

His father, Jack, was the head coach of NFL Europe's Barcelona Dragons (1991-2003) and for Boston College (1981-90). His brother, Bob, was an assistant coach in Kansas City from 2007-09, the wide receivers coach for the Buffalo Bills from 2010-12 and currently coaches wide receivers for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Bicknell was born in North Plainfield, N.J. and he attended Orono High School (Orono, Maine). He and his wife, Helen, have three children, John, Katelyn and Alyse.

Keith Butler is in his 11th year as the Steelers' linebackers coach. He was hired on January 28, 2003, after serving the previous four seasons (1999-2002) as the linebackers' coach of the Cleveland Browns. Butler remained on the Steelers' staff following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January of 2007.

Butler and Tomlin previously worked together at Memphis in 1996, when Butler coached the linebackers, defensive ends and special teams units, and Tomlin served as the Tigers' defensive backs coach.

Since Butler arrived, he has been instrumental in the development of the Steelers' highly touted linebacking corps, and he was honored in 2008 when he was named NFL Linebacker Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly.

Steelers' linebackers helped guide the defense to the NFL's number-one ranking in total defense, boasting the team's top-two tacklers (Lawrence Timmons and Larry Foote). Five different linebackers each recorded four or more sacks in 2012 for the first time in team history, since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Four different linebackers have recorded four or more sacks in a single season three different times, including twice under Butler's tutelage (2006-07).

Butler guided Timmons to arguably his best overall season in 2012. He led the team in tackles (134), interceptions (3) and tied for the team high in sacks (6.0), becoming the first Steeler to lead the team or tie for the team high in tackles, interceptions and sacks since Joey Porter in 2002. Foote had a bounce-back season in 2012, starting all 16 games for the first time since 2008. His four sacks tied a career high and his 114 tackles were the most he recorded in a single season since 2006.

The Steelers have a tradition of fielding some of the best pass-rushing linebackers in the NFL. In 2011, LaMarr Woodley was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month of October by registering a league-high 7.5 sacks, 25 tackles and one interception. Pittsburgh registered 35 sacks in 2011, with 28 accounting at Heinz Field, ranking as the second-most sacks at home (36 in 1996) by a Steelers' team since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

Butler's guidance helped James Harrison become one of the league's most elite performers. Harrison, the 2008 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, earned two team MVP awards (2007-08), recorded a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII (the longest play in Super Bowl history) and earned five straight selections to the Pro Bowl (2007-11). Harrison currently holds the team record for sacks in a season, when he recorded a career-high 16 sacks in 2008.

Woodley has been a force defensively since he became a starter in 2008. Woodley owns an NFL record for posting two sacks in each of his first four postseason games, and his 52 career sacks in only six seasons are good for the sixth-highest total in franchise history, since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Besides Harrison, Woodley is the only player in team history to record 10 or more sacks in a season for three straight years (2008-10).

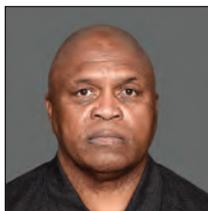

Harrison and Woodley have accounted for two of the top four sack totals by a Steelers' duo in team history. The two teamed up in 2008 to produce the most sacks in a single-season by a duo (27.5). In 2006, Butler's linebacking crew helped the Steelers' defense not allow a 100-yard rusher the entire season, and in 2005 led the AFC and ranked fourth in the NFL in total defense.

Prior to joining the Browns' staff, Butler spent nine years coaching in the college ranks, beginning at his alma mater, Memphis, where he coached linebackers from 1990-97, and also coached defensive ends and special teams (1995-97). He then served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas State in 1998.

Butler, 57, was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round of the 1978 NFL Draft and played linebacker for 10 seasons (1978-87), all with Seattle. He started 132 of 146 games in his career, and still ranks second on the club's all-time tackles list with 813.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker for Memphis, Butler led the team in tackles his junior and senior seasons. He finished his collegiate career with 384 tackles and seven interceptions. He was named a 1977 Associated Press All-American and played in the 1977 Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Butler was born in Anniston, Ala. He and his wife Janet have three sons, Blake, Brandon and Brett.

James Daniel is in his 10th season with Pittsburgh after remaining with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January of 2007. Daniel, 60, was named the Steelers' tight ends coach on January 24, 2004.

Under Daniel's guidance, Heath Miller has become one of the top tight ends in franchise history. In 2012, Miller became the first Steelers' tight end to ever be selected as team MVP. He also was selected to his second career Pro Bowl. Miller's 71 receptions on the season led the team and ranked second in the AFC among tight ends, and he set career highs with 816 receiving yards and eight receiving touchdowns.

Miller, who entered 2013 with 39 career receiving touchdowns, passed Elbie Nickel (37) for the most receiving touchdowns by a tight end in team history.

Entering 2013, Miller has recorded at least one reception in every game he has played in (regular and postseason) for a personal-best streak of 74 games, dating back to the 2008 season. He ranks in the top-10 in franchise history in receptions (third, 408), receiving yards (seventh, 4,680) and receiving touchdowns (tied for fifth, 39).

In 2010, Miller was named an offensive co-captain for the first time in his career, following his 2009 Pro Bowl season. In 2009, he broke the team's single-season record for receptions by a tight end, recording 78. Miller also posted his second career 100-yard receiving game, marking just the 12th time in team history that a tight end recorded 100+ receiving yards in a single game.

In 2007, Daniel groomed a young group of tight ends that finished the season with 11 receiving touchdowns, which are the most combined receiving touchdowns of any Steelers' tight end corps in team history.

During his tenure with the Atlanta Falcons (1997-2003), Daniel was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowler Alge Crumpler. Daniel began his NFL coaching career as the tight ends coach of the New York Giants from 1993-96. However, Daniel's first experience in the NFL came through the NFL's Fellowship Program in 1988 with the New Orleans Saints, and in 1992 with the Denver Broncos, who were led by Head Coach Dan Reeves. Daniel served under Reeves for his first 11 years in the NFL.

He began his coaching career in the college ranks as the offensive line coach at Auburn University (1981-92) for Head Coach Pat Dye. During Daniel's 12 years at Auburn, the Tigers appeared in nine postseason bowl games, four of his linemen earned All-America honors and several were selected All-SEC.

Prior to Auburn, Daniel coached for seven years at Enterprise High School (Enterprise, Ala.) from 1974-80. During his tenure, 11 of his offensive linemen earned college scholarships.

A native of Wetumpka, Ala., Daniel was a three-year starter (offensive guard) and four-year letter winner at Alabama State University from 1970-73. Daniel is married to Myrtis.

Randy Fichtner is in his fourth season coaching the Steelers' quarterbacks after spending three seasons as the team's wide receivers coach. Fichtner, 49, was hired by Mike Tomlin on January 29, 2007.

In Fichtner's three seasons (2010-12) as quarterbacks coach, Ben Roethlisberger has thrown for 10,542 yards and 64 touchdowns for a passer rating of 94.4. In addition, Roethlisberger has a completion percentage of 62.8, has thrown 72 passes of 25+ yards and has a record of 27-13 in the regular season. In the three seasons under Fichtner's guidance, Roethlisberger has recorded three of his top four highest season averages when it comes to passing yards per game. Also, Roethlisberger's 27 interceptions are the second-fewest in the league for any quarterback with at least 40 starts during that time.

Roethlisberger was selected to his second career Pro Bowl after the 2011 season, when he registered the second-most passing yards in franchise history (4,077) and the second-most completions (324), while playing in only 15 games. He was twice named AFC Offensive Player of the Week, recorded five 300+ passing yard games and broke the team's all-time record for career completions (2,090).

In Fichtner's final year as wide receivers coach in 2009, the Steelers had two 1,000-yard receivers. Hines Ward posted his club record sixth 1,000-yard receiving season, while Santonio Holmes posted his first career 1,000-yard receiving season. Rookie Mike Wallace led all AFC rookies with 756 receiving yards and added six touchdowns.

His receiving corps had an excellent season in 2008 as Ward topped 1,000 yards (1,043) for the fifth time in his career, and Holmes was named MVP of Super Bowl XLIII after catching nine passes for 131 yards, including the game-winning touchdown reception with 35 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.

Fichtner, who instituted the spread offense at Memphis, was an integral part of the Tiger football team for six years. He was hired in 2001 to serve as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and his offense re-wrote the Memphis record book for six seasons.

In 2004, All-American running back DeAngelo Williams led an offense that finished the year ranked ninth nationally in total offense and 10th in the nation in scoring. Fichtner was a part of unprecedented offensive success at Memphis that also contributed to the Tigers playing in three straight bowl games from 2003-05.

Fichtner was no stranger to Memphis when he joined the staff in 2001. He had previously served as an assistant. Prior to his second stint at Memphis, Fichtner spent four years (1997-2000) at Arkansas State University. He arrived in Jonesboro as the quarterback coach in the spring of 1997 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in August of 1997. During his tenure with the Indians, Fichtner worked with Cleo Lemon, who set virtually every Arkansas State passing and total offense record.

Prior to joining the staff at Arkansas State, Fichtner spent three years at his alma mater, Purdue University, serving as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1994-96. His original stint with Memphis came from 1990-94, when he coached wide receivers and quarterbacks. During his tenure, Fichtner worked with future NFL All-Pro Isaac Bruce.

Fichtner worked as a student assistant and graduate assistant at Purdue (1985-86) and at the University of Michigan (1986-87), before serving as a volunteer coach at the University of Southern California in 1988. He landed his first full-time position in 1989 as the tight ends coach at UNLV, and worked for the Rebels for one season before going to Memphis.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Fichtner was a standout football player at Meadville Area Senior High School in Meadville, Pa. He played defensive back at Purdue and graduated in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in health promotion. Fichtner is married to the former Jennifer Parker of Covington, Tenn., and the couple has three children, a son, Nathaniel Ross, and two daughters, Shelby Brooke and Kirby Lynn.

Carnell Lake is in his third season with the Steelers as the team's defensive backs coach. He was hired by the Steelers on March 7, 2011.

In his first two seasons with the Steelers, Lake has been instrumental in guiding a secondary that helped a defense to tops in the NFL in multiple statistical categories. In 2012, the Steelers' secondary led a defense that finished first in the NFL in pass defense for the second straight season, allowing 185.2 passing yards per game. The Steelers' secondary was part of a defense that also allowed the fewest yards per pass attempt (6.04), the fewest pass plays of 25+ yards (19) and the second-fewest yards allowed after the catch (1,376).

Keenan Lewis and Cortez Allen both took huge strides in 2012. Allen started three of the final four games in 2012 for an injured Ike Taylor. Allen had two stellar performances in the final two games of the season, forcing five total turnovers (two interceptions and three forced fumbles). Lewis started all 16 games, after making just one start in 2011. He set career highs in tackles (78) and pass breakups (28), and he also forced his first career fumble.

In Lake's first season in 2011, he coached the Steelers' secondary that held 10 teams to 170 net passing yards or less during the regular season. Pittsburgh only gave up 21 pass plays of 25+ yards in 2011, which tied for the fewest allowed in the NFL.

Lake played safety and cornerback for the Steelers (1989-98), the Jacksonville Jaguars (1999-00) and the Baltimore Ravens (2001). Following his retirement from football after the 2001 season, Lake worked in a private business before starting his career in coaching with the Philadelphia Eagles during their 2009 training camp and as an intern with the Green Bay Packers in 2010.

Lake was drafted by the Steelers in the second round (34th overall) of the 1989 NFL Draft and won the Joe Greene Great Performance Award, given annually to the Steelers' top rookie. Lake went on to earn five Pro Bowl trips (four with the Steelers and one with the Jacksonville Jaguars). He finished his Steelers' career with 15 fumble recoveries and 16 interceptions. In 1997 Lake was named AFC Defensive Player of the Year, and was later named to the NFL 1990s All-Decade Team.

A three-year starter for the Bruins at outside linebacker, Lake was a first-team All-America selection as a senior (1988) as well as earning the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete Award. He was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000. Lake finished his college career with 45.5 tackles for loss and 25.5 sacks.

Born in Salt Lake City, Utah, Lake moved to California and attended Culver City High School (Culver City, Calif.). He and his wife, Monica, have three children, Siena, Quentin and Austin.

Richard Mann is in his first year as the Steelers' wide receivers coach, after being hired on February 13, 2013. Mann comes to the Steelers with 28 years of NFL coaching experience, eight at the collegiate level and four at the high school level.

For the past few years, Mann has been assisting and consulting players as they prepare for the NFL Draft as well as coaching in All-Star games. Mann most recently coached wide receivers for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2002-09, and also served as assistant head coach in his final year in 2009. From 2002-08, the Buccaneers had at least one 1,000-yard receiver in each season, which is the longest streak in franchise history. Under Mann's guidance, the Buccaneers consistently had one of the top wide receivers in the NFL every season.

One of those receivers was Antonio Bryant. In 2008, Bryant led the team in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns after joining the team as a free agent prior to the start of the season, and for his efforts, he was named Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News.

From 2005-07, Joey Galloway had three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, becoming the first player in Buccaneers' history to accomplish the feat. In addition, Galloway led the league in yards per catch (minimum of 50 receptions) in 2006, and recorded a career-high 1,287 receiving yards in 2005. During that year, he surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in 11 games, which is the fastest in franchise history.

Mann was a huge influence on Michael Clayton during his rookie season in 2004. Clayton became one of the most productive rookie wide receivers in NFL history, recording 80 receptions for 1,193 yards and seven touchdowns. In 2003, Mann's receiving corps guided the Buccaneers' offense to finish top-10 in the NFL for only the second time in team history. And in 2002, his group totaled 184 receptions for 2,281 yards and 16 touchdowns, helping guide the team to its first and only Super Bowl (XXXVII) victory over the Oakland Raiders.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Mann served as the wide receivers coach for the Washington Redskins (2001), the Kansas City Chiefs (1999-2000) and the Baltimore Ravens (1997-98). He also was an assistant with the New York Jets (1994-96) where he coached the wide receivers (1994, 1996) and both the tight ends and wide receivers (1995).

From 1985-93, Mann served as an assistant coach for the Cleveland Browns. In his first season with the Browns, he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers, and then coached the wide receivers the remainder of his time with Cleveland. During his tenure, Mann coached Hall of Famer Ozzie Newsome and Pro Bowler Webster Slaughter. He got his first NFL coaching job with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84), coaching wide receivers.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, Mann served as an assistant at the University of Louisville (1980-81) and at his alma mater, Arizona State University (1974-79). He was a three-year starter for the Sun Devils from 1966-68.

Mann is a native of Aliquippa, Pa. He attended Aliquippa High School and was part of the team's 1964 WPIAL Championship team. Mann coached at Aliquippa from 1970-1973, starting out at the junior high level and then working his way to the high school level, where he coached wide receivers. Mann is a member of the Aliquippa and the Beaver County (Pa.) Halls of Fame. He and his wife, Karen, have four children, daughters Deven and Brittany, and sons Richard II and Mario. Richard II is currently a pro scout for the Washington Redskins.

Kirby Wilson is in his seventh season as the Steelers' running backs coach. Wilson, who was hired on January 29, 2007, came to Pittsburgh with 19 years of coaching experience at both the collegiate and professional levels.

In Wilson's 15 years as a running backs coach in the NFL, he has tutored four of the top-25 rushers in NFL history (Emmitt Smith, Curtis Martin, Edgerrin James and Thomas Jones).

Wilson, 51, has been instrumental in the rising contributions from Isaac Redman and Jonathan Dwyer, and was instrumental in the success of former Steeler Rashard Mendenhall.

In 2012, the Steelers had a 100-yard rusher in three straight games [Weeks 7-9]. Dwyer recorded his second and third career 100-yard rushing games in back-to-back weeks. In Week 7 at Cincinnati, Dwyer recorded a career-high 122 rushing yards, and the following week versus Washington, Dwyer rushed for 107 yards. In Week 9, Redman recorded a career-high 147 rushing yards against the New York Giants at MetLife Stadium.

In 2011, Wilson helped the Steelers achieve success on the ground by using a number of running backs. The backs combined to total 1,903 rushing yards on 434 carries, averaging 4.4 yards per carry, marking the third consecutive season that Pittsburgh averaged over 4.0 yards per rush.

In 2010, Mendenhall set a career high with 1,273 rushing yards, ranking him seventh in the NFL. Mendenhall had three 100-yard games and a career-high 13 rushing touchdowns.

In 2009, Wilson was instrumental in Mendenhall's breakout season as he posted his first career 1,000-yard rushing season with 1,108 yards on the year and a team-high seven rushing touchdowns. In 2007, Wilson helped Willie Parker earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection and lead the NFL in rushing through the first 16 weeks, before he broke his leg in the second-to-last game of the season.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Wilson coached running backs for the Arizona Cardinals (2004-06) after spending two seasons as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2002-03). In Wilson's first season with Tampa Bay, a trio of backs, Michael Pittman, Aaron Stecker and Pro Bowler Mike Alstott, collectively gained over 1,400 rushing yards and helped the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl XXXVII victory over Oakland.

Prior to his stint with the Buccaneers, Wilson spent four years as running backs coach with the New England Patriots (1997-99) and Washington Redskins (2000), tutoring the Patriots Curtis Martin (1997) and Robert Edwards (1998), and the Redskins Stephen Davis (2000). In addition, Wilson honed the skills of Washington's Larry Centers, who led his team with 80 pass receptions in 2000. Centers (827 pass receptions) and Keith Byars (610 receptions), whom Wilson coached in New England in 1997, rank first and fourth in career receptions by a running back in NFL history, respectively.

Wilson coached running backs at Iowa State from 1995-96. Under his guidance, Troy Davis earned All-America honors and led the nation with over 2,000 yards rushing in both 1995 and 1996. He is the only player in NCAA history to reach the 2,000-yard rushing mark in consecutive seasons.

He joined the staff at the University of Wyoming (1993-94) as secondary coach, helping the Cowboys win the 1993 WAC title and earn an appearance in the Copper Bowl. From 1991-92, he was an assistant at Southern Illinois University.

Wilson entered the coaching arena on the staff at Pasadena City College (1985) as wide receivers coach. After earning a bachelor of arts degree from Eastern Illinois in 1989, he returned to the sidelines at Los Angeles Southwest Community College (1989-90) as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach.

A running back and wide receiver at Pasadena Community College (1979-80) and the University of Illinois (1980-81), Wilson played two seasons in the Canadian Football League as a defensive back and kick returner for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1983) and Toronto Argonauts (1984).

Born in Los Angeles, Calif., Wilson was on the football and track teams at Dorsey High School in his native Los Angeles. Wilson has five children; sons Kris, Michael and Tyler, and daughters Malia and Savanna.

Prior to coaching at Youngstown State, Olsavsky spent one year as an assistant strength coach at the University of North Carolina. He also coached at his alma mater, Chaney High School in Youngstown and at Duquesne University.

Olsavsky, 46, was drafted by the Steelers in the 10th round (258th overall) of the 1989 NFL Draft, and played linebacker from 1989-97. He saw action in 108 games for the Steelers, making 227 tackles, while also excelling on special teams. Olsavsky battled back from a career threatening knee injury in 1993 to become a starter at inside linebacker for the Steelers in Super Bowl XXX. In 1995, he was the recipient of the Steelers' Ed Block Courage Award, given annually to the Steeler that overcomes many obstacles only to achieve great success on the field. Olsavsky finished his playing career in 1998 with the Baltimore Ravens.

Playing collegiately at the University of Pittsburgh, Olsavsky was a first-team Kodak All-American as a senior in 1988, when he made 129 tackles. He became the Panthers' first defensive player since 1976 to record more than 100 tackles in three consecutive seasons. He had a team-high 127 tackles his sophomore year. He earned his degree in information science in 1990.

Olsavsky was born in Youngstown, Ohio, and resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Rayme, and their three children, Joseph, Emma and Dominic.

 General Manager

Kevin Colbert is in his 14th year with the Steelers, and his third year as the team's General Manager. Colbert joined the Steelers on February 15, 2000, and served as the director of football operations for his first 11 years with the team.

In his 13 seasons with the Steelers, Colbert helped assemble teams that have won two Super Bowls (XL and XLIII), three AFC Championships, six division titles, earned eight playoff berths and had 10 winning seasons.

Colbert, 56, oversees the personnel area of the team and supervises the scouting staff. Among his duties, he is in charge of administering player acquisitions and transactions, including the NFL Draft, free agent signings and trades, and evaluating pro and college personnel. He also serves as the Steelers' liaison with the NFL office and the other NFL teams on football matters.

Colbert served as the Detroit Lions' pro scouting director from 1990-99. He was responsible for scouting NFL players, NFL Europe and the Canadian Football League. He also assisted in the evaluation of college talent.

Prior to joining the Lions, Colbert spent five seasons as a college scout for the Miami Dolphins (1985-89) and one season (1984) with the BLESTO Scouting Service.

Colbert began his career as a coach and has experience in three sports – football, basketball and baseball. He was the backfield coach and recruiting coordinator at Ohio Wesleyan University for three years (1981-83), and in 1984, he also served as the school's head baseball coach.

From 1979-81, Colbert was a graduate assistant basketball coach at Robert Morris University. He also served as the school's head baseball coach in 1981.

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Colbert graduated from North Catholic High School and received his bachelor's degree from Robert Morris in 1979. He and his wife, Janis, have three children, Kacie, Jennifer and Daniel, and one granddaughter, Avery.

OMAR KHAN Director of Football and Business Administration

Omar Khan is in his 17th season in the NFL and 13th season with the Pittsburgh Steelers, having served in numerous administrative positions within the organization.

In his current role, Khan works with the day-to-day overall management of the Football Operations Department, working closely with President Art Rooney II, General Manager Kevin Colbert and Head Coach Mike Tomlin. He is in charge of overseeing many different areas and functions of the organization, including serving as the team's chief negotiator.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Khan worked with the New Orleans Saints for four years. In 2000, he served as Football Operations/Coaching Assistant where he supervised the overall operation of the football program and assisted the offensive coordinator in the day-to-day operations of the offense. From 1998-99, Khan served as New Orleans' Player Personnel Assistant. His duties included assisting the pro scouts, negotiating player contracts, monitoring and strategic planning of the salary cap, football administration and government affairs, as well as serving as interim Player Programs Director during the 1998 season. In 1997, Khan was a Scouting/Player Personnel Intern, primarily working with pro scouting and contract research.

Khan joined the Saints after spending the 1996 season as an undergraduate assistant with the Tulane University football program.

Khan is involved in many activities and organizations throughout the Pittsburgh region, including being extremely active within Pittsburgh's growing Hispanic community. In 2005, Khan was selected to attend the NFL Manager Program at Stanford University Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

Khan, a graduate of Tulane, was born in New Orleans, La. He now resides in the South Hills of Pittsburgh.

SAMIR SULEIMAN Football Administration Coordinator

Samir Suleiman is in 13th season in the NFL and first season as the Steelers' Football Administration Coordinator. Suleiman will assist primarily with the strategic planning of the salary cap and with player contract negotiations.

Previously, he worked for the St. Louis Rams (2000-09) as Director of Football Operations, where he was the team's primary negotiator and liaison with the NFL Office and helped oversee all aspects of football operations (player personnel, coaching, medical, video, equipment and player programs). In 2005, he was selected to represent the Rams at the NFL-Stanford University Graduate School of Business Executive Education Program for Managers, and in 2008, Suleiman was a panelist on football analytics at the MIT Sloan Sports Business Conference. Prior to joining the Rams, he served as Manager of Contract Information for the Jacksonville Jaguars (1998-99). He was also hired in 2011 as an Expert Witness for the winning Defense in the Aldra Wilson v. Chad J. Prusmack, M.D. lawsuit.

Suleiman began his career in 1997 with the NFL Management Council and was a member of the Club Services Committee (2001-09) that oversees technology development and all MC/Club interaction.

Born in Washington, D.C., Suleiman earned a B.S. degree in sport management from James Madison University where he played wide receiver on the 1994 Lambert Cup Championship football team and in 2003, was presented with an Outstanding Alumnus Award. He also played semi-pro football for the Brooklyn (N.Y.) Mariners that won the 1997 Garden State Football League Championship. (Name is pronounced Suh-mirror Soohl-E-mun)

DAN ROONEY JR. Player Personnel Coordinator

Dan Rooney Jr. is in his second season as player personnel coordinator after spending 16 seasons as a college scout for the Steelers. Rooney's duties include scouting college players, primarily in the Southeast, while also being involved in pro scouting and salary cap management.

Rooney graduated from Washington & Jefferson College in 1986 with a degree in business administration. He played football for legendary Head Coach John Luckhardt, and was named an all-conference safety as a sophomore. After graduation, Rooney worked under Coach Luckhardt as an assistant coach from 1986 to 1990.

In 1991, Rooney spent a season with the NFL Europe League office, which at the time was located in Dallas, Texas. His primary responsibilities were to Team Dallas, a spare parts team that supplied the league with replacements for injured players.

In 1993, Rooney moved to Durham, N.C., where he taught and coached at the high school level. He coached for Gary Merrill at Northern Durham High, one of the state's top high school programs. From 1995-97, Rooney coached at Leesville Road High School in Raleigh, N.C.

He is entering his first year as senior assistant, college scouting after spending 10 years as Pittsburgh's college scouting coordinator. Hughes served as a consultant for the Steelers for two-plus years prior to joining the club full-time on April 30, 2003.

Hughes, 70, a Charleroi High School and California University of Pennsylvania graduate, spent 17 seasons with the Detroit Lions, serving his last four years as the Lions' Vice President of Player Personnel until his departure prior to the 2001 season. He coordinated and supervised all of the Lions' college and pro scouting in his role as vice president.

After coaching football at the high school level in the Pittsburgh area for 14 years, Hughes began his career in professional football in 1979 as a BLESTO scout. He joined the Lions scouting department in 1983 and was later promoted to director of pro scouting and then to director of player personnel in 1990.

Hughes and his wife Adrienne have three children, sons Ted and Scott, and daughter Jennifer. The couple also has four grandchildren.

MARK BRUENER College Scout

Mark Bruener is in his first season as a college scout for the Steelers after spending the last three seasons as Pittsburgh's BLESTO scout.

Bruener played tight end in the NFL for 14 seasons, the first nine as a member of the Steelers (1995-2003) and the final five with the Houston Texans (2004-08). He was drafted by the Steelers in the first round (27th overall) of the 1995 NFL Draft, and he played in 126 games, making 108 starts. His 137 receptions and 16 receiving touchdowns each rank fifth all-time in team history for a tight end. Bruener was also known for his excellent blocking skills. In his nine seasons, the Steelers averaged 2,142 rushing yards per year. In 1998, Bruener was voted Steelers' Sprint Man of the Year for his dedication to community service.

He graduated from the University of Washington with a degree in economics. Bruener started his final three seasons at tight end, and finished his career with 90 receptions, which were the most by a tight end in team history at the time. During his freshman season, in which he saw action in all 12 games, the Huskies went undefeated and were named co-NCAA National Champions.

Bruener formerly served on the NFL Players Association Executive Committee. Prior to joining the Steelers' scouting staff full-time, Bruener spent the summer of 2010 interning with the Steelers' scouting department during training camp.

A native of Aberdeen, Wash., Bruener, 40, currently lives in Woodinville, Wash., with his wife, Traci, and two daughters, Allie and Chloe, and three sons, Carson, Braydon and Hudson.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

In nine seasons, he has led the Steelers to four division titles, three AFC Championships and two Super Bowl victories, becoming the second-youngest quarterback to win his second Super Bowl (Tom Brady).

Holds the career franchise records in numerous passing categories, including passing yards (29,844), passer rating (92.1), completion percentage (63.1), yards per attempt (8.0), completions (2,090), most 300-yard passing games (20) and most 3,000-yard passing seasons (7).

Owns two franchise records for career postseason passing, which are completion percentage (61.3) and passer rating (84.5).

Holds many of the single-season passing records for the Steelers including completions (337 in '09), touchdown passes (32 in '07), passer rating (104.1 in '07), completion percentage (66.6 in '09) and passing yards (4,328 in '09). He owns the five highest completion percentages for a single season, has completed four of the five most passes in a single season and has registered three of the four most passing yards in a single season in franchise history.

Holds the Steelers single-game records for most passing yards (503, 12/20/09 vs. GB), completions (38, 11/5/06 vs. Den), completion percentage (85.7, 11/26/07 vs. Mia) and is tied for the most touchdown passes (5), which he has done twice in his career (11/5/07 vs. Bal and 10/9/11 vs. Ten).

Earned two trips to the Pro Bowl (after the 2007 and 2011 seasons).

Became just the fourth quarterback who began their career in the Super Bowl era to reach 80 wins in 113 or fewer starts.

Is the first QB in franchise history to throw for more than 300 yards in three consecutive games (Weeks 7-9 in 2011).

Reached 25,000 passing yards in 3,109 passes, which is the second-fastest in NFL history (Kurt Warner 3,076).

Surpassed 250 completions in a franchise record six seasons (2006-09, 11-12)

Is only the second quarterback in team history (Terry Bradshaw, 111) to reach 75 career regular-season wins.

Reached 3,000 pass attempts for his career, becoming only the second quarterback in team history to do so (Bradshaw 3,901), and surpassed 150 touchdown passes to become only the second quarterback in Steelers' history (Terry Bradshaw) to reach 150.

Has been named AFC Offensive Player of the Week nine times in his career (Weeks 5 and 8 in '11, Week 17 in '10, Week 15 in '09, Week 5 in '08, Weeks 10 and 16 in '07, Week 5 in '06 and Week 6 in '04) while being voted the FedEx Air Player of the Week five times (Week 8 in '11, Week 5 in '08, Weeks 9 and 16 in '07, Week 5 in '06). Earned Sunday ESPN NFL Primetime Game Ball honors for the Wild Card, Divisional and AFC Championship Games in 2005.

Earned "The Chief Award" from the Pittsburgh chapter of the Pro Football Writers' Association in 2010.

Named Offensive Rookie of the Year by the AP, Sports Illustrated, Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, the Pro Football Writers Association, Football Digest and Pepsi, won the Joe Greene Great Performance Award given annually to the Steelers' top rookie, named to Pro Football Weekly's and the Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie Team, named Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week (Weeks 3-6, 8, 9, 11, 13, 16), NFL Rookie of the Month (October) and AFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 6) all in 2004.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Recorded a consecutive games played streak of 135 (2004-2012).

Since becoming a regular starter (2005-12), the Steelers have allowed only 191.3 net passing yards per game, which led the NFL during that span.

In the 124 regular season games he has played in since 2005, the defense only allowed seven players to record double-digit receptions in a single game and only nine 300-yard passers, including only one in 2011 and none in the 12 games he played in 2012.

Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors twice (Week 5, 2007 / Week 9, 2012).

Registered at least one interception in each of the last nine seasons.

Has started in three Super Bowls, helping Pittsburgh win two.

GAME 1 Denver 31 Pittsburgh 19

SEPTEMBER 9, 2012 SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD AT MILE HIGH (76,823)

DENVER — CB Tracy Porter intercepted QB Ben Roethlisberger and returned it 43 yards for a touchdown with less than two minutes remaining to seal the 31-19 Broncos victory over the Steelers in the 2012 season opener.

Both teams got off to a slow start as neither team scored in the first quarter. Pittsburgh struck early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham nailed a 21-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead. Midway through the second quarter the Broncos went up 7-3 when RB Knowshon Moreno scored on a seven-yard run.

The Steelers capitalized right before halftime when Roethlisberger connected with TE Heath Miller on a four-yard touchdown, and the Steelers took a 10-7 lead into the break.

Suisham connected on a 35-yard field goal midway through the third quarter to give Pittsburgh a 13-7 lead. But on Denver's ensuing drive, QB Peyton Manning and WR Demaryius Thomas connected on a 71-yard touchdown to put the Broncos up 14-13.

The Steelers took the lead back early in the fourth quarter and went up 19-14 when Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a three-yard touchdown. Roethlisberger finished 22-of-40 for 245 yards and two touchdowns.

The Broncos went on to score 17 unanswered points. Manning connected with TE Jacob Tamme on a one-yard score to put Denver up 22-19. Denver then extended their lead to 25-19 on K Matt Prater's 26-yard field goal. The Steelers had one final chance to win the game but Porter stepped in front of Roethlisberger's pass and returned it for a touchdown.

The Steelers controlled the ball for 35:05 compared to the Broncos 24:55, and the Steelers' offense converted 11-of-19 (58%) third-down attempts.

GAME 2  Pittsburgh 27  New York Jets 10

SEPTEMBER 16, 2012 HEINZ FIELD (64,511)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers defeated the New York Jets 27-10 in the 2012 home opener at Heinz Field. With the victory, the Steelers won their 10th consecutive home opener.

The Steelers got on the board first when K Shaun Suisham nailed a 45-yard field goal to put the Steelers up 3-0. The Jets responded on their ensuing drive as QB Mark Sanchez led New York on an eight-play, 90-yard drive that he capped off with a 14-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes.

Suisham connected from 45-yards out again early in the second quarter to cut the lead 7-6. New York extended its lead to 10-6 on K Nick Folk's 38-yard field goal midway through the second quarter but it would be the last points the Jets would score.

Just before halftime, the Steelers went up 13-10 when QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a one-yard touchdown, capping off an 11-play, 80-yard drive. Early in the third quarter, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 37-yard score to give the Steelers a 20-10 lead.

Roethlisberger finished 24-of-31 for 275 yards and two touchdowns for a quarterback rating of 125.1. It marked the 47th time Roethlisberger recorded a quarterback rating of 100.0+ during the regular season.

Pittsburgh sealed the victory late in the fourth quarter when RB Isaac Redman scored on a two-yard run. The Steelers controlled the ball for 10:13 on that drive, going 75 yards on 14 plays.

The Steelers defense held the Jets to 219 total net yards (129 passing and 90 rushing), while registering two sacks and holding the Jets to 4-of-12 on third-down conversions.

The Steelers dominated the time of possession 36:36-23:24 and continued their success on third-down conversions. For the second week in a row, the Steelers converted at least 50% of their third-down attempts.

GAME 3 Oakland 34 Pittsburgh 31

SEPTEMBER 23, 2012 OAKLAND-ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM (62,373)

OAKLAND – K Sebastian Janikowski kicked a 43-yard field goal as time expired to beat the Steelers 34-31. Pittsburgh dropped to 1-2 on the season.

S Ryan Clark intercepted QB Carson Palmer on the Raiders' first play of the game to set the Steelers up at Oakland's 36-yard line. Seven plays later, QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a four-yard touchdown to put the Steelers up 7-0.

The Raiders responded on their next drive as RB Darren McFadden scored on a 64-yard run to tie the game 7-7. Late in the first quarter, Roethlisberger hooked up with Miller again for another four-yard touchdown to put the Steelers up 14-7.

Oakland tied the game 14-14 right after the two-minute warning when Palmer found WR Darius Heyward-Bey for a three-yard touchdown. But Pittsburgh took a 17-14 lead into halftime on K Shaun Suisham's 33-yard field goal.

The Steelers scored on their first drive of the second half to take a 24-14 lead when Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 22-yard touchdown. Midway through the third quarter the Raiders cut the lead to 24-21 when Palmer found TE Richard Gordon for a one-yard touchdown.

Pittsburgh extended their lead to 31-21 late in the third quarter when Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for an 11-yard score. Roethlisberger finished with a game-high 384 passing yards and four touchdown passes.

Oakland scored the next 13 points. Palmer found WR Denarius Moore for a six-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 31-28. Janikowski connected from 32 yards out midway through the fourth quarter to tie the game 31-31. After the Raiders recovered a Steelers' fumble after the two-minute warning, Palmer led them down the field for Janikowski's game-winning kick.

GAME 4  Pittsburgh 16  Philadelphia 14

OCTOBER 7, 2012 HEINZ FIELD (64,737)

PITTSBURGH – K Shaun Suisham nailed a 34-yard field goal in the rain as time expired to lift the Steelers to a 16-14 victory against the Philadelphia Eagles at Heinz Field. It was Suisham's fifth career game-winning field goal and third as a Steeler.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Steelers found the end zone with five minutes left before the half. RB Rashard Mendenhall, in his first game of the 2012 season, scored on a 13-yard reception to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead.

Seconds before halftime, Suisham connected on a 20-yard field goal. For the fourth consecutive game, the Steelers scored on their final drive before halftime, and Pittsburgh took a 10-0 lead into the half.

The Eagles responded midway through the third quarter when QB Michael Vick found RB LeSean McCoy for a 15-yard touchdown to cut the lead 10-7. Suisham connected on a 34-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to give the Steelers a 13-7 lead.

Philadelphia went 79 yards on 17 plays and took a 14-13 lead as Vick found TE Brent Celek for a two-yard touchdown. The Eagles controlled the football for more than eight minutes on the drive.

Pittsburgh took over with more than six minutes left in the game. QB Ben Roethlisberger then led the team on a 14-play, 64-yard drive to set up Suisham's game-winning kick. It marked the 25th time in Roethlisberger's career that he registered a fourth-quarter/overtime game-winning drive.

The Steelers offensive line did not allow a sack and they paved the way for Steelers' rushers to gain a season-high 136 rushing yards. The Steelers defense forced a total of four fumbles and had two fumble recoveries. The defense forced three fumbles in the first half alone.

GAME 5 Tennessee 26 Pittsburgh 23

OCTOBER 11, 2012 LP FIELD (69,143)

NASHVILLE — K Rob Bironas connected on a 40-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Tennessee Titans to a 26-23 victory over the Steelers at LP Field.

The Titans took the opening kickoff and drove 69 yards on nine plays and went up 3-0 on Bironas' 22-yard field goal. Pittsburgh tied the game midway through the first quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 29-yard field goal.

After forcing Tennessee to punt, the Steelers took over at their own 18-yard line. On the very first play, QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for an 82-yard touchdown. It was the fourth-longest passing play of Roethlisberger's career and second-longest reception of Wallace's career.

Bironas nailed a 38-yard field goal near the end of the first quarter to cut the Steelers lead 10-6. And at the very end of the first quarter, LB Tim Shaw blocked a Drew Butler punt to set the Titans up at the Steelers' one-yard line. RB Jamie Harper then scored from one-yard out to give the Titans a 13-10 lead.

Bironas added another field goal, a 47-yarder as the halftime whistle sounded, and the Titans took a 16-10 lead into halftime.

The only score in the third quarter came on Suisham's 28-yard field goal and the Steelers faced a 16-13 deficit heading into the fourth quarter. Early in the fourth, RB Baron Batch scored his first career touchdown on a one-yard run to give the Steelers a 20-16 lead.

On the Titans' ensuing drive, LB Lawrence Timmons stepped in front of a Matt Hasselbeck pass and picked it off setting the Steelers up in Titans' territory. Suisham then made a 52-yard field goal to extend the Steelers lead to 23-16.

Tennessee started their ensuing drive on their own 20-yard line. Hasselbeck then led the Titans on an 11-play, 80-yard drive that was capped off by a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Kenny Britt. With the game tied 23-23, Pittsburgh took over at their own 11-yard line. Roethlisberger led the team into Titans' territory where Suisham attempted a career-long 54-yard field goal. The kick fell short.

GAME 6  Pittsburgh 24  Cincinnati 17
OCTOBER 21, 2012 PAUL BROWN STADIUM (63,411)

CINCINNATI – Facing a third-and-seven with less than two minutes remaining in the game, RB Jonathan Dwyer sprinted up the middle for 32 yards to seal the Steelers' 24-17 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium.

Pittsburgh scored on its opening possession to take a 3-0 lead on K Shaun Suisham's 42-yard field goal. On the ensuing kickoff, the Bengals took over at their own 20-yard line. QB Andy Dalton then led Cincinnati on a 15-play, 80-yard drive that was capped off with a five-yard touchdown run by RB Cedric Peerman to give the Bengals a 7-3 lead.

After a Kevin Huber punt was downed in Steelers' territory, Pittsburgh took over at its own 13-yard line. On the very first play, QB Ben Roethlisberger was sacked by DT Devon Still and DE Robert Geathers and fumbled the football. The Bengals recovered the ball and set up at the Pittsburgh eight-yard line. Dalton found WR A.J. Green for an eight-yard touchdown on the first play and the Bengals led 14-3.

Late in the second quarter, Suisham connected on a 47-yard field goal to cut the lead 14-6. On the Bengals' ensuing drive, LB LaMarr Woodley picked off Dalton to set the Steelers up at the Bengals 29-yard line. Roethlisberger then found TE Heath Miller for a nine-yard score. The Steelers then went for a two-point conversion, and Roethlisberger and Miller hooked up again for the two point-try and the teams entered halftime tied 14-14.

Cincinnati scored on its first drive of the second half to take a 17-14 lead when K Mike Nugent connected on a 48-yard field goal. It would be the last points the Bengals would score. Suisham would connect on a 42-yard field goal on the Steelers ensuing possession to tie the game 17-17.

The Steelers started a drive at their own 33-yard line late in the third quarter. Roethlisberger then led his team on an eight-play, 67-yard drive that was capped off by RB Chris Rainey's 11-yard touchdown run. It marked Rainey's first career touchdown.

After the Steelers made it 24-17, the Bengals had three more chances to tie the game but the Steelers defense forced Cincinnati to punt all three times on their final three drives.

GAME 7 Pittsburgh 27 Washington 12

OCTOBER 28, 2012 HEINZ FIELD (62,371)

PITTSBURGH – RB Jonathan Dwyer rushed for 107 yards and QB Ben Roethlisberger threw for three touchdowns, guiding the Steelers to a 27-12 victory over the Washington Redskins at Heinz Field. The Steelers improved to 4-3 on the season.

Pittsburgh took a 7-0 lead on its opening possession, marching 76 yards on 12 plays. Roethlisberger capped off the drive with a one-yard touchdown pass to TE Leonard Pope. The Steelers increased their lead 10-0 on their next drive on K Shaun Suisham's 48-yard field goal.

Early in the second quarter, Washington cut the lead to 10-6 when QB Robert Griffin III found WR Santana Moss for a two-yard touchdown but the Redskins' extra point attempt was blocked by DE Ziggy Hood. It was the first time the Steelers blocked a PAT since 2003.

Midway through the second quarter, Roethlisberger connected with TE Heath Miller on a seven-yard touchdown reception to increase Pittsburgh's lead 17-6. With the touchdown, Miller tied former TE Elbie Nickel (37) for the most receiving touchdowns by a tight end in team history.

Suisham connected on a 27-yard field goal late in the second quarter and the Steelers took a 20-6 lead into halftime. K Kai Forbath made a 48-yard field goal to cut the Steelers' lead to 20-9 on Washington's first possession of the second half.

Roethlisberger threw his final touchdown pass of the afternoon midway through the third quarter, finding FB Will Johnson for a one-yard score. The Redskins scored their final points of the afternoon on Forbath's 45-yard field goal.

The Steelers used a heavy dose of the run game throughout the second half, racking up 72 yards on 17 carries (4.2 avg.) Dwyer's final run of 13 yards put him over the century mark for the second-straight week.

Pittsburgh controlled the ball for more than 33 minutes and for the second time this season, the offensive line did not allow a quarterback sack. The defense held the Redskins' number-one rushing attack to just 86 yards and held Griffin III to 177 passing yards and a completion percentage of 47.1.

GAME 8  Pittsburgh 24  New York Giants 20
NOVEMBER 4, 2012 METLIFE STADIUM (80,991)

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – RB Isaac Redman scored on a one-yard run with four minutes left in the game to seal the Steelers 24-20 victory over the New York Giants at MetLife Stadium. The Steelers improved to 5-3 on the season with the win.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Steelers took a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Emmanuel Sanders for a four-yard touchdown pass that capped off an 11-play, 58-yard drive.

The Giants then scored 14-consecutive points in less than seven minutes. RB Andre Brown scored on a one-yard run to tie the game 7-7. And on the Steelers ensuing drive, Roethlisberger fumbled and Giants' LB Michael Boley returned it 70 yards for a touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead 14-10 when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 30-yard field goal as the halftime whistle sounded. The Giants extended their lead 17-10 on K Lawrence Tynes' 50-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. Tynes added a 23-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter to give New York a 20-10 lead but it would be the last points the Giants would score.

Early in the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace in the middle of the field and Wallace raced past defenders for a 51-yard touchdown. It marked Wallace's 25th career reception of 25+ yards and the 15th that went for a touchdown.

The Steelers defense forced a three-and-out on the Giants' ensuing drive. WR Emmanuel Sanders then returned a punt 63 yards to set the Steelers up at the Giants' 12-yard line. The Steelers drive stalled and the team set up for a field goal. Pittsburgh went for the fake but the Giants stopped them short of the goal line. Pittsburgh's defense forced another Giants' three-and-out. And on the Steelers next possession, the team drove 51 yards on nine plays for the game-winning touchdown.

Entering the game, the Giants had outscored their opponents by 42 points in the fourth quarter. The Steelers defense didn't allow the Giants to score and the Steelers offense put up 14 points. After only being sacked six times all season, the Steelers defense brought down Giants' QB Eli Manning twice.

GAME 9 Pittsburgh 16 Kansas City 13 (OT)

NOVEMBER 12, 2012 HEINZ FIELD (57,644)

PITTSBURGH – LB Lawrence Timmons intercepted QB Matt Cassel on the second play of overtime and K Shaun Suisham booted a 23-yard field goal one play later as the Steelers overcame a sluggish game to capture a 16-13 victory over the visiting Kansas City Chiefs. The Steelers improved to 6-3 on the year and won their fourth straight game, including their record 15th consecutive win on Monday Night Football.

The Steelers struggled most of the night getting in sync on a cold, rainy night at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh fell behind 10-0 early in the second quarter after a pair of Kansas City scores. The offense was able to respond and knot the score at 10-10 by the half as Suisham connected on 35-yard field goal and QB Ben Roethlisberger hit WR Mike Wallace for a seven-yard touchdown.

Pittsburgh suffered a significant injury in the third quarter, though, as Roethlisberger was taken from the game with a right shoulder injury. He did not return, and QB Byron Leftwich finished the game. Leftwich, in his first action of the season, was 7-of-14 for 73 yards.

Suisham added his second of three field goals in the game with 12:37 remaining in the contest to give Pittsburgh a 13-10 lead. However, the Chiefs were able to tie the game and force overtime as K Ryan Succop booted a 46-yard, game-tying field goal as time expired in the fourth quarter.

Suisham finished the game 3-for-3 in field goals on a night when both offenses struggled. Both teams managed 14 first downs but the Steelers were just 6-of-16 on third downs while Kansas City was a mere 2-of-13 on such downs.

S Ryan Clark led the Steelers with 10 tackles before leaving the game in the fourth quarter. Timmons added seven tackles, one interception and two passes defended in the win.

GAME 10  Baltimore 13  Pittsburgh 10
NOVEMBER 18, 2012 HEINZ FIELD (63,446)

PITTSBURGH – The Ravens converted two field goals and WR Jacoby Jones returned a punt 63 yards for a touchdown to beat the Steelers 13-10 at Heinz Field. The Steelers fell to 6-4 on the season and the Ravens improved to 8-2.

It only took the Steelers two plays to score their first touchdown. QB Byron Leftwich, starting in place of injured QB Ben Roethlisberger, led the team 80 yards on just two plays to take a 7-0 lead. Leftwich capped off the drive with a career-long 31-yard touchdown run.

Pittsburgh held the Ravens to a three-and-out and forced a punt on their first possession. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, Leftwich found WR Mike Wallace for a 15-yard gain on a third-and-10 but Wallace was stripped of the football by CB Chris Johnson. S Ed Reed picked up the fumble and returned it to the Steelers' 14-yard line. The Steelers defense forced another Ravens three-and-out but K Justin Tucker connected on a 26-yard field goal to cut the lead to 7-3.

Late in the first quarter, Jones returned Drew Butler's punt 63 yards for a touchdown. It marked Jones' third return for a touchdown on the season. Baltimore looked to extend its lead early in the second quarter but Tucker's 41-yard attempt sailed to the right. Neither team scored points in the second quarter and the Ravens took a 10-7 lead into halftime.

Pittsburgh forced another Baltimore three-and-out on the Ravens first possession of the second half. On the Steelers first drive of the second half, Leftwich led the team into Ravens' territory. But on a third-and-eight, Leftwich's pass that was intended for WR Emmanuel Sanders was picked off by CB Corey Graham.

Tucker connected from 39 yards out on the Ravens' ensuing drive to give the Ravens a 13-7 lead. K Shaun Suisham made a 22-yard field goal late in the third quarter to cut the lead 13-10, but it would be the closest the Steelers would get.

The Steelers outgained the Ravens 311-to-200 in total net yards and Steelers' rushers outgained the Ravens 134-to-47 on the ground. For the 33rd consecutive game, the Steelers held their opponent to less than 300 net passing yards in a game.

GAME 11 Cleveland 20 Pittsburgh 14

NOVEMBER 25, 2012 CLEVELAND BROWNS STADIUM (69,661)

CLEVELAND – The Steelers could not overcome a season-high eight turnovers (five fumbles and three interceptions) and fell to the Cleveland Browns, 20-14, at Cleveland Browns Stadium.

Pittsburgh's defense got off to a quick start. On the Browns' first drive of the game, DE Brett Keisel tipped QB Brandon Weeden's pass, and LB Lawrence Timmons picked it off and returned in 53 yards for a touchdown to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead. It marked Timmons' third interception of the season, which is a career high.

The Steelers' defense held the Browns to a three-and-out on their next drive, and the Steelers' offense, led by veteran QB Charlie Batch, took over from their own 41-yard line. But two plays later, RB Rashard Mendenhall fumbled, which gave the Browns the ball in Steelers' territory. Seven plays later, the Browns cut the lead 7-3 on K Phil Dawson's 28-yard field goal.

Early in the second quarter, the Steelers faced a third-and-19 from their own five-yard line. RB Isaac Redman took a handoff and fumbled, setting the Browns up at the Steelers' 10-yard line. Three plays later, Weeden found TE Cameron Jordan for a five-yard touchdown to give the Browns a 10-7 lead.

Midway through the second quarter, Weeden led the Browns on a 10-play, 44-yard drive that ended with a 32-yard Phil Dawson field goal to extend Cleveland's lead to 13-7. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, RB Jonathan Dwyer fumbled. Pittsburgh's defense forced the Browns to punt on the ensuing drive, and the Steelers took over with less than two minutes remaining in the half.

Batch then led the Steelers on a nine-play, 84-yard drive that was capped off with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Chris Rainey with only one second left. It marked Rainey's second career touchdown, and the Steelers took a 14-13 lead into halftime.

Midway through the third quarter, Batch was intercepted by CB Sheldon Brown. Three plays later, RB Trent Richardson scored on a 15-yard run to give the Browns a 20-14 lead, and ultimately the win. The Steelers had opportunities to capture the go-ahead score, but the Steelers turned the ball over four more times in the fourth quarter.

GAME 12  Pittsburgh 23  Baltimore 20
DECEMBER 2, 2012 M&T BANK STADIUM (71,442)

BALTIMORE – K Shaun Suisham nailed a 42-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Steelers to a 23-20 victory over the Baltimore Ravens at M&T Bank Stadium. The win snapped the Ravens' 15-game home winning streak and 12-game AFC North winning streak.

Suisham nailed a 46-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead, capping off an 11-play, 48-yard drive on Pittsburgh's first possession. The Ravens tied the game, 3-3, on K Justin Tucker's 45-yard field goal early in the second quarter. Tucker added a 23-yard field goal midway through the second quarter to give Baltimore a 6-3 lead.

The Steelers marched into Ravens' territory on their ensuing drive, but CB Corey Graham picked off WR Antonio Brown's pass on a trick play. QB Joe Flacco then led the team on a four-play, 69-yard drive that was capped off by a 28-yard touchdown pass to WR Anquan Boldin.

Suisham added a 41-yard field goal prior to halftime and the Steelers trailed 13-6 going into the break.

Pittsburgh tied the game 13-13 on its first drive of the second half. QB Charlie Batch led the team on a seven-play, 78-yard drive and threw a key block on RB Jonathan Dwyer's 16-yard touchdown run. Midway through the third, the Ravens took a 20-13 lead when RB Ray Rice scored on a 34-yard touchdown run.

LB James Harrison sacked and stripped Flacco early in the fourth quarter. The Steelers took over in Ravens' territory and tied the game 20-20 when Batch found TE Heath Miller for a seven-yard touchdown pass midway through the fourth quarter. It was Miller's 38th career receiving touchdown, giving him the team's all-time record for receiving touchdowns by a tight end.

Pittsburgh held the Ravens on their next possession and forced a punt. Batch and the Steelers took over at their own 15-yard line. Batch then led the team on a 12-play, 61-yard drive that took up the remaining 6:14 left in the game. Suisham's game-winning kick was the seventh of his career, the third this season and his fifth as a Steeler.

GAME 13 San Diego 34 Pittsburgh 24

DECEMBER 9, 2012 HEINZ FIELD (61,359)

PITTSBURGH – QB Philip Rivers threw for 200 yards and three touchdowns, lifting the visiting San Diego Chargers to a 34-24 victory over the Steelers at Heinz Field. The Steelers dropped to 7-6 on the season.

San Diego scored the first 13 points of the contest. Late in the first quarter, K Nick Novak connected on a 51-yard field goal to give the Chargers a 3-0 lead. Late in the second quarter, Rivers found WR Danario Alexander down the sideline for a 39-yard touchdown to give San Diego a 10-0 lead. With just 50 seconds left in the half, Novak drilled a 39-yard field goal to give the Chargers a 13-0 lead.

The Steelers managed to cut the lead to 13-3 when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 49-yard field goal at the end of the first half. On the Chargers first drive of the second half, Rivers led the team on a 17-play, 78-yard drive that took 9:32 off the clock. Rivers capped off that drive with a three-yard pass to WR Malcom Floyd, and San Diego took a 20-3 lead.

On Pittsburgh's ensuing drive, QB Ben Roethlisberger attempted to throw a screen pass to WR Antonio Brown but the ball ricocheted off TE David Paulson and rolled into the endzone. CB Quentin Jammer recovered the ball in the endzone for the touchdown and the Chargers took a 27-3 lead.

Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace on the Steelers' ensuing possession for a 40-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead 27-10. It was Wallace's 26th career reception of 40+ yards and the 16th that has gone for a touchdown.

The Steelers held the Chargers on their next drive and forced them to punt. But Roethlisberger threw an interception to Chargers' LB Bront Bird on the second play of the drive. Rivers then threw his third touchdown pass of the game, a 15-yarder to Alexander, and San Diego led 34-10.

Roethlisberger threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Wallace midway through the fourth to cut the lead 34-17, and Roethlisberger threw a one-yard touchdown to Brown with less than a minute remaining.

DECEMBER 16, 2012 COWBOYS STADIUM (95,595)

ARLINGTON, Texas – CB Brandon Carr's interception of QB Ben Roethlisberger set up K Dan Bailey's game-winning 21-yard field goal in overtime, lifting the Cowboys to a 27-24 victory over the Steelers.

The Cowboys scored the first 10 points of the contest. Bailey connected on a 50-yard field goal midway through the first quarter to give Dallas a 3-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, QB Tony Romo found TE Jason Witten for a 17-yard touchdown pass to give the Cowboys a 10-0 lead.

Pittsburgh responded with 10 unanswered points. First, K Shaun Suisham nailed a 32-yard field goal midway through the second quarter to cut the lead 10-3. And prior to halftime, Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a 30-yard touchdown to tie the game at 10-10.

Romo found WR Dez Bryant for a 24-yard touchdown pass midway through the third quarter to give the Cowboys a 17-10 lead. But on the Steelers' ensuing drive, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 60-yard completion, which set up another Steelers touchdown. RB Jonathan Dwyer scored from one-yard out to tie the game 17-17.

Early in the fourth quarter, Pittsburgh took a 24-17 lead when Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a seven-yard touchdown. The Steelers defense forced the Cowboys to punt on their next drive. On the punt return, Brown was stripped of the ball and the Cowboys took over in Steelers' territory.

Romo then led the Cowboys on a seven-play drive that was capped off by RB DeMarco Murray's three-yard touchdown run to tie the game 24-24. Both teams possessed the ball late in the game but were unable to capitalize and the game went into overtime.

The Steelers won the toss in overtime and elected to receive. On the second play of overtime, Roethlisberger's pass was picked off by Carr and returned to the Pittsburgh one-yard line. Bailey then made the game-winning kick two plays later.

GAME 15 Cincinnati 13 Pittsburgh 10

DECEMBER 23, 2012 HEINZ FIELD (63,236)

PITTSBURGH – K Josh Brown connected on a 43-yard field goal with four seconds left in regulation, lifting the Cincinnati Bengals to a 13-10 victory over the Steelers at Heinz Field.

The Bengals took a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter when CB Leon Hall stepped in front of QB Ben Roethlisberger's pass and returned it 17 yards for a touchdown. The Steelers marched right down the field on their ensuing drive but K Shaun Suisham missed a 24-yard field goal attempt.

With less than four minutes to go in the half, Cincinnati took over at the Pittsburgh 42-yard line. Brown made a 41-yard field goal to cap off the drive, and the Bengals increased their lead to 10-0. On the second play of the Steelers ensuing drive, QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown streaking down the sideline for a 60-yard touchdown, and the Steelers went into halftime trailing 10-7.

The only score in the third quarter came when Suisham connected on a 40-yard field goal to tie the game 10-10. The Steelers defense forced its first of two fourth quarter turnovers when CB Cortez Allen forced a fumble on WR A.J. Green. But Pittsburgh was forced to punt on their next possession. On the Bengals next drive, Allen recorded his second interception of the afternoon and second of his career but the Steelers once again were unable to capitalize.

Cincinnati took over on its own 10-yard line midway through the fourth quarter. Dalton led his team to the Pittsburgh 38-yard line where Brown attempted a 56-yard field goal. His attempt came up short. On the Steelers' next drive, Suisham attempted a 53-yard field goal, but his attempt also came up short.

The Steelers defense forced another Cincinnati punt and took over at its own 11-yard line with less than a minute to play. On the third play of the drive, Roethlisberger's pass was picked off by Reggie Nelson, who returned it to the Pittsburgh 46-yard line. Dalton then threw a 21-yard strike to Green, setting up Brown's game-winning kick.

GAME 16  Pittsburgh 24  Cleveland 10
DECEMBER 30, 2012 HEINZ FIELD (51,831)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger capped off a three-touchdown performance with a 12-yard strike to WR Plaxico Burress late in the fourth quarter to seal the Steelers 24-10 victory over the visiting Cleveland Browns at Heinz Field. With the win, the Steelers finished 8-8 on the season.

Neither team scored in the first quarter but the Browns were at the Steelers' 25-yard line. S Troy Polamalu picked off QB Thad Lewis to end Cleveland's threat of scoring. It was Polamalu's 30th career interception.

Midway through the second quarter, K Shaun Suisham connected on a 41-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead. K Phil Dawson's 51-yard field goal tied the game at 3-3 late in the second quarter. After forcing a Steelers' punt, the Browns took over with just less than two minutes remaining in the half.

But on the second play of the drive, CB Cortez Allen forced a fumble on WR Josh Gordon that was recovered by LB Lawrence Timmons. Roethlisberger then led the team on a three-play, 24-yard drive that was capped off with a one-yard touchdown pass to TE Leonard Pope, and the Steelers took a 10-3 lead into halftime.

Cleveland marched 80 yards in six plays on its opening drive of the second half to tie the game 10-10. On that drive, the Browns faked a punt for a 35-yard gain and the Steelers committed a 35-yard pass interference penalty, which help set up Lewis' seven-yard touchdown pass to WR Greg Little.

On Pittsburgh's ensuing drive, Roethlisberger led the team on a 12-play, 80-yard drive that was capped off with a nine-yard touchdown pass to WR Antonio Brown to give the Steelers a 17-10 lead late in the third quarter.

In the middle of the fourth quarter, the Steelers' defense forced its third turnover of the game. Lewis completed a pass to WR Travis Benjamin and Allen forced his second fumble of the afternoon and returned it 21 yards to the Cleveland 27-yard line. It marked Allen's fifth forced turnover in the last two games. Six plays later, Roethlisberger found Burress for the game-clinching touchdown.

80 SEASONS OF
HISTORY
PITTSBURGH STEELERS

STEELERS History

The fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL, the Steelers were founded on July 8, 1933, by Arthur Joseph Rooney. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, they were a member of the Eastern Division of the 10-team NFL. The other four current NFL teams in existence at that time were the Chicago (Arizona) Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears and New York Giants.

One of the great pioneers of the sports world, Art Rooney passed away on August 25, 1988, following a stroke at the age of 87. "The Chief", as he was affectionately known, is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and is remembered as one of Pittsburgh's great people.

Born on January 27, 1901, in Coulterville, Pa., Art Rooney was the oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death he lived on the North Side, just a short distance from Three Rivers Stadium.

Rooney attended St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School. He studied collegiately at Indiana (Pa.) Normal, which is now Indiana University of Pennsylvania, as well as at Georgetown and Duquesne.

An exceptional all-around athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships and was named to the U.S. Olympic Boxing Team in 1920, although he did not participate in the Olympic Games. He played minor league baseball from 1920-25 before a promising career was cut short by an arm injury. Rooney continued playing football for several semi-pro teams in the Pittsburgh area. He was married on June 11, 1931, to Kathleen McNulty, and the couple had five sons — Daniel, Art Jr., Tim, John and Pat. In 1964, Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame for his contributions to the growth of the NFL and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

By the mid-1960s, Rooney had begun to turn over much of the operation of the Steelers to his oldest son, Dan. After having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Daniel M. Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. In 2000, Dan Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He joined his his father Art to form only the second father-son tandem to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. The late New York Giants owners Wellington Mara and his father Tim were the first.

Dan Rooney spent 54 consecutive years with the organization before being named U.S. Ambassador to Ireland in 2009 by President Barack Obama. Rooney was required to move to Ireland in 2009 to fulfill his duties as ambassador.

As an NFL owner, Dan Rooney was widely recognized as one of the league's most influential executives and one of Pittsburgh's leading contributors to civic affairs. Among his community activities, Dan Rooney is a board member for The American Ireland Fund, The Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation and The Heinz History Center.

Dan Rooney has been a member of several NFL committees over the past 30-plus years. He has served on the board of directors for the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films and the Scheduling Committee. He was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee in 1973, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion teams in 1976.

In 1976, Rooney was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL and the Players' Association. He again played a key role in the labor agreement reached between NFL owners and players in 1993. Rooney was also largely responsible for developing the realignment plan and scheduling format that the NFL adopted prior to the 2002 season. In October 2002, he was named chairman of the NFL's Diversity in the Workplace Committee. Rooney is also Chairman of the Hall of Fame Committee. In February 1999, he was named the recipient of the Philadelphia Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award for outstanding contributions to the game of football.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He is a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High School, where he played quarterback on the varsity football team. He went on to graduate from Duquesne University in 1955 with a bachelor of arts degree in accounting. Rooney and his wife Patricia live on the North Side. The Rooneys have nine children and 17 grandchildren.

Dan Rooney was named Steelers' Chairman Emeritus in July 2009 after he was named United States Ambassador to Ireland. Rooney served as United States Ambassador until late 2012. He returned to the Steelers and currently serves as chairman.

In 2002, Dan Rooney officially turned over the title of Steelers' team president to his oldest son, Art Rooney II, who had previously served as the team's vice president and general counsel. Art II also previously served as Chairman of the Board of Klett Rooney Lieber & Schorling (now Buchanan Ingersoll), Attorneys at Law. A 1978 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh where he majored in political science, Art II received his law degree from Duquesne University School of Law in 1982. His many charitable contributions include sitting on the boards of Pittsburgh's Children's Museum, Greater Pittsburgh Council of the Boy Scouts of America, United Way of Allegheny County and Board of Trustees at Duquesne University. He and his wife Greta have four children.

STEELERS History

1930s After founding the Pirates in 1933, Art Rooney watched his club struggle through its first seven seasons with just 22 wins and five different head coaches. While home games were played at Forbes Field, Rooney often took his team to such cities as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans, and Louisville in the 1930s due to competition with baseball and college football.

In 1938 Rooney signed Colorado All-America Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first "big money" player in the NFL. White led the league in rushing that year and became one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni. He served 31 years as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court before retiring in 1993.

1934 Pittsburgh Pirates

1940s In 1940 Rooney changed the team name to the Pittsburgh Steelers, representing the heritage of Pittsburgh. The first winning record in the organization's history came in 1942 when head coach Walt Kiesling led the Steelers to a 7-4 finish with the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the next year Dudley joined the Armed Forces along with many other NFL players as the nation went to war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 (Phil-Pitt "Steagles") and with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) in 1944.

Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland in 1946, and Dudley returned from the war to earn NFL MVP honors, leading the league in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns. Today, Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Sutherland led the 1947 Steelers to an 8-4 record and a share of the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever postseason game, 21-0, to Philadelphia. Sutherland died suddenly the following spring while on a scouting trip.

1950s Succeeding Sutherland, John Michelosen was head coach for the 1948-51 seasons, compiling a 20-26-2 record. In 1952 Joe Bach returned for his second stint with the Steelers, having coached the team previously in 1935-36. The Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T-formation in 1952.

Bach resigned for health reasons following the 1954 season and was replaced by assistant coach Walt Kiesling, who had been the Steelers' head coach twice previously. Kiesling's three stints covered the 1939-40, 1941-44, and 1954-56 campaigns.

Lowell Perry becomes the NFL's first African-American assistant coach.

1938

Byron "Whizzer" White paid an unheard-of $15,800 to play one season for the Steelers.

1940

The Pittsburgh Pirates are officially renamed the Pittsburgh Steelers.

1942

November 22 – The Steelers defeat the Chicago Cards 19-3 to clinch their first winning season in team history.

1943

The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Philadelphia Eagles to form the "Steagles" as many rosters were depleted due to World War II.

1947

December 21 – The Steelers play their first postseason game, a 21-0 setback to the Philadelphia Eagles in the Eastern Division Playoffs.

1944

The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) as many rosters were still depleted due to World War II.

STEELERS History

1960s Buddy Parker was named head coach in 1957 and over the next eight years he led the Steelers to five non-losing seasons. Hall of Fame quarterback Bobby Layne quarterbacked the team through three of those campaigns, leading the Steelers to a 9-5 mark and a playoff game versus Detroit in 1962, which the Steelers lost 17-10. Parker completed his tenure with a 51-48-6 record and ranks fourth among all-time Steelers coaches for career wins.

On October 25, 1964, the Steelers made team history when they retired jersey No. 70 in honor of former defensive tackle Ernie Stautner. Stautner, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, remains the only Steelers player to have his jersey retired.

Brief head coaching stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of 37-year-old Chuck Noll on January 27, 1969. Noll began to rebuild the Steelers through the draft, starting with the defense when he selected defensive tackle Joe Greene with his first choice in 1969. Today, Greene is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1964

October 25 – The Steelers retire Ernie Stautner's No. 70, becoming the first and only jersey number to be retired in team history.

1969

January 27 – Chuck Noll is named head coach of the Steelers.

1969

January 28 – "Mean" Joe Greene is selected by the Steelers in the first round of the NFL Draft.

1970s A 1-13 record in 1969 gave the Steelers the first overall choice in the 1970 draft, with which Noll addressed the offense by selecting quarterback Terry Bradshaw, another Hall of Famer, after the Steelers won the first selection by winning a coin toss with the Chicago Bears. Cornerback Mel Blount was added in the third round that year, followed by linebacker Jack Ham in 1971 and running back Franco Harris in 1972. In all, Noll drafted 10 players who are now enshrined in the Hall of Fame including three in his first 20 picks and four of his first 38.

Two significant changes took place in 1970. The Steelers moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL. The Steelers also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium opened. Previously, the Steelers had played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium from 1958-63. From 1964-69 the Steelers played at Pitt Stadium until Three Rivers opened in 1970.

Gradual improvement in the early 1970s resulted in the team's first division title in 1972 with an 11-3 record. In the first playoff game at Three Rivers the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders, 13-7, with Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute. Despite a 21-17 loss the following week to the undefeated Miami Dolphins, the Steelers had reached a new plateau.

1970

August 28 – Pittsburgh defeats the New York Giants, 21-6, in the first preseason game at Three Rivers Stadium.

1970

September 20 – The Steelers fall to the Houston Oilers, 19-7, in their first regular-season game at Three Rivers Stadium.

1970

The Pittsburgh Steelers move from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL.

1972

December 23 – The Steelers win their first playoff game in dramatic fashion with a 13-7 victory over the Oakland Raiders on Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception."

STEELERS History

Super Bowl X, Steelers 21, Cowboys 17

It took 40 years for the Steelers to finally win their first division title, but over the next decade they achieved a level of success unprecedented in professional football.

In 1973 the Steelers won a wild card playoff berth with a 10-4 record. Oakland avenged their loss from the previous year, however, with a 33-14 defeat of the Steelers in the playoffs.

The Steelers won their first of six consecutive AFC Central titles in 1974 and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to their first Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl IX. The fierce Pittsburgh defense led the way to a 16-6 victory over the Minnesota Vikings, and Art Rooney was presented the Vince Lombardi Trophy for the first time.

In 1975 the Steelers won 11 straight games to finish 12-2 and claim their second consecutive division crown. After defeating Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs, the Steelers became the third team in NFL history, joining Green Bay and Miami, to win back-to-back Super Bowls with a 21-17 defeat of the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X.

1974

January 29, 1974 – The Steelers select future Hall of Famers Lynn Swann (first round), Jack Lambert (second), John Stallworth (fourth) and Mike Webster (fifth) in the NFL Draft. Many consider it the best draft in NFL history. Following the draft, the Steelers also signed free agent Donnie Shell, who went on to become one of the team's all-time best safeties.

January 12 – Pittsburgh defeats the Minnesota Vikings, 16-6, to capture the team's first Super Bowl victory in Super Bowl IX in New Orleans' Tulane Stadium.

1975

Dan Rooney is named President of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

1976

January 18 – The Steelers win their second consecutive league championship with a 21-17 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X in Miami, Fla.

The 1976 Steelers struggled to a 1-4 start before reeling off nine straight victories, including five shutouts, to win the division with a 10-4 mark. They defeated Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs, but lost to Oakland, 24-7, after both starting running backs, Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, were injured. The following year the Steelers dropped a 34-21 decision to Denver in the first round of the playoffs after posting a 9-5 regular-season record.

In 1978 the Steelers made history after a league-best 14-2 regular season and playoff wins versus Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5). Their 35-31 Super Bowl XIII win versus Dallas made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Yet another standard was set the following year in the 1979 Steelers defeated the Los Angeles Rams, 31-19, in Super Bowl XIV to make them the first team in history to win four Super Bowls and the only team to win back-to-back Super Bowls twice. The Super Bowl victory followed a 12-4 regular season and playoff wins versus Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central crowns, eight straight years of playoff appearances and four Super Bowl championships, the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

The 1970's Steelers were tagged "Team of the Decade."

1979

January 21 – Pittsburgh defeats the Dallas Cowboys, 35-31, in Super Bowl XIII in Miami, Fla., becoming the first team to win three Super Bowls.

STEELERS History

1980s As the 1980s opened the Steelers stumbled, failing to make the playoffs in 1980 and 1981 with records of 9-7 and 8-8.

In 1982 the Steelers celebrated the team's 50th anniversary by qualifying for the playoffs with a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. During the season an anniversary banquet was held to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the Steelers' all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh for a week of activities and exhibits before the anniversary season was ended by San Diego's 31-28 win in the playoffs. This would be the last playoff game at Three Rivers until the 1992 season, a span of 10 years.

The 1983 Steelers won their eighth division title with a 10-6 record, but fell in the postseason, 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The following year the Steelers won their ninth division crown and the team advanced to the AFC Championship game with a 24-17 playoff win at Denver. A 45-28 loss to Miami in the AFC Championship game prevented the Steelers from a fifth Super Bowl appearance.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 with a 7-9 finish, followed by a 6-10 record in 1986. Playoff hopes remained alive in 1987 until the Steelers lost their last two games to finish 8-7 during the strike-shortened season.

In 1988 the team suffered through its worst campaign in 19 years with a 5-11 record. The next season got off to a similar start with losses of 51-0 and 41-10 in the first two games as the offense failed to score in the first month of the season. But the young team fought back to finish 9-7 and earn a wild card playoff berth on the season's final weekend. An exciting 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston was followed by a heartbreaking 24-23 divisional playoff loss at Denver in which the Steelers led until the final minutes.

1990s A 9-7 finish in 1990 left the Steelers in a three-way tie for the AFC Central lead, but they were eliminated from playoff contention by a 2-4 division record. The 1991 team finished second in the division despite a 7-9 record, winning the last two games under Noll at home against the Cincinnati Bengals and Cleveland Browns.

On December 26, 1991 Noll announced his retirement from football after 39 consecutive seasons, the last 23 as the Steelers' head coach, which made him one of only four men to coach the same team for 23 consecutive years. He left as the fifth-winningest coach in NFL history with an overall record of 209-156-1, and as the only coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll was rewarded in 1993 with his election to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

A new era began in 1992 with the retirement of Noll and the arrival of 34-year-old Bill Cowher, the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time he assumed control. In the first season of the new era, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984 with an 11-5 record. While the team enjoyed new-found success, Cowher was recognized by the Associated Press as the NFL's Coach of the Year and six Steelers played in the Pro Bowl, the most in more than a decade.

Under Cowher the Steelers became the first AFC team since the 1970 merger to claim its 10th division title. Their 11-5 record equaled the best in the conference and gave the Steelers home field advantage throughout the playoffs. However, in the first postseason game at Three Rivers in exactly 10 years, the Steelers were defeated by eventual AFC champion Buffalo, 24-3.

STEELERS History

Steelers History

In 1992, 34-year-old Bill Cowher became the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time. In his first season, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984.

In 1993, the Steelers earned a wild card playoff berth, marking their first consecutive playoff appearances since the 1983-84 seasons. A 9-7 record was good for second place in the division, but the season ended in a 27-24 overtime loss at Kansas City in the AFC Wild Card game.

The 1994 Steelers won seven of their final eight regular-season games for their strongest finish since 1978. They captured their second division title in three years with an AFC-best 12-4 record. After a 29-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the playoffs, Pittsburgh hosted its first AFC Championship game since 1979. The game went down to the wire and the Steelers lost to the San Diego Chargers, 17-13.

1995 AFC Championship, Steelers 20, Colts 16

At 38, Bill Cowher became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl in 1995. Along the way, Cowher's team captured their third AFC Central division title in four years, made their fourth straight playoff appearance and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979. After a first-round bye, they defeated the Buffalo Bills (40-21) and the Indianapolis Colts (20-16), before losing to the Dallas Cowboys, 27-17, in Super Bowl XXX in Tempe, Ariz.

In 1996, the Steelers finished 10-6 and earned their fifth consecutive trip to the playoffs. Cowher ended the season with 57 career victories, ranking him as the second winningest coach in team history, behind his predecessor Noll.

The Steelers captured their fourth consecutive AFC Central title in 1997 while posting an 11-5 record. They were one play away from earning their sixth Super Bowl appearance but lost to Denver, 24-21, in the AFC Championship game.

In 1998, the Steelers finished a disappointing 7-9, losing their last five regular-season games and missing the playoffs for the first time under Bill Cowher.

The Steelers suffered their second consecutive losing season in 1999, when their record fell to 6-10.

1988

August 25 – Art Rooney Sr. passes away at the age of 87 following a stroke.

1991

STEELERS History

2000s After starting the 2000 season with a 0-3 record, the Steelers rebounded to finish the year at 9-7, and barely missed the playoffs.

However, 2000 will be remembered most for being the final season for the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. The Steelers were 4-4 during their final season at Three Rivers Stadium, including victories in four of their final six home games. The Steelers won their final game at Three Rivers, 24-3, against the Washington Redskins on Dec. 16.

The Steelers finished 31 seasons at Three Rivers Stadium (1970-2000) with a 182-73 home record, including the postseason. The Steelers recorded their largest regular-season home attendance figures (440,428) since 1998 in the final season, including a season-high 58,183 fans during the final game in stadium history.

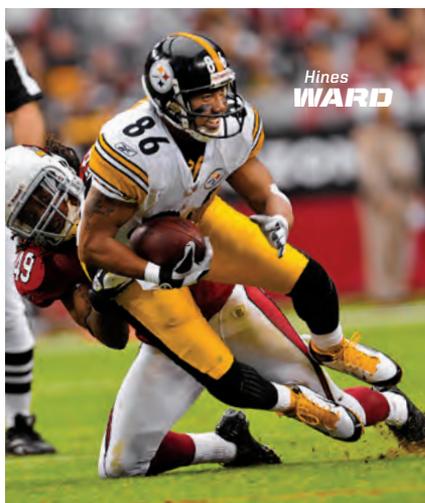

The Steelers began a new era in team history in 2001 with the opening of their new stadium, Heinz Field. The Steelers posted an AFC-best 13-3 regular-season record, including a 7-1 mark at home, and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

The inaugural game at Heinz Field was originally scheduled to be a nationally televised Sunday Night game on Sept. 16. However, the September 11 terrorist attacks on America forced the NFL to postpone all games that weekend — which were eventually rescheduled for the end of the season. As a result, the Steelers opened Heinz Field on Sunday, Oct. 7 with a 16-7 win against the Cincinnati Bengals.

The Steelers defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens, 27-10, in the AFC Divisional Playoffs, in the first-ever postseason game played at Heinz Field. However, they suffered a disappointing 24-17 loss at home in the AFC Championship Game to the eventual Super Bowl-champion New England Patriots.

After a 0-2 start in 2002, the Steelers rallied to make the playoffs for the second consecutive season. However, the team's Super Bowl hopes ended when they lost, 34-31, in overtime to the Tennessee Titans on the road.

The Steelers began the 2003 season with a 34-15 victory against AFC North rival Baltimore Ravens. However, the team never regained that magic and finished the season with a 6-10 record and missed the playoffs for the first time in three years.

Hines
WARD

The Steelers set a team record in 2004 by becoming the first AFC team to win 15 games (15-1) in the regular season. They ultimately advanced to the AFC Championship Game where they lost to the New England Patriots, 41-27. Nine Steelers were selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, the team's most since the 1979 season.

Pittsburgh found itself sitting at 7-5 after 12 games in 2005, but it rallied to win its final four regular-season games to earn the AFC's sixth seed in the playoffs. The Steelers then won an unprecedented three straight road playoff games to gain a berth in Super Bowl XL in Detroit versus the Seattle Seahawks.

Art Rooney II was named President of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2002.

STEELERS History

Mike Tomlin was hired on January 22, 2007.

The Steelers captured their fifth Super Bowl title with a 21-10 victory over the Seahawks as wide receiver Hines Ward was named MVP, finishing with five receptions for 123 yards. Ward also hauled in a game-clinching 43-yard TD pass from Antwaan Randle El on a gadget play midway through the fourth quarter.

The 2006 season saw the Bill Cowher era come to an end with the Steelers finishing the season winning six of their final eight games to post an 8-8 record on the year.

On January 5, 2006, Bill Cowher resigned as Steelers head coach with a 161-99-1 overall record, second-best in team history.

February 5 – The Pittsburgh Steelers win their fifth Super Bowl title with a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XL in Detroit.

The Steelers hired 34-year old Mike Tomlin as the team's coach. Tomlin was the NFL's youngest head coach at the time he was hired on Jan. 22, 2007.

Tomlin became the second first-year coach in team history to make the playoffs. The Steelers finished with a 10-6 overall record and won the AFC North division title.

Mike Tomlin became the first coach in franchise history to win a division title in each of his first two seasons when the Steelers captured their second consecutive AFC North division title with a 12-4 record. They went on to defeat the San Diego Chargers and Baltimore Ravens to gain a berth in Super Bowl XLIII in Tampa, Florida versus the Arizona Cardinals.

The Steelers became the first NFL franchise to capture six Super Bowl titles when they defeated the Cardinals, 27-23. With the victory, Head Coach Mike Tomlin became the youngest coach to win a Super Bowl in NFL history. Wide receiver Santonio Holmes was named MVP after hauling in the game-winning six-yard touchdown pass from Ben Roethlisberger with 35 seconds remaining in regulation.

The Steelers added to their legacy, making it all the way to Super Bowl XLV after a 12-4 record during the 2010 season. The Steelers though could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell to the Green Bay Packers 31-25. Despite the loss, the Steelers still hold the NFL record for most Super Bowl victories with six.

SUPER BOWL

Pittsburgh 16

Minnesota 6

JANUARY 12, 1975 TULANE STADIUM (80,997)

NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in QB Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by defense. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota offensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' C Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh DE Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the nine.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, while Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White, and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered it in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final TD.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

JANUARY 18, 1976 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL (80,197)

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to TE Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make the catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic three interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas S Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Pittsburgh LB Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers' reserve FB Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes' punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-9 at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only two yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Steelers' S Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was intercepted by S Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

Pittsburgh 35 Dallas 31

JANUARY 21, 1979 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL (78,656)

MIAMI — This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers' QB Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys' QB Roger Staubach saw TE Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas CB Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to TE Billy Joe Dupree and Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Pittsburgh 31

Los Angeles 19

JANUARY 20, 1980 ROSE BOWL STADIUM (103,985)

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams' DE Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers WR John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams' CB Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit WR Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from QB Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and two touchdowns.

Dallas 27

Pittsburgh 17

JANUARY 28, 1996 SUN DEVIL STADIUM (76,347)

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas CB Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four yard-line two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions— a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

Pittsburgh 21

Seattle 10

FEBRUARY 5, 2006 FORD FIELD (68,206)

DETROIT — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history (S.F. 49ers and Dallas Cowboys).

Backed by a predominantly Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it failed to gain a first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, but it was stalled as QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' S Michael Boulware.

Pittsburgh's defense continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead throughout the second quarter.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the half as Roethlisberger dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the second half as RB Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open by driving to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from QB Matt Hasselbeck to TE Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by CB Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game on a gadget play. WR Antwan Randle El took a reverse handoff and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with 8:56 left in the game. Randle El's touchdown pass was the first by a wide receiver in Super Bowl history.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions to post the victory. Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while RB Jerome Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

FEBRUARY 1, 2009 RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (70,774)

TAMPA — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight-play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes to clinch their NFL-record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. K Jeff Reed booted an 18-yard field goal on the opening drive to make it 3-0.

RB Gary Russell increased that lead to 10-0 when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona answered that score as QB Kurt Warner hit TE Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as if they were going to take their first lead late in the first half, but LB James Harrison intercepted Warner at the goal-line, raced 100 yards and dove into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest play in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed in the third quarter upped the lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to WR Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' C Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

The Steelers were backed up to their own 12-yard line on the next drive, but Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger threaded a perfect pass through three defenders and Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 35 seconds left.

Arizona had one more chance, but LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble to essentially end the game.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards [14.6 avg.] with one touchdown. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

Green Bay 31

Pittsburgh 25

FEBRUARY 6, 2011 COWBOYS STADIUM (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay a 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by S Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers scored early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again, and on the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers would cut the lead to 21-10 when WR Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards out. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled and Green Bay recovered. The Packers marched down the field and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17. Rodgers finished the game with 304 yards passing with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

With 7:34 left in the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, K Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line, allowing Green Bay to win their fourth Super Bowl.

STEELERS in the Hall of Fame

Arthur J. Rooney Sr.

Founder, President, Chairman of the Board (1933-'88) ELECTED: 1964

Born on January 27, 1901, in Coulterville, Pa., Art Rooney was one of the most influential personalities in the sport of football. Mr. Rooney, who was affectionately referred to as "The Chief", founded the Steelers organization on July 8, 1933, with a $2,500 purchase. Mr. Rooney helped orchestrate the NFL-AFL merger and kept the Steelers franchise afloat during the depression, World War II, many losing seasons and financial problems. Mr. Rooney won his first of four Super Bowl championships in 1974.

Daniel M. Rooney

President and Chairman (1955-Present) ELECTED: 2000

Born on July 20, 1932, in Pittsburgh's North Side, Daniel M. Rooney is one of NFL's most influential owners. Mr. Rooney contributed to the labor negotiations between the League and Players Association in 1982 and 1993 and is largely responsible for the NFL's current realignment and scheduling format. Mr. Rooney, who is entering his 54th season with the organization, was named the Steelers' president in 1975, a title he held until passing it to his oldest son Art Rooney II in 2002.

Bert Bell

Co-owner (1940-'45) ELECTED: 1963

Bert Bell was an owner of the Philadelphia Eagles (1933-'40) and co-owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers (1940-'45). Bell was named the NFL commissioner (1946-'59) and helped set up the league's television and anti-gambling policies. He also oversaw the merger of the NFL and All-American Football League in 1949. Bell died on October 11, 1959, while watching a football game between his two former teams: Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

Bill Dudley

Halfback (1942, 1945-'46) ELECTED: 1966

Bill Dudley, nicknamed "Bullet Bill", was a first-round draft pick of the Steelers in 1942 and finished his rookie season as the league's leading rusher with 696 yards, earning him all-league honors. In 1946, he became the NFL's first player to lead the league in four distinctly different statistical categories, including rushing, punt returns, interceptions and lateral passes attempted. That same year he was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player. Dudley was a two-time All-NFL selection during his nine-year career.

John 'Blood' McNally

Player (1934, 1937-'39), Coach (1937-'39) ELECTED: 1963

John "Blood" McNally played 14 seasons in the NFL with five different teams, including two stints with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He served as both a player and coach from 1937-39 for the Pirates and was considered possibly the best receiver in the NFL during his playing days.

Walt Kiesling

Player (1937-'39), Coach (1939-'44, 1949-'61) ELECTED: 1966

Walt Kiesling spent 34 years in the NFL as a player, assistant coach and head coach. In 1939, Kiesling got his first head coaching job with Pittsburgh. He led the Steelers to their first winning season in franchise history in 1942. Kiesling left coaching in 1944, but returned in 1954 with the Steelers. His teams earned a reputation for playing rugged, hard-hitting football.

STEELERS in the Hall of Fame

Bobby Layne

Quarterback (1958-62) ELECTED: 1967

Bobby Layne played five of his 15 NFL seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He helped provide the Steelers with some of their finest seasons up to that point. Prior to Pittsburgh, Layne was a two-time All-NFL selection and was the league's scoring champion in 1956. His last-second touchdown pass won the 1953 NFL title game for the Detroit Lions.

Ernie Stautner

Defensive Tackle (1950-63) ELECTED: 1969

Ernie Stautner, considered one of the toughest players in league history by his teammates and opponents, was a nine-time Pro Bowl selection as he anchored Pittsburgh's defense for 14 seasons. He captured the NFL's Best Lineman Award in 1957 and was named all-league four times. Showing his gritty and hard-working attitude, Stautner missed just six games during his 14-year career despite having numerous broken ribs, shoulders, hands and a nose. The Steelers honored him by retiring his No. 70 jersey in 1964 following his retirement, and he remains the only Steeler to have received that honor.

Joe Greene

Defensive Tackle (1969-81) ELECTED: 1987

The leader of the "Steel Curtain" defense during the 1970s, Joe Greene dominated the NFL during that decade and helped the Steelers to four Super Bowl victories. The team's No. 1 draft pick in 1969, Greene quickly became a presence in the league as he was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year and received the first of his 10 Pro Bowl invitations. He earned All-NFL honors five times and all-conference 11 straight years to begin his career. Greene was twice the league's Defensive Player of the Year and played a critical role in the Steelers' Super Bowl IX victory over the Minnesota Vikings with a pass interception and a fumble recovery.

John Henry Johnson

Fullback (1960-65) ELECTED: 1987

Originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1953, John Henry Johnson spent his first eight years in the NFL outside of the Steel City. However, Johnson enjoyed his finest seasons with the Steelers. In both 1962 and 1964, Johnson became the first Steeler to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing barrier. After retiring in 1966 from the Houston Oilers, Johnson's 6,803 career rushing yards ranked him fourth at the time among the NFL's all-time top ground gainers behind only Jim Brown, Jim Taylor and Joe Perry.

Jack Ham

Linebacker (1971-82) ELECTED: 1988

Playing all 12 seasons of his NFL career with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Jack Ham earned All-Pro or All-AFC honors in seven consecutive seasons (1973-79). He also was selected to play in eight straight Pro Bowls and was named the Football News Defensive Player of the Year in 1975. Ham won the starting linebacker job as a rookie and never looked back, playing in five AFC Championship games and three Super Bowls (sat out Super Bowl XIV due to injuries). His interception return against Oakland in the 1974 AFC Championship game that set up the Steelers' go-ahead touchdown, giving the team its first ever championship victory and a berth in Super Bowl IX.

STEELERS in the Hall of Fame

Mel Blount

Cornerback (1970-'83) ELECTED: 1989

Melvin Cornell Blount, the Steelers' third-round pick in 1970, had superior size, speed, strength and intelligence. His physical style of play is widely credited for changing NFL pass defense rules. Blount played 14 seasons and 200 regular-season games in Pittsburgh and his 57 interceptions remain a Steelers record. Blount played in five Pro Bowls and was named an All-Pro four times and the NFL defensive MVP in 1975.

Terry Bradshaw

Quarterback (1970-'83) ELECTED: 1989

Terry Paxton Bradshaw was the top-overall pick in the 1970 NFL Draft. Bradshaw led the Steelers to eight AFC Central division and four Super Bowl titles while calling his own plays. Bradshaw was named MVP in Super Bowls XIII and XIV and NFL MVP in 1978. Bradshaw finished his career with 27,989 yards passing and 212 TDs.

Franco Harris

Running Back (1972-'83) ELECTED: 1990

Franco Harris is the Steelers' all-time leading rusher with 11,950 yards and all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (91). Harris, the Steelers' first-round pick in 1972, was a big-power back who was on the receiving end of the "Immaculate Reception", which is widely recognized as the greatest play in NFL history. Harris was named Super Bowl IX MVP, after rushing for a then-record 158 yards and a touchdown.

Jack Lambert

Linebacker (1974-'84) ELECTED: 1990

John Harold Lambert was a two-time NFL Defensive Player of the Year, eight-time All-Pro and nine-time Pro-Bowler. He led the team in tackles in every season except his last, when he missed extensive action due to a severe toe injury that forced him to retire. Lambert, the Steelers' second-round draft pick in 1974, was noted for his vicious tackling and is recognized as the premier linebacker of his era.

Chuck Noll

Coach [1969-'91] ELECTED: 1993

Charles Henry Noll is the only NFL head coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll won a team record 209 games in 23 seasons with the Steelers. He led the Steelers to their first ever postseason victories and was responsible for drafting 11 Pro Football Hall of Fame players.

Mike Webster

Center (1974-'88) ELECTED: 1997

Michael Lewis Webster spent his first 15 NFL seasons in a Steelers uniform. Webster was the leader of one of the most dominant offensive lines of his era. Webster was very durable, missing only six games in his first 16 seasons while playing in 150 consecutive games. Webster was a seven-time All-Pro and played in nine Pro Bowls.

STEELERS in the Hall of Fame

Lynn SwannWide Receiver [1974-'82] ELECTED: 2001

Lynn Curtis Swann was the Steelers' first-round draft pick in 1974. Swann filled the highlight reels with his graceful moves and leaping ability. Swann was at his best in the team's biggest games, and earned MVP honors for his performance in Super Bowl X when he caught four passes for 161 yards and a TD. Swann finished his career with 336 receptions for 5,462 yards and 51 TDs.

John StallworthWide Receiver [1974-'87] ELECTED: 2002

Johnny Lee Stallworth was the Steelers' fourth-round draft pick in 1974. He had 12 postseason touchdown catches and 17 consecutive postseason games with a reception. Stallworth set Super Bowl records for career average-per-catch [24.4 yards] and for single-game average [40.3], set in Super Bowl XIV. A two-time team MVP, Stallworth retired as the Steelers' all-time leader in receptions (537) yards (8,723) 100-yard receiving games (25) and receiving TDs (63).

Rod WoodsonCornerback [1987-'96] ELECTED: 2009

Roderick Kevin Woodson was the Steelers' first-round draft pick in 1987. He was the 1993 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and a member of the NFL's 75th anniversary team. A three-time team MVP, Woodson ranks fourth in team history with 38 interceptions. Woodson was selected to seven Pro Bowls, six AP All-Pro teams and was named to the 1990s All-Decade team. He returned five interceptions, two punts and two kickoffs for scores.

Jack ButlerCornerback [1951-'59] ELECTED: 2012

John Bradshaw Butler played in 103 games as a cornerback for the Pittsburgh Steelers and was selected to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1950s. When he retired, Butler ranked as the NFL's second all-time leader with 52 career interceptions. The Pittsburgh native registered 827 return yards on interceptions, returning four for touchdowns. Butler also returned one fumble for a touchdown. Despite recording 25 interceptions in his first four seasons, Butler was not selected to his first of four career Pro Bowls until 1955. A season later he was named second-team All-NFL and would go on to earn first-team All-NFL honors in each of the following three seasons.

Dermontti DawsonCenter [1988-2000] ELECTED: 2012

Dermontti Fara Dawson was a second-round draft pick by the Steelers in 1988 and played guard as a rookie before replacing Hall of Famer Mike Webster at center in 1989. Dawson started for the majority of a 13-year career that saw him play in 184 games during the regular season, including 170 consecutive, the third longest streak in franchise history. He was named to seven consecutive Pro Bowls [1993-99], was a first team All-Pro for six straight years [1993-98] and was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s. During Dawson's 13-year career, which ties for the third-most seasons played in franchise history, he helped the Steelers win five division titles, appear in three AFC Championships and one Super Bowl, and record a winning record nine times.

Note: Other Hall of Famers who spent part of their careers with the Steelers include: CAL HUBBARD (Player 1936, elected 1963), MARION MOTLEY (Player 1955, elected 1968), EARLE (GREASY) NEALE (Coach 1943, elected 1969), BILL HEWITT (Player 1943, elected 1971), LEN DAWSON (Player 1957-1959, elected 1987), and DICK LEBEAU (Coached from 1992-1996, 2004-pres., elected 2010).
