SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS MISSION STATEMENT

THE SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS ARE DEDICATED TO ENRICHING OUR COMMUNITY THROUGH INNOVATION AND EXCELLENCE ON AND OFF THE FIELD.

Laurence M. Baer

A fourth generation San Franciscan, Larry Baer has gained a national reputation as one of professional sports' leading visionaries. A limited partner of the Giants' ownership group, he was named team president October 1, 2008 and CEO on January 1, 2012. In his first year as President and CEO, the Giants won their second World Series Championship in three years and extended the team's home sellout streak to 165 regular season games by drawing 3,377,374 fans. In October 2012, the Giants won six straight elimination games and swept the Detroit Tigers in the World Series.

As President and CEO, Baer serves as the club's "control" person on all Giants, Major League Baseball and industry issues. Baer is responsible for the overall day-to-day functioning of the Giants organization. After having served as executive vice president since December 1992, Baer was named chief operating officer of the franchise in May 1996. In that same year, he was named president of the China Basin Ballpark Corporation (CBBC), a private entity formed by Giants investors to finance and build the new ballpark, which opened in April 2000. Under his direction, the Giants opened Pacific Bell Park to widespread acclaim and sold 3,244,320 tickets, shattering the all-time club attendance record by more than 650,000. The new ballpark enjoyed rave reviews as one of the "best ballparks ever built."

The San Francisco Lowell High School graduate was the driving force behind every phase of the ballpark project, including the park's original design by HOK Sports; the successful voter campaign in March 1996; the subsequent private financing package that featured the highly successful Charter Seat program; the unprecedented drive to secure a record 28,000 full-season ticket holders, and the final construction of the facility—a San Francisco landmark. The club enjoyed unprecedented support since opening the ballpark in 2000—becoming one of only four teams to exceed 3,000,000 in attendance eight consecutive years (2000 - 2007). The Giants have also been the standard bearer in all of baseball for sponsorship revenue, while branding the park as one of the most popular venues in the country for special events.

In the World Series Championship year of 2010, the Giants once again achieved this milestone, as 3,037,000 passed through the turnstiles during the regular season. The month of October featured seven sold out post-season home games, culminating in the November 1, 2010, World Series clincher in Texas. Baer and his staff worked with the City of San Francisco to stage the unforgettable Parade and Civic Celebration, attracting an estimated one million elated fans. In 2011, the Giants set the all-time single season attendance record of 3,387,303 and was named the Sports Business Journal's Professional Sports Organization of the Year.

Baer and Peter Magowan led the effort to assemble a new ownership group and negotiate the 1992 sale which kept the Giants in San Francisco. Baer has been a key strategist and negotiator of the club's major transactions since that time, beginning with the Barry Bonds signing in November 1992 through the awarding of the 2007 All-Star Game. He was also a driving force in the Giants' partnership with Comcast on the new regional sports network, which debuted in 2008.

After earning Phi Beta Kappa honors at the University of California in 1980, Baer joined the Giants as the club's marketing director. In 1983, he left the Giants to attend Harvard Business School, followed by a four-year tenure at Westinghouse Broadcasting in San Francisco and New York. He finally returned to the Giants in December 1992 from CBS, Inc. in New York, where he had served as special assistant to the network's chairman, Laurence Tisch.

In 1996, Baer was accorded the San Francisco Distinguished Leadership Award, a highly coveted honor given to individuals who have contributed to their community and provided leadership for a better quality of life. In addition, the Giants executive received the prestigious "Sports Torch of Learning Award" by the Scopus Society of the American Friends of The Hebrew University in 1995 and the Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award in 2001. In 2010, Baer was the featured "Person of the Year" honoree at the San Francisco Boys and Girls Club Annual Gala and in January, 2012 he was honored as the Harvard Business School's "Alumnus of the Year."

Baer serves on the Board of Major League Baseball Enterprises, which oversees national television and radio contract negotiations, national sponsorship and licensing programs as well as the overall marketing of the industry.

Baer is a member of the Board of Directors of KQED, Inc., the San Francisco Committee on Jobs, the Boys and Girls Club of America, the Bay Area Council and Comcast Sports Net Bay Area.

For many years, Baer's wife, Pam, has spearheaded fundraising efforts for San Francisco General Hospital. Together, they are serving as Co-Chairs of the San Francisco General Foundation Campaign Committee, which raises capital to rebuild the hospital and trauma center.

Brian R. Sabean

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Brian Sabean, who is currently the longest-tenured General Manager in Major League Baseball, was named San Francisco's senior vice president and general manager on Sept. 30, 1996. During his 16 years as GM, he has seen the Giants capture six post season berths (including three World Series appearances and two Championships), with the club under his watch having earned more than half of its ten overall playoff appearances since moving West.

In 2012, Sabean was named Baseball America's Executive of the Year as he stewarded the Giants to their second World Series Championship in his tenure as General Manager. During the campaign, he acquired several key players, including Marco Scutaro and Hunter Pence.

Since Sabean assumed the GM reins following the 1996 season, the Giants have won two World Championships (2010 and 2012), three National League pennants (2002, 2010 and 2012), five NL West Division flags (1997, 2000, 2003, 2010 and 2012), been a Wild Card entry (2002) and forced a Wild Card tie-breaker game with Chicago in 1998, while posting a 1,392-1,198-1 (.537) mark during that 16-year span. This winning percentage is sixth overall in MLB, the third best in the National League and best in the NL West Division during Sabean's tenure. In addition, under Sabean, the Giants are one of only three teams in the Major Leagues that have been to the World Series three times or more since 1997 (also: Cardinals, 3 times and Yankees, 6 times) and are third in the National League with six post-season appearances in that span.

Recently under Sabean's watch, the Giants' organization has received prestigious awards, being named the Topps Organization of the Year in both 2009 and 2011 and the Baseball America Organization of the Year in 2010. These awards are given to Major League teams that show outstanding performance, depth and talent throughout their Major and Minor league teams.

In his 21st year with the organization, and 28th season as a baseball front office executive, the 56-yearold Sabean was honored as 2010 Major League Baseball Executive of the Year by the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA. He was tabbed with the same honor by both The Sporting News and Baseball America in 2003. In his first year as the Giants' GM, the Concord, NH native finished second in The Sporting News' 1997 Executive of the Year balloting. He seized national headlines for his bold player moves that season, engineering some of baseball's most successful blockbuster trades, which catapulted San Francisco to its first divisional championship in eight years.

During his tenure as GM, Sabean has acquired some of the game's best players via trades. They have included: Giants' All-Stars Jeff Kent, Jason Schmidt and Robb Nen, as well as standout performers Ellis Burks, Joe Carter, Andres Galarraga, Kenny Lofton, Jose Mesa and J.T. Snow. The Giants GM has been known to bring reinforcements during the July 31 trading deadline, acquiring the likes of Carlos Beltran, Burks, Javier Lopez, Pence, Freddy Sanchez, Schmidt, Scutaro and Randy Winn.

The team architect also brought future Hall of Famers Omar Vizquel to San Francisco in 2005 and Randy Johnson in 2008, while adding Giants' All-Star Benito Santiago in 2001, two-time Gold Glove catcher Bengie Molina and five-time National League All-Star (and eventual 2010 World Series MVP) Edgar Renteria in 2009.

Before his promotion to GM in 1996, Sabean served one season as the club's senior vice president, player personnel in 1995 and enjoyed a three-year stint as assistant to the general manager and vice president of scouting/player personnel. Prior to joining the Giants, Sabean played a vital role in developing the Yankees' farm system into one of baseball's finest. During his eight-year tenure with the Yankees, he held several positions of increasing responsibility, including director of scouting from 1986-90 and vice president of player development/scouting from 1990-92.

Sabean, who graduated from Concord (NH) High School in 1974 and Eckerd College (St. Petersburg, FL) in 1978, served as an assistant baseball coach at St. Leo (FL) College in 1979 and the University of Tampa from 1980-82. He was then promoted to head coach at Tampa in 1983, holding that post for two years, compiling a 61-36 record and making the school's first-ever appearance in an NCAA regional tournament in 1984.

Sabean and his wife, Amanda, have two sons, Aidan and Declan. They are also the proud dad and stepmom to Colin, Sean, Brendan and Darren.

DICK TIDEOWVICE PRESIDENT AND ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, PLAYER PERSONNEL

A former American League Rookie Pitcher of the Year and 13-year Major League veteran, Dick Tidrow embarks on his 20th year overall with the club. Tidrow has had an integral role in helping the organization be named the Topps Organization of the Year in both 2009 and 2011 and the Baseball America Organization of the Year in 2010.

An invaluable aide to Brian Sabean, Tidrow came to the organization prior to the 1994 campaign, serving as the club's Major League scout for the American League. He was promoted to special assistant to the general manager in 1996, and was elevated to director of player personnel prior to the 1997 season. His current responsibilities include providing Major League player recommendations for trade or free agent signings, as well as scouting amateur players for the draft and evaluating each of the club's minor league affiliates. His judgment for talent, whether acquired or developed through the farm system, can be seen throughout the roster of the Major League club, as he had a major hand in the teams drafting and development of the 2012 Championship rotation of Tim Lincecum, Matt Cain, Ryan Vogelsong and Madison Bumgarner, as well as closer Sergio Romo. In addition, the Giants farm system owns the highest winning percentage in baseball over the past eight seasons with a .555 organizational mark.

Prior to joining the Giants organization, Tidrow served as a special assignment scout with the New York Yankees from 1985 through 1993. The former right-handed pitcher, nicknamed "Dirt," enjoyed parts of 13 years in the Majors from 1972-84. He was honored as The Sporting News A.L. Rookie Pitcher of the Year as a starter with the Cleveland Indians in 1972, while also capturing pennant and World Series rings as a reliever with the Yankees in 1976 and '77, respectively. He later pitched for the Cubs, White Sox and Mets. His lifetime numbers show a 100-94 record with 55 saves and a 3.68 ERA.

The San Francisco native graduated from Mt. Eden High School in 1965 and Chabot Junior College in 1967, both located in Hayward. Dick and his wife, Mari Jo, have three children—Andy, Matt and Richelle—and make their home in Lee's Summit, MO.

Bobby Evans VICE PRESIDENT AND ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Bobby Evans begins his 20th season in the Giants baseball operations department, his first year as the Vice President and Assistant General Manager. Previously the team's director of player personnel, he assists Brian Sabean in heading contract negotiations, waiver and rule compliance, budgets at both the major and minor league levels and is involved in all areas of baseball operations. Evans has had an integral role in helping the organization win two World Series titles in the past three seasons (2010 and 2012).

In 2012, Evans received the Bowie Kuhn Award, which is presented annually at the Baseball Winter Meetings (since 1984) to an individual, team or organization who demonstrates support of the chapel program in professional baseball.

Evans is a 1991 graduate of the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, where he was the recipient of the John Motley Morehead Scholarship Award. He first joined San Francisco in 1994 as administrative assistant, minor leagues. He was elevated to assistant director of player development the following year and served the Giants in that capacity until his promotion to director of minor league administration in 1998.

Previously, Evans served as an administrator in the Commissioner's Office in New York. During his three-year tenure there, he worked in baseball operations and minor league operations. Evans also interned with the Boston Red Sox in the player development and scouting departments during the summer of 1989.

Evans and his wife, Gwen, reside in San Francisco and have a son, Jonathan and a daughter, Anjali.

John Barr VICE PRESIDENT & ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, SCOUTING & INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS

John Barr will begin his 29th season as a baseball executive and his sixth season with the Giants, overseeing amateur and international scouting in

Under Barr's guidance, the Giants have drafted players such as 2010 Rookie of the Year and 2012 National League MVP Buster Posey, Brandon Crawford and Brandon Belt all of whom helped the Giants win the World Series last season. Barr also drafted minor league standouts Gary Brown, Heath Hembree, Joe Panik and Andrew Susac; who will all be in the Giants big league camp this spring.

The Audubon, NJ, native entered the front office ranks in 1984 with the New York Mets as Administrative Assistant to Minor Leagues and Scouting where he remained until becoming the East Coast Supervisor for the Minnesota Twins in 1988. As Scouting Director for the Baltimore Orioles, (1989-90), Barr was responsible for selecting first rounders Ben McDonald ('89) and Mike Mussina ('90). He served as Assistant General Manager for the San Diego Padres (1991-93) returning to the New York Mets (1994-97) as Scouting Director, where they added players such as AJ Burnett, Paul Wilson, Jay Payton, and Terrence Long to their system. Barr then spent 10 years (1998-2007) with the Los Angeles Dodgers as East Coast Supervisor were he was instrumental in the selection of All-Star catcher Russell Martin, starting pitcher Edwin Jackson, as well as relievers Jonathan Broxton and Scott Proctor, who was signed by the Giants as a minor league free agent this winter.

Barr was inducted into the Mid Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame in November of 2008 and then inducted into the Professional Scouting Hall of Fame during the summer of 2009.

The Rider University graduate resides in Haddonfield, NJ, with his wife Marianne, daughters Kate, Eileen, and Mary, and son, Blake.

Felipe Alou SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Felipe Alou, a man whose name is synonymous with the Giants, returns for his seventh season as a special assistant to the general manager after serving as the club's manager from 2003-06. He works closely with Brian Sabean on special assignments, ranging from Major League scouting and player acquisition to minor league instruction. He provides evaluations and re-commendations at both levels.

The Dominican icon continues a long and storied career with the franchise, beginning with his playing days as a member of the original San Francisco Giants club in 1958. He concluded his four-year tenure at the helm of the Giants sixth on the wins list for San Francisco skippers with a 342-304 record.

The 2013 campaign will mark Alou's 58th season in professional baseball. Following a distin-guished 17-year playing career that ended in 1974, he was appointed a minor league manager in 1976 and remained in uniform each year through the 2006 campaign.

In 13 seasons as a Major League manager, the 1994 National League Manager of the Year posted a 1,033-1,021-1 ledger and became just the 53rd skipper since 1900 to register 1,000 wins. The Haina, Dominican Republic native is the first manager of Latin descent to win 1,000 games in the big leagues, and is only the third foreign-born skipper to reach the milestone (current Giants skip-per Bruce Bochy, France, 1,182-1,230; and Harry Wright, England, 1,000-825).

Alou became the first Dominican-born manager in Major League history when he assumed control of the Montreal Expos on May 22, 1992. He was the fourth Latin American head man born in the Caribbean Islands, following Mike Gonzalez (Cuba), Preston Gomez (Cuba) and Cookie Rojas (Cuba).

Primarily an outfielder during his playing days, the second Dominican-born player to reach the Majors (following Ozzie Virgil with the 1956 New York Giants) was a three-time All-Star during a 17-year career with the Giants (1958-63), Milwaukee and Atlanta Braves (1964-69), Oakland Athletics (1970-71), New York Yankees (1971-73), Montreal Expos (1973) and Milwaukee Brewers (1974).

Alou, and his wife Lucie, make their home in Boynton Beach, FL with their two children, Valerie and Felipe, Jr. He is also the father of daughters Maria, Christia, Cheri and Jennifer, along with sons Jose, Moises, Felipe Jose and Luis.

Jeremy Shelley VICE PRESIDENT, PRO SCOUTING AND PLAYER EVALUATION

Jeremy Shelley begins his 20th season in San Francisco's baseball operations department, currently serving as the club's Vice President of Pro Scouting and Player Evaluation, a position he was promoted to in January of 2013. In his current role, Shelley coordinates the organization's pro scouting coverage and analyzes each of the other 29 major league organizations for trades and potential player acquisitions. Additionally, he assists in the areas of statistical analysis, contracts, arbitration preparation, as well as amateur and international scouting. He also oversees the information systems within the scouting department.

Shelley has had an integral role in helping the organization be named the Topps Organization of the Year in both 2009 and 2011 and the Baseball America Organization of the Year in 2010.

The Concord, CA native began his career for the Giants as a baseball operations intern in 1994. He was hired full-time as administrative assistant, baseball operations in 1996. He earned a BS in finance from Santa Clara University in 1995.

Shelley and his wife, Suzanne, live in San Mateo with their daughters, Maria and Leah.

Tony Siegle SENIOR ADVISOR, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Longtime front office executive Tony Siegle is in his third stint with the Giants after rejoining the club in 2007 as a senior advisor in the baseball operations department. He assists Brian Sabean, Bobby Evans and baseball operations in waiver and rules compliance, contract negotiations, arbitration and trade discussions.

Siegle, who has worked in Major League Baseball for the last five decades, was previously with San Francisco during a five-year run from 1990-94 and again for a brief stay during the 2001 season. Originally tabbed as San Francisco's director of minor league operations in August, 1990, he was elevated to the role of vice president, baseball administration and operations in December, 1992.

Prior to rejoining the Giants, Siegle spent five seasons (2002-06) as the assistant general manager of the Washington Nationals franchise, first under G.M. Omar Minaya and then Jim Bowden. Appointed to the position in February, 2002, when the club was still the Montreal Expos, he helped oversee a myriad of personnel moves while navigating the unique circumstances of a franchise in transition.

A former officer in the U.S. Navy, Siegle began his Major League Baseball career in 1965 as the scoreboard operator at the Astrodome in Houston, and spent the 1969 season as the Phillies' director of stadium operations. He moved to the baseball operations side with Milwaukee in 1970 and has since enjoyed a distinguished career in a variety of front office posts with the Brewers (1970-79), Astros (1979-82), Phillies (1982-88 and 2001), Padres (1989), Angels (1990), Giants (1990-94, 2001 and 2007-present), Rockies (1995-2000) and Expos/Nationals (2002-06). During his tenure, the University of Miami (FL) graduate has worked closely with or for 23 general managers and 22 managers - numbers believed to be unrivaled in baseball annals.

Tony and his wife, Cynthia, reside in San Francisco and have four children (Andrew, Amy Beth, Zachary and Gregory) and nine grandchildren.

Yeshayah Goldfarb DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS/QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS

Yeshayah Goldfarb enters his 13th season in the Giants baseball operations department. He helps run the minor league operations on a day-to-day basis, including spring training camp, roster formation, player evaluation, budget management and affiliate team liaison. Additionally he provides statistical analysis for, on minor league, and amateur players for purposes of roster construction, player acquisition and development. He is also responsible for seeking out and incorporating new technologies and data into baseball operations information systems.

Goldfarb graduated Cum Laude from the University of California, San Diego. A former pitcher and team captain, he played four seasons with the Tritons and was elected most inspirational Player by his teammates and presented with the John Roth Memorial Award (Charlie Hustle) by the coaching staff in 2000.

The Berkeley, CA native began his career with the Giants as a scouting intern and video assistant in 2001 and was hired full time after the season as Assistant, Baseball Operations. In 2006 he was promoted to Coordinator of Baseball Operations and then promoted again in 2010 to his current position Director, Minor League Operations/Quantitative Analysis.

Goldfarb and his wife, Miranda, have a daughter, Eliana, and a son, Ezra, and reside in Oakland, CA.

Fred Stanley DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Fred Stanley, a former big league infielder with 46 years of professional baseball experience, was elevated to director of player development in the winter of 2008, taking over for the retired Jack Hiatt. He is chiefly responsible for the assignment, development and evaluation of players throughout the Giants farm system. In both 2009 and 2011, the Giants were named the Topps Organization of the Year and in 2010 the Baseball America Organization of the Year.

Entering his 13th season in San Francisco's organization, Stanley previously served as the Giants coordinator of minor league instruction from 2006-08. He has held many different front office positions, including serving as the Milwaukee Brewers' assistant general manager. He has also worked as a big league coach, minor league manager and instructor, including a five season-stint as a manager in the Giants chain. During that time, he was named the Northwest League's Manager of the Year in 2000 and 2001.

Stanley spent nine seasons in the Milwaukee organization before matriculating to the Giants, including his final three years as the Brewers' assistant general manager. He also served as the Brew Crew's director of player development from 1992-96, with his charges earning the prestigious Topps Organization of the Year Award in 1992. In fact, Milwaukee had the best record of all clubs at the minor league level (.544, 2,205-1,845) from 1992-96. Prior to his stint in the front office, he spent the 1991 season as the Brewers infield coach.

Before going to Milwaukee, he was the coordinator of minor league instruction with the Seattle Mariners from 1989-90, the director of baseball operations with the Houston Astros from 1986-88 and director of instruction with the Oakland Athletics from 1983-85.

A defensive specialist, Stanley played 14 seasons in the Majors with Seattle (1969), Milwaukee (1970), Cleveland (1972), San Diego (1972), New York Yankees (1972-80) and Oakland (1981-82). He made four post season appearances as a player, including World Championships with the Yankees in 1977 and '78.

The Farnhamville, IA native currently lives in Argyle, TX with his wife Rebecca. He has a daughter, Tracie, and a son, Brian.

Paul Turco SENIOR ADVISOR, SCOUTING

Paul Turco enters his 26th year in professional baseball, his 18th with the Giants. During his tenure with the club, he has been a Florida area scout, east coast cross checker and Major League scout. His current role has him report directly to General Manager Brian Sabean on player personnel acqui-sitions.

Turco was previously a scout with the New York Yankees, working with the club from 1987-95. Some notable signings include Brad Ausmus and Carl Everett. Prior to joining the Yankees, he was the head baseball coach at Worcester (MA) State College from 1981-83, leading the team to their first ever appearance in the NCAA Regionals. He took over the Worcester State program after serving as a police officer with the Worcester Police Department from 1973-80, earning a promotion to the Detective Bureau in 1977.

A New England native, Turco was a pitcher in his playing days at Quinsigamond Community College (Worcester, MA), finishing with a perfect 15-0 record.

He and his wife, Joyce, have two sons who are both professional scouts. Paul Jr. is a Major League scout with the Giants, while Anthony is a Florida area scout with the Boston Red Sox.

Ed Creech SENIOR ADVISOR, SCOUTING

Ed Creech, a widely respected figure throughout the game, is in his sixth year in San Francisco's organization after having served the last six years as Pittsburgh's Director of Scouting. Having spent over 35 years in professional baseball, he works closely with John Barr in both domestic and international amateur scouting.

The 61-year-old Creech has also been a scouting director with the Los Angeles Dodgers (1999-2001), St. Louis Cardinals (1998) and Montreal Expos (1994-97). During his tenure as a scouting director, he has ushered 54 of his draft picks to the Majors, including the likes of Javier Vazquez, Milton Bradley, Michael Barrett, Brian Schneider, J.D. Drew, Jack Wilson, Shane Victorino, Tom Gorzelanny and Paul Maholm.

The Columbia, SC native played six seasons in the Expos organization after being the club's second round selection in the 1973 draft. Following his playing career, he became a coach and manager for six years in the Montreal chain (1982-85, 1990-91). After serving as an area scout for the team from 1985-91, he was promoted to the Expos scouting supervisor from 1991-93.

The Mercer University graduate resides in Moultrie, GA with his wife, Mary Ann, his daughter, Kacey, and sons, Matthew and Nathaniel.

Matt Nerland SENIOR ADVISOR, SCOUTING

Matt Nerland, who begins his 25th season with the Giants, serves as a Senior Advisor in Scouting and reports directly to General Manager Brian Sabean. In his current role, Nerland is responsible for evaluating talent at both the major league and minor league levels and provides input regarding player acquisitions and roster moves.

During his long tenure with San Francisco, Nerland also served as scouting director and was instrumental in the First-Year player drafts from 1998-2006. During that span, 44 players have matriculated to the major leagues. The San Francisco State graduate began his career as an intern in the baseball operations department in 1989 prior to working in a variety of capacities that ranged from front office responsibilities to amateur and professional scouting.

Doug Mapson SENIOR ADVISOR, SCOUTING

Doug Mapson, who enters his 33rd year in professional baseball, reports to John Barr and assists in coordinating the Giants' amateur scouting staff in the field. During his storied career, he signed future Hall of Famer Greg

The longtime scout, who is entering his 21st season with the Giants, has served as San Francisco's national cross-checker for the past nine seasons after serving as a special assignment scout and western cross-checker for the first 10 years with the organization.

Prior to joining San Francisco, he was with the Chicago Cubs for 11 years as an area scout and a west coast supervisor. He started his professional career as a part time scout for the Philadelphia Phillies after being the head coach at Palmdale (CA) High School for 10 years.

The Carmel (CA) High School graduate played baseball at both Monterey Peninsula College and U.S. International University in San Diego.

Mapson and his wife, Patricia, live in Chandler, AZ. He has three sons, Jeff, Jay and Dusty and three stepchildren, Vicki, Guy and Diane.

Pablo Peguero DIRECTOR, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC OPERATIONS

Pablo Peguero begins his 10th year with the Giants, coordinating the club's scouting and player development operations in the Dominican Republic.

A Dominican native, Peguero has an extensive background in baseball in his island country. Prior to joining the Giants organization, he worked in the Dominican for the Los Angeles Dodgers as a scout from 1984-86, staff coordinator from 1987-89, scout and development coordinator from 1990-

94. He has been the GM for different Dominican Winter League Clubs, working for Campo Las Palmas (Dodgers facility in D.R.) from 1995-2003 and now is currently the GM for the Gigantes del Cibao. Notable players he signed for the Dodgers include Tony Abreu, Adrian Beltre, Raul Mondesi, Felix Rodriguez, Angel Pena and Wilton Guerrero. He was also the general manager of the Dominican Olympic Team in the 1999 Pan Am Games in Winnipeg, Canada.

The former catcher played nine seasons (1972-1980) in the minors with the Los Angeles Dodgers, including the last four years at triple-A.

He and his wife, Xiomara, have a son, Felix, and a daughter, Patxi, and live in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. His son was a former minor league player and currently is the Assistant Director for Dominican Republic Operations with the Giants.

John Cox COORDINATOR. PACIFIC RIM SCOUTING

John Cox begins his eighth season with the Giants, serving as the coordinator of Pacific Rim scouting. He is responsible for the club's scouting efforts in Australia, Japan, Korea and Taiwan.

Cox previously worked in the scouting department of the New York Yankees from 1994-2006, having been a Western region supervisor, pro scout and Pacific Rim supervisor. During his time with the Yankees, he was involved in the signings of such notable players as Hideki Matsui, Chin-Ming Wang and Jose Contreras. He has also worked in the front office or scouting departments of the Chicago Cubs (1973-85), Cincinnati Reds (1986-88) and Baltimore Orioles (1989-2006), having served in a number of roles.

A former infielder, Cox played in the minors with the California Angels, Cubs and Oakland Athletics. He currently resides in Yucaipa, CA.

Jack Hiatt SENIOR CONSULTANT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Jack Hiatt, a former Giants player, is in his sixth season with the Giants in an advisory role after retiring from his longtime position as the club's director of player development. He works closely with Brian Sabean on minor league evaluations and recommendations.

Hiatt also spent two seasons as the Roving Catching Instructor/Assistant Player Development Director and one campaign (1988) as the manager of the Giants' rookie league club in Pocatello, ID.

A catcher and first baseman during his playing days, Hiatt played for the Angels, Giants, Expos, Cubs and Astros during a career that included 483 games from 1964-72.

Prior to joining the Giants' player development staff, Hiatt worked as a coach and manager in the Cubs, Angels and Astros organizations, including a stint as a Major League coach with Chicago Hiatt and his wife, Sherlyn, reside in Roseburg, OR.

Joe Amalfitano SPECIAL ASSISTANT, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Ioe Amalfitano, who enters his 59th year in professional baseball and 22nd in the Giants organization, serves as a roving instructor and a special assignment scout as directed by Brian Sabean. The former big league infielder is in his sixth different tour of duty with the Giants, returning to the organization in 2005.

Originally signed by the New York Giants as a bonus baby in 1954, he played for the New York club in 1954-55 and with San Francisco from 1960-61 and 1963. Amalfitano also served as a big league coach for the Giants from 1972-75, before returning as a special assistant, player development from 1999-2001.

Prior to rejoining the orange and black during his current stint, he spent the previous three years as a senior advisor to baseball operations for the Los Angeles Dodgers from 2002-04. Amalfitano ended his Major League coaching career with the Dodgers, manning the third base coaching box from 1983-98 under manager Tommy Lasorda. His other big league coaching assignments included: the Chicago Cubs (1967-71 and 1978-81), San Diego Padres (1976-77) and Cincinnati Reds (1982).

The San Pedro, CA native also managed parts of three seasons with the Cubs from 1979-81, compiling a 66-116 ledger. He was Chicago's interim manager at the end of the 1979 season, taking over for Herman Franks and finishing with a 2-5 mark. He also managed the last half of the 1980 season in Chicago after taking over for Preston Gomez and posted a 38-65 record as the skipper for the entire strike-shortened 1981 season.

Having appeared in two World Series — one as a player for the Giants in 1954 and one as a coach for the Dodgers in 1988 — he posted a .244 batting average during his 10-year big league career with the Giants (1954-55, '60-61 and '63), Astros (1962) and Cubs (1964-67). A graduate of the University of Southern California, he and his wife, Kay, live in Sedona, AZ.

Jim Davenport SPECIAL ASSISTANT, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Jim Davenport, who was a member of the original 1958 San Francisco Giants, enters his 49th campaign with the organization, having played, coached and managed at both the Major and minor league levels. He serves as a roving instructor and a special assignment scout as directed by Brian

The All-Star third baseman has held his current position for 13 of the last 14 years. However, Davenport was asked to skipper triple-A Fresno in 1998 during the Grizzlies' inaugural campaign, piloting the squad to the Pacific Coast League Southern Division championship. He also served as the first base coach for San Francisco in 1996 after managing then triple-A Phoenix during the second half of the 1995 campaign.

The Siluria, AL native re-joined the Giants organization in 1993 and served as a coach for single-A San Jose until 1995. After serving as San Francisco's manager in 1985, he served as third base coach for Philadelphia in 1988 and Cleveland in 1989 before joining Detroit as an advanced scout from 1991-92. Davenport was also the Giants' third base coach from 1976-82 and the club's advance scout in 1983-84.

Following a 13-year big league career all with the Giants, he remained with the organization and managed Phoenix from 1971-73 before serving as a coach for the Padres from 1974-75.

Davenport, 76, posted a .258 lifetime batting average in 1,501 Major League contests. He earned All-Star status and a Gold Glove in 1962 and was voted by the fans as the third baseman on the Giants' 25th Anniversary Dream Team in 1982.

Davenport and his wife, Betty, reside in San Carlos, and have five children, Randy, Cathy, Ken, Don and Gary, who is the Manager for Short Season Salem-Keizer.

ADMINISTRATION

Mario Alioto SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Mario Alioto, a member of the Giants front office since 1983, is responsible for all revenue and marketing areas of the organization. This includes all ticket sales functions, sponsorship and media sales, promotions, specials events, ballpark entertainment, advertising and the Giants Dugout Store retail operation. He also oversees the relationships with the team's TV and radio partners (KNBR, Comcast SportsNet Bay Area, NBC Bay Area and KTRB 860 ESPN Deportes).

Since AT&T Park opened in 2000, Alioto has been responsible for overseeing a record breaking sales strategy that has consistently placed the Giants as one of the top sponsorship generating teams in all of Major League Baseball. In 2011 and 2012, Alioto led the effort that attracted more than 3.3 million fans through the turnstiles, with the club's all-time attendance record of 3,387,303 being reached in 2011.

Alioto served as Vice President, Sales & Marketing during the final years at Candlestick Park. He oversaw a promotional lineup in 1999 that included the first ever bobblehead promotion, which has since become one of the most popular premium items in professional sports. Alioto also played an integral role in developing the Charter Seat program and Winner's Circle sponsorship program as the Giants prepared to build AT&T Park.

Alioto currently serves on the Executive Committee of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, and is a board member of the San Francisco Giants Community Fund and the St. Mary's College Board of Regents. The St. Mary's graduate lived out every youngster's dream by starting with the organization as a batboy in 1973 and later served as Visiting Clubhouse Manager prior to moving to the front office in 1983.

Alioto resides in Alamo with his wife Kelly and their four children Tony, Dominic, Marco and Giuliana.

Jack F. Bair SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL COUNSEL

For the past 20 years, Jack Bair has played a critical role in handling many of the organization's most important initiatives. Bair serves as the team's chief legal officer, manages governmental relations and directs a variety of special projects.

Bair played a central role in the development of AT&T Park. He led the effort to select the ballpark site and formulate the ballpark design. He was the point person for the club on the political campaign to win approval for the ballpark. He also negotiated the ballpark real estate transaction and led the effort to gain all governmental approvals necessary to construct the ballpark on time and on budget. Bair also played a key role in renovating Scottsdale Stadium and the club's minor league headquarters. Bair now leads the effort to develop property located immediately south of AT&T Park and to evaluate its real estate options in the Dominican Republic for the team's Latin American headquarters.

Prior to joining the Giants, Bair worked as a Deputy City Attorney for San Francisco. Bair directed the legal effort to save the Giants in 1992 from being relocated to Florida. Prior to his time in the public sector, Bair practiced law at Farella Braun & Martel. Bair serves as an officer of the Giants Community Fund and the SF Neighborhood Theatre Foundation and serves on the Board of Trustees of the UC Davis Foundation and the Bayview Hunters Point YMCA. Bair is a graduate of UC Davis and Yale Law School.

Jorge Costa SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BALLPARK OPERATIONS

Jorge Costa enters his 25th year with the Giants, supervising ballpark operations, security, maintenance and construction projects at AT&T Park. Costa oversees all operations staff and event personnel, which includes security, groundskeepers, parking, janitorial and maintenance.

Under Costa's direction, the Giants became the first professional sports team to create a Traffic Safety Day and were pioneers in the implementation of a responsible alcohol management program. He is the recipient of a Lifetime Achievement Award for alcohol management and traffic safety programs from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

Costa was instrumental in earning AT&T Park LEED Certification, the nationally accepted benchmark for design, construction and operation of high performance green buildings. As a result the Giants in 2010 earned their third consecutive MLB Green Glove Award for Recycling Excellence.

Costa was in Beijing, China for the 2008 Olympics serving as an elite venue chief for operations and security. In addition, he has participated in event operations for Major League Baseball, World Cup soccer, the 2006 World Baseball Classic and the first international baseball game held in Monterrey, Mexico in 1996. At the 2007 Pan-American Games, he served as the operations and security consultant for the US Olympic Committee. Prior to his tenure with the Giants, the Saint Mary's College graduate served as Commissioner Peter Ueberroth's West Coast liaison for stadium operations and security, and was chief of operations at the Oakland Coliseum.

Alfonso Felder SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, ADMINISTRATION

Alfonso Felder, who enters his 18th year in the Giants front office, oversees the Giants facilities group including the Ballpark Operations, Guest Services and Giants Enterprises departments. Felder also oversees the Giants Spring Training operations in Scottsdale, Arizona.

Felder was the Giants' point person for the 2007 All-Star Game at AT&T Park and coordinated the club's hosting of the inaugural World

Baseball Classic at Scottsdale Stadium in 2006. He has also managed many of the recent capital improvements at AT&T Park as well as the renovation of Scottsdale Stadium and the Giants' minor league training facilities in Arizona. He was a key player in the planning and development of AT&T Park and continues to manage the Giants' relationship with the transit and parking operators that serve the ballpark.

Felder's first job was as a Giants usher at Candlestick Park while growing up in the City. He attended U.C. Berkeley and graduated from Harvard University. Felder resides in San Francisco with his wife, Tara, and sons Leo and Max.

Leilani Gayles CHIEF PEOPLE OFFICER

Leilani Gayles is the Chief People Officer for the SF Giants. She is responsible for setting the strategic direction for the San Francisco Giants People agenda and leads the organization in the areas of talent management, staffing, employee relations, compensation and performance management.

Gayles has worked in the human resources field in various environments, ranging from hyper growth start-ups to large technology companies, with a focus on developing high performance teams and winning cultures. Prior to her position with the SF Giants, Gayles worked at Mercury Interactive Software as Global Senior Vice President of People and Places and served as Senior Vice President at Excite@Home. Gayles also served as worldwide Vice President at Silicon Graphics Inc. and held various human resources positions at Hewlett-Packard Company and related technology companies. Gayles holds a bachelors and a master's degree in human resources organizational development from the University of San Francisco. She is a senior fellow with the American Leadership Forum, a network of regional leaders committed to serving the common good in Silicon Valley. Her professional focus is helping organizations achieve scale and efficiency while creating a highly engaging and productive workplace where people have the opportunity to do the best work of their careers.

Tom McDonald SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING

Tom McDonald enters his 18th season with the Giants organization and 15th season as Senior Vice President, Marketing. McDonald has oversight of the Giants brand development, imaging and projection into the market through the club's external marketing messages, annual advertising campaign and the Day of Game Entertainment experience inside the ballpark. He also leads the SFG Productions group that creates unique programming, content and specialized video production for extension of the Giants brand. During the Giants tenure at AT&T Park, McDonald has overseen the setting of unprecedented club attendance records over a ten-year horizon. The Giants reached the three-million mark in attendance in the first eight seasons at AT&T Park, becoming just the fourth team in Major League Baseball history to reach that mark over eight consecutive years. As vice president of marketing for the China Basin Ballpark company from 1996-99, McDonald spearheaded the most successful charter seat campaign in baseball history, selling 15,000 preferred, charter seats at the new ballpark. Prior to his tenure with the Giants, McDonald spent eight seasons as vice president of sales and marketing for the Portland Trail Blazers and Oregon Arena Corporation. Tom and his wife, Carla, reside in Mill Valley with their two children, Jackson and Marisa.

Jason Pearl MANAGING VICE PRESIDENT, SPONSORSHIP AND NEW BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Jason Pearl, in his 21st season with the Giants, is responsible for the sales and development of all sponsor related programs at AT&T Park. In addition, Jason oversees the organization's Hispanic marketing efforts, the Giants Marketing Group - which manages sponsorship development for third party events and properties and the relationship with the team flagship radio station, KNBR. The San Rafael, CA native played an integral role in the naming rights for AT&T Park and the creation of the Winner's Circle sponsorship model. A 1991 graduate of Cornell University, Jason lives in San Francisco with his wife, Nikki, daughter, Ella, and son, Ruben.

Bill Schlough SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF INFORMATION OFFICER

Schlough oversees a team of technology professionals dedicated to fulfilling the San Francisco Giants' mission of enriching our community through innovation and excellence on and off the field. Since his arrival in 1999, the Giants have enhanced the fan experience through initiatives such as the "Double Play Ticket Window," universal gift cards, contactless payments, "SplashTix," pervasive HD video, "Digital Dugout," and the first 100-percent wireless venue in professional sports. Schlough's IT team has also implemented numerous revolutionary systems that helped bring World Series titles to the Bay Area in two of the past three years.

An Olympic enthusiast, Schlough is a board member of the Bay Area Sports Organizing Committee (BASOC) and served as a technology lead for San Francisco's bids to host both the 2012 and 2016 Olympic Games. His event experience includes assignments at the 1994 World Cup along with Olympic Games in Atlanta, Salt Lake and Torino, Italy. Previously, he worked as a consultant with Booz-Allen & Hamilton and Electronic Data Systems. More recently, Schlough served as Interim President of the Giants' Class A San Jose affiliate and was appointed to the team's board of directors as chairman in 2012. He also serves on the board of Junior Achievement of Northern California and is an avid supporter of the Giants Community Fund.

Schlough was recently honored as InformationWeek's 2012 IT Chief of the Year and is a member of Sports Business Journal's 2010 "Forty Under 40" class of promising young executives in the sports industry. A San Francisco native and Ironman triathlete, Schlough holds a Mechanical Engineering degree from Duke University and an MBA from the Wharton School.

Staci A. Slaughter SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS AND SENIOR ADVISOR TO THE CEO

Staci Slaughter oversees media relations, public affairs, marketing communications programs, social media, crisis communications and community outreach activities on behalf of the organization. She is a member of the organization's Management Committee. In addition to day-to-day responsibilities overseeing the Club's communications activities, Slaughter helps manage the organization's major public events, including the media operations for the 2007 All-Star Game, the public relations efforts surrounding the development and opening of the AT&T Park and the 2010 and 2012 World Series games and parades. Slaughter is also responsible for the Giants' charitable endeavors including its partnership with the Willie Mays Boys & Girls Club at Hunter's Point, the 100% Player Participation program and the Giants Community Fund. In 2012, Slaughter received the Robert O. Fishel Award, which is given annually to the active, non-uniformed representative of Major League Baseball for ethics, professionalism and humanitarianism. Prior to joining the Giants in 1996, Slaughter was press secretary to former San Francisco Mayor Frank Jordan, where she served as his primary spokesperson, media liaison and speechwriter. Slaughter has lived in San Francisco for more than 20 years and serves on the boards of trustees of the Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy and the San Francisco Friends School. A University of California, Berkeley graduate, Slaughter lives in San Francisco with her husband, Jamie, and their two sons, Jake and Ben.

John F. Yee SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

John Yee joined the Giants in 1992 with primary responsibility for its financial affairs. Other functions for which Yee have overseen during the last 21 years with the Giants includes human resources, business administration, information systems and retail.

His involvement with the building of AT&T Park began with his role as Treasurer with the "Yes on B, Build the Ballpark" 1996 election measure.

AT&T Park was privately financed through efforts of Yee with the securing of construction and private placement bond financing. Yee was involved with design, engineering and development issues throughout the building of the ballpark. He served as the point person in management of the ballpark construction project for the team and assuring an "on time, on budget" delivery of the ballpark. These efforts drew upon his previous experience working on major construction projects, including a stint internationally.

The San Francisco native is involved with all major initiatives of the company as one of the prin-cipal officers of the company. Major initiatives have included the regional sports network transaction, on-going ballpark capital improvements and player contract administration. He continues to be involved with lender relations, ongoing financing needs for the company and investor relations. Yee resides in Novato with his wife, Catherine.

Russ Stanley MANAGING VICE PRESIDENT, TICKET SALES AND SERVICES

Russ Stanley, who enters his 24th season with the San Francisco Giants, is responsible for the ticket sales of all events at AT&T Park and the team's Spring Training facility, Scottsdale Stadium. He was a key player in developing the team's charter seat program as well as the Giants secondary market and dynamic pricing rollouts.

Stanley and his open minded and creative team of sales, operations, client relations, and luxury suites staff have implemented many progressive ideas that have improved Giants fan experience and satisfaction. During his tenure, the team has integrated new technologies to alle-viate the pressure for season ticket holders who must purchase and use 83 games. Whether it's reselling tickets online, relaying via email, finding ticket partners, or donating tickets, Stanley's team has built the infrastructure to do it all electronically. The Giants' dynamic pricing program, where the team changes prices based on demand, has changed the ticketing business. Russ' team of ticket and sales professionals continue to be at the forefront of the sports ticketing world.

The San Francisco State graduate came to the Giants after eight years at Marine World, in both Redwood City and Vallejo.

Danny Dann VICE PRESIDENT, SPONSOR AND SPECIAL EVENTS SERVICES

Danny Dann joined the Giants in 1996 primarily selling and servicing corporate sponsorships. His role changed as the team moved to AT&T Park as he transitioned from selling to overseeing the execution of all sponsor related commitments and promotional activity. In addition, he works closely with the Ticket Sales department to manage the logistics for the many special events including Heritage Days.

Shana Daum VICE PRESIDENT, PUBLIC AFFAIRS AND COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Shana Daum is entering her 15th season and is responsible for the creation and management of community programs and initiatives, business public relations and media activities and player relations. She is a graduate of the University of California, Davis and received her master's in sports management from the University of San Francisco. Daum lives in Oakland with her husband, Rick, and their daughters Eleanor and Grace.

Nancy Donati VICE PRESIDENT, CREATIVE SERVICES

Nancy Donati oversees the Creative Services Department which includes: graphic design for all Giants collateral materials, Giants Magazine, photography, archives and the art program for the ballpark.

Jerry Drobny VICE PRESIDENT, STRATEGIC REVENUE SERVICES

Jerry Drobny, entering his 21st year with the San Francisco Giants in 2013, is responsible for strategic initiatives within the Business Operations Department including product pricing, customer information management, analytic reporting and technology solutions development. Drobny and his strategic services team provide internal consulting services to assist and support the Giants organization's decision-making and customer relationship management activities.

Annemarie Hastings VICE PRESIDENT, CLIENT RELATIONS

Annemarie Hastings, now in her 26th year in the sports industry, was brought on board in 1996 to help the Giants spearhead the charter seat campaign which funded construction of AT&T Park. Hastings now oversees the Giants Client Relations Department. Under her direction, the organization's client relations staff is responsible for the retention and renewal of all charter seat, season ticket, luxury suite and returning group ticket clients. The team provides year-round, proactive and personalized customer service to enhance the "Giants experience" for the core group of Giants customers..

Dave Martinez VICE PRESIDENT, RETAIL OPERATIONS

Dave Martinez oversees all aspects of the Giants retail operations, including the Giants Dugout Stores, Spring Training, mail order and other outside venues. He also oversees the real estate negotiations, merchandising, and marketing surrounding the retail operation.

Rick Mears VICE PRESIDENT, GUEST SERVICES

Rick Mears is responsible for all ushers, ticket takers, Coca Cola Fan Lot, luxury suite, and club level staff on game days at AT&T Park. He also is the primary trainer for AT&T Park event staff on customer service.

Elizabeth R. Murphy VICE PRESIDENT AND DEPUTY GENERAL COUNSEL

Elizabeth Murphy, who begins her 15th season with the Giants, serves as in-house counsel and the lead lawyer in negotiating, documenting and completing the Giants' and its related entities' commercial, sponsorship and media transactions. She also handles the club's trademark and real estate matters, while managing all legal aspects of the relationships with the Giants' sponsors, broadcasters, landlords, subtenants and major service providers. Ms. Murphy resides in Oakland with her husband and their two children.

Lisa Pantages VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE

Lisa Pantages, a fourth generation San Franciscan, oversees the daily financial operations of the club and its affiliates, including all general accounting activities, financial reporting, budgets and payroll.

Stephen Revetria VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER, GIANTS ENTERPRISES

Stephen Revetria is responsible for the day-to-day management of Giants Enterprises, a wholly owned subsidiary of the San Francisco Giants. He is responsible for developing business opportunities and strategy that increase the visibility and use of AT&T Park beyond the Major League Baseball franchise.

Gene Telucci VICE PRESIDENT, BALLPARK OPERATIONS

Gene oversees the daily operations of AT&T Park and is responsible for maintaining a clean, safe and functional facility. Telucci also manages the budget for Ballpark Operations. A San Francisco native, Telucci began his career more than 30 years ago as a ticket taker at Candlestick Park.

Joyce Thomas VICE PRESIDENT, HUMAN RESOURCES

Joyce Thomas oversees human resource activities concentrating on all employee benefit programs for the organization. She serves on many benefit boards including the MLB Board of Trustees for the league wide medical program. Thomas, a native of Connecticut, has over 29 years experience working in the human resources field.

Jeff Tucker VICE PRESIDENT, SALES

Jeff Tucker develops the business strategy and sales process for: premium sales, group sales/special events, and season ticket sales. He leads the Executive Sales Team; which oversees these areas as well as the Giants Call Center and Ticket Sales Development units.

Willie Mays ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

Regarded by many as the best all-around player in baseball history, Willie Mays returned to San Francisco in 1986 and now enters his 27th season in the Giants' front office. In 1993, in one of his first public statements after assuming ownership of the team, former Giants President and Managing General Partner Peter Magowan announced that the franchise was signing Mays to a lifetime contract.

Magowan also announced in 1997 that the front entrance of the club's new ballpark would feature a world-class statue of Mays and the official address of the park would be 24 Willie Mays Plaza. The 80-year-old Mays serves as a Giant emissary. He visits the Giants' minor league teams, as well as Spring Training camp and attends nearly every single Giants home game during the season. The Westfield, AL native also makes appearances on behalf of the club at a variety of civic and charitable events throughout the Bay Area for the Giants Community Fund. He has also made generous contributions to needy children throughout the country through his own Say Hey Foundation charity.

During his 22-year Major League playing career, Mays was named Most Valuable Player twice, 11 years apart, first as a New York Giant and then as a San Francisco Giant. He holds the all-time record for putouts by an outfielder, with a career total of 7,095. He compiled 3,283 hits, won 12 Gold Gloves and appeared in 24 All-Star games. He was third on the all-time home run list with 660 until 2003 when his godson, Barry Bonds, passed him. His career batting average was .302 and for eight consecutive years, he drove in more than 100 runs a season. The "Say Hey Kid" was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1979, the first year of his eligibility (the ninth player to make it on his first try). Mays' uniform number, 24, has been retired by the Giants, as he remains the franchise leader in games played (2,857), at-bats (10,477), runs (2,011), hits (3,187), doubles (504), home runs (646), total bases (5,907) and extra base hits (1,289). He was named team captain of the Giants prior to the 1961 season by manager Alvin Dark.

More recently, Mays has received numerous honors as one of the premier athletes of the past 100 years. The Sporting News ranked him second only to Babe Ruth among the 100 greatest baseball players of the 20th century. ESPN listed him as eighth in their ranking of the top 50 athletes of the century. In 2003, former Governor Gray Davis appointed Willie Mays to the State Board of Directors of the California African American Museum.

He is the spokesperson for The Institute on Aging in San Francisco as well as the President and CEO of the Say Hey Foundation, supporting underprivileged youth. He is also a member of the Concordia Club and has recently re-signed with The Topps Company, Inc., an association that began in 1952, that publishes baseball cards. Mays has received honorary degrees from Dartmouth, Miles College, Ohio State University, San Francisco State and Yale University.

Mays and his wife, Mae, make their home in Atherton.

Willie McCovey

SENIOR ADVISOR

Willie McCovey, whose Hall of Fame playing career with the San Francisco Giants spanned four decades, enters his 13th season as senior advisor to the

McCovey, who had hit more home runs (521) than any other left-handed hitter in National League history before Barry Bonds passed him in 2001, began his first formal association with the Giants' current ownership group in 2000. He had previously made special public appearances on an ad hoc basis for the present and previous administrations over the past several years, but had not held a formal front office position with the team since 1986.

In honor of the Hall of Fame great, the portion of San Francisco Bay behind right field at AT&T Park has been named "McCovey Cove." In 2003, the Giants unveiled a statue of McCovey at China Basin Park, which is located across from AT&T Park on the southern shoreline of McCovey Cove. He was honored during the Home Run Derby during the 2007 All-Star Game festivities.

In his current position, McCovey offers his expertise to Giants players when possible, appearing at Spring Training and during the regular season. He also makes occasional speaking appearances, and performs other valuable functions for the team.

One of the most respected and feared hitters in baseball during his 22-year career in the Majors, McCovey was a six-time All-Star, ranks second to Lou Gehrig in career grand slams (18) and hit the most homers (231) ever at Candlestick Park. "Stretch" also established a Major League record for most seasons played (22) as a first baseman. In addition, he became the fifth player in MLB history to earn back-to-back home run and RBI titles, hitting 36 homers and driving in 105 runs in 1968 and then capturing NL Most Valuable Player honors with 45 home runs and 126 RBI in 1969.

McCovey, 73, has made an on-field appearance at the close of every season—with the exception of a few recent years due to his knee ailments—to present the Willie Mac Award. The only Giants award ever named after a former player, the Willie Mac Award was established in 1980 and is given to the Giants player who best exemplifies the spirit and leadership consistently shown by McCovey throughout his career.

Orlando Cepeda COMMUNITY AMBASSADOR

Orlando Cepeda, who was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999, is recognized nationally for his humanitarian efforts as an ambassador for baseball and the San Francisco Giants. He begins his 24th season as a community representative for the team and is a member of the Giants Community Fund Advisory Board.

In his current role, the "Baby Bull" visits inner-city schools in the Bay Area and throughout the United States, speaking to "at-risk" children about the dangers of drugs and alcohol. The 75-year-old Ponce, P.R. native also serves as the honorary spokesman for the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of America. A lifetime .297 hitter with 379 home runs and 1,365 RBI during his 17-year playing career with the Giants, Cardinals, Braves, A's, Red Sox and Royals, Cepeda hit a home run against the Dodgers in his very first Major League game April 15, 1958. He went on to win 1958 Rookie of the Year honors, the 1966 Comeback Player of the Year award, the 1967 NL Most Valuable Player trophy and 1973 Designated Hitter of the Year laurels. He appeared in three World Series, was a six-time All-Star and hit over .300 nine times in his career.

On July 25, 1999, Cepeda was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame during ceremonies in Cooperstown, NY. He became only the second Puerto Rico native to enter the Hall, joining the late Roberto Clemente. Two weeks earlier on July 11, 1999, Cepeda had his uniform No. 30 retired by the Giants during ceremonies at Candlestick Park.

In 1993, the Baby Bull was also inducted into the Puerto Rico Sports Hall of Fame, while in 1999, he was elected to the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for his great years with the St. Louis Cardinals which followed his tenure with the Giants. In 2004, he was one of four men to receive the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association's Achievement Awards, the MLBPAA's highest alumni honor. He was joined by Jim Bunning, Al Kaline and the late Roger Maris.

In 2008, the Giants unveiled a nine-foot bronze statue of Cepeda at the Second Street entrance to AT&T Park.

Cepeda and his wife, Miriam, reside in Fairfield. They have four sons—Carlton, Orlando, Jr., Malcolm and Ali.

Lon Simmons COMMUNITY AMBASSADOR

Hall of Fame broadcaster and local legend Lon Simmons rejoined the Giants in 2006, serving in a capacity as a community ambassador and fill-in broadcaster. In his current duties, Simmons visits San Francisco during selected homestands as well as during the off season, and Scottsdale for Spring Training. He makes appearances at various team events, such as the Play Ball Luncheon, Fan Fest and Opening Day.

One of the original voices of the San Francisco Giants, the 2004 Ford Frick Award winner originally teamed with fellow Hall of Famer Russ Hodges to form arguably the finest broadcast team in sports history in 1958 to kick off the first of three different stints in the Giants broadcast booth (1958-73, '76-78 and '96-2002) that spanned 23 seasons.

The man with the trademark "Tell It Goodbye" home run call retired to Hawaii after the 2002 season and was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY in the summer of 2004.

Will Clark COMMUNITY AMBASSADOR

Longtime Giants icon Will Clark joined the Giants front office in January 2009 as a community ambassador. In his role, the six-time All-Star first baseman represents the organization at various in-season and off-season community events in San Francisco. He also attends the Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, Arizona and visits one of the Giants' minor league teams each year.

Clark, who brings the experience of a 15-year Major League playing career to the Giants, previ-ously worked as an advisor to the Arizona

Diamondbacks' coaching staff in spring training from 2004-2008.

Drafted by the Giants in the first round (second overall pick) of the 1985 June draft, Clark spent his first eight big league seasons in a San Francisco uniform, compiling a .299 batting average with 176 home runs and 709 RBI in 1,160 games.

One of the best clutch hitters of his time, Clark hit over .300 on 10 occasions. In 1988, he became the first Giants player to drive in 90 or more runs in consecutive seasons since Bobby Murcer in 1975-76. He had one of his finest seasons in 1989, when he batted .333 with 111 RBI, and finished second in the NL Most Valuable Player voting to Giants teammate Kevin Mitchell. He was however named MVP of the '89 NLCS, after batting .650 with a pair of homers and eight RBI, helping San Francisco defeat Chicago four-games-to-one.

One of the premier first basemen in the National League during his time with San Francisco, Clark was also an outstanding defensive player, winning a Rawlings Gold Glove in 1991.

The New Orleans, LA native owned a .303 lifetime average with 284 home runs and 1,205 RBI over 1,976 career games for the Giants (1986-1993), Rangers (1994-98), Orioles (1999-2000) and Cardinals (2000).

Clark, who was a two-time All American at Mississippi State University, was the winner of the Golden Spikes Award as the country's top collegiate player in 1985, hitting .420 with 25 home runs and 77 RBI in 65 games. He was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006 and was inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

He resides in Prairieville, LA with his wife, Lisa, and their son, Trey, and daughter, Ella.

Dave Dravecky COMMUNITY AMBASSADOR

Former San Francisco Giant pitcher Dave Dravecky currently serves as a community ambassador for the team. In his role, Dave represents the organization at a number of community and sponsor events in San Francisco and the Bay Area. He also attends Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, Arizona, and enjoys representing the organization all over Northern California at various speaking engagements and alumni appearances.

Dave was an All-Star with the San Diego Padres in 1983, and was traded to the Giants in 1987. Winner of the 1989 Willie Mac Award, Dave's story is both touching and inspiring. After discovering a cancerous tumor in his pitching arm in October of 1988, Dave battled back and returned to the majors in August of 1989. After winning his first start, his humerus bone snapped just five days later while throwing a pitch in the 6th inning. The doctors discovered another mass in his left arm, and Dravecky was forced to retire from baseball. After two more surgeries in the next two years, Dave's left arm and shoulder were amputated.

Dave is currently a Christian motivational speaker, author, and proud Grandfather. Dave and his wife Jan recently moved back to California to be closer to their family and the two-time World Series Champion San Francisco Giants.

J.T. Snow SPECIAL ASSISTANT

Longtime Giant and fan favorite J.T. Snow joined the San Francisco Giants front office in December, 2006 after retiring from a 15-year big league career. The six-time Gold Glove first baseman has a wide variety of duties in his role, including personal appearances, broadcasting on the radio side, serving as an instructor during Spring Training, a roving instructor for the minor league clubs and advising general manager Brian Sabean on an as-needed basis.

Snow, who spent nine seasons in a Giants uniform from 1997-2005, helped San Francisco to four post season appearances during his tenure before completing his career with the Boston Red Sox in 2006. He and Hall of Famer Willie McCovey are the only Giants first basemen to start nine consecutive Opening Days since the club moved to San Francisco in 1958.

The Long Beach, CA native owned a .268 lifetime average with 189 home runs and 877 RBI over 1,715 career games for the Yankees (1992), Angels (1993-96), Giants (1997-2005) and Red Sox (2006).

Snow, who is one of three players to win the coveted "Willie Mac Award" twice in his career (1997 and 2004) along with Mike Krukow and Bengie Molina, makes his home in Hillsborough, CA with his wife, Stacie, and their son, Shane.

Lori Ann Gardner 1964-2003

Lori Gardner, the wife of former Giants pitcher and current coach Mark Gardner, passed away in November of 2003, after a courageous battle with liver cancer. In honor of Lori and her tremendous work within the community, the Giants have dedicated the family playroom across from the Giants Clubhouse as the Lori Gardner Family Room. Contributions in Lori's memory for the fight against cancer can be made to the Step to the Plate Foundation, 7797 North First Street, Suite 26, Fresno, California 93720.

BEHIND THE SCENES

TRAINERS

Dave Groeschner

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Dave Groeschner enters his seventh year as the head athletic trainer and 17th season overall with the Giants, after serving as the club's assistant athletic trainer from 2005-06. He is in his second stint with the Giants having spent the 2004 season as the head athletic trainer for the Chicago Cubs. Groeschner previously had spent four seasons in a dual role as the assistant athletic trainer and strength and conditioning coordinator for San Francisco from 2000-03. He previously served as athletic trainer for the triple-A

Fresno Grizzlies during the 1999 season, after logging two years at single-A San Jose and one campaign at rookie-league Bellingham. Groeschner also served as the Giants minor league medical coordinator during the 2000-01 seasons. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of South Carolina. Groeschner is a member of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) and the National Athletic Trainers Association. He and his wife, Aimee, and daughters, Katie and Karmyn, reside in Mesa, AZ.

Mark Gruesbeck

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Mark Gruesbeck returns for his seventh year in his second stint as the team's assistant athletic trainer after previously serving as the club's assistant trainer in 2004. Gruesbeck enters his 15th season in the Giants organization, spending the 2005-06 campaigns as the head minor league athletic trainer where he oversaw the medical needs for all of the organization's minor league players. He joined the Giants in 1999 after spending two seasons as a trainer in the Detroit organization. Gruesbeck has served as a head trainer at each level in San Francisco's chain, including the 2003 campaign at triple-A Fresno, the 2001-02 seasons as head trainer at double-A Shreveport and the 1999 and 2000 campaigns at shortseason Salem-Keizer. He was honored as the 1998 Florida State League Trainer of the Year and served as the 1996 Hawaii Winter League All-Star trainer. He earned a bachelor's degree in Sports Medicine from Central Michigan University. Gruesbeck is a member of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) and the National Athletic Trainers Association. He and his wife, Cristin, reside in Mesa, AZ.

Anthony Reyes

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Anthony Reyes enters his second season as an assistant athletic trainer for the Giants, his 10th season overall in the Giants organization. Reyes previously spent four seasons as the head athletic trainer for the triple-A Fresno Grizzlies. He also spent two seasons (2006-07) with double-A Connecticut and worked with the Arizona Rookie team in 2005 after completing an internship for the Major League club in 2004. He earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from San Jose State University in 2004, and was a student athletic trainer when he attended the University of Washington from 1999-2001. Reyes is certified by the National Athletic Trainer's Association. He resides in Hayward, CA.

Carl Kochan

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Carl Kochan enters his second season as the Major League strength and conditioning coach. Kochan spent the previous three seasons in the same capacity with the triple-A Fresno Grizzlies. Prior to that, he was the strength and conditioning coach for triple-A Pawtucket in the Boston Red Sox organization in 2008 and also worked in the Seattle Mariners farm system, working with both low-A Wisconsin (2007) and double-A San Antonio (2006). Kochan graduated from Southern Illinois University in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science. Kochan is Registered Strength and Conditioning Coach (RSCC) also with being certified with Distinction (D*) as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and Personal Trainer (NSCA-CPT) with the National Strength and Conditioning Association. CLUBHOUSE

Mike Murphy GIANTS EQUIPMENT/HOME CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

"Murph" has been a fixture with the Giants since the team moved west in 1958. In recognition of his lifelong commitment to the organization, the Giants clubhouse at AT&T Park is named the Mike Murphy Clubhouse. In his 55 years, Murphy has never missed a Giants' home game. The San Francisco native is in his 56th season with the Giants and 34th as equipment manager. Murphy began his career in professional baseball as bat boy for the San Francisco Seals (AAA) from 1954-

57, before becoming the Giants' bat boy during the 1958-59 seasons. He became visiting clubhouse attendant in 1960 when the club moved to Candlestick, a job he held until his promotion in 1980. Murphy and his wife, Carole, live in San Bruno with their children, Andrea and Michele; grandchildren, Tori-Lynn an Jeremiah; and Abby, the clubhouse dog.

Harvey Hodgerney

VISITORS CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Harvey Hodgerney has spent 29 years with the Giants as the visiting clubhouse manager. The Cleveland, Ohio native has lived in the Bay Area for the last 51 years. Hodgerney was also previously in charge of the visitors locker room for the San Francisco 49ers at Candlestick Park. Harvey and his wife, Penny, have two children, Tracy and Adam, and four grandchildren, Ashley and Tyler Jones, and Caitlyn and A.J. Hodgerney. The Hodgerneys reside in San Bruno.

STAFF

Bret Alexander

DIRECTOR, TEAM TRAVEL

Bret Alexander enters his second season with the Giants as the Director of Team Travel following his incredible first season with the 2012 World Series Giants; which included his participation in the 2012 All-Star Game in Kansas City. He is responsible for all facets of team travel logistics and oversees the organizational travel for the front office. Bret began his career in professional sports in the NBA with the now former Seattle Supersonics in 1983, working as an intern. He went on to work as an assistant in media relations and then game operations. After serious consideration to follow in his father's footsteps as an NBA referee, Bret instead was introduced to music group U2 in 1989 through his wife, Theresa and went on to become their Tour Travel Manager and served in that capacity from 1991-2011. From 2009-2011 he managed the band's travel throughout the U2 360 World Tour campaign; playing to over 7 million fans, 110 shows, 78 cities, 30 countries and 5 continents. The tour is recognized as the highest grossing tour of all time. A native of Tacoma, Washington, he and his wife, Theresa are the proud parents of three children, Harley (21), Griffon (18) and Garret (13). They currently reside in Roslyn, Washington.

Michael Scardino

COORDINATOR, ORGANIZATIONAL TRAVEL

Michael Scardino, who enters his 18th year with the Giants and 15th as the organizational travel coordinator, oversees all commercial travel for the organization. The New York, NY native handles the travel needs for the front office staff as well as both the major and minor league needs for the baseball operations department. The University of California, Berkeley graduate began his professional baseball career in marketing for the Oakland Athletics in 1982, before starting a travel service for broadcast crews, broadcasters and sportswriters in 1985. He has also worked as a statistician and television graphics coordinator over the years. Scardino and his wife, Katrinka, live in Richmond, and have one son. Patrick.

- In Game 4 of the World Series at Detroit he struck out four consecutive batters (Miguel Cabrera, Prince Fielder, Delmon Young and Andy Dirks) in the 8th and 9th innings to help preserve a 3-3 tie in the Giants' 4-3 clinching victory.

Completed his third full season with Giants, going 3-2 with a 2.63 ERA (18er, 61.2ip) in 67 relief appearances.

- His ERA on the road (1.72) was less than half of what it was at home (3.56)...his road ERA was the third lowest in the NL (min. of 30.0ip).
- Fashioned a 1.21 ERA (3er, 22.1ip) after All-Star break (beginning July 14), which was the seventh lowest among all NL relievers (min. of 20.0ip).
- Southpaw held opposing LH batters to a .144 clip (13-for-90), which ranked as a third lowest among ML relievers (min. of 75 BF) behind Atlanta's Jonny Venters (.127) and Baltimore-Texas' Koji Uehara (.130)...opposing lefties were just 3-for-51 (.059) off him after June 6.
- Had a 0.95 ERA (2er, 19.0ip) against NL West opponents, but 3.38 figure (16er, 42.2ip) vs. NL East, Central and Interleague foes.
- Inherited the most runners on the Giants' staff (11th-most in NL), inheriting 45 runners while allowing 11 to score.
- Matched his career-high in strikeouts as a reliever on June 26 vs. Cleveland, fanning five in 2.0 innings.
- Missed the final 19 games of the season after cutting his right hand on Sept. 8 (off day) while trying to separate frozen hamburger patties...sustained a deep gash in his right palm and underwent surgery to fix nerve damage.

- Went 4-3 with a 4.14 ERA (23er, 50.0ip), 44 strikeouts and four saves in 53 games in his second season with San Francisco, his ninth overall in the Majors.
- Struggled in his first 24 games, posting a 5.64 ERA (14er, 22.1ip) and allowing an opponents' avg. against of .314 (27-for-86).
- Recorded his 500th career strikeout on June 14 vs. Baltimore in the 9th inning as Melvin Mora struck out swinging to end the game.

Suffered a strained left oblique on July 23 while warming up in the bullpen in Arizona...was placed on the disabled list and missed 23 games.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Appeared in five games during the postseason, going 0-0 with a 4.50 ERA (2er, 4.0ip) and four strikeouts.
- > Appeared in three games in the LCS, going 0-0 with a 3.38 ERA (1er, 2.2ip).
- > His biggest contribution to the Giants playoff run came in Game 6 of the League Championship Series vs. Philadelphia as he relieved Jonathan Sanchez in the 3rd inning with two men on and no outs and proceeded to toss 2.0-scoreless innings, while not allowing single base runner.

- > Established himself as one of the best left-handed relief pitchers in the Majors, going 2-2 with a 1.73 ERA (12er, 62.1ip).
- > Received one 10th place vote in the NL MVP balloting and was named the winner for Setup Man of the Year, presented by This Year in Baseball Awards.

2012 SEASON

- Former number one draft pick by the Giants returned to organization in 2012, signing a minor league contract in January.
- Missed the first three-plus months of the season recovering from Tommy John surgery.
- Went on a rehab assignment with rookie level Arizona and was reinstated from the DL on July 12.
- Appeared in 11 games (7 starts) for triple-A Fresno, going 0-3 with a 4.50 ERA (17er, 34.0ip).
- Hit his first career home run on Aug. 28 vs. Reno...hit a solo shot off Trevor Bauer to become the first Grizzlies pitcher to homer at home since Kevin Pickford in 2003.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Appeared in one game for triple-A Buffalo in early April 2011 and after just 4.0 innings of work he left the game due to a right forearm strain...underwent Tommy John surgery and missed the remainder of the season.
- Split the 2010 season between the Boston Red Sox and Oakland Athletics organizations after missing all of 2009 following right shoulder surgery.
- Worked exclusively out of the bullpen for the first time in his career.
- Began the season on Boston's 15-day disabled list with a right groin strain...activated on June 7 and pitched in two games with the Red Sox before he was designated for assignment on June 18...outrighted to Pawtucket on June 28 and elected free agency.
- Missed almost the entire 2009 season while recovering from surgery on his right shoulder...underwent arthroscopic surgery on February 25 to repair partial tears to the labrum and rotator cuff in his right shoulder...the procedure was performed by Dr. Coco Eaton in St. Petersburg, FL.
- In his first full Major League season in 2007, made 31 appearances (30 starts) for the Twins.
- Made his Major League debut and started 18 games overall in three stints with Minnesota in 2006.
- Recalled from triple-A Rochester of the International League on May 19 and made his Major League debut in a start at Milwaukee on May 21...did not factor in Minnesota's 5-3 loss, tossing 6.0 innings of one-run ball... struck out eight batters, setting a record for most strike-

- outs by a Twins pitcher in his Major League debut.
- Recorded his first big league win in his second start, May 27 vs. Seattle.
- In five starts from September 4-September 25, he went 4-0 with a 2.20 ERA (8er, 32.2ip)...named American League Rookie of the Month for September, finishing with a 4-1 record, 2.63 ERA (11er, 37.2ip) and 30 strikeouts in six starts.
- Made one start for the Twins during the Division Series vs. Oakland...threw 6.0 innings of two-run ball and did not receive a decision in a 5-2 Game 2 loss.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Spent the entire 2005 season at triple-A Rochester of the International League...led the IL with 168 strikeouts.
- Led Rochester in starts, wins, innings pitched and strikeouts.
- In his first season with the Twins organization in 2004, made 27 starts for double-A New Britain of the Eastern League and one for Rochester of the International League.
- In 2003, led San Francisco's double-A Norwich of the Eastern League in games started and strikeouts and was second in wins and innings pitched...also made four starts for triple-A Fresno of the Pacific Coast League.
- Acquired by Minnesota along with right-handed pitcher Joe Nathan and left-handed pitcher Francisco Liriano in exchange for catcher A.J. Pierzynski and cash, November 14.
- Finished second in the California League with a 2.88 ERA in 23 starts with Class A Advanced San Jose in 2002... also made five starts for double-A Shreveport of the Texas League.
- Named San Francisco's Organizational Player of the Year by USA Today in 2001 after leading all Giants minor leaguers in wins, ERA and strikeouts in 27 starts with Class A Hagerstown of the Southern League...also selected as the South Atlantic League's Most Valuable Pitcher and a postseason All-Star and named to SportsTicker's All-Teen team
- Led the SAL in wins, was second in strikeouts and sixth in FRA

- Posted his second-consecutive 200.0 inning season, going 16-11 with a 3.37 ERA (78er, 208.1ip) with 191 strikeouts in 32 starts.
- His 16 victories were a career-high and the most wins in a season by a Giants left-hander since Kirk Rueter won 16 games in 1998.
- His 16 wins were tied for the sixth-most in the NL and his .593 winning pct, was the eighth-highest in the league.
- Became the first Giants pitcher to have a 16+ win season at age 23-or-younger since Hal Schumacher won 23 games for the New York Giants in 1934 at the age of 23.
- Ranked eighth in the NL by holding opponents to a .234 clip (183-for-782)...left-handed batters hit only .208 (35-for-168) off him with four HRs.
- Finished ninth in the NL with 191 strikeouts...his 8.25 strikeouts per 9.0 innings were the second-highest on the club.
- Fashioned a 2.33 ERA (26er, 100.1ip) in 14 home starts, which was the fifth-lowest ERA in the NL...went 9-3 at home and dating back to 2011, has won 14 of his last 17 home decisions.
- Was 6-8 with a 4.40 ERA (50er, 102.1ip) in 17 road starts.
- Tied Tim Lincecum for the most home runs allowed on the team with 23...allowed 18 HRs on the road and five at home...had allowed only 25 home runs in his career entering 2012 (55 games).
- > Recorded three games with 10-plus strikeouts and no

- walks, tied with the Mets' R.A. Dickey for the highest total in the Majors...according to Elias, no other Giants pitcher since 1900 has had three such games in one season.
- Went 5-0 with a 2.42 ERA (12er, 44.2ip) in the month of June...became the first Giants pitcher to win five games in a calendar month since Tim Lincecum did so in Sept. 2010.
- Allowed two-runs-or-fewer in 19 of 32 starts...recorded the third-most quality outings on the club with 19.
- Tossed at least 6.0 innings in all but five starts...his 208.1 innings pitched were the eighth-most in the NL.
- Opposing teams hit .196 (32-for-163) off him with runners in scoring position...that ranked as the eighth-lowest figure in the NL.
- Struggled to hold runners on, allowing 27 stolen bases, tied for the third-most in the NL...however, his five pickoffs were tied for the third-most in the NL.
- On April 12, Bumgarner (22 years, 225 days old) and Jamie Moyer (49 years, 146 days old) faced one another in what was the third-largest age difference in a starting pitching matchup all-time.
- Took a no-hitter into the sixth inning on April 12 at Colorado, however allowed a one-out triple to Tyler Colvin...his 5.1 innings without allowing a hit was the longest of his career.
- Batted in the eighth spot in the order on May 16 vs. St. Louis against LHP Jaime Garcia...marked just the second time in Giants franchise history that their starting pitcher batted in that spot in the order (only other time was May 20, 2010 at Arizona; Lincecum batted eighth, Torres ninth).

- > On June 12 vs. Houston, struck out 12 batters (one shy of his career-high) in 7.2 innings and launched the Giants' first home run in nearly a month in a 6-3 win...led off the third inning by hitting a solo home run off of RHP Bud Norris to left field for his first career home run
- > Became just the third Giants pitcher since 1900 to hit a home run and strike out at least a dozen batters... Juan Marichal accomplished the feat on Sept. 12, 1963 at New York-NL (HR, 13 Ks) and so did Mike Krukow on Aug. 13, 1985 vs. Houston (HR, 12 Ks).
- > Took a no-hitter into the sixth inning of his start on June 28 vs. Cincinnati, but allowed a leadoff single to Ryan Hanigan to start the 6th, his only hit allowed in what was his first career complete game and his first shutout in SF's 5-0 win...extended the Giants' team scoreless streak to 36.0 innings and put the Giants in the record books as it was the team's fourth-consecutive shutout, a new franchise record.
- > Hit his second career home run on Sept. 11 at Colorado, hitting a three-run shot off of Jhoulys Chacin in the 4th inning...became the first Giants pitcher to hit a home run while driving in at least three runs since Noah Lowry did so on Aug. 24, 2007.
- Won his 16th game of the season on Sept. 22 vs. San Diego making him and Hall of Famer Rube Marguard the only Giants pitchers with 16-or-more wins in a season at 23 or younger in Giants franchise history... Marguard did it three years in a row: 24-7 in 1911, 26-11 in 1912 and 23-10 in 1913.
- > Signed a five-year extension through 2017 with a club/ vesting option for 2018 and a club option for 2019 on April 6...the 5-year extension covers Bumgarner through his arbitration years and his first year of free agency (2017).

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Went 1-2 with a 6.00 ERA (10er, 15.0ip) in three starts throughout the postseason.
- His best game came in Game 2 of the World Series vs. Detroit, logging 7.0-scoreless innings while allowing just two hits and eight strikeouts.
- Has now tossed consecutive World Series Games of at least 7.0-scoreless innings with at least six strikeouts... the only pitchers in MLB history to accomplish that were Christy Mathewson of the Giants in Games 1 and 3 of the 1905 World Series: Bill Hallahan of the Cardinals in Game 3 in 1930 and Game 2 in 1931: Don Larsen of the Yankees in Game 5 in 1956 and Game 3 in 1958; and Sandy Koufax

Giants Gems

- rom Hudson, N.C., a town of 2,800 people, 90 minutes northwest of Charlotte.
- His father's family goes back 100 years in Caldwell County. One area is called "Bumtown" for all the Bumgarners living on both sides of Deal Mill Road. It's four miles southeast of Hudson and 10 miles northwest of Hickory. Madison's father Kevin Bumgarner has lived most of his life along Deal Mill Road. "Typical of many BumTownians," the local Hickory Daily Record reports, "Kevin lives about 100 yards across the road from his mother Mary's house, which is where he grew up. Likewise, Madison bought a 38-acre farm about three miles down the road, with plans to build his dream home and to pursue his offseason passion of raising and riding horses."
- Lincecum already had the nicknames "The Freak" and "The Franchise," so Bumgarner's teammates in the minor leagues nicknamed him "The Future." But
 - of the Dodgers in Games 5 and 7 in 1965.
 - > According to Elias, his 15.0-inning scoreless streak to start his World Series career is tied with Boston's Bruce Hurst (1986) for the fourth-longest in history behind Cleveland's Duster Mails (15.2 innings in 1920), Boston's Jim Lonborg (17.0 innings in 1967) and Christy Mathewson of the Giants (28.0 innings from 1905-1911).

- Proved his resiliency after losing his first six decisions to end the year by going 13-13 with a 3.21 ERA (73er, 204.2ip) in 33 starts.
- > Finished 11th in the National League in ERA.
- > The Giants won 13 of his last 19 starts after losing 11 of his first 15.
- > Reached the 200.0-inning mark for the first time in his professional career and was just nine strikeouts shy of reaching 200 for the season.
- > Struck out 8.40 batters per 9.0 innings, which was thirdbest ratio among NL left-handed pitchers behind Los Angeles' (NL) Clayton Kershaw (9.57) and Philadelphia's Cliff Lee (9.21).

- > Registered double-digit strikeouts in four starts, with a career-high 13 punchouts on Sept. 5 at San Diego.
- > Went 8-6 with a 3.12 ERA (36er, 104.0ip) in 17 starts at AT&T Park...began the year by going 0-5 with a 5.82 ERA (22er, 34.0ip) in his first seven starts on the Shores of McCovey Cove, however turned things around and went 8-1 with a 1.80 figure (14er, 70.0ip) in his last 10 starts.
- Started the season by losing his first six decisions from April 5-May 13, logging a 4.25 ERA (20er, 42.1ip) during that span...received two runs-or-fewer of support in all but one of those games.
- > Prior to Bumgarner, the last pitcher to go winless with at least two losses through his first eight starts with an ERA of 4.25-orlower was the Cubs' Juan Cruz in 2002...the last Giants pitcher to have such a start to the season was Terry Mulholland in 1986 (0-6, 3.89 ERA).
- Lost eight of his first 10 decisions despite posting a 3.23 ERA...no other starting pitcher in Giants history had lost eight of his first 10 decisions with an ERA as low as Bumgarner's.
- Endured his worst start of his career and one of worst in Giants history on June 21 vs. Minnesota...recorded just one out while allowing eight 1st inning runs...faced 10 batters and retired only pitcher Carl Pavano, becoming the first player in baseball's modern era to allow as many as nine hits while recording fewer than two outs.
- Became the first Giants starting pitcher since 1900 to allow eight-or-more runs without getting out of the 1st
- > Bounced back from a historically dreadful outing to record 11 strikeouts in his next start on June 26 vs. Cleveland in SF's 3-1 victory on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball...tossed 7.0 innings, allowing one run to earn the win.
- > Following that start in Cleveland, was one of baseball's best pitchers for the final three months of the regular season, going 10-4 with a 2.62 ERA (35er, 120.1ip) over his final 18 starts...his 2.62 ERA beginning June 26 ranked as the ninth-lowest in the big leagues while his 10 victories were tied for the fourth-most.
- Issued two walks-or-fewer in 19-consecutive starts from April 17-July 24...became the first Giants pitcher to accomplish that feat since Juan Marichal went 21-straight starts between July 17, 1970-April 20, 1971, allowing two walks-or-fewer...Marichal is the only other SF Giant to do this in a single season as went 23-straight starts between April 10-July 18, 1968 (STATS, Inc.).
- > Recorded back-to-back double-digit strikeout games Aug. 31 (11 Ks vs. CHC) and Sept. 5 (13 Ks at SD), becoming the first Giants left-hander in the modern era (1900 to date) with consecutive starts of more than 10 Ks.

Rare All-Rookie Battery

On Oct. 31, 2010 in Game 4 of the World Series at Texas, Madison Bumgarner and Buster Posey became the first all-rookie starting battery in a World Series game since Spec Shea and Yogi Berra started for the Yankees in Game 1 of the 1947 World Series.

- > His 13 strikeout performance on Sept. 5 at San Diego not only was career-best, but he became one of only five lefthanders in SF-era history (since 1958) to record 13-or-more strikeouts in a game...Atlee Hammaker owns the Giants record with 14 punchouts on Sept. 11, 1983.
- > Finished the season by winning six of his last seven decisions while fashioning a 1.58 ERA (8er, 45.2ip) in seven starts.

- Went 7-6 with a 3.00 ERA (37er, 111.0ip) while posting 86 strikeouts and issuing only 26 walks in 18 starting assignments with the Giants.
- > Was one of the most consistent Giants starters since being recalled towards the end of June, logging at least 6.0 innings in 12 of his 18 starts and 7.0 innings nine times...recorded 11 quality outings.
- Since his recall on June 26, posted the fourth-lowest ERA among National League left-handed starters, behind HOU's Wandy Rodriguez (2.14), PHI's Cole Hamels (2.57) and LAD's Clayton Kershaw (2.64).
- > His 3.00 ERA was the third-lowest in SF-era history for a rookie pitcher behind Jim Barr (2.87 in 1972) and John Montefusco (2.88 in 1975) (min. of 15 starts).
- > Between triple-A Fresno and Giants, combined to pitch 193.2 innings, which was a career-high in his brief threeyear professional career...prior to 2010, his career-high in innings was 141.2 in 2008 with Augusta.
- Earned his first Major League victory July 6 in Milwaukee after tossing 8.0-scoreless innings and allowing only three hits in SF's 6-1 win...according to Elias, only two other Giants rookies pitched a game like that: Noah Lowry in 2004 when he tossed 9.0-shutout frames against the Reds on Aug. 3 and Matt Cain, who accomplished it twice in 2006, tossing 9.0-scoreless innings at Oakland on May 21 and blanking Colorado for 8.0 innings on Sept. 14.

> At 20 years, 339 days, became the second-youngest Giants pitcher in the last 25 years to win his first Major League game and first since Matt Cain in 2005...Cain was just one day younger than Bumgarner at 20 years, 338 days when he won his first big league contest on Sept. 4 at Arizona.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- > Had one of the most memorable postseasons of any 21-year-old, going 2-0 with a 2.18 ERA 5er, 20.2ip) in four games (three starts).
- > Earned his first career postseason victory in Game 4 of the LDS vs. Atlanta on Oct. 11, contest that SF won 3-2 to advance to the LCS...tossed 6.0 innings and yielded two runs on six hits...became the youngest Giants pitcher in franchise history to win a postseason game at 21 years and 71 days old.
- Was the first rookie starting pitcher to win a clinching game on the road in the postseason since Dave Righetti (Yankees at A's, Game 3 of ALCS) and Fernando Valenzuela (Dodgers at Expos, Game 5 of NLCS) pitched their teams to World Series in 1981.
- In Game 4 of World Series on Oct. 31, Bumgarner joined teammate Buster Posey as the first all-rookie starting battery in a World Series game since Spec Shea and Yogi Berra started for the Yankees in Game 1 of the 1947 World Series (Elias).
- > At 21 years, 91 days old, was the fifth-youngest pitcher to start a World Series game.
- > Became the fourth-youngest starter to win a World Series game as the Giants took a 3-1 series lead over the Rangers on Oct. 31 with a 4-0 shutout victory...logged 8.0 innings and didn't allow an earned run becoming the youngest to ever accomplish that feat...Bumgarner's dominance gave the Giants their fourth shutout of the postseason, tying 1998 Yankees and 1905 New York Giants for the most in a single postseason in Major League history.
- > Only three starting pitchers younger than Bumgarner (21 years, 91 days old) have ever won a game in World Series history - Bullet Joe Bush (20 years, 316 days) for 1913 Athletics, Jim Palmer (20 years, 356 days) for 1966 Orioles and Fernando Valenzuela (20 years, 356 days) for 1981 Dodgers.
- > Only one starting pitcher younger than Bumgarner ever tossed at least 8.0-shutout innings in a World Series game - Jim Palmer, who was 100 days younger when he blanked Dodgers in Game 2 of 1966 World Series.

- Made his Major League debut for the Giants with a Sept. call-up, posting a 1.80 ERA (2er, 10.0ip) in four games (one start).
- Began the year at the Class A level, however by season's end was a Sept. call-up for San Francisco, appearing in
- Made his Major League debut Sept. 8 vs. San Diego, taking the place of RHP Tim Lincecum, who was scratched from his scheduled start due to back spasms.
- At 20 years and 38 days old became the fourth-youngest Giants pitcher to make his Major League debut...only Mike McCormick (17 years and 342 days), Nestor Chavez (19 years and 65 days) and Ron Bryant (19 years and 321 days) were younger (Sports Features Group)...in fact, became franchise's youngest pitcher to start a game in his Major League debut since the Giants moved west in 1958...Mike McCormick started for San Francisco as a 19-year-old, however made his ML debut two years earlier as member of the New York Giants.
- Was summoned from double-A, where he was originally scheduled to start an Eastern League playoff opener on Sept. 9...learned that he was that night's starting pitcher roughly three hours prior to game time, and retired his first four batters faced before giving up a home run to Chase Headley in the 2nd inning...gave up another solo shot to Kevin Kouzmanoff in 4th frame...marked the first time in 2009 (minor leagues included) that he had surrendered a pair of HRs in a single contest...left with a 3-2 lead that was quickly erased as Will Venable hit a solo HR to center against Brandon Medders...the Giants ended up losing the contest, 4-3.
- Was moved to the bullpen after Lincecum recovered from his back spasms and logged 4.2-scoreless innings with six Ks.
- Prior to joining the big league club combined to go 12-1 with a 1.85 ERA (27er, 131.1ip) and .211 avg. against (100for-475) in 25 games (24 starts) with Class-A Advanced San Jose and double-A Connecticut...began the year at Class-A Advanced San Jose, going 3-1 with a 1.48 ERA (4er, 24.1ip) and 23 strikeouts in five starts...was transferred to double-A Connecticut May 7 and helped Defenders win first division title as Giants' affiliate after going 9-1 with a 1.93 ERA (23er, 107.0ip) in 20 games (19
- Was named to the Eastern League All-Star team, but did not appear in the game.
- > Hit a grand slam July 22 at Binghamton.

> Was named Eastern League Pitcher of the Week for the week ending Aug. 30, pitching 7.0-shutout innings in the Defenders' 3-0 victory over the Rock Cats on Aug. 26.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- > Posted perhaps the best season of any Giants farmhand in 2008, winning the South Atlantic League triple crown, going 15-3 with a 1.46 ERA and 164 strikeouts for SAL Champion Augusta GreenJackets.
- In his first professional season in 2008, ranked third overall among minor league pitchers in strikeouts and tied for fifth in wins.
- Named 2008 Minor League Baseball's Most Spectacular Pitcher for finishing the season with the lowest ERA... was also named to SAL in-season and postseason All-Star teams, along with earning SAL Pitcher of Week honors on five different occasions...was named MiLBY's best starting pitcher for all of Class A leagues.
- > Reeled off 38.0-consecutive scoreless innings July 28-Aug. 27, 2008 (span of six starts), marking the longest scoreless stretch by a hurler in all of minor league baseball.
- > Named San Francisco's 2008 Pitcher of the Year, joining Pablo Sandoval (Player of Year) as the first two recipients to earn the inaugural award.

- > Tossed the 22nd perfect game in Major League Baseball history on June 13 vs. Houston...it was the first perfect game in the 130th-season history of the Giants
- > His perfect game marked the 14th no-hitter in Giants franchise history and the sixth in SF-era history (since 1958).
- Was one of three pitchers to have a perfect game in 2012, joining Philip Humber of the Chicago White Sox on April 21 at Seattle and Felix Hernandez of the Mariners on Aug. 15 vs. Tampa Bay...marked the first time in Major League history that three perfect games have been recorded in the same season.
- > Is one of three pitchers in SF-era history (since 1958) to log at least 200.0 innings in six-consecutive seasons,

- joining Gaylord Perry (six-straight from 1966-71) and Juan Marichal (10-straight from 1962-71).
- > Held right-handed hitters to a .191 avg. against (79for-414), which was the second-lowest figure in the NL behind Washington's Stephen Strasburg (.185).
- > 21 of his 32 starts were quality outings, the second-most quality starts on SF's staff behind Ryan Vogelsong (22).
- Signed a five-year extension with a club/vesting player option for the 2018 season on April 2.
- Tossed a one-hit shutout, striking out 11 batters in the Giants' home opener vs. April 13 vs. Pittsburgh... the Pirates' Ione baserunner was losing pitcher James McDonald, who singled with two out in the 6th.
- > Became the first pitcher in Giants franchise history to throw a one-hit shutout in the team's home opener.
- > Fanned 14 batters and threw 125 (86 strikes) pitches in his perfect game, a 10-0 victory against the visiting Houston Astros...the 14 strikeouts were a career-high for Cain and tied the record for the most strikeouts in a perfect game, set by Hall of Famer Sandy Koufax in 1965....it was the highest strikeout total in a no-hitter since Hall of Famer Nolan Ryan fanned 16 Blue Jays on May 1, 1991.
- > Cain earned his first career National League Player of the Week award for the period ending June 17th.

- Won eight-straight starts from May 12-June 18, the longest such streak in Giants history since Rick Reuschel won eight-straight in 1989.
- Had his winning streak snapped on June 29 vs. Cincinnati in SF's 5-0 loss...allowed a leadoff home run to Zack Cozart, ending the Giants' team scoreless inning streak at 36.0 innings, a new SF-era record... also gave up a solo homer to opposing pitcher Mike Leake, the first time in his career that he ever allowed a home run to a pitcher in 373 at-bats.
- Was selected to his third career NL All-Star team via the player ballot, receiving 234 votes (the secondmost by an NL starting pitcher behind NYM's R.A. Dickey, 342).
- Was named the starting pitcher for the Mid-Summer Classic by manager Tony LaRussa...became the seventh pitcher in Giants history to start an All-Star Game (eighth time), joining joining Carl Hubbell (1934), Juan Marichal (1965, 1967), Vida Blue (1978), Rick Reuschel (1989), Jason Schmidt (2003) and Tim Lingegum (2009)
- Made his 31st start of the season on Sept. 26 vs. Arizona, giving him seven straight seasons with 30-or-more starts...the only player with a longer current streak is Bronson Arroyo, who has eighth-straight seasons of 30-or-more starts...before Cain, only two Giants pitchers started more than 30 games in seven-straight campaigns: Hall of Famers Christy Mathewson (14, 1901-1914) and Mickey Welch (8, 1883-1890).

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Started five games throughout the 2012 postseason, going 2-2 with a 3.60 ERA (12er, 30.0ip).
- Started Game 1 of the Division Series vs. Cincinnati just a few months after pitching a perfect game...became the fifth pitcher to appear in a postseason game after throwing a perfect game earlier that season...the first three were Sandy Koufax in 1965, David Wells in 1998 and David Cone in 1999...the fourth, Roy Halladay, followed up his 2010 perfecto by no-hitting the Reds in Game 1 of the DS.
- Earned the loss in Game 1 of the DS after allowing three runs on five hits in 5.0 innings...his scoreless inning streak to begin his postseason career ended at 23.1 innings, the second-longest in Giants franchise history and the fifth-longest in Major League history.
- Earned the win in Game 5 of SF's clinching series win against the Reds.
- Was the winning pitcher in Game 7 of the LCS vs. St. Louis...became the second pitcher to record a win in two winner-take-all games in one postseason, joining Chris Carpenter, who did it in 2011 for St. Louis.

- Completed his seventh season in a Giants uniform, going 12-11 with a 2.88 ERA (71er, 221.2ip) in 33 starts.
- > Was named to his second career All-Star team (also 2009).
- Led the National League and was tied for third in the Majors with 26 quality starts...only Detroit's Justin Verlander and Los Angeles' (AL) Jered Weaver had more (each with 28)

Giants Gems

- > Grew up on 50-acre farm riding horses, driving pickups and dove hunting with his bird dog.
- > As a kid growing up in Alabama and Tennessee, never lived in town with more than 3,000 people.
- > Enjoys fishing, skeet shooting and anything outdoors. Is also great golfer, oftentimes winning the long-ball contest.
- Childhood hero granddad on his mother's side.
- > His mother taught for 20 years; now she and her brother own and run a tuxedo rental store. His father has worked for a window and door wholesaler since he was 20 in sales and management. Both his parents grew up in Memphis. For his dad's job, they moved from South Carolina, to Alabama to Tennessee.
 - Among NL leaders was third in fewest hits allowed per 9.0 innings (7.19), fifth in fewest baserunners per 9.0ip (10.11) and seventh in innings pitched.
 - Missed nearly two weeks in Spring Training with right elbow inflammation...had a MRI exam after feeling soreness stemming from his outing on Feb. 27 at Arizona in which he threw 2.0-scoreless innings.
 - Was named to his second career All-Star team by manager Bruce Bochy...did not pitch in the contest as he was ineligible to play due to making a start on July 10, the final game before the All-Star break.

- Enjoyed another outstanding campaign, going 13-11 with a 3.14 ERA (78er, 223.1ip), four complete games and 177 strikeouts against 61 walks in 33 starts.
- Was one of the most consistent Giants starters, with 25 of his 33 starts (75.7%) being quality outings, tied with Chris Carpenter, Roy Halladay, Tim Hudson and Adam Wainwright for the most by any pitcher in the National League...his 25 quality starts were a career-high.
- Cain's four complete games were tied for the third-most in the NL...threw three complete games in four-start span from May 22-June 8, allowing just two runs (1er) in 34.0 innings (0.26 ERA).
- Issued a career-low 61 walks, the fewest by a Giants starting pitcher since Noah Lowry allowed 56 in 2006 (min. of 150.0ip)... posted his best BB/9.0ip ratio (2.46) of his career.
- Tossed his ninth career complete game on May 22 at Oakland (his third against A's), however was charged with the loss after allowing one unearned run in SF's 1-0 defeat...marked the second-straight time that Cain had gone the distance and earned a losing decision (also Aug. 3, 2009 at Houston).

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Was brilliant in the postseason, tossing 21.1 innings without allowing an earned run, which was the sixth-longest streak in Major League history, and second-longest in Giants history, trailing Christy Mathewson...overall, went 2-0 with a 0.00 ERA (0er, 21.1ip) in first three career postseason contests.
- > Was denied victory in his first career postseason start in Game 2 of the Division Series vs. the Braves on Oct. 8 after the Giants bullpen blew a lead and the game after Cain had allowed only one unearned run over 6.2 innings (that run turned out to be only run allowed by Cain in 2010

- > Threw commanding 7.0-shutout innings in the Giants' Game 3 win over the Phillies in LCS on Oct. 19...became the first pitcher to not allow an earned run in either of his first two postseason starts since Steve Avery accomplished it in 1991.
- > Pitched 7.0-shutout innings in the Giants' 9-0 Game 2 victory in the World Series vs. Texas on Oct. 28...marked the third postseason start of Cain's career in which he didn't allow an earned run...only three other pitchers began their postseason careers with three-straight games (all starts), in which they were not charged with an earned run: Christy Mathewson tossed three-straight shutouts for the Giants in the 1905 World Series; Waite Hoyt accomplished feat for Yankees in the 1921 World Series, allowing two unearned runs; and the Mets' Jon Matlack did not give up an earned run in his first three postseason starts in 1973 (three unearned runs).
- > Joined Christy Mathewson as only Giants pitchers with three starts in the same postseason in which they allowed no earned runs.

- Named to his first career All-Star team, Cain was one of the Giants' anchors in the starting rotation having a breakout campaign by going 14-8 with a 2.89 ERA (70er, 217.2ip), four complete games and 171 strikeouts in 33 starts for San Francisco.
- > Was the Giants' stopper in 2009, fashioning an 8-2 record with a 1.97 ERA (18er, 82.1ip) in 11 games following Giants losses.
- > Was named to his first career All-Star team, along with Tim Lincecum, marking just the third time in SF-era history that SF had a pair of starting pitchers on the All-

Star roster...did not pitch in ASG July 14 at St. Louis' Busch Stadium and was actually replaced on the roster by Pittsburgh's Zach Duke, after suffering a right elbow contusion in his start prior to break on July 11 vs. San Diego...had to leave that July 11 start in the second inning after being hit by a line drive off the bat of pitcher Tim Stauffer with two out in the second inning...that mishap prevented him from pitching in his first-ever All-Star Game.

- > Was one of seven pitchers in SF-era history (eighth occurrence) to win 12 of his first 14 decisions, joining Gaylord Perry (1966), Juan Marichal (1966, 1968), Rick Reuschel (1989), John Burkett (1993), Shawn Estes (1997) and Jason Schmidt (2004)...only Perry, Marichal (twice) and Burkett advanced to 13-2.
- > Was awarded annual "Willie Mac Award" prior to game on Sept. 25.

- Made a team-high 34 starts while placing fourth on club in wins (eight) and second in innings (217.2ip), strikeouts (186) and in avg. against (.251)... overall went 8-14 with a 3.76 ERA (91er, 217.2ip) for San Francisco.
- His 186 strikeouts were tied for the eighth-most among NL leaders.
- > Registered the ninth-most strikeouts by a Giants pitcher prior to the All-Star Break with 121 Ks...became the 27th Giant to surpass 100-K plateau prior to the break and is part of the first trio to surpass mark in West Coast annals, joining Tim Lincecum (135) and Jonathan Sanchez (115).
- On April 12, had a no-hitter broken up by St. Louis' Albert Pujols in beginning of 7th inning...effort marked fourth time he carried a no-hitter into the 7th frame.
- > Became the first Giants pitcher to have two seasons with at least two home runs (April 12 off STL's Todd Wellemeyer and May 13 off HOU's Brandon Backe).

- Endured unlucky season, going 7-16 despite a 3.65 ERA (10th in NL) and 22 quality starts (tied for sixth in the NL) in his 32 opening assignments.
- Led Giants starters in ERA, innings, strikeouts (163), avg. against (.235) and quality starts, while he was second in starts...however, SF was just 9-23 in his assignments.
- Bullpen blew five leads, while SF plated two runs-or-fewer during his outing in 21 of 32 starts (65.6%)...became 13th pitcher in SF history to lose at least 16 games in a season, yet his 3.65 ERA was the fifth-lowest among that group...became the first Giants hurler to lose that many contests since Livan Hernandez went 12-16 in 2002.
- Was just 4-for-57 (.070) at plate, but hammered his first two career HRs to become the first SF pitcher to have two in a season since Brad Hennessey in 2005...clubbed his first clout Aug. 8 off Washington's Tim Redding, before launching a solo shot off Chicago's Carlos Zambrano on Aug. 23.

- In his first full season in the big leagues led all NL rookies with 13 wins, while pacing freshmen with 179 strikeouts and ranking eighth in ERA (4.15)...also led in innings (190.2), while tying for first in starts (31)...finished third among all NL pitchers with a .222 avg. against, while ranking ninth for strikeouts.
- Was the seventh Giant to lead NL rookies in victories during SF-era, joining Frank Linzy (1965), Elias Sosa (1973, tied with MON's Steve Rogers), John D'Acquisto (1974), John Montefusco (1975), Bill Laskey (1982) and John Burkett (1990).
- His 13 wins were tied for third on SF rookie list, equalling Laskey (1982) and Ryan Jensen (2002)...Montefusco set mark with 15 wins in 1975, while Burkett is second with 14 in 1990.
- Posted the second-highest single season strikeout total by a SF rookie with 179...only Mathewson (221 in 1901) and Montefusco (215 in 1975) struck out more batters during their rookie campaign in franchise history...joined Monefusco (1975) and D'Acquisto (167 in 1974) as only SF hurlers to lead NL rookies in strikeouts.
- Tossed a one-hit shutout on May 21 at Oakland...allowed only Jay Payton's double to lead off the third, and retired 19 of his final 20 batters as SF posted a 6-0 triumph... became the youngest SF Giant to toss a 9.0 inning onehitter at 21 years, 232 days old...Mike McCormick tossed 5.0-inning no hitter in 1959 at 20 years, 256 days.

- Earned his second consecutive USA Today Organizational Player of the Year honors for excellent work at triple-A Fresno, before bursting onto ML scene as SF made a late season run for the NL West flag.
- Had his contract purchased from Fresno Aug. 26, making big league debut Aug. 29...fashioned a 2-1 record with a 2.33 ERA(12er, 46.1ip) in seven starts.
- Posted incredible numbers as second-youngest player in the Majors over final months, behind only SEA's Felix Hernandez (19 years old)...overall, was the sixth youngest player to make his debut in big leagues during season.

- At 20 years and 332 days old when he took the mound on Aug. 29 vs. Colorado, became the youngest Giants pitcher in his first big league start since Mark Grant April 27, 1984 at Cincinnati (20 years, 185 days).
- Since 1950, was the eighth youngest Giants hurler to make his debut, and fourth-youngest for first opening assignment.
- Earned his first big league victory on Sept. 4 at Arizona, allowing one run over 7.0 innings to post a 3-2 victory... at 20 years and 319 days Sept. 4, became the fourth-youngest SF Giant to win a game and youngest since Mark Grant was 20.318 in 1984.
- Became the youngest Giant to throw a complete game in SF annals with Sept. 9 performance vs. Cubs (20 years, 343 days), when he handcuffed Chicago on two hits (courtesy: Bill Arnold/Sports Features Group).
- Was the first SF rookie to throw a complete game twohitter since Dennis Cook did so Sept. 25, 1988 vs. Los Angeles.
- Opened the season with first taste of triple-A action, going 10-5 with a 4.39 ERA (71er, 145.2ip) in 26 starts for Fresno.

- USA Today Organizational Player of Year combined for 13-5 record with a 2.67 ERA (47er, 158.2ip) in 28 starts during dominating campaign with Class A Advanced San Jose and double-A Norwich.
- Led all SF farmhands in wins and strikeouts (161 in 158.2 innings), while pacing organization's starters in ERA.
- Opened season in San Jose, earning club's Player of the Month accolades for April, May and June while going 7-1 with a 1.86 ERA in 13 starts.
- Was selected to participate in Futures Game as part of All-Star festivities in Houston.

Is one of six players in Major League history to hit a grand slam in his first big league game

2012 SEASON

- In his first full big league season Crawford batted .248 (108-for-435) with 44 runs scored, 26 2Bs, three 3Bs, four HRs and 45 RBI in 143 games for San Francisco.
- > Started 122 of the Giants' 162 games (all at shortstop).
- > His 18 errors at shortstop were the second-most in the NL.
- Committed 12 errors in his first 59 games, which at that time ranked as the second-most among all big league shortstops (April 4-June 17)...however, since the break, committed just six miscues, tied with Zack Cozart for the second-fewest in the NL (Paul Janish, two).
- Became just the third player drafted by the Giants to start at shortstop on Opening Day since Royce Clayton in 1995 (other player was Brian Bocock in 2008).
- > Finished second among NL shortstops in All-Star fan voting, receiving 3,666,897 votes...was just 306,024 votes behind St. Louis' Rafael Furcal (3,972,921).

- > Was ejected for the first time in his career on July 23 vs. San Diego...was thrown out by first base umpire Jordan Baker in the eighth inning after he hit an apparent double in the sixth inning but was ruled out by Baker, who said he missed the bag.
- > Recorded his first career game-winning hit on July 24 vs. San Diego, delivering a walk-off single in the bottom of the ninth inning off of LHP Joe Thatcher, giving the Giants a 3-2 win.
- > Hit his first career pinch-hit home run on Aug. 13 vs. Washington, hitting a two-run shot off of LHP Gio Gonzalez in the seventh inning of SF's 14-2 loss.
- > Batted .289 (37-for-128) with a .340 OBP in his last 47 games.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Started all 16 games at shortstop and batted .217 (10-for-46) with seven RBI in his first career post season, helping the Giants win their second World Series championship in San Francisco history.
- > At 25 years old he became the fifth-youngest Giants player to start at shortstop in a postseason game since Matt Williams in 1989 (23 years old).

How Obtained: Giants' 1st round selection (10th overall) in 2006 First-Year Player Draft Contract Status: Signed through 2013

- > Two-time NL Cy Young Award Winner (2008, 2009)
- Four-time NL All-Star (2008, 2009, 2010, 2011)
- > The Sporting News' 2008 and 2009 NL Pitcher of the Year
- Is one of just four pitchers to win the NL Cy Young Award in back-to-back seasons
- Is the first player to win a Cy Young Award twice in his first two full seasons in the Majors
- Is the Giants franchise leader for wins in a single postseason with four, set in 2010
- Is the Giants franchise record holder for number of games pitched with 10+ strikeouts 32
- Is the third Giant ever to have four-straight seasons with at least 200 strikeouts (2008-11)
- Ranks ninth and 10th on the Giants franchise list in strikeouts for a single season (2008, 265; 2009, 261)
- > His 265 strikeouts in 2008 are a SF-era single season record
- Has taken a no-hitter through 6.0 innings just twice in his career
- Is one of three SF Giants to lead NL rookies in strikeouts (150 in 2007)
- Is the fifth quickest Giant to reach the Majors following baseball's June draft (334 days)
- 2006 Golden Spikes Award winner as collegiate baseball's top player

2012 SEASON

- Battled during his sixth season in the big leagues, going 10-15 with a 5.18 ERA (107er, 186.0ip) and 190 strikeouts in 33 starts.
- His 5.18 ERA was the highest among all qualifying pitchers in the National League and the fourth-highest in the Majors...entered the season with a career ERA of 2.98, but it now stands at 3.31, raising by more than 1/3.
- Not only were his 15 losses a career-high, but he also allowed a career-high in runs (111), earned runs (107), home runs (23) and walks (90) while tossing career-lows in innings pitched (186.0) and strikeouts (190).
- Led the NL in losses, runs allowed, earned runs, wild pitches (17) and ranked second in walks.
- Gave up a total of 66 earned runs in 2011...his 107 earned runs allowed were 26 more than his previous high (81 in 2010)
- Tied Madison Bumgarner for the most home runs allowed on the team with 23...allowed 16 HRs on the road and seven at home
- Was the first Giants pitcher to start at least 30 games and have an ERA as high as 5.18 since Livan Hernandez in 2001 (5.24 ERA in 34 starts).
- Became the third pitcher since 1893 after Tom Seaver (1,404) and Bert Blyleven (1,327) - to reach 1,300 strikeouts in six seasons...was 10 strikeouts shy of reaching - the 200-strikeout plateau, snapping his streak of four consecutive seasons of 200+ strikeouts.

- His 28 runs allowed in the first inning were the most in the Majors...allowed a total of eight runs in the first inning in 2011.
- Was susceptible to allowing big innings, giving up threeor-more runs in a single frame eight times, four-or-more runs four times and five-or-more runs once.
- Failed to reach the 5.0 inning mark in seven of his outings...had recorded only 15 such starts in his career prior to 2012.
- Recorded only 13 quality starts in 33 outings, the secondfewest quality starts in the NL among pitchers with at least 30 starts (Tommy Hanson, 10).
- Struggled to hold runners on, allowing 25 stolen bases, the fifth-most in the NL.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Resurrected his regular season with a superb post season, going 1-1 with a 2.55 ERA (5er, 17.2ip) in six games (one start).
- Five of his six appearances came in relief where he went 1-0 with a 0.69 ERA (1er, 13.0ip) along with 17 strikeouts in just 13.0 relief innings.
- Struck out six batters in 4.1 relief innings in Game 4 of the Division Series vs. Cincinnati to earn the win.

- Completed his fifth season in a Giants uniform and suffered his first losing record of his career, going 13-14 with a 2.74 ERA (66er, 217.0ip) and 220 strikeouts in 33 starting assignments.
- > Was named to his fourth-straight NL All-Star team.
- ➤ His 14 losses were a career-high, although posted an ERA under 3.00 for the third time in five campaigns.
- Finished fifth overall in the National League with a 2.74 ERA.
- Among NL leaders was tied for third in strikeouts, fourth in opponents avg. against (.222) and eighth in innings pitched.
- His 86 walks allowed were the second-most in the NL behind Colorado's Jhoulys Chacin (87).
- Reached the 200-strikeout plateau for fourth-consecutive season, joining Amos Rusie (1890-93) of the New York Giants and Juan Marichal (1963-66) of the SF Giants as the only pitchers in franchise history with 200+ strikeouts in four-straight seasons.
- Also reached 200.0 innings for the fourth-straight campaign, joining Jack Sanford (four-straight, 1960-63), Juan Marichal (10-straight, 1962-71), Gaylord Perry (six-straight, 1966-71), Jim Barr (five-straight, 1973-77) and Matt Cain (five-straight, 2007-11) as the only pitchers in SF-era history to log at least four-ormore consecutive seasons of 200+ innings.
- Struck out 10 batters on April 18 at Colorado for his 28th career double-digit strikeout game, tying Christy Mathewson for most in Giants franchise history (since 1900).
- Recorded his fifth career shutout and eighth career complete game in his start on May 21 vs. Oakland...retired a career-high 21-consecutive batters faced from 1st-8th innings...his 133 pitch effort was the second-most he'd thrown in his career and most by any pitcher in the Majors in 2011.
- Recorded his 1,000th career strikeout of his ML career on June 6 vs. Washington after striking out Jerry Hairston to end the top of the second inning.
- Became the eighth pitcher in the modern era (since 1900) with 1,000 strikeouts in his first five seasons...the seven pitchers who have reached this milestone are: Tom Seaver (1,155), Bert Blyleven (1,094), Dwight Gooden (1,067), Kerry Wood (1,065), Grover Cleveland Alexander (1,036), Hideo Nomo (1,031) and Mark Langston (1,018).
- Was named to his fourth-straight NL All-Star team, becoming the first Giant to be selected to four-straight Mid-Summer Classics since Barry Bonds was named to five-straight from 2000-04...also became the first Giants pitcher to be elected that many consecutive times since Juan Marichal appeared in eight-straight from 1962-69... Lincecum did not appear in the game.

- Went 16-10 with a 3.43 ERA (81er, 212.1ip), 231 strike outs and .242 opponents avg. against (194-for-802) in 33 starts in what was his third full season at the Major League level...was named to his third- straight All-Star team.
- Led the National League with 231 strikeouts for the third year in a row, joining Randy Johnson (1999-2002)

Giants Gems

- > Tim's father, Chris, a retired Boeing employee, says he began teaching Tim his mechanics at the - age of 4 —"built it from scratch," as he puts it. Chris used the same mechanics himself as a young player, and made it to semi-pros. He starred for Green River Community College in the early 1970s.
- > Tim's delivery is the creation of his father, who emphasized three fundamentals: 1) "tilt" the turn of Tim's shoulders toward the third base dugout, forcing him to pick up the target out of the corner of his left eye; 2) "dangle" the downward thrust of his right arm as he turns toward home plate; and 3) "reach" the violent forward propulsion that creates a stride that exceeds his height.
- > The normal stride length for a pitcher is 77% to 87% of his height. Tim's stride is 129%, or roughly 7 ½ feet.
- > He's a natural athlete who can do standing back flips and walk on his hands. He jumps onto the outfield wall when he's shagging flies during batting practice "as if he's trying to make the highlight reel for ESPN," says Giants manager Bruce Bochy.
- > He is something of a human jukebox. He knows the lyrics to hundreds of songs, from Frank Sinatra to the Beatles to rap, country and techno. He once performed My Prerogative by Bobby Brown for a local Washington radio station when he was in college.
 - and Warren Spahn (1949-52) as the only NL pitchers since World War II to pace the league in strikeouts for three consecutive seasons...Lincecum also joined Christy Mathewson (1903-05) as the only pitchers in Giants franchise history to lead the league in strikeouts for three-straight years.
 - Was named to his third-straight All-Star team, becoming the first Giants pitcher to earn All-Star honors in threeconsecutive years since Juan Marichal did so in eightstraight from 1962-69...did not appear in the ASG as he was slated to throw multiple innings in case game went into extra innings.
 - Began second half of season on strong note by tossing his finest outing of year in SF's 2-0 shutout victory vs. the Mets on July 15 at AT&T Park...fired his first shutout of the year (fourth of his career), which was a six-hit gem that included five strikeouts en route to his 50th career victory...according to Elias, Lincecum became the second-fastest player in SF-era history to win his 50th career game, doing so in his 109th career contest (Juan Marichal earned his 50th career win in his 97th game).

- Made slight change to his delivery in his start on July 30 vs. Los Angeles, raising his arms over his head from windup, something he once did in college...he needed 62 pitches to get through first 3.0 innings, but was more efficient remainder of way, ending with 7.0 innings and limiting Dodgers to just two runs in SF's 6-5 victory.
- Had worst career stretch in month of August, losing each of his five starts (career-high), while logging a 7.82 ERA (22er, 25.1ip) and .311 avg. against (33-for-106)...his 7.82 ERA in August was the highest figure in any calendar month of his career.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead Giants' surge to their first ever World Series Championship in San Francisco in 2010, posting a 4-1 record with a 2.43 ERA (10er, 37.0ip) with 43 strikeouts in six games (five starts).
- Was named winner of the Babe Ruth Award as Most Valuable Player of the postseason by BBWAA's New York chanter
- Passed Christy Mathewson (1905) for most wins by a Giants starter in a single postseason.
- Opened Division Series vs. Atlanta on Oct. 7 with two-hit, 14-strikeout effort in San Francisco's 1-0 victory, becoming the fifth-youngest pitcher to fan at least 14 batters in a postseason game and sixth pitcher in ML history to throw a 1-0 shutout in his postseason debut...joined Roger Clemens (2000 Yankees) as the only pitchers to strike out 14+ and allow two hits or fewer in a postseason shutout...Lincecum's 14 strikeouts in Game 1 of the LDS surpassed the record for most strikeouts by a Giants pitcher in a postseason game (Jesse Barnes, Oct. 11, 1921 vs. NY; Carl Hubbell, Oct. 3, 1933 vs. Washington; Hal Schumacher, Oct. 5, 1936 vs. NYY; and Jack Sanford, Oct. 10, 1962 vs. NYY each had 10 apiece).
- Tied the all-time record for most strikeouts in a World Series clinching game with 10 on Nov. 1 at Texas... became the fisrt pitcher to record that many Ks in such a game since Bob Gibson fanned 10 batters in Game 7 of the 1967 World Series against Boston.
- Defeated Rangers' ace Cliff Lee twice in the 2010 World Series...the only other Giants starters to win two games in a World Series are Mathewson (1905), Rube Marquard (1912), Carl Hubbell (1933) and Phil Douglas (1921).

- Named 2009 NL Cy Young Award winner for the second-consecutive year after finishing campaign with a 15-7 record, 2.48 ERA (62er, 225.1ip), four complete games, 261 strikeouts, 68 walks and yielding a .206 avg. against (168-for-814) in 32 starts for San Francisco.
- Won the third-closest Cy Young race since current election format was created in 1970...edged St. Louis' Chris Carpenter and Adam Wainwright, receiving 11 of 32 first-place votes, 12 second-place votes and nine third-place votes to finish with 100 points.

- Lincecum's 15 wins in 2009 were the fewest for any starting pitcher to win a Cy Young in a season not shortened by work stoppage.
- Became the first player to win the award twice in his first two full seasons in the big leagues.
- Also named NL Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News.
- Among the National League leaders ranked first in strikeouts and strikeouts per 9.0 innings (10.42), first in quality starts (26), tied for first in complete games, second in ERA and opponents avg. against, third in innings pitched and fewest HRs allowed per 9.0 innings (0.40), tied for fourth in wins and sixth in winning pct. (.682).
- Led the NL in strikeouts for the second-consecutive season, joining Christy Mathewson as the only Giants in franchise history to pace the league in Ks in consecutive years.
- Reached the 200-strikeout plateau for the second-consecutive season, joining Jason Schmidt (2003-04) as the only Giants in the last 39 seasons to record back-to-back years of 200 or more Ks and just one of four Giants to accomplish the feat: Juan Marichal (1963-66, 1968-69), Gaylord Perry (1966-67, 1969-70) and Schmidt.
- Was named the Opening Day starter by manager Bruce Bochy, becoming just one of five pitchers originally drafted by San Francisco to start an opener for the Giants (others were Terry Mulholland, John Burkett, Bob Knepper and Jim Barr).
- Was named NL Pitcher of the Month for June after going 4-1 with a 1.48 ERA (8er, 48.2ip), three complete games and 48 strikeouts in his six June assignments...was his first-ever Pitcher of Month Award...also for his efforts during month was named MLBs Clutch Performer.
- Had career-best 29.0-inning scoreless streak from June 23-July 9, marking the fourth-longest streak in SF-era history...only longer streaks were by Gaylord Perry (40.0 innings in 1967 and 39.0 innings in 1970) and Juan Marichal (30.0 innings in 1966).
- Was named to his second-straight NL All-Star team, along with teammate Matt Cain...was named starting pitcher for the NL team by manager Charlie Manuel, becoming the seventh Giant to start a Midsummer Classic...threw 35 pitches over 2.0 innings, in his first career All-Star outing

- July 14 at St. Louis' Busch Stadium.
- > Became just the third Giants pitcher since 1958 to strike out 15-or-more batters in a single contest when he did so July 27 vs. Pittsburgh in what was his sixth career complete game...joined Jason Schmidt (16 Ks - June 6, 2006) and Gaylord Perry (15 Ks - July 22, 1966) as the only Giants to accomplish feat...also became the first Giants pitcher with 15-or-more strikeouts in a game in which he didn't allow an earned run since NL got idea to keep track of earned runs back in 1912 (Elias).
- Was named NL Co-Player of the Week with Florida's Josh Willingham for week of July 27-Aug. 2 after going 2-0 and allowing just two unearned runs in 17.0 innings.
- > Missed a start for the first time as a Giant on Sept. 8 with lower-back spasms that forced him to miss game against Padres...he first reported pain in his back when the Giants landed in San Francisco when team flew home from Milwaukee on Sept. 6... Giants' top pitching prospect, Madison Bumgarner started in his place.

- Became the first Giants Cy Young winner since 1967, and just the second ever, joining Mike McCormick, after posting a spectacular 18-5 record with a 2.62 ERA (66er, 227.0ip) and ML-leading 265 strikeouts in 34 games (33 starts) for San Francisco in his first full bia league season.
- Of 32 ballots submitted by two writers in each league city, Lincecum was listed first on 23 ballots, second on seven and third on one to total 137 points, based on a 5-3-1 tabulation system...joined Dwight Gooden (Mets, 1985), Bret Saberhagen (Royals, 1985) and Fernando Valenzuela (Dodgers, 1981) as the only pitchers to win a Cy Young
- > Was 24 years old when he won award, becoming the youngest Cy Young winner, in either league, since Roger Clemens was 24 in 1986...also became the 13th pitcher to win the honor with team having a sub .500 record.
- Established a SF-era single season strikeout record, surpassing Jason Schmidt's 2004 total of 251...became just the ninth Giant since 1900 to record at least 200 Ks in a single season (22nd occurrence) and became the only Giant to lead the Majors in the modern era in strikeouts, first to pace NL since Bill Voiselle recorded 161 Ks in 1944...his 265 punchouts were the most in the Majors since Randy Johnson had 290 and Johan Santana collected 265 in 2004.
- Since 1900, only three other pitchers had as many strikeouts in their sophomore season as Lincecum: Vida Blue (301 for 1971 A's), Frank Tanana (269 for 1975 Angels) and Dwight Gooden (268 for 1985 Mets) (Elias).
- > Was named NL Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News

- > Was selected to his first NL All-Star Game, becoming the 13th starting pitcher in SF annals to be selected, however, did not appear in Mid-Summer Classic at Yankee Stadium after suffering from flu-like symptoms.
- > Besides leading all ML pitchers in strikeouts, ranked third overall in both ERA and winning percentage (.782)... finished second in the NL in ERA behind New York's Johan Santana (2.53) and ranked second in senior circuit in wins behind Arizona's Brandon Webb (22).
- Recorded his first career complete game and first shutout on Sept. 13 at San Diego, blanking the Padres on four hits (three walks) while striking out 12 in SF's 7-0 triumph.

- Emerged as one of stalwarts of Giants' staff, going 7-5 with a 4.00 ERA, 150 strikeouts and .226 avg. against (122-for-539) over 24 starts in his first season at the Major League level.
- Ranked among NL rookie leaders in strikeouts (first), wins (tied for fourth), ERA (fourth), avg. against (second), innings (third) and starts (third).
- > His 150 strikeouts were the fourth-highest single-season total by a rookie in SF history (seventh in franchise annals).
- > Contract was originally purchased from triple-A Fresno on May 6, taking rotation spot of disabled Russ Ortiz... made his Major League debut on May 6 vs. Philadelphia, taking no decision in SF's 8-5 setback...was ticketed with five runs over 4.1 innings, including two HRs (Shane Victorino and Ryan Howard)...struck out side in 1st inning to become the first Giants pitcher to accomplish feat as a starter in their debut since Mike Remlinger June 15, 1991.
- Earned his first Major League victory May 11 in Colorado, defeating Rockies 8-3.
- > His 12 strikeouts on July 1 vs. Arizona marked the fourthhighest single-game total by a rookie in SF history.
- > Was placed on the Bereavement List Aug. 17-20 following the death of his maternal grandfather.
- Collected a double off Toronto's Dustin McGowan on June 13 for first career hit.
- Posted a 4-0 mark with a 0.29 ERA (1er, 31.0ip) in five games for triple-A Fresno.
- Earned Harry S. Jordan Award at Giants big league Spring Training, as voted on by teammates and coaching staff.

Kicked off professional career in impressive fashion, combining to go 2-0 with 1.71 ERA (6er, 31.2ip) in eight starts between short-season Salem-Keizer and Class A Advanced San Jose

- Owns San Francisco Giants record for most triples in a single season with 15 in 2012
- Has the longest home hit streak in Giants franchise history, hitting safely in 28-straight home games in 2012
- Became the first Giants player in the modern era (since 1900) to hit safely in 47 of 50 games in a single season (2012)
- Hit the first leadoff home run in Giants postseason history in Game 4 of the NLDS at Cincinnati (2012)

2012 SEASON

- Posted one of the best seasons of his career, logging career bests in runs (95), 2Bs (38) and 3Bs (15) while batting .288 (174-for-605) with eight HRs in 154 games in his first season with San Francisco.
- His 15 3Bs not only led all of Major League Baseball, but also set a San Francisco-era record (since 1958) for a single season, surpassing Steve Finley (12 in 2006) and Willie Mays (12 in 1960).
- Led the club with 29 stolen bases and was successful in 29 of 36 overall.
- His 29 steals were the most by a Giants player since Dave Roberts swiped 31 bags in 2007.
- His 95 runs scored tied Chase Headley and Matt Holliday for the seventh-most in the NL.
- Ranked 10th in NL with 38 2Bs and his 24 2Bs since break were tied w/Norichika Aoki for most in the NL.
- Was the seventh hardest player to double up in the NL, averaging 100.8 at-bats per GIDP.
- Led all ML players with 32 runs scored in August and his .342 avg. ranked 11th-best in the NL.
- Had 18 extra base hits in August (11 2Bs, 4 3Bs, 3 HRs), the second-most in the Majors.
- Had three separate hit streaks of 11-or-more games (11 games, 15, 20).
- Posted the longest home hitting streak in franchise history (since 1900), hitting safely in 28 consecutive home games from April 14-June 4...it was the longest home hitting streak for any ML player since 2010, when Josh Hamilton hit safely in 29-straight home games at Rangers Ballpark.
- Hit safely in 20-straight games from April 14-May 6, tied for eighth-longest hit streak in SF-era history.
- Joined Pablo Sandoval and Marco Scutaro as the first trio of teammates to hit safely in 20+ games in the same season in Giants franchise history, dating all the way back to 1918.

- Became the first Giants player in the modern era (since 1900) to hit safely in 47 of 50 games in a single season (he accomplished this feat from April 14-June 9).
- > Started 149 of SF's 162 games (148 in CF and one as DH).

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- On his first career postseason roster, Pagan hit .188 (13-for-69) with two home runs and six RBI in 16 games.
- Led off Game 4 of the NLDS at Cincinnati with a home run, the first leadoff homer in Giants postseason history (including New York-era).
- Led off Game 2 of the NLCS with another home run, his second leadoff homer in the postseason.
- Joined Jimmy Rollins (two leadoff homers in 2008 postseason with Philadelphia) as the only two players in MLB history with a pair of leadoff home runs in the same postseason.

- Hit .262 (125-for-478) with 24 2Bs, four 3Bs, seven HRs and 56 RBI while going 32-for-39 in stolen base attempts in his fourth and final campaign with New York-NL.
- Stole 32 bases to combine with Jose Reyes (37) as the only pair of National League teammates with at least 30 steals each...Texas' Elvis Andrus (37) and Ian Kinsler (30)

Longest Home Hit Streak in Giants Franchise History (since 1900)

- were only other pair in Majors to accomplish feat.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list, April 22-May 27, with a strained left oblique that he hurt April 21 vs. Houston.
- > Hit clean-up on June 8 at Milwaukee and then again on June 13 at Pittsburgh...they were his first two career games started in four slot of the line-up.
- Hit his first career walk-off home run on July 20 vs. St. Louis in the 10th inning off Fernando Salas...it was the second game-ending hit of his career (other was on April 10, 2008; single).
- Hit team's first leadoff HR of the season and third of his career on Aug. 8 vs. San Diego (off Tim Stauffer).
- > Made 10 errors, the second-most of any outfielder in the Majors (Justin Upton had 13).

- Was one of two players in the Majors to have at least 30 2Bs, 10 HRs, 60 RBI and 30 stolen bases ...other player was Tampa Bay's Carl Crawford (30 2Bs, 19 HRs, 90 RBI, 47 stolen bases).
- > Finished second in the National League with 37 stolen bases...became the first Mets' outfielder to steal 30 bases since 1999 season (Roger Cedeno-66 steals, Rickey Henderson-37 steals).
- > Finished seventh in NL with a .339 batting average with men in scoring position, was tied for third with 10 outfield assists and tied for eighth with a .320 batting average at home.
- > On May 19 at Washington he hit an inside-the-park home run (4th inning against Livan Hernandez) and started a triple play to become the first player to accomplish each of those feats in same game since Phillies shortstop Ted Kazinski did so against the Giants at the Polo Grounds on Sept. 25, 1955...Pagan caught Cristian Guzman's sinking line drive, threw to catcher Henry Blanco who threw to shortstop Jose Reyes to double off Hernandez at second base...Reyes then threw to Ike Davis to catch Nyjer Morgan at first base and complete triple play.
- On August 1, Carlos Beltran, Jesus Feliciano and Pagan, all natives of Puerto Rico, appeared in the outfield at the same time...according to the Baseball Hall of Fame, it marked only the seventh time an All Puerto Rican outfield played together in same game (previous time was June 6, 1981 when Cubs had Carlos Lezcano, Jerry Morales and Hector Cruz)
- > Jose Reyes (30 steals) and Pagan became fourth set of teammates to steal 30-or-more bases in same year.

- Hit over .300 for the first time in his career, finishing campaign with a .306 avg. (105-for-343) in 88 games.
- > Finished fourth in the Majors with 11 triples, all of which came after July 11.
- Had 19-game home hitting streak from Aug. 3-Sept. 18... hit .370 (30-for-81) over this stretch...19 games was longest home hitting streak in National League in 2009, and the second-longest in franchise history behind Edgardo Alfonzo's 22-game home streak from May 16-July 6, 1997.
- Underwent surgery at Hospital for Special Surgery March 11 to remove a bone spur from his right elbow.

Giants Gems

- Grew up in the drug- and gang-ridden projects on the north coast of Puerto Rico in a district of San Juan called Rio Piedras. Angel's parents - government workers -- were strict, and Angel's brother and sister - older by nine and six years, respectively -- kept Angel close, never allowing him to play outside by himself.
- > When Pagan was thirteen, he frequented a batidad trained. Through the gym's open door, Pagan studied the brutal regimen that allowed Trinidad to outlast any opponent. Pagan decided that training like a boxer would make him a better baseball player. He is still a big boxing fan, naming Manny Pacquiao as his
- Pagan is the unofficial translator for his speaking teammates. Learning to speak English was always important to Angel. After being drafted by the Mets in the fourth round in 1999, he could have gone to Miami Dade College for a year, where he would have been surrounded by other Latinos and could continue in his home language. Instead he chose Indian River Community College in Fort Pierce, Fla., where he hung out with English speakers and honed his English skills.
 - His contract was selected on May 16 from Buffalo (AAA) of International League.
 - Left game May 31 vs. Florida with right groin discomfort... placed on 15-day disabled list June 1 with strain of his right groin...activated from disabled list July 10.
 - > Connected on his first home run of season with his first career grand slam Aug. 1 vs. Arizona...grand slam off of Clay Zavada gave Mets a 9-5 lead heading into 9th inning.
 - > Established career-high five RBI on Aug. 1 vs. Arizona... became only the third player in the Majors during 2009 season to drive in five-or-more while batting leadoff, joining Jimmy Rollins and Andrew McCutchen...only three other Mets players had a five-RBI game while batting leadoff, Jim Hickman (1963), Ron Hunt (1966) and Gregg Jefferies (1989).
 - > Connected on his first career inside-the-park home run, and second leadoff home run of his career, in bottom of 1st inning Aug. 23 vs. Philadelphia off Pedro Martinez... added another HR in the 3rd inning to give him his second multi-home run game of his career.

- Missed most of the season with a torn left labrum... appeared in just 31 games...injured his left shoulder while diving into stands for foul ball on May 7 at Los Angeles-NL.
- > On July 29, had his torn left labrum repaired by Mets Medical Director Dr. David Altchek at Hospital for Special Surgery.

Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on August 8, with colitis and missed remainder of the year.

2006

- Made his Major League debut on April 3, with Chicago-NL...collected his first career hit and RBI in his first career at-bat off Cincinnati's Aaron Harano.
- Strained his left hamstring April 15 at Pittsburgh while running down the first base line...injury landed him on the 15-day DL from April 16-June 30.

Was named Sterling Award recipient, emblematic of team's MVP, at Binghamton (AA) of Eastern League after batting .287 (129-for-449) with 63 RBI in 112 games...was also named to Eastern League All-Star team.

Giants Gems

- Hunter moved around a lot as a child, mostly in Texas with a stop in Colorado. He says he went to 12 school. His father, Howard, started in the cattle business in Texas, mostly in advertising and sales. Then he switched to the oil business but when the industry crashed in the 80s, he became a self-employed entrepreneur who moved the family to wherever the work was.
- His mother Gail, now divorced from Hunter's father, was a stay-at-home mom.
- His unconventional throwing mo was about 12 and had a sore shoulder. "I don't remember how it happened but I know I hurt my shoulder and I threw through it. I can't throw over the top even now. It hurts."
- At 15, he worked for a neighbor's water company during the summer digging trenches, repairing underground pipes and reading water meter. Those were the most miserable days ever in the Arlington heat. At 17, he worked for a year at Applebee's as a busboy then a server
- "I follow the Paleo diet (fish, grass-fed pasture raised meats, vegetables, fruit, fungi, roots and nuts; no grains, legumes, dairy products, processed oils, salt and refined sugar.) I'm completely strict Paleo".
 - Went on the 15-day DL, July 23-Aug. 21, with a right wrist capsular sprain with a small chip frac-ture...missed 27 games.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- > Spent the entire 2006 season with double-A Corpus Christi and led the team in HRs (28), RBI (95) and runs (97).
- > Was selected for the All-Star Futures Game in Pittsburgh and the Texas League All-Star Game.
- Named Texas League Player of the Week for May 8-14, as he hit five HRs and drove in 11 runs.
- Was named South Atlantic League Rookie of the Year and team MVP in 2005 after ranking fourth in the SAL with 25 home runs
- Earned SAL mid-season and Postseason All-Star honors.

PERSONAL & MISCELLANEOUS

- Name is pronounced HUHN-ter pehnts.
- Graduated from Arlington High School (TX).
- Played his freshman year at Texarkana Junior College, hitting .395 with 12 HR and 33 SB...earned All-Conference Region XIV honors at TJC.
- > Attended the University of Texas-Arlington, where he majored in finance.

in 2006 First-Year Player Draft

2012 SEASON

- Split time between triple-A Fresno and San Francisco, making three seperate appearances on the Giants' roster.
- Made SF's Opening Day roster for the first time in his career and batted .210 (22-for-105) with four home runs and 11 RBI in 48 games.
- Made 25 starts for the Giants (18 at first base and seven in left-field).
- On May 8, supplied SF with their only runs by hitting a two run homer off Clayton Kershaw in the 2nd inning of the Giants' 2-1 win...became just the fourth Giants player to ever homer off Kershaw.
- Finished his season at triple-A batting .285 (70-for-246) with 11 HRs and 45 RBI in 60 games.

- Made his first career appearance with the big league club as he earned a Sept. call-up after hitting .312 (167-for-536) with 36 2Bs, 25 HRs and 107 RBI in 133 games with triple-A Fresno.
- Was named both Fresno's Offensive Player of Year, as well as its Most Valuable Player for the second-consecutive season as he ranked second in hits (167) and total bases (284), fourth in RBI (107) and extra base hits (64) among Pacific Coast League leaders.
- Was the only player in the PCL to amass 20 or more RBI in each of the first four months of the season: April - 21 RBI, May - 20, June - 21, and July - 27.
- Set a career-high with his 20th HR of the season on July 27, breaking his previous career mark of 19, set in 2009 at double-A Connecticut.
- Had his contract purchased from triple-A on Aug. 31, taking the roster spot of Miguel Tejada, who was designated for assignment.
- Started 13 of 26 games, all at first base and went 15-for-50 (.300) with three 2Bs, two 3Bs, two HRs and nine RBI in 15 games for San Francisco.
- Made his Major League debut Sept. 6 at San Diego, starting at first base...homered in his first-ever plate appearance, hitting a towering two-run shot off LHP Wade LeBlanc that hit the second deck railing of the Western Metal Supply Co. building.

- Became just the third Giant to hit home run in his first plate appearance, joining Will Clark (April 8, 1986 at Houston) and Johnnie Lemaster (Sept. 2, 1975 vs. Los Angeles-NL).
- Homered in his first two ML games, joining John Bowker (April 12-13, 2008) as the only Giants in franchise history to accomplish that.
- Hit two 3Bs Sept. 17 at Colorado, becoming the first Giants player with two 3Bs in game since Fred Lewis did it May 19, 2008 at Colorado.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Was named the Pacific Coast League Player of the Week for May 3-9, 2010.
- Was Fresno Player of the Month for June after hitting .367 (37-for-114) with four 2Bs, five HRs and 26 RBI.
- In 2009, among Eastern League leaders ranked first in RBI, second in total bases (253), third in 2Bs (37), hits and extra-base hits (57), tied for fourth in HRs, fifth in slugging pct. (.480) and sixth in batting avg.
- Was named Eastern League Player of the Week on three different occasions: June 29-July 6, Aug. 3-9 and Aug. 31-Sept. 8.
- Was named to Eastern League Post-Season All-Star team.
- In 2007, led the South Atlantic League in 2Bs (47).

PERSONAL & MISCELLANEOUS

- Name is pronounced breht pil.
- Married (Chip).
- Graduated from Covina (Covina, CA) High School.
- Attended California State University Fullerton... was member of 2004 NCAA Champion Titans.

- Won 2008 Golden Spikes Award, which is emblematic of top amateur player in country

2012 SEASON

- Was named the National League's Most Valuable player after batting .336 (178-for-530) with 78 runs scored, 39 doubles, 24 home runs and 103 RBI while posting a .408 on-base pct., .549 slugging pct. and a .957 OPS.
- Was listed first on 27 ballots, second on four and third on one of the 32 ballots submitted by two writers representing each league city to score 422 points, based on a tabulation system rewarding 14 points for first place, nine for second, eight for third and on down to one for 10th.
- Became the fifth catcher to win the MVP award, joining Johnny Bench (1970, 1972), Roy Campanella (1951, 1953, 1955), Ernie Lombardi (1938) and Gabby Hartnett (1935).
- At 25 years old, was the youngest player to win an MVP award since Ryan Sandberg in 1984.
- Became the first player since Frank Robinson to win a league MVP award, batting title and World Series in the same season...Robinson accomplished the feat with the Orioles in 1966...five players registered that hat trick prior to Robinson: Dick Groat (1960 Pirates), Mickey Mantle (1956 Yankees), Willie Mays (1954 Giants), Stan Musial (1946 Cardinals) and Joe DiMaggio (1939 Yankees) (Elias).
- Posey, Yogi Berra (1951 Yankees) and Roy Campanella (1955 Dodgers) are the only catchers to win a World Series and MVP award in the same season (Elias).

- It's the 13th time a Giants player has been honored and the first since Barry Bonds in 2004.
- Joined Willie Mays and Willie McCovey as the only Giants to win Rookie of the Year and an MVP award in franchise history.
- Is one of only three catchers to win Rookie of the Year, MVP and a World Series in their careers, joining Johnny Bench and Thurman Munson...Posey, Willie Mays and Willie McCovey are the only Giants to accomplish that trio of feats.
- Won Rookie of Year Award in 2010 and became the 14th former winner to be elected MVP.
- > Became the 18th player to win both the NL batting title and NL MVP in the same season.
- Joined Mays (1954) and Barry Bonds (2002, 2004) as the only Giants players to win a NL batting title and a MVP award.
- Won the NL batting title, leading the league with a .336 avg. (also led Majors)...became the first catcher to win the NL batting title in 70 years, since Ernie Lombardi did so with the Boston Braves in 1942.
- Joined Lombardi as the only catchers in the league's history to win a batting title.
- Is the first Giant to win the batting crown since Barry Bonds in 2004 (.362) and became the seventh player in Giants franchise history to lead the league in batting average.
- The last catcher to win the batting title in either league was Joe Mauer with the Twins in 2009.

- Won the title after a recent rule change making the final sentence of Rule 10.22(a) inapplicable to Melky Cabrera, who finished one plate appearance shy of qualifying due to his suspension (the stricken sentence would have allowed Cabrera, because of the size of his lead over his nearest competitor, to win the title though finishing with fewer than the requisite 502 plate appearances).
- Among the National League leaders he finished first in batting average, second in OBP, fourth in slugging, sixth in RBI, tied for sixth in multi-hit games (52), tied for seventh in total bases (291), tied for eighth in hits, ninth in doubles and 10th in walks (69)...also tied for first for the most sacrifice flies (9).
- His 103 RBI were the most driven in by a Giant since Jeff Kent had 108 RBI in 2002.
- His 82 RBI as a catcher were the second-most in the NL (Miguel Montero, 88) and the second-most in SF-era history (Bengie Molina, 91 in 2008).
- The only players in Giants franchise history (since 1900) to drive in 100+ runs in a season with their primary position being catcher was Walker Cooper in 1947 (122 RBI) and Dick Dietz in 1970 (107).
- Joined Dick Dietz (22 HRs in 1970) and Tom Haller (26 in 1966) as the only Giants players with 20+ home runs "as a catcher" only since 1958.
- > 17 of his 24 home runs came on the road, the highest rate for any ML player with at least 20 home runs.
- Led the Giants and ranked third in the NL with a .340 avg. (49-for-144) with RISP.
- His 18 game-winning RBI and 31 go-ahead RBI both ranked as the third-most in the NL.
- Led all big league players with a .433 batting avg. (71for-164) against left-handed pitchers.
- Led the NL with a .330 batting avg. (94-for-285) on the road...his 62 RBI on the road were third-most.
- Was named an All-Star for the first time in his career, being named the starting catcher for the NL squad... registered 7,621,370 votes, setting the highest total by an NL player in ML history.
- Batted .385 (99-for-257) with 23 doubles, 14 homers and 60 RBI in 71 games since the All-Star break.
- His .385 avg. and .456 OBP led the Majors since the break, while his .646 slugging pct. ranked second and his 60 RBI were tied with Alfonso Soriano for the fourth-most.

Giants Gems

- Buster's full name is Gerald Dempsey Posey III. His father, known as Demp, was nicknamed Buster as a kid and passed it on to his son.
- While at Florida State, Posey once played all nine positions in a game against Savannah State. He used four different gloves.
- > The FSU fans sang a song when Buster came to bat: Hail to the Buster he singles, he doubles, he triples, he homers Hail to the Buster.
- He ranked fourth in his high school graduating class of 302 students. A finance major at FSU, he was named to the President's List in spring 2007 for his 4.0 GPA, and made the Dean's List in the fall of 2005 and 2007
- > Had briefly considered becoming a pediatrician if baseball didn't work out.
- > Buster married his high school sweetheart, Kristen, in January 2010 in their hometown of Leesburg, Georgia. "I think everybody in Leesburg was there," FSU coach Mark Martin says. The recessional song? "Take Me Out to the Ballgame."
 - His 87 stolen bases allowed were the second-most in the Majors, but his 31 caught stealings were also the second-most.
 - > His two passed balls were tied for the fewest in MLB.
 - > The Giants were 25 games over .500 when he started (84-59).
 - Appeared in 148 games overall, making 143 starts (111 at catcher, 29 at 1st base, three at DH).

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead the Giants to their second World Series title in three seasons after batting .200 (12-for-60) with three home runs and nine RBI in 16 postseason games.
- His biggest contribution came in Game 5 of the Division Series at Cincinnati in which he hit the 54th grand slam in postseason history and the third in Giants history to help the Giants become the first team in Major League history to overcome a 2-0 deficit in the division series... his second career grand slam off Mat Latos put the

- In his second full big league season, Posey was limited to just 45 games after a devastating injury in May ended his season...batted .284 (46-for-162) with four HRs and 21 RBI.
- Was placed on the disabled list on May 26 with a fractured bone in his lower left leg...suffered the injury the night before in a collision at home plate with Florida's Scott Cousins, who crashed into Posey as he was trying to block the winning run in the 12th inning...Posey was receiving the throw from right fielder Nate Schierholtz on Emilio Bonifacio's sacrifice fly to medium right field when he had dropped the throw right before Cousins went shoulder-first into him and his left cleat appeared to stick in the infield dirt while the rest of his body was hurled sideways...Giants trainers Dave Groeschner and Mark Gruesbeck helped carry him off the field...the manner in which Cousins hit Posey sparked conversation about rule changes for months.
- Underwent three MRI's first on his ankle, second on his lower leg and the third on his knee...the results showed torn ligaments in his ankle, a fractured fibula in his lower left leg and nothing on his knee.
- Underwent successful surgery on May 29 to repair torn ligaments in his left ankle...had two screws inserted in his leg in a 90-minute procedure that was performed at a medical facility in Burlingame by team orthopedist Ken Akizuki and Giants podiatry specialist Larry Oloff, along with Michael Dillingham, a former 49ers physician who has extensive experience with traumatic injuries.
- Had successful surgery on July 22 to remove screws from his left ankle.
- Prior to his injury, had started 43 of Giants' first 48 games (41 at catcher, two at 1st base) and hit safely in 32 of 43 contests...leading up to the injury was among Giants

- leaders in avg. (second), hits (second), RBI (second) and homers (third).
- Made his first career Opening Day roster and became the youngest Giants starting catcher at 24 years and four days old since Tom Haller was 23 years and 292 days old when he started for SF in 1961.

- Named National League winner of Jackie Robinson Rookie of Year Award, becoming sixth player to earn honor in Giants franchise history.
- Won the Rookie of the Year Award with 129 points, receiving 20 first-place votes, nine second-place votes and two third-place votes.
- Became the sixth Giant and first in 35 years to win the award, which was established in 1947...joined Willie Mays (1951), Orlando Cepeda (1958), Willie McCovey (1959), Gary Matthews (1973) and John Montefusco (1975).
- Became the sixth NL catcher to be honored Rookie of Year, joining Johnny Bench (1968), Earl Williams (1971), Benito Santiago (1987), Mike Piazza (1993) and Geovanny Soto (2008).
- Became the first Rookie of the Year winner to also become World Series champion in same season since Boston's Dustin Pedroia in 2007...the last NL player to do it was Florida's Dontrelle Willis in 2003.
- With Posey winning ROY, it snapped a 35-year drought for the Giants organization, which had been the longest span without a rookie award for a National League team.
- Posey joined Texas' Neftali Feliz (AL Rookie of Year) as the third pair of players named ROY in their respective leagues after appearing in that year's World Series... previous pairs were Willie Mays and Gil McDougald in 1951 (Giants and Yankees) and Dave Righetti and Fernando Valenzuela in 1981 (Yankees and Dodgers).
- > Was also named to Topps' ML Rookie All-Star team.
- Solidified his status as the Giants' most heralded position playing prospect since Matt Williams in 1987 after batting .305 (124-for-406) with 23 doubles, 18 home runs and 67 RBI in 108 games for San Francisco.
- His .305 batting avg. was third-highest for any player who started at least 50 games at catcher in his rookie season, behind Mike Piazza's .318 clip with LA-NL in - His 67 RBI were fifth-most by Giants rookie since 1958 and most since Chili Davis had 76 in 1982...his 18 home runs were tied for the fifth-most by a Giants rookie since '58 and most since Davis had 25 in '82.

- Led the Giants and ranked 17th in the NL with a .312 avg. (34-for-109) with RISP.
- His .305 avg. was the eighth-highest in the NL since his call-up (May 29), trailing only Carlos Gonzalez (.343), Joey Votto (.329), Matt Holliday (.322), Omar Infante (.321), Albert Pujols (.315), Ryan Zimmerman (.311) and Adrian Gonzalez (.310).
- > Ranked among NL rookie leaders (min. 100 games played) in batting avg. (.305, first), slugging pct. (.505, second), on-base pct. (.357, third), RBI (67, fourth), multihit games (38, fifth), HRs (18, tied for fifth), hits (124, seventh) and 2Bs (23, seventh).
- Missed the first two months in the big leagues as he was playing for triple-A Fresno, and wasn't the number one catcher until July 1.
- Since his recall from triple-A May 29, started 105 of 115 games, making 30 starts at first base and 75 as backstop, catching pitching staff with a number of guys with violent stuff.
- Caught 12 shutouts overall in 2010 and fashioned a 3.18 catchers ERA, the second-lowest in the NL among players with at least 75 starts (Yorvit Torrealba, 3.14)...threw out 18-of-57 (31.6%) attempted baserunners.
- In his season debut on May 29 vs. Arizona, had three RBI singles in four at-bats to help the Giants earn a 12-1 victory.
- Earned NL Player of the Week honors from July 5-11, hitting .556 (15-for-27) with five HRs and 14 RBI.
- Posted a career-best 21-game hitting streak from July 4-28, batting .440 (37-for-84) with six HRs and 23 RBI... in his first 10 games of the streak, Posey had 19 hits, six

- HRs and 13 RBI no rookie in NL history ever had those numbers for any 10-game stretch.
- His 21-game hit streak marked the second-longest hit streak by a rookie in SF-era history, behind Hall of Famer Willie McCovey's 22-game hit streak in 1959.
- Became the seventh player in SF-era history to have a hit streak of 20-or-more games and his 21-gamer tied Robby Thompson for the fifth-longest in SF history...also became just the 21st Major League catcher to post a hit streak of 20+ and only the second to accomplish the feat as a rookie, joining Benito Santiago (34-straight games in 1987)
- Was named NL Player of the Month, NL Rookie of the Month and was named winner of "Major League Baseball's Clutch Performer of the Month", all for July... finished with a NL-leading 43 hits and ranked third with a .417 avg., tied for third with 24 RBI, fourth with a .466 on-base pct. and fifth in the league with a .699 slugging mark.
- Became the first Giants player with at least 40-or-more hits in a single month since Randy Winn had 46 in August of 2008...his 43 hits in July were the most in one calendar month by a Giants rookie, surpassing Jim Ray Hart, who had 42 in July 1964...his seven HRs were also most in one calendar month by a Giants rookie since Jack Clark hit seven in 1977.
- Began the year at triple-A Fresno to catch more innings and get consistent at-bats...with injuries to Mark DeRosa and Edgar Renteria, a window of opportunity opened for Posey to get at-bats at the Major-League level and he was called up to the big leagues on May 29.
- Played the majority of his games at first base (23 starts at first in 26 games), pushing Aubrey Huff to outfield, however, the trade of Bengie Molina to Texas on July 1 cleared an everyday catching job...at time of trade, Molina was hitting just .257 with a .312 on-base pct. and had been battling a sore left elbow.

Select Company

Buster Posey became the first player since Frank Robinson to win a league MVP award, batting title and World Series in the same season. The full list is below (courtesy of Elias Sports Bureau).

Player	Year, Team
Joe DiMaggio	1939 Yankees
Stan Musial	1946 Cardinals
Willie Mays	1954 Giants
Mickey Mantle	1956 Yankees
Dick Groat	1960 Pirates
Frank Robinson	1966 Orioles
Buster Posey	2012 Giants

- The Giants were 40-38 at the time of the Molina trade; however went 52-32 after that.
- > Hit his first big league homer off Reds pitcher Aaron Harang at Great American Ball Park on June 9.
- Hit his first career grand slam and posted his first multihomer contest on July 7 at Milwaukee...hit a two-run home run off Chris Narveson in the first inning, capping frame that included three home runs by Giants (also Andres Torres and Aubrey Huff)...Posey's grand slam came in Sf's seven-run 4th inning and came against LHP Chris Capuano...became the first Giants rookie to have at least four hits, two homers and six RBI in a game since Willard Marshall on May 15, 1942 vs. Cincinnati (4-for-5, two HRs, six RBI).
- Backstop did not falter in the heart of a postseason push with the Giants as he started 30 of SF's final 31 games of season...hit .233 (24-for-103) with eight home runs (tied for the third-most in NL in Sept./Oct.) and 15 RBI.
- Guided pitching staff that held opponents to three runsor-fewer in 23 of their last 26 regular-season games, including an 18-game streak which was tied for thirdlongest all-time.
- Caught shutout and homered in his last trip to plate on Oct. 3 vs. San Diego to help the Giants clinch the NL West on the final day of the regular season.
- Batted .349 (60-for-172) with 13 doubles, two triples, six homers and 32 RBI in 47 games with triple-A Fresno prior to his call-up to the big leagues.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Posey became just the fifth NL Rookie of the Year to help his team win the World Series, batting .288 (17-for-59) in 15 games.
- Led the Giants in hits in the first round win over Atlanta in the Division Series, going 6-for-16 (.375), which marked the seventh-highest avg. by a rookie in the DS (min. 10 PAs).
- Became the first rookie catcher in Major League history to bat cleanup in a postseason game, batting fourth in Game 1 of the Division Series vs. Atlanta on Oct. 7 (Flias).
- Posey and Braves catcher Brian McCann became only the fourth pair of catchers to start and bat cleanup in the same postseason contest...others were Yogi Berra and Roy Campanella (1953 and 1955 World Series), Johnny - Bench and Manny Sanguillen (1970 NLCS), and Bench and Carlton Fisk (Games 5 and 6 of 1975 World Series (Elias).

- Tied for second on the team with three RBI in the LCS against Philadelphia...went 4-for-5 with two doubles and two RBI in Game 4 to become just the second rookie catcher in ML history to collect four hits in a postseason game...on Oct. 10, 1946, Joe Garagiola had four hits and three RBI to lead the Cardinals to a 12-3 win over the Red Sox at Fenway Park in Game 4 of the World Series.
- Hit safely in all five games of the World Series vs. Texas, batting .300 (6-for-20) with a homer and two RBI...hit a solo home run off Darren O'Day in Game 4, becoming the fourth rookie catcher ever to hit a home run in a World Series game, joining Wally Schang (1913 Philadelphia Athletics), Bill DeLancey (1934 Cardinals) and Rod Barajas (2001 Diamondbacks).
- Became the youngest Giants player to hit a home run in a World Series contest at 23 years and 219 days... the previous youngest was Matt Williams (23 years, 333 days) in Game 3 of the 1989 WS against Oakland.
- On Oct. 31 at Texas, Posey joined teammate Madison Bumgarner as the first all-rookie starting battery in a World Series game since Spec Shea and Yogi Berra started for Yankees in Game 1 of 1947 World Series.

- One of San Francisco's prized young players, Posey made quick strides in just his two minor league seasons, finishing the year with San Francisco.
- Had his contract purchased from triple-A Fresno on Sept. 2 and appeared in seven games for the Giants, going 2-for-17 (.118)...made four starts, all at catcher and caught 40.0 innings overall.
- Upon hearing of his call-up to the Majors, caught an early flight at dawn out of Las Vegas with teammate Dan Runzler and landed in Philadelphia at 3 p.m. local time on Sept. 2...his call-up was somewhat of a surprise, however, with catcher Bengie Molina missing time with a strained upper right quad, the Giants had no choice but to add Posey to the big league roster as an insurance option.
- After hitting a combined .325 with 18 HRs and 80 RBI in his first full season between Class A Advanced San

- Jose and triple-A Fresno, Posey finally got his first Major League at-bat on Sept. 11 in a 10-3 loss to the Dodgers in Los Angeles, when he entered the game as a late defensive insertion and struck out in his lone plate appearance against Hiroki Kuroda.
- > Collected his first Major League hit in his third career atbat on Sept. 19 at Los Angeles-NL, with a bloop single to right field off Jeff Weaver.
- > Caught Randy Johnson Sept. 25 vs. Chicago-NL, which was largest age difference between a pitcher and catcher since Jesse Orosco and Rob Bowen threw together Sept. 27, 2003 (23 years and 309 days)...the age difference between Posey and Johnson was 23 years and 198 days (Sports Features Group).
- Prior to his promotion to the big league club, spilt year between Class A Advanced San Jose and triple-A Fresno...began year at SJ, hitting .326 (95-for-291) with 23 doubles, 13 home runs and 58 RBI in 80 contests, helping the Giants win the first half title in the California League North Division with a 42-28 (.600) record... the Giants later went on to win the California League Championship.
- After earning California League mid-season All-Star honors, Posey skipped double-A and made the jump to triple-A, being promoted July 14.
- > Was scheduled to be promoted earlier, however was hit in the head with a pitch by Stockton's Craig Italinao on June 26 and missed 5 games.
- > Upon promotion to triple-A he immediately sparked Grizzlies, as team won first nine games he caught... struggled somewhat at plate in his first 14 games with Fresno, batting just .222, however, adjusted and recorded a .380 avg. in his final 21 games to finish at .321 (42-for-131) with eight doubles, five homers and 22 RBI in 35
- > Was on fire in August, batting at .375 clip with 17 RBI and connecting on all five of his round trippers during his first full month at minor league baseball's top classification.
- > Played in the Arizona Fall League in October, playing for the Scottsdale Scorpions.
- > Tabbed by Baseball America as top prospect in Giants system entering 2010 season.

Contract Status: Signed through 2013

- Has fourth-best strikeout-walk ratio (5.77) in the Majors since 2008 (minimum of 200.0ip)
- > Has the ninth-lowest inherited runners scored percent in the Majors since 2008 (20.0%)
- > His strikeout to walk ratio of 14-to-1 in 2011 was the highest in SF-era history (min. 45.0ip)
- Has the fourth-lowest ERA among all pitchers (min. 100.0ip) since 2011 (1.65 ERA)

2012 SEASON

- Continued his dominance on the mound, going 4-2 with a career-best 14 saves while fashioning a 1.79 ERA (11er, 55.1ip), the fourth-lowest figure among all NL relievers.
- Only Craig Kimbrel (1.01), Aroldis Chapman (1.51) and Eric O'Flaherty (1.73) had lower ERA's than Romo.
- Blanked opponents in 63 of 69 games, including 27 of his last 29.
- > His 69 games marked a career-high.
- Went 14-for-15 in save chances...earned a save in nine of his last 20 outings, becoming the Giants' full-time closer in late August and throughout the playoffs.
- Allowed only nine hits in 51 at-bats with runners in scoring position (.176).
- Held opponents to a .185 avg. against (37-for-200), the fourth-lowest mark among NL relievers.
- Gave up just two extra base hits to left-handed batters all year (one double, one homer in 54 at-bats).
- > Allowed nine of 43 inherited runners to score (20.9%), the 12th-lowest figure in the NL.
- Matched his career-high for runs allowed on July 30 vs. New York-NL after giving up four runs and four hits in just 0.2 innings...allowed a game-tying two-run home run to Scott Hairston in the eighth and then a pair of go-ahead runs...had allowed a total of just four runs all season prior to this outing.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Was the Giants' closer throughout the 2012 post season, going 1-0 with a 0.84 ERA (1er, 10.2ip) and 4-for-4 in save opportunities in 10 of 16 games...in 10.2 innings, he allowed just one run on four hits with one walk and nine strikeouts.
- > Recorded the last out in nine of the Giants' 11 wins.
- Became the seventh player to record at least three saves in a single Fall Classic, joining John Wetteland of the Yankees (four in 1996), Pittsburgh's Roy Face (three in 1960), Boston's Jonathan Papelbon (three in 2007), Anaheim's Troy Percival (three in 2002), Mariano Rivera of the Yankees (three in 1998) and Pittsburgh's Kent Tekulve (three in 1979).

- Produced one of the best seasons of any Giants reliever, fashioning the third-lowest ERA among NL relievers (1.50 ERA), who tossed at least 45.0 innings, and fashioning a 14-to-1 strikeout-walk ratio (70 Ks, 5 BBs), best in the Majors.
- His season WHIP of 0.71 in 48.0 innings was the best in the Majors with at least 30 innings pitched.
- His 71% strike percentage was second-best in the NL for any pitcher with more than 20.0 innings pitched (Atlanta's Kris Medlen, 78%).
- His 81.8% (27-of-33) inherited runners stranded rate was the fifth-best in the NL.
- Registered at least one strikeout in 48 of 65 games...his strikeout to walk ratio of 14-to-1 was the highest in SF-era history (min. 45.0ip) and the highest in the Majors since Dennis Eckersley posted a 18.25-to-1 mark in 1990.
- > Ranked third in the NL with a .150 avg. against (18-for-120) vs. right-handed batters (min. 75 BF).
- Overall, his opponents avg. against of .173 (29-for-168) was the sixth-lowest among NL relievers with a min. of 45.0 innings.
- Became the fifth reliever in Major League history since 1919 to throw what amounted to a perfect game, retiring 31 consecutive batters faced over a 15 game stretch from July 4-Aug. 6...his streak ended on Aug. 9 as he allowed a leadoff double to PIT's Andrew McCutchen in the 8th inning...was 10 shy of matching the NL record, set by former Giant Jim Barr in 1972.
- Was on the 15-day disabled list from Aug. 16-28 with inflammation in his right elbow...missed a total of 16

- games with the injury.
- > Had the longest scoreless streak of his career and ninth longest in the National League from June 30-Sept. 23, logging 21.2-scoreless innings...his streak was snapped in his second-to-last appearance of the season vs. Colorado.
- > His 0.48 ERA following the All-Star break was the second-lowest figure in the NL (min. of 15.0ip).
- > Ended the season by allowing just one run in his final 30 games (23.1ip) while allowing only 11 hits in 78 at-bats (.141).

2010

- > Was one of Bruce Bochy's most often used relievers, working career-high 68 games (2ndmost on Giants), 62.0 innings and logging impressive 5.00 strikeout-walk ratio, which ranked sixth-best among NL relievers.
- > Inherited 46 runners (T12th-most in NL) and allowed iust 14 to score.
- > Led team and was tied for 11th in NL with 21 holds.
- > Posted 10th-lowest ERA among NL relievers who threw at least 60.0 innings.
- > Three of his six HRs allowed were game changing HRs: April 18 at LAD - two-run game-winning HR to Manny Ramirez in 8th; May 4 at Florida - three-run go-ahead HR to Dan Uggla in 8th; May 7 at NYM allowed two-run walk-off HR to Rod Barajas.
- > Following that HR to Barajas on May 7th, settled down and solidified himself as one of top relievers in NL, blanking opponents in 48 of his final 54 games, while posting 5-0 record and fashioning 1.50 ERA (8er. 48.0ip) with .202 opponents avg. against (35-for-173)...that 1.50 ERA beginning May 9th was fourth-lowest among NL relievers.
- Held right-handed hitters to .185 avg. against (27-for-146), 12th-lowest figure in NL (min. 100 ABs).
- > Appeared in 8th inning or later in 47 of his 68 appearances.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- In six postseason appearances, surrendered three runs on sixs hits while going 0-for-2 in save opportunities.
- > Made his postseason debut in Game 2 of LDS vs. Atlanta on Oct. 8 and threw just eight pitches while being tagged for two runs on two hits.
- > Allowed two-run, go-ahead HR to Braves pinch-hitter Eric Hinske in Game 3 of LDS on Oct. 10.

- > Went 5-2 with 3.97 ERA (15er, 34.0ip) in 45 relief appearances for San Francisco.
- > His five wins were tied with Brandon Medders and Brian Wilson for most among Giants relievers, while his 11 holds were second-most on club behind Jeremy Affeldt (33).
- > Stranded 26-of-28 inherited runners (92.9%), for second-highest pct. among all relievers (min. 20 inherited runners), behind Colorado's Juan Rincon (19-of-20, 95.0%).
- > Allowed just one home run (Oakland's Kurt Suzuki) in 34.0

Giants Gems

- Sergio's father, Francisco or Frank was born to a Mexican farm laborer who immigrated to the U.S. when Frank was a baby and followed the crops. (Frank's father loved baseball and almost signed with the Mexico City Diablos but he had to work the farms).
- Sergio attended Mesa State and went 14-1, breaking six school records.
- Sergio's younger brother, Andrew, also pitched in the Giants organization. He wasn't drafted but he played in the Giants organization in 2009 and 2010.
- of pursuing baseball. Sergio took the entrance test and had the enlistment papers on the kitchen table in front of him, but he couldn't sign. He convinced his father to let him try a year at community college.
- Sergio has an elaborate tattoo on his right bicep of sides of his personality: the competitor, the joker, heast, the coward. Below that tattoo is a newer one: large praying hands and his son's name, Rilen. He says they represent his son praying for him to walk the straight and narrow, to be a good father. Sergio and his wife Chelsea had their second child in 2011, a boy named Rex Ryder.
 - innings, fewest round trippers allowed on SF's staff (min. 30ip)...in fact, was one of just eight NL relievers to allow one homer-or-less.
 - > Missed first two months of season with right elbow sprain, suffered in Spring Training...appeared in just one Spring contest before being placed on DL March 26.

- > Found success at big league level, becoming one of Giants' best relievers in late innings...posted 3-1 record with 2.12 ERA (8er, 34.0ip) in 29 relief appearances for San Francisco in what was his first taste of big leagues.
- Struck out 33 batters in just 34.0 innings and held opposing hitters to .138 avg. against (16-for-116).
- > Was especially tough on road, earning all three victories away from AT&T Park while fashioning 0.98 ERA (2er, 18.1ip) in those 14 games.
- > Inherited 22 runners (tied for seventh-most on club) and allowed just three to score (86.3%).
- > Was unscored upon in 24 of 29 games, including careerbest 17.2-inning scoreless streak Aug. 18-end of season...that scoreless stretch was longest by SF hurler in 2008 and tied for 12th-longest streak by an NL pitcher.
- > Was not even in Major League camp during Spring Training.
- Had contract purchased June 24.
- > Made ML debut June 26 at Cleveland, finishing game with 1.0-scoreless inning of relief...struck out two batters and ended inning on called strikeout to David Dellucci.
- > Factored into his first decision after six outings and received first ML career loss July 10 at NYM...tossed 1.2 innings, however, surrendered first ML HR to Fernando Tatis.

- > Earned first ML win Aug. 1 in San Diego, tossing scoreless 9th inning in tie game.
- > Was designated for assignment Aug. 6, but cleared waivers and was optioned to Fresno following day.
- > Was recalled Aug. 16 and did not allow run over his final 13 games, tossing 17.2-scoreless innings and allowing .073 avg. against (4-for-55).
- > Went 1-3 with 11 saves and 3.27 ERA (12er, 33.0ip) with 37 Ks and nine BBs in 27 games between Connecticut and Fresno.

CAREER MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Capped a superb 2007 season with being named Class A Advanced Relief Pitcher of the Year by MiLB.com, finishing the campaign with a 6-2 record and a 1.36 ERA (10er, 66.1ip), nine saves and 106 strikeouts in 41 relief appearances.

- > His 14.38 strikeouts per 9.0 innings ratio was the third-best mark among all minor league pitchers while his .155 (35-for-226) avg. against was the fourth-best in the minors.
- > Was named to South Atlantic League mid-season All-Star team in just his second professional season in 2006.

2012 CAREER

- Missed the first two months of the season due to injury and played the majority of his games in the minors, appearing in 32 games and going 0-4 with a 6.00 ERA (20er, 30.0ip).
- Missed almost all of spring training and did not appear in any Cactus League games after aggravating his latissimus dorsi muscle in a bullpen session during the first week of spring.
- Visited Dr. James Andrews in Pensacola, Fla., who looked at Runzler's MRIs and determined that surgery would not be necessary...tore his lat muscle in the final regular season game in 2011.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on March 26 and began the 2012 campaign in extended spring training to build up innings.
- Went on a rehabilitation assignment to Class A Advanced San Jose on June 8 and appeared in three games before being reinstated from the DL and transferred to triple-A Fresno on June 27.
- > Went 0-2 with a 6.00 ERA (18er, 27.0ip) and one save in 29 relief appearances for the Grizzlies.
- Was called up by the Giants in September and appeared in six games, logging 3.2-scoreless innings.
- Participated in the Arizona Fall League following the regular season.

- Southpaw spent most of the 2011 season at triple-A Fresno, but did appear in 31 games for San Francisco, going 1-2 with a 6.26 ERA (19er, 27.1ip).
- Made SF's Opening Day roster for the second-consecutive season and was one of three left-handers in the bullpen (also Affeldt, Lopez).
- Spent the first month and a half with the big league club, but struggled, allowing 14 runs in 19.2 innings (6.41 ERA)...was optioned to triple-A Fresno on May 28 where he finished the Grizzlies' season, compiling a 2-3 record with a 4.17 ERA (23er, 49.2ip) in 14 games (10 starts).
- Worked his way into a starting role while at Fresno, slowly increasing his pitch count in each start...as a starter, went 1-3 with a 4.02 ERA (18er, 40.1ip).

- Was recalled to San Francisco on Aug. 16, taking the roster spot of RHP Sergio Romo, who was placed on the DL.
- Made his first career start on Aug. 21 at Houston, filling rotation spot of LHP Jonathan Sanchez, who sprained his left ankle in his start on Aug. 16 at Atlanta...manager Bruce Bochy was hoping to get at least 6.0 innings out of Runzler, but he got just 1.2 innings as the southpaw struggled with his command, allowing four runs on three hits and three walks...faced 10 total batters.
- Following that start was moved back to the bullpen where he ended the eason as one of the Giants' best relievers, working 5.1-scoreless innings over 11 relief appearances.
- Pitched in season finale against Colorado and exited during 7th inning with strained left lat muscle.

- Proved to be valuable out of the bullpen during the Giants run to the World Series championship as he was 3-0 with a 3.03 ERA (11er, 32.2ip) in his first complete season at the Major League level.
- > Rookie made his first Opening Day Roster as he entered 2010 ranked by Baseball America as the fifth-best prospect in the Giants' minor league system.
- Missed 47 games with an injury to his left patella, an injury that occurred while taking his first Major League at-bat on July 8 at Milwaukee.

- Combined to go 5-1 with an 0.76 ERA (5er, 59.0ip), 17 saves and 83 strikeouts against 24 walks in 47 relief appearances at all four of San Francisco's full season minor league affiliates, and was called up to the Majors when rosters expanded in Sept.
- Entered season as a 24-year-old reliever who had never pitched above Class A.
- Was named by MLB.com as Minor League Reliever of the Year.
- Skipped from Class A Augusta to Class A Advanced San Jose to double-A Connecticut to triple-A Fresno and was considered to be the first Giants player to play on five different levels in one season.
- > Was promoted to the big league club on Sept. 2, having his contract purchased from triple-A and became one of

- the Giants' clutch left-handers out of the 'pen.
- > Overall, appeared in 11 games for San Francisco, allowing just one earned run in 8.2 innings (1.04 ERA) with 11 strikeouts.
- > In his Major League debut on Sept. 4 at Milwaukee took mound with two outs in the 6th inning of a 2-2 game in Major League pennant race to face veteran Jody Gerut, who struck out looking on three fastballs to end threat in the Giants 3-2 victory.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- > Was awarded "Overall Reliever of the Year" by This Year in Minor League Baseball Awards in 2009.
- > In 2009 he was named to the South Atlantic League's mid-season All-Star team, however did not participate due to his promotion to San Jose.

- > Had his contract purchased from triple-A Fresno June 28 in Milwaukee, taking the roster spot of IF Rich Aurilia, who was placed on the Bereavement List due to the passing of his father...Sadowski replaced LHP Jonathan Sanchez (who was moved to bullpen) temporarily in the rotation.
- > Made his Major League debut June 28 against the Brewers in Milwaukee and earned his first career victory. tossing 6.0-scoreless innings and allowing just four hits in SF's 7-0 win...became the first Giants starting pitcher to win his big league debut in more than 10 years, since RHP Joe Nathan tossed 7.0-shutout innings to defeat the Marlins April 21, 1999...according to Elias, each of the previousfour San Francisco starters to win their first game in the Majors did so against Florida: Nathan, Osvaldo Fernandez (1996), Jamie Brewington (1995) and Salomon Torres (1993).
- Won his second career game July 3 vs. Houston...tossed 7.0-scoreless frames, surrendering only three hits and one walk in SF's 13-0 win.
- > Began his ML career with a 16.0-inning scoreless streak which ended July 8 against Florida...was the longest streak by a Giants pitcher to start his big league career since Al Worthington did not allow run in his first 19.0 innings in 1953...prior to Sadowski, the last Giants starting pitcher to start his career with 16.0 scoreless innings as a starter was Ron Herbel in 1964.
- > Was charged with his first ML loss July 8 against the Marlins at AT&T Park in SF's 7-0 shutout defeat...matched up with Chris Volstad, who tossed his first career shutout...his scoreless inning streak was snapped after he allowed a run-scoring single to John Baker in the 4th inning.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- > Opened the 2008 season with double-A Connecticut, going 1-0 with a 3.27 ERA in nine relief appearances... was promoted to triple-A Fresno in late April, and led the Grizzlies in wins, going 8-4 with 4.80 ERA in 31 appearances (11 starts).
- > In 2007 he returned from injury to make 35 appearances for double-A Connecticut and went 4-3 with a 3.04 ERA (23er. 68.0ip).
- Missed the entire 2006 season after having surgery on his right shoulder.

2012 SEASON

- Made his first Opening Day roster and spent his first full season in the big leagues.
- > Switch-hitter batted .280 (61-for-218) with three HRs and 34 RBI in 74 games.
- > Started 49 games (48 at catcher and one as DH)...85.4% of his starts came with either Lincecum or Zito starting (started 25 of Zito's 32 starts and 16 of Lincecum's 33).
- The Giants were 30-18 in his starts behind the plate.
- Threw out 11 of 51 (21.6%) attempted base thieves.
- On April 9 at Colorado, caught Barry Zito's shutout in what was just his seventh career big league start behind the dish...the last catcher to be behind the plate for a shutout by a pitcher within his first seven starts of his career was Hank Conger (fourth start) for the Angels on Sept. 21, 2010 (pitcher was Ervin Santana).
- > Hit his first Major League home run in Game 2 of a doubleheader on April 23 at New York-NL...his two-run shot off RHP Dillon Gee in the 7th inning extended the Giants lead to 7-1.
- Recorded his first career game-ending hit with a pinch-hit single in the bottom of the 11th inning which gave the Giants a 4-3 victory over the Brewers on May 6.
- > Delivered a game-winning home run on May 21 at Milwaukee, hitting a solo shot in the top of the 14th inning at Miller Park off of right-handed pitcher Juan Perez... became the first Giants player to hit a go-ahead home run in the 14th inning or later in a road game since Kevin Mitchell in the 16th inning at St. Louis on May 11, 1988.

- Began the 2011 season with Class A Advanced San Jose and was later promoted to triple-A Fresno... combined to hit .285 (104-for-365) with 23 2Bs, 12 HRs and 84 RBI in 98 games between both affiliates.
- Became just the second player in San Jose Giants history to slug three home runs in a single-game at Stockton on May 23...finished night 3-for-6 with six RBI.
- > Prior to being promoted to triple-A Fresno on June 9, batted .301 (53-for-176) with 13 2Bs, eight HRs and 42 RBI in 42 games with San Jose (25 as catcher and 17 as DH).
- > Had his contract purchased from triple-A Fresno on July 15, as the Giants placed Pat Burrell on 15-day DL and

- made his Major League debut on July 15 in a pinch-hit situation, drawing a walk in his first at-bat.
- > Appeared in three games, going 0-for-3, before being optioned to Fresno on July 19 to clear a roster spot for Brandon Belt.
- > Was recalled by San Francisco on Aug. 19 taking the roster spot of Eli Whiteside who was placed on the seven-day DL with a concussion.
- > Recorded his first Major League hit and RBI on Aug. 23 vs. San Diego with a pinch-hit RBI-single off RHP Luke Gregerson.
- > Was optioned to Class A Advanced San Jose on Aug. 25 and recalled again by San Francisco on Sept. 4, marking the third time that he was promoted to the big league club.
- > Owned a .258 clip (8-for-31) with two 2Bs and RBI in 13 games in a Giants uniform...finished the season with sixgame hitting streak, batting .333 (6-for-18) with a 2B over his final six games.
- Appeared in six games (three starts) at catcher for SF... opponents were successful in 10 of 12 (83.3%) stolen base attempts off him.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- > Posted his best season of his young professional career in 2008 while hitting a DSL-best .348 (72-for-207).
- Was one of the top players in Dominican Summer League, leading league with a .348 batting avg. (72-for-207) and 63 RBI.
- Made his professional debut after signing with the Giants as a 16-year old non-drafted free agent in 2007 and proceeded to hit .286 (34-for-119) in 44 games.

- > Is one of four players to hit three home runs in a World Series game
- > Owns fourth-longest hit streak by Venezuelan-born player in ML history (22 games 2011)
- > Hit for the cycle on Sept. 15, 2011 at Colorado
- > .330 avg. in 2009 was fourth-highest among players in their first full ML season
- > Became seventh Giant in club history to reach 40 doubles in single season (40 in 2009)
- > Has most hits in a single season by a Giants switch-hitter in franchise history (189 in 2009)
- Giants' 2008 Minor League Player of the Year

2012 SEASON

- The two-time NL All-Star completed his fifth season with the Giants, batting .283 (112-for-396) with 59 runs, 25 2Bs, 12 HRs and 63 RBI in 108 games.
- Missed a total of 53 games due to a left hamate fracture and strained left hamstring...therefore, he posted career lows in nearly every offensive category.
- > Made 105 starts (101 at third base, two at first, two as DH).
- Began the year with a 20-game hit streak, tied for the 13th-longest hit streak to begin a season since 1876... he became just the third SF Giant with two separate 20+ game streaks, joining Mays and McCovey.
- Was named to his second-consecutive All-Star team being selected by the fans as the NL starting third baseman... garnered 5,743,542 votes, displacing New York Mets third baseman David Wright (4,133,380) after surging in the final week to make up a deficit of nearly 465,000 votes.
- Became the second Giants third baseman to earn a fanelected start, joining Matt Williams (1994-96).
- Hit the first bases-loaded triple in All-Star Game history on July 10 at Kansas City...became only the third player in ASG history to come to the plate with the bases loaded and drive in all three men on base...the other two were Fred Lynn (1983) and Brian McCann (2010).
- Left the game on July 24 vs. San Diego in the third inning after suffering a left hamstring strain after stretching at first base on a throw from shortstop Brandon Crawford to complete a double play...sat out the next two games before being placed on the disabled list on July 28.
- Homered from both sides of the plate for the first time in his career on Sept. 20 vs. Colorado...hit a solo HR off LHP Jorge De La Rosa in the 1st inning, then a three-run shot off RHP Edgmer Escalona in the Giants' six-run 4th inning...became the sixth Giants player in SF-era history to homer from both sides of the plate in a game, joining Chili Davis, Kevin Bass, Todd Benzinger, Ray Durham and Randy Winn.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Capped a spectacular postseason with earning the World Series MVP award...overall, hit .364 (24-for-66) with six HRs and 13 RBI in 16 games.
- Most of his postseason highlights came in the World Series, where he went 8-for-16 (.500) with three homers and four RBI to help the Giants to a four-game sweep of the Tigers.
- His .500 average tied for ninth all-time for a single Fall Classic (minimum 15 at-bats) behind only Babe Ruth (.625, 1928 Yankees), Chris Sabo (.563, 1990 Reds), Johnny Bench (.533, 1976 Reds), Deion Sanders (.533, 1992 Braves), Sean Casey (.529, 2006 Tigers), Lou Gehrig (.529, 1932 Yankees), Dane lorg (.529, 1982 Cardinals) and Thurman Munson (.529, 1976 Yankees).
- Became the second player in Giants history to win a World Series MVP, joining Edgar Renteria (2010)...the award was first given out in 1955, the year after the Giants last World Championship prior to 2010.
- Also became the first-ever Venezuelan-born World Series Most Valuable Player.
- Became the 10th third baseman in history, and the second straight, to win World Series MVP, joining Baltimore's Brooks Robinson (1970), Cincinnati's Pete Rose (1975), Philadelphia's Mike Schmidt (1980), Ron Cey (1981) of the Dodgers, Ray Knight (1986) of the Mets, Scott Brosius (1998) of the Yankees, Anaheim's Troy Glaus (2002),

- Boston's Mike Lowell (2007) and David Freese (2011) of the Cardinals.
- > With 24 hits in the postseason, he finished just one hit shy of the all-time single Postseason record of 25 set by Marquis Grissom (1995 Braves), Darin Erstad (2002 Angels) and David Freese (2011 Cardinals).
- > Sandoval is the Giants all-time leader for hits in a single Postseason, eclipsing J.T. Snow, who had 22 hits for San Francisco in 2002.
- > With six home runs in his postseason career, Sandoval tied with Rich Aurilia (2002) for the second-most in franchise history for a single postseason behind only Barry Bonds (eight in 2002).
- > Made Major League history in Game 1 of the World Series after hitting home runs in each of his first three plate appearances...it was just the fifth three-homer game in World Series history, joining Babe Ruth (1926 Game 4 and 1928 Game 4), Reggie Jackson (1977 Game 6) and Albert Pujols (2011 Game 5).
- > Overall, it was the ninth three-homer game in Postseason history.
- > Sandoval became the third player in Giants history to record a multi-homer game in World Series history. joining Benny Kauff (Game 4, 1917) and Jeff Kent (Game 5, 2002).
- > He was the second Giants player to homer in the first inning of an opening Fall Classic game, joining Hall of Famer Mel Ott, who did so in 1933 against the Washington Senators.
- > Sandoval was just the fourth Venezuelan-born player to homer in World Series history, joining Dave Concepcion (1975 Game 3), Miguel Cabrera (2003 Game 4), and Alex Gonzalez (2003 Game 4).
- > He collected at least one RBI in six straight postseason games becoming the ninth player in history to accomplish that, joining Alex Rodriguez (eight in 2007-09), Ryan Howard (eight in 2009), Lou Gehrig (eight from 1928-32), Bill Skowron (seven from 1958-60), Clyde Barnhart (seven from 1925-27), Ivan Rodriguez (six in 2003), Bernie Williams (six in 1996) and Tony Perez (six from 1975-76).

- Was by far San Francisco's best offensive player, hitting .315 (134-for-426) with 26 2Bs, 23 HRs and 70 RBI in 117 games in his fourth season with Giants.
- > Was named by NL All-Star manager Bruce Bochy to his first career All-Star team, joining teammates Matt Cain, Tim Lincecum, Ryan Vogelsong and Brian Wilson on NL roster.

Giants Gems

- A born lefty, learned how to throw with his right nand at the age of nine so he could play catcher — a position he wanted because it allowed him a leadership role. Two to three years later, he added switch-hitting to his switch-throwing, and in the minors he also learned how to play first base and third base.
- Begins every plate appearance with a waltz in front of the batter's box, during which he taps his spikes with his bat to honor his grandparents and younger sister. Then he lightly conks himself on his head, which represents his faith in God.
- text he chose was the Serenity Prayer: "God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and wisdom to know the difference."
- > Led team in runs scored (55), hits, HRs, RBI and multi-hit games (34), even after missing 40 games with hand injury.
- > Switch-hitter batted .324 (107-for-330) against righthanders, which was fourth-highest clip in NL among players with at least 330 plate appearances...only NYM's Jose Reyes (.341), MIL's Ryan Braun (.327) and NYM's Daniel Murphy (.326) had higher averages.
- > His 27 go-ahead RBI was tied for eighth-most in NL and his 13 game-winning RBI was tied for 11th-best.
- > Posted longest hitting streak of his career and sixth-longest hit streak in National League in 2011, hitting safely in 22-consecutive games from June 19-July 14... streak was longest by Giants player since Willie McCovey and Alvin Dark both hit safely in 22-straight in 1959 and 1952, respectively.
- > Sandoval's 22-game hit streak was also fourth-longest by Venezuelan-born player in ML history...Victor Martinez holds record with 25-game streak in 2009 with Boston.
- > Was diagnosed with fractured hamate bone in his right hand on April 30 and was placed on 15-day DL on May 1...injured hand while swinging bat in game on April 29 at Washington.
- > Had successful surgery in Arizona on May 3 with Dr. Don Sheridan performing procedure.
- After missing nearly six weeks, began rehab assignment playing 1 game at Class A Advanced San Jose and then - > Replaced All-Star starter Scott Rolen at 3rd base in 6th inning and went 1-for-1 with an RBI-2B in his lone plate appearance.

- > Faced left-handed pitcher Sergio Escalona while batting from left side of plate on Aug. 20 at Houston... marked first time he had ever faced lefty while batting left-handed...struck out with his bat flailing from his hands...swung this way due to inflammation in his left shoulder and could not swing right-handed...faced Escalona again next day and struck out with runners on first and second and two outs.
- Belted pair of solo HRs on Sept. 5 at San Diego...marked third time in his career to have multi-HR game.
- > Hit for cycle on Sept. 15 at Colorado...with 3B in 6th inning, he became 26th Giant - and 10th in club's San Francisco era - to hit for cycle...Sandoval hit two-run home run in 1st inning, singled in 2nd, doubled in 5th and then hit drive off base of wall in right-center field, belly-flopping into third base well ahead of throw to
- > Recorded his secnd multi-HR game of season and fourth of his career on Sept. 18 at Colorado...both of his HRs came in Giants' eight-run 4th inning...became first Giants player to homer twice in one inning since Juan Uribe accomplished feat on Sept. 23, 2010 at Chicago-NL...Sandoval finished game with career-best 11 total bases as he also tripled.

- > Was named NL Player of Week for first time in his career for week of Sept. 12-18...hit .440 (11-for-25) with 2B, two 3Bs, four HRs, 10 RBI.
- > Battled with inflammation in his left shoulder over final six weeks of season and felt pain when he swung righthanded...saw limited playing time against left-handed pitchers, starting just 4 of 10 games in Sept. in which SF faced LH starter.
- > Traveled to Taiwan in Oct/Nov. for an exhibition series against Chinese Taipei national team in 2011 Taiwan All-Star Series...was one of several MLB All-Stars selected to participate in five-game series that they swept in Taipei City, Taichung and Kaohsiung.

- Struggled in his second full big league season, batting just .268 (151-for-563) with 34 2Bs, 13 HRs and 63 RBI in 152 games.
- > In 2009, switch-hitter batted .314 as a left-handed hitter and .379 as righty, however in 2010, batted just .282 (119-for-422) from the left-side and .227 (32-for-141) from right.
- > His batting average on balls in play slid from .367 in 2008 to .353 in 2009 to .294 in 2010.
- Sandoval's year-by-year batting average with runners in scoring position: in 2008, .395 (in 38 at-bats); in 2009, .301 (in 143 ABs); in 2010, .208 (27-for-130).
- > Had staggering home/road splits, hitting .330 (92-for-279) with nine HRs and 40 RBI in 76 games at AT&T Park, which ranked as the sixth-highest home average among NL players.
- Struggled on the road, batting 122 points lower at .208 clip (59-for-284) with four HRs and 23 RBI, which was the third-lowest road batting clip in the NL, ahead of only Arizona's Mark Reynolds (.181) and Chicago's Aramis Ramirez (.201)...had largest difference in batting average at home vs. road among all MLB qualifiers (STATS, LLC).
- Grounded into a NL-leading 26 double-plays (grounded) into only 10 in 2009), one shy of A.J. Pierzynski's franchise record of 27 GIDP's in 2004.

- Made his second career Opening Day roster as well as his second consecutive Opening Day start.
- Left game on May 14 against the Astros in the 8th inning after getting hit on his left foot by a pitch from Jeff Fulchino...X-rays came back negative.
- Was dropped from the third spot in the order to eighth on June 5 at Pittsburgh, marking just the second time in his career to hit eighth.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Batted .176 (3-for-17) with two RBI in six postseason contests
- Started five of 15 games (four at third base, one as DH).
- Had his biggest at-bat of the postseason in Game 4 of the LCS vs. Philadelphia on Oct. 20, driving in a pair of goahead runs with a double in the 6th inning to help stake the Giants to a 5-4 lead in their 6-5 victory.

- Established himself as a fan favorite batting .330 (189-for-572) with 79 runs, 44 2Bs, five 3Bs, 25 HRs and 90 RBI in 153 games in his sophomore season.
- His .330 avg. ranked as the second-highest in the NL among qualifying players behind Florida's Hanley Ramirez (.342), while his doubles ranked as the third-most in the league...also ranked second in multi-hit games (57), third in avg. against left-handed pitchers (.379), fourth in hits, sixth in total bases (318) and slugging pct. (.556), seventh in extra base hits (74), and ninth in intentional walks (13).
- His .330 avg. was the fourth-highest among players in their first full ML season since 1958...only Wade Boggs (.361 in 1983), Ichiro Suzuki (.350 in 2001) and Fred Lynn (.331 in 1975) had higher figures than Sandoval in their first full season (Sports Features Group).
- Was just the third player in franchise history to record a season of a .330 avg., 40+ 2Bs, 25+ HRs, and 90+ RBI, joining Bill Terry (1932) and Jeff Kent (2000).
- Became only the seventh Giant in club history to reach 40 doubles in a single season.
- His hit total was the most by a Giant in a single season since Jeff Kent in 2002 (195).
- Became the eighth Giant in franchise history to record 20-plus HRs and 40-plus 2Bs (Jeff Kent SF, 4 times; Jack Clark SF; Barry Bonds SF; Willie Mays SF; George Kelly NYG; Bill Terry NYG; Al Dark NYG, all one time).
- Led the NL in home batting avg. (.361), which was the third-highest home mark in SF-era history (Barry Bonds, .412 in 2004 and .369 in 2003).
- Was one of five NL players to be on a list of Final Vote for the NL team in the Mid-Summer Classic, however finished

- second in voting behind Philadelphia's Shane Victorino.
- Made Opening Day roster for the first time in his career and became the Giants' youngest Opening Day starter at third base since Tom O'Malley (22 years and 101 days) in 1983 (Sports Features Group).
- Caught his first game April 22 vs. San Diego, catching all 10.0 innings of San Francisco's 1-0 win.
- Hit his first game-ending HR of his career May 12 vs. Washington off LHP Joe Beimel...became youngest Giant (22 years, 274 days old) to hit a walkoff HR since Jack Clark (22 years, 218 days old) accomplished feat June 16, 1978...finished night going 3-for-5 with HR, 2B and three RRI
- Had streak of reaching base safely in 25-straight games from June 4-30.
- Belted his first career grand slam on a 1-0 pitch off Florida's Sean West in 5th inning July 6 at AT&T Park.

- Produced one of the best seasons of any Giants farmhand in 2008, being named SF's Minor League Player of the Year.
- Moved quickly through ranks, beginning season at Class A and finishing as one of the Giants' major run producers... made his big league debut in mid-August and batted .345 (50-for-145) with 24 runs, 10 2Bs, three HRs and 24 RBI in 41 games for San Francisco.
- Had his contract purchased from double-A Connecticut Aug. 13 and made his Major League debut Aug. 14 at Houston (start at C), going 0-for-3 with first RBI coming on a sacrifice fly.
- Recorded his first ML hit Aug. 16 at Atlanta with a single off LHP Mike Hampton.
- Hit his first career HR Aug. 27 vs. Colorado off RHP Livan Hernandez in the 7th inning, giving SF a 2-1 cushion... clout was part of back-to-back HRs with Bengie Molina.
- Led all ML rookies in batting avg. in Aug. with a .393 clip, 11 points higher than next closest player (Joey Votto of Cincinnati - .382)...also finished month with a .554 slugging pct., third-highest among NL rookies.
- Recorded a career-high five RBI Sept. 7 vs. Pittsburgh, going 2-for-3 with a 2B and pair of sacrifice flies... became the first Giants rookie to collect five RBI in a game since Damon Minor in 2002.
- Prior to getting big league call, combined to hit .350 (157-for-448) with 90 runs, 38 2Bs, 20 HRs, 96 RBI and a .578 slugging mark over 112 games between Class A Advanced San Jose and double-A Connecticut.

Named 2012 National League Championship Series Most Valuable Player

2012 SEASON

- > Was one of the best acquisitions in GM Brian Sabean's tenure as he batted .362 (88-for-243) with 40 runs scored, 16 doubles and 44 RBI in 61 games while in a Giants uniform.
- > Was acquired by SF from Colorado on July 27 in exchange for minor league IF Charlie Culberson.
- > Overall, between Colorado and San Francisco, hit .306 (190-for-620) with 87 runs, 32 2Bs, seven HRs and 74 RBI in 156 games.
- > His 190 hits were tied for the third-most in the NL and established a personal best.
- > His 74 RBI were also a career-high (previous was 60,
- > Tied Ryan Braun for the second-most multi-hit games in the NL with 56 (the most of his career).
- > His 190 hits were the most by a player 36 years-orolder who spent the entire season in the NL since Andres Galarraga had 191 hits for Colorado in 1997 at the age of 36 (Tony Gwynn is next).
- > Was the hardest batter to fan in the NL, with a 13.9 PA/K... swung and missed a total of just 15 times while in a SF uniform.
- > Since being traded to SF, his 88 hits were the most on the team and tied with Derek Jeter for the most in the Majors, beginning July 28...his 44 RBI were also the second-most on the club (Pence, 45).
- > Hit safely in 52 of 61 games in a Giants uniform.
- > Batted .339 (100-for-295) since All-Star break, the thirdhighest clip among ML players.
- Established a career-high with seven RBI on Aug. 8 at St. Louis, going 3-for-6 with a double and grand slam (third of his career) in the Giants' 15-0 rout of the Cardinals... became the first Giants players with seven-plus RBI in a game since Jeff Kent had seven on May 1, 2001 at Pittsburgh.
- > At 36 years and 283 days old, became the oldest player in Giants history with seven-plus RBI in a game...the previous oldest was Phil Weintraub, who had 11 RBI vs. the Dodgers on April 30, 1944 at a younger 36 years old.
- > Ended the season with a career-best 20-game hit streak that began on Sept. 10...tied teammates Angel Pagan and

- Pablo Sandoval for the second-longest hitting streak in the NL (Jose Reyes, 26).
- > Overall, started 149 games (109 at 2nd base, 25 at shortstop and 15 at 3rd base).

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- In his second postseason of his career he hit .328 (21-for-64) with eight RBI, helping lead the Giants to their second World Series title in SF-era history.
- > Earned the NLCS MVP after batting .500 (14-for-28) with four RBI...became the fifth player in Giants history to take home NLCS MVP honors.
- > Became one of just four players to record 14 hits in a postseason series, joining Hideki Matsui (2004 ALCS), Albert Pujols (2004 NLCS) and Kevin Youkilis (2007 ALCS).
- > Became the first player in ML history to record six multihit games in a LCS and just the third ever to do so in a postseason series (Sam Rice for the 1925 Senators and Bill "Moose" Skowron for the 1960 Yankees).
- > Became just the sixth player to win a postseason series MVP Award after playing for another team earlier that season...became the second Giants player to do so joining Cody Ross (2010 NLCS).
- > Hit safely in 11-consecutive postseason games, tied for the longest streak in Giants franchise history.

- Hit .299 (118-for-395) in his second season with Boston.
- > Missed 26 games on the 15-day DL with a left oblique strain from May 8 until his activation on June 7.
- > Led AL shortstops with a .329 avg. (74-for-225) after the All-Star break.
- > Collected his 1,000th career hit with a 7th inning double on Sept. 13 vs. Toronto.

> Batted .275 with 92 runs scored, 38 doubles, 11 home runs and 56 RBI in his first season with the Red Sox.

- > Was the eighth-hardest AL batter to fan with 9.79 plate appearances per strikeout...only 6.2 percent of his swings missed a pitch, the second-lowest mark in the Majors behind Chicago's (AL) Juan Pierre (5.8).
- > Tallied a career-high, 11 total bases, matching career marks with four hits and two homers, on Sept. 8 vs. Tampa Bay...became just the fourth player in club history with at least four hits and two homers in a game from the lead-off spot.

- In his second season in a Blue Jays uniform, posted career highs in runs (100), home runs (12), walks (90) and stolen bases (14) in 144 games.
- > Ranked seventh in the AL in walks and tied for 11th in runs scored
- Set a Toronto single-season club record in runs scored and walks (90) as a shortstop, passing Tony Fernandez in both categories (91 runs in 1986; 71 walks in 1990).
- Led the Blue Jays with a .322 average (93-for-289) and .405 on-base pct. on the road, finishing eighth and fourth, respectively among AL leaders.
- > Posted a .984 fielding percentage in 143 starts at shortstop (10 errors/621 total chances), the third-best mark among American League shortstops.

2008

- > Batted .267 (138-for-517) with 60 RBI in his first season with Toronto.
- > Tallied his 500th career hit on July 19 at Tampa Bay.

- > Tied an American League record as he committed four errors at third base on July 6 vs. Seattle.
- > Hit his first career grand slam on Aug. 6 at Texas.
- > Was traded to Toronto on Nov. 17 for RHP Graham Godfrey and RHP Kristian Bell.

2006

- > Started all seven of the A's postseason games at shortstop.
- > Collected four RBI in Game 3 of the ALDS and tied an Oakland record for RBI in a postseason game.

2005

- > Batted .247 (94-for-381) for Oakland and played primarily shortstop for the first time in his professional career.
- > Led the AL with a .995 fielding pct. as a secondhaseman
- > Made 81 appearances at shortstop, while playing 30 games as a second baseman, five games as a third baseman and two games as an outfielder.
- > Hit his first career leadoff home run on June 5 vs. Toronto off RHP Chad Gaudin.

Giants Gems

- Father Donato was from Italy, and mother Nelida
- from Spain. Both immigrated to Venezuela with their families as teenagers because of poor economic conditions after World War II. Donato was a popular barber in their town of San Felipe, Venezuela. It was a skill he learned as a boy in Italy. Nelida was a stayat-home mother.
- Marco is the youngest of four children: Mary, Kathy and Piero. All four understand Italian from listening to their father.
- He's a big star in Venezuela as one of the top players for Leones del Caracas, a popular winterleague team in a country that loves baseball. He also helped lead Venezuela to the Caribbean Series title in 2006.

2004

- > Led the AL with a .995 fielding pct. as a second haseman.
- Knocked his first career walk-off home run on Aug. 25 vs. Baltimore.

2012 SEASON

- Missed the entire season due to Tommy John surgery.
- > Had Tommy John surgery on July 24...Dr. James Andrews performed the procedure in Pensacola, Florida...Surkamp had been on the disabled list since the end of spring training as he suffered from inflammation in his left elbow... was placed on the DL on March 26.

2011

- Made his Major League debut in 2011 in just his fourth professional season with San Francisco... spent the majority of the season overpowering hitters in the Eastern League, compiling a 10-4 record with 165 strikeouts and a 2.02 ERA (32er, 142.1ip) in 23 games (22 starts) in his first season at double-A level.
- > Went 2-2 with a 5.74 ERA (17er, 26.2ip) in six big league starts
- > Was named to the Eastern League mid-season and postseason All-Star teams.
- > Had a great chance of becoming the first Eastern League pitcher in over 30 years to win the pitching equivalent of the Triple Crown as he led the league in strikeouts (165), ERA (2.02) and was tied for third in wins (10) at the time of his recall to the big leagues.
- > Finished the season leading the Eastern League in ERA, finished second in strikeouts and tied for fifth in wins... also led the Eastern League in WHIP (1.08) and ranked second in opponents avg. against (.213).
- > Was named Eastern League pitcher of the the Week for May 2-8 after posting a 2-0 record with a 0.73 ERA (1er, 12.1ip) with 20 strikeouts in two starts.
- > Was placed on the DL with a left knee injury from June 14-24 and missed nine games for Richmond.
- > Was named Eastern League pitcher of Week for the second time July 4-10, posting a 1-0 record with a 2.13 ERA (3er, 12.2ip) with 23 Ks in two starts.
- > Had his contract purchased from double-A Richmond on Aug. 27 and made his Major League debut that night vs. Houston, filling rotation slot of an injured Jonathan Sanchez...did not receive a decision in his debut despite

- tossing 6.0 innings and allowing just one run on six hits... threw 87 pitches and left game tied at 1-1.
- Earned his first career victory on Sept. 6 at San Diego, tossing 5.0 innings and allowing three earned runs on five hits in SF's 6-4 win.
- > Recorded his first career hit and RBI with a two out single in the 2nd inning on Sept. 17 at Colorado off RHP Drew Pomeranz.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- > Is a four-time minor league All-Star, being named to the mid-season and postseason All-Star teams in both 2010 and in 2011.
- > Was placed on the disabled list on July 18, 2010 after he dislocated his hip attempting to field a ground ball and missed the remainder of the season with the injury...had surgery in Colorado.
- > Led the Giants' farm system and ranked third in the South Atlantic League for the third-most strikeouts in the minors (169) in 2009...also posted the third-most wins (11).

How Obtained: Signed by Giants as minor league free agent, Jan. 2, 2013 Contract Status: Non-Roster Invitee

2012 SEASON

Missed the entire campaign after undergoing a second "Tommy John" surgery.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Made an Opening Day roster for the first time in his career in 2011 with Texas, but spent the majority of the season on the disabled list.
- Made his Major League debut on April 2 vs. Boston, surrendering a two-run home run to Jacoby Ellsbury.
- > Was removed from his appearance on April 19 vs. Los Angeles-AL and placed on the 60-day disabled list April 20.
- > Missed the remainder of the season while undergoing right elbow ligament reconstruction surgery, which was performed by Dr. James Andrews on June 1 in Birmingham, Alabama.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- > Did not pitch the entire 2010 season as he continued to recover from right elbow surgery.
- > Acquired by Texas from Chicago-NL on Dec. 9, 2010 in exchange for cash considerations...Cubs had selected Tobin from the triple-A Salt Lake roster of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim with the eighth selection in the first round of that day's Major League Rule 5 Draft.

- > Was on the disabled list from April 16-end of season of 2009...had "Tommy John" ligament transplant surgery on his right elbow in June and missed the rest of the season.
- Missed most of the 2008 season with two DL stints...was on the DL May 11-28 with a right triceps strain and June 11-end of season with a right shoulder strain.
- Combined to go 4-1 with a 2.08 ERA (13er, 56.1ip) for the Arizona Angels (Rookie) and Orem (Short-A) in 2007...had 14 walks against 55 strikeouts in his first professional
- > Tossed 3.1 shutout innings over three appearances for Orem in the playoffs, recording two saves...Orem went 4-0 in the postseason en route to the league crown.

PERSONAL & MISCELLANEOUS

- Name is pronounced MAY-sin TOH-bin.
- > Played at both Western Nevada Community College and Everett (WA) CC after graduating from Kentridge High School in Kent, Wash.
- Was drafted by Atlanta twice previously: 15th round in 2005 and in the 45th round in 2006...was a draft-andfollow selection both times for the Braves, but was never signed.

2012 SEASON

- > In his first and only season with the Mets, batted .230 (86-for-374) with 17 doubles and 35 RBI in 132 games.
- Missed a total of 53 games due to a left hamate fracture and strained left calf...therefore, he posted career lows in nearly every offensive category.
- > Strained his left calf on Opening Day, April 5...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on April 7...first injured the calf on March 20 vs. Washington...returned to the active roster on April 30.
- > Snapped a career-worst 0-for-18 skid with a 9th inning single on August 20 vs. Colorado.
- > Finished with a .380 on-base percentage as a righthanded hitter...hit .286 (42-148) as a righty.
- > Hit .326 (14-43) with 16 RBI and seven walks with runners in scoring position and two outs.
- > Left the game on September 7 with a bruised left knee, but returned to action on September 9.
- > Was one of 14 players in the Majors with at least two games where he hit a home run and tripled in the same game...joined teammate Scott Hairston in trailing league leaders Aaron Hill and Ryan Braun, who did it three times...no Mets player has ever done it more than twice in a season, and before 2012 the last with two such games was Jose Reyes in 2006.
- > Was one of 10 qualifying major league center fielders to make two errors or less.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- > Made the Giants 2011 Opening Day roster for the third time.
- > Started 78 games (all in centerfield) and committed just three errors in 213 chances...had six assists.
- > Led the Giants in stolen bases (19).
- > Injured his left Achilles on April 9 and was placed on the DL on April 15...missed 26 games before he was reinstated on May 10.
- Hit his first career grand slam on May 30 at St. Louis vs. Kyle McClellan...his four RBI in that game matched his career-high.
- > Was placed on the DL a second time from August 13-August 28, with a right leg contusion.

- > Led all National League outfielders with a .997 fielding percentage (one error in 322 chances) in 2010.
- > Finished fourth in the NL in doubles (43), which was tied for the sixth most in Giants history.
- Also tied for 10th in the league with 67 extra-base hits and was tied for 11th in the NL in stolen bases (26).
- > Matched his career-high with four hits and recorded his first inside-the-park home run (off Jason Hammel) on July 4 at Colorado.
- > Finished the 2010 postseason on an eight-game hitting streak, batting .406 (13-32) with four doubles, one home run and three RBI during that span.
- > Made the 2009 Opening Day roster for the first time in his career
- > Led the Giants in triples (eight) which was tied for eighth in the NL.
- Hit his first major league home run, September 14, 2003 vs. Kansas City (off Jimmy Gobble).
- Made his Major League debut on April 7, 2002 vs. Cleveland, collecting a triple off CC Sabathia for his first big league hit.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the Pacific Coast League in stolen bases and finished second in triples in 2008.
- > In 2007 he spent his first season in the Detroit Tigers organization since 2004.
- > Spent the entire season with the Minnesota Twins' Rochester (AAA) team of the International League in 2006.
- His 2005 season was limited to 23 total games because of a right shoulder sprain and a right abdomen strain.
- > On July 2, 2001, he was placed on the disabled list for the remainder of the season with a torn labrum in his right shoulder...had surgery on July 17.
- Named to Florida League All-Star team in 2000.

PERSONAL & MISCELLANEOUS

- Name is pronounced AHN-drays TOER-ehz.
- > Married (Soannie)...son, Diego (June 19, 2004).
- > Andres Torres, Jr. graduated from Dr. Carlos Gonzalez (PR) High School.
- > Attended Miami-Dade Community College, where he played two seasons.
- > Was born in Paterson, NJ before moving to Aguada, Puerto Rico as a youngster.
- > A film documenting his life titled "Gigante" was released in the spring of 2012...the goal is to help increase awareness about A.D.H.D., a disease from which Torres struggles.
- > Goes by the nickname "Yungo."

Giants Gems

- Not surprisingly, given his spee sport through high school was track. He ran the 100 meters, 200 meters and the second leg of the 4x400 relay. His best time in the 100 was 10.37.
- > Perhaps no baseball player knows more about running fast than Torres. He has made the cultivation of speed his life's work. He studies human kinetics ates speed. He is a student of the books of Tudor Bompa, who writes about a training method called "periodization."
- He says he didn't play baseball seriously until he was almost 18 and a scout suggested he had the talent to be a professional.
- > He has a batting cage in the basement of his home in Puerto Rico.

- 2011 NL All-Star
- 2011 Willie Mac Award Winner
- Named 2011 Giants Breakout Player of the Year by MLB.com

2012 SEASON

- Posted a 14-9 record with a 3.37 ERA (71er, 189.2ip) and 158 strikeouts in 31 starts.
- Was the NL ERA leader as late as Aug. 12, fashioning a 2.27 figure, however over his last 10 starts, he posted a 6.75 ERA, raising his season figure from 2.27 to his final 3.37 mark, rising more than a full point...he finished the season ranked 11th in the NL in ERA.
- His 14 victories, 31 starts and 158 strikeouts in 2012 were all career-highs.
- His 3.37 ERA in 2012 trailed only Matt Cain among Giants' starting pitchers.
- > Tossed 6.0-or-more innings in his first 21 outings to begin the season, tying Atlee Hammaker for the third-longest streak to begin a campaign in Giants history (since 1918).
- > Missed the first four weeks of spring training and began the season on the 15-day disabled list with a strained lower back, which he injured while doing squats in the first week of February back home...appeared in just one Cactus League game and several minor league games before the Giants broke camp.
- > Fashioned the lowest ERA in the Majors during the month of May (1.51 ERA), allowing just seven earned runs in 41.2 innings...allowed just one earned run-or-fewer in five of his last six contests in May.
- > His 22 quality starts were tied for the eighth-most in the NL.
- > Had a run of 16-straight quality starts from May 3-July 29...it ranked as the second-longest stretch in Giants' history, but is the longest for a single season.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- > On his first career postseason roster, Vogelsong went 3-0 with a 1.09 ERA (3er, 24.2ip) in four starts.
- Became the second Giants pitcher in the last 100 years to have three straight starts of allowing one earned run or fewer in a single postseason...the only other Giant to accomplish this feat over that span was Matt Cain in 2010.

> Started Game 6 of the LCS vs. St. Louis and struck out a career-high nine batters through 7.0 innings of work in the Giants' 6-1 victory, forcing a decisive Game 7.

2011 SEASON

- Had storybook season after an odyssey that included stops in 10 minor league cities, plus San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Japan and Venezuela over 14 professional seasons.
- Named to his first-ever All-Star team in 2011, Vogelsong went 13-7 with a 2.71 ERA (54er, 179.2ip) in 30 games (28 starts) for San Francisco, by far his best season in his professional career.
- Was also named the 2011 Willie Mac Award winner.
- His 13 wins were career-high and the most he's ever had at any professional level in his career.
- Finished fourth in the National League with a 2.71 ERA.
- > Owned the league's lowest ERA for a brief stretch, holding the lead for a total of 15 days in 2011.
- His 2.15 ERA (26er, 109.0ip) at home was the third-lowest figure in the NL behind Kershaw (1.69) and Lee (1.94)... among Giants starting pitchers, his home ERA was the second-lowest in AT&T Park history for a single season, trailing Tim Lincecum's 1.88 mark in 2009.
- > Won nine of his first 10 decisions, going 9-1 with a 2.19 ERA through his first 20 games (18 starts), but then 4-6 with a 3.62 figure in his final 10 starts.
- Received the most run support among Giants' starters, averaging 4.26 runs per game.
- A non-roster invitee to Giants' spring camp, Vogelsong had his contract purchased from triple-A Fresno on April 17, taking the roster spot of LHP Barry Zito, who landed on the 15-day disabled list for the first time in his career.
- Had made just two starts for triple-A Fresno, going 2-0 with a 1.59 ERA (2er, 11.1ip).
- > Made his first Major League appearance since 2006 and his first as a Giant since 2001 when he relieved Tim Lincecum on April 18 at Colorado.
- Worked 4.1-scoreless innings of relief before sliding into SF's starting rotation.

- > Made his first start for the Giants on April 28 at Pittsburgh, the team that Vogelsong played for from 2001-06...marked his first start in the big leagues since Sept. 29, 2004 at Philadelphia...proceeded to toss 5.2 innings, allowing two runs on four hits to help SF earn a 5-2 victory...tied his career-high with eight Ks.
- Went 2,412 days between wins as a starter...prior to Vogelsong, the last pitcher to go as long as that between wins as a starter was Brian Tallett (2,412 days, Sept. 16, 2002-April 24, 2009).
- > Took a perfect game into the 6th inning in his start on May 8 at Colorado...lost his no-hitter after giving up a clean leadoff single to Chris lannetta, his only hit allowed through 6.1 innings of work...his 5.0 innings without allowing a hit was his longest he had taken a no-hitter in his career.
- > Was credited with his first career Major League complete game on May 14 at Chicago-NL, tossing 6.0-shutout innings in a 6.0-inning rain-shortened game.
- > Had nine-consecutive starts of allowing two runs-orfewer from May 8-June 22...that streak tied Jason Schmidt (2006) and Bill Swift (1992) for the secondlongest in SF-era history for a single season...Juan Marichal holds record with 10-straight games of allowing two runs-or-fewer in 1966.
- For the first time in his career was selected to the All-Star team by manager Bruce Bochy...according to Elias, the only other player to make an All-Star team in his first season after returning from a four-plus season absence was Mickey Harris of the Red Sox in 1946...Voglesong did not appear in the Mid-Summer Classic.
- On Aug. 3 vs. Arizona, he allowed one run in 6.0 innings to improve his record to 9-1 in the Giants' 8-1 victory...it was Vogelsong's 12th-consecutive undefeated start, allowing no more than three earned runs in any of them...only one other Giants pitcher compiled such a single-season streak that long during 99 seasons in which earned runs have been officially compiled: Al Demaree in 1913 (18 straight starts).
- Was named the Willie Mac Award winner prior to the game on Sept. 9 vs. Los Angeles...annual honor is bestowed upon most inspirational player on team, as voted upon by Giants players, coaches, training staff and fans.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- > In 2010, he signed a minor league deal with Philadelphia and was released on July 16, then signed a minor league deal with the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim July 27.
- Made his second-straight Opening Day roster in 2005, pitching exclusively from the Pirates' bullpen.
- > Made his first career Opening Day roster with Pittsburgh in 2004 and pitched the entire season at the Major League level, going 6-13 with a 6.50 ERA (96er, 133.0ip) in 31 games (26 starts).
- > Pitched 5.0-scoreless innings to earn his first big league win on Sept. 15, 2003 vs. Cincinnati.
- > In 2001, played for both San Francisco and Pittsburgh after being traded in the middle of the season with OF Armando Rios in exchange for RHP Jason Schmidt and OF John Vander Wal.

Giants Gems

- Ryan graduated in 1995 from Octorara Area High school (1000 students) in Atglen, PA, where he played baseball, basketball and soccer.
- Went to Kutztown University in Kutztown, PA, in rural Berks County.
- He's just the second player from Pennsylvania's Kutztown University to reach the Majors. The other was Harry Hoch, who pitched for the Philadelphia Phillies and St. Louis Browns from 1908 to 1915.
- A few starts into his first season with the Pirates, Ryan required Tommy John surgery. It kept him on the sidelines through the 2003 season.

Played there 2007, 2008 and 2009. He'd watch MLB games every day before he went to the ballpark (they were broadcast in the middle of the day).

Vogelsong has been a part owner of Marucci Bat Company since 2004. It's based in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He says when baseball is over, he'll likely go to work full time for the company.

- > Was recalled by Pittsburgh July 1, 2001 and left his start Sept. 9 vs. Cincinnati with pain in his right elbow...had "Tommy John" surgery performed on his right elbow Sept. 20 by Dr. James Andrews.
- Made his Major League debut as Sept. call-up with San Francisco in 2000 after pitching the entire year at double-A Shreveport, going 6-10 with a 4.23 ERA (73er, 155.1ip) with 147 strikeouts in 27 starts.
- > Had his contract selected by SF on Sept. 1, 2000 and made his ML debut in relief on Sept. 2 vs. Chicago-NL (2.0 IP, 0 R).

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- > From 2007-09 he played in the Japanese League, playing for the Orix Buffaloes in 2009 and the Hanshin Tigers from 2007-08
- In 2003, finished tied for third in the Pacific Coast League in wins (12) and was second in strikeouts (146).
- > Began the 2002 season recovering from Tommy John surgery and eventually pitched for Class A Advanced Lynchburg and double-A Altoona.
- > Was traded to Pittsburgh July 30, 2001 and assigned to triple-A Nashville.
- Combined to go 4-6 with a 3.68 ERA (42er, 98.0ip) in 19 starts between Class A Advanced San Jose and double-A Shreveport in 1999.
- > Made his pro debut in 1998 with short-season Salem-Keizer and also pitched for Class A Advanced San Jose, combining for 6-1 record with 3.24 ERA (27er, 75.0ip) in 14 starts with 92 strikeouts.

PERSONAL & MISCELLANEOUS

2012 SEASON

- Posted a 15-8 record with a 4.15 ERA (85er, 184.1ip) and one complete game in 32 starts, his best campaign in a Giants uniform.
- His 15 wins were the most he's ever had with the Giants and the most he's had in a campaign since winning 16 games with the A's in 2006.
- The Giants went 21-11 (.656) in his starts, matching Matt Cain for the most club victories in his starts.
- The Giants won his last 11 outings of the season...the last time SF won 11-consecutive starts by one of their pitchers was when they won 11-straight when Bill Swift started from April 6-June 27, 1992 (STATS, LLC).
- Went 7-0 with a 3.92 ERA (27er, 62.0ip) in his last 11 starts of the season...the Giants last lost a Zito start on Aug. 2 vs. New York-NL.
- Finished the season with a seven-game win streak which marked his longest win streak in a Giants uniform and his longest since an eight-game win streak from June 28-Aug. 4, 2005 (with Oakland).
- Received an average of 5.96 runs of support in his starts, the highest average on the Giants' staff and the thirdhighest figure in the NL.
- Tossed his fifth career complete game shutout in his very first start of 2012, allowing just four hits with no walks in the Giants' 7-0 win at Colorado...ended his streak of 274 consecutive starts without a shutout, the third-longest drought in Major League history...he became just the ninth opponent and first Giant to throw a shutout at Coors Field.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Had an outstanding 2012 postseason, going 2-0 with a 1.69 ERA (3er, 16.0ip) in three starts.
- Had his best start in a Giants uniform in Game 5 of the LCS at St. Louis, tossing 7.2-scoreless innings with one BB and six Ks in the Giants' 5-0 possible elimination game victory.
- Became just the fourth Giants pitcher to not allow a run with one or fewer walks in 7.0-or-more innings in a postseason game during the live ball era (since 1920)...

- the other Giants pitchers to accomplish the feat are: Tim Lincecum (2010 NLDS vs. Atlanta), Jason Schmidt (2003 NLDS vs. Florida) and Jack Scott (1922 WS vs. New York-AL) (Elias).
- Made his first-ever World Series appearance in Game 1 vs. Detroit, matching up with Justin Verlander.
- Zito ended his season with the Giants winning his last 14 starts, including all three in the postseason.

- Had an injury plagued season for the first time in his career and spent most of the season either on the disabled list or in the minors.
- Went 3-4 with a 5.87 ERA (35er, 53.2ip) in 13 games (nine starts) at the Major League level, his fewest games he's ever appeared in the big leagues.
- The night before Opening Day was in a two-car wreck in West Hollywood, traveling through an intersection on Sunset Blvd., when a taxi ran a light while trying to make a left turn...was examined by a head and neck specialist at Cedars Sinai Medical Center and X-rays came back negative.
- Pitching four days after his violent collision, Zito showed little effects of whiplash, allowing just three runs on three hits through 6.0 innings in his first start of the season on April 3 at Los Angeles-NL...did not receive a decision.
- Two starts later on April 16 at Arizona, left in the 2nd inning after fielding a pop out bunt from pitcher Joe Saunders...made one pitch after that and after team athletic trainer Dave Groeschner examined him, he was removed from the game...was later diagnosed with a right mid foot sprain (X-rays came back negative), that placed him on the 15-day disabled list the next day... his 12-year career streak of never missing a start due to an injury came to an end as he made his first-ever appearance on the disabled list.
- Traveled back to San Francisco following the series with the D-Backs to have his ankle examined by team doctors...X-rays ruled out a fracture, but had to wear an

- immobilization boot for two weeks.
- > Was examined by Carolina Panthers' team orthopedist, Dr. Robert Anderson on April 27 in North Carolina and was told he could begin bearing weight on his foot and no longer had to wear an immobilization
- > Made four rehab starts (two with Class A Advanced San Jose and two with triple-A Fresno) from June 6-25...returned from his rehab assignment and was activated off the disabled list on June 25.
- Was placed on the disabled list for the second time on Aug. 1 after re-injuring his sprained right ankle.
- Making a rehab start for triple-A Fresno on Aug. 13, he had to be helped off field after re-injuring his ankle again...turned his right ankle while running towards home to back up plate on ground ball to right field...X-rays came back negative.
- Was activated from the 15-day disabled list on Sept. 11... missed a total of 91 games due to the injury.
- > Was moved to the bullpen for the third time in his career (also Aug., 2007 and Aug. 2010) after returning from his second DL stint and made four relief appearances for Giants.

- After a strong start to the season, Zito struggled down the stretch, finishing campaign with a 9-14 record and A 4.15 ERA (92er, 199.1ip) in 34 games (33 starts).
- > Did not reach the double-digit win plateau for the first time since his rookie season in 2000...snapped nine-straight years of 10-plus victories per season.
- Kicked off campaign by posting perfect 5-0 record in his first six starts...became the first Giants pitcher to win his first five decisions in a season since Noah Lowry in 2004.
- After starting off 5-0, went just 4-14 with a 4.87 ERA (85er, 157.0ip) over his final 28 games (27 starts).
- Was 7-2 through his first 13 starts, matching the most wins he's ever had in his first 13 starts of a season...he was 7-2 through 13 starts in 2002 and 7-4 in 2003 (Elias).
- > Made just his second relief appearance of his career on Aug. 25 vs. Cincinnati, taking mound just three days after throwing 73 pitches in St. Louis...was summoned in the 12th inning of an 11-11 tie game, however gave up the winning run after Joey Votto drove in the game-winner with a ground ball single to right field.
- > Lost a career-high nine-straight decisions from July 21-Sept. 14, going 0-9 with a 5.00 ERA (35er, 63.0ip) in 12 games (11 starts)...nine-straight losses was the longest by a Giants pitcher for single a season since Terry Mulholland also dropped nine-straight from May 11-July 29, 1995.
- Was left off San Francisco's roster for the postseason.

- Went 10-13 with a 4.03 ERA (86er, 192.0ip) in 33 starts.
- Was tabbed with the Majors' second-lowest run support, receiving an avg. of just 3.38 runs (72rs, 192.0ip)...only Cincinnati's Aaron Harang had a lower mark (3.22).
- > On his ninth-straight Opening Day roster, Zito pitched as the Giants' #4 starter for the majority of the season.

Giants Gems

- Born in Las Vegas, Zito's parents, Roberta and Joe, were a show biz couple who met and married while working for Nat King Cole in the 1960s. Joe was Cole's conductor and arranger, Roberta (a classically trained violinist and pianist) was a signer in the star's backup group, the Merry Young Souls.
 - > Pitched an 8.0-inning complete game May 19 at San Diego, however was charged with the loss after surrendering a pair of solo home runs in Giants' 2-1 defeat...marked his 10th career complete game and first since Aug. 7, 2003 at Detroit, while pitching for Oakland.
 - > Had gone 185-straight starts without recording a complete game, which according to Elias, was the second-longest streak in Major League history, behind former Giant Kirk Rueter (193-straight starts without CG from 1999 to end of his career in 2005).
 - > Pitched one of his best games of the year on June 21 vs. Texas in SF's 3-2 victory at AT&T Park...took a nohitter into the 7th inning before allowing a two-run HR to Andruw Jones (his second batter faced in inning)... marked fourth time in his career to have a no-hitter through 6.0 innings.

- Giants' Opening Day starter (second straight year) went 10-17 with a 5.15 ERA (103er, 180.0ip) in 32 games (all starts) for San Francisco.
- > Lost a career-high 17 decisions, the most losses by a Giants pitcher since Dave LaPoint went 7-17 in 1985 was one loss shy of matching SF's record for losses in a season, set by Ray Sadecki in 1968 (18).
- > Set a franchise mark for the most losses prior to the All-Star Break with 12 defeats (first All-Star Game was in
- > Was removed from the rotation for one turn following his April 27 start, marking the first time in his career that he missed a start.
- Opened year 0-6 with a 7.53 ERA in first seven outings... became one of only three pitchers since 1956 to have an 0-6 record through the month of April, joining Dave Stewart (1984) and Mike Maroth (2003)...was also the first Giant since Rod Beck went 0-9 in 1996 to drop his first six decisions.

- Suffered his first losing season of his career, going 11-13 with a 4.53 ERA (99er, 196.2ip) in 34 games (33 starts).
- Led Giants in starts, while placing second in wins, innings, and avg. against (.244)...was also third on staff with 131 strikeouts
- > Was third SF hurler to make his Giants debut in Opening Day assignment, joining Mike Krukow (1983 vs. SD) and Bill Swift (1992 at LA).
- > Posted his first win in a SF uniform April 6 at Colorado, tossing 6.0-scoreless frames in an 8-0 victory...was only the second SF shutout in Coors Field history.

- Made first career relief appearance (regular or post season) Aug. 5 in San Diego, working a perfect 7th inning.
- Led pitching staff in batting avg., while tying for lead for hits by pitchers with Matt Morris...collected his first NL hit May 7, a single off NY's Oliver Perez.

- Went 16-10 with a 3.83 ERA in 34 starts during All-Star campaign for Oakland.
- Tied for eighth in AL for victories, while ranking 10th in the league for ERA and third for innings pitched (221.0)... paced junior circuit in starts, while finishing third by inducing 31 double-play grounders.
- Walked 99 batters, the second-most in the AL...also matched his Oakland single-season record for the third time with 13 hit batsmen, the third-highest total in the AL.
- Was a 10-game winner for the sixth consecutive season, joining Catfish Hunter (7), Tim Hudson (6), Dave Stewart (6) and Vida Blue (6) as the only Oakland pitchers with six or more 10-win seasons.
- Made his second consecutive Opening Day start April 3 against the Yankees, becoming just the ninth pitcher in Oakland history to take ball in at least two lid-lifters.
- Struck out Minnesota's Lew Ford in the 6th inning of his June 1 start for 1,000th career punchout.
- Matched career high with 11 strikeouts during 7-3 victory June 16 against Dodgers.
- Picked up 100th career win in Oakland's 9-3 victory at Texas on August 25...took a no-hitter into the 8th inning for the third time in his career.

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Turned in dominating performance in Game 1 of the ALDS at Minnesota, outdueling Cy Young Award winner Johan Santana in a 3-1 A's victory...allowed just 1 run in 8.0 innings, propelling Oakland to 3-game sweep...however, was on losing end of ALCS Game 1 to Detroit.

2005

- Went 14-13 with 3.86 ERA in 35 starts.
- Tied for AL lead in starts, while ranking second in opponents batting avg. (.221), third in innings pitched (228.1) and fifth in strikeouts (171).
- Made his first career Opening Day start, taking ball April 4 at Baltimore.
- Recorded his first big league hit June 7 at Washington, singling off Tony Armas, Jr.
- > Earned AL Pitcher of the Month honors for July after going 6-0 with 2.51 ERA (12er, 43.0ip) in 6 starts.

2004

- > Was an even 11-11 with a 4.48 ERA in 34 starts for the A's.
- Managed to post a 7-4 record with a 4.32 ERA (49er, 102.0ip) in 16 starts after the All-Star Break...in fact, went 3-3 with a 3.76 ERA (22er, 64.2ip) and .213 avg. against (51-for-239) over his final 10 efforts.

 Named to his second-consecutive All-Star team during campaign in which he ranked seventh in the AL with a 3.30 ERA. Picked up his 50th career win April 18 at Texas, tossing a complete-game, six-hit shutout in his 88th ML start... became the second-fastest Athletic to reach the 50-win plateau, behind only Rube Waddell (79 starts).

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Made a pair of starts against Boston in the ALDS, going 1-1 with a 3.46 ERA.
- Worked 7.0 brilliant innings in Oakland's 5-1, Game 2 victory, yielding just one run on five hits with nine strikeouts.

2002

- Sculpted AL Cy Young Award-winning season, going 23-5 with a 2.75 ERA in 35 starts.
- Became fifth Athletic to win honor, and first since Dennis Eckersley in 1992.
- Won award at age of 24, becoming the youngest Cy Young recipient since Boston's Roger Clemens in 1986 (also 24 years old).
- Was also named AL Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News and Major League Baseball Alumni Association.
- Honored as NLBM Satchel Paige Legacy Award AL Pitcher of the Year.
- Established an Oakland record with an amazing .821 winning percentage, surpassing mark of .818 set by Bob Welch in 1990 (27-6).
- Led the AL in victories with fourth-best single-season total in Oakland history.
- Marked 17th 20-win campaign in Oakland history, while he became the ninth Oakland hurler to reach milestone... victory total was most by AL left-hander since Frank Viola won 24 games for Minnesota in 1988, and was secondhighest output by southpaw in Oakland annals (Vida Blue logged 24 wins in 1971).

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Won his lone post season start, defeating the Twins by a 6-3 count in Game 3 at the Metrodome.

2001

- Started slowly in first full big league season, but dominated AL hitters over his final two months of campaign.
- Was named AL Pitcher of the Month for both Aug. and Sept....ended up with a 17-8 record and 3.49 ERA in 35 starts overall.
- Became the fourth Oakland pitcher, and just the second left-hander, to compile 200 strikeouts in a season with a career-best 205 whiffs...in fact, became just the fifth southpaw in Athletics franchise history to reach the 200-strikeout plateau (Rube Waddell, Eddie Plank, Lefty Grove and Vida Blue).

POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Turned in dominating performance in Game 3 of ALDS, but was losing pitcher in 1-0 decision to Yankees...tossed 8.0 innings of two-hit, one-run ball vs. eventual AL champs.

2000

Made stellar 14-start ML debut, going 7-4 with a 2.72 ERA for Oakland.

National League Division Series

1997 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS

(Marlins win series, 3 games to 0)

San Francisco won its first National League West title since 1989 to become only the fourth team during the 20th century to win its division after finishing in last place the previous season.

The Giants outdueled the Dodgers in a classic pennant race for the N.L. West flag. Perhaps the crowning moment of San Francisco's magical ride came Sept. 18 when catcher Brian Johnson led off the 12th inning with a game-winning clout off Los Angeles' Mark Guthrie to put the Giants in a first place tie with nine games remaining.

New General Manager Brian Sabean revamped the Giants roster, bringing in 15 players who were not in the organization at the end of the 1996 campaign. He shocked the baseball world by acquiring All-Star pitchers Wilson Alvarez and Roberto Hernandez and 18-year Major League veteran pitcher Danny Darwin from the Chicago White Sox in exchange for six minor leaguers at the July 31 trading deadline.

The renewed Giants made their first post season appearance in eight years when they faced National League wild card entry Florida Marlins in the Division Series. Despite losing all three games of the series, San Francisco gave Florida its toughest test en route to its first World Championship.

Both Games #1 and #2 came down to the last at-bat, with Florida taking advantage of being the home club and posting 2-1 and 7-6 victories, respectively.

Despite two solo home runs by Giants' second baseman Jeff Kent in Game #3, the Marlins finished off the sweep on the strength of Devon White's 6th inning grand slam off Alvarez.

2000 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS

(Mets win series, 3 games to 1)

San Francisco won its second National League West title in four years as the club posted a Major League-best 97-65 mark, only to see its October run stopped short by the Wild Card New York Mets, a club that would eventually win the NL flag.

The Giants enjoyed a truly magical regular season, its first in its new jewel of a home, AT&T Park. Playing in front of 81 straight sellouts that accounted for a franchise-record 3,244,320 fans, San Francisco rattled off a 55-26 ledger, matching the Mets for the best home mark in the majors.

Dusty Baker won his third NL Manager of the Year award after guiding his troops to a Major League-best 51-26 record after the All-Star Break, resulting in an 11-game cushion, the Giants' largest winning margin since 1913.

San Francisco produced its most prolific offensive attack in 70 years, led by National League Most Valuable Player Jeff Kent. Teammate Barry Bonds, who finished second in the MVP voting, clubbed 49 clouts.

The Giants jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the NLDS with a 5-1 victory in front of a raucous Game #1 crowd at AT&T Park. Livan Hernandez held New York to one run over 7.2 innings while Ellis Burks clubbed a three-run, third-inning homer off the left field foul pole.

J.T. Snow's dramatic three-run, pinch homer in the bottom of the ninth tied Game #2 4-4, but the Mets would rally to win 5-4 in 10 innings and even the series at a game apiece.

Unfortunately for San Francisco, its offense went south when the club went east, as the Giants could manage only two runs in 22 innings at Shea Stadium. New York's Benny Agbayani gave the Mets a 3-2 victory in Game #3 with a 13th inning solo home run, and Bobby Jones hurled a one-hit shutout for a 4-0 win in the Game #4 clincher.

2002 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES

(Giants win series, 3 games to 2)

Following a 3-0 loss at Florida on August 18th, a stagnant San Francisco club stood at 66-56, four games behind Los Angeles in the NL Wild Card chase. From then on, the Giants would play like champions, going 29-10 down the stretch to capture the league's fourth playoff spot by three and a half contests over the Dodgers.

Despite a 95-win campaign that tied for the fourth-most victories in San Francisco history, the Giants entered the NLDS as heavy underdogs to the Atlanta Braves, who captured their 11th-consecutive division crown by an astounding 19.0-game margin.

Undaunted by their opponents and buoyed by the right arm of starter Russ Ortiz, the Giants stormed into Turner Field and won the series opener by an 8-5 count as Rich Aurilia, Benito Santiago and J.T. Snow all collected two RBI apiece.

Yet, the hope of Game #1 quickly turned into despair, as Atlanta backed the stout pitching of Kevin Millwood and Greg Maddux, respectively, with 17 combined runs in a pair of routs to take a 2-1 series lead.

Facing the prospect of a long winter, San Francisco turned to past playoff hero Livan Hernandez to work his magic once again in Game #4 at AT&T Park. The big right-hander responded by hurling 8.1-strong innings, while Aurilia finished 3-for-4 with a homer and four RBI as the Giants won 8-3 to force a return trip to Atlanta.

In the decisive Game #5, Barry Bonds exorcised his demons of post season past, singling and scoring the Giants' first run in the second and clubbing an opposite-field, solo homer in the fourth that gave SF a 2-0 lead. Ortiz became the first Giants pitcher to win two games in the same post season series since Carl Hubbell went 2-0 in the 1933 World Series, yet San Francisco's 3-1 victory was in doubt until the end. With two men on and none out in the ninth, closer Robb Nen struck out Gary Sheffield then induced Chipper Jones to ground into a series-ending double play.

2003 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS

(Marlins win series, 3 games to 1)

For the first time since 1936-37, the Giants earned consecutive appearances in post season play, as the club won its third National League West title in seven years and became only the second team in franchise history to go wire-to-wire with an overall finish of 100-61.

A flurry of offseason moves brought new faces to San Francisco as the team introduced first year manager Felipe Alou and four new starters to the lineup. The revamped club breezed by their opposition, ending their campaign 15.5 games ahead of the Dodgers for the Giants' largest advantage in 91 years.

General Manager Brian Sabean garnered Executive of the Year accolades for constructing the team with the third best record in baseball and Barry Bonds earned his unprecedented 6th National League Most Valuable Player Award.

Headed into Game #1 of the NLDS rested and primed for success, pitching ace Jason Schmidt thrived in the intense atmosphere at AT&T Park, tossing a complete-game three-hitter as the Giants blanked the visiting Marlins 2-0.

A sudden turn of events plagued the Giants in Game #2, as San Francisco saw their 4-1 lead quickly vanish as Gold Glovers made costly miscues and the Marlins escaped AT&T Park with a 9-5 win.

Knotted up at 1-1, both teams headed to South Florida, but the Giants' run of bad luck seemed to follow. After taking a 3-2 advantage in the 11th inning of Game #3, SF let the Marlins slip back into the contest after a dropped fly ball by Jose Cruz, Jr. allowed the tying run on base. With 2 out, the bases loaded and a 1-2 count on Ivan Rodriguez, Tim Worrell's next pitch was drilled into right field for a game-winning, 2-run single.

In Game #4, San Francisco's furious comeback in the 9th fell short as J.T. Snow was thrown out at the plate on Jeffrey Hammonds' 2-out single to left, giving the Marlins a 7-6 victory and ending the Giants' hopes for another playoff run.

2010 -- SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES

(Giants win series, 3 games to 1)

After clinching the 2010 NL West Crown in the final game of the regular season, the Giants entered the NL Division Series at home vs. the Atlanta Braves. In order to get there, Giants' General Manager Brian Sabean had built a pitching staff that led the Majors in ERA with a 3.36 figure, while also revamping his offense throughout the season by acquiring difference making outfielders Pat Burrell and Cody Ross as well as bringing up eventual 2010 NL Rookie of the Year Buster Posey from the minor leagues in late May.

San Francisco made a push for the 2010 NL West Title on August 27. Entering that day, SF was 6.0 games back of the San Diego Padres, however the Giants were red hot in the season's final month, posting an 18-8 record, which was the second best winning percentage in baseball.

The Giants would win the NLDS over the Braves 3-games-to-1 behind their stalwart pitching as all four games in the series were decided by a one-run margin, which marked the first time in postseason history in which every game was decided by one run. The pitching staff posted a 1.66 ERA as Tim Lincecum was dominant in his postseason debut, tossing a two-hit, 14-strikeout shutout during the Giants' 1-0 win in Game #1.

San Francisco lost Game #2 as the Braves' Rick Ankiel hit a splash hit home run in the top of the 11th frame to help Atlanta pull ahead 5-4.

The next two games were won in dramatic fashion as SF rallied past the Braves 3-2 in Game #3, thanks in part to three fielding errors by Atlanta second baseman Brooks Conrad.

Madison Bumgarner came up aces in Game #4 as he held Atlanta to two runs in 6.0 innings in his postseason debut. However, it was Cody Ross who played hero in the clinching game as he homered in the 6th inning to break up Derek Lowe's no-hit bid, while also driving in the go-ahead run in the 7th inning as SF won 3-2 and clinched their first Division series since 2002.

2012 -- SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CINCINNATI REDS

(Giants win series, 3 games to 2)

The 2012 edition of the Giants won the division title despite crushing injuries and unexpected slumps. All-Star closer Brian Wilson was lost for the year after a second Tommy John surgery, Freddy Sanchez never returned after battling back and shoulder issues, Melky Cabrera, acquired in the offseason, was lost in mid-August after testing positive for testosterone and two-time Cy Young award winner Tim Lincecum was having the worst season of his career.

Meanwhile, the Dodgers, with an influx of cash, shook the baseball world with a nine player trade with the Red Sox, centered around slugger Adrian Gonzalez going back to the West Coast.

However, All-Star catcher and 2012 MVP Buster Posey, along with mid-season acquisitions Marco Scutaro and Hunter Pence, ignited the Giants and after trailing the Dodgers by 7.5 games as late as May 28, they slowly chipped away and ended up winning the West by a whopping 8.0 games, their second division title in the last three seasons.

Their first round opponent in the playoffs, the Cincinnati Reds, led by Joey Votto and Brandon Phillips, stormed into San Francisco and took the first two games from the Giants, winning by scores of 5-2 and 9-0. Facing the daunting task of being down 2-0 in the best-of-five division series, the Giants now had to win three consecutive games on the road, something that had never been accomplished in baseball postseason history.

With all the local and national media counting the Giants out, Hunter Pence stood up and fired up his teammates with a football-like huddle and rallying speech in the dugout prior to Game #3, a game in which SF won 2-1, avoiding a sweep.

In Game #4, Angel Pagan hit the first leadoff home run in Giants posteason history, and Gregor Blanco and Pablo Sandoval connected later for an 8-3 victory that evened the series at 2-2.

Not just any comeback would get SF back to playing for a pennant. It would take one of Giant proportions and Buster Posey helped make it happen as he hit the third grand slam in Giants' postseason history and San Francisco pulled off an unprecedented revival, moving to the LCS with a 6-4 victory over the Reds in the deciding Game #5.

National League Championship Series

1971 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PITTSBURGH PIRATES

(Pirates win series, 3 games to 1)

After winning its first National League West crown. San Francisco entered the National League Championship Series as the favorite against Eastern Division titlists Pittsburgh. The Giants had posted nine wins in 12 contests vs. the Pirates during the regular season.

However, the Giants ran into the hot hitting of Pirates' first baseman Bob Robertson, who clubbed four home runs to lead Pittsburgh to a three games-to-one series victory.

Since staff ace Juan Marichal pitched San Francisco to the NL West flag in its season finale at San Diego, future Hall of Famer Gaylord Perry got the call in Game #1. The right-hander scattered four runs (three earned) and nine hits over his complete game effort as Willie McCovey and Tito Fuentes each delivered two-run home runs in the fourth inning to power SF to a 5-4 victory.

Then Robertson took over. He clubbed a NLCS record three home runs in Game #2 to lead the Pirates to a 9-4 triumph. The first baseman finished 4-for-4 with four runs scored and five RBI as Pittsburgh's victory ended a six-game losing streak at Candlestick Park.

Marichal pitched a four-hitter when the playoffs shifted to Three Rivers Stadium for Game #3, but home runs by Robertson and Richie Hebner gave the Pirates a 2-1 victory behind Bob Johnson and Dave Guisti.

The Bucs advanced to the World Series when they tattooed Perry for seven runs and 10 hits over 5.2 innings in the fourth and final game of the series

1987 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(Cardinals win series, 4 games to 3)

The Giants became only the fourth team in Major League history since 1900 to finish first within two years of a 100-loss disaster. SF rattled off a 90-72 mark to win the 1987 National League West crown after going 62-100 in 1985.

San Francisco battled back from a five-game deficit on Aug. 7 and went 37-17 the rest of the way to capture its first NL West title in 16 years.

Jeffrey Leonard, whose "one-flap-down" home run trot was the story of the series, became the first player on a losing team to capture the NLCS MVP honor when he hit .417 with four home runs and five RBI despite the Giants falling to the Cardinals in seven games.

San Francisco split the first two games of the series in St. Louis, with Dave Dravecky-who was acquired from the San Diego Padres in a sevenplayer deal on July 4-shutting out the Cardinals on two hits in Game #2.

When the series moved to Candlestick Park, the Giants took a 4-0, fifth inning advantage in Game #3 but the Cardinals roared back to post a 6-5 victory and take a 2-1 lead in the series.

Leonard responded by crushing a two-run clout in the fifth inning of the fourth game to push San Francisco to a series-evening 4-2 triumph. His four homers in four games tied the Championship Series record for a league playoff of any duration.

The Giants took a three games-to-two series advantage back to St. Louis after posting a 6-3 victory in the fifth contest. However, San Francisco didn't score a run in either of the last two games.

1989 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CHICAGO CUBS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 1)

Will Clark carried the Giants to their first NL pennant in 27 years when San Francisco defeated the Chicago Cubs in five games.

Clark provided offensive bookends in the series, starting with six RBI in the opener and ending with a two-out, bases-loaded, series-winning two-run single in the eighth inning of Game #5. "Will the Thrill" established new NLCS standards for average (.650), hits (13), runs (eight), total bases (24) and slugging percentage (1.200).

Included in those opening-game six RBI for Clark was his fourth-inning grand slam off Cubs' starter Greg Maddux, which gave San Francisco an 8-3 lead. The Giants' first baseman finished the contest 4-for-4 with four runs scored, a double and two home runs.

The Cubs claimed victory in Game #2, so the series headed to San Francisco tied a game apiece. However, Robby Thompson clubbed a two-run, seventh-inning homer off Les Lancaster to give the Giants a 5-4 victory in the third game.

In one of the most intense at-bats in Giants' post season history in Game #4, Matt Williams locked up with lefty Steve Wilson in a 12-pitch plate appearance that resulted in a two-run blast which propelled San Francisco to a 6-4 victory.

As broadcaster Hank Greenwald said, "27 years of waiting have come to an end" when the Giants posted a 3-2 come-from-behind victory in Game #5. Clark once again delivered the gamewinner, a two-run single up the spine of the infield off Mitch "Wild Thing" Williams.

2002 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 1)

Following a furious late-season run to capture the Wild Card berth and a stirring five-game NLDS victory over Atlanta, the Giants provided the only truly fitting encore—they won the club's first NL pennant in 13 years by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in a scintillating and highly competitive five-contest NLCS.

San Francisco began its run to the Fall Classic by winning each of the first two contests in St. Louis. The Giants pounded Cardinals ace Matt Morris early and often en route to a 9-6 victory in Game #1, while Jason Schmidt turned in a dominating Game #2 performance. The right-hander struck out eight and carried a shutout into the eighth inning, while Rich Aurilia's two-homer, three-RBI effort spurred a 4-1 triumph.

Despite Barry Bonds' dramatic three-run, fifthinning homer into McCovey Cove that briefly tied Game #3 at AT&T Park, a solo clout by St. Louis' Eli Marrero and stingy pitching by the Cardinal bullpen gave the visitors a 5-4 win and renewed hope.

St. Louis jumped out to a 2-0, first-inning lead in Game #4 and appeared on its way to evening the series until a pair of Giants veterans turned the tide. In the sixth, J.T. Snow delivered a two-out, two-run double that knotted the contest. Following a two-out intentional walk to Bonds in the eighth. Benito Santiago cemented his series MVP honors by clubbing a full-count offering from Rick White into the left field bleachers for a 4-2 lead. Robb Nen struck out the final two hitters in the ninth to strand the tying run at third and close out a 4-3 SF victory.

Giants' lefty Kirk Rueter and Morris engaged in a classic October pitchers' duel in a Game #5 that was scoreless until St. Louis broke through with a run in the seventh. Bonds tied the contest 1-1 with an eighth-inning sacrifice fly, thus setting the stage for one of the most dramatic moments in San Francisco history.

Morris retired the first two Giants hitters in the bottom of the ninth inning, but was chased by consecutive singles from David Bell and Shawon Dunston. St. Louis turned to reliever Steve Kline, and Kenny Lofton greeted the southpaw by lining his first pitch into right-center field for a single that scored a sliding Bell as the jubilant NL champion Giants poured onto the field.

2010 -- SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

(Giants win series, 4 games to 2)

The Giants again relied upon the strength of their pitching in the League Championship Series as they went on to win the best-of-seven LCS from the Phillies to clinch their 18th National League Pennant and fourth while in San Francisco.

Tim Lincecum outdueled Rov Halladav in Game #1 as Cody Ross hit a pair of solo home runs off of the eventual 2010 NL Cy Young award winner to help the Giants defeat the Phillies 4-3 in the opener.

Game #2 did not go as scripted for San Francisco as the Phillies' Roy Oswalt allowed just one run in 8.0 innings and Jimmy Rollins drove in four runs as the Phillies won 6-1. Cody Ross was the lone bright spot for Giants' offense as he connected for his third home run of the series, which tied the game at one apiece in the 5th inning.

San Francisco grabbed a 2-1 edge in Game #3 with a 3-0 shutout behind Matt Cain, who stymied the Phillies in 7.0 innings, allowing just two hits. The Giants scored in the fourth as once again it was Ross who delivered a run-scoring single, which helped cement his status as the NLCS MVP.

Juan Uribe delivered a walk-off sacrifice fly off Roy Oswalt with one out in the 9th inning as SF took Game #4 by a 6-5 count. Buster Posey also contributed offensively going 4-for-4 and becoming the first rookie in the San Francisco era and second in club history to record four hits in a postseason game.

The Giants entered Game #5 just one win away from clinching their 18th NL Pennant and had their ace on the mound with Lincecum. However. the Phillies countered with Roy Halladay, who was pitching with an injured right groin. The injury did not deter him as the Phillies won 4-2, which sent the series back to Philadelphia.

Early during Game #6 it appeared as if the series would go to 7 games, as Giants' starter Jonathan Sanchez worked just 2.0 innings, allowing a pair of runs. However, the bullpen was stellar, combining for 7.0-scoreless innings to keep the Giants in the game. Juan Uribe hit an opposite-field home run that barely cleared the right-field wall in the eighth inning, sending the Giants' dugout into a frenzy. Brian Wilson was called upon after Tim Lincecum, pitching in relief for the first time in his career, allowed consecutive one-out singles in the 8th. Wilson got Carlos Ruiz to lineout into a double-play to escape the frame. The Giants' closer then made things interesting in the ninth, issuing walks to Jimmy Rollins and Chase Utley, before striking out Ryan Howard looking to end the game.

2012 -- SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 3)

After a historic win over the Cincinnati Reds in the Division Series, the Giants faced the St. Louis Cardinals in the League Championship Series for the third time in postseason history. It marked the first time in LCS history that the previous two World Series winners had met.

The clubs split the first two games in San Francisco, with Carlos Beltran and David Freese each hitting two-run home runs to lift the Cardinals to a 6-4 victory in Game #1. In Game #2. Marco Scutaro hit a two-run single in San Francisco's four run fourth inning before leaving with a hip injury and the Giants received their first home win in the postseason, with a 7-1 victory to even the LCS at one game apiece.

The series shifted to St. Louis and the Cards took advantage of the home field as Matt Carpenter hit a two-run home run after subbing for Carlos Beltran, and the Cardinals chased Matt Cain before a three and a half hour rain delay in the seventh inning of a 3-1 Red Bird Game #3 win.

The Giants were routed 8-3 in Game #4. Adam Wainwright threw 7.0 innings of four-hit ball and St. Louis' offense roughed up Tim Lincecum and the Giants' bullpen.

Facing elimination for the fourth time in the 2012 postseason, the Giants' sent Barry Zito to the mound in Game #5 and the soft-tossing lefty was at his best, pitching San Francisco back into the series with a 5-0 win that narrowed SF's deficit to 3-2. Zito resembled the same guy who won the 2002 AL Cy Young Award with the A's, as he retired 11 consecutive batters in one stretch while striking out six in 7.2 innings.

Back in San Francisco for a Game #6, the Giants chased opposing starter Chris Carpenter to an early exit in their 6-1 victory that forced the series to a decisive Game #7. Ryan Vogelsong finished with nine strikeouts, a career-high for any game.

Hunter Pence got the Giants going with a weird double, Matt Cain pitched his second clincher of the postseason and the Giants closed out Game #7 of the LCS in a rainstorm, routing the Cardinals 9-0 to advance to the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history, the fifth time since moving to San Francisco and for the second time in the last three seasons.

San Francisco won its record-tying sixth elimination game of the postseason, completing a lopsided rally from a 3-1 deficit. Marco Scutaro recorded his sixth multi-hit game of the series and matched an LCS record with 14 hits and Pablo Sandoval drove in a run for his fifth straight game. After falling behind in the series 3-gamesto-1, the Giants outscored the Cardinals 20-1 over the final three games behind stellar pitching performances from Barry Zito, Ryan Vogelsong and Matt Cain.

World Series

1905 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 1)

The Fall Classic returned after a year's hiatus and Hall of Famer Christy Mathewson made it his showcase, leading the Giants to their first World Championship with three shutout victories.

The 25-year-old right-hander, who had 32 victories in 1905 to register his third straight 30-win season, shut down the Philadelphia Athletics in New York's five-game victory. In the space of six days, he pitched three shutouts and permitted just 14 hits overall.

Mathewson even played a part in the Giants' offense during a 3-0 Game #1 victory in Philadelphia. He ignited a two-run rally in the fifth inning to break open a scoreless contest, then went on to shut out the Athletics on four hits.

New York skipper John McGraw, who boycotted the 1904 World Series vs. the Boston Red Sox, didn't have to rely solely on Mathewson to get him the title. He also had Red Ames and Joe McGinnity, who won 22 and 21 games during the regular season, respectively, in his rotation.

Those two hurlers worked in Game #2, but McGinnity was ticketed with the defeat after surrendering three unearned runs in a 3-0 defeat.

Mathewson was staked to a 2-0, 1st inning lead in Game #3 and responded by blanking Philadelphia on four hits. First baseman Dan McGann was the Giants' big gun in the 9-0 romp, collecting two singles and a double while driving in four runs.

McGinnity rebounded from his Game #2 defeat to shut out Eddie Plank and Philadelphia in a classic 1-0 pitchers' duel in Game #4.

But it was Mathewson who got to finish off the job he started when he blanked the Athletics 2-0 in the fifth and deciding game.

1911 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(Athletics win series, 4 games to 2)

The "running" Giants, who established a league record with 347 stolen bases, perservered through the rebuilding of the Polo Grounds and posted 99 victories to capture the National League pennant. New York had to play its home games through early June at the park of the American League's New York Highlanders (later the Yankees) after the Polo Grounds burned to the ground in April.

However, New York's offense was limited to only four stolen bases in its six-game World Series defeat to the Philadelphia Athletics.

1905 Series hero Christy Mathewson still anchored John McGraw's pitching staff, going 26-13 during the regular season. The Hall of Famer got New York off to a great start vs. Philadelphia in Game #1 of the Fall Classic, tossing a six-hitter in the 2-1 triumph.

The Athletics rebounded to take Games #2 and #3 with Frank "Home Run" Baker clubbing dramatic home runs in both outings.

Then the rains came. The World Series was put on hold for six days due to Mother Nature.

When the Fall Classic resumed exactly a week after Game #3 had been played, Mathewson was outdueled by Chief Bender in a 4-2 decision that gave the Athletics a three-games-to-one advantage.

The Giants escaped the inevitable in Game #5 by scoring a 4-3 triumph in 10 innings before getting clobbered 13-2 in the series' sixth and final game.

1912 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. BOSTON RED SOX

(Red Sox win series, 4 games to 3 - 1 tie)

The Giants, bolstered by lefty Rube Marquard's modern Major League record 19-game winning streak, lived a storybook 1912 campaign. That's until the 10th inning of the final game of the World Series, when usually-reliable center fielder Fred Snodgrass dropped a fly ball that opened the door for a two-run Boston rally that gave the Red Sox the title.

New York, which featured two 20-game winners in Marquard (26) and Christy Mathewson (23), posted 103 victories during the regular season and coasted to the pennant with a ten-game cushion.

Newcomer Jeff Tesreau, who won 17 games for the Giants, got the nod in Game #1 but suffered a 4-3 defeat to the Red Sox.

Despite a see-saw contest that saw four lead changes, Game #2 was a wash as it was called due to darkness, thus making the 1912 World Series an eight-game affair.

The Giants evened the score in Game #3, posting a 2-1 victory behind Marquard before the Red Sox got the better of Tesreau again in the fourth contest, this time by a 3-1 count.

Trailing two-games-to-one, the Giants posted 5-2 and 11-4 wins, respectively, in Games #6 and #7.

The Series came down to the 10th inning of the eighth and final game, as the Giants and Red Sox were deadlocked at 1-1 after nine innings. New York took a 2-1 lead in the top half of the 10th before the wheels fell off in the bottom half. Boston pinch hitter Clyde Engle opened the frame with a routine fly ball that Snodgrass was camped under and then dropped.

Boston eventually won the game 3-2 on a sacrifice fly in the 10th and ruined New York's magical season.

1913 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(Athletics win series, 4 games to 1)

New York won its third straight National League flag, but couldn't get over the hump in the World Series for the third consecutive year, falling fourgames-to-one to the Philadelphia Athletics.

After winning the pennant with a twelve-game cushion, the Giants were beset by injuries during the Fall Classic. First baseman Fred Merkle was limited to 13 at-bats due to a bad leg. Center fielder Fred Snodgrass played in only two games and made three trips to the plate after suffering from a severe charley horse. Chief Meyers, the Giants' catcher, was shelved for the Series after suffering a fractured finger in practice preceeding Game #2.

The Athletics jumped out to a 1-0 series advantage after shelling Rube Marquard for five runs and eight hits in five innings for a 6-4 victory in the opener.

Once again, Christy Mathewson provided New York with a fine post season performance when he tossed a 3-0, 10-inning shutout in Game #2. He even drove in the game-winning run with his single in the 10th.

That was last highlight for the Giants as the Athletics rolled to the World Championship by posting victories in each of the last three contests.

Mathewson, pitching in what would be his final World Series, wound up with a 5-5 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic-he was 4-0 at one point—after splitting two decisions in 1913.

Skipper John McGraw was determined to restore his club to World Series glory. However, it would be another four years until the Giants would take the field again in the championship series.

1917 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CHICAGO WHITE SOX

(White Sox win series, 4 games to 2)

The Giants' run of bad luck continued in their fourth straight World Series defeat as they fell to the Chicago White Sox in six games.

In the sixth and deciding game, New York was in a scoreless deadlock with Chicago heading into the fourth inning. That's when the Giants' penchant for mistakes at inopportune times reared its ugly head once again. This time, Chicago second baseman Eddie Collins led off the frame with a grounder to New York third baseman Heinie Zimmerman, who made a two-base throwing error on the play. Joe Jackson's ensuing fly ball was dropped by right fielder Dave Robertson, positioning White Sox at the corners.

Chicago center fielder Happy Felsch then grounded back to the pitcher, Rube Benton, who saw Collins break from third and threw to Zimmerman in an attempt to get Collins hung up. Zimmerman ran Collins toward the plate, but the runner bounded past catcher Bill Rariden to make it a Zimmerman-Collins race to the plate. The White Sox second baseman won the footrace and distracted the Giants' defense enough to allow the baserunners to advance to second and third. Both Chicago runners would score on an ensuing base hit. That's all the White Sox would need to salt away the World Championship as they went on to win Game #6 by a 4-2 count.

Famed Olympian and footballer Jim Thorpe was on the 1917 Giants' club, but made only one "appearance" during the World Series in Game #5. He was slated to start in right field, but never took the field. The right-handed hitting Thorpe was removed for a left-handed pinch hitter after the White Sox lifted lefty hurler Reb Russell in favor of right-hander Eddie Cicotte.

1921 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Giants win series, 5 games to 3)

The Giants snapped a four-World Series losing streak when they outdueled the rival Yankees in a thrilling eight-game series. With both clubs playing their home contests at the Polo Grounds, it was the first Fall Classic to be played in its entirety at one stadium.

The National League champions were headlined by third baseman Frankie Frisch, right fielder Ross Youngs, first baseman George Kelly and left fielder Irish Meusel, while Babe Ruth and his 59 home runs was the sparkplug for the Yankees.

The American Leaguers jumped out to a two games-to-none lead after posting consecutive 3-0 victories. The Giants battled back from a 2-0, 2nd inning deficit in Game #3 to post a 13-5 victory. John McGraw's club knotted the Fall Classic at two games apiece when it logged a 4-2 triumph in the fourth game, despite Ruth's first World Series home run.

Ruth, hobbled by knee and arm aliments, spirited the Yankees to a 3-1 victory in Game #5 when he started the go-ahead rally with a bunt base hit.

However, the Bambino couldn't continue and the Giants took advantage of the situation to run off three straight victories and give the franchise its first World Championship since 1905. Art Nehf got the National Leaguers over the top with his four-hit, 1-0 victory in Game #8.

1922 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Giants win series, 4 games to 0 - 1 tie)

The Giants, playing the second of four consecutive World Series, earned their berth by taking the National League pennant with a seven-game

John McGraw's club brought home its second straight title after defeating its fellow Polo Grounds tenants, the Yankees, in a four-victory sweep that actually took five games to complete due to a tie.

Third baseman Heinie Groh, who was acquired from Cincinnati the previous winter, led the Giants to a 3-2 triumph in the opener after logging a 3-for-3 showing. The National League entrant had been shut out by Joe Bush through seven innings, before it stormed back from a tworun deficit on Irish Meusel's two-run single and Ross Youngs' sacrifice fly.

Meusel got back in the act quickly in Game #2, drilling a three-run home run off Bob Shawkey in the first inning. However, the Yankees battled back to tie the contest at 3-3 and it was inexplicably called because of "darkness" after the 10th inning by umpire George Hildebrand, despite at least a half-hour of daylight remaining.

Jack Scott, who went 8-2 in just 17 games for the Giants, tossed a four-hitter at the Yankees in Game #3 and led the National Leaguers to a 3-0 victory.

The Giants managed to post 4-3 and 5-3 victories in the fourth and fifth games, respectively, to advance to their second straight title. It also helped that the Giants' pitchers shut down Babe Ruth over the final three outings, holding him 0-for-9.

The 1922 World Championship would prove to be the third and final one in the illustrious career of the Giants' winningest skipper, John McGraw.

1923 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Yankees win series, 4 games to 2)

It was an all-New York World Series for the third straight year, but there were a few changes. First, the Yankees moved into their own ballpark, Yankee Stadium. Second and most importantly, the American League entrant ended the Giants' twoyear reign as World Champions.

The man who proved to be a thorn in the side of the Yankees was a Giants' outfielder who would later become synonymous with the club from the Bronx—Casey Stengel.

The 34-year-old outfielder christened World Series play in Yankee Stadium when he lined a ninth inning Joe Bush offering into left-center field that got between the outfielders for an insidethe-park home run, breaking a 4-4 draw and giving the Giants a 5-4 triumph in Game #1.

The Yankees, who had not defeated the Giants in their last nine World Series meetings (eight defeats, one tie), finally broke through in Game #2 when Babe Ruth clubbed two home runs in the 4-2 victory.

When the Series returned to Yankee Stadium for Game #3, Stengel shared the stage with pitcher Art Nehf. The outfielder broke open a scoreless duel with a home run into the right field stands. Nehf finished off the American Leaguers after allowing five singles and a double in the 1-0 win.

That was all she wrote for the Giants as the Yankees rattled off three consecutive victories to win their first World Championship. The American Leaguers coasted to 8-4 and 8-1 victories in Games #4 and #5, respectively.

In the sixth and final contest, Ruth got the Yanks off to a great start with his first inning, upper deck blast. But the A.L. entrant would need a fiverun eighth inning to post the 6-4 decider.

With the World Series tied at three games apiece, horrored leagacies of Merkle, Snodgrass and Zimmerman returned to longtime Giants' fans. Despite making three errors in the final contest, New York was done in twice by the infield at Washington's Griffith Stadium.

New York took a 3-1 advantage into the eighth inning of that final contest. With two outs and the bases-loaded, Senators' second baseman/manager

Bucky Harris hit a grounder that skipped over the head of 18-year-old third baseman Freddie Lindstrom. Two runs scored on the bad-hop single to tie the game.

The contest remained deadlocked until the bottom of the 12th inning, when Giants' catcher Hank Gowdy tripped over his mask and dropped a Muddy Ruel pop. The Washington catcher responded with a double down the third base line. One batter later with runners on first and second, center fielder Earl McNeely grounded to third. But once again, the ball skipped over Lindstrom's head and Ruel came around to score the winning tally.

This would prove to be the final World Series appearance for Giants manager John McGraw. Although he owned a 3-6 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic, only one other manager appeared in more series—Casey Stengel with 10 trips.

1933 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 1)

New York, in its first full season under new manager Bill Terry, won the National League pennant on the strong pitching of Carl Hubbell and Hal Schumacher.

The Giants entered the World Series as the underdog to the high-powered offense of the Washington Senators. However, the New Yorkers tacked up a 1.53 ERA (8er, 47.0ip) en route to their four games-to-one series victory.

Hubbell and Schumacher, who had combined for 17 shutouts during the regular season, were selected to start the first two contests vs. the Senators

Hubbell, the second winningest pitcher in Giants history, struck out 10 and didn't allow an earned run in the 4-2 victory. Outfielder Mel Ott accounted for three of New York's four runs, with his two-run home run and RBI single. Schumacher followed Hubbell's lead and allowed only a solo home run in the Giants' 6-1 Game #2 victory.

The good pitching turned on the Giants in Game #3 as Washington's Earl Whitehill tossed a five-hit shutout to give the Senators a 4-0 triumph.

Hubbell, who led the National League with 23 wins, carried a 1-1 game into the 10th inning in Game #4 when the Giants edged ahead on third baseman Travis Jackson's bunt single, a sacrifice and shortstop Blondy Ryan's single. King Carl escaped a one-out, bases-loaded jam in the bottom half of the inning with a double play to preserve New York's 2-1 victory.

Schumacher helped himself offensively in the decisive Game #5 with his two-run single in the second inning. Then 43-year-old reliever Dolph Luque took over a 3-3 game and worked the final four-and-one-third innings to get the Giants in position to win. Ott took care of the offense when he drilled a solo blast into the center field stands at Griffith Stadium in the top of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory.

1936 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Yankees win series, 4 games to 2)

The Giants locked horns with their cross-town rivals, the Yankees, in the Fall Classic for the fifth time after winning the National League flag by a five-game margin.

The Yankees, who were without Babe Ruth but had Joe DiMaggio, captured the Series in six games to start a run that saw them win 16 of the next 27 World Championships.

The National Leaguers rode the arm of Hall of Famer Carl Hubbell to their 11th World Series. The 33-year-old left-hander won his last 16 decisions of the regular season to finish with a 26-6 ledger that included a 2.31 ERA.

King Carl was on the mound for the Giants in Game #1 and got the National Leaguers a 6-1 victory after allowing just seven hits, including a third inning home run by George Selkirk. Trailing 1-0 in the fifth inning, shortstop Dick Bartell launched a solo blast of his own before the Giants added another run in the sixth and four more in the eighth.

The National Leaguers' victory in Game #1 snapped a 12-game winning streak owned by the Yankees in World Series action.

The Yankees went on to win each of the next three games, outscoring the Giants by a cumulative 25-7 count.

Staving off elimination, the Giants scored a 5-4, 10-inning victory in Game #5. Manager Bill Terry, playing in the next-to-last game of his playing career, drove in the game-winner with a sacrifice fly.

The American Leaguers finished off the Polo Grounds tenants in Game #6 as they pounded out 17 hits en route to their series-clinching 13-5

1937 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Yankees win series, 4 games to 1)

The two New York teams squared off once again in the Fall Classic, but the Yankees' offensive firepower proved to be too much for the Giants as the American League entrants took home the title in a five-game series.

The Giants, who boasted two 20-game winners in Carl Hubbell and rookie Cliff Melton, only had one big bat to combat the Yankee arsenal. Mel Ott clubbed 31 home runs and drove in 95 runs

However, that was no match for the Yankees' lineup that had five different 100-RBI men in Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, Tony Lazzeri, Bill Dickey and George Selkirk.

Hubbell was once again the Giants' Game #1 starter and was coasting along with a 1-0 lead into the bottom of the sixth. Then the Yankees produced one of their vaunted big-run innings, posting a six-run frame. The American Leaguers went on to post the 8-1 victory.

It was much of the same in Games #2 and #3 as the Yankees posted 8-1 and 5-1 triumphs, respectively.

The Giants turned the tables in Game #4 as they plated six runs in the second inning, with the big blows coming from center fielder Hank Leiber. He opened the frame with a single and scored before capping off the rally with a two-run single. The National Leaguers had Hubbell on the hill and he shut down the Yankees on six hits for the 7-3 victory.

The Yankees captured their second straight title with a 4-2 win in the fifth contest.

1951 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Yankees win series, 4 games to 2)

The 1951 World Series was overshadowed by an event that took place the day before it began - "The Shot Heard 'Round the World."

Bobby Thomson's three-run, ninth-inning homer off the Dodgers' Ralph Branca in the National League-deciding playoff game put an exclamation on one of the greatest stretch drives in the history of baseball.

Manager Leo Durocher's club trailed Brooklyn by 13-and-a-half games on Aug. 11. Then the Giants rattled off 16-straight victories and won 37 of their last 44 regular-season games to force a best-of-three playoff series with the Dodgers for the National League pennant.

The momentum seemed to carry over to the next day for the opener of the World Series as Monte Irvin stole home in the first inning to register the first swipe of home since the Yankees' Bob Meusel did it in 1928. The Giants' left fielder finished the contest 4-for-5 and spearheaded a 5-1 victory.

Irvin would once again lead the National Leaguers' offense in Game #2, but his three hits weren't enough to overcome the Yankees in a 3-1

Shortstop Eddie Stanky inspired a five-run, fifth-inning rally in Game #3 when he kicked the ball out of Phil Rizzuto's glove on a failed stolen base attempt and scrambled to third. The Giants would move on to a 6-2 triumph at the Polo Grounds.

Despite holding a two-games-to-one series lead, the Giants couldn't finish off the Yankees as the American Leaguers ran off three straight victories to claim the title.

1954 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CLEVELAND INDIANS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 0)

Willie Mays got the National League champion Giants off to a great start in the 1954 World Series when he made perhaps the greatest defensive play in baseball history.

With New York and Cleveland tied 2-2 in the eighth inning of Game #1 at the Polo Grounds and two Indian runners on base, the Hall of Fame center fielder made an over-the-shoulder catch of a 460-foot smash off the bat of the Indians' Vic Wertz.

The Giants went on to win 5-2 when pinch-hitter Dusty Rhodes hit a three-run, 10th-inning home run off Indians' starter Bob Lemon. Ironically, the game-winning clout went only 260 feet.

The Giants would go on to sweep the Indians in four games to register their last World Championship in an upset over the highly-touted American League champs.

Rhodes, who hit .341 in part-time duty and as a pinch-hitter deluxe during the regular season, also delivered the game-winning hits in both Games #2 and #3. However, his services weren't needed in the fourth and final contest as New York jumped out to a 7-0 advantage and coasted to the 7-4 championship-clinching victory.

New York was the surprise National League champion. After finishing fifth in 1953, the Giants were led by Mays, who won the N.L. batting title with a .345 mark that included 41 home runs and 110 RBI. The center fielder had returned to the Giants after missing the 1953 campaign due to military service.

Johnny Antonelli, another newcomer who was acquired from Milwaukee in exchange for Bobby Thomson in the off-season, won 21 games to help New York to the N.L. flag.

1962 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Yankees win series, 4 games to 3)

A matter of inches was the difference between the Giants bringing a World Championship to San Francisco for the first time or losing to the New York Yankees in the Fall Classic for the fifth time.

With the Giants trailing 1-0 with two outs and runners on second and third in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game #7, San Francisco's clean-up hitter Willie McCovey stepped in to face Ralph Terry. The Giants' Hall of Famer lined a one-ball, one-strike pitch toward right field, but Yankees' second baseman Bobby Richardson moved slightly to his left and threw up his glove to register the final out and the Yankees' 20th World Series crown.

San Francisco captured the National League flag by posting a late-season rally to catch Los Angeles and force a three-game playoff, which the Giants won 2-1.

The Giants carried a 2-2 tie into the seventh inning of Game #1 at Candlestick Park until Clete Boyer drilled a solo home run to spur the Yankees onto a 6-2 triumph.

Jack Sanford fired a three-hit shutout to even the Series at one-game apiece in San Francisco's 2-0 Game #2 victory. In a see-saw World Series, the Yankees would log a 3-2 Game #3 win before Giants' second baseman Chuck Hiller drilled a grand slam in the seventh inning of the fourth game to propel San Francisco to a 7-3 victory. It was the first bases-loaded clout by a National League player in World Series history.

Despite Sanford's 10-strikeout effort in sevenand-a-third innings, the Yankees posted a 5-3 win in Game #5.

As the Series moved back to San Francisco, there was a five-day delay due to a travel day and three rainouts. Once play resumed, Billy Pierce pitched a three-hitter and Orlando Cepeda posted three hits and two RBI to force a seventh game with a 5-2 Game #6 win.

1989 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. OAKLAND ATHLETICS

(Athletics win series, 4 games to 0)

The Bay Bridge Series, which pitted the Giants against their local rival, the Oakland Athletics, will always be remembered more for the Loma Prieta earthquake than the four-game brooming by the American Leaguers.

That might be a good thing for the Giants, as they were outclassed in almost every phase of the game by the Athletics—as was evidenced by the 32-14 cumulative run total.

A's Game #1 starter Dave Stewart set the tone for this Fall Classic when he hurled a five-hit shuout at the Giants. He was backed by solo home runs from Dave Parker and Walt Weiss off San Francisco starter Scott Garrelts.

In much the same fashion, Oakland rolled to a 5-1 victory in Game #2 behind the pitching of Mike Moore.

Then it happened. Something that would make this four-game Series sweep stand out in history. At 5:04 p.m. on Oct. 17, an earthquake with a 7.1-Richter scale reading rocked the Bay Area and the 60,000 fans at Candlestick Park. With reports of damage throughout the Bay Area, the ballpark was evacuated and the game was cancelled.

Finally, 10 days later, the Athletics picked up where they had left off, as they drilled five home runs on their way to a 13-7 rout in the rescheduled Game #3. The five-homer effort, two by Dave Henderson along with single clouts from Jose Canseco, Carney Lansford and Tony Phillips, tied a Series record set by the 1928 Yankees.

The A's never trailed in the series as Rickey Henderson opened Game #4 with a home run off Giants' starter Don Robinson. The Giants would close it to 8-6 in the seventh, but that was as close they would get in the 9-6 finale.

2002 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ANAHEIM ANGELS

(Angels win series, 4 games to 3)

In the first World Series between two Wild Card teams, the Giants and Anaheim Angels lived up to the moniker, combining to set numerous offensive records in a memorable seven-game Fall Classic.

Anaheim emerged from the fireworks with it's first World Championship in franchise history, while San Francisco was saddled with heartbreak after seeing a title slip away just five outs from the pinnacle.

The clubs split the first two contests in Anaheim, with Barry Bonds grabbing the spotlight in his first appearance on the World Series stage. San Francisco's left fielder clubbed a solo homer in his first at-bat to spark a 4-3 Giants win in Game #1, then connected for a mammoth ninthinning shot in Game #2. Not to be outdone, the Angels' Tim Salmon homered twice as Anaheim won an 11-10 slugfest to even the series.

When the scene shifted north, the Angels seemed to take control with a convincing 10-4 win in Game #3. As they had all season, the Giants battled back in Game #4, rallying from a 3-0 deficit to earn a 4-3 victory on David Bell's two-out, RBI-single in the eighth inning.

Game #5 belonged to San Francisco, as the home club delighted the 42,713 fans at AT&T Park with a 16-4 rout. Jeff Kent tied Giants World Series records with four runs, two homers and four RBI, Rich Aurilia drove in three runs to establish a franchise playoff mark with 17 RBI overall, and J.T. Snow had two of his series-high

The Giants were eight outs from their first World Series title since 1954, as Shawon Dunston's tworun homer, Bonds' record eighth post season clout (fourth of Series), and Kent's RBI-single propelled SF to a 5-0 lead in Game #6. But the ultimate prize was wrested away as Scott Spezio's threerun, seventh-inning homer and series MVP Troy Glaus' two-run, eighth-inning double highlighted Anaheim's rally to a 6-5 victory.

San Francisco scored first in Game #7, but ultimately could not overcome the pitching of John Lackey and the bat of Garret Anderson, who delivered the deciding three-run, thirdinning double in Anaheim's 4-1 triumph.

2010 -- SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. TEXAS RANGERS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 1)

It was a different story for the San Francisco Giants during the World Series as the club was bolstered by their offense and pitching to win their 6th World Championship and 1st since they moved from New York to San Francisco in 1958 to capture the 106th Fall Classic, 4 games to 1 over the Texas Rangers. It marked the club's 1st World Series win since 1954, ending the Majors' 3rdlongest drought without a Championship at that time, behind the Cubs (102 years) and Indians (62 years) as the top 2 teams at the time.

The Giants' bats were on fire as they battered Cliff Lee and the Rangers' bullpen with an 11-7 victory in the opening game of the 2010 World Series. What was originally penned as a pitchers' duel between Lee and Tim Lincecum turned out to be an offensive outburst by both teams. Freddy Sanchez finished with 4 of the Giants' 14 hits as Aubrey Huff went 3-for-4 with an RBI and Juan Uribe capped a 6-run 5th inning with a 3-run home run, which set off the fog horn and blasts from water cannons out in right field. San Francisco took a commanding 2 game lead after Matt Cain held the Rangers' bats at bay in a 9-0 shutout in Game #2. Cain tossed 7.2-scoreless frames to extend his postseason scoreless innings total to 21.1 frames, while Edgar Renteria led the offense as he homered and drove in 3 runs.

The only mishap for the Giants was during Game #3 as they fell to the Rangers 2-4 at Texas. However, the team resorted back to their pitching heavy strategy in Game #4 as rookie Madison Bumgarner took to the mound and fired off 8.0-shutout innings as the Giants shut out the Rangers 4-0 on Halloween night. Aubrey Huff (2-run home run) and Buster Posey (solo home run) supplied the club with enough offense as the team was one game away from winning their 1st Championship in over 54 years.

Tim Lincecum and World Series MVP Edgar Renteria helped deliver the title in Game #5 as Lincecum outdueled Cliff Lee in a game that was scoreless until Renteria hit a 3-run home run with 2 outs in the 7th inning. Lincecum defeated Lee for the 2nd time in a week, allowing just 3 hits over 8.0 innings while recording 10 strikeouts. The game was scoreless until Cody Ross and Juan Uribe both singled to open the 7th inning before Aubrey Huff layed down the 1st sacrifice bunt of his career to move the runners. Renteria stepped to the plate and sent a 2-0 pitch over the left-center field wall silencing a sold out crowd of 52.045. Brian Wilson was summoned for the 9th and retired Iosh Hamilton on a called 3rd strike. getting Vladimir Guerrero on a grounder to shortstop and then struck out Nelson Cruz to cap the best season in San Francisco Giants history.

2012 -- SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. DETROIT TIGERS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 0)

Playing in the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history and the fifth time since moving to San Francisco in 1958, the Giants were set to face the Detroit Tigers, the first time these two storied franchises had ever met in a postseason series.

Pablo Sandoval and Barry Zito both shined for the Giants in Game #1 as Sandoval hit three home runs, and joined Reggie Jackson, Babe Ruth and Albert Pujols as the only players to accomplish that in the Fall Classic, and Zito outdueled Justin Verlander, the reigning Cy Young winner, as the Giants won 8-3. Sandoval homered in his first three at-bats, hitting a solo shot in the first inning, a two-run blast in the third that set off the fog horns and capped it with yet another solo shot to center that sent the festive AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy.

In Game #2, Madison Bumgarner tossed 7.0-scoreless innings, then the Giants took advantage of a bunt that stayed fair to scratch out the go-ahead run in a 2-0 win for a 2-0 advantage in the Series.

The Giants took a commanding 3-0 lead in the Fall Classic with a 2-0 win on a chilly night in Detroit in Game #3. SF won their franchiserecord sixth straight postseason game as Ryan Vogelsong blanked the Tigers for 5.2 innings and Gregor Blanco hit an RBI triple and Brandon Crawford drove him home with a single in the second inning. The Giants became the eighth team to post consecutive World Series shutouts_ and the first to accomplish the feat since the 1966 Baltimore Orioles.

Nearly knocked out in the playoffs time and timeagain, the Giants completed a four game sweep of the Tigers to win their second title in three seasons. Marco Scutaro's go-ahead single with twoouts in the 10th inning lifted the Giants to a 4-3, 10-inning victory. Sergio Romo got Triple Crown winner Miguel Cabrera to look at strike three forthe final out and the Giants finished the month of October with seven straight wins and their seventh World Series championship.

30th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 11, 1961 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In just its second year of existence, Candlestick Park—the majors' first all-concrete stadium—played host to the first of two Major League Baseball All-Star Games played in 1961. Long before the days of the Home Run Derby and All-Star Gala, the game itself provided plenty of excitement, with a quartet of Hall of Famers leading the National League to a come-from-behind, 5-4 victory in 10 innings. Trailing the American League 4-3 entering the bottom of the 10th frame, the senior circuit received a single from Hank Aaron, a run-scoring double by Willie Mays, a walk by Orlando Cepeda and the game-winning single from Roberto Clemente—all off fellow Cooperstown resident Hoyt Wilhelm.

However, those last at-bat heroics were almost not needed, as they became necessitated by one of the more bizarre and memorable moments in All-Star Game history. With the National Leaguers clinging to a 3-2, ninthinning lead and a runner on third, a gust of wind knocked Giants' pitcher Stu Miller from his set position on the mound, resulting in a balk that allowed the tying run to score.

A capacity crowd of 44,115 filled the 'Stick for a contest that featured four San Francisco Giants (Mays, Cepeda, Miller and Mike McCormick) and a combined 18 players who would later be enshrined in the Hall of Fame.

55th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 10, 1984 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

After a 33-year absence, the Major League Baseball All-Star Game returned to the Bay Area with the 1984 Midsummer Classic at Candlestick Park. Proving well worth the wait, 57,756 fans were treated to fourteen future Hall of Famers and another who will be enshrined in Cooperstown (Rickey Henderson).

Pitching dominated this contest, with the National League batterymates for the fourth and fifth innings stealing the headlines in a 3-1 senior circuit victory. On the 50th anniversary of the Giants' Carl Hubbell striking out five consecutive batters, the duo of Fernando Valenzuela and Dwight Gooden did "King Carl" one better. Valenzuela fanned all three American League hitters he faced in the fourth inning; then, the youngest player in All-Star Game history-a 19year-old Gooden—whiffed all three batters in the fifth. Gary Carter, who caught both frames, also broke a 1-1 tie with a solo homer in the second en route to MVP honors.

Oakland's Bill Caudill, making his only All-Star appearance, also posted a perfect inning via strikeout, doing so in his lone frame (seventh). Fittingly, in a game that featured a combined 21 strikeouts, the tight contest ended when Goose Gossage fanned Henderson with a runner on base in the ninth.

78th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 10, 2007 at AT&T Park (San Francisco, CA)

The first All-Star Game at AT&T Park lived up to its billing, with the best of baseball turning in a thrilling contest in front of 43,965 fans. Most importantly, the game was San Francisco in all of its essence - beginning with an emotional pre-game tribute to Hall of Famer Willie Mays, the greatest Giant of them all.

True to Mays' greatness, the Midsummer Classic featured a little bit of everything including the first inside-the-park home run in All-Star Game history, hit by Ichiro Suzuki en route to Most Valuable Player honors. In the end, the American League captured a 5-4 victory after withstanding the National League's furious two-out, ninth-inning rally.

Flexing its muscle and speed, the junior circuit jumped out to a 5-2 lead on the strength of three home runs. The most memorable - and uniquely San Francisco – was Ichiro's two-run shot in the fifth that put the AL ahead 2-1. With a runner on first and one out, the Seattle star drove the first pitch he saw deep to right field - where it hit off the asymmetrical wall and caromed towards the 421-foot sign in rightcenter. By the time right fielder Ken Griffey, Jr. could relay the ball to the infield, Ichiro had scampered around the bases and set All-Star Game history.

Following Carl Crawford's solo home run in the sixth and Victor Martinez' two-run clout in the eighth, the AL gave a three-run lead to closer J.J. Putz in the ninth. After the first two National League hitters were retired, Dmitri Young singled and Alfonso Soriano hammered a two-run homer of his own to bring the senior circuit within 5-4. Three walks followed to load the bases - including two off new pitcher Francisco Rodriguez – but Rodriguez got Aaron Rowand to fly out and end the game.

Retired Uniform Numbers

In the storied 130-year history of Giants baseball, 11 former players or managers have enjoyed careers worthy of their jersey numbers being retired by the club. Only the New York Yankees (16) have retired more numbers. The 11 Giant greats are honored at AT&T Park with their names and retired uniform numbers displayed atop the Giants dugout and along the left field suite level

Christy Mathewson and John McGraw, who both predated the use of numbers on jerseys, are recognized along with fellow New York Giants Bill Terry (#3), Mel Ott (#4), Carl Hubbell (#11) and Monte Irvin (#20). Willie Mays (#24), who played for the club on both coasts, joins former San Francisco stars Juan Marichal (#27), Orlando Cepeda (#30), Gaylord Perry (#36) and Willie McCovey (#44) in this select group.

The Giants also honor Jackie Robinson, whose uniform number (42) was retired throughout Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of his arrival in the big leagues.

In 2004, the Giants commemorated two of baseball's greatest broadcasters with disks honoring Russ Hodges and Lon Simmons.

The Giants recognize the following individuals, who have been honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame for their contributions to the game: Lindsey Nelson (Ford C. Frick Award, 1988), Leonard Koppett (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1992), Bob Stevens (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1998), Nick Peters (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 2009) and Jon Miller (Ford C Frick Award, 2010).

Russ Hodaes

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 1980

"Voice of Giants" for 21-year run that spanned both coasts...began in New York Giants' radio booth in 1949, followed club west in 1958, and broadcast San Francisco Giants games through 1970...author of most famous call in franchise annals, and perhaps in baseball history, with his "Giants Win the Pennant!" description of Bobby Thomson's playoff-winning homer against Brooklyn Dodgers Oct. 3, 1951...his "Bye-Bye Baby" call became synonymous with Giants home runs...Ford C. Frick Award winner entered Hall of Fame in 1980...

Lon Simmons

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 2004

One of original voices of San Francisco Giants, teaming with fellow Hall-of-Famer Russ Hodges to form arguably finest broadcast team in sports history...brought trademark "Tell It Goodbye" home run call to Giants broadcast booth for 23 years over 3 different stints (1958-'73, '76-'78 and '96-2002)... is only man to broadcast debuts for each of club's 3 San Francisco ball-parks—Seals Stadium in 1958, Candlestick Park in 1960 and AT&T Park in 2000…beloved for his wit and charm, Bay Area legend was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2004 as 29th winner of Ford C. Frick Award...

Jon Miller

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 2010

Miller, who has gained accolades for his attention to detail and his intellect, has spent four decades calling Major League Baseball games for the A's, Rangers, Red Sox, Orioles and his current team the Giants...was voice of ESPN's national Sunday Night Baseball telecasts for 20 years...has broadcasted 14 World Series, including the last 13 on ESPN Radio...his energy, preparation and thoroughness has helped bring game to life in homes and hearts of so many listeners... Miller was honored as 35th Ford C. Frick Award recipient during Hall of Fame Weekend 2010...

Giants Wall of Fame

On September 23, 2008, the San Francisco Giants unveiled the team's Wall of Fame, which serves as a living tribute to the organization's greatest players. It recognizes retired players whose records stand highest among their teammates on the basis of longevity and achievements. Those honored have played a minimum of nine seasons for the San Francisco Giants, or five seasons with at least one All-Star selection as a Giant.

46 Giants legends have qualified for this distinction. Bronze plaques honoring these players and their baseball contributions line the wall of AT&T Park along King Street for all baseball fans to enjoy. As present and future generations of Giants players meet the criteria, plaques celebrating their careers will join the Wall of Fame upon their retirement.

San Jose Giants

Class-A Advanced, California League

Andy Skeels - Manager

Enters his eighth year with Giants organization and returns as San Jose's skipper for a fourth season (2009, 2011-13) after spending 2010 leading double-A Richmond in their inaugural season...initially joined the San Francisco organization in 2006 and spent two years as Augusta's hitting coach...Skeels has won two league championships in five seasons as a manager, claiming the 2008 South Atlantic League title as skipper of the Augusta GreenJackets and the 2009 California League crown with San Jose...the SJ Giants have qualified for the playoffs in all three years with Skeels at the helm...his 2009 San Jose team set a franchise record with 93 victories en route to the championship before a 90-win campaign in 2011 that earned the Giants the Class A Advanced Team of the Year Award from MiLB.com...in 2012, San Jose posted a North Division-best 75-65 overall record...he also managed New Zealand to a second-place finish in a World Baseball Classic qualifier tournament in 2012...entering 2013, Skeels boasts an outstanding .614 winning percentage as a Giants manager while his 258 career wins are second-most in team history...prior to joining Giants, he was a manager/coach in the Montreal Expos system, piloting Gulf Coast League squad in 2002, serving as hitting coach with single-A Savannah in 2003 and working as manager and hitting coach for Florida State league entry Brevard County in 2004...also managed Lafayette in independent Texas League in 1998, served as hitting coach with Dodgers' double-A San Antonio team in 1999 and Rangers' Savannah squad in 2000 and as pitching coach with independent Newark in 2001...the former catcher played 12 seasons in minors with the Padres, Yankees, and Dodgers (1987-99), having been selected by San Diego in seventh round of 1987 draft...resides in Thousand Oaks, CA.

Michael Couchee - Pitching Coach

Will mark his second year with Giants organization and first with San Jose, as he spent last year as the pitching coach for the ARL-Giants...spent the previous nine years with the Padres organization, one year as pitching coach in Portland, OR (PCL) and the next eight as their Minor League Pitching Coordinator...served as the California/Anaheim Angels Minor League Pitching Coordinator for 10 years from 1993-2002 following five years as pitching coach in their organization...began his coaching career with Texas' double-A Tulsa affiliate during 1986-87 seasons...was originally selected in 19th round of 1980 First-Year Player Draft by Padres...pitched briefly in Major Leagues with Padres in 1983...resides in Mesa, AZ with his wife, Lisa, and son, Tyler.

Lipso Nava – Hitting Coach

Returns for his sixth year with Giants organization in 2013 and his first as a hitting coach for San Jose...managed Augusta in 2012 and 2011, and spent three seasons (2008-2010) as a hitting coach for Augusta...former infielder played seven seasons in the minors with the Seattle Mariners (1990-94), Boston Red Sox (1995) and Chicago Cubs (1997), advancing as high as triple-A level...originally a 14th round draft pick by Mariners in 1990...resides in Maracaibo, VZ.

David Getsoff - Athletic Trainer

Begins his fifth season with San Francisco's organization and second year with San Jose... spent 2010 and 2011 seasons with the Augusta GreenJackets...served as Salem-Keizer's athletic trainer during 2009 season...prior to joining the San Francisco organization, he spent the 2008 season with the Oakland A's in their minor league training operations department...also worked as an athletic trainer in the Boston Red Sox minor league system during the 2006 and 2007 seasons...resides in Brooklyn, New York.

Dustin Brooks - Strength and Conditioning Coach

Begins his third season with the Giants organization...previously wored as a Sports Performance intern at Arizona State University working with a variety of teams including football, wrestling, and track and field...graduated Magna Cum Laude from Southern Illinois Edwardsville earning his BS in Exercise Science as a four year scholar-athlete on their baseball team...currently holds his CSCS and CES and is studying for his PES.

Augusta GreenJackets

Class-A, South Atlantic League

Mike Goff - Manager

Will embark on his first season as manager for Augusta...previously managed the Arizona Rookie League Giants for three seasons (2009-11)...in 2010 he skippered the ARL-Giants to a best overall record in the league for the second-straight season, however failed to advance to championship for first time in four years...in 2009 he led the ARL-Giants to a league-high 39 wins and third straight trip to the championship, although the team lost the Championship Game to the Mariners...spent 2008 at the helm of double-A Chattanooga in the Reds system, and prior to that coached in the Seattle Mariners organization for 16 seasons...after serving as the Mariners' first base coach for two months in 2005, he was promoted in June 2007 to bench coach when John McLaren was named Seattle's manager...prior to his Major League duties with the Mariners, Goff worked nine seasons as coordinator of instruction for the team's minor league system and four seasons managing...skippered the West team in Midwest League All-Star Game and led his Wisconsin club to ML championship series...in his first season as manager in professional ranks, guided Bellingham to the 1993 division title...began coaching career in 1992 as coach with double-A Jacksonville and spent his previous three years as an assistant coach at University of South Alabama...was an infielder in the Red Sox system from 1984-88 before a back injury ended his playing career...resides in Peoria, AZ.

Steve Kline - Pitching Coach

Former big league southpaw will embark on his fifth season in the Giants organization and his fourth overall at Augusta...spent last season as the pitching coach for the San Jose Giants... long regarded as one of game's most durable left-handed relief pitchers, Kline, who spent his last two Minor League seasons in a Giants uniform, ranks 15th on all-time southpaw list with 796 lifetime appearances...appeared in 89 games in 2001 for St. Louis, a ML single-season record for left-handed pitchers at that time...also logged 1.80 ERA that year for Redbirds, one of two career campaigns with sub-2.00 ERA (also 1.79 in 2004)...11-year Major League veteran compiled 34-39 lifetime ledger with 39 saves and 3.51 ERA over 796 big league contests (one start) with Indians (1997), Expos (1997-2000), Cardinals (2001-04), Orioles (2005) and Giants (2006-07)...was originally an eighth round selection by Cleveland in the 1993 draft...resides in Winfield, PA.

Hector Borg - Hitting Coach

AT&T Park Facts & Figures

Opening Date: April 11, 2000

Design: Classic urban ballpark with an oldtime feel and all the amenities of modern ballparks. Inspired by Wrigley Field and Fenway Park and modeled after Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Jacobs Field and Coors Field.

Construction: Commenced on December 11, 1997. Construction lasted 28 months, with Opening Day on April 11, 2000.

Name Change: Ballpark originally opened as Pacific Bell Park; name was changed to SBC Park on January 1, 2004 and to AT&T Park on March 1, 2006.

Financing: AT&T Park, the first privately financed Major League ballpark to be built in 38 years, cost $357 million. The financing plan included $172 million from naming rights, other sponsorships, pouring rights, concession rights and the selling of charter seats; a $170 million bank loan; and $15 million in tax increment financing from the City's Redevelopment Agency.

Giants Statue Dedications

Since the opening of AT&T Park in the 2000 season, the San Francisco Giants have dedicated four statues of their greatest players donning a Giants uniform. Sculptures of Hall of Famers Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Juan Marichal and Orlando Cepeda have been created by well-known American sculptor William Behrends and have been placed outside of AT&T Park for everyone to enjoy.

Behrends' portrait sculptures have been widely praised for their likeness, quality of detail and sensitive evocation of character. Unlike many other sculptors, Mr. Behrends was personally involved in every phase of the creation of the four bronze sculptures, including research, molding and bronzing.

Behrends divides his time between home and studio in Tyron, North Carolina, bronze foundries in Colorado and New York and a marble studio in Pietrasanta, Italy. He studied architecture at North Carolina State University and fine arts and sculpture at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, including anatomy training at the medical school. He has subsequently studied and worked in Italy, principally with Swietlan Kraczyna and Enzo Pasquini. He is the twice recipient of the Richard Portrait Prize by the National Sculpture Society and is a fellow board member of the National Sculpture Society.

March 31, 2000 - The Giants unveiled a nine-foot bronze sculpture of Hall of Fame outfielder Willie Mays, located at the corner of Third and King Streets. The statue depicts Mays in the graceful conclusion of his powerful swing. The sculpture was developed over a 12-month period.

May 4, 2003 - A nine-foot tall bronze statue of Giants Hall of Fame first baseman Willie McCovey was unveiled. The statue is prominently featured at the northeast portion of AT&T Park, which was officially designated as McCovey Point by the San Francisco Port Commission. The statue of Willie McCovey pays tribute to a man who exemplifies the spirit and leadership shown by many of those who have worn the Giants uniform.

May 21, 2005 - Former Giants great and Hall of Fame pitcher Juan Marichal had his statue dedicated in 2005. The nine-foot bronze statue is located at AT&T Park's Lefty O'Doul Plaza and features Marichal's famous high-leg kick.

September 6, 2008 - The Giants dedicated a bronze statue in honor of Hall of Fame first baseman Orlando Cepeda. The statue, which stands at nine feet tall on a five foot base, is located at the Second Street entrance to AT&T Park. The sculpture portrays a youthful, smiling Cepeda.

San Francisco Giants Broadcast Information

ENGLISH BROADCASTERS

Jon Miller

Jon Miller, honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame as the 2010 Ford C. Frick award winner for baseball broadcasting excellence, the "Voice of the Giants", enters his 17th season in the broadcast booth on KNBR Radio and NBC Bay Area. Miller was thrilled to broadcast his 15th World Series in 2012 as the Giants won it all for the second time in three years. An award-winning broadcast veteran of more than 40 years, Miller worked 21 seasons as the play-by-play commentator on the ESPN Sunday Night Baseball game of the week. Miller, noted for his eloquent game description, golden voice and marvelous sense of humor, spent 14 years with the Baltimore Orioles before coming to San Francisco. Prior to joining Baltimore in 1983, the talented broadcaster spent two seasons with the Texas Rangers (1978-79) and three seasons with the Boston Red Sox (1980-82). He began his Major League Baseball broadcasting career with the Oakland Athletics in 1974 at the remarkably young age of 22. After a four-year stint at NBC-TV from 1986-89, where he announced an occasional Game of the Week with either Tony Kubek or Joe Garagiola, Miller matriculated to ESPN. During his tenure at ESPN, he was nominated twice for a national Emmy Award in 1995 and 1996, and broadcast 13 consecutive World Series on ESPN Radio. He was also nominated six times for an "ACE" award, emblematic of cable television excellence, and won the award in 1991 and 1996 for his play-by-play work. Miller was named National Sportscaster of the Year by the Association Sportscasters Association in 1998 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame of the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association of America the same year. The Bay Area native has also broadcast hockey, basketball and soccer in his distinguished career. Jon and his wife, Janine, currently reside in Moss Beach. They are parents to three daughters, Michelle, Holly and Emilie, and a son, Alexander.

Duane Kuiper

Duane Kuiper, a seven-time Emmy award-winning broadcaster, begins his 29th season as a Major League announcer. He embarks on his 20th consecutive year in the Comcast SportsNet Bay Area, NBC Bay Area and KNBR Radio broadcast booths in 2013. The former 11-year big league infielder has received seven local Emmy awards for his distinguished broadcasting career: On-Camera talent (4); Sports Live Broadcast (2); and Sporting Event/Game (1). He provided commentary for the Giants from 1987-92 and served a one-year stint with the expansion Colorado Rockies in 1993. The former infielder spent the last four years of his career with the Giants, following seven campaigns with the Cleveland Indians. In 2004 he was voted by Cleveland fans as one of the 100 greatest players in Tribe history. After retiring in 1985, Kuiper provided commentary on Giants radio and TV broadcasts through the end of that season, and had his own radio show on KNBR from 1982-85. Kuiper's scorecards from Barry Bonds' historic 756th home run game, Randy Johnson's 300th career victory and Matt Cain's perfect game in 2012 are displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. The Wisconsin native serves as a board member of the Giants Community Fund. A graduate of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL, Kuiper and his wife, Michelle, reside in Danville. They are parents to two children, Cole and Dannon.

NBC Bay Area returns as the exclusive over the air tv rightsholder to broadcast Giants games.

KNBR-680 AM, the 50,000-watt Sports Leader, begins its 35th campaign with the orange and black. Giants fans can tune into 162 games during the baseball season.

Mike Krukow

Mike Krukow enters his 23rd season in the television booth, and his 19th full season on the radio side. A seven-time Emmy award winner, Krukow is the broadcast team's color analyst on Comcast SportsNet Bay Area and NBC Bay Area telecasts, and on KNBR Radio broadcasts. Krukow's playing career in the Major Leagues spanned 14 years and three teams: the Chicago Cubs (1976-81),

Philadelphia Phillies (1982) and San Francisco Giants (1983-89), where his enthusiasm both on and off the field made him a fan favorite. "Kruk", named as the starting right-handed pitcher to the 1980's Giants All-Decade Team in a vote by Bay Area media in 1999, is noted for his deep knowledge of the game and tremendous sense of humor. A 20-game winner for the Giants in 1986, Krukow retired after the 1989 season with a 124-117 career record and a 3.90 ERA. In 2008, Kruk was honored as a member of the inaugural class of Giants alumni with a plaque in the Giants Wall of Fame which lines the wall outside of AT&T Park. Krukow resides in San Luis Obispo with his wife, Jennifer. The couple has five children, Jarek, Baker, Tessa, Chase and Weston, one grandson, Coen, and one granddaughter, Reagan.

Dave Flemming

Dave Flemming begins his 10th year of broadcasting for the Giants. The 36-yearold will join Jon Miller and Duane Kuiper on the team's KNBR radio broadcasts and is involved in select games on television. In addition to his work with the Giants, he serves as a play-by-play voice for baseball on ESPN Radio and select FOX network telecasts. Flemming also handles the radio play-by-play duties for Stanford football, broadcasts football for the Pac-12 Network, and is a lead play-by-play voice for ESPN's college basketball coverage. In 2008, Sports Business Journal named Flemming "the best of the new generation of baseball announcers". Flemming's prior baseball experience includes three seasons as the play-byplay announcer for the Pawtucket Red Sox, Boston's triple-A affiliate. Before moving to Pawtucket, Flemming broadcast play-by-play for the Visalia Oaks in 2000, and served a dual role as the team's assistant general manager. The Alexandria, VA native received a Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Stanford, and a Master's degree in Broadcast Journalism from Syracuse University. Flemming and his wife, Jessica, reside in San Francisco with their twin daughters, Katie and Carter, and son, David Henry.

Comcast SportsNet Bay Area

Comcast SportsNet Bay Area, the seven-time local Emmy Award winner for its Giants coverage and the club's cable tv rightsholder since 1990, returns for another season. In 2008, CSN Bay Area signed a 25-year agreement to broadcast Giants games through the 2033 baseball season. In 2013, the network will continue to present all Giants regular season games in HDTV and feature Giants related programming all season long. For programming information, visit www.csnbayarea.com.

Erwin R. Higueros

Erwin Higueros, a 25-year veteran of Bay Area sports broadcasting, begins his 15th full season, his 16th overall in the Giants' Spanish language radio booth. In addition to his broadcast responsibilities, Higueros is a member of the Giants front office, working in both the media relations and Hispanic marketing departments. Higueros began his broadcasting career with the Oakland A's (1988-97), and was the play-by-play announcer for games that were televised on Telemundo-Channel 48 from 1995-97. A versatile announcer, Higueros was the Spanish play-byplay voice for a number of Bay Area professional sports teams including the San Francisco 49ers in the 2000 and 2012 seasons, the San Jose Sharks in 1995, and the Oakland Raiders in 1995-96 and 2002-06. He has handled the radio play-by-play duties on Spanish radio for the Fresno State Bulldogs football team the past four seasons (2009-12). Higueros broadcast the League Division Series for FOX Sports International in 2004-06. Born in Guatemala, he moved to the United States when he was 12 years old. A graduate of Fremont High School in Oakland, he attended Cal State Hayward and the Columbia School of Broadcasting. Higueros resides in Oakland with his wife, Maria. The couple has two grown children, Claudia and Erwin, Jr.

Tito Fuentes

Tito Fuentes returns to the Giants' Spanish language broadcast booth for his 10th straight season. Fuentes previously served as a member of the Spanish language broadcast team from 1981-92, and in 1996-2004 he broadcast for FOX Sports International which is aired in Latin America. An active participant in the Giants' marketing efforts, he is a regular participant in the Giants Fantasy Camp and Giants Cruise. A former Major League second baseman who played for the Giants from 1965-74, Fuentes saw big league action with San Diego, Detroit and Oakland. The Havana, Cuba native was initially signed as an 18-year-old amateur before the start of the 1962 season and was the last baseball player signed directly out of Cuba before the United States embargo against Cuba. A .268 hitter over his 13-year career, he was voted the starting second baseman on the Dream Team for the Giants 25th Anniversary team by San Francisco fans in 1982. In 1997, "23" was inducted into the Cuban Baseball Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Maritza, reside in Reno, Nevada.

SFG Productions features five High Definition edit suites integrated with the AT&T Park scoreboard control room. These programs are produced by SFG Production producers, editors and writers. This group also produces commercials, promotional and corporate videos as well as serving as the production company of Giants Enterprises.

2012 Community Relations Highlights

The San Francisco Giants are dedicated to enriching OUR COMMUNITY through innovation and excellence on and off the field.

Enriching our community is an integral part of the San Francisco Giants. In a collaborative effort, the Giants Community Fund, the club's 501(c)(3) non-profit, and the team's Community Relations Department, work to identify, develop, support and raise awareness for people, issues and programs that are important to our fans and communities throughout the Bay Area and Northern California.

The millions of fans who either attend a Giants game at AT&T Park or follow the team on television, radio and the internet or through social and traditional media, are likely to be touched by an educational or awareness activity or a fundraiser or grant giving program of either the Giants Community Fund or the Giants Community Relations Department. These activities or programs focused on the following areas:

- Youth Recreation & Fitness
- Health
- Violence Prevention
- Education/Literacy

Each season, the Giants hold more than 350 community outreach and awareness programs and events, either at the park or out in the community, which define the work they do in the above-mentioned focus areas. Programs include: Team Up for Girls; Jefferson Awards Students In Action; Free2Play/ Not For Sale; Salute to the Military; Until There's A Cure; Strike Out Cancer; Strike Out Violence; Family Safety; Giant Race to benefit Project Open Hand and BAWSI; ALS Awareness; Glove Drive; Stretch Drive; Education Day; Donate Life; Challenger Clinic; AAA High School Championship; LGBT/It Gets Better; Step to the Plate for Homelessness; and many others.

The Giants Community Fund's flagship program, Junior Giants, serves over 20,000 boys and girls in 80 underserved regions. It is a free and non-competitive program serving as a model among MLB youth initiatives. Junior Giants is an excellent way for children to demonstrate confidence and leadership, link with mentors, and develop a strong understanding of the importance of literacy and healthy living, all through the game of baseball.

Most recently, the Giants have committed themselves to raising awareness and defining their role in elevating the end to bullying for all youth. Having become the first professional sports organization to join the It Gets Better Campaign in 2011, an internet awareness program created for gay, lesbian and transgender teens dealing with homophobia and bullying, they expanded their voice through the creation of an anti-bullying video for their Junior Giants Baseball Program and made bullying the focus of their annual Strike Out Violence Day. In addition, the Giants Community Fund granted $78,000 to groups working with kids and teens on the issue of bullying.

On Opening Day 2012, the Giants continued to remember Giants fan Bryan Stow. He participated in the opening ceremonies, via satellite on the scoreboard, to toss the baseball to his son who was at AT&T Park to throw out the ceremonial first pitch. In July, Third Base Coach Tim Flannery and the Giants assisted with the on-sale launch of the Live from the Uptown Theater with Bob Weir and Tim Flannery tribute concert to Bryan Stow; and on October 25, for Game 2 of the World Series, Stow attended his first baseball game since being brutally attacked on Opening Day at Dodger Stadium in 2011.

If there is a special need in our community, the Giants and the Giants Community Fund do their best to respond. In the past year, these special needs ranged from raising awareness for two young fans seeking bone marrow transplants to promoting a young woman's encouraging story of living with cerebral palsy to creating an opportunity for fans with peanut/nut allergies to attend a game in a "nut-free zone" to the recognition of the achievements of two local youth baseball league champions (Blossom Valley Pony League and Petaluma Little League).

This past season, more than 42,000 game tickets were donated to more than 500 community groups through the Take Me Out to the Ballgame ticket donation program, which is funded by Giants players, the MLB's Commissioner's Community Initiative and MLBPA's Players Give Back. Additionally, more than 1,500 autographed items and special field experiences were donated to more than 1,200 groups who used them for fundraising purposes, raising more than $100,000. In addition to the funds raised through memorabilia, the Giants and their fans also provided the opportunity for numerous charitable organizations, non-profits and community centers, including schools and cultural groups, to raise more than $1,000,000 through their fundraiser ticket program, auctions and special events.

Giants employees, from the players to the front office staff are expected to give back to the community and their fans. Players do this through developing their own programs or supporting existing programs in the form of visits and appearances, financial contributions and relaying important messages through videos, press conferences and media interviews.

The 2012 World Series was the punctuation mark for our community programs as the Giants worked in partnership with Major League Baseball to raise worldwide awareness for all those touched by cancer, through the Stand Up To Cancer initiative during Game One, and the tribute to military service men and women and their families through the Welcome Back Veterans initiative during Game 2.

Giants Media Information/Guidelines

THE GIANTS MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE: Located on the second level at AT&T Park behind the press box, the Giants' media relations department can be reached via the media elevator or adjacent stairs from the Field Club (service) level walkway.

ENTRY TO AT&T PARK: Credentialed media must enter the ballpark through the Media Entrance near O'Doul Gate (next to the Giants Dugout Store) off Third Street, or at the Command Center at 2nd and King Streets.

CREDENTIALS: Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news gathering agencies. credentials will be issued only to those news agencies that cover the Giants on a daily basis. All agencies that wish to cover the Giants must submit a written request on official company letterhead by e-mail. Media representatives who do not receive full-season Giants credentials may obtain single credentials for individual games, subject to availability, by contacting the media relations department at least 48 hours in advance. All daily media credentials can be picked up at the Giants Administrative Building reception desk, (adjacent to the Giants Dugout Store) located off Third Street through the glass doors at 24 Willie Mays Plaza. Credentials must be visibly worn at all times.

BOB STEVENS PRESS BOX: The Bob Stevens Press Box is located on the Lower Box level of AT&T Park, directly above Sections 113-117 of the lower bowl seating in the ballpark. The entrance to the press box, situated one level above street level, can be accessed via the media elevator or adjacent stairwell from the Field Club (service) level walkway. The press box is a working area for the news media and no cheering or other distracting noise is permitted at any time. Anyone violating this policy will be asked to leave the premises. Persons without credentials will not be admitted.

HODGES-SIMMONS BROADCAST CENTER: All broadcast booths for live game coverage are located at the Hodges-Simmons Broadcast Center on the Club Level of AT&T Park (one level above the Press Box). From the Field (service) level walkway, take the media elevator or adjacent stairwell to the Club Level to access the broadcast booths. Persons without credentials will not be admitted.

CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are located on the Field Club (service) level of AT&T Park. The Giants' clubhouse is on the third base side, while the visitor's clubhouse is on the first base side. Only credentialed media with clubhouse access will be admitted. TV and still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouse prior to the game, while only TV cameras are permitted in the clubhouse during post-game (no still photographers). Training and weight rooms, as well as the club dining areas, are closed to everyone except players and club officials. The Giants clubhouse is open beginning three-and-a-half hours prior to game time, and will re-open 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game. Media may NOT return to the home or visitors clubhouse once the Clubs have taken the field for batting practice. Please do not lounge in the manager's office or clubhouse during the pre-game period. If you have specific interview requests for a player or coach, we encourage you to contact a member of the Giants' media relations staff, who will try to accommodate your needs.

FIELD ACCESS: Only credentialed media with field access will be allowed onto the field prior to the game. Due to AT&T Park having the smallest foul territory behind home plate in Major League Baseball, we kindly ask all video and still photographers to stay on the warning track when shooting. All media must clear the field 45 minutes prior to game time. Access to the field is available on the Field Club (service) level only by one of three tunnels: the Giants' dugout, the visitors' dugout, or the media tunnel directly behind home plate.

NICK PETERS MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM: The Nick Peters Media Interview Room is located on the Field Club (service) level of the ballpark, between home plate and the Giants Clubhouse. The room will be used for media conferences and other special interviews.

POST-GAME PROCEDURES: Manager Bruce Bochy will be available to the media immediately after the game in the Nick Peters Media Interview Room. Please ask any questions of the manager related to the game during this post-game session. Post-game interviews with the manager and players are conducted by media with deadlines and should be limited to game comments. Please do not lounge in the manager's office or clubhouse, or attempt to conduct feature-length interviews after a game.

SOCIAL MEDIA: In accordance with Major League baseball guidelines, media are not permitted to use cellular phones, laptops, texting devices or similar portable equipment for tweeting or transmitting via other social media networks in group settings in clubhouses, dugouts or manager's office at any time. Digital photography, without the permission of the club media relations director, is prohibited in the clubhouse at all times.

MEDIA DRESS GUIDELINES: MLB and the BBWAA agreed to a set of dress guidelines for members of the media. The guidelines, which emphasize professionalism, will be effective for the 2013 season. The guidelines will be posted in all media areas.

DARKROOMS, STILL PHOTO LOCATIONS: The photo darkrooms and the Giants' team photographers' office are located on the Field Club (service) level of the ballpark between both clubhouses. In addition, an auxiliary photographers' work room for photo transmissions via telephone lines is available in the area adjacent to the umpires room on the service level. Limited photo locations are available at various field level areas, as well as in the TV basket situated on the third base side of the Club Level. All still photo locations are reserved by contacting Giants photography department. The Giants' media relations department requests that all season credentialed photographers use discretion in using their season pass, and ask that you only utilize your credential on a legitimate assignment.

TV PHOTO LOCATIONS: Due to limited photo space, no TV cameras are guaranteed locations on the field level. All still photographers will have priority in these locations. However, TV cameras are welcome if space permits.

LIVE SHOTS: Due to our downtown location, we do not have any ENG truck parking. If your organization plans to transmit ANY live shots from inside AT&T Park, please contact MediaOne Services, which serves as the official broadcast services provider for the Giants and AT&T Park. Please direct your inquiry to Nelson Ferreira via e-mail at nelson@mlsf.com or via telephone at (415) 760-3930.

SAM SKINNER MEDIA LOUNGE: The Sam Skinner Media Lounge is located directly behind the broadcast booths on the Club Level. Those media members located in the press box that wish to dine can access the Sam Skinner Media Lounge by taking one flight of stairs up one level. The lounge is open for pre-game meal service beginning two hours prior to game time to accredited media members. Meal service concludes one hour after first pitch. There will be a nominal charge for meals.

LIVE GAME-IN-PROGRESS BROADCASTS: Please be advised that no radio entity is allowed to file live in-game reports from AT&T Park when the Giants host a game in which MLB's national radio rightsholder, ESPN Radio, is broadcasting. The ESPN Radio window of exclusivity begins 15 minutes prior to first pitch and concludes 15 minutes after the game or when ESPN Radio completes its broadcast, whichever comes first. Live broadcasts by non-rights holders during a game are permitted for the purpose of non play-by-play reporting of scores and game highlights, under the following guidelines: Reports must be confined to between-innings only, limited to 60 seconds in length, and limited to six per game. Radio and TV stringers must notify the Giants media relations department of their plans for such reports. A violation of the above Major League Baseball guidelines may result in the revocation of media credentials.

TELEPHONES: Media wishing to order temporary telephone lines must contact Lena Boswell, Giants telecommunications administrator at (415) 972-1711 or via e-mail at lboswell@sfgiants.com.

FREELANCE WRITERS AND PHOTOGRAPHERS: Freelance writers and photographers may not request their own credentials. The sports editor or managing editor of a publication employing the freelancer must provide a written credential request on official company letterhead for specific games at least 48 hours in advance of that game.

WEBSITES: Due to the growth of on-line services and our limited number of press box seats, the Giants will only issue daily credentials to those website personnel affiliated with a major news gathering organization.

MEDIA INFORMATION SITE: All Giants' game day information (lineups, game notes, stats, releases, etc.), audio/video interviews (English and Spanish) and press box information will be available on the Giants' press box information site. Please see a media relations staffer for website and login information.

NO AUTOGRAPHS: Media are not allowed to ask for autographs of uniformed personnel at AT&T Park. Anyone violating this policy will be asked to leave the premises and will have their credential revoked.
