BOB LURIE

Chairman

For the first time in his 13 years as owner of the Giants, Bob Lurie's hometown club has posted three straight winning seasons, a convincing foundation for the "new era of Giants baseball" he vowed when he overhauled the team's administration at the end of the disastrous 1985 campaign.

On September 18, 1985, Lurie ushered in the era with the appointment of Al Rosen as the club's President and General Manager. Rosen brought in field manager Roger Craig the same day and in just two short seasons the Giants went from last place to first in the National League West and came within one game of the World Series. Last season the club surmounted numerous injuries to remain in contention late into the Summer, finishing in fourth place with an 83-79 record.

With renewed success on the field, much of Lurie's attention remains focused on bringing Giants fans a state-of-the-art major league stadium in the Bay Area after the team's Candlestick Park lease expires in 1994. Progress made in late 1988 and early 1989 by task forces in San Francisco and Santa Clara has been especially satisfying to Lurie, who has always maintained his first choice is to keep the team in the Bay Area if suitable arrangements can be made.

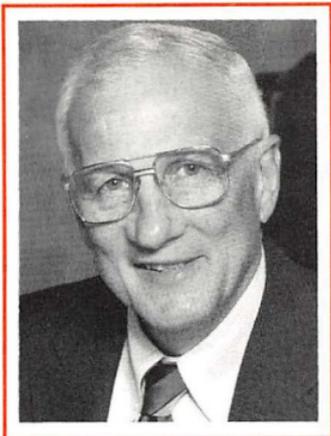

On March 2, 1976, Lurie bought the Giants in partnership with Arizona cattleman Bud Herseth, preventing a planned sale to Labatt's Breweries and an impending move to Canada. In 1978 Lurie bought out Herseth and became the club's sole owner.

That year the Giants made a solid run at the division title before finishing in third place. San Francisco made title runs in the second half of the strike-shortened 1981 season and in 1982 as well, but ended up with another pair of third place showings. All along Lurie continued his search for the right blend of skill and talent in the front office and on the field. He finally arrived at the combination of Rosen and Craig for his third general manager and seventh field manager. The wisdom of those choices was validated in 1987, when Rosen was named Executive of the Year and Craig was tabbed AP Manager of the Year.

Born January 18, 1929, Lurie is the son of San Francisco financier Louis R. and Babette Lurie. After graduation from Menlo High School in Menlo Park, California, Bob moved on to Northwestern University where he earned a B.S. degree in business administration. He served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force from 1951 to 1953 before returning home to enter the San Francisco business community.

Bob is a vigorous participant in a variety of civic and charitable activities. In addition to his duties with the Lurie Co. and his chairmanship of the Giants, he serves as President of the Louis R. Lurie Foundation and is on the Board of Directors of the National Athletic Health Institute and the Downtown Parking Corporation.

Bob and his wife, Connie, make their home in San Francisco.

AL ROSEN

President and General Manager

After producing three winning seasons and a division title in his three full years as Giants' President and General Manager, Al Rosen's focus in 1989 is directed towards two major goals—continuing his efforts to bring San Francisco a World Championship, and increasing the team's commitment to providing a comfortable and family oriented atmosphere in which to enjoy a ball game.

Immediately after being named to his new post on September 18, 1985, Rosen began a turnaround of the Giants by choosing Roger Craig as his field manager. The success of Rosen and Craig's new dynamic approach was evident in short order, as the Giants went from losing 100 games in 1985 to posting an 83-79 record and a third-place finish the following season. In 1987 the Giants made the jump to baseball's upper echelon by winning the National League West for their first pennant in 16 years and coming within one victory of a World Series appearance. In 1988 San Francisco was just two and a half games out of the divisional lead at the All-Star break, before a rash of injuries resulted in a fourth place finish.

In 1989, Rosen has made a personal commitment to institute procedures and policies to make Candlestick Park a truly fan-oriented place to watch a ballgame. As a result, Giants games this year will feature such improvements as a no alcohol, no smoking Pavilion section, game broadcasts at concession stands, Family Nights with half price seats and a "GiantShock" program, where fans will be treated to pleasant, out of the ordinary, random surprises during the course of the games.

The 1987 Major League Executive of the Year, Rosen has molded the Giants in his image from top to bottom, with a hardball approach throughout the entire organization both on the field and off. In 1987 he engineered trades for pitchers Craig Lefferts, Don Robinson, Dave Dravecky and Rick Reuschel and third baseman Kevin Mitchell, while in 1988 he improved his championship club by signing free agent leadoff man Brett Butler to a two-year contract, and traded in midseason for Donell Nixon and Ernest Riles. Over the past off-season he once again improved the Giants outfield and team speed by acquiring the fleet-footed and versatile Tracy Jones.

Recognized for his talent and dedication as a player, Rosen has brought those qualities with him to the front office. After spending his entire ten-year (1947-1956) Major League career in Cleveland, Rosen spent 20 years with the brokerage firm of Bache and Company. He was Vice President of the firm's Cleveland offices when he became President of the New York Yankees. He was in New York for the 1978 and 1979 seasons, before moving to a similar position within the Houston Astros which he held from 1980 until joining the Giants in 1985.

A lifetime .285 hitter with 192 home runs and 717 RBIs, Rosen was a four-time All Star and unanimous pick as the American League's 1953 Most Valuable Player.

A Leap Year baby, Rosen was born February 29, 1924 in Spartanburg, South Carolina and raised in Miami, where he picked up the nickname "Flip" as a youngster playing sandlot ball. Al and his wife, Rita, have five children—Robert, Jimmy, Gail, David and Andy. The Rosens make their home in San Francisco.

BOB KENNEDY

Vice President Baseball Operations

Bob Kennedy is one of baseball's senior statesmen, with more than four decades of professional experience as a player, manager and front office executive. Now in his fourth year with the Giants as Al Rosen's top baseball adviser, Kennedy scouts and evaluates top Major League talent and lends his expertise to Rosen on decisions affecting trades, player acquisition and development, scouting and administration.

A longtime colleague and teammate of Rosen's, Kennedy has worked closely with the Giants' President and General Manager over the past eight seasons. Prior to coming to the Giants, Kennedy and Rosen were together for four years in Houston. The General Manager of the Chicago Cubs from 1977-81, he has also been an executive with the Seattle Mariners, St. Louis Cardinals and Cleveland Indians, and has managed the Cubs (1963-65) and Oakland A's (1968). Bob played with the White Sox, Indians, Orioles, Tigers and Brooklyn Dodgers during his Major League career, batting .254. Bob and his wife, Claire, have five children Robert Jr., Terry (the Giants catcher), Colleen, Christine and Kathleen, and 12 grandchildren. The Kennedys reside in Mesa, Arizona.

BOB FONTAINE

Vice President, Scouting

Bob Fontaine is another of the game's most venerable and best-known figures, now in his 48th year in professional baseball, dating back to the signing of his first contract in the Brooklyn Dodgers' system in 1941. Fontaine is in his ninth season as the Giants' top official for scouting, supervising the assignments of and reporting procedures by more than two dozen full-time scouts.

Fontaine learned his trade under the tutelage of the legendary Branch Rickey in Pittsburgh from 1950 to 1968, then joined the expansion San Diego Padres in 1969, eventually becoming their General Manager until joining the Giants in 1980. A native of San Jose, Fontaine attended Bellarmine High School prior to signing with the Dodgers. He and his wife, Laura, have six children and eight grandchildren. The Fontaines reside in Poway, California.

RALPH NELSON

Vice President/Assistant General Manager

Ralph Nelson is in his 14th year with the Giants, and his fourth as the top baseball administrative member of Al Rosen's cabinet. Nelson serves as Rosen's facilitator for player transactions, acquisitions and contractual matters, and supervises daily operations of the Major League clubhouse staff, minor league and player development administration.

Nelson joined the Giants as a publicity intern in 1976. He was named Traveling Secretary and Statistician in 1980 and Minor League Administrator in 1983. After supervising a complete revampment of the Giants' farm and scouting systems, he was named to his current position by Rosen following the 1985 campaign.

A native of Harvey, Illinois, Nelson was a journalism graduate of San Jose State University in 1976. He and his wife, Joanne, have two children and reside in Penngrove, California.

WILSON'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

— Selected by San Francisco in 8th round of June, 1985 draft; signed by scout John Shafer.

TREVOR WILSON'S CAREER HIGHS

MOST STRIKEOUTS: 6, September 24, 1988 vs Los Angeles

MOST INNINGS PITCHED—

STARTER: 6.2, September 10, 1988 vs Houston

LONGEST LOSING STREAK: 2, September 5 - September 24, 1988

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS: 40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

QUALIFYING MARKS: To qualify for the batting championship a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for earned run average leadership a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at bat (at bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING ON BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches, and sacrifice flies.

THE GAME-WINNING RBI: The Game-Winning RBI is defined as "the RBI that gives a club the lead it never relinquishes." There does not have to be a Game-Winning RBI in every game because the winning run can be scored on a wild pitch, error, balk, etc.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

TRADES: Trades can be made without restriction from the first day following the close of the championship season to August 1. From August 1 to the close of the season, Major League waivers are required.

WAIVERS: Waivers must be acquired for an outright assignment of a player to a minor league club. Players claimed on waivers are available in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after the start of the season. Otherwise, in reverse order of standings at close of preceding season.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

DETERMINING A "MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR": 172 days constitute a full year in the Major Leagues.

RELIEF PITCHERS' SAVE RULE: A pitcher is credited with a Save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and, 2) he is not the winning pitcher, and, 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or, b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or, c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

ROOKIE RULE: The Baseball Writers Association of America considers a player a rookie unless during the previous season or seasons he has a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues, or, b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club, excluding military service, during the 25-man limit. The 25-player limit is in effect from Opening Day through August 31.

DAY GAME/NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game.

1988 SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS TEAM HIGHLIGHTS

THE RECORD . . . . San Francisco ended the 1988 campaign in fourth place in the West, 11.5 games out, with an 83-79 record . . . the Giants finished with the same record in 1986 . . . SF was 46-39 at the All-Star break, 45-36 at home and 38-43 on the road . . .

ROGER CRAIG . . . . has posted winning seasons in all three of his full campaigns as the Giants skipper, marking the first time in 17 years the Giants have won more than they have lost in three straight seasons . . . since taking over on Sept. 18, 1985, Roger has managed the club to a 262-242 record . . . that's a winning percentage of .520, the highest by a SF skipper since Clyde King's .534 mark in 1969-70 . . . ran his managerial record on Opening Day to a perfect 5-0 with a 5-1 win @ Los Angeles, April 4 . . . has served as an NL coach in the last two All-Star games . . .

FIRING BLANKS . . . . for only the second time in San Francisco history, the Giants staff posted three consecutive shutouts July 5-8, and had a 30-inning scoreless streak during that stretch . . . Terry Mulholland blanked Chicago 9-0 July 5 . . . Rick Reuschel, Craig Lefferts and Scott Garrelts combined on a 2-0 whitewash of the Cubs July 6 . . . then, following an off day, Mike LaCoss fired a 1-0 shutout vs. St. Louis July 8 . . . it was the first time the Giants had three straight shutouts since May 11-13, 1960 . . .

21-RUN SALUTE . . . . SF's staff had its shutout streak ended on July 9 vs. St. Louis, but the bats didn't stop . . . the Giants set a new San Francisco record for runs in a game with a 21-2 rout of the Cardinals, their largest offensive output since a 21-4 romp vs. Pittsburgh May 25, 1954 . . . they also set a new SF record for margin of victory (19), two short of the franchise mark . . .

10,000th HOME RUN . . . . the Giants hit five home runs in that 21-2 win July 9, including the franchise's 10,000th HR . . . Ernest Riles connected for the historic HR off the Cards' Steve Peters in the 7th inning . . . the Giants are the only National League franchise to reach the 10,000 mark in HRs; only the Yankees have hit more . . .

COMPLETE GAMES . . . . the staff posted 25 complete games in 1988, the most by a Giants staff since 1980 (27) . . . Kelly Downs, Don Robinson and Atlee Hammaker threw consecutive complete games Aug. 9-11, for the first time since 1978 . . .

HOMERS . . . . the Giants hit 113 HRs in 1988, a decrease of 92 roundtrippers from their 1987 SF record of 205 . . . SF slumped through a 12-game streak in which it failed to hit a home run from Aug. 26-Sept. 7, a span of 119 innings . . .

ATTENDANCE . . . . the Giants finished the 1988 home season with the third largest single-season home attendance mark in Giants franchise history, with 1,786,482 fans . . . only 1987, with 1,917,863 customers and 1960, when the Giants drew 1,795,356 in Candlestick's first season, outdrew 1988 . . .

DEFENSE . . . . the 1988 SF club tied a franchise record for fewest errors in a season with 129, tying the 1987 mark . . . the Giants finished seventh in the NL with a .979 fielding percentage and were second with 145 double plays . . .

ALL-STAR . . . . for the third time in 17 years, the Giants had three players named to the All-Star team . . . 1B Will Clark became the first Giant in 15 years, since SS Chris Speier in 1973, to be elected to a starting position in an All-Star Game . . . 2B Robby Thompson and RHP Rick Reuschel were also named to the team, but did not attend . . . Roger Craig made his second consecutive appearance as an NL coach . . .

TRANSACTIONS . . . . San Francisco made 79 different player transactions during the 1988 season, including 26 during the month of August . . . equipment man Mike Murphy suited up 43 different players, including 18 pitchers, three catchers, 13 infielders and nine outfielders . . . over the last three seasons, SF has averaged 75 player moves a year (79 in 1988, 84 in 1987 and 61 in 1986) . . .

DISABLED LIST . . . . the Giants were once again among the DL leaders, using the list 12 times during the 1988 season, including eight times with a pitcher . . . disabled players included: Kelly Downs, Dave Dravecky (twice), Mike Krukow, Mike

LaCoss, Terry Mulholland, Joe Price (twice), Jeffrey Leonard, Francisco Melendez, Phil Garner, and Jose Uribe . . . over the last three years, the Giants have used the DL 35 times . . .

M*A*S*H UNIT . . . . Seven different Giants underwent surgery as a result of injuries suffered during the 1988 season . . . they include: Phil Garner (disc in lower back, April 19), Dave Dravecky (left shoulder, June 11 and removal of cancerous tumor in left arm, Oct. 7), Mike LaCoss (right elbow, July 21), Mike Krukow (right shoulder, Sept. 13), Kevin Mitchell (right knee, Oct. 4), Bob Melvin (left knee, Oct. 4) and Joe Price (left shoulder, Oct. 4) . . .

STARTING HURLERS . . . . due to injuries, the Giants started 12 different pitchers during the 1988 season . . . Rick Reuschel was the only starter who did not miss a turn from the Opening Day rotation of Dave Dravecky, Kelly Downs, Mike Krukow, Mike LaCoss and Reuschel . . . other starters in 1988 were: Joe Price, Atlee Hammaker, Don Robinson, Terry Mulholland, Trevor Wilson, Jeff Brantley, and Dennis Cook . . .

GEORGIA SWEEP . . . . the Giants swept a three-game series from the Braves @ Atlanta June 27-29, marking the first SF sweep in Atlanta since April, 1971 . . .

GIANTS SET RECORD WITH FIVE HOMERS IN ONE INNING

The Giants have twice hit five home runs in one inning, a Major League record. On August 23, 1961, five San Francisco Giants homered in a 12-run, ninth-inning explosion against the Cincinnati Reds. Orlando Cepeda, Felipe Alou, Jim Davenport, Willie Mays and John Orsino all homered at Crosley Field. That tied the record set by the New York Giants on June 6, 1939 (fourth inning) vs. Cincinnati and later tied by the Philadelphia Phillies on June 2, 1949 (eighth inning) vs. Cincinnati. The only American League team to hit five HRs in an inning was Minnesota on June 9, 1966 vs. Kansas City.

GIANTS IN THE WORLD SERIES

Since the World Series began in 1903, the Giants have participated in 15 World Series, winning five World Championships (1905, 1921, 1922, 1933 and 1954). In 1904, the Giants won the National League crown, but the World Series was not played. The Giants also won National League titles in 1888 and 1889. Here's a game-by-game look:

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

The Giants franchise has had a long and proud tradition that has featured some of the best players in baseball during its 106-year history. In fact, the Giants have more enshrined members of the Baseball Hall of Fame than any other franchise.

Here's a look at the 45 Hall of Fame members who have worn Giant uniforms.

CANDLESTICK PARK GROUND RULES

1. A ball hitting either foul pole or the attached screens above the black ring painted on the poles is a home run. A ball hitting foul pole below black ring or hitting top of fence and bounding onto playing field is in play. A fair ball bounding into stands or over fence is a two-base hit.
2. A thrown ball that goes behind the backstop screen is one base, if it was thrown by the pitcher from the rubber. All other overthrows are two bases.
3. A ball going over fence under the screen attached to foul poles is a home run.
4. A ball that hits the fence of the dugouts or bat racks is in play. A ball that goes into the dugout is out of play.
5. A ball that goes into the bullpens is in play.
6. A ball hitting any part of the stands beyond the top of the right field fence and bounding back onto the field is a home run.

EVOLUTION OF CANDLESTICK PARK

GROUND BREAKING

1959—Official construction begins at Candlestick Point in a cove at the southeastern edge of San Francisco.

STADIUM NAMED

1959—The new home of the Giants is officially named "Candlestick Park" in a balloting among fans. More than 15,000 entries were submitted.

OPENING DAY

1960—After two years of playing at Seals Stadium in downtown San Francisco, the Giants' opening day at Candlestick was April 12.

SEATING CAPACITY

1960—The open-end stadium seated 42,500 fans.

1972—Construction to enclose the stadium is completed and seating capacity is expanded to 58,000 for baseball.

PLAYING SURFACE

1960—Natural grass.

1971—Artificial turf is installed in the outfield, the infield (except the infield skin), and foul territory.

1972—Artificial turf installed to cover infield skin (except sliding areas).

1979—Natural grass replaces artificial turf.

1981—Infield skin width reduced three feet.

FIELD DIMENSIONS

1968—Foul lines extended to 335 feet.

1982—Center field moved in to 400 feet and right-center moved in to 365 feet.

OUTFIELD FENCE

1960—10 feet high.

1974—Lowered to 8 feet.

1975—Raised to 12 feet.

1982—Lowered to 9 feet.

CANDLESTICK'S JumboTRON

Candlestick Park's video display board made its debut on Opening Day in 1987 as part of the stadium's $30 million renovation project.

The centerpiece of the $4.5 million ensemble is the Sony JumboTRON, a 24-by-32-foot video screen, which is the first of its kind ever installed in an American baseball stadium. The board is composed of more than 100,000 "Trini-lites," each the size of a deck of playing cards. Every Trini-lite has three color-emitting sections—red, blue and green—and requires eight watts of power. The picture is supplied by three cameras, behind home plate and at the end of each dugout, as well as video feeds from telecasts within the stadium and satellite coverage of other games and events.

A complete state-of-the-art video editing suite, located at the outfield end of the VIP Box in left field, is fully equipped to produce highlights, features and special effects.

The Giants also operate JumboTRON and the message board for Forty-Niners football games.

CANDLESTICK PARK HOME RUNS

Since its opening in 1960, 3615 Major League home runs have been hit in Candlestick Park during the regular season, an average of 125 per year. The first homer was by Leon Wagner of the St. Louis Cardinals in the fifth inning of Opening Day, April 12, 1960. Willie Kirkland was the first Giant to homer at Candlestick (April 13, 1960).

GIANTS TELEVISION-RADIO

The Giants are entering a new era of television broadcasting, while bringing back a familiar personality on radio and television this 1989 season. Now in its fourth season, GiantsVision will air 36 home games this year, including Opening Night for the second straight year. Joe Morgan and Duane Kuiper return to call the action for GiantsVision, now the largest sports pay-per-view system in the nation. Back with a new look in its 28th year as the Giants flagship television station, KTVU (Channel 2) will televise a record 50 games, including three home games, over the Giants Television Network. For the first time ever, KTVU and GiantsVision will both be produced by GiantsVision. Kuiper will share broadcast duties along with Hank Greenwald, who's making his return to Giants telecasts.

Moving over to radio, Hank will team up with Ron Fairly for all 162 regular season contests. KNBR-AM (680 AM), the 50,000-watt powerhouse, is entering its eleventh year as the flagship of the Giants Radio Network.

Spanish-speaking Giants fans in the Bay Area can tune to KLOK radio (1170 AM) which is in its first season as the Giants' Spanish flagship station.

Hank Greenwald

Ron Fairly

Duane Kuiper

Joe Morgan

After a two-year stint with the New York Yankees radio team, Hank Greenwald returns as the play-by-play voice of the Giants on KNBR and KTVU. Hank, who was voice of the Giants from 1979-86, is no stranger to Giants fans. A 1957 graduate of Syracuse University, Hank has done radio play-by-play of University of San Francisco Dons basketball, Syracuse football, Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League and Golden State Warriors.

Ron Fairly returns for his third year in the Giants radio booth. The former first baseman-outfielder had spent the previous eight years calling the action for the California Angels radio and cable broadcasts, following his retirement from active playing in 1978. Fairly's Major League career spanned 21 years with six teams and he appeared in four World Series and two All-Star games.

Joe Morgan is back for his fourth year as the play-by-play anchor of the GiantsVision telecasts and his fifth as a Major League broadcaster since his retirement as an active player in 1984. Morgan began his announcing career with the Cincinnati Reds in 1985, and has also announced games for NBC and ESPN's College World Series. Joe has worked on selected ABC "Monday Night Baseball" telecasts, and drew rave reviews nationwide as the color analyst for the 1988 American League Championship Series telecast on ABC.

Duane Kuiper returns for his third season as Morgan's partner in the GiantsVision booth, and his second year as a member of the KTVU broadcast team. The former infielder spent the last four years of his career with the Giants, following seven with the Cleveland Indians. After retiring in 1985, Kuiper provided commentary on Giants radio and TV broadcasts through the end of that season. From 1982 to 1985, he hosted the "Duane Kuiper Show," a post-game feature on KNBR radio.

SPANISH RADIO

The Bay Area has a Spanish-speaking population of over 1,000,000 people, and changes in the Giants' Spanish radio program for 1989 will allow for a larger percentage of this group to receive broadcasts of Giants' games than ever have before.

KLOK-AM (1170 AM) will carry all home and road Giants' games in 1989, marking the most complete coverage of Giants' Hispanic broadcasting. With a station in Salinas carrying the Spanish broadcasts as well, Spanish-speaking Giants' fans will be better able to follow the team on radio than ever before. With an output of 50,000 watts, KLOK is the most powerful Spanish language flagship station in Giants' history.

Julio Gonzales, one of the game's best known Spanish language play-

Julio Gonzales

by-play voices, will anchor the Giants' Spanish broadcasts for 1989, while former Giants' second baseman Tito Fuentes will team with Gonzales, providing color commentary, pre-game, and post-game coverage.

After joining the Giants' Spanish broadcasts last season in spring training, Gonzales was an immediate hit with the listeners. Prior to joining the Giants' Spanish broadcast team, Gonzales was the Spanish-language voice of the Oakland A's. A native of Nicaragua who came to the U.S. at the age of 11, he received broadcast training from City College of San Francisco and San Francisco State University.

Fuentes is in his fourth season on the Giants Spanish-language broadcast crew. A former Major League second baseman who played for the Giants from 1965 through 1974, Tito also played with San Diego, Detroit and Oakland. A .268 batter over his 13-year career, he was voted the second baseman on the Dream Team for the Giants' first 25 years by San Francisco fans in 1982.
