Terrence M. Pegula

Owner

Back in 1983, Terry Pegula told his business partner Robert H. Long, Jr., "If I ever have more than two nickels to my name, I'm going to buy the Buffalo Sabres one day." Now, almost 30 years later, Terry's dream has come to fruition.

On Feb. 22, 2011, Pegula became the fourth owner in Buffalo Sabres franchise history. On the day Pegula was introduced as owner, the Sabres were 27-25-6 and sat in ninth place in the Eastern Conference - five points out of a playoff spot. Pegula's purchase not only reenergized the fan base, but the players as well. With Pegula now at the helm, the Sabres went on a 16-4-4 run over the final 24 games of the season to finish seventh in the East. This included a 9-1-2 record at home, and First Niagara Center – which quickly became known as "Pegulaville" – was sold out for all 12 games of the new era of Sabres ownership.
Soon after purchasing the Sabres, Pegula explored the idea of acquiring the Rochester Americans, the AHL team that had previously spent 29 years as the Sabres' affiliate before a three-year hiatus. On June 24, 2011, the Sabres announced the reunification of the Western New York teams.

Pegula's interest in the NHL began when the Sabres faced the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1975 Stanley Cup Final. His affection for the "French Connection" Line began with that series, and led to his affinity for the Sabres franchise. While operating East Resources Inc. in Western New York and Pittsburgh throughout the 1980's and 90's, and living in Vestal, Olean and Orchard Park during that span, Terry first bought season tickets at the Memorial Auditorium in 1980. He remained a loyal Sabres season ticket holder for the next 18 seasons.

Born in 1951 and raised in Carbondale, PA, he attended high school at Scranton Preparatory School. Pegula entered Penn State University as a Math major, but in order to stay in school he entered the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering program through a scholarship. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973, and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, TX. He later joined Felmont Oil Co., a decision that first brought him to Olean, NY, in 1975.

In 1983, he borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to found East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and development company. Over the next 27 years, he built it into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc. for $4.7 billion (US). That sale allowed the Pegulas to make their first foray into the hockey world.

On September 17, 2010, Terry and his wife, Kim, donated $88 million to Penn State University -- the largest private gift in the history of the school -- to fund a state-of-the-art, multi-purpose arena, a world-class practice facility and help to establish an NCAA Division I men's hockey program. Thanks to their generosity, Penn State is now able to add both men's and women's varsity hockey teams, and they will both begin play in the 2012-13 season. The building will include two ice sheets, and serve as the only major ice facility within an 80-mile radius of State College. In addition to providing hockey and figure skating opportunities for the entire Central Pennsylvania region, it will also be used for a broad range of campus and community activities. With design and construction meetings being held currently, Penn State hopes to break ground on the University Park campus for the Pegula Ice Arena later this year.

Terry and Kim currently reside in Boca Raton, FL, and have five children: Michael (33), Laura (29), Jessica (17), Kelly (15) and Matthew (12). Pegula's younger daughters, Jessica and Kelly, were both born in Buffalo. A native of nearby Rochester, NY, Kim Pegula is a 1991 graduate of nearby Houghton College with a degree in Communications, and was involved with East Resources since 1991. Together they have also founded Black River Music Group, a country music label based in Nashville, TN, and Ayrault Sports Agency based in Charlotte, NC.

Executive Team

Theodore Black
President

Over the last decade, Ted has compiled a track record of success and experience that few sports executives can match. Ted is an accomplished leader who contributed to and presided over unprecedented growth with both the Pittsburgh Penguins and FSN Pittsburgh. He enjoys close relationships with top executives, corporate sponsors, professional sports teams, television networks and at the National Hockey League.

In late 2010, Terry Pegula enlisted Ted to undertake the task of assembling and leading the group of professionals to advise Mr. Pegula on the acquisition of the Buffalo Sabres. Ted's responsibilities included guiding the transaction negotiations, due diligence and NHL approval process.

Previously, Ted served as the senior vice president and general manager of FSN Pittsburgh, a regional sports television network that produced and televised more than 220 live pro events and 1,500 hours of programming per year. Under Ted's executive leadership, FSN Pittsburgh grew advertising revenues every year and telecast a record number of live pro events. The station also generated record revenues, record earnings, record ratings and was widely recognized as the top-rated US-based Regional Sports Network in the National Hockey League.

Prior to his tenure at FSN, Ted was a member of Mario Lemieux's senior management team and served as vice president of the Pittsburgh Penguins from 1999 to 2008. Ted was a member of the core group of executives that helped Lemieux execute one of the most successful franchise transformations in the history of professional sports. Ted was intimately involved in all senior executive-level decisions and strategic planning concerning the marketing, branding, sales and overall business operations and management of the team. In addition to being a key strategist during the Penguins' efforts to get a new arena, Ted served as the day-to-day project leader for the new arena during the pre-construction phase of the project. He also interviewed and helped to recruit Ray Shero to become the club's general manager. Ted was active with the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins and served as the team's Alternate Governor to the AHL.

In 2005, Ted was honored and recognized by Pittsburgh Magazine as a "Forty Under Forty" community leader. He served as Chairman of the American Heart Association's 2011 Buffalo Niagara Heart Walk and was Honorary Chairman of the 19th Annual Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Niagara County Charity Golf Tournament.

Ted is a 1987 graduate of Allegheny College and he received his J.D. from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law in 1990. Ted now lives in Buffalo with his wife, Amy, and their two hockey-playing sons, Andrew (19) and Nathan (16).

Executive Team

Cliff Benson

Chief Development Officer

Cliff Benson's tenure as chief development officer with the Buffalo Sabres began prior to the start of the 2011-12 season. Benson's main duties as chief development officer includes overseeing the Buffalo Sabres Foundation and other initiatives throughout the Buffalo and Western New York communities.

Previously, Benson served the team as a senior sdvisor and was instrumental in the purchase of both the Sabres in February 2011 and the team's AHL affiliate, the Rochester Americans, in June 2011 by Sabres owner Terry Pegula. Benson was also instrumental in facilitating Pegula's $88 million donation to help launch a Division-I men's ice hockey program at Pennsylvania State University last year.

Benson, a CPA and attorney, served the Deloitte Tax LLP organization for 37 years, including 10 years as lead client service partner in the market place function. He became partner in 1981 and served in the New York and South Florida offices before transferring to Pittsburgh and eventually retiring in May 2010.

In 2000, Benson, along with members of the Pittsburgh Penguins Alumni, formed Hockey in the Hood. Founded with a grant from the National Hockey League's Diversity Task Force and assistance from the Pittsburgh Penguins, Hockey in the Hood (now called Pittsburgh ICE) was one of 40 major diversity ice hockey programs throughout the United States and Canada with the goal of reaching underprivileged inner-city children by teaching them skating and ice hockey lessons.

Benson served as the lead client service partner for the worldwide services provided to the United States Steel Corporation and H.J. Heinz. Other clients served over his long career at Deloitte include Armco, Bayer Corporation, Marathon Oil, PPG Industries, Rockwell International, the Pittsburgh Penguins and East Resources.

Benson is passionate about serving the community and has been actively involved in charitable organizations for most of his career – primarily those that benefit inner city children with limited opportunities. He is affiliated with Quaker Valley Hockey Association, Imani Christian Academy (Board Chair), Pittsburgh Kids Foundation , and Silver Ring Thing. Cliff was privileged to make three trips to Haiti bringing medical relief following the 2010 earthquake.

Executive Team

Ken Sawyer

Senior Advisor & Alternate Governor

Ken Sawyer is entering his second year as senior advisor for the Buffalo Sabres. Sawyer's primary duty is to assist owner Terry Pegula on major organizational and hockey-related decisions for the franchise.

Sawyer's working career spans 40 years, including 14 as the chief financial officer of the National Hockey League and 11 years as a senior executive of the Pittsburgh Penguins. He joined the Penguins in September 1999, the day after the team emerged from bankruptcy protection under a new ownership group led by Mario Lemieux. He first served as executive vice president and chief financial officer, becoming President in 2003 and later being appointed chief executive officer in 2006.

Under his leadership, the Penguins adopted a strategic plan to ensure that the team would be successful both on the ice and as a business, and thus be assured of a long future in Pittsburgh. During his tenure, the on-ice product was rebuilt and now consists of one of the best rosters of young players in the NHL, including superstars Sidney Crosby and Evgeni Malkin. In 2009, the team reached the pinnacle of success on the ice, winning the Stanley Cup for the third time in franchise history. As CEO, Sawyer oversaw all of the Penguins' operations and the team has emerged as a tremendous success off the ice as well, selling out every game since early 2007. Sawyer led efforts to finance and then construct the CONSOLEnergy Center, which opened in August 2010.

Sawyer also has extensive experience in League matters after representing the Penguins as a governor of the NHL and serving as chief financial officer of the NHL for 14 years. During that time he served on every major committee of the NHL.

Sawyer is a graduate of McGill University in his native Montreal, Que., and a member of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants. He is a past member of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Hero Fund and a current member of the Board of Trustees of the Heinz History Center in Pittsburgh. In 2010, Sawyer was honored as a recipient of the Management Achievement Award from the Faculty of Management at McGill University. Ken and his wife, Shirley, reside in Stuart, Fla. and have two married sons and three grandchildren.

Hockey Operations

Darcy Regier
General Manager

The 2012-13 season will be the 16th year Darcy Regier serves as general manager for the Buffalo Sabres, the longest tenure of any GM in the 42-year history of the franchise. The Sabres have posted a regular season record of 565-422-161under Regier's guidance, while also advancing to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1999 and making four Eastern Conference Finals appearances (1998, 1999, 2006 and 2007). Regier and head coach Lindy Ruff form the longest-serving GM/Head Coach combination in pro sports, and have had more success than any tandem in franchise history.

Regier and his scouting staff have consistently built a solid foundation of talent, year after year, through the NHL Entry Draft. Proof of their drafting success can be seen every time the Sabres take the ice. In the 2011-12 season, 11 of the team's top 15 scorers were acquired through the Entry Draft and have spent time with the team's AHL affiliates. This list includes Thomas Vanek, Tyler Ennis, Jason Pominville, Tyler Myers and Drew Stafford – all of whom later signed long-term contracts with the Sabres.

The long-term success of Regier's draft picks can often be spotted early, as his draft picks have made a habit of scooping up numerous AHL awards while playing for the Sabres' affiliate teams. AHL award-winners have included three consecutive AHL Rookie of the Year winners: Nathan Gerbe (2008-09), Tyler Ennis (2009-10) and Luke Adam (2010-11) and AHL Goaltender of the Year Ryan Miller for the 2004-05 season. His draft selections have gone on to win awards at the NHL level as well, with Miller being awarded the 2010 Vezina Trophy and 2008 first-round selection Tyler Myers winning the Calder Trophy that same year.

Regier has found a lot of success in the earlier rounds of the draft. Buffalo's roster includes several players who were drafted in the first or second round since Regier's first draft in 1997, including: Vanek (1st, 2003), Pominville (2nd, 2001), Myers (1st, 2008), Ennis (1st, 2008) and Stafford (1st, 2004). Each of these early-round draft picks were among the top five goal scorers on the team during the 2011-12 season. Regier and his staff recently secured other early-round pick, Jhonas Enroth (2nd, 2006) and Mike Weber (2nd, 2006), to multi-year contracts in 2011.

Productive players have also been found in later rounds, from veterans like Miller (5th, 1999) to youngsters such as Gerbe (5th, 2005), who has already made an impact in the organization. Gerbe joined Sabres draft pick Andrej Sekera (3rd, 2004) in signing a multi-year deal in 2011.

The hockey department's success hasn't been limited to their hard work on draft day. Over the course of last season, Regier and his staff orchestrated some of the more notable trades in the NHL. At the 2012 trade deadline, Regier finalized two trades to further bolster the team's roster while also securing future draft picks. Buffalo acquired Cody Hodgson, the 10th overall pick in the 2008 Entry Draft, and defenseman Alexander Sulzer from Vancouver in exchange for Zack Kassian and Marc-Andre Gragnani. In another trade at the deadline, Buffalo acquired an additional first-round pick in the 2012 Entry Draft in exchange for forward Paul Gaustad and a fourth-round pick in the 2013 Entry Draft.

During the 2012 Entry Draft, Regier was able to trade up again, this time swapping one of Buffalo's first-round picks (21st overall) and its second-round selection with Calgary to move up and have two picks in the first 14 selections of the first-round. Having two picks early in the first round enabled Buffalo to select promising centers Mikhail Grigorenko and Zemgus Girensons.

In an effort to add more depth and toughness to the Sabres, Regier completed another trade in Summer 2012 when Buffalo acquired forward Steve Ott and defenseman Adam Pardy from the Dallas Stars in exchange for center Derek Roy.

The trades of this summer and the 2011-12 season come on the heels of several notable trades and free agent signings before last season started. Summer 2011 saw Regier aggressively bolster the defense by acquiring Christian Ehrhoff and Robyn Regehr. Forward Ville Leino was also acquired through free agency and signed a multi-year deal during the offseason.

Prior to joining the Sabres, Regier served in roles with the New York Islanders as Director of Hockey Administration, Assistant Coach, and Assistant General Manager. While on Long Island, he supervised the club's amateur development, and saw their International Hockey League affiliate win back-to-back championships (Denver Grizzlies in 1994-95 and then, after moving to Salt Lake City, the Utah Grizzlies in 1995-96). Legendary Islanders coach Al Arbour, along with Bill Torrey, who served in roles as General Manager, President, Chairman of the Board and Consultant with New York, were significant contributors to Regier's career in hockey. Regier left the Islanders organization briefly in the 1991-92 season to serve as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers.

Born in Swift Current, Saskatchewan, Regier was the fifth choice (77th overall) of the California Golden Seals in the 1976 Amateur Draft. He appeared in 26 NHL games over the course of three seasons with the Cleveland Barons and the New York Islanders, totaling two assists and 35 penalty minutes. Regier played parts of eight seasons of professional hockey and was a member of three championship teams. In 1982, he was named a First Team All-Star with Indianapolis (IHL), where he learned from one of the people he considers an influence on his hockey life, current Detroit Red Wings Senior Vice President Jim Devellano, then the team's general manager.

During his playing career, Regier was also involved in the early setup of the Professional Hockey Players' Association.

Darcy and his wife, Katherine, reside in Clarence and have three sons: Jonathan, Justin and Jarrett.

Lindy Ruff
Head Coach

On July 21, 1997, Lindy Ruff was hired to be the 15th head coach in Buffalo Sabres history. Fifteen years and many milestones later, Ruff stands alone as the longest tenured head coach in the NHL and the second-longest tenured coach in all professional major league sports in the U.S. During his career, Ruff has not only become the winningest coach in Sabres history, but his success and longevity have put him among the top coaches in league history.

Last season, Ruff guided the Sabres to a 39-32-11 record and a third-place finish in the Northeast Conference. For the second year in a row, Ruff led his team to a second-half surge toward the end of the season. As a mid-season slump put Buffalo near the bottom of the conference in February, the team began to surge and make a run at the postseason. March was the franchise's best month since December 2005 with the team recording a 10-4-2 record and snatching up 22 points. It was only the sixth time in club history that a Sabres team was able to earn at least 22 points in a month's time.

The team's success in late February and March pushed Buffalo back into the playoff picture when Buffalo captured eighth place in the Eastern Conference on March 27. However, the team finished ninth in the conference and did not qualify for postseason play.

Despite missing the playoffs, the 2011-12 campaign pushed Ruff even farther up the all-time coaching record lists. He finished the season with 565 career wins, passing Marc Crawford (549). Entering the 2012-13 season, his career record stands at 565-422-161. Ruff finished the season by coaching his 1,148th game, which lands him 12th all-time in league history. Among active coaches, Ruff is ranked fourth and fifth in games coached and total wins, respectively.

What sets Ruff apart is the success he's had with a single franchise. Ruff has spent his entire head coaching career leading the Sabres and now ranks second in league history in games coached (1,148) and wins (565) with a single franchise. He trails only the legendary Al Arbour, who coached 1,500 games and won 740 contests with the New York Islanders.

Ruff established himself as one of the league's premier coaches early in his career. He reached the playoffs in his first season, an achievement none of his predecessors had ever experienced. The 1997-98 squad set a team record by winning eight straight playoff games and tied the club mark with 10 playoff wins. The Conference Finals appearance was the team's first since 1980, which, ironically, was Ruff's rookie year with Buffalo.

In only his second season as head coach, Ruff led the 1998-99 Sabres to their first Stanley Cup Finals appearance in 24 years and established himself as one of the league's top coaches. He also achieved a club record that season for the most wins (14) in one playoff year. In the process, Ruff became only the third head coach under the present Stanley Cup Playoff format to lead his team to the Conference Finals in each of his first two seasons.

After the NHL Lockout in 2004-05, the Sabres would yet again experience unquestioned success under Ruff's leadership. He led the surprising Sabres to the Eastern Conference Finals in 2005-06, where the team lost on the road in Game 7 against the Carolina Hurricanes. For these accomplishments, Ruff was honored by the NHL with the Jack Adams Award as the league's Coach of the Year, joining Ted Nolan (1997) as the only other head coach in team history to receive this honor.

During the 2006-07 season, the Sabres had their finest year under Ruff statistically when the team won a franchise-record 53 games and captured the first Presidents' Trophy in club history, while leading both the Northeast Division and Eastern Conference from wire-to-wire. This was also the first time in franchise history the Sabres had posted back-to-back 50-win seasons. Buffalo returned to the Eastern Conference Finals for the second consecutive season, and the fourth time under Ruff's guidance. On April 5, 2007, a 5-4 Buffalo victory over Ottawa made Ruff the 31st coach in NHL history to record 300 career wins, and the 16th in NHL history to reach the milestone with the same team.

Ruff was named to the 2007 NHL All-Star Game for the second time in his career as Head Coach of the Eastern Conference squad, and was runner-up to Vancouver's Alain Vigneault for the Jack Adams Trophy as the NHL's Coach of the Year. Ruff also coached the World team the 1999 All-Star Game in Tampa Bay. He joined Scotty Bowman and Floyd Smith as the only Buffalo coaches to be named as head coach of an All-Star Team.

Lindy Ruff Head Coach

In 2010, Ruff received yet another honor in his prolific career as he was selected as a member of the coaching staff for the Canadian men's hockey team that took home a gold medal at the 2010 Winter Olympic Games in Vancouver.

Ruff was the Sabres' second-round (32nd overall) draft pick in 1979 following a distinguished career as a defenseman with Lethbridge (WHL). He made the team at his first training camp and played in 63 games. After the 1979-80 season, he was named the team's rookie of the year. Ruff ranks sixth all-time on the Sabres' regular season list in penalty minutes (1,126) and is tied for 12th in games played (608). In 691 career games, he recorded 105 goals and 195 assists to go with 1,264 penalty minutes.

In his 1981-82 season, Ruff was converted to play left wing after having been a defenseman throughout his junior career and first two professional seasons. In November 1986, he received perhaps his greatest individual honor as a Sabre when he was selected to replace Gilbert Perreault as team captain after the legend's retirement.

Ruff ended his playing career after serving as a player/assistant coach for the 1992-93 season with the San Diego Gulls of the IHL. Head Coach Roger Nielson (who coached Ruff in Buffalo and with the Rangers) tabbed Ruff as one of his assistants for the expansion Florida Panthers for the 1993-94 campaign. As the primary coach of the penalty killing unit and defensemen, Ruff received many accolades for his work. In just their third season, the over-achieving and hard-working Panthers squad advanced to the 1996 Stanley Cup Finals.

The 52-year-old Ruff and his wife, Gaye, reside in Clarence, N.Y., with their four children: Brett (23), Eryn (21), and twins Brian and Madeleine (18).

SEASON REVIEW

A Season in Review

2011-12

The 2011-12 season began on a high note as Buffalo traveled to Europe to take part in the NHL Premiere Series and came away with two wins in Helsinki and Berlin. The team returned home to the newly-named First Niagara Center, which had recently undergone a multi-million dollar facelift, and continued its success on the ice by winning five of its first six games of the year.

A midseason slump put Buffalo near the bottom of the conference in February as the trade deadline approached and the team hoped for a change when it traded Zack Kassian and Marc-Andre Gragnani to Vancouver for center Cody Hodgson and defenseman Alexander Sulzer. Another shakeup of the roster came at the deadline when eight-year veteran Paul Gaustad was traded to Nashville for first- and fourth-round draft picks.

The roster changes, along with the return of a multitude of injured players, seemed to provide a spark for the team and Buffalo quickly started its climb up the conference standings in the second half of the season. March was the franchise's best month since December 2005, with the team recording a 10-4-2 record and snatching up 22 points. It was only the sixth time in club history that a Sabres team was able to earn at least 22 points in a month's time.

The team's success in late February and March pushed Buffalo back into the playoff picture when Buffalo captured eighth place in the Eastern Conference on March 27. However, the team dropped four of its next five games to finish the season without a playoff berth.

A key factor in the team's success during the second half of the season was the strong play of its goaltender, Ryan Miller, who posted 31 wins and a career-high six shutouts during the season despite suffering a concussion earlier in the year. With the 31 wins, Miller became only the sixth goaltender in NHL history to record six consecutive seasons with at least 30 wins. Miller also forever etched a place in Sabres history by passing Dominik Hasek's franchise record of 234 wins – he finished the season with 252 career wins for the club.

Leading the Sabres' offensive attack for the year were NHL All-Star and team captain Jason Pominville and Thomas Vanek. Tyler Ennis made the switch from winger to center during the second-half surge and anchored one of the team's more productive offensive lines with Drew Stafford and rookie Marcus Foligno. Foligno, the son of Sabres Hall-of-Famer Mike Foligno, established himself as one of the team's more promising rookies after becoming just the third active NHL player to record at least five goals in his first six career games – joining the likes of Evgeni Malkin and Teemu Selanne – and was named NHL Rookie of the Month for March.

Defensively, the Sabres were bolstered by offseason acquisitions Christian Ehrhoff and Robyn Regehr, both of whom were acquired by Buffalo in trades prior to the opening of free agency in June 2011. The veterans joined 2009 Calder Trophy winner Tyler Myers on the blue line after Myers signed a new, long-term contract with the Sabres in August 2011.

Buffalo Sabres Retired Numbers

Retired Numbers

The Buffalo Sabres have retired only six numbers since the franchise's inception in 1970. The first Sabre to have his number retired was Gilbert Perreault (#11) on Oct. 17, 1990. The combination of center Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert was one of the greatest lines in hockey history and without a doubt the best in Buffalo Sabres' history. The three wore the blue and gold together from 1972 to 1979 and were labeled "The French Connection," a name whose familiarity was helped by the 1971 movie of the same name. The trio was honored as Martin (#7) and Robert (#14) joined Perreault in a ceremony to retire the numbers of Buffalo's famed "French Connection" on Nov. 15, 1995. The fourth Sabre to have his number retired was Tim Horton (#2) on Jan. 5, 1996. The Sabres retired two more numbers during the 2005-06 season. Right winger Danny Gare (#18) was honored on Nov. 22, 2005, while Pat LaFontaine's #16 was hoisted to the rafters on March 3, 2006.

Gilbert Perreault can best be described as the "Original Sabre." The NHL Hall of Famer was Buffalo's first ever draft choice and set the standard by which all future Sabres would be measured. Perreault earned the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year following his inaugural 1970-71 campaign. Even Perreault's uniform number bore the marks of an original Sabre, as it was #11 that came up on the wheel that gave Buffalo the first overall pick in the 1970 draft. Perreault's sportsmanship and outstanding play also helped him capture the Lady Byng Trophy in 1973. One of Perreault's six NHL All-Star games was the 1978 edition in Buffalo when he scored the game-winning goal 3:55 into overtime. He also served as the Sabres' team captain from 1981-82 until his November 1986 retirement. Perreault is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, as well as both the Buffalo Sabres and Greater Buffalo Sports Halls of Fame. Perreault is still the team's all-time leader in career (regular season) games played, goals, assists, points and game-winning goals. There was only one number 11 in Buffalo Sabres history and, rightfully so, there will never be another.

Buffalo Sabres fans saw Rick Martin in almost 750 regular season and playoff games between 1971 and 1981. Number 7's career with the Sabres was highlighted by a Stanley Cup Finals appearance in 1974-75. That spring, Martin finished with 52 goals, one of which was the 1,000th in team history. The year prior, on the final night of the 1973-74 campaign, he recorded a hat trick at "The Aud" against St. Louis to become the first player in Sabres' history to record 50 or more goals in one season. Martin even gave the hometown fans a reason to cheer in a game at "The Aud" in which he wasn't wearing a Sabres' uniform. On Jan. 24, 1978, he scored the tying goal in the 31st NHL All-Star Game with just 1:39 left in regulation time to force overtime. That was just one of seven of the League's showcase games he would appear in during his career. He still holds two single-season Sabres records and is tied for another. In addition, Martin remains in the top three in seven of Buffalo's (regular season) career leaders categories. Martin passed away on March 13, 2011, and his life was celebrated in a public memorial service at HSBC Arena on March 24. The team honored his memory by painting the number seven on the ice behind each goal for the remainder of the regular season and playoffs.

1971-72 to 1978-79 right wing

Number retired November 15, 1995

14

Career Sabres Totals:
	524 games played	222 goals	330 assists	552 points (regular season)
	47 games played	22 goals	17 assists	39 points (playoffs)

With the warm spring air mixing with "The Aud" ice, Rene Robert skated out of the mist and scored the famous "Fog Goal" by beating Flyers' goalie Bernie Parent in overtime of game three of the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. The historic goal might not have taken place if not for the Sabres' persistence in acquiring Robert. His road to Buffalo started by the Sabres claiming him from Toronto, only to lose the winger to Pittsburgh in the Intra-League draft on June 8, 1971. The Sabres were then able to acquire the final component of "The French Connection" in a trade with the Penguins on March 4, 1972. Robert finished the 1974-75 regular season with 100 points, marking the first time in club annals that a player reached the century mark in points in one season. That season, Robert was voted by his teammates as Buffalo's most valuable player. He later recorded another Sabres milestone by scoring the 2,000th goal in club history on Dec. 22, 1977. Robert still ranks as Buffalo's fifth all-time assist leader with 330 in his career with the Sabres. Coincidentally, Robert had also once worn number 7 in the blue and gold. He played in both the 1973 and 1975 NHL All-Star games.

Tim HORTON

1972-73 to 1973-74 defense

Number retired January 5, 1996

Career Sabres Totals:
	124 games played	1 goal	22 assists	23 points (regular season)
	6 games played	0 goals	1 assist	1 point (playoffs)

Tim Horton skated in the Sabres' blue, white and gold for only two seasons, but the solid defenseman certainly made his mark on the team. Horton came to Buffalo in the intra-league draft in June 1972 from Pittsburgh. Following that campaign, proof that he had made an impression on his fourth NHL club (also played for Toronto, N.Y. Rangers and Pittsburgh) came when he was named the recipient of the Memorial Award as the team's most valuable player as voted by his teammates. Today, in honor of the late defenseman, Horton's name is on the Buffalo award presented annually to the player whose performance is far superior to the public recognition he has received (known as the Unsung Hero Award before 1975). Horton saw action in 1,446 NHL regular season games plus 126 more in the postseason. Included in his playing days were eight out of nine complete 70-game seasons played between 1958-59 and 1966-67. Horton was a member of four Stanley Cup winning teams with Toronto and appeared in seven NHL All-Star games. Horton became a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1977 and is also a member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame.

Buffalo Sabres Retired Numbers

Danny GARE

1974-75 to 1981-82 right wing

Number retired November 22, 2005

18

Career Sabres Totals:	503 games played	267 goals	233 assists	500 points (regular season)
	58 games played	23 goals	21 assists	44 points (playoffs)

Danny Gare played his first game for the Sabres on October 10, 1974 against Boston, and scored just 18 seconds into his first NHL shift. He finished his rookie season with 62 points (31+31) and contributed 13 points (7+6) in the Sabres' run to the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. Gare followed up his strong rookie campaign with his first of two 50-goal seasons in 1975-76, when he netted 50 goals and 23 assists in 79 games, and chipped in two game-winning goals in the playoffs. That season, Gare recorded three of his 10 career hat tricks as a Sabre. In 1979-80, he scored a career-high 56 goals, including a club-record 11 game-winners. Rick Martin is the only other Sabre to have two 50-goal seasons. With 267 goals as a Sabre, Gare holds the record for goals by a Sabres right wing. He finished his Sabres career with 500 points. Gare's career as a Sabre came to an end on Dec. 2, 1981 when he was traded to the Detroit Red Wings. He spent his final NHL season in Edmonton in 1986-87. The Nelson, B.C. native finished his career with 685 points (354+331), and was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 1994.

Pat LaFontaine enjoyed an illustrious 15-year career before retiring from the NHL in 1998 as the second highest-scoring American-born player with 468 goals and 1,013 points. He was born in St. Louis, but grew up in the suburbs of Detroit, and is still considered one of the game's best playmakers, fastest skaters, and most humble of superstars. A member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto, LaFontaine began his career in 1983-84 with the New York Islanders. He had a career year for Buffalo in 1992-93 when he set Sabres records for points (148) and assists (95) in a season. After being sidelined by a serious knee injury for most of the 1993-94 season, he returned as team captain in 1994-95 and was awarded the Bill Masterton Trophy for perseverance and dedication to hockey. LaFontaine was with the Sabres from 1991-1997, finishing with 385 points (158+227) in 268 games. He completed the "Empire State Hat Trick" by playing for all three NHL organizations within New York State when he was traded to the Rangers in 1997. He remained one of the Rangers' leading scorers until injuries forced him to prematurely retire on August 11, 1998.

Buffalo Sabres Alumni Plaza

Alumni Plaza

On October 12, 2012, the Buffalo Sabres unveiled the newly named 'Alumni Plaza' outside First Niagara Center, designed to honor all former members of the team. As part of the plaza's transformation, the six concrete columns that support a pedestrian walkway above the plaza were surrounded by bricks and mortar. Every player ever to play a game for the franchise is commemorated with a plaque on those bricks, detailing his first game with the Sabres.

Also unveiled that day was the centerpiece of Alumni Plaza: a cast in bronze statue depicting the French Connection. Comprised of center Gilbert Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert, the French Connection is widely considered to be one of the greatest forward lines in NHL history and remains the most celebrated offensive unit in Buffalo Sabres history. The trio, all of whom were French-Canadian, was dubbed 'The French Connection' – after the 1971 film of the same name – and played together in Buffalo from the team's acquisition of Robert on March 4, 1972 until his departure on October 5, 1979.

Between them, the members of The French Connection played 2,396 games for the Sabres, scoring 1,116 goals and registering 2,573 total points. During their tenure in Buffalo, the three were honored with a combined 15 NHL All-Star Game appearances and seven selections to the First and Second NHL All-Star Teams. All three are members of the Sabres Hall of Fame and have had their numbers officially retired from use by the Sabres. Perreault, the franchise's first ever draft pick, served as the team's captain for five seasons and retired after 17 NHL seasons – all with the Sabres.

Inspiration for the statue came from a photograph taken during a playoff game at Memorial Auditorium on April 27, 1975 which features all three members of The French Connection. The photograph was taken by award-winning photographer Ron Moscati. During the game in which the photograph was taken, all three members of the French Connection scored a goal to lead the Sabres to a playoff win against the Montreal Canadiens.

To design and construct the statue, the Sabres commissioned distinguished American sculptor Jerry McKenna. McKenna is well known for his sports statues, and was named the 2003 'Sports Sculptor of the Year' by the All-American Football Foundation. A specially-designed pedestal, constructed by HHL Architects of Buffalo, features an integrated lighting system and an illuminated informational panel which provides a base for the statue.

History of the Team

Buffalo Sabres Est. 1970

The NHL officially came to Buffalo on Dec. 2, 1969, when the league awarded Seymour and Northrup Knox the franchise that would soon be named "Sabres." The brothers wasted little time in hiring George "Punch" Imlach, formerly of the Toronto Maple Leafs, as the team's first Head Coach and General Manager. In June 1970, the Sabres were awarded the first pick in the NHL Entry Draft, and Imlach selected highly-touted center Gilbert Perreault from the Montreal Jr. Canadiens. Perreault lived up to the advance billing, scoring 38 goals his rookie season en route to winning the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year.

Another Junior Canadien, left winger Rick Martin, joined Perreault on the team's front line as the Sabres' top pick in 1971. That dominating duo turned into a trio when Rene Robert was acquired from the Pittsburgh Penguins near the end of the 1971-72 season. The line of Martin-Perreault-Robert would be dubbed "The French Connection" and would become one of the most dominating scoring lines of the 1970s.

By 1974-75, the young team was maturing and finished the season with a 49-16-15 record - still the best-ever season numbers in franchise history. Buffalo defeated Chicago in the first round of the playoffs and followed that with a second-round victory over Montreal to earn its first-ever berth in the Stanley Cup Finals vs. Philadelphia. While the Flyers defeated the Sabres in six games, the loss did not blemish the accomplishment of a team which had only been in the league for five years.

The Sabres had an opportunity to hire one of the game's all-time coaching greats, Scotty Bowman, and did so in 1979. In his first season as head coach, Bowman led the Sabres to the Wales Conference Finals before they lost, 4-2, to the eventual Stanley Cup Champion New York Islanders. Bowman finished with an impressive 210-134-60 mark.

Bowman spent the next few seasons revamping the Sabres' lineup, adding players such as Mike Ramsey, Phil Housley, Mike Foligno, Dave Andreychuk and Tom Barrasso. Those players formed the core of successful teams, and helped continue the tradition of winning hockey.

Through the good times and the bad times, there was always Perreault. Robert and Martin had both been traded by the early 1980s, but the original Sabre remained and continued to flourish. On March 9, 1986, Perreault and an Aud full of fans celebrated together as the franchise's favorite son scored his 500th career goal, making him the 12th player in history (at the time) to reach that milestone. Four years later, in 1990, Perreault was immortalized with induction into Hockey's Hall of Fame. This would be an omen of better things to come for the franchise.

Five-time Stanley Cup Champion John Muckler was chosen in 1991 to be the team's Director of Hockey Operations and soon assumed the title of head coach. He was instrumental in acquiring Pat LaFontaine from the Islanders in October 1991. LaFontaine teamed with Russian Alexander Mogilny to form a dynamic duo that combined to score 129 goals in 1992-93, including a franchise-record 76 goals by Mogilny. Buffalo capped that season by sweeping the Bruins in the first round of the playoffs to post its first playoff series win in 10 years.

That playoff excitement was just a precursor to Game Six of the 1994 Eastern Conference Quarterfinals vs. the New Jersey Devils. Buffalo won that game, 1-0, in four overtimes on a goal by Dave Hannan. Dominik Hasek posted an incredible 70 saves in the victory, playing the entire 125:43 without allowing a goal. Following that season, Hasek would win the first of two consecutive Vezina Trophies as the NHL's top goaltender. But that would only set the stage for the 1996-97 season.

Before it even started, the 1996-97 campaign was already one of the most memorable in team history. It would represent the first time in the team's history that it would have new uniforms (red and black replaced blue and gold) as well as a new state-of-the-art arena (HSBC Arena replaced Memorial Auditorium).

The Sabres shocked many of the so-called experts by winning the Northeast Division; the team's first-such title since winning the Adams Division championship in 1981.

The end of the season also brought many notable achievements off the ice. The Sabres were the stars of the NHL's postseason awards banquet. Hasek won the Hart Trophy as league MVP, the first time a goalie had achieved such a feat since 1962. For good measure, Hasek also took home his third Vezina in four years, an equally stunning feat. Michael Peca, a 23-year-old center in just his second full season, joined Craig Ramsay as the only Sabres to win the Selke Trophy, symbolic of the league's best defensive forward. Ted Nolan won the Jack Adams Award as the Coach of the Year.

Lindy Ruff was named the Sabres' head coach at the start of the next season, and led Buffalo to the Eastern Conference Finals. The Sabres eventually fell to the Capitals in six games, but their performance marked the team's best playoff finish since 1980. Hasek once again shined bright, taking home his fourth Vezina Trophy and becoming the first goaltender ever to win two consecutive Hart Trophies.

Buffalo celebrated its 30th anniversary season in the NHL in 1999-00 with the impressive rookie debuts of Martin Biron and Maxim Afinogenov. The development of Biron and Afinogenov, combined with the late-season additions of veterans Doug Gilmour and Chris Gratton, enabled the Sabres to continue their winning ways as they began their fourth decade of play in the NHL.

The 2000-01 campaign will be remembered as one of the most successful seasons in recent memory, as the Sabres won the fourth-most games in team history (46). Once again, Miroslav Satan led the team in goals scored and total points in the regular season and had a stellar postseason with three goals, a team-high 10 assists and 13 total points. As a whole, the Sabres were the league's top defense, allowing the fewest goals and boasting the best penalty-killing unit. Andreychuk proved that you can go home again, returning to the Sabres to score 20 goals – including eight on the power play – and add some veteran leadership to a young, yet maturing, hockey club. And as he had in past seasons, Hasek proved why he was one of the best goalies in the NHL, posting a 34-24-4 record with 2.11 goals against and 11 shutouts en route to his sixth Vezina Trophy.

Ruff became the team's all-time winningest head coach with a 5-2 win over Philadelphia on Mar. 18, 2003. Ales Kotalik broke onto the scene by scoring 21 goals, the second most by a rookie in 2002-03 while Satan once again led the Sabres in goals, assists and points. B. Thomas Golisano became the Sabres' owner in March and brought a new enthusiasm level to the franchise.

The 2003-04 Sabres once again were one of the League's top teams in the second half of the season. Daniel Briere, who came to the club near the end of the 2002-03 season, continued his outstanding play and led the Sabres in assists and points. Dumont and Chris Drury were threats to score, while Satan recorded a team-best 29 goals.

Following a lockout that forced the league to cancel the entire 2004-2005 season, NHL hockey returned in 2005-06, featuring new rules intended to create a more exciting style of play. Despite low expectations set by many hockey observers, the Sabres turned in a historic season. Led by Lindy Ruff, who would win the Jack Adams Award as Coach of the Year, Buffalo set a franchise record for wins in a season, with 52. Rookie goaltender Ryan Miller won 30 games on the season, despite missing 18 games with a broken thumb early in the season. The Sabres featured a tremendously balanced scoring attack, with six 20-goal scorers and 12 players with at least 30 points. Afinogenov led the team with 73 points (22+51), while Chris Drury led all goal-scorers with 30. Seven different players reached career highs in either goals, assists, or points. Perhaps the most impressive offensive player on the season was Briere, who, despite being plagued by injuries for much of the season, recorded 58 points (25+33) in 48 games.

It was also a breakout year for several rookies. In addition to the strong freshman campaign turned in by Miller, Thomas Vanek burst on the scene with 25 goals and 23 assists. Jason Pominville, who appeared in 57 games after being called up from Rochester, showed a terrific scoring touch, collecting 18 goals.

Buffalo made the playoffs for the first time since the 2000-01 season, and began by knocking off the Philadelphia Flyers in six games. That set up what turned out to be a wild series with conference-rival Ottawa. With Buffalo leading three games to one, Pominville became the first player in NHL history to score a series-clinching, short-handed, overtime goal when he eluded two Ottawa defenders and slipped the puck past goalie Ray Emery. That set up a showdown with the Carolina Hurricanes in the Eastern Conference Finals, where the Sabres eventually lost in seven games.

The 2006-07 season was unlike any other in Sabres history, as the team captured the Presidents' Trophy by putting together the league's best regular season record. The team started out by tying an NHL record with 10 straight wins, before losing in a shootout to Atlanta on Oct. 28. The Sabres went on to post 53 wins, the most in franchise history. The season was also a success at the turnstiles, as they sold out HSBC Arena for all 41 regular season games and nine playoff games.

A contributing factor to the team's success was having four players with more than 30 goals. Daniel Briere led the team with 95 points (32+63), while Thomas Vanek was a close second with 84 points, including a team-high 43 goals. Chris Drury finished with 69 points (43+41) and Jason Pominville capped a terrific sophomore season with 34 goals. Goaltender Ryan Miller also set a club record with 40 victories after being voted in as a started for the NHL All-Star game.

Buffalo made it to the playoffs for a second consecutive season. The Sabres eliminated the N.Y. Islanders in five games, and then defeated the N.Y. Rangers 4-2 in the Semifinals. Buffalo advanced to the Conference Finals for the second consecutive year (and fourth time since 1997), before losing in five games to Ottawa.

The 2007-08 season was a drastic change for the Sabres as they failed to make the playoffs after finishing atop the NHL in the regular season standings in 2006-07. The Sabres did see two young stars emerge as Derek Roy and Jason Pominville led the team with 81 and 80 points, respectively.

The Sabres made history yet again as they hosted the 2008 AMP Winter Classic at Ralph Wilson Stadium in Orchard Park, NY. The Sabres faced the Pittsburgh Penguins in front of 71,217 fans as snow lightly fell on New Year's Day. The game was the first outdoor game to be played in the United States and set the record for attendance at an NHL game. Buffalo would lose the historic game, 2-1, in a shootout.

The 2008-09 season started with high expectations after the Sabres failed to make the post-season a year before. The team got off to a hot start, posting a 6-2-2 record in the month of October. However, injuries to leading goal-scorer Thomas Vanek and starting goaltender Ryan Miller late in the year were too much to overcome. Despite a resilient effort in the final two months, Buffalo failed to make the playoffs for a second consecutive season.

The 2009-10 campaign saw the emergence of one future star and the continuing evolution of another. Sabres defenseman Tyler Myers, the team's first-round selection (12th overall) in the 2008 Entry Draft, burst onto the NHL stage with an impressive rookie season. Myers led all NHL rookies in ice time (23:44) and assists (37) to help earn the Calder Trophy as the league's top first year player. Ryan Miller also continued to raise his status as one of the league's top netminders. Miller was in the top five all season in every goaltending category, including goals-against average (2.22) and save percentage (.929). Miller's strong season was capped off by winning the Vezina Trophy. Miller also set the franchise record for wins, with 41. Overall, the team cracked the 100-point plateau for the ninth time in franchise history and won their sixth division title before falling to the Boston Bruins in the first round of the playoffs.

Following their return to the playoffs, the Sabres entered the 2010-11 season poised to take another step forward. However, after a 3-9-2 start began their descent to the league basement, it looked like the team would instead be taking a step back. When top point scorer Derek Roy (35 points in 35 games) suffered a season-ending injury in late December, the prospects for the Sabres – still eight points out of the final playoff spot in the East – didn't look good.

The Sabres continued to fight and put together an 8-3-1 record in January to close the gap. On Feb. 22, Terry Pegula announced his purchase of the team at a press conference at HSBC Arena. Pegula's arrival invigorated both the fans and the team, who welcomed their new owner with a seven-game unbeaten streak and finished the season on a 16-4-4 run to snatch the final Eastern Conference playoff spot.

History of the Team

Thomas Vanek led the Sabres in goal scoring for the fifth straight year, and also led the team in points for the first time in his career with 73 (32+41). Vanek is the only player in Sabres history to lead the team in goals for more than three consecutive seasons. Tyler Ennis had a strong debut season, ranking fourth among all NHL rookies with 49 points (20+29), the most by a Buffalo rookie since Derek Plante had 56 in 1993-94. The Sabres were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs after a Game 7 loss to Philadelphia.

The 2011-12 season began on a high note as Buffalo traveled to Europe to take part in the NHL Premiere Series and came away with two wins in Helsinki and Berlin. The team returned home to the newly-named First Niagara Center, which had recently undergone a multi-million dollar facelift, and continued its success on the ice by winning five of its first six games of the year.

A midseason slump put Buffalo near the bottom of the conference in February as the trade deadline approached and the team hoped for a change when it traded Zack Kassian and Marc-Andre Gragnani to Vancouver for center Cody Hodgson and defenseman Alexander Sulzer. Another shakeup of the roster came at the deadline when eight-year veteran Paul Gaustad was traded to Nashville for first and fourth-round draft picks.

The roster changes, along with the return of a multitude of injured players, seemed to provide a spark for the team and Buffalo quickly started its climb up the conference standings in the second half of the season. March was the franchise's best month since December 2005 with the team recording a 10-4-2 record and snatching up 22 points. It was only the sixth time in club history that a Sabres team was able to earn at least 22 points in a month's time.

The team's success in late February and March pushed Buffalo back into the playoff picture when Buffalo captured eighth place in the Eastern Conference on March 27. However, the team dropped four of its next five games to finish the season without a playoff berth.

A key factor in the team's success during the second half of the season was the strong play of its goaltender, Ryan Miller, who posted 31 wins and a career-high six shutouts during the season despite suffering a concussion earlier in the year. With the 31 wins, Miller became only the sixth goaltender in NHL history to record six consecutive seasons with at least 30 wins. Miller also forever etched a place in Sabres history by passing Dominik Hasek's franchise record of 234 wins – he finished the season with 252 career wins for the club.

Leading the Sabres' offensive attack for the year was NHL All-Star and team captain Jason Pominville and Thomas Vanek. Tyler Ennis made the switch from winger to center during the second-half surge and anchored one of the team's more productive offensive lines with Drew Stafford and rookie Marcus Foligno. Foligno, the son of Sabres Hall-of-Famer Mike Foligno, established himself as one of the team's more promising rookies after becoming just the third active NHL player to record at least five goals in his first six career games –joining the likes of Evgeni Malkin and Teemu Selanne – and was named NHL Rookie of the Month for March.

Defensively, the Sabres were bolstered by offseason acquisitions Christian Ehrhoff and Robyn Regehr, both of whom were acquired by Buffalo in trades prior to the opening of free agency in June 2011. The veterans joined 2009 Calder Trophy winner Tyler Myers on the blueline after Myers signed a new, long-term contract with the Sabres in August 2011.

History of the Uniform

Uniform 1970-2012

Equipped with one of the National Hockey League's two new teams, the Knox Brothers sought a name for the club that would accompany the Vancouver Canucks into the 1970-71 season. A contest brought about the name "Sabres," which just needed a logo to become the trademark of hockey on the Niagara Frontier. The Sabres crest would remain identical over the first 26 years. The first major change to the team's look came in 1996-97, which accompanied a new home for the Buffalo Sabres (the team moved from Memorial Auditorium into its new address of HSBC Arena).

The crest which would adorn the blue, white and gold jerseys of Buffalo Sabres players from October 1970 until April 1996 reflected the team's name. Along with the Buffalo appeared two crossed sabres "renowned as a clean, sharp, decisive and penetrating weapon on offense, as well as a strong parrying weapon on defense," according to team Public Relations Director Chuck Burr's 1970 press release.

A few minor changes were seen in the Buffalo sweaters over the first 26 years, mostly simple accessory changes. After adding players' last names to the back of the sweaters a few years earlier, 1978-79 marked the first season the team's jerseys did not have drawstrings at the neckline and the debut of the team's crest on the shoulders. While the next season was Buffalo's 10th anniversary campaign, a patch honoring that winter's Olympic Games in Lake Placid, N.Y., was the notable change on the uniforms. The 1980 Winter Olympics is where the legendary "Miracle on Ice" would take place, and where the Sabres held their 1980 training camp. It was probably fitting that 10 years later, a Buffalo Sabres' 20th anniversary logo patch was embroidered on the front right shoulder of the players' uniforms for 1989-90. Two years later, the Sabres joined the other NHL teams in wearing a commemorative patch for the league's 75th anniversary, and fans even had the opportunity to see it on both the home and road jerseys as Buffalo joined 15 other teams in the season-long celebration. For the second half of that season, the Sabres wore their road jerseys at home and donned the home jerseys for away games, to complement the "original six" teams who wore "throwback jerseys." A Stanley Cup centennial patch appeared on the 1992-93 uniforms. Buffalo would again recognize a significant anniversary with a special 25th anniversary logo, which was designed for the team's 1994-95 campaign. Players wore the fifth patch in seven years on the team's sweaters in 1995-96 (bearing jersey number one), remembering former NHL goalie Roger Crozier, who played six of his 14 seasons in the league in Buffalo.

The 1996-97 season began a new era in Buffalo Sabres hockey with a new home, new colors and a new logo. The Sabres' new colors would be black, white, red, gray and silver, featuring a white buffalo head as the new team logo. A secondary logo of a "B" with the familiar sabre piercing through it would also be featured on the shoulder of the new jerseys. In their first season in the new uniforms, the Sabres honored the memory of co-founder Seymour H. Knox III with a circular patch bearing the initials SHK III.

On Nov. 22, 2000, the Sabres unveiled the team's third jersey against the Philadelphia Flyers. The third jersey was a tribute to the original sweater, while incorporating colors and elements from the current design, unveiled in 1996. The organization chose from over 50 different concepts and developed a blend of the 1970s blue and gold crest, featuring the traditional circle and crossed Sabres logo, adorned on a red-based jersey, trimmed in the team's black and silver of the 1990s. The word "BUFFALO" appeared on the lower trim to signify the team's proud attachment to its hometown. The third jersey also featured the current Sabres white buffalo-head logo appearing on the shoulders. The Sabres also wore their original blue and yellow colors with the former logo and design for the season finale, April 4, 2003, against New Jersey.

The Sabres new uniform scheme, unveiled on September 16, 2006, took its inspiration from the original Sabres uniform (1971-96) and second uniform (1996-2005). The design was a collaborative effort between the Sabres and Reebok International. The new "blue and gold" colors were altered to a deeper navy blue and richer gold that had a greater visual impact both in person and on television broadcasts. Silver accents and a revised "B-Sabre" logo were carried over from the team's second uniform. Unique in the NHL, the new uniforms had player numbers on the front of the jersey. Buffalo also debuted a new alternate uniform that was the original blue uniform from 1970 with the player number on the front like on the newly designed uniforms. The alternate jersey was only worn for the 2006-07 season.

For the Winter Classic game on January 1, 2008, the Sabres wore a modified version of the team's original white jerseys. This was the only time the jersey was worn that season.

The Sabres introduced a new third jersey in 2008-09 that incorporated design elements from the original uniforms while linking elements from the current jerseys. The team's original road uniform (1971-96) was updated to incorporate the darker navy blue and rich gold featured in the current uniforms along with silver accents on the stripes to give dimension to the original design. The player numbers appeared on the front of the uniform and a neck tie was incorporated, similar to what was worn by the team the first seven years Buffalo was in the league. The original crossed Sabres logo also features silver accents to give a beveled look to the team's original logo. The jersey was designed to incorporate the design elements of the Reebok EDGE uniform system.

History of the Uniform

Uniform 1970-2012

During the 2010-11 season the Sabres completed the return to their roots, adopting a uniform at home and on the road that recalled elements of the first uniform in franchise history. At home, the Sabres utilized the team's previous third jersey. On the road, they donned a white jersey that incorporates the same accent elements of the updated home jersey. The team also unveiled an all new 40th anniversary uniform. This classically-designed uniform is a tribute to not only the history of Buffalo hockey, but early NHL jersey designs of the past. The 40th anniversary alternate jersey was worn 12 times at HSBC Arena during the 2010-11 season and continued to serve as the team's alternate jersey in 2011-12.

History of the Americans

Established 1956

After three seasons with the Portland Pirates, the Buffalo Sabres renewed their affiliation with the Rochester Americans before the 2011-12 season. The 2012-13 season will mark the 31st season of affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks, one of the longest relationships between and NHL team and its AHL affiliate.

The Amerks are entering their 56th season in the American Hockey League and the team will once again be an essential pipeline for future Sabres stars. The current Sabres roster is filled with nine former Amerks, including Ryan Miller, Thomas Vanek, Jason Pominville and Drew Stafford.

It was during the 1979-80 campaign that the two organizations first formed a professional hockey partnership. Billy Inglis was the first head coach of the Amerks during the affiliation. Future coaches would include Mike Keenan, Joe Crozier, Jim Schoenfeld, Don Lever, John Van Boxmeer, John Tortorella, Brian McCutcheon and Randy Cunneyworth. Both Keenan (New York Rangers, 1994) and Tortorella (Tampa Bay Lightning, 2004) went on to coach NHL teams to Stanley Cup victories.

In 30 years of affiliation, the Amerks have compiled a record of 1,173-958-248-17 in 2,396 regular season games and captured nine regular season titles. During that period, the Amerks have captured three Calder Cup Championships (1983, 1987 and 1996) and have advanced to the Calder Cup Finals six times.

The Sabres and Pirates enjoyed a successful three-year affiliation (2008-09—2010-11), with the Pirates compiling a 131-79-16-13 overall record and a 1st place finish in the Atlantic Division in 2010-11. During the three-year span, three Pirates players were named Dudley "Red" Garrett Memorial Award winners, an award given to the AHL's most outstanding rookie: Nathan Gerbe (2008-09), Tyler Ennis (2009-10) and Luke Adam (2010-11).

Besides the Sabres, the Amerks have been affiliated with the Montreal Canadiens, Toronto Maple Leafs, Boston Bruins, Vancouver Canucks and Florida Panthers.

Americans Coaching Staff

Ron Rolston
Head Coach

Ron Rolston enters his second season at the helm of the Rochester Americans in 2012-13 after being named the 29th Head Coach in the history of the Amerks franchise on July 27, 2011.

Rolston guided the Amerks to a record of 36-26-10-4 (86 points) and a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs after finishing seventh in the Western Conference and second in the North Division in his first season in the professional ranks. Rolston became just the eighth coach in Amerks history to win at least 35 games in his first full season behind the Rochester bench. He recorded his first professional victory in a 3-1 Amerks win at Lake Erie on Oct. 14.

In addition to leading the Amerks to the postseason, Rolston and his staff were instrumental in the development of numerous players, as eleven different Amerks were recalled to the Buffalo Sabres over the course of the season, combining for 65 points in 157 total games with Buffalo. Of those 11 players, eight made their NHL debut this season and five scored their first NHL goals, including left wing Marcus Foligno, the Amerks' Rookie of the Year who was named the NHL Rookie of the Month for March.

Rolston joined the Amerks in 2011 after spending the previous seven seasons as a head coach with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program (NTDP), where he led the U.S. Under-18 team to three gold medals and a silver medal in four stints as head coach at the International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) World Under-18 Championship, including the 2011 tournament in Germany. During the 2010-11 season, he also led Team USA to titles in the 2011 Five Nations Tournament and in the 2010 Four Nations Cup. In addition, Rolston's U.S. National Under-18 Team posted a 12-9-1-2 (W-L-OTL-SOL) record in United States Hockey League play in 2010-11, helping the NTDP reach the USHL postseason for the first time. In June, he received the 2011 Bob Johnson Award from USA Hockey, which recognizes excellence in international competition during a season.

The longest-tenured and most decorated head coach in NTDP history, Rolston guided his teams to five medals and multiple tournament championships in international competition. He is the only coach in U.S. history to win three gold medals in the Under-18 World Championship (2005, 2009, 2011). His team also captured a silver medal in the 2007 Under-18 World Championship. Rolston's teams never missed a championship game in either of the two major NTDP tournaments – the IIHF World Under-18 Championship and the World Under-17 Hockey Challenge.

The 45-year-old Rolston joined USA Hockey after serving as an assistant coach at four different NCAA Division I hockey programs between 1990 and 2004, winning National Championships in 1992 and 1994 with Lake Superior State University. Rolston was an assistant coach at Boston College from 2002-04 and also served as the top assistant at Harvard University from 1999-2002 and as an assistant coach at Clarkson University (1996-99) and Lake Superior State University (1990-95).

In addition to winning two national titles at Lake Superior State, Rolston also helped guide the team to three straight appearances in the NCAA National Championship game and four CCHA tournament titles in his five-year stint. He was elevated to associate head coach for the Lakers in 1994. Rolston's younger brother, 17-year NHL veteran Brian Rolston, was a member of the 1992 and '93 squads that Ron helped coach.

Rolston achieved success with the U.S. National Under-17 team during the 2009-10 campaign, by leading the squad to its first World Under-17 Hockey Challenge title since 2002. He had previously led the Under-17 Team to two second-place finishes (2006, 2008) at the tournament.

In 2008-09, Rolston led the U.S. National Under-18 Team to first-place finishes at both the 2008 Men's Under-18 Four Nations Cup in Lake Placid, N.Y., and 2009 Under-18 Five Nations Tournament in Sweden. Team USA finished with a 15-1-0-1 record against international opponents and a 13-13-1 mark against NCAA opponents. The 13 wins against college foes marked an all-time high for an Under-18 team in a single season.

In addition to coaching at the Under-18 and Under-17 levels, Rolston also served as head coach for the U.S. National Junior Team on two occasions. In 2007, he led Team USA to the bronze medal at the IIHF World Junior Championship in Sweden. He was also behind the bench during the 2009 IIHF World Junior Championship in Ottawa.

Chadd Cassidy
Assistant Coach

Chadd Cassidy enters his second season as an Assistant Coach with the Rochester Americans in 2012-13 after being named to the position on August 31, 2011. The 2011-12 season marked Cassidy's first in professional hockey after spending the previous five seasons (2006-2011) working alongside current Amerks Head Coach Ron Rolston in the same capacity with the U.S. National Under-18 Team.

In his first season in professional hockey, Cassidy helped guide the Amerks to a 36-26-10-4 record and a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs. In addition to helping lead the Amerks to a second place finish in the North Division and a seventh seed in the Western Conference, Cassidy also played an integral role in the development of numerous young players. Eleven different Amerks were called up from Rochester to the Buffalo Sabres over the course of the season, with those players combining for 65 points in a total of 157 NHL games for Buffalo.

Cassidy joined the Amerks organization following five seasons as an assistant coach at USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, culminating in a gold medal at the 2011 International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) Under-18 World Championships in Germany. During the 2010-11 season, he also led Team USA to titles in the 2011 Five Nations Tournament and in the 2010 Four Nations Cup. In addition, the U.S. National Under-18 Team posted a 12-9-1-2 (W-L-OTL-SOL) record in United States Hockey League play in 2010-11, helping the NTDP reach the USHL postseason for the first time.

During the 2009-10 campaign, Cassidy helped guide the U.S. National Under-17 Team to great international success. While serving as an assistant to Rolston, Cassidy helped lead Team USA to its first title at the 2010 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge since 2002. He also helped pilot the squad to a first-place finish at the 2009 Under-17 Four Nations Cup in Trnava, Slovakia. The U.S. National Under-17 Team finished with a 9-1-1-3 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record against international foes under Rolston and Cassidy's watch. In August, Cassidy served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Under-18 Select Team that finished second at the 2010 Memorial of Ivan Hlinka Tournament in Breclav, Czech Republic, and Piestany, Slovakia.

In 2008-09, Cassidy helped guide the U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team to its fourth gold medal at the 2009 IIHF Men's Under-18 World Championship in Fargo, N.D., and Moorhead, Minn. Additionally, he helped lead Team USA to a 15-1-0-1 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record against international opponents and a 13-13-1 record against college foes.

Cassidy also served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team that earned the silver medal at the 2007 IIHF World Men's Under-18 Championship in Tampere and Rauma, Finland.

Cassidy has been both an on-ice instructor and team coach at USA Hockey's New York district camps and select festivals. In December 2005, he joined Rolston's staff for the 2006 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge in Regina, Saskatchewan, where Team USA finished second in the 10-team event.

Prior to joining the NTDP, Cassidy served as the head coach for four seasons at the National Sports Academy in his hometown of Lake Placid, N.Y., where he posted a 124-71-15 record. His teams made the final of the Midwest Prep League playoffs every year in his tenure, and won the league championship in 2004.

Cassidy served as an assistant coach at State University of New York at Cortland from 1999-2001 and Potsdam State for the 2001-2002 season. A 1995 graduate of Cortland State, Cassidy earned his bachelor's degree in recreation and leisure studies while playing on the varsity hockey team.

Cassidy, and his wife, Tara, have two children, Sheldon and Ireland.

Chris Taylor
Development Coach

Chris Taylor was named Development Coach of the Rochester Americans on August 31, 2011 following a 19-year professional career as a player that saw him become one of the all-time Amerk greats to ever don the red, white and blue.

In his first season as a member of the Amerks coaching staff in 2011-12, Taylor helped guide the team to a 36-26-10-4 record and a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs. As development coach, Taylor was primarily responsible for working with the team's forwards. During the season, a total of 11 Amerks players (seven forwards) were called up to the Buffalo Sabres, including left wing Marcus Foligno, who worked extensively with Taylor during the season and was named the NHL Rookie of the Month for March after scoring 11 points in 11 games with the Sabres.

After spending parts of nine seasons with the Amerks between 1999 and 2011, Taylor finished his playing career ranked among the franchise's all-time leaders in assists (3rd, 339), games played (4th, 519), points (5th, 481) and goals (10th, 142). He also served as team captain during the 2004-05 and 2005-06 seasons and was an alternate captain during several other campaigns.

A member of the Amerks' 50th Anniversary Team, Taylor is also a three-time Amerks team MVP and scoring champion (2001-02, 2002-03, 2004-05) and is the only player in franchise history to achieve those two feats in the same season on three occasions. During his final season as a player in 2010-11, Taylor ranked second on the Amerks in scoring with 51 points (10+41) in 72 games. He also finished second on the team in scoring the previous year with 61 points (17+44) when he returned to Rochester following a three-year stint in Germany, where he played for Frankfurt and led the team in scoring all three seasons.

During the 2004-05 campaign, Taylor was the scoring leader with 79 points (21+58) on an Amerks team that included current Sabres forwards Thomas Vanek, Derek Roy and Jason Pominville. That same season, he was honored with the AHL's Fred T. Hunt Award for sportsmanship, determination and dedication to the game of hockey. Taylor also shares the franchise record for most assists in a single game with six, set on October 21, 2005.

During his pro career, Taylor appeared in 149 NHL games with the New York Islanders, Boston Bruins and Sabres, recording 32 points (11+21) and 48 penalty minutes. Of those 149 games, 90 came in a Buffalo uniform. In 2003-04, he set NHL career-highs in games played (54), goals (6), assists (6) and points (12) while with the Sabres.

Prior to joining the Sabres/Amerks organization in 1999, Taylor won two Turner Cup Championships with Utah of the International Hockey League. The Stratford, Ontario, native was originally drafted by the Islanders in the second round (27th overall) of the 1990 NHL Entry Draft and finished his pro career with 1,297 games played at the NHL, AHL, IHL and European levels.

Taylor resides in Churchville with his wife, Lisa, and their two children, Samantha and Nicholas. He is the brother of former NHL player Tim Taylor, who won a Stanley Cup with the Tampa Bay Lightning in 2004.

Radio & Television Information

In 2012-13, all Buffalo Sabres regular season games will be both televised and simulcast on WGR Sports Radio 550 AM. All of the team's televised regular season games will be broadcast in High Definition.

Television

The Sabres and MSG Networks are entering the sixth year of a 10-year extension to telecast Sabres games, in which MSG will own the exclusive local rights to telecast the team's games. The deal runs through the 2016-17 season. MSG Networks, an industry leader in production and technology, is the nation's longest-running regional sports network. The first regional sports network to produce games in HDTV and winner of 95 New York Emmy Awards, MSG Networks is part of Madison Square Garden L.P. In addition to being home of the Sabres, MSG Network's award-winning programming line-up also boasts the New York Knicks, New York Rangers, New York Islanders, New Jersey Devils, New York Liberty and over 400 live college football and basketball games.

In 2012-13, all Sabres telecasts –including games in New York/New Jersey – will be produced and broadcast by the team's in-house broadcasting teams and will feature the Sabres broadcasters and analysts exclusively.

Calling all the action on MSG telecasts and on WGR 550 AM will be Foster Hewitt Award winner and Sabres Hall-of-Famer Rick Jeanneret, who embarks on his 41st year behind the microphone. Rob Ray, an eight-year veteran of Sabres broadcasts, will begin his first season as the full-time color analyst. After joining the broadcast team in 2003-04, Ray has served as a second color analyst and the "inside-the-glass" reporter for the past eight seasons. In his role as color analyst, Ray will remain on the ice-level to provide a close-up perspective of the game's action.

Brian Duff, who joined the Sabres broadcast team in 2011-12, has also signed a new deal with the team to serve as the full-time in-game host for all Sabres broadcasts on MSG. In that role, Duff will host the Tops Game Night pregame show before all games, the Lexus Post Game Report and the intermission reports between periods.

Veteran broadcasters Harry Neale, Mike Robitaille and Danny Gare will be mainstays across all Sabres platforms in 2012-13, providing in-depth analysis before, during and after games. Neale will join Robitaille as a regular analyst on the pregame show and intermission reports, while Robitaille will continue his work on the postgame show.

Buffalo Sabres hockey on MSG is produced by Joe Pinter and directed by Matt Gould.

Rick Jeanneret - Play-by-Play Announcer

Currently the longest-tenured broadcaster in hockey, Rick Jeanneret will begin his 41st year behind the microphone calling the action for Buffalo Sabres games. Jeanneret is the 2012 recipient of the Foster Hewitt Memorial Award, the most prestigious award given to hockey broadcasters, and will be formally recognized by the Hockey Hall of Fame in November 2012. He was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 2011 and will also be inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in fall 2012.

With his vast knowledge of the game and his unwavering enthusiasm for hockey, Jeanneret's distinct voice has been synonymous with the Buffalo Sabres for four decades. He began his prolific career with the Sabres in the 1971-72 season as the club's radio play-by-play announcer and served primarily in that role until 1995, when he would also begin calling the action for the team's televised games. His memorable calls and player nicknames have become forever linked with Sabres history for generations of fans.

Jeanneret's career officially began in 1963, when the St. Catharines, Ont. native filled in for the regular announcer at a Niagara Falls Flyers (Junior A) game. He went on to become the color analyst for one season before moving to the play-by-play position in 1965.

A native of St. Catharines, Ont., Jeanneret currently resides in Niagara Falls, Ontario, with his wife, Sandra. Rick has two sons, Mark and Chris.

Broadcaster Bios

Rob Ray - Color Analyst

Rob Ray, who begins his ninth season on Buffalo Sabres broadcasts, will be entering his first season as the full-time color analyst for all Sabres games this season. After joining the broadcast team in 2003-04, Ray has served as a second color analyst and the "inside-the-glass" reporter for the past eight seasons. In his role as color analyst, Ray will remain at ice level to provide a close-up perspective of the game's action.

Beyond Sabres broadcasts, Ray hosts The Enforcers, a weekly sports talk show on Time Warner Cable SportsNet, alongside other former players from the Sabres and the Buffalo Bills.

Ray's hockey expertise stems from his 16-year NHL career as a right wing, 14 seasons of which were spent with the Sabres. Known for his toughness on the ice, Ray ranks sixth in NHL history for career penalty minutes (3,207) and holds the Sabres' team record in the same category with 3,189 PIM. Ray played in 900 total NHL games during his career and his 889 games with the Sabres are the fourth-most in franchise history.

Despite being one of the game's toughest enforcers, Ray was also awarded the NHL's King Clancy Memorial Award in 1999 for his leadership and humanitarianism. He remains as one of the Sabres' most active alumni, currently serving as president of the Sabres Alumni Association. Ray and his wife, Julianne, live in Grand Island, N.Y. with their son, Rob Jr., and their daughter, Jordan.

Brian Duff - In-Game Host

A 21-year broadcasting veteran, Brian Duff begins his first full season as the in-game host for all Buffalo Sabres broadcasts. He joined the broadcast team in 2011-12 on a part-time basis in the same role for many of the team's road games.

Duff comes to the Sabres after spending five seasons with the NHL Network, most recently as host of NHL on the Fly and NHL Tonight.

Prior to joining NHL Network, Duff spent six years as the pre- and post-game host for Toronto Maple Leafs hockey on Leafs TV. His extensive hockey broadcasting career also includes stints as the radio host for pre- and post-game coverage of the Ottawa Senators and Edmonton Oilers and radio game analyst for the Senators and the WHL's Medicine Hat Tigers.

In addition, Duff has provided play-by-play for the National Lacrosse League on Versus and TSN, including the 2010 and 2011 championship games. He worked at The Score as an anchor and reporter and provided play-by-play for Ottawa Rebel lacrosse and the Mann Cup. Duff has also freelanced for multiple media outlets including ESPN and the Associated Press.

Duff, who grew up in Whitby, Ont., holds a Broadcasting Diploma from Mount Royal College in Calgary and currently resides in Hamburg, N.Y. with his wife, Leilon, and their children, Isabelle and Rhiannon.

Radio

Sabres coverage on the radio can be found exclusively on WGR 550 AM, the team's radio partner for over 25 years. Gameday broadcasts will include the game action from Jeanneret and Ray, along with a post-game show hosted by Brian Koziol featuring a complete game recap, player interviews and scores from around the league. Paul Hamilton, who returns as the station's Sabres beat reporter, will provide live updates from Sabres games and practices all season long.

Kevin Sylvester
Radio Host

New this season is Sabres Hockey Hotline, the team's flagship radio program. The show will be broadcast live from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. Monday through Friday year-round from the Sabres Store at First Niagara Center. The program will be an additional outlet for Sabres fans to hear exclusive interviews, analysis and team updates, as well as game and practice recaps.

Serving as host of Sabres Hockey Hotline is Kevin Sylvester, an eight-year veteran of Sabres broadcasting. Sylvester, who joined the broadcast team in the 2005-06 season, will transition the bulk of his broadcasting duties to the radio program and will serve as the show's host and executive producer.
