Media Information Media Guidelines & Procedures

CREDENTIALS- To obtain press credentials please call Josh Feldman at 704-932-3267 or email him at jfeldman@intimidatorsbaseball.com. Phone requests should be made at least one day before each game. All credentials can be picked up at the CMC-NorthEast Stadium Will Call Window at the F&M Bank Box Office.

CLUBHOUSES- All visits to the clubhouse must be cleared by the Kannapolis Intimidators media relations staff. The clubhouse will typically be open to accredited media up to 45 minutes prior to game time. There will be no admittance during rain delays or between games of doubleheaders, unless designated beforehand. Please allow for a 10-minute "cooling off period" upon completion of game before entering the clubhouse unless other arrangements have been made.

PRESS BOX- The press box is located directly behind home plate and is open to all working media. Press notes and statistics are provided to the media approximately two hours before each game. The press box is furnished with electric outlets at each work station. Free WI-FI is also provided for an Internet connection.

RADIO - Each Intimidators broadcast will be available online at IntimidatorsBaseball.com. The team will carry all home games and select road games during the 2013 season.

Stadium Info

Stadium Name: CMC-NorthEast Stadium
Opened: 1995
Playing Surface: Grass
Outfield Dimensions: 330' – LF, 400' – CF, 310'

Stadium Ground Rules

- 1.) The top of the dugout is a dead ball. A player may lean into the dugout to make a catch. If a ball enters the dugout then the ball is dead. If a ball hits off the dugout netting then it is a live ball.
- 2.) Any baseball that hits off the backstop netting due to a pitch or throw is a live ball. Any ball hit to the netting off the bat will be ruled a dead ball.
- 3.) The bullpen areas are out of play.
- 4.) A ball that becomes lodged behind or under the tarp is considered a dead ball. The fielder should notify the umpires by raising arms if that occurs. A player may lean on the tarp to make a catch, but is not permitted to stand on the tarp.
- 5.) Any ball that enters the area down the right field line where the batting cages are stored is considered a dead ball. The fielder is required to raise his arms to notify the umpires.
- 6.) Any ball that gets lodged between the field and the padding is a dead ball. The fielder should notify the umpires by raising his arms.

Three Sox Top 30 prospects on I's Opening Day roster

KANNAPOLIS, N.C. (April 1, 2013) – The Kannapolis Intimidators 2013 Opening Day roster is set. The Class A Affiliate of the Chicago White Sox will feature six selections from the June 2012 First-Year Draft, including four chosen in the first 10 rounds, on the team's 25-man roster. Three of Baseball America's Top 30 White Sox prospects will open the season in Kannapolis, including No. 23 Brandon Brennan, No. 25 Micah Johnson and No. 30 Jefferson Olacio.

Brennan, a right-handed pitcher selected in the fourth round from the University of Oregon, highlights the half-dozen 2012 draftees coming to Kannapolis, including fellow right-handed hurlers Zachary Isler (eighth round), Brandon Hardin (10th round) and Adam Lopez (21st round). Johnson, a ninth-round selection last summer, was rated by Baseball America as the fastest runner in the Sox draft class. Outfielder Kale Kiser (23rd round) led Advanced Rookie Bristol in six offensive categories last summer, including hits and home runs.

Infielder Patrick Palmeiro, the son of 20-year Major League veteran Rafael Palmeiro, enters his first year of full-season professional ball after appearing in 42 games with Advanced Rookie Great Falls in 2012. He joins fellow infielder Tyler Williams, the son of White Sox Executive Vice President Ken Williams, in coming from a strong baseball pedigree.

Eleven players who spent time with the Intimidators last season, including 2012 South Atlantic League All-Star third baseman Rangel Ravelo, will open the year with Kannapolis. Ravelo, along with infielder Michael Johnson, outfielder Adam Heisler and catcher Michael Marjama return along with seven pitchers who have toed the rubber for Kannapolis. Right-handed hurler Myles Jaye leads all returning arms with 79.0 innings of work in 17 games (17 starts) for the Intimidators in 2012. Olacio, a 6'7" left-hander who opened last season in Kannapolis as an 18 year old before moving to Bristol for the second half of the season, returns to the Sally League circuit with 37.0 innings of Class A experience in 15 games (five starts) under his belt.

INTIMIDATORS 2012 SEASON REVIEW

The 18th season of baseball in Kannapolis, N.C., marked the 12th year as a White Sox affiliate, and the Kannapolis Intimidators finished 61-78 under manager Julio Vinas, fifth in the South Atlantic League Northern Division. Before the gates opened on the 2012 campaign, the Intimidators unveiled a new name for the team's ballpark: CMC-NorthEast Stadium.

During the 2012 season, the Intimidators saw Chicago's two most recent top picks – Keenyn Walker, a supplemental first rounder in the June 2011 draft, and Courtney Hawkins, the 13th overall selection in the June 2012 draft – take the field. Walker and Hawkins highlighted a group of 18 players who opened the season either in Kannapolis or below Class A and earned promotions from the Intimidators to Class A-Advanced Winston-Salem.

Walker opened the season with Kannapolis and put together the team's only 5-hit game of 2012, going 5-for-5 with a career-high five RBI at Lexington on April 12. Walker hit .282 with a home run and 39 RBI in 74 games with the Intimidators to earn a promotion on July 18, the first of five promotions in a week-long span in late July. Also moving up that week were 2011 second rounder RHP Erik Johnson, fifth rounder LHP Scott Snodgrass, seventh rounder C Kevan Smith and RHP Kevin Vance.

Hawkins, who stole the show on draft night when he performed an impromptu back flip in the MLB Network studios, joined Kannapolis Aug. 13. He made an immediate impact, coming through with a pair of extra-inning game-winning hits on consecutive nights (Aug. 16-17) to beat West Virginia. The 18-year-old outfielder hit .308 with four home runs and 15 RBI in 16 games with Kannapolis before the White Sox promoted him to Winston-Salem.

Ross Wilson, the White Sox 10th round selection in the June 2010 draft, put together a historic night in 2012. On April 27, Wilson belted a career-high three home runs, driving in eight RBI to power the Intimidators past Augusta, 9-5. Already with two home runs under his belt, Wilson stepped to the plate in the ninth inning with the game tied, 5-5, and crushed a two-out grand slam to put Kannapolis ahead for good. Wilson earned a promotion July 2.

Perhaps the greatest individual performance of the season came July 15 in Greensboro when outfielder Bill Rice hit for the cycle, becoming the second player in 18-year history of the Piedmont/Kannapolis franchise to accomplish the feat. Rice hit a two-run home run in the second inning, an RBI-single the third, doubled in the fifth and tripled in the eighth, finishing the game 4-for-5 with three RBI and three runs scored. The White Sox signed Rice out of the Atlantic League in late May, and he appeared in 60 games for the Intimidators.

As a team, the Intimidators got off to a rocky start, opening the season 6-6 before enduring a season-long 7-game losing streak that knocked the team into sixth place in the division. After falling to 10-games under .500 in mid-May, Kannapolis fought back to win 12 of 14 games, including a season-high 9-game winning streak from May 25 through June 3 that pulled the team's record even at 28-28. However, the team dropped its next six games before closing the 1st Half at 33-37, finishing fourth in the Northern Division.

Kannapolis returned from the All-Star Break with a sweep of Delmarva, but series losses to Hickory and Rome knocked the team into fifth place in the 2nd Half. The Intimidators hosted Northern Division 1st Half Champion and defending SAL Champion Greensboro to CMC-NorthEast Stadium on July 4 and took four of five games against the Grasshoppers. A rough road schedule early in the 2nd Half (24 of 33 games on the road from June 29 through Aug. 2) combined with a flurry of promotions knocked the Intimidators into seventh in the division. Kannapolis finished the 2nd Half at 28-41.

The Intimidators fielded a team that featured four mid-season South Atlantic League All-Stars – Smith, LHP Blair Walters, 3B Rangel Ravelo and OF Mark Haddow – and at one point the roster include the White Sox top three picks from the June 2011 draft: Walker, Johnson and RHP Jeff Soptic.

Bill Rice hits for the Cycle

Right fielder Bill Rice hit for the third cycle in franchise history, going 4-for-5 with three RBI and three runs scored to power Kannapolis past Greensboro, 14-5, on Sunday, July 15, 2012, at NewBridge Bank Park. Rice, who tripled to lead off the eighth inning to complete the feat, had the game-tying and go-ahead RBI early in the game before Kannapolis pulled ahead with an 8-run fifth inning.

Rice connected on a second-inning home run to tie what was still a close game, then singled in the third to put the Intimidators ahead for good. He doubled in the fifth before his cherry-on-top triple to highlight his career afternoon.

Rice, who joined the Intimidators on May 28 after batting .300 with the Atlantic League's Camden Riversharks, played in 60 games with Kannapolis, batting .293 (66-225) with two home runs and 15 RBI.

The only other cycle in Intimidators history occurred on July 3, 2008, when Dale Mollenhauer went 4-for-5 against Lake County. Under the Piedmont Boll Weevils moniker, Tom Batson cycled on June 28, 2000 against Hickory, going 4-for-6. No opposing player has ever hit for the cycle against the Piedmont/Kannapolis franchise.

No-hitting the 'Hoppers

The only individual Intimidators no-no

On June 10, 2003, White Sox prospect Brian Miller tossed a seven-inning no-hitter for Kannapolis in the first game of a doubleheader against the Greensboro Bats. The Intimidators won, 2-0, as Miller fanned seven and walked four, retiring 21 of 25 batters faced.

The closest call of the night came when Greensboro third baseman Tom Merkle grounded deep into the hole at short, where Andy Gonzalez made a throw off one knee to pull the first baseman off the bag. The play was ruled an error, keeping the no-hitter intact.

Miller, then 20, was ranked as Chicago's No. 16 prospect entering the 2003 season. Before the no-hitter, he was just 4-4 with a 7.30 ERA, while surrendering 60 hits and 24 walks in 49 innings.

The White Sox selected Miller in the 20th round of the 2002 draft out of Charlotte (Mich.) High School. He made 25 starts with Kannapolis in 2003, going 8-12 with a 5.30 ERA and returned to the Intimidators in 2004, posting an 8-9 record with a 3.94 ERA in 21 starts to earn a promotion to Winston-Salem. Miller did not play beyond High-A and retired after a stint in the independent Atlantic League in 2006.

The other individually-pitched no-hitters in franchise history came prior to the 2001 season when the team played as the Piedmont Phillies/Boll Weevils. Rob Burger spun a no-no in Augusta on April 30, 1996, in a 1-0 win over the GreenJackets. Brad Baisley no-hit Hagerstown on Aug. 12, 1999, when he retired 27 of 31 batters faced, striking out a season-high 12 and walking four en route to a win over the Suns.

3 K-dators combine to no-hit 'Dads

The most recent Intimidators no-hitter came August 20, 2010, when three Kannapolis pitchers combined to no-hit the Hickory Crawdads en route to a 1-0 win in the second game of a doubleheader. It was the fourth ever no-hitter in Piedmont/Kannapolis franchise history and the first combined no-no.

Matt Wickswat spun five scoreless innings to open the contest, striking out five and walking one to earn the win, facing just one batter more than the minimum. He gave way after reaching his innings limit for the game. Jake Petricka took the mound in the sixth and issued a leadoff walk before striking out two and stranding the tying run on third. Taylor Thompson tossed a perfect seventh inning to earn the save and send the Crawdads home hitless.

Devenski dazzles with Legends after trade

Pitcher Chris Devenski took the mound 19 times for the Intimidators in 2012 before being dealt to the Houston Astros on Aug. 4 as the player to be named later in the White Sox deal for Major League reliever – and former Piedmont Boll Weevil – Brett Myers on July 21. Devenski, the Sox 26th round selection in the June 2011 draft, had moved into the Intimidators starting rotation six weeks before being named in the deal, going 2-4 with a 3.92 ERA in eight starts with Kannapolis.

With the 2012 season drawing to a close, Devenski made the 13th start of his career a memorable one. On Sept. 1, the right-hander no-hit the Rome Braves, striking out a career-high 16 batters, to lead his new team, the Lexington Legends, to a 10-0 win. It was just the fifth start for the former Cal State Fullerton Titan as a member of the Legends. He became the Sally Leaguer to throw a no-hitter since Asheville's Bruce Billings on July 23, 2008, against the Lakewood BlueClaws.
