WILL SMITH - General Manager/ C.O.O.

This season is Will's third with the Thunder after beginning his role on the first day of the playoffs during the 2008 Eastern League Championship run. The New Jersey native returned to Mercer County after attending The College of New Jersey and graduating with a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering.

After working as an engineer for several years, Will attended the Baseball Winter Meetings in Dallas, TX, in December 2000 and participated in the PBEO Job Fair. Will accepted a job in New Haven, CT, with former Eastern League member, the New Haven Ravens. After two seasons selling tickets, advertising and merchandise, Will left New Haven for Hagerstown, MD, to work for the Hagerstown Suns (Class-A South Atlantic League).

Will earned two promotions in Hagerstown and was named General Manager in 2006. After two seasons running the day-to-day operations of the Suns, Will accepted an opportunity to return to Trenton and work for the Minor League team he purchased tickets for when he was a college student.

After two full successful seasons in Trenton, Will is even more excited about the hard work and dedication of the current Thunder Staff, and he is looking forward to an even better year in 2011.

Will was taught by his grandfather to be a proper Yankees (and NY Football Giants!) fan. One of his favorite moments since returning to Trenton was experiencing the 2009 World Series Game 6 win with fifteen of his co-workers, his wife Jada and their unknown-at-the-time daughter Samantha who was born in July 2010.

ERIC LIPSMAN - Senior Vice-President of Corporate Sales & Partnerships

The last remaining member of the original Thunder Front Office. Eric joined the Thunder organization in December of 1993 as the team's Director of Marketing and Merchandising. In 2001, Eric became the Executive Director of Marketing for both the Thunder and their sister team the Lakewood BlueClaws (Single-A Affiliate of The Philadelphia Phillies in the South Atlantic League). In September of 2005, Eric was promoted to the Vice President of Marketing for both clubs and in November of 2009, he was named Senior Vice President of Corporate Sales for the Thunder.

Eric oversees all aspects of marketing for the Thunder including national, regional and local sponsorships, promotional night giveaways, and in-game promotions. He is also the editor of the Thunder Yearbook, which has won numerous awards at the Baseball Winter Meetings over the last sixteen years. In 2003, Eric was selected to be a speaker at the Minor League Baseball Promotional Seminar in Cincinnati. He is a guest lecturer on Sports Marketing and the Business of Baseball at Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia, and a member of the school's Sports Marketing Advisory Board. Eric also works closely with the Yankees on Major League ReHabs like last year's with Andy Pettitte and Lance Berkman. He also works with former Thunder players on the Yankees, like Joba Chamberlain, Bret Gardner, Phil Hughes and Robinson Cano on their promotional items that are given out at Waterfront Park.

Before 2002, Eric was also in charge of the merchandising departments of the Thunder and the BlueClaws, and he was responsible for the creation and design of both the original Thunder Dugout Gift Shop in Trenton and the Claws Cove Gift Shop in Lakewood. Both teams have been in the top twenty in merchandise sales of all Minor League Baseball Clubs since their inceptions in 1994 (Trenton) and 2001 (Lakewood).

Eric resides in Doylestown, PA, along with his wife, Sherry, stepchildren, Jaclyn, Troy, and Tyler, and a pair of famous golden retrievers, Chase and Derby.

Ht: 5'11" Wt: 180

Bats: S Throws: R

Resides: Los Angeles, California

Tony Franklin returns for his fifth season as Thunder Manager in 2011. Franklin guided Trenton to back-to-back Eastern League Championships in 2007 and 2008. The Thunder went 83-59 under Franklin in 2010, losing in the Eastern League Championship to Altoona. In 2008 and 2010, Trenton finished the regular season with the best record in the Eastern League (86-54, 83-59). The Thunder also became the first Eastern League team to win back-to-back championships since the Harrisburg Senators won four consecutive titles from 1996-1999.

The 2008 Eastern League Championship was Franklin's third title as manager. In 1993, he led South Bend (Class A affiliate of the Chicago White Sox) to the Midwest League Championship. Prior to his time in Trenton, Franklin was the Minor League Infield Instructor for the San Diego Padres. In 1982, he began his 15-season managerial career as the manager of Geneva (NY) in the New York-Penn League.

Franklin spent four seasons managing Geneva and made the New York-Penn League playoffs once in 1985. After one season with Short-Season Wytheville, he guided the Sarasota White Sox (Advanced A) to a playoff appearance in 1989. His team that year won the second half and collected 80 wins. Franklin spent two years as the skipper of the Birmingham Barons (Double A) and, in 1991, led Birmingham to the Southern League Championship Series. While in Birmingham, Franklin was the manager of former Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson. Before Trenton, his last managerial stint came with Las Vegas in 2000. Franklin filled in for Duane Espy and guided the Stars to a 43-50 mark.

Franklin was honored by San Diego in 1997 with the Jack Krol Award for Outstanding Minor League Instruction in the Padres' organization. Franklin's playing career included six seasons in the Minors with the Cincinnati Reds, (1970-75), and one year with the Chicago Cubs (1976). While with the Reds, Franklin played alongside former Reds Ken Griffey, Sr. and Dan Dreissen. Franklin and his wife, Haiba, have three children, Derrick, Wayne and Shelby.

Did You Know

Current Philadelphia Phillies TV broadcaster Tom McCarthy was one of the original members of the Thunder's front office. McCarthy was hired in 1993 to be the team's Director of Public Relations and radio broadcaster. The College of New Jersey graduate ascended to the position of Assistant General Manager in 1996 before finally leaving the team after the 1999 season to further his broadcasting career.

Another former Thunder front office member, Andy Freed, is currently the radio broadcaster for the Tampa Bay Rays. Freed spent five years in the Thunder radio booth from 1996-2001 and also broadcast Rider men's basketball and The College of New Jersey football during his tenure in Trenton. Freed and McCarthy, former partners in the Thunder radio booth from 1996-1999, were reunited in the 2008 World Series when the Rays and Phillies met in the Fall Classic.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS: Each team has 24 active players for every day of the season.

QUALIFYING MARKS: To qualify for a minor league batting title, a player must have a minimum of 2.7 plate appearances per game (approximately 383 PA). To qualify for an earned run average title, a pitcher must have at least .8 innings pitched per game (approximately 114 IP).

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of bats.

DETERMINING EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Divide the number of earned runs by innings pitched and multiply by nine.

DETERMINING A SAVE: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club.
2. He is not the winning pitcher
3. He meets one of the following:

 - b. He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck; or
 - c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings in relief.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at bat (at bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base on interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by the total number of putouts, assists and errors.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Divide the total number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent(s).

CONSECUTIVE GAME PLAYING STREAK: A playing streak shall be extended if the player plays during a half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance shall not extend a streak. If a player is ejected from a game before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

CONSECUTIVE GAME HITTING STREAK: A consecutive game hitting streak shall not be terminated in the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive indifference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

MAJOR LEAGUE ROOKIE STATUS: Not more than 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit

MAJOR LEAGUE TRADING REGULATIONS: The trading deadline is July 31st.
