He played 4 seasons in Major Leagues with Houston (2000-01), Montreal (2002), Detroit (2002) and Tampa Bay (2003) and hit .231 with 23 home runs in 263 games. He was originally signed by Houston as a non-drafted free agent in 1992.

The 2011 season is his third in the organization and first as Lakewood's manager. He managed Williamsport to an 85-67 record from 2009-2010 and in 2009, managing many of the same players who helped lead the BlueClaws to the 2010 South Atlantic League title. Truby is the 9th manager in team history and was named to his position by the Phillies on November 22nd.

Steve Schrenk - Pitching Coach

Born: 11/20/68 in Chicago, IL Resides: Charlotte, NC

2010 Season In Review

Throughout the first five years of their history, the Lakewood BlueClaws did not have a winning season. But over the last five years, not only have they been winning games, they have been winning championships.

In 2010, the BlueClaws won their third South Atlantic League title in five years, and second in a row, again defeating the Greenville Drive in the South Atlantic League Championship Series three games to one.

The BlueClaws gave up a total of nine runs in their seven post-season games, and improved to 15-4 all-time in the playoffs. The team faced elimination (for the first time in franchise history) in Game Three of the Northern Division Series against Hickory, but Jonathan Pettibone threw seven one-hit innings in a 6-0 win.

After splitting the first two games of the best-of-five Championship Series in Greenville (SC), the BlueClaws returned to FirstEnergy Park needing two wins for another title. In Game Three, Jeremy Barnes picked up Lakewood's 14th "walk-off" win of the year with an RBI single in the bottom of the 9th inning for a 2-1 win.

The next afternoon, with Lakewood trailing 2-1, Sebastian Valle hit a three run home run in the fifth inning and Josh Zeid got the final 12 outs, closing down a 4-2 win and Lakewood's second straight title.

The BlueClaws, in the process, became the first team since 1993-94 (Savannah) to win back-to-back South Atlantic League titles and this year will look to become the first team since Greensboro in 1980-82 to win three straight titles.

This BlueClaws team was among the most talented and prospect-filled in all of Minor League Baseball. In fact, when Baseball America put out their annual prospect rankings heading into the 2011 season, members of the 2010 BlueClaws finished second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh in the Phillies system and the team had five of the top 20 prospects in the South Atlantic League.

Among the top prospects were Jonathan Singleton, a left-handed power-hitting first baseman from California. One of the younger players in the league, Singleton did not turn 19 until September 18th, the day the BlueClaws clinched the championship. The youngster made his presence felt early on, belting a home run in just his second at bat as a BlueClaw, on May 13th in Greenville. He would hit 14 home runs on the year and is one of the prospects to watch heading into 2011.

Jiwan James, a dynamite defensive centerfielder, broke the BlueClaws record with a 24-game hitting streak in June & July. Valle, a power-hitting catcher, led the team with 16 home runs. Both finished the year among the 10 best prospects in the organization.

Among the pitchers, Brody Colvin ended the year as the third ranked prospect in the system. The 19 year old right-hander had a sub-2 ERA from May 14th on and did not allow more than three runs in any outing. Jarred Cosart finished the season ranked fourth in the system. A hard-throwing right-hander, Cosart touched 99 during the season and struck out 77 in 71 innings pitched.

The BlueClaws, 4.5 games out of first with 20 games left in the first-half, finished 15-5 to earn a spot in the playoffs, clinching a spot at home on the last day of the half. They followed that up to win the second half title as well, becoming just the fourth team to win both and ultimately, the first to win the first half, second half and playoff titles.

One highlight of 2010 came on August 20th, when the BlueClaws welcomed Ryan Howard back to Lakewood. The Phillies slugger, who played with the BlueClaws in 2002, was rehabbing a hamstring injury and the BlueClaws retired his number 29 before the game. 10,032 came to FirstEnergy Park that night, the second largest crowd in franchise history.

Six former BlueClaws (2007 RHP Carlos Monasterios, 2007 SS Jason Donald, 2007 RHP Brian Schlitter, 2008 RHP Vance Worley, 2008 OF Domonic Brown, and 2007 RHP Kyle Drabek) made the big leagues, bringing the total to 36 former BlueClaws in the team's first 10 years.

Off the field, the BlueClaws drew 431,954, up 2,733 from 2009. This pushed the team's attendance total to 4,456,553 overall and they once again led the South Atlantic League and the state of New Jersey in this category.

Eric Krupa – President

Eric Krupa enters his fourth year as the President of the South Atlantic League after spending 10 years as the Director of Business and Finance for the headquarters of Minor League Baseball. While working in the Minor League Baseball office, Krupa was responsible for the finance and accounting activities of the league office headquarters, as well as coordinating the annual financial reporting by the clubs. He was the administrator of the Professional Baseball Umpire Corp., the company that recruits, trains and evaluates the 230 umpires throughout Minor League Baseball. Krupa also provided critical analytical support during the PBA negotiations of 1997 and 2004 and the Association of Minor League Umpires (AMLU) negotiations of 2000 and 2005-06.

A native of Reading, Pennsylvania, Krupa received a bachelor's degree in mathematics and economics from Lafayette College (Easton, PA) in 1992. Krupa began his career in Minor League Baseball as an intern and Visiting Clubhouse Manager for the Reading Phillies (Class-AA Eastern League affiliate of the Philadelphia Phillies) during the 1995 season. He left the club to return to school and earned a masters degree in sports administration and facility management from Ohio University (Athens, OH) in 1996.

After graduate school, Krupa worked as an intern for the Walt Disney Company as they launched their Disney's Wide World of Sports complex in Lake Buena Vista, FL. He left Disney at the end of 1996 for a position at the Minor League Baseball offices in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Krupa and his wife Melissa have one daughter, and currently reside in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Remembering John H. Moss

Longtime South Atlantic League President John H. Moss passed away in 2009. Moss was President of the modern South Atlantic League from 1980-2007, but he had re-created the Western Carolinas League in 1959, which later became the South Atlantic League.

Said current league President Eric Krupa: "I do not think there is another league that owes as much to one person as the South Atlantic League owes to John Henry Moss. John helped create the league and guided its growth for 50 years. The solid, well-run league that I took over in 2008 was the direct result of John's lifetime commitment and hard work. He will be sorely missed throughout the league and all of baseball."

Moss was honored with a lifetime contract in 1990, the only man in baseball with such job security. He organized the original Western Carolina League and served as its President. He served as the youngest person elected as President of a professional baseball league, when he brought the Western Carolina League to the professional level in 1947. Under John's leadership, the South Atlantic League grew to 16 clubs in 8 states. John helped bring professional baseball to 43 different cities (represented by 114 ownership groups) by stressing the importance of providing quality, wholesome, family-friendly entertainment at an affordable price.

Bill Giles, Chairman

Bill Giles has spent his entire life in baseball. His father, Warren C. Giles, was President and General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and President of the National League (1951-69). His mother died when he was nine so Giles spent long hours and many days with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati. Giles' first job in baseball came around the age of 14 when he did all kinds of odds and ends with the Cincinnati Reds' Public Relations Department.

Following his graduation from Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command. His baseball career took full time status in 1959 when he was named General Manager of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati Reds minor league team. From there he moved to the expansion Houston Colt .45s. While in Houston Giles served as Traveling Secretary, Publicity Director, Director of Public Relations and Promotions, and Vice President.

With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation. Giles began his career as Vice President of Business Operations following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to Executive Vice President. When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group which purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained President of the Phillies until June 20, 1997 when he moved to his current position of Chairman.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: Chairman of the Board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; former President of the Boy Scouts of America; on the bard of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Greater Philadelphia First and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League and Rotary Club. Giles has been honored many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards are: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America, Garry Maddox award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center, Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994), Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994), American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision for Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc., and the American Heart Association's Man of the Year. Giles is likewise very active in Major League Baseball matters. He has served on the Official Rules Committee and as Chairman of both the Television Committee and the Schedule Format Committee.

Additionally, Giles is an author, recently penning Pouring Six Beers at a Time: And Other Stories from a Lifetime in Baseball. It is currently available in most bookstores and on the internet.

Giles was born in Rochester, New York on September 7, 1934 and currently resides in Villanova, Pennsylvania. Giles and his wife Nancy are the parents of three sons: Michael, Joseph and Christopher, and Giles has eight grandchildren.
