DETROIT LIONS OWNERSHIP

MARTHA FIRESTONE FORD

OWNER AND CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Martha Firestone Ford continues to provide great stewardship for the Detroit Lions as owner and chairman, succeeding her husband, William Clay Ford, who passed away on March 9, 2014 after serving as the sole owner of the franchise for 50 years (1964-2013).

Mrs. Ford, now in her second year as owner and chairman, has been affiliated with the Lions since her husband purchased the club in 1963. Mr. Ford's ownership grew into a deeply-rooted family tradition that now includes multiple generations of the Ford Family. Mrs. Ford proudly honors that tradition with firm leadership and stability.

As the Ford Family, the Lions organization and Ford Motor Company honored Mr. Ford's lifelong contributions to the franchise, community and auto industry throughout the year, the team on the field continued to make progress towards Mrs. Ford's top priority, winning a Super Bowl. In 2014, the Lions finished 11-5 in Head Coach Jim Caldwell's first season, the franchise's best record since 1991, and earned a spot in the playoffs for the second time in four seasons.

Born in Akron, Ohio, Mrs. Ford is the granddaughter of one of America's great automotive industrial icons, Harvey Firestone. She graduated from Vassar College in 1946 with a bachelor's degree. After getting married in 1947, Mr. and Mrs. Ford located to the Detroit area and became active members of the metro Detroit community.

In addition to being the owner and chairman of the Detroit Lions, Mrs. Ford currently serves as an officer on the board for Detroit Lions Charities and on the board of The Henry Ford Health System. She has held leadership positions with many organizations, including The Merrill Palmer Institute, The University Liggett School, and The Children's Home of Detroit. She was also the founder and longtime board member of The Maple Grove Institute.

Joining Mrs. Ford on the board of the Detroit Lions are her three daughters, Martha Ford Morse, Sheila Ford Hamp, Elizabeth Ford Kontulis, and her son, William Clay Ford, Jr. She also has 14 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD, JR.

VICE CHAIRMAN

William Clay Ford, Jr. has made a positive and lasting impact on the Detroit Lions since assuming the post of vice chairman in February 1995. He remains focused on helping his family create a winner in the present and on ensuring the team's success well into the 21st century – both on and off the field.

Ford shares in his family's longtime commitment to the Lions and a burning passion to win. That passion dates back to 1934 when his father, William Clay Ford, attended the first Lions' game ever played in Detroit as a child. Mr. Ford would later purchase the team as sole owner in 1963. Now, Ford Jr.'s mother, Martha Firestone Ford, has assumed ownership of the team with great pride following Mr. Ford's passing on March 9, 2014.

Like his entire family, Ford wants nothing less than for the Lions to become a premier franchise in the NFL, and he knows that means delivering a championship to the fans.

Key examples of Ford's influence are Ford Field in downtown Detroit and the team's headquarters and practice facility in Allen Park. Both are considered among the best facilities in all of sports.

Ford's dedication and commitment to the fans never was more evident than when he spearheaded stadium negotiations that led to the 1996 decision to build Ford Field. Due largely to his perseverance, the Lions struck a deal with the city of Detroit and Wayne County that established the foundation to return to downtown Detroit in 2002.

Along with moving the Lions to downtown Detroit, Ford has provided a world-class practice facility to complement the team's stadium. The $36 million team headquarters in Allen Park, which opened in April 2002, provides the ideal training center for NFL players and coaches.

Ford also played a vital role in Detroit's bid for Super Bowl XL. Through his leadership, the Ford family, the Detroit Lions and Ford Motor Company were integral in Detroit's hosting of the premier event of the NFL in February 2006. Super Bowl XL exceeded expectations, generating an overall $260 million economic impact, including $100 million in downtown improvements, $10 million in emerging business – the most in Super Bowl history – and $6 million in the NFL/Boys & Girls Club Youth Education Town, the largest in the country.

In other past roles within the NFL structure, Ford also has served on the NFL Finance Committee and NFL Properties Committee.

Now in his 21st season as vice chairman, Ford has pushed the Lions to take major steps on several fronts. He strongly supports active community outreach programs to make people's lives better. Several initiatives, such as Detroit Lions Charities, have served Detroit and the state of Michigan. In September 2012, the Lions began a new community initiative – Living for the City – that has reshaped the club's aim to improve the lives of Detroiters.

Ford also emphasizes the importance of growing the game of football. The Detroit Lions Youth Football program is one of the most extensive youth sports programs operated by a pro sports team. This program includes numerous camps and clinics teaching the game, life-skills, proper safety practices for players and assists in development of youth coaches. Through Detroit Lions Charities, Ford helped develop the Detroit Police Athletic League youth football program into one of the largest in the country.

Though football remains a passion for Ford, his top priority continues to be in serving as Ford Motor Company executive chairman. His role is a professional and personal commitment, leading the company founded by his great-grandfather, American automotive pioneer Henry Ford. A member of the board of directors since 1988, Ford assumed the role of chairman of the board on January 1, 1999. He also served as chief executive officer from October 2001 through September 2006. Additionally, he serves as chairman of the board's finance committee and is a member of the sustainability committee.

Among his many outside leadership roles, Ford serves on the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford and Henry Ford Health System. He is also chairman of Detroit Economic Club and the New Michigan Initiative Committee of Business Leaders for Michigan. He also is a founding partner of Fontinalis Partners, LLC, a Michigan-based investment firm that acts as a strategic operating partner to transportation infrastructure technology companies around the world. From 2005 to 2015, Ford also served on the Board of Directors of eBay Inc.

Ford is the 2015 recipient of the USC Shoah Foundation's prestigious "Ambassador for Humanity" award, which honors individuals who embody the institute's values and mission to promote tolerance and mutual respect. The award will be presented to him in September 2015 by the institute's founder, Hollywood legend Stephen Spielberg, and will honor Ford for his leadership in the community and educational outreach.

Born in Detroit in 1957, Ford holds a Bachelor of Arts from Princeton University and a Master of Science in management as an Alfred P. Sloan fellow from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), an honorary Doctor of Environmental Sciences and Engineering degree from Koc University, an honorary doctor of laws degree from the University of Michigan and an honorary doctor of humane letters degree from Bradley University. Ford is a member of the Irish America Hall of Fame.

TOM LEWAND

PRESIDENT

Tom Lewand, who was named team president December 29, 2008, oversees the team's day-to-day operations and reports to Mrs. Ford on all business, organizational and NFL matters. Now in his 21st season with the Detroit Lions, seventh as president, he continues to guide the overall direction of the franchise.

Lewand's fundamental principle is to consistently present the Lions as a first-class organization with a clear sense of mission and direction.

Among his responsibilities, Lewand is the chief player contract negotiator and he oversees all day-to-day business operations of both the Detroit Lions and Ford Field entities. This includes the management of finance, football administration, player development, security, equipment operations, medical staff, ticketing, sponsorship and marketing, communications, broadcasting, digital media, human resources, Ford Field operations and administration, acquisition of events and the development of Ford Field's lease space in the stadium's progression as a multi-use facility.

Lewand has held a myriad of positions and responsibilities during his tenure with the Lions. Prior to his current role, he was the club's executive vice president and chief operating officer from 2003-08.

On a League-wide level, Lewand contributes to several key business and labor initiatives. He serves on the Super Bowl Advisory Committee and the NFL Management Council's Club Executives Committee. Lewand has also previously served on the Committee on Revenue Sharing Qualifiers and Special Committee on League Economics. Lewand represents the organization for all League-level business matters.

Lewand's leadership positions the entire Lions' organization, including Ford Field operations, to positively impact the Lions' drive for a Super Bowl title. For Lewand, everything from football transactions to Ford Field events influences the team's ability to compete and win.

In January 2014, Lewand and General Manager Martin Mayhew undertook a search for a new head coach. They sought a leader who could elevate the franchise to the next level and build a consistently-winning team to achieve the directive set forth by the Ford Family. With that focus, the team hired Jim Caldwell to fulfill this vision. Caldwell's impressive coaching career includes leading the Indianapolis Colts to Super Bowl XLIV as the club's head coach and winning two Super Bowls as quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator while with Indianapolis (2006) and Baltimore (2012).

The team's hiring of Caldwell to lead the team on the field yielded immediate dividends as the Lions compiled an 11-5 record, Detroit's most wins since 1991, and earned a playoff berth. Caldwell recorded the most wins by a Lions head coach in his first year with this franchise since Patsy Clark (11) in 1931.

During his tenure with the Lions, Lewand has negotiated player contracts totaling more than $1.6 billion.

Lewand has executed some of the NFL's more extensive and complex contract negotiations, including the re-signing All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson in 2012 to the highest contract ever signed by a receiver and inking QB Matthew Stafford to both his rookie contract in 2009 and his extension in 2013.

Johnson was the biggest off-season move for the Lions in 2012 as Lewand negotiated a new eight-year contract that has him signed with the Lions through 2019. Stafford's rookie contract occurred within just a few hours of the 2009 NFL Draft, allowing the team to sign the first overall pick prior to the draft. In 2013, Lewand led the negotiations with Stafford to extend the franchise quarterback's contract through 2017.

Lewand's additional contract highlights include: the Lions' last 23 first-round draft choices, Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders' last NFL contract, the contracts of several Pro Bowl players and recent key free agent acquisitions.

BUILDING THE LIONS BRAND

On the business side, Lewand constantly seeks opportunities to evolve and grow the team's operations that, in turn, will influence the team's ability to win on the field. Lewand drives to combine a championship team with unique fan engagement and in-stadium experiences.

One significant area of improvement the past four seasons has been the growth in season ticket holders and ticket sales.

The Lions have sold out their last 37 regular season home games. The introduction of numerous fan-friendly and family-oriented ticket options has greatly improved attendance at all Lions games.

When the Lions defeated the Chicago Bears 24-13 on October 1, 2011 during its first Monday Night Football appearance since 2001, the team claimed victory in front of a Ford Field record crowd (67,891) for a Lions home game.

In fact, the top 20 largest crowds to see a Lions' game at Ford Field have all occurred since 2011.

The Lions have attracted over two million fans in the past four seasons (2011-14) at Ford Field. In the past 32 home games, the Lions have averaged 63,500 fans per game. Each season has yielded attendance totals for the regular season of over 500,000, which also represents the four highest season attendance totals since the Lions began playing at Ford Field in 2002.

In 2010, attendance to Lions games increased 14-percent. It was the largest increase by any NFC team, and Detroit was one of only two teams in the NFL to experience a double-digit increase in ticket sales.

Lewand not only wants the team to provide the best possible product on the field for the fans, but he also is determined to make the experience affordable and one of the most valuable investments for Lions fans. For season ticket holders, the team offers additional unique interactive opportunities, such as town hall meetings, conference calls, meet-and-greets with players and special training camp access among others to complement their purchase of season tickets.

Since 2009, the Lions have achieved the NFL's largest growth in both total season ticket holders and percentage of Club Seats sold.

The excitement and interest over the Lions has caught the attention of the NFL's television partners to feature the team in their marquee national broadcast timeslots.

In the past four seasons, Detroit has played on national television 13 times, including five on MNF, three on Sunday Night Football, four on Thanksgiving and one in London.

In 2015, the Lions are slated for a team-record six nationally-televised games, which includes the Lions' first home SNF game on NBC, the first appearance on CBS/NFL Network's broadcast of Thursday Night Football and two MNF games on ESPN. For the third time since 1970, the Lions will appear in primetime four times.

Along with the Lions 76th Thanksgiving Day game, Detroit will appear on national TV when the Lions return to London and play in the NFL's International Series at Wembley Stadium against the Kansas City Chiefs. Similar to 2014, the Lions-Chiefs game will air nationally on FOX at 9:30 a.m. ET. Since the NFL began playing regular season games in London during the 2007 season, Detroit will become the first designated visiting team selected to play overseas in back-to-back seasons.

Seeking opportunities to reach and communicate with more fans, Lewand emphasizes the importance of growing fan interaction through digital media. In the past year, the team engaged with approximately 12.5 million combined unique users on Detroitions.com, various social mediums and the Lions' mobile app platform.

Establishing the Lions as a great partner in the community remains a top priority for Lewand, who serves as an officer on the board for Detroit Lions Charities, and the entire organization. In September 2012, the Lions launched the club's new Living for the City philanthropic program that produces transformational efforts that improve the well-being of metro Detroit's underserved communities by focusing on sustainable health and wellness initiatives and community development. Living for the City supports organizations that pursue integrated approaches to physical fitness, healthy eating, housing, land use and environmental planning, public transportation, community infrastructure, and aligned workforce opportunities.

In 2009, Lewand completed another major initiative that continues to help transform the Lions business operations. The Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that launched changes to the team's logo and uniforms, a new team logotype and font and streamlined branding elements. The evolution of the Lions brand is the most complete and all-encompassing modification in franchise history. The new brand now extends beyond the logo on the helmet and presents a consistent visual identity in new, versatile and distinctive ways.

FORD FIELD PHENOMENON

Under Lewand's guidance and direction, Ford Field has become the crown jewel of downtown Detroit and serves as a cornerstone in the city's urban renewal and revitalization efforts. The facility opened to rave reviews in 2002, with the publisher of the Detroit Free Press stating that Ford Field "tells [Detroiters] who we are and suggests what we can be. Now it's up to the rest of us to create a downtown and a city that matches the vision Ford Field realizes."

Few venues, considering space, amenities and operations, have the flexibility to host and execute the variety of large-scale events as does Ford Field.

Lewand leads in the procurement of all events at Ford Field, including college football, MHSAA high school football, concerts, motorsports and various trade shows. Few venues in the U.S. host as many football events of all levels as does Ford Field, filling virtually every weekend in the fall. In any given year, Ford Field dedicates several dates to youth, high school, college and NFL games at Ford Field. In 2015 alone, 13 football games will be played from Thanksgiving Day through December..

Lewand has led in the effort for the Lions to partner with the Big Ten and the Atlantic Coast Conferences to launch a new college bowl, the Quick Lane Bowl, which kicked off the inaugural game in December 2014. The Lions are the only NFL team to own, host and operate a college football bowl game.

For the past 11 years, Ford Field has hosted the MAC Football Championship Game and was the home for the Little Caesars Bowl from 2002-13.

The NFL has twice called upon the Lions and the team's leadership to host a relocated regular season game with less than five days to prepare. Last year, a severe snow storm moved the Buffalo Bills-New York Jets game to Ford Field for a Monday Night matchup on November 24. In just a six-day span, Ford Field played host to the Bills-Jets, the Lions Thanksgiving Day game and eight MHSAA state football championship games. In 2010, the first example of this unique capability occurred when the Minnesota Vikings played the New York Giants at Ford Field on December 13 with less than 20 hours to turn around the facility after the Lions defeated the eventual Super Bowl Champion Green Bay Packers, 10-3, the day before.

Commercial development has grown as well recently at Ford Field with new tenants, such as Campbell Ewald, an integrated marketing and advertising agency, and restaurants like The Breadstick.

SUPER BOWL XL

Ford Field dazzled in 2006 when the city of Detroit hosted Super Bowl XL. Lewand served as the point person for the Lions and Ford Field on the Host Committee for Super Bowl XL, and he was among the key figures leading the city's hosting of the game and events surrounding Super Bowl XL, which was widely-acclaimed as successful and critical to Detroit's future growth. Super Bowl XL injected an estimated $260 million economic boost to the Metro Detroit region.

OTHER SHINING MOMENTS

Behind Lewand's leadership, Ford Field once again stepped to the forefront in April 2009 as Detroit, for the first time, hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. The championship culminated six years of planning, including Lewand representing the organization in a partnership with the NCAA to present the Final Four in a groundbreaking manner that has set the standard for all future sites.

The event featured a first for the Final Four—a center-stadium elevated playing floor configuration that allowed for the utilization of all stadium seats. The evolutionary 2009 Ford Field model has since become the standard for all stadiums hosting Final Fours.

The 2009 Final Four also saw Ford Field break long-standing records, including: attendance for the practice session on Final Four Friday (nearly 30,000), the National Semifinals (72,456) and National Championship game (72,992). Overall, a record 145,378 fans attended the Final Four. By hosting the Final Four, Ford Field was the centerpiece for a weekend that had an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit and the metro area.

Attendance records were not only set inside Ford Field, but also at ancillary events, such as Hoops City at the Cobo Hall Convention Center. All of these events generated a tremendous opportunity for both residents and visitors to enjoy downtown Detroit over a five-day period.

Paced by Lewand's leadership, the organization followed up that tremendous accomplishment with the highly successful hosting of the 2010 Men's Hockey Frozen Four. Like the basketball championship, Ford Field allowed the NCAA to elevate one of its marquee events to even greater heights.

For the first time, the 2010 Frozen Four was held in a large-stadium venue with the portable ice configuration set-up used in the NHL's annual Winter Classic. The championship garnered record crowds (34,954 for the National Semifinals and 37,592 for the National Championship) that set NCAA Frozen Four records and world indoor hockey records.

Ford Field became the first venue to host the Men's Final Four and the Men's Frozen Four in back-to-back years.

In June 2011, Ford Field hosted the opening round of the 2011 CONCACAF Gold Cup with two soccer matches between Panama and Guadeloupe and the United States and Canada. The opening round match was the first soccer game played by the U.S. Men's National Team in the Metro Detroit area since the World Cup in 1994, and it drew the largest crowd (28,209) for a U.S. match in the Gold Cup opening round since 2003.

In addition to marquee sporting events, Ford Field has become one of the nation's outstanding entertainment venues by providing a large-scale audience with the intimate feel of much smaller arenas.

Since 2002, some of the music industry's most popular superstars have played in front of sell-out crowds, including the Rolling Stones, Eminem, Madonna, Kid Rock, Kenney Chesney (seven times), Bon Jovi, Taylor Swift (three times), Justin Timberlake @ Jay-Z and One Direction. This year is perhaps Ford Field's most aggressive concert schedule with Swift, Chesney, One Direction, AC/DC and Luke Bryan all scheduled to headline acts.

Additionally, in April 2007 Ford Field hosted WWE's Wrestlemania 23 that set a new Ford Field all-events attendance record (80,103) and had a $25 million impact on the Metro Detroit area.

A "LEADER AND BEST"

Lewand possesses a strong educational background, having received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Michigan in 1991, and completing both his Juris Doctor at the University of Michigan Law School and Master in Business Administration from the University of Michigan Business School in 1996. Lewand aided the Michigan football program in various capacities on a volunteer basis while attending the school. He also worked for the Lions on a part-time basis while completing work on his graduate degrees.

In 1991, Lewand served as an environmental advisor for the Governor of Indiana, Evan Bayh. Following a year in that position, he entered graduate school at Michigan. He spent time working for the law firm of Dickinson Wright in Detroit, and the Chicago law firm of Kirkland and Ellis. In the summer of 1993, he worked in the White House in the Counsel's Office for Presidential Personnel.

Lewand's family history is entrenched in the Detroit area community. His father, F. Thomas Lewand, now serves on the staff of newly-elected Detroit Mayor Mike Duggan as group executive for jobs and economic growth. He worked as an attorney for 43 years and was both the Chief of Staff for former Governor James Blanchard and the Chairman of the Michigan Democratic Party. His late grandfather, Joseph B. Sullivan, was a judge in the Michigan Court of Appeals and was the deputy mayor of Detroit in the 1960s.

OFF THE FIELD

Lewand is active in the community, acting as Past Chairman of the Detroit Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau and serving on the Boards of Directors of the Detroit Zoological Society, the Downtown Detroit Partnership, the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation and the Parade Company.

In a collaborative effort to reduce and prevent youth sports concussions, Lewand represented the Lions and the organization's work with Michigan legislators, the NFL and various youth sports organizations to pass state laws that have implemented concussion education and awareness programs along with a medical protocol for young athletes to return to action.

Lewand also is on the Corporate Advisory Board for the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business. Lewand was named as one of Crain's Detroit Business "40 Under 40" in 1998, which honored and recognized 40 top business people in the Detroit area under the age of 40. Lewand was recognized nationally twice, in 2003 and 2005, by the Sports Business Journal as one of the top "40 Under 40" sports executives in the United States.

He and his wife, Suzanne, have four daughters: Cayleigh, Paige, Shannon and Erin.

MARTIN MAYHEW

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER

Since becoming the Lions Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager, Martin Mayhew has orchestrated a dramatic transformation of the Lions personnel and front office. Now in his 15th season with the Lions, Mayhew reports directly to Mrs. Ford on all football matters.

With 2015 marking Mayhew's seventh season as the team's executive football decision-maker, he continues to build the Lions roster through a plan that focuses on acquiring players with great football character who are smart and physically-tough.

The process of improving the Lions' success on the field continued in January 2014 when the team hired a new head coach in Jim Caldwell.

Along with President Tom Lewand, Mayhew hired Caldwell to lead this franchise due to his experience coaching at a championship level and has background utilizing effective schemes and emphasizing strong fundamentals.

Mayhew believed that Caldwell's extensive experience, skill-set and success as both head coach and offensive coordinator will greatly benefit the team's development. Caldwell led the Indianapolis Colts to Super Bowl XLIV as head coach and won two Super Bowl titles (Super Bowl XLI with Indianapolis and Super Bowl XLVII with Baltimore) as quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator. While with the Colts, Caldwell helped guide one of the greatest offensive dynasties in pro football history.

In Caldwell's first year as the Lions head coach, the Lions won 11 games, the most since 1991, and earned a berth in the playoffs. Caldwell recorded the most victories by a Lions head coach in their first year with the franchise since Patsy Clark led the Portsmouth Spartans to 11 wins in 1931.

Mayhew also has reorganized and enhanced the team's player personnel operations throughout his tenure as general manager, including the addition of experienced personnel executives, reorganizing scouting territories and launching a new scouting database to process information.

In his role, Mayhew oversees the player personnel department, including college and pro scouting, and plays an integral role in the coordination of the team's salary cap objectives and negotiation of player contracts. Mayhew and Lewand collectively work on all team matters pertaining to the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement and League policies and procedures.

One of his earliest and most important additions to the personnel department was the 2009 hiring of former NFL quarterback and long-time personnel executive James "Shack" Harris, who won a Super Bowl with Baltimore as pro personnel director and helped Jacksonville to two playoff appearances as vice president of player personnel. Harris served seven seasons with the Lions and, after 37 years in the NFL as a player and in player personnel, retired after the 2014 season.

Mayhew's improvement of the Lions player personnel operation continued in January 2013

when he added Brian Xanders, former Denver Broncos general manager, as one of the team's senior personnel executives. Xanders, now in his 22nd NFL season, has experience in a variety of player personnel, football operations and coaching roles gained during his time with the Broncos and Atlanta Falcons organizations. Xanders served four seasons as the Broncos general manager, including the 2011 season when Denver won the 2011 AFC West Division title. Since joining the Lions, Xanders has overseen the creation of a new proprietary personnel database and analytical program that has greatly enhanced and aided the team's scouting operation and assists with the college draft.

In addition to his duties, the coordination of all football operations, managed day-to-day by Senior Vice President of Football Operations Cedric Saunders, is under the direction of Mayhew. This includes team travel, training camp operations, security, medical staff, equipment operations, video department and cafeteria staff. Mayhew also works on many of the Lions' football-related legal matters.

Mayhew originally joined the Lions' front office in February 2001, as senior director of football administration/staff counsel. He was promoted to senior vice president of football administration/legal affairs on February 3, 2003, and on October 14, 2004, he was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager.

ROSTER CONSTRUCTION

Along with free agency and the draft, Mayhew utilizes every resource, including trades and the league's waiver wire process, year-round to improve the team's roster from top to bottom.

Significant change to the team's roster over the past six seasons underscores Mayhew's 24/7 philosophy and approach to improving the team's roster. Only three players remain from the 2008 roster when Mayhew began overseeing its development.

In 2011, Mayhew's approach led to the Lions winning 10 regular-season games for the first time since 1995 and also earning a playoff berth for the first time since 1999. Last year, the team's 11 wins marked the fourth time in franchise history the Lions claimed 11+ wins in a season, including 1931 (11), 1962 (11) and 1991 (12).

Defensively, the Lions finished second in total defense (300.9 yards/game), the best ranking since 1970, and was also third in points allowed (17.6), the lowest since 1980. Leading the way for the Lions was their top-ranked rush defense that allowed just 69.3 yards per game. The Lions became just the ninth team in NFL history to finish the season yielding less than 70 rushing yards per game in a season.

Among the individual accolades accomplished by the Lions talented roster, Detroit featured five Pro Bowl players for the first time since 2000. QB Matthew Stafford, who went on to win Pro Bowl Offensive MVP honors, became the first Lions quarterback to play in the Pro Bowl since QB Greg Landry in 1972. Last year's top free agent acquisition, WR Golden Tate, also did not disappoint as he became a Pro Bowler for the first time in his career during his first season with the Lions. Also included in the group was S Glover Quin, who became the first Lions Pro Bowl safety since S Bennie Blades in 1992. WR Calvin Johnson and DT Ndamukong Suh rounded out the Lions Pro Bowlers as they were selected for the fifth and fourth time, respectively.

Since assuming the organization's top football position in October, 2008, Mayhew has completed 32 trades involving veteran players and draft picks. One of those trades, completed in March 2015, acquired All-Pro DT Haloti Ngata from the Baltimore Ravens to anchor the team's interior defensive line. Two of Mayhew's trades generated additional first-round draft picks in 2009 and 2010. It marked the first time in franchise history that the Lions have made two selections in the first round of the draft in back-to-back seasons.

Neither free agency nor the draft is ever the finish line for Mayhew as he continues to seek an upgrade in talent by any means to develop and improve the team's roster. Last year, the Lions signed K Matt Prater in October to take over the team's field goal kicking duties, and Prater finished the season tying for the seventh-most field goals (21) in the NFL over the last 12 weeks and he connected on two fourth quarter game-winning kicks.

BUILDING THE CORE

Mayhew understands the best rosters in the NFL begin with successful drafts.

While each of his personnel decisions will impact the team's performance, it may be Mayhew's very first draft choice as general manager that could have the greatest long-term impact. That selection, QB Matthew Stafford, has produced at a level the past four seasons that is unrivaled in the history of the franchise.

Stafford had one of the biggest breakout seasons in 2011 when he set franchise passing records for yards (5,038) and touchdowns (41). He led the team to several comeback wins, including an NFL record three wins after trailing by 17+ points, four after trailing by 13+ points and two 20+-point comebacks in back-to-back-weeks. His performance earned him the 2011 AP Comeback Player of the Year award.

In his six seasons, Stafford has claimed the team's career, season and single-game passing records in nearly every category. He is just one of three players in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards four times in his first six career seasons, and he reached 20,000 career passing yards faster (71 games) than any player in NFL history. He is also the fourth-fastest player to throw for 100 career touchdowns (55 games). Additionally, Stafford now owns the team's franchise record with 65 consecutive starts (67 including postseason) by a quarterback.

Despite the fact that he will play in his sixth NFL season, Stafford is still just 27-years old heading into the 2015 season.

Along with Stafford, Mayhew's first draft also produced two other starters in TE Brandon Pettigrew and LB DeAndre Levy, who both signed long-term contract extensions over the past three seasons. Pettigrew owns several single-season receiving records by Lions tight ends. Levy broke out in 2013 with six interceptions, the most by a Lions linebacker since Hall of Fame LB Joe Schmidt in 1958, and he followed that season up with a stellar 2014 campaign when he finished second in the NFL in tackles (151) and registered the most solo tackles (117) in the League.

Mayhew drafted four-time Pro Bowl and two-time All-Pro DT Ndamukong Suh in his second draft in 2010. Suh anchored the defensive line for five seasons before departing via free agency.

The Lions' first-round draft pick in 2012, T Riley Reiff, has moved right into the left tackle spot following the retirement of 12-year veteran Jeff Backus. He anchors the team's left side of the offensive line and is now one of the pillars of a young, aggressive offensive line. Along with Reiff, second-rounder WR Ryan Broyles still seeks to bolster the receiver position after injuries slowed him down early in his career.

Universally touted as the team's best draft class under Mayhew, the 2013 class produced several starters and key contributors throughout the draft and via the undrafted free agents. Ten members of that class will start or compete for roster positions to provide depth on this year's team.

Taken fifth overall, DE Ezekiel Ansah has totaled 15.5 sacks in his first two seasons, and he will continue to force the edge at defensive end. Second-round CB Darius Slay took a big step in year two at the corner position to help elevate the Lions defense to one of the top units in the NFL. He finished in the top-10 in pass defenses (17) in the NFL. In Round 3, Detroit drafted G Larry Warford to help anchor the team's interior offensive line at the right guard position. Warford was named Rookie of the Year by Pro Football Focus as well as all-rookie by several publications. In the fifth round, the team traded up to select P Sam Martin, who not only set the team's single-season net punting record (40.4) but also has the second-highest tally by a rookie in NFL history. Martin also contributed greatly on kickoffs, registering 38 touchbacks. Martin has accumulated the third highest punting average (46.7) and net punting average (40.3) in NFL history by a punter through his first two seasons.

Solidifying the strength of this class were the signings of TE Joseph Fauria and T LaAdrian Waddle as undrafted free agents. Fauria caught seven touchdown passes, the second-most in a season by a Lions tight end. Waddle made the roster and started eight of the last nine games as a rookie and 10 games during his second year despite battling injuries.

Seven draft picks from the 2014 class will complete for starting spots or back up roles this season, including TE Eric Ebron, LB Kyle Van Noy, C Travis Swanson, CB Nevin Lawson, DE Larry Webster, DT Caraan Reid and WRTJ Jones. Joining that class are undrafted free agents T Cornelius Lucas and S Mohammed Seisay, who each played in at least 13 games last year as rookies.

STRENGTHENING POSITIONS

Mayhew maximizes his resources in an effort to not only strengthen the team by improving individual talent, but also by strengthening each position unit from top to bottom. Instead of just featuring a few standout players, this team now moves forward with deep, talented position groups.

Offensively, wide receiver and tight end have become positions of strength and a critical complement to Stafford at quarterback.

Leading the receivers is All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson, who is a four-time Pro Bowl selection. After signing a new eight-year contract in March 2012, Johnson is now entering his eighth year with the club. He combines unparalleled athletic ability and size with an outstanding work ethic that has resulted in him now being considered among the very best players in the game.

While he produced at a high level early in his career, Johnson elevated his game the past four seasons to historical proportions. Despite injuries and missing three games last year, Johnson still registered over 1,000 yards and reached 10,000 yards in the fewest games (115) in NFL history. In 2013, he became the first player in NFL history to register 5,000 receiving yards over a three-year stretch and he now holds the NFL career record for average yards per game (88.0). In 2012, Johnson broke Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice's single-season receiving yards record when he recorded 1,964 yards. He also set records in 2012 for the most consecutive 100-yard games (eight) and tied an NFL record with 11 100-yard games in a season. In 2011, Johnson set a team record with 16 touchdown catches, and he accumulated 1,681 receiving yards, now the third-most in team history.

Joining Johnson in 2014 was Tate, who led the Lions with a career-high in catches (99) and yards (1,331). He had the sixth-highest single-season tally of receptions and tied for the seventh-most yards in a season by a Lions receiver. Four of his top-5 career single-game receiving totals, including his three best games, all occurred last year.

With both Johnson and Tate each registering 1,000 receiving yards in 2014, it marked the sixth time in team history two receivers netted over 1,000 yards in the same season.

Few teams feature a group of talented tight ends who offer multiple dimensions as do the Lions. Pettigrew, the seventh-year tight end who re-signed a four-year contract extension in 2014, re-wrote the record books for Lions tight ends in 2010 and 2011, and he continues to move toward threatening the team's career receiving records by tight ends. Joining Pettigrew is Fauria and Ebron, the Lions' 2014 first-round selection. Fauria provides an additional weapon for the Lions offense in the Red Zone, having caught eight touchdowns in his first two seasons, and Ebron presents matchup challenges for opponents with his size, speed and ability to flex out wide.

Upfront, the Lions have transformed the offensive line over the past few years to feature a young, tough and physical offensive line. After drafting Reiff in 2012, who now has started the past two years at left tackle, the Lions added Warford at right guard in 2013 and drafted Swanson at center in 2014 as the long-term replacement for 14-year veteran Dominic Raiola. Depth has also been addressed with the signing of undrafted free agents Waddle (2013) and Lucas (2014), both battling for the starting spot at right tackle. At left guard, the Lions drafted Laken Tomlinson, considered by most as the top guard of the 2015 draft, while also acquiring Manny Ramirez, a Pro Bowler who can play both guard and center, via trade from Denver.

At running back, Joique Bell has emerged as the Lions' workhorse in the backfield. Last year, he rushed for a career high 860 yards and seven touchdowns and caught 34 passes for 322 yards. It was the second-consecutive season he accumulated over 1,100 yards from scrimmage. Third-year RB Theo Riddick has been effective in the passing game out of the backfield as he caught a career high 34 passes for 316 yards and accumulated four receiving touchdowns last year. Bell and Riddick are joined by 2015 second-round draft pick Ameer Abdullah.

On defense, the team's ability to disrupt opponent offenses starts upfront with the Lions defensive line. Over the past two seasons, the Lions have allowed the lowest rushing yards per game by opponents (84.5) in the NFL. Since 2010, the Lions defensive linemen have registered 164.5 sacks, fourth-most in the League among defensive line units. Ansah, along with Jason Jones, Devin Taylor and Darryl Tapp, will lead the way of the edge at the defensive end position. The Lions immediately reinforced its interior at defensive tackle with the additions of Ngata and free agent Tyrann Walker along with 2014 draft pick Cauran Reid and 2015 pick Gabe Wright.

At linebacker, the team returns starters Stephen Tulloch in the middle and Levy at one of the outside spots. In 2011, Tulloch had career highs in sacks, interceptions and fumble recoveries in his first season with Detroit, which led to him signing a new five-year contract in the following offseason. The importance of re-signing Tulloch to a long-term deal was not understated by Mayhew as he referred to him as the quarterback on defense. Levy proved to be one of the NFL's biggest playmakers over the past two seasons at outside linebacker when he garnered seven interceptions, most among linebackers. He is one of only two players to collect 200+ solo tackles since the start of the 2013 season. In 2014, Tahir Whitehead, drafted in 2012, had a break out year as he started 15-of-16 games.

In the secondary, the Lions are led by Quin and S James Ihedigbo at safety. Quin joined the Lions in 2013 and settled the team's free safety position and added great leadership to the overall defense. The Pro Bowler's 10 interceptions are the most among safeties in the NFL over the past two years. Ihedigbo joined Quin at the safety position in 2014 and registered a career-high four interceptions. On the outside, the Lions return Slay and veteran CB Rashean Mathis, who re-signed with the Lions to a new two-year deal. Along with Lawson, free agent CB Josh Wilson and 2015 draft picks Alex Carter and Quandre Diggs look to strengthen the team's defensive back unit.

The Lions now feature two of the strongest kickers in the NFL. Martin has become a valuable weapon for Lions special teams as a punter and kickoff specialist and will be called upon for years to come. Mayhew also solidified the kicking game when he re-signed Prater to a new three-year deal this past off-season.

LEGAL BACKGROUND

Throughout his journey leading up to his current post, Mayhew has always kept an eye toward the future, as evidenced by his strategic exposure to several jobs and internships while earning his law degree from Georgetown's Law Center (2000). He is one of three Lions' front office executives and administrators with law degrees.

During the 1999 NFL season, while attending law school, Mayhew served a nine-month internship in the Washington Redskins' pro personnel department, which exposed him to the responsibilities of an NFL scouting department. While with the Redskins, he scouted NFL players, including late NFL cuts, and worked the waiver wire and also assisted in the evaluation of college players for the 2000 NFL Draft. Mayhew also had two separate internship stints with the NFL in both the labor operations and legal departments.

In labor operations, Mayhew worked closely with NFL executives on issues involving player contracts and the salary cap. With the legal department,

Mayhew assisted the NFL's in-house labor counsel by researching legal issues, digesting cases in preparation for arbitration hearings and drafting legal memoranda related to player injury and non-injury grievances. He also was exposed to corporate law while working for Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, L.L.P. in Washington D.C., one of the NFL's primary firms used as outside counsel. At Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, he researched legal issues, wrote legal documents and assisted firm associates and partners in preparation for litigation.

PRO CAREER

Mayhew played nine years in the NFL as a cornerback for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96). He was the Bills' 10th-round selection in the 1988 NFL Draft and was a starter on the Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI championship team.

SEMINOLE STANDOUT

He entered the League after graduating from Florida State with a Bachelor of Science degree in business management. While at FSU, he was a National Merit and Achievement Scholar and earned GTE CoSida Academic All-America honors. He was also a two-sport athlete, lettering on both the Seminoles' football and track teams. Between graduation and the draft, Mayhew was a corporate trainee at First Union National Bank in Charlotte, N.C.

OFF THE FIELD

Throughout his professional career, Mayhew has contributed to several community endeavors both as a player and as an executive. In 1993, while playing for Tampa Bay, Mayhew was given the Chelo Huerta Community Service Award, and the following year he was a nominee for the True Value Hardware Man of the Year. From 1995-96, Mayhew was the Bucs' United Way Spokesperson. Mayhew is a member of the Florida Bar. Additionally, Mayhew is a member of the Board of Trustees for the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village and Board of Directors of Detroit PAL.

For the past seven years, he has hosted the Martin Mayhew Youth Football Coaching Academy for approximately 100 coaches from Detroit PAL. The purpose of the camp is to provide additional teaching and training tools for coaches so they can continue having a positive and long-lasting impact on the young lives they touch through youth football.

Mayhew and his wife, Sabrina, have a daughter, Sierra, and two sons, Ryan and Justin.

JIM CALDWELL

HEAD COACH

Years with Lions: 2
 Years as NFL Head Coach: 5
 Years in NFL: 15

As the Lions' head coach, Jim Caldwell guides the team with 38 years of previous coaching experience, which includes 14 NFL seasons and 24 years on the college level prior to his arrival in Detroit last year. Two Super Bowl titles and three appearances in the NFL's championship game and 12 playoff appearances highlight his coaching resume, which includes leading the 2009 Indianapolis Colts to an AFC Championship and Super Bowl XLVI appearance and guiding the Lions to a playoff berth last season.

On January 14, 2014, the day Caldwell was hired by the Ford Family to lead this proud and historic franchise, his message to the organization was two-fold:

"Image and identity. Either you create it, or somebody's going to create it for you," Caldwell stated. "So, let me tell you what we're going to look like. We're going to be smart. We're going to be a football team that takes the field that's not going to shoot itself in the foot.

"We're going to be a team that is disciplined, focused and understands situational football. It's going to be drilled and drilled and drilled and not just given lip service. What you should see on the field is obviously a product of our coaching, our instruction and our demands."

Caldwell continued, "We're going to do things the right way, but we're going to be a physical, hard-nosed, rough football team. We're going to flat get after you from the word 'go' every single snap of the ball on offense, defense and in the kicking game."

With that message firmly in place, Caldwell enters his second season in Detroit seeking to take the Lions to greater heights in 2015 after finishing 11-5 last year.

FIRST SEASON IN DETROIT

By finishing 2014 with an 11-5 regular season record, Caldwell tied Patsy Clark (1931, Portsmouth Spartans) for the most wins in franchise history by a coach in his first year with the club. He is the third coach in team history to lead the Lions to the playoffs in his first year with Detroit (George Wilson in 1957; Bobby Ross in 1997).

Caldwell is the seventh coach in franchise history (since 1930) to lead the Lions to a winning record (entire season) in his first year with the club, and he is one of four coaches (Patsy Clark in 1931, George Wilson in 1962 and Wayne Fontes in 1991) to lead the Lions to 11+ wins in a season.

Defensively, the Lions top together one of the best units in team history over the course of a season. Detroit ranked second overall in team defense (300.9 yds/g) and third in points allowed (17.6 pts/g). The team's No. 2 ranking in total defenses was the highest finish for the Lions since 1970, and the 300.9 yards allowed per game was the lowest tally allowed since 1993.

Detroit's top-ranked rush defense allowed just 69.3 yards per game, which not only set a team single-season record but it ranked as the ninth best single-season run defense in NFL history.

Improved ball security became one of the team's greatest improvements in 2014. By accumulating a +7 turnover differential (27 takeaways, 20 giveaways), the Lions finished with a +19 improvement in turnover margin, which was the second-best improvement in the NFL over the past two seasons. Detroit decreased the team's turnovers by producing 14 less giveaways last year compared to 2013 and finished tied for the second-best improvement.

Five players accrued Pro Bowl honors for their 2014 performances (WR Calvin Johnson, CB Glover Quin, QB Matthew Stafford, DT Ndamukong Suh and WR Golden Tate). The five-player group represents the most Pro Bowl players for the Lions since 2000. Additionally, it was the first time ever the Lions had two wide receivers named to the same Pro Bowl. Stafford became the first Lions quarterback to play in the Pro Bowl since 1972 and Quin became the first Lions Pro Bowl safety since 1992.

Overall, Caldwell's teams he coached for have compiled a 149-75 regular season record, along with 12 playoff appearances, eight division titles, three conference championships and two Super Bowl wins.
- Coached in three Super Bowls with Indianapolis (XLI and XLIV) and Baltimore (XLVII) and won two Super Bowl titles (Indianapolis and Baltimore).
- In first year as head coach for Indianapolis (2009), he won the AFC Championship and led the franchise to Super Bowl XLIV. He became the first NFL coach to win his first 14 games and the fifth rookie head coach to reach the Super Bowl.

He worked closely with QB Peyton Manning and the team's quarterbacks. During that span, Indianapolis set NFL records with seven consecutive seasons finishing with 11+ wins (6, Dallas 1976-81) and 12+ victories (4, Dallas, 1992-95).
- Manning won all four of his NFL MVP (2003, 2004, 2008, 2009) awards under Caldwell's tutelage.

- Led the Ravens offense to a 5-2 record after taking over as offensive coordinator late in the 2012 season as the team averaged 400.6 yards per game during that span.

RAVENS SUPER RUN

On December 10, 2012, less than one year since joining the Ravens as the team's quarterbacks coach, Caldwell was promoted to offensive coordinator with just three weeks to play in the regular season. Ravens Head Coach John Harbaugh entrusted Caldwell to lead the team's offensive unit in its run to make the playoffs. What resulted from this decision changed the direction of the Ravens and put them on path to claim an NFL title by winning Super Bowl XLVII.

After Caldwell took over the team's offense, the Ravens would win the AFC North and go on to win the Super Bowl. In the team's final seven games, including four in the postseason, the Ravens averaged 400.6 yards per game and 27.3 points per game, including 410.3 yards per game and 31.0 points per game in the playoffs. The Ravens' 31.0 points/game in the postseason is the highest playoff scoring average in NFL history by a Super Bowl team who advanced from the Wild Card round and played four playoff games.

During that span, QB Joe Flacco threw 15 touchdowns with just one interception, along with 1,737 passing yards. In the playoffs, Flacco threw 11 touchdowns and 0 interceptions and accumulated a 117.2 passer rating. He joined Hall of Fame QB Joe Montana as the only passers in NFL history to throw 11+ touchdowns and 0 interceptions during an NFL postseason.

Caldwell served as the Ravens offensive coordinator in 2013 before arriving in Detroit.

INDY'S HORSEPOWER

In 10 seasons in Indianapolis (2002-11), including three as the franchise's head coach (2009-11), Caldwell and the Colts achieved almost unparalleled success. In each of the first nine seasons, the Colts made the playoffs with a record-setting nine-consecutive playoff appearances that included six AFC South titles, two Super Bowl berths (XLI and XLIV) and one Super Bowl championship (XLI).

In 2009, Caldwell was named the Colts' head coach, a position he would oversee for the next three seasons. In his first two seasons, he directed the Colts to 14-2 and 10-6 regular-season records, winning consecutive AFC South titles, an AFC Championship and earning a berth in Super Bowl XLIV. He is one of just four head coaches in NFL history to win 24+ games and earn a berth in the Super Bowl in the coach's first two career seasons as a head coach.

During his first season as the Colts head coach, the team was 14-2. He became the NFL's only rookie head coach to win his first 14 games in a season and second to win 14 games in his rookie season as coach. He also became the fifth rookie head coach to reach the Super Bowl.

As a crucial piece to the Colts offensive coaching staff, Caldwell worked closely with All-Pro QB Peyton Manning and the team's quarterbacks. His leadership helped guide the Colts offense to eight Top-10 rankings in total offense during his 10 seasons with Indianapolis, and the team was a Top-5 offense six different times.

In Caldwell's first two seasons as head coach (2009-10), Manning recorded the highest (4,700 yards in 2010) and third-highest (4,500 yards in 2009) passing totals in team history. In both seasons, he threw for 33 touchdowns which ranked as the second and third-highest tallies in Colts history.

From 2002-10, the Colts won 109 games as Manning averaged a league-best 266.7 yards per game and threw for the most touchdowns (288) during that span. His completion percentage (66.7) and passer rating (99.3) were also the best in the NFL during those nine seasons. All four NFL MVP honors earned by Manning occurred while working with Caldwell.

Caldwell spent his first three seasons as a quarterbacks coach before earning the expanded title of assistant head coach prior to the 2005 season. He was elevated to associate head coach with the club in 2008.

PREVIOUS COACHING EXPERIENCE

Caldwell's NFL coaching roots date back to 2001 when he worked as a quarterbacks coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. After acquiring QB Brad Johnson via free agency, Caldwell helped the veteran quarterback to break then-team records for passing yards (3,046), completions (340) and attempts (540) as the team finished 9-7 and earned an NFC Wild Card berth.

Before making the jump to the NFL, Caldwell spent seven seasons as the head coach at Wake Forest University where the Demon Deacons' offense ranked in the NCAA's Top-25 four times. In 1999, he led the team to its first winning season and bowl appearance (Aloha Bowl) since 1992. In 1995, the offense was ranked 10th in the nation and QB Rusty LaRue established seven NCAA passing records.

From 1986-92, Caldwell was an assistant at Penn State where he coached the wide receivers (1986), quarterbacks and wide receivers (1987-90) and was named passing coordinator in 1991-92. With the Nittany Lions, Caldwell tutored QB Kerry Collins early in his college career. Collins would end his career at Penn State winning the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top college quarterback and the Maxwell Award as the nation's most outstanding player.

Caldwell's previous coaching stints include assistant positions at Louisville (1985), Colorado (1981-83), Northwestern (1981) and Southern Illinois (1978-80).

He launched his coaching career in 1977 as a graduate assistant for the Iowa Hawkeyes football program.

During his college coaching career, Caldwell coached in six bowl games and won a national championship with Penn State in 1986. He also worked for several legendary college coaches who all won national titles during their careers, including Joe Paterno (Penn State), Howard Schnellenberger (Louisville), Bill McCartney (Colorado) and Rey Dempsey (Southern Illinois).

COLLEGE PLAYING CAREER

Caldwell was a four-year starter at defensive back (1973-76) for the Iowa Hawkeyes. He holds a bachelor's degree in liberal arts from the University of Iowa.

JIM AND CHERYL CALDWELL FOUNDATION AND COMMUNITY ACTIVISM

In 2009, Caldwell and his wife, Cheryl, launched The Jim and Cheryl Caldwell Foundation. The Foundation is committed to the educational empowerment of children through digital technology and "Preparing young minds for advancement in the 21st Century."

To achieve this, the Caldwells are creating and providing community centers with integrated digital technology that serves as a catalyst to impact, change and enrich a child's learning proficiency.

In September 2014, The Jim and Cheryl Caldwell Foundation, in collaboration with the Detroit Lions, opened "The Project Phoenix Learning Center," a new 21st Century computer lab and learning center at the Detroit Lions Academy. The learning center includes new computers with Promethean ActivBoards, ActivState, ActivExpressions, a network printer, internet accessibility and specialized interactive instructional software.

Caldwell also supports the Midnight Golf Program that teaches under-served young adults the game of golf and important life skills, including financial literacy, college preparation and community activism.

In 2015, Caldwell served as honorary chairman for the Charlie Sanders Foundation annual "Have A Heart Save A Life" Celebrity Golf Outing, which provides support to Student Healthy Heart Check programs provided by Beaumont Hospital and the Henry Ford Health System.

During his first-year as the Lions head coach, Caldwell was honored by the Detroit Historical Society's Black Historic Sites Committee after becoming the Lions' first African American head coach.

PERSONAL BACKGROUND

Born on January 16, 1955 in Beloit, Wisc., Caldwell attended Beloit Memorial High School. He and his wife have four children: Jimmy, Jermaine, Jared and Natalie.

RON PRINCE

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ TIGHT ENDS

Years with Lions: 2
Years in NFL: 5

Ron Prince joined the Lions in 2014 as assistant head coach/tight ends and helped lead Detroit to a berth in the NFC Wild Card game last season after serving as the Rutgers offensive coordinator in 2013. Now in his second season with Detroit, Prince possesses 23 years of coaching experience, including five in the NFL. He has previously held assistant offensive line positions with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2012) and Indianapolis Colts (2010-11), and has been a head coach (Kansas State) and offensive coordinator (Virginia, Rutgers) during his 19 years at the collegiate level.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

In the Lions' new offense in 2014, Prince helped Detroit's tight end group become an integral piece of multiple offensive formations, particularly in run and pass block situations.

- After re-signing with the Lions in the offseason to a four-year contract, TE Brandon Pettigrew continued his ascent into the Lions record books for tight ends. Heading into his seventh NFL season, he currently ranks in the Top-5 among all tight ends in Lions history in receptions (294; 2nd), receiving yards (3,054; 4th), receiving touchdowns (16; 4th) and first-down receptions (148; 1st).
- Rookie TE Eric Ebron battled through injuries in his first NFL season to appear in 13 games (seven starts) as he finished with 25 receptions for 248 yards and one touchdown.

In 2013, Prince led Rutgers to the Pinstripe Bowl and saw two of his players, TE Tyler Kroft and RB Paul James, earn All-American Athletic Conference honors in 2013.

Prince worked as an assistant offensive line coach in the NFL from 2010-12 with the Jaguars and Colts. In 2010, he helped Indianapolis' offensive line pave the way for more than 5,000 yards of total offense for the 13th-consecutive season en route to the team's second-straight AFC South division championship. His unit also finished tied atop the NFL in sacks allowed with 16 on 695 pass attempts as the Colts' offense ranked fourth in total offense and first in passing offense. Prince also guided C Jeff Saturday to a fifth Pro Bowl selection that season, and the offensive line unit protected QB Peyton Manning as he set an NFL single-season record with 450 pass completions.

Before jumping to the NFL ranks, Prince served various positions at Kansas State (2006-08) and Virginia (2001-05, 2009), respectively. Before returning to Virginia in 2009 to coach special teams, Prince was the head coach at Kansas State where he led the Wildcats to 17 wins, the most by any head coach in his first three seasons in school history. In 2003, he was promoted from offensive line coach to offensive coordinator at Virginia as he commandeered the Cavaliers' offense to four consecutive bowl games from 2002-05. During Prince's time at Virginia, 11 players earned All-ACC honors, including the conference's 2002 Player of the Year, QB Matt Schaub. Among the NFL talent Prince helped develop at both programs include T D'Brickashaw Ferguson, QB Josh Freeman, TE Heath Miller and WR Jordy Nelson.

A native of Junction City, Kan., and former offensive lineman at Dodge City Community College (1988-89), Prince began his coaching career at the school as a volunteer in 1992 before earning his first coaching job at Alabama A&M as offensive line coach in 1993. His previous collegiate coaching stops include offensive line positions at South Carolina State (1994), James Madison (1995-97) and Cornell (1998-2000). He also served minority coaching internships with the Jaguars (1996), Washington Redskins (1997), Atlanta Falcons (1998) and New York Giants (2000).

Prince played collegiately for two seasons at Appalachian State from 1990-91, where he also earned a bachelor's degree in history in 1992, after beginning his playing career at Dodge City. He was born September 18, 1969, and he has four children, Deuce, James, Grace and John.

TERYL AUSTIN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Years with Lions: 2
Years in NFL: 12

Teryl Austin joined the Detroit Lions as the team's defensive coordinator in 2014 after spending the previous three seasons as the Baltimore Ravens defensive backs coach. In his first season at the helm of the Lions' defense, Austin led one of the NFL's most dominant units as Detroit finished the season ranked No. 2 in total defense (300.9 yards per game) and No. 1 in rushing defense (69.3 yards per game).

A former safety at the University of Pittsburgh, Austin brings 24 years of defensive coaching experience to the Lions' staff, specifically with a special talent for developing and teaching defensive backs. He spent 10 seasons as a defensive backs coach in the NFL, including stints with the Seattle Seahawks (2003-06), Arizona Cardinals (2007-09) and most recently with the Ravens (2011-13). In each of those three stops, he helped his teams pave the way to Super Bowl appearances (Seattle in 2005, Arizona in 2008 and Baltimore in 2012). In 2012, he helped guide the Ravens to a win in Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- The Lions' No. 2 ranking in total defense to finish the 2014 season is the highest since 1970 when the team also ranked second (246.3 yards per game). 300.9 yards allowed per game is also the lowest total yielded by the Lions since 1993 (291.8), as well as the fourth-lowest yards allowed per game total during a 16-game season (since 1978).
- By holding the Bears to just 14 points in the Lions' win at Chicago (12/21), Detroit limited opponents to 17 points or less in 11 games in 2014. The Lions' 11 games of allowing 17 points or less are the second-most accumulated in a season by Detroit in team history. The team record is 12 in 1934.
- Detroit finished the season yielding 1,109 rushing yards, and became the ninth team in NFL history to finish the season allowing less than 70 rushing yards per game. In 16 games, the Lions allowed 69.3 rushing yards per game and finished with the ninth-best opponent rushing yards allowed per game average in NFL history.
- The 69.3 rushing yards allowed per game by the Lions in 2014 also set a franchise record, breaking the previous mark set in 1970 (82.3 yds/g).
- 2014 marked the first time the Lions finished in the Top-2 in total defense since 1970 and first since the NFL started playing a 16-game schedule in 1978.
- With an interception against the Chicago Bears (12/21), the Lions concluded their streak with an interception at 12-straight games. The streak was the longest by the Lions in a single season since 1981 (13), and the 1981 season was also the last time the Lions intercepted a pass in 10+-straight games.
- Detroit set a new franchise record in the team's playoff game at Dallas (1/4/15) as the team registered six sacks (51 yards lost) against the Cowboys. The Lions' six sacks surpassed the previous high of four sacks garnered at Cleveland December 28, 1952. The team's six sacks doubled the highest previous total (3 vs. Dallas 1/5/92) since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

- S Glover Quin, with seven interceptions on the year, became the first Lions player to lead the NFL in interceptions since Hall of Fame CB Lem Barney in 1967 when he registered 10 during his exceptional rookie campaign. Quin is the first Lions defensive player to finish the season with sole possession of first place among league leaders in interceptions since Hall of Fame DB Jack Christensen in 1953.

ADDITIONAL COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Coached the Baltimore Ravens secondary from 2011-13. During that span, the Ravens ranked first in the NFL in pass defenses with 298. In his three seasons in Baltimore, the Ravens defense ranked in the Top-10 in Red Zone defense, including a League-leading opponent touchdown percentage of 38.1 in 2011.
- As defensive coordinator at the University of Florida in 2010, the Gators recorded 22 interceptions, the fourth-most in the nation that season. The Florida defensive backfield also returned four of those picks for touchdowns.
- Mentored three Cardinals defensive backs to the Pro Bowl as Arizona's defensive backs coach in 2009, including CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie, S Antrel Rolle and S Adrian Wilson. His Cardinals secondary also led the League in interception-touchdowns (six) in 2007.
- In his first NFL coaching stint, Austin's defensive backfield in Seattle ranked 10th in the NFL in interceptions with 67 over his four seasons (2003-06).
- Spent time as defensive backs coach at Michigan (1999-2002), Syracuse (1996-98) and Wake Forest (1993-95). He also served as a graduate assistant at Penn State from 1991-92.

Austin joined the Baltimore Ravens staff in 2011 and quickly developed the team's secondary into an integral part of one of the NFL's most consistent and feared defenses in recent years. In 2012, Austin helped guide the Ravens defense to six interceptions in the postseason en route to the team's Super Bowl XLVII championship run. Over his three seasons in Baltimore (2011-13), the Ravens also ranked first in the NFL in pass defenses with 298.

Austin's history of progressing NFL talent both young and experienced is well-documented. In 2013, Austin's starting CBs Lardarius Webb (second) and Jimmy Smith (14th) both finished in the Top-15 in the NFL in pass defenses with 22 and 16, respectively. The Ravens also saw progression from first-round draft pick S Matt Elam, who Austin also mentored during his time as defensive coordinator at the University of Florida. Under Austin's tutelage, veteran S Ed Reed earned his ninth career Pro Bowl nod in 2012 after co-leading the team in interceptions with four that season. Reed also recorded his ninth career postseason interception in Super Bowl XLVII as the Ravens led all playoff teams with six interceptions.

In 2011, the Ravens led the NFL in passing touchdowns allowed with a League-low 11 and surrendered the third-fewest points (16.6 avg/game), tying an NFL record by ranking in the Top-3 in points allowed for the fourth consecutive season.

Prior to joining the Ravens, Austin earned his first stint as a defensive coordinator with Florida in 2010. His Gators defense tallied 22 interceptions that season, ranking fourth in the NCAA and returning four of those picks for touchdowns. In SEC games, Florida led the conference in total defense by allowing only 310.8 yards per game.

Austin's college coaching career dates back to his days as a graduate assistant at Penn State from 1991-92. He has held positions as defensive backs coach at three prestigious universities, including Michigan (1999-2002), Syracuse (1996-98) and Wake Forest (1993-95) where he worked under Lions Head Coach Jim Caldwell for three seasons. Among the college players Austin helped prepare for NFL careers include CB Will Allen (Syracuse), LB Keith Bulluck (Syracuse) and CB Marlin Jackson (Michigan).

A three-year starter and four-year letterman at Pittsburgh, Austin played safety for the Panthers from 1984-87. He earned his bachelor's degree in communications from the University of Pittsburgh in 1988 and went on to play for the Montreal Machine of the World League of American Football in 1991 after attending training camps with the Washington Redskins and Hamilton Tiger-Cats (CFL). He attended Sharon (Pa.) High School.

Austin was born March 3, 1965. He and his wife, April, have five children, including sons Tyler, Trey and Torin, and daughters Alexa and Alivia.

JOE LOMBARDI

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Years in NFL: 10

Joe Lombardi brings 19 years of coaching experience to the Lions offensive coaching staff, including nine in the NFL and seven with the New Orleans Saints (2007-13). After holding various positions in the college ranks, Lombardi made the leap to the NFL as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons in 2006 before joining the Saints in 2007. He spent his first two years in New Orleans as an offensive assistant before being promoted to quarterbacks coach in 2009, where he worked exclusively with nine-time Pro Bowl QB Drew Brees for five seasons.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Took control of the Lions offense in his first season in Detroit, developing new pieces into a revamped system that helped set the foundation for a productive unit led by QB Matthew Stafford.

- For the fifth-consecutive year, the Lions offense finished among the Top-10 in Lions single-season history for total offense, ranking eighth with 5,452 total net yards (340.8 yards per game).
- WR Golden Tate was one of the Lions' top targets in free agency last offseason, and his impact on Detroit's offense was evident in his ability to create in open space and move the chains. Tate finished seventh in the NFL in receiving yards with 1,331 and sixth in receptions with 99. It marked the first time in his career he eclipsed 1,000 receiving yards.
- With WR Calvin Johnson reaching 1,077 yards in 2014, he joined Tate (1,331) in the surpassing of 1,000 yards as they became the first pair of Lions receivers to both reach 1,000 in the same season since 2006 (WR Roy Williams, 1,310; WR Mike Furrey, 1,086). This marks only the sixth time in Lions history that two Lions receivers have each reached 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.
- Thus far, Stafford has led the Lions to 17 victories when trailing or tied in the fourth quarter or overtime, five of which came in 2014 under Lombardi. He has six career game-winning touchdown passes with less than one minute to play in the fourth quarter (franchise record) and six after the two-minute warning.
- Stafford also displayed a knack for leading the offense on third down as he tied for fifth in the NFL in third-down completions with 100. He also threw 10 touchdown passes on third down last season.
- The Lions totaled 33 offensive touchdowns in 2014 (11 rushing; 22 passing) as 12 different players accounted for at least one score through the air or on the ground. Johnson led all receivers with eight receiving touchdowns, while RB Joique Bell led the ground attack with seven rushing touchdowns.

ADDITIONAL COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Has spent nine previous seasons coaching in the NFL with stops in Atlanta as a defensive assistant in 2006 and New Orleans from 2007-2013. Began his tenure with the Saints as an offensive assistant before earning the job as quarterbacks coach in 2009.
- Mentored nine-time Pro Bowl QB Drew Brees to a record-breaking season in 2011 as the quarterback passed for 5,476 yards to break the NFL-record for single-season passing yards (5,084) set by Dan Marino in 1984.
- Helped the Saints to the team's first-ever Super Bowl victory in his first year as quarterbacks coach in 2009 as they defeated Indianapolis, 31-17, in Super Bowl XLIV.
- Previous college coaching experience includes Dayton (1996-98), Virginia Military Institute (1999), Bucknell (2000) and Mercyhurst College (2002-05). Also coached with the former XFL's New York/New Jersey Hitmen in 2001.
- Grandson of Hall of Fame coach Vince Lombardi.

While with the Saints, Lombardi helped guide the New Orleans offense to League-leading numbers. In Lombardi's seven seasons, New Orleans ranked first in net passing yards (33,349), completions (3,022) and passing touchdowns (257). In his first season as quarterbacks coach in 2009, the Saints finished 13-3 and defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, in Super Bowl XLIV, securing the team's first NFL championship in franchise history.

Lombardi's molding of Brees into one of the NFL's all-time great quarterbacks is well-documented. From 2009-2013, Brees set the NFL individual record for most passing yards in a five-year span with 24,823. Under Lombardi's coaching for five seasons (2009-13), Brees ranked atop the League in passing yards (24,823), completions (2,147), passing touchdowns (195), and his passer rating of 102.1 ranks third during that span behind only Packers QB Aaron Rodgers (108.2) and Broncos QB Peyton Manning (103.1). During his 2009-2012 stretch, Brees also carried an NFL-record 54-game streak with at least one passing touchdown, shattering the previous mark of 47 set by Hall of Fame QB Johnny Unitas in 1960.

In 2011, Brees threw for 5,476 yards and 43 touchdowns to break Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino's NFL single-season passing yardage record that stood for 27 seasons. Only Broncos QB Peyton Manning has thrown for more yards in a single season (5,477, 2013) since then. On the NFL's all-time single-season passing yards list, Brees holds four of the Top-10 spots (2008, 7th; 2011, 2nd; 2012, 4th; 2013, 5th). With 5,162 yards in 2013, he also became the first player in NFL history to throw for more than 5,000 yards in three-consecutive seasons. He is only the fifth player to reach 50,000 career passing yards (51,081) and did so faster than any other player in NFL history (183 games).

Lombardi earned his first stint in the NFL as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons in 2006. An experienced coach on both sides of the ball, he worked with a Falcons defensive line that recorded 25.5 sacks that season. Prior to his time in Atlanta, Lombardi was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Mercyhurst (Pa.) University from 2002-05, where he also served as recruiting coordinator.

The grandson of legendary NFL coach Vince Lombardi, Lombardi graduated from the United States Air Force Academy in 1994, where he earned three letters as a tight end and one in lacrosse. He began his coaching career at the University of Dayton (1996-98) and has held previous assistant coach positions with the Virginia Military Institute (1999), Bucknell (2000) and New York/New Jersey Hitmen of the former XFL (2001).

A native of Seattle, Wash., Lombardi was born June 6, 1971. He and his wife, Molly, have six children – sons Joseph, Thomas and Dominic, and daughters Maria, Bernadette and Clare.

JOE MARCIANO

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Years with Lions: 1
Years in NFL: 29

With 29 years of experience coaching special teams in the NFL, Joe Marciano joins the Lions after spending the 2014 season as a special teams consultant for the Minnesota Vikings, a role he filled following 12 seasons as the Houston Texans' special teams coordinator from 2002-13.

COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Spent 12 seasons as the Houston Texans special teams coordinator (2002-13). Up until his departure from Houston in 2013, Marciano and running backs coach Chick Harris were the only coaches to have been with the Texans since the team's inception in 2002.
- Began his NFL coaching career in New Orleans as the Saints' special teams/tight ends coach from 1986-1994 before switching primarily to special teams in 1995. Also coached the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' special teams units from 1996-2001 where he crossed paths with Lions Head Coach Jim Caldwell in 2001, who was the team's quarterbacks coach that season.
- During his tenure in Houston, the Texans ranked among the Top-10 in the NFL in multiple special teams categories, including punt return yards (8th; 4,232), kickoff return yards (5th; 17,687), total kick return yards (2nd; 21,919), opponent punt return average (7th; 8.5) and opponent punt return yards (9th; 3,537).
- Mentored multiple players to the Pro Bowl, including KR Jerome Mathis, K Martin Gramatica, K Morten Andersen, DB Tyrone Hughes and DB Bennie Thompson.

Marciano helped the Houston special teams units set multiple records in his 12 seasons with the team. In 2012, rookie WR Keshawn Martin ranked fifth in the NFL with a franchise-record 12.14 yards average on punt returns, while P Donnie Jones set a team single-season high with a 47.2 punting average and a 40.5 net punting average. In 2011, former wide receiver Jacoby Jones recorded a career-high 518 yards on punt returns and set a franchise record with the third punt return touchdown of his career, while K Neil Rackers set new club marks with 135 points and 32 field goals made.

The Texans tied three NFL special teams records in 2007 under Marciano, as Houston became the fourth team in NFL history to record four kickoff return touchdowns in a single season. WR Andre Davis tied another League record when he returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in one game, becoming only the seventh player in NFL history to do so. Against Miami, K Kris Brown became just the third player ever to make three field goals of 50 yards or longer in one game.

Marciano came to Houston after spending the previous six seasons (1996-2001) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers where he served in the same capacity under former head coach Tony Dungy. In six seasons with Tampa, 10 players received NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors under Marciano's tutelage.

Before coming to Tampa Bay, Marciano coached the New Orleans Saints special teams units for 10 seasons (1986-1995), as well as the team's tight ends for nine seasons (1986-1994).

Marciano's coaching roots date back to Wyoming Area (Pa.) High School in 1976 before he moved on to various assistant coach positions in the college ranks, including East Stroudsburg State (1977), Rhode Island (1978-79), Villanova (1980), Penn State (1981) and Temple (1982). He also coached special teams for the former USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars from 1983-1985.

A native of Dunmore, Pa., Marciano played quarterback at Temple, where he earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education. Prior to being hired by the Lions, Marciano resided in Missouri City, Texas with his son, Joseph.

Coordinator of Physical Development
Years with Lions: 15
Years in NFL: 28

Jason Arapoff enters his 15th season directing the Lions' strength and conditioning program. His primary role is to oversee the physical fitness of all Lions players. As he begins his 15th season in Detroit, Arapoff is now one season behind Aldo Forte (1950-65) and George Wilson (1949-64) for the second-most seasons coached (16) in team history.

Focusing equally on the offseason regimen and the regular season program, Arapoff utilizes high-end cardiovascular strength training and free weight equipment in the team's state-of-the-art facility. His hands-on training techniques emphasize a balance of muscular strength and cardiovascular fitness, and are underscored by a comprehensive, personalized approach to each athlete. He also has introduced a shift toward more football-specific activities that encompass high-intensity protocols to train the entire body.

Arapoff arrived in Detroit prior to the 2001 season with 13 years of experience with the Washington Redskins. While serving as the team's conditioning director for nine years, he was instrumental in computerizing and implementing the team's strength and conditioning and nutritional programs.

Arapoff has been a monthly columnist for Scholastic Coach Magazine and is a frequent speaker for industry events, schools, universities and football camps. He, along with assistant strength and conditioning coach Ted Rath, launched the annual Detroit Lions Strength and Conditioning Clinic in 2011. The event is a forum for providing, sharing and exchanging information in the ever-changing world of strength and conditioning.

During his playing career as a collegian, Arapoff was a four-year letter-winning defensive back at Springfield (Mass.) College, where he earned his undergraduate degree in health fitness. He went on to obtain his master's degree in exercise physiology from American University in Washington, D.C.

Arapoff was born July 8, 1965. He and his wife, Jennifer, have three daughters: Julia, and twins, Anna and Alexa.

JIM BOB
Quarterbacks
Years in NFL: 7

Jim Bob Cooter joined the Lions offensive coaching staff as the team's quarterbacks coach last season after serving as an offensive assistant with the Denver Broncos in 2013. Entering his seventh season as an NFL coach, Cooter came to Detroit after helping guide the Broncos offense en route to a berth in Super Bowl XLVIII in 2013.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Lions QB Matthew Stafford maintained his place among the NFL's Top-10 quarterbacks throughout the 2014 season under Cooter's guidance, as he finished ninth in passing yards with 4,257 and became the first Lions QB to play in the Pro Bowl (replaced Peyton Manning) since QB Greg Landry in 1972. Among the top single-season passing marks in team history, Stafford now holds four of the top five spots, including: 5,038 in 2011, 4,967 in 2012, 4,650 in 2013 and 4,257 in 2014.

- After replacing Manning in the 2015 Pro Bowl, Stafford threw for 316 yards and two touchdowns in the game and was named the game's Most Valuable Player.
- With two touchdown passes in the Lions' Week 8 comeback win over Atlanta in London (10/26), Stafford reached 120 touchdown passes for his career and became the Lions all-time leader in that category, breaking Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne's previous record of 118. His current total stands at 131.
- On Stafford's 30-yard completion to WR Golden Tate in the second quarter at Arizona (11/16), he surpassed 20,000 career passing yards. By reaching 20,000 career passing yards in his 71st career game, he set a new NFL record reaching that mark in the fewest career games (Courtesy Elias Sports Bureau). He broke the previous record set by Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino who accomplished this feat in 74 career games.
- Thus far, Stafford has led the Lions to 17 victories when trailing or tied in the fourth quarter or overtime, five of which came in 2014. He has six career game-winning touchdown passes with less than one minute to play in the quarter (franchise record) and six after the two-minute warning.
- Stafford also displayed a knack for leading the offense on third down as he tied for fifth in the NFL in third-down completions with 100. He also threw 10 touchdown passes on third down last season.
- Stafford's start at New England in Week 12 (11/27) was his 60th-consecutive start as he became the first quarterback in franchise history to start 60-straight games.

With Cooter as a member of the coaching staff in 2013, the Broncos offense ranked first in the NFL in multiple categories, including total yards per game (465.3), total touchdowns (76), points per game

(37.9), and set an NFL single-season record with 606 points scored. Broncos QB Peyton Manning set NFL records in passing yards (5,477) and passing touchdowns (55), and led the NFL in completions (450) as the team earned their third-straight AFC West division title.

Cooter's previous NFL coaching experience includes stops with the Kansas City Chiefs (2012) and Indianapolis Colts (2009-2011). While with the Chiefs, the team ranked first in the AFC (fifth in the NFL) with 149.7 rushing yards per game as RB Jamaal Charles was named to his second Pro Bowl after racking up 1,509 yards and five rushing touchdowns.

During his three seasons in Indianapolis, he served three years on the offensive staff under Colts Offensive Coordinators Clyde Christensen and Tom Moore. The Colts won back-to-back AFC South division titles in 2009 and 2010, including a 14-game winning streak in 2009 to propel the team to an appearance in Super Bowl XLIV against New Orleans.

A former quarterback at the University of Tennessee, Cooter got his coaching start at his alma mater as a graduate assistant from 2007-08. As a player, he appeared in six games for the Volunteers and earned four Academic All-Southeastern Conference honors. He earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Tennessee in 2006 and went on to receive a master's degree in sports psychology in 2008.

Cooter was born July 3, 1984 and is a native of Fayetteville, Tenn.

GUNTHER CUNNINGHAM
Senior Coaching Advisor
Years with Lions: 7
Years in NFL: 34

Gunther Cunningham is a 46-year coaching veteran on the college and professional levels, including the past 33 seasons in the NFL. He rejoined the Lions coaching staff in 2014 as senior coaching advisor after serving as the team's assistant head coach/defensive coordinator from 2009-13. Known for his intense and straightforward coaching approach, Cunningham has been a defensive coordinator in the League for 15 seasons and a head coach (Kansas City, 1999-2000) for two.

Cunningham's defenses in Detroit were guided by the ability to attack the quarterback and generate disruptive plays. In 2013, Cunningham was instrumental in the development of rookie DEs Ezekiel Ansah and Devin Taylor, who each recorded 8.0 and 2.5 sacks, respectively, while DT Ndamukong Suh was selected to his third Pro Bowl in four years. Ansah's eight sacks also led all NFL rookies in 2013.

The 2012 edition of the Detroit Lions defense ranked 13th overall in the NFL in total defense and seventh in the NFC, the highest Lions ranking since 1995, despite starting 16 different lineup configurations and 14 different lineups in the secondary. Cunningham's dedication to a consistent pass rush proved evident once again in 2012 as the Lions' defensive line applied heavy pressure to opponent offenses week in and week out, accounting for 31 of the team's 34 sacks. Since 2010, the Lions rank sixth in the NFL in combined sacks and tackles for loss on rushing plays with 338 under Cunningham.

From, 2004-08, Cunningham served as the Kansas City Chiefs defensive coordinator during his second stint with the organization. In 2008, he also coached the team's linebackers as the Chiefs defense began a transition with six new starters and endured numerous injuries throughout the season. From 2004-07, his imprint on the defense was prevalent in several areas as Kansas City's pass defense ranked fifth in the NFL in 2007, allowing only 188.9 yards per game.

Under former head coach Jeff Fisher, Cunningham served as the Tennessee Titans assistant head coach/linebackers coach from 2001-03. In those three seasons, the Titans defense helped the franchise earn two playoff berths. In 2003, Tennessee's defense led the NFL in both rushing defense (80.9 yards per game) and opponents' third-down percentage (27.7). That year, LB Keith Bullock earned a spot in the Pro Bowl under Cunningham's tutelage as his position coach.

As head coach for the Chiefs from 1999-00, Cunningham compiled a 16-16 (.500) record. In 1999, the Chiefs were 9-7 as he became the first coach in Chiefs history to claim nine wins in his first season as head coach.

Cunningham not only has compiled great defensive units, but he has coached and mentored several Pro Bowl and All-Pro players, including Suh (2011, 2012, 2014) and DT Nick Fairley (2014 alternate). He has shared a special bond as a mentor to the late, great nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas, who concluded his illustrious career as the all-time leading sack artist in Chiefs history with 126.5 QB takedowns. Cunningham served as Thomas' position coach in 1997, helping him earn his final Pro Bowl invitation. He also coached DE Neil Smith (second in Chiefs history with 86.5 sacks) and DE Jared Allen, who earned his first spot in the Pro Bowl after the 2007 season when he led the League in sacks with 15.5.

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Cunningham spent four seasons (1991-94) with the Los Angeles Raiders, as linebackers coach (1991), defensive coordinator (1992-93) and defensive line coach (1994). He was also the San Diego Chargers defensive line coach for six seasons (1985-90) after originally being hired by the team's player personnel department.

In 1982, Cunningham entered the NFL coaching ranks when he joined the Baltimore Colts coaching staff as the team's defensive line/linebackers coach from 1982-84, learning from the late Bud Carson. Before entering the NFL ranks, his previous pro coaching experience was as the defensive line/linebackers coach for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 1981 with head coach Frank Kush, who also hired Cunningham in Baltimore.

As a college coach, Cunningham's last stop was at California, where he coached the Bears defensive line from 1979-80, the linebackers in 1978 and secondary in 1977. Prior his stop in Berkeley, Cunningham coached at Stanford from 1973-76. He was hired by head coach Jack Christensen, a Hall of Fame defensive back for the Detroit Lions in the 1950s and a member of the Lions 75th Season All-time Team. While at Stanford, he coached the defensive line from 1974-76 and was the assistant offensive line and freshmen coach during his first year in 1973.

Cunningham worked at the University of Arkansas in 1972 on a staff headed by Frank Broyles that included Joe Gibbs and Raymond Berry. Prior to that, Cunningham began his coaching career at the University of Oregon, his alma mater, in 1969. He was with the Ducks program for three years from 1969-71 where he began his longtime relationship with another noted defensive coach, George Seifert. Cunningham was a graduate of Oregon and was a linebacker and kicker for the Ducks from 1966-68.

After playing his prep football at Lompoc High School in Lompoc, California, he was then recruited to play at Allan Hancock College by Hall of Fame coach John Madden. Madden left the school prior to Cunningham's freshman year and was replaced as head coach by Ernie Zampese.

Cunningham, who became a naturalized U.S. citizen on April 6, 2010, is just one of four foreign-born individuals in League history to ever serve as an NFL head coach, joining Hugo Bezdek (Cleveland Rams, 1937-38), Jock Sutherland (Pittsburgh, 1946-47) and Al Saunders (San Diego, 1986-88). Born in Munich, Germany, he moved to Greenfield, Mass., at the age of 10 in 1956 with his mother, Katharina, and his adoptive father, Air Force Sergeant Garner Cunningham.

Cunningham was born June 19, 1946. He and his wife, René, have two children, Natalie and Adam.

DEVIN
FITZSIMMONS
Assistant Special Teams
Years with Lions: 2
Years in NFL: 3

After serving as special teams coordinator/tight ends coach at the University of Delaware in 2013, Devin Fitzsimmons joined the NFL coaching realm in 2014 as the Lions assistant special teams coach and returns for his second year with the team this season. Fitzsimmons earned his NFL start in 2011 while with the Indianapolis Colts as the team's offensive quality control coach.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Second-year P Sam Martin finished the 2014 season ranking in the Top-10 for net punting average for the second-consecutive season as he ranked ninth (40.1). Martin now holds the Lions' Top-2 single-season records for net punting average with a 40.4 in 2013 and 40.1 in 2014. He also holds two of the Top-6 spots for gross punting average.
- On kickoffs, Martin was among the NFL's best in preventing opponent returns with touchbacks as he finished the season tied for fifth in percentage of touchbacks on kickoffs (71.6-percent).
- Fitzsimmons and the Lions special teams unit displayed their knack for play-calling in Week 10 vs. Miami (11/9) as Martin completed two passes out of punt formation in the game, one of which went for 24 yards to FB Jed Collins for a first down.

- After joining the Lions in Week 6, K Matt Prater tied for seventh in the NFL in field goals made with 21.
- Prater made two game-winning field goals in his 11 games with the Lions last season, including a 33-yard field goal with 3:38 left to play vs. Minnesota (12/14), but none more impactful than his 48-yard field goal as time expired against Atlanta in London (10/26). His 48-yarder against the Falcons was his third-career game-winning kick that occurred as time expired in regulation.
- By playing in Week 2 at Carolina (9/14), LS Don Muhlbach, one of the Lions' longest-tenured veterans, played in his 150th career game with Detroit. His current total sits at 164 games, and he is now tied for 13th on the Lions' all-time career games played list.

Delaware thrived on special teams under Fitzsimmons. As a unit, the Blue Hens ranked second in the nation in net punting average (41.47) and ninth in blocked kicks (six). Doubling as the team's tight ends coach, two players received All-CAA honors under Fitzsimmons' guidance in PR/WR Rob Jones (First Team) and TE Nick Boyle (Second Team). P Eric Enderson was also named a Freshman All-American by The Sporting News under Fitzsimmons.

Prior to his time at Delaware, Fitzsimmons was an offensive assistant at Rutgers in 2012 and got his first taste of the NFL as an offensive quality control coach with the Indianapolis Colts in 2011. His previous coaching stops include assistant positions at Richmond (2010), Virginia (2009), Kansas State (2007-08), Bucknell (2006) and Shaw University (2005).

Fitzsimmons was born October 18, 1982. A native of Folsom, La. he played quarterback and wide receiver at Bucknell and earned a bachelor's degree in history from the school in 2005.

TERRY HEFFERNAN
Assistant Offensive Line
 Years with Lions: 3
 Years in NFL: 3

Heffernan returns to his post as the Lions' assistant offensive line coach, the same title he held in his first season with Detroit in 2013, after serving as offensive quality control coach in 2014. Prior to joining the Lions, Heffernan was the offensive line coach at Wayne State University in Detroit for six seasons (2007-12).

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Detroit's offensive line continues to be one of the top pass protecting lines in the NFL for an offense that has passed more than any other team over the past six seasons (3,862 pass attempts).

- Injuries along the offensive line in 2014 resulted in seven different starting lineup combinations over the course of the season, including the team's NFC Wild Card game at Dallas (1/4). Heffernan's development of rookies T Cornelius Lucas and G Travis Swanson provided necessary depth up front, allowing the Lions offense to rely on different contributors throughout the season.
- Swanson, the team's third-round (76 overall) pick out of Arkansas in the 2014 NFL Draft, started four of the 16 games he played in and was named 2014 Rookie of the Year by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association.
- The 2013 Lions offensive line featured three new starters in LT Riley Reiff, RG Larry Warford and RT LaAdrian Waddle, with veterans C Dominic Raiola and LG Rob Sims anchoring the unit as they finished second in the NFL in sacks allowed (23).
- Detroit also finished second in sacks per pass play (3.5-percent) and tied for first in percentage of negative offensive plays (6.9-percent) in 2013.
- The offensive line allowed one or fewer sacks in 11 games during the 2013 season, and allowed only two or fewer sacks in 14 games.

In 2012, Heffernan mentored All-GLIAC guard Curtis Ferguson and five Academic All-GLIAC selections. Ferguson was also voted as the team's 2012 Offensive Most Valuable Player. His 2011 offensive line unit helped the Warriors average more than 200 rushing yards per game, leading WSU to a school record for overall wins (12), road wins (8) and four consecutive road playoff games to reach the national title contest.

The Warriors ranked in the Top-40 nationally in four categories in 2011 – ninth in fewest sacks allowed (0.94 per game), 23rd in scoring offense (34.38 ppg), 26th in passing efficiency (144.02) and 33rd in rushing offense (200.56). In 2010, Senior LT Joe Long was named the recipient for the Gene Upshaw Award as the top lineman, both offensive and defensive, in Division II under Heffernan's guidance.

Prior to his tenure at WSU, Heffernan spent two seasons (2005-06) as a graduate assistant offensive line coach at Michigan. During his time in Ann Arbor, the Wolverines compiled an 18-7 overall record and appeared in the Rose Bowl and Alamo Bowl. Heffernan began his coaching career in 2003 as the offensive line coach at Cumberland University before working as a graduate assistant with the defensive line at Louisville.

A native of Arlington Heights, Ill., Heffernan attended Loyola Academy in Wilmette, Ill. and went on to become a three-year letterman and two-year starter at center for the University of Dayton. He earned All-Pioneer Football League academic honors twice and was a member of four-consecutive conference championship teams. He graduated from Dayton in 2003 with a bachelor of arts degree, majoring in communications.

Heffernan was born October 12, 1980. He and his wife, Jamie, live in Plymouth with their sons, Connor and Casey.

KRIS KOCUREK
Defensive Line
Years with Lions: 7
Years in NFL: 7

Kris Kocurek enters his seventh season as defensive line coach after joining the Lions as Detroit's assistant defensive line coach in 2009. He had spent the previous season coaching defensive line at Stephen F. Austin State.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Kocurek further established himself as a mold of young talent along the defensive line as nine different defensive linemen recorded at least 0.5 sacks in 2014. As a unit, the defensive line accounted for 34 of the team's 42 sacks in 2014.

- The 2014 Lions defensive line was among the best in the league in forcing opponents into negative plays (sacks and tackles for loss on rushing plays). Detroit ranked fifth in sacks by defensive line (34.0), tied for third in TFL on rushing plays by defensive line (26) and second in total negative plays by defensive line with 60.
- The Lions tied an NFL record for the most games (14) holding opponents to less than 100 rushing yards in a season. The 14 games limiting opponents to less than 100 rushing yards is also a franchise record.
- DE Ezekiel Ansah followed up on his stellar rookie season by finishing with 7.5 sacks in 2014, giving him 15.5 in his first two NFL seasons. His 15.5 sacks over the last two seasons rank third among all NFL defensive players in their second or third seasons behind only DE Olivier Vernon (18.0) and DE Chandler Jones (17.5).

- Under Kocurek's tutelage, DT Ndamukong Suh, during his five seasons in Detroit (2010-14), set the official team career sacks record (since 1992) for defensive tackles with 36.0, earned four Pro Bowl nods (2011, 2013-15), named AP first-team All Pro twice (2010, 2013) and was the 2010 NFL AP Defensive Rookie of the Year.
- Kocurek was also instrumental in the development of third-year DE George Johnson in 2014. After joining the team as a free agent following brief stints with Tampa Bay and Minnesota, Johnson finished third on the team in sacks with 6.0 and emerged as a force in the defensive end rotation, particularly in third-down situations.
- In his first season with the Lions after being drafted fifth overall, Ansah led the team in sacks in 2013 with eight, the second most sacks by a Lions rookie since Suh had 10 in 2010. Ansah recorded three multi-sack games, posting two sacks at Washington (9/22), vs. Tampa Bay (11/24) and vs. Green Bay (11/24). His eight sacks also led all NFL rookie players.
- The Lions defensive line had their best outing of the 2013 season on Thanksgiving Day (11/28) vs. Green Bay, sacking Packers QB Matt Flynn seven times, forcing a fumble and recording a safety.
- In 2010, Kocurek's first season as the Lions' defensive line coach, Detroit had the most-improved pass rush in the NFL. Even though teams threw the ball nine times less against the Lions in 2010 season than they did in 2009, the Lions picked up 18 more sacks, which accounted for an increase of 3.28 sacks per pass play.

In 2009, Kocurek helped rookie DT Sammie Hill, who was drafted out of Stillman College in the fourth round (115th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft, emerge as an opening day starter. He finished the season with 26 tackles (14 solo) and two fumble recoveries in 13 games while making the transition from a small college prospect to NFL starter (12 starts).

In 2007, Kocurek served as the assistant head coach and defensive line coach at West Texas A&M where he helped coach the Buffaloes to the 2007 Lone Star Conference title as well as the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs. The Buffaloes became one of the top defensive units in the LSC and led the conference in scoring defense.

Under Kocurek's guidance, Brandon Swain became one of the top defensive players at the Division II level and was a 2007 First-Team Daktronics, AFCA and AP Little All-American and conference defensive lineman of the year after recording 24.5 tackles for losses and 14 sacks.

Kocurek served as the defensive line coach at Texas A&M-Commerce in 2006 and helped guide the Lions' top-ranked defensive unit, which finished No. 1 in total and scoring defense.

For two seasons (2004-05) Kocurek served as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M-Kingsville and coached the Javelinas' defensive line where he was active in the development of Wilbert Martin, who was twice selected as First Team All-LSC and was a free agent signee of the Baltimore Ravens.

Kocurek began his coaching career in 2003 as a student assistant at Texas Tech. While in Lubbock, he assisted with the defensive linemen and helped coach the Red Raiders to a 2003 Houston Bowl win over Navy.

CURTIS MODKINS
Running Backs
Years in NFL: 8

Curtis Modkins enters his eighth year in the NFL and third with the Detroit Lions. Prior to Detroit, Modkins was the offensive coordinator/running backs coach for the Buffalo Bills for three seasons (2010-12).

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Modkins led the Lions run game to new heights in his first season with the team in 2013, utilizing a versatile backfield combination led by RB Joique Bell to chew up yards between the tackles and create mismatches in the open field, and continued the position group's success with the addition of RB Theo Riddick into the offense's game plan in 2014.

- Bell recorded a career-high 860 yards on the ground to go along with seven rushing touchdowns, as well as 34 receptions for 322 yards and one touchdown in 2014.
- In the Lions' NFC Wild Card game at Dallas (1/4), Bush scored the team's second touchdown of the game on an 18-yard dash in the first quarter that capped off a 14-play, 99-yard drive. This was the first 99-yard drive by any team in the post-season since January 13, 2002 when Baltimore completed a 99-yard touchdown drive at Miami.
- Riddick tied WR Golden Tate for third on the team in receiving touchdowns with four as he proved himself to be a versatile weapon for the Lions offense in both the running and passing games. Arguably Riddick's biggest catches came against Atlanta in London (10/26) when he caught a one-handed pass across the middle to keep the game-winning drive alive, and also against Miami (11/9) when he caught the game-winning pass from QB Matthew Stafford with only 3:13

- Detroit ranked third in the NFL in total yards gained by running backs with 2,769 yards in 2013 (1,690 rushing, 1,079 receiving) as the Lions were the only team to feature backs who combined for 1,600+-rushing yards and 1,000+-receiving yards.
- Detroit and San Diego were the only teams who featured running back units who finished in the Top-8 (8th) in rushing yards and Top-5 in receiving yards (2nd) in 2013.
- Under Modkins' guidance, Bush (1,006 rushing, 506 receiving) and Bell (651 rushing, 547 receiving) became the first running back tandem in NFL history to both register 500+-rushing yards and 500+-receiving yards in the same season.
- Bush's 1,006 rushing yards and 506 receiving yards made him the first Lions running back with 1,500 total yards since RB Barry Sanders registered 1,780 total yards in 1998.
- Bush also became the first Lions rusher to reach 1,000 yards since RB Kevin Jones had 1,133 in 2004.
- In total yards, Bush finished the season ranked fifth in the NFL with 108.0 yards per game. In the 14 games he played, he tallied 1,512 total yards.
- Bell finished sixth in the NFL in receiving yards by running backs (547) and was also tied for 11th in rushing touchdowns with eight.

In 2012, Modkins coordinated the Bills offense that ranked fourth in rushing average (5.0) and sixth in rushing yards (2,217).

Buffalo was fourth in the NFL (led AFC) in 2011 with a 4.9-yard average, also the fourth-best in Bills history and highest since 1975. RB Fred Jackson (5.5 avg., 1st in AFC) and RB C.J. Spiller (5.2 avg., 5th in AFC) both finished the year with an average of 5.0-plus yards.

In 2010, Buffalo was one of five AFC teams with a 3,000-yard passer and two players with 1,000 scrimmage yards (WR Stevie Johnson and Jackson).

Prior to joining the Bills, Modkins was the running backs coach for the Arizona Cardinals in 2009. Following a brief stint as the offensive coordinator at Colorado State, he entered the NFL coaching ranks as the running backs coach for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2008.

From 2002-07, he worked at Georgia Tech, first as the school's defensive backs coach in 2002 and then as running backs coach from 2003-07. Modkins enjoyed a successful four-year tenure at New Mexico from 1998-2001 as the cornerbacks coach, and started his coaching career at his alma mater, Texas Christian University, where he served as a graduate assistant in 1995, secondary coach in 1996 and tight ends coach in 1997.

Modkins was a three-time intern through the NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship program, working with the following teams: Philadelphia Eagles (Head Coach Ray Rhodes) in 1997, Dallas Cowboys (Head Coach Chan Gailey) in 1999 and Pittsburgh Steelers (Head Coach Bill Cowher) in 2005.

Modkins was a three-year starter for TCU and a led the Horned Frogs in rushing from 1990-92. He finished his career third on the school's all-time rushing list with 2,763 yards and was twice named Second Team All-Southwest Conference. He earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1993 and earned his M.L.A. degree in 1997.

Modkins was born November 15, 1970. He and his wife, Kristi, have four children, Ciera, Jett, Mariah and Dash.

TONY ODEN

Defensive Backs/Cornerbacks

Years in NFL: 12

A 12-year coaching veteran when it comes to tutoring NFL defensive backs, Tony Oden joined the Lions coaching staff in 2014 as the team's defensive backs/cornerbacks coach. Prior to coming to Detroit, Oden was the secondary coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he specialized in the development of the team's cornerbacks.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Oden was heavily involved in the Lions' secondary production in 2014 as second-year CB Darius Slay and veteran CB Rashean Mathis combined to lead a revitalized group of corners en route to the Lions boasting the No. 2 overall defense in the NFL last season.

- Slay finished tied for ninth in the NFL with a team-high 17 pass defenses, which also ranked second among all rookie and second-year players. He also recorded the first two interceptions of his career with picks in Week 4 at New York Jets (9/28) and Week 15 vs. Minnesota (12/14).
- Mathis concluded his 12th NFL season with 51 total tackles (42 solo), one interception, nine pass defenses and one forced fumble. He returned his lone interception 41 yards for a touchdown in Week 5 vs. Buffalo (10/5), the fourth pick-six of his career.
- Rookie CB Mohammed Seisay was one of only four undrafted rookie free agents to make the team's Week 1 53-man roster, as he finished the season with three solo tackles and two special teams tackles, contributing primarily in special teams packages.

Under Oden's guidance in 2013, the Buccaneers defense finished tied for third in the NFL in interceptions with 21, fourth in interception return yards with 338 and tied for seventh in interception return touchdowns with three. Twelve of the team's 21 picks that season came from the Tampa Bay secondary, including a team-leading three from rookie CB Johnthan Banks. CB Darrelle Revis was also named to his fifth Pro Bowl as the leader of Oden's position group after missing most of the 2012 season with an ACL injury.

Prior to his time in Tampa, Oden was the Jacksonville Jaguars defensive backs coach in 2012 after spending six seasons (2006-2011) with the New Orleans Saints. While with the Saints, he was a member of a coaching staff that won three NFC South division titles (2006, 2009, 2011) and helped guide the team to a victory over the Indianapolis Colts in Super Bowl XLIV. In 2009, S Darren Sharper set an NFL record with 376 interception return yards on nine picks, while in 2011, S Roman Harper recorded the second-most sacks by an NFL defensive back in a single season with 7.5. Oden's Saints teams twice finished in the Top-5 in passing yards allowed during his six seasons, ranking third in 2006 (178.4 yards/g) and fourth in 2010 (193.9 yards/g).

Oden's NFL coaching roots began in 2004 when he worked with the Houston Texans as a defensive assistant/assistant defensive backs coach. In his two years with Houston, the Texans set franchise records in interceptions (22) and interception return yards (393).

From 1996-2003, Oden held various defensive assistant coaching positions at Eastern Michigan (2003), East Carolina (2000-02), Army (1998-99), Boston College (1997) and Millersville (Pa.) University (1996). He is a native of Cleveland Heights, Ohio where he was a two-time all-conference selection at linebacker for Baldwin-Wallace College. As a junior, he earned All-America recognition and was named captain as a senior.

Oden was born June 30, 1973. He and his wife, Amanda, have a son, Jaylen, and a daughter, Ryan.

ROBERT PRINCE

Wide Receivers

Years in NFL: 8

A seasoned veteran when it comes to working with receivers, Robert Prince joined the Lions in 2014 as the team's wide receivers coach after coaching at the college level for the previous four seasons. He served as the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Boise State from 2011-13 after spending six years developing offensive talent in the NFL. His previous stops in professional football include assistant positions with the Seattle Seahawks (2009), Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-08) and Atlanta Falcons (2004-06) as he brings a cumulative 26 years of coaching experience to Detroit.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Prince's first-year at the helm of the Lions receiving corps saw the emergence of many new weapons, and none more impactful than WR Golden Tate, who joined WR Calvin Johnson as one of the most lethal one-two receiver punches in the entire NFL.

- Tate was one of the Lions' top targets in free agency last offseason, and his impact on Detroit's offense was evident in his ability to create in open space and move the chains. He finished seventh in the NFL in receiving yards with 1,331 and sixth in receptions with 99. It marked the first time in his career he eclipsed 1,000 receiving yards.
- Tate was also among the League's best receivers in third-down situations as he finished second in third-down receiving yards (536) and second in third-down receptions (34). His 720 yards after the catch also led all receivers and ranked third among all NFL players.
- With Johnson reaching 1,077 yards in 2014, he joined Tate (1,331) in the surpassing of 1,000 yards as they became the first pair of Lions receivers to both reach 1,000 in the same season since 2006 (WR Roy Williams, 1,310; WR Mike Furrey, 1,086). This marks only the sixth time in Lions history that two Lions receivers have each reached 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.
- Johnson earned a spot in his fifth-consecutive Pro Bowl, despite missing three games due to injury, after finishing the 2014 season with 71 receptions for 1,077 yards. Johnson completed his sixth season with 70+ receptions, which set a franchise record for the most seasons with 70+ receptions in team history.
- With 103 yards against the Chicago Bears in Week 16 (12/21), Johnson recorded his 44th career 100-yard game, which now ranks as the second-most by a player in his first eight seasons in NFL history. He finished just one 100-yard game behind WR Randy Moss (45, 1998-2006) for the most by a player in his first eight seasons.
- After spending the 2013 season on the Lions practice squad, WR Corey Fuller caught his first-career NFL touchdown in dramatic fashion in 2014. With 1:48 left to play in Week 7 vs. New Orleans (10/19), Fuller grabbed the game-winning pass on a five-yard bullet from QB Matthew Stafford to seal the Lions' win, 24-23.

Prince was a key cog in crafting one of college football's most potent offensive attacks in recent years while guiding the Boise State receiving corps. In his first year as offensive coordinator in 2012, Prince led the offense to an 11-2 record despite losing seven starters, as five players were named All-Mountain West for the first time in their careers. In 2011, after returning to the university from spending the previous seven seasons coaching in the NFL, the Broncos' offense ranked in the Top-10 in multiple national categories, including pass efficiency (4th, 171.57), scoring (5th, 44.23) and total offense (9th, 481.31).

Prince's most recent NFL coaching opportunity came in 2009 when he coached the Seattle Seahawks wide receivers after working as the assistant wide receivers coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2007-08. During the 2007 season, Prince guided Jaguars WR Reggie Williams to a single-season franchise record 10 touchdowns. Prior to Jacksonville, Prince got his NFL start as an offensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons, where he served under running backs coach Ollie Wilson. Working exclusively with running backs and tight ends his first two seasons, Prince helped Atlanta to lead the League in rushing in both of those years.

Before beginning his first run with Boise State in 2001, Prince was the wide receivers coach at Portland State in 1998 and was later promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 1999 and 2000. His previous coaching stints include the Japanese X-League (1996-97), Fort Lewis (Colo.) College (1994-95) and Sacramento State (1992-93). He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at both Montana State in 1991 and Humboldt State (Calif.), his alma mater, in 1989 and 1990.

Prince's NFL roots trace back to his time serving in three different minority training camp internships with the San Francisco 49ers (2000, 2002) and the San Diego Chargers (2001).

A graduate of Humboldt State in 1990, Prince went on to earn his master's degree from the university in 1992. He is married to his wife, Susan, and they are the parents of three children – daughters Hayden and Jasmin and son Tyson. Prince was born May 8, 1965.

MATT RAICH

Defensive Assistant/Defensive Ends
Years with Lions: 2
Years in NFL: 13

Matt Raich returns for his second season with the Lions, this year as the team's defensive assistant/defensive ends coach. Raich has coached 13 years in the NFL, including stints with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2002-06) and Arizona Cardinals (2007-2012), where he served various assistant positions.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Raich assisted in the implementation of the Lions new defensive scheme under Defensive Coordinator Teryl Austin in 2014. The Lions finished the season ranked No. 2 in overall defense, allowing only 300.9 yards per game, and No. 1 in rushing defense, allowing only 69.3 yards per game.

- Raich worked primarily with Linebackers Coach Bill Sheridan during the 2014 season as LB DeAndre Levy continued his success by being named Associated Press Second Team All-Pro after finishing with a team-leading 151 total tackles (117 solo), a career-high 2.5 sacks and one interception.
- With 10 tackles (eight solo) at Green Bay (12/28) in the season finale, Levy recorded 10+ tackles in his 11th game of 2014. Levy and LB Chris Spielman (13, 1994) are the only linebackers for the Lions since 1994 to register 10+ tackles in at least 10 games during a season (according to Stats, LLC). Levy registered 10+ tackles in 11 of the Lions' 16 games last season, which was also the most in the NFL this season.

- After not recording a single tackle outside of special teams in his first two seasons, LB Tahir Whitehead thrived at the middle linebacker position for injured LB Stephen Tulloch and emerged onto the scene in 2014 to finish the season second on the team in tackles with 77 (55 solo).

Raich coached the Arizona Cardinals linebacker corps from 2007-2012 after beginning his tenure with the team as a defensive assistant, where he worked with some of Arizona's all-time greats that included DE Bertrand Berry, LB Karlos Dansby, LB Chike Okefor, LB Joey Porter and LB Daryl Washington. Berry, Dansby, Okefor and Washington all rank in the Top-15 for career sacks in Cardinals history, while Porter, who finished his NFL career in Arizona (2010-11), ranks 32nd in NFL history with 98 sacks. In 2012, Washington was named to the Pro Bowl under Raich's guidance as he recorded the most sacks/tackles in the NFL by an inside linebacker (9 sacks/134 tackles) since the record began in 1994. In his six seasons in Arizona, Raich helped a Cardinals linebacker reach 100-plus tackles in a single season five times (Dansby, 2009; Washington, 2010 and 2012; LB Paris Lenin, 2010 and 2012), and he was a member of the franchise's only Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl XLIII.

After working as a player personnel intern with the Steelers for two seasons (2002-03), Raich earned his first NFL coaching gig as an offensive assistant with the team in 2004, where he worked under former offensive coordinator and current Tennessee Titans Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt for three seasons. He was a member of the Steelers' Super Bowl Championship in Super Bowl XL when Pittsburgh defeated Seattle, 21-10.

Raich's previous coaching stops include assistant coach positions at Robert Morris (2000-02; 1996-98), Glenville State (1999) and Westminster (Pa.) College (1993-94). He was also the defensive coordinator for the Hildesheim Invaders of the former German Federal League in 1999.

Raich was born August 16, 1970. A Monaca, Pa. native, he is married to his wife, Amanda.

BILL SHERIDAN

Linebackers

Years in NFL: 11

Bill Sheridan took over the Lions linebacker corps in 2014 after serving as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defensive coordinator for two seasons (2012-13), and returns for his second season in Detroit. A Detroit native and former assistant coach at Royal Oak's Shrine High School (1981-84), Sheridan's scope of defensive coaching history extends deep into the NFL and college ranks. He has held positions as a linebackers coach with the New York Giants (2005-08) and Miami Dolphins (2010-11) and was also the Giants defensive coordinator in 2009. He was a member of the Giants' championship run in Super Bowl XLII when they defeated New England, 17-14.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

In his first season leading the position group, Sheridan guided LB DeAndre Levy to his first Associated Press All-Pro nomination (Second Team) and also developed third-year LB Tahir Whitehead into a force at the middle linebacker position. Levy was also named an alternate for the 2015 Pro Bowl.

- Levy had one of the most successful seasons for a linebacker in Lions history as he finished the season with 151 total tackles (117 solo), a career-high 2.5 sacks and one interception. He earned Player of the Month honors for the month of September, only the third Lions player to ever receive the honor.
- With 10 tackles (eight solo) at Green Bay (12/28) in the season finale, Levy recorded 10+ tackles in his 11th game of 2014. Levy and LB Chris Spielman (13, 1994) are the only linebackers for the Lions since 1994 to register 10+ tackles in at least 10 games during a season (according to Stats, LLC). Levy registered 10+ tackles in 11 of the Lions' 16 games last season, which was also the most in the NFL.
- Levy's 117 solo tackles led the entire NFL, and his 151 total tackles were a close second behind only Panthers LB Luke Kuechly's 153.
- After not recording a single tackle outside of special teams in his first two NFL seasons, Whitehead thrived at the middle linebacker position under Sheridan for injured LB Stephen Tulloch and emerged onto the scene in 2014 to finish the season second on the team in tackles with 77 (55 solo). Also recorded his first-two-career interceptions (both vs. Minnesota) and had five pass defenses.
- LB Josh Byrnes joined the Lions in late September off of the Ravens practice squad as he contributed heavily in 13 games, finishing with 19 tackles (16 solo), one pass defense and his first-career interception (17 yards).

Sheridan's presence in Tampa Bay was felt immediately as he helped the Buccaneers' run defense go from last to first in the NFL as the defense went from holding opponents to 156.1 yards per game to 82.5 per game. The Bucs also led the League in opponent negative plays and tackles for loss in 2012. In 2013, Sheridan's defense finished tied for third in total takeaways with 31 (10 FF, 21 INT).

With a knack for developing young defensive talent, Sheridan was instrumental in the rise of Buccaneers LB Lavonte David and DT Gerald McCoy over his two seasons. David finished the 2013 season tied for fifth in the NFL with a career-high five interceptions and was one of only two linebackers in the NFL to record at least five picks, while McCoy ranked fourth in sacks among defensive tackles with 9.5. McCoy was named to his second-consecutive Pro Bowl and both players were named AP First Team All-Pro in 2013. Sheridan also played a key role in the revival of veteran CB Darrelle Revis, who returned from injury to earn a fifth Pro Bowl nod in his first season with the Buccaneers.

As the Dolphins linebackers coach from 2010-11, Sheridan led a fierce group in the likes of Cameron Wake, Jason Taylor, Karlos Dansby and Kevin Burnett. Wake's 14 sacks in 2010 ranked third in the NFL and are the eighth-most in Dolphins history.

Prior to his stint in Miami, Sheridan spent five seasons with the New York Giants as linebackers coach (2005-08) and defensive coordinator (2009). He helped mold LB Antonio Pierce into a Pro Bowler and leader of the 2007 Super Bowl championship defensive unit.

Sheridan's coaching career began in 1981 at Shrine (Mich.) High School in Royal Oak where he worked for four seasons as an assistant coach. After completing a graduate assistant position at Michigan from 1985-86, he went on to hold assistant coaching positions at Maine (1987-88), Cincinnati (1989-91), Army (1992-97), Michigan State (1998-2000), Notre Dame (2001) and Michigan (2002-04).

Sheridan was born January 27, 1959 and is a native of Detroit, Mich. He attended De La Salle High School and later earned four letters as a linebacker at Grand Valley State. He and his wife, Jaycine, have four children: Joe, Nick, Mark and Natalie.

JEREMIAH WASHBURN

Offensive Line
Years in NFL: 14

Jeremiah Washburn joined the Lions coaching staff as the assistant offensive line coach in 2009 and was promoted to offensive line coach in 2013. Before coming to Detroit, he spent six seasons working in the Baltimore Ravens player personnel department. Washburn was the Ravens' area scout for the Southwest from 2005-08 and covered schools from the Big 12, SEC, WAC and Conference USA. He also assisted with the acquisition of rookie free agents following the draft.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Detroit's offensive line continues to be one of the top pass protecting lines in the NFL for an offense that has passed more than any other team over the past six seasons (3,862 pass attempts).

- Injuries along the offensive line in 2014 resulted in seven different starting lineup combinations over the course of the season, including the team's NFC Wild Card game at Dallas (1/4). Washburn's development of rookies T Cornelius Lucas and G Travis Swanson provided necessary depth up front, allowing the Lions offense to rely on different contributors throughout the season.
- Swanson, the team's third-round (76th overall) pick out of Arkansas in the 2014 NFL Draft, started four of the 16 games he played in and was named 2014 Rookie of the Year by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association.
- The 2013 Lions offensive line featured three new starters in LT Riley Reiff, RG Larry Warford and RT LaAdrian Waddle, with veterans C Dominic Raiola and LG Rob Sims anchoring the unit as they finished second in the NFL in sacks allowed (23).
- Detroit also finished second in sacks per pass play (3.5-percent) and tied for first in percentage of negative offensive plays (6.9-percent) in 2013.
- Washburn's offensive line allowed one or fewer sacks in 11 games during the 2013 season, and allowed only two or fewer sacks in 14 games.
- The offensive line helped generate 241 rushing yards in Week 13 vs. Green Bay (11/28/13), which are the most since October 12, 1997 when the team recorded 259 against Tampa Bay.
- In 2012, the Lions offensive line helped pave the way for 17 rushing touchdowns. The Lions' 17 touchdowns on the ground ranked sixth overall in the NFL, and were the most rushing touchdowns by the team since Detroit scored 19 in 1997.

- Washburn was instrumental in Reiff's development as a rookie in 2012. Reiff played a key role in his first season on the Lions offensive line in an unbalanced tight end formation.

During his first two years in Baltimore (2003-04), Washburn was a player personnel assistant. He assisted in pro scouting, including some advance scouting of opponents, unrestricted free agents, NFL Europa and other free agents, and he also assisted the college scouting director in preparation for the NFL Draft.

In 2002, Washburn entered the NFL as a football operations assistant with the Carolina Panthers.

Washburn was a three-year guard at the University of Arkansas. He was an international economics major and was a graduate assistant for the Razorbacks' athletic department while he earned his MBA.

Washburn was born June 17, 1977. He and his wife, Susan, have two daughters, Ally and Megan, and a son, Drew.

JIM WASHBURN

Defensive Line
Years in NFL: 17

Heralded as one of the best defensive line coaches in the NFL, Washburn joined the Detroit Lions coaching staff as assistant defensive line/pass rush specialist in 2013 after serving as the Philadelphia Eagles' defensive line coach from 2011-2012. Washburn's stout coaching resume features six defensive linemen he has coached to the Pro Bowl, including Jason Babin, Kyle Vanden Bosch, Kevin Carter, Albert Haynesworth, Jevon Kearse and Ndamukong Suh.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Alongside defensive line coach Kris Kocurek, Washburn has brought an intensified approach to the Lions defensive line over the past two seasons with his proven track record as a pass rush specialist.

- The 2014 Lions defensive line was among the best in the league in forcing opponents into negative plays (sacks and tackles for loss on rushing plays). Detroit ranked fifth in sacks by defensive line (34.0), tied for third in TFL on rushing plays by defensive line (26) and second in total negative plays by defensive line with 60.
- The Lions tied an NFL record for the most games (14) holding opponents to less than 100 rushing yards in a season. The 14 games limiting opponents to less than 100 rushing yards is also a franchise record.

- DE Ezekiel Ansah followed up on his stellar rookie season by finishing with 7.5 sacks in 2014, giving him 15.5 in his first two NFL seasons. His 15.5 sacks over the last two seasons rank third among all NFL defensive players in their second or third seasons behind only DE Olivier Vernon (18.0) and DE Chandler Jones (17.5).
- In his first season with the Lions after being drafted fifth overall, rookie DE Ezekiel Ansah led the team in sacks in 2013 with eight, the second most sacks by a Lions rookie since DT Ndamukong Suh had 10 in 2010.
- Ansah recorded three multi-sack games, posting two sacks at Washington (9/22), vs. Tampa Bay (11/24) and vs. Green Bay (11/24). His eight sacks also led all NFL rookies.
- The Lions defensive line had their best outing of the season on Thanksgiving Day (11/28) vs. Green Bay, sacking Packers QB Matt Flynn seven times, forcing a fumble and recording a safety.
- Rookie DE Devin Taylor also emerged as a valuable asset at defensive end in 2013 as he finished the season with 2.5 sacks and two forced fumbles.

In his first year with Philadelphia, Washburn led the Eagles to a League-leading 50 sacks in 2011, 46 of which came from his defensive line unit. Under Washburn's guidance, Babin notched a career-high 18 sacks and earned his second trip to the Pro Bowl.

Washburn brings 16 previous years of NFL coaching experience to the Lions, beginning his professional coaching career with the Tennessee Titans as defensive line coach from 1999-2010. During his time in Tennessee, the Titans ranked seventh in the NFL in sacks and fifth in rushing yards allowed. Washburn helped lead the Titans to six playoff berths, three division titles and one AFC championship.

Prior to joining the Titans, Washburn spent more than 20 years coaching in the Arena Football League, NFL Europe and collegiate programs, including defensive line coach positions at Houston (1998), Arkansas (1994-1997) and South Carolina (1983-1988).

Washburn began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Southern Methodist University. A native of Shelby, N.C., he was a four-year letterman at Gardner-Webb College where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1973. He later added his master's degree from North Carolina A&T in 1975.

Washburn was born December 2, 1963. He and his wife, Sandy, have three children, Jessica, Brady, Jeremiah, daughters-in-law Susan and Ashley and eight grandchildren, Allison Grace, Luke, Drew, Avery Jane, Megan, Cash and Noah.

ALAN WILLIAMS
Defensive Backs/Safeties
 Years with Lions: 2
 Years in NFL: 15

With more than 10 years of experience coaching NFL defensive backs, Alan Williams joined the Lions staff in 2014 as the team's defensive backs/safeties coach after serving as the Minnesota Vikings defensive coordinator for two seasons (2012-13). He enters his 15th season coaching in the NFL, with previous stops with the Indianapolis Colts (2002-11) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2001). In 2006, he mentored the Colts' defensive backs en route to the team's 29-17 win over the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XLI.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Williams' impact on Detroit's secondary was evident in his first season with the Lions as S Glover Quin and S James Ihedigbo emerged as one of the best back-end defensive combinations in the NFL in 2014.

- Quin finished the 2014 season with the League lead in interceptions with seven, becoming the first Lions player to lead the NFL in interceptions since Hall of Fame CB Lem Barney in 1967 when he registered 10 during his exceptional rookie campaign. He is also the first Lions player to grab seven picks in a season since S Kurt Schulz (7) in 2000.
- Quin was named to his first-career Pro Bowl and also received Second Team Associated Press All-Pro honors for his efforts. He was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for Week 15, the third Lions player to receive the honor in 2014 (LB DeAndre Levy, Week 1; DE Ezekiel Ansah, Week 6).

- Ihedigbo followed closely behind with four interceptions in 2014, as he was tied for fifth among all NFL safeties. In his first season in Detroit, he finished with 71 total tackles (59 solo), two sacks (10 yards), eight pass defenses, a career-high three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery after missing the first three games of the season due to injury.
- As a unit, the Lions safeties led the NFL in interceptions with 11 and ranked fourth in pass defenses with 20.
- A security valve for both the Lions secondary and special teams units, S Don Carey recorded his first-career fumble return touchdown in Week 3 vs. Green Bay (9/21) on a 40-yard scoop and score in the first quarter. In his 13 games in 2014 he registered seven tackles (six solo) and five special teams tackles (four solo).
- S Isa Abdul-Quddus emerged as a valuable contributor in nickel packages and on special teams in his first season in Detroit as he recorded 29 tackles (19 solo) and two pass defenses.

During Williams' tenure as defensive coordinator in Minnesota (2012-13), the Vikings were tied for seventh in sacks with 85 and ninth in tackles for loss with 91. In 2013, the Vikings defense overcame a variety of injuries as three players in the defensive backfield, S Andrew Sendejo, CB Marcus Sherels and CB Shaun Prater, logged their first career interceptions under Williams' watch. Veteran DE Jared Allen led the team in sacks with 11.5, his seventh straight season with 10+ sacks, as fellow DE Brian Robison recorded a career-best nine.

Williams spent a decade coaching the Indianapolis Colts secondary where he worked with some of the League's most elite defensive backfield talent, including S Antoine Bethea and S Bob Sanders. From 2002-11, the Colts ranked in the Top-6 in the NFL in passing defense five times and finished out of the Top-15 only once. Williams guided Bethea (2007, 2009) and Sanders (2005, 2007) to two Pro Bowl seasons each. Sanders was named AP Defensive Player of the Year in 2007, the first Colts player to ever receive the honor.

From 2002-10, the Colts earned nine-consecutive playoff berths, during which the defense recorded 18 interceptions in the playoffs, including seven during the team's playoff-run to their Super Bowl XLI win over Chicago in 2006. Williams' secondary also helped the Colts defense in 2008 set an NFL record for fewest passing touchdowns allowed with six, the lowest number ever surrendered in a 16-game season.

Williams began his NFL coaching career with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2001 as a defensive assistant under former head coach Tony Dungy, where he worked with All-Pro players in the likes of John Lynch and Ronde Barber. That season, Williams coached alongside current Cowboys Assistant Head Coach of Defense Monte Kiffin and Steelers Head Coach Mike Tomlin as the Bucs finished 9-7 and earned an NFC Wild Card berth.

A former standout running back at William & Mary from 1988-91, Williams later returned to his alma mater where he coached the running backs and defensive backs for five seasons (1996-2000).

His first coaching stint was as an assistant head coach at Norview (Va.) High School where he kindled his craft for working with running backs and defensive backs from 1992-95.

Williams was born November 4, 1969. He is a native of Norfolk, Va. and he and his wife, Lisa, have three children – Christian, Solomon and Nathan.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

BRIAN XANDERS

Senior Personnel Executive
Years in NFL: 22

Brian Xanders is in his third season with the Lions, following a five-year stint with the Denver Broncos. During his last four seasons with the Broncos he served as the team's general manager. For the Lions, he works with all areas of the club's player personnel department, including college scouting, pro personnel, advance scouting, football research/analytics and football information systems development. Since 2013, he has assisted the Lions' personnel department in acquiring 16 new starters and 76 new players on the 90-man roster. The 2014 Lions won 11 games, earned a berth in the playoffs, had five Pro Bowl players and finished first in run defense and second in points allowed.

This season marks his 22nd year in the NFL working in a variety of player personnel, scouting, football operations and coaching staff roles during his time at three different teams (Detroit, Denver and Atlanta). He has direct experience in player evaluations with the last 19 NFL Draft classes and 15 free agency periods.

During his tenure as the Broncos' general manager, he engineered the personnel transformation where 90-percent of the team's roster (55 of 61 players) were acquired through the draft, free agency or re-signed by the club. Those players led the Broncos to AFC West division titles in 2011 and 2012. In 2011, Denver became only the third team since the 1970 NFL merger to win its division and a playoff game with a new head coach following four wins the previous season.

The Broncos executed high-producing NFL Draft classes from 2010-12, which finished first in the NFL in playoff and second in games started during the three-year period. There are 14 primary starters on NFL teams from those draft classes, including four Pro Bowl players: LB Von Miller, WR Demaryius Thomas, TE Julius Thomas and OG Zane Beadles. There were also eight other Pro Bowl players who were acquired, signed or extended during his tenure: QB Peyton Manning (FA, 2012), SS Brian Dawkins (UFA, 2009-11), WR Brandon Lloyd (FA, 2009-11), RB Willis McGahee (FA, 2011), CB Champ Bailey (re-signed, 2011), DE Elvis Dumervil (re-signed, 2010), WR Brandon Marshall (re-signed, 2010), and OT Ryan Clady (1st round, 2008).

During his tenure in Denver, he also supervised the day-to-day operations of the Broncos' college scouting, pro scouting, labor operations/salary cap, equipment, medical, video, football systems and football operations departments. He served on the NFL College Advisory, NFL Combine Selection and the NFL Statistics Committees. He was originally hired by Denver as assistant general manager in 2008.

Before joining the Broncos, he worked 14 seasons (1994-2008) with the Atlanta Falcons in various scouting, player personnel, football operations, coaching staff and technology/systems roles. Xanders was a member of the Falcons' defensive coaching staff on their 1998 team that became the first in franchise history to earn a Super Bowl berth (XXXIII). Selected by the Falcons to attend Stanford University's NFL Program for Managers in 2005, he has given presentations at several universities on NFL player personnel issues.

A former linebacker who played for Bobby Bowden at Florida State University from 1989-92, Xanders was a member of four bowl-winning teams with the Seminoles that had a 42-7 combined record. He was an All-Atlantic Coast Conference academic team selection and graduated from FSU with a master's degree in business administration and a bachelor's degree in business management.

Xanders and his wife of 17 years, Amy, have two children, Reid and Mary Claire and reside in Northville, Michigan.

SCOTT McEWEN

Senior Personnel Executive
Years with Lions: 29
Years in NFL: 29

Scott McEwen is now in his 29th season working in the Lions' personnel department and his first as senior personnel executive following his promotion in May 2015. In his previous role, he managed the college side of the team's scouting department, and was a key cog in the team's evaluation of college players throughout the country. McEwen plays an integral role in the team's planning and preparation for the annual college selection meeting.

McEwen is the team's elder statesman among the members of the player personnel department, having been a member of the scouting staff for the longest period of time. He originally joined the organization in 1987.

A 1980 graduate of West Liberty State (W. Va.), McEwen began his tenure with the Lions as an area scout after spending two seasons working for the BLESTO Scouting Service. Prior to his scouting career, the East McKeesport, Pa., native served as the defensive line coach at his alma mater from 1980-81, and later coached four seasons at Duquesne University (Pittsburgh, Pa.).

McEwen and his wife, Colleen, reside in Pittsburgh, Pa., and have four sons: Scott Jr., Matthew, Patrick and Michael.

SHELDON WHITE

Vice President of Pro Personnel

Years in NFL: 19

Sheldon White is entering his 19th season with the Lions. He was promoted to Lions Vice President of Pro Personnel April 30, 2009. During his first three years in the team's personnel department, White fulfilled a myriad of roles: in 1997 as the team's BLESTO area scout, in 1998 as an area scout and in 1999 working in both the college and pro scouting areas before becoming director of pro personnel in 2000.

In his current capacity as Lions Vice President of Pro Personnel, White is involved in all player personnel matters and reports directly to Martin Mayhew and Tom Lewand. He remains in constant communication with them, as well as Head Coach Jim Caldwell, the coaching staff, trainers, the media department, equipment managers, and the finance department regarding personnel transactions. He heads a team of personnel scouts that are responsible for evaluating all of the players in the National Football League, including the current Lions roster, and is also in charge of tryouts and visits for potential additional signings. White runs the free agent meetings, plays a key role in free agency and is an integral part of the draft process. Additionally, White runs a scouting internship program for prospective scouts during training camp and is in charge of the seasonal interns. Finally, he is responsible for the Lions official daily transactions and ensures that the team is in compliance with the NFL Player Personnel rules and regulations.

Sheldon was inducted into Miami University's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2014. His football jersey number has also been retired at Meadowdale High School in Dayton, Ohio.

In 2012, White was a recipient of the Johnnie Cochran Salute to Excellence award, alongside five general managers, two head coaches and former commissioner Paul Tagliabue. The awards were given to Tagliabue and some front office executives from high achieving teams during the 2011 season. He received the award again after the 2014 season.

In 2004, White completed the NFL's career development program at Stanford's Graduate School of Business.

White, a Lions defensive back from 1990-1992, initially re-joined the organization in 1997 as a BLESTO scout after coaching wide receivers at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio) from 1994-96. That post followed a six-year NFL playing career in which White also saw action for the New York Giants in 1988-89 and the Cincinnati Bengals in 1993.

A native of Dayton, OH, White was a four year starter at Miami (Ohio) from 1984-87, and was selected by the Cincinnati Enquirer to Miami's First Team All-Century team. He earned First Team All-

MAC and Honorable Mention All-American honors in 1986-87 and served as a key contributor to the school's MAC title in 1986.

In 1988, he was selected by the Giants in the third round (62nd overall) of the NFL Draft, and was named to the All-NFL Rookie First Team by College & Pro Football Weekly. White was also named the team's Rookie of the Year after leading the club with four interceptions. Following a two-year stint in New York, White signed with the Lions. He played three seasons in Detroit and was an integral part of the 1991 team that won the NFC Central title and advanced to the NFC Championship game. White then signed as an unrestricted free agent with the Bengals, where he spent the '93 campaign, before entering the coaching ranks at Miami (Ohio) in 1994.

Since July 2004, White has served as a member of the Business Advisory Council for the Richard T. Farmer School of Business at his alma mater, Miami University. He is also on the Advisory Council for the Nunn-Wooten Scouting Fellowship which is designed for former players interested in becoming professional scouts.

White graduated from Miami with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business, majoring in finance. He and his wife, Amy, have four children: sons Sheldon II, Jordan, and Cody, and a daughter, Lacy.

ROB LOHMAN

Assistant Director of Pro Personnel

Years with Lions: 9

Years in NFL: 15

Rob Lohman enters his ninth season with the Lions and his second as assistant director of pro personnel after serving seven seasons as the team's college scouting coordinator and regional scout. Rob has done a great job for us and his new role has benefited our evaluation of pro prospects and free agents alike."

Lohman originally joined the player personnel staff in May 2007 and had a variety of responsibilities in both college and pro scouting, including serving as the team's advance scout during his first season.

Previously, Lohman spent six years with the Houston Texans, and was a member of the organization before it began play in the NFL in 2002. From 2004-06, he served as the team's northeast regional scout, and was the team's pro administrator from 2002-03. Additionally in 2003, he handled all the team advance scouting duties. ### MANE FACTS

TRANSACTIONS

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the fifth round (137th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft.

PRO

Third-year punter who took over the Lions' punting, holding and kickoff duties in 2013, and has established himself as one of the best young legs in the NFL.

- With a 71-yard punt in Week 14 vs. Tampa Bay (12/7/14), Martin became the first Lions punter in team history to register two 70+-yard punts in his career. He recorded a 72-yard punt at Washington (9/22/13) in 2013.
- Martin showed his versatility in Week 10 vs. the Dolphins (11/9/14) as he completed two passes out of punt formation, one of which went for 24 yards to FB Jed Collins for a first down. Over the last 10 seasons, only one other NFL player has had two pass completions and two punts in the same game (Rams P Johnny Hekker in 2012). The last Lions player to do so was Earl Morrall, Detroit's starting quarterback in 1963 who assumed punting duties at midseason after Yale Lary was injured. (courtesy Elias Sports Bureau).
- Martin finished the 2013 season with a net punting average of 40.40 and broke the franchise record (official statistic since 1967) for net punting average. He is the first punter in franchise history to finish the season with a 40+-yard net punting average. Martin surpassed the previous record held by P Jim Arnold (39.63) in 1987.
  - He became the second rookie punter to finish the season with a 40+-yard net punting average. His 40.40 net punting average is the second-highest in League history among rookies (since net punting became official in 1976) behind only Jacksonville P Bryan Anger (40.85) in 2012.
  - He also recorded the second highest (gross) punting average by a rookie (minimum 20 punts) in NFL history. His 47.21 ranks behind Anger's 47.84 that he accumulated in 2012.
- Martin tallied a (gross) punting average of 47.21 on the season (72 punts for 3,399 yards). Martin has the third highest single-season punting average in team history and he is the first Lions punter in 50 years (Hall of Fame P/S Yale Lary 48.94 in 1963) to finish the season with a 47+-yard punting average. His 2013 output trails only Yale Lary's 1963 total, which is a team single-season record, and Lary's 48.44 average in 1961.
- Martin broke the team's rookie record for punting average (47.2) by surpassing P/RB Bob Cifer's 45.6 average in 1946.
- At Cleveland (10/13/13), Martin became the first Lions punter to record 5+ punts, 47.0+ net average, 3+ inside the 20 and 0 touchbacks in a game since net punting became an official statistic in 1976.
- Martin earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance at Washington (9/22/13), where he recorded six punts for 351 yards (52.5 average) and finished with a net punting average of 40.7. He is the first Lions punter to win the award since Jim Arnold in 1993.
  - Among Martin's punts was a 72-yarder. It was the longest punt recorded by the Lions since P Tom Skladany had a 74-yard punt vs. Oakland September 27, 1981.
  - The 72-yard punt by Martin was the second-longest in team history by a rookie, and the longest since P Bob Cifers nailed a 73-yard punt as a rookie vs. Green Bay November 17, 1946.
  - Martin's average of 52.5 was the highest single-game average by a Lions punter with at least six punts since P Pat Studstill recorded a 53.0 average on seven punts vs. Chicago September 11, 1966. It is the second-highest punting average with a minimum of six punts in a game since 1960.

MANE FACTS

- Pro Bowl: 2013-14 Alternate, 2015
- 2011 Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year.
- Voted by fans the 2012 ESPY for Best Comeback Athlete.
- Voted by his teammates for the Chuck Hughes Most Improved Player Award in 2011.
- During the Lions' dramatic 38-37 last second, come-from-behind win against Cleveland at Ford Field when he set NFL rookie passing records for yards (422) and tied a record for touchdowns (five), Stafford was mic'd up by NFL Films for that memorable win. Stafford suffered a shoulder injury on the last timed play of regulation. Following a pass interference penalty in the end zone and a Browns timeout, Stafford forced himself back on the field for one more throw that resulted in the game winning touchdown to TE Brandon Pettigrew. As published in the Detroit Free Press: NFL Films president Steve Sabol said Stafford "earned a lasting place in the cinematic folklore of the NFL." Stafford was wired for sound when he suffered an AC joint separation, came back and threw the winning touchdown with no time left against the Browns. Sabol called it "the most dramatic player wiring ever" -- and NFL Films has wired more than 350 players since 1965.
- Attended Highland Park High School in Dallas, Texas, the same high school that Lions Hall of Famers QB Bobby Layne and RB Doak Walker attended. Layne and Walker led the Lions to NFL Championships in 1952 and 1953. Layne also led the team to the 1957 NFL Championship.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions opened their 2014 season at Ford Field against the New York Giants. QB Matthew Stafford and WR Calvin Johnson seemed to be in mid-season form as they connected on a 67-yard bomb to put the Lions up 7-0. Those two were just warming up because with 5:23 remaining in the first quarter Stafford, scrambling to his left and throwing back to his right, connected with Johnson for a 16-yard diving touchdown grab. That touchdown put the Lions up 14-0. The Giants wouldn't go away quietly, countering with their own score on a one-yard pass from QB Eli Manning to TE Larry Donnell. Detroit came out in the second half and extended their lead with two field goals by K Nate Freese, one of which was set up by a spectacular interception from Lions LB DeAndre Levy. With just under six minutes to go after a S Glover Quin interception, Stafford dazzled the crowd yet again with a five-yard scramble for the score to go up 27-7. The Giants responded with a score of their own with a one-yard run by RB Rashad Jennings to cut the lead to 27-14. Detroit would respond by putting together a 12-play drive that chewed up more than seven minutes on the clock and ended with a three-yard touchdown by RB Joique Bell. Up 33-14 the Lions decided to go for two points and converted on a Stafford pass to TE Joseph Fauria, putting the game away. Levy led the team with 10 tackles and an interception.

The Detroit Lions improved to 2-1 on the season following a 19-7 victory in Week 3 vs. Green Bay. In the first division game of the season the Lions defense stepped up big again to lead them to victory. On the Packers' second play of their first possession, DT Nick Fairley stripped Packers RB Eddie Lacy, causing a fumble. FS Don Carey was there to scoop and score to put Detroit up 7-0 in the first quarter with 12 minutes to go. Green Bay would tie the game with under a minute left to go in the first when QB Aaron Rodgers connected with TE Andrew Quarless on a 10-yard pass. After an unfortunate injury to LB Stephen Tulloch, LB DeAndre Levy and the rest of the Lions defense stepped up their play for their fallen teammate. With the ball on their own one-yard line, the Packers tried run it out as Levy made the play in the end zone on Lacy to get the safety, putting Detroit up 9-7 in the second quarter. Detroit would add to its lead with a 30-yard field goal by K Nate Freese with under seven minutes to go in the second quarter to go up 12-7. Coming out the half, the dominance by the Lions defense continued as they didn't allow the Packers to score in the final three quarters of the game. In the Lions' 17-3 win at Minnesota, the Lions defense generated eight total sacks against the Vikings. Eight sacks marked the most in a game for the Lions since accumulating eight vs. Indianapolis November 23, 1997. The Lions defense held the Minnesota Vikings to just three points, marking the lowest tally allowed on the road by the Lions since they forced a shutout at Tampa Bay, 27-0, September 29, 1996. Allowing just three points to Minnesota marked the fourth-straight game the Lions allowed no more than 17 points in a game. The Lions generated eight team sacks and three interceptions. The last time the Lions registered 8+ sacks and 3+ interceptions in a game was at Philadelphia November 18, 1986 (11 sacks, three interceptions). ## PRIDE OF THE LIONS

On November 22, 2009, the Lions unveiled the team's Pride of the Lions, a permanent stadium display honoring greatest players in team history during a halftime celebration at Ford Field against the Cleveland Browns. The team introduced the 12 members of the Pride of the Lions charter class. The Pride of the Lions is a very visible feature on the old Hudson's warehouse of Ford Field (south suite levels) that includes the players' jersey numbers, name and years played with the Lions.

The Associated Press All-Pro Team (First Team) dates back to 1930. In 1951, the AP began designating the All-Pro Team by offense and defense. From 1930-50, positions selected included the following: End (E), Tackle (T), Guard (G), Center (C) and Back (B). This designation represented the offensive and defensive systems of the era as well as the commonality of two-way players. The first year the offensive backfield was separated by Quarterback, Fullback and Half (Running) Back was 1954. The first year the AP designated the defensive backfield by Safety (S) and Cornerback (B or CB in 1963) was 1955. Wide Receiver (WR), also known as Flanker (FL) from 1963-69, were first separated in 1963, having been previously combined as the End (E) position. Punter (P) and Placekicker (PK) were first honored in 1970 and Kick Returner (KR) in 1978.

time in NFL history a team scored 30 or more points in a quarter. Detroit scored five touchdowns, including two passing, one rushing, one interception and one kickoff return. The teams also combined for 48 points, which is a record for combined fourth quarter points.

➤ On October 28, 2007, the Lions defeated the Bears 16-7 at Soldier Field. K Jason Hanson, connected on a 52-yarder, which was his career longest against the Bears on the road, and marked the longest in franchise history by a Lions kicker on the road vs. Chicago. It also marked the first 50-yard field goal on the road vs. the Bears by a Lions kicker in the series that dates back to 1930. Almost one year to the exact date (November 2, 2008), Hanson repeated this feat when he hit another 52-yarder vs. the Bears.

➤ In front of a Ford Field record crowd (67,861), Detroit defeated the Bears 24-13 on ESPN's Monday Night Football October 10, 2011. It was the Lions first appearance on MNF since 2001. The game was highlighted by a 73-yard touchdown bomb from QB Matthew Stafford to WR Calvin Johnson and the second-longest rush in team history by RB Jahvid Best (88-yards). The crowd was so electric that their noise played a large part in Chicago committing nine false start penalties throughout the game.

➤ With two receiving touchdowns in the Lions' 21-19 win at Chicago on November 10, 2013, WR Calvin Johnson recorded his 62nd and 63rd career touchdowns and set a new Lions career record for receiving touchdowns. He broke the record of 62 previously set by WR Herman Moore. Detroit's road victory marked the first win at Soldier Field since a 16-7 win on October 28, 2007.

➤ In the Lions 75th Thanksgiving game Detroit defeated the Chicago Bears 34-17. With 146 receiving yards against Chicago, WR Calvin Johnson surpassed 10,000 career yards and became the first player in Lions history with 10,000 yards. He accomplished this feat in 115 games and set a new NFL record for the fewest games to record 10,000 receiving yards.

➤ With a 20-14 win at Chicago (12/21/14), the Lions reached 11 wins on the season for the fourth time in franchise history and the first since 1991. Head Coach Jim Caldwell became the first Lions head coach in his first season with the club to win 11 games since Patsy Clark led the Portsmouth Spartans to an 11-3 record in 1931. By reaching 11 wins, Caldwell has tied Clark for the most wins by a head coach in his first year with the Lions.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions trail 36-69-2 in the series with the Vikings in a NFC North Division rivalry that dates back to a 37-10 Detroit victory November 19, 1961 at Minnesota.
- The Lions won the first five outings and nine of the first 14 games in the series; however, Minnesota then won 13 straight contests and 19 of the next 21.
- On two occasions, the Lions have accumulated 45 points in a single game against the Vikings. Detroit defeated Minnesota 45-14 December 9, 1978 and 45-7 December 12, 1981, with both games taking place at the Silverdome.
- RB Barry Sanders scored four touchdowns in the Lions' 34-14 win at Minnesota November 24, 1991. His four touchdowns established a new Lions' record for rushing touchdowns in a single game. His four touchdowns and 24-point performance also tied Lions' single-game marks.
- QB Scott Mitchell set a then-franchise single-game record for passing yards, breaking Bobby Layne's previous mark of 375, when he accumulated 410 yards vs. Minnesota in a memorable Thanksgiving Day clash November 23, 1995. Mitchell completed 30-of-45 passes and tossed four touchdowns. The wide receiver trio of Herman Moore, Brett Perriman and Johnnie Morton each reached the 100-yard receiving mark in the contest. The Lions won the game 44-38.
- In their final road game and the second-to-last game of the 1997 season, the Lions claimed a 14-13 victory over the Vikings at the Metrodome when QB Scott Mitchell tossed a 1-yard pass to WR Herman Moore in the endzone to claim the come-from-behind victory with 0:02 remaining to play. Mitchell engineered the game-winning 72-yard drive that began with 1:56 remaining to play and with only one timeout.
- With his opening kickoff return for a touchdown at Minnesota November 21, 2004, KR Eddie Drummond became the first player in NFL history to score three consecutive touchdowns for his team via punt and kickoff returns. He became only the second player in NFL history to return two kickoffs and two punts for touchdowns in a single season, the other being Dante Hall (Kansas City) in 2003.
- The Lions overcame a 20-0 halftime deficit and roared back to beat the Vikings, 26-23, in overtime on September 25, 2011. K Jason Hanson kicked a game-winning 32-yard field goal in the extra session for the victory.
- After trailing 20-0 at halftime at Minnesota September 25, 2011, the Lions mounted a comeback in the second half and claimed a 26-23 win in overtime. It was the Lions' first win at Minnesota since 1997. WR Calvin Johnson caught 2 touchdown passes for the third-straight game, and had a critical 40-yard over-the-shoulder grab in overtime to set up the team's game-winning field goal.
- With a 34-28 win vs. Minnesota December 11, 2011, the Lions captured its first season sweep of the Vikings since 1997 and kept their playoff hopes alive. Minnesota came back in the second half and had possession at the Lions 1-yard line with :09 left to play. LB DeAndre Levy raced in and forced a fumble on QB Joe Webb which caused a furious scramble for the ball. Eventually, DE Cliff Avril would recover it at the Vikings 43-yard line to seal the victory.
- In the 2013 season opener, RB Reggie Bush made his Lions debut in style as he helped the Lions to a 34-24 win over Minnesota and collected 90 yards rushing and 101 yards receiving. He became just the third player in Lions history with 90+ rushing yards and 100+ receiving yards (Billy Sims: 119 rush, 103 rec at LaRm 9/19/82; Barry Sanders: 90 rush, 135 rec at KC 10/14/90).
- In the Lions' 17-3 win at Minnesota (10/12/14), the Lions defense generated eight total sacks against the Vikings. Eight sacks marked the most in a game for the Lions since accumulating eight vs. Indianapolis November 23, 1997.
- With a 16-14 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the teams' most recent meeting (12/14/14), the Lions claimed their 10th victory in the season's first 14 games and improved to 10-4. The win marked the first time the Lions reached 10 wins in the first 14 games of the season since the Lions started 10-4 in 1991.

NFL Championship Game

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions-Giants series is one of four series (Ari, Chi and GB) in franchise history dating back to 1930. The teams hold a 20-20-1 record in the series starting with a 19-6 New York victory at Detroit November 5, 1930, when the team was located in Portsmouth.
- Detroit dominated the series initially, claiming eight of the first 12 contests.
- The Giants were the opposition in the Lions' first-ever game in Detroit. The Lions won the game 9-0 on September 23, 1934 at University of Detroit Stadium.
- The Lions and the Giants played the NFL's last scoreless 0-0 tie November 7, 1943 at Briggs Stadium.
- Detroit claimed its first NFL championship with a 26-7 win over the defending champion Giants on December 15, 1935. It is the only postseason meeting between the franchises.
- In the 2000 matchup, the Lions jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead en route to a 31-21 win at Giants Stadium. The first half was highlighted by two touchdown passes from QB Charlie Batch and a blocked punt by WR Larry Foster, which was the first by the Lions since S Bennie Blades blocked a punt December 13, 1992 vs. Cleveland.
- WR Calvin Johnson tied WR Herman Moore's franchise record of 107-consecutive games with a reception as he finished with seven catches for 164 yards and two touchdowns in the Lions' 35-14 victory over the Giants on ESPN's Monday Night Football Monday, September 8, 2014

Note: The Playoff Bowl was a postseason game for third place in the NFL from 1961-1970.

The Philadelphia Eagles and Pittsburgh Steelers merged for the 1943 season as a wartime emergency measure.

SERIES NOTES

➤ Detroit claimed victories in the first four games of the series, with each being a shutout. The Lions also won seven of the first nine meetings.

➤ The Lions' defense had three takeaways that helped Detroit's offense score three touchdowns and grab a commanding 24-0 halftime lead over the Eagles, before defeating Philadelphia 38-10 in the 1961 Playoff Bowl.

➤ The Lions' last tie in a regular season game was against the Eagles (23-23) November 4, 1984, the only tie in Silverdome history.

➤ In the Lions' first visit to Lincoln Financial Field (Sept. 23, 2007), QB Jon Kitna set a then-franchise record with 446 passing yards. Kitna connected with WR Roy Williams for a 91-yard TD, career highs for both players. With 204 receiving yards, Williams' career high was the then third-highest tally by a receiver in Lions history.

➤ QB Matthew Stafford then led his eighth-career game-winning drive as the Lions defeated the Eagles, 26-23 in an overtime win that was capped off by K. Jason Hanson's 45-yard game-winning field goal.

➤ With 49 receiving yards at Philadelphia on December 8, 2013, WR Calvin Johnson (9,184) broke the Lions franchise record for career receiving yards, surpassing WR Herman Moore (9,174).

➤ WR Jeremy Ross became the second player in Lions history to register a punt return touchdown (58 yards) and kickoff return touchdown (98 yards) in the same game at Philadelphia December 8, 2013. Ross joins RB Eddie Payton (vs. Minnesota December 17, 1977) as the only Lions players to accomplish this feat.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions have dominated the series against the Falcons, amassing a 23-12 record. The initial meeting took place at Tiger Stadium on September 25, 1966, Atlanta's inaugural season, with the Lions running away with a 28-10 win. The Lions are 14-5 at home (5-0 in Tiger Stadium; 8-3 in the Silverdome, 1-2 at Ford Field). Detroit has won 10 of the last 16 games in the series.

➤ The Lions' winning-percentage against the Falcons (.657) is their highest among all NFC opponents and their second highest among all NFL opponents (Cleveland, .789).

➤ The Lions and Falcons met in the regular season opener or closer seven times between 1985-94. The two teams opened or closed the season every year from 1985-89, and met in the regular season opener again in 1997.

➤ Detroit was victorious 13-10 over the Falcons on November 12, 2000 at the Pontiac Silverdome. The contest marked the first game and victory by Gary Moeller, who replaced Bobby Ross as head coach six days earlier.

➤ QB Matthew Stafford completed 37 passes against Atlanta December 22, 2012, which is the highest single-game tally in Lions history. The previous record of 36 completions was shared by QB Charlie Batch (at Ari, 11/8/01) and Stafford (at GB, 1/1/12).

➤ With 11 receptions for 225 yards against the Falcons on December 22, 2012, WR Calvin Johnson set a new NFL single-season record for receiving yards (1,892) by breaking Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice's 17-year old mark of 1,848 in 1995.

➤ In the team's most recent meeting (10/26/14), the Lions defeated the Falcons on a last-second field goal by K Matt Prater after trailing 21-0 in the first half. QB Matthew Stafford completed 24-of-47 passes for 325 yards and two touchdowns as he led the Lions to a 22-21 comeback win vs. Atlanta at Wembley Stadium in London, England. On his 59-yard touchdown pass to WR Golden Tate in the third quarter, Stafford set the franchise's all-time career passing touchdowns record with his 119th career touchdown pass.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Panthers faced off in their inaugural contest October 24, 1999. Detroit visited Carolina's Ericsson Stadium (renamed Bank of America Stadium) and handed the Panthers a 24-9 loss. The Panthers made five trips inside the Lions' five-yard line, and the Detroit defense forced two turnovers and yielded only three field goals.
- The contest was also the first of two straight games in 1999 where Detroit's defense did not yield a touchdown. That accomplishment marked the first time since 1983 that the Lions have kept opponents out of the end zone in back-to-back games (45-3 win vs. Pittsburgh November 24, 1983 and 13-2 win vs. Minnesota December 5, 1983).
- The Panthers evened the series record at 1-1 with a 31-7 home victory on September 15, 2002.
- Despite having both a fumble return and a punt return go for touchdowns, the Lions fell short at the eventual NFC Champion Panthers, 21-14, on December 14, 2003.
- LB Boss Bailey (34 yards) and S Kenoy Kennedy (64 yards) each returned interceptions back for touchdowns in the Lions last-minute 21-20 loss against Carolina at Ford Field on October 16, 2005. The last time the Lions had two interceptions for touchdowns in a game was at Seattle October 24, 1976 when Levi Johnson and Lem Barney both returned interceptions for touchdowns.
- After a sluggish start against Carolina on November 20, 2011, the Lions overcame a 17-point deficit to defeat the Panthers 49-35 behind QB Matthew Stafford's 5 touchdown passes, all to five different receivers. Just recently re-acquired, RB Kevin Smith rushed for a career-high 140 yards (201 total yards), along with 2 rushing and 1 receiving touchdowns.

Note: New Orleans split home games in 2005 between San Antonio and Baton Rouge due to Hurricane Katrina.

SERIES NOTES

➤ In the second game ever played at Ford Field, the Lions claimed a 26-21 win over New Orleans for the first win at the team's new downtown Detroit home.

➤ The first game played between the Lions and Saints was a 20-20 tie on November 24, 1968 in Detroit.

➤ The home team has generally had the upper hand in the series with Detroit compiling a 6-3-1 mark at home (1-1 at Ford Field) while New Orleans has managed a 6-3 record at home (5-2 in the Superdome).

➤ In one of the NFL's all-time amazing finishes, New Orleans K Tom Dempsey booted a 63-yard field goal as time expired to give the Saints a 19-17 victory in Tulane Stadium on November 8, 1970. Dempsey's mighty boot stood alone as the longest field goal in NFL history until Denver's Jason Elam tied the record on October 25, 1998 vs. Jacksonville.

➤ The Lions' Richard Johnson tallied 248 yards receiving (second-in team history) on eight receptions and earned NFC Player of the Week honors in Detroit's 21-14 win over the Saints on December 3, 1989.

➤ The Lions kicked off the 2000 season by defeating the Saints 14-10 at the Superdome. The Lions' only touchdown of the game was courtesy of Desmond Howard's franchise-record 95-yard punt return in the fourth quarter.

➤ K Jason Hanson nailed a 39-yard field goal as time expired in regulation that lifted the Lions to a 13-12 win over New Orleans in San Antonio December 14, 2005. The final drive was set up by a Roy Williams 40-yard grab on 4th-and-17. Williams had four catches for 111 yards against the Saints, all in the fourth quarter.

➤ In the Lions' first playoff game since 1999, QB Matthew Stafford set a single-game postseason franchise record with 380 yards passing, while WR Calvin Johnson posted franchise-bests in both receptions (12) and receiving yards (211) and tied a franchise record in receiving touchdowns (2) at New Orleans on January 7, 2012.

➤ The Lions beat the Saints 24-23 in a dramatic comeback win in Week 7 in 2014 (10/19) as Stafford connected with WR Corey Fuller for a five-yard TD pass following a late interception from S. Glover Quin for the go-ahead score.

Note: From 1930-33, the Lions were the Portsmouth (POR) Spartans. The Arizona Cardinals were located in Chicago from 1920-59 and in St. Louis from 1960-87 before moving to Phoenix, Ariz., in 1988. The team became the Arizona Cardinals in 1994.

The Chicago Cardinals and Pittsburgh Steelers merged for the 1944 season as a wartime emergency measure.

SERIES NOTES

➤ Detroit's series with the Cardinals is the oldest in the history of the Lions' franchise. The first game was played October 5, 1930 between the Portsmouth Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals, and it ended in a scoreless tie. That game is one of two scoreless ties (other was a 0-0 tie played September 19, 1940) played between the Lions and the Cardinals in their series. The Lions own a 31-24-5 advantage over the Cardinals.

➤ September 30, 1934 marked the first occasion that the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Cardinals matched up, and the Lions were victorious 6-0.

➤ In all, the Portsmouth Spartans were 2-2-2 vs. the Chicago Cardinals. Detroit registered a 19-9-3 mark against the Chicago Cardinals, a 5-4 record over the St. Louis Cardinals and have a 5-11 mark since the Cardinals moved to Phoenix.

- The Lions-Cardinals series is one of four series (Chicago, Green Bay and NYG) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.
- The teams met twice in 1993 with Detroit winning both contests, 26-20 at the Silverdome September 26 and 21-14 in Phoenix on December 12.
- Behind the record-setting performance by QB Charlie Batch at Arizona November 18, 2001 (a then franchise record 436 yards passing), the Lions' offense set several team records and collected some of the franchise's highest totals in other team offensive categories. The Lions' 62 pass attempts set the team's single-game record by surpassing the previous high of 57 attempts accomplished vs. Chicago (10/9/88). The team's 36 completions are better than the 33 completions tossed at Cleveland (9/28/86) and vs. Green Bay (10/25/87). The Lions' established a new record for net passing yards by airing out 429 yards, which is better than the previous high of 395 vs. Minnesota (11/23/95). And the 22 first downs gained on pass plays is a new team record, passing the old mark of 20 set vs. Minnesota (11/23/95).
- Detroit snapped a five-game losing streak in the series in the 2003 season opener with a 42-24 win over the Cardinals at Ford Field. The win was the first for former Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci. QB Joey Harrington threw for a career-high four touchdown passes in the game.
- In Detroit's 26-12 win over Arizona December 5, 2004, RB Kevin Jones ran for a career-high 196 yards on 26 carries, 105 of which came in the first half. It is the second-highest rushing total by a Lions rookie in team history, just one yard shy of Mel Farr's record of 197 yards on 24 carries at Minnesota (11/12/67).
- In the same 2004 contest, K Jason Hanson became the 20th player in NFL history to reach the 1,300-point plateau.
- In a 2009 meeting at Ford Field (12/20) S Louis Delmas returned an interception 101 yards for a touchdown which was the longest by a NFL rookie since 1926 (Columbus RB Pete Barnum, 103t at Canton 9/26/26). It also ranks as the longest by a Lions rookie in team history and is tied for the second-longest in franchise history.
- WR Calvin Johnson tied an NFL record for most-consecutive games with 100+ receiving yards with 7 in the teams' meeting at University of Phoenix Stadium (12/16/12). Johnson finished the game with 10 receptions for 121 yards.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The St. Louis Rams lead the Lions in the all-time series 42-39-1. In their series, the Rams have been located in three different cities, Cleveland (1937-45), Los Angeles (1946-94) and St. Louis (since 1995).

- Overall, Detroit was 8-7 vs. the Cleveland Rams, 27-32-1 vs. the Los Angeles Rams and are 4-3 vs. the St. Louis Rams.
- The inaugural game between the two teams was played September 10, 1937 when the Lions claimed a 28-0 shutout at Cleveland.
- After the Rams moved to Los Angeles, the clubs faced off twice each season from 1946-66. The Rams owned a slight edge, 21-20-1, in those games played.
- The Lions played the Rams on November 7, 1999 in the first meeting between the teams since the Rams moved from Los Angeles to St. Louis. Detroit won the affair 31-27 at the Silverdome in the final minute of the game when QB Gus Frerotte hit WR Johnnie Morton on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 28 seconds remaining to play for the game-winning score. On the final drive, Frerotte completed a 57-yard pass to WR Germane Crowell on a fourth-and-26 play to keep the drive alive.
- In the 2003 season finale, the Lions defeated the St. Louis Rams at Ford Field, 30-20, denying the Rams' bid for homefield advantage throughout the playoffs.
- In the Lions 44-6 win over St. Louis, October 10, 2010, KR Stefan Logan tied a team-record with a 105-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. QB Shaun Hill connected on 3 touchdown passes, CB Alphonso Smith returned a 42-yard interception for a touchdown and rookie DT Ndamukong Suh registered his first career interception on a tipped pass (20-yard return).
- In the teams' most recent meeting, the Lions orchestrated a 27-23 come-from-behind win over the Rams on September 9, 2012 in the team's season home opener. QB Matthew Stafford led the team on a nine-play, 80-yard drive with 1:55 left to play before finding RB Kevin Smith for a five-yard touchdown pass for the go-ahead score. The victory marked Stafford's seventh-career fourth-quarter game-winning drive when trailing or tied.

SERIES NOTES

- Aside from the NFL's recent expansion additions (Baltimore, Carolina, Houston and Jacksonville), the nine meetings between the Lions and Bills is the fewest number of games the Lions have played against any opponent.
- Two of the nine games have been played on Thanksgiving Day, with the Lions winning both outings. Detroit won the first Turkey Day game between the two clubs 27-14 November 25, 1976 and the second Thanksgiving Day affair 35-21 on November 24, 1994.
- In the 1976 meeting, Bills RB O.J. Simpson put on one of the greatest individual performances in pro football history as he rushed for a then-NFL record 273 yards. Simpson's historic Thanksgiving Day performance wasn't enough as the Lions prevailed 27-14.
- Bills late owner Ralph C. Wilson grew up in Detroit and at one time was a Lions' shareholder. He attended the University of Michigan law school, was the Chairman of Ralph C. Wilson Industries and resided in Grosse Pointe Shores, Mich.
- The Lions and Bills have met each other in the preseason each year since 2002, including the 2014 preseason on August 28 with the Lions winning 23-0. Overall, the teams have played 34 times in the preseason, with Detroit holding a 22-11-1 edge in the preseason series.

➤ The first two head coaches in Dolphins' history both had ties to Detroit. George Wilson coached the Dolphins from 1966-69. He was an assistant with the Lions from 1949-56 and was the Lions' head coach from 1957-64. Wilson was at the helm when the Lions won their last championship in 1957. Don Shula was the Dolphins' head coach from 1970-95, and was an assistant under Wilson with the Lions from 1960-62.

➤ The first three of Miami's triumphs over the Lions clinched AFC Eastern Division titles for the Dolphins (in 1973, 1979 and 1994).

➤ Detroit's win over Miami in 1985 was a historic one for the Lions. The win marked the first time in NFL history that a club had beaten the Super Bowl participants from the previous year in back-to-back weeks (the Lions had edged the Super Bowl XIX champion San Francisco 49ers 23-21 only seven days earlier).

➤ In their last trip to Miami in 2010, Detroit overcame a 27-17 fourth quarter deficit for a 34-27 victory, the Lions' first against the Dolphins in Miami. LB DeAndre Levy intercepted a pass and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown with 2:11 remaining to give Detroit the win.

➤ With a 20-16 comeback win over the Miami Dolphins in the teams' most recent meeting (11/9/14), the Lions improved to 7-2 on the season, matching the team's best nine-game start to the season since 1993 (7-2).

SERIES NOTES

➤ Detroit opened their series vs. the Patriots with a 34-7 victory on September 26, 1971 in Schaefer Stadium (renamed Foxboro Stadium). RB Steve Owens scored two touchdowns for the Lions, including a 74-yard touchdown catch from QB Greg Landry. The Lions also scored a defensive touchdown as LB Mike Lucci returned an interception 25 yards for a score.

➤ The fastest touchdown in Lions' history was scored against the Patriots. S Willie Clay (who later joined the Patriots as a free agent) recovered a New England fumble on the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown only 11 seconds into the game on September 12, 1993.

➤ In the 1993 matchup, Detroit edged New England 19-16 in overtime. The win gave the Lions their first 2-0 start since 1989, and was clinched on Jason Hanson's fourth field goal of the game, a 38-yarder.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions completed their first undefeated home season since 1962 with a 34-20 win over the Jets on December 8, 1991.

➤ Detroit claimed a memorable 13-10 decision over the Jets at the Silverdome on December 21, 1997 in a game in which the winner qualified for the playoffs and the loser was eliminated. RB Barry Sanders' 184 rushing yards in the contest made him only the third player in NFL history to eclipse the 2,000-yard mark in a season. The noise was so boisterous at the sold-out Silverdome near the end of the game that players reported the turf actually vibrating beneath their feet. Unfortunately, Lions LB Reggie Brown suffered a career-ending neck injury in the fourth quarter of the game.

➤ The Lions defeated the Jets 10-7 at the Meadowlands on December 17, 2000 in the Lions' final road game of the season. Detroit's lone touchdown was a fumble recovery in the endzone by G. Jeff Hartings.

➤ The Lions defeated the Jets 24-17 in their first appearance at Met Life Stadium on September 28, 2014.

SERIES NOTES

- The inaugural game between Detroit and Baltimore occurred December 27, 1998 at Ravens Stadium at Camden Yards (renamed M&T Bank Stadium) in Baltimore, with the Lions losing to the Ravens 19-10 in the '98 season finale.
- Detroit's first game with Baltimore ended up being RB Barry Sanders' final game in his 10-year career. He rushed 19 times for 41 yards, finishing nine yards (1,491) shy of collecting his fifth-straight 1,500-yard rushing season.
- In the Lions 35-17 win over Baltimore October 9, 2005, Detroit's rushing attack was stellar as the offense registered four rushing touchdowns, the most ever yielded by the Ravens defense. Among the rushing touchdowns were two scores by RB Kevin Jones and a 77-yard dash by RB Shawn Bryson.
- On ESPN's Monday Night Football vs. Baltimore on December 16, 2013, WR Calvin Johnson caught six passes for 98 yards and became the first player in NFL history to register 5,000 receiving yards over a three-year span (2011-13).

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Bengals met every year in the preseason from 1970-2001. The two teams have played a total of 35 preseason games, with the Bengals holding a slight edge in the series, 18-17.
- In the initial meeting of the series, the Lions jumped out to 31-0 halftime lead and never looked back as they trounced the Bengals 38-3 on September 27, 1970. The Detroit defense limited Cincinnati to six first downs and 140 yards on offense. RB Mel Farr led the Lions with 70 rushing yards on 13 carries.
- An eight-yard touchdown toss from QB Greg Landry to TE Charlie Sanders (now Lions' Assistant Director of Pro Personnel) with 29 seconds remaining in the game gave the Lions a 23-19 victory at Cincinnati in the 1974 matchup.
- In the Lions' November 22, 1992 game at Cincinnati, RB Barry Sanders passed RB Billy Sims to become Detroit's all-time leading rusher. He rushed 29 times for 151 yards and scored a touchdown as the Lions won 19-13.
- WR Calvin Johnson caught nine passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns in the 2013 matchup. His 155-yard outing was his 35th career 100-yard game, which set a new Lions career record for most 100-yard receiving games. Johnson broke the franchise record previously held by WR Herman Moore (34, 1991-2001) as the Lions fell 27-24 on a last-second field goal by Bengals K Mike Nugent.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions hold a 15-4 (.789) series lead over the Browns, dating back to the clubs' initial meeting in 1952. Detroit owns an 9-1 record in games played in Detroit.

➤ The Lions have defeated the Browns three of the four times that the two teams have met in the NFL championship game.

➤ The Lions' 59-14 win over the Browns in the 1957 NFL Championship Game represents the club's largest margin of victory (45) in a postseason game.

➤ The Lions' defense picked off four passes in Detroit's 17-16 victory over Cleveland in the inaugural Playoff Bowl on January 7, 1961.

➤ K Jason Hanson booted the longest field goal in franchise history against the Browns on October 8, 1995. Hanson drilled a 56-yard effort on the last play of the first half.

➤ QB Matthew Stafford led the Lions to a thrilling, come-from-behind 38-37 win over Cleveland (11/22/09) with one of the most remarkable performances by a rookie quarterback in NFL history. Stafford brought the team back from deficits three different times (21, 3 and 6 points) to either tie or take the lead. The win was Stafford's first career come-from-behind fourth-quarter win.

➤ After trailing 17-7 at halftime at Cleveland in the 2013 matchup (10/13), QB Matthew Stafford engineered five drives that resulted in three touchdowns and one field goal. In the fourth quarter, Stafford was 9-of-12 for 106 yards, threw for two touchdowns, tallied a 141.0 passer rating, and notched his 11th career game-winning drive. Rookie TE Joseph Fauria caught three touchdowns, setting a franchise single-game record for touchdown receptions by a tight end. His three touchdown grabs marked the first time a Lions tight end registered two or more in a game since TE David Sloan recorded two vs. Cincinnati October 28, 2001.

Note: The Playoff Bowl was a postseason game for third place in the NFL from 1961-1970.

The Pittsburgh Steelers merged with the Philadelphia Eagles for the 1943 season and the Chicago Cardinals for the 1944 season as a wartime emergency measure.

SERIES NOTES

- In the first meeting, the Lions beat the Steelers 40-7 behind a then-NFL record 426 yards rushing. Ernie Caddel scored three touchdowns in one of the more memorable games of the Lions' first season in Detroit.
- The Lions won the first four games of the series and were 12-4-1 through the first 17 contests.
- In 1952, Bob Hoernschmeyer ran for 107 yards and the Lions rolled up 321 yards rushing. Detroit's defense held the Steelers to minus-3 yards rushing in a 31-6 win at Pittsburgh.
- Detroit's defense had six sacks, two interceptions and blocked a field goal in the Lions' 17-10 in the 1962 Playoff Bowl. It was the Lions' third consecutive playoff bowl appearance, and also marked the last NFL game played by former Lions great Bobby Layne, who saw action at quarterback for the Steelers.
- Detroit's 45-3 win over the Steelers November 24, 1983 stands as the Lions' largest winning margin in the history of the team's Thanksgiving Day series (second-largest in team history).
- The Lions defeated Pittsburgh 19-16 in the second Thanksgiving Day (11/26/98) matchup between the two teams. Jason Hanson made his fourth field goal of the game (42-yarder) 2:52 into the extra period. The game marked the first Thanksgiving OT contest since 1980, and also was highlighted by a gutsy performance by Pittsburgh native, Charlie Batch, who completed 16-of-23 passes for 236 yards and a TD despite leaving the game for a time with a strained neck. The game will be remembered by a strange coin toss to begin the overtime period.
- With 362 yards at Pittsburgh on November 17, 2013, QB Matthew Stafford set a new franchise record for career passing yards with 16,005, breaking the previous record of 15,710 set by Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne, which stood for 55 seasons (1958). He became the first Lions player to reach 16,000 yards.

SERIES NOTES

- In the teams' first matchup at Ford Field on September 19, 2004, WR Eddie Drummond returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown, his longest career return and his first career kickoff return touchdown. Drummond's kickoff return was the eighth-longest in team history and the longest since CB Terry Fair returned a kickoff 105 yards vs. Tampa Bay on September 28, 1998.
- In the Lions' first trip to Houston's Reliant Stadium on November 19, 2008, WR Calvin Johnson caught two passes for 154 yards, including a career-long of 96 yards. With 154 yards on two receptions against the Texans, Johnson's receiving yards were the third-most for a player with two-or-fewer receptions in a single game in NFL history.
- In that same game, K Jason Hanson hit two field goals of 54-yards at Houston which were his 36th and 37th career field goals of 50+-yards. It was the third time in Hanson's career he hit two-or-more field goals of 50+-yards in a game.
- In the Lions' 73rd-annual Thanksgiving Day Classic on November 22, 2012, Detroit fell to the Texans 31-34 in a gripping overtime battle. QB Matthew Stafford threw for a season-high 441 yards and two touchdowns, while WRs Ryan Broyles and Calvin Johnson both racked up over 100 yards receiving with performances of 126 and 140 yards, respectively.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The clubs have met just seven times since the Colts moved to Indianapolis in 1984.

➤ On October 20, 1957, Bobby Layne threw a 29-yard TD pass to Howard "Hopalong" Cassidy with 46 seconds remaining in the game as Detroit overcame a 27-10 fourth quarter deficit to defeat the Colts 31-27 in one of the greatest comebacks in team history.

➤ In the 1997 meeting, a 32-10 Lions win at the Silverdome, K Jason Hanson became the franchise's first kicker to convert two 50-yard field goals (52, 55) in a game. RB Barry Sanders rushed for 216 yards, including an 80-yarder for a touchdown. It was Sanders' fourth 200-yard outing of his career.

➤ In Detroit's first visit to Indianapolis' Lucal Oil Stadium on December 14, 2008, K Jason Hanson connected on a 51-yard field goal. His 51-yarder set a new NFL record for 50-yard field goals in a career (41) and it tied Morten Andersen's NFL record for 50-yard field goals in a season (8). Hanson was the first player in NFL history to go 8-for-8 on 50-yard field goals in a single season.

➤ WR Calvin Johnson caught 13 passes for 171 yards and one touchdown in the 2012 meeting, tying an NFL record with five straight games of 125+ receiving yards (Lions WR Pat Studstill in 1966).

SERIES NOTES

➤ Detroit's 44-0 win over the Jaguars December 17, 1995 represents the largest victory margin in Lions' history and was the largest in the NFL in 1995. The game also marked the inaugural contest in the series between the Lions and the Jaguars.

➤ Lions KR Eddie Drummond had one of the finest performances by a returner in NFL history that ultimately forced the Lions' game at Jacksonville into overtime November 14, 2004. Drummond became the first player in NFL history to return two punts for touchdowns in the fourth quarter and the 11th (14th time) to return two punts for a touchdowns in a single game.

➤ Drummond's six punt returns against the Jaguars (11/14/04) for 199 yards (33.2 avg) is the third-best single-game total in NFL history and set a new Lions' franchise record for punt return yards in a game.

➤ Drummond's two punt returns for touchdowns (55 and 83 yards) at Jacksonville (11/14/04) marked the third time in Lions' history that a player recorded two punt return touchdowns in a game. CB Jack Christiansen accomplished the feat twice in 1951 (2 vs. LA 10/14/51 and 2 vs. GB 11/22/51).

➤ In the Lions' 31-14 win in the 2012 contest, RB Mikel Leshoure rushed his way into Lions history in as he carried the ball 16 times for 70 yards and three touchdowns. He became the first player in Lions history to rush for three touchdowns in the first half of a game. Leshoure also became the 10th player in Lions history with three rushing touchdowns in a game and it is the 16th time it has occurred in team history.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The Lions and Titans have hooked up 11 times in the regular season with Tennessee holding a 8-3 lead. The Lions were 2-3 in Houston and 1-2 in the Pontiac Silverdome.

➤ The Titans have won seven of the last nine contests.

➤ The teams first met October 17, 1971 in Houston, with the Lions coming away with a 31-7 win.

➤ The Titans, then the Oilers, put a damper on Detroit's 1992 Thanksgiving Day festivities with a come-from-behind 24-21 win over the Lions in the Silverdome on November 26. Titans RB Lorenzo White's 8-yard touchdown scamper with 1:17 remaining sealed the Titans' victory and ended Detroit's three-game Thanksgiving Day win streak.

➤ On December 10, 1995, QB Scott Mitchell set the then-franchise record for touchdown passes in a season. QB Bobby Layne had previously owned the record (26 in 1951). Mitchell completed the '95 season with 32 touchdown passes. Mitchell's record has since been broken by QB Matthew Stafford, who tossed 41 touchdown passes in 2011.

➤ In the 2012 meeting between the two teams, the Titans defeated the Lions 44-41 in an overtime thriller at LP Field. Lions QB Shaun Hill connected on a last-second 46-yard Hail Mary pass to WR Titus Young to send the game into overtime, but Detroit was unable to convert on a 4th-and-1 play in the extra stanza as the Titans went on to win the game.

SERIES NOTES

➤ Detroit posted a 24-20 win November 7, 1971 in the first meeting between the two teams. After a Detroit fumble and interception gave the Broncos a 10-0 halftime lead, the Lions roared back in the second half, scoring on their first two possessions, including a Greg Landry-to-Earl McCullough 76-yard bomb which gave the Lions the lead.

➤ Denver's 31-27 Thanksgiving Day win in 1974 was the last Lions game played at Tiger Stadium, with the club moving into the Pontiac Silverdome the next season.

➤ In 1999, the Lions hosted the Broncos on another holiday, Christmas Day, with the Broncos claiming a 17-7 victory at the Silverdome.

➤ In Denver's first regular season trip to Ford Field November 4, 2007, the Lions crushed the Broncos 44-7, which marked the largest margin of victory, 37 points, by the Lions since they shutout the Jacksonville Jaguars 44-0 December 17, 1995. The 44 points were also the most by the team since they put up 55 points vs. Chicago November 27, 1997. The 37-point difference by Denver was the largest margin in a loss by the Broncos since the team lost at New Orleans 42-0 November 20, 1988.

➤ Detroit scored the second-most points in a road game by the club in a 45-10 win at Denver on October 30, 2011. It was the largest margin of victory on the road for the Lions since 1970. CB Chris Houston registered the fourth-longest interception return TD in team history with a 100-yard return.

SERIES NOTES

- In the teams' first meeting, the Lions defeated Oakland 28-14 on Thanksgiving Day (11/26/70). The win was the second of five straight wins by the Lions that propelled them to their first playoff berth since 1957. RB Mel Farr rushed 21 times for 121 yards, rallying Detroit from a 14-0 deficit.
- The Lions shut out the defending Super Bowl champion Raiders 16-0 on September 27, 1981. Detroit was the first team to shut out the Raiders in 15 years, as the Lions limited Oakland to only 131 yards in total offense. The Lions collected six sacks and DB Jimmy Allen intercepted his fourth pass in as many games. RB Billy Sims earned his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game (133 yards) while RB Dexter Bussey passed RB Altie Taylor as the club's all-time leading rusher at the time.

- In a Monday Night Football meeting on December 10, 1990, there were five Heisman Trophy winners on the field (Det: Barry Sanders and Andre Ware, Oak: Marcus Allen, Tim Brown and Bo Jackson). Sanders finished the game with 176 yards rushing, while Jackson led the Raiders' with 129 yards on the ground.
- The Lions defeated the defending AFC Champion Oakland Raiders on November 2, 2003 at Ford Field, the Raiders' first trip to Detroit since 1990.
- DE Dewayne White was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance at Oakland (9/9/07) as he was a force in the fourth quarter when Detroit scored 16 unanswered points in the final 10:45 to come away with the victory. After the Lions took a 26-21 lead in the fourth quarter, White intercepted a pass on the ensuing Raiders drive and returned it 28 yards to set up a field goal to increase Detroit's lead to eight. On the first play of the next Oakland possession, White recorded a sack-fumble that was recovered by the Lions. The play helped set up a touchdown to seal the win.
- Trailing 27-14 with 7:47 left in the fourth quarter on December 18, 2011, the Lions completed the 13-point comeback and became the first team in NFL history to record four 13+-point comebacks in a season. The Lions game-winning drive started at the Raiders' 2-yard line with 2:14 left in the fourth quarter and was completed when QB Matthew Stafford hit WR Calvin Johnson on a 6-yard touchdown pass with 0:39 left to play.
- QB Matthew Stafford broke the Lions single-season touchdown record with his 33rd touchdown pass of the season at Oakland (12/18/11). He passed QB Scott Mitchell who threw for 32 in 1995. Stafford completed the 2011 season with 41 touchdown passes.

➤ Detroit recorded a 34-20 victory over the Chargers in the first meeting of the series on October 22, 1972. RB Mel Farr ran for two touchdowns and gained 96 yards on 22 carries, helping the Lions rack up 182 yards on the ground. QB Greg Landry also rushed for a touchdown and added 151 passing yards with a touchdown strike going to WR Larry Walton, who finished with seven catches for 101 yards.

➤ Detroit fell to the Chargers, 27-24, on September 20, 1984 at Jack Murphy Stadium (renamed Qualcomm Stadium). RB Billy Sims ran for two touchdowns and 119 yards, including an 81-yard touchdown scamper. His rating also set a franchise single-game record by a quarterback who attempted 35 passes.

HISTORY BOOK

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LIONS

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football. In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. The Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925, but also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then-10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for $7,952.08 by a group headed by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before crowds that averaged 16,000, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in only their second year (1935). Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddell, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era included Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, Byron "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964, when William Clay Ford became the sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three league championships. Under the direction of head coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952-53, defeating Cleveland on both occasions. Stars of those powerful teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker and Lou Creekmur, as well as Les Bingham, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have continued searching for the league's top spot. Such performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players such as Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have also taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the playoffs, (first postseason trip since '57) but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Mich., a suburb located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome was, at one time, the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seated over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in 1980-81, before qualifying in 1982 — the Lions' first playoff appearance since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss at San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over for Clark in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by his defensive coordinator Wayne Fontes in November 1988 after Rogers' teams had posted a combined 18-40 record. Fontes was officially named the franchise's 18th head coach on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise-record 12 regular season games. Riding a tide of emotion after guard Mike Uteley's paralyzing neck injury, Detroit defeated Dallas, 38-6, in the Lions' first Silverdome playoff contest. The victory gave the Lions a berth in the NFC Championship Game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

The Lions finished 10-6 in 1993 en route to capturing the NFC Central Division title, and earned a Wild Card playoff bid in 1994. The 1995 Lions featured the NFL's top-rated offense and won their final seven games to earn a third straight playoff berth. Herman Moore set an NFL record with 123 catches, and he and Brett Perriman became the first teammates to each total over 100 catches in the same season. The receiver tandem also set the NFL record for most receiving yards in a season. Quarterback Scott Mitchell set team passing records for yards (4,338), completions (346) and touchdowns (32).

In 1996, running back Barry Sanders captured his third NFL rushing title with a dramatic 175-yard outburst on the final Monday night of the season in San Francisco. The Lions, however, finished a disappointing 5-11 in '96 and following the season, Fontes was replaced as head coach by former San Diego Chargers' head coach, Bobby Ross. Fontes, who was the head coach for more than eight full seasons, finished his career as the team's all-time leader among head coaches in both wins (67) and games coached (138).

Ross was named the 19th head coach in team history January 13, 1997, and led the club back to the playoffs in his inaugural year at the helm with a 9-7 record. That season, Sanders, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in August 2004, continued his storybook career by becoming only the third player in league history to record 2,000 yards rushing in a single-season (2,053) and he reeled off an NFL record 14 consecutive 100-yard outings to finish the season.

The Lions closed out the 1990s reaching the playoffs for the sixth time in the 10-year span, which is a franchise record for playoff appearances during a decade. Detroit's playoff berth in 1999 marked the second time in Ross' first three years as head coach that he led the Lions into the postseason. The last Lions' head coach to accomplish that feat was Buddy Parker in 1952-53 during his second and third seasons at the helm.

After playing nine games into the 2000 season and compiling a 5-4 record, Ross abruptly resigned as head coach November 6 and was immediately replaced by Gary Moeller. Moeller guided the team to a 4-3 record over the last seven games, but narrowly missed the playoffs with a loss to the Chicago Bears in the season finale. Following the season, William Clay Ford named Matt Millen president and CEO, and he assumed control over team operations. On January 25, 2001 Gary Moeller was replaced as head coach by former San Francisco 49ers offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

On April 1, 2002, Detroit relocated the team's day-to-day operations into the new $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park. The new complex features outdoor and indoor practice fields, spacious training and meeting rooms and even the team's own broadcast studio.

A new era in Lions' history dawned as Ford Field, the team's $500 million downtown Detroit stadium, opened its doors in August 2002. The 65,000-seat stadium sparkled as its retro and innovative features glistened in the national spotlight as the premiere sports and entertainment complex. The Lions played the first game at Ford Field August 24, 2002 in a preseason tilt against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The inaugural regular season game was played between the Lions and the Green Bay Packers September 22, 2002.

In January 2003, Mornhinweg was fired after two seasons and former San Francisco 49ers Head Coach Steve Mariucci was tabbed the new Lions' head coach February 4.

For the first time since the Lions placed the Leaping Lion logo on the players' helmets in 1961, Detroit announced a major addition to the team's uniform on April 23, 2003. The Lions' classic uniform was enhanced with black trim on the logo, jerseys and pants, along with black shoes and black facemasks. In April 2005, the team introduced an alternate black jersey that would be worn through 2007.

On November 28, 2005, Steve Mariucci was relieved of his duties as head coach and defensive coordinator Dick Jauron was named interim head coach for the remaining five games.

In 2006, the Lions hired Rod Marinelli as the team's 24th head coach, a position he would hold through 2008.

In 2008, the Lions commemorated the franchise's 75th season in Detroit. Just a handful of NFL teams have been around as long as the Lions, a franchise that spans several generations of fans over the years. Detroit has called three different stadiums home with nearly 1,400 players seeing action on a given gameday and numerous coaches strolling the sideline. That history is rich with great players who have donned the uniform -- the Lions are one of only nine teams to have at least 18 Pro Football Hall of Fame players don their respective uniforms -- and with traditions like the "Honolulu Blue and Silver", the leaping Lion logo, the "Roaring 20's" and the team's annual Thanksgiving Tradition.

In 2009, for the first time in team history, the team entered the season with a new president, Tom Lewand, a new general manager, Martin Mayhew, and a new head coach, Jim Schwartz, hired January 16, 2009. In that same year, the Lions introduced a new logo and new brand, along with new team uniforms that features the first significant change to the Lions logo since it was introduced in 1961.

Schwartz labeled the 2011 season upon its conclusion as not a great year but an important one. Perhaps most notably, 2011 will be remembered for the "comeback" as the Lions returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1999 and set NFL records with four comeback wins of 13+ points, three comeback wins of 17+-points and two back-to-back 20+-point comeback wins. The Lions set several team records, including points (474) and yards (6,337), as well as individual records. Perhaps the two biggest stars leading the Lions in 2011 were QB Matthew Stafford, named AP Comeback Player of the Year, and All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson.

In 2012, the season was highlighted by Johnson's remarkable performance as he broke the NFL record for receiving yards in a single season. He finished with 122 receptions for 1,964 yards, breaking Jerry Rice's previous record of 1,848 yards in 1995. One season later in 2013, Stafford became the Lions all-time leader in career passing yards, breaking the previous record of 15,710 yards held by Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne that stood for 55 years. Stafford reached this feat in only 55 career games, while Layne accomplished his mark in 97 games. He became the first Lions QB to reach 17,000 career passing yards.

After five seasons with the team (2009-13), Schwartz was dismissed as head coach on December 30, 2013.

A new era for Lions football began January 14, 2014 with the introduction of Jim Caldwell as the team's new head coach. Caldwell arrived in Detroit after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the Super Bowl as a head coach and won Super Bowls with both the Colts and the Baltimore Ravens.

On March 9, 2014, Lions Owner and Chairman William Clay Ford passed away at the age of 88. Mr. Ford purchased the team January 10, 1964 and owned the team for 50 years. With his passing, ownership of the Lions organization was passed to his wife, Martha Firestone Ford, as she succeeded her late husband as Owner and Chair of the Board for the franchise.

Caldwell led the Lions to an 11-5 record the ensuing season and a berth in the NFC Wild Card game, becoming just the third coach in team history to lead the Lions to the playoffs in his first year with Detroit. He also became one of only four coaches to lead the Lions to 11+ wins in a season.

LIONS TALES

NAMING THE LIONS

When the team moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio in 1934, the organization settled on the name that would be uttered in Detroit and all around the league to this very day. After deciding to be known as the Lions, (staying consistent with the jungle cat image of the city's baseball team, the Tigers) two Lion cubs were given to the team by John Millen of the Detroit Zoo. Their names were "Grid" and "Iron." They accompanied the team to all of their games.

- The previous Detroit professional football teams were known as the Heralds, Panthers and the Wolverines.

HOMES OF THE DETROIT LIONS

In 2002, the Lions moved into their current home, Ford Field, in downtown Detroit. It marked the team's return to the city for the first time since 1974.

GRIDIRON HEROES

As the new pro football franchise took root in Detroit, owner G.A. Richards called for an original fight song to be written for the Lions. In the late 1930s, Wayne State University director of bands Graham T. Overgard, who was also the Lions' director of entertainment, penned the lyrics and music for "Gridiron Heroes—The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions."

- "Gridiron Heroes" has become one of the NFL's oldest and most popular songs today, and it is still played after each Lions' score.

PAPER LION

(Verse)
*Hail the colors Blue and Silver let them wave.
 Sing the song and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,
 Fighting for fame, winning the game.
 Dashing to victory as they go.*

(Chorus)
*Forward down the field,
 A charging team that will not yield.
 And when the Blue and Silver wave,
 Stand and cheer the brave.
 Rah, Rah, Rah!
 Go hard win the game.
 With honor you will keep your fame
 Down the field and gain,
 A Lion victory!*

Filming of the George Plimpton book, "Paper Lion," began in early 1968. Alan Alda starred as Plimpton, the Sports Illustrated feature writer who masqueraded as a quarterback with the Lions during training camp. The world premiere was held Thursday, Oct. 3, 1968, at the Adams Theatre. The film introduced Lauren Hutton to the silver screen, and featured actual members of the Detroit Lions, including coach Joe Schmidt, Alex Karras, John Gordy, Mike Lucci, Pat Studstill and Roger Brown.

- The 2003 season marked the 40th anniversary of George Plimpton's visit to Lions' training camp when he began writing the original script for his book. Last year was also the 35th anniversary of the "Paper Lion" movie release.
- The Detroit Lions reunited most of the cast in 2003 with a "Paper Lion" reunion that was held in September. Forty players, including Plimpton and Karras, rekindled friendships that formed during their experience together in the 1960s.
- The reunion turned out to be the final chapter of Plimpton's life as he passed away days later (September 26, 2003) at the age of 76.

IN MEMORIAM

Several members of the Detroit Lions served in World War II and made the ultimate sacrifice for their country in the fight against fascism.

- Lt. Charles Behan was killed by Japanese machine gun fire on Okinawa, May 18, 1945.
- Sgt. Alex Ketzko was killed in France with Patch's Seventh Army, Dec. 23, 1944.
- Lt. Chet Wetterlund was killed flying a Navy Hellcat on night patrol along the New Jersey coast, Sept. 5, 1944.

DECADE OF DOMINANCE

Only a handful of great teams over the years in the NFL can claim the title of dynasty. One of those great teams was the Detroit Lions in the 1950s when the franchise captured world championships three times in a six-year span. Winning three championships in six years has occurred only nine times by eight different teams in the history of the NFL.

- Detroit won back-to-back titles in 1952 and 1953 and became the third team since the beginning of NFL Championship games in 1933 to win championships in consecutive years.
- Overall since '33, back-to-back titles has occurred just 15 times. Including 1954, the Lions appeared in the NFL title game four times in a six-year period.

DEEP IN THE HEART OF TEXAS

The Detroit Lions have a deep history of outstanding players who have Texas roots. Five players on the Lions' All-Time Team played college football in the Lone Star State, including : QB Bobby Layne (Texas), S Yale Lary (Texas A&M), RB Doak Walker (Southern Methodist), G Harley Sewell (Texas) and DT Doug English (Texas). Layne, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

- Joining those stars on the franchise's All-Time Team are Texas prepsters CB Dick "Night Train" Lane (Austin), who is also a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and RB Billy Sims (Hooks).
- Layne, Lane, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pride of the Lions charter class.

Texas roots go back even deeper with Layne and Walker who grew up only a few blocks apart in Dallas, Texas, and were childhood friends. Both players started in the backfield at Highland Park High School in 1943. After stints in the military during World War II, Layne went to Texas University while Walker played for rival Southern Methodist University. The two were reunited when they joined the Lions in 1950.

- That connection has been revisited with the Lions drafting QB Matthew Stafford with the first overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft. Stafford also is from Highland Park, Texas and went to the same high school as Layne and Walker.
- He was joined in the first round of 2009 NFL Draft by another Texas prep star when the Lions drafted TE Brandon Pettigrew, who is from Tyler, Texas.

The Lions' current roster with connections to the LoneStar State:

- Texas A&M: LS Don Muhlbach (Lufkin)
- Texas A&M Commerce: WR Vernon Johnson (Fort Worth)
- Texas Tech: T LaAdrian Waddle (Columbus), DE Kerry Hyder (Austin), G/C Manny Ramirez (Houston)
- Texas: CB Quandre Diggs (Angleton)
- Southern Methodist: QB Garrett Gilbert (Austin)
- Houston: DE Phillip Hunt (Fort Worth)
- Others Texas prepsters (High School hometown): LB Travis Lewis (San Antonio), TE Brandon Pettigrew (Tyler), QB Matthew Stafford (Highland Park), C Travis Swanson (Kingwood)

THE ORIGINAL DETROIT LIONS OFFICES

Where were the first offices of the Detroit Lions located? Shortly after the club's move from Portsmouth, Ohio, Lions owner G.A. Richards, who also owned radio station WJR, set up Head Coach George "Potsy" Clark with a temporary office in room 2107 of the Fisher Building, in downtown Detroit.

- Since 2002, the Lions have operated out of the team's headquarters in Allen Park, with portions of the organization's business operations housed in the old Hudson's warehouse portion of Ford Field.

LIONS THANKSGIVING DAY TRADITION

It was, legend says, a typically colorful, probably chilly, November day in 1622 that Pilgrims and Native Americans celebrated the new world's bounty with a sumptuous feast.

They sat together at Plymouth Plantation (they spelled it Plimouth) in Massachusetts, gave thanks for the goodness set before them, then dined on pumpkin pie, sweet potatoes, maize, cranberry sauce, turkey and who knows what else.

Actually, fish was just as predominant a staple. And history books say pumpkin pie really debuted a year later. But regardless of the accuracy of the details, that's how Thanksgiving Day is seen by Americans -- except Detroiters.

They may have most of the same images as everyone else, but with a new twist that began in 1934.

Larry Paladino, Lions Pride, 1993

Four generations of Detroiters have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. The relationship between Detroit and Thanksgiving dates back to 1934 when owner G.A. Richards scheduled a holiday contest between his first-year Lions and the Chicago Bears. Some 80 years later, fans throughout the State of Michigan have transformed an annual holiday event into the single greatest tradition in the history of American professional team sports. Indeed, if football is America's passion, Thanksgiving football is Detroit's passion.

The game was the brainchild of Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions. Richards had purchased the team in 1934 and moved the club from Portsmouth, Ohio to the Motor City. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the baseball Tigers. Despite the fact the Lions had lost only one game prior to Thanksgiving in 1934, the season's largest crowd had been just 15,000.

The opponent in 1934 was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations) and additionally, an estimated 26,000 fans jammed into the University of Detroit Stadium while thousands more disappointed fans were turned away. The game was the NFL's first on a national broadcast.

In 2009, the Lions Thanksgiving Day game against

Green Bay marked the NFL's 75th anniversary of the first NFL national game broadcast. Graham McNamee was the announcer for NBC Radio for that historic game in 1934.

Despite two Ace Gutowsky touchdowns, the Bears won the inaugural game 19-16, but a classic was born. Since 1934, 74 games have been played with the Lions holding a 35-38-2 (.480) record in the series. And each game, in its own way, continues to bring back memories of Thanksgiving, not only to Lions fans, but to football fans across the nation.

The 2015 schedule features the Lions' 76th Thanksgiving Day Classic Thursday, November 26 at 12:30 p.m. ET vs. the Philadelphia Eagles. This year's game marks only the second all-time meeting between the Lions and Eagles on Thanksgiving since they first met in 1968. Detroit is 35-38-2 all-time on Thanksgiving Day, and Detroit has claimed wins on Thanksgiving in each of the past two seasons.

THANKSGIVING DAY FACTS

- The series began with a 19-16 loss to the Chicago Bears on November 29, 1934.
- A total of 75 games have been played with the Lions owning a 35-38-2 record in the annual holiday classic.
- More than 4 million fans have witnessed the Lions' 75 Thanksgiving Day games. The total attendance for the first 75 games is 4,243,190, an average of 56,575 fans per game.
- The Lions have played 24 different teams since the first Thanksgiving Day game. The most common opponent has been the Green Bay Packers, who the Lions played in 2013 for the 21st time in the Thanksgiving series. Their second most common opponent is the Chicago Bears (15 times).
- The two highest scoring games were a 44-40 Packers' win in 1986 and a 52-35 Detroit romp over Green Bay in 1951.
- The lowest scoring game was a 12-0 Philadelphia win in the 1968 "Mud Bowl."
- Eleven times in the series has a game been decided by three points or less, with the Lions' record standing at 4-5-2 in those meetings.
- The most lopsided game was a 45-3 Lions win over Pittsburgh in 1983.
- Seven shutouts have been recorded, but only one by the Lions (20-0 over the Bears in 1979).
- Three Thanksgiving Day games have gone into overtime. The first came in 1980 when the Bears' David Williams returned the opening kickoff of OT for a 95-yard touchdown. At the time, the game marked the shortest overtime game in NFL history (21 seconds). The second overtime game occurred in 1998 when the Lions defeated the Steelers 19-16 on a 42-yard Jason Hanson field goal in a game that will be remembered for the controversial coin toss before overtime began. The third occurred against the Houston Texans in 2012 in a game categorized by back-and-forth possessions and two missed field goals from each side, with Houston K Shayne Graham pulling out a 32-yarder for the win.

Note: Prior to 1972, a team's winning pct. was calculated using wins and losses, disregarding ties. (Ex: Detroit's record in the 1960s was 2-6-2 and their winning pct. was .250, two wins/two wins + six losses). Since 1972, ties have been calculated in winning pct. as a half-a-win.

UNIFORM HISTORY

1934-1947: The first uniform donned by the Detroit Lions included a blue jersey with gleaming silver numerals, silver pants and a silver helmet. The shoes were black. The shade of blue used for the jersey became known as 'Honolulu' blue.

1948: Alvin 'Bo' McMillin joined the Lions after having success as a college coach at Indiana University. Soon after his arrival, McMillin changed the colors of the Lions' uniforms with the new colors resembling those of his Hoosier teams. The organization retained Honolulu blue and silver as their official colors.

- The jersey was scarlet with white numbers and the pants were white with a thin black stripe between two thin scarlet stripes. The helmets were black. All the players wore leather helmets that season due to the league's ban on plastic helmets.
- The team had a second, all-black uniform, which would be worn only for certain important games that McMillin particularly wished to win. The jersey was black with white numbers and the pants were black with a thin scarlet stripe between two thin white stripes.
- The two uniform sets ended up being worn in four different combinations (scarlet/white; black/black; scarlet/black; black/white).

1949: The Lions returned to wearing their Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home but continued to wear combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue on the road. The team changed the color of their helmet to blue and some players went back to wearing plastic helmets after the NFL lifted the ban on plastic headgear from the previous season.

1950-55: After wearing five different combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue in the previous two seasons, the Lions went back to wearing the traditional Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home and on the road. For most of the 1950 season the team wore blue helmets but went back to wearing silver helmets for the 1951 season. During the early 50's, the NFL did not allow the Lions to wear silver helmets for night games because of their resemblance to the white ball under the night lights. They spray-painted their helmets blue for night games. Also, in 1951, the Lions wore the Detroit 250th Anniversary patch on their left sleeve. The patch was also worn by the Red Wings and Tigers.

1956: This was the first season that the Lions added their uniform numbers to the arm sleeves. Some players, like Lions Hall of Fame LT Lou Creekmur, were unhappy with the change – claiming that it made it harder to get away with holding.

1957-60: The Lions began wearing separate colored uniforms on the road on a permanent basis in 1957. The jersey was white with three blue stripes, one thick between two thin stripes, on the sleeves. The numbers were blue and the helmet and pants remained silver.

- They wore a white jersey on at least one other occasion in a previous season. On October 24, 1954, the Lions wore a similar white uniform in a game at San Francisco which they lost, 37-31, to the 49ers.

1961-67: In 1961, William Clay Ford's first season as the team's president, there were some significant uniform changes. The helmet remained silver with a grey facemask but now had the leaping-lion logo as well as two vertical blue stripes running from the back to the front. The pants also had two vertical blue stripes. Three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, were added to the arm sleeves of the home jersey. The away jersey remained the same.

- During the mid-60s, many players cut off part of the sleeves—giving appearance of only one or two stripes.

1968-69: 1968 was the first year the Lions had a white stripe between the two blue stripes on the helmet. The Lions and the rest of the league wore the NFL 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder in 1969.

1970-71: Last names were added to the back of the players' jerseys in silver lettering and white trim was added to the Leaping Lion logo on the helmet in 1970.

- For the second half of the 1971 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve on their home and away jerseys, in honor of wide receiver Chuck Hughes. Hughes died of a heart attack with 62 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter against the Chicago Bears on October 24, 1971.

1972: The Honolulu blue home jersey had white trim on the silver numerals and the white jerseys had silver trim on blue numerals for the first time in 1972. It was also the first year that there was a white, vertical stripe between the two blue stripes on the pants.

- The Lions tweaked the striping on the arm-sleeves for that season as well. The home jerseys had the one thick silver stripe between two thin white stripes and the away jersey had the one thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes.

1973-75: Detroit changed back to the three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, on the sleeves of the Honolulu blue home jersey except now they had white trim. The away white jersey had three blue stripes, one thick between two thin, and they had silver trim.

- For the 1974 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve of their home and away jerseys, in honor of Head Coach Don McCafferty who died of a heart attack during training camp.
- 1974 was also the season that the Lions started wearing white shoes.

1976-79: In 1976, the players' numbers were added to the back of the helmet.

1980-81: The Lions changed the dull silver stripes and trimming on their uniforms to a shimmering silver glitter. This only lasted two seasons because of complaints by other teams about the glare.

- 1982: The Lions changed the color of the numbers on their home jerseys, making them white with silver trim.
- 1983: The Lions wore a 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder. The Lions changed their facemask from silver/grey to Honolulu blue.
- 1991: The team wore a patch honoring Russ Thomas, a former player and General Manager for the Lions, who had recently passed away. For their final seven games (five regular season, two postseason), each player had a white circle decal with a blue number '60,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of RG Mike Uteley. Uteley suffered a spinal cord injury in a game against the Los Angeles Rams on November 17, 1991. The small NFL shield was added to the 'V' of the neck.
- 1992: They wore a black circle decal with a white number '65,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of LG Eric Andolsek, who was killed a few months prior to the season.
- 1993: The Lions wore a 60th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder.
- 1994: The Lions wore throwback jerseys for the 1994 season while the NFL was celebrating their 75th anniversary. This version of the uniform was intended to replicate the jersey worn by the Lions in 1935, which was the season that the team won their first world championship. Several players wore a black circle decal with a white number '50,' on the back right side of the helmet in honor of former Lions' LB Toby Caston.

- 1998: In what turned out to be Barry Sanders final season, the Lions changed their look on the road, wearing blue pants with a white stripe between two silver stripes.

1999: The Lions returned to wearing silver pants (with white stripe between two blue stripes) on the road.

2000-02: In 2000, the Lions moved the numbers that were on the sleeves up to the shoulders.

- The Lions wore a patch commemorating the first game at Ford Field September 22, 2002 against the Green Bay Packers.

2003: The home jersey has a thick silver stripe between two thin blue stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers are white with silver trim and outside black trim. The away jersey has a thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers on the away jersey are blue with silver trim and outside black trim.

- The helmet has one vertical white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes on the outside. The Leaping Lion has white trim and outside black trim and the facemask is black.
- The pants have one vertical thick white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes.

2005: The Lions introduced a new black alternate jersey featuring Honolulu Blue numbers with silver and white trim. The alternate jersey can be worn in as many as two regular season games and one preseason game.

2008: To commemorate the Detroit Lions 75th Season, the team wore a patch on the home and away jerseys. Additionally, the Lions wore the franchise's classic "throwback" uniform sans 75th Season patch for two games.

LIONS COMPREHENSIVE BRAND

On April 20, 2009, the Detroit Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that includes a new logo and new uniforms. As part of the new comprehensive brand, the Lions also introduced a new logotype and a new proprietary font, "NFL Lions." The new logotype is additional imagery that presents the Lions brand and will be featured in such prominent places as the endzone marking at Ford Field. The classic Honolulu blue, white and black colors remain unchanged.

HOME HONOLULU BLUE JERSEYS

- Numerals were customized specifically for the Lions uniform. They are Honolulu Blue, trimmed in silver and black.
- Above the new numerals is the new Lions logotype.
- On the collar, there are three trim lines of equal width, with two black trim lines outside a silver trim line.
- The sleeves are a new knit sleeve that features a wide silver trim, inside two smaller white trims and those all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim. The new material is improved and more flexible for players. The trim is part of the knit-sleeve material, which was changed from the previous silk-screened sleeve.
- Numerals remain on the shoulders but are now in the customized Lions jersey numerals.

- Players' nameplates on the back of the uniform have slightly modified block letters from the previous block letter names on the back of the uniform.

ROAD WHITE JERSEYS

- The road jerseys are the traditional "road whites," with blue numerals trimmed in silver and black.
- On the road jerseys, the collar is in the same black and silver trim pattern as the home uniforms.
- Sleeves are of the same new knit-sleeve material that are on the new home uniforms. The trim on the sleeves includes a wide Honolulu blue trim, inside two smaller silver trims and those are all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim.

HELMET

- The helmet now features the new logo on each side. It is the most significant change since the Lions logo was first placed on the team's helmet in 1961.
- The facemasks will remain black, but the new Lions logotype will be included on the front and the back of the helmet.
- At the top middle of the helmet, the striping pattern has been modified. Instead of a thick white stripe, two Honolulu blue stripes and a very thin black accent stripe, the helmet striping pattern is now a 5/8-inch Honolulu blue stripe, two 3/16-inch white stripes and two 3/16-inch black stripes. The striping pattern is the same striping pattern as the team's game pants.

PANTS AND GAME SOCKS

- The game pants will remain in the team's traditional silver. Like the striping pattern on the helmet, the pants vertical trim on the side of the legs are now a thick Honolulu blue stripe inside smaller white stripes, which are all inside black stripes that are the same width as the white stripes.
- The game socks, which are the same for the home and road uniforms, now have a 5/8-inch black stripe on the calf midline. The top half is Honolulu blue and the bottom half is white.

NIKE ELITE 51 UNIFORMS

2012: The NFL launched its new partnership with Nike in April 2012, and now the Lions uniform not only features the NIKE logo but also features the new Nike Elite 51 technology. The collar changed from black and silver piping to a solid blue.

Designed and engineered from the inside out, the new Nike Elite 51 uniform focuses on creating a system where the baselayer, padding, jersey and pant work in concert. New innovations include integrating Nike Flywire Technology into the neckline to reduce weight and provide lockdown fit over pads, increasing sleeve articulation for better range of motion, and integrating new four-way stretch fabrication to provide a streamlined shrink-wrap fit.

The Nike Elite 51 key features:

- LIGHTER - The Nike jersey and pant, wet or dry are on average 20% lighter
- NIKE FLYWIRE - Eliminates layers, reduces

- weight, and provides lockdown fit
  - ZONED MESH VENTILATION - Provides cooling zones for optimal thermoregulation
  - ZONED STRENGTH - High tenacity, stretch material, for light weight lockdown strength.
  - CUT FOR MOBILITY - Four-way stretch, hydrophobic materials enable range of motion wet or dry.
  - STRETCH TWILL NUMBERS - Four-way stretch even on numbering system
  - CUSTOMIZABLE BASELAYER PADDING - Nike Pro Hyperstrong baselayer with integrated lightweight, Deflex padding offering customizable flexible protection.
  - DEFLEX PADDING - Lightweight, flexible impact protection integrated into top "hit zone" areas
  - ALUMINUM D-RING BELT - Aircraft-grade aluminum D-ring belt reduces weight.
- The uniform also features the Nike Vapor Game Sock - a highly innovative sock designed specifically for football. The knee-high design combines compression, Nike Pro inspired cushioning, mesh venting and structure precisely where needed.

2014: Detroit Lions players wore a uniform patch during the 2014 season honoring late team owner William Clay Ford. Mr. Ford, who passed away March 9, purchased the Lions in November 1963 and officially became sole owner of the team January 10, 1964. The Lions introduced the patch beginning with the regular season opener (September 8) on Monday Night Football at Ford Field when Detroit defeated the New York Giants, 35-14..

FORD FIELD

Ford Field, home of the Detroit Lions, is one of the premiere sports and entertainment stadiums in the world, and that fact has been proven over and over again the past few years with such high-profile international events like Super Bowl XL.

Every event at Ford Field impacts the city of Detroit beyond the event itself inside the stadium. For example, by hosting the Super Bowl in Detroit, Ford Field stood as the centerpiece to an over $260 million economic impact on Metro Detroit.

And none of that would have been made possible without the vision and investment made by Lions Owner and Chairman William Clay Ford and the Ford family to not only construct a fine football stadium but an unrivaled sports and entertainment venue.

The team's entertainment division, DLI Entertainment, has promoted multiple large-scale shows and events at Ford Field, including seven consecutive sold-out Kenny Chesney concerts, Taylor Swift, the 2003 Basketbowl, 2008 NCAA Men's Basketball Regionals, 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four and the 2010 NCAA Men's Ice Hockey Frozen Four.

HOME FOR FOOTBALL

More than just a host site for the Super Bowl XL in 2006, few stadiums in the country hold a football schedule as aggressive as Ford Field. Football championships have been held at virtually every level ranging from youth football to the Super Bowl.

In 2015, the Quick Lane Bowl will be played Monday, December 28 at 5 p.m. ET and televised by ESPN2.

The Detroit Lions are now the only NFL team to own, host and operate a college football bowl game.

SUPER BOWL XL RECAP

former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. "The energy of the city and the revival of downtown Detroit are evident. Detroit was a wonderful host and the hospitality exceeded expectations.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four reached new heights in 2009 year as Ford Field served as the host site for one of the year's biggest sporting events. It capped off two years of setting new standards for the men's basketball championships, which included attendance records for the Final Four, National Championship and preliminary rounds.

2009 MEN'S NCAA FINAL FOUR

The 2009 Men's Basketball Final Four finalized a process that included six years of planning with the ultimate goal of delivering a Final Four like no other, and the NCAA, Ford Field and the city of Detroit did just that. The cornerstone to the championship at Ford Field was the center stadium court and seating configuration that included customized risers and, for the first time, designated student sections. On the court, the Final Four featured Michigan State defeating Connecticut, 82-73, and North Carolina defeating Villanova, 83-69 in the National Semifinals. In the National Championship, North Carolina ousted Michigan State, 89-72, to claim the NCAA title.

The weekend kicked off as the Final Four Friday drew a record crowd with nearly 30,000 in attendance. The games were expected to establish new records, and they delivered. The National Semifinals set an all-time record with 72,456 fans, and the National Championship upped that amount when it drew 72,992. Overall, 145,378 fans attended the Final Four, which also set a new record.

Although the primary focus of Final Four weekend was on the student athletes, the festivities surrounding the event livened up downtown Detroit. The ancillary events, like Hoops City, also drew record crowds over the five-day period. The NCAA and the Detroit Local Organizing Committee worked together on several community outreaches, which include a new legacy program. In the Detroit community, new early learning and literacy centers were opened. All of this was made possible by the vision of Ford Field and the NCAA to take this event to new levels. In the end, the Final Four generated an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit.

2008 MIDWEST REGIONALS

Midwest Regionals, which included the Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight rounds, were held March 28 and 30 in downtown Detroit for the first time as well, and both sessions set new preliminary rounds attendance records with 57,028 and 57,563 respectively for each session. A record of 114,591 was also established for both sessions. The excitement for the Midwest Regional was evident when 50,000 tickets were sold prior to the announcement of the 65-team tournament. Teams in the regional included Kansas (1 seed), Wisconsin (3), Davidson (10 seed) and Villanova (12 seed). Davidson upset Wisconsin, 73-56, in the first game and Kansas defeated Villanova, 72-57, in the second game. The regional title was claimed by Kansas with a win over Davidson, 59-57, in a game that came down to the final seconds. The previous attendance record for a single Regional game was 42,519. That mark was set at the Michigan State vs. Kentucky game in St. Louis' Trans World Dome in 1999.

NCAA HOCKEY

In 2010 Ford Field elevated collegiate hockey to an all-time level when it hosted the NCAA Men's 2010 Frozen Four. In an area that shows great support annually for college hockey and several Division I programs in the state of Michigan, Ford Field, which was the largest stadium ever to host the Frozen Four, proved the ideal venue to provide access to more fans of college hockey's version of the Final Four than ever before.

For both the National Semifinals and National Championship, the crowds that gathered set new NCAA records and new world records for an indoor hockey game. Overall, approximately 19,000 fans experienced the Frozen Four weekend than ever before. The first night of the Frozen Four, the National Semifinals, commenced as Ford field established a new attendance record of 34,954. Wisconsin defeated Rochester Institute of Technology 8-1 and Boston College upended Miami 7-1. In the National Championship game, Boston College claimed the NCAA title by shutting out Wisconsin in front of a record crowd of 37,592. In total, 72,546 fans watched the Frozen Four at Ford Field.

A LOOK AT THE PAST

On November 16, 1999, a new era in Detroit Lions' history began when the team officially launched the construction of its new downtown Detroit stadium. In 2002, the Lions and the city of Detroit unveiled one of the most impressive sports and entertainment venues ever built.

The Lions' downtown home is an incomparable 64,500-seat facility that includes a giant glass wall, revealing the picturesque Detroit skyline, and the old Hudson's Warehouse, originally built in 1920. The massive project encompasses a total of 1.85 million square feet of development.

The old Hudson's Warehouse, a major cornerstone of Ford Field, houses most of the stadium luxury seats, pressbox, restaurants, food courts, lounge areas, banquet facilities, entertainment venues and commercial space. The inclusion of the warehouse into the stadium project allows the sightlines at Ford Field to be among the very best in the NFL. In fact, even the locker room facilities have been built in the basement of the seven-story historic Detroit structure.

Detroit played its first home preseason game at Ford Field Saturday, August 24, 2003 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. Almost one month later, the Lions celebrated the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field Sunday, September 22 when they played host to their long-time divisional rival, the Green Bay Packers. The 2002 home opener marked the return of the Lions to downtown Detroit for the first time since 1974.

Following this grand opening event and the Lions' first regular season game, Ford Field's first concert was October headlined by the rock-and-roll legends, the Rolling Stones. At Super Bowl XL, the Rolling Stones returned to headline the NFL's halftime show.

Not only has Ford Field impressed the NFL owners, but it has also made an impact on the NCAA to name the stadium the site of the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. Ford Field also hosted Men's Basketball Midwest Regional Finals in 2008. In addition to the men's basketball championship, the NCAA returned in 2010 as Ford Field presented the Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

In April 2007, Ford Field expanded its portfolio when it hosted one of the biggest sports entertainment events of the year when the WWE's Wrestlemania extravaganza rolled into town. The event set a Ford Field record with 80,103 in attendance and it was the second-highest tally in the 23-year history of the event behind Wrestlemania III (93,173) held at the Pontiac Silverdome. Wrestlemania 23 at Ford Field included fans from 23 different countries, including all 50 states and nine Canadian provinces. Wrestlemania was the highest grossing one-day live event in WWE history, and holding the event at Ford Field helped pump an estimated $25 million into the local economy.

Besides events like the NCAA Final Four, Midwest Regionals and Frozen Four, Ford Field has also hosted prominent motorsports events, including the Monster Jam monster truck series for the past three years and the AMA Amp'd Mobile Supercross series.

Ford Field began as a construction phenomenon on multiple fronts, and is now a crowning jewel of new stadiums in the NFL and Detroit's downtown entertainment district. The stadium's impact will continue to grow as Ford Field plays host to football games, sports and entertainment events, tradeshows and concerts.
