SAM KATZ – PRESIDENT AND CEO

Samuel Michael Katz was born in Rehovot, Israel before moving to Winnipeg, Manitoba where he grew up in the city's North End. He graduated from the University of Manitoba with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics, and received a Distinguished Alumnus Award in 2003. Sam's first business venture was a retail clothing store.

Through entrepreneurial efforts—and in his role as President and CEO of Showtime Productions, Inc.—Katz has attracted many high-quality entertainment acts to the city. As President and CEO of the Winnipeg Goldeyes, Katz established Shaw Park, a key anchor in the renaissance of downtown Winnipeg. He was also a founder of the Winnipeg Goldeyes Field of Dreams Foundation, which has donated more than $2.2 Million to children's charities in Manitoba since 1995.

In 2002, Katz received the Queen's Golden Jubilee Medal, and in 2004, he was awarded the province's highest honour—The Order of Manitoba. Katz was inducted into the Manitoba Baseball Hall of Fame in 2014.

On June 22nd, 2004, Katz became the 42nd mayor in Winnipeg's history. He was re-elected in a landslide on October 25th, 2006, and once again on October 27th, 2010. Voters endorsed Katz's vision of Winnipeg as a vibrant city of opportunity.

Katz did not seek re-election in 2014, and now focuses on his family and other businesses.

Sam is married to Leah Pasuta, and is the proud father of daughters Ava Beaudry (born July 11th, 2001), Keira Olivia Maxwell (born March 31st, 2005), son Aidan Alexander Zev (born November 18th, 2012), and daughters Aria Zena Ann (born November 5th, 2015) and Alivia Carole Rae (born January 15th, 2018).

ANDREW COLLIER – GENERAL MANAGER

2019 marks Andrew Collier's 18th season as Winnipeg Goldeyes' general manager.

Following his first season in the position, Collier was recognized as the Northern League's 2002 Executive of the Year. Collier was again recognized by the Northern League in 2004, 2006, 2007, and 2009, and later received the same honour from the American Association in 2014. Collier was inducted into the Manitoba Baseball of Fame in 2018.

After graduating from the University of Manitoba with a Bachelor of Commerce, Collier joined the Goldeyes' ticket department during the team's inaugural season in 1994. Collier gradually climbed the front office ladder before reaching his current position in December 2001.

Andrew is also the treasurer and an original board member of the Winnipeg Goldeyes Field of Dreams Foundation, a charity established by the Goldeyes in 1995. The foundation has donated more than $2.2 Million to children's charities in Manitoba since its inception.

Andrew and his wife Carleigh reside in Winnipeg with their two children, Donovan and Olivia.

EYE WITNESS TESTIMONY

Collier is the only person to have been in attendance when the Goldeyes clinched all four of their league championships: September 9th, 1994 in Winnipeg, September 14th, 2012 at Wichita, September 19th, 2016 at Wichita, and September 20th, 2017 in Winnipeg.

WINNIPEG GOLDEYES FIELD OF DREAMS FOUNDATION

The Winnipeg Goldeyes Field of Dreams Foundation was founded in 1995 through the Winnipeg Goldeyes baseball club. The foundation's ongoing mission is to support children's charities within Manitoba. The Field of Dreams Foundation continues to increase the amount of funds raised each year, and has become a positive asset to the community and province.

In 2015, the Field of Dreams Foundation exceeded the $2 Million threshold for total donations since its inaugural year. Over the course of each baseball season, monies for the foundation are generated through initiatives such as the Fillmore Riley "Ks for Kids" program, the Catch and Release ticket program, the TCBY Radar Pitching Booth, the sale of 50/50 tickets at Goldeyes home games, the Manitoba Pork Piggy Bank, various memorabilia auctions, and the annual Field of Dreams Foundation golf tournament.

In addition to supporting children's charities in Manitoba, the Field of Dreams Foundation also grants three scholarships to Baseball Manitoba. The scholarships are awarded to members of Baseball Manitoba who are continuing their post-secondary education, while maintaining involvement in the sport.

APPLICATIONS FOR FUNDING

The Winnipeg Goldeyes Field of Dreams Foundation accepts funding requests each November. All proposals are reviewed by the following February. Registered children's charities in Manitoba should submit a written request through the online form available at www.goldeyes.com. For more information, call the Winnipeg Goldeyes' office at (204) 982-2273.

SHAW PARK

If you are one of the millions of baseball fans to have visited Shaw Park over the last two decades, then you already know what a gem the facility truly is. Since opening in 1999, the downtown home of the Winnipeg Goldeyes has not only received rave reviews as a great place to catch a baseball game, but has also played host to numerous other sporting events, functions, and concerts. Shaw Park hosted the baseball competition during the 1999 Pan American Games, and did the same for the 2017 Canada Summer Games.

From the delicious food at the multitude of concessions, to the chair-back seats offering scenic views of the field and beyond, Shaw Park provides all of the amenities one would expect from a state-of-the-art, first-class venue.

Shaw Park hosts a variety of food and beverage options for its patrons. From pizza, burgers, chicken wings, hot dogs, sushi, mini doughnuts, cupcakes, and fresh lemonade, visitors can indulge in just about anything at "Winnipeg's largest food court."

The Skysuite level at Shaw Park features 29 private luxury suites, as well as one double suite. Skysuites are available for purchase for an entire season or on a game-by-game basis. Each Skysuite is furnished with couches, bar stools, a television, and refrigerator. Skysuite patrons can order from any of the concessions on the concourse level via their in-suite server.

In 2015, Shaw Park introduced the Field Level Patio Deck, which offers the facility's most intimate view of a game. The Field Level patio is located down the right field line, underneath the Concourse Level patio. The Goldeyes introduced the "Craft Beer Corner" in 2018. Constructed down the left field line and perched across the back of sections "A" and "B," the Craft Beer Corner offers a variety of local beers, while providing fans a unique view of the playing field and rest of the stadium.

Located north of "The Forks," and just a popup away from the renowned intersection of Portage and Main, Shaw Park is easily accessible to both vehicles and pedestrians alike. The stadium's central location allows fans to arrive for the opening pitch and return home after the final out with little or no difficulty.

With Winnipeg's historic Exchange District, The Forks, and St. Boniface all within easy walking distance of Shaw Park, a trip downtown to see the Goldeyes doesn't have to begin or end with the game itself. Numerous restaurants, shops, and night clubs on both sides of the Red River (which flows just beyond the left field wall) await fans venturing into the area.

WINNIPEG STADIUM

For the first five years of the team's existence, the Winnipeg Goldeyes played out of the northwest corner of Winnipeg Stadium, a facility originally built for the Canadian Football League's (CFL) Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Known for its odd dimensions, the distance from home plate to the wall down the left field line measured just 300 feet. The right field line was only 345 feet away from home.

Despite the unorthodox ballpark, the Goldeyes went 251-167 (.600) during their time at Winnipeg Stadium, and won the Northern League championship on the stadium's grounds in 1994. In fact, the Goldeyes reached the postseason all five years in which they played at the ballpark affectionately referred to as "deformity field."

LOOKS CAN BE DECEIVING

Although Winnipeg Stadium's aesthetics may have had their shortcomings, nine of the 10 largest single-game crowds in Goldeyes' history took place at the team's initial home.

Nearly 15,000 fans were in attendance for the Goldeyes' official return on June 7th, 1994.

On August 28th, 1997, Winnipeg Stadium welcomed 22,081 fans as the Goldeyes set a world record for attendance at a minor league baseball game.

MANAGER AND COACHING STAFF

RICK FORNEY – FIELD MANAGER

Rick Forney helped the Goldeyes to four consecutive postseason appearances as a pitcher.

Rick Forney, born October 24th, 1971 in Annapolis, Maryland, enters his 14th season as Winnipeg Goldeyes' manager, and his 23rd overall within the organization. During his first 13 years as manager, Forney has guided Winnipeg to an overall record of 698-583 (.545), 10 winning seasons, nine playoff appearances, and three American Association championships (2012, 2016, 2017). Since Forney took over as manager in 2006, the Goldeyes have sold the contracts of 33 players to Major League organizations.

The Goldeyes are 442-357 since joining the American Association in 2011, and Forney's .553 winning percentage over that time period is the fourth highest in league history (there have been 51 total American Association managers through the 2018 season).

In 2016, Forney became the longest tenured manager in Goldeyes' history, and guided the team to its second American Association championship in five years. During an 11-1 win at Sioux City on June 7th, Forney managed his 1,000th Goldeyes game. Forney was once again at the helm when the Goldeyes claimed the 2017 championship. It marked just the second time that an American Association club won back-to-back titles, a feat that had not been accomplished in 10 years. Winnipeg's three championships currently stand as the most of any club since the American Association began play in 2006.

Forney achieved two managerial milestones during the 2015 season. On June 16th, Forney notched his 500th win as Goldeyes' skipper with an extra inning victory versus the St. Paul Saints. On August 11th, a ninth-inning, walk-off home run versus the Sioux Falls Canaries provided Forney with his 524th managerial win, surpassing his former manager and mentor Hal Lanier for the franchise record.

Forney enjoyed a 10-year playing career from 1991-2000 in which he was 89-56 (.614) with a 3.63 ERA in 204 professional games, 195 of them as a starting pitcher. Forney recorded 1,050 strikeouts in 1,221.0 innings, while walking just 363 and allowing only 102 home runs. From 1997-2000, Forney established himself as one of the greatest pitchers in Goldeyes' history, setting numerous major pitching records that stood for more than a decade.

Forney was drafted by his hometown Baltimore Orioles as a 26th-round pick in 1991 out of Anne Arundel Community College (Arnold, Maryland). Shortly after being drafted, Forney's professional career immediately took off with a 7-0 record and 2.19 ERA for the Orioles' Rookie level Gulf Coast League affiliate. The following season, Forney posted a 2.48 ERA in 123.1 innings for the Low-A Midwest League's Kane County Cougars. Forney continued to progress in 1993, winning 14 games with a 2.78 ERA for the High-A Carolina League's Frederick Keys. Forney spent the majority of the next two seasons pitching at the Double-A level with the Eastern League's Bowie Baysox, including a 13-win campaign in 1994 that saw Forney toss a perfect game. Forney reached the Triple-A level in 1995, making three starts for the International League's Rochester Red Wings.

The Double-A Eastern League's Bowie Baysox celebrate Rick Forney's perfect game on July 30th, 1994.

Forney first appeared in the independent ranks in 1996 for the Texas-Louisiana League's Lubbock Crickets. After going 9-7 for Lubbock, Forney signed with the Goldeyes in 1997 and compiled a 31-13 record for Winnipeg over the next three years. Forney earned a second chance with a Major League organization in 1999 when his contract was purchased by the Atlanta Braves. Forney was assigned to Double-A Greenville (Southern League) where he pitched to a 2.99 ERA in 12 starts.

Forney returned to the Goldeyes in 2000 in a dual role as player/pitching coach, and transitioned into a full-time pitching coach midway through the year. In six years as Goldeyes' pitching coach (2000-05), Forney saw 12 of his pitchers signed by Major League clubs.

Rick Forney, pictured with general manager Andrew Collier (left) and owner Sam Katz (right), introduced as the third manager in Goldeyes' history during the fall of 2005.

During his four years as a Goldeyes pitcher, Forney established club records for wins (33—surpassed by three others), strikeouts (313—surpassed by four others), games started (55—surpassed by four others), and innings pitched (367.0—surpassed by five others). Three times, Forney was named to Baseball America's All-Independent Team and was selected to two Northern League All-Star Games.

Rick resides in Walkersville, Maryland with his wife Erika and their four children; David, Chris, Rebekah, and Erik.

TOM VAETH – HITTING COACH

Tom Vaeth, born July 13th, 1972 in Baltimore, Maryland, enters his 17th season in a coaching role with the Winnipeg Goldeyes.

In addition to serving as the team's hitting coach, Vaeth has held various other roles on the staff, including first base coach, third base coach, batting practice pitcher, and bullpen catcher. Additionally, Vaeth plays a significant role each off-season assisting Rick Forney with player procurement.

Since Vaeth joined the staff in 2003, the Goldeyes' offence has been among the most consistent in both the Northern League and American Association. Over the last 16 seasons, the Goldeyes have finished in the top-five in their league in batting average 13 times, and in the top-five in runs scored on 11 occasions. The Goldeyes have also sold the contracts of 19 position players to Major League organizations during this period.

In 2017, the Goldeyes enjoyed one of their finest offensive seasons on the way to winning a second consecutive American Association championship. Vaeth's group led the league with a collective .296 batting average and ranked second in runs scored (607). Outfielder Josh Romanski and third baseman Wes Darvill represented the club at the American Association/Can-Am League All-Star Game in July, and were joined by designated hitter David Bergin and shortstop Andrew Sohn on the league's Postseason All-Star team. First baseman Shawn Pleffner became the Goldeyes' first batting champion in seven years after pacing the league with a .340 average. For the first time in team history, four players reached 70-plus RBI, including Romanski who was voted the American Association's Player of the Year.

One year prior, the Goldeyes led the American Association with 594 runs scored while shattering the league's single-season record with 462 walks (the previous record was 438). Two Goldeyes' hitters were named to the American Association's Postseason All-Star Team, including outfielder David Rohm who was MVP of the All-Star Game in August. During the off-season, Romanski's contract was purchased by the Minnesota Twins.

In 2015, three Goldeyes hitters were voted American Association Postseason All-Stars. Third baseman Josh Mazzola paced the league with 20 home runs, first baseman Casey Haerther ranked third in the circuit with 79 RBI, and outfielder Adam Heisler finished third in the American Association with 44 stolen bases.

During the Goldeyes' franchise-record, 63-win season in 2014, Vaeth helped Haerther and shortstop Tyler Kuhn each hit .360, tying for second in the American Association. The mark is also tied for the third-best single-season batting average in Goldeyes' history. Following the season, Haerther's contract was purchased by the Baltimore Orioles.

When the Goldeyes won the 2012 American Association championship, outfielder Chris Roberson earned All-Star honours, hitting .317 with 21 doubles, 11 home runs, 59 RBI, and 36 stolen bases.

The Goldeyes won 60 games (a franchise record at the time) in 2011, and were led offensively by five players who reached double digit home runs. Second baseman Price Kendall hit .324 and stole 22 bases en route to being voted the American Association's Rookie of the Year.

Kevin West remains one of the most dangerous hitters in Goldeyes' history. His three-year run with the team ended with a Northern League batting title in 2010 (.337 batting average). West was the first Goldeye to achieve the honour since Brian Duva in 1998. In fact, the Goldeyes had three players contend for the batting crown in 2010 with Juan Diaz finishing second (.335) and Wes Long placing sixth (.323).

Diaz cracked 29 home runs for the Goldeyes in 2009, which remains tied for the franchise single-season record to this day.

Tom Vaeth presents Josh Mazzola with a commemorative bat in 2015 after Mazzola set the Goldeyes' all-time home run record.

Outfielder Fehlandt Lentini is independent baseball's all-time stolen base leader (478 stolen bases through the 2018 season), and had three consecutive years of 37 or more steals in a Goldeyes' uniform from 2006-08. Lentini added 20 more steals when he returned to Winnipeg in 2013.

Brent Metheny had three all-star-calibre seasons for the Goldeyes from 2007-09. During the 2008 season, Metheny hit .356 with 10 home runs, 57 RBI, and tied a franchise record with a 27-game hitting streak.

Catcher Luis Alen first joined the Goldeyes in 2007, and hit .333 before having his contract purchased by the New York Mets. Alen came back to Winnipeg in 2010, and went on to set franchise career records in base hits, doubles, and RBI. Remarkably, Alen managed more walks than strikeouts in all seven of his seasons as a Goldeye.

Vaeth also coached Harry Berrios—one of the team's greatest all-around hitters—during four of Berrios' five years with the Goldeyes. Berrios hit .312 or better every year from 2003-06 with Vaeth on the staff.

One of Vaeth's earliest success stories was third baseman Pat Scalabrini. After hitting .300 in 2003, the current manager of the Can-Am League's Quebec Capitales batted .325 with 20 home runs for the Goldeyes in 2004, which earned Scalabrini a chance in the Orioles' farm system.

Prior to arriving in Winnipeg, Vaeth worked five seasons in the Baltimore Orioles' organization, and spent four years as a scout in the Greater Chesapeake Bay Area (with the Florida Marlins from 1994-96 and with the San Diego Padres from 1996-98). Vaeth also coached at the collegiate level, beginning at Dundalk Community College in 1993, and ending in 1998 with NCAA Division-I Towson University.

Over the past five seasons, Vaeth has worked with former Major League outfielder Reggie Abercrombie who has established American Association records for home runs (2016), RBI (2017), and base hits (2018), all while wearing a Goldeyes' uniform.

After residing in Lorette, Manitoba for many years with his wife Shelley and their two sons Kaynen and Boedey, the Vaeth family recently moved to Ottawa, Ontario.

WINNIPEG GOLDEYES SUPPORT STAFF

CRISTIAN MOLINA – ATHLETIC THERAPIST/STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Molina joins the Goldeyes for his first season as head Athletic Therapist and Strength and Conditioning coach. Molina has a diverse athletic background, and has served on the training staffs for both the Winnipeg Jets and the University of Manitoba. Molina earned his degree in Kinesiology and Athletic Therapy from the University of Manitoba in 2017 where he was both class Valedictorian and Graduate of the Year. The Winnipeg native is currently in the process of completing his Masters in Biomechanics. Molina owns Athlitis Therapeutic Centre in Winnipeg, which specializes in sports rehabilitation, along with power and speed training. Molina resides with his family in West St. Paul, Manitoba where he serves as a volunteer firefighter.

JAMIE SAMSON – CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Samson enters his 18th season as a member of the Goldeyes' clubhouse staff. After starting out as a bat boy in 2001, Samson was promoted to Assistant Clubhouse Manager in 2005 before taking over his current position as Clubhouse/Equipment Manager midway through 2007. The St. Andrews, Manitoba native is responsible for all gameday player services, including equipment dispersal, meal preparation, and uniforms. In 2015, Samson worked his 1,000th game as a member of the Goldeyes' clubhouse staff. Samson graduated from Selkirk Comprehensive High School, and holds a Business Administration degree from the University of Winnipeg.

COLIN SABOURIN – ASSISTANT CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Sabourin enters his first year on the Goldeyes' clubhouse staff, and will focus primarily on the needs of the visiting team and umpires.

RUSS HORBAL – PHYSIOTHERAPIST

Russ has served as a rehab consultant and therapist for the Winnipeg Jets, Winnipeg Blue Bombers, and numerous other amateur sports organizations. Horbal coordinated the medical therapy services for many local sporting events, including the World Junior Men's and Women's Hockey Championships and the 1999 Pan Am Games. Horbal has been part of the Canadian Medical Team for four World Student Games and three Olympic Games.

DR. HEIN PETERS – TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Peters has been a full-time Sport Medicine Physician at the Pan Am Clinic since 2004. Dr. Peters obtained his medical degree from the University of Pretoria, South Africa in 1985, and later obtained his Certification in Family Medicine from the College of Family Physicians of Canada, as well as a diploma in Sport Medicine from the Canadian Academy of Sport Medicine in 2003.

DR. SHAWN VERITY – TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Verity serves as a Sport Medicine Physician at the Pan Am Clinic in Winnipeg. After earning a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Winnipeg in 2001, Dr. Verity graduated from the University of Manitoba in 2006 with his Doctorate in Medicine. Dr. Verity later completed programs at the University of Manitoba in both Family and Sports Medicine, while also serving on the University's Faculty of Medicine as a lecturer.

DR. GLENN BAILEY – TEAM CHIROPRACTOR

A native of Pinawa, Manitoba, Dr. Bailey graduated from the prestigious Palmer College of Chiropractic in 1993, and also holds a four-year degree in Science from the University of Winnipeg. Dr. Bailey is also the only certified animal chiropractor in the province, and is a member of the Canadian Chiropractic Association, International Chiropractic Association, the Manitoba Chiropractic Association, and the American Veterinarian Chiropractic Association.

DR. BRIAN BOOK – TEAM OPTOMETRIST

Dr. Book graduated from the University of Waterloo as an optometrist in 1977 and is the founder of Book Optical and Book Vision Care, which has provided high-quality eye care and eyewear to Manitobans for nearly 40 years. Dr. Book was a pioneer in the early days of contact lenses, and has participated as a clinical investigator, helping contribute to the design and improvement of contact lenses and their fitting techniques.

TRAINING GROUNDS

Independent baseball is well-known as a great vehicle for players hoping for a second (or first) chance with a Major League organization. However, the opportunities for advancement extend well outside the foul lines.

Former Athletic Therapist Brad Shaw has been an integral part of the National Hockey League's (NHL) Winnipeg Jets' training staff since the franchise returned to the city in 2011.

Shane Zdebiak is another former Goldeyes' Athletic Therapist who is rising up the industry ladder. After serving three years in the Seattle Mariners' organization (MLB), "Dr. Zed" is now the lead trainer for the California League's Stockton Ports, the High-A affiliate of the Oakland Athletics.

Stephen Wady, the Goldeyes' Athletic Therapist from 2014-15, is currently with the Canadian Football League's (CFL) Calgary Stampeders, and was a member of their Grey Cup-winning staff in 2018.

Kyle Vouriot, the Goldeyes' Athletic Therapist in 2016, is now with the American Hockey League's (AHL) Manitoba Moose.

Most recently, Derek McLennan, who served the Goldeyes from 2016-18, will work with the expansion Valour FC soccer club in Winnipeg.

WINNIPEG GOLDEYES RECORDS

Reggie Abercrombie celebrates after setting the American Association's all-time home run record on July 14th, 2016. Through the 2018 season, Abercrombie still holds the record with 130 American Association home runs.

FAMILIAR VOICE

Brandon native Ron Arnst has served as the Goldeyes' PA announcer since their inaugural season in 1994. Arnst is known for his trademark introduction of the team when they take the field at the beginning of each home game, elongating the letter "O" in the word "Goldeyes."

Arnst is also known for encouraging applause from the crowd when the Goldeyes' make an outstanding defensive play by announcing the player's name while the home team is in the field—something very seldom heard at a baseball game.

NEW LEAGUE, NEW HEIGHTS

After 17 seasons in the Northern League, the Winnipeg Goldeyes became members of the American Association in 2011.

Since the move, the Goldeyes have twice set a franchise record for single-season wins. The Goldeyes won 60 games during their first American Association campaign in 2011, and topped that with 63 victories in 2014. In both years, the Goldeyes also captured the North Division pennant.

TWO SAVES IN ONE DAY

On June 21st, 2008 vs. Fargo-Moorhead, Goldeyes closer Cristian Mendoza accomplished the rare feat of saving both games of a double header. Mendoza preserved a 5-2 win for Bear Bay in the opener and a 4-2 victory for Dustin Pease later that night.

TWO WINS IN ONE DAY

On May 24th, 2015 at Grand Prairie, right-handed pitcher Tony Smith earned the win in both ends of a double header. In the opener, Smith pitched a scoreless bottom of the eighth as the Goldeyes won 4-2 in nine innings. In the nightcap, Smith pitched scoreless baseball over the final one and two-thirds innings in the Goldeyes' 4-3 win in 11 frames. As is common practice for double headers, each game was only scheduled for seven innings.

IRON MAN

In 2014, shortstop Tyler Kuhn batted .360 (tied for second in the American Association), and was both a mid-season and postseason all-star. Perhaps the most impressive achievement for Kuhn that year was the fact that he played every inning of every game while manning one of the game's most physically demanding positions.

STRONG ARMED

Josh Mazzola is the only Goldeye to lead the team in outfield assists in three different seasons, and did so consecutively from 2012-14. Brent Watts holds the club record with 14 outfield assists in 1996. Chris Kokinda is the last Goldeyes' outfielder to reach double digits, throwing out 11 runners in 1999.

TWO-TIME CHAMPIONS

Eight players were members of the Winnipeg Goldeyes' back-to-back championship teams in 2016 and 2017. They are Reggie Abercrombie, Victor Capellan, Edwin Carl, Wes Darvill, Kevin McGovern, Mikey O'Brien, David Rohm, and Josh Romanski. These are the only players in Goldeyes' history to win more than one championship with the team.

WINNIPEG GOLDEYES TRIPLE PLAY

On September 4th, 2009, the Winnipeg Goldeyes turned the first triple play in franchise history during Game Three of the Northern League Semi-Final against the Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks.

With runners on first and second and no outs, Goldeyes' third baseman Vince Harrison fielded Ruben Salazar's groundball. Harrison tagged Mike Coles running from second to third for the first out, before throwing the ball to second baseman Josh Asanovich, who covered the bag to force out Nic Jackson. Asanovich completed the play with a relay to first baseman Cody Ehlers that eliminated Salazar. To this day, it remains the only triple play turned by the Goldeyes' defence.

ROSARIO'S RARE FEATS

Right-handed pitcher Charle Rosario combined for 25 starts in 2017 between the Goldeyes and Gary SouthShore RailCats. The 25 starts are tied for the American Association single-season record. Rosario also became just the sixth pitcher in league history to win 10-plus games in three different years.

MCGOVERN IN RARE COMPANY

In addition to his three seasons of 100-plus strikeouts for the Goldeyes (2016-18), left-hander Kevin McGovern collected 103 punch outs for the Lincoln Saltdogs in 2015. McGovern joins former Goldeye Ben Moore as the only pitchers in American Association history with four seasons of 100-plus strikeouts.

COMBINED NO-HITTER – JUNE 4th, 2014 at SIOUX FALLS

On June 4th, 2014, the Winnipeg Goldeyes combined on the fifth no-hitter in American Association history. In the second game of a double header, the Goldeyes utilized five relievers to accomplish the feat. Gabe Aguilar, Kaohi Downing, Taylor Sewitt, Brendan Lafferty, and Kyle Bellamy each worked in the game. It was the first no-hitter in Goldeyes' history. Bellamy struck out Canaries' right fielder Chris Valencia for the final out in what was a 3-0 victory. Here is a full account of that historic night:

GOLDEYES ALL-TIME OPENING NIGHT STARTS

PLAYER	NO.	YEARS
Max Poulin	7	2002-08
Luis Alen	6	2010-15
Brian Duva	5	1995, 1997-2000
Harry Berrios	5	2002-06
Josh Mazzola	5	2012-15, 2018
Chris Kokinda	4	1996-99
Fehlandt Lentini	4	2006-08, 2013
Reggie Abercrombie	4	2014, 2016-18

Rafael Gross, Glenn Bott, and Mikey O'Brien are the only Goldeyes' pitchers to start multiple Opening Nights. O'Brien won both of his starts, including a rain-shortened complete game on May 19th, 2016 at Joplin. It is the only Opening Night complete game in team history. Bott, who had been living in Winnipeg since retiring from baseball, tragically passed away in September of 2018.

DEAL NEVER MADE

The Goldeyes have made at least one trade with every franchise in American Association history (past or present), with the exception of the now-defunct Wichita Wingnuts. At the conclusion of the 2018 season, the Wingnuts were ultimately left without a home when the City of Wichita announced plans to demolish Lawrence-Dumont Stadium. A new ballpark will house a Triple-A club in 2020. Wichita's all-time .599 winning percentage was the best of any team in professional baseball from 2008-18. All three of Winnipeg's American Association championships came against the Wingnuts (2012, 2016, and 2018).

SPARKS vs. SCHMIDT

Game 3 of this series is considered one of the greatest games in Goldeyes' history, and often referred to as the "Sparks/Schmidt" game. Trailing Fargo-Moorhead 0-2 in the best-of-five series, the Goldeyes pulled out a 13-inning, 6-5 win to keep their season alive.

The game lasted four hours and 25 minutes, and is most remembered for Jeff Sparks (Winnipeg) and George Schmidt (Fargo-Moorhead) each turning in heroic relief performances. Schmidt took over in the 7th inning and eventually absorbed the loss, despite allowing just one earned run over 6.1 relief innings while striking out eight. Sparks entered the game midway through the top of the eighth, and struck out 12 in 5.1 innings to earn the win. The win was also the last for the Goldeyes in their original home park.

Although the RedHawks clinched the series the following night, the game is fondly remembered among Goldeyes fans.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION CLASSIFICATION LEVELS

The American Association defines one YEAR OF SERVICE as at least 75 at bats or 30.0 innings pitched in a National Association or independent league or leagues in any one season prior to the present calendar year.

For independent, short-season, or rookie level service, the first two years equals one National Association year. For foreign players, the classification will be determined by the league office.

ROOKIE: a player with less than one year of service.

LS-1: a player with less than two years of service.

LS-2: a player with less than three years of service.

LS-3: a player with less than four years of service.

LS-4: a player with less than five years of service.

LS-5: a player with less than six years of service.

VETERAN: a player with six or more years of service.

If a player has six or more years of service, but has not reached the age of 26 by September 1st of that season, he will be considered an LS-4. If a player with six or more years of service has not reached the age of 24 by September 1st of that season, he will be considered an LS-3.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION ROSTER RULES

For the 2019 season, American Association clubs may carry 23 players on their active roster. The minimum number of players a team may carry is 19. Of the 23 active players, a maximum of 11 can be classified as LS-4. Of the 11 LS-4 or "experienced" spots, a maximum of seven may be LS-5. Of the seven LS-5 spots available, a maximum of five may be classified as VETERANS.

Of the remaining 11 roster spots, at least five must be classified as ROOKIES. The remaining six roster spots can be made up of any combination of players classified as LS-1, LS-2, or LS-3.

If a team carries 22 active players, at least four players must be classified as ROOKIES. If a team carries 21 active players, at least three players must be classified as ROOKIES. There is no minimum roster requirement for players classified LS-1 or above.

Each club may place up to two players on the DISABLED LIST. A player on the DISABLED LIST must remain there for at least seven days from his last game played prior to being re-activated.

Each club may also place up to two players on the INACTIVE LIST. A player must remain on the INACTIVE LIST for at least 30 days from his last game played before being re-activated.

WINNIPEG GOLDEYES HISTORY

The Goldeyes celebrate the 2016 American Association championship at Wichita's Lawrence-Dumont Stadium on September 19th. The Goldeyes clinched the title with an 11-4 victory in a winner-take-all Game Five.

WINNIPEG GOLDEYES – LEAGUE HISTORY

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION (2011-present)

The present-day Winnipeg Goldeyes are a member of the 12-team American Association of Independent Professional Baseball. Miles Wolff, one of independent baseball's pioneers, founded the current American Association in 2006. The Lincoln Saltdogs (Lincoln, Nebraska), St. Paul Saints (St. Paul, Minnesota), Sioux City Explorers (Sioux City, Iowa), and Sioux Falls Canaries (Sioux Falls, South Dakota) joined the American Association from the Northern League. The Coastal Bend Aviators (Robstown, Texas), El Paso Diablos (El Paso, Texas), Fort Worth Cats (Fort Worth, Texas), Pensacola Pelicans (Pensacola, Florida), and Shreveport Sports (Shreveport, Louisiana) came over from the Central League. The St. Joe Blacksnakes (St. Joseph, Missouri) were added as an expansion team to balance out the new league at 10.

From 2006-10, the American Association held strong at 10 member clubs with minimal changes. In 2008, the Grand Prairie AirHogs (Grand Prairie, Texas) and Wichita Wingnuts (Wichita, Kansas) replaced Coastal Bend and St. Joe, while the Sports rebranded themselves as the Shreveport-Bossier Captains in 2009.

At the end of the 2010 season, the Goldeyes played a major role in the biggest change in league history. Joined by the Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks, Gary SouthShore RailCats, and Kansas City T-Bones, the Goldeyes moved from the Northern League to the American Association, bringing the league to an unprecedented 14 clubs. In addition to the four Northern League teams, the Pelicans transferred operations to Amarillo, Texas and became the Amarillo Sox.

Following 2011, Shreveport-Bossier relocated to Laredo, Texas where the Laredo Lemurs became the fifth expansion franchise in league history. Fort Worth departed the American Association, leaving the circuit with an odd number of teams at 13. To alleviate potential scheduling challenges, the American Association joined forces with the Can-Am League and utilized interleague play. This joint arrangement with the Can-Am League held constant through the 2013 season. El Paso ceased operations at the end of 2013, which brought the American Association back to an even number at 12 teams. Interleague play continued in 2014, however, and once again became a necessity in 2015 when the expansion Joplin Blasters (Joplin, Missouri) boosted league membership to 13 clubs. Amarillo rebranded as the Amarillo Thunderheads in 2015.

A unique arrangement took place in 2016 where Amarillo and Grand Prairie merged into the "Texas" AirHogs. The franchise operated as a single entity, but utilized both cities for its home schedule. Interleague play was removed in 2016.

In 2017, the American Association welcomed the expansion Cleburne Railroaders (Cleburne, Texas). The Railroaders replaced the Blasters, while the AirHogs played their home games exclusively in Grand Prairie. Shortly before the start of the 2017 season, the Lemurs ceased operations. The Salina Stockade, a former Pecos League club, replaced Laredo to help maintain a structural balance, and operated as a traveling road team.

The Chicago Dogs joined the league as an expansion team in 2018. Based out of Rosemont, Illinois, the Dogs replaced the Stockade and play their home games at state-of-the-art IMPACT Field. In 2018, the American Association also returned to a two-division format for the first time since 2010.

2019 will see a new franchise established in the Milwaukee suburb of Franklin, Wisconsin. The expansion Milwaukee Milkmen replace the Wingnuts, and will share brand new Routine Field with the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee baseball team.

Although the Goldeyes' tenure in the American Association has been short when compared to their years in the Northern League, the last eight seasons have produced some of the best moments in franchise history. Since joining the American Association, the Goldeyes have twice set a franchise record for wins (60 in 2011 and 63 in 2014, plus 62 in 2017). The Goldeyes won the 2012 American Association championship, which was the club's first since their inaugural season in 1994. The Goldeyes hosted the 2014 American Association All-Star Game in front of nearly 7,000 fans, an event that had not been held by the league since 2010. The Goldeyes have the second most playoff berths in the league since 2011 (five), and captured back-to-back titles in 2016 and 2017. The Fort Worth Cats (2006-07) are the only other repeat champion in league history, and the Goldeyes' three American Association crowns are the most of any team since the league formed in 2006.

NORTHERN LEAGUE (1994-2010)

The birth of "modern" independent baseball started in 1993 when Miles Wolff created the Northern League. The Duluth-Superior Dukes (Duluth, Minnesota), Rochester Aces (Rochester, Minnesota), St. Paul Saints (St. Paul, Minnesota), Sioux City Explorers (Sioux City, Iowa), Sioux Falls, Canaries (Sioux Falls, South Dakota), and Thunder Bay Whiskey Jacks (Thunder Bay, Ontario) formed the six-team Northern League that became independent baseball's gold standard for nearly two decades. Remarkably, five of the original six clubs continue to operate in some form today, with St. Paul, Sioux City, and Sioux Falls still retaining their original identities. The Goldeyes replaced Rochester in 1994.

The Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks (Fargo, North Dakota) and Madison Black Wolf (Madison, Wisconsin) joined the Northern League in 1996. In 1999, the Northern League merged with the independent Northeast League, forming a 16-team "super" league. This venture operated under the Northern League umbrella. The Northern League clubs played in the "Central Conference" while the Northeast League teams played in the "Eastern Conference." The arrangement lasted four years from 1999-2002, with the conferences playing schedules independent of one another. The conference champions met in the Northern League Championship Series to decide the league title. The championship series during this four-year span marked the only time teams from each conference played head-to-head, giving the final round a true "World Series" feel.

In 2003, the Northern League returned to its pre-1999 format. By now, the Northern League had expanded into the "Chicagoland" area with Thunder Bay becoming the Schaumburg Flyers (Schaumburg, Illinois) in 1999, and the additions of the Gary SouthShore RailCats (Gary, Indiana) and Joliet Jackhammers (Joliet, Illinois) in 2002. Due to delayed ballpark construction, the RailCats played their inaugural 2002 season on the road before moving into their current home (US Steel Yard) the following year. The Lincoln Saltdogs (Lincoln, Nebraska) joined the Northern League in 2001, moving from Madison. Duluth-Superior moved to Kansas City, Kansas and became the Kansas City T-Bones prior to the 2003 season.

The Northern League added two more Canadian members in 2005 with the Calgary Vipers (Calgary, Alberta) and Edmonton Cracker-Cats (Edmonton, Alberta). Both cities were once home to Triple-A franchises. Following the 2005 season, Lincoln, St. Paul, Sioux City, and Sioux Falls moved into the new American Association. The Goldeyes, along with Fargo-Moorhead, Gary SouthShore, and Kansas City eventually reunited with these clubs when they moved to the American Association themselves in 2011.

Calgary and Edmonton departed for the Golden League following the 2007 season, and the Northern League operated with only six teams in 2008 and 2009. Additional Chicago area teams were added in 2010. The Rockford Riverhawks (Rockford, Illinois), long-time members of the Frontier League, switched circuits, while the expansion Lake County Fielders (Zion, Illinois) helped bring the Northern League back to eight total clubs.

2010 proved to be the final year of the Northern League. While Fargo-Moorhead, Gary SouthShore, Kansas City, and Winnipeg moved to the American Association, Joliet and Schaumburg folded, and Rockford transferred back to the Frontier League. Lake County moved to the newly-formed North American League before folding after the 2011 season. Joliet rebranded as the Frontier League's Joliet Slammers in time for 2011. After one year without baseball, Schaumburg rebranded as well, and joined the Frontier League as the Schaumburg Boomers in 2012.

In total, eight of the 12 teams currently in the American Association hold ties to the original Northern League.

WINNIPEG GOLDEYES – TEAM HISTORY

Professional baseball returned to Winnipeg, Manitoba in 1994 when the Northern League welcomed the Winnipeg Goldeyes. The Goldeyes replaced the Rochester Aces (Rochester, Minnesota), one of the Northern League's original six members from the league's inaugural 1993 season.

Winnipeg had enjoyed baseball on-and-off since 1902, and was last home to a professional team in 1970 when the Winnipeg Whips were the Triple-A International League affiliate of the Montreal Expos. The Goldeyes moniker itself had been used on two previous occasions, and in both cases, the team was part of a different version of the Northern League. The first incarnation of the Winnipeg Goldeyes played in the Northern League (Class A) from 1954-65 as an affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals. The Goldeyes won championships in 1957, 1959, and 1960. Hall of Fame left-hander Steve Carlton is regarded as the most notable Goldeyes' alumnus. The Goldeyes returned for a one-year stint in the Northern League (Short Season-A) in 1969 as an affiliate of the expansion Kansas City Royals.

Upon their rebirth in 1994, the modern-day Winnipeg Goldeyes made an immediate impact on the city by capturing the Northern League championship in their first year. Winnipeg defeated the Sioux City Explorers three games to one in the Northern League Championship Series, and drew more than 212,000 fans (5,314 fans per game). The championship marked the first of 10 consecutive playoff appearances (including seven berths in the Northern League Championship Series) for the Goldeyes, a feat still unmatched by any Northern League or American Association team today.

Originally built to a capacity of 6,140, Shaw Park helped revitalize Winnipeg's downtown area. Positioned in the heart of downtown Winnipeg, the ballpark is surrounded by the historic Exchange District, "The Forks" (where the Red River and Assiniboine River meet), and other locations pivotal to the city's economy and livelihood. Nearly 300,000 fans packed the new stadium in 1999 as the Goldeyes reached their fourth Northern League Championship Series. The average attendance of 6,048 per game represented a 98.5 percent capacity for the season.

In 2000, the Goldeyes drew a Northern League-best 271,513 fans, and sold out 34 of their 42 home dates. When added to the pre-season and playoff totals, the number again approached 300,000. The Goldeyes' average attendance of 6,456 during the regular season established a Northern League record, and was the highest average of all 50 teams in independent baseball.

2001 proved to be a success in every sense of the word. Not only did the Goldeyes reach the playoffs for the eighth time in their eight-year history, but the team broke its own average attendance record from the previous year at 6,491 fans per game. 35 of 45 home dates were sellouts, while total attendance reached 292,095 to once again lead independent baseball. In addition to reaching the Northern League Championship Series, the Goldeyes hosted the 2001 Northern League All-Star Game. 5,011 fans attended the July 30th skills competition, and a ballpark-record crowd of 6,942 were in the building for the All-Star Game the following night.

A year later, the Goldeyes continued to draw in record numbers. The Goldeyes once again reached the Northern League Championship Series and became the first team in league history to eclipse 300,000 regular season fans. Winnipeg averaged 6,200 fans per game, which outdrew 13 of the 30 teams at the Triple-A level. Along the way, the Goldeyes welcomed the one-millionth regular season fan at their downtown home, with Rory Newton receiving the honours on August 8th versus Joliet. Single-game attendance topped 7,000 on several occasions, including a new ballpark record of 7,056 on September 19th during Game Two of the Northern League Championship Series. Andrew Collier was named Northern League Executive of the Year.

Shaw Park underwent a facelift for 2003, adding more than 1,200 additional box seats, six Skysuites, six new concession stands, a mother's lounge, patio deck, grass berm, and a full-service restaurant. Fans once again supported their hometown team in record numbers, exceeding 300,000 fans and cheering on the Goldeyes to another appearance in the Northern League Championship Series. The Goldeyes won the Northern League's inaugural Organization of the Year Award, and became the first independent team ever to average more than 7,000 fans per game (7,161).

The Goldeyes surpassed 7,000 fans per game for a second straight year in 2004, averaging 7,027 per opening. A total of 323,241 fans took in a Goldeyes game, while Andrew Collier was honoured as the Northern League's Executive of the Year for a second time in three seasons. That same year, left-handers Bobby Madritsch and George Sherill both made their Major League debuts for the Seattle Mariners. The two pitchers had been teammates in Winnipeg just two years prior.

Although the Goldeyes posted their first sub-.500 record in team history in 2005, fans continued to show their loyal support. The Goldeyes averaged 6,867 fans per game, and totaled 322,758 for the year—topping the 300,000 mark for a fourth consecutive season. This included a crowd of 8,668 on August 29th versus Lincoln, shattering the stadium's previous record of 7,930 set just 19 days earlier against Calgary. Along the way, three Goldeyes' pitchers had their contracts purchased by Major League organizations—the most in team history mid-season—while Brian Myrow made his Major League debut with the Los Angeles Dodgers that September. Just three years after welcoming the one-millionth fan to a regular season game at Shaw Park, the Goldeyes' celebrated their two-millionth on August 25th versus Fargo-Moorhead.

In 2006, Rick Forney took over as the third manager in team history and remains in that role today. Forney already had nine years of experience in the organization as either a pitcher or pitching coach. After a two-year absence, Forney led the Goldeyes back to the postseason. In the opening round, the Goldeyes pushed eventual champion Fargo-Moorhead to the brink of elimination as the RedHawks won the series in the bottom of the ninth inning in the decisive fifth game. Eight Goldeyes represented the team at the Northern League All-Star Game, while three more were named Postseason All-Stars. A total of five players were sold to Major League organizations, the most in one calendar year since 2001. At the gate, the Goldeyes welcomed 312,213 fans, reaching 300,000-plus for a fifth year in a row. The team earned its second Northern League Organization of the Year Award, while Collier was named Executive of the Year for a third time in the last five.

Like the previous season, the Goldeyes pushed the eventual 2007 Northern League champions to the brink of elimination in the postseason. This time, the Goldeyes battled the Gary SouthShore RailCats to a winner-take-all Game Five in the opening round. The Goldeyes ranked in the top-20 in all of minor league baseball (affiliated and independent), drawing an average attendance of 6,542. Six Goldeyes made the Northern League All-Star Game, and three more were named Postseason All-Stars. Collier earned Executive of the Year honours for a fourth time in six seasons.

The Goldeyes hosted their second Northern League All-Star Game in 2008. It was the team's 10th year at Shaw Park and 15th overall in the Northern League. Between the skills competition and All-Star Game itself, better than 12,000 fans witnessed the two-day festivities. 11 Goldeyes were represented in their home park during the All-Star Game. The Goldeyes reached the postseason for a 13th time in their 15-year history, and led all of independent baseball (58 teams) in average attendance for a ninth consecutive season (6,464). Three Goldeyes earned Postseason All-Star honours, and the team was named Northern League Organization of the Year for a third time.

2009 proved to be one of the best seasons for the modern-day Winnipeg Goldeyes. A well-rounded roster got off to the best start in team history, and qualified for the playoffs for a 14th time in 16 years. Collier earned his fifth Executive of the Year award, and the team led independent baseball in average attendance for a 10th consecutive year at 6,180. Overall, the Goldeyes ranked 26th out of the 267 teams (throughout 31 leagues) in all of minor league baseball.

In what proved to be the final year of the Northern League, the Goldeyes missed the playoffs in 2010. However, there were still several performances to celebrate. Kevin West became the first Goldeye since Brian Duva to win the Northern League batting title. Left-handed pitcher Ian Thomas earned Northern League Rookie Pitcher of the Year honours. Andrew "Ace" Walker—who would go on to break several major franchise pitching records—flirted with a no-hitter against the Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks on August 29th. Fittingly, the Goldeyes led the Northern League in attendance during the league's final season with 271,399 total fans, and an average attendance of 5,654—second-best in independent baseball.

2011 marked a major change as the Goldeyes (along with Fargo-Moorhead, Gary SouthShore, and Kansas City) joined the independent American Association. The league, which formed in 2006, was now a 14-team circuit with only four teams qualifying for the postseason. This meant simply making the playoffs would be a challenge for any team—and the Goldeyes were up to the task. Despite a new league and many more opponents fighting for position, the Goldeyes won a franchise-best 60 games, and used a dominant finish (17-8) to put away the American Association North Division. In one of the most exciting playoff series in team history, the Goldeyes fell in heartbreaking fashion to the St. Paul Saints in the ninth inning of the decisive fifth game at Midway Stadium. Walker became the franchise leader in wins, Price Kendall won American Association Rookie of the Year, and Forney was voted American Association Manager of the Year. In terms of fan support, the Goldeyes picked up where they left off in the Northern League. A 5,740 per game average not only topped the American Association, but all of independent baseball, and helped Winnipeg take its first American Association Organization of the Year award.

2012 will always have a special place in the hearts of Goldeyes' fans. The team grinded its way to a 55-45 record, qualifying for the wild card with three days left in the regular season. The Goldeyes then caught fire, and won the American Association championship. It was the Goldeyes first title in 18 years when they had won the 1994 Northern League crown during their inaugural season. The Goldeyes swept their way through the playoffs with a 6-0 record against Fargo-Moorhead and Wichita, and remain the only team in American Association history to enjoy a perfect postseason. During the regular year, Fargo-Moorhead tied a league record with 65 wins, and defeated the Goldeyes in 12 of 18 head-to-head meetings. Amos Ramon was named MVP of the playoffs, while Brian Beuning logged 11.2 brilliant innings, notching four saves, and recording the final out in all six postseason victories. Former Major League outfielder Chris Roberson made the American Association's Postseason All-Star team.

The Goldeyes actually won more games (56) in 2013 than they did during their championship year in 2012, and in fact, had the fourth-best record in the American Association. However, due to the South Division automatically receiving a playoff berth, the Goldeyes narrowly missed the postseason for only a fourth time in their history. 2013 also marked the 20th season of Winnipeg Goldeyes baseball. Outfielder Ryan Scoma contended for the American Association batting title, finishing third at .341. Scoma's contract was purchased by the Toronto Blue Jays at the end of the season. Meanwhile, new left-hander Brendan Lafferty tied for the league lead with 53 appearances, setting a new franchise single-season record. The Goldeyes led all of independent baseball in average attendance at 5,880 and ranked 28th out of the 390 minor league teams in North America. Winnipeg outdrew 13 Triple-A and 27 Double-A teams with a grand total of 276,359 fans. The Goldeyes won Organization of the Year honours for a third straight season.

2014 proved to be another banner year for the Goldeyes with a franchise-record 63 wins and the team's second North Division title in four seasons. Shaw Park hosted its third All-Star Game, and the Goldeyes were well-represented with six players making the North Division squad. Casey Haerther and Tyler Kuhn tied for second in the league with a .360 batting average, while Nick Hernandez posted a 12-2 record en route to being named the American Association's Pitcher of the Year. On June 4th at Sioux Falls, five Goldeyes' pitchers combined on the first no-hitter in team history in the nightcap of a double header.

The Goldeyes missed the postseason in 2015, but several players and staff achieved key milestones. Forney earned his 500th managerial win on June 16th versus St. Paul, and later surpassed Hal Lanier for the most wins in team history on August 11th versus Sioux Falls. Long-time catcher Luis Alen became the franchise leader in base hits during the season opener on May 21st at Grand Prairie, and went on to set Goldeyes' career records for RBI, walks, and doubles. On June 6th versus Joplin, Hernandez flirted with a perfect game and eventually tossed eight no-hit innings in a Goldeyes victory. Rookie infielder James Boddicker gained national attention for a barehanded catch he made on August 26th at Quebec. Josh Mazzola surpassed Terry Lee for the franchise home run record on July 26th at Kansas City, and finished the season with a league-best 20 long balls. Mazzola, Haerther, and first-year Goldeyes' outfielder Adam Heisler all made the American Association's Postseason All-Star Team.

Winnipeg returned to the postseason in style in 2016, winning the American Association championship for a second time in five years. The Goldeyes qualified for the playoffs on the final day of the regular season when left-handed pitcher Kevin McGovern tossed a complete game two-hitter over the RedHawks that clinched the American Association wild card. In the Division Series, the Goldeyes came back from a 2-1 series deficit against the St. Paul Saints, winning Games Four and Five on the road. In the decisive fifth game, right-hander Mikey O'Brien worked seven shutout innings on three days of rest to help propel the Goldeyes into the ninth league final in team history. The Goldeyes also fell behind 2-1 in the Championship Series versus Wichita, but once again rallied for road wins in Games Four and Five. Reggie Abercrombie hit two home runs and set a franchise playoff single-game record with seven RBI in the deciding game. Earlier in the year, Abercrombie became the American Association's all-time leader in home runs, and was named the league's inaugural Scott Miller/Brian Rose Man of the Year. Outfielders David Rohm and Willie Cabrera were named Postseason All-Stars. The offence as a whole led the league with 594 runs scored, and set an American Association record with 462 walks. On 10 different occasions, the pitching staff combined to allow three or fewer base hits.

The Goldeyes made it back-to-back American Association championships in 2017 while fielding one of the most talented rosters in team history. The Goldeyes won a league-best 62 games, falling just one win shy of the franchise record set in 2014. Offensively, the Goldeyes ranked first in batting average (.296) and second in runs scored (607). The pitching staff set a franchise record with 751 strikeouts. Three Goldeyes were selected to the American Association/Can-Am League All-Star Game in Ottawa, while four were voted to the American Association's Postseason All-Star Team. First baseman Shawn Pleffner led the league with a .340 batting average, and returning outfielder Josh Romanski earned Player of the Year honours. The Goldeyes clinched their postseason berth by winning the American Association North Division, and outlasted a formidable Lincoln Saltdogs team three games to one in the Division Series. For a second consecutive year, and for a third time in the last six, Winnipeg matched up against Wichita in the Championship Series. Much like 2016, the Goldeyes fell behind 2-1 in the best-of-five series, but managed an epic victory in Game Four that prolonged their season. Game Four will long be remembered for its record-setting length (five hours and 59 minutes), as well as a ninth-inning balk in which it appeared the Wingnuts had won the series. Two nights later, and following a rainout, the Goldeyes defeated the Wingnuts 18-2 to win their fourth championship in franchise history. Pleffner hit for the cycle, while starting pitcher Edwin Carl set a Goldeyes' record with his fifth postseason win.

The Goldeyes celebrated a quarter century of baseball in 2018. While the Goldeyes fell short of winning a third consecutive American Association championship, the club still provided many exciting moments and milestones. Franchise home run leader and fan-favourite Josh Mazzola returned to play third base. In addition to swatting 20 more long balls, Mazzola set the American Association “iron man” record by playing in a 335th consecutive game. McGovern finished second in the league in strikeouts, while also breaking the American Association’s career mark for “Ks” by a left-hander. Abercrombie returned for a fifth season and achieved two major bench marks. The former Major Leaguer stole the 500th base of his professional career in July, and then broke the American Association’s all-time record for base hits later that month. Reliever Jack Charleston made history in his first year with the Goldeyes by appearing in 60 games. Returning bullpen arm Victor Capellan tied a franchise single-season record with 22 saves. The highlight of the year came on July 12th when the Goldeyes held their 25th anniversary luncheon. The event took a deep dive into the organization’s history of success, and included insight from former manager Hal Lanier, current manager Rick Forney, and former radio broadcaster Paul Edmonds. Later that evening, Lanier’s number “22” was retired during a pre-game ceremony.

THE “BALK”

On September 18th, 2017, the Goldeyes trailed the Wichita Wingnuts 3-2 in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game Four of the American Association Championship Series. Wichita led the best-of-five series 2-1, and was one strike away from winning the title.

With the tying run on second and two outs, Goldeyes’ second baseman Casey Turgeon grounded an 0-2 pitch to Wingnuts’ third baseman TJ Mittelstaedt. Mittelstaedt gloved the ball and threw to first to complete the final out. The Wingnuts stormed the field in celebration before home plate umpire Joe Stegner informed the players that a balk had been called prior to the pitch.

Stegner ruled that Wingnuts’ closer Ryan Kussmaul did not come to a complete stop before starting his delivery, which effectively gave Turgeon a “free” swing. When play resumed, Turgeon worked the count to 1-2 against Kussmaul before smacking a double to left-centre that scored Wes Darvill with the tying run.

The two clubs then battled for another eight innings with the Goldeyes winning 4-3 in the bottom of the 17th on a David Rohm RBI double. The 17 innings tied an American Association record, while the duration of five hours and 59 minutes marked the longest game in league history.

Two nights later, the Goldeyes beat the Wingnuts 18-2 in the winner-take-all Game Five to capture a second consecutive championship.

Casey Turgeon scores the winning run in the 17th inning of Game Four of the 2017 American Association Championship Series.

WINNIPEG GOLDEYES RETIRED NUMBERS

#5 – BRIAN DUVA (1995-2000)

When discussing the Goldeyes' most distinguished alumni, it would be remiss to do so without talking about Brian Duva. One of the most popular players in team history, Duva retired following the 2000 season as the Northern League record holder for one single-game, two single-season, and three career benchmarks. On a franchise level, Duva held three single-season and eight career records at the time of his retirement, and remains the Goldeyes' all-time leader in runs scored and stolen bases through 2018.

In addition to his statistical accomplishments, Duva also appeared in two Northern League All-Star Games (1997 and 1998). In both of those seasons, Duva was named to the Northern League's Postseason All-Star Team. Duva was also twice recognized as one of independent baseball's elite, earning Baseball America All-Independent Team honours in both 1997 and 1998.

Less than one year after retirement, Duva returned to Winnipeg on July 20th, 2001 when the Goldeyes retired his jersey number "5," making him the first player in franchise history to receive the honour. Duva currently works as an attorney in Atlanta, Georgia.

#6 – MAX POULIN (2001-08)

He was a fixture at shortstop for eight seasons, and on June 14th, 2011, Max Poulin's number "6" became the fourth jersey retirement in franchise history.

Poulin donned a Goldeyes' jersey from 2001-08, and played in a team record 676 games as part of a 10-year playing career. At the time of his jersey retirement, Poulin was the Goldeyes' all-time leader in base hits (631), at bats (2,374), triples (34), and walks (227). Poulin was tied for the career record in doubles (95), ranked second in runs scored (336), and third in RBI (250). Poulin holds Winnipeg's career games played record to this day.

Known for his acrobatic plays in the field, Poulin owned a .975 career fielding percentage, including a season-best .986 mark in 2001. During the 2008 season—his last as a member of the Goldeyes—Poulin finished with a .983 fielding percentage, and committed just seven errors in 407 defensive chances.

Poulin claimed numerous awards during his eight-year career. Poulin won the Northern League's Most Outstanding Defensive Player Award in 2005, and represented the Goldeyes in four Northern League All-Star Games (2002, 2003, 2005, and 2008). On two occasions, Poulin was named the Goldeyes' Player of the Year.

Poulin's storybook tale of how he arrived in Winnipeg is well-documented. As a free agent, Poulin packed up his car and drove from his hometown of Saint-Eustache, Quebec all the way to Winnipeg for an open tryout. After catching the eye of manager Hal Lanier, Poulin went on to spend the next eight summers entertaining Goldeyes' fans.

Poulin recently served as both a coach and manager for the Can-Am League's les Aigles de Trois-Rivieres, and was a member of their staff when they won the Can-Am League championship in 2015.

#21 – DONNIE SMITH (1998, 2000-06)

Donnie Smith, whose 206 appearances are more than anyone in Northern League history, had his jersey number "21" retired by the Goldeyes on July 21st, 2009.

A Winnipeg native, Smith was 25 when he signed with the Goldeyes in August of 1998 after manager Hal Lanier and coach Scott Neiles saw him pitch for Legion 141 of the Manitoba Senior Baseball League. In eight Northern League appearances, Smith was 2-0 with a 6.23 ERA, and was the winning pitcher in the final regular season game played at Winnipeg Stadium.

After sitting out the 1999 season to recuperate from a hand injury sustained while coaching at his alma mater, Valley City State, Smith made a successful return in 2000. In 23 appearances, 20 of them in relief, Smith was 1-2 with a 2.23 ERA and a miniscule .188 opposition batting average.

Smith went on to pitch four more seasons, including a career year in 2002 where the right-hander was 4-1 with a 1.19 ERA and 52 strikeouts in 45.1 innings. Shoulder problems forced Smith to cut his 2004 season short, and the right-hander underwent surgery that December before making an impressive comeback in 2005. That season, Smith was 1-3 with a 2.70 ERA and a career-best 11 saves.

Smith returned in 2006, and went 1-2 with a 2.51 ERA over 23 appearances before calling it a career at the end of the season.

In his eight years with the Goldeyes, Smith was 15-15 with 28 saves and a 3.22 ERA. Smith struck out 246 over 246.0 innings pitched, and held opponents to a .238 average.

#22 – HAL LANIER (1996-2005)

One of the most decorated managers in independent baseball history, Hal Lanier brought credibility to the Winnipeg Goldeyes when he arrived in 1996, and helped establish the club as one of the premier organizations in all of minor league sports. Lanier's number "22" was retired on July 12th, 2018 during the Goldeyes' 25th season celebration. It was the fifth number retired in club history.

Lanier enjoyed a 10-year playing career in the Major Leagues as a middle infielder for the San Francisco Giants and New York Yankees, which included a selection to the Topps All-Rookie Team in 1964. Upon retiring as a player, Lanier quickly found success as he transitioned into a managerial role. As a rookie manager in 1977, Lanier guided the Gastonia Cardinals to a Class A Western Carolinas League championship. Lanier skippered the Triple-A Springfield Redbirds each of the next two seasons, including an American Association championship in 1980.

Lanier then served five years as third base coach for the St. Louis Cardinals, learning from legendary manager Whitey Herzog. The Cardinals won the 1982 World Series and made a return trip to the Fall Classic in 1985 with Lanier on the staff.

Lanier was then hired to manage the Houston Astros, and guided the club to a National League Western Division title in 1986. The Astros came within two wins of reaching the World Series, falling to the eventual champion New York Mets in a tightly-contested NLCS.

From 1996-2005, Lanier managed the Goldeyes to a 523-360 (.592) overall record, eight playoff appearances, and five trips to the Northern League Championship Series. Lanier has managed five other independent league clubs since 2006, winning Can-Am League championships with the Sussex Skyhawks in 2008 and the Ottawa Champions in 2016.

#31 – ANDREW WALKER (2008-12)

For five seasons, right-hander Andrew "Ace" Walker etched his mark on independent baseball as the leader of the Winnipeg Goldeyes' pitching staff. On June 23rd, 2015, Walker's number "31" became just the fourth retirement in franchise history.

A former Texas Rangers farmhand (2004-07), Walker joined the Goldeyes in 2008 and proceeded to rewrite the club's record book. Walker holds team career pitching records for wins (47), complete games (13), games started (105), and innings pitched (692.2). Walker also held the Goldeyes' all-time record for strikeouts (380) upon his retirement following the 2012 season.

Walker's best season with the Goldeyes came in 2009 when he was named the Northern League's Pitcher of the Year. Walker was 12-6 with a 3.32 ERA, and set team single-season records for complete games (6) and innings pitched (149.0). Walker was also named to Baseball America's 2009 All-Independent Leagues Team.

In his final season in Winnipeg, Walker helped the Goldeyes win the 2012 American Association championship with a 9-5 record and a 3.74 ERA in 22 regular season appearances, 21 of which were starts. Walker was then 1-0 with a 3.86 ERA in both of his playoff starts as the Goldeyes swept their way to their first title in 18 years.

Walker finished his Goldeyes career with a 47-25 (.653) record and a 3.92 ERA. Known for his control, Walker threw just 10 wild pitches and issued a paltry 1.8 walks per nine innings during his five years in Winnipeg.

An accomplished artist off the field, Walker would often paint graphics on the grass behind home plate at Shaw Park, and is responsible for the large Goldeyes' logo painted on the wall in the club's training room.

MLB ALUMNI – PLAYERS

MIKE CATHER (1995)

The first Goldeyes alumnus to reach the Majors, right-handed pitcher Mike Cather made his Major League debut on July 13th, 1997 with the Atlanta Braves.

Soon after setting the Goldeyes' single-season saves record in 1995, the Braves purchased Cather's contract.

After spending all of 1996 and the beginning of 1997 at the Double-A level, Cather spent one month in Triple-A before the Braves called him up midway through the 1997 season. Cather was a key member of the Atlanta bullpen as the Braves cruised to the National League East title.

Cather returned to the Braves in 1998 and 1999, and currently serves as Pitching Coordinator for the Miami Marlins.

JEFF ZIMMERMAN (1997)

The second Goldeyes alumnus to reach the Major Leagues, right-handed pitcher Jeff Zimmerman made his Major League debut on April 13th, 1999 with the Texas Rangers.

Shortly after nailing down Northern League Rookie Pitcher of the Year honours in 1997, Zimmerman was on his way to spring training after the Rangers purchased his contract. Zimmerman was named the Rangers' Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 1998, and made it to the Majors the following season—highlighted by an appearance in the 1999 MLB All-Star Game at Boston's Fenway Park.

Zimmerman stayed with the Rangers in 2000 and 2001, often serving as the team's closer. Zimmerman retired following the 2003 season after undergoing, and rehabbing from, elbow surgery.

JEFF SPARKS (1997-98)

The third Goldeyes alumnus to reach the Majors, right-handed pitcher Jeff Sparks made his Major League debut on September 12th 1999 with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays.

Acquired by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1999 after setting the Goldeyes' single-season saves record the previous year, Sparks was poised to make the Majors with the Pirates before a mid-season trade to the Tampa Bay Devil Rays.

Following six weeks in the minor leagues, Sparks received the call all baseball players dream of, as the Devil Rays promoted him to the big club in August of 1999. Sparks spent the final month of the season in the Majors, and returned in 2000.

Sparks attended spring training with the New York Yankees in 2001, but was unable to land a spot in their organization. Undaunted, Sparks suited up for Albany of the independent All-American Association where he dominated. The performance earned him an invite to spring training with the Milwaukee Brewers in 2002.

After taking the 2003 season off, Sparks returned to the game in 2004, and spent the next two seasons in independent baseball. He came to camp with the Goldeyes in 2005, but opted to play that year in Mexico.

GEORGE SHERRILL (2002-03)

The fourth Goldeyes' alumnus to reach the Majors, left-handed pitcher George Sherrill made his Major League debut on July 16th, 2004 with the Seattle Mariners.

Signed by Seattle midway through the 2003 season, Sherrill spent the remainder of that campaign with the Double-A Texas League's San Antonio Missions, and was a key member of their championship club. Sherrill was invited to spring training in 2004 before opening the season with Triple-A Tacoma. Sherrill was scheduled to pitch in the Pacific Coast League All-Star Game, only to decline when the Mariners called him up.

Sherrill made 21 relief appearances for the Mariners, and even came back to Winnipeg to instruct at the Goldeyes' Holiday Skills Camp. Sherrill was back in Seattle in 2005 where he recovered from early shoulder trouble to make 29 more Major League appearances.

In 2006, Sherrill played with the Mariners before moving to the Baltimore Orioles in a 2007 trade. Sherrill pitched in Baltimore for just over one season when the Orioles dealt him to the Los Angeles Dodgers on July 30th, 2009. After one and a half years with the Dodgers, Sherrill spent 2011 with the Atlanta Braves. Sherrill returned to the Mariners for two games in 2012.

Sherrill retired in 2013 after pitching in 29 games for the Kansas City Royals' Triple-A affiliate in Omaha, Nebraska.

BOBBY MADRITSCH (2002)

The fifth Goldeyes' alumnus to reach the Majors, left-handed pitcher Bobby Madritsch made his Major League debut on July 21st, 2004 with the Seattle Mariners.

Purchased by the Mariners just days before he was named Baseball America's Independent Player of the Year in 2002, Madritsch earned Double-A Texas League all-star honours with the San Antonio Missions, helping them win the 2003 Texas League title. Madritsch was invited to spring training in 2004, but opened the season with Triple-A Tacoma in the Pacific Coast League. Following three months with the Rainiers, the Mariners called up Madritsch, who earned the win in his Major League debut.

Madritsch totaled 11 starts and four relief appearances for Seattle, and returned to the Majors in 2005 where he made the Opening Day roster. Madritsch suffered a torn ligament in his pitching shoulder after his first outing in 2005. He spent the remainder of the season rehabbing, and was then claimed off waivers by the Kansas City Royals in October. Having made limited progress in his recovery, Madritsch was released by the Royals in September of 2006.

BRIAN MYROW (1999-2001, 2011)

Infielder Brian Myrow made his Major League debut on September 6th, 2005 with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Myrow was the first Goldeyes' position player to reach the Majors. His contract was originally purchased by the New York Yankees early in the 2001 season. Myrow spent nearly three years with the Yankees' organization before a May 2004 trade sent him to Los Angeles.

Myrow played the remainder of 2004 and much of 2005 with the Triple-A Pacific Coast League's Las Vegas 51's when the Dodgers called him up to the big club with a month left in the Major League season.

After spending one year playing in Korea, Myrow appeared in 12 games for the San Diego Padres in 2007, and another 21 contests for the Padres in 2008. Myrow returned to the Goldeyes in 2011 before spending the final years of his career with the Grand Prairie AirHogs. Myrow served as Grand Prairie's hitting coach in 2015, and was activated as a player midway through the season.

BRANDON KINTZLER (2007-08)

Right-handed pitcher Brandon Kintzler was called up by the Milwaukee Brewers in September of 2010. Earlier that year, Kintzler split time at Double-A Huntsville and Triple-A Nashville before making his Major League debut on September 10th. Kintzler combined for a 4-0 record with 16 saves and a 1.47 ERA during his time in Double- and Triple-A, striking out 44 and walking only seven in 49.0 innings pitched.

Kintzler pitched for the Goldeyes in 2007 and 2008, primarily as a starter. In 2007, he was 5-2 with a 4.87 ERA in 29 games, and followed that up with a 7-6 record and a 4.65 ERA in 20 games during the 2008 season.

In 2009, Kintzler opened the year with the St. Paul Saints before having his contract purchased by the Brewers. Kintzler has played the last nine years at the Major League level with the Brewers, Minnesota Twins, Washington Nationals, and Chicago Cubs, compiling a 3.48 ERA in 367.1 Major League innings. Kintzler earned his first All-Star selection while playing for the Twins in 2017.

IAN THOMAS (2009-11)

Left-handed pitcher Ian Thomas is the Goldeyes' most recent alumnus to reach the Major Leagues, making his debut on March 31st, 2014 for the Atlanta Braves.

Making the jump straight from Double-A, Thomas was named to the Braves' 2014 Opening Day roster. In 2009, Thomas signed with the Goldeyes as a non-drafted free agent out of Virginia Commonwealth University. In a span of three seasons with the Goldeyes, Thomas was 11-5 with a 2.03 ERA in 82 relief appearances, and was named the 2010 Northern League's Rookie Pitcher of the Year.

Thomas signed with the Atlantic League's York Revolution in 2012 and was purchased by Atlanta after making seven appearances. Thomas rose quickly through the Braves' organization, playing the remainder of 2012 in Low-A, and then skipping a level to Double-A for all of 2013.

MLB ALUMNI - COACHES

BOB KIPPER (1996-98)

The first Goldeyes' coach to reach the Major Leagues, Kipper actually returned to the Majors when he was named the Boston Red Sox' bullpen coach on December 12th, 2001.

Following a pitching career that began in 1982 as a first-round pick of the California Angels (including eight years in the Major Leagues with three different clubs) and ending in 1994 as a member of the New York Mets' organization, Kipper began his coaching career as pitching coach for the Frontier League's Evansville Otters in 1995.

Kipper arrived in Winnipeg a year later and promptly guided the Goldeyes' pitching staff to the Northern League's best team ERA. Winnipeg's team ERA was among the top-three in the Northern League in each of Kipper's three years on the staff, a tall order for a club playing in homer-friendly Winnipeg Stadium.

Kipper departed the Goldeyes after the 1998 season, and headed to the Red Sox' organization. He was set to be the pitching coach for the Rookie Gulf Coast League affiliate in Fort Myers, but was promoted to the Short Season-A New York-Penn League's Lowell Spinners just before Opening Day. After a year with Lowell, Kipper spent the next two summers with Low-A Augusta in the South Atlantic League.

In 2002, Kipper joined the parent club in Boston and resumed his pitching coach role in Double-A Portland in 2003. After two years with the Sea Dogs, Kipper signed on with the South Atlantic League's Greenville Drive to be closer to home.

RUDY ARIAS (2008-10)

Upon joining the Goldeyes in 2008, bench coach Rudy Arias already had a championship coaching career, and laid claim to a title few in independent baseball circles could boast—a World Series ring.

In 1996, Arias was the bullpen coach for the New York Yankees when they won the first of four championships in a five-year span. Arias worked with the likes of Mariano Rivera and John Wetteland, among other Yankees' relievers, during their magical year.

For three seasons, Arias brought that knowledge to Winnipeg, and tutored younger players on baseball, as well as life as a professional athlete. Arias also served as the Goldeyes' first base coach during that time.

In the fall of 2010, Arias' former manager from his time with the Yankees, Buck Showalter, brought him back to the Major Leagues as a bench coach with the Baltimore Orioles to help work with the Spanish-speaking players on the roster.

Originally from Cuba, Arias defected to the United States and has greatly contributed to the baseball community in the Miami-Dade area in Florida. In fact, he was inducted into the Miami High Hall of Fame in 2012. Arias graduated from Miami High in 1975, and played three years in the Seattle Mariners' organization from 1977-79.

The Austin, Texas native is third on the American Association career list in batting average (.329, minimum 1,500 plate appearances), seventh in home runs (71), and ninth in RBI (313). Clevlen was the American Association's 2014 Player of the Year, and managed the Wingnuts to a 61-39 record during the franchise's final season in 2018.

Clevlen's coaching staff is made up of two more former Major Leaguers. John Rodriguez, who won the 2006 World Series with the St. Louis Cardinals, takes over as hitting coach. Rodriguez batted .298 over two seasons in the Majors, and was the American Association's All-Star Designated Hitter while playing for the Wingnuts in 2013. Mike Jeffcoat logged 500.0 innings over 10 Major League seasons, and takes over as Clebune's pitching coach.

Prior to 2017, the city of Clebune had not enjoyed professional baseball since 1906. The original Railroaders won the 1906 Texas League championship, but folded after the season. Hall of Fame outfielder Tris Speaker began his professional career with the 1906 club, and went on to amass 3,515 base hits at the Major League level.

For a third straight season, the Goldeyes are scheduled to visit Clebune during their season-opening road trip. The Railroaders visit Shaw Park in June.

The Chicago Dogs joined the American Association as an expansion team in 2018. The club is based out of Rosemont, Illinois, a suburb located 18 miles northwest of downtown Chicago. After a 1-14 start, the Dogs went 44-40 (.524) to finish the season, and ranked third in the American Association with a 3.86 ERA.

Veteran manager Butch Hobson returns for a second season as Dogs' manager. Hobson is one of only four managers in independent baseball history to win more than 1,000 games (George Tsamis, Doug Simunic, and Greg Tagert are the others), and has won independent league championships with the Nashua Pride (2000 Atlantic League, 2007 Can-Am League) and Lancaster Barnstormers (2014 Atlantic League).

Hobson managed the Boston Red Sox from 1992-94, working with Major League greats such as Andre Dawson, Roger Clemens, Wade Boggs, and Mo Vaughn. 2019 will be Hobson's 31st season managing in professional baseball. Hobson played eight years in the Major Leagues for the Red Sox, California Angels, and New York Yankees, including a 30-homer, 112-RBI campaign for Boston in 1977.

The Dogs play at state-of-the-art IMPACT Field in Rosemont, which is located near O'Hare International Airport. Former Goldeyes' reliever Brandon Shimo, who made 43 appearances for Winnipeg's 2016 American Association championship team, returns to the Dogs' bullpen for a second season.

teams.

The RedHawks joined the American Association along with the Goldeyes, Gary SouthShore RailCats, and Kansas City T-Bones in 2011. While the RedHawks suffered their first losing season in team history in 2011, the club bounced back the following year by tying an American Association record with 65 wins (the wins record has since been passed five times).

Newman Outdoor Field also plays host to the North Dakota State University (Bison) baseball team. The Maury Wills Museum lives inside of the ballpark. Wills stole 586 bases and collected 2,134 hits during 14 Major League seasons (1959-72), and previously served as a coach for the RedHawks. New York Yankees' legend Roger Maris, who broke Babe Ruth's single-season home run record in 1961, began his professional career with the Fargo-Moorhead Twins in 1953. The RedHawks retired the number "8" in honour of Maris, and The Roger Maris Museum is located inside a Fargo shopping mall near Newman Outdoor Field.

The Gary SouthShore RailCats joined the American Association in 2011 along with the Goldeyes, Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks, and Kansas City T-Bones. Like their fellow companions from the Northern League, the RailCats have established themselves as one of the most successful teams in independent baseball.

2019 will be the RailCats' 18th season of existence. After humble beginnings as a road-only franchise in 2002, the RailCats moved into state-of-the-art US Steel Yard in 2003. Greg Tagert took over as manager in 2005, and led the RailCats to the Northern League title that same year. Tagert and the RailCats claimed the Northern League championship again in 2007, and the club made a total of five consecutive appearances in the Northern League Championship Series from 2005-09.

The RailCats won their first American Association championship in 2013 after winning the wild card and knocking off a pair of teams that won 60-plus games. In the Division Series, Gary SouthShore ousted Fargo-Moorhead, who had won the North Division with 62 victories. The RailCats then won the American Association Championship Series from a Wichita Wingnuts club that set a league-record with 68 victories.

After missing the Central Division title by two games in 2016, the RailCats have earned postseason berths each of the last two years. The RailCats won 57 games in 2017, which was enough to win a three-way tiebreaker that clinched the wild card on the final day of the regular season. In 2018, the RailCats won 59 games and shared the North Division pennant with the St. Paul Saints.

The RailCats' 45-55 record in 2015 is the only losing season the team has experienced under Tagert, and is also the only time Tagert has finished with a losing record in 23 seasons as a professional manager.

The Goldeyes and RailCats have met twice in the postseason (opening round in both 2007 and 2008). The two series were tightly contested, with the RailCats emerging victorious both times. Of the nine head-to-head playoff games between Winnipeg and Gary SouthShore, seven of them have been decided by three runs or less.

The T-Bones joined the American Association from the Northern League in 2011 along with the Goldeyes, Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks, and Gary SouthShore RailCats. The franchise traces back to the origins of the Northern League in 1993 when the club played as the Duluth-Superior Dukes—the team the Goldeyes played their first ever game against in 1994. The Dukes were moved to Kansas City and brand new T-Bones Stadium in 2003, and the T-Bones have ranked among independent baseball's attendance leaders ever since.

Kansas City won its first championship in 2008 when it defeated the Gary SouthShore RailCats in the Northern League Championship Series. Last year, the T-Bones captured their first American Association championship, taking down division-winning Sioux City and St. Paul.

Joe Calfapietra enters his third year as T-Bones' manager after leading the Can-Am League's New Jersey Jackals for 14 seasons. Calfapietra led the Jackals to 10 postseason appearances during his 14 years at the helm. Kansas City's playoff berth in 2018 was their first since the final year of the Northern League in 2010.

The T-Bones have won 119 games in two seasons under Calfapietra. Despite a 57-43 record in 2017, the T-Bones narrowly missed the playoffs due to a three-way tiebreaker for the wild card on the final day of the regular season.

Former Kansas City Royals' legend Frank White returns as the T-Bones' first base coach. White was an integral member of the Royals' 1985 World Series championship team and won eight Gold Gloves at second base during his 18 years in the Major Leagues. White managed the Wichita Wranglers from 2004-06 when the club served as the Royals' Double-A Texas League affiliate.

The Lincoln Saltdogs joined the Northern League in 2001, and later became a charter member of the American Association when the league was founded in 2006. The Saltdogs' lineage traces back to the Madison Black Wolf, which played in the Northern League from 1996-2000.

The Saltdogs won their first championship in 2009, winning a decisive Game Five on the road in each round of the playoffs.

The Goldeyes and Saltdogs have met in the postseason four times. The most recent matchup was the 2017 American Association Division Series, which the Goldeyes won three games to one.

Since their inaugural season in 2001, the Saltdogs have played at Haymarket Park just outside of downtown Lincoln, Nebraska. The facility is widely regarded as one of the finest in both college and professional baseball, and the Saltdogs have earned Playing Surface of the Year honours in each of their first 18 seasons. The Saltdogs share Haymarket Park with the University of Nebraska (Cornhuskers) baseball team.

Former Goldeyes' outfielder Bobby Brown enters his fourth season as Saltdogs' manager. During his first season with the club in 2016, Brown led the Saltdogs to a 16-game improvement from 2015. Brown previously managed the Amarillo Sox/Thunderheads franchise from 2013-15, and hit a combined .301 during a 10-year playing career.

Dan Reichert returns as Lincoln's pitching coach. Reichert was the seventh overall pick in the 1997 amateur draft, and pitched five seasons in the Major Leagues with the Kansas City Royals and Toronto Blue Jays. Reichert struck out 100 batters while playing for the Saltdogs in 2007, and helped lead the club to an American Association playoff berth.

The Milwaukee Milkmen join the American Association as an expansion team in 2019, effectively replacing the Wichita Wingnuts. Milwaukee will play alongside the Goldeyes in the American Association North Division.

The Milkmen plan to play their home games at state-of-the-art Routine Field in Franklin, Wisconsin, a suburb of downtown Milwaukee. Once completed, the facility will also host the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee (Panthers) baseball team.

Inclement weather during the winter of 2019 led to construction delays, and the Milkmen expect to officially open Routine Field in late-June. Prior to then, the club will play its home games at Kokomo Municipal Stadium in Kokomo, Indiana. Kokomo is home to the Northwoods League's Kokomo Jackrabbits, a college summer wood bat team that is under the same ownership group as the Milkmen.

The Goldeyes are scheduled to play in Kokomo June 14th-15th, and then make their first visit to Routine Field in August. Milwaukee makes its inaugural trip to Winnipeg in June as well.

Longtime college head coach Gary McClure will serve as Milkmen manager. McClure led the Austin Peay State University Governors for 28 seasons, and set an Ohio Valley Conference record with 847 victories.

Former Major League catcher Bart Zeller was hired as Milwaukee's hitting coach. Zeller has extensive managerial experience in the Frontier League, and played for the original Winnipeg Goldeyes during his time in the St. Louis Cardinals' farm system from 1963-64.

The St. Paul Saints are one of the most recognizable brands across all of minor league baseball. An original member of the six-team Northern League in 1993, the Saints captured the league's inaugural championship, and added three more (1995, 1996, and 2004) before becoming a charter member of the American Association in 2006. Along with the Sioux City Explorers and Sioux Falls Canaries, the Saints are the longest tenured team in independent baseball still operating in its original city. All three clubs celebrated their 25th year in 2017.

The Saints played their first 22 seasons at historic Midway Stadium before moving into award-winning CHS Field in 2015. The ballpark was christened with a franchise-record 74 wins and the Saints' first playoff berth since 2011. St. Paul fell to the Sioux City Explorers—who won 75 games themselves—in four games in the American Association Division Series. Slugging catcher Vince DiFazio was named American Association MVP, and had his contract purchased by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the off-season.

Despite both clubs having sustained on-field success for more than two decades, the Goldeyes and Saints have met only four times in the postseason. The clubs squared off in the 2016 American Association Division Series with the Goldeyes winning three games to two, and overcoming a 2-1 series deficit while on the road. Previously, the Saints defeated Winnipeg in the 1995 Northern League Championship Series, while the Goldeyes bested the Saints in another epic five-game set in the 2003 East Division Championship Series. In the 2011 American Association Division Series, it was the Saints who squeaked out a Game Five victory in the bottom of the ninth inning. Of the 19 head-to-head playoff games between the teams, 15 of them have been decided by three runs or less.

George Tsamis—the winningest manager in American Association history—returns for his 17th season at the helm of the Saints. Tsamis won championships with the New Jersey Jackals in 2001 and 2002, both of which came against the Goldeyes. In 2018, Tsamis became just the fourth manager in the history of independent baseball to win 1,000 games, and guided the Saints to their fourth appearance in the American Association Championship Series.

The Sioux City Explorers are one of the last remaining original members of independent baseball, having started as a charter member of the six-team Northern League in 1993. The Explorers join the St. Paul Saints and Sioux Falls Canaries as the longest-standing independent franchises still operating in their original locations. All three celebrated their 25th season in 2017.

The Explorers won back-to-back Central Division titles in 2015 and 2016. During the 2015 season, Sioux City set an American Association record with 75 wins, while also setting league records for team ERA (3.04) and stolen bases (188). After beating the 74-win Saints in the Division Series, Sioux City ultimately fell in four games to the wild card Laredo Lemurs in the American Association Championship Series.

The Explorers won the Central Division again in 2016, beating out the Gary SouthShore RailCats and Lincoln Saltdogs by two games in the final standings. Sioux City then fell to the Wichita Wingnuts three games to one in the Division Series. Prior to 2015, the Explorers had last reached the playoffs in 2008.

The Explorers posted a league-best 71-29 record in 2018, and became the first team in American Association history to achieve multiple 70-win campaigns. Sioux City was edged three games to two in the Division Series against eventual champion Kansas City.

During the Goldeyes' inaugural season in 1994, Winnipeg beat Sioux City in the Northern League Championship Series to claim their first title. The following year, the Goldeyes famously won an extra-inning, one-game playoff at Lewis and Clark Park to advance to the Northern League Championship Series for a second straight year.

Steve Montgomery enters his sixth year as Sioux City's manager. Montgomery previously served 10 years as pitching coach for the Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks under veteran manager Doug Simunic.

Bobby Post, who pitched three seasons for the Explorers from 1997-99, is in his sixth year as pitching coach under Montgomery, and his eighth overall in that role for the Explorers' organization.

Charter members of both the Northern League (1993) and American Association (2006), the Sioux Falls Canaries join the St. Paul Saints and Sioux City Explorers as independent baseball's longest tenured clubs still playing in their original city. All three celebrated their 25th season in 2017.

Since their inaugural season, the Canaries have played their games at Sioux Falls Stadium, often referred to as "The Bird Cage." The ballpark is known for its intimate feel and hitter-friendly dimensions. The right field line stands just 312 feet from home plate, while the left field line is marked at only 313 feet.

The Canaries have featured two of the best teams in the history of the American Association. Their 2008 squad won 60 games and delivered Sioux Falls its first championship in franchise history. The title was clinched in dramatic fashion. First baseman Patrick Reilley singled with the bases loaded in the bottom of the 12th inning of Game Four against the expansion Grand Prairie AirHogs. Outfielder Beau Torbert was named league MVP, and later had his number "7" retired by the organization in 2013.

Two years later, Sioux Falls (rebranded as the Sioux Falls Fighting Pheasants) won 63 games and made a return trip to the American Association Championship Series. Torbert became the first (and to this day, still the only) two-time American Association MVP, flirting with a .400 batting average for much of the season. Torbert eventually settled on a league-best .394 mark, while first baseman Brandon Sing established an American Association single-season record with 27 home runs (since matched or surpassed four times). Reggie Abercrombie became the first (and today, one of only three) player in league history to achieve 20 home runs (22) and 20 stolen bases (34) in one season. The franchise re-adopted the "Canaries" moniker in 2013.

Former long-time Canaries' pitching coach Mike Meyer enters his third season as manager. Meyer was 26-21 for the St. Paul Saints from 2004-06, and helped the Saints win the 2004 Northern League championship. Former Goldeyes' right-hander Ben Moore once again serves as Meyer's pitching coach. Moore holds the American Association's all-time record for wins (55) and strikeouts (701).

After splitting their home schedule in Amarillo, Texas (Potter County Memorial Stadium) and Grand Prairie, Texas (AirHogs Stadium) in 2016, the Texas AirHogs operated as a single entity in 2017, playing all of their home games in Grand Prairie.

The 2016 arrangement saw a merging of the Grand Prairie AirHogs and the Amarillo Thunderheads (previously the Amarillo Sox). The Grand Prairie AirHogs were an American Association expansion team in 2008, and reached the American Association Championship Series during their inaugural season. The AirHogs won the 2011 American Association Championship, overcoming a 2-0 series deficit against the St. Paul Saints.

The Sox joined the American Association in 2011, before rebranding as the Thunderheads for the 2015 season. Prior to 2011, the Sox were known as the Amarillo Dillas, and won three consecutive United League championships from 2008-10.

The AirHogs played under a unique arrangement with the Chinese National Team in 2018. More than half of the AirHogs' roster was comprised of Chinese-born players, while the remaining players were acquired via traditional methods. The partnership was created to help the Chinese players develop against high-level competition, and is expected to continue in 2019.

Former Major League catcher Chris Bando enters his first year as AirHogs' manager. Bando played nine years in the Majors for the Cleveland Indians, Detroit Tigers, and Oakland Athletics. Bando managed the Triple-A Pacific Coast League's New Orleans Zephyrs from 1993-95, and later served as third base and bench coach for the Milwaukee Brewers. Bando's most recent managerial position was in 2012 with the Frontier League's Washington Wild Things.

WINNIPEG GOLDEYES MEDIA POLICIES

CREDENTIALS

To request credentials, please contact Steve Schuster via email at steve@goldeyes.com or phone at (204) 956-3213. All requests must be made no later than six hours prior to the scheduled game time. Day-of-game credentials must be picked up at the Sellors & Associates Reserved Ticket Window adjacent to the Shaw Park box office, beginning four hours prior to game time. Credentials will only be issued to working members of legitimate, news-gathering sources, and must be displayed at all time while inside Shaw Park. A photo ID and signature are required when picking up credentials.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

The Winnipeg Goldeyes' clubhouse will be open to the media one hour prior to batting practice up until the start of batting practice. The clubhouse will then be closed to the media from the start of batting practice until the conclusion of the game. Following the game, the clubhouse will be re-opened to the media within 10 minutes of the final pitch. On days in which a double header is scheduled, the clubhouse will be closed to media between games. The training room inside of the clubhouse is always closed to the media. In the event of a team meeting, the clubhouse is closed to the media until the meeting is concluded. For day games, the clubhouse will only be open after the game itself is completed. The Winnipeg Goldeyes' clubhouse is located at field level behind the Goldeyes' dugout on the third base side.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews may be conducted in the clubhouse prior to batting practice, or on the field after batting practice. No interviews are to be solicited or conducted during batting practice. In-depth interviews requiring additional time must be pre-arranged through the Winnipeg Goldeyes' communications department. The Winnipeg Goldeyes' starting pitcher is not available for pre-game interviews on the day he is scheduled to start. Post-game interviews will be arranged by the Winnipeg Goldeyes' communications department in the media portion of the home clubhouse.

BATTING PRACTICE

Batting practice is open to the media, and the team encourages media members to attend. Media may watch batting practice from field level, and are asked to enter the field through the tunnel entrance behind home plate. Field access to the media is closed one hour prior to the scheduled game time.

POST-GAME

The Winnipeg Goldeyes' clubhouse will be open to the media within 10 minutes of the final pitch. Players requested for an interview will be available in the media portion of the clubhouse. Goldeyes' manager Rick Forney will be available to the media following his post-game interview on the team's radio station.

PRE-GAME MEAL

A complimentary pre-game meal is available for credentialed members of the media. The meal is served two hours prior to the scheduled game time, and is located in the meeting room on the Shaw Park Skysuite level, down the hall and to the right of the press box.

PRESS BOX

Seating in the press box is available for working members of the media, and preferred seating will be reserved for media members who cover the team most frequently. Guests are not permitted in the press box unless permission has been granted by the Winnipeg Goldeyes' communications department. Wireless internet is available.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Accredited photographers may shoot from the photo bays located at each end of the two dugouts. Photographers are asked to only move in and out of these bays between half innings. Photographers are also allowed on the field during batting practice, but are asked to stay in foul territory and between the baselines.

PARKING

Parking passes are available for media with season-long credentials. The media parking lot is located near the security entrance to Shaw Park on the opposite side of the train tracks.

For more information regarding media policies, or questions about interviews, photo requests, statistical information, media ticket orders, or press releases, contact Steve Schuster via email at steve@goldeyes.com or phone at (204) 956-3213.
