HIGH POINT ROCKERS NEWS AND NOTES

Late Inning Magic: The High Point Rockers opened their 2021 home season with a 4-3 comeback victory over the Lancaster Barnstormers at Truist Point. In front of a crowd of 2,266, the Rockers used a near-perfect start from Mitch Atkins to keep the Barnstormer bats in check. Atkins allowed just two hits and struck out seven through five innings, improving the K/9 for starters to 12.5 through five games. Trailing 3-1, Logan Morrison cracked his first home run in a Rockers uniform to lead off the eighth inning with a shot to right-center. The Rockers then used a hit-by-pitch, three walks and a Giovanni Alfonzo RBI groundout to take a 4-3 lead. Brian Clark earned the save in a scoreless ninth to give the Rockers their first home win since September 13, 2019 (628 days).

We're Going Streaking!!: With the win last night, the Rockers extended their winning streak to four games on the young season. The four game win streak is the longest since the team won five in a row from 9/7/19 to 9/13/19 against the Southern Maryland Blue Crabs and Lancaster Barnstormers. Over the last four games, the Rockers have scored 34 runs (8.5 per game) and have outscored opponents by 22 runs. The win also marked the sixth straight win over the Barnstormers at home since 2019, and the fourth straight win overall. The Rockers have outscored Lancaster 23-10 over the last six games at Truist Point, with three of the games being decided by a single run.

'What are earned runs?' - The Bullpen (probably): The Rockers' bullpen added on another four innings without allowing an earned run to a lengthy streak to start the season. The bullpen has not allowed an earned run through 17 innings to start the year and batters are hitting .194 vs. the High Point bullpen. The longest scoreless streak for an individual pitcher is 20.2 innings by Tyler Herron, set back in 2019.

Where are you going? Jake from the Bullpen: The Rockers announced yesterday that Jake Petricka had his contract purchased by the Los Angeles Angels, becoming the eighth Rocker to have their contract purchased by an MLB organization in 2021. Petricka was assigned to the Salt Lake Bees in the AAA-West League, where he joins Preston Palmeiro and Mitch Walding, who both had their contracts purchased from the Rockers earlier this year. The signing sets a new franchise record for contracts purchased by an MLB organization with eight, breaking the record of seven set in 2019.

A Look at the Homestand: The Rockers kick off their 2021 home season with six straight home games including three vs. the Lancaster Barnstormers and three vs. the Gastonia Honey Hunters. The Rockers will play 14 home games throughout the month of June, facing the Lexington Legends, Southern Maryland Blue Crabs and the York Revolution along with Lancaster and Gastonia.
